That afternoon, along with VTIC’s official account, a post appeared on Testa’s official account.

“… ?!”

Embarrassed, she clicked on the description.

-Help the youth head and talk to Testa about your troubles and difficulties in your youth (photo)

Yes. Testa did not perform.

If they perform the stage prepared for the donation concert as it is, the collapse of the stage will inevitably come to mind again.

It is ambiguous because there are no injured members to make it into a narrative of overcoming. Instead of enjoying the stage, there was a possibility that viewers would only think of accidents.

So instead, I chose this method.

Additional content for VCRs!

-Talk to Testa!

I'm talking about trouble counseling, but actually this is… It was a video call fan signing event!!

'Aagh!'

Rabin Kim's fan quickly found an article summarizing the explanation on the timeline.

-If you donate to the fundraising box, choose a member you want and write a story, you can apply. The face of the counselor is hidden, but the story can be broadcast in an anonymous form… .

– And the story is chosen by the members!

duration is only one day.

"… … ."

She looked back at the presentation PPT she was making and tore her hair out.

"Aaaaaa really!"

I don't know all night!

She, who had never won a prize before because of a crazy fansign without conscience, decided to try a futile challenge this time.

Of course, there's a high probability that it won't happen because a lot of people would have applied, but… .

'Kim Rae-bin!'

She turned on Word.

And two days later, when he saw the news of his winning, he roared.

Of course, I had no idea what kind of process Moondae Park went through to plan this.

* * *

I won’t deny it. Surprisingly, unlike hospitalization, living in a pension was quite good. Bae Se-jin seriously persuaded me by saying, ‘Would you like to return the smartphone again?’, but it was bearable.

It was a bit funny, but it was a few days of relaxation rather than boredom.

‘I can’t believe that this difference is because I have a smartphone… ‘

No, I’m not an addict.

It can’t be.

hmm… It must have been because there were so many trivial and non-threatening variables that it wasn’t boring.

“The cat is here… !”

“What pattern is this? The baby has yellow stripes~”

“It looks like water! Weird!”

I nodded my head as I watched Yoo-jin Cha get flustered while trying to pet the stray cat like a dog.

Something like that.

Other than that, it wasn’t a bad life, although it was a little bustling. Exercise, cook, practice drawing.

I thought that I could live like this when I retire someday.

‘Is this the first time since entering this body?’

To put it vulgarly, it is a daily life where you spend time doing whatever you want like an unemployed man on a rich day.

Of course, it can’t stay like this forever, so I gathered them together in the evening after looking at the atmosphere for a few days.

And I just said it out loud.

“I feel comfortable working.”

“… … .”

Let’s go next to the one who doesn’t look at me with eyes like ‘what if’.

“know.”

“… !”

Big Sejin answered without expression.

“But even if you feel uncomfortable, you should rest when you need to. … It was really a doctor’s recommendation. Your lactate level is too high.”

“… !”

“I didn’t lie. You seem to feel that way.”

“… … .”

I looked around at the other guys. Even the one who was the easiest to read his expression was unmoved.

it means truth

“They said that if you use your smartphone too often, it’s better not to use it for a while.”

“I?”

As if they had waited, the answers poured in immediately.

“uh. You are completely addicted.”

“You look for your smartphone as if you were drinking alcohol.”

“… … .”

No, alcohol is only useful for relieving stress, and there are so many things a smartphone can do with it.

But no one refutes it. Cha Yu-jin only shrugged.

At least, Kim Rae-bin quietly made this remark.

“But most modern people have symptoms of dopamine addiction, so I don’t think it’s okay to worry too much!”

“You’re saying that because you’re also addicted to electronics.”

“… ??”

and was sunk

Ryu Cheng-wu took advantage of the gap and started talking. Soft as if it had been prepared for a long time.

“But Mundae could have been embarrassed. yes?”

“… … .”

“I guess we were too embarrassed. I went through a lot before debut… Who didn’t think their lives would be in danger. And in such a supernatural way.”

okay.

That’s why I tried to cooperate with these guys’ attitudes as much as possible, but… .

“Still, I should have said this first, but I think I’m a little late.”

Liu Chengyu smiled and reached out and patted my back.

“Thank you for being safe.”

Something rumbled in my stomach.

“… yes thank you.”

“thank you.”

I hear similar stories everywhere. It’s about to make me cry more each time.

‘Damn it.’

I took a deep breath and answered calmly.

“me too. Thank you. … I’m glad everyone came out safely.”

“okay.”

The atmosphere in the sitting room softened. The strange tension caused by avoiding the topic for several days in the hospital has also disappeared.

Bae Se-jin cleared his throat with his face slightly reddened.

“I think I was too sensitive. Because something unimaginable happens… .”

“Still, wouldn’t it be helpful when acting in similar works later on?”

“no! This should not happen in the future.”

Bae Se-jin stared at me. And seriously asked.

“In the future… Can this happen?”

“I don’t know either.”

“hey!”

“They say it’s unlikely, but to be honest, that means I don’t know. I think we should find out more.”

I honestly thought I was going to scream again.

However, Bae Se-jin just nodded and said this.

“… Yes, thank you for being honest.”

“… !”

“No, it’s not like I’m going to get an answer by questioning you… Anyway, I’ll find out about that too.”

Are you thinking of reading a science fiction novel?

“great! We all thanked each other. You can go like this. Moondae hyung, tell me what you want to say.”

After Cha Yu-jin finished speaking, Lee Se-jin opened her mouth with a wry smile.

“So you want to work at Moondaemun University? What exactly do you want to do?”

It was quite friendly.

‘I guess I can say it right here.’

I don’t even think I had to choose something to do without leaving the pension… what.

“This is it.”

I explained my plans to the members. The listening atmosphere wasn’t bad… .

“Would it be fun?”

Eventually, it passed safely, and our new participation method was announced through our VTIC account.

* * *

[Hello! Thank you for answering the call.]

"Yes, hello!"

Kim Rae-bin's fans swallowed saliva. Inside the screen, Kim Rae-bin's face was seen looking at his own screen. It didn't make much sense. But it's a reality.

It's real!

He said that he won a video call with Kim Rae-bin because he won the story of selling his younger brother!

'Aaagh!'

She tried not to make any weird faces.

'He's so handsome!'

Kim Rae-bin was wearing a small ponytail.

But that doesn't mean it was loosely tied up at home. I could see that she was well dressed, paying attention to her piercings and thick gray knitwear.

And it was paradise to see the secret two-tone inner color of light purple beige ash purple underneath her hair.

Fans groaned.

'This is my country… .'

It’s not a joke, Kim Rae-bin really deserves to run the country well… No, you could be scammed.

Instantly regaining objectivity, she told the story she had prepared as calmly as possible.

“I fought so much with my younger brother… .”

Roughly, it is said that families are collapsing and society is collapsing because of frequent fights with younger siblings since childhood.

Kim Rae-bin, who had been listening intently, nodded earnestly.

[I also went through a lot of conflicts while growing up with my older sister, so I asked to talk to Ji-won because I thought I could help with this grievance.] He asked to talk to me

‘Word choice kills… .’

It’s not a choice, it’s a request… oh anyway

Actually, I don’t need that help, but I was very curious about what kind of help they thought of.

On the screen, Kim Rae-bin opened his handsome mouth with a serious face.

[It would be nice if Ji-won told his younger sister exactly where he was offended.] [

I’ve disappointed my sister quite a few times, too, but I think we can fix that if we give her accurate feedback. Of course it will be cumbersome, but… . Please consider.]

“… … .”

So, does this mean that he faithfully listened to his sister’s admonitions?

‘i envy you.’

Kim Rae-bin’s fan bites his teeth. What on earth did you do to be born as Kim Rae-bin noona?

-Are you really winning? Isn’t it a scam?

-But it’s not like you’re actually seeing it, so no matter what you decorate, you’re not good enough. evil! evil!

-Is it my fault that you’re ugly!

The years I lived with that as my younger brother passed like a panorama.

Pretending not to be interested, I kicked out the guy who was just hanging around and trying to check.

In a word, useless advice that makes people go crazy!

However, Rabin Kim’s fan smiled broadly and nodded.

“I’ll give it a try!”

[…] ! Thank you for saying that!]

I can’t miss Kim Rae-bin being truly moved thanks to him! And really… It was well worth it.

‘Let’s ask him to tell us his anecdote!’

In the end, he will also bring out a cute cheering phrase for himself.

Rabin Kim’s fans gave themselves a strong motivation.

and the same time.

A room on the 3rd floor of the pension.

[Hello.]

“… Hello sister.”

Park Moon-dae also started the first video call with a cold sweat feeling. What you see on the screen… .

[My concern in adolescence was being compared to my older sister.]

Ryu Seo-jin.

He is the younger brother of Ryu Seo-rin, who was the author of < Idol Inc. >, and a senior in the journalism department who was in the same photo club as me during the days of Ryu Gun-woo and was a good drinker.

[Oh, I’m Puppy… No, just call me Ryu Seo-jin.]

… And it was the twin home of Park Moon-dae and Lee Se-jin.

He knew it now too.

‘Is it true?’

Chapter 438

If I can’t debut, I’ll get sick to death Episode 438

A senior from a club who used to drink alcohol suddenly appears as a fan of mine on a video call.

And this moment when my job is an idol.

Very embarrassing.

However, the mouth trained by many years of work experience makes the right sound.

“… yes. Seojin noona.”

[Yes.]

I’m going crazy.

When I saw Ryu Seo-jin’s face on the screen, which looked satisfied, I became more disturbed.

Although I remembered what that senior said at a drinking party, so I was able to successfully join the karaoke casting for < Azusa >.

‘That senior is an idol… Did you like it?’

I was busy making a living, so I didn’t know what the guys in the club like, but I think they mainly took pictures for their portfolios.

I’m sure I’ve never been given a job to film as a substitute.

however… .

‘just… Was it a secret for social life?’

It was even home.

If it is “Puppy Bear” that uploads pictures of Lee Se-jin and Park Moon-dae, it is an account that has taken many shots worthy of the name so much that I remember the name.

‘Looking at the interval between posting pictures and operating guidelines, it seemed that Testa was never the first idol.’

I don’t know if I didn’t know because I wasn’t interested or if that senior hid it well.

Anyway.

‘… Somehow, the composition seemed particularly natural.’

Was it because you learned something similar in the club? no let’s stop ‘Work, work.’

You should think of it as a grateful fan who participated in the event.

You can’t let anything weird creep in during a real-time video call that’s being recorded.

‘If you think only as a fan… .’

But here’s the question. Why did you put the story in me?

That’s not a big deal.

‘I like Sejin, but wasn’t I included in the film to increase the scale of sales?’

Then I realized what had happened.

‘… I couldn’t set the limit on 1 member application per person because the process was rushed.’

If you have a meticulous personality, you could have made a customized story for each member and put it in.

In this case, the Department of Journalism and Broadcasting is unconditionally advantageous.

… And the story that senior, no fan, told me is… .

-Can I really accept and love myself now that I took a similar career path as my sister in high school?

I wrote a very plausible story, comparing my experience of competing with my sister and my own low self-esteem to my experience of debuting in first place through a survival contest.

Of course, the identity of the older sister is Ryu Seo-rin, the writer of < Azusa >.

[First of all, my sister is a person with a very strong sense of purpose and good drive.]

I agree.

I almost twitched my eyes thinking of that aggro artisan writer who was in full swing.

However, he nodded his head rather carefully without showing off.

“You are a wonderful person.”

amaze yourself

[yes. So I think it was a bit difficult for me to work in the same field. It made me compare.]

Ryu Seo-jin didn't even spit on his mouth and told the reconstructed story like a bridal department. It means a story like a fabricated cover letter.

Still, I could see a big trend, so I was comfortable with the answer.

"I think I thought that too when I first went to Idol Survival, looking at the other contestants."

As I calmly boarded the flow, it gradually got better as if I was broadcasting a script.

And by the time the end approached, I had completely regained my pace.

"… Seeing that we are talking about our worries, I think that Seo Jin noona is just as good at driving."

It is obvious, but it ended with a beautiful conclusion that it is okay to believe in yourself more and not compare yourself to those around you.

And the fans on the screen listen seriously, even though it must be an idol's obvious broadcast-style feedback on a self-novel-level story.

"… … ."

okay.

Whether it's a senior or not, don't forget that that person is a hardcore fan who is willing to spend money and time on me… .

[Then, can I get the dog version of Mundae Fighting?]

My mouth trembled.

"… sure."

'X-foot real.'

I don't know what to call this. Shame?

“go for it!”

But I was happy to pick up one cheek and flap my hands over my head to cheer them on.

I lost my mind, but after taking a few more motions unique to the fan signing event, the first call ended successfully.

-Tirik!

“… … .”

I feel like I’ve become ashes.

I was drained of energy and lay down on the floor for a while. The staff didn’t stop me. The door just burst open.

“Moondaemundae This is fun, right? It’s a bit meaningful~”

He exclaims quite excitedly, as if the guy who was hosting the room next door was waiting outside the door.

“I did it with your fan.”

“… ??”

It’s a pity that even if he came in a little prematurely, he would have benefited from the time he posted.

* * *

I was a little freaked out at the first ride, but there was nothing unreasonable about this job itself.

How many minutes do you sit at the pension with the staff and talk to the fans? I’ll do it even if I don’t take the money.

Even one member has only 7 fans. This is because, in order to select a video worthy of appearing on a concert VCR, it was agreed that one or two people would be picked up by receiving that number of famous people.

‘I think I could have pulled a little more.’

It’s a schedule of talking on the phone for 5 to 10 minutes per person and taking a 10-minute break in the middle, so it’s over in 2 hours. I feel like I’ve picked less young mulberries for what I’ve done.

I looked at the screen and smiled and nodded.

[Have you ever had a hard time staying at the dorm?]

No matter what answer you give, it’s a minefield, but I know there’s no malice.

“hmm… There was a time when the members were not allowed to enter the room when insects came out, so we stayed together in the living room.”

The answer is an alumni book answer that seems to be related.

[omg! Who?]

Good, you caught it.

We finished another video call by sharing an anecdote like that.

I picked and randomly selected several stories with a clear cause and effect structure among the stories that people could relate to.

So, like before, half of the people who hadn’t even thought about talking to an idol on the phone were able to do so, so it was quite refreshing.

Of course, there were also faces I saw often.

Surprisingly, the first home run came out in the fourth or fifth.

[Hello, Moondae!]

“Is it the story that other idols have fallen in love with me?”

[…] ?! oh no… ??]

This is a joke. It was a story about dropping out of high school due to career problems with a friend.

However, less than 3 minutes after the start, it turned into a typical fan signing event rather than consultation, but I accepted the conversation without interrupting.

[Thank you so much Moondae, we'll see you again!]

I just wanted to do that.

And I felt it all over again.

'… It's been a while.'

It's been a long time since I've done something like this with Testa. In terms of experience, it has been well over a year.

Even after the system was destroyed and returned, we didn't release an album and only toured.

It was a new feeling to feel so directly that I was a testa.

"… … ."

Let's continue to work hard without taking anything out. After calmly correcting my hair style, I stared at my smartphone again.

It was already the last consultation.

And this person…

[Oh hello! Wow!]

"… !"

What was reflected on the screen was the face I had seen a few days ago.

The person I saw with the light of a cheering stick between the dark concrete walls.

“… hello.”.

I am a fan of being a graduate student

He has a bright face who has never experienced a collapsed building. I clasped my hands under the table.

The excited fan shared her personal stories before speaking out about her concerns.

It was a story I already knew. It was because those were the words I heard over the collapsing furnishings room at that time.

It seems that he originally had such a bright and optimistic personality.

I said nonchalantly.

“… You are a graduate student.”

[Yes!]

I was worried about my studies, so I chose it because I thought that a new perspective would come out if I talked about it from the perspective of Park Moon-dae, who took the GED.

[But I do not recommend… .]

It was about graduate school.

I smiled faintly.

“I think it is a great thing to have research or study that you want to do. So, noona is a great person.”

[Uhhhhhhhhhhhhhh.]

It sounds a bit strange, but I hear it every time at a fan signing event, so I wonder what it is.

I listened and responded with the utmost sincerity, just as I did with those before me.

When we announced the end, the graduate student said this with her eyes shining with a face that had less tension.

[thank you. really… ! Actually, I'm still thinking about it, but I think I get the strength to overcome these worries from Moondae and Testa, really.]

A fan on the screen smiles brightly.

"No, thank you very much."

It really wasn't bad.

And after hanging up the phone, I realized that this fan didn't ask me for any lines or poses.

You couldn't pick

'this' .

Maybe I'll see you at the next fan signing event.

Anyway, the video call that started at 7:00 p.m. ended almost at night.

After going out of the room and taking the ending cut… It was the end of today's shoot.

"You worked hard~"

"It was fun!"

Thanks to the hard work, the staff also have bright expressions. The same goes for the members.

“I think it would be nice to hold a fan meeting occasionally in this format. After all, standing in line at the site doesn’t feel like having a one-on-one conversation.”

“It’s about diversifying the way we meet our fans by using modern culture.”

“I like… !”

It must have been a lot of fun.

I smiled and turned the screen to find today’s review.

– I was asked to recommend a book for my major to Bae Se, but I do not take any questions.

– Requested a heart challenge from Chung-woo

. call me sister Clavicle knit Son Min-soo It seems that I had a memorable experience here as well.

I flipped through my smartphone while reading Keun Se-jin’s review of ‘KakaoTalk Boyfriend Profiler’ and Cha Yu-jin’s review of ‘Top 1 Spanish Instructor for Travel’.

The last guy asked quietly.

“Dae-hyung Moon, are you happy right now?”

“okay.”

It means that it is thanks to the person who stole the smartphone, so please remember it well and do something delicious.

And not only Cha Yu-jin, but the atmosphere was already on the verge of a dinner party.

“Can you deliver here? If not, I can go out and buy it.”

“Oh, we’ll go. I was just about to go to the mart.”

The donation concert staff who interrupted the conversation shouted that they would be happy to buy pizza.

I’m grateful, but I wonder if he’s running away because he doesn’t like going out with strangers. As an employee, it’s a natural thing.

Anyway, it was after seeing off the staff who went out like that.

“Then let’s set the table before we come… .”

“Ohhhh the cat is here again! We are in charge of this cat!”

“Eujin-ah, Bae Se-jin hyung is allergic to cat hair… .”

“Oh.”

open for a while… No, when I passed the cat version and proceeded to prepare for the dinner party to some extent.

Ding-dong

The doorbell rang. The guys who put their cups raise their heads.

“hmm?”

“Are you here already?”

Could it be that it was 10 minutes ago when the staff left. The pizza wouldn’t even have gone into the oven.

‘Looks like he left something behind.’

“I will go.”

I stepped out to the sin closest to the front door.

Ding-Dong.

Because I knew.

I quickly changed my pace and immediately grabbed the front doorknob.

Click.

And light and sound poured in from the crack of the open door.

“hi!”

This voice… .

“Surprise~”

“Wow applause”

“… !!”

I stiffened.

VTIC guys in plain clothes were standing outside the front door of the pension.

what.

“Hello Mr. Mundae!”

What is the situation?

Cheongryeo smiled brightly and waved her hand.

Even thinking about it, I want this to be a fucking description, but it is reality.

And the cause looks backward.

Glowing lights above the camera twinkle. And holding that light… These are the staff who left earlier.

‘oh.’

At the same time, grasping the situation, I slowly lowered my hand that was about to clenched into a fist.

Actually, as a surprise, we agreed to do a simple stage at the end of the donation concert VCR… ..

‘… Did you intend to do this?’

I didn’t expect that we would be surprised like this.

“I’m here for a special stage with Testa!”

In front of the lighting, Jin Chae-yul smiled and waved his hand.

‘Is there anything you can’t see after going to the army?’

It was a strange, somewhat upsetting reunion. But… .

“… … welcome.”

There’s nothing wrong with it.

I smiled and stepped aside.

Chapter 439

If you can't debut, you'll get a deadly disease Episode 439

Controversial PR synergy effect.

VTIC's donation concert was carried out in a precise and precise timing due to the ex-Reset Syndrome, which only idols had done for a lifetime.

Of course, he was the one who planned the concert, but

'Hmm.'

Zhu Dan nodded his head as he saw everything going smoothly.

The enormous descending event in which the building collapsed was restored as if it had never happened.

If the denouement ended so perfectly and happily, of course, there would be a success story without this kind of tension right after.

'Everything will go well… .'

"Painting"

"Yes."

As soon as Joo Dan heard the voice, he quickly put his smartphone away.

Not because I felt habitual pressure from the leader hyung, but because it was a reasonable request.

And, in fact, if you think about it at the level of the species, wouldn't it be natural if he felt a certain amount of intimidation and fear?

This is because Cheong-Ryeo has such a blue and young face, but she is actually a being who has built up her ego for a tremendous amount of time.

From time immemorial, there must be a reason why humans have respected their elders who have survived a long time.

'Let's stay calm.'

Judan murmured in his mouth invisibly.

And the party, Chung-rye… He glanced at the caster's behavior and said.

"I would have said it was fine even if you didn't check."

"It is a hobby."

"hmm."

Instead of saying something like, 'If you're not going to do it, don't do it,' Chung-ryo looked at him slightly and then left.

It was a tacit permission.

Pretty generous… no, it's not generous Permission! Even for a leader, it was an excessive abuse of authority.

'But even before debut, I had a character like that.'

It's not like you're shooting at people directly, it's like you're pressing down from a high place.

'As a leader of a group, he's the type with good efficiency.'

So, hasn't VTIC been around for this long?

'I thought I'd be ruined by the time the contract was renewed.'

Another member was ruined.

Ju Dan gradually decided to postpone that thought. And instead, I remembered the reactions to the VTIC concert on the Internet that I had seen before.

First of all negative.

-Didn't you follow the Testa Donation Con?

┗ Did you rent a donation cone?

A minority opinion said that they remembered the donation concert immediately after Testa's car accident, which was held on the same platform. Although it almost disappeared thanks to Testa's guest news.

Of course, I admit that they used a fairly novel method called 'audience participation type'.

'But it's a minor policy that only works for Internet users.'

I mean, what VTIC planned was a donation concert with a more classic and splendid taste.

And it worked.

-It's really good to see

-It's been a while since I've had a concert with only the songs I know, and I'm excited to hear the live so well haha

. Testa's (already announced) surprise VCR appearance in Part 2 was quite an interesting element.

[Park Moon-dae: This is Mundaeng, the daily counselor]

[Maltese: (Soundless screaming]

The Maltese dog character with its front paws covered its mouth. This is the fan who requested consultation with Park Moon-dae. The animal character of the member who consults for anonymity is synthesized like VR. It was quite cute and heartwarming for the contestants to express their concerns, and it was also funny.

‘It’s a humorous device that adjusts the tempo in the middle of an intense stage.’

[Sunahyeon: First, drink a glass of warm water.]

[Rudolph: (Hiccups)]

[Ahyeon Sun: It will help with that hiccup…]

“Oh, you’re so cute!”

working so hard.” I nodded my head a few times during the filming.

Of course, this reaction itself was also content to be released soon. Exactly after they… enlisted.

Oh my God

, ‘enlistment.’

I thought I was going to quit, but strangely, I am continuing.

Judan nodded his head.

‘…Still, I don’t think there will be many fans going back to outsiders because there’s nothing to consume in the meantime.

‘ When I thought of the cinematic trailer for connection, I became convinced.

Of course, it was made by

Cheongryeo .

‘When did I prepare it?’

It may have been difficult.

Anyway, the screen moved on to the next one.

When the VCR was over and the stage was supposed to come out, what appeared was…

[Visit to Testa’s counseling site!]

Suddenly, VTIC made a surprise visit to Testa’s pension.

– Heck,

this was a true surprise. If Judan checked the Internet in his smartphone

, he would have seen countless exclamation marks and excited reactions.

[Huh!?]

[Huh? Seniors?]

Testa felt like her eyes would pop out as well, since this was something we hadn’t agreed on. ‘

Hmm .’

all. It was all for great reactions.

-The kids are going to pass out hahahaha

-Look at me pretending not to be surprised at the door. My Precious Sorry dog ㅠㅠ -Bae

Se-jin ran out with socks hahahahahaha

-Is this the Testa dorm?

ㄴThe accommodation is open, so it seems like they rented it somewhere. After saying hello, they had a short conversation about the donation concert and its meaning while sharing pizza.

After that… It is a scenario in which the spirit is matched. First of all, Testa's Park Moon-dae got lucky.

[Anyway, we are very sorry that we couldn't participate on stage.]

[Sorry! I even consulted with him to somehow participate!]

Ryu Cheong-wu opened his mouth with a smile while the testers looked back shyly at each other.

[thank you. Then I'll just do what I regret.]

[Then… .]

Chae-yul answered with a bright face. He was the right member to do just that.

[How about shortening it here? The stage!]

[!]

[There are lights here… Also, they are all prepared performance artisans!]

[Wahhaha!]

The stage that looked like an impromptu was confirmed.

[Let's go!]

It was already after sunset outside. It was a pension in nature, far from the night view, but it had one advantage.

Like a pension, it was a large front yard and lamp lighting that was spread all over it.

[Ohhh!]

[You've had a consultation in a wonderful place.]

VTIC and Testa, who casually ran out excitedly to the front yard, paused for a while but smiled hihi.

[What are we dancing?]

[I didn't think of that!]

And Testa's Lee Se-jin smiles as she puts her arms around the members' shoulders.

[Since it's the seniors' concert~ It's natural that the seniors' songs are popular!]

[Yeah~]

Of course, it's a lineup that's all prepared.

Still, he was a sociable person to the extent that he felt uncomfortable digesting that line so naturally. Ju Dan nodded.

Anyway, the idols stood around the front yard applauding the selected song.

[Music please!]

The night grass shone under the twinkling lights of the lamps and the stage lights turned on by the staff.

When the familiar intro plays on a dark background

[Ah!]

[I love this!]

Exciting and upbeat steps were mixed with the idols who jumped out.

And the intro resonates like a group song.

[Hey parter!

I wonder if you're thinking of me]

Night Sign.

VTIC's immortal masterpiece, released at the same time as Testa's debut song, was spread in the front yard.

It was a song with a dark and languid sexy concept, so it was excluded from the donation concert set list, but it was different here.

[Remember

Night after night]

Even this song shows off the strengths of a hit song when the atmosphere is high like people running at a party at a concert.

A song everyone knows.

A new man who comes from empathy.

Even though it was originally a song that wasn't choreographed like that.

The two groups laughed and mingled with each other, taking turns stepping forward and following the choreography.

It was a picture of VTIC, who sometimes steps back a bit and deliberately gives his juniors a place to go, and Testa, who does his best to enjoy the songs of his seniors without crossing the line.

Thanks to the mix of members who have already been with each other, the balance seemed easier and more natural.

And let’s be the chorus. [

Remember my eyes

until the end of the night]

They formed a team on the spot and performed their representative choreography.

Because it came from the impromptu party-like atmosphere from before, the perfect movement seemed more cool.

[Um Um]

The camera work caught each member laughing or enjoying their face.

It was an exciting movement that didn’t fit the song, but oddly enough.

[Like a night sign]

Gestures and great impromptu choreography skills filled the song with a fast tempo.

But when I solved it, I definitely solved it.

[Woo!]

As a group, the idols performed the choreography and laughed broadly while copying the exclamation-like sound.

“ah… .”

“That time was so much fun!”

The VTIC members, who were filming reactions while watching the screen, made a fuss thinking about that time.

And Joo Dan turned his head.

Cheongryeo was also smiling faintly.

“okay.”

[Night sign!]

After the last phrase I shouted in unison. The members checked each other’s movements and posed as an acting agent for the ending that was several times larger.

Huiik – Fang!

And firecrackers exploded in the sky above them, ending the impromptu dance.

with laughter.

[Wow!]

[Thank you!]

The color of the fireworks dyed behind the waving face was emotionally captured.

It was the mid-finale that was perfect for a donation concert that left a strong aftertaste.

The audience reaction was also appropriate.

-TTTT

-It was nice to see, it made me very emotional

-I didn’t expect to participate like this. I think it was well put in -Korean idols are really amazing. How can they match it right away like that ?

One question remains.

– Jane, why are you close?

* * *

“Ah~ It was fun!”

“Have fun and go!”

After the VTIC guys raided and took a video of the performance in the yard of the pension.

As it was near the end of the concert, busy VTIC started preparing to leave immediately. And Testa, like a junior, is seeing off with sincerity.

I was just recreating the stage.

‘It was fine.’

It’s been a long time since I cheated like I heard the song selection for the first time on the spot, but it came out very naturally since they are all career workers.

If I had to choose among the VTIC songs, it would have been safer to choose the hit songs from before Testa debuted, but in fact… There will be no problems.

‘They’re going to the army.’

All non-romantic problems in idol group relationships come from competitive spirit.

Since I am no longer a competitor due to my hiatus, the fans will respond more generously.

It was then.

“Mr. Moondae!”

“yes.”

“Hey, we’re back to using honorifics!”

Jin Chae-yul, who changed clothes, smiled.

“Can I call you on vacation? We still see each other often. In that case, let go of words like before!”

“I’m always good.”

Of course, if there is a problem, I will be busy.

Anyway, Chae-yul nodded vigorously, then slightly lowered her head and spoke softly as if in a whisper.

“And after we all enlist, Jaehyun hyung is alone. Mentally.”

Even before I enlisted, I don’t think it would have changed that much.

“Your brother and Kong will keep in touch, right? I’ve said it before, but since I’m a mountain god like Winak, I don’t think I’ll even eat because of that!”

No, Cheong-Ryeo will probably eat well, focusing on protein and fiber.

But I nodded.

“I’ll try my best.”

“is it so!”

Jaeyul left after hugging with a bright face.

Then, Ju Dan, who was listening, quietly approached and opened his mouth with a mysterious face.

“There are some emotional and irrational parts of Chae Yul-hyung. It’s because we attach too much importance to interpersonal relationships.”

“… … .”

“Still, socially, I tend to accept his words more easily. It’s amazing.”

No,

anyway, I said Chae-yul’s words… I decided not to forget. That much.

and after a few days.

VTIC’s donation concert ended in great success.

And as a surprise event, they even released a nice fan song MV, and the rest of the members except Cheongryeo actually enlisted that month.

Looking at the photos in the article, I felt a little odd. Is it because not so long ago, I was in a group with young guys under the age of 20?

“By the time we go, popular culture will also pass the bill to replace military service… .”

“Hyung, if your expectations are high, you will be disappointed.”

“… … .”

Our turn will be back soon, but there are still a few years left. Before that, you can get a national medal that allows you to postpone your enlistment, and ‘I’ll have to do it for my next goal.’

I nodded.

“Why are you nodding?”

“I thought a good song would come out.”

I put down my smartphone in the middle of the studio.

I saw Sun Ah-hyun recording in the booth with a nervous expression on her face.

And the next hitter, Lee Se-jin, glanced at the news of VTIC on my smartphone, and as soon as our eyes met, he spoke in tears.

“Um~ January comeback?”

“January comeback.”

Conditions for winning national decorations?

When it comes to KPOP, there are definitely precedents in the past.

Global recognition and evaluation.

You can’t just be great. You have to be the best in the genre.

The top tier that VTIC has been holding onto so far.

‘I’ll eat them all during the military service period.’

We will start with the special stage of this year’s awards ceremony when VTIC disappeared.

“Not long.”

We neatly started preparing for empty house robbing.

So the end of the year has come.

If I can't debut, I'll get sick to death Episode 440

It's already been more than 5 years since I debuted and celebrated the end of the year. At this point, a pattern emerges where everyone prepares for awards ceremonies and year-end music programs.

1. The type that prepares leisurely.

With many years of experience, the mind is relaxed and the body is the type to roll hard.

Or because you roll your body hard, you can afford it.

"Whoa, even if you take a little more time to learn the next move… I think it will be fine."

"Okay~ Then I'll skip it and fix it from part B to what we do today. Chung Woo-hyung, are you okay?"

"huh. Shall we increase the practice time then?"

"I see."

Most of them belong to it. Next.

2. The type that prepares impatiently.

Because he has a lot of worries about making mistakes, he is the type to be immersed in anguish whenever he is comfortable worrying about the number of various cases.

“Is it because of me that you are trying to learn over time? No, don’t answer. Either way, you can do your best. Yes, because it gave me a lot of time… .”

“Brother, I think if you allocate that much time to the bridge movement, it means that the choreography points are shifted there! Then my pre-arrangement would sound unnatural… … ”

“Stop.”

… If you cut it moderately, you will be influenced by the number 1 guys and calm down.

“When you rest, don’t think about anything.”

“but… .”

“Do not.”

I made their break time like a break time.

And the next type to which the smallest number belongs is… .

3. The type to play leisurely

[You know hyung, right? Cramming is like a kind of cheating, right?]

“Okay?”

“Hi-Hi!”

He practiced because his colleague told him to do it, but in fact, other than matching the group dance, his movements and gestures are at the same level as he is on stage.

“Originally, your own skills are important!”

“… Does that mean there is no point in practicing for those who can’t do that?”

“Nope! Effort will become your original skill.”

“Hmmmm.”

You have a good mouth.

Anyway, these guys got together and the preparations for the year-end are going well as always.

“stop!”

“Eat Rabin Kim!”

I looked back at the practice video I had just taken, avoiding the dried sweet potato that Yujin Cha had thrown at Raebin Kim. I’m fine.

“… … hmm.”

And in fact, if you categorize it like this, there was also the last number.

4 times.

He’s the type to play while nervous.

However, there is no such person in this group.

This is a situation that everyone experiences once while preparing for the exam, but it is a slander that heals naturally when you receive money.

In other words, we who receive money are not applicable.

However, I am in other fields where I do not receive money. It’s because there are situations where you can’t use your hands even though you’re nervous.

“Could it be that riding a national medal is the next abnormal condition?”

-yes?

Weekend night after practice. I lingered in the bathtub drinking a cold non-alcoholic beer.

Of course, I'm not doing this alone like a madman, I'm holding a waterproof smartphone.

"Isn't it strange that I care so much about a medal that allows me to postpone for a few years, not military exemption?"

-Because it's not. Bro, not really!

The big moon beyond the phone almost screamed. It's been a long time since I've been communicating with voice, but it definitely makes me feel different from the chat pop-up.

Anyway, this guy's opinion is the same. No matter how much I searched, I couldn't find anything strange about me.

And the reason I'm obsessed with national decorations is… .

-… Basically, everyone doesn't want to go to the military.

– As time approaches.

that… yes.

Even since I go twice, I become obsessed with it as time approaches, like an unavoidable physiological phenomenon.

The guy who did it originally knows more X-like things.

By the way.

"You don't know all that well about a guy who won't go anymore."

-sorry.

I’m sorry, but I’ve changed with my old body, but I need to get a military exemption to make ends meet.

And I know that what this guy knows well is not the military.

“No, I’m sure you’re convinced by just looking at my opponent.”

-yes! That’s it!

The big moon explained without breathing.

-I really immersed myself to the point where it almost became the status window again, and thoroughly looked it over, but there is no trace of system 1/4 on you! really!

Yes, I know.”

the wall will come down I admitted, lowering the call volume.

“Then what about mission failure?”

-… It’s not.

Because I knew.

I decided not to bring up this subject any more after Keundal rapped that he would check my condition book regularly.

‘If I feel bad like last time, I’ll have to run unconditionally in the direction where there are no people.’

And as this process has passed, the exciting year-end tax settlement period has finally arrived.

“Moondaemundae~ December 20th is the payment date for the 3rd quarter, right?”

“uh.”

No, not this settlement, but the time when what we have done over the past year is evaluated by grades, which are quantitative figures, and awareness, which is qualitative figures.

okay. Finally, it's the awards ceremony.

"Artist of the Year… Testa!"

"Congratulations!"

"This is the album target testa."

"The last target singer of the year is… congratulations. Testa."

Puffup!

Numerous firecrackers, drum roll calls, and testa's representative song of the year, which is played with cheers and background sounds.

"thank you! We will work harder!"

"We will comeback soon!"

Shouts and applause cheers.

At each awards ceremony they attended, each of them neatly received one target item. This is because the company did not send out awards ceremonies that do not give the grand prize.

Well, that's efficient.

And at the company I returned to, I was greeted by people from the same company while moving to take promotional photos displaying the trophies.

"brother! Hey~"

Spacer Newly debuted female idol, AR team staff, management team leader…

until beforehand.

“congratulations!”

“Congratulations… .”

It is an amazing industry that celebrates even when competitors look at you with eyes that want to break your head and take the target trophy as mine.

“… Seong Ha-rin, my junior? Do you hate us?”

“I guess so.”

Anyway, the end of the year was pretty fun without any special incidents.

Is there anyone who doesn’t like receiving an award for doing well? It was well-received as much as it prepared a special stage.

-The Testa Saber stage is crazy.

-What do you mean by that? sword dance? I almost drool while watching –

It was the taste of the heyday, like the end of hardship and adversity on the stage of Testa T1A, which is currently being built into popular real-time videos .

… Of course, unfortunately, it does not mean that we won the grand prize in all target fields.

The sound source is Youngrin’s album, VTIC.

Even after VTIC went to the army, this composition was still solid.

Because the leader stayed and attended the awards ceremony.

“thank you.”

Chung Ryeo came to the most prestigious awards ceremony at the end of this year wearing a navy blue semi-suit for the red carpet, not a stage outfit.

“I would like to give all the congratulations and joy of receiving awards to the members I am grateful for who are faithfully fulfilling their duties.”

He didn’t seem shy or in a hurry to attend alone.

Instead, as always, it was appropriate without the slightest tension, and there seemed to be no gaps in it.

And I also threw out this hint.

“We will show you what you expect next year.”

Wow!

“thank you.”

Applause rang towards Cheongryeo, who lowered her head slightly. Keun Se-jin, who had a respectful smile, believed in the magnificent BGM and whispered.

“You mean you’re going to release a solo album?”

“huh.”

I’m going to dogfight again.

Besides, if it’s that guy, it’s like hinting at the VTIC group or sneaking in songs that will later be arranged into group songs as build-up… I will bet on the ‘Colorful K-Pop Star Award’.

I stared at the sloppy-looking plaque on the table.

It is an item that was suddenly created this year to appease the sponsoring company. We got it without any reason or grades.

‘In the time to make something like this, I’ll make a rookie award or subdivide it.’

Still, it will probably disappear next year, so isn’t it rare?

“yes.”

Even Chung-ryeo, whom I met backstage, praised this award.

I politely handed over the plaque to the staff who took care of the award. Then Cheongryeo, who had been watching it without much agitation, opened her mouth.

nonsensical words.

“Didn’t you hear the good news?”

what?

“Does your dog give birth to puppies?”

“Hmm junior, did you fall asleep during science class?”

I mean what bullshit. This is the same sentiment.

I looked at him to get it right. Cheong-rye stared at me as if she was thinking for a moment, then smiled slightly.

“Um, it doesn’t matter.”

“yes?”

“No, I mean I want you to let me know if there is any good news.”

why.

“Because I’m curious.”

With that said, he left the awards ceremony in his car. And sent a short video via text message. with a message.

-happy birthday. (Video)

“… … .”

The video was about a dog receiving a new cushion instead of a broken one.

‘What do you mean?’

Of course, I thought it would be fun if asked, so I left it alone.

At this point, you must have learned that if anything makes me X, then I become X too.

Anyway, the last Music Awards held that year ended with numerous temporary awards put in for award distribution.

All that remains… .

“We are making a comeback!!”

Yes.

It’s a new activity in the new year.

We will make a comeback in January when all the results can be fully reflected.

And we plan to use a method that can draw much more attention than regular music broadcasts and spend a lot of time.

as soon as.

“We will make a comeback at the awards ceremony in January.”

“Yeah!”

Even though we already know, the reaction is hot. It was clear that everyone was excited because it was a comeback after a long time.

In fact, there was almost pressure from the head office to make a comeback at ToneA in December, but an offer came in. Because that's their awards ceremony.

But we vetoed that opinion.

"It was good that you protested that you couldn't pick up the quality of the stage until then!"

"A correct judgment has been made!"

"Happy New year Comeback? It's the best!"

… It may seem a little overly excited, but it was amazing to see them humming and practicing all night, already intoxicated with the taste of victory.

"… good. Yes, I think it will work out unconditionally!"

"brother! I have a jinx!"

"… ?!"

"just joke."

"hey!"

So, on Monday, January 9th, right before our comeback, we will go on a New Year's Eve late-night radio schedule.

Of course, this is all calculated behavior.

"It's not really publicity, it's kind of viral."

"I like how it's a little anomaly without being overly daring!"

Talk is the main content, so we can say as much as we want to say. Isn't it an annual car to be scared of on the radio now?

And I want to give the fans the pleasure of guessing and guessing which album will come out.

Because it is a limited medium, there is no worry that the promotional effect will be consumed there.

'It's a kind of eve.'

I smiled and said hello in the media room in front of the radio booth.

"i look forward to."

"Wow! yes!"

The writers and staff welcomed the group more than expected, and everything went smoothly.

"The testers are scheduled to deploy in 16 minutes!"

"yes!"

We sat down on a sofa outside and waited for entry. As it was a surprise appearance, it was planned to make it feel like an intrusion.

"Moondae, this… ."

"ah. thanks."

I rubbed the stress ball Seon Ah-hyun held out.

And slowly blinked his eyes.

'There's nothing to do during this waiting time.'

You may miss the timing while thinking about something else, so this is the time when you wake up and do nothing at the same time.

All you can do is organize in your head what to say on the radio.

blink.

‘First of all, say hello and manage the audio… ‘

Blink.

‘Kim Rae-bin was excited and made sure not to spoil the song too much.’

Blink-bak

‘The last time I said hello, Bae Se-jin… .’

blink.

I see a dark ceiling. I closed and opened my eyes again.

blink.

It is as it is.

“… … .”

It’s dark for a second?

“… !!”

I got up. And I realized I was lying down.

‘what?’

It was a bed. no bed?

‘what’s this.’

I groped my hand and got under the bed.

‘fire.’

Beep.

When you press the button on the wall, the light comes on.

And the scene of a comfortable bedroom was revealed.

"… … !"

A room with a poster of Testa.

I don't think I've seen the structure anywhere, but I think first of all… .

I mean, I suddenly woke up in a different place.

"Whoa."

I took a deep breath.

Honestly, I've been through all sorts of things now, so I didn't think I'd be surprised if something crazy happened… .

'No matter what, what could happen without a sign like this?'

No pop-ups, no status windows, not even any psychological signs!

'First of all, from the status window… '

It was then.

[Hyung!]

"Ugh."

A voice rang in my head. The vibration-like sound contains meaning and 'vibration?'

And I realized that the vibration through which meaning is transmitted is something I have already experienced.

When Keun-dal, who was studying public examinations with Ryu Gun-woo's body, sometimes lost the initiative and I used my body.

"… no way."

hey let's do this

I held back my sleep and thought I wanted to reply to this voice in my head.

OK.

Whiik.

Strange calculations and processes pass in an instant in my head, and then a pop-up appears in front of my eyes.

[_____]

What is this?

[What is this_]

Stop knowing.

'This is a chat pop-up.'

That's what the big moon used to send me.

And the meaning is one.

"Damn it."

I realized that my voice was familiar in a different way, and then I picked up my smartphone and checked my face with the front camera.

"… … ."

That's Ryu Gun-woo, X-foot… .

“Damn it.”

[brother? Could it be that hyung is my body right now?]

“Yes!”

Hey, I have no system left!

I think that thought just went to the pop-up chat, but I skipped it… Let’s think what can I do?

‘Connect’

Keundal can access the status window of Park Moon-dae! while sharing views.

I don’t know if I can do it though. let’s try

‘that is… Is it okay if I call the status window?’

I focused my thoughts.

Park Moondae status window system access connection… .

connection.

[-CONNECT-]

And.

Visions and sensations come to mind. It was the sense of Moondae Park, who is on standby for the radio.

It was right that I could use the sense sharing that Daedal said.

‘after.’

Fortunately, it was only for a moment that I felt relieved.

… A hologram appeared in the shared vision of Moondae Park.

The familiar status window pop-up.

[Unexpected!]

Abnormal state mission failed: Return to original state

-Everything back to normal as if nothing had happened

: Until the end 23:59:59 (1day)

"… … ."

[I'm really sorry, I don't know what's going on! All I can hear here is that the mission failed… .]

And I instinctively realized what this was all about.

Ah X feet.

"It was with you."

[Yes??]

"You said it was."

This damn system 1/4 status ailment was triggered by him, not me… .

Even with the body changing 10 minutes before the radio stand-by!

[Aagh!]

That was the beginning.

Chapter 441

Episode 441

“Sucking.”

I took a deep breath and exhaled. Regardless, Ryu Gun-woo’s face reflected on the smartphone screen moved accordingly.

… It’s a situation where you can’t stay calm, but let’s try to sort it out as calmly as possible.

1. Moondae Park (B) and Gunwoo Ryu (Keundal) have switched bodies.

2. Moondae Park is the main vocalist of a group 1 idol group and is on the verge of a comeback.

but.

3. Ryu Kun-woo (Keun-dal), who entered the body of Park Moon-dae, is a comeback, a nabber, and has no idol experience.

And here comes the peak of the fire.

4. Moondae Park’s live radio broadcast is in 10 minutes.

“… … .”

it turned It’s not like I’ve been through a crazy situation once or twice, but this is a really crazy situation.

‘Is this a true story 10 minutes before the live broadcast?’

At least, the only hope is that I can share the view of Bakmundae, as Keundal did.

First of all, it's abnormal, it's nabal, and I have to do something with this from live… for a moment.

'… … Moondae Park's vision is blurring?'

The radio waiting room is hazy.

I feel bad. What if the problem was caused by me, an outsider, connecting to Keundal, which was the original status window?

'X feet.'

I hear the sound of going live. I hurriedly opened the chat.

"Are you okay? Problems connecting to sight… … ."

[Who are the tears… … .]

"… … ."

[Sorry.]

I understand.

However, his tears welled up, and through the hazy vision, a few people appeared sprinting from in front of the radio booth over there.

… … It's the writers!

[brother!! brother! People want me to come in!]

"Wait."

This is not the time to get lost in emotions.

"Call your smartphone lock pattern!"

[Ah oh oh debut day! Testa debut date!]

Pattern with male idol debut date? You did something filthy counterintuitive!

Anyway, I quickly got my head rolling.

‘There is no ‘0’ mark on the keypad, so it is excluded. But if the pattern is only three digits, it’s too few, so adding the year… .’

five digits!

After connecting the points of the five numbers, when you release your finger, the screen opens.

‘That’s how it should be!’

I immediately started downloading from the broadcaster’s radio app. I was thinking of replacing Park Moon-dae’s hearing with this.

‘This is better than making a mistake during a live broadcast while attempting to share Park Moon-dae’s body and hearing.’

To be honest, I didn’t even know how I was doing time sharing.

Let’s get to work right now.

I opened the downloaded radio app. In that short few seconds, planning, discarding, and reviewing were simultaneously conducted.

and got up from bed

“Listen.”

[Yes!]

“It’s a surprise radio appearance right before the comeback. The script is five or six lines at most, and you can check it in real time. Since there are a lot of people, you only have to answer questions directly to Park Moon-dae.”

Other than that, I open my mouth only when everyone is answering together, and I speak slowly only when I give a signal through chat.

At that time, while I am sending the answer, I mix exclamations and slightly drag the time to fill in the blanks.

But one is important.

“You shouldn’t include nuances, whether positive or negative, in your exclamation before answering. You have to manage that with care.”

The moment you make a mistake with a sarcastic or inappropriate feeling, it becomes X.

A broadcast ends the moment it is sent out. Tension is essential.

[Uhhhhh… .]

Keundal posted something like a death sentence in the chat pop-up. I held back a sigh.

‘It shouldn’t be too tight.’

Too much pressure will ruin it.

But the chat howled.

[please! Just control me! I’ll just do whatever I’m told to react! Just as my brother wrote it! Yes!?]

I couldn’t be that desperate.

But I can’t hire a good sister and a good brother-in-law.

“It can’t be like that.”

[yes… ?]

I sat down on the sofa and bowed my head.

“That’s the radio you see.”

[…] … .]

This means that the facial muscles must also be controlled. including all reactions.

[Please help me.]

Aren’t you doing this to save me?

I sighed.

“If you can’t decide, there is a way to avoid the broadcast itself.”

[What is it!?]

“Just drop to the floor now.”

This is the surest way to get your schedule canceled.

Get picked up by an ambulance.

“… … .”

After a moment of silence.

[Sorry, I can’t… … .]

Yes, I knew it.

Already, Testa is listening to the final briefing in front of the booth door. In the midst of this, if you were brazen enough to fall sober, you didn’t come all this way to save me.

“There is nothing to be sorry about. Anyway, it must be difficult for you to handle it alone now.”

[…] … Yes.]

“Good.”

I still thought.

Amateurs who have never broadcast before are put into live broadcasting for free? It will stand out as the tempo bounces unnaturally alone.

‘It’s more of a problem because it will be compared to the broadcasting Moondae Park that I originally showed.’

I needed someone to assist him, someone to help me on the spot.

However, if you share it with all 7 people right away, there will be a great upheaval. therefore… The answer is only one in the end.

I pressed my cheek and opened my mouth.

“I’m only talking to one guy.”

* * *

The front of the booth was tight with moderate tension. It was only natural that it had already been over 5 years since Testa started broadcasting.

However, because he is a member who often appears in variety shows, he was not particularly relaxed.

chamberlain… … Like Sejin Lee.

He had already reread the script in his head and checked his part.

And the following order is also important.

‘Hmm, it’ll be fine here too.’

He kept in mind the parts that he was not explicitly assigned but could ‘earn’.

It’s a habit that hasn’t gone away since the debut survival.

Take your share.

Testa was already indisputably big as a group. However, the trend of comparing and lining up individuals in a group, as befits a survivalist, has not disappeared.

furthermore… … .

‘Isn’t it really necessary not to do it?’

Stage pictorial producing interview… There were members who stood out everywhere. To be sure, there are members in this team who ‘get points’ no matter what they do.

But do you walk when others run? It was like taking a break.

Lee Se-jin would not do the pathetic thing of missing the point where he could take the point. forever until retirement.

“Is there anything else you need?”

“I’m fine~”

But now, other than Lee Sejin, the other members are quite used to this type of talk show. I had to do better.

‘Well, it’s good that the members are reliable.’

Lee Se-jin recalled the waiting room just before. Everyone knows how to manage the tension and is skillfully waiting… … .

At that moment, I heard a small whisper in Lee Se-jin’s ear.

“There.”

A desperate sound with some sort of cry.

For reference, it was from a person who would never fit the two modifiers.

Thanks to this, Lee Se-jin turned his head almost by spinal cord reflex.

“… … ?”

And I almost ran into an opponent with tears in my eyes.

It was Park Moon-dae.

Lee Se-jin almost jumped from his seat with goosebumps, but he held it in. And in the next sentence, it really almost was.

“I’m not Moondae hyung… … .”

“… !?”

“Suddenly, my body changed. I am that big moon.”

“… … .”

yes?

“You know that. In Geon-wu’s body… … .”

As soon as he briefly thought about the possibility of such a prank 4 minutes and 50 seconds before the live broadcast, he immediately threw it into the trash can.

Even in the midst of that, Park Moon-dae – a person who claimed to be a different person even though he was in the body of a man – was eagerly talking about the situation.

The words ended with an explanation that he was communicating with ‘Moon Dae-hyung’ in some magical way.

“Uh, they say that Moondae-hyung tells you how to talk on the radio… .”

‘Telepathy… … .’

A few childish movies or dramas quickly ran through my brain.

Still, there is something that came out before the question of whether the last few unrealistic experiences had helped to absorb the shock.

I was worried.

The last ‘nonsense incident’ was the collapse of the building.

Lee Se-jin, whose spine felt chilly, opened his mouth.

“Is he okay?”

“Yes I will! I was in bed to sleep… .”

By the time a brief relief passed by.

“and… Oh, you’re asking me to tell you this… … .”

“… ?”

A sentence like reading a Korean language book followed.

“For now, don’t tell anyone and only you know. You know what will happen if the live broadcast fails… ?”

“… … .”

You’re fine.

‘That’s Park Moondae.’

My eyes became dizzy.

And big moon’s earnest mosquito-sounding speech ended like this.

“Help me. Moondae-hyung said on the radio that he only had to trust Sejin… … .”

… … Park Moondae!!

Lee Se-jin internally shouted without a change in expression.

Then, at the front door, Liu Chengyu turned his head.

“What’s going on?”

Lee Se-jin briefly conflicted. however… … .

“… Ah no! Gotta get in! Now, let’s go to our radio properly~”

Park Moon-dae was right. This… The moment the conversation tempo is twisted by sharing, it is hell.

He gritted his teeth and laughed. And after grabbing the back of Park Mun-dae’s body, he cheerfully entered the booth.

However, both Lee Se-jin and Park Moon-dae missed something.

It is said that Seon Ah-hyun was waiting in the seat next to them. … Pretty close enough to hear the conversation.

It was a gap created by the combination of live broadcasting and strange phenomena.

“… … .”

“Ahyeon hyung? It’s time to enter the booth.”

“Yes!”

Seon Ah-hyun swallowed his saliva.

And with a white complexion, but with a determined step, he followed me into the booth.

… … So, Monday, January 9th at 23:47.

That night, people are busy living the reality of the new year and the beginning of the week.

“Song DJ’s Midnight Radio. It’s a Monday specialty. I returned to the < Weekly Lucky > corner.”

has just entered the final Monday corner.

“Today we have very special guests.”

The elderly radio presenter smiled as he saw the 7 tall idols pouring in.

It’s been a long time since her radio, which has been well-received for comforting the day with a soft voice, has been such an uproar.

‘You’re young.’

Testa was on the way in, actively responding to the greetings of the directors outside the booth.

Still, like top stars who have been popular for several years, everyone skillfully and naturally finds a seat and smiles happily.

“I think the listeners will be very surprised.”

She looked at the table carefully and checked her face.

Of course, I knew all the names of the guests. Surprisingly, all seven of them were famous enough that she didn’t have to learn them separately.

‘Over there, the blond young man is Mr. Cha Yoo-jin, the pouty young man with ponytail hair is Mr. Rae-bin Kim, and the pretty young man wearing a hood is Mr. Bae Se-jin… .’

And this cute friend sitting right next to him is Park Moon-dae, who is famous for his composure… but

For some reason, my hands are shaking like a motor boat.

‘… ??’

The presenter almost rubbed his eyes at the moment. However, his skillful mouth made a scheduled introduction.

“Testa is the true king of K-pop who won the Singer of the Year award at the Gold Disc Awards a few days ago!”

And the hand I saw again disappeared under the table before I knew it.

‘Did I see it wrong?’

Of course, Lee Se-jin pushed it away with his elbow.

That’s how the thrilling live radio broadcast began.

Chapter 442

Episode 442

I tapped the armrest of the sofa.

At the same time, cheerful greetings flowed from the smartphone radio app in hand.

[hello! Take your star, this is Testa~]

And after a few seconds.

– Just Testa

-??

-Turn on SBC radio right now.

-Radio?

-Why is Testa Radio's

Internet page constantly updated?

I touched my forehead.

I would have received less interest if I had announced my radio appearance in advance. They usually watch YouTube, but they don't bother looking for the radio to listen to.

'At most, I'd go around the clip later.'

However, as the attribute of ‘surprise appearance without notice’ was added, rather, the number of mentions increased.

It is a similar phenomenon to the fact that a movie that comes out accidentally while changing the channel is more fun than a movie that you directly find and play on an OTT service.

‘That’s exactly what I was aiming for, but X-shot… … .’

back to karma

And whether my head hurts or not, the radio host continues from the greeting to the current status talk. And the Internet page is also constantly updated.

[Testa~ I think there will be great plans for this year as well. I’m very nervous because I’m in one place with the pop group.]

[Haha, we’re more grateful and nervous for inviting us. and… yes. I’m doing my best to prepare to see you more often this year.]

[That’s right! We will come to see our fans in good shape. And that’s how I came today. I’ll do my best, DJ!]

[Oh my~]

Ryu Chung-wu, you must have been used to this kind of daring. Cha Yoo-jin is also good at talking when he needs it now.

The atmosphere is lively with laughter.

The problem is this.

‘… My turn on the script.’

[Oh, thank you. Shall we start our corner then? Oh, have you ever listened to our midnight radio… ?]

I decided to open a chat just in case. I would say it directly.

“we… … .”

And the voice of Ryu Kun-woo and the sound of the big moon in the app overlap.

[…] I heard it naturally because we have a lot of car rides. Later, I turned the frequency and found it. I like it.]

A calm voice.

[Really?]

[Really~ We’re all loyal listeners, so DJ Song requested it!]

[That’s right!]

“… … after.”

I leaned back on the sofa.

good. passing score.

Unexpectedly, Keundal knew how to imitate my tone quite convincingly.

‘That means how often did he watch Testa content… ?’

[brother! How was I?]

“Good job. It was the same. It goes like this.”

[Yes!]

… for a moment. But don’t suddenly and conspicuously raise your head!

“you… .”

Fortunately, the moment Park Moon-dae was about to straighten his neck in the app, someone put his arm around his shoulder.

It’s a big sejin The guy is pressing the head of Park Moon-dae.

“… … .”

thanks.

‘shit.’

I pressed my eyes.

“You don’t have to stay still, but it’s weird when you move in response to my pop-ups.”

[That’s right. Yes!]

I understand. It would be like your head exploding to see my pop-up on camera, script, and all of a sudden at the host’s words.

I also feel like my eyes are going to go round when I try to share my view with the app and even see the viewer’s situation.

‘But there’s no other way, so I have to do it.’

And if you’re going to do it, do it right.

-Is this a comeback signal

? -Don’t you think it just came out?

-A complete radio? Hahahaha

– Testa speaks well again.

I quickly checked the friendly reaction of the viewers, and then listened to the radio and looked at the surrounding atmosphere with Park Moon-dae’s view.

Occasionally, it seems that Keun Se-jin is looking at Park Moon-dae with a smile on his face that makes his eyes twitch, but that’s okay. I hope you understand.

And finally, we get to the point.

[Back Monday. < Weekly… Lucky >!]

[Wow!]

[This is a corner to listen to the unusual stories of this week's Monday, which is different from everyday life.]

There are two things that are often done on the radio.

read the story. Comte.

What are you doing here? The explanation is simple.

Do both.

[Today, friends from a music club in high school are going to read a story. Shall we say hello to our friends?]

[Yeah~]

[Mom, I'm on the radio!]

… … Testa reads the story while pretending to be a high school student in the same club.

For reference, the ambassador just now is Bae Se-jin. The color of his face didn't even change.

Are your hands and feet shriveling? Originally, it was the moment the conte became conscious. Be patient.

[You haven't been able to sleep for three days since the weekend and you're still working on a project, so you might feel really tired and exhausted… … . We also sympathize with the story you sent because of your job.]

[You are a high school student, so you can relate to it because of your job?]

[Ah.]

[Ah~ah?]

[… Of course~ Because Sejin is a high school student! Since they are young people with a lot of dreams , they have good imagination

empathy

There was no Sometimes it was okay to make my idol ego laugh and jump out while not being able to control it.

The most important big moon of the body of Park Moon-dae also passed the story assigned to him safely.

‘Let’s take time with interjections.’

[hmm… . 9503 said that a friend she had a bad relationship with transferred schools today. There are no transfer students among us, but… … .]

Keundal safely read the pop-up I sent and passed the longest situation without a script.

He didn’t stutter.

‘after.’

“Good job.”

[Yes!!]

I pressed my forehead.

The large moon also slightly lowered the level of nervousness and tension, and my vision was more stable than before.

‘good.’

Now this flesh trembling thing is almost over.

Soon, the promised time was given on the radio. It is the amount of guest appeal.

[The last story of the day is… This is a story brought by our high school friends.]

[Wow!]

[Yes! It is a great honor to tell our listeners about the unique events we have experienced so far… .]

Kim Rae-bin’s tone is too angular to be a high school student, but that guy must have been like that even when he was a high school student, so it’s not a historical error.

And Testa started talking about a strange incident in the school dormitory.

Seon Ah-hyun said calmly.

[I decided to get rid of one of the things I put on my desk last week and organized it… … .]

[That’s right. By the way?]

[They keep coming back.]

[…] Yes?]

[Come back to the desk.]

[…] … .]

[Today until Monday.]

Silence falls.

-????

-Gapbun Ghost Story

-Ah Hyun-ah?

Roughly summarized, it is the ghost story of Seon Ah-hyun's aroma plaster doll that returns even after being thrown away.

[…] Is that an earthquake date?]

"Uh."

It was reconstructed into a high school version. It actually happened at the dorm a while ago.

[This is a true story, everyone.]

[That's right. Ahyeon-hyung and I, who are roommates, witnessed it myself.]

-No, say conte

-Don't

save reality

in a place like this.

Of course, if I were to report the shocking true story of Testa that happened today, I would definitely be number one.

'Who wins by changing the body?'

But no one will believe me or pass out if I say it, so let's move on.

Anyway, like broadcasters who have a lot of free time, they lead the atmosphere quite plausibly. And the host gently created a radio-like atmosphere.

[Listeners are sending us a lot of opinions right now. 'Could it be a ghost?' 'What shape is the doll?' 'Do you have a source?']

[Oh, it's shaped like a deer.]

However, Kim Rae-bin made a sudden remark here.

[Moondae hyung tour… I witnessed them choosing together during a school trip!]

[Did I? Moondae, do you remember when?]

The words suddenly came to Park Moondae. shit!

'Don't panic.'

I quickly tried to pop up.

But surprisingly, Park Moon-dae's calm voice came out of the app first.

[that's right. Hyun Ah bought it in Japan last year. In a used goods store without a sign… .]

"… !"

The members and the host make a fuss about it, saying that it has become more scary, and reactions on the Internet pour in.

I opened my mouth.

"How did you know?"

… Surprisingly, it was the truth without a single error.

A pop-up popped up proudly.

[Hehehehehe… . You were in the behind-the-scenes video of last year's tour! My brother chose the straight ones with the antlers in the shape of antlers and the ones with split ones!]

I don't remember details like this. How far have you seen what?

"… okay. well done calmly It's beyond my expectations."

[Really?! hehe yes… … .]

Anyway, Keundal must have found confidence, and now his vision is not shaken. It was an unexpected score.

'quite.'

I smiled and focused on monitoring again.

[…] so! When was the first time Ahyeon saw the deer doll again~?]

[Yeah, it was midnight that day.]

Anyway, the story that really revived the spooky night atmosphere went on well. And it ends in a moderately comical way, keeping the essence of the conte alive.

[Yeah, everyone is guilty!]

[…] ?!]

The circumstances of the case are as follows.

Not knowing that Seon Ah-hyun was throwing it away, whenever non-roommates found a plaster doll in front of the front door, they took turns kindly bringing it back to the desk.

Even Seon Ah-hyun, the person involved, said that she wondered because she was fearless, but she thought so.

It is a heartwarming story that only roommate Kim Rae-bin suffered because of it.

[lodging… No, I even checked the start year of the dormitory.]

The host burst out laughing.

[Why do you think there was a story before it was built? Oh my God!]

[So how was it Rabin?]

[There was a cow living in a peaceful rice field… .]

– Ha ha ha

-???

-Really?

The sudden declaration, like flowing water, causes Internet page updates to run out of control again.

‘okay. Testa’s comeback is coming soon.’

Actually, it’s an obvious story. It’s been quite a while since we didn’t release an album, and it’s a plan that fans were all expecting because we secretly leaked words on social media.

Still, isn’t it fun to make a surprise announcement through an unannounced radio appearance rather than hearing it through an article?

I smiled and fixed my smartphone.

And for the first time, Moondae Park’s vision shook in a different way. Rather than being nervous… As if short of breath.

‘Are you surprised?’

Well, come to think of it, this must be the first news of the big month.

Anyway, since Park Moon-dae doesn’t have any lines here, it’s okay to listen to Testa news comfortably. I stretched my legs.

[I heard they steal something.]

[Wow~ Is it a phantom thief concept?]

And here, Ryu Chung-woo was supposed to end with an answer like ‘the hearts of the fans~’.

Suddenly the words came out.

[Te Testa, the phantom thief concept this time!?]

It was Park Moon-dae.

… The big moon has suddenly accelerated.

without agreement.

[…] … .]

[… … .]

There was a moment of suffocating silence.

The big moon covered his mouth.

‘don’t do it.’

that’s even weirder

Kim Rae-bin looked at Park Moon-dae with an expression as if he had seen a ghost and opened his mouth.

[Yes?]

I pressed my forehead.

‘ruined.’

That moment.

[Yes. Moondae seems to have a lot of interest in Testa.]

“… !!”

[Is that a fan… Is it?]

Seon Ah-hyun… received?

‘how?’

However, there is no time to think about the question for a long time, and I immediately look at the viewer's reaction with my eyes.

that… … .

-Such a situation drama

?

Hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahaha

]

It was accepted as part of it because he had done a skit with a ridiculous high school student setting in front of him.

then… for a moment.

I touched my chin.

this… … rather a benefit?

[…] That's right~ I like Mundae Testa! Hey, I know all the songs too~]

On the radio, Sejin is in the midst of resolving the situation. If you match well, the flow will flow naturally as it was.

'but… .'

hmm.

[Hyung, I'm sorry, what should I do with this… … .]

“No.”

[Yes?]

I sat back on the sofa.

“It goes like this. You react comfortably.”

[…] ?!]

And after a while.

Park Moon-dae in the visible radio app opened his mouth with a serious face.

[that’s right. Actually I… I’m a huge fan of Testa.]

[…] ??]

[I’m a real fan of Testa.]

I’ll leave it to you. Big Sejin.

Chapter 443

Episode 443

of idols' daily life, they had a common taste in rice cakes that tasted like W app radio.

Light fans will not see it well if they miss real-time. It's not until word of mouth goes out as a legend.

At best, you won't know if you look at the funny edited highlights.

In that sense, what Testa is doing right now is… .

-What are you all watching?

-Ouch Testa

-Quickly, SBC radio

was an exception.

From a sudden surprise appearance to a comeback notice.

I thought I had already done something since the story of a ghost story that is formidable even if I just listened to it, but at this point, the fans' SNS was excited in a good way.

and in the middle of it.

Suddenly, Moondae Park began to insist that he was a hardcore Testa fan.

[I am… If you're a big fan, you know the songs in Testa.]

-???

-Park Moon University Sudden High School Male Lover Declaration

– What is this conte concept?

When everyone was confused by the unknown conte concept and a lost comeback rice cake, clear laughter came from the radio.

They are good members.

[Right, Testa is fine. It’s Moondae.]

[I’m KPOP’s No.1 fan!]

[Ah, I listen to Testa’s songs too! The stage is also respectable!]

-The last Bae Se

-jin -Bae Se-jin I still can’t adapt to the food service character

[No bro. It means that I take care of each and every stage.]

[…] ??]

[And I watched all of Testa’s entertainment videos. I’m a total fan. It’s the vitality of my life.]

Park Moon-dae started to lead in a crazy direction again. escape the flow

‘hey!’

Then Sejin also grabbed the steering wheel again.

Inside, he put off numerous speculations and curses about the big picture of Park Moon-dae and the current situation.

And in an instant, he came up with the most appropriate way of coping with improvisation.

That's right

[Ah! I saw the testa awards ceremony stage too! That sword dance~ Did you see that too?]

[Uh… It is, but.]

[Oh, and the Tibetan University? That member appeared on a variety show and sang… 'The end of the flower'? Is that a b-side song too?]

[That's right.]

[I know that! Song DJ, do you know~?]

[Oh, of course you know~ Don't you know everything?]

It's water.

Testa had an unusually large number of public hit activities.

It was because he always threw at least one hot topic while worrying about losing his hair for each part. It means… .

[And entertainment… Wow, Testa, to be honest, I think everything I did with that PD was funny~ You guys know that carrot coin?]

[Of course~!]

[Eh! I remember!]

[Haha. That's right, selling hotteok was also fun.]

If you mix roughly famous songs and entertainment shows, you won't be certified as a virtuoso with just words.

Everyone knows!

– Otaku tries to encourage aggression, but it’s a strange situation

that does n’t work

The host also agreed and led the story amicably so that the story of other stations did not come out too much and ended in an appropriate line.

Still, I take care of the listeners’ reactions without fail.

[Ah, ‘5226’ sent it like this. ‘I also remember~ The whole family laughed while watching Testa’s shipwreck.’]

[Uh… … .]

Suddenly, we had a fruitful publicity time looking back on Testa’s activities in the past.

‘As planned.’

It was Park Moon-dae’s first win in Ryu Kun-woo’s body.

Unable to grasp the situation, Keundal lost his spirit and barely opened his mouth again.

[No, I’m really a fan]

[Testa got the grand prize this time, too. My goal this year is to turn the whole country into a fan!]

[With an album coming out this year? Awesome!]

[Ahahaha!]

was sunk.

At first, Keundal, who was trembling and responding to Park Mun-dae's encouragement, came to this point.

'… yes!'

That's why I came up with the most reliable authentication method in an instant.

He even forgot that he had forgotten to speak casually and shouted hotly.

[I went to that concert too!]

No matter how popular a male idol is, it's impossible to go to a concert unless you're a fan!

However, the opponent was Testa.

[really? We went too~]

[…] … .]

That's right.

As a party… gone

Even now, he himself was a party to the performance.

Leaving the conte and completely defeated in the fact, the big moon staggered and tilted his head with a stunned face.

He had no choice but to adapt to the reality of failing to become a fan.

It was kind of lonely, but it couldn't be that funny.

-Hey, what

wrong ?

did.

But it was the same series… The feeling was a bit different.

a little… Would you say it looks comfortable?

A more natural and human taste was buried. It was a lifestyle gag that did not exist even during the days of < Azusa >.

The host held back a laugh and allocated time professionally.

[So you heard the rumor that Testa's album will be released soon?]

[Oh, that's right. Still, Mundae seems to be the most interested in it, so I think there is something I want to say first.]

And Ryu Chung-woo willingly conceded his first remarks with a kind thought, 'It seems that Mundae really prepared a lot for the radio'.

[…] Me?]

[Yeah.]

Keundal was taken aback, but soon came to his senses when he saw a pop-up saying 'It's okay' by Moondae Park.

half only.

[Next album… I'm really looking forward to it. Oh, I'm not saying this to burden you, I'm just saying that I'm really rooting for Testa's sophisticated time sci-fi worldview and unique large-scale performance… … .]

[Words?]

[…] I really want to tell the testers through this radio!]

It was really earnest and sincere.

Because the truth was right. Because it was a big moon inside.

– Bear…?

-This is the first time a male idol shows

such excessive immersion in a group. I wonder where the dirty business went?

At this point, such a reaction came out from under the water.

[…] Thank you for that.]

[Wait a minute, why did Ahyeon say thanks… ?]

[… ! we… Because we informed you about Testa's comeback rumor… ?]

[Right~ We were talking about that!]

And in the end, the talk about the comeback was able to proceed in a much more humorous atmosphere and 'less publicity'.

[Hey, maybe… . Will Testa make a comeback as a phantom that uses magic in connection with the Magical Boy Trilogy?]

[…] ! I've never thought about it, but I think it's a really good idea. After returning to the dorm, no, go back to that dorm and release the next album… It's not, but it's a meeting for the next club activity… ?]

[Kim Rae-bin is out of order!]

It was because the atmosphere was like this, and the members were able to talk about the comeback without any burden while wearing the masks of high school students, mixing truth and lies.

That's how Testa's comeback concept is… It ended with laughter, leaving numerous possibilities and plausible delusions. -Honestly wasn’t the cyborg

a little convincing

“Excellent.”

Park Mun-dae was nodding his head in satisfaction while monitoring all the reactions in Ryu Gun-woo’s body.

I thought it was the right time to refresh, but it was rather good.

‘Park Moon-dae’s image has been a bit… It’s because it’s heavy.’

There is a recent stage accident problem, and the accumulated ‘professional idols who are too good at grasping public opinion and dealing well’ are also negative.

Because everything is about balance.

‘It must have become a bit lighter with this.’

So he shook his head, thinking that this was a real gain, not a mental victory.

‘Now I just need to find the right way to return.’

Of course, I didn’t forget what I had to take care of before that.

“Are you okay?”

[Yes!]

“It was hard.”

Undoubtedly, in the second half of the year, Keundal enjoyed the situation quite a bit, so his answer was courageous. In addition, the atmosphere of Park Moon-dae's view, which he is sharing, was good.

Testa ended the greeting with a smile with the host. And, as if passing through a large moon that had been slightly ad-libbed, it seemed that he was lightly bruised and came out of the booth without much fuss.

'I'll have to explain it well to less shock them.'

Compared to the live radio broadcast, this next step was better because I had time to plan it.

He nodded.

"Now, don't worry, I'll find the timing to explain to the members… ."

[I… That's what I mean.]

Why?

[Ahyeon-nim has already… I think you know?]

"… ??"

what… Called?

at that time. Through the shared view of the big moon, he met Seon Ah-hyun's gaze staring at him.

There was no expression.

"… … ."

[…] … .]

"It goes right away."

[Yes.]

Ryu Gun-woo immediately called a taxi.

and after 30 minutes. Testa's dorm is filled with screams and monologues.

* * *

"Again??"

"OK [seriously, we need to find something like our secret service? It's like some kind of Netflix season 4 drama.]"

-Oh my member has changed his body!

As soon as they grasped the situation, those who went through the five stages of shock, anger, confusion, compromise, and resignation in an instant started shouting.

I nodded my head expressionlessly.

"I also have some good news."

"What."

"First of all, no one is going to die. Even at worst, changing your body is the end."

"hey! Then you're retired!"

"So only in the worst case."

Last time he died in a building collapse, but that's good news.

I raised both hands to Bae Se-jin, who seemed to have blood on his neck.

"And the most critical situation has passed."

"what!"

"Live radio."

“… … .”

Seriously.

‘I thought it would end.’

And everyone fell silent for a moment as if they were reliving what had happened on the radio the previous time.

“Then maybe Sejin and you are like that… .”

“yes.”

Naturally, his gaze returned to Sejin.

I voluntarily paid my taxes.

“sorry.”

“Uh~ that’s how it should be.”

Big Sejin seemed to have been quite disgraced. However, like a guy who is good at reading the atmosphere, he didn’t seem to want to grab me by the collar right away and demand compensation for mental damage.

‘From carrots.’

I immediately got a thumbs up.

“It was great.”

“… … .”

“I think you tried it because everyone believes in your quickness.”

“I’m good at talking, I mean… .”

However, I have no intention of denying that I was today’s MVP. I know everything.

‘As for the results, honestly, that guy also benefited.’

and… I turned my head to my second super save.

“… … .”

“… … Did you hear that?”

“Yes.”

Fortunately, Seon Ah-hyun just had a worried face.

“It’s okay. even if you didn’t tell me I’m not even a member who’s good at entertainment… … .”

“No, thanks for helping me, I handed it over.”

“thank you… .”

The big moon also came closer and bowed his head.

However, Seon Ah-hyun looked at me and the big moon with an expression that he was happy but did not know what to do.

And creaking hello.

“Oh no… .”

Come to think of it, all the members are looking at the big moon with mysterious expressions in the first place.

That is to say, Park Moondae, where Keundal entered. I guess the atmosphere is a bit different than usual.

Cha Yoo-jin was sober.

‘That’s strange with hyung’s face.’

‘Quiet.’

Originally it was that guy.

Bae Se-jin also muttered with a mysterious face. But that's a different topic.

"… The radio would have been fine if it had told me. No, I don't mean I would have done better."

"It must have been. Because my brother is good at acting."

In fact, not only Bae Se-jin but also Ryu Chung-woo are good candidates. Because he has good situational judgment and is calm and a leader.

"But the radio is on now, but if you share more and Rabin suddenly listens to it… … ."

"Um… ."

"It is."

-One. not good at lying

-2 In an incomprehensible situation, overflowing inquiring spirit and inability to control questions.

When the name of the member that seemed like a symbol of that human figure came out, all the members nodded.

And Kim Rae-bin was greatly shocked.

"Am I the kind of person who doesn't trust me that much?"

"Um~ no. Only when you lie on a live talk show."

"are you okay. Rabin. It means your personality is good."

"… ??"

Anyway, after a bit of shock, the brainstorming began.

“Well, shouldn’t the two of you try something first?”

“What did Eugene say earlier? ah! Netplus. In places like that drama, what do you usually do when you return to your body?”

“… … kiss? Murder?”

“Both of you are so terrible.”

“no! I’m not telling you to do it, I’m just saying what comes to mind… … .”

I got to know the drama genre Bae Se-jin sees. It was TMI.

‘Anyway, the early invitation is useful.’

First of all, I… So, I grabbed the big moon’s arm.

“Then, let’s get the situation sorted out and have a quick talk.”

“okay. If there is a problem, share it right away.”

I immediately went to my room under Liu Cheng-wu’s confirmation.

jump.

“Good job.”

“no… .”

And as soon as I sat down, I started looking at the status window first.

[Unexpected!]

Abnormal state mission failed: Return to original state

-Everything returned to original state as if nothing had happened

: until the end 21:26:43

“Hmm… … .”

I’m thinking a lot.

‘As if nothing had happened… .’

I looked at ‘Park Moondae’.

okay. I thought about it before, but actually, that body was originally that guy’s.

“As you know, the situation itself, where I am an idol and you are a civil servant, is what happened when I changed with you.”

“Is that so?”

This guy had no intention of becoming an idol, and I fell for the public service. In a word, this means that each of us was living our own lives well.

However, ‘return to the original state?’

I murmured expressionlessly.

“That much?!”

You’re freaking out.

The big moon pointed at the hologram.

“Look! Mission failed! It’s not a status ailment! I don’t think the penalty would be that strong?!”

“hmm.”

‘Let’s not make such extreme assumptions,’ I rubbed my chin as I saw the guy clinging to me.

“That and… I’ve been thinking about it for a while, but it seems that the words are a bit different from what I said to my brother before.”

hmm?

‘Come to think of it… .’

I remembered the phrase that floated to me at the time of the last building collapse.

: Until the last disaster 00:29:59

“At that time, the name was ‘disaster’. It’s ‘finished’ now.”

“yes. And back then, things were a bit special. It was a situation where I was just avoiding the failure penalty… .”

yes.

At that time, I was in a state where I was somehow avoiding sudden death, which was a penalty for abnormal status failure.

Then it turned into a mission failure… hmm.

“Then the mission failure effect has already been activated?”

That guy and my body swapping itself is the ‘mission failure effect’.

“yes. I think so. So until that failure effect ends, well… We now have 21 hours left.”

indeed.

Then it was worth it because I only had to endure for one day. It is a convincing yet advantageous interpretation.

But still, the question remains.

“Then what mission did you fail in?”

“that… .”

The big moon’s face blurred.

“I don’t know either. It’s not like I didn’t have a status window… .”

“… … .”

I came up with a few hypotheses, but I stopped talking about them right away.

Confusing priorities was perfect for messing things up. Deal with urgent matters.

“good. Anyway, it’s the most persuasive, so let’s act based on this hypothesis.”

I got a popup.

[The body completely changes after 24 hours.]

“Yes!”

If you think about your experience while building, of course, it would be a story when you endured the day well.

I thought deeply and nodded.

“first of all.”

“… ?”

“Are you in a good mood for the annual holiday?”

“that… … hmm.”

I can’t see it.

“Sick leave?”

“that… It will work, but I have to submit the data.”

I laughed.

“doesn’t care. If it’s okay to use up one annual leave.”

“… ?? that’s fine, but… … .”

That’s it.

“Is this the direct team leader?”

I checked a contact on my smartphone from him.

and the next morning.

“That chief. I try not to use sick leave as much as possible. There is also a performance appraisal problem… Yes. I think it’s right to manage time and attendance as the team leader said, even if it means using annual leave.”

The big moon is opening its mouth. Park Moon-dae has a strong chin, so there should be no problem.

“I’m really sorry. I wonder if I’m causing trouble… … . No, it’s the restaurant’s fault, but you still have food poisoning from this morning.”

“… … .”

“yes! Then I’ll see you at work! thank you so much Yes, I will greet you separately.”

Beep.

I hung up.

And I turned my head.

“Are you okay?”

“… … yes.”

“Don’t be surprised, I’ll send him a drink in the afternoon.”

“It’s okay… … . thank you.”

“okay.”

It is only natural that even a civil servant will be at a disadvantage in the personnel evaluation if he frequently uses sick leave just because he is sick.

So, wouldn’t it be enough to turn it into a reverse idea and make people think that they are taking annual leave instead of sick leave because they care about the personnel evaluation?

‘Well, since you said you work at the ward office, you’re not grinding like crazy like the other 7th graders.’

Anyway, I’ll take care of this guy’s job.

“As you know now, Testa is making a comeback soon, so we have a lot of work to do.”

“Nep.”

“therefore… Can you accompany Park Moon-daero on Testa’s schedule today to make it look like there’s nothing unusual?”

“… ??”

“don’t worry. There is no shooting schedule.”

There is nothing to do while being anxious like on the radio.

“And I will follow you.”

“yes?! Are you real?”

“uh.”

“how?”

Ryu Kun-woo did not take annual leave for nothing.

“As a daily load manager.”

“Huh.”

I got up from my seat. I have to deal with it right away so I can keep up with my schedule.

Chapter 444

If you can't debut, you'll die from an illness Episode 444

This morning, a manager at Testa unexpectedly welcomed a military family.

-Mundae is in a bad condition. Chung-woo must have called a relative. You and Moondae are almost like family.

'Schedule with members' families… .'

It was a bit daunting for him, who was known for working diligently at FM, but he couldn't help it.

Testa has rarely made unreasonable demands for a celebrity worth billions of dollars. Then shouldn't we listen to this kind of nonsense that comes out very rarely?

At least that was the company's idea, and he, as a lower-ranking person, had to be black.

"phew… ."

He went out to meet the members in a state of resignation.

It's called 'Daily Manager', but I can't deal with it easily, but I'm preparing for a complicated day when I have an outsider to take care of.

And I finally met the military family in question… .

"hello. I am Ryu Gun-woo."

"Ah yes."

It was a handsome man who had been kept in the library for about five years and looked like he had been fed only vegetables.

I was a little surprised so far, but nothing strange.

“The number of people has been checked, and there are no special members. Amundae has notified the company separately.”

“Ah yes.”

It was weird from here.

People… It was too fast.

“Wow~ Please take good care of me hyung~”

“Uh.”

“This one! How about going for a drink… .”

“thanks.”

Besides, the members are not shy. Anyone who sees them will know that they have shared the same joys and sorrows for seventeen years.

The manager started to have question marks in his head, but his body began to move steadily for the schedule.

But when we got to the car, Ryu Gun-woo raised his hand and suggested it.

“Shall I drive?”

steering wheel?

Of course, it’s true that the person with the least time is doing the hard work, but isn’t the case a bit different now?

The manager pondered for a moment, but soon nodded his head obediently.

“Oh hmm… yes. thank you.”

“It is natural. I am truly grateful.”

He insisted on doing it himself, and it seemed that it would be better to let it pass than to cause a needless scuffle.

After all, the company is nearby, so you can just take a picture with the navigation. After that, it was enough to sit behind the wheel first, making excuses for the busy schedule.

‘If you go through a few trial and errors, you’ll find yourself in the driver’s seat… … .’

However, Ryu Kun-woo took the navigation skillfully without asking to get into the driver’s seat.

“… ??”

“Then I will go to work first.”

“Ah yes.”

And naturally, after checking the schedule, I started running on the road.

“The morning schedule will end around 1:00 PM after the meeting is over and I will stop by the shop and get a consultation. Lunch… Let me know where you want to eat.”

“That chicken!”

“Let’s do it with a show of hands, okay? … good. Instead, it’s right before the active period, so I’ll use boiled ones.”

The manager sitting in the passenger seat was given a break for no reason.

“… ?”

In the meantime, Ryu Kun-woo checks the back seat with the room mirror and even gives advice.

“Ravina’s head.”

“Thank you so much!”

Looking somewhere between a kindergarten teacher and a manager with many years of experience, I felt a vibe coming from somewhere.

The manager opened his mouth involuntarily.

“What do I usually do?”

“Ah, I am an administrative official.”

“… ?!”

An unexpected identity emerged.

In the meantime, the car arrived at the company.

Ryu Gun-woo easily passed the entry using the in-pocket ID card without asking, and confirmed the members’ positions as soon as he finished parking.

That means it didn’t follow through.

“I… Aren’t you going in?”

“… ? I have to buy coffee. Because I am new.”

How the hell do you know that

“Ah, I will buy it from a partner discount. Iced Americano, four decaf, two chamomile, and one hot chocolate.”

“… … .”

“I put it on when I got out of the car earlier. What would you like to eat, sir?”

The manager gave up the idea.

Incidentally, after a few hours the big moon will similarly give up its thoughts.

* * *

“I think I’m going to die.”

“I’m not dying, I’m not dying~”

Lee Se-jin smiled and passed the water. Keundal barely took it and swallowed it in one gulp.

‘Aww!’

It was a mad march.

Park Moon-dae did not lie. There really was no public schedule that made me shudder like live radio.

Testa had already completed the album recording and pre-content filming for the comeback, so there was no other burden.

But the training schedule… management schedule!

‘I don’t even know where this is…’ .’

Meeting Room Shop Vocal Training Room Osteopathic Clinic… They were so busy that their eyes wandered, and even during that time, they handed out pre-interview questionnaires.

[You don’t have to read it. It’s not something I’m going to do today.]

Ryu Gun-woo, who was behind the wheel, so it was a pop-up sent by Park Moon-dae.

However, not having to read the questionnaire did not give me time to rest.

It was because the car stopped at the company again five minutes later.

The destination is the choreography practice room on the 1st basement floor.

“The bridge section you talked about last time has been revised. Are you a little picky? Are you fine?”

“Yeah~”

“Ah, you’re always reliable.”

The choreographer contracted exclusively with the label was scheduled to create a 40-minute final fix choreography created by combining six or seven different designs.

Before the start, Ryu Cheng-wu softly conveyed the specifics.

“Due to an injury, Mundae is excluded from choreography practice only today.”

This was agreed upon. No matter how hard it is, I can’t even dance the choreography that Keundal couldn’t learn.

“Oh yeah? Then I’ll drop in and start.”

And as if there was no time to worry or ask about his well-being, ‘Park Moon-dae’ was immediately excluded and a revised choreography was demonstrated.

‘and… .’

Keundal sat down in his chair, confused as to whether he should like it because he had been on it or because he had time to catch his breath.

And all of that was soon forgotten.

‘wow.’

-again!

Even though I only practiced the bridge part repeatedly, the power was not normal when I witnessed it from a close distance. Adding to the fact that I was watching a new unreleased song, my hands were shaking.

Besides, the moment you turn your head.

“… !”

Leaning against the wall right next to the door, I could see Ryu Kun-woo quickly skimming through the choreography with his eyes.

To be precise, Testa’s Park Moon-dae, who has Ryu Gun-woo’s body.

‘You remember it with your head.’

Even though they use the same body, I realized once again that depending on who is in the room, even the impression changes.

and… In fact, it’s time for that hyung to practice with this body right now.

“… … .”

‘I can’t do it.’

Keundal had a strange pride in his achievements (?) as a status window in his own way.

Still, I’ve been a big help to Moondae-hyung’s idol path until now… I’m in trouble!

‘This isn’t it.’

That’s why I thought this when the next schedule came.

“Now it’s PT in the training room until 9:10.”

– This is it!

“That brother!”

“hmm?”

At the call of the big moon, Ryu Gun-woo, who had been leaning against the wall and watching the overall situation, turned his head at the call.

“Can’t I just do some exercise? Your body is the same!”

“hmm… .”

“Ah, will you try? It’s pretty fun, though.”

Liu Cheng-wu readily reacted from the side.

Keundal was encouraged by the reaction and decided to participate in the PT once again!

“yes!”

I shouldn’t have.

At that time, I had to check Ryu Gun-woo’s expression… .

But for the sin of not having the eagle’s 340-degree field of view, the big moon now stretches out on the training room floor, fading.

… … The course for advanced players was a cave that beginners should not challenge with determination alone.

‘This is how you bought it… .’

It felt like taking a break after a long torture. At least my body got used to it, so I just endured it.

‘Hehehe… .’

He drank the water Lee Se-jin gave him like the water of life.

But that break ended right away.

“Time for our move!”

‘Ah!’

Yes. This is because the schedule right before the idol activity period had breaks in minutes… … .

At that time, someone reached out and supported the big moon so that it could rise.

“… !”

It was Bae Se-jin!

“Thank you.”

Bae Se-jin muttered. And after a little hesitation, he added.

“It’s normal to have a hard time the first time, so you don’t have to think about it.”

“… ! yes thank you!”

Bae Se-jin just nodded his head bluntly and went again, but Keun-dal realized again that he had a rather kind personality.

No, in fact, most testers were like that.

Even in the midst of a busy schedule, he was plainly kind to strangers without any special territorial attitude. No one was wary or sarcastic.

In particular, the extroverted members came and went, talking to each other and even paying attention to whether there were any inconveniences.

“Hey.”

“Huh yes.”

For example, in the same situation as now.

Almost all the schedules were finished and the car arrived at the lodging when the sun was over.

And Cha Yu-jin spoke.

“Say it! I’m young. are you okay!”

“Uh uh, yes.”

Keundal, who was exhausted and gave in to comfort, quietly let go of his words.

And Ryu Gun-woo confirmed what the two were talking about as he got out of the driver’s seat.

* * *

‘Well, I passed it fine.’

I nodded.

Keundal suffered a bit, but it was fortunate that it was being completed without any problems.

“Hmm, you worked hard today.”

“no. I am truly grateful.”

I also had a clichéd greeting with the manager.

For reference, as soon as Ryu Cheong-woo and Lee Se-jin were attached as guarantors, Ryu Kun-woo’s daily road manager interview passed quickly.

‘Blood ties are the best.’

Park Moon-dae is in a bad condition, but there is no immediate family to take care of.

So, the excuse that Ryu Cheong-woo called his relative brother, who was close to Park Mun-dae, worked.

A bit different from usual… The dumb and sunny version of Park Moon-dae must have looked a little out of shape to the company employees.

Thanks to this, Ryu Gun-woo was able to rub it smoothly in the name of mental care.

What about driving… After riding it a few times last night, I caught on.

‘I got some help from Ryu Chung-wu, who has a car.’

He looked pretty good from the passenger seat.

-Hyung, how about taking the driver’s license test even after returning to college? This is a bit of a waste… … .

It was worth remembering that recommendation.

‘Anyway, it’s been a while.’

Fortunately, my body didn’t forget, and I drove around downtown Seoul without any problems throughout the day.

It’s a one-time worker who was attached by blood, and there was no useless discipline of the existing manager, perhaps because he did unpaid labor to take turns driving the wheel.

After reviewing the day, I nodded.

‘Looks like he didn’t get caught.’

I’m thinking of going straight to my dorm and ending the day as if I were dead… … .

“Moondae hyung!”

“… … .”

hey.

Fortunately, Cha Yoo-jin corrected the title right away.

“Oh! Geonwoo hyung! Let’s go buy our ice cream! Me, Raebin Kim, and BM!”

“BM?”

[He said that “big moon” is a special nickname? I changed it to be hip.]

‘It’s probably Big Moon.’

It was an incomprehensible feeling.

Anyway, the big moon proposal itself was quite attractive, but it has a bright expression.

However, Kim Rae-bin whispered seriously.

“I think it would be safer for you to return home as it is, given your situation, but… .”

“Nooo! Kim Rae-bin betrayed me! Kim Rae-bin, who said he wanted to eat ice cream, is gone!”

“… ! What a betrayal! Saying I want to eat doesn’t imply that I’m going to buy it myself! Now, Cha Yoo-jin is leaping his logic!”

“I get it. okay.”

okay. As Kim Rae-bin said, it’s actually best to go back to the dorm, but… .

‘I should give them carrots.’

Let’s be honest. That guy in the big moon must have been tortured throughout today’s schedule.

After I said good-bye to the manager, I switched cars and got back behind the wheel.

The manager will take care of the guys going back to the dorm, so I’ll just have to stick with them for a while.

“let’s go. If the convenience store right in front is okay.”

“Yeah!”

“Oh yes!”

“Wear a mask.”

Just like that, the car started.

The drive was over in an instant. I pulled over in front of the convenience store and got out.

And instead of going into the convenience store with them, I stood in front and waited.

“brother! Won’t you come in?”

“I’m tired. You guys choose among yourself.”

“OK~”

I confirmed that the convenience store door was closed and turned my eyes to the road.

that taxi.

“… … .”

Actually, it’s because I just saw that tail catch up with the car.

‘Did I get caught just now?’

Well, in industry jargon, sasaeng.

I mean stalkers.

Chapter 445

If you don’t debut, you’ll get a fatal disease Episode 445

Human beings follow up with every move of a celebrity’s private life.

Isn’t it a stalker line that boasts history and tradition?

It’s me, since < Azusa >, I’ve stolen even the first copy of a certified copy in a studio, so it’s nothing new.

Security is good within the complex where this inn is located, but it’s still like this sometimes when you get out of there.

The problem is that the guy in Park Moondae right now… that it’s not me ‘Timing is awesome… .’

damn it

I held my breath.

And I raised my head. A group of people are getting out of the taxi and trying to pile into the convenience store.

I stood in front of him with my back to the door.

“… … .”

Some of the faces are recognizable, so you can’t mistake them for regular guests.

“hey?”

“What are you doing? Get out of the way.”

At first, I talked to him as if he didn’t realize I was involved, but he seemed to figure out the situation soon.

“Ah what the fuck.”

After that, he didn’t talk to me and started asking questions while holding the smartphone camera in the convenience store.

is that type

“What are you doing? why did you come out Where are you going? Are you Mundae? Are you Mundae?”

“Kim Raebin~ What is Rabin? what did you buy Will you give me a member? Will you give me a girlfriend?”

‘oh.’

I never thought I’d see this again with my third person eyes.

As expected, it feels anew that an outsider will be quite scared if he is the first person involved.

I immediately opened a pop-up to the guy in the convenience store, recalling the one-room break-in incident during < Azusa >.

[People outside are not regular fans.]

[Just nod your head and pass by. If you can’t do it, it’s okay to pretend you didn’t see it.]

Keundal flinched for a moment, but soon walked toward the door with an ice cream bag from the cash register. Then the other two guys casually stuck together and walked out together.

I put my arms on the three of them, spread them apart to secure a gap, and immediately led them to the car.

“hey!”

“Why is Eugene so mean? Lover is calling, but you don’t even answer?”

As time goes on, the attitude becomes more and more extreme.

‘It would be difficult if this becomes a physical fight.’

Since it is Ryu Gun-woo’s body, if it changes again, the big moon will have to keep using it. I’ll have to work this out ASAP.

see… .

‘No one is attached to the car.’

Perhaps because there weren’t many people who showed up, everyone stuck to the member’s side. I don’t see a careful type who deliberately comes to the car and waits.

‘then.’

After measuring the distance to the car, I whispered to Yujin Cha.

‘If I give a signal, I’ll run and get into the car.’

step.

‘To the other side.’

‘Got it.’

and after a few seconds.

Cha Yoo-jin suddenly jumped out and started to run.

turn the car around

“uh.”

And the moment when people reflexively turned their eyes toward Cha Yoo-jin or turned their bodies.

I took the other two and quickly opened the back door.

Click.

And if you push… done.

“ah!!”

‘Cha Yoo-jin also rode it.’

Thanks to jumping out first, the distance widened and it was loose.

All members boarded the car.

The car is tinted, so you can’t see anything inside. Even if you knock on the window and ask questions, it ends there.

end of situation.

“evil!”

It seemed that the people who became a chicken chasing dog situation were upset at the moment, but soon they immediately turned their target and started to focus on the car.

If I had poured that energy elsewhere, I think I would have already eaten one place. I don’t know why they spend it on illegal activities that don’t make money.

“Mundae~ What are you doing today?”

manager.

I deliberately slightly kicked the person who was about to hit the car and headed for the driver’s seat.

In any case, the situation ended without escalating into a bigger situation.

“hmm.”

To put it bluntly, it would be the victory of years of experience accumulated as observers and participants, from data arm to idol.

‘It was my first time acting as a manager.’

widely.

After I got into the driver’s seat, the car door closed.

It was quite quiet inside the well-insulated car.

“… … .”

“depart.”

I immediately started the car and got out on the road.

It was only after entering the accommodation apartment complex that the big moon opened its mouth.

Kim Rae-bin immediately hit the head.

“This is not always the case, but it rarely happens. I’m really sorry for putting you in an uncomfortable situation… .”

“Oh no! I’m sorry for coming out to buy ice cream… .”

“Umm? I said I buy ice cream! But no one was hurt, no problem. Mission complete!”

Cha Yoo-jin shouted brightly and opened an ice cream wrapper. He just seems happy with the melon-flavored ice cream.

It’s distribution like a bastard from the country of the paparazzi.

Keundal accepted the ice cream that Cha Yujin handed over to him. Then he swallowed and asked a small question.

“Uh hmm. Don’t you hate it?”

“Well,”

Cha Yujin shrugged.

“Every job has both good and bad. I just need a fun job where I can drive well!”

“… … .”

“And I’m the one who can drive this.”

what

“I also agree with the preceding statement.”

Kim Rae-bin, who had been banging his head, is also nodding quite seriously.

“I felt it more while talking to my older sister, who recently changed jobs, but each job has its own difficulties.”

The big moon nodded slightly.

“So rather than denying the shortcomings, I want to appreciate the strengths and aim to improve!”

“… … ! yes!”

The guy in the shape of Park Moon-dae nodded his head with twinkling eyes.

The tension was soon relieved.

‘… I’m fine.’

I took my eyes off the room mirror after confirming that the two of them were also putting ice cream in their mouths.

And after a while, when the car arrived at the underground parking lot, the big moon sent a pop-up.

[Brother.]

Why?

Seeing as he didn’t bother to say it, I expected it to be an intention to have a serious, private conversation.

however… .

[Testa… Testa must be really crazy. Really!]

“… … .”

… No, I didn’t expect such an emotional message.

‘Is this my impression after going through that?’

I felt it since the radio, but this guy wasn’t an ordinary guy either. but… .

In the end I just laughed.

If it didn’t remain as a bad memory for that guy, that was fine too.

‘okay. That would be great.’

[Yes!!]

Well, really, aren’t those two guys worthy of doing this for a long time?

“Cha Yoo-jin wait, that’s the taste that Moon-dae prefers, so leave it!”

“Umm… OK!”

It’s new, but I don’t think I’ve paid attention to Steer in my previous life.

I parked safely.

“Let’s get off.”

“yes!”

That’s how the ice cream and the three guys arrived safely at the dorm.

It was officially the end of all schedules.

“Good job. It ends with this.”

“… … .”

“Now we just have to wait for him to come back.”

“… yes.”

I got off the steering wheel, finished my last inspection, and looked back at the big moon. The boy had a look on his face as if he was thinking a lot.

I also just remembered something.

“Come to think of it, I had something to tell you after work.”

“… ! yes. What is it?”

I opened my mouth seriously. I saw the big moon swallowing saliva.

I don’t know what you expected, but it’s an important word.

that… … .

“As you know, civil servants cannot hold concurrent positions due to service regulations.”

“… … .”

“Don’t report manager earnings.”

It is a disciplinary action if a public official receives money for his own precious two-job without permission.

‘I wrote the annual leave at most, but it can be X.’

Deal with unpaid service and receive a separate payment from me later.

“… … .”

why isn’t he answering

At that time, Cha Yu-jin from the back seat raised her hand.

[Hyung, until 5 minutes ago, you were like the main character in an action movie, but now you’re a supporting character in a sitcom.]

If you’re a real office worker, a supporting role in a sitcom that manages time and attendance is better than a main character in an action movie that gets punished.

I patted the big moon on the back.

“You took a day off from food poisoning today. Understand.”

“yes… … .”

yes.

The 24 hours of such an eventful big moon mission failure ended without incident.

… That is, until the end.

* * *

I opened my eyes.

A pair of eyeballs were looking down at the surroundings. They were familiar shapes.

And a bit of a tense question.

“Is it Mundaemundae?”

I opened my mouth.

“uh.”

“Whew!”

“Oh~~ Welcome home bro~!”

It was only then that the tension seemed to be relieved, and all the fuss that was standing around trembled.

I raised my head and raised my hand. A familiar white hand appeared. It was Park Moon-dae’s hand.

A brief sense of relief passes.

‘after.’

I clenched my fist.

And the big moon, who returned to Ryu Kun-wu’s body, sighed deeply in relief… Although it seemed to exhale.

But that’s it.

“… … .”

I looked into the void without letting go of my expression.

“… ?”

“Is it Moondae?”

Noticing my appearance, the surroundings stop clamoring and become quiet.

Seon Ah-hyun asked with trembling pupils.

“Please don’t… .”

“hmm.”

I looked up at the status window.

[Suddenly!]

Abnormal state mission failed: Return to original state (2)

-Everything returned to original state as if nothing had happened

: Until the next start D-??

okay. woke up again

‘It was kind of easy. X feet… .’

Maybe they tied it up as a set just because the two of them changed, but now it kindly shows the failure of that guy’s mission to my status window.

‘Did you really think I’d say thank you?’

However, there was a hint this time.

There was something going on at the bottom.

[Target target ‘Park Moon-dae (1 / 2)’ lost]

[Release in progress]

[Remaining target: Ryu Gun-woo (2 / 2)]

Immediately… it's our name

'It's just the two who switched bodies.'

This… It's definitely information that can be squeezed out. You should find a hint here. It must be related to the big moon mission.

"… … ."

'I have to figure out the identity of the mission to see the solution.'

So I had to roll my head hard and test hypotheses and test them. But the problem is that I can't use my brain only here and now.

I held back a sigh and pressed my forehead.

'Two weeks left.'

A comeback was imminent. I had to prepare hard.

Of course, during the active period, we must prevent a catastrophic hell where the body changes on stage.

That's why you skip preparing for a comeback and focus all your brain activity on preparing for and clearing this mission failure?

'Is there anything I can do to stop being active?'

No way. Rather, if the capacity of my head is insufficient, I will have to use another guy's head.

The problem is that the brain that can be drawn is limited.

Don't all the other guys I know about comeback with me?

Testa, who was immediately informed of the situation and entered an emergency meeting, has no time to think and is in a hurry, just like me.

"You can change your body again… ?"

“You mean it seems to overlap with the activity period? okay. Then you should come up with a countermeasure. Or maybe we could consider adjusting our comeback schedule a bit… … .”

“Sejin-ah, wait a minute. I think it would be okay to talk about it at the very end. First of all, let’s check the status of the door. How is Mundae?”

“I am fine. The problem is that the body changes during the active period.”

“I’m glad you’re still well… .”

it’s like this And the big moon… .

[Hyung, I really can’t perform on stage.]

Well, I’m in this state.

“know.”

I have no intention of doing it. Calm down.

I calmed down the pop-up that was about to fall into a panic state and finished the story appropriately with the guys sitting together.

Although it was an ambiguous stopgap, saying, ‘If you need to, you can miss a day or so for reasons like the flu’.

It’s not the time to discuss all the hypotheses as they exist.

Then I sat alone and started thinking like bullshit.

‘There is no one who has a unique idea while not making a comeback right now… … .’

“… … .”

Although… Do it.

next day.

After thinking about it, I picked a suitable time and contacted one person.

– How are you?

VTIC’s cast iron.

To that strange guy who is already in the army now.

Chapter 446

If you can't debut, you'll die from an illness Episode 446

[That hyung, but why are you Judan-nim?]

VTIC Judan.

Why did this guy pop out of the list of brains to use all of a sudden?

'To be honest… There are not many candidates.'

[…] … Ah.]

Wasn't it that I was talking about the situation here and there in the first place?

My body changes, I return to the past, and the system… . I'm not stupid enough to talk about this crazy thing all over the place.

There are only a handful of people who were caught up in the incident and had no choice but to share the situation a little.

'And he's the one who seemed to have the most resistance to this kind of thing out of all of them.'

a little… It's a strange guy, but I think it might be helpful.

He said that he contacted Joo-dan with the thought that it would be worthwhile to make ends meet.

First, out of courtesy, I asked what was going on.

“How is your military life, senior?”

– There is quite a bit to talk about the efficiency of the conscription system, but I will omit it.

“… … Um yes.”

I’m starting to wonder how that guy will be treated in the unit.

But I decided to take care of my problems.

Let’s see… .

‘Because it’s a dormitory, there must be people eavesdropping on it.’

Even if you pretend not to be on the phone with a celebrity, wouldn’t you be interested if anyone could hear it?

The subject must be misunderstood.

“Actually, while I was playing ‘game’, I contacted you because I wanted to ask you something about this ‘system’.”

I brought up the system problem only after laying the groundwork for ‘contacting lightly because of hobbies, it’s a family law like a psychological test’.

Roughly speaking, the mission failed and the body changed and such and such a status message appeared… .

After exchanging several questions and answers, the guy eventually responded like this.

-Body switching… It’s a romantic comedy cliché. It’s not something I’m familiar with.

“… … .”

Should I quit?

‘Be patient.’

I have to use this guy’s brain, so I endure it for once.

“It’s rather good because I wanted to hear the unique position of a third person. What do you think?”

There was silence for a moment.

And after a while, Judan spoke up.

An idea I hadn’t even imagined.

-Have you considered the possibility that there was no mission in the first place?

what?

* * *

A few days after that.

Testa’s last-minute preparations for the comeback went smoothly without any major disturbances.

Originally, it was an album of tidal waves, so I tried to go hard because I was tired, but considering that the last album was also quite strong, ‘Savior’, I lowered the maniac concentration.

‘It was a Haetae concept.’

I need to adjust the tempo once to bring it out again.

A stylish song popular with the mini-album volume.

So the concept… .

“American public high school style teen!”

It is the standard of an idol.

… yeah i won't lie

I decided to do it when I was still at an age where I could do it shamelessly.

"Ah~ We aren't old enough to naturally digest things like this. black so sad I need to manage it better~"

"Even actors in their 30s are good at playing high school students. Don't be too extreme."

"iced coffee… um yep Yes."

For your information, Sun Ah-hyun took care of this situation that Tikitaka couldn't do.

"Everyone looked good in their costumes and looked like high school students… ! The stage will be great too."

"Ah~ That's right, I can guarantee that!"

okay. I did it right.

[oh… There is no need to be childish like this.]

Cha Yu-jin was invited to the music video and stage verification. He was so excited to even decide the role.

Everything went smoothly and according to schedule and continues to do so.

"The changing problem of Moondaemun University is… ."

"You don't have to worry about it now. Hang in there."

"… okay."

So the preparations for the comeback went smoothly.

There were no problems.

But I didn’t forget the status window.

And the day I saw this a few days later.

[Suddenly!]

Abnormal state mission failed: Return to original state (2)

-Everything returned to original state as if nothing had happened

: Until the next start D-?

I realized information.

‘The big moon.’

[Yeah??]

I took a deep breath.

“I knew the date changed.”

[…] !!]

“Look at the status window. You can see that ‘D-??’ has changed to ‘D-?’”

I picked it up with my finger.

It counts down one by one, but it means that two digits have changed to single digits.

The transition from 10 to 9.

“Nine days left.”

And if it’s the same time as last time… .

“maybe… It will most likely be around 11:00 that night.”

On the night of January 21st.

Fortunately, it was just before the comeback stage. I diligently reviewed the schedule for the day in my head.

[then… Do you cut out your schedule at that time?]

"… … ."

Here's the hard part.

"No, you can't do that."

[…] !]

"I go to work as Gunwoo Ryu and you manage your schedule as Park Moon."

I said slowly.

"That's what we have to do on the day."

[Why why?]

"Because that seems like a way to end the mission failure effect."

I remembered a conversation I had with Ju Dan a few days ago.

that nonsense.

-… no mission?

-yes. It is an empty narrative that says that there was no real culprit while trying to remove the culprit. It's so common now that it's become a cliché that breaks the cliché.

honestly that… I couldn't agree with the grotesque logic.

However, the sentence itself suddenly sparked an idea the moment I heard it.

“You turned my status ailment failure into a mission failure. So the system never considered that it was a mission in the first place. Originally, it was just an abnormal condition.”

and.

“Originally, ‘mission’ is… It means the goal I set on my own through the status window in order to receive rewards.”

Through the characteristic ‘Mission constitution’ given by this guy.

“But you can’t make it in the first place.”

The popup paused for a moment.

“Because you don’t have a status window.”

So, for Keundal, a mission is a concept that cannot exist.

[therefore… The mission… … There is none.]

Yes.

‘The mission itself doesn’t exist, but the moment the mission failure pops up, it becomes compulsory.’

The algorithm is twisted because it is blindly replaced.

therefore.

“Now, mission failure will happen unconditionally.”

instead of solving missions that don’t exist.

“The approach should be to release the target when the failure effect occurs.”

-… According to your theory, it seems like the strategy you did during the building escape game is the right strategy.

Just as I escaped from a collapsing building and the ‘target’ of the system was lost.

Instead of guessing at a mission that didn’t exist in the first place, it’s about focusing on what happened after the mission failed.

‘Then the situation was revealed very clearly.’

I chuckled.

“Do you remember what we did when we switched bodies?”

[Uh, I was a testa, and my brother followed me as a road manager… .]

“Right.”

So let me explain this again.

“You have properly lived the original daily life of ‘Park Moon-dae’ and I have escaped from the original daily life of ‘Ryu Gun-woo’.”

[…] !]

“So it seems that only Park Moon-dae was released from the target.”

Like this.

[Target target ‘Park Moon-dae (1 / 2)’ lost]

[Unlocked]

[Remaining target: Ryu Gun-woo (2 / 2)]

Then the goal is clear.

“It makes us mistaken that we are living our lives properly without changing. So you just have to lose the target.”

The big moon did not answer for a while.

And soon a pop-up appeared.

[Then, I will live as Testa Moon-Daero Park and Hyung-Woo Ryu, a civil servant… !]

That’s right.

I nodded.

‘This is correct.’

I was relieved to come to a perfect conclusion. The timing was right.

‘Now, if you do it right… .’

[Wow, I think it was a really wise decision for Hyung to contact Ju Dan! I think Judan-nim is a good person!]

“… … .”

hmm.

that… a little.

After hearing a good answer from him, I asked him a question, ‘Which girl groups are popular in the fortress army?’

And I got this answer.

-I don’t know. After work, each person can access modern civilization with a smartphone, but there is no need to be immersed in mass media such as TV.

-… … .

-Of course, the scope of use is controlled for security purposes.

-yes.

There is a guy who says that girl groups that you watch on TV aren't the trend as before, because you're using a smart phone.

-Ah, please say hello to Jaehyun.

Besides, I don't know why he told me this. Isn't that your group leader?

anyway what… Even if you don't contact me, you will see it somewhere. Because it's awards season.

I held back a sigh as I finished reminiscing about what I had said with Zhu Dan.

"… It was helpful. okay. So if we change on the night of the 21st, I think we should talk a little bit about what I will do when I go to work on the 22nd."

[Oh, I don't go to work that day!]

"… ? Oh, I guess."

Since the 21st is Saturday… The next day must be Sunday. I nodded.

Will things be much easier?

"Then, I will continue what you originally intended to do that day, so tell me what you were trying to do."

[hmm… I was thinking of resting without doing anything else on Sunday!]

For some reason, it seemed like that.

However, the next words were unexpected.

[By the way, on Saturday night… . I guess I'll be out then.]

This guy at 11:00 at night?

“okay. What is it?”

And a completely unexpected answer came back.

[actually… I’m going to a fan signing event!]

“… … .”

why do you come there… ?

‘No wait.’

yes i am on saturday… There is a fan signing event schedule. Specifically, Testa.

– Five-star AI assistant ‘Curious Vega’ advertising model Testa fan signing event!

It’s an advertising model fan signing event held by a company.

‘But why is the official there… .’

[Because he won… ?]

Ah, to get an autograph… … .

“… … .”

after. I bowed my head.

[I’m sorry! I thought I should surprise you on the day, but I think I was short-tempered. Hyung ㅠㅠ Should I cancel?]

“No.”

If you can… Let’s not affect it forward or backward. You have to live as it is. There is no need to take risks.

‘Rather good.’

Then, right before the change, you can comfortably see your face.

Since the fan signing event starts in the evening, isn’t it a perfect place to check out any unusual details?

“good. Then, I ask you to take a taxi on the way home.”

[Yes!]

The conversation with Keundal ended neatly like that.

However, time passed and on the day of the fan signing event.

A not so neat case… Occurs.

* * *

“You mean going back to the inn and turning into a big moon? Somewhere between eleven and midnight.”

“yes.”

“okay. Just in case, I checked again.”

Liu Qingyu whispered, patted me on the shoulder and passed by. I drank water in the waiting room and changed my outfit.

‘There is no ideal.’

But right after that, the ‘abnormal’ thing happened.

“There will be a delay of about an hour and a half due to the organizers… .”

“… … .”

“There is no schedule behind us. How about taking a little break and adjusting your condition… … .”

The manager was speechless. In fact, it's 'condition control' because it's a good word, but it's just a problem that can't be helped even if you're angry with being late from work.

'Because the advertiser is Ohsung, this side doesn't seem to be able to go out strong' because Ohseong is such a large company. anyway… … .

I pressed my temples.

'Is it dangerous if I reject the job and leave work because I'm sick?'

Let's see if I'm normally… .

'Of course I waited and digested the schedule.'

shit. It is already confirmed in that it is a fan signing event at a time when there are no schedules later. Because the ripple effect when it is canceled is enormous.

'… Should I go ahead?'

Or should I make a sudden move?

I clasped my hands. It was then.

"It's dumb… !"

"… !"

Sun Ah-hyun sat down next to him.

"are you okay. we usually… Thinking of the autograph session time, before that… It will end. I hope you don't worry too much and do it in a way that is comfortable for you… ."

"That's right. Statistically speaking… Probably in the car or in the waiting room after the event!"

“… … .”

I looked at the people around me and nodded.

Surprisingly, I felt a little more at ease.

“okay.”

However, I will briefly regret this judgment… .

I didn’t know that the short talk corner in the middle of the autograph session would be delayed again due to equipment problems.

Besides, this piece of the damn system moved a little faster than I expected.

… … So when I came to my senses, it was like this.

blink.

Before I knew it, I was standing behind a high school student holding a sign.

A hamster headband was dangling from the high school student’s bobbed hair.

“… … .”

Beyond the high school student, he could see Ryu Cheng-wu, who had finished signing the autograph with a smile on his face.

Our eyes met. I averted my gaze for once.

“… ?”

Liu Chengwu seems puzzled. However, as if he had gradually grasped the situation, his eyes changed.

And there, right next to me, sits a familiar face with all sorts of bizarre items for fansigns on his head.

… … grow. Moondae Park.

[brother… !]

‘I’d rather collapse and be taken to the ambulance.’

Now that this has happened, you can consider skipping this turn by somehow ignoring the event.

but… I can’t help but see this.

[Surprising!]

Abnormal state mission failed: Return to original state (2)

-Everything back to normal as if nothing had happened

: 47:59:59

until the end 48 hours until the end.

time doubled.

That was a bad sign.

‘Leave it like this… It may be permanently changed in the next or next time.’

I looked back in line. Also no one

In other words, it is a situation where only the two people in front of me need to get Park Moon-dae’s signature and pass.

“… … .”

[I am… I think I’ll be able to collapse properly this time… … .]

‘… Listen carefully.’

I closed my eyes tightly.

‘You are Testa Moondae Park.’

[…] … .]

And I… .

‘… A light fan getting autographs from the members.’

Trying not to stumble, I began to approach Liu Cheng-wu… … .

That’s how the worst role play on earth began.

Chapter 447

episode 447, an extremely normal fan signing event is taking place.

“Aww, he’s so handsome… .”

“Haha thank you.”

Liu Qingyu, who is dealing with the person in front of me, is unmoved even though it is clear that he has grasped the whole mess.

That guy is definitely a pro.

And I… .

[Tongue brother! Manipulate me quickly!] As the fan from Ryu Cheong-woo sits in front of him, he is watching the pop-up that Keun-dal is frantically pouring out in a state of panic.

I was in too much of a hurry to start giving orders. I understand.

I sent the message as calmly as possible.

‘okay. You just have to speak as I call you.’

Since this fan signing event is hosted by a company, the staff is different, so fans are not assigned to the front in a hurry.

So, on the contrary, there are advantages that require less crazy quickness like a regular fan signing event with a fast tempo.

you can do it!

[Yes!]

But right after that, the trembling pop-up popped up again.

It was probably written like a stream of consciousness.

[…] But this person came to see my brother, but I really don't know if it's okay for me to do it… .]

"… … ."

[Oops sorry! It's a situation that can't be helped, but I cried… I won't think about it anymore!]

No.

It's a good enough idea. … I did too.

So we just need to get better at it.

'You almost played me on the radio.'

It is an undeniable fact that the body is Testa Park Moon-dae. And since I am also sharing my view, I can fully implement the experience this person expected.

Of course I know. That person might be the one who just bought an AI secretary, tried it for fun, and won.

But isn't it more likely that you're a real fan?

'If I convey what I'm sending now like that, he'll really meet Testa Park Mun-dae.'

In fact, I'm right next to you and I'm listening to you.

'Can you help me to have that kind of experience?'

[…] … Yes!!]

Okay.

After taking a deep breath, I am fully prepared for a real-time response… … .

“Hey Moondae~ You know the love viewer acting you showed on that radio, can’t you just do it once? I miss you so much!”

‘… … .’

[…] … .]

‘Thank you very much.’

[Yes.]

That big moon passed the first turn safely.

‘I told you to wait a bit before the next person comes out, saying that the pen won’t come out.’

And finally my turn came.

The person in front of Ryu Gun-woo… it’s all gone

‘… after.’

I looked blankly ahead and eventually gave up everything and headed for the long table.

dump.

I sat down on the chair across from Liu Cheng-wu. This view is the first time again.

‘Is this how it looks from here?’

Every time I was in the position of looking at people from the other side. So this composition is also new.

And I realized I couldn't wait any longer.

'shit.'

So we made eye contact.

Ryu Cheong-woo… laughed

'… Smile?'

"How did you come?"

"… … !"

"I'm surprised you can just contact me."

yes.

Ryu Kun-wu is a relative of Ryu Cheng-wu. Then this… Is it natural?

Arguably, the water has already been spilled. It goes naturally.

I calmly opened my mouth.

"Because seeing them as a family and meeting them as idols are a bit different. So I applied. I am your fan."

Thinking about it, I'd rather be thankful. It's easier to be a little more brazen.

Ryu Cheng-wu did not burst into laughter. I just asked mildly.

"Are you such a fan?"

"uh. What I do after work is to look at testa content."

Whether it is the subject or the big moon, it is a clean truth without a single lie.

And as if realizing that, Ryu Cheng-wu exploded here.

“ha ha ha!”

“haha.”

I tried to laugh along and held out the sign again. Liu Cheng-wu smiles while reflexively signing an autograph.

‘stop.’

Stop it before being a relative appears on social media.

“Which content did you like best?”

But don’t act like a guy you know is a real fan.

“All good. It’s funny that it came out on the radio a few days ago.”

“Oh did you?”

After signing the autograph with a smile, Ryu Chung-woo lightly wrote on the autograph and passed it over, as if putting a PS on it.

“here.”

-I’ll pass it on to the other kids right away. don’t worry.

This… … .

“thanks.”

“what.”

Indeed, his personality and composure were beyond reproach.

‘I picked the leader well.’

I nodded and prepared to move on… … .

[Ah, that’s right bro! I brought that fan sign item! Everyone said they did… .]

“… … .”

item?

Come to think of it… I didn’t notice because the situation went so damn well, but I’m holding something in my hand right now.

‘… shopping bag.’

I have a bad feeling about it.

But if you don’t give me this… The judgment that the cancellation of mission failure could be out of order because I couldn’t follow this guy Haru exactly.

Because of that, I put my hand inside the bag without saying anything.

To make it easier to see, it even has a tag that reads ‘Cheongwoo Ryu’. Was it because I was worried that it would be crowded during the fan signing event and I couldn’t find it?

‘What if?’

I roughly took out the props.

that… … it was gad

“… … .”

That Joseon Dynasty.

‘But what kind of detail did you go so far with?’

Isn’t this the hat used by officials? I won the lottery to write this… … no. It’s okay if you’re happy.

It’s a problem because I have to give it.

“Oh, can I use this?”

yes

Liu Cheng-wu took care of himself and brought the hat himself and put it on his head.

A high school student wearing a hamster headband, who was in front of me, gives a thumbs up right next to me.

I didn’t choose.

“Haha thanks brother.”

anyway… It seems that the first member Ryu Chung-woo’s autograph was successfully completed.

“Come again.”

don’t come

However, it was not possible to move on to the next hitter after Ryu Chung-woo. Because that was Park Moondae.

Thanks to my diligent fulfillment of the excuse I asked him to wait, he was just about to start signing the person in front of me.

And the moment I heard that person’s greeting to ‘Park Moon-dae’, I felt it.

“Hello~”

My voice trembled less.

In addition, his attitude became more natural than when he was dealing with Liu Cheng-wu.

‘It means I’m not a fan of Moondae Park.’

It was fortunate.

I was a little relieved while popping up a response phrase to the big moon.

He won’t be very interested in Park Moon-dae, so if Keun-dal is kind enough, he’ll be able to get over it… … .

“Oh right there… Can you give me that Tibetan fox look just once?”

‘… … .’

This… It’s something I can’t instruct.

In the end, I blindly watched the big moon trying its best to imitate something expressionless.

I guess I usually look like that. I will reflect.

And soon the guy collapsed.

“I’m sorry… It was a bit awkward.”

‘oh.’

But that’s quite… Well, it’s natural because he’s the original owner of the body.

“… !! no! It was cute! Oppa is so cute!”

“… ?? thank you… .”

[Sorry bro. I think

I messed up a bit.] .’

[Yes?]

‘No.’

I almost gave a shit to a lottery winner with a 7th grade.

I threw away my useless thoughts and moved to my seat.

dump.

So now I… He is sitting in front of Park Moon-dae wearing a hat with a speech bubble that reads ‘the world’s best apple mongrel’ and dog ears.

face to face.

It’s a very rare feeling.

However, since we are aware that our roles have changed, we intend to do our best.

‘Let’s see.’

I clasped my hands together and opened my mouth cautiously.

“That Mr. Moondae… I’m really cheering for them on a regular basis.”

“Puch.”

“Hey, even before debut, you are my favorite! Oh, that’s right… ? My favorite!”

“yes… . you’re right. thank you… … .”

The pronunciation seems to be muffled just now, but it was good. I guess I’ll just have to go this way. I nodded.

Come to think of it, this guy got my autograph… .

“sign… Here you are.”

You write very plausibly. It's not surprising anymore.

'Did you practice separately?'

[No, my body remembered it. I was really excited… .]

Oh, was it like that?

Anyway, I continued the friendly fan signing conversation.

"really! thank you I'll be sure to take care of the next activity too… !"

Of course, I didn't forget the items either.

"and maybe… could you write this for me? Heck, if you don't like it, you don't have to use it!"

"… … would you hate Cute."

[…] It's okay if you don't follow me like that… … . hehehe… … .]

I tried my best.

I saw the big moon barely raise the golden crown over its head.

'good.'

Signed by myself.

From now on… Members in earnest.

While I was getting Keundal's autograph, I saw Ryu Chengwu whispering to the other guys behind his back.

And the seat next to Moondae Park is right… It's Bae Se-jin.

'He's a calm guy, so he's fine as an early hitter.'

I moved the chair.

Then Bae Se-jin flinched.

“… … .”

“… … .”

“hello.”

“… yes. hello.”

It looks like you’ve already heard the news, but why do you seem so at a loss?

‘Is it because I didn’t think of it as acting?’

Then it would be better to loosen up the atmosphere a little.

After a momentary judgment, I opened my mouth first.

“Do you remember me? I said hello in the bathroom back then… … .”

“… ! Ah ah yes.”

“You’ve become even cooler than then.”

“thank you… .”

Sejin Bae looked at me as if he was a bit surprised.

‘Are you relaxed?’

However, the guy swallowed saliva and bowed his head with a sign as if he had made up his mind. and spoke slowly

“I was a big help at that time. Even if you say you’re not really a fan of me. Regardless of that… I just wanted to say thank you.”

“… … .”

“Thank you for coming to the fan signing event today.”

‘To. Bae Se-jin, who completed the autograph with ‘Ryu Gun-woo’, held out the autographed paper.

‘I am.’

“Thank you for continuing to work for me.”

“… … .”

“And you are a fan of Sejin. I will continue to support you in the future.”

“… yes.”

I shook hands with Bae Se-jin.

It was a very powerful feeling.

‘It’s okay.’

I wanted to end the conversation with him like that, but… There is one left this time.

‘Oh item.’

So when I rummaged through my shopping bag, what I found was… .

‘… It has hamster hair.’

I looked up and saw Bae Se-jin.

“… ?”

“no.”

Already in Bae Se-jin’s head… The hamster headband was up. That was in the head of a high school student earlier.

‘It overlaps.’

The items of the big month were put in the shopping bag on the road.

I’m sorry, but this is a game that ends the moment you lose in a fight.

So I moved on to the next guy.

The guy sitting in the center of the fan signing is… .

“hello… !”

This is Seon Ah-hyun.

Seon Ah-hyun is sitting with a confident face.

Looking back on my last radio experience, I didn’t think I would have any problems with this guy. I’m not the kind of person who would make fun of people for nothing.

I relaxed a bit and sat down.

“Yes hello… greatness.”

However, after talking for a few minutes in a state of tension, I cleared my throat. So I quickly clear my throat… .

Seon Ah-hyun hurriedly picked up a new drink next to her and handed it to her.

“… ! water here… Oh, there’s also green tea… !”

Sudden counter-tribute?

‘for a moment.’

In an instant, the title of Cyber Lecca hit my head and passed by.

-[Discrimination against Sun Ah-hyun fans] Sun Ah-hyun treated only Muggle men specially at fansigns?

Can not be done.

“it’s okay. I’m fine. I’m a little nervous. I’m a fan of Testa since before debut, but it’s my first time coming to a fan signing event.”

“ah… .”

Seon Ah-hyun hurriedly removed the water.

‘no.’

There is no need to make the atmosphere awkward. There are still very few adult men in the venue, so it couldn’t be more noticeable.

I ended up… I chose ‘it’ to pass this situation naturally.

“Rather than that, could you write this for me?”

It is an item prepayment.

“… … sure.”

Seon Ah-hyun hesitantly took the crown of deer antlers and put it on her head.

“Aagh!”

“Ahyeonah! here!”

All sorts of screams erupted from behind.

I was convinced It fit wonderfully.

‘Where did you buy this?’

[Ah, get orders made on social media!]

‘… ?’

I didn’t really ask, but I knew something.

Anyway, I deliberately turned my body slightly so that Ahyeon Seon’s home runners could pull out the cut, and then I had a few more conversations with Ahyeon Sun.

And the time ended while reading the writing he left on the autographed paper.

– Always sorry and thank you. I will do my best to become a friend you can rely on more in the future. go for it!

It means break time is over.

What’s next… .

“Hello~”

“Yes.”

Because it’s a big deal.

The guy smiled brightly.

And he is showing off a skill that moves his pen without even looking at the sign, and dares to move his mouth as well.

“Wow~ How did you come?”

“Because I am a Testa fan.”

“Oh, thank you~ But who are you a fan of?”

“Mundae.”

“Big.”

Big Sejin hurriedly covered his face.

I feel like I can see countless 'ㅋ's passing by inside, so I'm even more pissed off… … no let's wait

"Wow~ I think you two look alike!"

"Oh really? It's the first time I've ever heard of it. thank you."

"why! The original person… Keuheup They say you like someone who resembles you~ Why is there such a thing!"

Big Sejin laughed shamelessly and said.

"I am a fan of myself~"

"Keuheop!"

Raebin Kim almost spewed water from the side.

Fortunately, with superhuman patience, it seems that he avoided spraying the sign paper.

"… … ."

I took a deep breath.

And he shamelessly opened his mouth.

"Of course I am an all-fan."

"Sigh."

Do not laugh.

"I'm also a fan of Sejin-nim. Is it because Sejin-nim seems to resemble Moondae a lot?"

"… … ."

“I cheer for you. He is so cool in so many ways.”

“… Ah yes. Uhm~”

Keun Se-jin eventually held out both hands with a slightly embarrassed expression.

“thank you!”

I feel like I won somehow.

I high-fived him and moved on.

Rabin Kim.

The guy… … It was serious.

“To me… Is there anything you would like?”

Anyone who sees it knows they’re being threatened.

Anyway, to the guy who said he was ready to listen to anything I said, I also started reciting my requirements seriously.

“I hope you will continue to show great activities in the future.”

“I also take a good rest to manage my condition.”

“of course.”

“It would be better if you could go to bed before 12:00 at least two days a week.”

“… ??”

Then, when you turn 30, you go through hardships.

“And some of this.”

“Ah yes.”

I naturally took out an item labeled ‘Kim Rae-bin’ from the bag. At this point, I don’t know if I’ve gained respect or resigned myself to it.

‘Now, if I hand this over… … .’

“… … .”

“… … hmm.”

But what is this?

Something like a lump of white silicon… .

[You can do it in your ears!]

“You can do it in your ears.”

“I see! It must be an ear cuff.”

It almost became a strange situation where the giver did not know the identity of the object.

I stood up silently, confirming that Raebin Kim had soft angel wings on his ears.

Now only the last batter remains.

“Hi~”

Cha Yoo-jin.

The guy who has already enjoyed an amazing fan signing event with my ex, even holding hands, is waving in this direction.

Chapter 448

If you can't debut, you'll die of a disease Episode 448

Now, if you pass Cha Yoo-jin, this sweaty fan signing event is over. I immediately sat down in a chair.

'Let's finish quickly.'

Maybe it was because of my mood, my back felt sore.

Maybe it wasn't because of my mood. Of course, Ryu Gun-woo is the last in the order, so I'm the only one sitting among the 7 chairs.

Even if it took, how did this order take place?

[Sorry ㅠㅠ]

If you didn't manipulate the order, you don't have to apologize.

I held my breath and bowed my head.

"hello."

Cha Yoo-jin grinned and handed over the autographed paper to find her picture.

"Welcome! What is your name?"

"… Well, I'll take Ryu Gun-woo."

Then, Cha Yu-jin opened her mouth.

“You don’t use BM? Don’t you like my nickname?”

‘uh?’

Wait a minute, it’s BM.

Isn’t that the nickname I gave to Keundal when I changed my body last time?

‘this guy… Can’t you see that it’s changed now?’

I looked back at Kim Rae-bin for a moment. Kim Rae-bin’s expression is ‘I don’t know why Moondae hyung is looking at me’.

There must have been an error in communication during the delivery process.

‘Rather, it went well.’

If you don’t know it’s me, you can comfortably pretend to be a big moon, get an autograph, and finish it.

I started.

[Ahhh I can’t see… !]

Why are you looking here?

‘Blowing hearts at the camera.’

[yes… … .]

I hurriedly shook my hand at Cha Yu-jin.

“Oh no! It was good. For some reason, I feel like I should use my real name in a place like this… Oh, even if you write it as BM, of course I like it!”

“Got it.”

Cha Yoo-jin hummed and moved the pen on the autographed paper. And then endlessly ask questions.

“Did you eat? Are you from afar?”

Why?

No, I don’t know if I should say it’s good to have a fair attitude to investigate whether or not someone you know comes to the fan signing event.

Anyway, I answered casually.

“Yes, I ate well. And um… It didn’t come from far. It’s close to my house!”

“Oh! I live nearby too! We may have seen each other by chance.”

I guess so. because we live together

Cha Yoo-jin smiled.

“But why are you talking respectfully? Is your brother younger than me?”

“ah.”

Come to think of it, the two talked.

I waved my hand.

“Anyway, because there is a seat… ! I don’t think that would work. I’ll let go from now on!”

“OK~ I like that! Take it easy.”

Cha Yoo-jin dared to hold out a hand and even gave a high-five. It’s like winning a basketball game.

Besides, he didn’t stop talking.

“Anything else to do? go do everything It’s not good to regret it!”

thank you for the timing

“Oh wait… !”

I rummaged through my shopping bag and pulled out an item with the name ‘Cha Yoo-jin’ on it.

however… Well, the string with these shiny grains… … .

It’s an accessory worn on the face, but to put it bluntly, it’s for the stage.

If you wear it anywhere other than the stage, it means that it is gorgeous enough to attract aggro unless it is Halloween.

therefore… I mean.

‘I think it will be in the Top 10 items that Cha Yoo-jin will never wear unless it’s on stage.’

In that sense, it might be seen as a smart choice.

What do you want to do? It’s me, just give it to me.

I quickly put out the face chain.

Cha Yoo-jin accepted the envelope with curious eyes, but soon took out the chain with a wink.

“Do you want to see what I did?”

“yes.”

Not me, but your fans.

“all right.”

Cha Yujin wore the item. I can hear the home horses screaming of joy from here.

“Wow!”

No, I’m actually hearing it.

‘It’s fortunate that everyone is happy.’

The purpose of the fan signing event is being achieved, so it’s okay… . I slightly twisted my body to expose Cha Yoo-jin.

Cha Yu-jin shakes her head slightly.

“Fit well?”

“Oh, it suits you so well!”

“Umm… i know.”

Then why did you even ask?

Cha Yoo-jin answered a little casually, then lowered her head and whispered as if telling a secret.

“I don’t normally do things like this. But I did it because Lover gave it to me. you know?”

“… … .”

“I only remember my brother!”

‘Yeah.’

He’s a really great guy. Once opened, fans will never miss it.

“okay. I will definitely remember!”

“Yeah~!”

Cha Yoo-jin laughed and removed the pen from the autograph. and gave it to me

It means that the fan signing event is finally over.

‘done.’

We’ve passed this damn situation… !

“thank you!”

“Thank you!”

I smiled and tried to get up from my seat.

It was then.

[It was fun! Can we try it again at the dorm later?]

“… !”

“Come in! See you again.”

I reflexively looked down at the paper in my hand.

The autograph left by Cha Yu-jin.

Both sides of his face… Two identical signs were written side by side.

However, the recipients were different.

-To. BM

-To. Gunwoo

Ryu raised his head.

Cha Yujin opened her mouth and waved her hand.

‘Mundae hyung!’

It was an exquisite timing that didn’t seem to be caught by the camera behind it.

that… I don’t know if I was aiming for it or not paying attention.

“… … .”

I stumbled back to the audience and sat down.

The high school student who got the autograph in front of me happened to be sitting next to me. Ask me.

“How were you there?”

“… It was amazing.”

“Yes?!”

“yes.”

that guy… do i have to act

Should we be surprised that Cha Yoo-jin came out in the most natural way while grasping the situation?

Or I don’t know if I should be ashamed that I’ve been tricked by him.

‘I’ll turn… .’

oh shit

I refrained from wanting to close my eyes and tried to correct my posture and sit down.

Then I heard the vibration of something hitting the shopping bag.

‘hmm?’

The only thing left would be Bae Se-jin's hamster headband, which he omitted.

I looked inside again.

Surprisingly, there were still items left in the shopping bag other than the hamster headband.

When I took it out… It's a bear's paw with pink jelly on it.

"… … ."

It has a name tag on it, but even if you don't look at it, you'll know who it is.

[Lee Se-jin]

Then I realized.

That he forgot to give me an item because he was arguing with Sejin.

"… … ."

"Hey, did you not give me this?"

"… yes."

… Let's think about it.

First fan signing event.

I was nervous and skipped one gift… . hmm.

'It's quite possible to happen.'

It was natural.

"I'm nervous."

“Ah~ I must be so sorry.”

“It’s kind of like that.”

It’s not too bad, but I decided to deliver it later anyway. I packed my shopping bag again.

“Everyone, it’s very late, so be careful going in!”

“See you next time~ I love you!”

And watching the guys who worked hard until the end of the fan service, it seemed that the madness of the day was safely over.

I naturally waved like everyone else.

Then, I met the eyes of the manager of Testa, who was sitting in the back seat.

“… … .”

“… … .”

It’s a look that makes you doubt your own eyes.

I quietly averted my gaze.

‘Isn’t it possible that the family is a fan?’

The eventful fan signing event ended like that.

“Whoa.”

Immediately after joining the crowd, he naturally left the fan signing event.

[brother?! Where are you going?]

A panicked pop-up arrived.

‘Where are you going? Go back to the officetel.’

As long as it’s changed, we should live each other’s daily life as it is.

[Ahhh… That’s right.]

After a short conversation asking the other guys to tell me, I walked over and called a taxi.

And I realized it only after looking at the status window again.

for a moment.

‘It’s been two days since I changed my body, not one day.’

And in 48 hours… That means it lasts until Monday. I realized once again the exact meaning of the words.

‘… Ryu Gun-woo has to go to work.’

Idol Civil Service Daily Experience Winner.

* * *

Brilliant Monday morning.

I looked all over SNS.

-Ohsung really can’t hold an event, right? I almost could n’t get on the last train because of the 2-hour delay at the fansign

But if you go to a private account or an anonymous site… .

‘also.’

-You mean that the last Namdeok brought all the fansitem here? (Photo)

-I wonder if there was a person in charge or a sasaeng

, but there are still bastards who believe in sasaeng

rumors by gender

‘This much… I was determined.’

Even if the big moon came anyway, it would have been the same. I shrugged and passed it.

Anyway, it was mixed with rumors, so it was a voice that would come out when Testa made a full-fledged comeback.

um just… this guy kinda

-I was seated next to this person, but it seemed like he was a real fan. I brought all the other kids, but there was a member who couldn’t give it to me because he was nervous. He was so cute

And it seemed like it was slowly getting shared on social media.

‘… Don’t steal personal information.’

I’m not going to get to that point. Let’s believe in the aggression of social media users towards such moral issues.

I shook my head and turned the screen.

Then a few texts pop up. -Geonwoo Geonwoo hyung

, how are you doing

? I must see you in the evening. -I’m hungry ?

-I got a call saying that you went home well.

It’s a message of regards from the members who sent it subtly changed to be acceptable. I don’t know what’s changed, but even a text message from Ryu Chung-woo. -Don’t forget today’s plan

, yes.

Oh

, why am I wearing a coat… It’s because I’m on the bus to work right now.

Yes

, I’m finally going to work as Ryu Gun-woo .

.Actually, what’s more serious than what I

‘m riding… is whether I can properly serve as a level 7 civil servant.

[Don’t

worry

It’s a relief that Testa doesn’t have an outside schedule during the day.’

Still, it seems like Keundal has adapted to Park Moon-dae’s practice schedule.

Of course…

[…I'm a little worried about what will happen in the evening. A plan.]

"… … ."

Let's go and think about that then.

[yes… .]

The urgent thing right now is your work.

I got off the arriving bus and went to my destination. Ward office.

Ryu Kun-woo was in the Transportation Administration Department.

"hello."

"Chief Ryu is here~"

"Hello, Chief!"

The atmosphere wasn't bad.

'I don't think it's a busy time.'

I nodded here and there and followed the big moon's advice to find my seat and sit down.

'I'm counting on you.'

[Yes!]

That's how the work started.

And it wasn't long before I realized that the big moon was quite good at document work.

'oh.'

First of all, the classification is clean, and each content is not a meaningless roundabout, and there seems to be no useless expression. The visibility of written images and data is good.

‘I don’t know anything about civil servant society.’

It was a study that would be a waste of time if I didn’t stick, but it was fortunate that it seemed to fit my aptitude.

[Next, log in to that favorite site first!]

Oh, yes.

It was a little awkward, but it was a time when I continued to work while communicating with Keundal without any problems.

“hey!”

A middle-aged man comes and leans against the screen.

“Chief Ryu. Have you finished drafting that guide sign?”

Hmm, it sounds awkward to hear right after work on Monday.

However, perhaps he was expecting an answer, he patted Ryu Gun-woo on the back and left.

leave these words

“Properly this time! Please~”

“… … .”

hmm.

just that… I think it was scratched.

Malice was felt.

I called the big moon, described the person, and asked.

‘Are you the boss?’

[ah… It’s similar. Since the water supply is the same… .]

The pop-up hesitated a bit, then answered clearly.

[Anyway, it happens often, so you don’t have to worry about it!]

often… You say this?

‘Isn’t that a clear sound?’

After thinking for a while, I entered the document box. And I searched all the documents that this guy drafted.

Traces of being rejected can be seen on every one of them.

However, no matter how much I looked at the documents, Keundal’s draft approval batting average was not this high.

“… … .”

Hmm.

[Ah, after listening to hyung’s explanation, I don’t think there’s anything big today! I think it will be okay if you do a few urgent things!]

… okay.

As he said, I wrote drafts and started handling complaints that came over the weekend.

First, I thought to look at the situation.

and after a few hours.

“We will go to work outside. It’s a meeting. Please increase your attendance~”

The guy who appeared earlier started talking in one corner of the office.

“By the way, originally, Chief Ryu decided to go… .”

“Uh, but that… The police chief, Mr. Choi, come. So I’m going to go here with the chief.”

oh.

I turned my head from my seat. When our eyes meet, he shakes his hand.

“Uhh~ Chief Ryu is resting. You don’t know about this anyway. You can go with the chief again this time.”

“Chief… .”

The guy named ‘Chief Lee’, who looked back at Kun-Woo Ryu and ‘Chief’ as if he noticed, finally shut up.

It means that I will follow the words of the colder man.

“… … .”

“And take a break and look at our plan over there. Don’t post the payment. huh?”

Whoa.

I watched without a word as he left.

Then, after calling the big moon and explaining the situation, he asked straight-forward.

‘What is this bastard?’

The pop-up appeared like a sigh.

[Ah… . You did it again. But I'm too young… It's true that there aren't many people in this neighborhood.]

That's why, instead of Ryu Kun-woo, who was originally supposed to go to the meeting with the 7th grader, he brought the 9th grader who he knew because he was blood related to the local governor.

And instead, they are 'fairly' leaving other troublesome or brainy tasks.

'… … .'

I asked.

'Is he the one who kept rejecting Gian?'

[Ah yes! You see it first before you go up to the team leader.]

It was mixed with resentment.

Then it's right that you don't use Ryu Kun-woo to eat.

'It's just fucking me.'

I crossed my arms while looking at the computer.

"… … ."

Come to think of it, it seems that Ryu Gun-woo is the only young 7th grader in this district office.

'It's a problem because it sticks out too much.'

I can see that you are constantly trying to find it.

[But actually, I'm rather comfortable, so it's nice. I don't really meet people who are uncomfortable. I can quit the knife!]

That guy seems to be really sincere.

He had such a hard time in his school days, so he must have been doing his job without blinking an eye.

Saying ‘I guess you want to do that~’.

but.

“… … .”

[Hyung?]

‘It’s good to be comfortable.’

[Is that right?]

‘But wouldn’t it be more comfortable if the annoying bastard is gone?’

[…] ?!]

I had a pleasant lunch break with the team leader while waiting for the ‘chief’ to return.

[Hyung hyung?!]

I’m really looking forward to the afternoon.

Chapter 449

If you don’t debut, you’ll die from an illness Episode 449

Unfortunately, Moondae Park remembers him as the title ‘Chief’.

This person remembered when Ryu Kun-woo was first appointed.

-hello!

Most of them go to the city hall and roll, but this guy fell into the ward office, wondering if he was lucky or had a back.

It quickly became clear that the latter was not the case, as there was not a single phone call to ask for a favor.

‘I have to get the flag from the beginning of that kind of thing.’

I was satisfied once.

You have to know something to do your job, but what do newbies who have just passed the exam know?

-Chief Ryu, are your parents here? Where is your hometown?

-uh… no. We recently moved!

He doesn’t have any special connections in this town, so he’s not useful for the business that a 7th grader at the ward office can do.

‘Then I’ll have to work hard.’

I was thinking of showing some of the bitterness of social life.

It was even more annoying to pretend that I was holding on steadfastly, as if I hadn't had a hard time growing up because I had a thin face.

I didn't want to see it even more because it seemed like I was enduring it with pride that I did well in the test without blood on my head.

I thought I would run away crying and complaining that I would somehow go to City Hall around the time of my next appointment.

'her… Well, whatever.'

The work has already been done.

He has a lot of responsibilities and responsibilities, and he left all the things that were not properly handed over to Ryu Gun-woo, and took care of everything that would help him with networking and promotion.

And he thought of his actions as a kind of resourcefulness and a fairly generous treatment for Ryu Kun-woo.

'If I had gone to another ward office, I would have already made a fuss about resigning.'

Isn't this enough to work more broadly than City Hall?

In any case, it would be impossible to live up to that here now. I have to press it down now so I don't see a guy like that get promoted quickly.

He really believed that.

But Monday.

"hello."

When he sees Ryu Gun-woo at work, he is momentarily taken aback.

It was when Ryu Gun-woo looked all over the office with a searching gaze.

"… … ."

Was it that cold impression?

Originally, it was a soft expression that seemed to be a little docile, but somehow the impression seemed to have changed.

It was to the point where it seemed that the person had changed in an instant.

“Hello chief!”

However, Ryu Kun-wu, who was greeting others, had returned to his usual docile expression before he knew it.

It was the same when he deliberately visited and whispered quietly.

“Properly this time! Please~”

“… yes.”

it serves him right. Can’t you even reply?

He shrugged and moved on.

‘It must be because of my mood.’

But here he should have been aware.

Ryu Kun-woo looked at the computer and smiled.

that afternoon.

When he came back after finishing the meal in the name of the meeting as usual, the atmosphere in the office strangely changed.

“… ?”

On the other side of the office, I could see a human figure through the half-open door.

The team leader was talking to Ryu Gun-woo at the table.

‘Why are you like that?’

It’s time to sit in front of the computer and tap the keyboard, but what the hell is the wind blowing like that?

It didn’t seem like something was going to happen. The atmosphere seemed good.

“haha!”

At that time, Ryu Gun-woo, who was talking neatly with a smile on his face, found this side.

“… !”

And when the team leader said something to Ryu Gun-woo, he got up and came to the door and called the party.

It wasn’t just him.

“Chief Lee.”

“yes.”

9th grade Former chairman of the Seoul Metropolitan Council The nephew of the current city council member in this district.

“Chief is calling.”

“ah… … .”

“Oh yes. Come and sit here for a moment.”

“Ah yep!”

When the team leader beckoned, Chief Lee hurriedly walked out from behind and entered the door.

‘… ??’

Ryu Kun-woo, who was smiling calmly at the ‘Chief’ who was unable to react to the sudden situation, turned his head.

Our eyes met.

“… … .”

Ryu Gun-woo seemed to be staring at himself for a moment, but… .

Click.

closed the door

‘… That’s a fucking foot.’

Get offended and fuck.

The ‘Chief’, who felt uncomfortable for nothing, spat out a few curse words inside and headed to the bathroom.

This was the first anomaly.

And the second anomaly is witnessed two hours before work.

On the way up to the rooftop to smoke.

He saw Ryu Kun-woo and Chief Lee next to the emergency stairs.

The two of them were talking with quite serious faces.

‘Hi and say shit.’

Do you mean they came all the way out during work hours because they had something great to talk about?

He couldn’t stand it this time and came down after enjoying a cigarette and went to ask Lee openly.

“What kind of conversation do you find so interesting, Chief Lee?”

Chief Lee flinched and slurred his words.

“ah… Just for helping me with a complaint.”

“Iya, Chief Liu helped me, right? How great?”

Of course, it was meant to be ridiculed, not praised. It’s like how can you help?

However, as always, the passive response did not return.

“yes. Director Ryu is a kind and nice person.”

“… … .”

uh?

‘This child… Do you show discomfort?’

The guy who usually laughs or talks to me… .

He almost lost his sarcasm for a moment, but forced a hearty smile.

“Well, except for his personality, Chief Ryu is a corpse. People are good.”

“yes… .”

Again, the reaction was not so good, but he decided to be satisfied that his opponent bowed anyway.

But by the time I get off work.

A final surprise has occurred.

“Chief, shall we go for a drink?”

It was an invitation he did once a week to become a good boss who buys food and drinks well.

However, the chief shook his head.

“hmm… I have an appointment today.”

“… !”

It’s euphemistic, but refusal is refusal.

It hadn’t happened since the first appointment.

“… okay?”

“yes. I’m really sorry, but I’ll see you tomorrow. Thank you, chief.”

After that, he walks out of the office at a brisk pace.

In the meantime, he glanced back at Ryu Kun-woo and even bowed his head!

“… … .”

He was dumbfounded, but somehow felt chills inside.

‘It’s strange.’

He rushed out of the office and into the elevator.

But there, two female employees who had just been in the office were getting into the open elevator first.

while being stupid about something

“Hey, that’s right.”

“Oh, then completely… .”

But the moment our eyes met, I flinched and looked back at each other. And he laughs like he's embarrassed.

"… ??"

Ding-.

At that moment, the elevator arrived. The two hurried out the door.

It's like you don't even want to ask questions.

"You worked hard."

"Let's go in~"

In the end, 'Chief' was left alone in the lobby.

without knowing anything

Unable to sense and alienated.

"… … ."

what.

'Why are all those things like that?'

It was definitely a day that was no different from last week until the morning.

what the hell is this… What do you mean?!

* * *

An empty office with no one working overtime.

"Then, Mr. Gern-wu, go inside."

"yes. thank you."

I was left alone in the office, seeing off the team leader. I had something to take.

[Hyung, what the hell are you doing… Did you do it?]

What is it ?

‘I solved it like you.’

[Where the hell are you going?!]

Pop-up screams. There seems to be a misunderstanding.

Well, to explain this properly… Is this first?

I asked stupidly.

‘Why do you think this foreman was following you around outside meetings?’

[uh… ? You must have done it because it was your job, right?]

That’s right.

would you like it? Absolutely not.

‘I did it unconditionally because I was scared.’

[…] !]

In my first social life, I didn’t want to look bad to my boss.

Everyone’s life is the same, so how could it be better for a guy who seems to have come as a public servant because of his work-life balance to be dragged around hosting meetings while away from work?

There’s no way he wouldn’t have been dissatisfied with hanging out with such an old-fashioned guy.

‘I must have been annoyed that he said he was nice to me.’

It’s like the act of grabbing something in the evening to buy me food.

‘therefore.’

[…] So?]

Just… It’s just that I made a cut angle.

‘It’s just a matter of not being scared.’

So, first, we attacked the most powerful speakers. Team Leader.

-Ah, chief. That’s what Chief Lee did… !

I deliberately praised ‘Chief Lee’ while giving a plausible reason during lunch with the team leader.

And if you gently ask the team leader about his personal history and lead the conversation, and then bring in the chief at the right timing… plate is complete.

[What version is it… .]

A plate that informs Chief Lee of his location.

You can borrow the mouth of the most authoritative person called ‘team leader’.

‘Slowly dragging the conversation that way… .’

It is to make you realize once again how advantageous it is for you to work if you are related by blood to a local leader.

Then I think of this.

-uh? Then can I stretch out a little bit for the foreman?

Originally, I was pulling the thought that I would have to work for one more year in advance.

Of course, once this is over, it will take some time before you can really put this idea into practice. So the last thing to push your back is… .

‘It’s giving a justification.’

[…] Justification?]

Uh.

‘It reminded me once that he bothered you.’

– That’s Chief Ryu. thank you Thank you for saying good things… .

-Ah no. It’s true! and… In the yard where each other suffers, what is that much?

-… … .

-Let’s do our best. It will be fine after this period.

Confidence that you are doing a good job.

People subtly say that’s important. Now that the taste that embodies cool justice is added, the harshness is gone.

I nodded.

Besides, look at the reactions of people in the office when things happen.

The fact that there are many people who enjoy this upside-down version means that Ryu Gun-woo had a good impression.

‘It’s only possible because you live kindly.’

[…] … .]

Well, I praised the personality, but wouldn't it be nice to be a little more happy?

'Anyway, from now on, even if I go to a meeting with that guy named 'Chief Lee', he won't be as fully cooperative as before.'

Because he knew how useful he was.

I already have antipathy, and if I don't like it, I show my dislike, and then what… creaking shit.

Until that 'chief' went mad.

'But I've come too far to say that I'll take Ryu Gun-woo with me now… .'

Sooner or later, he has no choice but to accept the reality that he has not been able to manage personal connections in this district office.

[then… .]

I shrugged.

"what… Wouldn't it be aiming for the next assignment?"

'Then he goes and you can continue to leave work here.'

It's a happy ending.

[Uh heh heh… … .]

Well, on second thought, it was a very gentle solution.

I never thought I would be able to treat others with such meekness and praise. Anyone can see that it is similar to Daedal's usual behavior.

[Yes?]

Even so, no one lost money and everyone was happy. indeed.

I was briefly impressed.

‘It seems like a pretty good way to live like you.’

[…] yes. thank you… … .]

Say nothing.

I shut down the internal network system in a refreshing mood.

I think this is enough for me to experience life as a civil servant.

‘Are you getting ready for the evening schedule?’

Now it’s my turn to control Park Moon-dae again.

[oh… yes! I’m ready.]

‘Okay.’

From now on, I will also depart.

[…] Yes!]

As soon as I went to work, I took out my belongings from my personal cabinet.

The heavy weight of the bag pressed against my hand.

I left the office with it on my back. And we started moving towards our destination.

as soon as… Jamsil Indoor Gymnasium.

* * *

“Wow!!”

“Aww!!”

There are screams and lights. It’s not a club or a battlefield.

Although the competition for seats was fierce.

‘after.’

I sat down.

Among the most credible award ceremonies in the latter half of January, the last one is the < Scichart Music Awards >.

And it is at this awards ceremony that Testa will make a comeback.

‘I’ve changed my body now, what about the stage?’

Fortunately, the awards ceremony lasts past midnight. Testa only performs on stage right before the very end, so her body will change before that time.

Until then, it’s a bit of a problem whether Keundal can naturally endure receiving an award in the singer’s seat.

‘In the meantime, Ryu Kun-woo also has work to do.’

This guy’s plans after work.

“… hmm.”

I opened the bag and took out what I had prepared. A black square object.

and… centuplicate. After mounting the long cylindrical lens, the preparation is complete.

‘The specs are fine.’

I wonder how much he paid for it, but I decided not to ask.

anyway… Yes.

This was Ryu Gun-woo's plan to leave work today.

Take a picture of Testa with a camera at the music chart awards ceremony.

– I remembered that you uploaded videos taken by hyung before… I even bought one to try! But to be honest, I didn't take pictures very well… … .

He himself said so.

To be honest, it's not a hobby I would recommend, but it's a good hobby if you touch it once in the process of finding your interests.

… take a picture of a person

I focused and raised the camera. Even though it's been a while, the composition came out naturally.

[Then let's meet the Singers of the Year at the Cychart Music Awards!]

The MCs were introduced and the awards ceremony began. And while the opening VCR plays, cheers and light sticks explode in the audience again.

Of course, there is applause from the singer's seat.

'It's national rule to film here at this timing.'

I checked and checked and found a table. Testa… yes.

"found."

I looked through the viewfinder at the seven smiling guys sitting side by side on chairs.

Especially Park Moon-dae.

'hmm… I'm fine.'

Hiding the occasional hand tremors under the blanket was a great choice. I nodded.

click.

Reflexively, I took a few pictures of the members around me, and I felt the texture sticking well to my hand. I think I hit a good shot.

‘hmm.’

This is kind of funny.

I turned the camera again. There was some time before the stage started.

‘Let’s take some pictures of the other guys.’

Let’s see, first of all, the one sitting right next to Testa… .

“… … .”

Chapter 450

If you don’t debut, you’ll get a fatal disease. Episode 450

Seeing Chung-rye at the awards ceremony is nothing new.

Whether it’s VTIC or Testa, since their debut, they’ve never had a performance they wouldn’t be proud of at an awards ceremony.

But it had been a very long time since I had seen it from this location.

So in the composition where I take a camera and take a picture of him from the audience.

‘… hmm.’

Cheong-Ryeo was wearing a suit.

He is still a guy who feels like the unit price would be good. I’ve been there for decades, so maybe it’s natural momentum.

‘It’s not like I’m going to sell it anymore.’

I left a few sheets out of habit.

It was then.

“… !”

Cheongryeo turned her gaze. And slowly he raised his hand.

“… … .”

light hand greetings.

Unfortunately, the direction is the audience seat near where I am.

To the extent that it feels as if our eyes met through the viewfinder.

‘… no way.’

… … Did you notice?

no Does that bastard even make sense in a situation where there are no hints?

‘What can I see with the GM function that will remain in that guy… .’

At that moment, a pop-up appeared in front of my eyes.

[brother! Are you here?]

It’s a big month.

“… ! okay.”

As I opened my mouth to answer, I replied inwardly, ignoring the gaze from the seat next to me.

‘Hasn’t VTIC sitting next to you talked to you?’

[uh… no? It’s not like I’m talking or not. … Shall I talk to you?]

‘No.’

just dodge it

[Whew.]

What did you ask while you were about to breathe a sigh of relief?

I shook my head and answered.

‘You don’t have to worry about that. It’s okay as long as you sit quietly.’

Unlike the radio, there are no comments, so there is only one role. sit nice.

[Right?]

Then.

Oh right.

‘Be sure to concentrate when other singers are on stage.’

This is because the stomach tube may be covered with it the moment you yawn or frown.

‘Even if I can’t help but relax once or twice… .’

[…] I’ll never relax!]

I’d like to tell you there’s no such thing as that, but it’s actually the best way. Let’s do some cheering.

I picked up the camera I had removed from my eyes and turned it back to the singer’s seat.

Cheong-rye had already turned her gaze toward the road stage.

‘Was it an illusion?’

I clicked my tongue briefly and took a few more shots of Testana.

The same goes for Park Moondae, where the big moon is located. A guy with a lot of spirit is quite… It seemed plausible.

that you followed me

‘… Is this how it feels?’

I kept pressing the shutter without a word.

It was a bit strange for me to film Testa Park Moondae myself.

“Hey, I’m sorry, but give me your hand.”

“yes.”

During that time, the person sitting next to me bumped into my arm several times. He’s a pretty reckless photographer.

I turned my shoulders and glanced at the person who was talking to me.

Seeing that the shooting angle is similar, this person is also taking a testa… … .

“… !!”

… That’s right.

It’s a familiar face.

The problem was that it was a face that Ryu Gun-woo also knew.

‘… Ryu Seo-jin.’

Sitting next to him is a senior from the same photography club in college. < Azusa > Writer Ryu Seo-rin’s younger sister.

therefore… It’s a home mom who takes a big picture with me.

* * *

‘The lights are garbage.’

Ryu Seo-jin grumbled and set the camera. There were a lot of people around him with cameras similar to his own.

It’s probably because this location is perfect for taking pictures.

‘Besides, this awards ceremony is easy to film without having to hold an audience with a camera.’

The people who were taking pictures flocked in droves.

It was the same with the seat next to him. A well-built man wearing a black mask was holding a camera.

However, it was a little strange that he was dressed in a black suit. Anyone can see that it is a healthy and neat ‘work’ outfit.

‘Are they related?’

That’s why I don’t have a pass around my neck, but I could have kept it in my pocket.

You can guess how old he is by looking at his age, but… .

‘How are you?’

She was too busy taking pictures of idol faces, and it didn’t matter what the face of the man next to her looked like.

Ryu Seo-jin fixed his gaze on the camera again.

‘Did these bastards fight?’

I thought that it would be difficult to get a good two-shot between Lee Se-jin and Park Moon-dae because they seemed strangely distant.

And soon the stage began.

[This is the spacer for the Hot Performance Award of the Year.]

Several groups of singers line up on stage.

Of the hundreds of thousands of groups that were active last year, only about 20 teams came here, but even within them, the ranks and positions were divided.

‘The exchange quantity must match.’

Deciding to exchange data with other singers in other seats, she put a lot of effort into taking pictures of several teams.

However, he didn’t have the loyalty or stamina to film a team he wasn’t interested in. Because I’m an office worker who just got off work.

‘Should I do this?’

Besides, Testa was also absent from the singer’s seat for a while, so she rubbed her shoulders and lowered the camera for a moment.

and saw the moment

click.

The flashy camera of the man in the suit sitting next to you.

‘… That’s it.’

ruler… Take good pictures.

You can tell just by looking at the camera.

Stable support, smooth movement, and skillful operation.

Besides, from the camera angle… … .

‘… You only shoot the ones that will sell the best, right?’

It’s not just a picture of a popular member.

Demand soars in the supply and demand line of data, so only those who are in an exquisite period of shortage of supply are found and filmed.

For example, a member like Mirinae’s Park Min-ha.

Recently, in a variety show he appeared as an individual, he appealed to the light fan base rather than the public, and his fandom popularity rose instantly.

Or a member who is so good at the stage that the demand is constantly overflowing. I was only aiming for idols like that.

‘what.’

It was an impossible action unless you were completely familiar with this board.

‘Is that an official or a data arm?’

He is currently a first-team idol, but he is a former data arm.

Twin Homma, who couldn’t even guess that fact, just clicked her tongue and regretted it.

‘I wish I could have sat on the other side.’

The angle was almost the same as the one I took, so there was no need to buy that data.

‘Well, if it was that way in the first place, among the testers, Cha Yu-jin would have taken it.’

Thinking nonchalantly, she was about to recheck her data, but suddenly realized.

‘… ?’

The man next to me in a suit… Strangely, the habit of taking pictures was familiar to me.

resemble yourself

‘Hmm.’

I looked closely again.

To be precise, it wasn't just him. At first glance, I could see things like tips and attitudes shared by members of the club.

'Come to think of it, somehow the physique seems familiar… .'

In the end, it was the moment when she tried to carefully check Ryu Gun-woo's face.

"Hey Younglin!"

A voice called from the back seat.

At the name of such a famous singer, she reflexively turned her head to the stage.

Indeed, Youngrin was coming up on stage.

'already?'

It should come out a little later, in terms of yearly leave or grades. Was it after Testa in the leaked cue sheet?

However, if you look closely, it was during the stage of her juniors that Youngrin appeared.

It was a kind of surprise featuring stage.

'oh.'

Youngrin neatly entered the performance formation.

Although she was very successful as a solo artist, it was a stage where you could feel that Youngrin was originally a member of a group.

'My juniors are pushing me away.'

If it was intended to encourage juniors, it was a failure of the agency. It was time for Ryu Seo-jin to make a cool evaluation.

Youngrin looked this way and gestured.

“Aagh!”

“Young Rin!!”

The surroundings became noisy as if my ears would burst from the surround sound. Each seemed to think they had met their eyes.

Usually, in this case, ‘Youngrin-nim saw me!’ Ryu’s mistake, but… .

‘hmm?’

Seojin Ryu slightly frowned.

I didn’t think I saw myself.

‘Youngrin… Didn’t you see the data pal sitting next to me?’

* * *

[Thank you!]

I took a few more shots of the award-winning testa on stage.

It’s like a habit, but there is also an intention to check Keundal’s attitude one more time.

‘It’s fine.’

Even though I gave it a good grade, I didn’t bother to take the camera away from my face.

In fact, there is one more reason to keep doing this.

‘… Cover your face.’

Just in case Ryu Seo-jin recognizes me. Well, since I'm wearing a mask and it's been a few years, I think there's little chance.

'Should I be more careful until I change my body?'

I carefully decided to film all kinds of idols with a camera.

Naturally, the unit price rankings are automatically updated in the head, as was the habit of the data arm days, but one of the highest ranking female idols appeared a little earlier.

'Younglin.'

The main character of the first great fancam that made me earn tuition for one semester. I wonder if Youngrin, who was unknown, also emerged because of that.

'It was a fancam filmed on a rainy day.'

Without much thought, I continued to stare through the viewfinder.

It was then.

Youngrin pointed at my camera with her hand.

"… … !"

I froze with the camera for a moment.

If I'm not mistaken… .

'Could I remember?'

No way.

That was about 10 years ago. There's no way he still remembers it, and even if he did, how could he have recognized it right away at this moment?

'but… … .'

Right before the final ending, Youngrin looked away again when she was not caught by the broadcast camera.

-Remember me

eye contact. and hand shape.

It was a familiar hand gesture.

The signature gesture of the song that was captured on the rainwater fancam I filmed at the time.

This… It couldn't have been an illusion.

"… … ."

-Wow!!

The stage ended with cheers. Youngrin's gaze also disappeared along with the lighting.

however… I felt strange.

'How do I remember.'

I wasn't even a fan at the time. After that, there were times when I took pictures of Youngrin a few times at events, but there was never anything like that.

I thought it was a matter of seat selection that made direct cams with amazingly good eye contact.

perhaps… .

'… Did it leave an impression?'

I mean the audience holding the camera that took the direct cam that made them rise.

I thought it was bullshit before, but now I know.

that there is a possibility.

‘Because we’re doing the same thing.’

That feeling when you look at the audience on stage, when you look at your own fancam, when you look at people’s reactions.

And no matter how you feel when you see the camera of a fancam that has returned after a few years.

“… … .”

I lowered the camera.

And I saw the time displayed at the top of the screen.

-PM 11:21

‘Ah.’

The time has come.

I took a slow breath and counted down.

That moment.

Flash.

“… after.”

I closed and opened my eyes.

perspective has changed. sound too.

– Wow!

Cheers resounded from a seat a little farther away, not right next to it like before.

I was sitting in the singer's seat next to the speaker.

and.

"It came just in time."

There was a hand tapping on my shoulder. It's Ryu Cheng-wu.

When he raised his head, he seemed to notice that the other guys were also checking the time.

"… ! Moondae hyung"

"Are you okay?"

of course.

I nodded my head as I looked around, not awkwardly in the appropriate line.

The members greeted each other as quietly as possible by grinning or handing out water.

If it wasn't for the singer's seat, it would have made more noise.

'And with this, I would have asked if the body change was over.'

Actually, I'm also curious… .

"… … ."

I didn't see any popups and turned it off first.

Elements that will affect the stage are blocked for now.

‘It’s the same over there.’

When I turned my head, the seat at VTIC where Cheongryeo had been sitting earlier was right next to it.

But the seat was already empty. It’s because he also woke up to prepare for the stage.

‘okay.’

it was better Right now, there is only one thing that is most urgent.

Because it’s about time now.

[Singer of the Year / Album – 2nd Quarter]

[Congratulations.]

[Testa / Savior (Jikimi)]

A few minutes later.

I went backstage to go up on stage.

The long awaited comeback stage was right in front of them.

* * *

“Wait a minute over there.”

“Yes yes?”

“Oh right. Ryu Gun-woo.”

“… ??”

“It’s been a while. You’re still doing this.”

‘… brother!!’

… For reference, I couldn’t have imagined that Keundal was going through something like this in the audience.

Chapter 451

If you don’t debut, you’ll die from an illness Episode 451

The big moon was currently in an unexpected and extreme situation.

I thought I would be relieved if only my body returned to its original state, but an ambush appeared.

“A long time.”

The person next door pretending to know all of a sudden.

What the hell is this situation, I’m in a situation where I’m sweating so much that I want to send an SOS to anyone.

You can’t even run away from the audience in front of the stage with this camera.

“But it must be a bit difficult to do two jobs after the data seller gets a job.”

“… … .”

“Well, you know.”

‘I don’t know… !’

I don’t know the context of the conversation! I have no idea!

He was probably an old acquaintance of Ryu Gun-woo, but I couldn’t be sure.

‘that… Are you a data digger? Are you close friends then?’

However, he could not call Moondae Park. It was now Testa's stage. I couldn't interrupt the first comeback stage with something like this.

So I thought to myself.

'I… If it's Geonwoo hyung!'

What would you do in this situation!

He moved his brain like he hadn't used his snap judgment like this since the test on his life.

'… Let's keep our words as sparing as possible!'

And answered calmly.

"… I'm not trying to sell for money. Now it's just a hobby."

"okay?"

seems appropriate!

Fortunately, there were no more personal questions, as if the other party thought so too.

'… I passed it!'

Keundal breathed a sigh of relief, but in fact Ryu Seo-jin, who was sitting next to him, said in his heart, 'Your child has become a little more docile.' I was thinking something like that.

Thinking that the money comes from the balance in her pocket, she asked again.

"Ah, do you take testa too?"

"… yes."

"Who mainly shoots?"

“Mundae.”

This could be answered without any shame.

And he… I saw the person next to me nod.

“I still have a good eye for unit prices.”

“… … .”

It was an unusual vocabulary choice. The big moon was almost certain.

‘He’s selling data!’

And Ryu Seo-jin also made a conclusion.

‘They still sell data.’

It was an exquisite illusion.

It was then.

[…] Let’s meet now!]

The MC’s comment ended.

At that moment, the two reacted as if they had made a promise.

‘Ah, it starts.’

The two Testa fans, who misunderstood each other as data arms, turned their eyes toward the stage side by side.

A prelude finally flows on the stage where the white lights for the awards ceremony are turned off.

‘Savior!’

The big moon was pounding and grabbed the camera. With the intention of looking at it with the naked eye, only a few cuts were taken.

-It’s sweet.

Blue and red lights came on on the stage. And before I knew it, I was rammed down by Testa who was in formation in the center.

The costume is a colorful coat inspired by Dopo.

‘Ehhh.’

I couldn’t believe I saw that right in front of me.

-The sound of my running footsteps

when I heard the anxious call over there.

Park Mun-dae strides off the gigantic stage and starts the song as if stabbing.

– The leader who appeared first

The thrill of high notes heard in the field.

‘and… .’

Keundal looked at the stage with a feeling that his heart would throb.

This time, ‘Savior’ was arranged closer to a more retro rock, giving it a strangely modern feel.

The point where the band sound and the orchestra sound intersect originally made people pound.

‘Mr. Rabin must be a genius… .’

With the ice cream job as an opportunity, Keundal, who had a face-to-face conversation with Kim Rae-bin, swallowed his saliva.

-That’s ma savior!

Throw away the tension and enjoy the night of victory!

Savior, who ran like crazy and showed off a new dance break, was finished with a splendid remix worthy of an awards ceremony.

“Waaaaaagh!!”

Even the big moon was filled with deafening cheers, but I endured it because I couldn’t shake the camera.

‘Hyung didn’t bring a light stick… !’

But also a moment of regret.

The lights change on stage and the music plays again.

considered light.

“Sigh.”

… it’s a new song

The big moon widened its eyes.

-Clap clap clap- Clap clap!

On the stage, the spotlight was placed on blonde-haired Yujin Cha, who got out of the formation and sat in a corner.

With half of his hair flipped in pomade, he was applauding while looking at the rest of the members who had just finished their ‘Savior’ stage with an expression that was quite impressed.

Then, the members sigh and release the formation.

“… ?”

Among the members who stretched or lightly stretched, Bae Se-jin started walking around holding a clipboard board and making gestures as if giving instructions.

A variety of reactions were caught on camera, from Sun Ah-hyun nodding her head in an attitude of listening to Kim Rae-bin frowning as if he was annoyed.

‘performance?’

It was a musical or theatrical composition.

And a cheerful whistle sound.

– Phrrreeeeeee!

Moment.

All the members on the stage stopped moving and looked back at the audience.

And on the electric signboard, there are strong capital letters that can only be seen in American comics.

[PRACTICE IS OVER!!]

There was a sound effect like a school bell. In the meantime, exciting riff melodies and drum beats hit and came in.

Testa threw up her coat with a relieved expression and ran to the front of the stage.

like going out to play.

‘Hup.’

And what you can see from the inside with the coat off… .

80’s American teen style outfits.

As if each had a role, the composition and accessories were slightly different, from knitwear to jeans.

And Cha Yu-jin, who had picked up a star-patterned jumper before he knew it, joined them and formed a formal formation at the center.

“… … Whoa.”

Lastly, subtitles appearing at the bottom of the display board.

[Testa – POSE]

The MIDI sound mixed with mechanical sound jumps at various heights between tempos like water droplets.

And Testa also changes formation as if flipping a step.

-Make a pose Next to Cha Yoo-jin’s heavy bass sound, which seems to show off its own individuality with what you want,

a similar verse melody leads to Park Moon-dae’s scratchy high-pitched tone.

-(Make a pose!)

Sometimes it might be okay to be bold,

so

the tempo rises.

A mirror ball spinning on stage.

Light, fast and complicated steps that fit tightly between the colorful lights.

And unlike that, even the upper body movements that fit the eye that you can ‘imitate’ using your fingers and arms. -As if a melting hot summer night bursting like a dancing flame would run through the night and end,

Testa flashed on stage like a symbol of color, light, and childishness.

As if the song would soar upwards endlessly, it ran briskly along with the dazzling disco steps.

And the moment the pre-chorus passed, the melody changed to an ear-catching monotone and the bass dropped.

-Drrrrrrrr-!

engine sound.

And the chorus, close to hip-hop, combines a retro sound with an exquisitely modern composition.

In the chorus, Kim Rae-bin, who steps forward as if kicking up his feet, raps as if jumping out.

Emo (Emo) or goth-like black fashion caught the atmosphere more.

-Slowly, slowly approaching

so that you can’t move, Grab this moment

An off-beat electronic sound flew over the heavy rock bass as if dancing.

Cha Yoo-jin, who took off her jacket, changed the formation while stepping on a latin dance-like step.

-In the pose!

Don’t worry too much, just think about

it

now, come in now .

-In the pose!

Don’t cherish today too much

Now is important Right now

(yes) Right now!

And again, the section where the riff melody runs without singing.

Lee Se-jin, who tossed her hair, came out with a grin. Then he seemed to be doing a high-five with Ryu Chung-woo, then he did a solo dance in the center. that… .

‘oh.’

It was really the movement of the debut song ‘High Five’!

Yes. Testa set aside an interim section in the performance where they could alternately insert ad-libs.

And while the members enjoyed Lee Se-jin’s movements as if laughing, they followed them skillfully and naturally led to the next movement.

-Yes I'll remember

now, your moment

Slowly, faster, more freely

Wearing bright jeans and a short denim jacket, Moondae Park sings the last line as he comes to the center with choreography that slides on his knees.

-So hold on- and pose!

pop!

Firecrackers explode.

The LED lights shine like fireworks on the display board.

Until the end, the choreography was light and neat. And the power overflowed.

Naturally, like a conditioned reflex, shouts that were about to tear burst out of the audience.

"Waaaaa!!!"

"Ah!"

It was like a party song.

He has everything that people would expect from a popular male idol.

The flying pollen seemed to predict the future.

'… It's really good!'

The big moon was moved again. So I realized a beat late.

The person next to me was frantically shooting at the camera, and he was blankly holding the camera in his hand.

‘Ah, that’s right, a picture!’

I should take a picture right now!

It was when he hurriedly raised the camera to the corner of his eye.

[Keundal.]

Huh?

The big moon reflexively raised its head.

The pop-up was calmly shining.

[There is something I want to show you.]

It was Moondae hyung.

… … I’m on the stage right now!

* * *

The comeback was successful… seems to have done

I am sitting on the stage with my knees in the ending pose. Same goes for the other guys.

“Hoo-wook.”

I was out of breath, but no one would be out of breath here.

No matter how time-consuming the award ceremony was, there were a few seconds to give to the group’s ending shot, which is no different from today’s headliner.

And just seconds after that ending shot, even after the stage lights went out.

The time I sent a pop-up to Big Moon was at an exquisite timing somewhere in the meantime.

[Uh, do you have something to show me?]

Yes.

I took a deep breath and chanted.

‘I want to share my sight.’

The pop-up shook as if puzzled, but soon it seemed to connect to the senses as I said.

and.

[…] Wow!]

I felt like I finally saw my sights.

‘This… .’

Should I say majestic or overwhelming?

Nearly 20,000 lights, including standing, were bobbing all over the place.

It is a landscape close to the awe of nature.

The view from the stage where the lights were turned off was brighter than ever. It will feel like you are in the middle of the night, surrounded by stars pouring down from the open sea.

‘I never thought I would use this analogy.’

I laughed and big moon seemed a little excited.

[This is really cool! and! But since I think they’re all people, I’m a bit scared… Thanks anyway! This is the first time!]

Yes.

And I said what I had to say.

‘thanks.’

[…] !]

[Why why? uh… Because you acted well today?]

Rather than that… .

‘Because I saw the scenery thanks to you.’

[…] ??]

I got up from my seat and stared at the stage again.

And I recalled the fact that I realized anew.

‘Why does Youngrin remember me?’

There could be several reasons. It may have been because of his professional personality or because he was unknown at the time, so there were not many cameras.

‘but… .’

If I had to question it, I think the meaning of that direct cam would have been great.

‘A chance to succeed as an idol.’

Impressions and feelings about the person who pushed the opportunity.

In that sense, this guy is actually the most direct sponsor who gave me the chance to see this scenery as an idol.

From the time I never imagined it would be like this.

I said slowly.

‘You said there was nothing I couldn’t achieve… Not really.’

Because I was about to die.

It was a scenery I would not have seen if he had not wanted me to survive and had not persistently remained in the status window to help me pass the idol mission.

‘So I wanted to show you this once.’

[…] … .]

‘It’s the scenery you gave me.’

I can’t make this guy perform, but I thought it would be okay to watch this together.

[…] … .]

The pop-up did not display any text for several seconds.

However, I somehow got the idea that he must have given a small nod from the audience.

“Mundae, you have to go down.”

“yes.”

I turned my head, left the audience behind, and began to walk down the stage.

The big moon pop-up only appeared again after that.

[I’m very happy.]

I chuckled.

It felt like everything was going to go right.

So it must have been. As soon as I got off the stage, I checked this first before even monitoring.

‘… Mission failed pop-up.’

And the result… .

‘Park Moon-dae (1 / 2)’ ‘Ryu Gun-woo (2/2)’

[Target target ‘Park Mun-dae (1/2)’ lost]

[Target target ‘Ryu Gun-woo (2 / 2)’ lost]

[Cancel]

Success.

[Complete the mission failure scenario]

Victory: Player Moondae Park (Gunwoo Ryu)

Reward: Fragments of ■■■ 2 (2/4)

I clenched my hand.

‘good.’

But a new pop-up rose above the pop-up.

As if I was waiting for confirmation.

[Fragments of ■■■ 2/4]

[Conditions met!]

[■■■ Forming]

“… !”

… formation?

I immediately remembered a very ominous prediction.

■■ was like what I call a system, wherever you look at it. … then.

‘I can’t believe the system is reborn like this… .’

So it ends with such a dogged result that I carefully helped this bastard run around again?

‘X feet.’

no way.

I stopped.

“Park Moondae?”

“Are you sick?”

for a moment.

I took a deep breath and stared at the pop-up. I had to check it out properly.

But it… … It ended with a completely unexpected phrase.

Chapter 452

Episode 452

“It’s Mundae… ! We are getting off now.”

“ah.”

I followed Seon Ah-hyun and got out of the van.

It’s been days since I’ve been getting crazy pop-ups about the system.

Still no problem.

Testa is doing well with her busy comeback schedule to the point of sleeping while eating, and the response is good.

“Is Mundaemun University okay?”

“Oh no problem.”

Ah, the fact that the mission failed was also shared with these guys on the same day. Suddenly, one of the members changed their body while on stage and no longer had to fall asleep, so I started my activities much more comfortably.

and… In the process, a pop-up appeared saying that two system fragments had been collected.

this.

[■■■ (ver. Beta) belonging complete!]

[Owner: Player Park Moon-dae (Ryu Gun-woo)]

This incomprehensible bullshit has also been sorted out.

‘Status window.’

in my status bar.

[Item: ■■■ (ver. Beta)]

That’s right. At the bottom of the list, a mark has been added as an item item.

And in fact, this wasn’t there originally, but it’s just that Keundal manipulated the status window and added an item.

I remembered the conversation I had with him at the time.

– Ehhh?!

The guy who was frightened by the news of ‘the possibility of a system comeback’ soon regained his composure after my brief explanation, ‘But there is no reaction, so he seems to be dead’.

And the search results in the status window.

-uh… What item do you think?

-… ??

Surprisingly, this fragment really belonged to me.

It’s not that the system stuck to me, it’s what I have. I mean it’s my property.

– Is the system correct?

-hmm… It feels like that, but I don’t think it’s that powerful and sinister! Oh, I’ll mark it so you can see it!

And it was added as an item to the status window.

I naturally felt this way.

‘… Can I use it if it’s an item?’

I clicked once with this idea… .

[Use ‘Item: ■■■ (ver. Beta)’]

[Target: _____]

The moment this pop-up appeared, I turned it off. The big moon also screamed.

‘Are you crazy?’

If you see the target designation popping up, don’t you think it fits the system without being able to remove it or beat it?

Who are you using it for? From now on, this is a permanent seal.

‘Let’s put it down.’

After removing the item pop-up, I started monitoring again among the guys checking the schedule.

“Manager, didn’t our group appear on Tnet’s new variety show today?”

“Ah, it was postponed due to a broadcasting problem, so it was changed to a corporate event.”

“All right!”

‘Anyway, that new variety show was pushed so hard by T1 that I had no choice but to go out to watch it.’

I was thinking of checking the feedback or stage reaction about appearing on other variety shows.

And I saw this popular post.

[Currently taking pictures of the chaotic chart]

“… … .”

I reflexively clicked on the text.

And saw. Photos I took at the awards ceremony a few days ago.

‘Why did this become a hot topic?’

… I finished talking about items a few days ago and Keundal tried to get permission.

-Is it okay if I share the photos you took with your fans? If you don’t like it, of course I won’t!

It didn’t seem like there was anything to stop it.

To be honest, when I looked at it calmly, I didn’t think it came out better than before because it’s been a while since I filmed.

‘Because it’s not the first time I’ve been holding a camera in Cychart.’

Besides, isn’t that the camera he bought anyway? It didn’t matter if I did whatever I wanted.

– I think it would be fine if it was anonymous.

-yes!!

that was yesterday

And now… came back with this result.

-This crazy person has returned.

-Is this person that young person?

-Awesome hahahaha

-Did you get a job

? … .”

first… That’s how the big moon raised it.

Even if data is not usually sold, it is exchanged with other singers or uploaded separately to the singer’s fan community.

It is said that it is rare to upload all the photos of singers you have taken on one account.

It is also excellent by tagging without saying a word or introduction.

Of course, the big moon must have thought so.

-Okay, I’ll dig up an anonymous account and upload them all at once!

… So, this efficient common sense action unintentionally turned off aggro in the idol version.

In the end, after comparing the cut of Youngrin released by Keundal and the direct cam of Cychart Youngrin, this word came out in the end.

-Hey, this person must be the one who took that fancam! Younglin Legends fancam!

-Awesome… Did Youngrin recognize it?ㅠㅠㅠ

And interesting stories and interesting articles about Youngrin remembering 'that fancam from the beginning of her debut' were occupying the Internet's popular posts.

As a result, on the contrary, the account gets more attention… It suddenly became a hot topic.

-This person seems to have caught Testa. What's the matter with the amount of photos

hahahah

. It’s because I was backstage when he was on stage.

‘… Well done.’

I thought of Chungryeo’s stage where she openly used VTIC’s song as an intro before her solo stage.

VTIC cut off the song exquisitely, so he digested it fully by himself.

It’s actually a declaration.

‘It means I’m going to make a solo comeback with a full weight class.’

It seems that this year will not be easy.

Still, since Testa started the comeback well, there is nothing to lose momentum.

‘Let’s go like this.’

Anyway, after comprehensively checking the reaction to the photo, I appropriately delivered it to the person concerned.

The big moon was frightened.

[Huh, I’ll delete my account right away… !]

… so far?

‘No, it’s okay.’

that stands out more Let’s just move on to the Happening.

‘It’s okay as long as I don’t upload more.’

[yes… .]

People’s interests move quickly. This will be a moment.

I checked the reactions once more.

It was surprising that I was still a Datapal and that there were no open criticisms.

I think it was because I had previously opened a separate account for uploading unsold direct cams on WeTube, so I was interested in that.

-Min-ha John… Thank you Ribbon Min

-ha is the best in the world -Hee-seung does art ㄱㅅㄱㅅ

Anyway, it was a strange feeling.

Originally, all those who made money sold them.

The reason my photos are always published is because they were selected and corrected by Sagan Homma.

This is the first such direct response.

‘… I’m not in a bad mood.’

I tried to finish the search only after looking at the account of Daedal with the ID ‘gun4321’ and confirming that there was nothing else special.

It was then.

“It’s nothing. Maybe that’s me… ?”

“… !”

When I turn my head, Seon Ah-hyun is making a look full of anticipation. What.

“Did that Moondae take the picture?”

how did you know

“When the body changed.”

“I see… ! Ah, I saw Mundae correcting it.”

“… … .”

Come to think of it, I did it on my laptop in the living room. It was an environment that anyone could see.

And Seon Ah-hyun’s words also attracted aggro in the waiting room.

“Awesome~ Was this filmed at Moondaemun University? Did you post it on the Internet?”

“I’m cool! This is me and Chungwoo hyung!”

“… Moondae Park, you take really good pictures.”

Members say they want to see it too, interfering here and there and handing over their smartphones.

‘No, don’t you all have phones?’

Anyone who sees it will think that my smartphone is shared by a group.

Kim Rae-bin’s eyes shone.

“I thought you were uploading your work separately for your hobby… It’s like the ‘Byeolbyeolgok’ account that uploaded our arrangement work before!”

okay. There is a difference in that there is absolutely nothing to be discovered that this is me. Because it’s physically impossible for me to film myself.

‘… ? Come to think of it, I wasn’t the one who uploaded it.’

But without saying anything, the guys who had been playing around with the photos started talking again.

“Should we film another travel reality show after this activity is over? It would be fun if Moondae took pictures there. We also try to change hobbies.”

“Oh good! It’s good to go out together, and I think the concept of working part-time at a place like a theme park would be fun~”

“Great! I want to try that!”

After making a comeback with a high school student concept, did they really make noise like high school?

Anyway, even with this forced march without a break, the atmosphere isn’t tired… That’s good.

“What do you think, Moondae-hyung?”

“… The theme park part-time job is fine.”

“Oh, I’m a pro at Mundae, too~”

I smiled and shook my head as I took my smartphone back.

‘Well, I’ll take a picture from time to time in the future.’

Well, it was a good event to refresh.

And the schedule that day ended without any problems.

It was the first time in a while that I could sleep for more than 6 hours, so everyone went home in a good mood.

“Tomorrow I can leave at 7:30.”

“Oh good.”

To agree.

I quickly washed and changed my clothes and gladly went to bed.

And how much time has passed

“… Mundae!”

hmm.

“Park Moon-dae… !”

The alarm didn’t ring.

“Wake up a minute! This article… !!”

article.

At that moment, he fell asleep like blood.

I opened my eyes right away.

In front of me, Bae Se-jin, whose face was white, was holding a smartphone in the dark.

Why is this guy in this room… no this is not “What article?”

“this.”

Bae Se-jin immediately held out his smartphone. Reflexively, the current time came into my eyes.

‘… 6 o’clock in the morning.’

Still 20 minutes before my alarm goes off.

And it’s also the perfect time to sort out what happened last night and come up on the main page.

‘what.’

I read the article title right away.

[(Breaking News) Prosecutor's Office T1 Ent CEO Request for Arrest Warrant]

"… !"

"It's not our article, but… The company seems to be out of the ordinary."

Bae Se-jin, who had been suffering from the agency, seemed to have a strange feeling as soon as he saw the article.

"I guess… Because you handle this the best."

"… … ."

"… Sorry for waking you up."

"no."

woke up well

I immediately picked up my smartphone and read the article.

'Please, it must be embezzlement.'

It is the best scenario that has nothing to do with us.

But unfortunately… It wasn't.

-Representative Lee (58), who was arrested for violating the Political Fund Act… … .

"… … ."

politics?

okay. Bae Se-jin must have acted immediately after seeing the contents, so it might be natural.

‘X feet.’

I read more carefully. It seems that the representative of T1 Ent received a promise to be nominated for some kind of National Assembly and poured money into some kind of party.

And not only the representative, but several people were arrested on similar charges… .

“… … .”

“you… what do you think about it?”

for a moment.

“wait a minute.”

I filtered out a few keywords from the article and redid the date settings.

‘Latest 3 months.’

And the standards… Not T1 Ent, but ‘T1’ as a whole.

I immediately started browsing through the articles, sorted by popularity.

[T1 Food Imported Food Safety Act Violation Ministry of Food and Drug Safety ‘Corrective Order’]

[Tnet < Voice of You > Broadcasting and Communications Standards Commission Warning]

[T1 Learning Parcel Delivery and 3 other port distribution collusion fines of 5 billion]

Articles of all sorts of indictments and fines poured in every few days. Even if several are on the list, it sticks to the title, especially as the emphasis is on ‘T1’.

Strange level of term even for a large company.

“… … .”

I quickly flipped through the screen. Bae Se-jin gritted it.

“Is there something wrong with the T1 itself?”

“… I can still see it.”

Let’s be honest.

While Tnet was growing its business, it didn’t take a day or two for them to mess with it, and until now, everything has been going well with capital and personal connections like a large company.

But in the last few months, the feeling of news suddenly exploded?

“T1 was originally like this, and it seems that the ‘holding side’ has suddenly become stricter, doesn’t it?”

“… … !”

Bae Se-jin swallowed.

“then… .”

“yes.”

I muttered darkly.

“Hyung, you know there is a presidential election this year.”

“… … .”

This… It has to do with politics.

X feet.

‘T1 was taken.’

I don’t know what it was filmed with, but it looks like it’s X’d anyway.

And one of them was caught as an example… Enter series.

‘The more up-to-date, the more stories related to the entertainment business.’

After slowly going through the two months’ records, I found the items that stood out most often.

[Tnet < Be My Girls > Unfair Contract Lawsuit]

[T1’s bad quality… Tears from < Be My Girls > Cast]

[T1S Studio < Friendly End > Deliberation Difficulties “The expression is bad”]

‘Tnet.’

So T1 Ent.

From broadcasting stations to production studios.

Probably because public image is the most important part of the business and the ripple effect is the best, it seemed to stab it this way.

If so, how will companies respond?

If you are in a situation where you have to give up your life somehow… .

‘… I’ll have to cut my tail.’

Why don’t you somehow cut down on one of the most problematic parts and set a course whether you lie down or pretend to be strong?

But giving up the broadcasting company in the entertainment business is crazy. Somehow, the broadcaster would take it and choose a tail to cut instead… .

what would you throw away

‘It’s obvious.’

I have the confidence that I can replace it as long as I hold onto the broadcasting station.

At least, the guys who are the signboards of the face madam are in the business of renewing contracts soon.

as soon as… Affiliated entertainment agency.

“… Wake them all up.”

Chapter 453

If you don’t debut, you’ll die of illness Episode 453

Everything happened too suddenly for those who didn’t notice.

I couldn’t help it.

– T1 is like that lol Even though corrective measures were taken against T1 and Tnet received a warning from the Korea Communications Commission, everyone just passed by with their tongues as it was not a company with a clean image from the beginning.

At that time, the sentiment of ‘T1 did T1 again’ came out more often, even though aggro associating it with Testa did not work well.

[Three directors of T1 Stars arrested on suspicion of stock price manipulation… “T1’s bare face”]

One day, this article suddenly appeared on the news headlines.

The board of directors of Testa’s agency was caught in the middle of the door.

-????

– T-one crazy bastards

– Is it related to Testa?

-Ah, fuck again.

At first, the fans also thought it was a normal bad news.

It's a level of work where you just have to swear at the agency and have to deal with the aggro of being attracted to the singers in that agency.

'After a while, they'll grind the board and pretend they don't know and rub it in again.'

however… Articles kept popping up.

[< Controversy over stock manipulation > Why did T1 create a large entertainment company?

[T1's suspicion… Prosecutors' office "seizes the close relationship with the head office"]

The agency remained silent.

T1 also does not properly publish corresponding articles.

At this point, non-Korean fans also noticed.

… ominous foreboding.

-They turned off their fax machine and didn't answer the phone

. -This is how things work.

-What exactly is T-1's situation right now?

A serene and uneasy situation like snow in a typhoon.

Testa's ambitious comeback schedule was tentatively ended by barely finishing a two-week music broadcast.

All of the schedules previously set or released have been digested, but there are almost no additional schedules.

There must have been schedules that were not disclosed to the public, but they were all canceled.

At this point, most hardcore fans noticed.

That ‘the company is so emergency that it can’t afford to take care of Testa, its flagship’. -Ah, there’s no publicity or DubApp

by volume

. not? I thought it would be fine to draw the line well, but it wasn’t a problem with the kids, and there was a story like this, but the longer the time of silence, the more serious the situation only increased.

and one day

Out of nowhere, this article popped up.

[Tnet < Be My Girls > Is it true that the testimony of those involved in the suspicion of fairness? Prosecutors “I have nothing to say yet.”]

It was an article containing a strange nuance about Tnet’s latest box office survival show.

– Huh

– Are you the crazy Bima girl?

-All the cast members are recruited in advance, and the audition for the general public is to match the assortment…

-PD and writers, all SNS are private, and people turned their mouths to that fresh controversy.

Tnet faced the growing suspicions and articles head-on without a hand.

They canceled some of the programs they were trying to launch and also quietly reduced the aggressively expanding ‘Global K-Pop’ business.

In the meantime, the story of Testa’s agency became a past event, and the fans felt a little relieved.

In the end, T1 Ent made a decision due to the bombing-like pressure and the station problem that was on the verge of exploding.

[T1 Ent subsidiaries promoting independence promotion agencies starting to stand alone]

Another announcement was made without any notice.

The independence of entertainment agencies, subsidiaries of T1 Ent!

T1 Stars, where Testa Mirinae and Spacer belonged, was no exception.

-Crazy T1 Stars independence?

-Since T1 is such a jerk , it seems like everyone just agreed and decided to become independent .

Since I haven’t had a good day lately, the public has understood it that way.

Subsidiary’s escape from T-One! Exodus!

Of course, those who thought a little more deeply exchanged sharp impressions, up to ‘Is T1 pretending to cut losses to save its subsidiaries?’ It was there.

The important thing is that most of the people who heard this news judged that the subsidiary would be happy to do this.

-Testa is a label anyway, so it's okay because the kids produce it themselves, so there's no way the quality will go down haha –

Rather good

– It's rather good that the board of directors has been completely changed too

? had a strong desire to see it. Especially on the Testa side.

Didn't it already rise as it should?

It would have been unsettling if it had been a poorly established group, but now Testa does not need T-One's halo.

No, rather, I was just fed up with T-One trying to sell it in every case.

I didn't know that now would be the right time to break up, rather than listening to bullshit and bullshit about "Azusa" being manipulated.

Yes we have nothing to regret!

– Orbit Label Independent Gazza~

It's something that can't be undone anyway. It was something I couldn't get involved in. If so, let's crack down on the atmosphere.

Fans quickly silenced their doubtful opinions, deliberately driving public opinion to the good side.

Dreaming of activities as a hopeful testa!

* * *

'It's X.'

I gritted my teeth.

Beside him, Sejin Keun was flipping through the article with an expression without a smile on his face.

“Did you leave it here?”

“I threw it away.”

T1 cut off its entertainment subsidiary.

A sign sent to the political world, ‘Please look at me as you have caused me this much damage’.

It is a sign of surrender and negotiation.

And that means… Now, this subsidiary means that it is a long-term debt that has been cut off.

‘I’ve lost money once, but there’s no way I’ll push it.’

It would be because I don’t want to see things do better after losing money. Now, the company’s profit from the T1 platform is over.

Liu Qingyu furrowed his brows and rubbed his chin as if embarrassed.

“We are going into contract renewal negotiations next week.”

“We had a positive conversation a few months ago, but… .”

“no.”

“no!”

Two people with the same name, who didn’t usually get along, spoke at the same time and looked at each other.

By the way, I completely agree.

‘It should bounce.’

It was obvious what would happen if they were together on this sinking ship.

An agency that has already been tagged as a T1 line, so it is difficult to get on another line, but the agency lost to T1?

‘It’s over.’

No matter how good our names are, if we don’t promote properly, we won’t last long.

“You should never renew your contract with this place.”

“… !”

If someone said they would renew the contract, I had enough of my mind to persuade them without sleeping for three days and nights. No, there was plenty of time for that.

‘It’s because the current schedule is all gone anyway.’

From the label staff to the manager, all of them can’t get in touch with the company, damn it.

I gripped the smartphone in my hand as if it would break. One or two soft-hearted guys hesitated in bewilderment, then nodded.

“Ughhhh… .”

“but… If so, shouldn’t we all have to sign contracts with other agencies? Should we start looking for an agency suitable for that?”

right. That’s the problem.

Time is running out, and it is doubtful whether there will be an agency that can coordinate Testa’s activities as she has been doing.

‘I have to find a place where I won’t fall into a cash cow while going round and round on tour.’

I finally made a label after picking out the best people, and I have a lot to say even though I left this whole staff behind and opened a store… .

The biggest problem is this too.

“and… There’s a high chance that you won’t be able to use the group name Testa.”

“… !”

“Ahhh… That’s right.”

Testa is a group name created from < Idol Co., Ltd. >, and the agency holds the related trademark rights.

‘Even the guys at the company know that this is their food supply.’

They will never let go easily, whether conventionally, financially, or emotionally.

“… … .”

Naturally, the atmosphere darkened a little in the silence.

It is impossible not to be attached to the group name that was written to fill up 5 years.

But even in the midst of that, Cha Yu-jin shrugged.

“Even if the name is changed, Testa is Testa. I like it. We can come up with a cool name! A fresh new start!”

“Oh oh.”

A few of the members nodded at the ambitious words. Kim Rae-bin also agreed.

“That seems to be a definite advantage. Indeed, there are times when Cha Yu-jin is right, and I think that time is now!”

“I am always right! Raebin Kim thinks I’m wrong. So Rabin Kim is wrong.”

“… ?? … ! I will withdraw! Cha Yoo-jin is right only this time!”

“haha!”

Thanks to the two consistent guys, the atmosphere was a little relaxed.

Like those who have been through all sorts of things before their debut, the mental management this time around has started in a stupendous way.

I chuckled. Big Sejin applauded.

“That’s right~ Our Yujin can come up with a cool English abbreviation!”

“Yeap~ I have a lot of ideas!”

“Ohh~”

Big Sejin responded with a smile.

But in fact, I saw that kid also smile at the group name talk.

That too is unavoidable.

‘okay. If you can… .’

If possible, I would like to take this group name with me.

It was already a symbol. Brand values are not easily re-established, and it is not once or twice that the feeling changes the moment the name is changed.

‘It’s a pretty big risk in the image business.’

… I’ll have to roll my head a little harder.

I clenched my hands as I counted the number of cases.

“First of all, avoid suspicion of the company.”

And each of them started to be assigned a task to do.

First of all, at the contract renewal meeting that the company managed to hold, as the group representative, Ryu Cheong-woo made a well-planned speech.

“Um, would it be okay if we rewrite the contract after we talk a little bit more? It’s also very noisy right now.”

I bought some time by deliberately expressing myself vaguely.

Just to make them misunderstand that we’re scared because the head office is so chaotic over there.

-I’m going to renew the contract, but give me a little more time.

Let’s go with this keynote.

It worked well because Ryu Chung-woo had a trustworthy image.

Bae Se-jin did a good job of using the spare time he had earned to appoint a lawyer for an unexpected situation.

Now, check out other companies that might be contacted in earnest… I have to.

This is it.

‘… Originally, the picture is right for the opponent to come directly.’

Did you see yourself running a business when a hot FA sale came out on the market?

The moment we bow down and enter, it is a shortcut to worsening contract conditions.

Besides, if you go around looking for a company and get caught by your current agency, you might end up with gossip.

but… Even though Testa is in the contract renewal season, few of them visit.

‘There is no other company contact.’

The problem is that the fact that Testa will renew the contract has been rumored to some extent in the industry.

In fact, since the label was created, it has been treated as a confirmed fact, so few companies dare to contact Testa.

‘Even if it’s there, it’s still floating around.’

There are only guys who say that once you get caught, it’s a jackpot.

However, no matter how urgent it is, it is impossible to go to the Dream K-class agency where Bae Se-jin used to be.

It reminds me of Bae Se-jin deleting the KakaoTalk I was watching between contacts as if he was going to breathe fire.

In the end, the guys who stretched out in the living room were on the verge of saying this.

“Ah~ Shall we just set up a company?”

“I think that would be better too… .”

Sun Ah-hyun sighed. It was a rare sight.

“Is it impossible to be independent just like the people at the label… I just want to try changing the name.”

“It seems impossible… .”

“okay… .”

At Kim Rae-bin's words, Ryu Cheong-wu fell asleep. This was also a rare sight.

'Everyone is tired.'

I held my breath and picked up my phone.

Yes, if there is no contact, there is no difference. Now that things have turned out this way, get ready to poke yourself in the right places and get a reaction… .

'hmm.'

But there was a text message on my phone.

It was not an advertisement, no regards, no stalker.

that… It was a congratulatory message.

-VTIC Cheong Ryeo senior: Congratulations on your independence^^

It's ridiculous.

'This bastard… Since when did you know?'

But the moment I read the next letter, I stopped thinking for a moment.

-VTIC Cheong Ryeo senior: I think I need a new house.

-VTIC Cheong Ryeo senior: How is it?

"… … ."

… new home?

'no way… … Are you Leti?'

It was the first Scout offer.

Chapter 454

If you don’t debut, you’ll get sick to death Episode 454

Let’s think about what will happen when Testa goes to LeTi.

Advantages first.

‘That I’ve already done it.’

The point is that I already know everything about the company president and how the planning team works.

I even did a debut survival there.

Even though it was a few years ago and it was like a virtual simulation created by the system.

‘Adaptation will be quick.’

And since LeTi is a large company that even went public, there is a low probability that there will be a problem with taking care of Testa’s name value.

furthermore… .

‘There are no male idol rookies.’

At least while VTIC is in the military, there is a high probability that Testa will receive a fairly decent investment.

‘It’s just a few years of time.’

With T1 Stars sinking, this seemed like a very good option.

‘As long as the terms of the contract are adjusted well, maintaining the color of Testa is also worth trying.’

however… There was a very crucial problem. absolutely non-negotiable.

So my answer is only one.

After all this thought was finished within 30 seconds, I responded immediately.

-it’s okay. congratulations thank you

yeah don’t go

Then, not long after, the answer came back.

-VTIC Cheong Ryeo senior: It’s a pity

-VTIC Cheong Ryeo senior: What comes as a label?

what

-Are you available on the phone?

I got a call after a short text.

“Seniors.”

– Junior.

There’s no need for this guy to release the phone recording, but since I don’t know what will happen, I started talking politely.

“What do you mean by label?”

– I mean literally. um it’s difficult

A soft voice spoke.

-I was thinking of making a label under LeTi.

“… !”

-Most famous agencies have their own color. It would be burdensome for Testa to belong directly to such a place.

-I thought it wouldn’t be bad if I could make albums as I wanted at an independent label like now.

Cheong-Ryeo made a sound that fit snugly, as if scratching an itch.

and recommended again.

-Testa seemed to be the perfect group for this label, so I contacted them. is not it?

“… … .”

I opened my mouth.

“That label.”

-yes.

“Is it an advantage that Testa can do the planning as he wants?”

-Yes. And it will be easier to work with. The company system is well organized.

“yes.”

There must be a system he has set up.

Obviously, it is not to say that the planning is autonomous.

but.

“But isn’t it the LeTi headquarters that coordinates promotions and schedules, not the label?”

-… … .

“And LeTi is your senior’s agency.”

Yes. What does it mean to go to LeTi.

I took my smartphone away from my face and looked down at the name of the person on the call.

[VTIC Cheong Ryeo senior]

… It means that this guy can hold the testa schedule in his hands and roll it.

Even if I tried to do it now, it would be difficult to defeat a guy who worked for the agency for 10 years in just a few months.

Especially if the opponent has repeatedly attacked the same company dozens or hundreds of times.

‘I’m not even an X god.’

It is foolish to give the power of life and death to the hands of competitors.

‘But from a competitor’s point of view, it’s an absolute advantage.’

That’s why this guy also suggested it.

I remembered Cheongryeo’s strange text at the year-end awards ceremony last year.

video attached.

-The video was about a dog receiving a new cushion as a gift instead of a broken one.

new cushion.

‘Did you mean a new company’s new house?’

Maybe from then on, I might have been measuring the angle with a rough grasp of the T1 spinning board.

It’s pissing me off that I’m behind in fucking intelligence, but anyway, that guy’s behavior was obvious.

‘I calculated it.’

It means that this bastard is not a grown man, and of course he proposed to benefit.

And after a short silence.

A soft voice was heard again.

– You’re still smart.

Isn’t it stupid not to know

– Well, there’s nothing for juniors to worry about though. I have no intention of doing anything bad.

“Even if the moment comes between VTIC and Testa?”

– It can’t be. I’ll choose a good schedule so that we don’t interfere with each other. Then, juniors only need to have a good agency.

“… … .”

-Isn’t that a good thing for everyone?

I looked down at my smartphone. Then, after rolling his hair fiercely and briefly, he opened his mouth again.

“… Let me think about it.”

-ah.

In effect, it would have sounded like a declaration of surrender.

His tone became more friendly.

– Well thought out.

“By the way, can’t you spread some rumors to raise the ransom?”

-hmm?

“It’s a rumor from an official that Testa won’t renew the contract.”

Just in the form of a chirashi so that the company doesn’t get suspicious. But outsiders are best if they can be dubious.

I dutifully gave my reason.

“Wouldn’t LeTi take care of something more if there was some competition? I think that would be the best way to get the terms of the contract right.”

-hmm.

Cheong-rye briefly agreed as if he knew.

‘good.’

If rumors spread like this… .

– Junior. I do not intend to come.

“… … .”

ghost kid.

‘I got it right away.’

Yes.

I have no intention of going to LeTi if possible. No matter how you think about it, you're sticking your head in that guy's mouth.

I don't think that guy will come and install Ohhamma now. However, this is not such a problem, but the aspect of risk management.

Besides, think about it. To LeTi, the VTIC agency that Testa has been fighting like a dog since his debut?

'The fans will all rot inside.'

I would have the same thoughts as I do, but isn't it natural to want to choose a better option if possible.

'I'm going to have to bet something to see a deal by spreading rumors.'

Let's go and see

I shook my head and tried to open my mouth, but the person on the phone spoke first.

-what… great. It's not difficult either.

"… !"

Surprisingly, he readily agreed.

Of course, that wasn't the point.

-But I want you to remember that my offer is valid until the contract renewal.

"yes. I will."

As expected, I accepted it obediently to gain the momentum to say that. But I'm willing to agree.

I was so convinced, but Cheong-ryeo suddenly changed her words.

-hmm. I don't think I need to say anything like that.

"what… ."

is it sound

Then, a laughing voice was heard over the smartphone.

-The more you contact me, the more I will think of you. this offer.

"… … ."

– I will send you the terms and conditions of the contract by e-mail. Congratulations once again, junior.

And after a few days, subtle contact from big and small agencies began.

* * *

"As Moondae said, they really come quite a bit."

"… I know."

Each member is holding a smartphone and looking at the proposals that came over through their personal connections.

First of all, the ones who came to Bae Se-jin are several agencies that manage a wide range of actors and idols.

Perhaps because he is the leader, Ryu Chung-woo had a lot of contacts, and Keun Se-jin originally had many suitable agencies that idols choose when renewing contracts.

'I can see the personality of the network.'

And Rabin Kim… .

"… ? Hip hop label. Why are you making an offer here… ?"

“Hmm, did you have ambitions to become an idol group?”

It is said that Raebin Kim is a close friend of the AR team, who treats Raebin Kim as the youngest, but I will bet on my smartphone.

‘And I… .’

There were some calls from me as well, but there were a lot of bad relationships.

‘I also sent these children.’

Gold 1 and Choi Won-gil belong to the Golden Age group. The place where industrial espionage made a fuss.

I said ‘Hello. I am Park Min-jung, the team leader of Traveler Entertainment. I apologize again for the past… … I read the long KakaoTalk pop-up that starts with ‘.’ without clicking.

It’s a bit embarrassing, but it’s definitely a good agency, so I decided to remember it.

‘The minus factor is that if Testa goes, the golden age, position, and years will match, so it will be a mess… .’

As I was thinking that far, I heard a question from the side.

“By the way, how did you spread rumors at Moondaemundae?”

“… … .”

“huh?”

now… It’s time to share.

I explained the invitation I received a few days ago.

And there was an explosive reaction.

“Le LeTi??”

“… Senior Cheongryeo… … .”

“I hate it there. “Of all the people I’ve met in my life, I like the darkest things. Don’t you seriously consider that, bro?]”

I never thought Cha Yu-jin would talk so long and intelligently.

I briefly summarized the situation.

“I said I wasn’t going. But since he said he would consider it, he gave up the rumor.”

“after.”

Sejin sighed deeply and sat down on the sofa. I also pressed my forehead.

“In the first place, we were going to move together, but I must have concluded that I would go alone. Of course you should discuss… .”

“Come on, let’s vote now! Who doesn’t want to go to LeTi?”

Five people raised their hands. I touched my forehead.

“Uh uh, don’t you listen?”

I have it baby

In the middle of the living room where the conclusion was ‘I’m not going to LeTi’ so hotly, Kim Rae-bin asked me a small question with a slightly embarrassed face.

“… I remember it as a good agency, but don’t I?”

“… … .”

Indeed, from head to toe, he was a guy who would have liked LeTi.

After that, there were meaningful contacts in a few places, but the problem was that the time limit was approaching.

‘I have to choose quickly.’

Since each member has different things that he thinks are ‘must have’, there were few agencies that met all of them.

In addition, most of them have disadvantages or risk factors.

It would be difficult to take care of because it is too small, or it is too big to have a male idol in the same position, or it is too individualistic to handle a testa.

Looking at it like this, LeTi, who had been carrying an independent label since the first hit, was definitely a fairy.

‘X feet.’

I scratched my head. It wasn’t because Cheongryeo was confident for nothing.

‘Yeah, let’s say I’m going to LeTi.’

Anyway… The fundamental problem is impossible to solve anywhere.

‘… Testa name.’

The name group concept. All these trademarks and copyrights were already owned by the agency, T1 Stars.

I mean how should I do that?

“I… Are you still cleaning up?”

“hmm.”

Seon Ah-hyun sat across from the table. I put aside the piece of paper on which I randomly wrote the keywords, but it seems that he has already seen

it.

-Continued with the testa name

… with this keyword.

“I want to keep writing my name… You are worried.”

“… … .”

“Wouldn’t it be really bad if I talk to the company well… ? If we can buy the right… That would be nice.”

“… would be nice.”

But I won’t give it to you. Even with an astronomical amount, the chances are slim.

This is because the decision maker is not one individual, but several stakeholders.

I explained that part to Seon Ah-hyun. Sun Ah-hyun listened calmly and nodded her head.

“Even if it’s difficult, try… Let’s do it.”

“… … okay.”

“Yes. Maybe the company has other circumstances, so you can allow it… !”

“… … .”

other matter?

At that moment, there is a thought that passed through my head like lightning.

‘Do you not sell trademark rights?’

then… Wouldn't it be enough to make 'other circumstances' to sell?

I nodded.

"yes. thanks."

"… … ."

"I knew what to do."

"… Yes?"

I spoke comfortably to Seon Ah-hyun, who had a puzzled expression.

"This company must go out of business."

"… !?"

How could you make it so simple?

"Are you dumb?"

thanks. Seon Ah-hyun.

And the next day I tried to contact both guys.

[Spacer Kwon Hee-seung]

[Mirinae Park Min-ha]

They were the guys from the agency's group who were in the same situation.

-Spacer Kwon Hee-seung: ???

-Spacer Kwon Hee-seung: What is the identity of this group chat room?

– Spacer Kwon Hee-seung: Is it a variety show?

-Mirinae Park Min-ha: Hello, senior!

I started typing straight away.

Chapter 455

If you can’t debut, you’ll get a fatal disease Episode 455

The atmosphere at T1 Stars was turbulent.

Independent from its parent company, T1 Ent, the company was no longer a subsidiary of Octopus Foot.

It sounds good at first glance, but in fact it was tinged with great uncertainty.

The top line that interferes and wields has disappeared, but the back ship to take responsibility has also disappeared.

-What do you think?

-Manager.. haha Shall we find out together?

Among the working-level staff, there was a joke-like speculation about the job change, concerned about future treatment.

And the same was true of the boss.

In this unprecedented situation where the board of directors was arrested and evaporated due to the political offensive, the only remaining bosses are the general manager and various department heads who were invited from among professional CEOs.

Everyone was keenly aware of their movements.

If they see an escape angle, you have to move quickly!

– I’m the general manager, so you’re going to go to another company, right?

However, there was still a corner to believe.

– We still have a good lineup of artists,

right?

The corner they believe in is the artists they belong to.

They were a few groups that toured with a solid fan base and secured fame and fixed income.

And among them, there was also a group with the most extraordinary name value.

– Testa also said that he would renew the contract, and

Testa!

They are top idols who shine in the Daesang for three consecutive years.

In addition, thanks to the production itself, there will be no big problem if the top line is blown away.

Working-level staff who did not know exactly how T1 and its subsidiaries had fallen out were convinced that the company would be able to make a living just by catching Testa.

-Ah, the Testa label is going somehow

So, externally, it became like this.

Let’s look at the anonymous community of office workers.

_____==

[Brothers and sisters of T1 Entertainment’s subsidiaries?]

Curious about the recent atmosphere, are you all happy with independence?

Crush. It was a reaction that came out because there really was a problem.

But in that mysterious atmosphere where there is hope… … .

[Testa Park Moon-dae: Then I’ll see you tomorrow.]

“… !”

The general manager received a text message from his office.

* * *

Testa Park Moon-dae was a madman.

At least, from the point of view of the general manager, it certainly was.

Previously, I thought he was a spoiled child, but after he signed a contract with the label after being counter-threatening, that assessment was fixed.

The timing of hand gestures and speech could not have been so clever and exquisite.

‘I should have gotten the hang of it as soon as I found out about the family affair.’

How worn out his temper must have been to win first place in a survival program at his age as an orphan.

Just looking at his age, he treated himself too softly, and then he got screwed!

‘Who knew that little boy would do that?’

The general manager tried hard to cover up the shame after the label contract, which was taken under threat, to the extent of clicking his tongue.

Of course, he hadn’t even guessed that the one in Park Mun-dae’s soft appearance was a much older adult.

Anyway, time has passed since the label incident. Testa worked hard without any special action, and Park Moon-dae has never been contacted.

however.

“I want you to read it.”

“… … .”

With a stiff hand, the head of the headquarters managed to pick up the bundle of papers Park Mun-dae had put down.

This time, the documents with black paint in the decisive part were the same as at the time of the label blackmail.

Litigation Materials.

The problem is that it’s not just Testa.

“Ah, chapter 7 is a different group story.”

spacer in the milan.

In this agency, the data details for the two groups next to Testa that were profitable were neatly organized.

‘This… … .’

This is also about the company’s unfair treatment. It was just a little less lethal.

In the case of Mirinae, the contents of the unconsensual tour and the US activity spacer were mainly about member neglect.

Even so, that’s one of the reasons why I made this.

“Um, next month. We plan to file a class action lawsuit within the next month at the latest.”

“… !”

It was a sentence like a thunderstorm.

Besides, this was immoral! Testa in particular.

He barely calmed the simmering sense of danger. And skillfully shook his head.

“no… You can show me this.”

The headquarters manager slaps the paper once and smiles forcibly.

While intentionally containing the expression of suppressing anger.

“The last time Testa added a label contract with this, and if this happens again, the company is in trouble. Who would want to work with Testa when the pros are so unconventional?”

It was true.

And it was also a subtle meaning that if they filed a lawsuit, they would somehow dirtyly weave the label story and explode it all.

“And other groups honestly don’t feel like suing. It’s a mistake that anyone can make while working. The judges are not stupid.”

This was only half true.

however… Park Moon-dae was calm.

uh?

“What matters is what this company will look like when all three of these groups aren’t working together.”

“… … !!”

“The money won’t come in.”

It was key.

The moment you sue… Cessation of activity.

And sales of other products, such as albums, will also plummet. Because fans won’t buy it.

And reflexively, the headquarters manager thought of that.

‘If this small and medium-sized entertainment agency, which is not a subsidiary of T1, loses its funding line… .’

That’s it.

The longer the lawsuit is, the less profitable it will be, and fixed costs such as buildings continue to go out.

However, T1, which provided investment funds, has already lost money in this company, so it cannot raise more money.

Other investors will not want to dip their toes into this the moment the three best groups in the company unite and file a lawsuit.

then… .

“It’s short, but it’s bankruptcy.”

Park Moon-dae sentenced.

“Then, since the company is bankrupt, we are automatically free.”

“… … .”

The back bone was cheap.

Truth It was a strong hunch that only came out when I heard the speculation about the future with a very high hit rate.

It can be summed up as ‘It’s X’.

They could have ruined the company just by filing a lawsuit.

‘Damn it… .’

The headquarters manager swallowed a few words in a mixture of English and Korean and spoke as calmly as possible.

You have to calm down by pretending not to be.

“It is such a leap forward. Haha, can’t Testa leave as long as he doesn’t renew the contract? I really don’t know why you’re trying to go the hard way.”

Park Moon-dae, who caught the meaning of saying please don’t do this and rather ask for good contract renewal conditions, shook his head.

“To help another group. As a senior.”

These crazy motherfuckers!

What kind of resentment did you commit to doing this after you’ve made good money so far?

‘The moment I say I won’t renew my contract, I know your reputation will be over.’

The general manager, who had listened to the flow of the entertainment company, decided that he would somehow mobilize public opinion to put an end to it.

And it was the moment I was about to give a warning pretending not to be.

“That’s why I’m going to tell you this first.”

Park Moon-dae, who had been resting, added a little.

“He was also good at our label.”

It was a voice mixed with kindness.

“It means you have to escape first.”

“… … .”

“Before we file a lawsuit.”

The manager was momentarily taken aback.

There was no sign of being particularly condescending or arrogant towards Park Mun-dae.

It might turn out to be a negative after thinking about whether or not to really say it, but the tone of saying that he said it comes out sneakily.

‘… yes.’

If he had made such a plan, it would have been risky to even talk to a company official like himself.

To say that despite that… It really might have been a favor!

No matter how much money you earn, you are just a beginner in society. Isn't he feeling sorry for the adult who already watered it once with an additional contract, he drew a picture.

… … Of course that's not true.

'I asked this bastard.'

Park Moon-dae was thinking about that when he saw the head of the headquarters.

I had no intention of filing a lawsuit in the first place!

As a matter of fact, as previously discussed by Testa, suing the company itself is a huge blow to the image of an artist. In slang terms, it is 'taken' in the industry.

However, the general manager, who was not originally in the entertainment business, could not capture such details that required experience.

Instead, Moondae Park caught the signal shed.

-I don't want to harm others, especially people I know.

that kind of… It is an immature corner with a tender heart that has not yet been touched by the time of society.

So, the head of the headquarters roughly grasped the situation like this.

In common sense, if Testa doesn't benefit much from a lawsuit… .

'Are you saying there's nothing you can do about it now that you've been seduced by another group and put on your arms?'

Since you've stepped up for others, you've come to care about 'another person' who will be harmed because of it!

So reflexively, the words began to come out strongly.

Because there was a place to lie down.

"No, changing jobs is not a kid's game… Do you think it will happen overnight, Mr. Mundae?"

I was thinking of pushing ahead like this and getting Testa out of the lawsuit.

And Park Moon-dae blinked his eyes.

"Are you having a hard time?"

"It is conceptually impossible. No, tell me when you will sue."

"hmm."

Park Moon-dae spoke slowly after being silent so slowly as to burn his heart.

The rope of salvation.

"Come to think of it, a lawsuit… I wonder what it would be like if I didn't do it like this."

"… !"

"How about this?"

Park Mun-dae frowned as if he had just remembered it and threw out a few words as if reasoning.

At that moment, the head of the headquarters flashed.

If so!

“… If you do this, you will earn time and you will have no problems with your portfolio or other places when you change jobs.”

Park Moon-dae finished his speech and stared at the head of the headquarters.

“You know, the head of the department. Anyway, this company has no vision.”

Because T1 let go.

Yes, the general manager already knew.

However, I was wondering if it would be possible to do more with Testa, but now that things have turned out like this.

‘… okay. All business is timing.’

First of all, the player who plays the most loses the least and gains the most.

After making his decision, the general manager opened his mouth.

Park Moon-dae smiled faintly.

* * *

The next evening.

“Hyung~ What are you saying?”

Ryu Cheng-wu grinned as he hung up the direct phone call from the company’s upper management.

It was a smile full of surprise and exhilaration.

“The company… Let’s talk about the group name, but it seems like they’re going to sell the trademark right.”

“… !”

“It’s true… ?”

“huh.”

“WOW!!”

The sign that the operation was successful soon filled the living room with exciting noises. Sejin Bae swung his arms excitedly.

“You mean that worked?”

“yes.”

Didn’t you say it would work?

I smiled and recalled the conversation with the general manager.

‘That selfish bastard.’

I thought I would eat and bounce.

I didn’t make any great suggestions. Something like this.

‘I’m going to have one last bite before the damn company goes bankrupt anyway.’

– After bankruptcy, trademark rights will be auctioned off anyway. Before that happens, the trademark rights are transferred to the groups for a fee.

In any case, if the company goes bankrupt, the trademark right to be auctioned can be bought. However, it is said that he will give the general manager a chance to sell and bounce first.

Suck it up with short-term surplus and creating a beautiful agency image that gives names to singers.

And the head of the division stands out after completing the last chapter of the portfolio just before the company goes bankrupt.

we? We've made excuses for this level of gain.

-Wouldn't other groups be at this company with that much peace of mind? It means that even if the company goes bankrupt, you can go elsewhere with this name.

– Rather than waiting for the company to go bankrupt, it's better for us to just live now.

That means it benefits everyone.

"… then?"

"yes."

I grinned.

"It's okay if you don't sue."

"… !"

"Oh!"

"Then we can leave without renewing the contract!"

"Okay! It's the best!"

In the midst of everyone starting to give high fives without context, saying that they only need a company now.

Seon Ah-hyun quietly raised her hand.

"Me, but then… The other groups are still staying at this company… ? What if I can't sue?"

"… !"

I chuckled.

Then I remembered Gold 2, which shouted out to let's go hotly, but was anxious as if we were going to bite our nails throughout the process.

-Hyung, will you save us? Could it be that only Testa went away in a daze after doing this…?? ㅠㅠ

"No."

I said I'd let you escape, but then it's a scam.

"It will progress gradually."

The agency's great escape.

Now all that remains is to wait.

Chapter 456

Episode 456

“Hey Min-ha!”

“… Uh uh uh Harin.”

Mirinae’s Park Min-ha has been living in a state where her soul is about to pass out.

Due to the company’s chaos, the group’s schedule was disrupted and everyone was at the dorm for a long time, so each member was trying to get rid of anxiety by focusing on their hobbies or practicing.

But only Park Min-ha acts like that.

‘Am I too stressed out?’

Again, the weight of the leader… . Mirinae Seong Ha-rin seriously crossed her arms.

At that time, Park Min-ha suddenly spoke out.

“Harin, we… If you can go to another company, would you go?”

“… ?!”

“Oh no. Pretend I didn’t hear it.”

If there’s a person who can pretend they didn’t hear that, they won’t be idols!

‘Another company? Another company?’

Did you get any signal?

Seong Harin knew it too. that the company is in trouble.

However, it is close to impossible to break out of an entertainment company with the remaining contract period.

If that’s the case, if something realistic happens in between… no way!

“Go to our testa label??”

“Shh shh!”

Park Min-ha was shocked.

Then, as if someone was listening, he quickly turned his head left and right, then hurriedly put his hand to his mouth.

“Really?”

“No no no that’s not it!”

However, he hesitated and added it.

“… It seems like a possibility.”

what!

Park Min-ha was never a member who would say useless bluffs.

If that’s the case, it’s because you’ve really heard something, so this kind of sound comes out.

At that moment, a forgotten doubt struck Sung Ha-rin’s head. The two had a particularly meaningful conversation.

“… … .”

Do you have Min-ha's source of information? .

"no way… Did senior Park Moon-dae tell you?"

"… ?!"

Park Min-ha hardened.

In response to the reaction that seemed to have been stabbed in the middle, Seong Ha-rin's suspicions that had been buried began to creep up again.

'The two of you are dating… .'

"Harin-ah, aren't rumors that we're close secretly circulating? The frightening situation in which such stories are circulating among company officials, other idols, and maybe even fans… ."

I don't think so either.

"Oh no! I guessed it!"

"after."

Park Min-ha let out a long sigh.

Then he sat down on a chair with an expression as if he had been burnt white.

"Your reasoning is correct… ."

"… huh."

It seem to be like that.

But the last doubt I decided not to come back to again.

'Yeah, there's no way a kid who's sincere about being an idol like Min-ha would already show off!'

If that's the case, it means that I was talking to Park Moon-dae in a completely business way.

"Then what the hell is going on?"

"… … Please wait a bit."

Park Min-ha was looking at her smartphone with a melancholy expression.

"… ?"

Sung Ha-rin raised a question mark in a situation she could not understand at all, but Park Min-ha did not give any more answers.

And a few days later, a cautious call came from the company.

The news that the group will be able to hold the group name directly, not the company!

"Why is that?"

"It must be aiming for a change of atmosphere. Something like image making?"

"aha."

The members talked about that, but being able to buy a group name was a very attractive proposition anyway!

Even if the company changes, you can keep the group name!

'oh my god.'

Harin kept his mouth shut, but soon realized the reality.

'… We don't have a lot of money to pay for this easily.'

wait for a sec.

Then, on the pretext of handing over this… Isn't it robbing us more by pretending to be generous and deducting it from the settlement of debt?

If you don't intend to lead the group for a long time anyway, and you're a one-hit business, wouldn't it be nice to have a group trademark!

'Aren't you doing this because you have no intention of raising Mirinae for a long, long time!'

However, the company called for a more conscientious price than expected.

"… ?"

Of course, the unit was over a billion, but it meant that it was not a crazy unit like several tens of billions.

"I really want to buy it! huh!"

"If it's Minha, then I'm fine!"

And with Park Min-ha's active initiative and Yul-gi's bright words, the members willingly pooled their money and bought the trademark under a common name.

"What about the other groups?"

"It was like a living atmosphere."

haha Except for the rookies from the survival show < Be My Girls > who are on the verge of sinking due to controversy, there is no way to miss this opportunity.

… Although it was a pity to play the press as if the company had just handed it over after selling it, the atmosphere was good anyway.

It's bittersweet to see people respond well, saying, "It's going on a completely different trajectory from the T1, which is used as consumables for artists," but it was a good thing in the long run.

‘How many years are left until the renewal of the contract.’

During Testa, the period was 5 years, but after that < Azusa > season became a huge hit, it was limited to 7 years.

‘good. The next album will be a hit! You can enter the Testa label!’

Seong Ha-rin decided to think as best as possible!

… That is until this article popped up.

[Testa renewal contract cancelled… Where is the next nest of KPOP stars]

“… … .”

Testa won’t renew the contract.

‘Oh no.’

The Testa label looks like it’s going to disband?!

‘These people are escaping!’

They are running away from each other!

Then what the hell did Park Min-ha say? Seong Ha-rin turned her head on the YouTube screen and looked at Park Min-ha… .

“Is it Minha?”

“Heh heh heh… haha.”

Park Min-ha was smiling dejectedly at the WeTube screen.

It wasn’t a surprise.

It just felt like an irreversible decision had been made. It’s like scraping an enormously expensive item with a 24-month installment plan.

"… ??"

Park Min-ha was looking back on her past choices, letting Jeong Yul-gi poke her.

'this… Is it correct to think that this is right??'

I had never strayed so far, so I had to go without getting hit this time as well.

'Please!'

Park Min-ha swayed like a balloon doll for opening business and picked up her smartphone.

* * *

Jiying.

-Mirinae Park Min-ha: I heard that you are not renewing your contract… Congratulations on going to a new place.

okay. The time has come for articles to appear.

I replied to the talk while deleting the contact from here and there.

-Thank you.

Of course, this guy probably wasn't sent to celebrate.

'I'm guessing.'

I added the following.

-Don't worry, it's okay.

The reply came back in a few tens of seconds.

-Mirinae Park Min-ha: Yes…

-Mirinae Park Min-ha: Of course. You invited me to the group chat room, but I believe in you.

what

It means that I can open a group chat room too, so don’t look back.

‘It’s gotten faster.’

I smiled and said, ‘Okay,’ and turned off my smartphone.

And I wasn’t the only one looking at the contact.

“I’m afraid to contact you.”

“Uh yeah… .”

Contacts about the article are pouring in to the members from here and there.

And I reflected on the news I heard yesterday.

‘The general manager quit.’

Without missing the timing, he bounced.

In addition, the fact that Testa does not renew the contract has been reported in the news.

Of course, it is not an article published by the company.

‘We reported it.’

Of course, I didn’t do it myself, but I spilled it at the feet of the officials as if it was a mistake, but anyway.

1. Stop loss of T1.

2. The general manager’s stop loss.

3. Testa’s stop loss.

In the end, the company saw such crazy losses in a short period of time with unexpected timing.

This moment when the company is shaking the most.

“Is it going to the next plan now?”

Yes.

I turned my head and looked at the person in charge.

The one in charge of the most trustworthy and stable image in this group.

“Thank you very much.”

“I should take good care of you, brother.”

Ryu Cheong-wu, who had already finished his preparations, left the dorm with a smile.

The destination was the company conference room.

However, not to T1 Stars, but to the conference room of the testa label, which is an affiliate label.

* * *

‘After… … .’

Kwon Hee-seung, an idol who is still nicknamed ‘Gold 2’ by Park Moon-dae, was looking into the past of the group chat room.

It was a group chat room created by Park Moon-dae for ‘exit from the company’.

‘I thought you’d help me if I brought up the wish ticket.’

Isn’t this company’s problem too difficult? So, Kwon Hee-seung was going to use at least the wish ticket he received when he was dragged into that bizarre virtual world and went through hardships.

However, without even going there, Moondae Park reached out his hand first.

There was just a condition.

– Stay calm no matter what happens.

This is it.

That’s why Kwon Hee-seung stood firm even in the mess where the directors were arrested, the trademark was sold, the head of the headquarters went out, and the testa went out.

‘He must be drawing the big picture.’

Although Park Mun-dae’s attitude was on the radical side, he knew. Park Moon-dae hyung was definitely the type with loyalty and affection!

… Although Testa really left without renewing the contract, it felt like my heart was going to drop.

‘are you okay. It won’t be a loss!’

But the next news, no matter how optimistic he was, really nearly broke his heart.

“Hey, all the crazy label people there have left.”

“… !? uh huh?”

“That Testa Label Orbit? People there are quitting one after another!”

oh my god.

And through word-of-mouth, Kwon Hee-seung soon realized that it was not an exaggerated rumor, but that almost everyone had left the company.

Of course, the existing company also went into an uproar.

-Isn't this normal?

– Oh no way, something else will explode… ?

Those who were able to change jobs began to leave the company like a relay race.

Almost half of the company's personnel escaped, and almost all of the superiors were left out, and the company that was not functioning properly seemed to be completely paralyzed.

"… … ."

Kwon Hee-seung became even more anxious, but decided to trust Park Moon-dae.

It's because it's good for mental health to think positively because celebrities who aren't in the first team aren't going to lose anything anyway!

Of course, KakaoTalk was sent.

-Hyung… The company people are evaporating

-And where is Testa going

The reply came almost immediately.

-No evaporation

-Wait a little longer

“… ?”

And that same evening, an article appeared on the entertainment news main page.

[Testa’s special loyalty… It wasn’t a bird’s nest, the label’s agency]

[Contract with Testa’s new agency… As it turns out, “CEO” who left the company]

“… !”

Yes.

Testa did not directly set up an agency.

However, he did not go to his former agency.

Instead, their label representative resigned and transferred to a newly established agency.

At that moment, Kwon Hee-seung realized.

‘… Could it be that all the label employees have resigned?’

Yes.

If Park Moon-dae was in charge of the general manager, Ryu Cheong-woo was in charge of label people and grilled and boiled them.

In the midst of the anxiety that the company’s risky prospects will explode, I will have to ‘lose my money’… It stimulated a kind of crowd psychology.

-We really… If I can work with these people, I think I will consider renewing the contract again.

The label representative willingly took the rope.

Hearing that Testa was following them, most of the label employees looked around and jumped off the sinking ship together.

So, in the end, this is what happened.

Labels cannot stand alone.

However, it disappeared as if it was scattered, and it was reconstructed and became a new agency!

‘Awesome, so my brother said it wasn’t an evaporation.’

Kwon Hee-seung admired it, but soon realized his situation.

‘Wait, but what about us?’

spacer.

we… Could it be that I am being abandoned like this… ?

-brother??

-Brother??

The reply came again soon.

-A little more

‘no, how much more?!’

Kwon Hee-seung wanted to cry, so he sent KakaoTalk.

After sending it, I was slightly worried that he might have seemed angry, but Park Mun-dae was not angry.

I just replied like this.

-Until people are more anxious than you

* * *

“… uh?”

and after some time

I heard unexpected news.

“The company… It was acquired.”

“… ??”

“Testa’s new agency bought T1 Stars… .”

yes??

Kwon Hee-seung almost dropped his smartphone at the manager’s words.

Then, I just arrived and found the hot KakaoTalk of Park Moon-dae.

-I think it’s possible to cancel your contract.

-Shall we cancel it now?

“… … .”

‘oh my god.’

After heightening the psychology as much as possible that this company will go bankrupt.

By reducing market value and future prospects as much as possible.

At the lowest price when it is most friendly.

Testa’s new agency ate T1 Stars.

“… … .”

This is why… I was told to stay still.

Kwon Hee-seung realized reflexively.

If you come out with a corner that you believe in or actively come out… This atmosphere could be disturbed, so I ordered ‘stay still’.

‘and.’

really… It was a hit.

It was an unexpected exit from the company.

Chapter 457

Episode 457 Testa

escapes from T1 Stars.

And a contract with a new company created by the label representative who left the company!

Preserve the group name!

Of course, the fans loved it. This is because it was the ending of the contract renewal season, like the best scenario I picked after seeing about a thousand futures.

Even if T1 Stars ceases to be a subsidiary of T1, doesn't that mean that the jokes that have been in the past will disappear?

It was a dream situation where the staff at the label could break up with the company they loathed while going together.

-Crazy Testa's new agency

-What kind of movie story does this look like? ㅠㅠㅠ

Testa's new agency was registered as 'Stars Orbit' after the name of the existing label.

But most of it was just an atmosphere called Orbit.

-When I think of STARS, I feel bad because I think of T1 STARS– -Ah, I

'm so happy that only the good things have changed

-I’m so relieved.

The fandom felt like a festival was about to happen, but the problem was the media play that T1 Stars had just before.

[The sincerity of independent T1 Stars is “returning the name to the artist”]

Transfer of trademark rights from a conglomerate to an independent artist.

It was as if Testa had poured cold water on them the moment the agency made up its mind and tried to start anew as a ‘good company’.

-Repay Eun-hye with enemies hahaha Wow

-They ate and drank

as soon as the group name was released.

The activities of other groups are virtually indefinitely suspended… ㅠㅠ

The aggro worked hard to incite people who had only heard about the story in the article.

It was a constant effort to appeal how decisively Testa had dealt a blow to this company.

I even captured the despairing writings of T1 Stars employees posted on the anonymous community of office workers.

And when Mirinae and Spacer’s fans started reacting to the aggro out of anxiety and nervousness, it almost turned into chaos.

Until I hear this news some time later… I mean it was.

– Testa label bought T1 Stars

-??????

It was a development no one expected.

-What are you talking about

┗ Literally… Orbit Entertainment bought T1 Stars hahahahahahaha ate
┗Crazy

hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha ┗What is this

[“Testa agency” Stars Orbit Entertainment’s unconventional first step T1 Stars Merger and Acquisition Promotion]

As soon as the article was published, the community and social media were turned upside down.

But everyone didn’t know how to react. It was surprising and funny, but it was because I had no idea what the hell was going on.

-Why do you live

? -Is this a good thing? Should I congratulate you?

-The people who said that Testa ruined T1 Stars were saved, where did they go

? Hahahaha -Did they go

crazy

? just made up my mind

Testa fans were a little taken aback because they didn’t know what the benefit was, but right now, they were relieved and relieved that the aggro went well.

It seemed like a funny happy ending.

However, there were people who had such doubts.

‘wait for a sec. If the former agency and staff are the same, and the artists are the same… .’

-?? So what’s the difference between this and the original T1 Stars?

It was swept away in an unprecedented situation, but it was a decisive question.

* * *

A fresh start. new company.

Testa is now sitting and discussing in the new boardroom.

I decided not to use the T1 Stars building. I wanted to draw that line.

However, since T1 absorbed the lost subsidiaries intact, from their point of view, it would be no different than the same guys replacing only the nameplate.

“we… You’re still standing in front of T1, right? Like T1 Stars?”

“okay.”

I nodded.

‘It means that the relationship that has fallen off the T1 is still the same.’

At first glance, it might seem that nothing has changed after spending raw money.

But that’s it.

“But now we can respond as we please.”

This is different.

We now have the power to decide.

This is because the company is privately held and we hold a significant portion of its stock.

‘Now I don’t have to work hard to persuade my superiors.’

“Wooooow!!”

Cha Yoo-jin whistled.

Goodbye forever from boss trolls.

And knowing that, the guys had cool expressions. Bae Se-jin seems to have almost cried.

“… Everyone has been through a lot. I am… I didn’t know that this was possible before. But I’m really glad it went well… good night.”

“Sesejin hyung… .”

Liu Cheng-wu also laughed and chimed in.

“really. It’s awkward and strange because it’s our company, but it’s nice.”

“Really? Okay, let’s do our best for the next 5 years and 10 years and go well~”

“Yes, I think I need to develop more responsibility! i look forward to!”

“Yeah!”

The atmosphere was passionate because everything went well as planned. I nodded.

It’s good to have a good owner’s mindset to do well in activities and take care of the company well.

… Of course, no matter how much the price of T1 Stars has dropped, the financial power to acquire it in such a short period of time does not come entirely from us.

Anyway, since the T1 strap fell off, I had to take another line.

I remembered the guy's message that would remain on my smartphone.

To be precise, the reply that came when I contacted you first.

-VTIC Senior Senior: I contacted you.

-VTIC Cheong Ryeo senior: As expected.

What is 'also'?

Of course, I had no intention of signing with LeTi until the end.

But if you can get along with LeTi and use it, there's no reason you can't use it.

so… It was just a money transaction, excluding everything else.

-Senior, don't you have any plans to take only the return on investment without having to go through the trouble of making a label at your agency?

In other words, LeTi has invested quite a bit in the launch of the company.

Of course, not more than half. The exercise of majority voting rights should be prevented.

However, it means that it has now become the same line as LeTi.

'It's easy to use a platform friendly with LeTi, but it's a bit difficult to refuse LeTi's request.'

This kind of line is good. The Cheongryeo side would also think it would be beneficial since they could accurately monitor the movements of their competitors and intervene a little if necessary.

Of course, he was trying to make it through debt.

-VTIC Cheonggyeongryeo senior: It seems that the junior got my help unilaterally in this case.

-VTIC Cheong Ryeo Senior: What do you think?

I thought so.

-yes. Then, instead, I will give you good information about other VTIC seniors.

-VTIC Cheong Ryeo senior: Hmm?

– Senior Ju Dan is doing well in the army. He asked about how he was doing.

After that, there is no KakaoTalk history. It was because he called me and made me laugh.

‘What happened.’

KakaoTalk records are better than jokes, looking at the company’s finances and schedule, and asking where the guy who would benefit from this unilaterally pretended to help.

I opened my smartphone and turned over the conversation record with him. Then, messages from other guys who arrived just before appear.

‘hmm.’

The other group members of T1 Stars who even dug up a group chat room and watched the escape scene.

He said he could cancel the contract now… I got this reply

– Ha ha ha What are you talking about

? – Didn’t we escape together? Eing Spacer, please take good care of me in the future!!

-(Tearful emoticon)

This is spacer Kwon Hee-seung, so Gold 2.

-If you don’t mind, we want to do our best to promote like this!

-And since Stars Orbit is a new agency, I think I signed a new contract. (Salute emoticon)

This is Mi Mi-nae’s sensitive.

“… … hmm.”

I crossed my arms.

‘actually… I expected that Mirinae would stay.’

< Be My Girls > couldn’t promote properly because of the controversy anyway, so there aren’t any female idols within this agency who can compete for positions.

And I knew that I wouldn’t dare to kick this situation where the staff I was originally a good fit for were still there.

But spacers… Are you okay? I have no intention of conceding if Testa’s activity schedule overlaps.

I looked into my smartphone and for a moment anticipated the loss of public opinion in that situation.

-Testa is full of greed, so when did you eat T1 Stars to see the comeback spacer? Haha -I got tired of favoritism by sex. I’m afraid someone isn’t from Azusa. ~

“… … .”

Shall we coordinate well so that we do not harm each other?

‘Should this be the case, should I re-position the spacer… .’

On a route that does not overlap with Testa.

I pressed my forehead at the situation that suddenly made me think about other group positions.

“What’s wrong with Moondaemundae? What’s going on?”

“no. Not like that. … Other groups say they want to stay.”

“… !”

“Didn’t they want to leave?”

I adequately explained the situation.

Most of them nodded their heads. Even though it is a sinking agency anyway, they are like those who agreed to save it because they were reluctant to sink it.

“okay. It’s good to go together.”

“Because your staff are still there… I think I did too.”

To sum it up, ‘Oh, that’s right’.

However, Big Sejin shrugged.

He didn’t seem to like it very much, but he didn’t want to create a variable that intervened in contracts with other groups when he had already taken over the company, so he didn’t object.

I did just say this.

“I know. You can just do what you used to do, just do it~”

It means that if we cross the line and covet our manpower, we will knock it out.

‘OK.’

Cleared up.

I left a reply to Kwon Hee-seung and Park Min-ha with the gist of ‘then I’ll take care of the rest’.

The story of such a complex company and others is all over.

“You worked hard!”

“You worked hard~”

After the painful story passed, the members smirked in a comfortable atmosphere.

And the topic I was originally going to talk about finally comes out.

“then… Should we prepare for our new album soon?”

Yes.

Those who are thirsty for activities are the environment and nabal, and they only think about making an album.

“What a great idea!”

“We did a little bit of our activities! Make it quickly this time and do more quickly!”

“… Wait, our dorm is moving too… Uh oh I don’t know great yes! Let’s work hard!”

“Ohhh!”

Bae Se-jin, who had been on the brakes, joined in and the conference room was in an uproar.

me?

“I think it would be better to pick a song right away.”

“Yeah, Moondae~”

“I’ll contact the AR team!”

I picked ‘Magic Boy’ in a month from the bottom of nothing, so what is it?

‘What can I do here?’

You can do it.

lack of money? If it’s necessary, it’s enough to hit all the remaining settlement money. I can handle one or two albums.

‘… Of course, it’s not that there aren’t things that bother me.’

We’ll check that later, so let’s leave it at that.

I smiled and looked around the meeting room instead of needlessly clicking seconds.

It was then.

Giying- I

got a reply to the KakaoTalk I sent earlier.

‘Kwon Hee-seung.’

-Yes, yes, yes! Please take good care of me as a member of the same family!

I thought you would come roughly like that.

However, the next Kakao Talk was a bit unexpected. -Aaaah,

I ‘ll use that wish ticket right now!

So please take us too! Oh I believe!

-(Heart emoticon)

‘I am.’

Even if you don’t use the wish ticket, I’ve already poured too much of my money into it, so this company won’t lose money.

I smiled and typed in the reply, ‘It’s done’.

It was then.

[Check the owner of the ‘■■■ Fragment’!]

[Register < Wish >]

… A status window popped up.

I reflexively got up from my seat.

“Is it Moondae?”

“… Catch him right now!”

A pop-up follows.

[Use ‘Item: ■■■ (ver. Beta)’]

“… !”

no.

‘That’s a fucking system.’

It seemed that his hair would turn white. Even in the midst of that, I instinctively connected what Kwon Hee-seung just said with the pop-up.

‘Right of wish.’

… The system tries to grant wishes. Then.

‘Could it be to Kwon Hee-seung?’

no.

Why is it being used arbitrarily even though it’s an item belonging to me?

“cancellation!”

But at the same time as I shouted, the pop-up had already changed the text.

as soon as… .

Chapter 458

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 458

[…] The system went into your company!?]

[?? But can it be canceled??]

Yes.

I looked at the company's status window again while watching the pop-up of the large moon, which was astonished as if it were vomiting blood.

It is sorted from popularity to the artists it has, and even the company's overall rating is floating. It's like a demo version of a company-run game.

'What are you saying?'

I clicked on it just in case.

[※This function is not yet available.]

Reason: Before starting the mission

"… … ."

What features does it provide?

However, he is saying that he can't show it yet because he hasn't started his 'mission'.

'maybe… I think it's because of this pop-up.' [

Are you sure you want to cancel the use of

‘Item: ■■■ (ver. Beta)’ ?]

I must say that I will not cancel this for it to proceed officially.

[Hyuu hyung, I guess you can do whatever you want because it’s an item… . I’m so glad… … .]

Yes. This is what I can choose.

[uh… But why didn’t you cancel right away and are thinking about it?]

That’s… .

‘gold… No, it seems Kwon Hee-seung has a system fragment.’

[!!]

A pop-up like ‘Confirm the owner of the fragment of ■■■’ appeared. It happened the moment Kwon Hee-seung said his wish.

[Aaaaah, the system reacted to that and moved! Because Heeseung-nim has a fragment!]

That’s right.

‘I don’t know if I’ll have to do this to get it out of him.’

Responding means showing movement, so if you use it, you might come up with a way.

No matter how much you think about it, it is dangerous for a guy without a status window to face a mission failure penalty that suddenly pops up like a head on the ground.

And whether Gold 2 is X or not, it’s hard to just leave it alone… I was indebted to him to the extent that I even gave him a wish ticket.

‘… And one more.’

If one of the remaining system fragments is in Kwon Hee-seung, the pattern becomes obvious.

A total of 4 fragments.

And if what has been revealed so far is me, Kwon Hee-seung, the next guy has a high probability… .

‘… I’ll ask.’

This damn system is an experienced line.

‘Should I ask him to at least tell me a wish?’

I need to get my words right.

But for now, I shook my head and returned to the immediate topic.

So what to do with this system?

If I was just unilaterally dealing with the failure of Gold 2’s mission, I’m sorry, but it was an excessive loss.

I think it would have been a wish, a nabal, and a realistic loss… .

“To be honest.”

[…] Speaking of?]

I rubbed my chin.

“I think I will benefit.”

[?!]

Think about it.

Even checking the attribute draw level up status window. How well I used the system, sucking it to the marrow.

They suddenly asked me to become an idol with someone else's body, but if I failed, it would be a problem.

'Actually, this is a cheat key.'

[Hyung?]

But look now.

grow your company? It aligns with my purpose.

failure penalty? Anyway, if you don't grow the company properly, it's all the same.

In addition, from my experience so far, the penalty for missions was weak, not for status abnormalities. If I don't debut, it won't be at the level of losing.

and… .

"No matter how I think about it, I don't think I will fail."

It's about one mission.

[Huh.]

Hmm good. decided

I was wondering when to raise this new company to a weight class and process it to fit the testa level.

I nodded.

When judging complexly, there is no need to reject shortcuts.

But, let's just check one last time.

I asked the big moon.

‘Does this look dangerous to you?’

[…] … I don’t see this item as threatening, but the situation is just scary! It’s so scary!]

[You feel like you’re sacrificing yourself for Heeseung-nim?!]

That’s enough. It’s because of the mood.

[!?]

‘The system says it’s my item now?’

good. I escaped the collapsing building and collected the fragments while struggling to change my body, so I’ll put it to good use.

I immediately called the popup again. [

Are you sure you want to cancel using

‘Item: ■■■ (ver. Beta)’ ?]

‘No.’

That moment.

The holographic firecracker exploded.

Light broke through the pop-up where the big moon exclaimed.

[‘Item: ■■■ (ver. Beta)’ use confirmed!]

-‘■■■’ has become for company use!

A translucent hologram begins to take shape.

Borders are created, colors are applied… .

What’s done is what looks like a pretty decent mobile game window.

At the end of the scene, which seems to be evolving, a pop-up appears flashing at the top.

[Create Mission (NEW!)]

Mission: < Star's Orbit Entertainment > Achieve B-grade

– Let’s raise the target’s grade to retrieve the ‘■■■ Fragment’.

hmm?

The moment I wondered what the increase in the company rating had to do with absorbing fragments, a help message popped up at the bottom.

[Help: As the level of < Star's Orbit Entertainment > goes up, the owner’s gripping power gets stronger.] [

Try to dominate the ‘Fragment of ■■■’ with strong gripping power!]

Oh.

therefore… Since the system was used by the company, the more the company grows, the greater the control over the system I have. Is it possible to bring other fragments like that?

Kwon Hee-seung’s ‘wish’ and my purpose were well mixed. I’m fine.

but… .

[Remaining period: D-100]

-In case of failure ■■■ Take ownership

“… … .”

I have no conscience for a while.

I don’t like the penalty for failure because the explanation is ambiguous. I don’t know exactly what’s going on.

[then!! Try canceling it now!]

What should I try?

[※Cannot be canceled during a mission!]

‘I say so.’

[Uhhhhh… .]

I left the big moon pop-up and now brought up the status window.

The hologram exploded and new buttons flashed.

There are quite a few things that can be checked.

I smiled and went through the list.

‘Acting and entertainment came first.’

Anyway, the most urgent thing right now is one.

‘Official album activity.’

If it’s a standard group activity period, everyone should push for what they think of as universally valid.

‘I have to hit the first stroke properly.’

You have to make a quick and accurate comeback and make an intense survival report.

And to prioritize to grow the company… It should be imprinted from the most impactful group. who would it be

But not much. Of course, they were concentrated in the AR team, but there weren't many members of the AR team in the first place.

'Haha, if the real ability is outstanding, there's a high probability that they'll be working as a separate team.'

Because that will make more money.

There was a 'Request external manpower' button at the bottom, but try clicking on that… … .

Of course, this is for demonstration purposes only.

'Even if I make a demonstration album, it's okay if I don't.'

In addition, it is normal for the UI to lie flat and crawl on this system as a whole, asking 'Are you sure you want to start?' I think the same confirmation button will pop up.

That was the moment I clicked 'start production'.

Beep-!

The button flicked and a popup appeared.

I looked at the status window in vain.

It was then.

[The grade can be raised in many ways, but the fastest is investment!]

And it's a crazy money-eating hippo that demands 10 billion to raise it from C to B.

'X foot… .'

I staggered out of the bathroom.

Yes. I was doing all of this while I was stuck in the bathroom by myself.

"Is it resolved?"

"so so."

Just now, in the conference room, I looked into the air and cried out for cancellation.

But when the real cancellation came up, I sat down on the road with a depressed face.

Perhaps the members realized that it was not a disaster situation, and the members calmly moved away.

I did stand guard in front of the bathroom.

“How was it?”

I thought I had the company’s rapid growth package, but a more vicious induction was waiting for me. I can sum it up like that.

After holding my breath, I said:

“Does this company need another 10 billion right now?”

“… ??”

“No um… first. I got something to help with our activities.”

I roughly explained the system applied to this company. The conversation flowed between the curious and the wary, but in the end, I was okay with my words, ‘I will be able to use it’.

However, after this conversation, Seon Ah-hyun suddenly grabbed my arm with a determined face.

“It’s nothing. That 100 earlier… I mean.”

uh.

“If Mundae needs money, I can give it to you… !”

“Thanks, but that wasn’t the case.”

Don’t forget that the amount you and I get settled in the first place is the same.

But it must have been something out of the blue, so everyone’s mouths exploded.

“then… Does this company need that much more money?”

“That’s what I asked.”

“ah! That’s right.”

Bae Se-jin’s face reddened. And the others tilted their heads and whispered.

“I don’t think you need that much.”

“We have a lot of money in our company. I saw that number.”

“Umm~ Did you spend a lot while buying T1 Stars? No, we bought it because our liberal arts college was almost beaten up.”

also. It sounds like you’re in a situation where you don’t really need it.

“But why are you curious about that, Moondaemundae?”

“… If you put in 10 billion won, the company will run better.”

“… ??”

A rare question mark appeared on Sejin’s face, meaning ‘What nonsense are you talking about? I don’t know how to describe this display board. I endured my sleep.

Cha Yu-jin raised her hand.

“That’s an impostor!”

no. That’s not it.

“I’m not a scammer, I’m going to invest in the company.”

… for a moment.

I realized as I spoke.

‘yes.’

It is not investing 10 billion in the system, but investing in the company.

then… It’s not like 10 billion evaporates anyway.

‘I can spit out as much as I invested.’

If the album comes out well, so long as the tour goes well.

It could be called more than that.

My head was clear.

“… … Anyway, I was contemplating whether to invest in our company or not, so it’s okay not to worry.”

I chuckled.

“If we do well, I think we can be called many times over.”

“OK!”

The conversation ended so refreshingly.

… But if I put in 10 billion, I’m scraping almost all of my remaining money.

‘That’s a bit.’

It was then.

Kim Rae-bin, who approached cautiously, whispered.

“brother. If there is an emergency, I will be flexible… !”

“… uh thank you.”

It seems that I didn’t hear about the investment story because I was worried.

He’s the one with the most money here, but somehow strangely, if I get money from him, I think I’ll feel like I’m getting the most back.

‘anyway… It’s good.’

No matter what happens, I will eat and live.

I finally made a choice.

‘let’s go.’

Let’s try to get it back.

10 billion investment.

“hello. Yes, it’s nothing different, I’m calling because I have something to tell you… .”

And right after the consultation with the company is over.

A popup actually popped up.

[Remaining investment until Dominance (B) is achieved: \0]

[Dominance upgrade!]

‘After.’

It’s going to cost 100 billion.

‘It looks like I’m going to break out in a cold sweat.’

I inadvertently pressed my forehead.

however… The pop-up didn’t end there.

[Dominance (C) → Dominance (B)]

Chapter 459

If I can’t debut, I’ll get sick to death Episode 459

The system spit out something when I hit 10 billion won on the company.

‘5 hint tickets.’

And a ‘hint’ is information that is helpful to the company… la.

‘Then right now I’ll have no choice but to spit out information that will be useful to Testa’s activities.’

Now, the company’s rise and fall depends on Testa’s next successful comeback.

I was intrigued.

“hmm.”

I naturally sat down and clicked on the hint ticket.

Then, the hologram changes and a gray machine picture appears. It was a familiar shape.

roulette machine.

[※Do you want to use the hint ticket?]

‘Yes.’

It reminds me of when I used to draw traits before.

I watched the roulette run with a little nostalgic heart.

[I miss you… ?]

Uh. Since I didn’t die, it became a memory.

[…] … .]

Why are you freaking out when you are the one who implemented roulette through the status window?

In any case, the roulette machine with iron and brass colored squares went all the way, showing sparse silver squares… .

[Complete use]

-Hint learned!

“… !”

Exquisitely stopped at silver.

It means that it is the best grade that can be taken right now.

‘C grade.’

Let’s see, the ‘I heard it’s right’ attribute was that grade. Even after debuting, I wrote quite a lot.

If so, what useful information do you have… .

[Exodus from subsidiaries (C)] –

It is said that T1 Ent’s subsidiaries have been collectively resigning due to a recent situation.

“… … .”

that’s what i did

‘Where is this cheating?’

Since when was it called a hint that reminds you of a story you know?

Where do you see this information?

Could it be ‘I didn’t say that I only give you information you don’t know’?

‘This swindler… .’

Eat 10 billion and spit out this stuff?

[Calm down! Brother blood pressure!]

“After.”

I took a deep breath.

‘Let’s stay calm.’

This hint ticket is a bonus anyway. I posted something called ‘company dominance’ to use the system function, and I thought it was a reward and gave me a ticket.

‘Let’s just pretend it didn’t exist and use it.’

I kept playing the roulette.

[Small embezzlement (E)]

[The practice room is dangerous (D)]

[Shooting hobby (D)]

There are hints.

E grade embezzlement was 1 million units. It was really worth a little use because you could stab it in the audit office. The D-class practice room was a story of protruding floor pieces, so it was okay from the point of view of injury prevention.

It's a level that can be found by just checking it on a daily basis, so it means that I was a bit nervous, but I was able to tolerate it.

But the last one was really unbearable.

[Shooting hobby (D)]

– The leader of Stars Orbit's representative group, Testa, enjoys shooting. If we meet at a shooting range near the company, maybe we can make friends?

That's a hobby I introduced to Ryu Cheng-wu, bastard.

[Bro bro! Take a deep breath again!]

"Huh… … ."

I pressed my forehead.

And soon I realized the cause of this gap.

'I'm too hot.'

It was a problem because Testa was already a five-star group.

If he was really the CEO of a new company, I don't know if it would have been useful, but from the perspective of a first-team idol who has already done everything he could, the D-grade information is meaningless.

'Is something like a roulette upgrade impossible?'

[Help: The roulette machine for hint tickets is upgraded according to the company level.]

After the help came up, I nodded my head.

okay. It is in its infancy now. If the company grade goes up, you'll be able to pick up better hints.

'Let's just pretend it's been a trial run.'

And I threw all the remaining hint tickets into the roulette without any regrets.

[uh? ticket… .]

why.

[no! You saved it, but when the roulette machine is upgraded, you know how to use it… … .]

You don't know what.

'If you upgrade the roulette machine, they'll tell you to buy a more expensive ticket just for that.'

[…] … .]

This is what real games are originally like.

[Play mobile games… I'm really sorry for following you… … .]

Intuitive is good, so that's okay.

Anyway, I was watching roulette without much expectation… … Suddenly, a golden four-leaf clover pattern appeared above the roulette machine.

[Lucky chance!]

"… ?"

Then, a splendid fanfare exploded, and all the slots of the roulette were dyed golden.

And slowly the roulette stops.

[Rookie of Wonder Hall (B)]

“… !!”

is grade B.

and… Wonder Hall agency?

‘It’s a large agency.’

I opened the explanation right away.

[Rookie of Wonder Hall (B)]

Year -202X. A rookie male idol will finally debut at Wonder Hall this summer.

As a large-scale project in which 20 billion won was invested over three years, the new team’s unconventional planning is raising expectations within the company.

Wonder Hall. The agency of T-Holic, who was a national idol before VTIC… It’s a male idol rookie group.

I touched my chin.

‘This… Worth it.’

T-Holic was a very popular male idol. It was almost the only testain level that succeeded that popular genealogy.

Even now, aren’t they an elder idol group who are eating well and living well while doing their own entertainment programs?

therefore… If you’re a rookie on a similar path to T-Holic, you could be a competitor to Testa’s public position.

‘This rookie is worth checking out.’

I concluded And the impression of the hint ticket was corrected.

Higher grades are quite useful.

The thing I lacked the most was information from officials, but I can make up for it through ‘hint tickets’.

‘By exchanging this for a base, I can gradually expand my information power.’

I was very happy.

[and! I’m glad though… !]

Yes.

After exchanging a few more words with Daedal, who seemed to feel more at ease, I turned off the roulette window.

With this, I finished all the work I had to do alone while chatting with the big moon.

next… Finally, the function is unlocked album production.

“Now, let’s start.”

“Okay, okay!”

“Amazing and thrilling!”

I called the members to the living room. The living room of the dorm was empty due to the packing of moving items, but the table was fine.

I put a note on it.

What are you going to do here?

‘I’m going to share the status window.’

The production of a testa album is something that needs to be done as a group. Because they know the situation, I think I should share it to some extent with the parties involved.

However, if you can't see the status window,

'why don't you just visualize it?'

I started copying the 'Album Production' hologram directly onto a piece of paper.

square square.

"… … ."

Kim Rae-bin raised his hand.

"Hyung, is that barbed wire?"

"It's a card."

"… … ."

what.

"Ahahahaha!! hahaha… Ahh! I won't laugh! I won't laugh, Mr. Moon! Wow! Since Moondaemun University PPT is used well, let's put it on the TV screen! How are you?"

"Yes, Moondae. That would be good."

"… yes."

So, after the intermediate medium was replaced with a laptop, the work began to be done more easily.

"This is the list we currently have, and the detail page is… It feels like this."

“Ohhhh.”

“Rabin is five stars!”

“Rabin Kim is a genius!”

“I don’t know what the stars are determined for, but I think it’s an undeserved honor and I will continue to devote myself… … . Heck, am I bad at composing trot?”

“… Isn’t that obvious?”

“Rabin likes trot… .”

“ah.”

Yes. What did you go through like this?

“Park Moondae over there… Did you really invest 10 billion won?”

“yes.”

“… !”

“Whew! Let’s make a 10 billion won album!”

“Oh, Yujinie spends all her money at Moondae~”

“If things go well, Moondae hyung earns a lot of money!”

Learning the war meta where Cha Yu-jin wins and pays back… Then, the final page with the cards selected and filled is like this.

Hmm Prediction.

I recorded the hologram on the notepad again, and the members nodded.

“Oh so… At this rate, we are predicting which album will be released.”

“And since we haven’t finalized the concept yet, there must be a lot of undecided parts.”

“Anyway, this kind of thing is usually done with a lot of money! That’s great.”

And soon the hologram flashes again.

[Prediction result complete!]

Well, this is how it is completed… .

[Help: There are not enough external manpower to contact you! Let’s increase personal connections.]

Difficulty in contacting external personnel?

“… … .”

It’s strange.

This is an aspect that hasn’t been a problem before.

‘And if I brought the working staff as they were, something like this popped up.’

It means that someone is interrupting your contact.

And that… Someone who has more power than a successful individual celebrity.

‘… Enterprise.’

“Have you got the results?”

“How is it?”

“… … .”

I crossed my arms.

“I guess… Looks like T1 isn’t the only one drawing a line with us.”

“… what?”

“It looks like it was filmed. People don’t seem to want to work with us.”

“… !”

There are more items that you need to know right away.

* * *

That evening.

Liu Cheng-wu said as he lowered his smartphone with a firm expression.

“It’s true that you can’t appear at a music night.”

I thought Tnet music broadcasts wouldn’t come out for half a year. What follows is important.

“… They say there is no response at all on the T1 side of entertainment.”

“after.”

also.

It is not a kite with only the string removed, but a kite that is being collected separately.

‘How many entertainment programs are affiliated with? Are they all blocked?’

To be honest, the level of entertainment in the T1 system broadcasting company… I thought I could get out.

‘It wasn’t like that.’

I slowly understood the principles of these guys’ behavior.

Now, in order to attract demand for the survival program to be newly launched by Tnet, it is better to tighten the Testa Mirinae spacer line, which is holding all the demand for that system.

But just in time, they even published an article and excitedly launched a new company? Are people responding well?

‘I messed up the T1 planting by making a fuss about changing the house.’

It became a problem because public opinion was better than I expected.

Wouldn’t it be nice to vent your anger over the hardships you have suffered under the pressure of the political world?

T1 is ‘Orbit? It is clear that he expressed his feelings of ‘I want to kill these guys’ to the officials.

If you don’t carry it for a while, people will buy themselves.

‘Director, photographer, entertainment reporter… … . There are few famous people who have never worked with T1.’

And if you’re thinking of getting a chance to work with T1 in the future, you’ll want to be a little more careful at this time.

“then… It must be hard for everyone to work with us… .”

“I have no choice but to keep an eye on it. for a while.”

“… … .”

oh shit

I shook my head.

The meeting was briefly interrupted and I came out to the veranda for a while and was browsing the status window.

Someday after quitting, I remember cigarettes.

Still, the head rolled.

‘… I have no choice but to rely on LeTi’s connections.’

Even if you say that it fills up the music video director and album art… .

‘No, no.’

If you completely lean on that side at all, the company itself may be reduced to the level of a label affiliated with LeTi.

‘I did this shit to avoid that.’

You can’t just ride that line completely.

I held back a sigh and turned the hologram over again as usual. I was wondering if I could pull out any information.

‘Information.’

How nice it would be if I could get some useful information for something like this with a hint ticket.

‘Don’t give me information that you already know or a C grade.’

I sighed and scrolled through the status window.

[Escape from a subsidiary (C)]

The article skipped over.

“… … .”

however… … for a moment.

‘It’s strange even thinking about it again.’

Why is this a C grade?

Isn’t the rating too high for a vague hint that only tells you that employees have left the subsidiary?

Except for what I know.

I read the article carefully again.

-It is said that there has been a series of collective resignations of employees at subsidiaries of T1 Ent due to a recent incident.

“… !”

And I realized That there is an expression that I inadvertently passed on to the content I was familiar with.

‘The subsidiaries we are talking about here… It’s not just one place.’

‘subsidiaries’. I mean multiple places.

and one more.

There is a crucial difference.

‘T1 Stars was no longer a subsidiary then.’

Our former agency lost money from T1 and became independent, and then label employees collectively left.

therefore… This is not our company story.

‘There’s another company.’

Subsidiaries of T1, where employees left the company as a group.

I immediately started searching.

I searched for news of T1 Ent’s subsidiaries, focusing on articles and SNS.

Even if it’s not a broadcasting station or entertainment agency, there are things like movie, music, home shopping studios.

and… .

‘game.’

found.

-They said that everyone at T-One Place has left the abandoned factory… I don’t think there will be a next project for Section 127..

Chapter 460

Episode 460

“Ouch! Hello testers!”

“hello!”

We entered the open office door.

It was the creators of < 127 Section > who opened the door.

It was a smaller office than when it was in T1 Place, an affiliate of T1. But it was full of energy.

Enthusiastic greetings poured in.

“I didn’t know you would contact me like this, so nice to meet you! It seems like I haven’t seen you in a long time… … .”

“Ha ha yes. It’s the first time we’ve met in person since the collaboration. Oh this… It’s late, but it’s a gift from opening.”

“It’s okay… and thank you.”

What Ryu Chung-woo presented was a SF concept mood lamp brought in according to the number of employees. As a company that is serious about this, the faces of the representatives became clear.

‘I knew it would work.’

He was good at ignoring Cha Yu-jin’s fierce objections.

Naturally, the story of the past comes out.

“Seeing this reminds me of when we were working on tutorial characters! It was really fun to talk to you and make it fun for you.”

“Really~? We did too!”

The atmosphere becomes more cordial. Well, I certainly did a good job without blushing at the time.

There must be a reason why the meeting happened right away… In fact, there may be more practical reasons.

I scanned the faces of the delegates.

‘It’s a personal relationship manager.’

Didn’t this side kick T1 with their own feet?

Even if you have great guts, you won’t be worried at all. It’s because it’s in the middle of the day with big companies.

Even if T1 is not that big a hand in the game world, the overall impact on the cultural industry platform was considerable.

‘There will be some pressure to start over from scratch as a startup.’

But at that time, if a proven star marketing person who had a good publicity before asked for a meeting, I would accept it.

‘Even if they’re in a similar situation, I’m curious.’

It looks like our side also kicked T1 and even escaped from the company once more. It means that there is nothing strange even if they are misunderstood as ‘comrades’.

I’ve been aiming for that

We exchanged a few words and moved to what appeared to be a conference room and sat down. There were game posters and figure figures everywhere.

‘There are also < 127 Section > characters.’

There will be no copyrights anymore… Did you do it out of affection rather than bragging about the company?

I looked all the way and finally checked the poster of a strange character on the wall. A character in an engineer’s uniform with a bizarre flesh weapon in his hand.

‘This… … .’

Representatives of these companies were not in the portfolio. good.

“Is this a game character too?”

“Ah yes!”

“I think it looks really cool.”

“Really? That’s Mundae’s taste!”

Kim Rae-bin looked at the poster with eyes full of curiosity.

“Is this a new game by any chance?”

“This is a representative image character for a new game we are currently developing. But the launch schedule is quite late… … .”

“When are you by any chance?”

“The plan… Well, it’s about the end of next year.”

It was far away.

‘Besides, they don’t talk about the exact quarter.’

This meant that development was not going very smoothly and tightly.

ambiguous

A story that could be pushed to the next year.

‘hmm.’

I smiled inwardly.

And I checked the poster carefully again.

It has a bit of a bizarre, yet modern taste. The quality was good, so I still felt like I knew how to keep the line.

“So I think the official promotion will probably start around next summer. It’s a train story… .”

As if we thought we were interested, the male representative put his eyes on the story right away.

That’s great.

‘It must mean that it would be nice if Testa would promote or collaborate again at that time.’

They are definitely a bit clumsy when it comes to sales.

I looked away slightly as I listened. Big Sejin is also nodding his head to the CEO as if he is really interested.

But I did remember.

When the production team of < 127 Section > informed the members that they had found a newly established company called ‘Ruins Industrial Complex’.

This guy’s reaction.

-and… I found it because it was Mundae. Really! But you don't want to do a game collaboration again, do you?

It means that you will admit that you found it, but throw away the idea of collapsing.

Of course, I also remembered my reaction to it.

-Of course not.

That's not what we need.

"Actually, after hearing the word, there are still ruins of the factory… No, I think the games made by the people of the industrial complex will be wonderfully unique and fun."

"… ! Oh, thank you."

"So there is something I want to tell you."

I got to the point.

the reason you came here

"I would like to make a request. Could you make a game for us?"

I will make a real game, not a game collaboration.

"… !"

The delegates' eyes widened.

And, wondering if it was my joke, I seemed to be checking the other people's faces.

Unfortunately, none of the other members were surprised.

Instead, Liu Cheng-wu just said:

“Well, the scenario is all ready.”

“… … .”

The representatives looked around among themselves and opened their mouths like this.

“It usually takes a very long time to develop a game like that. Even if there is a scenario, it is a different story to write and implement the original graphic UI code… It requires complex steps.”

A plus in the attitude of trying to kindly explain from the public eye level instead of yelling at the outsider saying crazy things.

‘As expected, it would be nice to work together.’

I smiled inside and nodded seriously.

“Of course, we are not shameless enough to take the time of the ruined industrial complex for a long time.”

“yes?”

“Actually, I’m not talking about the kind of games you originally developed… .”

I continued my explanation.

Game content in a form that would not be awkward even if put in the Venn diagram of the existing idol business.

that much… The volume is also small and special.

‘This is definitely possible within the time.’

We just need to roll over like dogs. We just need to squeeze our labor force.

And the more they spoke, the more the faces of the representatives changed.

That was definitely interesting.

“Ah, that… .”

well done

* * *

“Thank you~”

After several explanations and meetings.

The contracts ended in an instant.

Ryu Cheng-wu said brightly as he sent the signed contract to the company.

“This is convenient because we have the authority.”

“okay! It’s definitely true that you don’t have to listen!”

Bae Se-jin agreed and turned his head with a rare excited face.

“This is what it is. Is that album prediction again… Aren’t you going to try that?”

“yes.”

It should be.

Then the words suddenly intervened.

“Ah, one before Moondaemundae! You’ve all heard this, but one more time.”

Big Sejin smiled.

“Let’s not say things like we are directors of the company for no reason, whether it’s on a broadcast or anywhere else!”

“hmm?”

“Why do we have contract rights? Don’t even talk about things like this, just like before, ‘We produce the album!’ Enough of this!”

um yeah

It was important.

It is a line that must be cut off early if you do not want to be involved as a source of responsibility when the company has done dirty things.

It was more important than we were independent. The risk of equating us with this company is greater.

How much were you cursed at T1 alone? There is no guarantee that Orbit won’t step on that train.

… … Sometimes, there are times when you make a choice that is criticized because of circumstances that the outside world does not know.

therefore.

‘It doesn’t matter if I don’t benefit from the image of a company director.’

The image you can have as an idol is enough.

“Okay, okay!”

“hmm… okay.”

“Okay~”

There were people who understood this and others who didn’t know if it was necessary to do that, but everyone agreed anyway.

And after entering the company conference room.

“Umm, because I’ll be tired too… I’ll do the album prediction after I go to the dorm and rest… ?”

“Well, it’s okay to do it now.”

It’s not like I’m using my stamina in particular.

I just plugged my laptop right into the conference room screen and started typing the album production hologram.

‘Here, even one person from the company can enter, so cover the human resources part… .’

A few weeks after that.

It was one day when the day started to warm up.

– Crazy testa comeback!

-Really?

– Somehow,

the bulletin board of idol gossip was agitated by the sudden news of Testa's 'album reservation notice' so quickly.

This was because it was less than a month after Testa moved the company.

How is this possible?

It soon became clear.

– It's a repackage.

– Huh!

repackage.

It means an album that is newly released by adding only one or two songs from the previous album.

In fact, Testa originally intended to make a new mini-album or single album. It was according to the insistence of several members, 'If possible, let's not touch T1's planting'.

However, the situation changed after the modification of the T1 was revealed.

'It was filmed anyway, but what?'

Thanks to that, they proudly decided to suck up the previous songs and concepts and write them!

But people got more excited.

I moved companies, but I can bring my previous albums and release them! - That crazy company, T1Stars

Fans were eager to make reservations for a comeback term or something.

-Make money, please

. -When will it open?

And that's… The same was true of Park Moon-dae's first home horse.

Homma grabbed the smartphone as if tearing it apart.

'For this day, I was earning money…' .'

She had big plans. Even if it's impossible until the fan signing event is over, I want to attend half of it… desire… .

But first of all, in order to be the strength of the new start, the pre-orders of this album had to be good!

'Ahhh… I'm sure there won't be a music night.'

Light fans who don't know what T1 Escape is in between. But she knew.

Being disconnected from the broadcasting station and from the broadcasting station you are from is not a very good sign for your activities.

‘This activity is really, really important!’

I’m sure any smart student would know, but it bothered me a little that he came out in such a hurry… … So more sexual! It’s only sexual!

She nodded.

At that moment, an SNS pop-up appeared on the smartphone.

“… !”

‘Testa company official account… !’

This is definitely an album sale notice. She clicked hastily.

And I quickly recalled the information I knew beforehand.

This album is 3 types and… .

-Is the company crazy that it only produces 1,000 of the 3-piece sets with special benefits?

The article said that there is a ‘limited set’ that sells only 1,000 points and ends.

Although it was well received with a kind notice that it will be produced as a general edition MD in the future… I was criticized for not telling you exactly what the ingredients were.

‘… It looked like it was getting stronger.’

And its identity is now known.

She read the SNS post in an instant and was surprised as if her eyes would pop out soon.

“… board game?”

and midnight on the same day.

Inside the teaser for Testa’s new song.

[Ugh… .]

7 people in comfortable plain clothes sitting in the middle of a dim attic lamp with a blanket wrapped around it and a small light bulb.

This is the high-teen concept testa that appeared in the previous album concept.

They sat around on the floor in the attic.

Place the board game in the middle.

Chapter 461

Episode 461

-Crazy board game;;;

The news of Testa's board game limited edition album sparked fans' SNS timelines.

The reaction intensified when people even said that the board game appeared to have the same appearance as the one in the teaser after comparing the images. -I think it was used as a real music video prop .

I don't know how it feels. Will Testa's world view come out?

-I know how to sell it really

hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha

because of the limited number.

No matter how much the general edition is released in the future, there will definitely be a difference in composition from the limited edition.

-Only 1000?

Which group sells millions of albums?

-I don’t think of Pleumi, and I’m going to stick with the merchant

-How can

I buy this

started cursing

In fact, it was impossible to meet the production schedule to make tens of thousands of units because it was printed in a hurry to fit the schedule.

However, there was a feeling that this negative reaction was neglected to some extent on purpose.

It was to calm down the atmosphere of overly deifying the label in advance.

This is because it is burdensome for both the new company and the group.

And anyway, if the composition of the general edition was almost the same as the limited edition, the complaint would soon subside.

Besides, because the comeback, Testa itself, came first, fans couldn’t focus on swearing at the agency.

For example, something like this.

-Oh, since the album was a USB type,

Testa’s album to be released this time was not a CD, but a USB.

It is also standalone.

It ended with a simple composition of only an album USB, a box of recycled paper, and a photo card.

– Due to environmental issues, I think we will continue to produce with USB

. – To be honest, there is a lot of trash coming out due to the overheating of album sales

Buying an album in an era where online streaming has become a trend is because the meaning of owning the physical collection is stronger.

In addition, the small number of components felt somewhat shabby.

Photos and lyrics are probably included as data inside the USB, but the fact that you can't hold it in your hand is somewhat cold.

-Um, 3 types of USB…

-I wish I could show you what the USB looks like

-I wish it was a doll or something Thanks to the enthusiasm for the concept itself of continuing the high-teen concept of the previous album, the voice was relatively quiet.

But there was. The strangely dejected atmosphere created by the voices of dissatisfaction.

'under… .'

In the end, the fans who cared about it deliberately tried to find something better.

Part of that was to find special content that is not usually included in CD albums on Testa's album reservation product page and deliberately spread it out here and there.

-There is an extended version of the MV in this album. It's in the form of USB, so I think I tried it with a high volume, but I'm already looking forward to it. -There is a warning about the QR code reader! I think there is something that reads by QR. I think I prepared a lot, but that was the end.

More specific information about the album was not further released as the comeback date approaches.

‘What are you thinking??’

Thanks to that, even the first home runner of Mundae was biting his nails.

Although the concept photo was released once, it was a comfortable high-teen concept similar to the previous teaser.

It was okay and pretty, but it didn’t have any special features.

It felt too similar to the last album.

Compared to ‘Promise’, which was like a ‘Better me’ movie that brought a cinematic trailer for ‘Arrival’, which had a 30-minute teaser… … .

‘It’s only one teaser, and the composition is simple on a USB album… .’

The scary word ‘cost performance’ couldn’t help but pass through her head.

-I couldn’t imagine being treated like this at a new company

Doesn’t it look similar to But now, in the midst of the worse waters swirling around.

Just like that, the day of fate came as anxiety, anguish, excitement, and expectation intersect.

It was midnight on the day of Testa's first comeback at the new company.

Finally, the MV… floated

"… under."

[TeSTAR's 'Roll the Dice' Official MV]

Homma took a deep breath.

The title is dice, but the thumbnail also had dice… … .

How far are you going?

'Is it really a complete board game concept? I'm worried that I'm going to have a brain attack after coming this far… … … no!'

Homma shook off her useless thoughts and clicked on the MV with trembling hands.

OK… … .

"uh?"

What appeared on the screen was… It was a hardwood floor. It was the floor of the attic that appeared in the teaser just before.

However, Testa, who was sitting there at the time, was not there. It wasn't them that was the focus.

Just a board game board.

Tokens and cards are scattered over it.

However, the impression was a bit different from when it first appeared in the teaser.

I thought it was an obvious composition of moving forward while eating the land after dividing the khan.

But seeing this… It's more elaborate and feels like a blueprint for a real-life building… .

'… prison? maze?'

That moment.

The camera was sucked into it.

[You have my dice]

A low voice echoed through the black sight.

And the screen came back.

-Doong… !

Corridors lined up in a row.

Built of gray stones with different contrast ratios, it looked like part of a huge underground dungeon.

A huge rusty nameplate on the floor was briefly captured on camera.

-Keep It Safe

and the camera moves forward.

thump thump.

Along with the sound of footsteps, I see iron gates lined up on both sides. It's like someone's vision.

'Is it a jailer?'

Then the camera goes off again.

Whiik.

After penetrating through an iron door on the left, the camera immediately went to In-young sitting on the floor.

The person was wearing a white costume with a harness, a stage costume that reminded me of a straitjacket or prisoner's uniform.

And as soon as he saw the figure with his head slightly lowered, Homma immediately recognized it.

I'm closing my eyes… Park Moon-dae with black hair.

'Huh… !'

His bangs were a bit long, so his eyes were slightly covered.

The moment of close-up of that white face.

– Pipipipipipipipipipi… .

A small sound began to be heard from somewhere.

A noise that sounds like when a machine detects something or works.

Then Moondae Park raised his hand with his eyes closed.

and hit somewhere

puck.

With the screen of surveillance cameras exploding in the air.

The music explodes.

[My tape that touches your hand and winds up again]

Cool mid-tones that are light enough to be light.

And the screen also jumped up, and eventually went up through the dark secret room and went to the upper floors somewhere.

And there, a ray of light from the iron cage on the ceiling lattice shined down.

The tempo rises. [

All senses slow

as soon as the heart beats]

In the beam of light, someone sneaked down with a rope fastened to the end of the barbed wire cage.

It is Liu Qingyu, wearing a tight leather suit.

widely.

A slightly mischievous smile hung on his face as he landed.

The drum beat blends in and the bass sprints heavily with a slightly more rocking sound.

[Exhilarating contact

, looking for a definite answer

in your silent eyes]

When Ryu Cheong-wu puts his hand to his ear, the cut changes to someone doing the same thing.

It was Kim Rae-bin wearing glasses.

[You have one more choice,

take it all (one more)

Even if you lose this tightly held hand]

Kim Rae-bin, who was sitting in front of the dark monitor room, looked like a hacker or an employee.

However, soon after, he looked down with a blank expression, as if he didn’t know at all, and then just took an awl out of his pocket and broke the monitor.

Right before the monitor turns off with a jiggle.

Between the twisting angles of view, Cha Yoo-jin, wearing a straitjacket, looked at the camera and smiled, revealing fangs.

Then the monitor turns off and silence.

[Let’s start the melee]

The pre-chorus exploded with a low-pitched melody.

[Find it, look at its face,

I don’t care what’s next]

The cuts of each testa running through gray hallways, secret rooms, mazes, monitoring rooms, and other unknown conceptual places are connected without a break.

[Chaser

, don’t stop your hands today]

It looks great, but the moment you want to repeat the incredible cut transition, someone’s hand blocks it.

It was a gloved hand.

[Find out everything

Don’t be scared what’s next]

The owner of the hand was Lee Se-jin.

While drinking coffee, Lee Se-jin in a navy blue uniform smiled.

Then he turned his head to look at the broken monitor, took the key, and hummed out of the monitor room. [Chaser don’t finish the reversal

tomorrow either]

And the chorus.

[Just roll the dice]

Dance break.

The costumes and backgrounds changed naturally, like a cross-edited video of the stages.

From a white prison uniform to a military uniform and then a leather suit.

“and.”

How many cuts did this take… No, I thought it would have been more tremendous than running around, but I’m sorry that I thought it was more thrilling than that, but it was to the point of beating.

Homma swallowed and continued to watch the video.

[Trust take my side]

After the chorus, in the second verse, the story and choreography are properly mixed, and the video returns to the original KPOP feeling.

A performance video full of symbols but intense.

However, thanks to the beginning of the story, I was able to understand it in detail.

‘Let’s see… Moon Dae and Cha Yujin are prisoners? Same thing. Rabin and Chungwoo are the thieves. And is the big Sejin the jailer?’

By the way, Bae Se-jin and Sun Ah-hyun appeared in the performance in various outfits, but it was around the time when I looked up and said that I was not sure of their distinctive roles.

[Yes, this final round]

It was when the melody of the bridge was playing.

The scene that suddenly changed to a fast tempo changes to a long take.

… widely.

What is reflected is the back of someone standing in front of a huge iron gate.

The camera soon turned halfway around to reveal its true identity.

It was Bae Se-jin.

‘Ah, it was a thief!’

He was dressed similar to Ryu Cheng-wu. It was when Homma nodded.

-… … .

Bae Se-jin calmly stared at the iron door, then reached for the locking pad next to it.

There was a strange mechanical device that looked like a key, and I wondered if there was a close-up of the leather gloved hand.

Whoops.

Suddenly, the hand changed several times, either to a hand wearing a cotton glove or to a scratched hand.

“… !”

But it soon returned to the gloved hand.

And the moment I connected the key to the lock pad, the code entry box appeared on the machine.

[_____]

‘Oh!’

Bae Se-jin seemed to smile faintly, but… .

-puck!

The screen disappeared with a hit sound.

“… ??”

[Just roll the dice

Trust take my side]

There was no next.

In an instant, another dazzling performance video followed.

Although possessed by it, Homma still had a question mark in her head… In the end, I succumbed to the performance.

‘I’m sure they’ll give you rice cakes at the end… !’

Yes. The hint was given right after the song ended. But not in the way she expected.

On the screen that turned black, something else appeared instead of Bae Se-jin's whereabouts.

It was a close-up shot of a beautiful face.

"… ?"

that… It was Seon Ah-hyun, a blonde in an ultramarine blue uniform.

He looked straight into the camera and opened his mouth.

-… Choose your side.

A soft string instrument sound began to flow.

As the top and bottom of the screen slowly closed in black, Seon Ah-hyun slowly turned her head and started walking down the hallway.

It was the gray hallway that came out at the beginning.

A black baton swayed slightly from Seon Ah-hyun's waist.

Looks good to subdue someone.

"… … ."

black screen.

Until only the sound of military boots clearly stands out in the soft string instruments.

– Tuk tok tok… .

And the letters come to mind.

The last thing that appears is a blinking black box.

It was the one that popped up when Bae Se-jin accesses the lock pad in the music video.

and… .

"… … under!"

Homma let out the breath she had been holding.

crazy!

'I was worried for no reason!'

The quality was like a movie! It was a little different from the existing music videos, but this will definitely get a response.

'There will be a foreign reaction… .'

It was already expected.

'A bit of a world view… Although it was very grandiose.'

It was like a new worldview! It was a bit overpowered, so it felt like a drama fan music video.

'Is the board game that world view? Does that make sense?'

It was when she was working hard on her hair.

Suddenly, personal messages flooded social media.

'what?'

It was just when I clicked because I thought it was DuckTalk.

-The album product page popped up, and it was the key to the crazy sex video

“… ??”

-The key in the kids music video is an album USB!!

“… uh huh??”

She opened her mouth and screamed.

‘Ahhhh!!’

and the next day

‘hurry! hurry!’

She opened the delivered album like crazy.

So, I tried to access the folder after disconnecting the USB, which was a prop for the music video, with utmost care and haste to connect it to the computer.

because… .

‘You made it so meaningful!’

There must be something in the MV expansion! I had to see it!

‘Just click on the video!’

Can we see the extended version of the MV… … .

“… !!”

However, it was not the video player that greeted her.

Episode 462

‘Crazy.’

Homma couldn’t breathe properly and waited for the game to finish installing.

Originally, it was a national rule for modern people to surf the web on KakaoTalk or SNS on their smartphones for a while while installing the app, but it was simply not the mind.

‘When and how did you make something like this?’ There was no time for questioning or analysis. My heart was pounding like tension with just excitement and overwhelming anticipation.

and after a while

[Installation complete.]

-Execute ( )

She checked the box without hesitation.

Then the screen goes black and the logo passes by.

[Ruin Factory Area]

-Stars Orbit

And the title comes up as Testa’s logo, which has been transformed to remind people of corporations or industrial accidents, descends from the top.

[Roll the Dice]

~please enter the code

The softly flowing main melody of this title song is slightly dreary and remixed in a modern way.

A dark wooden floor, a board game board, and dice are projected behind it.

It was perfect quality.

“Wow.”

Is this serious?

Homma felt joy almost bewildered, but at the same time she felt a little bit worried.

‘But I don’t know much about the game… .’

At best, I thought it would be for fan service, but now that it’s like this, I’m a bit hesitant about whether I can enjoy it properly.

She didn’t know much about the unwritten rules of the game, and she didn’t know much about the parts that needed to be controlled. < 127 Section > was also a mobile game, so I enjoyed it roughly.

And there are people who hate games, so I thought that I would secretly like or dislike it.

‘Mmm.’

Of course, the accumulated anticipation overcame everything. No time to hesitate!

“let’s go!”

She bravely pressed ‘New game’!

Then the letters disappeared as if sucked in and the dice rolled… .

short loading.

and… The screen brightened.

[2025. 06. 01.]

[PM 07:03]

-Yoohoo!

A sports car speeding down the road at sunset filled the computer screen.

“… ??”

What’s this.

Even people in sports cars are new to each other.

It was a man and a woman wearing sunglasses, but the man’s side was never like Testa.

It’s a game character, how can you be sure… .

‘Is it live action?’

Because it wasn’t graphics!

-♩♪♬♬~ ♪♪♬~

Sports cars running to the exciting music are connected like a scene from a movie.

It was a moment where she could have misunderstood that a defective product was shipped incorrectly, but she already knew that it was not.

‘this… It’s a pose.’

The song playing in the sports car was Testa’s previous new song, ‘Pose’. A light dance song suitable for driving flowed like BGM.

‘This is the Testa app.’

So she decided to wait a while.

The sports car in the screen continues to speed along the road in the mountains reddened by the setting sun.

And then, an oddity appeared.

the road is blocked

“… ?”

Huge barricades of alternating yellow and black and flashing emergency lights were located in the middle of the road.

– What?

the music fades

Then, someone approached the stopped sports car.

He is a tall, tall man.

-Wait a minute, sir.

“omg.”

It was Sejin Lee!

Lee Se-jin, dressed in a police uniform and well-dressed, smiled and tilted her head towards her sports car.

A woman in the driver’s seat waggled her arms rudely.

-Why are you like that?

-Ah, the road in front of here is closed to traffic. I'm sorry, but please turn around and use the main road.

-Where does the main road come from? I have to go back for another 30 minutes, but let's hear my reasons.

-I want to do that too, but it's hard to explain the details because I'm in the middle of public affairs. I beg you.

Sejin Lee smiled softly and kindly.

'handsome… .'

Her hair, with her forehead exposed, suited her perfectly.

However, the woman sitting in the driver's seat seemed to be the type who was really faithful to her lover.

Instead, it is meaningfully caught on camera as she continues to scan Lee Se-jin with strange eyes.

-… … .

– Sir, could you give me back the car?

A strange tension rose.

The BGM has changed.

'What is it?'

– The police teacher is very young.

-Ah, the order is coming this time. haha.

-is it so?

-yes. It may be inconvenient, but please.

However, Sejin Lee smiled until the end and slightly lowered his head.

However, the tense BGM and strangely loud footsteps did not end.

thump thump.

“… … .”

And after Lee Se-jin enters the guard post under the red sunset light.

Booung.

The sports car turned around and started to leave the spot.

‘phew.’

Strangely, it was when Homma let out a sigh of relief.

The quiet man in the passenger seat broke the silence and opened his mouth.

-uh? Isn’t this a big road?

‘uh??’

-Uh, going back here will lead you right back to the temple, honey.

-what?

-I’m going to the road blocked by that bastard.

yes??

And as if representing Homma’s feelings, the man in the passenger seat was also shocked.

-Why are you going in there? You said the police stopped you.

-police?

The driver snorted.

-Have you ever seen a cop talking sarcastically at a speeding sports car?

-what?

– And look. That's blocking the road.

As the man in the passenger seat turned his head, the view on the screen also returned.

barricade.

It was slowly caught on the screen once more, and Lee Se-jin's smiling lower officials crossed each other like a flashback.

The voice of a woman in the driver's seat echoes.

-That barricade is a police kid. it's cheap

-… !!

-I don't think that bastard is a cop.

-ah… .

-Look at how young he is. where is youtuber Vijay? Isn't that guy joking around? hide the camera

That was the moment.

The lower part of the sports car's field of view turned slightly translucent, and then something floated up on the screen.

▶[It could be. -Relieved]

▶[How can you be sure of that? -Guardian]

It was a choice!

‘yes. Because it’s a game, there are choices.’

It’s a bit unfamiliar, but I thought I’d just pick something that appealed to me.

however… .

[00:10:00]

There is a time limit!

’10 seconds?!’

She was taken aback, but soon, for some reason, she chose to go down.

– How can you be sure of that?

It was a feeling that came from a movie cliché.

Isn’t it natural that if you go into a blocked area, a bad incident will start unconditionally.

‘Sejin told me not to come!’

Then don’t go in! why go! Does it matter if you’re a real cop?

‘Even an idol should listen!’

No, I don’t know why he chooses the position of these people who are not in the position of Testa in the first place… Hurry up and choose under the pressure of the time limit.

– Oh don’t believe me.

The man behind the wheel is mad!

[The other party is displeased.]

“Ahhh.”

Was it correct to choose the answer above for a moment and soothe it?

She was confused, but progress did not stop.

-That’s not it… .

-Then just watch. I’m just late for our own flight.

The person in the driver’s seat said that, and started to run at high speed, turning the sports car roughly with one hand.

The camera pulls away to show the sports car forcing its way into a side road blocked off by a ‘no curfew’ sign.

And seize the drearyness of the darkened mountains… .

“… … .”

She swallowed and watched the scene like a thriller.

and after a while

-That’s out of the blue.

The sports car, which was passing through a dark mountain road with the lights on, passed in front of an old building that suddenly appeared.

It was a gray building that looked roughly plastered with concrete.

It was large, but it did not feel the presence of a person.

-factory? no?

– Oh, I see.

– It’s a bit unusual to be in the mountains.

And I wanted to slowly scan the exterior of the building through the eyes of the occupant of the sports car on a slow screen… .

Grab an embossed pattern on the outside.

[KIS]

I also remembered Homma.

‘I think it appeared in the music video?’

right. It was the initials on the floor of that gray hallway.

Could it be that these people entered the prison as a player?

‘Yes, the field of view is now the first-person view of these people, so it could be.’

It was time for her to guess.

-Uh, that’s… .

That moment.

thud.

Sports car overturned.

“… ?!”

uh?

And it exploded.

-Puppuppuppuppup!!

The madly spinning screen bounced and rolled across the floor.

‘Ahh!!’

crazy!

Homma screamed involuntarily. The camera's field of view staggered and seemed to reflect a half-destroyed sports car… Soon I saw a hand groping the floor.

And options popped up.

▶[Grabs the smartphone.]

▶[Calls a passenger.]

This is… This!

'There's no point in calling a fellow passenger! It's a smartphone!'

Calling doesn't mean the injured person will get better, so you need to start with productive actions!

She pressed her stomach.

Then, to my delight, the hand that was groping on the floor found a smartphone!

'yeah!'

The moment when she inadvertently immersed herself in cheering for the hand that dialed 119.

-Ah!!

It turned out that the smartphone was broken.

"Ugh."

I don't have an answer for this?

It was when Homage, who broke into a cold sweat saying that she had chosen the wrong thing, was contemplating restarting the game.

A voice was heard.

-Are you okay there?!

As the screen swung around as if he turned his head, he saw a tall figure in a police uniform hurriedly approaching.

It was Lee Se-jin who jumped.

-wait a minute!

‘Uh huh? what?’

It was a moment of panic, not knowing what was going on.

Lee Se-jin, who had approached, held out his hand right away.

-Give it to me.

He gently pulled out the smartphone that was getting in the way of the support and shrugged.

Then, while making eye contact with the player, he shot a tranquilizer gun.

“… ?!”

The moment I couldn’t see it, the screen went blurry.

Silence.

-… … .

The screen that reappeared after a short gap was the back of Lee Se-jin’s shoulder.

It seemed that Lee Se-jin had picked him up.

“… ??”

While still not understanding the situation.

I heard Lee Se-jin's voice.

-Ah~ It works every time.

And the screen moved again.

Red frame dented iron car body and smoke.

Players… It was pushed back into a half-destroyed sports car!

"Ahhhhh?!"

– How nice it is because you know how to break the rules. I have no remorse because I did everything I had to do.

"… !!"

crazy!

And I saw Lee Se-jin's pale face standing outside the sports car again.

He took out a notebook and was holding it.

– Now again… … .

-'Notice of curfew'… 'direct notification', 'kindness', 'repetition emphasis'… .

Lee Se-jin really did grab his hat and frown like a police officer.

– You asked for the car back, right?

-Keuk… … .

-Yes, yes. I thought you wouldn't hear it~

Bang.

The sports car door closed.

And the half-destroyed red sports car was towed away by a black vehicle.

After that, Lee Se-jin's hum in the black car resonated like BGM.

-Umm~

It was a famous b-side song among fans as a relaxing easy listening song from Testa's previous album.

And the subtitles rise above that creepy sense of incongruity.

[Prologue End]

-Welcome to the KIS

Homma screamed in silence.

'what's this!?'

* * *

Homma, who was mentally drained, was able to press the enter button and enter Chapter 1 after 30 seconds.

It was entirely because he was persuaded by Lee Se-jin's handsomeness.

'I think Moondae will come out very handsome… .'

And, in fact, I didn't even recognize it, but the fact that the story was shocking and full of excitement also played a role.

'good!'

The game, which entered the main story like that, was properly progressed this time from the member's point of view.

– Shall I give you a ride?

rainy autumn day. Bae Se-jin, who has lost her wallet, gets help from Ryu Cheong-wu and gets into his car to go to work.

And he gets a sudden offer from Ryu Cheng-wu.

– There are things I want to steal.

-… yes?

– We need a hacker.

Yes! Sejin Bae was a hacker.

But if so… .

'… What about Lavin?'

You were sitting in the monitor room in the music video?

Even now, sitting in the back seat of my car, wearing glasses and looking at my laptop, it felt exactly like that.

So Homma gladly chose the option of asking that question.

-The other side is also a hacker… no?

-no. Stay strong. really… Be strong.

"Uh ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha?"

Kim Rae-bin, who looked up from the back seat, lowered his head again.

By the way, even after actually breaking into the facility, Kim Rae-bin generously shows the aspect of the strongest attacker and makes the home runners happy.

Anyway, what Ryu Cheong-woo showed Bae Se-jin was information about a jewel called 'tutáculum'.

– Tutakulum?

– It means a shelter in Latin. It looks like a key to access the facility where this gem is located.

He handed over the device in the shape of a ‘key’, claiming that he had received it from a colleague before, and asked for an analysis.

And this is treated as a flashback and leads directly to the cut to infiltrate the facility!

-But I didn’t know that it was such a strange protection management confinement facility.

And from then on, it was a series of exciting hide-and-seek and choices… .

‘Ahhh.’

Homma, who had already been hit by Lee Se-jin’s spiciness in the prologue, never wanted to be caught no matter how handsome Lee Se-jin was… .

So, no matter what character I was using, I tried my best not to meet the jailer and made the most of my options.

And from this time, one more system was added.

It’s just a 10-sided die.

Sometimes rolling… .

When you made a wrong choice, roll the dice and give them a chance to make up for it if the number is small!

The more critical the error, the smaller the number required.

‘Whoa!’

-Oh~ Today’s coffee.

She narrowly avoids Lee Se-jin's eyes and barely hides in a cabinet to catch her breath.

And soon after… You will also see Choi Ae's face.

-hmm.

"Aww!"

Moondae was in the lab!

The problem was something like an injection… It was that he was in a cold sweat and looked very distressed.

By the way, I ask you not to remove the syringe yourself!

-… no please

▶[Break the syringe. -Sympathy]

▶[I just let it go. -Unsteady mind]

Aaaa

‘thank god… .’

The overinvolved Homma wiped away the cold sweat.

Anyway, after that, there was a dizzying chase with Ryu Chung-woo, who fought with Cha Yu-jin inside the iron gate to find out information.

And soon, the thieves finish their reasoning that this is a strange place where the test subjects are confined and the information about the ‘jewel’ they obtained is part of the experiment subject fishing.

– We need to escape.

So they correct the route and soon find an official escape route thanks to Cha Yoo-jin’s aggro… .

Here was the final difficulty.

-If you go around this outskirts… .

-Shh.

‘Hey Ahyeon!’

thump thump.

Suppression baton gloves military boots chin. eye.

Walking from the other side of the corridor was directed with the same mise-en-scène as in the movie.

Sun Ah-hyun only appeared in a cool and calm feeling throughout this movie or game.

It also had an unexpected charm because it matched so well.

‘It’s also a face… .’

Homma was silent.

And I got a feel for it anyway.

‘In that music video… When Bae Se-jin escaped, there was a hint that Ah-hyun was the same one who suppressed it!’

It was clear that this was the hint. With her heart pounding, she repeatedly hit ‘hide’ from the options unconditionally.

-… … .

Surprisingly, it seemed like the right choice, but the dice rolled.

[Standard value: 6]

60% chance!

Homema gritted it.

swarm… .

‘please please… !’

The eyes pointed out by the slowly stopped dice… .

[2]

“Okay!!”

Seon Ah-hyun slowly disappeared across the hallway.

That’s how I passed the turn safely.

‘phew.’

-let’s go.

She sighed and watched Bae Se-jin approach the huge iron gate.

It was the scene I saw in the music video.

Put your key on the lock pad and now enter your code… .

‘uh?’

Come to think of it… .

[_____]

What’s the code?

“… … .”

Game progress has stopped.

So there was no time limit of 10 seconds like before. This means that you can type comfortably at any time.

but… What code do you mean?

At that moment, Bae Se-jin’s narration flowed on the screen.

-This is the code I already know.

-I was told by the thief when I received this key.

And this time, he began to hear the voice of Liu Cheng-wu that he recalled.

-I want you to analyze the key.

Bae Se-jin’s eyes were close-up.

-And I analyzed.

-The information the phantom thief wanted came out. It’s like a gem of a location. However, there was also a lot of dummy data that seemed to have been put in on purpose.

-As if to increase the hard-to-find capacity.

-At that time, there was a picture of a man among the dummy data that I almost inadvertently overlooked… There was a code on the back of the photo.

The narration ended there.

‘What is it?’

Homma was taken aback and read the subtitles again.

‘Men’s… A picture.’

“… … .”

no way?

“omg!”

She jumped up and took out the USB and picked up the album box she had pushed aside.

And I took out the only component left in it.

photo card.

On the back of Kim Rae-bin’s photo card with the tip of an awl in her mouth, a code was written along with a logo.

[Roll the Dice]

~please enter the code

[AW23-5DQ2-B25E]

She entered it with trembling hands.

… The moment you hit enter.

Bae Se-jin in the screen also began to move his hand over the lock pad.

and.

-success… did!

The door is open.

“done!”

She reflexively clasped her hands together, then realized.

‘and!’

This is a structure that makes me feel very worthwhile to buy an album!

In any case, she got up from her seat with a reflex intuition of a happy ending.

It was the reaction of a gamer who did not know that what he saw was about ‘normal ending -3’.

Anyway, now I’m starting to lower my rating a little bit.

‘It was really immersive!’

I don’t know how the hell this was filmed and how different the kids must have been… I wanted to do it again right away and choose another option!

The most important thing is that I like the costumes, and the acting is good because it doesn’t make me cringe.

To be honest, Sejin Bae acted so well that synergy came out.

But what bothers me is… .

‘Oh, didn’t the thieves appear like the main characters?’

There are some problems with the amount of time, but oddly, it felt like the event was organized from the perspective of the phantom thief.

‘Ah, Ahyeon’s actual amount is a bit less.’

And there was still an unanswered question about what the board game was… … .

‘really… It was of unbelievable quality.’

I don’t know what to say about this. It’s like watching a movie and I’m choosing what the characters do!

If this is the case, I think even fans who don’t like games will like it.

She nodded eagerly as it was her first time to properly encounter the ‘interactive movie’ genre.

‘Thinking about it again, the outfit was so good… Ha, it’s really the best.’

While waiting for the epilogue to load, she finally decided to go to the bathroom.

And naturally, it was when I picked up my smartphone.

-Hurry up and play the other version of the album

. ??”

-Because of the crazy version 2, the prologue changed and the prisoner came out

. A phantom thief prison guard?

what what?

-The main stream is almost the same, but the individual events are different. What is it

? … .”

Homma panicked and rushed to the bathroom and to the delivery box.

And I opened the second USB box.

The second USB album that I hurriedly took out while pushing Cha Yoo-jin's photo card with her tongue slightly exposed.

she swallowed.

'Should I start with this?'

Since Moon-Dae is a prisoner, do I have to do this to see a lot of Moon-Dae? When Homma is in confusion.

Again, the smartphone screen lit up.

-Uh, since you don't break this syringe, you can

Chapter 463

If I can’t debut, I’ll get sick to death Episode 463 -Please, please tell me the route to put on

Lee Sejin’s straitjacket

. The lost wallet was actually stolen by Chungwoo haha It appears in the jailer version!! (Captured)

Rice cake rice cake rice cake.

Originally, there is a gap of several days between the release of the music video during the comeback period and the appearance on music broadcasts.

Usually, this period was spent with anticipation while watching SNS news or notices and small contents. Or it’s time to keep consuming music videos over and over and waiting for the broadcast… .

-Ah ah ah ah ah ah, Eugene finally wears a guardian’s uniform

The fan community and social media, filled with all sorts of spoilers, strategy videos, captures, and collected photos, were truly a feast.

Here, Testa struck a generous rule that ‘normal ending’ and ‘bad ending’ could be streamed.

The reason they made such an unconventional attempt in the first place was because they were aiming for word of mouth, but they couldn’t miss the promotion opportunity.

Besides, I had to buy the album anyway to experience it myself.

The ‘code’ of the enclosed photo card that opens the door at the ending belongs to one account, so pirates couldn’t see the ending!

-Hahahahaha you’re a dog

-But I’m worried that it won’t break through soon, because I make all the cracksㅠㅠ -Still,

I think it’ll be fine until the first one is caught? Oh, it’s so good that USB is also captured by album sales – It’s a real new world fun.

In addition, in the case of the lyrics book and music concept photos that can be downloaded from the game title, it was well received that it was a special feeling to see it again after playing the game. -The game deepens the narrative of the album… I hated the world view, but it was a very different attempt overall to make me say this .

And it was completely unexpected.

First of all, it means that you have pulled the aggro properly.

[Testa put a real game into the album]

[New work from the production team of < 127 Section > Abandoned Factory: Testa Album (not kidding)]

[Crazy Testa live-action game play state haha]

Fans who didn’t know that the MV expansion was a game The astonished look spread all over the place, and naturally, Internet users came to hear the news.

-The MV was an introduction to the game

-No, what's going on hahahahaha

-Testa really does everything. I really admire him. Starting from Magic Boy, he's a strong otaku

. -I want to try this too. what can i buy?

On WeTube, some game streamers who couldn't miss this rice cake were already playing.

It was a win-win because Lee Se-jin's prologue was shocking, so it was good to draw reactions, and the tube angle came out well.

Of course, tastes and evaluations came and went, and there were fights and noise, but even that was a topic.

It was a promotion that could not be paid for.

-If I order it now, will it arrive tomorrow? I came to the store by bus, but it's out of stock ㅠㅠ – Which version should I start with?

-Testa This title game OST?? hey?? why is everyone upset?

Thanks to this, album sales were skyrocketing.

The simple components, such as a USB regenerated paper box and a photo card, have lowered the entry barrier by making it possible to purchase them without burden.

And in the beginning of all this typhoon-like activity.

"Whoa."

Homma was playing like crazy.

The balance that made use of the thrill with the element of luck that does not require a movie-like live-action composition and interactive option control… I did a great job with this person.

Thanks to her, she was pouring all her free time here.

“The Moondae cut is really pretty… .”

Right now, I was replaying the VER 2 album featuring mainly the prison camp.

If you play as the prison camp through the VER 2 album USB, the chapter begins with Park Moon-dae and Cha Yu-jin’s past.

-Oh, the two of them are having a fight in the lab, and I’m all scared

└??

└??What kind of options are you

? └You are the one.

In the second half, there was an event in which the thieves were caught wearing prison uniforms, and an event in which the guards were overpowered and put on prison uniforms.

-Throwing a prison uniform at Keun-se seems to have a personal feeling at the university

[■■■■ 10ml Administration: Detect objects 100m away

– Complain of dizziness, hallucinations, headaches.]

‘Hmm, psychic? Is it an experiment to make the same thing?’

It’s kind of like an American sensibility… It was definitely that way that was a bit bizarre and creepy.

In any case, Cha Yu-jin seemed to have a brilliant mind and a well-developed sixth sense, and Moon-dae seemed to be able to use telekinesis!

‘… … Although I vomited blood.’

After recreating the music video scene where the surveillance camera explodes and seeing the bad ending in which Mundae collapses, she seals her telekinesis… … .

Anyway, VER 2’s prison camp play felt like that.

The story is similar to the Phantom Thieves camp, but a little more impoverished and focused on facilities.

However, the VER 3 album was a little different.

In the case of this jailer’s camp, a slightly special composition was taken… .

It was a play that started from Lee Se-jin’s point of view and cooperated with the phantom thieves.

-Shh.

-Be quiet and follow me.

‘omg.’

It’s as if the facility is inflamed and pretends not to see… It seemed to be a guard on our side.

Of course, in fact, I planned to catch them all like weaving sea urchins at the last minute so that they could not be removed or beat.

What Lee Se-jin said while humming alone was excellent.

-It's comfortable and nice~ They come on their own feet and break the rules… .

'evil!'

The spiciness of the VER 1 first experience prologue was strong!

Thanks to this, VER 3 has become a bizarre composition in which players are dizzy when they will be hit in the back while playing themselves.

'This is all because I played the phantom thief first… hmm?'

"Oh wait. Come to think of it… ."

Could this order be intentional?

Homma flashed an idea.

The shape of the key in the music video… It was exactly the USB of the 'VER 1 album'.

The other two versions were slightly different in appearance from the music video.

And when selling, it showed the product page. Of course, most people who would buy only one album would have bought VER 1… .

Before that, when I received an album reservation without any information, I only received a set.

'And the person who bought all 3 must have played from VER 1, because it looks like it was in the music video.'

Didn't you do that yourself too?

therefore… In most cases, it means that only after seeing the phantom thief side scenario, you will see the story of the prisoner or guard camp.

After enjoying the most basic taste, you can continue to discover new elements while maintaining tension.

‘and.’

Homma opened her mouth.

She couldn’t exactly express this elaborate composition to keep multi-play play from getting boring. Because I don’t know the game well. But it touched me very much.

‘oh my god.’

Anyway, elaborate.

So in VER 3, the thieves can accompany Lee Se-jin and wear ultramarine blue uniforms!

The option to hide was gone.

Instead, there will be an event where you can access the facility’s papers or hear more information.

-Keep It Safe So ‘KIS’… . What are you keeping safe?

– Um, the people outside?

-… from what?

– from all dangers? Hey, I don’t know either~ How does the staff know that?

Fortunately, Lee Se-jin is slightly agitated in terms of values when the thieves work together with the prisoners and build a little friendship with them.

It’s because you find out that the two prisoners have been imprisoned even though they haven’t broken any particular rules.

– I was kidnapped.

-me too.

-… … hmm.

And through various incidents, he accepts Ryu Cheong-wu's offer to become a phantom thief partnership.

-Maybe?

-… !

– Because the annual leave has gradually reached the time to change jobs~ Me.

"Oh oh!"

Even the jailer Lee Se-jin succeeded in seducing many testers… .

She only watched the normal ending until the end.

'why!?'

Although Mundae's syringe option was spoiled and I chose it appropriately and saw the phantom thief… Even then, it was a normal ending.

'What… … .'

Ah Hyun… Is it because you were so scared that you couldn't bring yourself to approach Ahyeon?

[We came out of this damn facility.]

An ending with no afterwords like this every time the ending credits go up!

All that remains is Park Moon-dae's awesome thighs… Anyway, yes.

So, this time she was really well prepared.

‘do… .’

Homma, who searched for a strategy while avoiding spoilers as much as possible, sat down in front of the computer again, clasping both hands.

Got it! True Ending Conditions!

‘I told you to watch from VER 1… .’

She clicked on the game icon to speed through, ruminating.

strategy.

-In any camp, make everyone except Sun Ah-hyun your teammate and meet Sun Ah-hyun in front of the last gate!

‘The fact that the dice popped when I was hiding must have been a hint!’

That’s not entirely the ‘right’ option.

It’s game over if you meet in a state where you haven’t gathered all your friends, but if you meet them in a state where you’ve recruited all of them, the true ending event will occur!

‘good.’

and the moment of fate.

-If you just turn there… .

Homma closed her eyes tightly and ignored the ‘hide’ option.

And finally.

thump thump.

Bae Sae-jin, who had put the key on the lock pad, looked back in surprise.

From around the corner, a blond guard in an ultramarine blue uniform came out of his boots.

The screen froze.

"… Whoa, whoa."

Homma clenched her fists. and… .

-… … .

An empty BGM flows.

Seon Ah-hyun stared blankly at the key Bae Se-jin was holding.

Next, I scanned the six people standing around me dressed in the same lineage.

After alternating short, breathtaking close-ups… .

The jailer opened his mouth.

-there is.

-jewel.

Homma covered her mouth.

'omg!'

Yes.

The jewel that the thieves tried to find, but eventually concluded that this facility was false information distributed to catch the test subjects.

That tutáculum really exists… Seon Ah-hyun told me.

Then he turned around and started walking away again without wavering.

thump thump… .

Bae Se-jin swallowed saliva on the screen.

-… what to do

▶ [Follow me. -Trust]

▶ [Ignore. -Disbelief]

“… … After”

This is unconditional.

If you follow and fail here, there’s no way the true ending will fly!

Homma vigorously clicked ‘Follow’ and the characters on the screen naturally followed Sun Ah-hyun.

-… … .

Seon Ah-hyun moved at a not-so-considerate pace, passing by the complex outskirts of the facility several times.

down down down.

Over a couple of light dice rolls… .

Geeeeing-

-… Where is it?

We arrived in front of a small iron gate.

There is a locking pad on the side like the entrance.

While the modern organ BGM was playing, Sun Ah-hyun stood next to the iron gate.

The 6 members with the key approached the lock pad.

Only then did the blonde guard open his mouth.

-obverse.

‘… obverse?’

Homema was perplexed.

What does the front side suddenly mean when you enter the code?

‘Is there anything on the front of the foca?’

However, no matter how you look at it, there was no hint in the photo of Kim Rae-bin biting the awl.

‘Only this on the back… .’

[AW23-5DQ2-B25E]

This code.

Fortunately, Bae Se-jin’s narration came out the moment she was about to panic.

-The code is… Among the dummy data in the key, it was written on the back of the man’s photo. not the front

‘I know yeah!’

-But the front side? Why are you saying the opposite?

-… … wait a minute?

“… !!”

At that moment, Homma also realized.

If you think of looking at the letters on the back from the front… .

‘… It’s looking backwards and in the opposite direction!’

If so, the code… .

crash.

She started tapping on the keyboard.

[AW23-5DQ2-B25E]

this.

[E52B-2QD5-32WA]

Reverse like this!

“… okay!”

And the moment you hit enter.

Woo-woo-!

The iron door began to open with a bright light.

My toes got thrilled.

‘wow… .’

And after the light subsides.

In the middle of a small room with iron walls on all four sides.

Inside the hexagonal glass tube was a beautiful green gem.

An enchanting BGM was laid.

‘The props are really cool… .’

The camera slowly moved towards the jewel… .

A gloved hand stretched out. and… .

▶[Catch the jewel.]

▶[Ask a question.]

“… … .”

options popped up.

‘after.’

Homma crossed her arms.

This game has no save or load.

It is possible to skip the event you have already seen, but it means that it is impossible to undo the choice you made once.

but.

‘… I have to reveal the truth.’

That’s the meaning of the true ending, my SNS friends said!

Homma swallowed as if she were a detective and pressed down.

[Question.]

Then… On the screen, Bae Se-jin raised his hand.

Then he turned his head to Seon Ah-hyun.

-… Why did you lead us here?

-… … .

– What is your purpose? Why are you giving us jewels, so why are you giving us Tutakulum?

It was then.

-… ! wait for a sec.

Someone interrupted.

… Park Moon-dae, a prisoner who changed into a phantom thief-style leather suit.

he asked quickly in a low voice.

-What is Tutakulum?

Sejin Bae replied.

-This jewel is Tutakulum.

Park's face turned pale.

-No, that's… It's a drug administered to the inmates managed here.

-… !!

– It's not a jewel. Tutáculum is… It's a code that means drugs here.

crazy crazy

'The drug that makes you superpower… .'

No, come to think of it, it seemed to be green too. Homma closed her mouth again at this reversal and stared at the screen.

"… … ."

The camera rolls slowly.

Liu Chengyu looked at the blonde guard and asked.

– Then

– What is this jewel?

That moment.

The screen is off.

“… ?!”

And only then, Sun Ah-hyun’s voice rang softly on the black screen.

-The mysterious and frightening black baton guard did not open his mouth.

-But at the end of that line of sight… There was a prisoner.

The screen brightened again with the calm BGM.

And what emerges… It was an attic.

Testa sat on the floor amid the warm lamplight with a board game in the middle.

The scene from the teaser.

“… ??”

Homma is confused!

However, Seon Ah-hyun’s calm voice continued.

– It’s the players’ turn.

Cha Yoo-jin and Park Mun-dae, who were sitting comfortably, flinched at the same time. They were two prisoners.

Liu Cheng-wu, who was resting his chin on it, spoke thoughtfully.

-You saw the prisoner. Did he want to give the jewel to the prisoner? reward money?

-There was no such thing as a psychopath.

After Cha Yu-jin's grumbling, Park Mun-dae rubbed his chin and opened his mouth.

-… Well, if a hacker can convince several people to be on the same side in such a short period of time, I think it will become a threat in the future. Wasn't he trying to give him real jewels and send them back? that's cheating

-Ah~ No regrets.

Sejin Lee nodded. and laughed cheerfully.

-good! Then I will say this.

Then the screen was sucked in and the background returned to the secret facility again.

There, Lee Se-jin, dressed as a phantom thief, spoke.

-I also have a question~

-Keep It Safe. That slogan… . Actually, it's not Safe and it's not Sacrifice? Chief Warden. What the hell are we keeping safe?

-I thought there were rules, but now that I see them, they don't seem to be followed~

After that, the truth workshop continued using the secrets of the facility that I found out while playing the game.

And the conclusion… .

– Not in jail… It was a research institute.

It is said that this facility was an institution that researched the complete control of this drug, Tutaculum, which gave it bizarre abilities!

‘oh.’

It was quite exciting to put together the information collected so far.

-Right?

I still don’t know why the scenery returns to the attic as if it’s being sucked in again.

Sun Ah-hyun’s soft voice was nice to hear.

– but the blond jailer was neither agitated nor answered.

– Woo-woo-woo!

-Should I fight?

-let’s fight. I’ll roll the dice.

Seon Ah-hyun, who was holding a book at the militant reaction of the members, smiled and nodded.

-Yes then… who?

-Of course, the strongest person should do it, right?

-… … .

Kim Rae-bin clicked his tongue as if he was reluctant and took the dice. And Seon Ah-hyun also heard the dice.

-I’m going to roll a cube. The maximum number is 6. The maximum number of decahedrons for a player is 10. That’s a big difference.

-Still, if the number of the player's decahedron is smaller, the player can subdue the warden.

It is possible to jeer that it is a ridiculous fraud, but everyone is just nodding their heads as if they were very immersed.

Homma was like that, but soon realized the reality.

'Oh no way I'm going to roll?'

And the hunch was right.

'omg!'

At the dice that appeared on the screen, Homma almost screamed and calculated the probability… Eventually, I put my hand back on the mouse.

And pressed

"evil."

Degururr… .

The decahedral dice roll… rolling… The numbers… .

[5]

'… Oh, no.'

too big!

Homma swallowed unconsciously and looked at the screen as her blood cooled.

The game was in progress.

Seon Ah-hyun was throwing dice inside her book, so I couldn't see the numbers.

And on the face of Seon Ah-hyun, an expressionless guard in an ultramarine blue uniform overlaps for a moment.

‘uh?’

but after a while

Seon Ah-hyun smiled and put the book away.

The number shown by the black dice is… .

[6]

– I overpowered it.

-oh my god!

-Oh~

Cheers erupt.

– So you… .

Seon Ah-hyun smiled and closed the book.

-I obtained the jewel and successfully escaped from the ‘KIS’ Foundation.

-I was your Gamemaster.

Applause broke out.

-Ah~ It was fun!

-Thank you for calling me. It’s fun to do.

-Oh no… .

Seon Ah-hyun smiled softly and put down the paper book she was holding.

As I said before, he seems to have played the role of hosting this board game.

‘Ah, I think I’ve seen something like this in a TV show?’

It’s an American teen concept, so it came out like this!

Homema nodded.

‘Hyun Ah played a key role!’

Still, it is a bit disappointing for Ahyeoni fans that the amount is small. Thoughts like that passed by inadvertently, but anyway, I fell in love with the cute appearance and development of Testa on the screen, and it flowed away.

-You made a fuss about saying you look like a nerd, but you surprisingly enjoyed it~?

– I know that if anyone talks about what happened today at school, I won’t let go.

-Look at you!

While Cha Yoo-jin and Lee Se-jin were chatting, Kim Rae-bin rubbed his chin. The rather bloody silver accessories shook.

-The background was 2025. The world is going to end in 1999, but rather than that, in a later era, he played a strong role for me… … .

-You’re better than me, the kidnapped test subject.

-The test body is better.

Kim Rae-bin responded gloomily, but Park Mun-dae just laughed. And Seon Ah-hyun also laughed hee-heh while watching it.

In that soft scene, Bae Se-jin put down his dice with a smile.

Narration continued.

-A secret confinement facility, a psychic experiment hacker, a thief, and even a thrilling escape. It was a great journey.

A jewel token from a board game was projected close-up on the screen.

-The secret we found out was amazing, but maybe another story is hidden.

– No, it would be fun to tell the same story one more time.

The camera once focused on Testa in the attic, illuminated by the soft light of a lamp.

-… I hope to come back to play again someday.

The camera goes up and captures the harmonious Testa sitting in a circle.

The subtitle came to mind along with the softly arranged sub-song of this album.

[True Ending]

~In the tutáculum. (At the hideout)

It was the true ending.

“under… .”

She leaned back in her chair.

So, this game is an American teen testa from the previous album in the 80s playing a board game… It was such a concept.

‘So the repackage album… … .’

It’s all connected… .

Homma watched the ending credits come up again, feeling an indescribable overwhelming feeling.

The scenes I had seen so far passed through my head, and the scenes in the attic and the character details passed by.

“… … .”

The mulberry was endlessly filling up.

The stage was so curious. But I still had to wait to see the stage.

So it was.

‘I’ll play again!’

* * *

She took care of the urgent matter right away, then clicked the icon again and reconnected to the game.

This time it was a different version.

‘bittern!’

The main thing at Moondae was postponed for the finale!

And in order to see the true ending once more, I pressed skip hard and proceeded.

‘Oh, that’s really fun.’

My heart raced. What new things will we show you in this version?

When the testers wearing guard uniforms side by side like that finally got to the point where they pressed the code!

“good!”

She quickly picked up the photo card and started typing backwards like before.

[E52B-2QD5-32WA]

‘It was great!’

And that was the moment I pressed enter.

‘Now, as the door opens, the jewel… .’

I must have been.

[%EA%B8%B0%EB%8B%A4%EB%A0%B8%EC%96%B4]

instead.

The blonde guard turned to the camera.

Seon Ah-hyun.

‘… uh?’

– I pressed the wrong button.

“… ??”

-It’s a different version of the code.

And Seon Ah-hyun, the uniform in the game, smiled.

It was the first smile she had as a jailer.

-are you okay.

-but… that this was a mistake.

Cotton gloves stole the camera.

– It means you played a lot.

“… ?!”

just now… play?

-yes? That’s why I accidentally wrote the code written on the card not as it is, but in the opposite way, but I made a mistake… I mean you did a lot no sooner… The angle of the screen has also changed.

BGM is gone.

The world in the game where the other members were seen together was showing only Sun Ah-hyun before she knew it.

That moment.

– Let’s keep playing.

Chapter 464

Episode 464 Homma

forgot to breathe and stared at the game screen.

“… … .”

Inside the screen is still a dark secret facility in the game.

But there is no one but the background.

There are no other characters, BGM, sound effects, filters, or dice.

All that is there is a close-up of Sun Ah-hyun’s smiling face.

Wearing an ultramarine blue uniform and an officer’s cap, the guard is making eye contact with the other side of the screen.

as if you were looking at yourself.

“… … .”

Homma swallowed.

The mouth on the screen moved.

-Are you not going out?

At that moment,

a choice popped up. however… … .

▶[Remains.]

▶[Remains.]

“… ?!”

what is this why… Same?

‘error… ?’

As a modern-day reflex, she moved her hand to turn the game off and on.

So I pressed the settings icon in the right corner… .

-no.

Settings button is gone.

“… ?!”

It’s a blank background that doesn’t respond to clicks.

“Huh?”

-I don’t want to wait again.

The blonde guard is still smiling. Homma froze with a mouse.

-You’re surprised.

-are you okay.

-I’ll do it.

That moment.

This time the choice is… move randomly

“… !!”

After the effects were confirmed for a short time, the game continued naturally.

-thank you. for remaining

-You know, but I can’t go out.

– In this game… .

Sun Ah-hyun’s smile slowly disappeared. Homma screamed.

‘Why does the person in the game say he is in the game!?’

But the jailer did not stop talking.

-Because you have to avoid or subdue me to clear this game.

– or leave the facility.

-Take that jewel.

The jailer looked away.

The screen rotated naturally to show a glass tube in the middle of the background.

A close-up of the brilliant green jewel in the glass tube… .

-stop.

The screen flickered and then disappeared.

jewels are gone

“… … .”

Now Homma had no time to be surprised.

The screen, which had been cut off for a moment as if it had been edited, returned to a close-up of Sun Ah-hyun.

-Now there are no jewels.

-There are no other characters.

– Let’s play like this.

said the jailer.

-You try to escape from here.

-I’ll try to stop you.

-like that… Let’s continue.

And the dice appeared on the screen.

With the standard that separates success from failure.

[Standard value: 7]

“Uh uh uh… .”

Homma unconsciously looked around and reached for the mouse.

And the moment you click the dice like a habit.

[5]

A number smaller than the standard value of 7 appeared.

If this is the case,

‘I won right away…’ .’

That was the moment.

Seon Ah-hyun reached out to the dice on the screen.

“… !?”

Then he grabbed the dice… Changed the top face position!

[8]

-I told you. … would stop it

The jailer smiled.

[fail]

The red failure effect pierced the face of the hostess who was covering her mouth.

Then, the jailer put the dice in front of the screen again with his hand wearing a cotton glove.

to the player.

– Roll it.

-again.

“… !!”

That’s how the crazy story started.

* * *

-Seo Seo Seo

-Ahyeon What is it -Hidden route ㅅㅅㅅㄴㅅㄴㅅㅅㄴ

It was hard to avoid the spoiler, but Homma didn’t know, but in fact, the first witness of Sun Ah-hyun’s hidden route appeared around the time she was looking for the true ending.

And after several attempts among those who were dubious about whether it was true, screams began to spread.

-Ah,

what the hell is that?

At first, people who thought people were screaming at the very fact that there was a hidden route started screaming together after seeing the route themselves.

-????????

-Help

me -What should I do, what should I do?

What else have the testa madmen done!

-Do you need a different version album code to see Hidden?

-Is there anyone who can lend me that code? I really miss it, and after numerous and various attempts, additional conditions have been revealed.

-Conditions for entering the hidden ending:

Emphasize again the album code of the other version of the album that has seen the true ending in the account

. You must enter with the code that you have seen the true ending.

-Only fans can see it -In the game, only Ahyeon was cursing like a dog about why there were no other costumes

, but was it just that I didn’t play enough ?

Because it’s a game that doesn’t need controls

.

– Wow

–
Ahhhh

However, while chatting with viewers like that, this person who didn't know idols well made the mistake of confusing the photo card version… It is committed.

and.

– Let's keep playing.

[…] ?!]

The streamer's expression as if his eyes were about to pop out and the feast of question marks in the real-time chat window were really amazing.

-BJ Radish Radder Dice Hidden Route

Sun Ah-hyun's hidden ending scenario… Because it was truly hidden.

-huh.

-again.

The main character, who loses unconditionally while rolling the dice with Sun Ah-hyun, continues to be cornered.

And the place changes as if you keep being pushed and pushed and run away.

Places in the facility that appeared in the game. The hallway of the laboratory monitoring room and even the prison cell.

Each time, the guard continued to play a unilateral dice game with the main character, appearing in a straitjacket or phantom thief suit, saying, "I wanted to try it on at least once."

Then the player looks for an opening.

He induces the jailer to grab the dice he hasn't rolled yet… .

It is to roll a step later after returning it pretending not to know.

That’s how you finally win.

-ah.

And at that moment of exhilarating escape, the game is normalized!

[Ahhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh

the recovery game is going to be normally. There is only one thing that is different.

The very last attic scene.

-… It’s like someone is talking to me in my mind.

– A voice like a friend who has been together for a long time.

Players were able to talk to Bae Se-jin with options during a board game!

[omg! Everyone, please… .]

So last.

-… Over there, I’ll try to convince the warden.

– Huh?

-really?

The response to the prison guard Seon Ah-hyun right before the escape… can be changed!

It is not Kim Rae-bin’s suppression, but Bae Se-jin’s attempt to persuade.

However, a much stricter standard than the original is applied.

– Uhm… In this case, the persuasion is successful only when the number ‘1’ comes out on the player’s side.

Only dice roll ‘1’ succeeds.

1/10 odds.

-Just use him. Stronger is better.

-… Talk like a civilized person.

– A sullen child.

– Stupid child.

After Cha Yoo-jin and Kim Rae-bin’s argument, Bae Se-jin picks up the dice of fate.

And the moment Ah-hyeon Seon, the host of the board game, hides the dice behind her book.

On top of that, as before, the figure of Sun Ah-hyun, the prison guard, overlaps.

And

-… … !

The player now rolls Sejin Bae’s dice… You can hand it to Warden Seon Ah-hyun.

So that he could manipulate the dice eyes at will.

-… ah.

So the result.

[1]

… … Player’s jackpot.

-… … The warden is persuaded by the hacker’s words… That’s it.

After a moment of silence

Waaaa

“Ha… … .”

really… Looking back, it was a beautiful ending… … .

Locked in the afterglow of watching the ending of the drama, Homma watched the streamer watch the ending for a while.

[and… It’s all going out like this. Everyone is escaping.]

The streamer was also immersed in the afterglow and even watched the ending credits.

And I didn’t forget to leave impressions about each member whenever a cut appeared in the credits.

[Ah~ I think Mr. Moondae’s experimental character came out really well. Eh, Mr. Chungwoo was really good when he was fighting or like this~]
‘That’s right

.’

It was when Homma nodded inwardly, thinking that she would like to hear more comments about Mundae.

Attic version Sun Ah-hyun passed in the credits.

Then the streamer suddenly started talking nonsense.

[Ha, but I… I think this person is a bit suspicious.]

“… ??”

[A game master playing board games in that attic? This is the role of two guards, one person.]

Isn’t that right?

[But he was the only one with a bad expression in this ending. Does the expression look bad only in the hidden ending where the jailer escapes?]

Uh huh?

[Oh right. Mr. Seon Ah-hyun I am… Is this guy really dark? It seems like it.]

[Ah, is it too much? Anyway, let me know when the next one comes out. Let's play!]

The streamer burst out laughing after receiving the donation message 'Dungdunga, wake up, this is an album, there is no next work.'

But Homma couldn't laugh.

It was intuition.

'It's rice cake.'

This… The next album's world view is rice cake!

But if that's the case.

'In the end credits scenario part… Testa was written first.'

The kids planned this… ?

Since when did this… You mean you were planning everything?!

* * *

"60 days forced march… You worked hard."

"… … ."

"… … ."

No answer. All seem to be corpses.

No, in fact, it was like a corpse.

I lay there, barely blinking at the manager. My body receiving manual treatment felt like a punching bag full of water.

‘I need Bacchus.’

It seemed like it would be nice to take 30% of the settlement money if I could pull out that trait again. really.

I rolled my eyes and looked around.

Everyone stretched out with faces that seemed to faint.

Cha Yoo-jin, who was usually bursting with energy, doesn’t look like she wants to open her mouth that much now.

It was worth it.

‘It was crazy.’

Instead of having programmers create game content, we filmed it ourselves.

‘That goes hand in hand with stage preparation… .’

Perhaps it would not be strange if Liu Cheng-wu or Big Se-jin, who had a lot of action scenes in particular, planned to assassinate me after making a schedule.

Surprisingly… The point is that those guys aren’t high school MVPs either.

it’s over there

“Wait a minute. I’ll press it.”

“… … 100 million.”

Sejin Bae.

That guy, who looked like he was about to run out of breath, was actually playing the role of the main character in the album game, from guiding members to recording narration.

literally split

In addition, he played a very decisive position even before he was crushed.

I forced my mouth open.

“brother.”

“… … .”

It didn’t come out until ‘It was fortunate’, but Bae Se-jin opened his mouth to see if he understood.

“… … uh.”

“… … .”

Oh, who are ‘they’?

‘The most important person to succeed in this damn time… .’

as soon as… … It is the photography staff.

Actually, that was the biggest problem.

Among the fields that idols can do, such as entertainment dramas, I can’t use T1’s capital or hands… .

‘Even though they are shooting experts, there was an area in which they could cooperate with us… … .’

just the movie version.

Since there are so few idols appearing, it was a field where T1 didn’t openly check us all over the board like entertainment or music.

‘And Bae Se-jin shot 10 million movies… .’

So, to my surprise, that very unsociable guy gathered all the connections I had for the movie version I had when I was a child actor and brought it to me.

People who will film the game.

From there, this crazy operation began.

Chapter 465

If you don’t debut, you’ll get sick to death Episode 465

It’s funny to say now, but actually our game wasn’t this big when we were planning it.

-Well, it’s a supplement to the USB album.

-Yes. And if you play for a day, I think the fans will enjoy it too.

-It’s good~ Because it’s fresh, won’t something come out on social media? i agree!

Literally an extended version of the music video.

In other words, it was at the level of putting options in an hour-long movie that can be viewed as an appendix when you buy the album.

It was a ploy to sublimate the weakness of physical albums into an extreme over-immersion concept.

‘… … but.’

The fact that the first meeting was in an abandoned factory was the beginning of all the problems… … .

-that… Do you think it’s possible? yes i think it will be fun!

It was good until I first brought out the interactive music video method.

-really?

-yes! In fact, there is a tool that we have been developing before. If you don't mind, if you apply this… . does this work?

– Oh, it will work. You said that the playtime was about an hour, right? I think I can fit it somehow in terms of schedule!

At this time, I even smiled in my heart.

Actually, I know everything.

'Originally, these people said that the next project for < 127 Section > was an interactive music video-type horror adventure.'

After that, under the umbrella of T1, < 127 Section > became a huge hit… .

So, the result is not obvious.

'T1 must have sang a roundabout song telling me to release the next episode of < Section 127 >.'

So I couldn't stand the crazy parachute leaders of T1 Place who were trying to eat the marrow of < 127 Section > and escaped.

That's the scientific consensus… No, it's the orthodoxy of game enthusiasts.

However, since it is possible to recycle a genre that has been stopped during development since childhood, why not try earning money for your next project?

-But this is a physics engine, but this part implementation is a little old version… If you want to put action elements into the game, it will take more development time.

-Ah, we really have a choice, but it's okay if we put it in!

It didn't matter.

It’s not that we’re trying to make an all-time masterpiece with a really great game quality, and the visuals are amazing, so we just need to be able to select the route.

It was enough if the fans could feel that they were interacting with us.

-Ah, if that’s the case, if you just refine the UI… .

So, the story progressed quickly and in a good way, and they had a good time signing autographs for the employees in a friendly atmosphere.

And then comes this story.

-oh! Then would you come and watch our music video shoot?

– Huh, is that okay?

-Ah, that’s obvious~ We’ll be working as a team now, so if you watch it, we’re grateful!

-If game production experts look at the process of content creation and provide feedback, it would be a great help!

This is why two representatives and a few key production personnel were invited to a shooting site that reads as a music video and reads as a game content and a movie.

and… on the day of filming.

“… !!”

“Oh, long time no see.”

“There is no crank-in.”

They open their mouths and open their eyes at the fancy equipment and settings that Bae Se-jin has recruited all along.

‘Of course, all the money is my money… .’

No matter how well Bae Se-jin acted as a child and showed excellent skills in cameos, would a capitalist society work without money?

I think this is why capital is so important.

It seemed to hear the sound of 10 billion burning.

‘Still, it’s fortunate that the filming location was secured in advance… … .’

I was fortunate to find a building suitable for the province. If it doesn’t work, I’ll have to fix it with post-correction CG, but I still wanted to know where this was.

“Under the eyes of Mundae~”

“Yes.”

I followed the makeup artist’s instructions and narrowed my eyes to see today’s first hitter wearing a police uniform and standing in the middle of the set.

“Um, can I go with this feeling?”

It’s a big Sejin filming the prologue.

He pretended to be a kind cop but took on the role of an urban legend-like jailer who kidnaps people… The dialogue was written by himself.

To make it as natural as possible.

‘Because we’re not established actors in the first place.’

Characters are usually made to use the same tone as the usual member as much as possible, or if that is not possible, the amount of dialogue is drastically reduced.

In the case of Lee Se-jin… The acting class I took when I was in the virtual world created by the system had some influence on my passing for that role.

-Hey~ That beggarly group life is so helpful! After all, hardships and adversity seem to be a stepping stone to growth haha!

– He's clenching his fist. Clearly traumatic.

Of course, it would have been impossible without Bae Se-jin's coaching.

Right now, Bae Se-jin is looking at Se-jin big, who has finished shooting the first cut with a hawk's eye, and is shooting feedback.

"no. Talk more like you normally do now. If you deliberately try to express that there is something hidden in the story, do beginners become more unnatural?"

"ah."

"If you go into the BGM and the other actor's reaction, it will look suspicious enough, so don't try to be meaningful by taking the lead."

"Nep. Oh brother Like the camera guy here, slung over his shoulder like this… ."

Lee Se-jin did not show any awkwardness at the reversal of the situation, and seemed intent on asking questions and eating.

'Well, the schedule is 60 days, so there's no way I can afford that.'

And he completed the prologue filming more successfully than expected.

"Cut! Good~"

"… ! thank you!"

I laughed as I heard light exclamations like 'It's pretty good' or glances exchanged between the people involved in the filming.

"… good job!"

"It's because you taught me well~"

The two guys with the same name said awkwardly.

“Oh, it would be nice to take another shot even if the car isn’t exploding… It’s a pity, but I think that’s it!”

Not missing the behind-the-scenes cam appeal at the end was really strong.

And I immediately moved to the location and started filming the main story. This is because the time Bae Se-jin promised with this manpower was not long in the first place.

‘It kills the schedule.’

For reference, starting from the filming of the main story, the completed actor took the baton.

And the most important scene was dealt with first.

[…] … .]

In other words, Bae Se-jin filmed a scene trying to escape the main gate and got an ok at once.

‘… It’s overwhelming, though.’

It was an acting ability that almost felt like something. Should I say that he is like Cha Yoo-jin on stage?

Bae Se-jin is now a guy who can do enough for one person on stage, but comparing it to acting, I can see the difference.

The director seems to be the most excited today.

“Hey, our Sejin is still the same~”

“Ah um… thank you.”

Bae Se-jin looked a bit shy, but seemed quite proud.

Even after that, the filming was smoothly prepared and proceeded tightly.

“Yes, I’m going to the next locked room 3!”

Fortunately, the shooting order is fixed so that everyone rarely changes costumes to save time.

Thanks to that, I’m still wearing a filthy uncomfortable straitjacket… .

‘If it doesn’t come out well on the screen, I’ll go find the kid I made.’

I spent the day thinking that way.

“It sounds very plausible.”

And it was around the time I was nodding my head at Seon Ah-hyun, who was walking down the hallway swinging the baton moderately.

“hey.”

“… ? yes.”

There, too, people from the ruined factory or the industrial complex followed… People who had been quietly enjoying themselves all of a sudden started talking actively.

“Have you ever thought about the process?”

What.

“This is the first ending cut I took earlier. You made an album in the shape of the key mechanism shown there… that foca? You said you would put the code in there, right?”

“yes.”

By the way

“It was so nice to see it in person. The design of the gate, the composition, the clothes, and things like that are perfect… .”

The female representative clasped her hands tightly. The male representative hurriedly continued.

“Hey, how about the way that the character who presses the code changes depending on the member of the photo card?”

“… ??”

“Or, depending on the existing choices, favorability was accumulated, and that was the base… .”

for a moment.

There were opinions among the members, but all kinds of voices that were cut out due to problems of time and environment… .

Developers themselves started pouring out of their mouths.

“… … .”

I guess… Everything from the filming location, costume concept, and Bae Se-jin’s acting skills seemed to stimulate these people’s tastes.

no, no matter what

‘These people don’t know what realistic thinking means.’

I barely asked.

“It’s good, but the implementation is going…” Is it possible.”

“… Can’t we?”

do we know… ?

“But don’t you want to try? As you continued filming, you made the ones that were NG-processed because of that ad-lib into new options, so it looked good to use… .”

“… … .”

“Oh, and I also noticed that Eugene escaped. A bit of a gag ending in the middle? I think I can write with that feeling!”

“Did I take a good picture? Did you like it earlier?”

“wait for a sec.”

where did you come from

The two representatives are nodding their heads in exactly the same way to Cha Yoo-jin, who jumped out in a straitjacket with flashing eyes.

“yes!”

“Do we want to write?”

“Then use it! Please write Umm!”

“and!”

I just love it because the guy who was absolutely against this concept praised it… . no, before that

I barely opened my mouth.

“… … Was that time possible?”

“Haha, that’s because you’re just adding something that already exists as an option… .”

then?

“If we, who are free from labor laws, work overtime!”

“yes!”

“… … .”

so… Even the ad-lib and NG scenes that had to be cut originally were revived with options and a gag ending, so the volume increased like crazy.

It didn’t end here.

“And you said there were three versions.”

“yes. However, only the shape of the USB album and the prologue are different… .”

“Wouldn’t it be more like that feeling if you put in some personal events?”

“… ??”

“If I could revive the scrapped scenario here… .”

It was then.

“Are there any scrapped scenarios? is it so?”

“yes! Look at this.”

Even the director, who had intervened before he knew it, joined in, and an extended filming was decided on the spot.

“I’m sorry, but I don’t have time to memorize the script… … .”

“Ah~ It’s similar to your personalities anyway, so don’t be too conscious of the script and just go with the feeling of adapting to the situation!”

“… … .”

“You guys wrote it anyway, so why do you think so hard! If you want to act, you have to have that kind of experience.”

We are idols who want to perform.

… However, due to the existence of numerous idols who can act, led by Bae Se-jin, counterarguments were impossible.

And even the leader… … .

“Oh, we are fine.”

“… … !”

… … So in conclusion… It is said that one game with a volume of over two and a half hours was out of the question.

‘It’s been 2.5 times.’

In addition, with three versions, bad ending, gag ending, normal ending, true ending, and hidden ending, the actual play time has increased tremendously.

Thanks to that, it seemed that aggro had increased three times more than planned.

If you do anything, crazy noises about games come out and streaming keeps popping up, so it stays hot for a few days.

– These days, a hot testa game.. I tried it too.

-Do you guys know that? In the laboratory, if Rabin doesn’t check even once, there is a route to an accident. Bottle riots, big mental riots .

is not

Most of them end up just laughing at short videos or edited video fans’ reactions.

‘It’s not even a mobile game in the first place, it’s a package game, so what kind of popularity does it have?’

In addition, it is a completely expanded concept of the music video worldview for fan sniping.

This would have been a significant help to album sales, but it wasn’t a huge blow.

‘Since streaming has also been released, it has the opposite effect of satisfying those who are moderately interested.’

However, it was very good that a new potential fan base was introduced by creating a lure through the game, and that the existing fans were satisfied… .

Got the most important thing.

-Wow, I never thought Testa would make a comeback like this hahaha

– I’ve already caught on to the title melody, and I’ve seen a lot of reactions hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha

In addition, the chorus melody of the title song is inserted in the middle of the game, so anyone who has seen it once will be familiar with it, whether it is streaming or reaction.

‘I’d be satisfied if I could just listen to it once.’

And, as expected, Testa’s sound source ranking is not lacking compared to the previous time with T1’s crazy promotion on its back.

‘… ! yes.’

like this… Now that the news of the comeback has been announced, all we have to do is land the final blow on stage.

‘And just today.’

We will do our first comeback stage live. in over-the-air broadcasting.

“hmm.”

I laughed. It’s a pretty satisfactory result.

but… .

[Mr. Moondae! Are you interested in more serious games, testers? I’m wondering what it would be like if the characters of the testers briefly appeared in the gag ending as cameos in our next work… .]

The people of the ruins industrial complex seem to have come to regard us as another ally… Think again later

* * *

“… yes. thank you.”

Bae Se-jin thanked the other person over the phone once again.

It was a director who readily accepted his contact even though it had been a while.

The last time he directed a drama in which he made a cameo appearance as a shaman.

As a child actor, he was also a member of the crew of 10 million films in which he appeared as a baby shaman.

She made her place.

So he was able to try a difficult request by meeting film crews he knew from his childhood days.

‘… You did well to show courage.’

It was an unbelievable forced march, but… Still, it seemed like it was the first time I had contributed so much to the team.

‘Because the reaction was good… .’

Now I just have to work hard on stage. It was time for him to make a decision about this activity once again.

-I remember? When you were young, you suddenly shed tears like chicken poop on the filming set, and all the adults were taken aback.

– Yes Yes?

-You said ‘I was holding on to my emotions, why is that?’ Very bold and a baby.

“eww… Great yes.”

Bae Se-jin barely held back his cough.

Director, who was happily talking about memories, suddenly muttered in a low voice.

-also… what a waste. Such a waste.

“… … .”

-I really liked it while filming this time Sejin-ah. Jeongjin also said it was nice to see you after a long time.

“ah.”

Bae Se-jin recalled an actor who played the role of a driver in the prologue scene.

He was his senior when he was a child actor.

‘… You did a good job.’

It was a time when I was immersed in the memories of that time.

– My older sister caught a really good script this time.

A direct suggestion came from over the phone.

-You’re old now, don’t you think you’ll try?

Chapter 466

Episode 466,

7 In-Young came up on stage.

The first comeback stage on the airwaves for the first time since the formation of Testa.

Internet users were already setting up their seats and talking.

-It’s even weirder to say that

Testa doesn’t appear on teanet music rooms like this

It was unavoidable that Tnet’s story would come out.

In the meantime, Testa has been nothing short of an icon of T1’s KPOP business success.

That was an image that was still intact even after parting ways with T1.

So, as long as that image remains, unless a cataclysm so great that it disappears from its origin… It also meant that the airwaves didn’t have to be more friendly than necessary to Testa.

So, Testa got a seat before the 2nd ending moderately today.

-Has the testa already come out?

-If it were me, I would give you the ending first by aiming for this opportunity, but look at the respect of the airwaves.

But regardless of that, people thought that the highlight of this week's KBC music show was Testa's comeback stage.

That was enough.

one stage.

Amid the buzz of the comeback, all the effort put into getting people to see it was well worth it.

Testa's stage began.

[Doong… !]

A riff melody in a minor key that seems to have altered the sound of a shipwreck.

When the lights come on, what you see is a gorgeous set with the 'KIS' logo floating on it. It looks like a study or laboratory.

And in the center of the elegant and conceptual stage, there are triangular figures standing symmetrically.

just turned around

Seven men slowly moved their necks in that state.

The leather texture shimmered with light.

A skin-tight leather suit.

-It's a group

phantom

thief suit. .

The pouring drops with crackling sound effects are the introduction of an intense major key. [

My tape

that touches your hand and winds up again]

The formation spreads as if it were breaking, and the group dance of the rest of the members moved according to the solo dance movement that crossed Moondae Park's arms.

Then, the next member from the right outskirts slides out in front of the camera. [

All senses are slow

at the moment the heart beats]

Ryu Chung-woo's part where he kneels down and rotates, and dances in cool dynamics with one arm stretched out.

Even there, the group dance and formation moved according to his arm gestures.

-Oh wow

-Look at Ryu Chung-woo's arm

The choreography created under the theme of the 'butterfly effect' consisted of a structure in which the formation changes with the member's solo dance gesture.

-Wow

-Ah, please use the camera -I have to hold this well

The drum beat rose as if pounding.

[Exhilarating contact

, finding the right answer

in your silent eyes]

Kim Rae-bin, who took on the vocal part for the first time in a while, wore a unique turtleneck phantom thief outfit that came up to her neck.

After finishing his part with his eyes narrowed, he gave a high five as if exchanging batons with the person who would sing the next part.

It’s Cha Yoo-jin.

[There is only one choice , take all of them

(one more)

Even if you lose this tightly held hand]

The pair choreography with Kim Rae-bin was swiftly unfolded like a battle.

And even the doubling of Park Moon-dae and Ryu Chung-woo, who rises as if to support the live rap.

-I want to start live

-To the point where I can’t hear the AR

-As expected, Testa has to sing a difficult song

, and here comes a comma to adjust the tempo.

A phrase that can only be heard in a low voice.

[Let’s start the melee]

A close-up of Kim Rae-bin grabbing his chin and neck in the center.

-ㅠㅠㅠㅠ

-Evil

and pre-chorus.

[Find it and look at its face,

I don’t care what’s next

chaser

, don’t stop your hand again today]

A difficult section with complex off-beat rhythms and ranges. As if to match, the difficulty of the choreography rapidly increased and became more splendid.

In this part where the center becomes more important, Lee Se-jin, who has strong power at first, and Sun Ah-hyun, who has exquisite control of dynamics, lead the atmosphere.

[Find out everything,

don’t be scared what’s next chaser Do n’t end the twist

tomorrow too]

-A big phantom thief… Who chose a black one with a thin lining? What is it

Bits drop.

[Just roll the dice

Trust take my side]

In contrast to the pre-chorus.

A simple rhythm and a perfect main melody. And catchy riff melody.

Composed of these three central elements, the easy-to-remember refrain is filled with a beautiful dance break.

-If you hear footsteps, it seems that even the sound of footsteps will hit you.

The representative arm movement, which seemed to grab and snatch by giving unexpected acceleration to the movement, matched perfectly with the phantom thief suit.

It’s a subtle yet sexy element.

Eventually, this exclamation will come out.

-Testa is the same

-It was self-produced

-Wow, the real feeling is the same, but

it

‘s rather flirtatious.

Why does this happen?

Let’s take an example. A group moved companies. Even if most of the members remain the same… Can the color of the group change?

The answer is ‘yes’.

If the staff making the album changed and the planning team changed, it could have happened.

This is not only a matter of quality, but also a matter of whether the ‘feeling’ that is the reason fans and the public liked this group remains as it is.

A color unique to that group.

what the public expects from the group.

Absence of manpower and lack of capital can make such things no longer possible.

However, Testa seemed to disprove that on this stage.

‘Testa does what you expect!’

Thanks to that, the people watching the stage realized it unconsciously and became happy.

-I can only admire the whole verse 1

– Hahahahahahaha Really these guys, I don’t know anything else, but the stage is fun

Testa has been flying high on the track where they first debuted.

[Yes, this final round]

The stage moved forward without hesitation and greeted the bridge.

The rough electric sound disappears, and the somewhat overwhelming keyboard sound piles up to match the drum sound.

In line with that atmosphere, when Bae Se-jin raised the melody clearly and firmly from low to high notes without unnecessary technique.

[Pull]

Cha Yoo-jin, who jumped out from the end, landed on both feet like a cat and a wild beast, and took a slow step with strength.

And again the final dance break.

[Just roll the dice

Trust take my side]

-Bad Paradise

-It’s real shit

Testa filled the stage without releasing a single sound and not letting go of his strength until the end as if he was determined.

In the ending, until Liu Cheng-wu, who was standing in the center, looked back and playfully lifted the glove.

It was an ending member selection worthy of a phantom thief.

Aaaaaaaaa!

And, like the cheers of the fans who filled the screen, the chatting window on the internet also flew by.

– Ha ha ha ha ha

– Testa! Testa! Testa! Testa! Testa! Testa! Testa!

-Ripped

-Oh

-Gimme a replay

And the fans on social media were excited and poured out words and onomatopoeic emoticons in appreciation.

I couldn’t help it. Because it was so exciting!

It was only when their rational thinking returned a bit that they began to speak complete sentences.

-I’m saving everything as soon as corrections are uploaded. I saved the same cheongwoo 10 times when I came to my senses. -I’m really looking forward to this activity .

Please tell me it was, I beg you like this -Will there be a lot of public TV entertainment this time? Actually, there was a TV entertainment program that I was coveting.

In the meantime, answers and rumors slipped past.

-I wish I could film another variety show with that PD who coined carrots haha We’re not good at it hahaha ㄴHuh

yeah hahaha

ㄴI think we’ve already filmed it?

Star T1’s station doesn’t seem to be coming out..

ㄴOh please

└Can T1 block?;;

└Rumour, it could be that the schedule hasn't been released yet, so why wait

Like this best comment.

– Testa members know that they are good at it, right? Hahahaha └

I don't know hahahahaha

And there was a fan who suddenly thought of this while smirking.

How did Testa feel when that stage ended?

* * *

"You worked hard~"

"Waaa!!"

Cheers that were louder than the previous comeback filled the waiting room.

Even the staff cheered, and the scene was warm and full of enthusiasm and enthusiasm.

The first album released while facing obstacles that have never been seen before in a new company and a new environment.

Everyone had to feel new.

Even today, the members ran to Park Moon-dae, who was immediately monitoring the reaction of the pre-recording, and joined him.

"Look at Moondaemundae's reaction?"

“uh.”

“How are you… ?”

Park Moon-dae said simply.

“good.”

“… !!”

It was rare for him to make such an assertion about public opinion without going back.

And that means… .

“really?”

Even considering that he was a real fan, it meant that the response was overwhelmingly good!

The members were bewildered, but soon burst into laughter.

“and… Testa is alive!”

“Haha I showed you something today!”

“Oh~ Hyung Chung!”

Even Ryu Chung-woo used the slogan before the stage, ‘A Testa, show something today’ and threw an excited word.

Bae Se-jin also gasped for breath with a flushed face, then approached and looked at the screen that Park Moon-dae was watching.

Sun Ah-hyun smiled brightly and moved away slightly.

“Ah here… !”

“… … .”

Bae Se-jin read the contents of the smartphone that Park Moon-dae did not cover.

‘It’s so good, I can’t express it in words, so make sure to watch it’

‘I feel like crying because I’m happy’

‘I hope this activity will be long ‘ ‘

I have a strong feeling that I won’t be in my place at the concert’

Streets are those reactions… It definitely touched me.

“… nice.”

“It really is!”

He was happy too.

‘It was good.’

feeling like you did well.

It seems that the choreography is well followed and the song is not lacking.

The uncomfortable thing about the costumes being made of leather that doesn’t wick away sweat is that I didn’t pay much attention to them after years of stage experience.

“… … .”

So that’s it.

Bae Se-jin had no choice but to make a decision.

It was unavoidable.

“Congratulations to the testers~”

“Yes!”

So he was the first to change clothes among the members who were busy changing their outfits soon… I headed to the corner sofa.

Then I turned on the notepad I was writing on again.

It was a memo that I tried to write down because I couldn’t calm down, but I closed it in 30 seconds because I wanted to do something right before the stage.

[Thank you so much for the suggestion. I also want to appear in the director’s work]

He started writing again with his teeth gritting the type that he had written down to that point.

[…] I really want to appear in the director’s work. But I think I won’t regret it if I focus more on group activities now.]

This is correct.

‘If it overlaps with the activity period… no.’

Even if I couldn’t do it during all the other album promotions, I couldn’t do it now.

‘How did everyone start again?’

And this time, he really… It seems that you have made a proper contribution to the completeness of one work rather than just barely following the implementation.

I didn’t want to pour cold water on myself with my personal actions. He, too, was now in a state of understanding the ecosystem of idol groups to some extent.

‘Now is the time to focus on group activities.’

Bae Se-jin started writing again. To refine the language of how to answer when on the phone.

[I'm sorry I turned down the proposal with a good heart]

It was then.

"What are you doing?"

"… !!"

I thought my heart was dropping.

As soon as I turned my eyes, Mundae Park with a gruff face was looking at me with a grotesque expression.

"… ?!"

Bae Se-jin stopped showing his feet numb with an expression that seemed to ask, 'What were you looking at, so surprised?'

"no! Just text me!"

"It's a notepad."

"… … ."

"I'm sorry, but because of the location, I also looked at some words."

Park Moon-dae sat down on the seat next to the sofa. Bae Se-jin was just stiff.

"Did the director offer you a role?"

"Lower your voice."

"… ?"

Park Moon-dae thought, 'It's going to be like that', but he set it to the beat.

Bae Se-jin continued to speak in a low voice.

“… okay. But since it’s an active period, I’m going to decline it.”

“I don’t think it’s something you don’t want to do.”

Bae Se-jin cried for a moment.

of course!

But I also knew that I shouldn’t be angry. Park Moon-dae did nothing wrong.

So after taking a deep breath, I answered more calmly.

“… I’m saying it’s not important what I want to do, it’s because I don’t think this is the right time!”

“hmm… … .”

Park Mun-dae drooled without expression, then nodded a few seconds later.

“Then let’s ask if everyone thinks so.”

“… ??”

Chapter 467

If you don’t debut, you’ll get a fatal disease Episode 467

In fact, it’s natural for members to do individual activities in an idol group with years of age.

The group’s profitability declined after its heyday. Then, shouldn’t each of us search for a way to eat and live in advance?

Of course, there were many exceptions in the fortress, and Testa was one of them.

“Although we’ve rarely had individual activities properly until now.”

“That’s right.”

The group continued to do well… .

‘If I had to say individual activities, it was about entertainment or pictorial.’

Since I was already from survival, I refrained from individual activities for several years, even for the sake of fandom convergence, and eventually came to this point.

I opened my mouth.

“But wouldn’t it be okay to start slowly now?”

“hmm.”

Bae Se-jin shook his shoulders. The members’ eyes reflexively turned to Bae Se-jin.

Cha Yu-jin raised her hand.

“So we have a meeting? Are you acting Sejin hyung?”

quick-witted guy

“… … I got an offer.”

“… ! You did!”

“Congratulations Chu… !”

Bae Se-jin’s face turned red among the nice but ignorant guys who responded positively.

“Oh, I won’t… !”

“… !?”

“I told Park Moon-dae earlier, but… We just made a comeback, and I shouldn’t fall out to act!”

“ah… !”

Exclamation marks appeared on the faces of Seon Ah-hyun and Kim Rae-bin.

But soon, Kim Rae-bin asked cautiously.

“I… Is it a structure where parallelism is impossible due to schedule?”

That’s right! Then you can do both!

It’s a gnome-like question with insane efficiency characteristics that more than double your composition speed.

However, Bae Se-jin grabbed both hands.

“… What if I make a mistake?”

“yes?”

“I am… I’ll be honest. I’m the slowest at learning the stage here. I started late, and my talent… There will be problems.”

“… Depending on which reference point is used, the judgment is subjective… ”

“But I don’t think I can make a single mistake on stage while concurrently taking on a completely different kind of work…” ?”

“… !!”

Bae Se-jin raised his head.

His face was pale.

“What will people think when that happens?”

Bae Se-jin, who has already quit his first solo career, will eat curse words with concentration.

But to my surprise, that guy didn’t even mention that point.

“Something’s wrong. Bae Se-jin didn’t do it, and suddenly, he overreacted and talked about it within the group to the extent that he was doing group activities and acting at the same time… You would think so!”

“… … .”

“I don’t know anything about idol activities like when I just debuted, in my own way… I know the situation now.”

okay. I know you watch Gukppong WeTube.

‘Then usually, KPOP reactions, public reactions, YouTube, and even Lex Cars appear in related videos.’

Just by reading the title, this guy knows about that much.

About the secondary rumors that rumors create.

And what kind of rumors become a hot topic and make waves.

“In a situation where we just moved companies and made our first comeback… no.”

Bae Se-jin finished his speech with a rather firm face.

“That is my judgment.”

“… … .”

oh.

I touched my chin.

First of all, apart from the validity of the conclusion he reached.

‘I drew the process to the conclusion quite logically and in depth.’

It was not an attempt to evade it, but rather a conclusion that I had put my head into the situation head-on and analyzed closely.

‘It must have grown a lot.’

That was a respectable attitude, so I was going to start talking lightly with partial agreement, but… .

“why?”

“… ?!”

Is this guy going to hit the question mark first?

Ryu Chung-woo continued to speak calmly while staring at Bae Se-jin among the members with enlarged eyes.

“Sejin. Why do you think if you act, it will definitely interfere with your stage activities?”

“Who says unconditionally?”

Bae Se-jin seemed to be in tears, but soon calmed down.

“… that there is a high probability I can imagine right now. the situation… !”

“Imaginations don’t necessarily become reality.”

“… !”

“Sejin-ah.”

Liu Qingyu said softly.

However, it was somehow a bit harsh.

“as I said last time… When you imagine the future, you seem to think more about the possibility of the bad side than the possibility of the good side.”

“… … .”

Bae Se-jin became a bit dazed.

“Even when we talked about this before, in the end it didn’t go as you expected and it worked out well. Do you remember?”

“… … .”

unspoken affirmation.

And although Liu Cheng-wu deliberately referred to it vaguely, I realized what the ‘circumstance in which I told this story before’ was.

Bae Se-jin saw a big Se-jin in an instant.

‘I think it’s when the two fought like dogs.’

At that time, I was in charge of the big Se-jin, and Ryu Cheong-woo was in charge of Bae Se-jin.

It seems that the two of them had a conversation like that at the time.

‘Bae Se-jin probably said that he would never apologize first because Se-jin hates him so much… I think he thought that even if he apologized first, we wouldn’t be able to reconcile.’

It seems that Ryu Cheng-wu calmed it down.

And, well, people with the same name reconcile, and somehow they are getting along well even though they continue to squeak.

In a word, it is true that Bae Se-jin was overly negative at the time.

But I understood why Bae Se-jin made that decision.

It must be the reason that the two of them didn’t get along so much, and the feelings of being spoiled for each other built up, and then they suddenly had a big fight.

In fact, I wondered if Bae Se-jin’s way of thinking itself had an empirical reason.

‘… It’s probably because of his experience as a child actor.’

I was ruined once with an agency like X. Besides, we even watched it live, which was almost ruined because our biological father was like that.

It seems like a natural instinct for that guy to consider the worst possible outcome in a decisive choice.

the problem is… .

‘And me too… .’

It’s something I can understand.

Judging by my X-like experiences as a child, I also have a few things that pop right out.

It is a situation where the worst possible assumption becomes a reality.

Those who have experienced such things always assume the ‘worst case’ and plan for the future.

‘I’m preparing.’

I don’t think I’ve ever lost anything, so I’m not particularly dissatisfied with my thinking circuit… . Ryu Cheong-woo seemed very sorry for Bae Se-jin.

“Until now, I have rarely made mistakes on stage while promoting. It was like that even when I couldn’t sleep well. But will I suddenly make a mistake this time?”

“… … .”

“I don’t think so. And even if it does, there is a possibility that it will pass without any problems… . It’s nothing else, and it would be too bad if I gave up for that reason.”

Bae Se-jin’s eyes turned hazy.

And I felt a sentiment close to astonishment toward Liu Cheng-wu.

‘How could that bastard do that?’

How can a guy who retired from the national team right before his prime due to the aftereffects of a childhood accident that he doesn’t even remember can live with that kind of mindset.

Even though we’ve lived together for several years and know everything… No, on the contrary, it was more difficult to understand.

‘Well, how can all humans be the same?’

A team like this and that must all be there for the team to roll.

As evidence of that, Bae Se-jin seems to have been a little emotionally agitated by that resolute statement.

And as if driving the momentum, Ryu Cheng-wu spoke up.

Not Bae Se-jin, but me.

“what do you think about it?”

“… … .”

Why?

‘Since he called a meeting, he must have thought he would back it up.’

I answered shyly.

“No what… You are right. In fact, I think what Sejin hyung said is also true. There are possibilities.”

“… … !”

“… okay?”

Why do you, Ryu Chung-woo, also have a sullen face?

Anyway, I shrugged.

“And even if I persuaded him like this, Sejin-hyung would still be anxious. I don’t think you need to do individual activities like that.”

“… … .”

“So I want to refute Sejin hyung’s reasoning.”

“… ??”

“Bar Rebuttal… Are you talking?”

Yes.

“I think there is a fundamental cause for worrying that my brother will make a mistake in the first place.”

“… root cause?”

What are you talking about?

Listen.

“The active schedule is tight.”

As tight as it is, there is no room, so there is no time to prepare the mind and body for the stage.

It is the worry that your skills in that environment will inevitably lead to mistakes.

“In the first place, wouldn’t he have said it would be okay if the schedule had been a little more relaxed. Even at the same time, there is time to practice.”

Bae Se-jin answered with a puzzled expression.

“that… It’s like that.”

I nodded.

“Then there is no need to worry.”

“… ?? why… ?”

“Your schedule will be better than before.”

“why?!”

I put on the pod with both hands.

“The T1 series schedule is all blocked… … .”

“… … .”

“… … .”

Yes.

Bae Se-jin, who inadvertently predicted a schedule similar to the previous albums, missed this loophole.

‘we… There aren’t many broadcasts going on.’

It will be over after one or two TV shows are aired and a few Wetube shows are broadcast.

The rest of them don’t match the value of the group’s name, so they can’t go out unintentionally.

‘But the topic was covered by the game… .’

After all, in the crazy 60 days that we ran while preparing for the album, it was the same as pulling out the promotion activities for the album.

And Bae Se-jin’s eyes became dots as if he realized that.

He looks flustered.

“that… think about it.”

“yes. And while you’re thinking about it, I’ve got another agenda to talk about.”

“What what?”

why. I didn't hold the meeting just to talk about your acting activities.

"In the first place, we didn't just do Sejin-hyung, but during this period of activity, we thought it would be nice to split up and make individual appearances a few times."

"yes??"

"Ooh we… ?"

"Um, the album came out, but all the members were doing individual activities… . Anyone who wants to do it, of course, can do it, but I don't mind doing it next time."

The prudent Ryu Cheong-wu was happy to respond, but rather that was the goal.

"No, rather, it's because of the album."

"hmm?"

"Since there are limits to whether a group can appear together in a program or event, I thought it would be better to show their faces a few more times, even as individuals."

"ah."

Then, since it is a T1 series, you will be able to make up for the cut schedules even slightly.

Shouldn't we let people who aren't familiar with WeTube know that the testa album is out?

and… There is one more advantage, but it seems that Sun Ah-hyun noticed it.

"ah… ! Then Sejin-hyung's acting will be seen as part of that individual appearance… It will be as if we are all together!"

Yes.

Bae Se-jin has a uniquely different texture and is serious, but if she lets go of her circumstances, she won't go to the point of being saturated alone.

"… ! Indeed! I couldn't reason that far!"

"Then let me get out of here!"

The conference room became noisy with Kim Rae-bin, who began to admire Seon Ah-hyun, and Cha Yu-jin, who started actively exploring programs.

Bae Se-jin bowed his head.

"… thank you. really."

"… !"

"no! I admired your will to even consider giving up for the sake of the album! I will support you in acting… !"

"okay. I will cheer you on."

"Hwa fighting… !"

May I also add a word?

"If it's a swashbuckling role again, ask for a change."

"… okay."

Bae Se-jin's voice was mixed with laughter.

And Bae Se-jin raised his head again, his eyes shining with his fists clenched.

"I'll be fine."

yes

“The stage… I will continue to practice.”

It’s good.

“I… I will work hard to promote the album during that shoot… !”

“it’s okay.”

That’s not it.

That version is also bloody, so it becomes an X. Just take a picture of your work or work hard and come.

“Ah, but… … .”

Bae Se-jin seemed to want to say something more, but he suddenly met someone’s eyes and shut his mouth.

He hadn’t said a single word throughout the entire meeting.

“… … .”

Big Sejin.

The guy was looking at Bae Se-jin with an expression that didn’t show much emotion.

Bae Se-jin seemed to be trying to avoid his gaze reflexively for a moment, but soon that sign disappeared.

Instead, he asked Sejin seriously.

“you… what do you think about it?”

“… … .”

“What I do while I’m active.”

Sejin looked at the table for a moment and then opened his mouth.

“Wouldn’t it be okay in this situation?”

“… !”

It was an underpowered tone.

And it was an euphemistic affirmation.

Sejin Bae was startled as if he would jump out of his chair, but soon cleared his throat.

“No, I didn’t say much… I didn’t like it, but I thought I was holding back!”

“Yeah what… . yes. That way, no matter what I react to, I think they will interpret it in a bad way~” “

… … .”

Keun Se-jin deliberately raised the end of his words as if he were joking, but his sincerity was clear.

And Bae Se-jin also seemed stabbed.

Even if I said individual activities were a good idea, I would have suspected that I was being sarcastic and would have nodded my head if I objected.

Big Sejin rubbed the back of his neck.

“We have annual leave… Gradually, the time has come for everyone to do individual activities~ And hyung said he was thinking of turning it down anyway.”

“… … .”

Big Sejin finished talking like that.

It really didn't sound like empty talk.

"… okay."

And Bae Se-jin seems to have been able to accept those words this time.

"good. then… I'll wrap it up and contact the director!"

"Great!"

That's how Testa finished preparing to enter the album promotion period in earnest.

in a slightly different way than before.

* * *

"I… However, if cooperation with all affiliates related to T1 is not possible, is it possible that we will not be able to produce a group reality program this time?!"

"wait."

Chapter 468

Episode 468

Seoul. in a quiet office.

“I’ll tell you right away!”

“yes. thank you.”

Bae Se-jin sat across from the table as calmly as possible.

‘really… You’re here.’

It was a meeting that I hadn’t done in a long time.

I remember being an actor in a bizarre virtual world for several years, but the experience, though recent, was a bit vague, like a distant past or a vivid dream.

Maybe that’s why he’s so nervous,” said Bae Se-jin, taking a short deep breath.

Soon, the person he had been waiting for appeared in a hurry.

“Sejin is here!”

“… ! hello.”

A director holding a document. It was he who gave him the role offer.

And he was accompanied by another person.

“Director, director.”

“Yes~ Sejin has grown a lot.”

The director with a big-headed impression sat down on the sofa with a grin.

‘It was this person… !’

He was the director of a work in which he played an abducted child when he was a child.

grades… A person who succeeds at the box office every other time.

‘… good.’

This was well worth the walk.

Bae Se-jin nodded, bowed, and sat down again.

“The kid is really like billions of people. Being calm was just as great.”

“Yes? It still feels like living the right life.”

‘greatness.’

It’s not quite like that.

Bae Se-jin, who thought that he himself had gone too far (?), finally came to the proposal in question.

flutter.

Papers are passed in front of the table, and the work is lightly explained.

‘Modern mystery horror… .’

Based on a webtoon, a slightly bizarre and chilly 21st century Korean modern worldview unfolded.

A kind explanation follows to Bae Se-jin, who quickly scans the contents.

“ah.”

If so, it was definitely a capital away from T1, unless the production studio was involved.

then… .

‘I can do it properly.’

If it’s a drama rather than a movie, it will take longer to shoot, but wouldn’t it be okay if we promoted the next album?

It was when Bae Se-jin was working hard on his thoughts.

“But actually… Have you taken quite a few pictures?”

for a moment.

“… Are you casting me right now?”

Is it seasonal?

Maybe that’s why he appears in season 2… .

“Actually, a newcomer was able to sprout, so I tried it… That crazy bastard took a video and an article appeared. It’s a regional remark or something!”

“… … greatness.”

“Our Sejin is still clean after 20 years of debut, right? But where does a newcomer lose his mind!”

These days, the director tried to bite the bubble, saying that only Witube in-heart tic-tac-tok was kicked in the head.

The director hurriedly suggested a sugar bomb coffee and bypassed the story.

“Anyway, that’s why I cut off the amount… The schedule was pushed back and the schedule was empty? Sejin contacted me just then, so we were able to work together after a long time?”

“ah… thank you.”

“what. I wish we had a relationship like this again!”

“It’s true~ Thank you for directing this~”

“Ah, I’m doing this because Sejinie said okay~”

The director and the director smirked. And Bae Se-jin’s nerves became sharper.

“… Then, is the role that newcomer played that you want to give me?”

“… ! Oh, but the weight is certain!”

A quick explanation followed.

“I met this person and that person and went through auditions, but I can’t come out with a picture that I want to be like this.”

So, he said that it was that rookie who managed to find it, but he said he persuaded the investor that he would give it a try because there was no substitute.

“Netplus is like this, isn’t it a bit generous? Even so, it was such a good role that I asked if I could use someone more recognizable!”

“And since I’m a rookie who doesn’t have any publicity effect anyway, there wasn’t even an article about it! What the hell is it, there’s no way to say something like this?”

“Ah yes.”

Bae Se-jin nodded, but the director and director looked to see if Bae Se-jin was offended by the misunderstanding that he had been treated as a ‘sweet bun’.

But that wasn’t what Bae Se-jin was thinking about.

‘Since the filming period is getting shorter, the release date seems to be sooner than I thought.’

Being able to see results quickly wasn’t a bad thing.

But at the same time, one went across the water.

‘The promotion of the album… Ambiguous.’

This is because Netflix takes the method of releasing the number of episodes before the drama season at once, even if there are a lot, in two places.

The release was subtly delayed because it was necessary to secure editing time.

In other words, this drama will be released around the end of this album’s activities.

‘… Maybe a month or two.’

Then it wouldn’t really help promote the album.

“… … .”

Bae Se-jin asked himself while managing his expression.

Did you really not know this?

Members who know much more about idol activities than you do.

The thing that made us all bury the uncertainty of not knowing when the drama or movie would be released as ‘part of promoting the album’… .

‘… They just cheered me on.’

Whether it helps the group’s activities or not, it’s just for the sake of member Bae Se-jin.

Bae Se-jin made up his mind to cry again.

“… First of all, I’ll look at the role first.”

“Yes yes!”

“Wah Sejin talks the same way he did when he was really small.”

Bae Se-jin put the papers aside and picked up what was underneath them.

It was a new script that had already been neatly completed.

He passed it militantly.

‘I’ll do well.’

No matter what role you play, you can digest it well, Marira.

That’s in return for your support… .

“… … .”

“How are you Sejin?”

bo reciprocate.

“Anyway, there are many cases where idols start out with a decent sub role… Se-jin shouldn’t be treated the same way with her acting skills!”

“… … .”

“Don’t you think it would be great if a psychopath like this strongly imprinted the image of an actor?”

“That”

Bae Se-jin started to break out in a cold sweat!

* * *

Meanwhile, Testa was scheduled to promote their album for 3 weeks, starting with their first airwave music broadcast.

[Testa undergoing economic retaliation by the broadcasting station]

[Looks like Testa lost to T-One?]

In the end, the fans’ reactions and Testa’s published schedule were well arranged, and the shockingly selected articles conveyed the same news. .

‘Testa was taken by T1! It’s not about drawing a line! The two completely diverged!’

The situation that Park Moon-dae had foreseen from the moment he saw the article in which the T1 board members were arrested was later shared with the public as information in the form of rumors.

– Huh…

– Awesome haha

In fact, the group image could have been damaged.

Celebrity ‘lost’ from the platform. Doesn’t it feel like it will become less topical, less appearing, and wither?

But it didn’t go there.

-Looking at the T1 album chart and music charts, I think I’m grinding my teeth hahaha

-Testa’s free life hahaha

-Oh, you're not a novice at Tnet now -Isn't that a guess? Maybe it's because Testa just didn't go out because she got tired of it, because Testa's grades were good.

Yes.

It was the entertainment industry that was defended by shame and topicality against the attack on 'class', and Park Moon-dae trusted that logic.

So I knew that no special defense was needed in this situation. – The big company

that pushed me lost

my hand

… I won't be able to last long

ㄴ Perhaps it means that T-One, who was knocked out by Testa, will not last long (concerned emoticon)

Because it is more fun for netizens to immerse themselves in Testa!

How refreshing! This feeling of quitting your job and being more successful!

However, not all fans were very happy to see this reaction.

-I really wonder if all of our kids are like that because they like them.. They're just… sexually inclined… ㅠㅠ

-Right now, the reality is that the kids' faces have been cut in half

. Because it wasn’t meant lightly.

-When I asked why the game was included in the album, it must have been because of this… I don’t think it will appear on TV much, so I’m trying to fill it with content like

this

. After one or two of these were announced, it became an atmosphere where everyone understood… .

-Yes, guys, I’m working hard… -This is the first time I’ve seen so many individual testers appear… But other teams tend to do this in many cases

-I’ll take care of them all, fighting!

Besides, the members even talked openly on the W app.

[This time, we want to show our image in more various schedules… We even took pictures of each other.]

[That’s right.]

[We’re like this! We are working hard~ Everyone!]

I said it very softly, but in fact, it was a tone that everyone could tell that it was absolutely not ‘we wanted to do individual activities this time’.

It means that I tried to make up for the time I couldn’t go out as a group.

-As

expected -Still, let’s enjoy things like this and how nice it would be to see the kids playing with each other.

It was the timing when the group fans were heartbroken and the individual fans cried out for gain.

Bae Se-jin's article appeared.

[Testa Bae Se-jin's '10 Million Child Actors' comeback film < The Doll Hunter >, a highly anticipated Netflix film]

-???? Bae Se-jin, who didn't have a personal schedule for entertainment or events by himself

finally revealed his schedule

┗Gaejeom

┗He was originally an actor.

The public reaction was favorable. Because he is a good-looking celebrity without controversy over his acting skills.

And thanks to the low rice, Testa fans were also moderate.

-Yes, Baese… It's better to act than entertainment

. -Oh, I wanted to see our hamzzi go out alone and go crazy hahahaha

-ㅠㅠㅠ Testa fighting!

Still, acting was a very 'proper' individual activity.

If you see any loopholes in Bae Se-jin's attitude towards group activities, there will be malicious fans who are waiting with their eyes on to catch the fault.

"Sejin-ah, even if you're a little tired today, make sure to visit here."

"okay."

So, Testa was working hard while caring for each other during live performances and schedules.

However, one of the members had other things on his mind.

'It's about time, though.'

It was Park Moondae.

A few days later was Testa's debut anniversary, so the end of June was already approaching.

Along with that, the summer weather is rapidly approaching.

And he has unusual information related to 'this summer'… because I knew one.

just as expected.

One day when I was repeating the check.

[T-Holic junior group is coming… Wonder Hall "Rookie boy group < ĭter > sortie"] appeared.

'also.'

Park Moon-dae immediately called up the status window and checked it.

The 'hint' he chose.

[Rookie of Wonder Hall (B)]

Year -202X. A rookie male idol will finally debut at Wonder Hall this summer.

As a large-scale project in which 20 billion won was invested over three years, the new team's unconventional planning is raising expectations within the company.

The hint was right.

'As expected, it's worth using.'

And one more thing to note. This hint was graded high enough to be a golden 'B'.

It is true that the more specific the grade, the higher the grade, but it will not be the only one.

Probably because it's so useful.

So, Park Moon-dae thought.

'I think this rookie will be popular.'

Right away, the community comment reactions were quite good.

Of course, the reason is the name value of Wonder Hall and T-Holic.

-Hul, finally T

-Holic juniors -Wonder Hall is really good because it has only good impressions from soft tofu to cool guys

ㄴ Still, because it's Wonder Hall, I think it'll work for some reason haha

T-Holic's easy-going and comfortable cool classmate or senior concept. The demand for it was still there.

No matter how much Testa is a popular idol who made his name known, it was made with entertainment and songs, not with a concept.

Park Moon-dae calmly judged.

'I have to constantly check the trend.'

But next week.

When their debut teaser was released.

-????????

-Crazy

-This is T-Holic Junior…?

-
Hahahah

Chapter 469

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 469

"Are these guys?"

"okay."

Big Sejin, who came after finishing his personal schedule, checked the link on his smartphone.

For reference, he had been thinking about various personal projects from performance contests to exploration entertainment, and he made a fairly unexpected choice.

[Hope Game – Choice and Reversal]

It is a death game survival reality.

This program, produced by Wetube, a public television affiliate, was not that popular, but it had a strong fan base and was a hot topic on the Internet.

-And here, too, they secretly used dice as a symbol~ Because our album is 'Roll the Dice', do you think it would be good to sneak a peek at the publicity?

-It just seemed like if I was active, they would write our game video for the editing video.

And, like a guy who has a good way of living and has a good brain, he is taking care of his image to the extent that he is like licorice, and then plays an active role a few times at decisive moments.

On the contrary, it seems that the character image is clearer than in the normal and popular entertainment.

They shoot two episodes at a time, but even the 6th episode they are filming now is said to be alive.

‘In the first place, I’m also a person with experience in survival.’

You will never forget that the camera is rolling and you will be coping with it.

Anyway, that’s why it also meant that I had this situation sharp enough to check as soon as a guy who would have consumed a lot of energy joined.

“T-Holic seniors and juniors… . Um, the Wonder Hall agency.”

The group name is Ether.

The teaser video of him was released.

I turned my gaze back to the smartphone where the video was playing.

“… … .”

A background of muted colors.

Slightly indented sepia tone filter and sensibility like a film camera.

The view of the lawn and smile unfolds with subtle saturation and sensibility that is not strong in highlights.

and boys.

They run and jump over countless spaces.

An old school rooftop bus stop, a junkyard, a grassy playground on a bridge with a sparkling night view… .

It was dreamy to see props from past scenes appearing or being placed in the air as if they were attached to each other.

And it seemed desolate because there were no people, but I came to a vague crossroads with a neat filter.

After a few dance cuts pass sensibly to the dreamy and fresh music.

Only the sound of singing echoes in the silence. [

To you

who haven’t jumped over and seen

the time line yet]

A boy standing on a traffic light spurs up toward the sky that is still soft in the dawn light.

The white hand covered the sky and the sunlight shone.

[Show the way

– ĭter]

The white subtitles floated on the screen without sound and ended.

“… … .”

Big Sejin confirmed it all without a word. And I checked the number of views.

million units.

“hmm.”

The boy furrowed his eyebrows and smiled.

“Would you like to hear the expert opinion first?”

“So how does our Lavin feel?”

“There are some interesting parts of the chords and instruments… .”

Not long after, the ‘expert’ among the testers who all joined started to comment on the teaser.

Rabin Kim.

He is on his way to a program that gives songs to unknown singers who are being re-examined.

Of course, the identity of the composer is not revealed at first. Singers who come up through the audition listen to the given songs for just 30 seconds, then take them away, select them, and evaluate them.

and then… It is only after it becomes your own song that you can see the identity of the composer and listen to the entire song.

-MC: The identity of the composer of the 5th song ‘Melody’ is… It was Testa Kim Rae-bin!

-Kim Rae-bin: Please take good care of me in the future… .

-Participant: Aaaaaaaaa!! ah!!

-Participant: Thank you!

-Kim Rae-bin: … ??

Even though it was a place where you could properly enjoy Testa’s name value, he himself couldn’t enjoy it at all. Only the viewers are enjoying it.

Anyway, after watching all the teasers, he made this evaluation.

“You seem to have a similar reference point for choosing auxiliary instruments for melodic development! I would like to ask you how you came to choose this way.”

“… … .”

Bae Se-jin, who had endured it quietly, could not stand it any longer and cried out.

“You followed me!”

“yes?!”

Yes.

I rubbed my chin.

“I analyzed your songs and used them as references.”

“… !”

“From what I hear, it seems to be a reference to ‘Magical Boy’ or ‘Wheel’.”

Obviously, that person, the person involved, must have found in his head a lot more other songs that are partially similar.

Seon Ah-hyun opened and closed her eyes in embarrassment.

“Ugh, come to think of it, this teaser image… .”

“okay. It feels a bit like the teaser from our debut.”

However, if you only refer to the ‘Magical Boy’ teaser, that’s not the case again.

For example, the length, editing, and composition of this teaser are rather similar to those of the ‘March’.

The color is ‘airplane’ and the prop is ‘Picnic’.

In that way, it felt like they had taken several elements from Testa’s past activities to suit their tastes, mixed them well with other good looking things, and reestablished them.

‘It’s like a puzzle.’

“… ! Did they even create a world view?”

“Of course it must have been.”

These days, it would be more difficult to find a group that does not have a worldview in the male idol world.

I found the summary through a quick search.

-Boys with superpowers who travel between the past and the future in virtual reality.

A guide to dreaming eternity.

Each of them wanders in their own youth and leaves in search of light.

Show the way – ĭter

‘Oh.’

Time trip magic dream.

Sejin Bae shook his hands.

“… This is very similar to our previous concept… !”

“To be precise, only the keywords are similar.”

I took a cold look.

“The keywords don’t completely overlap.”

Time trip is a virtual reality, magic is changed to supernatural power, and it is strangely twisted.

‘It’s a bit more modern and technological.’

It will be easy to weave and write on the fortress platform.

“Besides, they’ve got their identities right.”

“where!?”

“here.”

I picked up a group name.

-ĭter

“It means length in Latin. We took the group concept as a ‘guide’ and attached a unique image to it.”

“… … .”

From the moment the group’s name was ‘Eter’, I guess I should have expected something conceptual like this.

Anyway, Bae Se-jin muttered in a somewhat vain tone.

“then… Didn’t you follow us?”

“It’s true that I followed it, but it’s called benchmarking.”

Strictly speaking, it is not plagiarism.

“Should I say that they researched the best-selling product in the market and made their own version?”

“… … .”

Bae Se-jin sat down with a embarrassed face.

‘I understand.’

Because I’m not in a good mood either.

Looking at it, it was definitely not plagiarism because it was patched together from various references and mixed with the unique points of this agency.

however… It is also true that it is a group that would not have appeared without Testa.

‘hmm.’

And that’s what everyone felt.

Bae Se-jin eventually muttered with a slightly bitter face.

“We’re not the only ones who have to do this concept… But I guess we’ve been the only ones doing this so far.”

“… … .”

Big Sejin paused for a bit, but soon opened his mouth with a shy smile.

“Um~ Actually, there were a lot of groups like this before, right?”

“Uh huh??”

Bae Se-jin was taken aback.

But it was absolutely true.

‘It’s usually what latecomers do to put out something that works well in the market right away.’

How many teams have tried to benchmark Testa’s conceptual feel over the past few years?

There was only a crucial difference.

“But everyone just didn’t respond that fast~ So hyung passed by without knowing.”

“… … .”

Yes.

Planning and capital.

It was this kind of conceptual image that was copied in a short period of time with a small budget and manpower and was unable to even find a way to break even down.

“Then they… .”

I answered.

“20 billion in 3 years.”

“… !!”

“I heard that a new project planning team was also established… . It must have involved a lot of manpower.”

Information obtained from hints.

therefore… planning capital manpower.

It is prepared with all three elements in place.

3 years or so.

“… … .”

There was silence for a moment.

Ryu Cheng-wu, who had been listening quietly, opened his mouth.

“then… You must have prepared properly.”

And after a while, the title song of these guys was released.

* * *

[Ready and shut go!]

Laser lights split the screen along with intense Moombahton music.

A CG screen with flashy effects, a coding screen that flicks by, and a boss raid by superpowered boys wearing goggles!

And even the dance break part that looks like a huge beast that is intensely devoured.

“wow.”

Cha Yoo-jin chewed the popcorn with a sad face.

“how is it.”

“The typical nerdy things. [Seriously, isn’t there any kind of academy in K-pop?]”

Cha Yoo-jin coolly sat down on the sofa, saying that video game fanatics would go wild. It was as if he had forgotten that he had made a game for his last album.

“You did too.”

“I am cool. I’m good at anything. But they didn’t do that. [immersion]?”

hmm.

I ran the music video again.

‘The appearance stats look good.’

Also, the camera work was brilliant, and the close-up shots and dynamic compositions alternated appropriately, making it look like a cut from an action game.

I don’t know what Cha Yu-jin said, but at least it didn’t look awkward.

Thanks to this, the comments have already been joined by die-hard KPOP fans.

-The boy with silver hair has perfect skin

. -They are such a perfect five-pointed star! I’m looking forward to their music broadcast stage ?

– I think Eter will be one of the biggest K-pop groups

“This reminds me of ‘Better me’ or ‘Drill’.”

“Nep. The dance break is the style I did when I was on my way.”

Well, if you look at it, it’s because the interval is similar.

The composition of motorcycle props and costumes reminds me of Drill, and the combat composition… The embodied closed facility atmosphere even reminds me of ‘Better me’.

Of course, since the basic concept was different, it didn’t seem like it would come to mind right away in the eyes of the general public.

‘Still, if it came to this level, people who knew would have roughly understood it.’

No matter how much we feel it better because we are the ones who made the album while doing our own production, there is no way that we were the only ones who felt this.

“this… Are you talking to the fans as well?”

“… … .”

“Park Moon-dae, just speak comfortably.”

I briefly looked at my smartphone.

“It does come out.”

“… !”

Right now, it seems to be the best comment in English.

-Am I the only one who looks like just another Testa copycat? ?

“…As expected!”

“But it’s hard to see that it’s necessarily a good thing.”

“Kuhm.”

Bae Se-jin seemed to be screaming ‘why’ at any moment, but he seemed to have endured it with years of empirical trust

. Ahyeon muttered a little cautiously, ”

… Oh, can’t that be considered

plagiarism

?

Guess it’s funny haha Only Testa has to do something like this ! If comparing scenes, all idols must be plagiarized and reviewed before discourse collides.

It has become a distance worth fighting for.

‘I don’t like it.

‘ ‘ If only the other person becomes popular!’

I immediately logged on to the entertainment gossip bulletin board and skimmed through the popular posts.

[I heard that this is the visual member of Eter]

[I think of Testa, not T-Holic, the rookie of Wonder Hall]

[Eter debut Have you heard the song?]

[Wonder Hall’s male idol rookie looks like a small and medium-sized one ㅠㅠ]

Articles that swear at rookies, articles that compliment their appearance, and articles that criticize the song as good or bad or sarcastically have been posted as popular posts

Hyung,

your expression doesn’t look good.”

“…”

Liu Cheng-wu spoke as if he were reading aloud

. “It’s becoming a hot topic. This group.”

“…!”

“This type of controversy is the kind that can be pushed away when fans become attached to it over time. If the song and choreography are good, it’s better to click one more time unconditionally.” ”

And

then That’s right. That

‘s right

. This is just… These guys’ buzz has increased significantly.

Viral marketing.

‘X-shot’

At the same time, I felt intuition:

“They must have been aiming for this time as well.”

“Now?

” ….”

I looked up, my eyes closed. Big Sejin, the main parent, smiled bitterly and opened his mouth.

“When we are at our worst with T1… You mean?”

“… … .”

“There’s no way people in the industry didn’t know about that carda when we were struggling to become independent for a while. If you heard then… Is it almost unconditional?”

That’s the answer.

“… … that’s right.”

“… … !”

The members’ expressions changed when they understood that.

“Then we… I’m going to debut when I’m not getting along with T1… … .”

“okay.”

This is the time when Testa is weakest.

When a broadcasting station affiliate, which was firmly connected, was just abandoned, and it was easy to create a sense of distance from the public and the frequency of exposure decreased.

When it is difficult to respond to a rising star.

“Right now, we are in a state where we can’t schedule anything related to T1. Whether it’s broadcasting or WeTube.”

but.

If you are a rookie from Wonder Hall, a large agency that has already developed a close relationship with all broadcasting companies.

“But they can go anywhere.”

Chapter 470

If you don’t debut, you’ll die if you don’t debut Episode 470

Testa’s ‘benchmarking’ rookie Eter, who was a newcomer to a large agency, successfully raised the volume of buzz, and then slowly began marketing.

From this point on, it was easy to predict.

‘If it’s me… Once the plate is trimmed once.’

First of all, I lit it up to attract attention, so I need to give it a basis for capturing its image.

– There is also a producer who was famous in MS Enter in the Ether planning team. They said that all of their lines went

. As soon as I do it, they grab my hair in all directions. These guys are really dirty… ㄴ

I suck ?

Bom

The story of how great the dedicated team of this group is and what process Eter went through to become a group is being secretly revealed. -Crazy Iter said that there were only 30 members in the debut group for the last 5 months

It was a perfect combination of 5 people. If there is no humane narrative of each member that can be made into a song, it would rather emphasize the commerciality.

‘Is it a luxury image?’

It is just one group created by beating capital and manpower in large corporations.

The image of a high-end, up-to-date model certainly worked.

Although they did attract aggro to the fans of other younger idol groups who suddenly became popular.

However, even that deliberately highlighted the level of curse and criticism that was so extreme that it was frowned upon, and reversed sympathy.

-Is it good to manipulate the number of recommendations like this and raise it

? -What’s wrong with the kids who just debuted ?

ㄴAs if it was because of bastards like you,

there was no such thing as shit, but it wouldn’t matter if some people were repulsed or not. This is because the differentiation strategy was already working well.

-But the real Wonder Hall is Wonder Hall.. I changed my route from entertainment idol T-Holic, but it’s not clumsy at all and it

really

smells like money. It would be nice if more came out, there are more things to enjoy, but Testa fans' reaction was scary ㅠ

'… It's only possible because the album was chosen well in the first place.'

Didn't you absorb various 'references' all the time?

The rookie group, whose three beats of the song's choreography and MV matched, rose resiliently with the help of capital and a large agency.

[Go gogogo yes Go!]

The concept of the choreography challenge in tic tac tok was well grasped.

A filter dedicated to Eter that changed the boss monster in the music video to look like it was drawn with crayons on purpose.

Performing choreographed gestures like shooting the monster with exquisite timing was quite popular among teenagers who play tic-tac-tock.

-I never dreamed that I would bring the genealogy of conceptual male idols to Wonder Hall…

-Wow, it's fun

-Are you finally going to have a generational change

? is it alba?

Anticipation, sarcasm, antipathy, crush… .

That's how Ether succeeded in becoming a hot potato in the idol version at this moment.

Of course, the idol version, especially the male idol version, had a bit of a distance from the public as the target audience moved abroad a lot, but… .

‘It doesn’t matter if it’s a typhoon in a teacup.’

The setting is finished here.

Didn’t you come up with a phrase to introduce it to the public?

[Wonder Hall’s monster rookie. Shooting choreography challenge is hot. WeTube views explode.]

A few keywords were caught.

It starts from then on when it becomes clear what kind of image to consume and illuminate this group with ‘why’ when appearing in variety shows.

public exposure.

[Today’s guest… My God, my God!]

[I thought I was catching the boss, but I actually shot my heart? Our shining supernatural power idols, we have Wonder Hall’s rookie group, ‘Eter’!] [

Waaaaaaaaaaa!]

“Um… Ding dong deng karaoke is coming.”

“Boo.”

“We even signed up to go out again a few months ago, but it really does happen like this~”

Some of the most popular variety shows.

And T-Holic appeared on a variety show hosted by himself and showed a fresh rookie look a few times.

It didn’t come out too much.

Pick and choose among the ones that can come out, and only three or four with the highest rank.

Besides, like a rookie, his slightly awkward yet stiff and polite attitude wasn't that explosively fun, but… .

Also, the image is imprinted.

'Successful debut at a large agency!'

-The T-Holic bus is really coming along

-As expected, debuting in a large group seems to be the answer

-Still, the kids are nice and look good. All the dance members are handsome . started to get in.

'Ah T-Holic junior? I've heard the name at least once.'

'Don't they just do weird concepts? These days, all idols are like that. But look what's popular with them these days.'

I took this position… It was a clever hit and run.

"… … ."

I came to my conclusion after skimming through the articles for press play related to the 'successful Ether debut'.

That side succeeded in hardening the plate.

'Now, while promoting this achievement overseas, I'm going to suck up the global KPOP fandom.'

If you take the standard course, you will definitely be.

In this edition, the meticulous planning of a large entertainment company with thick bones was neatly done based on the basics that sucked Testa's bone marrow.

Ah, the timing was good when Testa was at his weakest, and he slapped him in the back of the head.

And at this moment, we who suffered it… .

“It’s time to finish our activities soon.”

“yes.”

Well, I didn’t really react.

At the end of our 3-week schedule in Korea, we are finishing our group activities to promote our album as scheduled.

Why?

Well, it was impossible to hold more group activities to check that rookie group right away. I still squeezed it out as much as possible.

no, in the first place

‘It’s stupid to react.’

We had to go with the tone of ignoring it as much as possible.

‘Now, no matter what they do, that group will only become a topic.’

As long as the other side is the challenger, the underdog, and the rookie rising… This is a natural line.

No matter what gesture Testa shows, isn’t it too good for the other side to frame public opinion and build an image?

‘Perhaps, in fact, there was something that he wished for.’

You might have thought that since we have strong artist influence over the new agency, we might do something about it.

Or maybe he wanted Testa to leave a meaningful message because he was pissed off.

Because we kept our mouths shut, it ended to the point of ‘Ether left a mark on a successful debut’.

That was right.

Of course X feet… .

‘It’s not like I’m not offended though.’

Even yesterday, Big Sejin went to boxing instead of Pilates.

Maybe he didn’t want to grind something else instead of a punching bag.

‘anyway… .’

So, for Testa, who chose the meta of waiting quietly, all that was left now was the extension of the individual activities he had originally planned.

For example, the guys who appeared in the entertainment series.

“Um, Ahyeon is still fishing, right?”

“yes… !”

Oh, by the way, Seon Ah-Hyun surprisingly decided to do a fishing program on a boat.

It’s even quite a wild concept, so it feels close to ‘survival’ content with limited supplies… .

“Isn’t it hard?”

“Everyone is so kind… I’m learning hard… !”

“Ugh. okay.”

Seon Ah-hyun has good stamina and has no fear of the original body, so it seems that she was unexpectedly suited… … .

‘In the first place, he was a guy with a glass mentality only in his peer relationships.’

As a result, it seems that he made a good impression on the middle-aged by doing things without blinking an eye, such as catching insects with his bare hands or diving naked.

-What’s going on with the deer?

┗ Review of watching 3 episodes in a row: I’ll correct it. It’s not stupid, it’s a crazy steel mentality

Certainly, Seon Ah-hyun, who rides a boat all day and doesn’t change a single color of her face, seemed like a role in a drama.

‘I don’t even get motion sickness.’

Haha, it must be funny to see a guy who practiced spinning in the air every day in middle and high school get seasick.

Anyway, that means that apart from the rookie group, Testa’s individual activities are successful.

“Ah, Sejin hyung is filming a drama this afternoon too!”

“Oh!”

“Hwa fighting… !”

“… Hmm thank you.”

Bae Se-jin is also in the state of officially filming now.

Cha Yoo-jin, who finished filming her personal schedule first, asked Bae Se-jin, who was holding the script, questioning himself.

“Hyung, do you like filming?”

“That’s fine.”

“The part hyung’s role is fun? What kind of person are you?”

“uh… The main character’s friend.”

Bae Se-jin drew the script and answered bluntly. Was it because she was worried that Cha Yu-jin would tear the script?

“There are many kinds of friends! But in my opinion, if you are not the best friend, your part is small. Or are you your worst friend?”

“… It’s not both, but in that short amount of time, the two of them make a deep connection.”

Bae Se-jin said as hard as he could.

By the way, the reason for doing that was explained the day after the first meeting.

-excuse me… I have a contract!

– Wow!

The guy who proudly raised his fist was frozen at the next question.

-ah! What role did you take on?

-… … .

-brother?

– Because you have that confidentiality agreement? It's hard to tell the exact role! It's not that I don't believe you, but there might be someone eavesdropping, so just in case… !

– Calm down, Sejin-ah, I understand.

I'm leaving it as it is.

And with a serious face, Bae Se-jin continued to give a euphemistic explanation to Cha Yu-jin.

"And the supporting role is a supporting role, but it is impressive… There are scenes that are impressive in many ways. Pretty good."

"Umm."

"… Give the main character an opportunity to awaken! That's it!"

For your reference, from the point of view of reading the original webtoon, I can think of a few candidates. Although each of them is a role that dies in the middle of the season.

'That's why he cares so much about the confidentiality clause.'

"OK. It's okay if you're good."

"okay!"

Cha Yoo-jin shrugged and Bae Se-jin hurriedly covered the script and turned his head.

"But more than that… Are you leaving those guys alone? The one we follow… !"

"hmm… … ."

It's clear that he's changing the topic, but should we move on?

"For now, we just let it go because that person wants us to react."

“okay. I get that… It can’t be like this anymore.”

“brother… … .”

“Well, I agree with you too!”

“… !”

Bae Se-jin looked back with slightly surprised eyes.

After washing, Sejin sat down on the table.

“There, maybe during the next comeback, if you think, ‘Oh, it’s less topical than I thought’, you’ll hang on to the testa~? Even if I intentionally overlap schedules.”

Bae Se-jin was serious. But Big Sejin laughed.

“Ah~ but we already know everything, what! You can start preparing now.”

And he looked back at me.

“Isn’t it Moondaemundae?”

yes.

I looked down at my smartphone.

-Spacer Kwon Hee-seung: Moondae hyung! haha Testa seniors, congratulations on becoming a legend again with this activity!!

-Spacer Kwon Hee-seung: We want to make a comeback quickly, so we are preparing hard! ㅠㅠ

Spacer.

Just like the last time Mirinae was put up with Youngrin’s newcomer… The spacer was also thinking of raising the weight class on purpose and linking it with the other side.

‘I’ll have to do some positioning.’

I quickly finished my thoughts while checking the spacer’s profile.

And even if that wasn’t the case, I was thinking of meeting Kwon Hee-seung once.

Actually, while Testa released this album… It’s because the company has finally achieved results.

[‘Testa (★★★★★)’s Album: ‘Released!]

Domestic promotion has yet to be completed and tours are not going around. The notation is this much, but the important thing is elsewhere.

As soon as grades and income were captured, they were immediately reflected in the company’s ratings.

Successful promotion!

It was quick.

As much as that, a lot of things have changed and been given as rewards, but the most important thing is this pop-up.

Chapter 471

If I can't debut, I'll get sick to death. Episode 471

The meeting with the spacer happened quickly the next day.

To be precise, I met Kwon Hee-seung, who came out as the representative of Spacer, in a conference room.

"Oh, Heeseung~ How long has it been since this!"

"Oh my brother!"

I sat down, watching Keun Se-jin and Kwon Hee-seung, who were in mischief.

Then, as if imitating me, a guy pushed the chair next to me and sat down.

It is Cha Yoo-jin.

The boy groaned and crossed his arms.

"Do you want to eat lunch after?"

no why did you follow me

"If you're hungry, why don't you just stay at the dorm?"

"I'm bored. I don't have a schedule."

"hmm."

I guess so.

This is because Cha Yoo-jin's personal schedule ended exceptionally quickly.

just… I drove and filmed for 3 nights and 4 days.

As for how that was possible, what he chose… .

[Camping Diary: Our Story Grows]

… … Because this is it.

They gather problem children with a story and camp, and a celebrity appears as a camp instructor to listen to their circumstances and grow mentally together… It's an airwave entertainment show.

You might have guessed it roughly, but this is the program that reacted when it was first launched.

-I'm not curious about the circumstances of them

. -At that time, give the victims of school violence more chances.

-Celebrities aren't experts, they're healing instructors hahahahahahahaha I just… have nothing to say

. Kya double washing haha

Who planned it

Of course, when I opened the lid, it was just lukewarm general entertainment, so it withered away and settled down.

– You say you're a problem child, but it doesn't seem that serious? Iljin These are kids who just need counseling

– If you look closely, half of the situation will be a ruse. Already, shopping mall operators and aspiring actors have been revealed.

But did you hear that Cha Yoo-jin is appearing on a program like this?

– What are you going to do?

-Just go to Waterbomb or come out

. -Cha Goyoung is nice, but he’s a Cali guy, so he’s positive. Isn’t he just swearing at me?

However, on the day of the broadcast.

-Participant: Huh, Yujin Cha!

-Participant: Are you Testa Yoojin Cha? that’s right? Hey, can you see here? Yoojin Cha!

-Cha Yujin: … … .

-Cha Yoo-jin: I don’t call this instructor that way.

-????

Cha Yoo-jin, who uses a military tone, appeared.

no one expected

Of course, if I used a clumsy tone like that, you might think that it would be awkward and look more condescending, but… .

-Participant: Hey, we must do something like rock climbing… .

-Cha Yoo-jin: We do not ask questions until the end.

-Participant: (sucking)

Nom, who has already experienced military entertainment in the system virtual world, even used idioms skillfully… .

– What the hell is this

Taking advantage of that gap, Cha Yoo-jin began to dominate teenagers in their late teens like a ghost.

After the first impact, he listened to me like a ghost, took care of me, and made me stick to him at the timing when I needed to release him gently.

-Why does he speak like an instructor but have the attitude of an American camp instructor ?

-Cha Yoo-jin is funny and warm-hearted…

He went back and forth between seriousness and dealt with all possible image controversies.

And with an old airwave style subtitle called ‘Tanaka Instructor’, he made a meme and got a great value for money… .

‘I don’t think I calculated it.’

The fact that it didn’t seem like that was the bigger guy. I remembered what he said when I picked this one.

-I have experience now.

“… … .”

And now he is nodding his head with a sullen face beside me.

“And I have the right to hear this conversation myself. I am a member of that team.”

OK.

He had a good sense of humor, so I didn’t know if he would come up with a good opinion with his instant judgment. I decided to refer to Cha Yu-jin’s remarks.

And only then, after the greeting, Keun Se-jin and Kwon Hee-seung happily sat down in the conference room chairs.

Kwon Hee-seung’s eyes lit up.

“Wow, then is Moondae hyung producing our spacer? Hey!”

okay. I called it that story.

“Check before that.”

“… yes?”

I put on a pod.

“Can you believe it?”

“… !”

“Even though we are in the same agency, you know that we are competitors after all. However, I wonder if I will unconditionally win and win with Spacer and come up with a plan that will only be good.”

“… … .”

Gold 2 Kwon Hee-seung kept his mouth shut.

‘also.’

Unless you’re an idiot, you’d have doubts.

The three testers waited slowly for an answer without urging them.

And after a short silence.

The guy… smiled shyly.

“Oh no?”

“… !”

“But, isn’t there anyone who doesn’t do that, brother?”

Kwon Hee-seung laughed.

a little… It seemed liberating.

“Even when we were at T1… I don’t think all the employees planned it in a way that benefits the company. So, in the first place, we never received a plan that was only good for us… .”

The boy muttered, then gave a thumbs up.

“Isn’t that what society is all about! We do it for mutual benefit!”

“… … Is that so?”

“Yes!”

indeed.

As soon as he returns to the past, he recognizes reality like a guy who made money from stocks.

“And seeing my brother say this, I rather like it, right? What is this plan dangerous for us and good for you, are you telling us all these things?”

“It should be.”

It is neat to make the person himself okay even after announcing it, rather than having to keep his mouth shut.

I told you everything, but did you choose? Can't you say something else about this later?

'Though it's like an insurance policy.'

It was a time when I was thinking a little bit bitterly.

"and."

"… ?"

Why do you even sigh in admiration?

"after… Hyung, that's the conscience of the top 1% in the world, right? Be proud of yourself!"

"… … ."

"Wow bro what… Aren't you actually a saint while pretending not to be real?"

"Right, isn't Mundae a bit like that?"

no.

"So. Hyung doesn't actually benefit from it, but he cares about that while helping our group… ."

So this company is my system… no let's stop

I pressed my temple and opened my mouth.

"… Anyway, let's start talking."

"Great!"

Kwon Hee-seung nodded. Expectations and tensions were revealed on his face as to what strategy would come out.

Big Sejin opened his mouth with a friendly smile.

“Heeseung~ You know the wonder hole rookie group that debuted this time, right? Ether!”

“Nep.”

Kwon Hee-seung seemed to be aware of the controversy involved, and various expectations briefly passed on his face… .

It was bleached at the end of the next.

“They will be of great help to our spacer promotion!”

“… ?!”

Exactly, it means to make it give.

* * *

And after a few tens of minutes.

“… … .”

Kwon Hee-seung, who was sitting in the conference room blankly as if he had been hit by a storm, had no focus on his eyes.

It must have been quite a shock.

“It’s okay if you give me an answer after thinking about it.”

“no… That”

Kwon Hee-seung swallowed.

“Will this be?!”

“I talked about it because it worked.”

“That’s right… … . You can tell my brother.”

so far?

Kwon Hee-seung started looking down at the meeting room table with a serious face this time.

By the time I wondered if this guy was almost counting patterns.

drooling.

“Oh, call me for a second.”

“okay.”

Kwon Hee-seung’s smartphone rang, and he got up, closed the door, and left the conference room.

Took.

“… … .”

After a brief silence.

I opened my mouth.

“Did you call yourself?”

“no. I think it’s true that you’re here.”

“hmm.”

I thought you were trying to discuss it with the members right away.

In fact, I was going to call a few more spacer members, but Kwon Hee-seung himself said that he would come alone for now, which was surprising.

“Is that person the leader?”

“Spacer? There is no leader system there, but Hee-seung is number one and he plays a big role because he is the center.”

“Oh.”

why are you looking at me you are the center

Anyway, I knocked on the table in the conference room for a while and got up just in time.

At this point, it must be time for him to end the call as well.

“I’m going to the bathroom for a minute too.”

“okay.”

I cautiously left the meeting room to talk with Kwon Hee-seung.

Took.

However, the moment I closed the door, I realized that Kwon Hee-seung’s voice was echoing in the aisle.

The guy was still on the phone.

“Ah ah! Oh, we really like this song. really believe it! Hyung, you really have a talent for composing, so why worry!”

“… … .”

“If the promotion goes well, it will rise to the charts, right? Now that the company is good, we will do better. … … uh uh Fighting for work.”

The guy said that as if to tell him and then ended the call.

And with a short sigh… Our eyes met.

“Uh hmm. Brother.”

He looked flustered.

‘… after.’

“sorry. I didn’t mean to listen.”

“I thought so… . Hmmmm.”

Kwon Hee-seung, perhaps a little embarrassed, dragged his words in an unresponsive manner.

‘shit.’

I held my breath and opened my mouth again.

“… The team atmosphere seems to be good.”

“It is.”

Kwon Hee-seung leaned against the wall and sighed.

“But honestly… Aren’t there only people who work hard like the hyungs? < Azusa > I think our season was a really unique season.”

“… … .”

Having caught up on a slightly embarrassing conversation, the guy decided to say something out of the blue, or he inadvertently went on to say the following.

“Well, so I also imagined what it would have been like if I had debuted then… . Anyway, you made it to the end, me too.”

ah.

I realized what this guy was thinking about at the moment when he said this.

It’s not just the finale as a whole.

‘The name of the last member is called.’

My number 1 perk.

-Park Moon University participants can nominate one of the 14 participants who came up together until the final ranking announcement as a team member to debut together with the authority of 1st place!

And I… The choice was left to the viewer.

To eliminate the aftermath as much as possible.

– The contestant I chose is… This is the 7th place participant chosen by shareholders.

But in fact, among the remaining contestants who were not called as testa members, he was the one who had the deepest friendship with me as a team member.

gold 2. Kwon Hee-seung.

There’s no way he wasn’t expecting that on the spot.

If it’s already more than 5 years later, I can still think of it.

‘Besides, Testa didn’t usually do well.’

But the boy’s conversation did not flow into lamentation.

“But the more I imagined it, the more I realized it. I still think my team is good. uh… Jeong gets too involved.”

“… … .”

“The hyung I talked to earlier doesn’t have much confidence, but he’s a very interesting person, right? I also make good songs… But these days, our music scores aren’t that good.”

Spacers are objectively well-established groups.

Popularity gradually declined right after the survival, and the music score also declined. However, album sales gradually increased and overseas popularity was stably secured.

However, people tend to compare everything relatively, and who would be the most comfortable to compare a spacer to?

‘Testaji.’

You wouldn’t have heard a comparison like that once or twice from a company where they’re not very good at what they do.

But the guy in front of me shrugged his shoulders and said:

“So please take care of me brother! I’ll have to listen to the opinions of the other members and say it again, but… First of all, I came to the conclusion that I want to try it unconditionally!”

“… … .”

“We have to prove once again that our spacers are still a group with a great future!”

“… okay.”

“You only live once! no we are that… Hmmmm, one more chance, anyway.”

“… … .”

I chuckled. Then he turned his gaze away from Kwon Hee-seung, who was winking.

The pop-up that had been floating since the moment we met was still visible.

[Reconfirm the owner of ‘■■■ Fragment’]

Do you want to absorb '■■■ Fragment (1 / 4)' into 'Company Use'?

※It takes a certain amount of time.

"… … ."

Well, it's a plan to use that guy to get rid of that rookie group anyway.

I was going to upgrade the function of the company's system as well, but I don't think there's a need to clear the debt by directly telling him everything about mission failure.

therefore… There's nothing wrong with this either.

I quietly responded to the status window without saying a word.

'okay.'

Then the pop-up started to glow.

"… … !"

"Then shall we go into the conference room soon?"

He didn't react much to Kwon Hee-seung, as if he couldn't see it… A halo of light extending from the pop-up wrapped around Kwon Hee-seung.

And it was the moment when it gently returned to the pop-up again.

['■■■ Fragments (1 / 4)' recovered!]

The contents of the pop-up seemed to change like that, and soon all the pop-ups disappeared and a new pop-up with very simple lines appeared.

[Updating 'Company']

'Is this the end?'

I thought there would be some kind of reaction in my body, but it didn't seem like that.

Instead, it was the moment I tried to take a closer look at the pop-up.

bang!

"… !!"

"What is it?"

Suddenly the door to the conference room opened.

The one who opened the door was Sejin with a white face.

cried the guy.

"Call someone!"

what?

"Eugene is down. Call someone!"

"… !!"

I immediately looked inside the conference room.

There, I saw Cha Yoo-jin, who had collapsed under a chair.

"… … ."

why?

"Park Moondae!"

"uh."

I immediately moved my feet. The quickest thing to do is to call the company and go to the emergency room.

But as I ran, I thought.

What the fuck is this?

Next to it, the system window did not disappear and continued to follow.

Chapter 472

Episode 472

Cha Yoo-jin, who collapsed in the conference room, was quickly transported to the emergency room.

“Cha Yoo-jin? Eugene!”

“Can you hear me?”

“… … .”

Cha Yoo-jin did not move the whole time in the car.

There is no reaction from the whole body, which was normally full of vitality and energy to the ends of the extremities.

It was like a thing.

It was strange.

“How did this happen?!”

“… I just suddenly collapsed… There were no other symptoms. at all.”

Originally, all the X-like things in my life suddenly happen.

What kind of analysis and countermeasures do you mean by someone who freezes to death? Even if I tried to prepare with energy, it was useless when the situation eventually shuts up… .

‘no.’

I pressed my thighs.

I haven't even tested properly yet, but I'm already doing well. X feet.

Let's do something productive.

'From the symptoms.'

I reached out my hand to Cha Yu-jin's face. And I checked the guy's breathing and heart rate.

"… … ."

"Park Moondae?"

I exhaled.

"… Breathing seems stable."

"ah… !"

I'm no expert, but at least I didn't gasp or my heart rate was too jumpy or shallow.

At that moment, Keun Se-jin kneaded his limbs and started checking right away.

"I don't think the complexion is too bad. You look a little pale, but your body temperature seems to be fine, right?"

"uh."

The body temperature isn't too noticeably low either. At least that's how I feel.

The manager who was driving muttered frantically, as if he had heard us.

"Then it could be something like that Mijoo… Whatever it was, fainting."

ah.

“Vagus syncope.”

“ah! yes that… .”

“… … .”

It is mostly caused by extreme stress or tension.

And the reason I know this… It is the same reason why the employees of this company know this.

“There are quite a few among idols. Because it’s the active period, the testers can be like that too. The company has just moved and the environment has changed… .”

“… … .”

okay. It is true that we are in a complicated situation in many ways.

but.

‘Cha Yoo-jin?’

The one who laughed alone when everyone else was dead in the negative vote of ‘Azusa’ and took care of his mentality even when he was criticized for rumors of violence on camera?

‘Such Cha Yoo-jin felt ‘extreme stress and tension’ to such an extent that he lost his mind… .’

No, is this the face of a fainting person in the first place?

‘Asleep… I guess.’

I looked back at the expressionless calm face of Cha Yu-jin, who was breathing lightly.

No matter how you think about it, it’s unnatural.

“… ! As soon as I arrived at the hospital… .”

“yes!”

The car, which ran like crazy, secretly arrived at the emergency room near the company shortly after, and Cha Yu-jin was immediately taken to the hospital.

Big Sejin murmured in a low voice as he chased them into the hospital with the employees who came out of the company vehicle that followed.

“Calling the other kids… Let’s do it in a little while.”

“… … .”

It means to do it after the test results come out.

“It might not be a big deal. No, I think so.”

“okay.”

However, I had no idea what the outcome would turn out to be.

Because Cha Yoo-jin collapsed without any warning.

But I still don’t know what’s strange!

‘… X feet.’

I stood up against the wall and began to mull over this f*cking unnatural situation.

But something more unnatural was waiting next.

* * *

“The results came out, but the state of temporary loss of consciousness… It sounds like it.”

“yes?”

“In this case, it is usually said that it is just stressful, but it is possible to check the brain more to be accurate, but… First of all, they said there was no other abnormality in the tests you did now.”

“… … .”

It was said in reverse, but in the end it meant the same thing.

Cause unknown at this time.

“Anyway, you said you’d be back in consciousness soon!”

“Whew.”

“Yes, thank you.”

Still, it was fortunate that things didn’t seem to be the worst.

So far, let’s say we’re going to do some more testing.

The problem was then.

“I guess I should contact the members now.”

“… okay.”

Me and Keun Se-jin were thinking of telling the members about Cha Yoo-jin’s current condition. Because it seemed like it would be better than hearing it from a company person.

But that’s what I learned along the way.

“… Did your brother do the same?”

Most of the other members I contacted had milder but similar symptoms.

-No, I didn't completely collapse, but I suffered from dizziness… I stopped filming for a while. More than that, Cha Yoo-jin!?

-… … I thought I just fell asleep in the car, but maybe I wasn't. Looking at it now, I'm sure I wasn't sleepy.

-I thought it was a side effect of overdosing on caffeine drinks recently… . I don't know. I am… I'm going to the hospital right away!

'what's this.'

I left a message so as not to disturb Seon Ah-hyun, who is still filming fishing on a boat, so I couldn't confirm it, but there were already three of them.

I faced Sejin with a serious face.

"You"

"I was fine. What about you?"

"me too."

But when it gets to this point, it becomes a different problem.

"They say it could be food poisoning or an infection-related problem, so let's check it out."

We had a comprehensive examination before the other members came.

"Brothers!"

"Rabin."

And even Kim Rae-bin, who came running with an expression as if she was going to cry right away, was also tested.

But for all of us, the results were clean.

“… There is no need to call the members who are on schedule right away.”

“… … .”

There was nothing that leaked out to the media either.

That’s because Cha Yoo-jin didn’t have an accident or get sick in the first place.

Literally just suddenly ‘lost his mind’.

“… … .”

“That brother. this.”

I raised my head at the sound of the call.

Kim Rae-bin had a black envelope in his hand. The guy took out a drink from there and held it out.

It was a golden red ginseng drink commonly found in convenience stores.

“You might be thinking how hot a drink is in the summer, but since you’ve been sitting in an air-conditioned room for a long time, I thought this would be better… .”

“… thanks.”

I quietly opened the red ginseng honey tea he offered me and drank it.

Then, a strong voice was heard.

“Cha Yoo-jin will be fine. Previously, during my trainee days, I had a conversation about my family history, and I boasted about not having any diseases… .”

“… … .”

It seems to be trying to comfort me.

me really

I smiled faintly.

“okay. As I said before, the doctor also said that Cha Yu-jin would wake up soon. don’t worry too much He’s such a healthy guy.”

“… ! yes… … .”

Kim Rae-bin barely nodded, then quietly sat down next to him and began to sip his drink. I could see the big Sejin patting me on the back.

“… … .”

I leaned against the wall and thought.

okay. Cha Yoo-jin is a healthy guy.

He was considered to be in the top 1% in terms of both body and mind, but he suddenly collapsed without warning… .

‘And, of course, the majority of our group almost fainted at about the same time.’

But no one is saying there are no health problems. Even Cha Yu-jin is like that in the tests so far.

Then, among the remaining possibilities… What is the most suspicious?

‘It’s a supernatural intervention.’

I twisted my head into the air.

[updating ‘for company’]

“… … .”

If you think about it.

Didn’t this happen as soon as I absorbed the ‘Fragment of ■■■’ from Kwon Hee-seung?

And losing your mind like this… .

‘It seems to be similar to the symptoms that appear when I enter the virtual world created by the system.’

I still remember it well. The damn status window pop-up that popped up then.

-Enjoy your daydream ?

-Enjoy your reality ?

A world of daydreams and systems made with coins.

Of course, the upper part is closer to the chance that the big moon, which was the status window, made to save me… .

‘for a moment.’

I realized at that moment that I had found someone to ask about this situation.

‘The big moon.’

The person who created the daydream was the person in the status window.

and after a while

[Your brother! What’s going on?]

Fortunately, the answer came back in time.

‘after.’

[Ton hyung, are you in the hospital right now? Didn't you have any problems? ?

[Yeah?!]

I briefly explained what had happened.

Let's skip the pop-up response, which was full of screams and worries, and get to the point… .

'That's why I wonder if Cha Yoo-jin's consciousness is caught in the system.'

This is it.

I don't know the principle, but the timing is so exquisite.

And a quick response came back from the pop-up that recognized the seriousness of the situation.

[Let's check the status window right away!]

Yes.

I nodded eagerly.

But after a while.

[That brother. Right now, this status window and the system itself are not moving… .]

The guy brought unexpected news.

'It doesn't move?'

[yes! It seems to have stopped functioning at all… .]

[It says update now, right? And I think it's because it's rebuilding itself. It's because it doesn't work, as if we couldn't use it after updating the app.]

"… … ."

So, does that mean that there is no possibility that Cha Yu-jin's mind is lost somewhere due to the system's operation?

Is it because the system stopped at all?

[Yes!]

And this guy added a hypothesis of his own.

[I'd rather have some kind of error in the update process if it's really related.]

But that means, in other words, that Testa is affected by updating this 'for the company' thing.

In other words, it can sound like a very bad meaning.

'… Are you treating Testa as part of the company's system?'

[Rather than that… The only thing this system has dealt with so far is the testa album, so I wonder if they unilaterally gave it too much meaning… .]

"… … ."

no wonder… I'm feeling a bit bloated.

[Anyway, I didn't find anything particularly strange, hyung!]

'Yes.'

then… It's really not a big deal, so I'm glad I did.

'Thank you anyway. I'll call you when you wake up.'

[yes! Don’t worry too much ?

And I asked with a sigh.

Just in case the answer comes back.

‘How long will it take?’

Surprisingly, something popped up.

[※Use is restricted during update.]

‘X feet.’

It’s a story you know.

‘Are you just telling me to wait forever?’

I was thinking of pulling out this damn system as soon as the update was over, if it was really related to Cha Yu-jin’s stretch throughout the update.

“Guys. Chungwoo-hyung said he was coming right after his schedule was over and… .”

“… … Ugh”

Sejin’s words stopped.

And the sound that stopped him didn’t come from me or Rabin Kim.

It came out of a hospital bed.

“… !!”

“Cha Yujin… !”

We woke up right away.

“A company, not a doctor… !”

“wait!”

Big Sejin, who was standing near the door, quickly ran out to call someone. And Kim Rabin and I immediately went to bed.

there… .

Cha Yu-jin, frowning, twisted her body sideways.

will wake up

“Cha Yoo-jin!”

Cha Yoo-jin, who had been wriggling, mumbled while sweeping his face with his hands as if crushing them.

[Goddamn headache… .]

“… … .”

english?

“Are you very sick?”

At that moment, Cha Yu-jin stopped moving.

And when he lowered his hand, his raw eyes were revealed.

Their eyes met piercingly.

[korean? I don’t remember calling 911, but who the hell are you? Bring me here… .]

… what?

However, Cha Yoo-jin took care of herself and looked away and recognized someone else.

“Rabin?”

“Cha Cha Yoo-jin! Are you okay?”

However, the guy looked flustered this time as well.

“Why are you in America, Rabin Kim?”

“… … .”

“What are you talking about! This is Korea!”

“korea? [You think I’ve been kidnapped by some kind of international… .] … Wait, Raebin Kim, did someone give you brownies or something? A chocolate chip cookie?”

“What are you talking about?!”

Kim Rae-bin is in confusion!

And at that moment, Cha Yoo-jin muttered a few words of primary English swearing in her mouth and sighed.

And muttering to himself again.

“ah… it’s okay. [Once. It’s okay as long as you take medicine before going back to Korea. We’re not a KPOP boy band anymore anyway.]”

At this point, Kim Rae-bin was terrified.

He shouted as he grabbed my arm.

“Moondae hyung. Cha Yoo-jin is strange!”

I know.

“The strange one is Kim Raebin.”

However, Cha Yu-jin responded sternly, as if dealing with a person who had actually taken medicine.

Then he turned to me and shook the back of his head.

[Could you please… ‘Mundae hyung’? Why did you bring Kim Rae-bin and me to the hospital without knowing why?]

And Cha Yu-jin laughed.

“thank you.”

“… … .”

“Well, you won’t speak to Korea, will you? [Since the steer is over anyway.]”

At that moment, I recognized who ‘Cha Yu-jin’ was sitting here.

– Steer.

Steer, not Testa.

It was the name of the group that originally debuted in < Azusa > before I participated in < Azusa > as Mundae Park.

‘… X feet.’

And in the air next to the face of ‘Steer Cha Yoo-jin’, the pop-up was renewed.

Chapter 473

Episode 473

Medical staff judged Cha Yoo-jin's condition to be 'stressful delirium'.

Being a celebrity is a job group in the industry that sees all the stars, so there have been several similar cases in the past.

"I couldn't sleep, so when I suddenly woke up, I thought that he was throwing things at me… ."

It was an ambiguous decision that since he had woken up and was in a healthy state on examination, there was a high probability that he would be fine if he rested his mind and body.

"All right. thank you… !"

However, Kim Rae-bin's expression improved a little, as if he were relieved just by the expert's comment on 'previous cases'.

"I'm sorry, but for a moment… ."

And Sejin started another conversation with the medical team separately.

It seemed like he was asking 'what action to take in a situation where Cha Yu-jin would not get better by itself within a few hours'.

Employees are running around beside him, making phone calls, working frantically. Half of them are holding a meeting, and the other half are urgently adjusting their schedules.

'It's a mess.'

And by that point, Cha “Steer” Yoo-jin seemed to have realized the strangeness of the situation.

At least you would have noticed that this is not the United States the moment the medical staff and staff rushed in speaking Korean.

“Moondae, do you want to stay here with Yujin? I think it would be better to share it that way.”

“… okay.”

And from my point of view, strangers are acting like they know me well.

However, this guy didn’t stir up a fuss during the inspection.

-You want to explain about Testa? well.

-Oh… no. i was sleeping

I just gave an appropriate answer to the question in a non-cooperative manner.

‘Am I examining the situation?’

It was then.

bang!

“Guys!”

“… !”

The one who hurriedly opened the door and appeared was another member who was on schedule.

However, it was not Ryu Cheong-woo, who was predicted by Se-jin to come soon.

“Sejin hyung!”

Bae Se-jin was panting.

The guy who ran with all his might, grabbing his breath by holding the doorknob, had a flushed face.

“Char… The filming ended early, so I came back once… Cha Yoo-jin woke up?!”

“yes!”

It seemed that he came right away after being in a state of panic and contact at the moment it ended. The guy greeted Kim Rae-bin and strode towards Cha Yu-jin.

‘I thought Ryu Cheng-wu would come first.’

It seems that Sejin Bae arrived first because the filming location was close… .

wait for a sec.

‘… Sejin Bae?’

I suddenly realized something.

I < Relist! The life before that, which did not enter the body of Park Moon-dae, who did not participate in Idol Co., Ltd. At that time... Sejin Bae also debuted as Steer and was active. briefly. - Lee Se-jin from 'Idol Co., Ltd.' was arrested for drug distribution. “… … .” Until I was on the 9 o'clock news as a drug supply... I mean. Of course, it is also true that Steer's activities did not go smoothly from the beginning due to issues with his agency and fandom. However, it was clear to anyone that the drug news was the starting point of a fatal twist in Steer's career. “… … .” And sitting in the hospital room right now... … . “Oh.” … If it's Cha Yoo-jin from 'Steer'. 'X feet.' I immediately moved closer to the bed. I heard Sejin Bae anxiously ask a question from a distance away from me. “Are you okay?” Cha Yoo-jin did not answer. He just stared at Bae Se-jin as if he had seen something out of the ordinary in an unexpected place. And he opened his mouth. “Lee Se-jin?” “… !? Hey, hey, why me... … .” [I think you guys picked the wrong person, but really, I'm a drug addict... … .] “… !” Damn this. [Shut up.] I hurriedly lowered my voice to 'Cha Yoo-jin' and whispered, then approached Bae Se-jin. “I just woke up, so my condition is a bit strange. He said he was in America.” “That’s right!” Rabin Kim vehemently agreed. "ah! We even talked about brownies and chocolate chip cookies! Did refraining from snacking during the active period be the cause of the stress?” That's not it. Unfortunately, Bae Se-jin's eyes became serious. “Is that so? … ah! There's a bakery right in front of you! I’ll buy it, so wait!” “… ! indeed! I will come too!” And the two of them started to leave the hospital room. It was poised to sweep away the brownies and cookies. thud! “… … .” rather fortunate 'after.' I stared at the closed door, held back a sigh, and sat in the caretaker's chair. The situation is unmanageable. 'still… I'll start with the conversation.' It was quiet at the time, so I thought it would be good now. however… The problem is that I wasn't the only one who was looking at the timing like that. Outside the hospital room where everyone is busy with their own work. And inside the hospital room, which became quiet as people left. The guy looked at the situation... At the moment when attention is distracted, it is to act. "hey. Umm 'Mundae hyung'?” “… … .” I turned my head. 'Steer Cha Yoo-jin', who remembered my title that Kim Rae-bin sang and put it to good use, opened her mouth as she was sitting in the hospital bed. [You know what crazy things are going on here?] “… … .” [I don't know if I'm eating a special brownie and watching some kind of funny KPOP hallucination.] He pointed his finger at his hair. blond hair. [I don't dye my hair anymore.] It was that moment. The guy stretched out his hand. Then he grabbed me by the shoulder and suddenly thrust his head quite forcefully into it. “… !” [And you recognized me. Whenever I say 'steer' or 'drug boy', you recognize me.] “… … .” Cha Yoo-jin did not release his hand from my shoulder. Then, with the same eye contact, the other hand slowly tapped the forearm next to the shoulder. [I don't know what the goddamn "Testa" is, but if this is some kind of Prank show, you'd better be prepared to get sued. Because I don't remember signing.] “… … .” after. I took a deep breath. It was complicated. 'This... I can't start grinding once.' Given the circumstances, I am not angry. 'It's just like X... … .' I endured the headache and opened my mouth. "first." [Hmm?] “As a member of a disbanded KPOP group, is there anyone who would do that in America?” “… !!” “And you didn’t take the medicine. I didn't even eat Kim Rae-bin.” I don't know why in the United States they put medicine in normal brownies. 'Cha Yoo-jin's eyes widened slightly. The moment the grip on my shoulder loosened slightly, I roughly removed his hand. “But one of your statements is true.” “What?” “Something crazy happened.” “… huh?” I threw the fool's hand back onto the bed. It was the greatest kindness I could give. * * * New member. new activity. new development. I briefly summarized the activities of 'Testa', not Steer, to Yujin Cha before returning to the two guys who went to the bakery. Of course, his reaction was as expected. [I think there are three possibilities. Would you like to hear it?] “What.” [You took the medicine or I took the medicine.] “Two things.” [Or both.] Damn it. 'Why did this bastard become a medicinal warrior?' I barely resisted the urge to grab my head. “Why is it all medicine? is it an illusion? Is that a symptom of the drug?” [I heard that it is.] “… … .” I mean, I've never done it myself. Fortunately, it didn't seem to have gone that far. [Then am I crazy? Hey, did you recklessly bring a crazy person to the hospital knowing how much the emergency room costs in the US?] “No.” I pressed my temples and said silently. “Look out the window for now.” “What?” “You can just roll your eyes. Look.” I slightly opened the blinds. And Cha Yoo-jin literally just turned her gaze slightly to check the outside... . “… !” “That’s Korea.” The Korean signboard and the familiar city view outside the window. It was Seoul. He said he was in America now, but he must have been based in Seoul for several years, so you won't be able to recognize him. “Holy… .” drooling. Cha Yu-jin changed her attitude a little after opening the window and confirming the space. [Are you serious?] “Uh.” I guess that means I'm starting to seriously consider the possibility that this might be true. “So we don’t have to worry about hospital bills. Because it's a KPOP boy group. The company will take care of the cost.” “… … .” “You are now in a group called ‘Testa’. We are your members.” [No nonsense.] [No nonsense.] I muttered calmly as I heard footsteps running into the hospital room to see if I had succeeded in purchasing the brownies. “If you only have half a day, you will have no choice but to admit it.” * * * “We are leaving.” "yes!" Cha Yoo-jin, who is in good health and has no symptoms of sudden violent behavior or seizures, left the room. Of course, all schedules for three days had been canceled. “Eugene, is there any uncomfortable place?” "yes. I'm fine.” Cha Yoo-jin responded very calmly to Ryu Cheng-wu, who asked a gentle question from the front seat. But soon, with an uncomfortable expression, he turned his head and mumbled. [A strange world like this X... .] “Horse.” Cha Yoo-jin looked back at me with an expression that looked like 'what right do you have?', but soon answered meekly. “Sorry. It's been a few months since I became free.” “… … .” I remember. The three of them continued their unit activities under the name of Steer until the end. Ryu Cheong-woo, Kim Rae-bin and Cha Yoo-jin. I remembered that even those who worked hard in the group life had no news after the disbandment. And among them, this 'Steer Cha Yoo-jin' seemed to have returned to his home country, the United States, as soon as his activities were over. but… 'Freedom'. 'I didn't really like the idol life.' After all, 'I did my job properly until the end' and 'I liked my job' can't mean the same thing. 'Well, the situation was pretty X-like.' Even though I knew it, the aftertaste was somehow bitter. “This is the house we moved into. If you haven’t been around for a long time and it doesn’t help you stabilize, please tell me!” “OK.” Cha Yoo-jin, who had been silently looking out the window the whole time in the car, did not talk much even after arriving at the dorm. It seemed like he was just checking the appearance of the dorm, even in a rough way. The case was next. “It’s our music video playlist, so I brought it because I thought it might help Cha Yoo-jin come to his senses faster while watching it!” “It’s okay!” “We will see each other after a long time.” That's why I started watching Testa's debut music video 'Magic Boy' continuously. “… … .” Actually, I was a bit worried about whether it was the right way to show this, but... . 'If I don't show it, I don't think this guy will agree.' Cha Yoo-jin doesn't seem like that, but surprisingly, he was an extremely realistic guy. In this situation where you don't have a close relationship, you have to come up with evidence that you can understand, but they will even pretend to cooperate. And sure enough, “… this." “Cha Yoo-jin! Is there anything you want to say about this song?” “How did you do it?” “… ?” - Ah, I'm dizzy~ What he took was... A music video full of the screen with Testa dancing and smiling while wearing a baseball uniform in the school grounds with impressive blue skies. It's a 'high five'. It was originally prepared by the company as the first title song for the < Azusa > debut group.

It was a song that was supposed to come out in an ambiguous disco style that didn’t fit the concept more.

but.

“Originally, the company suggested that we go in a disco style, but we persuaded them by even using a PPT. Let’s go coolly to rock.”

“… … .”

“And Rabin arranged it.”

Cha Yujin silently watched the High Five music video.

And the music video after that.

The moment I finally arrived at ‘Better me’.

“OK, I’ll admit it.”

“… ?”

“Testa.”

Steer Cha Yoo-jin raised his head.

There was something heavy on the face of the guy who pronounced ‘Testa’ in the Korean pronunciation, neither realization nor embarrassment.

shadowy.

“… … ”

… Somehow I didn’t feel very refreshed.

‘Still, I stood at the starting line.’

From now on, take control so that this guy doesn’t act unexpectedly… .

“… ??”

“What is Cha Yu-jin saying right now?”

… Of course, after a little explanation on this side.

* * *

After a few minutes.

“therefore… You mean this Yoo-jin was Yu-jin when he was Geon-wu hyung before he became a Mun-dae? hmm? Is this expression correct?”

“I guess that’s right… oh right.”

Ryu Cheong-woo and Bae Se-jin chatted in confusion.

No matter how much they’ve been through all sorts of things, since this is the first time they’ve been through this, everyone seems to be taken aback.

But at the same time, he seemed relieved.

“… Anyway, Cha Yujin is not sick… Are you happy?”

“That’s how we figured out the cause.”

Kim Rae-bin muttered blankly.

“Still, to hear that you debuted in < Azusa > where Moondae hyung didn’t participate… I don’t have much imagination.”

“That’s right~ I don’t think I could have debuted. Oh, is it okay if I ask who debuted?”

Big Sejin asked.

It seemed that there were pure doubts and attempts to understand Cha Yoo-jin a little.

Cha Yoo-jin smiled and rested her chin on the table.

“… !”

“Even if you hear it, it doesn’t mean much. So I’m not talking. got it?”

The atmosphere instantly froze.

Chapter 474

If you can’t debut, you’ll get a fatal disease Episode

474

Delilin!

There was a sound of hastily pressing the password at the gate, and then a person with tousled hair hurriedly entered the door.

It was Seon Ah-hyun who finally got off work from the fishing boat.

The guy, who must have checked the message one after another that can be summarized as ‘Cha Yu-jin collapsed, woken up, and discharged from the hospital, Hull, Yu-jin’s memory has changed’, clearly seemed to be running in full gasp.

“Guys, I’m here… .”

“… … .”

“… … .”

“There… ?”

“Ahyeon is here.”

“Come on, Ahyeon-ah. A lot of trouble… .”

however.

The atmosphere of the dorm is such a mess that there is nothing strange about blowing soju right away.

It's just that there's no alcohol on the table, and it's like a dog-like ruin that won't stop you even if someone runs out and buys it right away.

There was no separate portrait house.

"Yu Eugene… … ?"

"… … hmm."

Besides, Cha Yoo-jin is not there.

This is because Steer Cha Yoo-jin unilaterally went into the room she was told was her own after finishing her words.

– I have nothing more to say.

'Damn it.'

In a word, get out.

"First of all, Ahyeon, sit down and rest for a bit. I must have been surprised."

"yes yes… ."

After leaving the seat for Seon Ah-hyun, I silently drank the cold water again.

For reference, Yoojin Cha's roommate is… It is still the same as the previous accommodation.

It means Bae Se-jin. X feet.

"30 days… did you say In the meantime, if we do well… It will be."

The guy is nodding his head as if he recognized the seriousness of the situation, but he doesn't know the real problem.

'He knows you're a drug dealer… .'

Bae Se-jin, who has no way to know about his roommate's colossal misunderstanding, seems to be determined to take good care of one of the youngest until his memory returns as the eldest.

"okay. Sejin is right."

not correct. It's good if you don't get caught by the collar.

I pressed my temples.

'… I don't know why he said it was an 'update' and suddenly Cha Yu-jin got a memory from Steer or if Steer Cha Yu-jin went in there.'

Let's plan again.

'First of all, clear up the misunderstanding about Bae Se-jin… .'

… But will he really believe me?

No, in fact, it was a problem even if you believe it.

Doesn't that mean that his group suffered a fatal blow because of false accusations that were not true?

'In the meantime, here again, I'm lucky enough not to become a drug dealer and have to see things work out.'

I didn't know if I'd come out uncooperative because I was worse off by comparison.

'after… .'

I heard Bae Se-jin muttering next to me.

“Maybe it’s obvious.”

“… … .”

“From Cha Yoo-jin’s point of view… When you suddenly wake up, you’re in an unfamiliar environment. ”

“Yes… … .”

It was then.

Big Sejin, who had been watching the situation relatively sparingly, shrugged and stepped out.

“what… Do you think I don’t have to worry that much?”

“… ??”

“Sesejin hyung?”

“Even if you had a different experience… Anyway, Eugene is Eugene, right? So, until I was 19, I would have grown the same.”

“so?”

“Then maybe personality and things like that change over the years.”

Big Sejin glanced sideways.

“Don’t you think the taste will be similar?”

“… !”

It was toward the brownies and chocolate chips that Bae Se-jin and Kim Rae-bin swept away.

* * *

Smart.

“I’ll go in for a moment.”

Liu Cheng-wu spoke softly but firmly, and a few seconds later opened the door to Cha Yu-jin.

Sigh.

Inside the door, I could see Cha Yoo-jin lying carelessly on the bed among the unpacked luggage.

He covered his face with one arm before opening his mouth.

“… Now that’s going too far.”

“huh?”

“I said no answer. twice.”

Cha Yoo-jin lowered her arms to reveal her eyes.

And now, without looking around, he pointed it out right away.

me.

“I know that person, so listen to that person.”

For a moment, his gaze was focused on me.

hmm.

I crossed my arms and Sejin walked into the room.

“Wait a minute, Eugene. I didn’t come here to ask that again. I just came to have a chat.”

“A conversation?”

“So~ but we live in the same house now, and you won’t be comfortable if you know your face openly~ You have to know what kind of situation it is!”

Big Sejin smiled and sat on the floor. Cha Yoo-jin changed the angle of her body on the bed and nodded slightly.

“That is fine.”

“yes? How long should I stay here? Just my thoughts!”

And the big sejin didn’t bother to listen to the answer and started to organize the answer in a comfortable tone.

It was easy to understand the words of Keun Se-jin, who cut and summarized the things he had heard from me and the strange situations we had been through so far.

“… So we’re guessing maybe you’ll only be here for 30 days or so.”

“… … .”

Cha Yu-jin did not object.

However, after listening to the end, he opened his mouth with a somewhat sullen face.

“That’s really… .”

“Are you trying to be nerdy? It’s like Eugene~ It’s like Eugene.”

“… … .”

Cha Yu-jin looked at the big Se-jin for a while.

And burst into laughter.

“Hey”

“Huh?”

“The Cha Yoo-jin you know is not me. I don’t think it’s polite to talk like that.”

“… !”

Kim Rae-bin, who was standing next to him, flinched even more.

“Oh yeah?”

However, the big Sejin said without panic.

“Then shall we choose to keep the line?”

“Sure. [I like the expression. Don’t cross the line.]”

Cha Yoo-jin tried to lie down on the bed again with a smile on her face.

However, Sejin’s words did not end there.

“But you know that originally goodness is kept with mutual respect, right? Please. You also have a relationship to the extent that we participated in < Azusa > together~”

“… … .”

Cha Yu-jin hesitated.

At that moment, Liu Qingyu held out his hand and said.

“okay. It means to keep basic courtesy and respect for each other.”

“… … .”

“Yujin.”

Cha Yoo-jin got up from the bed.

It seemed that he was scanning everyone who entered the room.

‘It’s a relationship.’

In fact, from this guy's point of view, Bae Se-jin would be the one who blew up the group with drugs, and Keun Se-jin would be the one who voluntarily dropped out of the program due to school violence.

'I wasn't even a contestant at all.'

But there were no such comments.

Instead, he just raised his hand.

"… … ."

And shook hands with Ryu Cheng-wu.

"all right."

"thank you."

Ryu Cheng-wu smiled.

It was a strategy to push the most generous guy and Cha Yu-jin who showed the most calm reaction in succession and drag them to the table.

'Once the first round is completed.'

Only then did the atmosphere in the room lighten up a bit.

At that moment, Bae Se-jin winked. Kim Rae-bin quickly pushed out the envelope.

'Second rush.'

"… ! Cha Yoo-jin, you are hungry for the second meal now. I'm eating this too!"

"… … ."

It's brownies and cookies.

Cha Yoo-jin looked inside the envelope held in front of her eyes and asked in a puzzled manner.

“Brownie? Did you really buy Kim Rae-bin at the hospital?”

“… ? okay!”

“Oh”

At that moment, Cha Yoo-jin seemed to have made something similar to a light laugh. It’s like seeing a close friend.

I realized that it wasn’t, but it passed quickly.

‘… It must have been friendly during Steer.’

Of course, you can’t miss this moment.

I immediately reached out.

And demanded.

“just one.”

“… yes?”

It’s an ambiguous response whether it’s positive or a question.

Without even looking inside the bag, I reached in and took out a brownie as soon as I picked it up and opened the package.

and pushed it into the mouth.

‘… Hang it.’

sort of… It is a performance of ‘certification of normal brownies without medication’.

It’s funny to say this, but… .

‘When Kim Rae-bin went shopping, Bae Se-jin also went with him.’

It’s because this kid talked about medicine so much, and I was afraid that he wouldn’t take it because he was reluctant.

I swallowed the brownie and nodded.

“It is delicious.”

“… Moondae hyung is like that! If that’s the case, there’s a greater chance that it will suit your taste!”

“… … OK.”

And in the end, Cha Yu-jin did not refuse.

The guy reached out and took the whole envelope, then checked the packaging with a sullen expression.

Then, he opened them one by one and started popping them into his mouth.

The speed was even exhilarating.

And Testa was watching the scene.

“… … .”

“… … .”

‘It’s kind of like feeding wild animals raw meat.’

Anyway, if it’s this guy’s biological mechanism that makes him feel good when he eats something sweet, then something will come.

With that thought in mind, I decided to wait a little longer.

and after a few minutes.

“Do you want pizza for dinner? Bulgogi Pizza?”

“I like that pizza.”

“Okay~”

Surprisingly, this conversation just happened.

That is for sure… The atmosphere softened.

‘I don’t know if this is because of the snacks.’

After all, Cha Yoo-jin ate all the brownies and cookies while sitting on the bed.

And when he confirmed that people were no longer asking questions about his ‘group’, he slowly returned to a similar attitude to the Cha Yujin he used to know.

‘Although the level of conversation has become low-level.’

I still want to know where this is.

“Cola.”

“Oh thanks.”

“Ah, if you have any questions about the current situation or us, feel free to ask.”

“all right.”

In the end, Steer Cha Yoo-jin came to the level of light small talk while eating pizza together at the same table.

And in the meantime, we had a chance to quietly talk about our current situation.

“Ah, we are almost finishing our promotion period now. How many schedules are left?”

Of course, his answer was obvious.

“But I am not on this team. I am not active.”

“Mmm.”

“okay.”

It was impossible to intimidate a guy who said he wouldn’t do it.

‘The amount of practice won’t be easy.’

Besides, fortunately, Testa’s group activities were almost over.

‘Cha Yoo-jin finished his individual activities early.’

To sum it up in a word, ‘If so.’

“Is our tour starting next month?”

“yes.”

Even if I thought of taking a break, it wasn’t negative.

If Cha Yoo-jin continues to have no personal activities, there will be some talk, but that can be covered with health problems for about a month.

therefore… The problem is one.

“… What about our reality… ?”

“… … .”

Testa’s group reality, which was ambitiously prepared.

it looks like it’s over

‘X feet.’

How can you film a group reality when not one member is filming?

“The shooting schedule… I can’t delay.”

“yes.”

This, too, was barely accomplished.

Even in this reality show, it was ambiguous that one person was left out due to health problems.

Even if you miss it, you have to insert the footage separately later.

Otherwise, there might be rumors of discord or transfer… That’s what kind of program it is.

So that’s it.

I opened my mouth.

“… Take a picture.”

“Take a picture?”

“When Cha Yoo-jin comes back in a month, let’s take care of Yoo-jin’s portion separately. How are you?”

“… … .”

this is the best

However, Rabin Kim muttered in a melancholy voice beside him.

“Cha Yoo-jin came back… I think he’ll get mad at me for filming something fun except for himself… … .”

“… … .”

“… Oh convincing Ravin.”

“thank you… .”

I covered my face with one hand.

‘Damn it.’

Is it my fault for applying a system or something to a fucking company in the first place and causing this shit to happen?

‘But if I hadn’t applied this, the album could have been ambiguous… .’

This was crazy again.

No, and what’s the use of whining and regretting right now? What we need now is a solution.

‘Roll it… .’

Let’s roll the head.

I squeezed my brain and was silent, but after a while I opened my mouth.

“Probably.”

“… … ?”

“When Cha Yu-jin came back… There is a chance that you will have memories now.”

“Uh yes… I guess?”

Just like when these guys retrieved their memories in the virtual world of the system, the memories they made there didn’t disappear either.

‘then.’

“Right now, Cha Yu-jin is participating in a reality show for the best.”

“… !”

“but… I, Cha Yoo-jin, said she would not participate in the activity

.”

Since this is not a stage activity, I wondered if ‘Steer Cha Yoo-jin’ wanted something in return, we could deal with it as a transaction.

And because there was something I was originally going to say.

* * *

“Is there anything else you want to say?”

I went out onto the veranda.

Cha Yoo-jin was looking outside alone with the window half-open. And he looked back at me with an expression that didn’t seem very welcoming.

I calmly opened my mouth.

“I have something to tell you about your roommate.”

“… … .”

And Cha Yoo-jin… did you sigh?

[Hey, I’m not stupid. Of course, that person has nothing to do with drugs.]

“… !”

[I think you know ‘steer’ pretty well, but it’s obvious from the way you treat that “roommate” as a member. But.]

The guy said dryly.

“I’m not curious.”

“… … .”

[Of course, it’s not the person I used to know. I don’t mean to treat him carelessly.]

And he tapped me on the shoulder.

[But don’t cross the line. you know? You also need to keep the line.]

After that, he left the veranda.

“… … .”

I stood by the window of the veranda where he was standing. A cool night breeze blew for summer.

And I felt it.

‘I guess it didn’t work.’

It’s a trade and it’s nabal, and anything about the testa activities right now wouldn’t have worked with that guy.

“after.”

Maybe I’m just glad I didn’t say anything.

But no one expected it.

I didn’t expect anything to cross his ‘line’ to happen so quickly.

Chapter 475

, you'll get

a fatal disease Episode 475 .

I can't work with Cha Yoo-jin now.

Whether it's a personal schedule, a short event, or a barely scheduled group reality variety show.

"I can't help it."

"Mmm."

… But is it really okay if I end up persuading you with just one 10-minute attempt on the veranda?

I'm comfortable because I talk fast, but anyway, a month's schedule was set based on this.

"Ey, what if Mundae doesn't work?"

"okay."

"… … ."

If so.

"Then, let's talk about health problems around next week and Eugene skips the schedule altogether."

“Nep. And if the reality show is delayed a bit, only Yujin, who came back later, will be filmed separately and put in the amount… .”

“okay. Regarding this, I’ll start by talking to the PD right away tomorrow morning.”

Now that we have a stake in the company, it’s a little less unfair if we take care of all the details.

Anyway, after quickly sorting out the situation.

I briefly talked to Bae Se-jin, who was carrying the script.

I want to do this.

“brother.”

“Why why?”

“Shall we change our room?”

“… what?”

“I think my brother is the type to be uncomfortable with strangers. You have a lot of schedule these days, so it’s better to be comfortable in your room.”

… It’s half true, but in fact, Steer Cha Yu-jin is uncomfortable with you, so the room looks very bad.

However, Bae Se-jin, who thought he would be happy with it, rather snorted.

“… … .”

Self-objectification… what happened

‘Because I’m so busy with filming, I almost sleep.’

There was a very high probability that both of them would spend their time quietly doing their own thing with their mouths shut.

Rather than constantly recommending here and causing conflicts and other variables… Better in terms of possibilities.

‘As long as it doesn’t cause stomach problems, it doesn’t matter.’

“yes.”

I decided to wait and see. Just in case, I decided to leave the door open.

However, what I did not consider is that Bae Se-jin was more confident and motivated than I thought in the role of the eldest brother.

So, two days later, in the middle of the night, when someone shouted from that room.

“… !!”

‘X feet.’

“… Moondae just now”

“Yes.”

I reflexively jumped out and guessed.

‘Probability exploded damn.’

Steer Cha Yoo-jin must have gone mad or had been mistaken for sleep!

‘He said he knew he was someone else, so he couldn’t have kept his mouth shut… .’

But when the members poured out and looked into the room.

“Don’t talk like that!”

Yelling is… Bae Se-jin was screaming at Cha Yu-jin.

‘… ?’

“What’s going on?”

What is it really?

* * *

A few days ago.

‘after.’

Bae Se-jin took a short deep breath and stood in front of his room.

Earlier, I confidently told Park Moon-dae, “It’s okay,” but… Actually, I was a bit nervous.

It’s still hard to live in the same space as someone you’re not close to.

It was the same with Cha Yoo-jin, who changed like a different person.
that’s weird right

‘still… I’ve grown too.’

I was no longer a child who would jump up from his seat because it was uncomfortable or try to avoid it.

He was able to face the situation!

And it’s already been well over a year since I’ve been roommates with Cha Yoo-jin. In any case, it was the same body, so I guessed that I would be able to endure it with inertia.

‘… good.’

He vigorously opened the door.

thud.

“… … .”

But Cha Yu-jin did not look back.

No, I don’t even give a glance. I was just lying on the bed, throwing and catching footballs.

‘Ugh.’

Bae Se-jin unilaterally nodded his head at Cha Yu-jin (I immediately regretted why he had to do this) and then lay down on his own bed.

‘after… … .’

And I read the script, but I was confused.

I don’t know if I’m sarcastically hurt by this situation, upset, or a sense of duty.

but… Apart from emotions, I was inevitably a little curious.

‘I am… How was he living?’

The person who went through < Azusa > without the ‘Park Moon-dae’ that Cha Yu-jin experienced.

speculation was possible.

Considering that Cha Yoo-jin’s attitude wasn’t that friendly, he probably wouldn’t have debuted.

And since he only showed uncooperative appearances throughout < Azusa >, he might remember himself only as a first impression of that time.

No, it was highly likely.

‘Anyway, you must have gained recognition, so I wonder if you’re acting… .’

However, I don’t think I would have been doing very well if the ‘Dream K’ agency was the same.

“… … .”

I know it’s a useless idea. It’s not something you’re experiencing right now anyway.

‘In the first place, it’s just a guess… .’

It’s just speculation that consumes your mind. However, digging deep into thoughts in this way was also a characteristic of Bae Se-jin.

‘… Let’s hang up!’

But now I’ve learned to challenge myself!

He took another deep breath and stopped thinking about it.

Instead, I read the script once and went to bed.

And after managing my nervousness well and diligently digesting my schedule, I moved again at the same time the next night.

Because I prepared a secret weapon.

“… Want some?”

Bae Se-jin took out an envelope of recycled paper from the box on the bedside and handed it to Cha Yu-jin.

It was Bae Se-jin’s snack that Cha Yu-jin always liked the most.

Homemade Candy!

My mother buys it every time from an acquaintance's handmade candy store and sends it to me, and she says that it tastes like 'hometown', and she is so craving for it… .

"Oh Nope."

"… … ."

I coveted… but

-Hyung buy a lot of these! I like it.

-… I'll tell my mom.

-Oh!!

'… You ate brownies!'

Bae Se-jin suddenly missed his loud and talkative roommate endlessly… .

So, holding back the feeling of almost crying, I continued with my next words.

"So much. Well, and there are snacks and hobbies you keep under your bed. If you're bored… Find it and write it."

"all right."

words were affirmed.

However, the current Cha Yoo-jin on the bed did not move. It means you didn't even pretend to look for it.

It's a roundabout ignorance.

"… … ."

Until now, in fact, there were things that Bae Se-jin was not sure about because he had been interacting as a group so hectic.

However, after having a one-on-one conversation like this, the delicate Bae Se-jin noticed right away.

‘… What is he?’

contempt.

An attitude that seems to look down on hostility.

Bae Se-jin, who was accustomed to such things and reacted sensitively, recognized Steer’s Cha Yoo-jin’s very subtle non-verbal expression at once.

Even if he didn’t bother to show off, he was sensitive and could read it.

“… … .”

Bae Se-jin was not angry.

Instead, I turned my head to the script, but my heart skipped a beat.

‘what?’

why me… Is that your attitude? Maybe in the past I couldn’t debut in < Azusa >… Have I become an absurdly pathetic person?

If you look at it, it’s only poisonous to me… .

‘Let’s stop that.’

It was like a sense of loss. And I didn’t want to be the one who was swayed by the attitude of just one person anymore!

Bae Se-jin tried to move his gaze back to the script while clearing his mind.

It was then.

“Are you close with me here?”

“… !”

Cha Yoo-jin… spoke up

Of course, it wasn't a very friendly fight. A thoughtless statement that was almost like talking to oneself. Even though it seemed like it was close to being absurd.

Bae Se-jin answered sincerely.

"Because we are in the same group… Keuhum And we share a room together."

"Umm, isn't this the new dorm?"

It must have been roommates in a new place, so at most, they only spent a few days together.

However, Bae Se-jin shook his head.

"We just moved, but we were roommates for over a year, just like before. First of all, I am using the same roommates as in the previous dorm."

"… … ."

Cha Yoo-jin kept her mouth shut, but something flashed in Bae Se-jin's head.

'uh?'

It was the content of the next conversation. It seemed like it was being organized as a typewriter in my head, as if it were put together like a script.

'then… .'

Wait, is this an opportunity?

"Well, that will change soon."

Sejin Bae swallowed and actively opened his mouth once more.

“I think I will probably change my roommates as we go into reality filming.”

A short gaze came, as if asking, ‘So?’

Bae Se-jin spoke as softly as possible, copying Ryu Cheong-wu’s speech as if he were acting.

“So, if there is a room I want to use, I was wondering if you could participate in the shoot.”

“… … .”

“When shooting so that you can use the room you want as much as possible… .”

“I don’t care. Whichever room you share, whoever you share it with.”

Why is this kid so good at Korean? !

Bae Se-jin wanted to close his eyes tightly, but the story he wanted to tell anyway was in the next story.

“… okay. however! It’s uncomfortable. Then you have to stay in a place other than the dorm while filming. Other than that, it won’t go well.”

Because Cha Yu-jin will be called sick externally, she will have to stay in a hospital or hotel.

‘It would be very frustrating, but if that’s the case, even if you talk about a leg injury and miss the stage, it’s better to come out at least one group reality… .’

Bae Se-jin was about to try to explain what he was going to say in his head as calmly as possible, wondering if it would be better for this Cha Yu-jin.

Laughter was heard.

It was a laugh.

“Why am I?”

… what?

“It’s okay to leave the dorm.”

Cha Yoo-jin looked at Bae Se-jin without much expression, as if asking when he had laughed.

“But where you live then is in my mind. It’s my body and I do what I want. OK?”

“… … .”

Bae Se-jin did not answer for a moment.

It wasn’t because I didn’t have anything to say.

‘This… .’

So far, Bae Se-jin has tried to understand Cha Yu-jin’s point of view as much as possible.

How confusing and difficult it must be to live without anyone in the same situation as you suddenly find yourself in an unfamiliar environment with different memories.

When I think of myself in < Azusa >, Lee Cha Yoo-jin was a nobleman.

I really thought so.

‘But’

Even so, declaring that you will do whatever you want without any hesitation that might be a huge inconvenience to ‘Testa Yoojin Cha’, who originally used that body… .

‘That’s violence.’

It was not natural for me to steal other people's clothes just because I was cold.

That was egoism, not individualism.

he thought so So

"No."

Bae Se-jin was serious.

"What are you talking about?"

* * *

Dawn.

Bae Se-jin's voice echoed through the room.

"I understand that you are confused and difficult. however… That doesn't mean you can do everything you want."

"… … ."

"I'm saying this because I apologized for similarly expressing my stress to others."

"That brother."

Big Sejin interjected in a cautious voice.

"What did Eugene say? hmm… ."

"… When filming a reality show, he said he would fall for it. Then I have to get out of the dorm for a while… ."

Bae Se-jin clenched his fists.

"Then I will go around on my own."

“… !”

“And he says he’ll do whatever he wants for the next month!”

oh shit

I looked back at Steer Cha Yu-jin. The guy was still looking at Bae Se-jin. It feels like we’ve had a few fights here as well.

Once confirmed… . No, it seems like you’re trying to cover up what’s wrong, so I’m going to raise my job.

Try a good suture first.

I deliberately did not sympathize with Bae Se-jin’s anger and calmly told Cha Yu-jin.

“We put ‘health reasons’ as an excuse for not participating in Cha Eugene’s activities. That’s the best reason.”

“… … .”

Even Cha Yoo-jin, who has been active as an idol, will admit that.

“So, if it’s okay, I hope you show a side that fits that reason to some extent.”

[Tell me whatever you want.]

Cha Yu-jin answered in a low voice.

[Because I will too.]

Fuck.

This kid was pissed off too.

‘Is this over the line?’

I’m sure there’s a solution, but I’m starting to struggle not to come up with extreme measures.

It was then.

[We want you… I didn’t drag you into this situation. We are just a few of you caught up in this situation.]

Calm English was heard.

This is Seon Ah-hyun.

The guy chose his vocabulary quite carefully.

[I think we did our best to do the consideration we could. If there was something lacking, are you willing to make up for it through communication?]

“… … .”

Cha Yu-jin was silent.

Then he let out a low sigh.

“Your consideration has a purpose. It’s not caring, it’s controlling. Control.”

what?

[Simply put, ‘When our Cha Yoo-jin returns, please don’t do anything that will hinder his career.’]

“… !”

[All my nerves are focused there. I’m not blaming you. But you can’t blame me either. therefore… .]

Steer Cha Yoo-jin moved his neck.

[Testa? I’m sorry, but it’s none of my business.]

And the next moment.

“… !!”

He started through the room and into the hallway.

“Wait”

“What is he doing?”

Everyone reacted half a beat slowly to the overly sudden situation.

Of course, it was also a problem that Ryu Cheng-wu was standing on the outskirts, and above all, he was unfamiliar with him, so he couldn’t move suddenly.

‘shit.’

I immediately tried to forcibly lock the front door with a pad, but he opened the door first.

And in an instant, I got on the elevator and pressed the close button.

“hey!”

That means

‘… I called the elevator in advance.’

this bastard… Were you planning on leaving sooner?

It was when I looked back at the front door and gritted my teeth.

“Cha Yoo-jin!”

“… … .”

The closed elevator did not open, but Kim Rae-bin asked.

“Where are you going?”

I could see the mouth moving.

‘I don’t know.’

And the elevator went down.

Steer Cha Yoo-jin left the dorm like that.

Chapter 476

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 476

After 6 years of debut, a member left without permission.

cold blood situation.

At the same time as the elevator carrying Steer Cha Yoo-jin went down, she immediately ran down the stairs, but it was already too late.

The lodging I moved into was on a high floor, so no matter how athletic I was, I couldn't keep up with the speed of the elevator.

like that… The company turned upside down in the middle of the night.

-… yes?

This news, which started with the head of the manager who asked back as if he couldn't believe it, and eventually reached the ears of the president, woke up almost all the sleeping employees and made Seoul gritty.

Of course, so do we.

Liu Cheng-wu, whose face has hardened, has been running around the security office and the dorm since earlier.

"Did you check the CCTV?"

"I can confirm that I walked all the way to the front door, but I think I missed it because it was dark after that. It's like taking a taxi… … ."

"… … ."

And if you want to track down the taxi, you'll have to report it missing to the police.

Of course, reporting that is crazy. If you don't want to rush to appear on the front page of entertainment news tomorrow morning.

'Damn it.'

I want to bite my tongue too.

I tried to come up with a place this guy could visit while continuously monitoring social media in real time to see if there were any eyewitness reports coming up.

'I caught this guy running off on the last tour.'

If you know the other person well, can't you roughly infer the line of movement?

however… .

"… … ."

The problem is that you don't know the other person well.

'Because I'm Steer Cha Yoo-jin.'

okay.

I'll admit it.

Gunwoo Ryu, an office worker before becoming Testa Park Moon-dae, had a great interest in Steer and constantly looked into it.

So, even in the hospital room, he must have recognized that this Cha Yu-jin was the same guy from Steer.

'But that doesn't mean I know about individual humans.'

Everything I know about Steer Cha Yoo-jin is a story that has been processed once through the media.

It means information about idols.

There's no way I know that guy's personal favorite places or favorite places.

Besides that.

"… I think no one will say anything right now, so I'm going to say it."

There is something that Sejin said while shaking his head with a bitter smile.

"… You know we have a group schedule tomorrow evening, right?"

"… … ."

"It's an event."

Yes.

Tomorrow is almost the last domestic group schedule for this activity.

summer festival.

"We announced in advance that Eugene would be absent, but if we go all-in all night to find Eugene and ruin the performance… I see a problem with that too."

It was correct.

Although, if there is an alternative, it is to cancel the event altogether… .

'… Can a Testa-class headliner deal with cancellation on the same day for an event of this magnitude?'

It’s dirty to say this, but events have different name values, so each event has a different impact on cancellation.

‘And tomorrow’s event… .’

“… … .”

it was cooked X feet.

If you cancel on the same day, you will be thrown into trouble.

‘I can’t even get enough of these excuses.’

The moment you cancel, you will feel like an article.

And even if we don’t cancel and the event goes well, if you hear a sighting of Cha Yoo-jin, who missed this in the name of being sick, walking around looking fine outside… .

-Cha Eugene Are you crazy? Come to your senses

, you guys

all look sober
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
haha.

It was a situation where there was a history of assault.

This means that you can’t take it off or beat it, and you feel like you’re falling into hell. All kinds of abusive language and personal attacks from people who said they were right will rain down like a bombardment.

‘… What can I do?’

The problem is that I don’t even have an X-shot answer right now.

Except to keep looking.

However, until the morning, the news of Cha Yoo-jin… Didn’t get caught.

“… … .”

Of course, no one slept soundly in bed. Even now, half of the guys who chased the company.

It was the same for me, who woke up early in the living room with open eyes.

I was lost in thought as I rubbed my smartphone.

My head was dizzy.

‘… If it’s like this.’

I’d rather not have an album… was it better

I thought it was the best at that moment, but if this happens, what will happen to Cha Yoo-jin’s career?

How do I rectify this?

“… … .”

My head hurt.

‘There’s too much to do.’

Even if you find Steer’s Cha Yoo-jin… I don’t know where to start and how to fix it.

The company, public opinion, and activities.

I don’t know what to do with him for a month.

‘I can only think of extreme ways.’

I pressed my eyelids.

It was then.

widely.

Cold water was placed on the table in front of me. like drinking.

“… … .”

I picked it up and drank some water. The guy with the glass of water sat across from me.

… It was Bae Se-jin.

Maybe he thought he left because of his own words, but this guy doesn’t look very good either.

It was bad.

“Brother, the day after tomorrow… No, there will be filming tomorrow too. You’d better get some rest.”

“are you okay. I also filmed all night.”

Bae Se-jin spoke clearly, but soon lowered his head with a slightly confused expression.

“just… … I don’t know why he did this.”

“… … .”

“No matter how many years I have had different experiences… Cha Yoo-jin is also Cha Yoo-jin. No kid would ever do something like this… I thought.”

It’s like this.

In fact, even though Cha Yoo-jin at first glance seems like a guy who does whatever he wants, he is someone who knows how to be considerate if the other person is in trouble.

No, in the first place, he is the one who passes it on naturally without showing consideration.

‘Because Bae Se-jin might have heard that the same guy suddenly said that he didn’t care what happened to someone.’

I would have been puzzled.

okay. From a position that does not know the situation well, it is unknown how much stress Steer Cha Yu-jin is under this environment.

The person himself beat the fucking idol, but the suddenly successful version is not asking you to experience it for 30 days, wouldn’t it be crazy?

‘I should have handled it with more care.’

As I focused my attention on returning Cha Yoo-jin to normal by safely passing these 30 days, I couldn’t properly take care of him mentally.

“… … .”

My head was heavy.

when silence flows.

“I.”

A low voice was heard.

“Is it really so?”

When I raised my head, the pale-skinned guy cautiously sat down on the sofa.

This is Rabin Kim.

“I am… It doesn’t seem like that Cha Yu-jin came out to make us uncomfortable on purpose.”

“… !”

Bae Se-jin raised his head.

“… I would like that too But you heard it too. Testa said she didn’t know.”

“But… Just because this isn’t his business, I don’t think he meant to intentionally interfere.”

“uh?”

“Did Cha Yoo-jin say that he would freely harm Testa’s career?”

“It’s not like that, but… If the situation doesn’t bother him, then of course he will.”

“… … .”

for a moment.

It feels like getting hit in the head.

maybe in a good way.

“Wait.”

“… ! Moondae Park?”

“I think Lavin is right.”

I picked up my smartphone with a clearer mind.

it was still quiet

It means that there is no news about Cha Yu-jin.

But to put this in reverse… That means there are no eyewitness accounts.

does this make sense?

'It's already been over 5 hours since Cha Yu-jin ran out.'

He's a guy who doesn't even have a car.

So no matter how lucky you are… Is it possible that if a celebrity with the level of popularity of Testa wanders around aimlessly outside, one sighting story won't come up?

impossible.

'Unless you care.'

"Cha Yoo-jin is moving without being noticed by people."

"… … !"

"If I really wanted to harm Testa openly, I would have gone to the club, but that's not the case."

It means that as an idol, he is moving at least according to his habit of avoiding people.

Even in the midst of this, I don't know if it protects the good or what… .

I inadvertently recalled what the boy had said.

-But where you live at that time is in my mind. It's my body and I do what I want. OK?

-Your consideration has a purpose. It's not caring, it's controlling. Control.

"… … ."

‘Is that maybe… Are you scared?’

It was then.

Kim Rae-bin raised his hand carefully again.

“I don’t know if I should say this, but… .”

“It’s okay to be comfortable.”

“… ! yes.”

Kim Rae-bin replied with a serious face.

“I think we should have more conversations with that Cha Yu-jin.”

“… … Sejin

Bae muttered in a melancholy voice.

“… It doesn’t work.”

“yes? Ah, it seems I made a too broad choice in wording! therefore… .”

Kim Rae-bin seemed to be doing his best to choose the vocabulary, and then he corrected his words again.

“I think so far we have tried to persuade that Cha Yoo-jin, not talk.”

“… !”

“Or maybe it was a conversation for the purpose of persuasion. However, I think it was difficult to build trust with each other because there was no aimless conversation.”

“… … .”

“Why are you like that?”

“no.”

Perhaps Sejin Bae and I both looked at Raebin Kim with eyes close to astonishment.

Because it was a very sharp analysis.

It’s hard to believe that he’s a dull person when it comes to interpersonal relationships.

“… I think you are right.”

“… ! yes. I think it was an unavoidable flow because it is natural to worry about the members.”

I saw Rabin Kim.

‘This guy had a lot of trouble too.’

I thought that a guy who normally has difficulty conversing with his true intentions or guessing other people’s thoughts must have gone through several stages before coming up with such a thought.

‘Is that why he didn’t have much to say lately?’

Kim Rae-bin seemed confused by this situation, but seemed confident in his own words.

“I don’t even know what that Cha Yu-jin is thinking… So I want to know.”

“… … .”

I saw a guy

And nodded.

“okay.”

“… !”

“I agree.”

I wonder what he’s thinking.

I wonder if it would be better to talk about it openly in the yard that crossed the line anyway.

“thank you!”

This is the plate it should be.

and.

“I have to find it anyway.”

“… yes.”

I turned the smartphone screen back on.

I’ve noticed that this guy at least seems to be going unnoticed, though that’s a bit less of a candidate spot.

means of transport and destination.

‘It’s a place that idols can go to.’

At my words, Bae Se-jin nodded and said.

“then… We can narrow it down to the best of our knowledge.”

Cha Yu-jin, who participated in < Azusa >, even focused on the information up to that point.

So, isn’t it obvious who knows it best?

“Is there a place where Cha Yoo-jin used to go when he was a trainee?”

This is Rabin Kim.

The guy replied eagerly with a serious face.

“I guess I preferred places with a lot of people!”

“… … .”

that’s kinda

“… Would you like a more detailed explanation?”

“An outdoor cafe with a nice view or a barbecue restaurant… . It seems that it was a noisy and open space. Ah, it seems that I preferred the outdoors to the indoors everywhere!”

“Ah, that reminds me of Cha Yu-jin’s hometown.”

so narrowed it down.

Then the word came out.

‘If you feel like escaping from here.’

There’s a good chance it’s gone too far.

“Did you ever go out of Seoul to play while you were a trainee?”

“Except for my hometown… Well, I have been to the beach before.”

“Beach?”

“It was Ganghwa Island.”

“… !”

At that moment, something overlapped.

‘Cha Yu-jin lived near the beach in San Diego.’

Even when I escaped from the tour, I found it at a cafe near the beach.

… … and.

-That guy… I came to Ganghwa Island in a variety show filmed during Steer.

Ganghwado Beach.

It was Steer's first variety shooting location.

"… there."

"yes?"

"Let's go behind."

and after 2 hours.

"Cha Yoo-jin!"

Chapter 477

If you don't debut, you get a fatal disease Episode 477

"… … ."

Cha Yu-jin inhaled slowly.

The fresh and thrilling smell unique to the beach where the rough waves hit the shoreline reached my lungs.

Even though it is summer, the dawn near the water is moderately tolerably hot. So, the beach on Ganghwa Island was the air that reminded him of the beach in San Diego where he was.

In the past, it was easy to get back on track at times like this.

But now his head is not clear.

To put it precisely, now Cha Yu-jin could not blow away the 'feeling of a loser' as easily as shaking off dust.

It was no longer possible like before.

'It's like shit.'

So he decided to at least calm down.

I thought I could do at least keep my mouth shut here and endure for 30 days… .

if no one

But

“Cha Yoo-jin!”

“… !”

I heard a call

When I turned my head, I saw a gloomy figure wearing a mask.

I didn’t mean dark.

Because they are running with the sunset at their back, they look dim because of the light.

And he could tell who it was just from that dark silhouette.

‘Cause I’ve seen you for years

-… bye. Yoojin Cha.

The last colleague I said goodbye to on the way home.

“Kim Raebin.”

But the moment the name came out of my mouth, I realized.

‘It’s not the same person.’

My stomach became uncomfortable.

In the meantime, ‘Kim Rae-bin’ – after all, the name is the same! – ran to the beach and shouted.

“Were you really here?!”

to find yourself

Does ‘here’s Yujin Cha’ have any special memories of this place?

The thought of it made me very sick.

“I am here. But aren’t you looking for your friend?”

“… ??”

“Then go back. Because there doesn’t seem to be anyone like that. I am not your friend.”

The words couldn’t come out so smoothly. Cha Yu-jin did not dare to express her anger, and silently turned her head.

It was then.

“no! You are my friend.”

“… !”

Kim Rae-bin also raised his voice.

But Cha Yoo-jin knew.

‘He’s not angry.’

Raebin Kim’s voice was firmly embedded in the confidence and certainty unique to a person who just shared what he found out.

“Since participating in < Azusa >, I agree that the time we experienced is different. But I realized that the friendship we had built before the event hadn’t gone away.”

‘Before the participation?’

Cha Yoo-jin inadvertently asked himself inwardly and immediately realized.

Before participating in < Azusa >.

The days when we practiced together at the same agency.

“Then I am the friend you met during your trainee days. You are also Cha Yoo-jin, who I studied with when I was a trainee!”

“… … .”

“That can determine that we are the same person!”

Cha Yu-jin was at a loss for words for a moment.

It wasn’t that I didn’t have anything to refute.

but… It was because the opponent was full of confidence in Kim Rae-bin. He seemed to believe without a doubt that he had found the perfect logic.

‘oh my god.’

And that… It’s not something you’ve easily seen in the past few years.

But it wasn’t completely unfamiliar either.

Several times before debut and even after debut… when preparing an album.

-If you proceed like this, you will definitely have a stage that conveys modern charm and has a high degree of perfection.

I remember seeing something like that from time to time.

… no that’s not it

‘My friend was originally like that.’

Kim Rae-bin was originally such a person.

At first glance, he seems polite and humble, but he is stubborn and does not yield.

self-confidence.

A worldview that is so blatantly firm.

And to make it unpretentious… Talent.

Seeing the good side of an old colleague again made me feel extraordinary.

"… … ."

Obviously, Cha Yoo-jin knew.

'It's not the same person.'

I even told myself several times that it was someone other than the person I knew.

Still, this was unavoidable.

'… But there are commonalities.'

Cha Yoo-jin was only in her 20s.

I couldn't deny the certain friendship that was proved in the dead end corner of a strange world where I was suddenly stuck.

So he had no choice but to answer in a hushed voice.

[You're right.]

It was the first recognition.

Just in time, a wave hit. Cha Yu-jin turned her head.

'I bet he didn't understand.'

However, a bigger answer came back without having to answer again in Korean.

"okay!"

hmm?

Cha Yoo-jin rose from the rock.

“Did you understand Kim Rabin?”

“I am studying simple English at the word level for writing lyrics. Because it helps to hit the punchline.”

“Oh.”

Cha Yoo-jin almost asked what kind of song he was composing at the moment, but soon realized the reality and stopped.

because it doesn’t make any sense

“… ?”

Kim Rae-bin did not notice the unnatural break, but decided to continue the conversation as he had decided.

Taking advantage of the slightly relaxed atmosphere, he recalled Moondae Park’s advice.

-If you really meet Yujin Cha… feel free to say whatever you want

So I really did.

Kim Rae-bin first asked the most important thing in his judgment.

“Have you eaten?”

Food, clothing and shelter!

I couldn’t sleep, so it was right to bring a meal.

Cha Yoo-jin was taken aback for a moment, but soon smiled and turned her gaze back to the sea.

“no.”

“Then it’s early, but let’s start with breakfast.”

“are you okay.”

It wasn’t ‘in the mood’.

Then Kim Rae-bin looked at him with a shocked expression.

“Are you stressed enough to skip meals?”

“… … .”

“… ! Or are you feeling a lot of pressure from your current situation because you lived so freely?”

his freedom.

Cha Yoo-jin stared at the waves with her chin resting on her chin, and answered without thinking.

“I worked at a garage.”

“… … .”

The 5 years of activity ended as if nothing had happened. What he started doing after returning home like that.

“My parents said they would give me a surfboard shop, but I said no.”

It must have been more irritating to meet and chat with nerds who flirted with surfboards on the beach every day.

I wanted to be stuck in a pathetic life wasting my life, but it was a contradictory feeling that I didn’t want to meet an idiot who wasted my life.

“A garage?”

“huh.”

“It was fun?”

“not really.”

But I didn’t hate it that much. Cha Yoo-jin had no history of not being able to do anything. He quickly adapted to using his hands and body at the garage.

and… .

“It was nice not to think about anything.”

“… … .”

Why did Steer Cha Yoo-jin return to Korea as soon as his contract ended?

In fact, it wasn’t that he didn’t receive offers from other agencies at all.

It wasn’t a great agency, but some suggestions came from small agencies.

Maybe I could have released one or two more albums.

But he didn’t.

-No.

‘I’ve already come too far.’

Because he realized he had done something stupid.

“… … .”

Originally, he had a very simple theory of life that he had learned and developed from his grandfather.

– Find a solution if you don’t see it.

-If you can’t find it, give up cleanly and try in a new direction.

Cha Yoo-jin thought and lived like that. until debut.

However, the past few years as ‘Steer’s Cha Yu-jin’ were a bit different.

It’s because I couldn’t ‘give up cleanly’.

‘A member is arrested for drugs, a song they did not choose becomes the title, a project they did not participate in gets the group’s name, and the album is canceled… … .’

and rumors.

Rumors and rumors and untouchable circumstances.

Although he couldn’t see any fundamental solution, he persevered by making the best choice every moment.

Of course, at the time, it all felt worthwhile. Even if it was a waste, it didn’t matter.

But after pouring everything in like that.

As a result, there was nothing left.

– Termination of the steer contract.

“… … .”

An ending in which neither growth nor reversal occurred.

If you’ve come this far, you have to admit it.

That the time to give up has passed.

“But this makes me think too much.”

so painful

The world where the price of a stupid choice that doesn't give up was given outrageously was too perfect.

Everyone is happy and everything is successful.

[I'm just… I don't know why I have to see this damn world where everything is perfect.]

"… … ."

It was a word that he couldn't even say in English, so Cha Yoo-jin muttered in Spanish.

However, Kim Rae-bin did not insist on what he was saying.

I just silently tried to figure out the feelings contained in the tone, even with my own sociality that was not sensitive.

'It seems difficult.'

And that core was enough.

So, Kim Rae-bin decided to sit quietly next to Cha Yoo-jin and watch the sea together.

It was because he knew that he was speechless.

"… … ."

"… … ."

And it was the right choice.

Shootah Ah-

The waves were reflected by the light and slightly waved.

In front of the peaceful beach, Cha Yoo-jin felt a bit of liberation.

It was the kind of thing that could be enjoyed by uttering words that no one would understand.

Thanks to that, I was able to nod my head at Kim Rae-bin's words.

"It's eight o'clock now, a good time for breakfast."

"okay."

The two arose from a rock by the sea.

The footprints were not crooked and remained neat.

* * *

And after having breakfast at a white house with a solitary room that Kim Rae-bin had known to the members in advance.

Kim Rae-bin now asked his own questions comfortably.

"Cha Yujin, do you hate the hyungs?"

"Kheup"

Yes.

just frankly

Cha Yoo-jin, who had been drinking water, almost felt sick, but managed to hold it in.

And thinking that it was the yard where the dorm came out anyway, he decided to give an honest answer.

"uncomfortable."

"Because you feel that you are trying to infringe on your freedom for another Cha Yu-jin? Or because he treats you while projecting Cha Yu-jin?"

“Umm… that’s right.”

Cha Yoo-jin reacted with a shudder. It was because Kim Rae-bin spoke so blatantly.

And after thinking about it, I came up with a more honest and specific answer.

Sorry for the favor. and… It was because of some worries.

“and… ‘Mundae hyung’?”

hmm?

Kim Rae-bin raised his head.

Cha Yujin frowned mysteriously.

“I think that person is suspicious.”

“… !”

“He knows me too well.”

Kim Rae-bin opened his mouth wide.

“that… Moondae hyung remembers all of us well, but since he is in charge of planning this group… .”

“Nope! It doesn’t mean that. It’s about me.”

“Me, not you.”

Cha Yoo-jin pointed at herself.

He was already feeling it.

The person Kim Rae-bin calls ‘Moon Dae-hyung’ knows too well about Steer Cha Yu-jin.

Steer is a group whose words objectively weren’t that good.

‘It was even a boy band.’

It’s hard for a man of the same sex to know the circumstances so well. Hearing the name even once would be the limit. That’s only for bad rumors.

But what was the attitude of a person named Park Moon-dae?

-shut up.

-… It’s okay if you don’t have to look at it.

Block at every crucial moment.

Just like knowing exactly what triggers your group has.

Also based on facts.

“Too much so… It’s not natural.”

“… … .”

Cha Yoo-jin couldn’t explain it to Kim Rae-bin in detail, but he wanted to warn him that he was somewhat uncomfortable.

So said.

but.

“Then let’s ask them directly!”

“What?”

Kim Rae-bin picked up his smartphone right away… !

“Are you crazy Kim Raebin?”

“I’m not crazy, you idiot!”

“bar… .”

The moment Cha Yu-jin was embarrassed by the Korean swearing he heard after a long time, Kim Rae-bin succeeded in making a phone call.

“Yes brother!”

and after a while

“… … .”

“… … .”

One more person was added to the room at the white house on the beach of Ganghwa Island, which is still empty.

“hi.”

‘Mundae-hyung’ got puffy eyes in one day.

He didn’t have a healthy complexion or a ferocious expression, but his face looked even more tired and troubled.

‘hmm… … .’

Cha Yu-jin felt a little guilty, but he knew that caution came first.

So I tried to straighten my posture right away, but “My older brother Cha Yoo-jin says he has a question for him!”

Kim Rae-bin first poured out the questions Cha Yu-jin had to Park Moon-dae.

‘Kim Rae-bin!’

The moment when Cha Yoo-jin shouted inwardly, making eye contact and sharpening her reflexes in preparation for an unexpected situation.

‘Mundae hyung’ in front of me… I bowed my head slightly.

“Um, that.”

And Cha Yoo-jin, who is astute about interpersonal relationships, immediately noticed the nuance of that movement.

this person… .

“I am interested.”

“… ??”

“I was interested in it, so I just watched the activities.”

This person was embarrassed.

‘oh my god.’

Moondae Park.

Former Ryu Gun-woo ended up ducking out in front of the singer himself at a timing he could not have imagined.

If you don’t debut, you’ll get a fatal disease Episode 478

It’s very embarrassing.

this situation.

“What were you interested in?”

“… … .”

“What activity did you see?”

“Just overall.”

Isn’t it Cha Yoo-jin who escaped the dorm?

I don’t know why I felt like I was being interrogated.

‘He said he didn’t want to talk about Steer.’

It means that I didn’t expect the situation where the past was robbed by the guy who barely found it after staying up all night… .

‘But I can’t answer this.’

Gak Bonnie Kim Rae-bin soothed him well, so he seems to have finally eased his tension, but I can’t stop him.

So, as I am answering each and every question, there is no end to the questions.

“Why did you see us?”

shit.

‘Is Cha Yu-jin’s personality similar to that of a question mark killer?’

Rather, let’s think it’s good because you’re used to it. I have no choice but to remain so calm.

And in the meantime, steer Cha Yoo-jin gradually elaborated on the question.

“[I mean] couldn’t there have been a trigger?”

“… … .”

hmm.

I looked at him.

Steer Cha Yu-jin has changed to be straightforward, as if he has put down a layer of hurdles he has put up over the past few days.

So, you shouldn’t give an answer that can be easily skipped over here. I realized that this quick-witted fellow would notice right away.

okay.

‘That’s right.’

If you use your head to wrap it up, it will have the opposite effect.

so… I just started putting out whatever came to mind.

It was a story that had never been told before.

“I watched the live cam of the stage, and I did well.”

“… … .”

“I think it was a festival in Pohang.”

In fact, I barely remembered the name. It was the Pohang Sea Festival hosted by the Ministry of Oceans and Fisheries.

[2X0712 Pohang Ocean Leisure Festival Steer Full]

It was a coincidence.

“Originally, when I was in college, I was filming an idol event video… I earned some living expenses, but it was a habit, so I accidentally watched it while watching idol videos.”

And the sense of datapal at the time was still there.

Kind of like ‘how much will these guys do’.

So I casually looked up the unit price, but I was quite shocked.

‘Because it’s lower than my estimated unit price.’

Even at that point, demand was falling.

‘I could see people stepping out.’

An idol group that is certain to fade away as it is unless there is some great rebounding good news.

However, if you look at Steer’s stage, you can’t see the lethargy characteristic of ‘a person who knows it’s already too late’.

So I wondered if I had misunderstood the unit price.

“… … .”

… Maybe that’s why I suddenly thought of this.

-If I take a picture and upload a direct cam, what is the chance of a lucky jackpot again?

Just like during the fancam of Youngrin Heavy Rain.

However, I also knew that it was an almost impossible delusion in terms of probability, and I had neither the money nor the time to implement it.

‘There’s no reason for me to do it in the first place.’

So it sounds like it ended there.

“… As I continued to watch, I also watched related videos using the WeTube algorithm. Something like a stage or entertainment. That’s it.”

“… … .”

Really that was it.

I kept my mouth shut, and Cha Yu-jin also shut her mouth.

‘Doubt… I don’t think so.’

… That’s it.

I held back a short sigh. I guess this would explain it.

“… ? … ??”

It seemed that Kim Rae-bin from the side was barely digesting the conversation, but let’s look at this later.

Now I am busy taking care of my head.

‘Actually, it’s funny that I’m talking about this now.’

To be precise, I hadn’t forgotten that I had been looking for a group called Steer until recently.

I came into the body of Park Moon-dae with the memory of that time blown away.

It was the end of my memories of being a public prosecutor in my 20s, with only fragmentary information about the success of the < Azusa > re-listing season.

And after that, it was really recent to recover the memory of Ryu Gun-woo, who had closed public notice and lived at work.

'It's because I accidentally got it back when the system was destroyed.'

So, this question… .

"then… Are you our fan?"

"… … ."

No, it's not like this question is coming up, is it?

"I've never been to an offline schedule, so isn't it difficult to call myself a fan?"

"Really?"

However, Cha Yoo-jin smiled.

What?

[So it's just a coincidence that you, who didn't originally participate, appeared on a survival program and turned a B-grade boy band into a completely successful KPOP group?] "

… … ."

[You had no desire to change the fate of this group at all. Right?]

Hey.

'You bastard said he was threatened with death if he didn't debut… !'

Fate freezes to death.

After that, if I didn’t win first place, I would die, and if I didn’t win the grand prize, I would die.

I couldn’t bear to say that, so I silently endured the anger.

But suddenly I had doubts.

‘Is it really a coincidence?’

Could it be that because I was interested in a group called Steer that debuted in < Azusa >, the system figured out that and repaired my wish?

‘… There is a possibility.’

Anyway, let’s clear up the misunderstanding calmly.

I answered sincerely.

“It is very wrong. It must be a kind of butterfly effect.”

“Umm.”

“I also had a bit of a bad memory.”

And after explaining a little bit about my situation, I emphasized it again.

“After everyone left, in the first place, I just watched your performances and variety shows.”

but it didn’t work

[A boy band with only 3 members left after half of the members disappeared due to gossip?]

“… So, before knowing that, the stage direct cam first… .”

I can’t. It keeps coming back to me with the same words… .

‘Let’s wait.’

I held back my sleep and silently closed my eyes before opening them.

Cha Yoo-jin is now completely leaning on the table and nodding his head. It seems that he has regained his composure instead of being very alert.

And next to him, Kim Rae-bin is nodding as if he finally understands.

“ah! That’s why you recommended Ganghwa Island right away!”

“What?”

I will welcome you.

“It is true that this is the place we came to play during our trainee days, but Cha Yoo-jin said that it was the first variety shooting location for her group. It seems that Moon Dae-hyung knew that fact. indeed!”

“… … .”

He acted as if he would never talk about that bastard steer, but when did he rob Kim Rae-bin?

Wait a minute, he’s still opening his mouth.

“that’s right. Umm, the second one was Ganghwa Island.”

“I see!”

hmm?

I frowned.

This… It’s kind of weird.

‘Obviously, the second reality of Steer was planned for Ganghwa Island.’

By the way.

“It wasn’t canceled… … .”

“Oh.”

“… … .”

“… … .”

X feet.

I realized right away.

‘I caught this kid.’

I checked to see if they even knew about the schedules that were intentionally canceled.

Also, the schedule at the beginning of the debut.

‘This bastard!’

Cha Yoo-jin smiled and corrected her posture. I rubbed my forehead.

I was going to check the facts right away because I was afraid that there would be crazy noises, such as if there was another problem with my memory or if the timeline was different, so I caught people with this?

“It is a misunderstanding.”

“OK.”

“It’s a misunderstanding.”

I’ve never bought one of your albums… .

‘This kind of information can be found by simply organizing the timeline.’

However, Cha Yu-jin did not pretend to hear.

[I think everything is clear now.]

Cha Yu-jin held out her hand.

It was pretty polite.

“nice to meet you.”

“… … .”

“It’s been a long time since I saw the fans.”

Damn.

I am… He held out his hand and shook hands.

“… !”

Why are you surprised when you reach out your hand?

… And although I say I’m a fan, it’s true that I didn’t spend a single penny myself and endured boredom with the content this guy provided.

You could say it’s a debt.

“Yeah, nice to meet you.”

“… … .”

Steer Cha Yoo-jin continued to shake hands without saying anything for quite a long time.

Then he suddenly shrugged.

“I think ‘Moondae hyung’ will be regretful. I’m more handsome than this Cha Yoo-jin.”

That sounds like a bit of a controversial statement.

“Is there something you can be so confident about?”

“I have a tattoo here!”

“what?!”

Cha Yoo-jin, who points at her forearm, and Kim Rae-bin, who is shocked, let them play… .

Anyway, it seems to be done now.

‘… Did you fix it?’

If I had known this was going to happen, I would have said I was a fan from the beginning, no, I’m not a real fan anyway, so if I said that, I could have raised more vigilance, so is this the best?

‘I think he’s less stressed with this, so this is the best… .’

I lowered my upper body with the thought of pouring water while holding down a cold brow.

It was then.

Liquid spilled onto the table.

It wasn’t water.

“Moondae hyung?”

oh shit

nosebleed

***

“Are you okay? Going to the ER is… .”

“Because it’s okay.”

I muttered as I took an ice pack from my already dead nose.

It’s the first time I’ve had a nosebleed just because I stayed up all night. It wasn’t like that in < Azusa >, but I needed Bacchus as well.

‘Maybe my brain is overloaded with so many things to do.’

The blood rushed to his head, and the pressure seemed to be trying to escape through his nose.

Anyway, it means that my head is clear.

“Suddenly I see people.”

“yes. I think we should be careful.”

We are now sitting on a parasol chair in front of a convenience store.

There are a few people on the beach in the distance, and we are all wearing hoodies and masks, so no one recognizes us yet.

But I don’t know when it will come, so I’ll have to take a taxi back soon… .

“Hey, drink.”

This guy is the problem.

‘I’m not sure if they’ll follow me.’

“thanks.”

Anyway, I opened and drank the ionic beverage offered by Cha Yu-jin. And he paused.

“… … .”

Isn’t this the drink that Steer was advertising at the beginning of his debut?

“Wow, Moondae-hyung, you know that too?”

“what.”

I read the articles organized in the Ads tab of the Steer Wiki.

I kept drinking.

Then I heard a small voice beside me.

“sorry.”

“… … .”

“Are you disappointed in me?”

“no.”

I took the drink out of my mouth.

“I should have paid more attention, but I’m sorry I didn’t.”

“… … .”

I added like a joke.

“We came out fighting T1.”

“What?”

To be so astonished… That’s right.

“So, all schedules related to T1 are blocked. Because of that, I paid more attention to my reputation. Because I’m nervous.”

“… … .”

“I’m sorry if you felt controlled. that’s right. The first time we met, we have no right to do that.”

Rabin Kim was right.

I glanced at the guy sitting next to me who was packing the remaining ice packs.

He sits, seriously concerned about my nosebleed, with a face that has no idea that he has made a tremendous social achievement.

‘I am.’

It was then.

“Hey.”

Cha Yujin wrinkled her nose and shrugged her shoulders.

“I am not trash.”

what are you talking about all of a sudden

“I am grateful to the fans. Moondae hyung, thank you for being our fan.”

“I haven’t even bought an album, so what?”

[…] Some values may not be related to money.]

The guy who made a remark unbecoming from the headquarters of capitalism rested his chin on his lap and put his head on his lap.

“thank you.”

“… … .”

I finished my drink.

“Thank you too.”

We called a taxi on the spot and returned to our accommodation.

Cha Yu-jin did not respond or run away. I just calmly chatted with Kim Rae-bin and naturally boarded the taxi with him.

And it would have been great if that had all worked out.

“Yoo Eugene!”

“… … thank god.”

Even if he hadn’t found Ryu Cheng-wu, who had a very bad complexion, among the guys who welcomed the situation like this.

‘What.’

I felt a strong premonition of being X.

“Cheongwoo hyung, what’s going on?”

“… … hmm.”

it means there is Damn.

“I got a call from the company… This is because the staff guessed. Don’t worry too much, just listen.”

“… … .”

“I heard that Ether will appear as a special guest at an event called Summer Pool today.”

what?

I realized the meaning hidden in those words.

“… It wasn’t originally on the schedule, but suddenly?”

“suddenly.”

Yes.

Iter said he suddenly decided to appear at an event similar to Waterpool, but smaller, for a near-unpaid fee.

But why did our company rush to hear about it and contact us?

“I guess… The company seems to have leaked something about Eugene.”

“… … .”

So, through the mouth of someone in the company, the fact that Cha Yu-jin escaped reached the ears of the person in charge… … .

“If you guys hadn’t been able to find Eugene, there might have been an article in the evening.”

The person in charge of the other side predicted that this water night event would be bad news for Testa.

And hastily inserted Ether into a similar but smaller event to serve as a comparison group.

‘X feet.’

nice head

‘In this way, even small-scale things become storytelling with the passion and spirit of a rookie.’

They are aiming for word-of-mouth, in contrast to group 1 idol members who deserted due to their full year and popularity, or idol groups who canceled Water Bomb.

However, that is a story assuming that Cha Yu-jin ran out of control like a dog.

“… yes. However, since Cha Yoo-jin has returned safely, the effect that the agency is aiming for will not work.”

“huh. That’s why I told you not to worry too much. I didn’t say anything, but I thought you’d be more anxious later.”

“… … .”

That’s right.

Liu Qingyu smiled faintly.

“Anyway, get some rest. It’s okay if I contact the company. Until the event… Well, I think it would be okay to sleep for about four hours.”

“hmm.”

That doesn’t work.

“No, we need to match our formation one more time. You should also check the parts. Since the center is missing, I think I need to pay more attention.”

In the first place, I had to tune more like a knife to make a song that was made with the presence of Cha Yu-jin in mind without him.

However, Liu Chengwu shook his head.

“Your complexion is really bad right now. … Then let’s go to sleep right away. Well, first of all, we’ll put it together… .”

“Do you have a group schedule for the evening?”

“… !”

I was about to hit

Cha Yoo-jin suddenly interrupted the conversation.

‘What.’

When I asked, ‘Do you have a schedule?’, he didn’t seem very curious to see if he was listening carefully to the conversation.

“… that’s right. It’s an event.”

“Are you in trouble because ‘Cha Yoo-jin’ isn’t there?”

“… a little bit.”

“Umm.”

Steer Cha Yoo-jin stared into the air for a moment as if lost in thought.

And I glanced back at Kim Rae-bin.

… no way?

“[Your nosebleed is half my fault.] I have a responsibility too. therefore…
.”

“… ??”

“I have to schedule this evening.”

“… !!”

“Really?!”

“I am not lying.”

“Cha Yoo-jin!!”

The living room was filled with admiration, screams and bewilderment.

I almost opened my mouth too.

‘… I couldn’t have imagined it.’

Steer Cha Yoo-jin joined the temporary schedule.

Even at water night.

But after a while.

“Moondaemundae Wait a minute.”

“uh.”

Big Sejin carefully called me out.

“It’s really good that Eugene is cooperating, but… You know how many hours are left until our water night, right?”

Big Sejin spoke quickly and accurately.

“If we can’t do as well as our Eugene, it might be better to just fall into it. We’re done talking about health issues anyway.”

“… … .”

“what do you think about it?”

It was a reasonable concern and a cool judgment.

I probably would have nodded my head if it hadn’t been for the other information values. But… .

I chuckled.

“I guess I don’t have to worry.”

“… !”

“Let’s get right into practice.”

No other words will be needed.

Just once.

It’s because I know that this guy’s worries will disappear after the choreography cool goes around.

‘No, rather… .’

I don’t know if other emotions arise in that place.

“… okay.”

and after 30 minutes.

“… !”

Let me say my predictions came true.

Just like that, the time for water night was approaching.

Chapter 479

Episode 479

Seoul Water Night.

“Wow!!”

“evil! hey!”

Streams of water and laughter, screams and music erupted from all directions.

A frantic summer festival that traded fun and physical strength had been in full swing since daytime.

Usually, this type of event had a lot more people who focused on what they were doing, but today’s water night showed a lot of people who didn’t.

“Is this the last of the kids?”

“Yep. maybe?”

I am a fan of Testa.

Of course, not all of them are like that, as Testa itself has a good public awareness and this event is not their solo performance.

However, it was also true that the type of people who would not have come to a 10-hour water gun, running, and screaming party even if they were tired did come.

And even if it wasn't the fans, most of the people who came to Waterbomb today were looking forward to seeing Testa's stage as a 'famous singer' and having fun.

"Oh, it's cold."

"Yeah, but the more famous kids come out to dinner. Testa won't come out until after 9 o'clock??"

"okay. let's go john … Hey hey Mudy is coming up!"

"oh my god!"

However, unlike the general participants who just focused on the festival itself, some of Testa's fans were suffering from other anxiety.

Of course, it was because of Cha Yoo-jin's absence.

-It's so sad that Yujin does

A few days ago, the announcement that Cha Yu-jin had stopped her schedule due to health had already surfaced, and naturally, most of the predictions were that Cha Yu-jin would not come even today at Water Night.

It was easy to find posts on SNS expressing concerns about Cha Yu-jin's health and wishing him a speedy recovery.

However, there was one problem with keeping the line there.

Cha Yoo-jin's star quality was too good.

-?? A sudden break without telling the name of the disease??

-ㅋㅋㅋ It’s a shame that Yujincha doesn’t post a single post in the public world

. Really -Couldn’t Chamera have lost

again

Even to the point of abruptly stopping the schedule without a deadline?

In addition, it is not known exactly where it hurts.

It is only written that he was advised to take a temporary break due to ‘physical and mental burden’.

That’s why I sometimes think this way, either subtly or explicitly.

‘I’m curious.’

Why are you sick?

The story hasn’t come out of the water yet, but all sorts of speculations have been going around behind the scenes of the fandom.

In addition, some aggro suddenly started appearing from dawn.

-Cha Eugene is not sick or he is not coming out to meet his girlfriend hahaha^^ The company was upset because he stayed out without permission yesterday, idiots. was

Accounts with similar tone of voice appeared out of nowhere and uttered provocative sounds.

From the time the contract was renewed to the fact that he had a girlfriend, that he had a fight with the members in the dorm, and that there was already noise, all the stars came out.

In addition, in the aftermath, it was said that Testa might not be able to come out at all today at Waterbomb! -Look at whether

Testa comes out or not, really hahahaha I'm sorry.

-I wonder if there's something

-It's true that he doesn't consume casual stories, but to be honest, he's a bit different

. It was a little quiet around daytime, but the fans who had already seen it were in a somewhat uncomfortable state.

'Ugh it's frustrating… .'

The same was true of Kim Rae-bin's fan who came with his friends to the water night, which was nowhere to be found here.

'Is Cha Yujin really sick right now?'

It's a yard where I wonder if I should get a partial refund of the ticket price because one of the members who would be the best at Waterbomb is missing.

Of course, it wouldn't be because of Kim Rae-bin.

'Kim Rae-bin is lost… I won't.'

Even though he muttered that he had no expectations, Kim Rae-bin's fan crept forward and sideways as close as possible to the overhanging stage fence.

Standing outside for hours soaked in water, the mildly uncomfortable and cold couldn't hinder her movements.

"huh? Can I see you from the front?"

"Ugh."

My friends immediately followed me.

When I looked around, it was clear that many people were fighting for attention and filling in the gaps between the missing seats, so it was clear that everyone was thinking of the time table in their heads.

okay.

What's unpleasant is what's unpleasant, and Testa's real thing is the real thing.

'What's the reason Testa doesn't come out?'

In the end, there was no such thing as a cancellation notice.

The final corner now.

'Come out!!'

[Hello Seoul~]

Papababapapang!!

Amidst water cannons, intense sounds, firecracker-like flame effects, and LEDs exploding, six tall figures rise to a gigantic outdoor stage on a gloomy midsummer evening.

[Make some noise!]

It was Testa!

"Waaaaaagh!!!"

Even as he reflexively screamed, the fan noticed.

Cha Yoo-jin was missing.

But it was a moment. At the same time, my eyes went to Testa's outfit.

They were dressed in simple white T-shirts and jeans. A light outfit that ends with two or three members wearing jean jackets.

But in a place like this, simple is best.

This is because water becomes the point factor for everything else.

Aaaaaaa!!!

Against the backdrop of deafening cheers, the familiar prelude begins to play.

Exciting and fast beats.

< Promise > is a bit more rhythmically arranged to suit the festival.

[Take your STAR

On a starry day,

kick the waves and run

to the sky Run and Fly!]

It is a popular hit song with an idol-like refreshing taste.

It felt very wholesome for a waterbomb, but it was still fun, like a college festival where you sing along to a song you know.

In addition, because of the commonality in the keyword 'water', they matched perfectly in terms of performance.

"and!!"

“Do a good job, fuck you!”

Already, primary cheers poured in to Testa’s performance of running around splashing water while wearing only specially made non-slip pads on her bare feet.

In addition, Testa members generously used their bodies. [

Let’s go

today is good for today !]

In verse 2, he deliberately included an ad-lib interlude and started running around the protruding stage freely.

“Ahyeonah!”

For example, Seonahyeon protruded to the front of the overhang and turned gracefully and swiftly while being hit by the spray.

“Wow!!”

Streams of water poured down again to Seon Ah-hyun, who waved her hand with a slight shy look on her face.

And if you look to the side,

“Ryu Cheng-wu! Ryu Cheng-wu!”

“Please stay here!”

‘and… .’

It was to the point where I could see the whirlwind of desire. Even people who don’t seem to be particularly Testa fans are like that.

Ryu Chung-woo was doing fan service while being hit by water pouring down his neck and back, without showing any dislike.

‘Crazy abs… .’

Refraining from going back naturally, Kim Rae-bin’s fan turned his head to find his favorite

[Yes, fly so far] right in front of him!

Kim Rae-bin’s white face, which made his piercings extravagant, was right in front of him.

‘Kigi Rae-bin Kim’

Rae-bin Kim’s fan almost lost his mind for a moment… .

But soon I had to come to my senses.

It was because the guy who was one of the members wearing the jacket was facing the exciting requests of the mischievous couple audience right next to him.

“Take it off! Take it off!”

Let’s take off our jackets and play hotly together. This is it.

‘I’m going to do that to Kim Rae-bin’s personality!’

however… .

The guy who nodded… Take off your real jacket!

“… ?!”

And handed it over to the audience.

“Aaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaa?!”

“Mom!”

‘You madman!’

The screams of the person handed over and the people around them turned the surroundings into a crucible of frenzy.

Kim Rae-bin didn’t seem to understand why the water gun was pouring instead of thanks, but he seemed to think it was a sign of gratitude.

Kim Rae-bin, who lowered his head and ran on stage again, had his white top wet on his back.

‘X… X feet.’

thanks.

I wanted to punch myself for cursing at such a dangerous event as Water Night.

high stimulation crazy

‘Are you in good shape too? !’

Rabin Kim’s fans once again admired his decision not to pick up a smartphone.

I’m taking it, someone else will take it. What I see with my own eyes is more important!

[Today is going to shine!]

Testa finished the first song only after performing a thrilling dance break once again after turning around the protrusion.

A cheer that seemed to leave the outdoor concert hall shook the air.

[hello~! Nice to meet you!]

It was the same when Testa tried to say hello and talk.

[Oh, I'd be more grateful if you avoid our faces so that we can sing that song… Hey.]

Even while he was talking, the water splashed on his face mercilessly.

However, Lee Se-jin grinned and stole the ball with his shirt lifted and laughed.

[All right! Still, playing is more important~?]

Then, cheers and positivity that seemed to leave the venue rang.

Dimin Kim Rae-bin's fans frowned for a moment even in that hot and exciting atmosphere.

'Ah, that's why I did a bit of water bomb.'

It was because it could be dangerous because of ignorant bastards who shoot at the sight or madmen who mix alcohol instead of water.

Especially when it comes to famous male idols, there are many cases where they have strange fandoms or passionate seeds.

however.

Park Moon-dae, who has already become like a wet puppy, made a serious bombshell statement.

[Then just… Shoot comfortably.]

"… ??"

[We'll take care of it.]

Then, everyone in Testa started taking something out of their pockets.

It was waterproof goggles.

"Hahaha!"

I didn’t use it when I came out, but now I’m wearing armor!

While the people who were attacked by the time lag laughed, Testa laughed nonchalantly and pressed down on her goggles.

It was a pretty cool fashion goggle.

And without a chance to catch your breath, they jump out to the protruding stage one by one in the order they are worn!

[Goes right to the next song!]

“Waaaaaaaaaa!!”

“Ah!!”

Well done seat selection!! crazy!!

While Kim Rae-bin’s fan was screaming with his friend by the arm, water guns were poured on Bae Se-jin, who stood right in front of them.

The jacket, the bare feet, and the white shirt underneath were all wet.

‘Poor!’

Even so, she did not stop her friend from diligently shooting water at Bae Se-jin’s stomach… .

Jeonju flows in an atmosphere soaring with excitement due to excitement and hormone runaway.

[Doong… !]

“Ah, the latest song!”

It was ‘Roll the Dice’.

It seemed like this was also arranged a little more intensely, and the beat sped up a bit.

When people are already starting to scream and respond.

[Oh and… There is a guest.]

“Huh?”

Liu Chengyu suddenly laughed and said that.

But without any explanation of what he meant, and without time for people to mumble in curiosity… .

[

My tape that touches your hand and winds up again!]

The song started with Park Moon-dae’s high note.

“Wow!”

Park Mun-dae, wearing goggles, moved his body vigorously as if he didn’t care who shot the water where. People cheer and follow the movement. [

All senses slow

when the heart beats]

Testa drew a characteristic and impressive choreography like a knife, but other formations and gestures were used somewhat freely and ran around the protruding stage.

Flashes of light from people’s cameras.

The moment of the performance when the song runs, the beat beats, and the air on a summer evening seems to explode with heat and moisture.

The last part right before the pre-chorus!

[Finding a definite answer-]

And.

Suddenly the music stopped.

“… ?”

In a situation where you need to explode with the most excitement!

That moment when I thought it was an acoustic accident.

ping!

Brilliant LED lights came on on the electronic display board behind the protruding stage.

And there… someone was standing blond hair. Jeans and a fitted white T-shirt.

The seventh person wearing goggles.

Yoojin Cha.

[…] … .]

He picks up the microphone and makes a short sound as if testing.

[Ah ah.]

That moment.

“Waaaaaagh!!”

“Eugene!!”

“what?? who is this?”

Fans were astonished in a good way by his sudden appearance, and even strangers were swept away by the atmosphere and shouted loudly.

The band accompaniment came back like a whirlwind.

[!!]

And Cha Yoo-jin started jumping out.

“Mi crazy!”

Cha Yoo-jin, who swept her hair halfway, ran and went straight through the wet stage, ignoring it.

Even in the midst of this, he does not lose his breath, and without stopping, he pulls up his part as if shooting and inserts it over the microphone.

[You have one choice,

yes, take them all, one more,

even if you lose this tightly held hand]

And go to the front.

The moment you set foot in the center of Testa’s large frame.

[Let’s Start a melee]

The song drops.

A splendid dance break that was not in the original song.

[side side side]

Cha Yoo-jin bounced forward.

“… … !!”

crazy.

crazy crazy!

The squirting stopped temporarily in front of the protrusion.

Impressive presence and exhilarating explosive power.

‘what??’

[Just roll the dice]

Cha Yoo-jin performed a dance break in a form close to solo dance.

The action of kicking off the ground with your feet and moving your body as if you were sweeping the floor with your body’s recoil and bouncing your body looked great at first glance, but it also seemed like a lot of overload.

‘Huh??’

But there was no time to calm down.

Cha Yoo-jin’s next action was to casually take off her top and throw it among the dumbfounded people.

A well-trained upper body was immediately revealed.

“… ?!”

“Aaaagh!!”

It goes on like that.

I kept creating something that I couldn’t take my eyes off of.

When we entered the slow section, Cha Yoo-jin deliberately sat down and greeted me with water.

So that I can hit you directly in the face.

‘mi… crazy.’

And without closing his eyes, he stared at each and every one of the people who were shooting water guns, then threw off his goggles and stood up.

very naturally.

However, just in time for the interim to end, he rejoined the formation.

And the last chorus performance of the driving title song.

[Pull]

Firecrackers exploded.

However, even that loud and splendid finale looks like a background, he generously crossed all the lines and burned it.

so the same time.

-Mimi ｜Chin Water Bomb Cha Yoo-jin appeared -Oops,

Cha Yu-jin’s

social media was turning upside down.

And all of this was possible for one reason.

It is not that Steer Cha Yu-jin had higher absolute abilities than Testa Cha Yu-jin.

The lack of management and education was so painful.

just experience.

All the things I went through because of the group with so many incidents.

There are many sudden changes depending on the situation, so the ability to learn and apply choreography at the moment is inevitably increased.

Because if you don’t grow, you can’t survive.

– I got them all.

-omg.

So he mastered the choreography of Testa's latest title remix and two songs for other events in 4 hours.

and… .

Moments in which I desperately remained by adapting to very uncomfortable and unfamiliar situations in order to somehow show an impressive stage.

In order to seize the opportunity, there was one ability he had developed to the limit.

[Feature: EX (EX)]

If only the opportunity came.

He was a man who would not lose sight of him.

Chapter 480

Episode 480 Waterbomb

‘s testa has crazily covered social media.

-sssssssssssss Ryu Cheong-woo Sangtal!!

-Waterbomb I am I am using a phone with a broken screen right now

-What should I do

heat and energy.

As if exclamation marks were attached to all those expressions, they were full of liveliness and dynamism. And excitement close to madness overflowed.

And, to be sure, the MVP is… .

-Crazy guy (video)

It was Cha Yoo-jin.

Cha Yoo-jin, who suddenly appeared in the middle and wandered around the stage as if she was going to eat her, was captured from all angles on her phone camera and uploaded to the Internet.

Numerous eye contact photos and videos are still pouring in.

In this short time, it seemed that there were hundreds of people talking frantically about eye contact with Cha Yoo-jin.

-I can’t hear you, Cha Yoo-jin? Every time I come, I scream so much Cha Yujin

-ㅠㅠㅠㅠㅠㅠㅠㅠㅠㅠ (Photo)

-Did you originally look like this? (Video)

A Midsummer Night.

Cha Yoo-jin, whose eyes shine with the backlight of the sun-like lighting that pierces her eyes, seemed to swallow her gaze.

-Wow X feet

-He said it hurts

-X is flying around;;;

-You must be crazy Ah please Ah Na I sold tickets because I thought you wouldn’t come out, bastard.

A few days ago, it was announced that Cha Yujin would be absent from the schedule due to health reasons. Naturally, it was an established theory that there was a high probability of not attending the water night.

But on the day

-????

-Everyone was stunned by the sight of him appearing suddenly in the middle without saying anything and running madly towards the audience on stage

And soon I was screaming.

However, the voice of dissatisfaction caused by such individual losses is not noticeable… .

-Cha Yoo-jin and Crazy were so overwhelming.

Cha Yoo-jin's eyes in Water Bomb could be seen even through the low-resolution screen shaking with water droplets and moisture.

Powerful expression and movement.

-It's a legend

-I thought it would suit Waterbomb,

but I didn't expect it to be this much…

-It's not painful, what kind of training did you come from?

Like the fact that Testa only allocated a small number of choreography parts, or that each part was filled with ad-libs so that the sum was less than usual.

For some reason, Cha Yoo-jin's vocalization seems a bit less stable.

However, he did not dare to leave enough mental space for the audience to care about such things.

The most maximized ability at such a festival-type event.

Because of the existence of ki stats that have been trained to the limit.

That alone caught my eye.

-I posted 3 seconds of Cha Yoo-jin on a crazy in-heart, but in 10 minutes, the number of views has already exceeded 50,000;

The number of views poured in just by posting a short cut with a hashtag on social media.

-Oh, I'm going crazy

. -Doesn't Water Bomb sell VOD? The audience in the video seemed to be going crazy to the extent that the reactions of Internet people who started hitting the ground were not awkward

In fact, it was.

Water night site.

Wow!!

The stage runs like crazy.

[In the pose!]

The third stage is 'Pose', a new song with an exciting American 80's teen concept.

This song, which was originally focused on a playful and exciting boyish beauty, was developed with a more relaxed and hot feeling in line with the water night.

I didn't bother to comment, but Steer Cha Yoo-jin quite liked this song.

So I tried not to think more deeply.

They implemented the choreography they had learned and went wild.

"Whoa."

And finally, the interlude between the songs.

[Did you enjoy it?]

I could barely hear the progress.

‘… Wow.’

He took a deep breath and brushed his hair when he saw a firm hand handing him a water bottle.

It was the leader Ryu Chung-woo.

“… … .”

Steer Cha Yoo-jin almost misunderstood for a moment. It was because of the adrenaline.

But soon I realized the situation again.

‘are you okay.’

“Thanks.”

He drank half of it in one gulp and poured the other half over his head with a grin. Again, screams erupted from the audience.

And the sad words of Lee Se-jin.

[Yes, Yujin Cha appeared as a special guest, right

yes!!

Screams mingled with positive admiration and profanity were rampant.

Spectators Spectators!

‘Oh shit.’

It’s embarrassing to say these words, but Cha Yu-jin felt a tickle as if she stood on end for a moment.

Could it be that this response has been taking too long?

And Park Moon-dae, who was getting hit by water while wringing out his jacket from the side, also noticed Cha Yu-jin's expression.

'I was overwhelmed for a moment.'

He also knew the exact reason.

So it's because it's been too long since Steer has been given this kind of environment.

Unlike Testa.

'… Testa is the headliner of the show.'

So, the audience for this performance was already ready to pay attention to them.

'… … .'

That was an element that Steer Cha Yoo-jin couldn't have no matter how much he was active.

Steer was already a 'cold' group once.

The public is not interested in materials that have been consumed like that and have lost their sweetness until the 'cool time' returns.

Not paying attention.

How terrifying is the prejudice of human psychology.

That characteristic made me not even watch 'Lee' Cha Yoo-jin's stage.

'but.'

A miraculous moment when the public's interest will return.

Waiting for just one moment, the presence of Steer Cha Yoo-jin, who polished himself until the very end, displayed an enormous suction power that is now violent.

At least Park Moon-dae knew that, so he smiled in many ways.

‘okay. discharge… .’

Until I was hit by water again all over my body.

“Take it off!!”

“… yep.”

Wow!!!

Park Moon-dae gave up the jacket again without any regrets about the water cannon. Regardless of the progress, the sudden cheers grew.

[Then, let’s go to our encore song~]

And by slowing down the tempo, the last song slightly revives the atmosphere of the summer night.

It’s a very popular song that everyone can sing along to.

The OST of the Limestone movie.

[Black- hole

Let me swallow it]

Black hole.

A deep voice rang in my ears.

What sounds like a chorus are the voices of the audience.

Ohhhh-

Some excited audiences turned on and shook their smartphone flashlights to set the mood.

Cha Yoo-jin moved his body while listening to the unfamiliar and good song he had practiced for only a few hours.

The cheers deepened again.

He looks at the audience and listens to the music in the adrenaline rush.

Deep, rich and unique melody.

And in it, he found traces he knew.

guitar riff.

I remember the low, lack of confidence voice my friend used to listen to.

– On the next album… No, if it's impossible, it would be nice if I could use it someday… … .

'Kim Rae-bin made it.'

Here, he seemed to have made it into a song as he wanted.

But the feeling was very short-lived. To be immersed in such thoughts… .

It's been such a long time since we've been on this stage and it's so big.

And there were people who kept following him with their eyes.

like possessed.

"Cha Yoo-jin!"

"Eugene!"

Are they fans of this 'Testa Yoojin Cha'?

Or is this just a reaction to my stage?

I couldn’t tell.

But at this moment… .

[Black-hole!]

Because the one standing on the stage was himself.

Cha Yu-jin was able to fully accept the stimulus.

He moves his body, expresses himself, and digests the song.

And the viewer reacts!

that thrill.

So I realized.

‘ah.’

That’s why.

[Hit it like a comet]

Give up cleanly and find another way.

The reason why I couldn’t keep that simple principle.

The reason I couldn’t give up.

‘fun.’

[Shatter like a shooting star]

He fucking liked it.

* * *

The bed was comfortable.

And the writing that catches the eye is also very comfortable.

-Come out to Waterbomb one more time… please

“Hmm.”

I turned the smartphone page with satisfaction.

Half a day after the water night.

All of the articles related to Waterbomb, which are still occupying real-time trends, are related to Testa.

‘It was a somewhat difficult route from safety to exposure.’

It was a rewarding Buzz-Ryang for making an unconventional choice even after taking some risks into account.

– Can you please come to Incheon? I’ll do really well, I’ll put Evoang in the water gun

please .

If you see this and don’t like it, you don’t like your man.

Even humorous posts like this are popping up.

-Crazy ha ha ha

no, on the contrary… .

-Well, it seems to be less talented than I thought

In a word, rather, while marketing with a tight grip on the concept, our weakness was slightly revealed at a raw event like shooting water.

Lack of experience.

Lack of live coping skills.

‘hmm.’

I rubbed my chin.

If you do this well… I could feed it in reverse.

‘It’s a bit embarrassing.’

No matter how you think about it, trying to go viral with Cha Yoo-jin was a bit excessive.

‘Isn’t it hard to see that as a strategy?’

But only if you really think it’s a strategy.

I laughed and got up from the bed.

‘An eye for an eye, I can do the same…’ .’

“Lie down, Park Moondae.”

“… … .”

shit.

I leaned against the head of the bed. Sejin Lee sat down on the edge of the bed with a smile on his face.

“Yeah~ As soon as the schedule ends, I get sick! 38 degree fever!”

“… … .”

“As expected, it’s Moondae. It hurts after finishing all the schedules again!”

stop.

“But then you mean you’re going to get some rest right now? huh?”

“uh.”

But isn’t it possible to use the head while resting the body?

I’m not even the only one who stretched out.

if you listen

“Ugh.”

“after… … .”

This is the sound of Kim Rae-bin and Bae Se-jin going head-to-head in their own rooms.

Yes. Only the bad guys at Waterbomb wore jackets.

‘All of them are the ones with the most movement during the Cha Yu-jin incident.’

However, since they all lost their jackets and ended up running around bare-chested, it can be seen as a predestined result. It seems like my body has become very heavy since dawn.

I nodded and soon came to a fairly convincing guess.

By the way, even though we had a lot of movement, the other guys wouldn't have been able to do it, right?

'I stayed up all night, ran around the company, and struggled for days.'

But there, I even performed while being hit by water from an unknown source all over my body… .

"You must be in bad shape too, aren't you?"

"… … ."

Avert this kid's eyes

"Go lie down."

"yes."

and after 2 hours.

Soon, everyone started to feel stable.

"… What?"

That is, everyone except Steer Cha Yu-jin.

Chapter 481

If you don’t debut, you’ll get a fatal disease Episode 481

This is a dorm.

Survivors… Few.

“Ugh.”

“her… … .”

This isn’t some kind of disease apocalypse.

It’s a new accommodation where I haven’t unpacked my luggage properly because I’m busy, but no one walks around, so it’s empty.

‘They’re all messing around.’

even say

“Haha, body aches… I don’t know how many years.”

“… … .”

Liu Cheng-wu also stretched out.

I looked back at the smiling guy on the bed next to me taking antipyretics.

‘I was hit tenaciously by water.’

Of course, that wasn’t the only reason why this guy stretched out. Because he was a guy who didn’t show any signs of exhaustion even after going through concerts for three days in a row.

It seems that the overlapping stress and pressure from the bankruptcy of the company, and the reckless forced march during the album preparation period overlapped with the Cha Yu-jin incident and exploded all at once.

‘Because I’m the leader, I would have done more.’

But the great thing about it is that this guy is in the best condition.

And that’s the problem you know.

“Um, I’ll go to work for a while when I feel better… .”

me really

“Get some rest. I don’t even have a schedule.”

“… !”

“It’s not too late to receive a call from the company when it arrives. There is nothing urgent.”

“… … huh. okay.”

Liu Qingyu lay back on the bed with a slightly embarrassed smile.

I just… Once I lay down on the road blanket.

‘what… There are days when I can rest like this.’

The important things are at this point when it’s finished.

I thought that it would be okay for a day or so.

Wiing.

The wind blew along with the sound of the circulator. That was enough.

It’s really funny how no one says it’s hot on this summer day even though the air conditioner isn’t on.

‘hmm.’

But there is only one exception.

“Turn on the air conditioner.”

“I’m not trash.”

Standing on the doorstep with grim eyes… the only survivor.

It’s Cha Yoo-jin.

“Why is everyone sick?”

The surprisingly lively guy came out of the living room early in the morning and has been wandering until now.

I can’t seem to get in because Bae Se-jin is arguing in my room.

By the way, the funniest thing is that this situation went up on social media in the opposite way.

-Ah, Eugene said he would go out somehow, so he appeared on the show, but he seems to be taking a break because he’s getting worse

People firmly believe that Cha Yoo-jin, in the midst of her illness, demonstrated her fighting spirit and flew around the stage to become a legend.

But officially, the only sick guy is actually the only healthy guy among them.

“I’ll wash everything off in the evening and wake up, so you don’t have to worry about it.”

“… … .”

So Steer Cha Yoo-jin pretends not to be, but looks quite embarrassed. I haven’t been able to sit in one place ever since.

‘… … I can’t go out and play with that.’

Still, I don’t think this kid will escape again saying something about control.

In fact, Steer Cha Yu-jin seemed to be lost in thought in a good way, although he was strangely speechless right after yesterday’s performance.

I mean, it’s pretty stable.

‘good.’

then.

I pressed the back of my hand to my burning forehead and said calmly.

“I think it won’t matter if you close the door and turn on the air conditioner in the living room.”

“… … .”

“no. quite big… Change rooms with Sejin Lee. I will change it right away.”

Yes, I did this a long time ago. He would have softened a bit if we gave him a solitary cell and guaranteed privacy.

‘I was too obsessed with getting rid of variables.’

It looks rather like it's a little relaxed. Is being sick a benefit? I saw steer Cha Yoo-jin.

'It seems that the tension between us has eased quite a bit while we're together on stage this time.'

Once the result of the group task is A, it is a similar phenomenon to the disappearance of bad feelings for the members who participated properly even though the process was a bit X.

'This guy did a good job.'

Yoojin Cha.

If it wasn't for this guy, a lot of this buzz would probably have been cut off.

First of all, a guy who didn't seem to appear suddenly appeared in the middle, dragged it once, and ate all the popular videos with the talent stat EX, and it was a hot topic.

'… The reaction when Cha Yoo-jin returns here is a bit problematic.'

I wish I had a memory.

In any case, it means that in a situation where friendly relations are built like this, there is a high probability that the proposal will work well.

'I think it will work this time.'

I looked at him with quite confidence.

however.

"I have no intention of taking that sick person's room."

"… !"

[I told you. It's not that trashy.]

And the guy left the door fluttering around the neck of his T-shirt.

“… … .”

no… .

‘Then what?’

Even if you give me a solution, I’m spitting it out.

Why did you say it was hot? Was it an expression of intent for the build-up to eat at least ice cream?

I turned to Liu Cheng-wu for objective confirmation, but soon discovered that he was soundly asleep.

“… … .”

Let it be.

‘… I don’t know.’

okay. Do it yourself.

In the end, I decided to guarantee proper autonomy to Cha Yu-jin.

It means that I crawled out of bed and said this.

“The manager is busy… It should be on your phone too. If you need something, ask for it and get some ice cream.”

“… … .”

“Don’t talk about details like who we are and how we are sick.”

Seeing that the words leaked to other agencies, I thought I should be careful until I properly cracked down on my mouth.

Isn’t it hard to expect that kind of thing from Lee Cha Yoo-jin?

‘This should be enough.’

however… Steer Cha Yoo-jin sighed.

what?

“OK. I get it now.”

“What… .”

“Go to bed now.”

And I was pushed into the road room.

“… … ?”

Cha Yoo-jin turned around and was sitting on the sofa, holding a smartphone.

‘What is he doing?’

And this question will be solved step by step.

* * *

Once… In less than an hour, something arrived in a box at the dorm.

Ding-Dong.

‘Ice cream and… Ice pack?’

And a few necessities and groceries.

From the circumstances, did you guess that Cha Yoo-jin contacted the manager?

no. It was not prepared by company employees.

“You did it?”

“Yeah.”

I ordered delivery to the mart myself.

“Moondae hyung didn’t like contacting the company. no?”

“… … .”

“And any adult living in Korea can use this method.”

No, it’s not that I thought you couldn’t make delivery.

‘For some reason, I didn’t think I would do it myself because it’s an overly active gesture for my life here.’

“I need to organize… .”

“Nope.”

However, Cha Yoo-jin kicked Kim Rae-bin’s ass as he stumbled out and sent him back to the room, and even went so far as to organize the boxes he ordered himself.

Surprisingly, Cha Yoo-jin’s practice of ‘doing it myself’ began here.

First of all, I put hot and cold water in a tumbler and turned it around.

“Your face doesn’t look okay.”

They handed out ice packs lined with towels.

“Uh~? I had a towel like this… .”

“bought.”

In the end, I came to check the temperature and even check the timing of taking medicine.

“The fever hasn’t come down yet. Ice pack.”

“… … .”

I watched the guy leave the thermometer and refrained from sobbing in bed.

It’s confusing at this point.

I… Taking care of Yoojin Cha?

To that guy too?

‘Is it true?’

I turned my head. Seeing Ryu Cheong-woo open the towel of the ice pack with a puzzled expression, it seemed that reality was true.

However, we did not know that the peak of the fire had not yet come out.

an hour later.

“… … brother.”

“why.”

“What does this smell like?”

“… !”

I raised my head and looked outside.

I saw a boiling pot in the kitchen outside the door.

From there, the unique smell of rich broth was coming up.

“… ??”

And standing in front of that pot… It’s Cha Yoo-jin.

“… ?!”

Does Cha Yoo-jin cook?

I wondered what the hell he did or why he bothered to make food for himself, but… .

Surprisingly, the purpose of cooking was not self-sufficiency.

“Come out and eat.”

“… … .”

The guy called the goalkeeper to the table.

The members who were summoned in that way were able to sit around the table and confirm the identity of the food he cooked.

that… .

“Ugh.”

“this.”

Familiar.

-Chicken soup for the soul!

It was because it was a recipe Cha Yu-jin had already tried several times.

‘Did you say your mother told you about it?’

It seemed to have a taste of its own. But what happened every time he tried this dish… .

Once I added honey.

– Wow!

One time it almost caught fire.

– Aaaaagh!

In a word, it was devastating.

There will be no one here who doesn't remember.

"… … ."

"… … ."

Bae Se-jin's trembling voice was heard.

"… Why bother with the option of making me die?"

I can't bear to refute it.

however… I looked up and saw Yujin Cha in the kitchen, who was still cleaning up.

To be precise, his hand movements.

'hmm.'

It was the movement of someone who had experienced it.

That doesn't mean it wasn't a random attempt. I mean, I used to cook on a daily basis before.

then.

'… Was there a time when the company didn't take good care of me?'

In a word, it would be a case of increased skill.

After thinking a little, I answered briefly. I just can't talk about all of this.

"… Thank you."

"… … okay."

At those words, everyone sat up straight as if they had made a firm decision. It's the momentum that will eat whatever comes out.

Soon, Yujin Cha sat down at the table with something similar to soft white porridge, probably from a side menu.

The members flinched, but Steer Cha Yoo-jin opened his mouth without much reaction.

"It may be a little strange. I can only cook for myself when I am sick."

"… … ."

Instead of saying, 'Then let them die', Seon Ah-hyun's happy voice came out.

"I'll eat well… !"

"thanks."

And after a while holding a spoon quite spleenly.

"… !"

"It's delicious… ?"

"It has a unique flavor!"

Surprisingly, Cha Yoo-jin's chicken soup tasted really good.

'No, I'm really fine.'

It means that it is really delicious if it sticks to the mouth of a sick foreign person.

Steer Cha Yoo-jin smiled a little.

"Good."

With the atmosphere relaxed, the meal began to take place.

And the sick people also started to talk with their mouths open as if their stomachs were filled.

“Yesterday’s water night… It was fun.”

“Ah, really. I enjoyed it so much that everyone ended up like this!”

“that’s right. But Eugene had the best reaction and is the healthiest.”

Ryu Chung-woo probably thought of leading the story with a gentle ‘and thank you so much for taking care of me like this’.

However, Cha Yoo-jin reacted like this with a slightly furrowed eyebrow.

“That also has a reaction to ‘this’ testa, Cha Yoo-jin.”

“… !”

I didn’t step out

‘I don’t think I’m arguing with you?’

Rather, it was because I felt respect.

And now there are guys besides me who refute it.

“Though… You performed the stage that people saw yesterday.”

“Right~ There must have been more people who just came to the event than our fans?”

“… … .”

“That’s great, our Cha Yoo-jin is also really good at it… you did really well That’s why people liked you because you did well.”

Cha Yoo-jin was briefly silent. And he answered meekly.

“i know.”

“… … !”

The boy calmly corrected his posture at the table. It was a bit polite.

“Thank you for giving me a chance. And I apologize for my rude attitude at first. sorry.”

Steer Cha Yoo-jin bowed her head, and several members who were embarrassed began to stumble as they lowered their heads to the table.

Huh.

“Oh no. Yeah, it was nice to perform together… ! I’m sorry that I didn’t really understand… .”

“Oh right… .”

The atmosphere became more relaxed.

It was a complete reconciliation mood.

“Okay~ We just need to get along well!”

Well, he seems to think he deserved an apology.

Anyway, the atmosphere that seems to have built up basic trust… It really wasn’t too bad.

“good job.”

“I know.”

After listening to the small conversation between Kim Rae-bin and Cha Yu-jin, I continued to eat.

And I don’t know if it’s really thanks to Cha Yoo-jin’s care, but a few hours later in the evening.

All of the testas were able to recover their energy.

“go!”

“Sejin is going through it.”

So it means that they are gathering in the living room and playing games while sniffing.

Follow me, follow me!

I was sitting behind Saejin Bae, who was roughly turning the handle, and Chengwu Ryu, who was prudent, and watched the moving screen without thinking.

‘I’m still dizzy.’

Cha Yoo-jin did not enter the room unexpectedly and was sitting next to the sofa.

“Are you comfortable?”

[It’s like that. Thanks to my friends and fans.]

Yes, Raebin Kim and… no i’m not a fan well, whatever that is.

I asked casually.

“What about Chungwoo hyung?”

It’s Bae Se-jin. Even if it’s because of the drug problem, isn’t Ryu Chung-woo okay? It would have worked fine until the end.

However, Cha Yoo-jin suddenly shut up and looked at me.

what.

[Sometimes, it is an artist's duty to protect the dreams of fans.]

"… ?"

what are you talking about.

[Nothing.]

Cha Yu-jin stepped back, but I managed to catch the mood with a rough tone.

'What kind of bullshit is that?'

It was clear that steer Ryu Cheong-wu was also mentally upset. He must have been a different person than he is now.

'Well, it doesn't matter anyway.'

Anyway, Steer Cha Yoo-jin seems to have adapted quite a bit here, and he doesn't seem to be uncomfortable or sharp-headed like before.

Right now, Seon Ah-hyun, who brought the peaches, is still talking to me.

"For the rest of my time… I hope we get along well. Ho If there is something I want to try, I try to do it together."

"okay. Speak comfortably!"

Steer Cha Yoo-jin was silent for a moment, but then shrugged.

"OK."

"Oh oh!"

Cheers erupted in the living room as if welcoming them for a moment. It was as if they were recruiting a new colleague.

'hmm.'

Not bad.

I chuckled.

It was then.

Chapter 482

If you can’t debut, you’ll get a fatal disease Episode 482

… I had made such a hypothesis.

The reasoning is that because of this system update, Cha Yoo-jin returned to his self when he was active as a steer.

I don’t know the exact description, but the timing and back and forth seemed convincing.

And the status window notified that the update would take 30 days.

Of course, everyone predicted that they would spend three to four more weeks with Steer Cha Yujin.

however.

[Update complete!]

-Early achievement

This was the moment when this unexpected pop-up suddenly appeared.

[‘■■■ (ver.2 Beta)’ is being applied]

Giying –

Color returns to holograms where only basic lines and fonts remained.

The UI has returned, a frame like a dazzling game system has been set up, and more sophisticated graphics than before have formed a translucent window.

and.

[Complete!]

“… … .”

I don’t know why, but

it’s over.

I knew that intuitively.

I turned my head to look at the guy who was looking at the game screen on the TV with the cart running dizzy.

And he opened his mouth.

“… Cha Yoo-jin.”

The fact that the update ended early means that the anomalies that have happened to Cha Yoo-jin are over… .

“why?”

“… ?”

… Aren’t you done?

Cha Yoo-jin was resting her chin just fine without any abnormal reaction.

Steer Cha Yu-jin was the same.

And when I called and didn’t say anything, he shrugged and turned his face back to the TV.

“It’s okay to tell me if you remember.”

"… … ."

Wait a minute, could this be wrong from the basic inference?

'They said it had nothing to do with the update?'

It was the moment when my head was about to get more complicated.

Tring-!

"… !"

Another pop-up appeared.

[Would you like to restart 'For Company'?]

"… … ."

Oh yes.

I pressed my eyelids with my hand.

I even had a choice of timing.

* * *

Now let's see.

If I don't restart here and cancel the system altogether, there is a possibility that Cha Yu-jin won't be able to come back at all.

But if you restart this bastard right now… Putting aside the embarrassing thing.

'This Cha Yoo-jin… Does it disappear right away?'

… Probably.

It’s obvious, but it’s right to send it back quickly and bring in the original Cha Yoo-jin.

But now that I can make a choice, I start by weighing whether I should tell myself or not.

If I suddenly say to his face, ‘It looks like it can be restored now, so go back right away’, will it clean up without mental damage?

‘… That guy’s memory is Cha Yoo-jin in the state of being dismantled by Steer.’

It’s just a bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of

That guy… There’s a guarantee that you wouldn’t expect to enjoy a stage here once or twice in the future.

‘after.’

I sighed and sat down on the bed.

Anyway, this is a question that doesn’t have a clear answer.

‘first… Everyone is in bad shape right now, so I’ll keep it.’

Let’s decide tomorrow.

“Good night.”

“yes. My brother too.”

However, even after Ryu Cheong-woo, who had a close race with Bae Se-jin until the end, fell asleep in his bed, I could not fall asleep right away.

Had it been about an hour?

“… … .”

Perhaps it was because he had already taken body ailments, but his consciousness was arbitrary.

‘I knew it would be like this.’

Moreover, this guy’s pop-up has so much luminous power that he needs to wear an eyepatch.

Eventually, I grumbled and got up from my seat.

“after.”

And that was when I came out to the living room with the intention of drinking water.

“Do not sleep?”

“… … !”

I ran into Cha Yoo-jin, who was still lying on the sofa in the living room.

“Sleep too much during the day.”

You speak well.

He looked too lively even after midnight for a guy who claimed to be a caregiver all day.

I smiled and got water from the kitchen.

But why doesn’t he go in… Oh, is Bae Se-jin uncomfortable?

“Could you change the room?”

“No thanks.”

The guy who answered sternly stretched and murmured.

[I just… You know when you talk to your friends, right? I want to be more awake.]

Come on.

“Did you talk to Kim Rae-bin?”

“Yeaap.”

And he didn’t spill the tea and said blah blah blah blah blah, it seemed like American slang.

I guessed that it probably meant that we weren’t talking behind our backs.

“I don’t know that kind of slang.”

“Sorry, but Moondae-hyung seems to understand?”

“In the context of notice.”

“Got it.”

Cha Yoo-jin answered appropriately, smiled hihi, and then lay down on the sofa.

It was the most comfortable attitude I’ve ever had.

“… … .”

I drank water and pondered briefly.

Maybe now is the time

It was then.

[Hey, shall I guess?]

Cha Yoo-jin lifted her upper body from the sofa with a kick.

[Did Moondae hyung find a way to send me right away?]

“… !”

[Yeap, I knew it.]

Cha Yoo-jin put down the coke she was drinking with a grin.

[Now that we have some kind of relationship and everything seems to be going well, why would you suddenly look at me and worry?]

“… … .”

[Things turned upside down. Right?]

I can’t even subtract or beat it.

“okay.”

I sat across from the sofa. I thought it would be better to explain the situation well and not twist it.

‘Is it better to leave it open on the premise that it’s okay to fill it up for 30 days if you want?’

That was when I thought about it.

However, before he could even open his mouth, Cha Yoo-jin grinned.

“Why are you hesitating?”

“… !”

[Don’t get confused. I am not your team member.]

Cha Yoo-jin said firmly.

[Oh but I am your KPOP idol. Right?]

And he added it like a joke, but I noticed the nuance.

‘I’m telling you not to sympathize unnecessarily.’

I thought I wanted to use Testa’s reputation like a substitute and give a stage where I can perform while receiving cheers from this steer, Yoojin Cha.

Or, it means that you do not dare to think that you will not be able to give up because you regret it.

There’s no way I want to be treated that way by my fans. It might mean that, but… .

Well, in the first place, that kind of thing was really unlucky.

“okay.”

So I just answered like that.

But I’ll have to put this on.

“So it’s true that it was nice to see your stage after a long time.”

“… … .”

Steer Cha Yoo-jin was silent for a while.

past midnight. After silence flows in the living room with only indirect light.

“Maybe… Well, maybe we will meet again.”

Cha Yu-jin shrugged.

I didn’t bother to ask how that was possible.

“I’ll show you a better stage then.”

“… … okay.”

just affirmed.

“Great.”

Cha Yoo-jin smiled and crossed her arms.

It was a silent sign.

“Goodbye.”

“I already did.”

The guy shrugged.

“I just did it to my friend and apologized to everyone else, so I’m satisfied. and… .”

and?

“I’ll do it for my brother now.”

The guy held out his hand.

It wasn’t a handshake.

A pose for high-fives or interlocking palms.

It’s for a fan signing event.

“Thank you. my fans.”

“… … .”

I also reached out.

Touching hands, not diagonal hands like a handshake.

“thanks. Thank you for showing me a good stage.”

“You’re welcome.”

It was a short high five.

[Would you like to restart ‘For Company’?]

“… … .”

‘okay.’

Pak.

A light went off in the pop-up.

And the sound of something being updated The sound effects and notifications that were being built up quickly and loudly appeared and sparkled as if they wanted to attract attention.

But I didn’t do anything stupid to look that way.

Instead, I saw off.

“Bye.”

Cha Yoo-jin did not complain of pain, but blinked as if slightly dizzy… .

He leaned back on the sofa and fell asleep slowly.

Eventually, until you hear steady breathing.

“… … .”

I quietly went into his room and took out a blanket without waking Bae Se-jin.

And after covering the sleeping guy on the sofa, I took the bedding from my room and spread it on the living room floor.

“… … .”

Sleep came very slowly.

* * *

The next morning.

“Hey.”

“… … .”

I opened my eyes.

And I immediately realized who the owner of the voice was.

‘Cha Yoo-jin.’

… I turned to where the voice had been heard.

Then Cha Yoo-jin, holding a large pot with both hands right by my bedside… .

for a moment.

‘… pot?’

“… ?!”

What is this absurd situation?

At that moment, Cha Yoo-jin, who had been looking at me with wide-eyed eyes, jumped up and shouted.

“Moondae-hyung is awake!”

“Bar Bakmundae!”

“Woke up?”

Then I heard a frantic call. What?

As if looking for some kind of rope, the members who came running in color started talking gibberish.

“Cha Yoo-jin is back!”

okay.

“That but… I cooked!”

that… they say?

“What are you talking about… .”

“I’m making breakfast.”

He eagerly opened the lid of the pot that Yujin Cha was holding and brought it to my face.

‘No.’

Anyway, this smell and appearance… .

‘… Dak bokkeumtang.’

That’s it.

A really hot menu choice for those who got sick yesterday to eat for breakfast… … .

no wait.

More than that, my memory came back, but it was Nabal, a thrilling greeting, and I made chicken stir-fried soup and put it on the head of the sleeping guy?

‘Confused.’

But Cha Yu-jin was the same.

It was really consistent… .

Even the head was bombarded with new information without a break.

“This is my apology and thanks! A lot has happened so far.”

what?

Wait, that means… .

“Do you remember?!”

“I have some. Waterbomb was enjoyed by Bad Cha Yoo-jin. I will do it one more time.”

“… ?!”

“Members eat! Breakfast!”

Bae Se-jin was confused, but Cha Yu-jin courageously called everyone to the table.

And the table fell into further chaos.

“Eugene, are you okay? Remember?”

“I am healthy. I remember.”

First of all, Cha Yu-jin’s condition was found to be completely normal.

As soon as he woke up at dawn, he naturally had memories of the past few days, and after much thought, he decided to have breakfast.

“Bad Cha Yoo-jin is also me, so I have to take responsibility. One meal is not enough. So I made it too.”

“Eugene… .”

However, the title of Steer Cha Yoo-jin seems to have completely solidified as ‘Bad’ in that guy.

And I thought that the thrilling reunion would continue again.

“Cha Cha Yu-jin!”

“Kim Rae-bin is a traitor.”

“… ?!”

“I told you my secret!”

“I didn’t tell you!”

“I told the bad Cha Yoo-jin!”

“You said with your own mouth that you were the same person! Void!”

hmm. What a bitch.

However, I heard a murmur of excitement from the side.

“long time no see… .”

“… … .”

I decided to have a meal, leaving Bae Se-jin, who had finally regained my dear roommate.

And when I took a bite of chicken stir-fried soup.

‘hmm?’

“… … .”

“Why, why, Mundae? ?”

“no.”

Cha Yoo-jin suddenly interrupted.

“Doesn’t Moondae hyung’s cooking taste good?”

“No, it is delicious.”

“Hi-Hi.”

okay. There is a taste.

By the way.

‘This isn’t just fried chicken.’

It’s chicken soup.

It tasted almost the same as when I revived it with chicken stir-fried soup when the chicken soup Cha Yoo-jin was making at W Live failed.

Besides that.

‘I don’t think Cha Yu-jin has ever made chicken stir-fried soup before.’

And the chicken soup was cooked well… This is Steer’s Cha Yoo-jin.

“… … .”

I looked at Cha Yoo-jin, who was still bickering with Kim Rae-bin.

‘no way.’

I remember when I was on Steer… do you have everything?

Chapter 483

Episode 483

Cha Yoo-jin, who came back, had a most lively day.

It doesn't mean just playing.

"I practice!"

He checked the choreography, worked out, and even talked directly to the crying manager on the phone.

And after talking to my family in the United States, I started to enjoy racing games with Kim Rae-bin.

"Yeaaah!"

"Wait a minute!"

"left! Press the jump key on the left!"

The members were dragged away by the turbulent momentum.

It was like refining my daily life and filling my bucket list.

He even had a video call with Munge at Bae Se-jin's home in the middle.

[King!]

"Ooooh. Hi buddy!"

The clump of hair, which had been the size of a fist, had grown to a size that overflowed both hands. It's still the same as turning the boat over.

'He still looks fierce.'

On the screen, the white head and tail swayed mercilessly.

"Since we've moved, shall we call Kkamgi?"

"I like it!!"

Even the dog at his home in the US was called over via video call, and he was ready to give the members a dog group housewarming.

"… … ."

and… I watched the guy silently.

The interesting thing is that an unexpected guy was caught.

"That's Moondae. if… Are you sorry?"

"… … ?"

Seon Ah-hyun spoke softly.

"I?"

"Yeah."

The guy blushed slightly and nodded his head firmly.

"Of course, it's really nice and relieved that Eugene is back, but… You might regret breaking up again."

"… … ."

"I think it is natural."

no so… I was thinking about that point because it was ambiguous.

Anyway, Seon Ah-hyun seems to have been quite concerned about the steer Cha Yu-jin, who just evaporated.

‘I gave a rough explanation.’

That Cha Yoo-jin himself noticed my change and requested that the situation ended.

Still, from the point of view of these guys, it is as if they suddenly disappeared without saying goodbye.

In the morning, I felt relieved and happy that our member Cha Yoo-jin came back safely, but even if I didn’t feel it, I felt slightly embarrassed.

hmm.

“… … okay. thanks.”

“Oh no!”

So maybe we should take out the story.

“Yeeees!!”

“Ugh!!”

I decided to catch the timing while watching Yujin Cha holding a game controller and celebrating victory.

And the timing came not too late.

that evening.

“Oh our Eugene is good~”

“Hee hee!”

Cha Yoo-jin, who had a stormy day, was watching the guitar in Se-jin's solitary cell.

In other words, the pace that was running as if it was determined was slightly slowed down and released.

I called the guy.

"Yujin."

"Umm?"

"I have something to talk about with Waterbomb."

"OK!"

After guiding him to the veranda, I was thinking of slowly trying to figure out his psychology while talking about Waterbomb.

'If it doesn't seem like it, I can stop right away.'

say it carefully

But there was nothing to go on there.

… Because Cha Yu-jin opened her mouth as soon as she set foot on the veranda.

straight-forward.

"I remember."

"… !"

what?

I turned my head.

"Bad Cha Yoo-jin."

Cha Yu-jin had a calm face.

The boy shrugged and stretched. Then he passed by me, who was stiff, and stood by the veranda window.

“But it is not accurate. [It’s like some kind of vivid dream or… It feels like a memory from my childhood.]”

He squinted one eye slightly, as if trying to remember a word he couldn’t remember.

“However, the emotions felt by ‘that’ Cha Yoo-jin are moving? touching? overwhelming? [Is it harder than you think to find the right expression? Anyway]”

Then, leaning against the chin of the veranda, he turned his gaze toward me.

Just like the steer Cha Yoo-jin of one day.

“I remember that.”

“… … .”

I saw a guy

A positive and clean mindset, an active and friendly side, and the attitude of starting with the facts as if it were cool to drive in.

I am Cha Yoo-jin, a member of this group who debuted as Testa.

However, it didn’t seem like he knew ‘Steer Cha Yu-jin’ simply as knowledge.

therefore… Cha Yu-jin just looked like Cha Yu-jin.

And he said it himself.

“I think I was exhausted. So much.”

“… … .”

[Perhaps Bad Cha Yoo-jin wouldn’t admit it, but it was a kind of burnout. And that’s what anyone can experience when they hit a wall.]

Cha Yoo-jin shrugged cheerfully.

[Even me. That’s why it’s not particularly shocking!]

That’s right.

But in fact, I don’t know if it feels so good to realize that the past self didn’t succeed.

Even though I was really good at the stage, I didn’t get attention because there was no one watching me.

In the end, even knowing that I quit because I was tired of being an idol… I mean.

“… … What do you think.”

“What? What?”

“Just”

the air on the veranda was hot and stuffy on a summer night without air conditioning.

“Overall about this situation.”

“Oh… . Are you worried about me?”

I nodded slightly.

Cha Yoo-jin seemed a bit surprised, but unexpectedly, she bowed her head in earnest.

[I won’t lie. Honestly, I think I was a little confused when I woke up this morning.]

The answer continued calmly.

[At that time, it felt as if I was Bad Cha Yoo-jin and Testa’s memories came back.]

“… !”

[Not long after, I came back to myself. Brother brother is right. It was a bit of a traumatic experience. Five years that were completely unrequited.]

… Was it too

Cha Yu-jin took a short sigh and rested. I calmly accepted his words.

But it didn’t end there.

“But Moondae hyung, I know this.”

The guy raised his hand.

And gently patted my back.

“Time heals everything.”

“… … .”

“So, if Moondae hyung hadn’t come in the past, I would have been on stage again.”

I looked up.

Cha Yoo-jin was smiling.

“Other people are like me.”

no way.

And before I even asked, he made a ‘steer’ with his mouth.

“… !”

[5 years. Not being able to reciprocate is what Cha Yoo-jin thought at the time. Who knows what would have happened after that?]

Cha Yu-jin shrugged, saying that life is long and opportunities keep coming.

[I don’t know. I could have gone back to Korea in a year or two and debuted again with Raebin Kim’s awesome song… Maybe we could have released an album in America.]

That wasn’t talking about great success.

Cha Yoo-jin, who just scattered and returned to the United States with a complete abandonment of idol group activities… .

In the end, I would say that I would not have given up forever.

[We would have continued to do it somehow. Because I loved it so much.]

“… … .”

What comes to mind reflexively is, funny enough, my experience.

my first concert.

– Numerous voices formed a grain and poured from all directions like shooting stars along with lights.

I was out of breath.

I understood what Cha Yu-jin said because I knew what the shock was to my head there.

And I understand what you said next.

[Waterbomb made Bad Cha Yoo-jin realize that early on.]

‘Yes.’

so… After that, he became very cooperative.

[But even if there was no Waterbomb, I would have realized eventually, whether I was running a garage or a surfboard shop in the US? I know myself.]

Cha Yoo-jin spoke with confidence and smiled.

“Because I know him, Moondae-hyung also believes in me. I like that.”

“… … .”

So that’s the story.

I just didn’t see it because Ryu Gun-woo made an extreme choice before, but in fact, Steer would have recovered.

Cha Yu-jin, who has been in the position of the person concerned, spoke without a single doubt.

“Your brother is my fan.”

“… … .”

I am… I don’t know.

Did the steer Cha Yoo-jin, who gave me a high-five, go back to where he lived?

Or did this guy go back to the past steer for a while, just like I regained the memory of Ryu Kun-woo, a former office worker?

So, now, I have regained all my original memories and remember what happened at the time of Steer as I remember things in the distant past.

But one thing is certain.

‘… That Cha Yu-jin eventually became this Cha Yu-jin.’

That is why it is a credible statement.

… … I will think so.

‘therefore.’

That if Ryu Gun-woo hadn’t died and had endured for a few more years, I would have been able to see these guys’ stage again somewhere.

I’ll believe that too.

Whiing.

The wind blew.

I opened my mouth looking out at the night view of the veranda like starlight.

“… okay. thanks for letting me know.”

“Don’t mention it!”

It is a slightly more polite expression than Cha Yu-jin usually uses, saying, ‘Say something special.’

I realized that I was not talking to Park Moon-dae, an older brother I knew, but to Ryu Gun-woo, who cheered me on.

So I quietly nodded and stood with him on the air-conditioned veranda a little longer.

* * *

“So… I have something to say.”

“what.”

“Moondae hyung is my fan.”

“Because it isn’t.”

“that’s right. I do fan service! Then, please cook chicken ribs for me.”

“Why are you trying to get paid for a service?”

“That’s Konglish. Originally, it means getting service money!”

What is it?

After a while, he started to act like the youngest guy on the team, and I came out of the veranda feeling like I was used to having a serious conversation.

‘Chicken ribs.’

Have you been eating too much chicken lately?

But seeing him go back to his room, I have a sudden idea.

‘Oops.’

So I hurriedly asked.

“Come to think of it, you’re Sejin-hyung.”

“Oh.”

Bae Se-jin.

I’m worried about what the guy who regained his memory will think… .

“I don’t know!”

The guy who had already started to lose the details of his memory seemed to only vaguely remember Bae Se-jin’s scandal at the time of his drug arrest.

Besides that.

“But I think there must have been a misunderstanding. [Honestly, that older brother would have enlisted in the military rather than sell drugs?]” “

… … .”

Having seen Bae Se-jin’s desire for legal action over the past few years, his trust (?) was solid.

“You are right.”

“Sure. I am always right.”

“Sometimes I’m wrong.”

“I think it was wrong at that moment. But in the end, yes!”

what

I laughed and hit him.

“okay. Let’s see.”

“Hi-Hi.”

That’s how Cha Yoo-jin really came back completely.

The next day, he received a lot of handmade candy from Sejin Bae and uploaded a post on social media.

Chapter 484

If you don’t debut, you’ll get a fatal disease.

Featured in episode 484.

Musician Usually, it means that a guest participates and sings some parts when a singer sings a song.

Usually, it is mainstream for guests with different attributes from the original singer to participate.

That’s why it gives the album a different fun or strength.

For example, a vocalist for a rapper, a woman for a man, or a senior singer for publicity for juniors who lack recognition.

By the way.

-VTIC Cheong Ryeo Senior: Junior. Are you not interested in featuring?

Could it be that I’m in the VTIC song?

‘… Group 1 male idol to feature in another group 1 male idol song?’

An internet version full of verbal violence immediately comes to mind.

It’s going to be a terrible piece of shit.

Of course, you can pull it off properly with one aggro, but… .

‘why me?’

There’s nothing more to think about.

-I’m sorry, but we have a lot of new responsibilities right now to take on new challenges.

I stopped looking at the status window for a moment and started replying right away.

‘I don’t think he really meant to feature himself.’

The intention was to find out what the ulterior motive was to send such a text message.

And not long after, the phone rang again.

The reply I got was… .

-VTIC Cheong Gyung-ryeo senior: Really?

-VTIC Cheong Gyung-rye senior: You should be interested.

“… … .”

-VTIC Cheong Ryeo senior: Doesn’t it feel better to help each other rather than debt? It looks good too.

Look at this.

‘Are you telling me not to mention that you’ve helped me a few times lately and put it on debt?’

He’s the guy who tried to break my head, but there’s definitely a price to pay for it cooperatively and voluntarily.

After that, I received a few decisive help.

‘Still, it was both sides.’

Where are you pretending that only you helped me unilaterally? In addition, the back of the head was also beaten a few times.

As if I didn't understand what he was saying, I started texting in the opposite way.

-There is no need for you to feel that you are in debt

.

'hmm.'

I don't think this guy is just trying to scratch.

It's a bit upsetting, but it's also quite interesting. I rubbed my chin and edited my reply before sending it.

-What kind of song is it?

I can say these things out of my mouth, but he knows how to tell the difference like water that has been stagnant for decades.

I'm not a clear-headed bastard who thinks I want to be with someone just because I'm close to him.

It is said that there is no way they can ask me to be featured in their album. therefore… .

'This must be a connection.'

Who is it? Hopefully soft and sweet… .

Gyiing-

-VTIC Cheong Ryeo senior: Of course it's my song.^^

"… … ."

Are you crazy? this?

I hit the guy on the phone.

“Seniors.”

– Junior.

“Is there anything else you want to explain?”

A small laugh was heard over the phone.

-yes.

Thus, an instant meeting took place.

Although it almost felt like a duel.

* * *

Cheong-rye called me to an outdoor cafe I had already met once.

‘Did they even take over?’

Did they borrow the whole thing so quickly or was it really a scam?

Instead, this time the yellow dog was happily running across the grass.

“Because it’s summer, the grass is growing well, so the beans must have been excited.”

“… … .”

king!

I set the ball down at my feet and looked at the dog wagging its tail.

what… Is it to throw

‘It’s old.’

As the soft ball swung across the yard in a parabolic arc, the dog ran after the ball.

And I looked at the human on the other side of the road.

“If it’s hot, you can go inside.”

“done.”

The morning was still close to dawn, so it was cool.

I didn’t open my mouth first, but crossed my arms and waited for the guy who made the proposal to explain himself.

because that’s the way

And Dory was kept.

“Well, you know I’m preparing an album first.”

okay.

“You know that all VTIC members enlisted, right?”

uh know

He nodded, and the boy nodded his head disgustingly.

“There is a song I want to use, but there are parts in the bridge that don’t match the range.”

“… … .”

“Well, given the situation, I think junior is the right person for me. how is it?”

Are you serious?

“Does a guy on vacation not even have a voice?”

Anyone who sees it will think that the main group is going on strike to stop recording.

However, Chung-rye did not blink an eye.

“You can’t engage in profitable activities while serving.”

“The one I made before enlistment must be an exception.”

“Because recording while on vacation is not applicable. It’s difficult when words leak out.”

And smiled softly.

“Your junior will understand.”

“… … .”

I understand?

I understand that it can be difficult when words leak out… .

‘… ah.’

Damn.

‘It went all the way to this guy’s ears.’

I picked up the ice water and drank it. And he opened his mouth.

“Did you leak it from LeTi?”

Cha Yoo-jin escapes from the dorm.

That’s what happened to Wonder Hall’s agency, which was preparing a reverse viral campaign against us, in a short time.

Was the route possibly LeTi?

‘LeTi invested almost half of the investment in our company.’

In the process, it is an environment where there is no choice but to create a network of contacts among the people concerned. Of course, it means that there was an exchange of manpower.

And the story of Cha Yu-jin’s escape from the dorm might have leaked out there.

However, Chung-rye lightly changed her words.

“hmm. ‘I leaked all the way to LeTi’ is the right expression.”

“… … .”

“I understand. There must be a lot of things to worry about right now. It’s difficult to even control information, right?”

He pulled his upper body slightly forward and rested his arms on the table.

“I’ll let you know where the rat is when my junior is featuring.”

“… … .”

“Sounds like a good exchange. how is it?”

hmm.

I set the glass with only ice on the table.

“First, check.”

“hmm?”

“We need to check whether the information about our company you have heard is correct.”

That means it leaked to LeTi.

Cheong-Ryeo, who had been listening quietly, spoke the correct answer comfortably without hesitation.

“Cha Yoo-jin left the dorm.”

“Conflict among members after stressful hospitalization… . Rumors spread like that, but I don’t know.”

Doesn’t that mean I don’t think so?

However, they do not seem to have the slightest doubt that Cha Yu-jin escaped.

‘It kills my confidence.’

It’s good anyway. I know this guy has a good understanding of the situation.

If so, next.

“Why are you using me?”

“… … .”

“for a moment. Just stop saying I’m the right person for the situation. I know there are many options besides me when it comes to song quality or publicity.”

Right now, starting with the method of recording before enlistment, Ju Dan discovered songs late, and male soloists who are good at singing are the norm.

‘There’s also a way to fill it up with arrangements.’

But why did they bother to use male idols from the first group of their rivals?

“There is a reason why you should use me as a feature.”

“that’s right.”

“… !”

Cheong-rye clearly affirmed.

and laughed out loud

“Can you guess?”

Should I kill

“Oh, did I get it right? My junior also asked if I could get it right. It’s okay if you don’t know.”

You heard the information and I have to guess, but I don’t know where the same ‘get’ it.

‘Looks like I lose when I’m pissed off.’

So I just said it.

“I’m not a mind reader, so how can I know what you’re thinking?”

“hmm.”

“But I can put myself in perspective.”

On the contrary.

‘What if I was Chung Ryeo and had to use Moon Dae Park as a featuring?’

How can you benefit from using the same male idol competitor as a feature?

“What would you do if you had to use me?”

Then you quickly realize

“Whatever you do, take a loss on the cost. It’s controversial, so you have to defend it.”

Rumors of a fandom split fight.

From there, public opinion will fight and emotions will be hurt, but a great plan was needed to defend it.

The time, money and manpower to create that project?

It would be much more profitable to turn that into an album promotion.

Then what should I do?

“therefore… I think about whether I can somehow prevent the controversy in advance.”

There is only one way.

“If we were the same company, there would be no controversy.”

“… !”

Yes.

Seniors and juniors within the same company are inherently more free in featuring.

It means that the range of ‘understanding’ that fans ideologically is a little wider.

In other words, if Testa’s agency ‘Orbit Stars Entertainment’ is completely LeTi’s affiliate… that it is

If you’ve come this far, you can infer the reason for this guy’s proposal in reverse.

creating an atmosphere.

“By putting my name in your activities… Conversely, are you trying to show more clearly that our company rode the LeTi line?”

… However, it is like this.

-?? What is it? Park Moon –

dae -Ah,

it’s

from Testa’s Letty side

And laughed.

“You got it right.”

“… … .”

“As you already know, LeTi is also investing in the platform business. Kind of like online concert broadcasting fan social media.”

Cheong-rye touched her cup of Americano and continued.

“And the importance of platforms in this industry is… Um, juniors must have felt it too.”

“… … .”

“So in the long run. Right now, I need to raise Image’s weight class a bit more.”

This guy is in fact taking control of his own agency called LeTi.

That’s why they can boldly invest in their albums to further develop the company’s business.

‘For the long-term existence of the group.’

Because you can do whatever you want with your company!

‘Crazy guy.’

“So you want to show off your influence on our company a bit more?”

“hmm? Show off. Isn’t it realistic? Half of the investment wouldn’t have disappeared, junior.”

Cheong-rye stared blankly at me.

“and… If you are a junior, you would know.”

what.

“This is not a one-sided proposition that only benefits LeTi.”

“… … .”

I cool off the heat of the accident circuit for a while.

Then, calmly started counting again.

‘The benefit of Testa.’

“… Make up for the bad relationship with T1 with LeTi’s platform?”

“I know.”

Even so, it’s obvious that I’ll be pushed back by you and kept in check, but what?

Besides, is it still comparable to the platform of a major broadcaster like T1?

‘But it’s not bad to show you riding the line to some extent in the current situation… .’

I hid my complicated feelings and answered like a knife.

“It’s a rationalization level. As expected, LeTi is an advantage.”

“I thought you would think that way, so I prepared other rewards, right?”

… Cha Yoo-jin’s escape from the dorm.

‘hmm.’

I crossed my arms.

The sound of the scales coming and going seemed to be heard in his ears.

It was natural. It’s not a matter of friendship.

It was then.

Cheongryeo opened her mouth softly again.

“I want to make one thing clear.”

“… … .”

“I have no intention of doing anything to harm Testa. only… .”

Cheong-rye smiled.

“Because I intend to do everything that I can achieve in the given situation.”

“… … .”

“Your junior is like that too.”

I realized who he was talking about, even though he didn’t bother to name it.

– Ether.

against that rookie.

“… … .”

“A strategic alliance in that sense.”

Cheong-ryeo held out her hand.

“how is it.”

“… … .”

I let out a short sigh.

and asked

“What is the deadline?”

“this year.”

The answer came right away.

I shook hands on the table without any fuss.

“Of course, this is my independent judgment, and if it is rejected at the group level after going back and discussing it, it will be over.”

“is it so.”

It’s a puck or something.

“And one more.”

I corrected my posture.

“You know, of course, but featuring in the title song is irrational.”

“hmm?”

“No matter what, just do the b-side songs or the 2nd sub song.”

“… … .”

This was a natural and commonsense recommendation. Well, it would have been if I hadn’t said it.

However, Chung-rye paused for a moment and then smiled faintly.

“There seems to be a misunderstanding.”

uh?

“I never said I needed a junior featuring on my solo album. You said you needed it for ‘the song you want to use’.”

“… … .”

“Don’t worry. It won’t be a problem for either side.”

“… … .”

Come on X feet.

yeah i overestimated it

‘That bastard is not a bastard to lose in his album… .’

In the future, let’s worry about my stamina while taking care of my nails as much as I care about his career.

I gulped down the melted ice and roughly stroked the dog’s scruff. The sound of the dog panting was deafening.

The guy on the other side opened his mouth again.

“Oh and the mouse”

You are just fine.

‘I was going to say it anyway.’

“You don’t have to tell me that.”

“… ?”

“I will take care of it.”

I laughed heartily.

It was because he knew that even this guy would not be able to fight easily if he had come this far and got on the flow.

“I’d like to make another condition instead.”

As I came to the appointment and during the conversation, I talked about the conditions that gradually materialized.

Cheong-Ryeo, who was listening, gradually changed her face.

“haha!”

I laughed.

“Your junior is really greedy.”

will you do it alone

I gave the dog a head shake once again and threw the ball back.

“Do you want to cancel?”

“no.”

He stopped laughing and nodded.

“is it so. I will.”

I thought so.

I ended the conversation with him just like that. And in the summer morning sky… .

[brother! Do you have any business? I haven't been able to contact you lately… .]

Hmm? A pop-up appeared.

'Oh big moon.'

It's been a while since I've been in touch.

For a while, there was a fuss over Cha Yu-jin, so he didn't contact me, so he seemed worried.

I tried to contact you again, but it just went well.

After explaining some background, I simply declared the current situation.

'The system upload has already been completed.'

[Huh?]

'Some new pop-ups keep popping up. There's also a survey.'

[…] A survey?]

Yes, I am embarrassed too.

'Since we're outside, go back and talk in detail… .'

It was then.

"Um, junior."

What.

But while he hadn't responded yet, the feminine voice was heard again.

Including things you couldn’t have imagined.

“A survey?”

“… !!”

what?

I turned my head toward Cheongnyeo as if my neck would break.

He’s exactly me… no.

I was looking at the empty space in front of my eyes.

where the pop-up window is.

“… … .”

no way.

“Can you see it?”

“yes.”

Cheongryeo raised her hand.

and… I stabbed the pop-up with my index finger.

“It looks good.”

[Aaaaaaaagh!]

… like that.

An unwanted status window counselor was added.

Chapter 485

Cheong-Ryeo sees a message pop-up from

Keun-Dal .

Ironically, the one who is most dumbfounded by this situation is the guy who is not here.

That is the person who opened the pop-up.

[Huh uh uh uh uh uh what is this]

Cheongryeo clenched her chin as if observing an interesting phenomenon. The big moon squealed again with a pop-up.

[Aaaa!!]

It’s not even a fuss.

I resisted the urge to press my forehead and asked.

“When did you see me?”

“Um, this is the first time.”

Cheong-Ri didn’t even blink and watched the pop-up that started crying for a few more seconds.

And then he said softly.

“That… Isn’t that what you are using your junior’s previous body?”

“… … .”

“Ryu Gun-woo.”

Cheong-rye smiled.

“You seem to have changed your body a while ago, so I’d like to hear an explanation.”

“… !?”

The case where I and Daedal switched bodies.

Isn’t that too? for a moment.

“… Did you notice it at the awards ceremony?”

Somehow, when I zoomed in with the cannon camera and our eyes met, I felt strange.

“that’s right.”

Cheong-ryeo meekly affirmed.

And he tapped his chin with his finger.

“Um, junior-nim… Let’s just say my judgment seemed a bit clouded. Unusually.”

“… … .”

Are you saying that the big moon looked stupid?

‘Watch a guy who knows how to choose words.’

A person who is not in the industry entered the body of an idol, so what kind of person’s judgment are you measuring?

‘after.’

Anyway, I’m in the mood to explain exactly why I did that.

“I did have some work.”

I gave an appropriate summary of the events at the time related to the system fragments nested in the big moon.

Cheongryeo’s reaction to hearing the story was not great.

First of all, it’s probably because all the problems are taken care of at a moderate level instead of crazy things like collapsing buildings.

… Or have you already guessed.

“I see. Oh, did you post the pictures you took on the Internet? I saw you.”

“… … .”

How else did you know… done.

Seeing him smiling and saying thank you for taking a good picture, I run out of words to say.

‘Let’s quit.’

a ghost guy

Anyway, I can only guess one reason why Cheongryeo suddenly looked at the status window.

“I think the fact that you were the GM in the virtual world created by the system has an effect.”

“hmm. It’s convincing.”

Yes.

Cheong-ryeo has a history of being the GM of games created by the system, that is, the game master.

‘I was able to manipulate the settings window and pause the game.’

I got hit in the back of the head with that, but thanks to that, it was a tremendous ability that made it possible to give the system a shot.

‘If the power of the role at that time returned to some extent as I restarted this system… It makes no sense.’

well if so

I have something to try.

“… … .”

I called out a status window pop-up in the air without saying a word.

[New! Update completion reward]

[New! New function open]

[New! Survey]

to a different location than the pop-up of the big moon.

[brother… ?]

I didn’t react on purpose.

Then, the young woman in front of her opened her mouth.

“It looks like you’re calling your junior.”

“uh. I am sending you a message not to panic.”

So confirmed.

‘Cheongryeo thoroughly responded only to Big Moon’s pop-up.’

then.

‘Can’t you see the status window next to it?’

I checked his attitude once again.

Pupil expression gesture… .

Of course, he is a guy who has been successfully engaged in a job that requires extreme facial expression management for several decades.

It’s not entirely possible that it’s a fake, but… … .

I untied my arms.

‘It goes beyond this.’

If you can really see it, why are you determined to hide it to this extent simply because you want to fuck me?

No, I didn’t pretend to be with this bastard that much.

‘I have that level of trust now.’

I concluded that

However, the problem is that the analysis of Cheongryeo has only just begun.

The guy touched the cold air and brushed the surface of the glass with water droplets on it.

“Well then, what juniors call ‘system’ is… It’s not that it completely disappeared, but that it entered several bodies.”

“… … .”

“No matter how spoiled it is, they absorb and use it. Don’t you feel that the risk is too great?”

He raised his gaze from the glass and met my eyes.

Do you apply the system to your company?

-What if you want to ‘restart’?

“… … .”

Those eyes seemed to say so.

It was a certainty that only a guy who had experienced it countless times and established a thought structure could have.

If you use it, you will definitely become addicted.

‘It’s like fanaticism.’

Even though it was summer, a strange bizarre feeling ran up my spine that made my back feel chilly.

To the point where I doubted my judgment when I decided to make good use of the system that turned into my own item.

‘… X feet.’

I sighed.

“I wrote it because I lost T1 and became independent. I don’t want to use it anymore.”

“I see.”

Cheong-Ryeo shrugged her shoulders as if to ask her to do as she pleased, but then she said the next word casually.

“I want to check.”

what?

“Status window?”

“yes.”

Then, one more pop-up pops up as if it’s tempting.

[Are you sure you want to make ‘GM’ the System Administrator?]

Are you crazy?

This bastard doesn’t even know where to fit in.

‘go away.’

Where are you talking about disclosing the source of inside information to a competitor? I immediately deleted the status window.

And I barely opened my mouth.

“Status window called now.”

“is it so? I can’t see either.”

“uh.”

With that, the conversation ended.

But I was rather upset. It’s because I realized something new when I met this guy.

‘I said I would get rid of the company system in front of the truth… .’

Damn, it’s not that I don’t mind.

I remembered looking at Cheongnyeol.

The pop-up that appeared the last time I ran into Kwon Hee-seung.

-‘■■■ Fragments’ owner confirmed!

“… … .”

‘Fragments of ■■■’ must be pieces of the system.

And since it was with Kwon Hee-seung, there is a very high probability that this person who has experienced the same system has some of that fragmented system.

So that’s a problem.

‘This fragment could be absorbed more by raising the company’s rating.’

Substituting this would mean:

-If I shut down this system, of course there will be no company ratings operated by the system.

-If you do, you will not be able to retrieve the ‘Fragments of ■■■’ from Cheongryeo.

… This means that this guy will be hit with a mission failure without a status window.

Since I’m an experienced person, I can’t say that it will be okay… I don’t think so.

‘I don’t know how many times this bastard restarted during that experience.’

Besides, if you do something wrong and the reset syndrome comes back again, there is nothing more terrible than that.

‘Wouldn’t it be possible for me to die if sparks flew out of me?’

furthermore… Wasn’t that guy a decisive help in escaping once when I was hit by an abnormal condition?

from collapsing buildings.

“… … .”

‘OK.’

Yes, I have to decide the line in my conscience.

I concluded

‘Leave the company system as it is.’

But it can’t happen suddenly like last time.

‘At least, we need to figure out the reason and principle of the update that occurs as fragments.’

-Why did the self of the time period before I became Park Moon-dae suddenly appear?

– And why was it Cha Yoo-jin?

effect and target. To that extent,

‘enough preparations should be made and variables should be minimized.’

After that, I need to build a stable structure to recover the fragments without causing a mission failure to this guy.

However, refrain from using the system itself recklessly.

Let’s just watch it without touching it.

‘At least until the big moon finishes the analysis.’

The quiet pop-up flashed again.

[I will do my best… !]

Thank you.

‘I’ll take good care of you.’

[brother… But now I don’t have more money… … .]

“… … .”

[Sorry. No, that’s why hyung made all of these too, so if you feel comfortable using them… .]

OK.

We saw a dramatic agreement with pop-up concert invitation seats.

For reference, Cheongryeo looks at the pop-up from the side with interest and asks a few questions.

Anyway, it’s a story about work.

“Ah, I heard that your junior group is filming a reality entertainment program this time.”

Did you leak that too?

“Well, by the way, the director who originally worked with my junior… It must belong to a studio affiliated with T1.”

“uh.”

From that hotteok-selling travelogue to that house’s grandson’s carrot coin, the entertainment crews are all caught up in T1.

So I was very fed up.

Cheongryeo smiles and speaks softly.

“Can I introduce you to someone nice?”

oh.

I decided to eat this baby.

“The recruitment is already over.”

Be content with a paid platform for behind-the-scenes content, man.

Because the person we recruited was… .

* * *

“… hello.”

“Wow, hello, author!”

Across from Testa who greets them energetically, the main writer in charge of the reality show for this testa is sitting.

With a smile, Sejin asked for a handshake.

“Ah yes.”

Ryu Serin.

He is the same person who was the writer of < Azusa >.

In addition, a blood relationship with my college senior and twin hometown Ryu Seo-jin… But think about this later.

In any case, this man is one of the most important producers recruited for this testa reality.

And for two very simple reasons.

first.

“It’s nice to be able to work with the writer again like this.”

“… Oh yes.”

This is also because T1 was beaten.

Why did this person who was a contributor to the < Azusa > series get kicked out?

‘It’s because we all debuted there and flew independently.’

Of course, it seems that there was not only that, but there was a complicated broadcast line fight related to the political world.

And the sub-writer, who was a freelancer, was entangled in the fierce intra-company political battle, and half of the rice bowl was taken away.

‘Of course, I think it would have been possible to stick to that man’s personality.’

I don’t think so.

Because there was no need for that.

It seemed that he had collaborated with Netplus a few times and had hits, building up a network there, and turning his career there.

By the way, we also participated in the first work.

that… Inferno KPOP camp.

“How many years has it been since then?”

“It’s been quite a while. I was grateful then.”

Ryu Seo-rin nodded. They even gave lip service saying that it went well thanks to the testers.

Of course, that's not why I work with that person.

The second reason is… .

"so… I mean this reality."

Well done.

He was a writer who was good at creating entertainment, whether he sacrificed contestants to the viewers or created narrative points to turn a 1-point impression into a 10-point scale.

People's eyes were also good.

That is to say, there was no other suitable person for Testa to partner with.

"You don't want a cute reality program that is usually produced by idols, right?"

If that's the case, it means to look elsewhere.

Liu Qingyu nodded at once.

"yes. In the past, reality programs have been progressing in a way that is fun even if it takes more effort and more time."

"Yes."

Ryu Seo-rin answered without hesitation.

"Then, why don't you go for a selection similar to that PD's style? I also know the writers there."

Confidence was felt in Ryu Seo-jin's soft voice.

'also.'

It will give you the right atmosphere without being clumsy.

It’s an atmosphere of fun teasing and cheating on the cast.

Moreover, since we have already selected the PD’s production crew and variety show several times, there is a high probability that the public will be generous with it, saying that this is the testa style.

but.

“no.”

“hmm?”

Still, I don’t think I can avoid the story that it’s like an imitation work.

‘This isn’t Ryu Seo-rin’s major.’

Of course, the originality will be lower than that of the crazy production crew, and there is no need to risk it.

So that’s it.

“Please do as you normally would.”

“… !”

Everyone should do what they do best.

Ryu Seo-rin narrowed her eyes and asked with a ‘no way’ attitude.

“If that’s what I was originally doing… .”

“yes.”

“… … .”

Isn’t there a representative example that we all know?

This testa reality goes like that.

“Like < Azusa >.”

Soon, Ryu Seo-jin’s expression became what crazy he was talking about.

But investors always have a strong say.

A few days later.

Testa’s reality shoot began as scheduled.

* * *

I opened my eyes.

What you see is a familiar ceiling.

It’s the accommodation I’ve been seeing for years… it’s my room

“… … .”

It sounds natural at first glance.

Isn’t it very normal to see the familiar ceiling when you open your closed eyes?

And there is one more premise here.

‘Testa has moved.’

In other words, this place was not Testa’s current accommodation.

A space that looks like a lodging before moving.

“what.”

I got up.

There was something on top of my stomach in a dark room.

“… ?”

It is a yellow file.

I squinted my eyes for the dark enemy and deliberately read the cover of the file aloud so that the camera could catch it.

“Your profile file.”

and unfolded

[Your job is a doctor.]

And below that, descriptions and characteristics were written.

hmm.

‘It’s like this.’

In fact, Testa deliberately did not listen to the detailed briefing on the detailed settings inside the program.

for reality.

It only knows the format and purpose.

“Where are you writing it?”

I got up from the bed, speaking with my mouth.

In my head, the lines I said at the group meeting when I invited Ryu Seo-rin were rewinding again.

-You already know because we are experienced people.

Testa’s concept for this reality program.

-That writer’s survival story is fun.

It’s Death Survival.

Chapter 486

If I can’t debut, I’ll get sick to death Episode 486

After acquiring all the information in the ‘Profile’ folder assigned to me.

I opened my door in the dark ‘Testa’s former accommodation’ and came out.

‘The door was locked.’

Some resistance was on hand. I grabbed the doorknob with a little force and gently pushed it.

Seruk.

“Who are you?”

“I am.”

“Park Moondae!”

There were already some guys in the living room, but they were happy to see me.

It was dark, but the physique and face were visible.

Kim Rae-bin and Bae Se-jin.

It seemed that the two of them were sitting huddled together on the floor, not on the sofa, and then quickly got up.

hmm.

“Did everyone wake up in their room?”

“Yes that’s right.”

Kim Rae-bin nodded, saying that he was the first to come out. And Bae Se-jin stabbed the core.

“How did you do this? It’s the same as our previous lodging!”

It wasn’t just about structure.

Thanks to our reverse takeover of the old company, T1 Stars, I heard about the charter contract of the previous accommodation, even if it is still in existence.

‘Sufficiently, I can use that lodging for a reality shoot right now.’

But that wouldn’t have surprised him.

I turned my gaze and checked the plaster air freshener in front of the turned off TV.

Flower corolla shape.

It looks very similar to what Seon Ah-hyun displayed in her previous dorm and brought it to her dorm now.

“Iknow, right. Things are pretty much the same.”

In other words, props from Testa’s time were reproduced almost identically.

Besides that.

“But it’s kind of dreary because the lights aren’t on… .”

“… I know.”

The light switch didn’t work. All that works are a few hallways and indirect lights at the ends of the ceiling.

“… … .”

The more imaginative people are, the more uncomfortable the environment.

A gloomy atmosphere that seems like something will happen at any moment.

‘hmm.’

Come to think of it, I couldn’t even see the faces of those who were particularly strong in this place.

Guys like Ryu Cheong-woo and Seon Ah-hyun.

‘… ! for a moment.’

I looked at the faces of the other guys again and asked.

“Have you ever had a roommate in the room?”

“ah.”

Then the other guys also noticed something.

“Come to think of it, were you all alone in the room?”

“yes! For now, I am.”

Yes.

All of us are three people, each with a different room.

Kim Rae-bin is Sun Ah-hyun.

Bae Se-jin is Cha Yoo-jin.

I am Ryu Chung-woo.

So, they don’t have roommates of their own.

‘If this… Is it borrowing one from each room?’

Then we can guess like this.

So to speak, these three became the ‘house team’.

Of course, there’s no way we’ll continue filming by ourselves as much as group reality, and later on, the other guys will be in touch anyway.

However, if the team is divided like that, there is only one room left.

‘cell.’

Bae Se-jin clenched his fists, probably realizing the same.

“Oh yeah! Then let’s find Lee Se-jin, because he’s the only one in solitary confinement… !”

“yes.”

However, the door to Lee Se-jin’s solitary cell, which he approached and carefully touched, was locked.

“… … .”

I couldn’t hear any noise in the dark quarters… .

“… You’re inside, aren’t you deliberately keeping quiet to startle us?”

“There is a possibility.”

Aren’t you a person who knows entertainment?

However, there was no such thing as a big Sejin suddenly opening the door and jumping out.

For at least three minutes, it was as quiet as a mouse.

“… … .”

“… … .”

At this point, there is a problem with the audio empty.

There’s no way that a guy who’s good at measuring timing like that would get stuck in a room for so long and leave the main story.

I guess it’s just a door that can’t be opened now.

“I don’t think there is.”

“Are you saying you don’t have the heart to come out even if you have one?”

I don’t know.

“Mmm.”

Me and Bae Se-jin felt a strange feeling while looking at the tightly closed solitary confinement.

It was then.

“There is something down here.”

“… !”

Kim Rae-bin bowed his head. Then he picked up something half sticking out from under the door.

It was a piece of white paper with writing on it.

‘Directive?’

There was only one sentence.

– I open at the end.

It was meaningful.

“It sounds like a hint to escape the room.”

“I know.”

We looked at the paper with serious faces.

At the end of the hallway, where even indirect light couldn’t reach, the cool air hit the back of my neck, probably because it was cooled by an air conditioner.

‘It sets the mood right.’

Give me a flashlight, please.

It would not be strange if the bleak atmosphere turned into a full-fledged survival game with zombies popping out of nowhere.

‘There is a possibility.’

I nodded.

Of course, let’s start with the part that the production team asked us to do before that.

– Please introduce the editor to the viewers.

“Would you like to sit down and talk about us?”

“okay.”

This is the self-introduction part.

* * *

“First of all, I am a ‘doctor’.”

“oh.”

“It’s a job worthy of a Moondae hyung!”

Kim Rae-bin admired it as if someone had chosen him.

‘No, we all drew lots together before being put in here.’

I don’t know, but I’m sure he distributed the file folder with it. Maybe even split the team.

But I decided to leave it for fun to be revealed to viewers behind the scenes, and I nodded.

“Thank you for taking good care of me. Well then Sejin hyung… .”

“Oh I… I’m a ‘lawyer’.”

“… … .”

“What what.”

“no.”

At this point, ‘Wasn’t that older brother better suited to be a prosecutor?’ It looks like my interview will be inserted.

And everyone will agree.

“But speaking of lawyers, I think you’ve been given a mission to deceive people… .”

“What are you talking about! no!”

Bae Se-jin was hot.

Oh, what’s the mission?

-Job Mission

: Must be completed before the end of the first game.

That’s it.

When I looked at my profile file, it was written.

It will probably be different for each job. I nodded, remembering mine.

“All right. Brother, I’ll be suspicious.”

“Usually, you say you believe… !”

“I am not normal.”

“… ?!”

By doing a bit of conte, the atmosphere is slightly relaxed and the survival feeling is slightly revived.

As we shout at each other, the awkwardness peculiar to the intro of a variety show is definitely gone.

“Then what about Lavin?”

“I am a ‘reporter’. i look forward to.”

“okay.”

Lastly, it was after hearing about Kim Rae-bin’s job, which sometimes suited him strangely and sometimes didn’t suit him at all.

“Now… Shall we go around here some more?”

“I see. I think we need to find an exit.”

This place was structured to escape the room from anyone’s point of view.

Right now, the window next to the living room, originally supposed to lead to the veranda, was blocked by a thin temporary wall.

Anyone could see that he was aiming for the secret room.

and crucial facts.

Bae Se-jin, who had approached the front door, reached out to open the translucent middle door installed in front of the front door.

rattle.

But it didn't open.

"… The middle door is also locked."

also.

The keypad, which was made for double security in case you didn't know it at the previous accommodation, is holding onto the middle door.

"It seems that there is no power here either."

"after."

After checking it again, the search resumed.

"Seeing things scattered… ."

"I think it would be better for everyone to move together in case of an emergency!"

"okay!"

"… … ."

what if so

The three of us moved slowly as a group and started to enjoy 'escape room content'.

Search each room, collect hints that lead to the kitchen, and eventually end up in front of the locked bathroom door.

"If you put the numbers in the order of the rainbow here… ."

“2724! That’s it!”

“Excellent!”

But literally, these guys are enjoying themselves more than I thought?

After adjusting to the darkness, the atmosphere became just an ordinary escape room cafe.

There was no particular horror element.

There is no such thing as a zombie or a spooky BGM that pops out of nowhere.

‘This is a bit boring.’

I don’t think Ryu Seo-rin did anything like the writer hiding her abilities.

‘I expect a reversal.’

I eagerly solved hints with the guys, anticipating a warm and quick editing point.

And soon he unlocked the lock on the bathroom.

“Oh oh!”

“With this, at least I can keep my dignity…” .”

widely.

And that was the moment I opened the bathroom door.

A light was turned on inside.

“Huh?”

“Ah, the electricity must have turned on!”

I was blinded by the fluorescent light for a while. And with natural human instinct, everyone walked into the newly opened, bright bathroom.

‘hmm.’

I immediately checked inside.

Here, too, the previous lodging has been implemented almost exactly the same… … There is just one thing that creates a sense of incongruity.

A black rectangular portable device that was sitting right on top of the washbasin.

“Radios?”

“Why is there a walkie-talkie in the dorm?”

“… … .”

no way.

I went straight to the sink and picked up the walkie-talkie.

… There are batteries!

‘It works.’

I immediately pressed the button and said.

“Can you hear me?”

[…] … .]

“Cheongwoo hyung? Ahyeon?”

“… Lee Se-jin and Cha Yoo-jin!”

But over the radio it was quiet.

I shook my head and lowered my hand.

“There is no response… . I wondered if this was a way to communicate with the other members.”

“iced coffee… .”

“Maybe it’s something neither the hyungs nor Cha Yoo-jin have discovered yet.”

“It could be. hmm… Can I take a look at the walkie-talkie over there?”

“sure.”

It was time to exchange my own reasoning.

blink.

“… ?”

“I just.”

Blink.

“… … .”

It is certain that this time it is not an optical illusion.

I raised my head and looked at the ceiling.

‘Toilet, etc… .’

Blinked twice in a row.

‘And usually this kind of directing… .’

oh shit

“Park Moondae?”

I grabbed the two of them by the nape of their necks and stepped back.

And

blink blink blink blinking blinking blinking blink-

“Ahhhhhhhhhh!”

“Wow!”

I immediately left the bathroom, pushing the two screaming guys.

The eyes flashed rapidly.

And behind my back, something like a shadow… Damn!

‘There is someone!’

As soon as I managed to get out of the bathroom door, I reached out my hand behind me.

bang!!

“Huh!”

I closed the bathroom door vigorously and locked the road.

“What is it?”

“It feels strange!”

Anyone can see that this was a production of ghosts or zombies coming out of a cabinet in the corner!

“Has anyone seen it?”

“I didn’t look back… .”

“… me too.”

after.

I looked at the bathroom door, which was as quiet as a lie, and was relieved anyway, holding back a sigh.

‘It didn’t take.’

First of all, it would be better to go to the bathroom again after increasing the number of pages.

‘… I think I must have been caught on camera like a clown now.’

Sejin Bae tapped me on the shoulder as if comforting me. I’m kind of pissed off.

“I got the radio.”

that was good The rule of the country is not to drop the last one you caught and take good care of it.

“Awesome! Oh, the switch in the living room seems to be working now too!”

In the meantime, Kim Rae-bin quickly applied the bathroom situation and found out that other lights had returned to this house.

‘Then, is it possible to use electricity in the same way?’

I got up.

“What about the Chinese keypad?”

“… ! yes! The lights are on!”

Kim Rae-bin waved his hand. I catch my breath

‘… … okay.’

The middle gate seems to be opening slowly now.

‘I’m guessing this is about the beginning part.’

And it was time to immediately move toward the middle gate.

“… That Park Moondae.”

Bae Se-jin lowered his voice so that Kim Rae-bin could not hear him.

“yes.”

“I mean this… There was something like blood underneath.”

“… !!”

I paid attention to the upside down walkie-talkie he was holding out.

Then I saw something that was definitely dark red.

‘… Is it slowly?’

Are you really a zombie?

Bae Se-jin whispered softly while I looked at the angle of the camera and predicted the location.

“Because that Lavigne seems to be scared… Let’s not talk.”

hmm?

“… Um yes.”

When I nodded, Bae Se-jin nodded, then firmly grabbed the walkie-talkie and headed forward.

And I thought

‘… Should I retrieve the radio?’

That guy was just a bit unnatural.

That Rabin Kim would be scared?

Kim Rae-bin said, '… ? It must be fake blood manufactured in entertainment anyway, so why do you think I would be scared?' who would have the same reaction.

Because he is a very wild guy.

'He's the one who catches chickens with his own hands.'

I grew up in a farming family, so I have a very good stomach.

And Bae Se-jin wouldn't know that.

'Well, I can be embarrassed and say that I was trying to protect the youngest person as the eldest.'

But there is one more thing that bothers me.

'Bae Se-jin's job.'

I mean the lawyer.

Being a lawyer is… After all, in criminal law, it is the job of representing the suspect.

And the suspect is likely to be the culprit.

'What if I paid attention to that characteristic in the game?'

What is the probability that Bae Se-jin received a mission to wrap around some kind of troller or trolling?

'… Keep it for now.'

I decided to pay attention to Bae Se-jin from 'The Attorney'.

Well, it's entertainment anyway, so you don't have to win… As in the case of the thief of the carrot coin in < The Grandson of That House >, a picture that is unilaterally stabbed in the back is no longer acceptable.

And pretending not to know, I joined the middle school.

Bae Se-jin and Kim Rae-bin were reading the phrase 'Number does not match' with serious faces.

"Chinese number… It doesn't fit."

I guess so. I wouldn't have used the original password for the testa accommodation even for security reasons.

'But wouldn't it be a bit loose to find the number again?'

After thinking briefly, I answered.

"How about 0000?"

"ah."

This is the default number.

and.

Tiriririk-

"Oh!"

"All right!"

The middle door was finally opened.

Beyond that was the front door.

'From the front check.'

It was then.

[…] … Brother!]

[… … Listen~!]

“… !!”

“Me members?”

A clamor is heard from the other side of the porch.

“It must have been waiting on the other side!”

“That’s right!”

‘As expected, they’re joining.’

We quickly approached the front door. The voice got louder.

[…] got it! take it out… … !]

It’s like saying he’ll take it out. I nodded and moved my feet.

That moment.

The front door began to glow.

“… !!”

“What is it?”

The two guys jumped up.

It’s good to react quickly based on the bathroom experience.

“are you okay.”

I raised my hand and brought it to the door.

Swish up.

Then, as if peeling a sticker off the paper, the wrapping paper is gently peeled off from the corner.

It is coated paper.

“cover… is it?”

“huh.”

The outline of the paper cover, which was difficult to see because of the darkness, was visible in the light coming from behind.

And the identity of the light… .

“panel?”

It is a pad like a smartphone screen or monitor screen.

“Huh.”

“Is it okay to install something like this on the door of the house?”

A panicked sound could be heard from the other side. I guess something happened there too.

That was the moment.

Beep.

[Welcome to the Lamb Game!]

“Evil!!”

A light burst from the screen attached to the front door, and a sentence appeared along with a sound effect.

very loud

Kim Rae-bin covers his mouth and stares at the screen as if his eyes are about to pop out.

“What is it?”

“Step back a bit.”

Shah Sasak.

The three of us took three steps away from the door in perfect order.

And at the same time, the screen changed to splendor.

[First game]

Chapter 487

Episode 487

Testa trapped in a dorm before moving.

and… Finally, the middle door was opened and a panel flashed at the front door.

-Use one job as a sacrifice to open the front door.

I knew it the moment I read it.

Here comes the losers.

‘Is this a survival format?’

So, are we asking each other to vote for a job?

It is stimulating so that the brain becomes thrilled. I nodded and raised Ryu Seo-rin’s rating again.

‘Wait a minute, but if you vote with this division… .’

You don’t know who has what job, and it’s impossible to communicate with the other party.

Without the entertainment stimulation of directly chatting, deceiving, and laughing like this, going to the ballot without being bored?

‘It can’t be… .’

ah!

I turned around and shouted.

“brother!”

“… ! why?”

“A walkie-talkie!”

And I shouted out the front door too.

to be heard on the other side.

“Did you find the walkie-talkie? Radios!”

[Radio… … is it … Daeya?!]

[…] … Ugh!]

I faintly heard the sound of rapid, crunchy movements from the other side.

“… ! Are you using a walkie-talkie now? Can I just click here and say it?!”

“Brief because I can’t hear the response when I press instead of Yes!”

“okay!”

Bae Se-jin picked up the walkie-talkie and started shouting.

‘If you’re lucky, you might be able to hear the communication over there and locate the radio… .’

So, from here on out, we’re talking about talking over the radio and discussing which job to sacrifice?

It was a moment to think that far.

Suddenly the panel on the front door was renewed.

[☜☞]

[Sacrifice selection complete!]

What?

“Huh?”

“Moondae hyung? Ho Did you choose?”

“No way.”

But before I can say the next… The door is open.

Click.

“… !!”

The front door was open.

And what I see in front of me is the guys who are holding their breath, probably just running with a walkie-talkie.

It was the other 4 testa members.

The boys’ eyes widened.

“Guys!”

“Moondaemundae! Lavin! older brother!”

“I’m glad everyone… !”

At that moment, everyone forgets that it is a game and it is Nabal, and everyone starts to unite like a group of penguins out of joy.

It was a mess, like meeting a family after being in distress.

“brother! I’m here to save us!”

“okay.”

I roughly accepted Cha Yu-jin's hug and counted again.

'There are all 7 of them.'

okay. Also, as the number of pages increases, there is a sense of stability.

By the way.

'Why is the door open?'

The most likely one is this too.

"Did you choose the job to be sacrificed there?"

"Nooope! The door suddenly opened!"

"… !"

Liu Qingyu also shook his head resolutely.

"I thought you chose. Since we are a team locked in a dorm, I wondered if we had no choice… ."

what?

"What are you talking about? We were locked in our quarters!"

"… ? Sejin, what… … ."

no way.

Only then did I penetrate the gap between the 4 of them. With such an open view, I looked outside the front door to the other side.

And I was astonished.

'crazy.'

On the other side… The other side was also a residence!

“Wait, outside the front door… .”

“W This is also an accommodation… ?”

The guys who noticed it panicked and started to turn their heads across the front door.

“Holy moly! I have a living room!”

“Wow~ It’s really crazy!”

Before I knew it, Cha Yoo-jin and Keun Se-jin ran to the living room where we escaped and were screaming.

And I also stepped through the middle gate on the other side.

“… … .”

“I am very much the same… .”

oh.

‘So you’re saying the other side tried to escape too?’

Each misunderstood each other as an outside team, but in fact, they were the lodging A team and the lodging B team.

‘What the hell is this?’

is it a set?

No, it’s impossible unless it’s a set.

It was not just props that had been decorated like the previous accommodation, but the house itself.

“her.”

I got hit right back. I grinned and looked around again.

I know that in the end there will be a way to escape. So there will be catharsis.

However, the entrance itself was a fake, and it was structured to face each other like a mirror. It is a wonderful double locked room that is more immersed in fear and suspense.

‘Then how about an escape route?’

no, before that

I turned my head. The members flinched.

“first… So neither team touched or touched anything on that panel.”

“okay.”

I reached out and pointed to the panel. Towards the sentence that still floats well.

[Sacrifice selection completed!]

“Then why did ‘selection completed’ appear?”

“… … .”

Sejin frowned as if thinking deeply and crossed his arms.

“Aren’t you on a job mission by any chance?”

“… … !!”

“Why can there be a role of choosing offerings among jobs? Um~ When you think of board games?”

That makes sense.

It was a sharp idea.

“Then, let’s ask everyone for a job.”

“Ah, that’s what I mean… .”

It was at that time that Keun Se-jin was trying to answer.

[Participants.]

“Ouch!”

“What the… .”

A modulated mechanical sound was heard.

Voices were starting to come out of the front door panel.

‘It’s also loaded with many functions.’

We immediately ran and stood in front of the panel.

Then, the panel screen changes and a new sentence is transmitted.

[The sacrifice job has been decided.]

[The sign of fate has now descended.]

White letters on the black screen flashed ominously.

“It’s already over… ?”

“How is this going?”

Confusion and tension chilled the air.

But I was also nervous in another sense.

Hey, obviously the game time limit is 3 hours.

‘Then how should I spend the remaining three hours?’

Isn’t it crushing the tension?

It was then.

Click.

The wall by the front door opened. And something poured out.

“… !”

“Wow!”

Amongst some fussing guys, I checked things.

‘card?’

At first glance, it looked like a poker card, but there were 7 cards in total.

And on the back of each was written their name.

“what?”

“Is this a QR code?”

“wait for a sec.”

I punched the other guys.

The panel’s wording isn’t over yet.

[Among the 7 cards, there is a card of a participant with a job selected as a sacrifice.] The scene of 7 cards flipping over appears on the screen, and then one enlarges and a red mark is attached.

sheep skeleton.

[That is the sacrifice mark.]

“… … .”

It’s serious.

[You can exchange this ‘sign card’ for 3 hours.]

[And at the end of the game, the character with the ‘sacrifice’ token card becomes the final sacrifice.

] Turn around and soon turn over in turn to show the back side.

Then, a card with a scarlet sheep skull mark flashed… .

[Pak!]

It exploded.

[02:59:59]

All that remains is a black screen. Just a blinking white countdown at the bottom.

“… … .”

I immediately checked my card again.

Likewise, it was a card with a poker pattern and name on one side and a QR code on the other side.

I asked, tapping the stopped panel.

“How do you exchange?”

There was no other narration.

Just a new phrase popped up on the black screen.

[Show me the QR code.]

Um.

I turned the top of the card towards the QR code and looked next to the front door panel.

‘Am I scanning here?’

“Moondaemundae?”

“for a moment.”

I stopped the frightened guys from grabbing my shoulders and scanned the card’s QR code.

‘What if?’

The screen changed again.

[Required currency: 1 gold]

“… … .”

gold?

“this… Don’t you think it’s just something that can be exchanged?”

“yes.”

It seems costly.

‘It’s brain-dead to keep exchanging blindly.’

And at that moment, Cha Yoo-jin raised her hand.

“I know!”

“… !”

“Wait a second!”

Then he ran and, in an instant, kicked the bathroom door on his side and brought something out.

“This is gold!”

as soon as… It was gold with a QR code attached to it.

“… !!”

“Wow, where have you been?”

“Yujin-ah, you’re really amazing… !”

The members joined together and began to express their admiration for Cha Yoo-jin’s vision. I’m going to rip your mouth, man.

And then comes the decisive statement.

“Um~ There must be more like this hidden inside these two lodgings, right?”

“Is that right?”

then.

I immediately removed the QR card I was scanning.

“Then let’s start by looking for gold.”

So the treasure hunt began.

“Moondaemundae~ Didn’t you miss our members so much?”

“Oh, it was.”

Keun Se-jin, who was making a fuss saying that it was nice to meet you, eagerly talked about what they had been through next to them.

I was silently flipping the living room on the side where these guys escaped (?).

“Oh, but I don’t know if there are more here. Really we almost knocked it over.”

Yes, looking at the bottom of the sofa in the living room, I can see that they have been thoroughly searched.

I shook my hands and got up.

Come to think of it, there was something I wanted to say to this guy.

“That’s what you were trying to say earlier.”

“huh?”

“Didn’t you guys talk about your job?”

That’s what these guys do.

‘I can’t even mention it while talking about what I’ve been through.’

Then, the big Sejin shrugged.

“Um~ Anyway, that’s what I was trying to say earlier. We were so busy exploring that we didn’t talk about jobs at all?”

“… … .”

hmm are you

‘Isn’t it intentional?’

The guy who is the best at entertainment has blown off the introductory part that the writer even asked for.

However, as if he had read my mind, Keun Se-jin shrugged.

“I thought the picture would be better if we did it when we were all together like this… Well, now that I see it, do you think I’m going to lie?”

“maybe.”

A guy who gets caught in a rough job will lie on his own. I nodded in affirmation.

‘… This is another guy’s idea, though.’

It’s hard to fully trust anyone in this kind of game. I just shrugged my shoulders inwardly and ended the conversation with him.

And he was on his way to the kitchen.

“… Moondae Park.”

Bae Se-jin suddenly approached and spoke in a very low voice.

“You didn’t get a really weird job, did you? Are you sure?”

“yes.”

Not serious.

By the way.

“But wouldn’t a person who received a strange job answer like this?”

“It is, but… You just scanned the card right there. I don’t think people who tried to hide their jobs couldn’t do that even if they were anxious.”

“… … .”

Are you sharp?

“And since you’re good at this, I’m going to bet on you first.”

Bae Se-jin swallowed and said.

“The ‘lawyer’ of my profession.”

okay.

“I have a special ability.”

“… … which?”

“… ‘You can know the circumstances of other jobs.’”

“… !”

“It was written like that… So I knew what kind of job it was.”

Bae Se-jin lowered his voice.

“Didn’t Rabin say he was a reporter?”

“yes.”

The boy swallowed.

“There are no reporters… !”

“… !”

“There is no such thing as a journalist among jobs!”

It was an unimaginable blow to the back of my head.

I immediately recalled Kim Rae-bin’s attitude so far. However, I didn’t see the peculiar awkwardness of a person who was stung by his conscience.

‘Is Raebin Kim so good at lying?’

No matter how much you train with the past variety shows, is that possible?

‘I have some doubts about Bae Se-jin.’

However, without revealing it, I opened my eyes wide as if in surprise, and soon put on a spleen expression. It was as if his ears were persuasive.

Bae Se-jin also became a spleen expression.

“Hyung, can you tell me a job you know? Lavin is trying to set up some real job candidates.”

“okay. But before that… I want to hear about your abilities.”

You know how to negotiate.

I immediately nodded. As Bae Se-jin swallowed, what I revealed was… .

“My ability was a question mark.”

“… ?”

no i’m not kidding

[Special Ability]

-?? (Disclosed in progress)

It was written on my profile like this.

“I think I didn’t tell you because it was probably a spoiler for the progress of the game.”

“ah.”

Of course, if I end here, I won’t be trusted.

I even added my guesses.

“If this is the kind of mafia game, the doctor role is usually victim defense.”

“… !”

“So, I wonder if someone will let me know by the time the sacrifice is made.”

“… It makes sense.”

yes.

I was able to obtain a list of jobs that Bae Se-jin explained to me as if I hadn’t lost my trust anyway.

‘Doctor Sheriff Detective Scholar Undertaker Lawyer… And a clown.’

These are modern professions.

Anyway, it was very plausible and useful information.

‘It’s a benefit.’

If true. I happily bowed my head in thanks, and Bae Se-jin had a slightly proud face.

“But if it’s like this, it’s because hyung’s trust in me and what he said doesn’t mean enough… . Let me recruit one more trustworthy person.”

“uh? who… .”

I raised my hand and pointed at one.

The guy looking intently at the kitchen of our side of the dorm.

That’s Ryu Cheng-wu.

Bae Se-jin became urgent.

“… Doesn’t this have nothing to do with my usual personality? Your job doesn’t matter. It’s entertainment.”

“Yes.”

No, that’s what I’m saying.

I happily nodded my head in agreement.

“Think about it bro.”

“Huh?”

“Last time, in our own content, Chungwoo-hyung was a traitor. those zombies.”

“That’s right.”

“Then, according to the cooldown theory, it won’t be Chungwoo-hyung this time.”

“… ?!”

“how is it.”

Wouldn’t it be boring if the same guy got caught again?

No matter how much it is a lottery, it is a judgment that the production team would not have done that even if they tried their best.

‘Then they would say there was something wrong and have them pull it out again.’

And as if my theory sounded plausible, Bae Se-jin eventually clenched his fist and agreed.

“… so good Let’s do it.”

yes.

I immediately sneaked up to Liu Cheng-wu’s side and sighed.

“brother.”

“hmm?”

“This way for a moment.”

Then, unnoticed by the others, the three of them started talking as if each were searching for a similar place.

“Sejin-hyung wants to ally, but he says it’s possible if you reveal your occupation.”

“ah.”

“We have already introduced ourselves.”

Speaking only of you, it means to have a party like this.

However, Ryu Cheng-wu, who was looking under the table, smiled slightly as if he was embarrassed.

“hmm… I can’t tell you. Sorry.”

“… … !”

Bae Se-jin’s expression changed.

“You can’t… .”

“Wait a minute bro.”

I quickly intervened before he suddenly accelerated.

“It’s not that you don’t want to tell me, but you can’t?”

“… … .”

Liu Qingyu smiled vaguely.

‘also.’

I nodded and bowed to Bae Se-jin.

“I think Chungwoo-hyung has a job where he can’t directly say his job.”

“… ah!”

“If it was the mafia, I would rather cheat, but I don’t think I would have answered so honestly.”

“Ugh… … .”

Bae Se-jin was silent, but soon nodded.

“then… Could be a detective. Usually in a mystery novel, the detective plays an active part at the end.”

oh. It was quite a contextual reasoning in terms of content.

“then?”

“… good! Let’s talk.”

Bae Se-jin nodded. I gave Ryu Cheng-wu a moment to listen to Bae Se-jin’s explanation.

And Liu Cheng-wu was amazed.

“You also had that ability. That’s great, Sejin-ah.”

“Kuhmm what?”

“According to what you said, Labin is definitely suspicious… The urgent thing right now is that there is someone who will become a sacrifice right now. I want to talk more about that too.”

hmm?

“… Yes.”

“Suppose that one of us could choose a job to be sacrificed for ourselves. So what kind of job do you think it would have been?”

that’s easy

I answered without hesitation.

“A detective or a clown.”

Same time. Internet.

Small talk was prevalent in the Orbit voting section that suddenly popped up in each idol community.

First of all, the word ‘sacrifice’ was stimulating, and it was fun to be able to vote.

And opinions were surprisingly unified.

-Whoever sees it, isn’t taking a photo of a buff

ㄴㅋㅋㅋㅋㅋ Just looking at the job title gives off the impression of a troll clown.

Isn’t it a job that somehow makes me feel like a criminal or a black man?

However, there was also a strong opinion that it should not be filmed that way. -Everyone doesn’t know what this is. It’s funny that

The fansite and community started burning with speculation and excitement again.

And then.

Testa’s bizarre set was burning hot in a different sense.

“That’s a nonsense.”

Chapter 488

Episode 488

I looked at Sun Ah-hyun.

‘Let’s exchange cards?’

Besides, the guy who called me to the outside of his room took something out of his pocket.

“… !”

Gold with QR code.

It is a commodity used to exchange cards.

“Where did you find it?”

“Uh, actually… … .”

Sun Ah-hyun whispered quietly.

He said that when he woke up in his room, he searched the room while reading the profile.

“Then under the bed… I found it.”

“… … .”

That means you found it at the beginning of the game.

‘And you’ve been keeping your mouth shut all this time?’

Seon Ah-hyun?

I was involuntarily amazed.

‘Everyone knows a little bit about entertainment.’

It was kind of odd. I can’t wait to see how this will turn out if it’s edited according to the scenario Ryu Seo-rin put together.

“But I don’t know if it’s okay to write like this. It could be used at a crucial moment.”

Then, Seon Ah-hyun nodded with a determined expression.

“I need to know the information, so it’s okay to spend my gold… !”

“hmm.”

Originally, when it comes to efficiency, the correct answer is not to do it until someone else does it… … .

‘This is entertainment.’

It was good for the development to get rid of the first attempt quickly. So I nodded.

“Then let’s get to know each other’s jobs. I think that would be good.”

“Okay I… I am a scholar.”

oh.

I nodded.

“Moondae… ?”

“I am a doctor.”

“Ah ah!”

“It’s a good job,” Sun Ah-hyun blushed and nodded.

With that, the story is over.

“Exchange our cards.”

“Huh?”

“Did you find the gold?”

I called the other members and stood in front of the front door.

“I’m just going to try it out once.”

“okay.”

Big Sejin nodded.

I once again organized the rules of the game.

“If one of us is going to be the sacrifice, this card exchange will change the sacrifice.”

“Yeah right.”

It’s like passing the joker in a card game.

‘Is it a bomb transfer?’

However, this seemed like a survival game with a culprit, a murderer, hiding like a mafia game.

But whether it’s mafia or citizen, I don’t think it’s necessary to put a job like ‘scholar’ or ‘doctor’ first.

I remembered the answer I gave to Liu Cheng-wu earlier.

Which job do you think is most likely to die?

– A detective or a clown.

If the person chosen as the sacrifice is the mafia, if it is a detective, if it is a citizen, it is a clown.

‘This is the standard route.’

Jobs such as scholars and doctors do not attract more aggro than those two.

So, in front of the dark entrance, the only one where the lights still don’t come on.

Relying solely on the light from the panel, we lifted the card.

“do.”

“Yes.”

I scanned the QR codes of Seon Ah-hyun and Gold as they were.

“… … .”

Then, the screen on the front door panel began to swirl silently in dark red.

“Boo!”

“Oh, you’re scarier than I thought?”

I fixed my eyes on the panel while listening to the nervous voices of the guys.

The vortex lasted for 3-4 seconds and then disappeared.

All that remains on the screen are the backs of the two cards.

[Token exchange completed]

[Park Moon-dae < - > Seon Ah-hyun]

“Oh.”

“That’s how you do it.”

A small exclamation of admiration rang out from the members.

And I messed up my card.

‘There is no other information.’

It seemed that only the records of exchanges were neatly stored there.

“It was nothing.”

“Yes. still… It was amazing!”

“It is.”

There were no other clutter. Seon Ah-hyun and I walked away from the front door like that, as if we were satisfied with the demonstration.

After that, it was a series of searches.

“Mundaemundae~ Couldn’t you open the bathroom door in this dorm? Oh, if it’s this difficult, I think there’s gold in here too… .”

“There is a ghost inside.”

“Uhhhh.”

and conte.

“There’s chicken in the fridge!”

“… !!”

“The fact that they serve rice is really impressive.”

It was also a moment when the atmosphere was about to loosen up a bit as the conte continued.

The members scattered around the two spacious lodgings as if they had gradually become numb to the environment.

‘Has it already passed two hours?’

and after a while

Beep beep!

“… !”

An alarm went off on the porch.

Then, like an emergency notice, the voice began repeating itself with the sound of a siren.

[Enter the room of the beginning of warning.]

[Enter the room of the beginning of warning.]

[Enter the room of the beginning of warning.]

“What what.”

“The starting room?”

The scattered members ran out. I screamed loudly, conscious of the sound of the siren.

“I think we’re talking about the room we each started in!”

“iced coffee!”

“See you all in a little while!”

The guys who ran to the front door soon dispersed in perfect order. Indeed, it was like the guys who ate broadcast jjambab.

I also returned to the room where I started.

The room that reproduced my room in the previous accommodation.

Click.

It was the moment when I went in there and closed the door, blocking out the sound of the siren.

Ding-dong!!

"… !!"

[This is the middle notice time.]

… There are also speakers here.

'… after.'

You're doing this on purpose to scare people.

I sat down on the bed in the corner of the dark room because the fluorescent light didn't come on again before I knew it.

Then the grotesque mechanical sound rode through the speakers again.

[Check the bedside drawer.]

Come on.

I moved my hand Inside the bedside drawer was an electronic device.

It obviously wasn't there before.

'Did the filming staff come out and put it in?'

You are suffering. I muttered to myself when I saw the black box with only the camera protruding from the corner and carefully turned on the screen of the electronic device. It was a five-star tap, probably because it was received through PPL.

Beep.

The lighted screen cuts through the dark air and sparkles.

[Job Ability Disclosure]

[Your job ability is… … .]

‘Hoo.’

You split the members because of this.

I read it all slowly.

“… … .”

‘This… Was it written here?’

It was quite interesting.

I was rubbing my chin while thinking of a few applications, when a snooze sounded.

‘hmm?’

The pad’s screen changed again.

[01:00:00]

[※Marks can be checked※]

Time remaining until the end of the game and… Is it a token of my card?

“… … .”

I raised my hand and touched the pad.

[Kyahahaha!]

The first thing I heard was the laughter of a child.

That innocent sound creates a sense of incongruity somewhere and sends chills down the spine.

And without warning, a huge red circular pattern filled the pad.

Lamb skull pattern.

[Your card is ‘Sacrifice Mark’.]

[Current Lamb: Moondae Park]

“… … .”

Right.

I took my eyes off the pad screen for a moment and caught my breath.

The sacrifice mark is on me.

So if I go on like this, I will die.

* * *

“Ughhhh~ Did everyone see it well!”

“Yeah bro!”

The siren sounded again and the members got out of their respective rooms.

And the remaining hour went by in an instant.

Now, rather than searching for gold, he went back to talking and monitoring.

“Huh? Where are the two older brothers going~ Exchange cards by any chance?”

“… I’m going to heat that chicken.”

“… … yep.”

Externally, an hour passed smoothly without any incidents or conflicts.

However, a strange tension was rising.

‘soon.’

That’s it.

I waited and waited for the ending.

and after a while

Beep beep!!

“Oh.”

“I guess time is up.”

I wasn’t too surprised this time.

However, everyone looked a little nervous.

‘The dropouts are decided.’

After being in this for several hours, the degree of immersion naturally became stronger, and the word ‘sacrifice’ seemed to feel a bit terrifying.

It’s like entering an amusement park haunted house.

“It’s up.”

And the panel on the front door was really counting down.

[00:00:00]

Then, huge letters appear to cover it.

[End of Exchange]

“… … .”

The modulated mechanical sound began to flow from the speakers again.

[Pre-announcement notice.]

[The first sacrifice token you received was determined by the supporters’ vote.]

“After the supporters… ?”

[Voting result of fans who love you]

‘… … Pan?’

The red graph went up endlessly on the screen, and the figure of 20374 votes appeared.

Combining those high numbers and explanations… .

“no way… Was this a fan vote?”

“When did you receive it?”

‘I know yeah.’

Whether the astonished members are surprised or not, the panel silently narrates.

[The one job that got the most votes was 20374 votes.]

Now everyone is watching the panel with bated breath.

[And now that the time limit has passed, the class with this sacrifice mark is… … .]

Gulp.

The moment I heard the sound of swallowing saliva in dreary tension.

The result rang.

[Scholar.]

"… !!"

"ah."

I reflexively glanced back at Seon Ah-hyun.

Seon Ah-hyun had a pale face.

'… … .'

-Ugh I… a scholar

Sun Ah-hyun obviously said that.

And the members immediately started looking around to find the person concerned.

"Scholar?"

"Who are the scholars? tell me!"

"… … ."

But it was still.

No one stepped forward, and Seon Ah-hyun kept her mouth shut.

“uh?”

“… Why is no one coming out?”

Sejin Bae narrowed his eyes and Raebin Kim looked around with a puzzled expression.

“Isn’t it a situation where the outcome can’t be changed anyway?”

“that’s right!”

“But why… ?”

It was a time when everyone was talking with confused expressions.

[The room of the offering has been opened.]

Shik.

“omg.”

The front door opened automatically.

And after that, I could see that another door opened automatically.

as soon as… A solitary room in our side of the dorm.

It is the room that has not been opened.

“Is this the sacrificial room?”

“I guess so.”

It popped into my head reflexively.

The note that Kim Rae-bin picked up after falling under that door.

– I open at the end.

‘Did that mean that room would open at the end of this game?’

Or when it is decided who will die or who will end… is it.

I assumed that for the time being and followed them. I thought I should say this in an interview because of the atmosphere.

And in front of the open solitary door.

“I’m in!”

Cha Yu-jin stepped forward without hesitation. but… … .

“Oops!!”

“Why why.”

The boy frowned and stepped back.

‘what?’

Everyone looked into the room in amazement at the reaction.

“… !!”

Inside the room… It was like an altar of some pseudo-church.

The torn black wallpaper and burning red candles swayed eerily.

And a huge coffin-shaped altar located in the middle. On it was carved a pattern of a red sheep’s head skull.

‘You’re crazy.’

Kwak!

“Ahh!”

Is there even a thunder effect?

In front of the space where the art team was replaced, the members became a group of penguins again.

“Moondaemundae I don’t think I can sleep in this room anymore… .”

“I’m glad you moved.”

“huh.”

Anyway, we entered it cautiously.

“… I have a name tag.”

“Ugh.”

And soon, like a table for guests, it took on a shape that surrounded the coffin-shaped altar according to the marked names.

That was the moment.

[Participants.]

“I knew it would be like this.”

“me too.”

The bizarre narration started flowing through the speakers again.

The camera from the coffin rotates to capture our faces.

[Welcome to the Sacrifice Room.]

“Are we really supposed to sacrifice a member here?!”

“Calm down, Rabin.”

[Participants must find the black sheep here.]

“… … .”

black sheep?

[The participant who handed over his sacrifice fate to another participant.]

[In other words, the culprit who sacrificed the ‘scholar’ through the last token exchange is the ‘black sheep’.]

“Huh.”

“Wow, I don’t know more and more about this.”

I sorted it out quickly.

‘hmm.’

So it means to find the one who left the last mark to the ‘scholar’ who eventually became the final sacrifice.

It seems that the act was judged as a kind of ‘mafia’ or ‘criminal’.

‘Then I just need to find the guy I exchanged with the scholar last time.’

It was a moment when I wondered if it was too easy to reason about.

Another condition has been added.

[If the black sheep is properly deduced, the culprit will be burnt along with the sacrifice.]

[But if the black sheep cannot be found]

“… then?”

[Everything except the black sheep and the sacrifice is burnt.

]

“Wow, this is a complete horror game!”

Screams and violent reactions came out from here and there at the sound of annihilation.

‘oh.’

So, this is a structure that you can live with if the sacrifice keeps its mouth shut.

‘If I do this, I won’t tell you who I traded with.’

I admired the viciousness of the production crew.

[Then, good luck.]

Good luck- Good luck… … .

The speaker, which had been echoing ominously, soon crackled and cut off.

And the skull pattern on the coffin was illuminated with red light.

“Oh!”

“Looks like it should start.”

While sticking out his tongue at the awesome room, the atmosphere soon settled in its own way.

The members seemed to think of something to talk about while organizing their thoughts so far.

Of course, this is probably number one.

‘It must be who the scholar who became the sacrifice was.’

In fact, wouldn’t it be the end if we somehow interrogated that person and caught the person who made the last exchange?

But the first thing he said was,

“Wait! I have something to tell you first.”

It was Bae Se-jin.

The boy spoke calmly.

“I knew what my job was.”

“yes?”

“I am a lawyer.”

And as he told me, he started telling me everything he knew.

‘Is this reasonable since it’s the last minute?’

I nodded inwardly.

If you know all the occupations, it is easy to infer who has which occupation by elimination.

“But there is one person who has given a job that no one else has! That person… .”

And it was the moment Bae Se-jin was about to say Kim Rae-bin’s name.

“Huh? wait a minute.”

‘… ?’

Big Sejin suddenly intervened. The guy immediately asks Bae Se-jin, who stopped talking in embarrassment.

“What is your job like?”

“… I’m a lawyer. Because the lawyer’s professional skills can know other professions… .”

“… ? No, your brother is a lawyer?”

Big Sejin laughed.

And he made a bombshell statement.

“weird. Am I a lawyer?”

“… … !!”

“Uh huh?”

“There can be no two jobs that are the same. Right?”

“… … .”

The members opened their mouths and looked back at the two people with the same name.

Big Sejin stroked the back of his neck.

“Ugh. Judging from the reactions, it seems that Sejin-hyung has been saying that he is a lawyer here and there, but that lawyer can’t do that because of his mission.

“… !!”

Keun Sejin looked at the members’ reactions, then frowned and smiled bitterly.

And he sighed.

“Oh, you’ve all been tricked by hyung-nim. You’ve all been tricked.”

“… … .”

A moment of embarrassing silence separated the members.

That moment.

“wait for a sec.”

Bae Se-jin said firmly with a white face.

“You’re the one cheating!”

‘oh my god.’

I swallowed my saliva.

‘One of the two is unconditionally trolling, right?’

I can already see viewers who can’t breathe and chew popcorn.

It was literally the beginning of a melee.

Chapter 489

Episode 489 A person with the same name who claims to be a lawyer.

Bae Se-jin and Keun Se-jin are in a tense battle of words.

“… Lee Se-jin had been quiet until now, and only opened his mouth after the person to die was decided. This is strategic no matter who sees it. You’re deliberately trying to confuse people!”

“Ah, it’s the opposite. Is it more unnatural to talk about one’s job and abilities from the beginning? Everyone, think about the mafia game~ Usually, good citizens don’t do it well even if they are wary of the mafia.”

Both make sense.

Anyway, both can’t be lawyers, and one is a joke… That’s great. I was in awe of myself.

“Oh… Who do you suspect, Moondae hyung?”

“Looking at the current situation, it seems that both possibilities exist.”

One is an actor and one is good at entertainment.

‘I’ll be able to pretend to be a different job naturally.’

If both of them put their mind to it, it is possible to play hard as a trolling job.

Right now, neither of them is logically awkward.

“… ! It’s sophistry. I found the suspicious person early and shared it with people I trust!”

“That’s why, in fact, if my brother is the mafia, everything is a lie. So it’s just a baseless story?”

You can almost see the pupils of the other guys spinning around. I clicked my tongue inwardly.

and raised his hand

“I have a question for both of you.”

“uh?”

“Could you explain a little bit about the profession of a lawyer? Usually liars have loopholes.”

“That’s right. If I go into detail, I’m sure someone will come across a contradiction.”

Liu Qingyu nodded.

‘okay. No matter how much, if you keep asking questions, you’ll come up with answers that you didn’t prepare on the spot.’

Then the front and rear words don’t match, and the logic collapses awkwardly.

“ah.”

I don’t know what’s going on inside, but the Sejins with the same name reacted as if they were quite attractive on the outside.

“Oh, that’s a good idea. Mundaemundae~”

“Then I’ll do it first.”

Bae Se-jin jumped out as if he would not lose the player.

“A lawyer… I can see how many jobs there are in total and what those jobs are.”

And Bae Se-jin explained the job he knew.

The other guys nodded and went back to their jobs.

“Doctor Sheriff Detective Scholar Undertaker Clown… .”

“And you’re a lawyer.”

“that’s right.”

Bae Se-jin nodded seriously.

“Raise your hand if your job isn’t here.”

There was no backlash.

‘There is no one whose complexion changes noticeably.’

It must mean that the job you have is among them.

‘In other words, there is a high probability that Bae Se-jin’s story is true.’

Sejin Bae, perhaps noticing the sign, looked at Sejin Sejin defiantly.

But the boy smiled bitterly.

“Well, you know what a job is… .”

And the boy shrugged.

“But hearing your brother’s tone, it seems like you really know something, right?”

“… !!”

“You’re admitting you lied when you’re not a lawyer… .”

“No no.”

Big Sejin shook his head. And he said it quite seriously.

“Anyway, Bae Se-jin is like a different job with that ability. Only being a lawyer is a lie.”

“… !!”

So the words of the big sejin… .

‘Bae Se-jin found out that fact with the ability of another job, but is he pretending to be a lawyer?’

Certainly a number of cases are possible!

“No, just… In fact, at a glance, it seems like a skill that has nothing to do with the profession of a lawyer.”

“Huh.”

Kim Rae-bin was shocked. And at the same time, Bae Se-jin was hot.

“The job of a lawyer is to know the defendant well. How awkward is this!”

“No, just looking at that ability makes it a culprit! It looks like it will have a black screen. It looks like a good match, right?”

A look of ‘it seems like that’ passed across the members’ faces.

And Bae Se-jin is now narrowing his eyes with a cold face.

‘Is it overimmersion or acting?’

I shrugged my shoulders and looked back at Sejin.

“Then what is the original lawyer’s ability?”

Big Sejin smiled and said without hesitation.

“It’s the ability to designate a person and find out if that person is innocent.”

“… !!”

oh my god.

And Sejin’s remarks did not end there.

“By the way, I already wrote it~”

“… … ?!”

At that moment, the atmosphere in the room changed.

Seon Ah-hyun, who had been quietly keeping her mouth shut, reflexively asked back.

“Who… ?”

“Here is our member~”

Keun Sejin patted the back of the member right next to him.

that’s right… .

“Kim Raebin?”

“yes!”

The guy grins. Kim Rae-bin has an expression as if his eyeballs are about to pop out.

However, he soon looked around and nodded his head in confusion.

“Of course I am not guilty. Since I’ve never exchanged cards in the first place… … .”

Bae Se-jin clenched his fists and intervened.

“Nonsense!”

“… ?!”

Rabin Kim was shocked.

“Rabin Kim said his job was a reporter! however… There are no journalists among the professions!”

“… !!”

“Ah, I’m sure I did.”

Kim Rae-bin’s eyes began to spin. Oops.

“And now every time I try to reveal this, he blocks me.”

“yes?”

“Lee Se-jin!!”

Bae Se-jin shouted coldly, then clasped his hands and muttered.

“… And there was something strange about your job.”

“yes?”

“clown.”

“… … .”

Whoa.

“Remember that card game we played last time? Joker So if you hold the clown card last, you lose… .”

It’s a thief catcher.

Bae Se-jin was seen swallowing saliva.

“So, wouldn’t Rabin Kim have that kind of job? Our mission is to fail.”

“yes!?”

Kim Rae-bin was even more shocked.

‘If that’s acting, I’ll have to make him act too.’

However, Bae Se-jin continued to speak in a more and more confident tone as if logic was connected.

“And Sejin Lee is a scholar.”

“yes??”

“Lee Se-jin is the sacrifice, and they are trying to win by preventing me from pointing out Kim Rae-bin!”

“… !!”

There was such a rule.

-If you correctly guess the black sheep, the culprit will be burnt with the sacrifice.

-However, if the black sheep is not found, all but the black sheep and the offering will be burnt.

In other words, the only way for the person who became the victim to survive is to make people unable to hit the criminal.

“how is it.”

“… … .”

The heart attack was pretty good.

however… Sejin Lee burst into laughter.

“Ah, I see.”

“… ?”

Sejin Lee declared like a bomb.

“No, is your brother a clown?”

“… !!”

“Originally, people who want to bluff talk first. to lay the plate.”

“what? Wait, what the kid is doing right now is that he doesn’t know what to do, so he bites me and hangs on… It’s an obvious move! You’re just repeating my words!”

“No! My brother hurt my foot.”

“hey… !”

The overindulgence was getting worse. Now I think I can put something like ‘I’m really fighting ^^’ as a subtitle.

Liu Chengyu hurriedly intervened.

“hmm… Sejin-ah, that’s why Sejin Lee.”

“Yeep!”

“Then can I listen to your logic once?”

“Sure~”

Big Sejin smiled.

“I think Sejin hyung is a clown. The black sheep, so I think there’s a high probability that it’s the mafia we need to catch!”

“what?!”

“Sejin-ah, calm down and listen.”

Ryu Cheong-woo was calming Bae Se-jin.

Big Sejin looked at me and rolled his eyes.

“… … .”

“And before I came here, did you hear something from Mundae?”

“… !?”

Yes.

Here’s some info I shared with the guy who probably has the most say in a game like this before coming here.

-actually… .

“Can I tell you?”

“okay.”

I nodded. Big Sejin willingly opened his mouth.

“Ahyeon said he was a scholar.”

“… !!”

That’s it.

‘It’s suspicious.’

‘Scholar’, that is, the job selected as the final sacrifice in this game.

“I don’t know what the first job the fans voted for as a sacrifice is, but anyway, the final sacrifice is a scholar.”

I spoke calmly.

“And there is someone who said he was a scholar. Ahyeon.”

“… … .”

“So, anyway, ask Seon Ah-hyun a question… .”

“There.”

Seon Ah-hyun opened her mouth with a pale face.

“I am… I never said anything like that.”

“… !!”

what?

* * *

Foundation of a dark cult.

The people standing around it are struggling in endless exposure.

“I have a different job.”

“yes??”

Are there any contestants who reveal their true profession in this game?!

Kim Rae-bin was shocked again.

Ah Hyun-hyung, this kind of thing happened!

‘Bae Se-jin and Lee Se-jin are claiming to be lawyers.’

‘Dae-hyung Moon said he was a doctor.’

He quickly organized the current situation in his head.

therefore… .

Bae Se-jin – Lawyer

Seon Ah-hyun – Scholar

Lee Se-jin – Lawyer

Park Moon-dae – Doctor

Kim Rae-bin – Reporter

Cha Yoo-jin – ?

_____=

This is what each of them claims.

And sniping at each other was rampant.

Even Seon Ah-hyun, who was recently exposed, is saying that he is not a ‘scholar’!

“Then what job does your brother hold?”

“Yes, I have the ability to know other people’s occupations.”

“omg.”

“and… I checked the door with that… I found out something.”

Seon Ah-hyun said with a determined expression.

“Mundae is not a doctor.”

“… … !!”

“I cheated on my job… !”

also?

Kim Rae-bin turned his head as if his neck would break.

‘Moondae hyung is definitely… .’

– First of all, I am a doctor.

Bae Se-jin had a similar expression.

“… Moondae Park?”

“… … .”

Park Moon-dae did not answer. And Seon Ah-hyun continued talking.

“Mundae said he was a doctor… It wasn’t.”

“I am a doctor.”

“Oh no… !”

Seon Ah-hyun said with an expression that looked like she would burst into tears at any moment, but said it firmly.

“Mundae is a mortician.”

“… !!”

“what!?”

The momentary shock struck the atmosphere in the room once again.

-undertaker?

Rabin Kim turned his head.

I had to stay calm. Let's definitely check it out!

'Moondae hyung's reaction… … .'

"… … ."

Are you very calm?

a little… Are you shy?

Park Moon-dae scratched his head.

"hmm… Even a funeral director ends up as a doctor. So, maybe the doctor is right?"

"… … ."

Everyone is speechless.

"hey!"

"no… At first glance, it looks like a mafia game, so I thought it would be strange to be so honest in the beginning."

Park Moon-dae scratched his cheek. In an instant, the tension collapsed.

"What are you talking about!"

"There is a saying that an evil law is also a law. So the undertaker is also a doctor."

"Going crazy… ."

"You're an idiot!"

Mundae Park muttered shamelessly with an expression like 'Anyway, I didn't lie', and people turned around.

Bae Se-jin is now almost screaming.

“Anyway, do you admit it? What is an undertaker?! What is your job? Do you have to fool people?!”

“No, it’s not like that, it’s just… You can contact the dead. No one has died yet, so I don’t know how to write it.”

“Ugh.”

“Actually, I found out about that during the midterm inspection. You told your brother. I don’t know that ability.”

“Ugh… … .”

Park Moon-dae did not appear to have numb feet. I just impulsively used some strategies in the beginning.

Bae Se-jin groaned and shouted.

“Then you should have told me when this started!”

“I was going to, but now there are two lawyers out and Ah-hyun cheated on his job and it’s a mess, so if I reveal it, I think it will be buried.”

“… … .”

that’s right

With that expression, Bae Se-jin was convinced, and Kim Rae-bin was half-convinced.

“and.”

Park Moon-dae turned his head.

And he looked straight at Kim Raebin.

“… … !”

“I think the professions Sejin hyung mentioned are quite persuasive.”

“That’s right.”

“I’m not sure if that’s a lawyer’s ability.”

“hey!”

Bae Se-jin’s refutation flowed naturally, and Park Mun-dae quickly shot back.

To Rabin Kim himself.

“So Ravin. Are you sure you are a journalist?”

“… … .”

Silence passed.

He bit his lip.

‘This far.’

And the moment Rabin Kim opened his mouth… .

“Wait! We have lost our purpose!”

“… !”

This time, Cha Yoo-jin, who had been quiet, intervened!

“Our purpose is to find out who the victim is and who the culprit is. So what matters is something else.”

“uh?”

“what is that?”

Cha Yoo-jin asked without hesitation.

“How did you exchange the card?”

“… !”

“[The important thing is to get them in order!] So I need everyone’s information. You can’t think ahead of time about suspicious people. Then prejudice arises.”

“Um… … .”

Park Moon-dae arranged it.

“Then you mean, let’s organize the card exchange history first.”

“Yes!”

“… That makes sense.”

“Um sure.”

Quite a few members nodded, but Park Moon-dae added calmly.

“But I think you’d better not throw away your doubts. To me, it seemed like Eugene covered Rabin.”

“Ha?”

“I agree~”

“Yes. Let’s organize the exchange details and make sure to ask Rabin again.”

“… All right!”

Kim Rae-bin answered bravely.

Still, he intended to go as far as he could.

– It’s good to hide your identity.

This is because Kim Rae-bin did not forget the advice written on his job profile.

“Okay then, let’s sort it out.”

In the meantime, the members began chronologically arranging the witnesses of the card exchange scene at the front door one by one.

“First… Did Moon-dae and Ah-hyeon trade?”

“okay.”

“Next, Cha Yoo-jin exchanged with Chung Woo-hyung.”

Then the alarm went off and everyone went back to the room they started to check their cards… .

After that.

“Is this the end of the second half?”

“I guess so.”

To summarize:

_____=

1. Seon Ah-hyun < - > Park Moon-dae

2. Cha Yu-jin < - > Ryu Chung-woo

[Interim maintenance]

3. Ryu Cheong-woo < - > Bae Se-jin

4 .Cha Yoo-jin < - > Park Moon-dae

_____=

Exactly 4 times.

“I put the person with the coin in front of me. So, the person who recommended it.”

“All right!”

Rabin Kim nodded.

“Brothers~ You said that you were going to reheat the chicken, but in the end you exchanged it! Could it be that you secretly did it suspiciously~?”

“Because you are so crazy! When you went to the bathroom, you did it quickly. I saw all the other kids.”

“oh my god.”

Next to him, there was another joke that sounded like a verbal fight, but he thought hard.

‘Then the suspect is inside… Do people see it that way?’

Of course, even so, there were five of them.

Kim Rae-bin seemed to roll his eyes at this strange situation in which he was included in the minority who cheated on his job.

“Hmm, who exchanged other things besides what I just said?”

There was silence at Lee Se-jin’s question. The smile on his face deepened.

“then… Who said that he had a Kwang card during the midterm check? That sacrificial mark!”

“… … .”

Still no answer.

That was the moment.

“I know.”

“… !”

Cha Yoo-jin raised her hand with her eyes shining.

“An offering at the mid-check? The person with the card is the mafia.”

“… !”

“Because he doesn’t show up now. That means you don’t want to give out your exchange records.”

It meant that if it wasn’t the culprit, he would have cooperated and figured out the exchange order to whom it went.

“ah… !”

The members were in a moment of admiration.

but.

“It could be the other way around. Cha Yoo-jin!”

“Umm?”

Kim Rae-bin responded in a cautious voice.

“The person who had the offering card back then didn’t exchange it, so it could still be a sacrifice.” The sacrifice survives with the culprit only when the culprit deduction fails.

“Oh”

It was clear why even the sacrifices would keep their mouths shut!

“Ah, but now the sacrifice is a scholar~”

Lee Se-jin said as if he had suddenly remembered.

“Don’t you think the viewers would have chosen a scholar as the job to kill here if they voted? You get to choose a more prominent job. Isn’t that right, Mundaemundae?”

“That’s right.”

Park Moon-dae nodded lightly. And Bae Se-jin also responded.

“Yes, Moondae Park did that… ! I think the first vote came out as a detective or a clown.”

“Um yes.”

So, obviously, it meant that I was among the people I exchanged with.

“Ah~ I can still do this.”

Sejin Lee smiled.

“The person who exchanged it earlier before the midterm inspection could have taken it as it is.”

“… !”

“Then, as Rabin said, it’s a sacrifice!”

That was the moment.

“ah… !”

“… ?”

Sun Ah-hyun covered her mouth.

‘What happened?’

It was the moment Kim Rae-bin looked at Seon Ah-hyun and was worried.

“it’s me.”

“… ??”

“I… I think I handed over the sacrifice to Mundae.”

Seon Ah-hyun said with a pale face.

“I am a detective… … .”

“… … !!”

And Seon Ah-hyun straightened her body.

“By the way, Mundae is not a scholar. therefore… It means that Mundae passed the token of sacrifice to a scholar.”

“… … .”

Kim Rae-bin checked the exchange list.

After the mid-term inspection, the exchange of Moondae Park… .

4. Yujin Cha < - > Moondae Park

“… … !”

if this is true

‘no way.’

Cha Yoo-jin was the sacrifice.

‘Moon Dae-hyung is the culprit, and Cha Yoo-jin is the sacrificial scholar… !’

Come to think of it, Rae-bin Kim, who realized that he did not know Cha Yu-jin’s profession, thought while clenching his fists.

‘If this is right… Should I act?’

He was still looking for a chance to use his ‘professional skills’!

his ability.

– You can kill the right ‘culprit’ instead of offering it when sniping.

shoot the criminal.

Yes.

Kim Rae-bin’s job was ‘sheriff’.

Chapter 490

Episode 490,

Kim Rae-bin once again reflected on his job skills.

Sheriff.

If you find the culprit before the game is over, he can snipe the culprit… !

‘Then I can only catch the culprit and save the sacrificed members!’

Basically, the rules of this game are simple.

-Participants can pass the tokens of sacrifice to each other by exchanging cards.

-If you guess correctly who the black sheep is, the culprit who handed over the last offering token, the culprit and the sacrifice will die.

-If you can’t reason, everyone except the culprit and the sacrifice will die.

Deathmatch team battle.

In other words, the culprit and two victims automatically become one team, and the remaining five members of the team become one team. Only one can survive.

But if the sheriff succeeds in sniping the criminal, the story changes.

Instead of both the culprit and the victim dying, only the culprit is sacrificed and the game ends.

In other words, you can buy sacrifices too!

minimal deaths!

It was considered the best route.

There was only one condition.

-When the sheriff snipes the wrong ‘criminal’, that innocent person is immediately burnt.

If Kim Rae-bin accidentally shoots a non-culprit, that person is dead.

Burnt offering, i.e. burning to death on that coffin-shaped altar.

So I had to catch the right culprit once and for all.

‘Let’s do our best!’

Rabin Kim clenched his fists inwardly.

And in the meantime, the situation in the room was falling further into shock and confusion.

Seon Ah-hyun’s revelation!

“Are you a detective?”

“… And when you exchanged cards with Moondae, it seems that the sacrifice mark was passed, right?”

“Yes.”

Sejin, who had the same name, did not fight for the first time after starting the reasoning, and started asking Seon Ah-hyun at once.

And both of them made strange faces.

“Then if you’re right… .”

_____=

1. Seon Ah-hyun < - > Park Moon-dae

2. Cha Yu-jin < - > Ryu Chung-woo

[Interim maintenance]

3. Ryu Cheong-woo < - > Bae Se-jin

4 .Cha Yoo-jin < - > Park Moon-dae

_____=

Based on this order, after exchanging with Seon Ah-hyun, Park Mun-dae exchanged with… .

last 4 times.

4. Cha Yoo-jin < - > Park Moon-dae

Everyone turned their heads.

“Cha Yoo-jin.”

1 hour before the end of card exchange.

Cha Yoo-jin, who found a new coin near the entrance, had a few words with Park Moon-dae and exchanged it on the spot in an instant!

Kim Rae-bin also swallowed.

‘really… ?’

However, Cha Yu-jin, the person concerned… … It was a grim expression.

“This is not a sacrifice. Because I am not a scholar.”

“… !?”

“I can swear. I swear.”

It was very fine.

The members were a bit perplexed.

“Then what is your job?”

“I am a doctor.”

“… ?!”

At Cha Yoo-jin’s unstoppable words, the members started to hum.

“Um, as soon as it turns out that Mundae is not a doctor, but a mortician? The timing of this is a bit odd~”

“I didn’t know Moondae hyung was a doctor! I was just quiet. I tried to find out the answer by observing the members’ words.”

Bae Se-jin asked carefully.

“Can you prove it?”

“No one can prove their job. But I am a doctor! If anyone here is a doctor, come out and tell me.”

“… … .”

“No one tells me. I know why. Because the doctor is me!”

Cha Yu-jin shrugged. That confidence was certainly genuine… … .

‘Really?’

Then I had to reason again.

Who the hell is a scholar and who is a criminal? Kim Rae-bin tried to think again.

It was then.

Park Mun-dae was silent for a moment as if he was lost in thought, then he put his hand on his chin and opened his mouth.

“… Ahyeon said you were a detective.”

“… … Yes.”

“then… Even if you’re right that you’re a detective, there are other possibilities.”

“What… ?”

“The thing that became the first sacrifice through the vote of the viewers. Maybe not a detective, but a clown.”

“… !!”

Yes.

What if the first starting point of the spinning token of sacrifice was a clown instead of a detective?

“then… That’s what I was thinking.”

Park Moon-dae turned his head.

“There is only one person who has a record of exchanging cards among the suspicious candidates who still seem to lie as a profession.”

And he naturally looked at the person in question.

Sejin Bae.

“… !!”

“brother. I exchanged it with Chungwoo-hyung after the midterm inspection.”

Bae Se-jin opened her eyes wide.

“And there are no reporters among the professions, but you said that Kim Rae-bin claims to be a reporter, right? But Kim Rae-bin has no record of exchanging cards.”

“… … .”

“My older brother insisted that Lee Se-jin was a clown, not a lawyer, but Lee Se-jin doesn’t have any exchange records either.”

So, among the controversial people who couldn’t preoccupy the profession right now, only Bae Se-jin had a record of exchanging cards!

‘I can’t!’

Kim Rae-bin opened his mouth and looked at Bae Se-jin.

“for a moment.”

Bae Se-jin responded in the most calm tone.

“Cha Yu-jin only speaks confidently, but there is no evidence. It could be that someone else is a doctor and he is silent because of his job mission.”

“Mmm.”

“and… okay! Cha Yoo-jin exchanged cards with Ryu Chung-wu once before Park Moon-dae. If Chungwoo was a clown, and as you said, if the clown was initially a sacrifice by the viewers’ vote… .”

Liu Cheng-wu raised his hand with a puzzled expression and answered.

“hmm… But in the end, Yujin exchanged cards with Moondae. So, the sacrifice token is moved from Yujin to Mundae?”

It was correct.

“Then, Mundae should be a sacrifice, but since Mundae is not a scholar, but a mortician, it is impossible.”

“ah.”

In the end, it was a contradiction. Because of the inconsistency in the final job.

‘It’s impossible.’

Kim Rae-bin swallowed.

“If Eugene is a clown, it would be strange even if he had a sacrifice card at first. The token is passed on to you through me who exchanged cards.”

“… … .”

“Sejin, are you a scholar? The final sacrifice.”

Bae Se-jin hardened her face at Ryu Cheong-wu’s question.

“No way! And by that I mean you’re the culprit! Because you were the one who traded last!”

“huh. So that’s not it. Then since we’re on the same team, there’s no way we’re questioning each other like this.”

Liu Qingyu continued to speak calmly.

“And Sejin-ah. Didn’t you keep insisting that Lee Se-jin was a clown earlier?”

“… … .”

That was right.

Bae Se-jin has been fighting fiercely with Lee Se-jin over the profession of a lawyer, claiming that each other is a clown… .

It was a bit of a stretch to suspect anyone else of being a clown now.

In the end, Bae Se-jin fell asleep.

“Really… Hey Sejin! Be honest about your job! You can’t reason!”

“… after! Brother, you are really good at acting! Wow~ hyung, are you being honest?”

“Ew!”

Lee Se-jin also had an expression on his forehead that seemed to have veins rising. He explained sternly with a smile on his face.

“In the first place, even if I’m a clown, it’s impossible to pass the sacrifice mark in the middle~ I didn’t exchange it.”

“… … .”

Yes. One of the only names not listed in the table where the card records were exchanged was Lee Se-jin!

‘The other one is me… .’

Kim Rae-bin swallowed.

Lee Se-jin’s kind explanation continued.

“But right now, the job of the final sacrifice is ‘scholar’, right?”

He was neither a detective nor a clown who was likely to be voted out.

The job of the final sacrifice is a scholar!

“Whether the viewers voted for the detective or the clown, the person with that job is not a sacrifice right now, is it? It means that the certificate was handed over by card exchange.”

“… … .”

“I don’t know how to turn around and get money… Finally, go to the scholar.”

There was no logical flaw in Lee Se-jin’s words. Even Kim Rae-bin nodded involuntarily.

‘I see.’

If so, Lee Se-jin and himself, who have no exchange records, are innocent!

“then… You’re saying that Cha Yoo-jin is a scholar, and Park Moon-dae handed it over to Cha Yu-jin!”

“I am not a scholar. There are obviously other possibilities.”

“So I’m not the culprit… .”

“… … .”

Silence passed.

No one seemed to be lying.

Even Park Moon-dae said this.

“… … Could it be that the viewers chose the scholar from the beginning?”

“Did the production crew do something?”

“Mmm.”

The members who were sobbing looked like their bones were hurting.

This is because the number of cases did not match no matter what the occupation was mixed.

However, Kim Rae-bin knew one more piece of information about the job.

One piece of information no one knows.

himself.

‘I am the sheriff!’

From there, I started filling in the void.

Kim Rae-bin clasped his hands together.

The two men with the same name fought over a job, each claiming that the other was a clown and that he was a lawyer.

‘Let’s assume that whoever said the right reasoning and the truth.’

If so, the table can simply be completed.

He slowly recalled everyone’s testimonies and matched people and occupations.

If you erase it with the method of elimination… .

“… … .”

One space left.

he realized

“… !”

Kim Rae-bin took a deep breath. and called someone’s name.

the rest of the people.

“Brother Chungwoo.”

“huh?”

Kim Rae-bin turned his head to him and remembered the ticket he had made.

It matched members and occupations.

_____=

1. Chungwoo Ryu – ?

2. Bae Se-jin – lawyer (or clown)

3. Sun Ah-hyun – detective

4. Lee Se-jin – lawyer (or clown)

5. Park Moon-dae – funeral director

6. Kim Rae-bin – sheriff

7. Cha Yoo-jin – doctor

_____ _____=

If you fill it like this, you will end up with one question mark.

and… One job left.

If you put it in there, it will look like this.

_____=

1. Chungwoo Ryu – Scholar

_____=

‘Ah.’

In this way, there is no contradiction in professional testimony!

Consistent job information for the first time.

‘I have to start reasoning from here!’

now i have to say

Rabin Kim resolutely opened his mouth.

“I am the sheriff.”

“… … .”

“So your older brother is a scholar!”

“… !!”

“I matched all the job testimonials. and… All that remains is my brother.”

Kim Rae-bin eagerly explained the table he had created. I could feel that the members were listening to him with great concentration.

“… That’s it!”

“… … .”

Kim Rae-bin caught his breath.

‘Will you believe me?’

He looked around with eager eyes.

and… Park Moon-dae raised his hand.

“Wait, what is the probability that Bae Se-jin or Lee Se-jin are not clowns?”

“that… … .”

“It feels a bit inaccurate to me. Because there is no evidence.”

I can’t.

It was the moment when Kim Rae-bin was shocked and was about to become depressed.

“for a moment.”

“… !”

Sejin Bae interjected, narrowing his eyes.

“Park Moon-dae, you… Aren’t you covering Ryu Cheng-wu? It feels that way.”

“yes? what do you mean… … .”

“That’s right.”

“… !”

Seon Ah-hyun also calmly intervened.

“If it’s a literary college, let’s think about it… i guess i said Because Ravin mustered up the courage to say it.”

“hmm. They might be trying to cheat.”

“Rabin… ?”

“… … .”

Everyone was silent.

‘uh?’

Kim Rae-bin was a little taken aback, but Bae Se-jin nodded his head broadly.

“okay. If Rabin was the sheriff, he must have tried to fake his job as a reporter because of some mission or ability. Rather, this is easier for me to understand.”

“Sejin hyung… .”

“Sheriff just sounds like a good job. He probably tried to hide it because he was a police officer.”

Kim Rae-bin was greatly moved!

But Park Moon-dae was calm.

“yes. I hope this is right too… If Chungwoo-hyung is a scholar, judging from the exchange records, the culprit will come out right away.”

“what… ?”

“Brother.”

“… !!”

3. Ryu Cheong-woo < - > Bae Se-jin

“Cheong-woo hyung’s last exchange record is Bae Se-jin hyung.”

Bae Se-jin’s face turned pale.

And Kim Rae-bin also realized.

‘Then, assuming Bae Se-jin is a clown… .’

Clown Bae Se-jin was first sacrificed and passed it on to scholar Liu Cheng-wu!

Everything fit exactly!

‘Oh my God.’

It was the moment when he wondered whether he should prepare for a sniping out of embarrassment.

Someone raised their hand and shouted.

“That is strange!”

“… !”

It was Cha Yoo-jin.

The boy spoke again and again.

“Then Bae Se-jin hyung would have objected to Kim Rae-bin. Because I can’t get caught.”

“… … .”

“But Sejin-hyung told me to trust him first. But Moondae-hyung was against it. That’s why Moondae hyung is more suspicious.”

“… … .”

“Didn’t Moondae-hyung secretly exchange cards?”

“… !!”

iced coffee!

‘Yes, if you secretly exchanged cards without informing… .’

Kim Rae-bin, who tried to think that way, soon realized the reality.

‘… uh?’

And a small laugh was heard.

It was Park Moon-dae.

“Impossible.”

“… !!”

“As everyone knows, the front door is in the middle of the two accommodations. It means that it is impossible for people who want to trade to get access without being noticed.”

Yes.

The front door was right in the middle.

If more than one person approaches it, it will somehow be spotted!

Looking back at Cha Yu-jin, Park Mun-dae kindly added.

“If you try to trade there, you will stand out. In fact, if more than one moved, everyone watched.”

“… Umm.”

There, Mundae Park gave a decisive testimony.

“Besides, I never went to the front door at all.”

“what… ?”

“After the mid-term inspection, I was always on the same side of the dorm I started with. You saw Sejin hyung too.”

Yes.

After checking whether there is an offering mark on the hall card in the room where each person started during the midterm check.

– Bae Se-jin, Park Moon-dae, Kim Rae-bin.

The dorm where these three awoke.

Park Mun-dae did not deviate from it and continued to search.

“… Um, why did you do that?”

“I was wondering if there was a way to get rid of the bathroom ghost.”

Park Moon-dae’s explanation that he wondered if the mortician’s ability to communicate with the dead was used there was smooth.

“Since my job is a mortician, I wondered if I could talk to ghosts.”

“omg.”

So the conclusion is this.

-Park Moon-dae has never approached the front door since the mid-term inspection and has no coins.

therefore… .

‘Mr. Moon has never attempted an exchange… !’

“In conclusion, I am a person who cannot exchange cards under the circumstances.”

“… … .”

“I think this will convince everyone of my innocence.”

At first, it was just a heart attack. Park Moon-dae added that and shrugged his shoulders.

‘… I can’t refute it.’

Kim Rae-bin looked to the side.

Standing was a man who revealed that he was a detective by profession.

His eyes were wide open as if in shock.

‘Unbelievable.’

Kim Rae-bin spoke hastily to encourage him on purpose.

“That Ahyeon hyung. Then you should be suspicious of other people who also tried to exchange… .”

“Oh no.”

“… !!”

“Is it possible. Moondae too… !”

Seon Ah-hyun muttered resolutely with a pale face.

Park Moon-dae asked without hesitation.

“How?”

“… … .”

“I don’t think you’re going to talk about using a walkie-talkie. Can’t the production crew put such an unfair thing into an entertainment show that’s not stupid?”

Sun Ah-hyun shook her head quietly.

and spoke

“Moondae… You don’t have to go to the porch.”

“… ?”

“You only need to go to the front door with the Mundae card… !”

“… ah!!”

Bae Se-jin exclaimed for a moment. to know what it means.

And Seon Ah-hyun explained clearly.

“The person who wants to exchange just needs to take Park Moon-dae’s card and go to the front door… !”

“… !!”

“okay! And pretending to pass through the front door, you can use both cards by yourself and exchange them quickly!”

“Ahhh!”

In an instant, the atmosphere heated up. Kim Rae-bin also blushed and raised his thumb.

“You are right!”

“Thank you… !”

There is no need for the two of them to go directly. Seon Ah-hyun, who found the loophole, smiled slightly.

But Park Moon-dae… He nodded.

“… ?”

“Maybe.”

‘You say you’re a poet like this?’

Of course it couldn’t be.

“Then anyone could have done that.”

“… !!”

“I think it’s possible if someone other than me just passes the card to the opponent.”

That’s right.

“… … .”

There was silence again for a moment.

Lee Se-jin asked while holding back a sigh.

“… Does anyone remember who the members were hanging around near the entrance?”

“… … .”

From here on, it was all over the place again.

And in fact, even if someone’s testimony came out, it was the same.

Anyone could give false testimony.

While everyone suspects Park Moon-dae as the culprit emotionally, they admit that they have nothing more to talk about.

Park Moon-dae was very good at rebutting.

‘I see.’

So Rabin Kim realized.

‘When there is no physical evidence, I have to use the sheriff’s ability even more.’

Only in this way can you avoid the biggest risk you don’t know of ‘the remaining 5 people will be wiped out’ during the criminal mystery.

‘I’m going to verify it once with the sheriff’s ability.’

Of course, the risk was great. Because if you shoot the wrong criminal, an innocent person may die.

And in fact… In that case, the sheriff also dies.

Kim Rae-bin remembered the next line in the rule explanation.

-When the sheriff snipes the wrong ‘criminal’, that innocent person is immediately burnt.

– And the sheriff is also burnt together.

In other words, the sheriff’s bullet… It was to risk one’s own life.

Still, that would be better than pointing out the wrong culprit and letting everyone die!

‘Now is the time to try.’

Kim Rae-bin was determined.

“… ?”

“Kim Raebin?”

he exclaimed.

“The sheriff shoots the contestant Moondae Park!”

“… !!”

At that moment, a dazzling light effect erupted from the huge coffin placed in the middle.

Chapter 491

If you don’t debut, you’ll die from an illness Episode 491

Right after Sheriff Kim Rae-bin declares that he will shoot ‘Park Moon-dae’.

Jiing!

“Wow!”

“What?!”

The light went off like a flash in a coffin.

The light followed the members round and round like a flashlight or spotlight, creating tension.

Uh-

uh- Then, like roulette, it stopped at one person.

-The sheriff shoots the contestant Park Moon-dae!

Moondae Park.

Right to the person who sniped!

“… … .”

Kim Rae-bin swallowed.

Park Moon-dae looked at the light emanating from the coffin expressionlessly.

A stifling silence filled the room.

and.

[Bang!]

“Ouch!”

A wild gunshot rang out and several members flinched.

And the speaker exploded.

The mechanical sound pronounces.

[Correct answer.]

[The culprit is a mortician.]

“… !!”

“Wow!!”

The light that was shooting at Park Moon-dae turned red.

[The sheriff shot the criminal.]

I forgot to breathe.

It was a success… !

‘therefore… … .’

Park Moon-dae hyung was the culprit!

“Huh.”

Kim Rae-bin almost fell because his feet gave out.

“Kim Raebin!”

“Lavin, what did you just do? Are you a sheriff?”

“yes… … .”

“It’s great… !”

In an instant, the atmosphere lit up with excitement.

“that! If I had anything like this, I would just shoot them one by one at the start of the game!”

‘Then if you fail, the two of you will die… .’

It was just as Kim Rae-bin was about to explain that to Bae Se-jin, who was flushed.

Before that, Moondae Park smiled and shrugged.

“yes. lost Lavin is amazing.”

“… !!”

“It’s true that any one of us can pull off the front door trick with just two cards. It was me who asked Chungwoo hyung for that. Your reasoning is correct.”

“Huh uh uh uh!”

“That older brother will be a scholar too.”

“Hey, great!”

oh my god.

Kim Rae-bin looked back at Ryu Cheong-wu. Liu Qingyu was smiling.

‘When the hell?’

It was then.

Moondae Park raised his hand and patted Rabin near the back of his head.

“I didn’t have any evidence, but I managed to figure it out, good job.”

“Thank you… .”

“That’s why there’s no evidence for this, so Rabin’s job role was important~ It’s awesome.”

Some of the members clucked their tongues while reviewing what had happened.

So Park Moon-dae made a trick that couldn’t be proven by using only his brain without using any job skills.

Even Seon Ah-hyun, who accurately caught it, was surprised.

“Ahyeon did a good job as a detective.”

“Oh no… .”

Seon Ah-hyun seemed to have a happy expression for a moment at the praise, but her face soon calmed down.

“Here is Moondae. Sorry… I handed over the token of the sacrifice to Mundae.”

“You wouldn’t know what.”

“but. There was a reason… .”

“… ?”

Sun Ah-hyun hesitated for a moment before answering.

“The detective… You can find out the other person’s job by exchanging cards.”

“… !”

“So I tried to check what kind of job I had before telling Mundae about my job… … .”

‘iced coffee!’

I see! Hyung Ahyeon wanted to form an alliance with Hyung Moon, so he checked in advance.

Kim Rae-bin nodded in realization.

And Park Moon-dae, the party, also nodded.

“But suddenly the mortician appeared.”

“… … .”

“… … Yes.”

It became a mess from there.

Moondae Park briefly commented.

“Even I must have suspected me first.”

“Hahaha!”

The members burst into bread.

The atmosphere became lighter. Words came and went as if the game was over.

“Brother is cool!”

“But you… When did you exchange it?”

“Please check that through the broadcast.”

“haha.”

Liu Qingyu smiled shyly. Bae Se-jin’s face turned red.

“No, and why did you trade with Moondae Park! Asking me to do it secretly was a questionable request to anyone!”

“I’ll ask you to broadcast that too.”

“Ugh.”

“We will also watch the broadcast to see who is the lawyer between hyung and Lee Se-jin.”

“What are you waiting for… it’s me!”

“Hey~ brother, are you holding out until the end?”

“hey!”

Bae Se-jin was spirited, but he didn’t seem to be in such a bad mood. Because I ended up laughing.

“Yeah anyway… Because it worked!”

“yes.”

I don’t know if I can say that in front of the culprit.

Anyway, it was a moment when the atmosphere became softer and the tension eased.

Suddenly the lights in the room went out.

“… !”

And the candles were lit one by one.

dark red light.

And it started blinking mercilessly.

“What is this?!”

“Ah, the atmosphere is really good!”

A muffled voice started coming out of the speakers.

[Burn the culprit, the black sheep, the undertaker.]

“… … !”

While the lights of the LED candles, which turned dark red, created a creepy atmosphere, the sound of a low-quality string instrument ensemble began to flow from the speakers.

An orchestra sound like the theme song of an amusement park.

[Burn the culprit, the black sheep, the undertaker.]

[Burn the culprit, the black sheep, the mortician.]

[100 seconds left.]

Kim Rae-bin’s heart pounded.

* * *

This kills the mood.

‘The art team must have worked hard.’

I felt the taste of capital.

I looked around for ways to properly create an atmosphere of fear. Everyone has a bad expression.

‘I’m leaving work.’

everyone is suffering

“Then I will go. Everyone, please survive well until the end.”

“That is… … .”

Liu Chengwu raised his hand.

“Oh then me too?”

“Oh no!”

“… ?”

Why not?

“The reason why I shot Moon Dae-hyung was to save the person who was the sacrifice!”

Kim Rae-bin began to speak earnestly, saying that if the sheriff hits the culprit, the sacrifice will come to life.

‘In other words, instead of a sacrifice, the culprit is slapped on this pseudo-altar.’

Sheriff It was a really cost-effective job.

I thought it was a balance collapse, but after hearing the explanation, Rae-bin Kim could have exploded if he pointed out the wrong culprit.

Well, conscientiously, I’m glad I didn’t look like that, but… .

‘It would have been fun even if I failed in my reasoning and shot someone else.’

No, in terms of entertainment.

It wouldn’t have been such fun to suddenly find out that both of them were dead at the beginning of the game without knowing why.

Of course, then, it would have become a guessing, nabbing, and total chaos show, but there is a popular demand for it.

‘I could have given him a more daring guy.’

I kicked my tongue at the production crew for not manipulating Bae Se-jin to go to the sheriff.

Thanks to you, this happened anyway.

‘Hmm.’

I tapped the coffin a few times with my hand where the red light was flowing ominously.

bang bang!

“Then how do I become a sacrifice?”

“Oh, that’s creepy.”

Then, as if to match the chooimsae… The coffin opened automatically.

profit.

“evil!”

Inside… .

“It’s mom.”

“no… Put someone in here?”

It is a pitiful piece of wood, as if it had dried up blood.

[60 seconds left.]

With that sound, the BGM became more grotesque.

Originally, the two of us had to go in, so there was nothing to be afraid of flirting with, but things turned out like this, so I went in alone.

Maybe that's why the reaction around me has changed a bit.

"ah… Is this too real?"

"Yeah, you must be having a hard time with scary things… ."

"it's okay. What do you do with this?"

There's no real corpse, so what's the point of making a fuss?

'I'll get food coloring all over my body.'

"Let's go in."

I went inside the coffin. It wasn't as greasy as I thought.

'I see an infrared camera over there.'

What is this?

"I think this will be closed now… Will Moondaemundae really be okay?"

"OK."

What the hell do people look like?

There's no way anything could come out of this small space. I might as well just open my eyes

I clenched my fist and nodded, and soon the coffin lid closed.

Thu-tuk-kung.

The surroundings became dark with a heavy sound.

But I could hear outside sounds just fine.

‘I’d rather not be soundproofed.’

I grasped the situation outside as if I had just closed my eyes on the spot.

First of all, that weird mechanical sound coming out of the speaker.

[Place a candle on the altar.]

“What??”

“Looks like we can bring some candles here! oh!”

The coffin rang slightly with a roaring sound. It seemed that the members were placing the strange, red-colored LED candles on top of the lid of the coffin.

‘He makes me do things differently.’

I crossed my arms.

“what. Can I just upload it?”

“Ah, the circle patterns here are the same as the shape of the candle holder?”

“Well then, let’s put it up there.”

“OK! We need 7 candles!”

Soon several vibrations and the sound of moving footsteps were heard outside the coffin.

“Is it right to do this?”

And after a brief silence.

[Burnt offering!]

“Ouch.”

Suddenly, a grim cry came from the speakers, as if several people were talking together, and the wind roared.

And the surroundings became more noisy.

“evil!”

“Oh my… ! What the!”

‘Did the bathroom ghost even escape?’

Rather, it was honey that entered this coffin. It was the moment I nodded.

Weing-

“… ?”

A small sound echoed with vibration from nearby.

Sounds like engines or devices running.

… It’s right by my bedside.

“… … .”

what.

I turned my head. But nothing was visible in the pitch black darkness.

‘then.’

I reached out and headed for the sound.

At that time, when you feel the thick pigment and wood at your fingertips and slowly move to the side.

Click.

“… !!”

for a moment.

‘It’s like pressing a button or something… .’

That was the moment.

“Aaaagh!”

“What is this!?”

Another violent reaction began to be heard from outside. And I gritted it too.

‘This crazy crew!’

The coffin was shaking!

‘what.’

and after 2 seconds.

The floor of the coffin I was lying on began to move down like an elevator.

“… ?!”

Where are you going?

far. So far, teasers with strategic images that introduce the suspenseful genre entertainment have been released, so Moondae Park's fans are also looking forward to seeing such a video. I clicked… .

After 3 seconds, the magnificent video BGM suddenly disappears and the screen changes dramatically.

-??

A character who appeared with a funny but soulful single recorder BGM that was clumsy and clumsy somewhere.

It was Park Moon-dae who opened his profile in bed.

The narration was laid.

[Park Moon-dae: Being a doctor is a good job.]

[Park Moon-dae: I think I can save the members.]

-Ah,

I think he’s a doctor at Moon University.

└?? What is it?

People were bewildered!

However, Park Moon-dae, who was perusing the profile with a serious face, hesitated the moment he turned the page to the next one.

[?]

He looked at the back page, then quickly flipped over to the front page and quickly checked the papers back and forth.

And burst out laughing.

[her… … .]

An exclamation mark of enormous size appears above the Park Moondae, and it reflects the profile.

forefront.

[Your profession is a doctor.]

And the back page.

[Now add a modifier in front of it.]

[You are the undertaker.]

It was a sudden dog drip.

On the screen, Park Moon-dae touched his forehead.

-Ha ha ha

[Park Moon-dae: I’m fishing again like this.]

[Park Mun-dae: I can’t do it because it’s unfair.]

[Park Mun-dae: I have to catch it too.]

Park Moon-dae chose to make a sudden start.

Park Moon-dae said confidently.

[I am a doctor.] [

Park Moon-dae: That’s how it happened]

-???

At least that’s how it seemed to people.

Park Moon-dae, who had positioned himself as a gag character of conviction, was revealed as the culprit at the last minute, and there was only a week left before viewers screamed in betrayal.

Chapter 492

Episode 492

Testa's Death Game Survival.

The long-awaited main broadcast.

[The characters, products, and organizations appearing in this program are unrelated to reality and are fictional.]

The program started by creating an atmosphere with a very meaningful phrase.

and.

[Bae Se-jin: What the hell is this place… Is this our dorm?]

The members opened their eyes one by one in the same game room as Testa's previous dorm.

Of course, even though the set is bleak, it is also a selling point that it reproduces the lodgings of group 1 idols in an extremely similar way.

-Oh

-Is this a real testa hostel?

– It's amazing

– Is it a true story about revealing the house as a horror entertainment show?

Because Testa has already moved to another place, there is no burden of invasion of privacy, so fans' interest soared without hesitation.

And this background was a good device to immerse yourself in the members' shoes.

[Raebin Kim: … The light doesn't come on.]

-Oh

, I'm already scared

It was the plan of Ryu Seo-rin, the main writer.

'A program like this should start by making people know exactly how the show's characters feel.'

As Ryu Seo-rin, who puts so much importance on the narrative and the point of view of the character to be immersed in, was the main writer, the editorial office was similar.

First of all, it showed the situation of the three people openly.

'It's a signal to immerse yourself in this.'

The first is Bae Se-jin, who has a lawyer.

[Bae Se-jin: 'Your job is a lawyer.']

[Bae Se-jin: And the job mission… 'It makes more than 3 people believe in my job and ability.']

Here, Bae Se-jin came out like the role of the main character.

This is because viewers knew the amount of information as much as Bae Se-jin, as they all knew what kind of job the lawyer character had in the first place.

[Bae Se-jin: I'm a lawyer… I know what kind of job they have.]

[Seon Ah-hyun: !!]

Viewers believed or doubted the members from the perspective of Bae Se-jin, who was on a mission.

-Hul Kim Raebin, why do you say you are a reporter? There is no reporter on the job list

– How many people have you told? After Moondae, Ahyeon and now Chungwoo?

┗Ahyeon is a bit strong…

That's how viewers naturally adjust the direction of suspicion.

And when it gets boring between Bae Se-jin's point of view, the second person's point of view appears.

It is the doctor Cha Yoo-jin.

[Bae Se-jin: Guys!]

Cha Yu-jin described how the 4 of them progressed at the lodging right after they had a dramatic encounter with another lodging team at the entrance.

-Wow, since the front door is open, it's not an escape, but it's scary to come out of the same dorm. Why is this

-Hey, how do you split the team like this? If you tie the Baemun Lab and tie the four of them together, is it a true story about the power of exploration or the power of exploration? And there was one more role for Cha Yoo-jin.

-I'm curious about Eugene's reaction when he meets a fake doctor

The last member the production crew told viewers about his job from the beginning.

[Park Moon-dae (undertaker) ← Impersonating a doctor]

… Park Moon-dae cheats as a doctor while the mortician is caught.

By openly revealing doctor Cha Yoo-jin, the relationship between the fake and the real was also clearly illuminated.

Of course, it was thoroughly edited for humor.

Hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha -Are you crazy about trolling

It seemed like a role to ventilate the heavy and persistent atmosphere.

[Park Moon-dae: I'm a doctor.]

[Ryu Chung-wu: Oh, I see.]

[Cha Yoo-jin ← I didn’t hear!]

Cha Yoo-jin, who passed by the two of them having a conversation, said, ‘← I didn’t hear!’ Floating around with subtitles attached was a gag in genre entertainment full of tension.

The graduate student, who was barely catching up with the progress through WiTube without being able to watch episode 1 and 2, which were released here at the same time, saw that as well.

Of course, the reason I couldn’t watch the show was because I was rotting hard in the lab to become Dr. … .

‘Next year, I must pass the thesis review and get a job!’

So her goal was to follow Testa’s world tour and travel the world with the money.

But for now, just watching Testa’s content on this honey-like weekend felt good.

She rolled over the bed once.

‘This genre… ? It’s the first time I’ve seen variety shows.’

At least, it was a little easier to understand because the production team clearly marked the jobs and exchanges with pictures.

… Although it was a bit scary to see the skull of the red sheep floating.

[※When ‘exchanging cards’ with the front door device※]

[※Only the sacrificial tokens are transferred to the opponent as they are, each person’s job※]

‘Oh, so the person chosen by the viewer is not immediately eliminated, but the card is exchanged? Through that, we can pass it on to each other.’

She understood, and nodded her head. In the end, the sacrifice was changed while exchanging, and the last person caught died.

Of course, the question was this.

‘So, what kind of jobs did the viewers choose?’

Surprisingly, as soon as I asked the question, the cut was inserted.

[Wait here]

“… ??”

[Special pre-release to viewers only!]

[The job of the sacrifice you voted for in advance is… … .]

“Uh uh uh?”

Huge letters flashed on the screen.

[Detective – 20347 votes]

“Whoops!”

The graduate student was momentarily perplexed.

‘Can I tell you this?’

No, more than that, who the hell is the detective?

“Uh, except for Yujin, a doctor who is a mortician, and Sejin Bae, a lawyer… .”

It was one of the other four members!

[Candidate candidates: Ryu Cheong-woo, Sun Ah-hyun, Lee Se-jin, Kim Rae-bin]

[Who really is the detective?]

It was a moment when I nodded to the production team who made and showed a four-part face cut.

“… ?”

The screen switched again.

[※Correct answer announced※]

Huh?

[Ryu Cheong-woo: That’s right. Ahyeon is the detective.]

[Cheongwoo Ryu: And the viewers chose the detective.]

“… ??”

Right in the middle of the inspection period.

To the scene of Chengyu Liu reading his tablet.

[Detective: Seon Ah-hyun / ※Poll 1st place※]

Then, Ryu Cheong-woo’s profile documents are cross-edited.

“… !”

[Scholar]

[Scholars can learn the information about the first job chosen as a sacrifice and the participant with that job.] [

However, scholars cannot tell about their own job and abilities.]

That’s right.

Scholar Ryu Chung-woo.

He already knew that Seon Ah-hyeon was a detective and that he was chosen as a sacrifice during the mid-term inspection with his job ability.

[Cheongwoo Ryu: Then Moondae, who exchanged cards with Ahyeon, is now a sacrifice.]

And even the sacrifice mark passed to Moondae Park!

Liu Cheng-wu knows everything.

People were excited about that hot route!

– Wow crazy.

-Cheongwu Ryu knows everything,

but

he ca n’t speak lol

Should I insist on saying that I am right?

┗Hahahah

And after the midterm check is over.

[Park Moon-dae: Eugene, did you find gold again?]

[Cha Yu-jin: Yeap!]

[Park Moon-dae: Hmm… There's not much left until the end, so if you don't use it, it will disappear.]

[Cha Yoo-jin: Ooh… .]

Park Moon-dae appeared and created a strange gag atmosphere.

He made Cha Yoo-jin's assumption that 'if I don't use gold now, it will disappear' as a fait accompli, and gently coaxed him into exchanging cards.

[Cha Yoo-jin: Then, can you exchange it with me?]

[Park Moon-dae: Hmm… Are you sure it's not you?]

[Cha Yoo-jin: Yes!]

[Park Moon-dae: … good. Then you believe it.]

[Hahahahahahahahahahaha]

The fake doctor got the real doctor!

Bomb drop success!

– Ha ha ha ha ha

– Farewell Cha Yoo-jin! -The undertaker is even cheating on the real doctor

[End of exchange]

[Current job with sacrifice mark]

[※Scholar※]

-???

-What is this

? -Why is Cheongwoo offering this?

It was revealed that scholar Liu Cheng-wu was the victim, and the audience's discord again became a mess.

-What is it

?

┗Bae Se-jin

┗… ? Bae Se-jin is a lawyer

, what is it?

And in the chaos, the members entered into a full-fledged reasoning aspect, doubting each other to find the 'black sheep' who had left the sacrifice for the last time.

The viewers were also guessing.

– Then, is Bae Se-jin the black sheep? At the end, Chungwoo exchanged with Bae Sejin

. ┗I'm not sure. It could be that we didn't show a few exchanges.

Do you see a twist or two in the testa variety show

[Bae Se-jin: Wait! I have something to say first.]

Between the members who were about to start reasoning around the altar, Bae Se-jin diligently began an introduction by revealing her job.

-Okay, let's tell them all now

-You're good at the mission haha

-Sejin helped me

with the reasoning for the lawyer's job mission.

Sejin Lee broke in.

[Lee Se-jin: It's strange. I'm a lawyer?]

-Yes??

-Now I don't know, Testa bastards

-It's not just Park Moon-dae who's cheating, Lee Se-jin is also cheating -Se-jin

hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha

Bae Se-jin, with a serious face, suddenly took a close-up.

And the interview is inserted.

[Bae Se-jin: When Lee Se-jin said he was a lawyer.]

[Bae Se-jin: I knew then.]

-?

-What do you know

? -Sejin-ah?

[Bae Se-jin: I might have misunderstood my job.]

-??

[Bae Se-jin: I knew a little bit about the characteristics of each job. however… .]

Bae Se-jin carefully reading his profile documents is recalled.

And a close-up of the papers.

Edit Spotlight on a Job in the Job-Specific Information part.

-Clown: Imitating someone else's job

[Bae Se-jin: This is me.]

"… !"

[Bae Se-jin: Listening to Lee Se-jin's story, I thought about it, so my ability is to be a lawyer… I think it's a bit excessive.]

[Bae Se-jin: I… It seems like they are mistaken for a lawyer right now.]

[Bae Se-jin: Then, since they were mistaken, they automatically imitate a lawyer.]

On the set, the cut in which Bae Se-jin reacted angrily to Lee Se-jin and said 'he is a lawyer' was frustrating, but the cut passed naturally.

After that, the narration overlapped.

[Bae Se-jin: There is no evidence, but yes. I thought I was a clown.]

-Mimi crazy

-Ugh,

everyone was shocked. -This is the acting ability of a genius child actor

. Bae Se-jin must be crazy.

In the meantime, Bae Se-jin was claiming to be an innocent lawyer as if possessed on the screen.

-So Lee Se-jin is a steamed lawyer?

ㄴFirst of all, Bae Se-jin believes that but is still doing that hahaha

ㄴIt turned around – and even though we know everything, Bae Se-jin looks really unfair haha

It was the potential of an actor.

In the midst of that shock, broadcasting gained a new impetus and went all the way.

The psychology of ‘someone else might hit me in the back!’

And the moment when the culprit’s trick was finally revealed after reasoning after reasoning made the back of the viewers’ heads hurt the most.

as soon as… Because that was Park Moondae.

[yes. lost Ravin is amazing.]

The undertaker seemed to be trolling with humor all the time!

-I’m going crazy…

-You

made me laugh

for this .

-Mun-dae exchanged with Yu-jin at the end must have been a fake. To make the line of offerings back and forth during reasoning more confusing Did you receive the sacrificial bomb?

└ No, why would he want to become a sacrifice? └How can he even trick you into taking both cards by yourself?

It was then.

The narration was laid.

[Park Moon-dae: I think it went well.]

-??

-I was caught, but what are you talking about?

Park Moon-dae’s interview was inserted, and the scene suddenly stopped.

And with the effect of the film running, the screen suddenly changes.

[◀◀◀]

[Bak Moon-dae’s room at the start of filming]

In the scene we went back, we could see Moon-dae Park reading his profile.

Park Moon-dae tilted his head.

[Park Moon-dae: The culprit?]

And the back story of the mortician in the profile that was not shown to the viewers was close-up.

[The undertaker is the ‘culprit’ in this case.]

-The culprit?

-Isn’t the culprit the black sheep? Who passed the sacrificial bomb last?

┗That’s decided while playing the game. Why does the undertaker say he’s the culprit at the start

This time during the midterm inspection.

[Your card is ‘Sacrifice Mark’.]

[Current lamb: Park Mun-dae]

The tablet showed a new explanation to Park Mun-dae, who realized that he had received a sacrifice bomb from Seon Ah-hyun.

For a smoother game, a warning message shown only to the class that is in charge of the sacrificial bomb during the midterm maintenance.

[Notes]

[Those who sacrifice innocent people become ‘black sheep’.]

[Black sheep may pay for their sins.]

The interviews intersect.

[Park Moon-dae: I realized it then.]

[Park Moon-dae: While turning the offering into bombs, at the end… The person who gave it, not the person who received it, could fail.]

Moondae Park: And one more.]

Moondae Park's narration during the interview is overlaid on the footage of him handing over the tablet.

On the screen, Park Moon-dae smiled a little.

[Park Moon-dae: Ah, the criminal and the black sheep are separate.]

That's right.

So the criminal the sheriff had to shoot and the black sheep were originally two separate people… !

[Park Moon-dae: But if these two are the same person… Only that person needs to die, right?]

[Park Moon-dae: It's easy to reason.]

-Huh, that

's why Park Moon-dae's operation began.

[Park Moon-dae: I must become a black sheep.]

It was a crazy utilitarian idea.

Chapter 493

Episode 493

‘I’ll do both the criminal and the black sheep!’

Park Moon-dae, who set the route, moved without hesitation.

The first action he took after the mid-check that he had received the sacrificial bomb was… .

It was Ryu Cheong-woo.

[Park Moon-dae: My brother found a piece of gold.]

Of course, at this time, Ryu Chung-wu already knew that Park Moon-dae had received the sacrificial bomb from Seon Ah-hyun, a detective.

In other words, it was impossible to cheat!

-No,

why do you have to do

it?

[Park Moon-dae: Seeing that he couldn’t talk about his job, he thought that it must be a job he was interested in, so I tried to recruit him.] [Park Moon-dae:

But he didn’t.]

After that narration, Ryu Cheong-woo answered the proposal with a gentle smile. .

[Ryu Chung-woo: Moondae. Are you trying to exchange your card for an offering symbol during the midterm check?]

[Park Moon-dae: Yes? what is that… .]

[Ryu Chung-woo: Judging by the reaction, you're right.] -I didn't respond at all

-Yes, the answer was decided, just answer

[Park Mun-dae: Hyung.]

[Ryu Chung-woo: Huh?]

[Park Mun-dae: Why are you so sure?]

[Ryu Cheong-wu: I just guessed.]

Park Mun-dae also noticed at this point.

[Park Moon-dae: Is this your job ability? Somehow, he couldn't reveal his occupation.]

[Cheong-Woo Ryu: … … .]

Another interview was inserted there.

There was no agitation on Park Moon-dae's face as he nodded.

[Park Moon-dae: I changed the route there.]

[Park Moon-dae: The most important thing is sincerity. Let's talk sincerely.]

– Yes?

-What are you talking about

? -Since when did fraud become sincere

[Park Moon-dae: But hyung, I have a proposal that I can benefit from whether I lose or win.]

[Ryu Chung-woo: Hmm?]

[Park Moon-dae: Listen.]

Park openly revealed the outline of his plan.

An explanation of the criminal and the black sheep, and even the benefits of being the same person!

[Park Moon-dae: After that, it's easy.]

When Moon-dae Park and Chung-woo Ryu do not get caught, the fun of genre entertainment comes to life thanks to their incredible tricks.

And what if Park Moon-dae gets caught?

'It is possible to clear the game with minimal sacrifice.'

Either way it was fresh.

[Park Moon-dae: (Ryu Cheong-woo hyung) subtly goes over these things well.]

After Park Moon-dae's interview was laid out like a narration.

As if he had heard the narration, Liu Cheng-wu on the screen nodded.

[Ryu Cheong-woo: The purpose is good and it must be fun. Okay.]

That’s how Chengyu Liu joined as a colleague!

-No

– These fun players really

and the two of them started to twist their lines.

They deliberately exchanged one more openly before and after their exchange.

Ryu Chung-woo exchanged with Bae Se-jin first, and Park Moon-dae exchanged with Cha Yu-jin right before the end.

And Liu Cheng-wu, who was quick to keep their exchanges from being discovered, approached the front door alone.

Then, I opened the door all the way and pulled it out to the outskirts where it would not reach my peripheral vision, and within 2 or 3 seconds, I finished it by placing two cards and gold in succession.

no one saw

[Cheong-Woo Ryu: Well, maybe if Moon-Dae had just said that he would die alone, he wouldn’t have listened.]

[Cheong-Woo Ryu: He didn’t give up so easily, he was really determined and tried to use tricks. That was good.]

As Liu Cheng-wu said, it was a perfect trick that allowed anyone to become a suspect without a single eyewitness report, except for the case of a strong heart.

-This would have been annihilation without Sun Ah-hyun’s reasoning and Kim Rae-bin’s acting ability -How do you know

this ?

It’s stuck!

[Park Moon-dae: Thanks to (sheriff Rabin), Chung-woo survived.]

[Park Moon-dae: Thank you. Really, the minimum number of people were eliminated.]

Park Moon-dae, who was interviewing with a grin, had a cool and confident face unlike a dropout.

-Anyway, I won lol -Wow,

even if I lose or win, I gain!

-Yeah, I don’t know the walkie-talkie~ I don’t know the bathroom ghost~ Catch the culprit and clear it.

Good job, staff lol -Guys, I’m off work~ Oh, I pulled out all the parts hahaha

The page was continuously updated with comments that touched the excitement.

And on the screen, even though strange BGM came out of the speakers and shouted burnt offerings, Moondae Park said goodbye in a more pleasant atmosphere than before.

Then, as if refreshed, he entered the coffin-shaped altar lightly.

On top of that, it was the moment when the other members lit 7 candles in a bizarre pattern.

[Uuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuu]

An explosion exploded with a roaring sound!

– Huh

-?

-Fear of a dog

-What is the effect;;

Inside a dark, eerie room.

A real fire burned over the terrifying blood-water coffin in which Park Mun-dae was placed… !

[Bae Se-jin: Park Mun-dae!]

[Ryu Cheong-wu: Moon-dae, are you okay?!]

The low-temperature flame for magic that only had a loud effect was invisible to the naked eye. Fans watched the radical and shocking cut with their mouth shut.

And after the lights go out.

When the members hurriedly opened the coffin of the altar… .

– Huh…

The coffin was empty.

All that was left was five or six pieces of gold that looked like free money.

-ㅠㅠㅠ

-Oh, this is so real.

– I was scared, and the atmosphere became chilly again in an instant.

The members seemed shocked, but the game was not over.

A dark, low bell rings slowly, and a narration recites.

[The undertaker’s burnt offering]

[The undertaker’s burnt offering]

And so on.

[The sacrifice mark has been newly descended.]

[You can change the fate of the sacrifice by exchanging cards.]

[Also, from this game on, you can exchange even if your opponent does not have a card. You can select and pass jobs on the screen.]

A new game has begun with new rules that induce confusion.

-Does this have to be continued until a certain number of people die…?

– Huh, I’m scared of dogs

– All the kids’ expressions hardened;

Episodes 1 and 2, which were simultaneously aired while inducing excessive immersion, ended.

‘Crazy really… .’

The graduate student, who finished the run without breathing, swallowed saliva and reflected on the activities of the literary university.

What impressed Moondae the most in this episode was probably not just because he was a fan!

‘Oh, but it’s a pity that Mundae was eliminated so quickly.’

Could it be that it still doesn’t come out?

Originally, he did not have much interest in this genre of entertainment, so it seemed that the fun would be cut in half if he did not come out of the literary college, which is the reason he watches it.

When a graduate student casually watches the credits go up with a little regret… .

[??? : Someone should die quickly.]

Suddenly, a trailer came out.

"… ?"

Radios.

With a cut that crackles and sounds from a bloody walkie-talkie that has never been used!

[Raebin Kim: Ahh!]

[Sejin Bae: What is it?!]

-sssssssssssfss -Are the ghosts finally coming out?

People made a fuss.

And on the screen, a white, bone-straight hand holding a walkie-talkie appears… .

and.

[Ahyeon Seon: It's Moondae… ?]

The trailer ended with guessing the identity of the radio's voice!

-??

– Huh

– Park Moon-dae?

-Aren’t you a ghost?

“… … .”

The graduate student immediately turned on the video and listened to the trailer carefully once more.

And immediately went into his subscription social media.

‘I think I’m right!’

With firm trust that someone would have calibrated the sound quality!

Minutes later, she was rewarded for her faith in a post that was shared over 10,000 times.

-Crazy, this seems like a hit (correction video)

And episode 3 aired a few days later.

Those who sat down on the board excitedly, curious about the use of the walkie-talkie… .

-???

-This is the coffin that entered

Mundae

-You seem to be afraid of Moondae

-Ah, this is quite scary ㅠㅠ

People sweated at the scene where Moondae Park listened carefully and pressed the button above his head.

And in the scene where the coffin moves down, there were a lot of comments.

– Huh

– It’s going down

. – What is it?

– Where are you taking it?

The place where Park Moon-dae arrived as if he was being dragged down.

It is… .

[Park Moon-dae: … … .]

[Park Moon-dae: Accommodation?]

Testa’s previous accommodation.

In other words, it had the same structure as the upper floor, but instead of a room that was made like a pseudo-religious altar, an altar that looked like a coffin stood right in the center of Lee Se-jin’s room.

Besides, the room was as dark as a coffin… .

I could have done that up to that point, but there was a crucial difference.

as soon as.

[Park Moon-dae: P… … .]

There was a thick, huge bloodstain that seemed to have been dragged from the coffin to the door.

-Mom

-Ahhhh

restricted to the gate and was completed with a quantity skull pattern.

[Park Moon-dae: … … .]

A few seconds of silence passed.

After that, it was the moment when Park Mun-dae cautiously stepped toward the door.

bang-!

[Park Moon-dae: !!]

The coffin in the middle of the room went up again, and the lights flickered for a moment with a roar.

And the door opened automatically.

Kiki-

Ik- -Save me

-No, what to do

at the door

hahahah

Eventually, he started begging the sheriff.

-Rabinah, let’s not save Chungwoo, let’s cancel it.

Burn it together

. What

is it

??

And in the living room hallway, right next to the floor where there were blood stains, he found an object.

[Park Moon-dae: … Walkie-talkie?]

-No way -Hey

, hey

-Are you using this here?

Moondae Park slowly stretched out his hand and picked up the walkie-talkie.

And his ability was not verbal, but he rode the broadcast for the first time as a formal profile.

[The funeral director’s job ability: You can make the living and the dead communicate.]

Park Moon-dae pressed the walkie-talkie.

The pi-ri-ri-rik signal went. And the moment Park Moon-dae puts the walkie-talkie in his mouth… .

[Park Moon-dae: If anyone hears it]

[Park Moon-dae: Anyone should die soon.]

-?????

Park Moon-dae, ‘Hasn’t the situation changed? He would have made an excuse saying, ‘I did it for a quick investigation’, but the image of a jerk that was already caught just made it look like an honest fastball.

[Park Moon-dae: I was kidding]

-I wasn’t kidding

lol

But at that moment, the atmosphere changed completely.

[Park Moon-dae: … Remember.]

Funny sound effects and subtitles disappeared.

Park Moon-dae held the radio tightly and delivered it quickly and without a pitch in a low voice.

[Park Moon-dae: Don’t go into the locked bathroom.]

The sound of a violin and the eerie sound of a drum were played as BGM.

uplifting music.

-Uh

-Wait a minute.

Park Moon-dae raised his head.

As the camera moves, the scene changes as well.

bloodstains on the floor.

It gradually thickened and turned into blood, which led to the bathroom.

And it was covering the bathroom door.

-Doa -A

-ah

-Don’t open

it

. Don’t open it

On the screen, the camera again illuminated Park Moon-dae.

[Park Moon-dae: And the button on the coffin… … .]

[Park Moon-dae: … It’s disconnected.]

He slowly lowered the radio, which did not pick up a signal even when the button was pressed.

Then, taking a deep breath and raising his head again, his cut ended.

[LAMB]

The opening of the program began with an intense performance, but viewers were still in shock. -What should

I do with my child

Condition: Must die

Those who were shocked by the existence of the afterlife (?) started watching the program again with immersion.

‘Did the other members receive Park Moon-dae’s radio properly?’

And fortunately, the hand of salvation came not too late.

30 minutes after the program.

[Sound… ?]

The coffin moved again. and… .

[Lee Se-jin: Is it Mundae?]

[Bae Se-jin: Hey Park Mun-dae!]

The next hitter came down the altar… It was Sejin with the same name!

[Park Moon-dae: … !!]

It was the moment when the signal flare exploded as the program reached its climax.

Chapter 494

If you don’t debut, you’ll die. Episode 494

Park Moon-dae is suffering from a bloodstained afterlife (?) in a dorm.

Up there, the game was in full swing again.

[An offering token has landed on one of the participants’ cards.]

But this time the mood has changed a bit.

‘If you do the same thing over and over again, you’ll get bored.’

But if you change the format, shouldn’t the audience understand it from the beginning?

So what writer Ryu Seo-rin changed was the tempo.

Just a speedrun.

[Time limit of 30 minutes]

[Participants who do not exchange cards more than once will be burnt immediately.]

“Huh.”

If you do not participate in the sacrifice bomb rotation, you are automatically eliminated!

In the end, unlike the first game where cards were secretly exchanged like a maneuver while noticing, everyone actively and openly played tricks.

Even if you just stamped your card into the front door machine, you could choose a job to exchange right away, so you didn't need the other person's consent anymore.

As a result.

[Currently, the class with the Immolation mark is… … .]

['Attorney'.]

[!!!!]

Two people with the same name who were fighting each other claiming that they were lawyers got along well.

And a gag explodes in the reasoning part.

[Bae Se-jin: Actually, I'm a clown… … .]

[Lee Se-jin: Hyung, you were too upset when you were called a clown to say that.]

[Bae Se-jin: … ?]

[Lee Se-jin: Yes, I was actually a clown!]

[Bae Se-jin: Hey!]

The moment the lawyer appeared as a sacrifice, the two of them changed their stance and started claiming that they were clowns!

And this time, on the contrary, they fought each other saying they would be lawyers and then blew themselves up.

[Bae Se-jin: So I chose a lawyer in the card exchange! My third record. If I were a lawyer in the first place, I wouldn't choose myself… … .]

[Ahyeon Seon: Oops.]

[Sejin Bae: Why?!]

[Chungwoo Ryu: Jinah Se, I think you just confessed that you traded with a lawyer… .]

[Bae Se-jin: … … !?]

[Lee Se-jin:

That's great.] The lawyer and the clown got along well in the coffin.

[Lee Se-jin: Brother, you talk too much when you get angry.]

[Bae Se-jin: Shut up.]

-Is

this the true taste of a troll

Sejin Issue: No, we fought together

ㄴㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ

And with Lee Se -jin's performance that did not forget the advice of the radio, they fell to the afterlife (?)

[Park Moon-dae: … … .]

When the coffin came down, Park Moon-dae, who happily ran to the top and received all of this absurd entertainment story… .

[Park Mun-dae: (Tibetan expression)]

[Park Mun-dae: So, which of the two was a clown? I'm dead anyway, so feel free to tell me.]

In the end, I asked the question that would solve everyone's curiosity.

And the two finally opened their mouths with serious expressions.

[Bae Se-jin: I'm a clown, but… .]

[Lee Se-jin: I was a clown… .]

[Bae Se-jin: ?]

[

Lee Se-jin: ??] [Park Moon-dae: ???]

-Uh -What are you guys doing?

Even the viewers were perplexed.

Even subtitles.

[What kind of situation is this… ?]

[◀◀◀]

So, Lee Se-jin's flashback was included for explanation.

early game.

[Bae Se-jin: I know this because I'm a lawyer… .]

[Lee Se-jin: (pretends not to listen)]

In fact, Lee Se-jin was already familiar with the story by secretly listening to Bae Se-jin when he was talking about his professional skills.

And that's what I was thinking!

[Lee Se-jin: Somehow, in the profile documents, they told me not to say that I was a lawyer! I was a clown! I'm fake~]

[↑ Self-proclaimed clown (2)]

-????

-Sesejin-ah,

that's right.

The two of them each thought they were clowns and drove the other to be a clown… !

[Lee Se-jin: Hey~ You are really good at acting! (※According to the acting)]

[Bae Se-jin: What? No matter who sees it, you're suspicious! (※ Suspicious)]

It was an entertainment type performance that burned the soul.

-Crazy lol

-Jagangducheon

of two lawyers who thought they were clowns.

In the end, the parties who realized this conclusion through conversation in the afterlife… .

[Park Moon-dae: … … .]

[Bae Se-jin: … … .]

[Lee Se-jin: … … .]

[Park Moon-dae: Shall we move?]

[Lee Se-jin: Yep]

[Hahahahahahahahahaha]

At the end of the dizzying silence, I started to move along with Park Moon-dae… .

-Hahahahahahahaha

-My stomach hurts from laughing so much

-Testa laughed while watching the show

-Clown party hahahaha

But this atmosphere of laughter did not last long.

Because the identity of this place will soon be revealed.

[Lee Se-jin: Moondae Moondae~ That radio. Did Moondae contact you here?]

[Park Moon-dae: That's right.]

[Lee Se-jin: Ohhh.]

[Bae Se-jin: … But you told me not to go to the bathroom then. Why did you say that?]

Park Moon-dae shined a flashlight through the door.

The bathroom across from the living room.

[Park Moon-dae: The bathroom is like that.]

[Bae Se-jin: Huh Eok.]

Kwagwa-gwang!

The image of the thunderbolt passed through editing.

A close-up of the blood-stained bathroom door. The members screamed.

[Bae Se-jin: Phi Phi?!]

[Lee Se-jin: Whoa what is that? What is that

?

_ Pretending not to be shy!

And sure enough, comments came in.

[Lee Se-jin: No, we played games on top for over 30 minutes, but didn't you even open it? After all, Mundae is the best among us… … .]

[Park Moon-dae: Then open it yourself.]

[Lee Se-jin: I'm sorry.]

-Hahahaha

– These cute nerds

were even more fun because none of the members who were strong-hearted or whose actions took precedence over thinking were eliminated.

So here comes the elders!

[Bae Se-jin: … let's go. I'll open it.]

[Lee Se-jin: … !!]

[Park Moon-dae: Thank you.]

[Lee Se-jin: … ?

]

Bae Se-jin, who was in charge of the walkie-talkie and the action leader, made his body lighter as a courtesy.

and… .

profit.

Bae Se-jin opened the bathroom doorknob while wearing a rubber glove he found in the kitchen.

I saw it at that moment.

_

Whoops.

Cuckoo coo coo

coo!!

The inside of the bathroom is revealed along with the suspenseful BGM.

Sitting on the bloody floor.

[Victim]

In front of a cabinet in the bathroom.

There was a corpse lying down.

-Hiii profit

-Mom-

??

-Hey,

all the members froze.

[Park Moon-dae: … I'm not moving. yes. I think it would be okay to take a look.]

-And that attitude that I couldn't approach

-I understood this time

-I couldn't move either

And a corpse-shaped doll in a dark place.

The members approached cautiously.

Lee Se-jin moved the flashlight slowly.

[Lee Se-jin: … First of all, it's like a man. the outfit… You're unusual.]

The doll was lying down with a knife in its hand.

In addition, they were wearing something like a black robe, and even their faces were covered.

‘mask?’

The bizarre pattern with the skull of a lamb is now familiar to the members.

[Park Moon-dae: I think the one was in the room earlier.]

[Lee Se-jin: Uh. And we that… offering card? That’s the sign too.]

-It’s creepy

-ㅠㅠㅠㅠ

After confirming that it was a doll, not an actor dressed up, the members slowly reached out and turned it over.

And in the gap, Bae Se-jin also confirmed one crucial thing.

[Bae Se-jin: … There are no wounds here.]

[Lee Se-jin: Yes?]

[Bae Se-jin: Look, there is so much blood but no wounds. There are no torn clothes either. … … Rather, this corpse is holding a knife.]

The atmosphere cooled down.

[Then, the identity of this blood is… ?]

-Save me

-Wow,

that’s scary. What is it?

It was then.

Park Moon-dae, who had been silently turning his head following the light of the flashlight, stood up.

with a walkie-talkie in hand.

‘uh?’

Moondae Park asked while turning the walkie-talkie.

[Park Moon-dae: Before entering the coffin. When you got in touch with the radio, who was holding the radio and where?]

[Bae Se-jin: Huh? that is… .]

[Lee Se-jin: Living room! It rang in the living room and the first thing I checked was Rabin.]

[Park Moon-dae: … … .]

[Lee Se-jin: Why?]

Park Moon-dae was silent for a moment.

But soon he asked again.

[Park Moon-dae: After that, Rabin took the walkie-talkie and ran to the other person.]

[Bae Se-jin: … ! that’s right! I came to the kitchen.]

Park Moon-dae nodded at that answer.

As if you realized something.

-??

-What is it?

– How would you know?

[Park Moon-dae: Wait a minute.]

Park Moon-dae ran out of the bathroom and soon started shouting while running around with a walkie-talkie.

[Park Mun-dae: Can you hear it?]

[Park Mun-dae: Can you hear it?]

As if he had forgotten his fear, Mun-dae Park opened the door and started talking to all the rooms in the dorm.

And after repeating the process, it was time to return to the place where the coffin was installed and moved up and down.

Jijik.

“omg!”

The radio turned on and a response came back.

[Radio: Moondae? Mundaeni??]

[!!]

The members also ran out of the bathroom.

[Bae Se-jin: How did you do it?]

[Park Moon-dae: I found the location.]

[Bae Se-jin: Huh?]

[Park Moon-dae: Maybe with this walkie-talkie… The walkie-talkie for those who didn’t get eliminated seems to work if they’re in a place like a dorm.]

The graduate student, who was watching the broadcast holding his breath, hit his thigh.

“Ahhh!”

That walkie-talkie works only when the upstairs, who is not yet dead, and the downstairs, who have died and come down in the coffin, are in the same room.

‘oh my god!!’

Because of this, I even felt a strange feeling as if the two were physically in the same space, but separated by time or dimensions.

Was it expressed this way because it was the afterlife?

‘What’s going on now?’

The graduate student looked at the screen with excitement.

Perhaps Moondae will tell you about the corpse in the bathroom and advise you once again to be careful?

Just then, Park Moon-dae opened his mouth.

[Park Moon-dae: I told you not to go into the bathroom, but I’ll change my words.]

[Park Moon-dae: Be sure to go in. There must be a ghost or a person.]

“… ??”

And Park Moon-dae made a sound more like a thunderclap.

[Park Moon-dae: Maybe I’m the ghost… It looks like ‘The Undertaker’ killed it. I guess killing him was right.]

“… ?!”

Park Moon-dae said calmly on the screen.

[Park Moon-dae: Lure them to the ghost coffin and burn them like we were eliminated.]

[Park Moon-dae: Only then will they survive.]

At that moment, the BGM on the screen changed.

* * *

[Park Moon-dae: That ghost looks like the head of a cult.]

Neat and achromatic living room.

A huge TV for monitoring was installed in a place where the only sense of life was a few pet supplies.

[Ryu Chung-wu: Wait a minute!]

And now, on that screen, the image of Testa talking on the walkie-talkie in front of the coffin was in full swing.

self-appointed breaks. The idol who was monitoring the competitors tapped his chin.

“It was an unusual attempt.”

wow!

A soft bark was heard near the thigh.

The man who lightly stroked the head of the dog that reacted to his self-talk raised his smartphone.

“kind.”

Ugh.

Cheongryeo’s dog, Kongi, happily rang her neck and was buried in an attachment blanket.

And similarly, Cheongryeo's smartphone also rang.

-Chief Jang: Yes, PD has replied. Of course, Testa says he can appear!

It was natural.

"hmm."

Cheong-Ryeo smiled and watched 'Testa' on TV passionately radioing.

It was 7 days before the collaboration with Moondae Park.

Chapter 495

the 495th episode

video, if you don't debut, you will die, and the brilliant deduction success BGM is laid out, and Park Moon-dae's narration begins.

[Park Moon-dae: It was strange from the beginning.]

Park Moon-dae reads the profile.

[Park Moon-dae: The funeral director was said to be the culprit of this case, but what kind of incident was not explained. It's strange.]

'You are the culprit in this case' in the profile document. Above the phrase was a photo with a red cross.

Black robes and grotesque skull masks.

The dead body that the dropouts saw in the bathroom of the afterlife covered in bloodstains and the same impression!

And Park Moon-dae, who was watching it carefully, looked at the next page.

[Park Moon-dae: But the mission was too easy.]

The undertaker's mission.

It ended in one sentence.

[It is burnt offering.]

It means to drop out and die.

It was a very simple and scary story if you knew what ‘burnt offering’ meant as you progressed through the game.

[Park Moon-dae: In fact, if you get caught being a criminal, the undertaker will die. Even if that’s not the case, there are many ways to get eliminated.]

[Park Moon-dae: After I found out what ‘burnt offering’ meant in the part of reasoning about sacrifices, I thought it was strange because it was so easy.]

Then I started to think about it like this.

[Park Moon-dae: The undertaker must die.]

“… !!”

[Park Moon-dae: The story progresses only when the funeral director dies, and someone can escape.] [Park Moon-dae: So, there is information that I must convey using a walkie-talkie here.]

The funeral director’s ability The two four seasons communicate through the radio It requires the ability to exchange information.

So what’s the most impressive piece of information about this bizarre afterlife?

[Park Moon-dae: A corpse in the bathroom.]

That grotesque and creepy corpse that has no wounds but is soaked in blood.

[Park Moon-dae: I thought there must be something there.]

Then the screen crosses.

A team of survivors unlocking the locked bathroom right away.

[Raebin Kim: This number is correct.]

[Chungwoo Ryu: Okay.]

Click.

The lock fell with a short sound and the members quietly approached the bathroom.

Seon Ah-hyun whispers into the walkie-talkie.

[Seon Ah-hyun: We came in.]

The bathroom was as tidy as when the staff at the Bakmundae side of the hostel just found a walkie-talkie in the washbasin.

And though they were most silent, they were not fooled.

– Park Moon-dae: It felt like I was in a cabinet.

The surviving members thought of Park Moon-dae's advice through the walkie-talkie and quickly formed a formation and pushed in front of the sink.

and.

[Liu Cheng-wu: Let me open it.]

After nodding to the three people waiting, Liu Cheng-wu quickly opened the cabinet.

Then

blink.

Flicker blinker blink blink blinking blink-

[

Kim

Rae-bin: Hueup]

However, this party, which consisted of a majority of people with particularly strong hearts, did not back down and looked straight into the cabinet.

And saw.

[Cha Yujin: Oh my… … .]

A ghost with a knife looking out from inside a dark cabinet.

“evil!”

He had the same impression as the corpse downstairs!

The graduate student involuntarily screamed and tore at the pillow.

Could it be that he was standing behind Moondae and the kids when they ran out of the bathroom?

‘I’m so scared!’

It was a natural human reaction.

Creepy BGM full of tension flowed. Whether this is a horror movie or a thriller, the characters seem to have to run away right away!

Of course, the members also deserved to run away and scatter after seeing this ghost and conduct a thrilling chase… .

[Cheongwoo Ryu: Grab it!]

[????]

I decided to push myself physically!

[Cha Yoo-jin: Got it.] When

Cha Yoo-jin jumped into the cabinet and grabbed his waist, the actor playing the ghost froze in embarrassment!

The audience also stiffened, but soon burst into laughter.

-??

Hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha hahahahahahahahahahahahahaha -even though they are wearing masks -they seem to show their expressions .

Since it was a broadcast, the ghost really couldn't have stabbed the members, but even if it could have stabbed it, it was a quick move prepared so that it would not be able to counterattack.

And

[Chengyu Liu: Let's lift!]

[????]

The four of them lifted up the ghost bound by the curtain and started running in sync.

-? Ha ha ha ha ha

– What luggage?

-It reminded me of a guerrilla training with a log .

[Seon Ah-hyun: The door is open!]

And run over the door that was opened beforehand and put the ghost in the coffin!

-Wow, Crazy

-Funny, but thrilling.

Because the members are so serious, the comicality is just a side effect, and the thrill and thrill that you can miss the ghost came alive in the quick editing.

And even the youngest members who were terrified after seeing the writhing ghost and worked hard to manually close the lid of the coffin.

bang! bang!

-Mom -Wow

, that’s bloody;

Besides, the coffin lid rattled, as if the ghost was beating inside.

However, the members calmly pressed the coffin lid and tried to talk to the ghost like a protocol.

[Ryu Chung-woo: Shall we talk? Judging from the teacher’s attire, the person who made this altar seems to be a teacher.]

[??? : … … .]

[Cha Yoo-jin: There is a possibility that this person is an American ghost. Hey can you hear me?]

Surprisingly, no reaction was heard.

Cha Yu-jin shrugged. Viewers laughed. -I's a ghost in the United States ㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ

No, what's the handling of ghosts

Contrary to the viewers who were amazed at how they did "", the members were serious.

[Seon Ah-hyun: Candles like this… Shall we upload it?]

[Cheongwu Ryu: Hold on.]

Chengwu Ryu, who was silent for a few seconds as if thinking deeply, soon divided the team into two.

Himself and Sun Ah-hyun.

And Cha Yoo-jin and Kim Rae-bin.

[Ryu Cheong-woo: We'll be holding this, so I hope the two of you came to see the cabinet where the ghost came out earlier. I think there was something behind it.]

[Kim Rae-bin: Yes!]

So the two youngest members ran to the bathroom while the more calm older brothers from professional arts and sports were guarding the coffin.

And the result of searching through the cabinet where the fake blood was directed, forgetting that the two were bickering… … .

[Cha Yoo-jin: Kim Rae-bin! Look at this!]

[Rabin Kim: Oh my God!]

I found out that the plate inside the cabinet rotates like a revolving door.

And what's behind it… It was a dark concrete staircase leading down.

[Cha Yujin: That's… looks like the way to hell.]

[The way to hell… ?]

It's like a road to hell.

Along with Cha Yoo-jin's story, the dark stairway was projected onto the camera.

And a question that came over the walkie-talkie.

[Park Moon-dae: Are there any words there?]

[Kim Rae-bin: !! There is!]

On the concrete wall next to the stairs, black and red letters were written.

And finally, the full story of the case is roughly revealed.

-It's a pseudo-altar

. -They tried to revive it as a crazy celebrity tribute? turned;;

– Huh…

To sum it up, the person who was the head of a pseudo-foundation was killed during some kind of bizarre ritual.

The culprit is the undertaker.

So, in order to come back to life, he reenacted the murder case he died and tried to sacrifice the testa members one by one!

-Suddenly, the occult gives goose bumps

[Lee Se-jin: There was something written on this bathroom cabinet too. What do I have to do to resurrect~ What are the precautions?]

[Raebin Kim: Indeed! I see.]

It is said that if you burnt the ghost on the altar, you can escape from this strange ritual.

It is said that the 'emergency exit' is open, but viewers were divided in their opinions as to what it meant.

It was then.

[Bae Se-jin: And then.]

[Bae Se-jin: Here too… The cabinet seems to open too.]

– Huh?

-then?

In an instant, the cut of the broadcast screen changed to the image of the afterlife.

Moondae Park calmly picked up the walkie-talkie and fixed his eyes on the inside of the cabinet.

[Park Moon-dae: We have stairs up and down.]

[Kim Rae-bin: !!]

That’s right.

Behind the cabinet in the afterlife, there were stairs in two directions, up and down.

[Park Moon-dae: Because we came down the coffin and arrived here. The top is probably on your side.]

On the screen, the stairs of the two cabinets are connected by a cut.

[Park Moon-dae: Then below… I want to bet on the way out.]

[Raebin Kim: Yes?]

The flashlight headed down the stairs.

Then I saw the outline of a sign on the ceiling of the stairway, where the fire was extinguished but the form was visible.

[Park Moon-dae: There is an emergency exit sign.]

[Cha Yu-jin: Oh!]

-Awesome.

At the last minute, the dizzying time-limited escape began.

[Liu Qingyu: Hurry up!] As soon as the candles were lit and the coffin on the altar burned, the quarters began to shake as if collapsing, and the surviving testa quickly descended into the afterlife through the passage of the cabinet.

A situation in which the coffin descends into the afterlife and the ghost may try to come out of the coffin.

[Bae Se-jin: This way!]

Fortunately, the survivors met the dropouts who were waiting on the stairs in advance and quickly went down the stairs again.

And saw.

[Park Moon-dae: Emergency exit!]

Climbing the stairs, the fire at the emergency exit came on and illuminated the emergency door!

The members opened the emergency door and ran out one by one.

[Cha Yoo-jin: Ohhh!]

It was outdoors.

The staff applauded in the lighting for shooting outside the set after the sun had set.

[Everyone escaped successfully!]

A feeling of liberation overflowed with cheers!

* * *

And the behind the scenes that followed immediately.

[Crew: As I said, this game will determine the roommates for the new dorm the testers moved into.]

[Crew: Scores are given in order of mission success and escape, so you can choose a room starting with the highest score!]

The members who successfully completed the mission and escaped to the top began diligently choosing a room.

Of course, there was Park Moondae among them.

His interview has been inserted.

[Park Moon-dae: I roughly researched the rooms the members like.]

[Park Moon-dae: I think I should go to a room where there are quiet members.]

Perhaps an interview right after the game ended. Up until then, he seemed pretty confident.

However, he soon faced this reality.

[Creator: Unfortunately, Moondae couldn't clear the mission.]

[Park Moondae: ?]

-Eh?

-It's a burnt sacrifice,

Park Moon-dae also said on the screen why the viewers questioned it.

[Park Moon-dae: I cleared the mission. It's because it's been burnt.]

Until this point, Mundae Park's expression seemed to be a mistake.

However, the production crew suppressed laughter and said:

[Crew: Oh, that's right.]

[Crew: The doctor saved Moondae Park. Clap clap!]

[Park Moon-dae: ?!!!]

Park Moon-dae turned his head.

'Doctor' Cha Yoo-jin smiled brightly and waved.

-Wait a minute

-Hey, no

way lol.

Cha Yoo-jin is a doctor by profession!

With his Doctor's abilities, he was able to save one person before the game started!

And the mission is also in line with him.

If the person you point out is really in danger of death and survives, the mission succeeds!

So, as soon as he saw the profile at the time, Cha Yoo-jin reasoned like this.

[Cha Yu-jin: Kill all criminals who are smart first.]

[Cha Yu-jin: So, I'll save Moondae hyung!]

And coincidentally, Cha Yu-jin's reasoning was perfect.

Bak Mun-dae was the first to be burnt offering.

in other words… great success!

[Cha Yoo-jin: Moondae hyung's burnt offering? No!]

[Park Moon-dae: … … .]

Originally, it had to come up at the end of the game and play the role of informing the existence of a cabinet passage connected to the afterlife.

However, because of Testa's play style, which covered everything with physical strength, there was no chance for that!

As a result.

[Creator: So what happened… .]

Cha Yoo-jin 1st place.

Park Moondae… bottom.

So Park Moon-dae lost the right to choose a room… .

‘It’s pitiful, but it’s so cute!’

The graduate student was saddened, but couldn’t stop laughing.

However, Park Moon-dae also had his own happy ending.

In the program that heard the full story of the incident, Park Mun-dae gave up everything and headed to the room where he was left trudging for the last time… … .

[Raebin Kim: Moondae hyung! Good luck in the future… … .]

[Park Moon-dae: Got it.]

The graduate student also smiled and nodded.

For your reference, Cha Yoo-jin’s room, which won first place, was sold out quickly when Ryu Cheong-wu entered.

[Cha Yoo-jin: Welcome bro!]

[Ryu Cheong-woo: Haha! Yes, please take care of me.]

The second time, Seon Ah-hyun and Se-jin Lee met and showed off Testa’s long-standing friendship.

[Seon Ah-hyun: Se Jin-ah… !]

[Lee Se-jin: Huh Ahhyeonahyeon~! We finally became roommates!]

And at this point, viewers naturally noticed.

-Wait

_

The last long-awaited solitary confinement… .

[Bae Se-jin: Ha… … .]

Bae Se-jin, who finally lived in a single room after 6 years of living, took over!

[Desire fulfillment ceremony]

Bae Se-jin began to express small gestures of victory in a solitary cell with a happy face on the bed.

It was a very rare sight. Because I forgot the drone camera.

– Ha ha ha

The one who gets caught is Cha Yoo-jin, wearing a chubby-faced hoodie.

He pursed his lips and tossed the card he was holding.

– Huh?

-???

-What is it?

[Cha Yoo-jin: This game wasn't fun. cult cult? ghost? It's too childish.]

[Kim Rae-bin: Again, what did you do with the most immersion?]

[Cha Yu-jin: Hey!]

While the two of them were bickering, the camera's field of view gradually moved back and showed the place where they were.

"… !"

It was a place familiar to graduate students as well.

'omg!'

right in the attic.

It was the very place that appeared in the MV for the title song of the last album!

The appearance of Testa, who had just finished playing a board game, was still the same.

However, this time the letters written on the board game board were different from before.

as soon as… The title of this show!

At that moment, fans realized.

-Crazy -Could

it be that this is the board game they used to play?

-I got goosebumps-

and chat amid updates.

In the midst of the testa arranging all the cards, the member who was playing the role of game master this time opened his mouth.

[Ahyeon Seon: Hey then… Shall we try another game?]

Seon Ah-hyun.

[Seon Ah-hyun: This one will be more fun… … I prepared for a long time.]

The variety show ended with a close-up of his soft, quiet smile.

[To be continued… ?]

Leaving a meaningful subtitle on a black background.

-Wait-

??

-Hey

, is it the next album?

Soon, fans figured out the situation.

‘Yes, this is a comeback rice cake!’

-Crazy,

I want to watch it again from the beginning

‘Wow, are you making a comeback again this year?’

A graduate student also quickly sent a KakaoTalk to find a friend who is fast in rumors.

Around the time when Testa fans were screaming at the unexpected worldview connection.

Fans of other groups were also screaming.

[< One Take 4K > Cheongryeo (CHR) ‘Ash’ @Music Bomb MusicBOMB]

– ㅠㅠ It’s crazy, it

Chapter 496

If you don’t debut, you’ll get a fatal disease Episode 496

2 weeks ago.

Around the time Moondae Park had just finished filming Testa’s own content.

Cheongryeo was in the middle of finishing preparations for a comeback.

“Is the interview next?”

“yes!”

Preparation went smoothly.

The officials of LeTi acted as if the first virtue was that all activities of Cheongryeo proceeded without error.

“Because you’ve been waiting for me since before. As quickly as possible… .”

“iced coffee! yes.”

This is because Cheongryeo is a celebrity who takes care of herself so thoroughly.

Even though he was office-like, he was a gentle and temperamental type without any irritation, but it was also true that he was never easy to deal with around him.

‘hmm.’

Cheongryeo knew this, but she didn't change her attitude so that people could be relieved.

'I listen to people who are in difficulty rather than those who are comfortable.'

It was a grammar completed by inductive statistics after numerous attempts.

After all, Cheong-rye was not the type to feel comfortable and belong only when she shared her daily life.

At least, I suddenly wanted to talk about my dog-Kongi, but it didn't matter because I had a partner.

Cheong-rye checked the time and called the 'opponent'.

However, this time, Kong wasn't trying to send a picture like the text message he sometimes sends.

"… … ."

After a short ringback tone, the other party answered.

"Did you finish filming your own content?"

-yes. Seniors.

It is Park Moondae.

What's interesting is that this junior always uses honorifics whenever he calls or texts.

It's not that there hasn't been a history of conversations in half-speak so far.

It is habitual precision.

'That's not bad either.'

A vigilant attitude won't hurt you anywhere.

Cheong-rye thought a little pleasantly.

So it's a pleasure to work with such a proven resource.

Soon, Park Moon-dae's calm words of congratulations were heard.

– Congratulations on your solo album comeback.

"thank you."

Chung-rye, who lightly responded to the voices that many people have heard over the past few days, went straight to the point.

"The time to prepare for the things we agreed to at that time is approaching."

-… … .

"I told you last time, but my juniors aren't going to feature on songs from my album."

-yes.

Cheong-Ryeo almost laughed involuntarily, recalling Park Moon-Dae, who was embarrassed at the time, but continued talking without expressing it.

The way you choose to feature.

"I have a program to go out this time, so let's go together."

-… !

"Maybe you will like it too."

Chung-Ryeo finished the calculation.

"The program name… … ."

* * *

< Nice to meet you! >

MBS variety show airing on Saturdays at 5:40 pm.

It is one of the few long-running contest programs on public television where singers can appear.

Just by looking at the title, it seems like a typical on-air program that introduces talented unknown singers or masters active in genres other than pop music?

‘That’s the correct answer.’

right. The style that airwaves like.

But it is also only half correct.

‘Because I can’t get ratings just by doing that.’

what do i need to do to sell it

The answer is simple.

‘It’s not a tie-in.’

Not only artists in fields that are not popular, but also famous established singers who are aiming for an album or performance publicity effect appear as cast members.

And if you make two cast members perform in pairs, you can draw a variety of pictures.

With this, it is a program that has been living long enough to have season 7.

The cast lineup was still pretty fancy, but the middle-aged people settled down as the main viewers, so it had a bit of an old taste… … .

‘By the way, this guy is coming out here?’

I glanced at Cheongryeo.

It was too crowded and crowded for VTIC to appear.

If he has a name like that, he just comes out when it's not enough to make his own special feature?

'hmm.'

Of course, there must be a number of goals.

I remembered his answer to my straight-forward question, "Why did you choose this program?"

-There is something I want to show you.

Well, so today I came to a pre-meeting for this program.

By the way, even though the main PD here pushed in for season 3 and was over 7, they say that they are continuing only this without producing a new program, let alone handing over the program to a junior PD… .

After talking, I can see why.

"Oh, nice to meet you. Mr. Moondae My nephew is a fan, so please sign the album for me. Don't give away what's left over, make a new one."

"sure."

you're screwed

Well, I'm not going to continue because I have a sense of mission, but I'll bet that I just sat down after seeing the cost-effectiveness.

Still, even if I raised the value of my name as an idol to the top, it was funny that the broadcasting station PD was the best.

At the very least, I wonder where it's not to be treated carelessly, but the attitude is different from VTIC, which has an insane level of overseas recognition.

“And our Hallyu star VTIC! It’s an honor to be here again. i look forward to.”

“Haha, thank you for taking care of me.”

‘As expected, the answer is gukppong.’

It was the best for this typical old man. Looking at the PD, I nodded my head inwardly.

‘Let’s see if we release the next album.’

Just in time to hunt for the Order of Cultural Merit, the target is the lethal dose of gukppong.

Anyway, the fan who asked for an autograph was not guilty. Why don’t you come into the waiting room as a chance for the PD family?

I carefully signed the extra album I brought, just in case, and the PD quickly took it and started talking about the program.

“So, the two of you are performing together… . But how did you two become friends like this?”

“Ah, when we debuted at Mundae, we did variety shows together. That program was also MBS.”

“… Ah~ I remember! I see.”

‘I don’t remember.’

You have a good social life.

After all, if you want to succeed enough to sit on your butt on a program that aired on the airwaves, you must be like that.

“Anyway, I’m very happy that our program is hosting you two like this.”

And as expected, instead of specifically mentioning the entertainment show, the PD blurted out his words and then slowly brought out what he wanted to say.

“But they both have the same job and have similar images, so what? I’m worried that it will be ambiguous to include that climax in the length, but is it okay?”

uh. Okay.

just… At the point where two group 1 idols from other groups form a team, the topic is already explosive.

The climax is what freezes to death.

‘It’s good.’

It means that if two famous idols are going to come out, they want to split the episodes and distribute them separately and prolong the ratings.

‘Yes, no.’

And, needless to say, Cheong-rye, the person in charge, answered immediately.

“yes. You don’t have to worry about that part.”

“… Oh okay.”

You seem confident.

It was convenient that I didn’t have to open my mouth. It’s okay to work with a full-time guy.

“And I heard that our chief delivered it in advance. this… .”

“Ah yes yes.”

After that, there was no useless bait.

The meeting flowed smoothly while talking with the program writer and sub-PD. I pretended to listen intently, nodding my head and thinking.

‘That’s why this guy wants to use me to put on some kind of stage.’

And this question will soon be solved.

right after the meeting.

A conference room in the LeTi building, 20 minutes from the station.

“I’ll show you the music video first.”

Cheong-rye turned on the projector and immediately started discussing the stage composition.

Originally, a scene with such a concept should be included in the program shooting, but due to the problem of practice time, it is often at the level of reenactment.

‘It’s a tight script.’

So I would understand that.

“It’s a rough edit, but it’s at a level where there’s only an intro and no credits. There is no problem with juniors understanding the concept of the album… .”

“wait for a sec.”

The flow is a bit strange.

“It’s not the stage outline, why is your music video all of a sudden.”

“hmm?”

If the stage we’re going to perform isn’t even a song from the album, why are you sitting there bragging about your soon-to-be-released MV?

However, Cheong-Ryeo calmly answered with an expression that asked if she was asking such an obvious question.

“It’s a program stage for the purpose of promoting an album, so of course I have to make my title come to mind as soon as I see it.”

“… … .”

“This title itself is the concept that will be the base for our stage, so watch it now and familiarize yourself with it. Because I can’t send you the music video file before it’s released.”

OK.

‘My head is working fine.’

I held my breath and shook my head.

I thought that I had agreed to cooperate with this guy on stage instead of making noise.

It’s because I said that I would unilaterally follow the stage composition this guy made in terms of not damaging my image.

But only if the vision is this clear.

‘I don’t know if it’s a high-pitched shuttle or not.’

No, I think that would be better than using a concept that doesn’t fit.

I clicked my tongue and stared at the screen of the MV he was playing.

A charred marble floor.

In the middle of the floor of the old-fashioned art gallery, which has become ruins, there is a spot where paints are mixed up like a mess.

Lying alone on it is Cheongnyeo.

[…] … .]

The contrasting image slowly passed to the viewpoint in the sky.

I heard the wind.

and.

[The devil is in the details]

A meaningful phrase pops up and the song starts soon.

[Ash]

The title of Chung Ryeo's solo album.

-Oh maybe we're just in pain

Medium tempo in faint minor key.

And a jazzy accompaniment.

-Ashes to ashes dust to dust. From the introduction of the same Story

And love is dead

into the ashes,

a very addictive chorus is thrown.

And a slow humming before going into verse. And offbeat choreography.

The choreography performed on ashes in bare feet, turtlenecks, and black slacks seems to have power in itself, pulling and pushing the camera and changing angles.

Maybe it’s because the guy with the best proportions and physique manages his body shape to the limit, so the minimal one is the most impressive.

‘Damn it.’

form doesn’t die

I was about to bite my tongue.

The difficult task of mixing impressive choreography with easy listening to the song was done properly.

Besides that.

this choreography.

‘It’s rather easy to just follow the movements, but it’s a difficult choreography to create a feeling.’

It means that there are many people who try the challenge and it is good for the people who evaluate it to line up.

It was already good in my eyes.

-This person

is really similar to Cheongryeo

Challenge videos to run.

‘It’s the best choice for soloists who are confident in dancing.’

It was the most ideal result if I could make it.

No matter how much Testa puts off enlisting, some of them will go to the army within a few years, and Cha Yoo-jin and Ryu Chung-woo will have to do solo or unit work.

There is even a competitive spirit to see if they can plan a result as refined as this.

"… … ."

I shut my mouth and watched the music video to the end.

The background and costumes gradually became more splendid, but at the end, the ashes were caught again, and the tempo control was great.

-And love is the end.

The scene abruptly ended with a blue sky standing on black water in a dark space.

And the culprit, Cheong-Ryeo, smiled and opened her mouth only after the music video was edited.

"I like it?"

I skipped over to the subjective question without even asking for an objective opinion.

'I'm confident.'

is it?

I nodded my head politely.

"uh."

"… … ."

"It was well made."

why are you surprised

‘I have to admit what I have to admit.’

It’s meaningless to fight pride when we have to work together anyway.

‘It’s not like the comeback times overlapped.’

But that’s it.

“It’s hard for me to capture the feeling of this choreography.”

“hmm?”

“I’m just saying this just in case, but it’s better not to ask me to implement a similar choreography feeling like this in two weeks.”

This is advice for stage quality.

‘This is a level of perfection that can barely be twisted, even though it’s dance grade A or higher.’

Moreover, this program is a program featuring established singers.

It means that such a narrative that people will understand even if you try hard and show your growth, like a debut survival story, is just funny.

If I do a choreography similar to this one, I have to be good enough not to break this concept unconditionally.

But in reality, it wasn’t worth it.

‘It’s just a high -pitched shuttle.’

However, Cheong-rye burst into laughter.

“Haha, I think I decided to do whatever I wanted for this stage, didn’t I?”

“… … .”

Are you serious?

“just joke.”

The guy split the room and knocked on the table as if counting with his fingers.

“Everyone should do what they are good at… It must be worth having an agreement with your junior.”

okay.

“I still have to do the basics.”

“… ?”

Cheongryeo asked lightly.

“How many hours have you practiced a day?”

And the amount of < Azusa > level practice fell on his head.

Chapter 497

Episode 497

“Isn’t it okay?”

I will kill… No, I have no power to kill.

‘It’s a bitch.’

I stretch out in LeTi’s dedicated VTIC practice room.

7 hours.

It’s time to practice choreography with Cheongryeo Nom.

‘Isn’t he crazy?’

Since it’s nearing the end of the comeback, there won’t be any time, so you’ll have to spend 7 hours on one performance?

The most amazing thing is that it doesn’t seem like it will end today.

As if doing some extreme PT, skillfully pushing people to their limits and then allowing them to breathe, art is art.

‘This baby would have earned money if he was a lecturer.’

Wait a minute, I don’t think these words mean anything to a guy who’s already made a ton of money.

‘My brain isn’t working… .’

I catch my breath

Testa is not a group that gets lost in the amount of practice wherever they go. In this way, it means that there are not a few cases where the amount of practice time is offensive.

However, it is different to put in a choreography that is unfamiliar with the dance line in such a short period of time.

At that age, I can't help but think of < Azusa >, the first time in my life that I learned how to dance.

I stared at the ceiling in silence.

A strange fluorescent light was shining.

'hmm?'

I inadvertently opened my mouth.

"Did you remodel the lighting?"

"hmm?"

Cheong-ryeo, who was playing the song, answered as if she was curious.

"I did. Although it was three years ago."

"ah."

And I realized

LeTi's practice room where I practiced for nearly a year in my memory is not here.

'That wasn't real.'

This is the ceiling we saw when we were trying to win the Daesang with a hybrid group called 'Wishes', a mix of VTIC and Testa members.

The experience of debuting with the VTIC guys in the body of Ryu Gun-woo in the virtual world created by the system.

‘The words came out without thinking.’

And Cheongryeo seemed to notice that part.

“Is it similar to when you debuted with your juniors? Maybe so. I fixed that too.”

A funny explanation followed, saying, ‘Because if you make it several times, standard specifications are created and standardized.’

I laughed.

“Is there efficiency in the practice room?”

“sure.”

I don’t know how old he is if he figured that out.

It’s new, but in terms of experience and information, it will be difficult to rub against him no matter who you bring it to.

um too

‘I thought VTIC would go downhill to some degree after the military hiatus.’

I need to prepare a little harder.

From rookies who debuted with capital by benchmarking us to VTIC who didn’t die out of form, Testa is also in a very sandwiched situation.

‘I can’t be vigilant just because I rode the target.’

I drank water and quickly organized my plans for the next album.

It was then that Cheongryeo sat next to him.

“Your junior’s ability to learn choreography is good.”

I guess so.

“If you don’t have the ability to learn this year, you should quit.”

“haha.”

I don’t think I’m laughing because it’s funny. It seems that even a guy with no learning ability at this age has experience of being a member.

‘I must have tried to turn around because I wasn’t satisfied.’

You can tell by looking at that stat window.

He is a guy who has already perfected his talent by grinding his talents to the limit to the limit. You must be confident in your own routine.

So, a pup who couldn’t keep up with the amount of practice he assigned would not have been treated as a human being.

‘… hmm.’

By the way.

I called a guy out of curiosity.

This guy is the only one to have this conversation.

‘The big moon.’

[Yes?]

“… … .”

Does it come out in an instant?

I thought the answer might be late because I’m at work, but I never thought the answer would come like a knife like this.

Anyway, I got lucky after chatting with him about a few things.

‘… I mean the potential stats that appear on the status window.’

[…] ?? Ah, the characteristic of infinite potential? It wasn’t given to me by the system, but it’s true that my older brother had it… … .]

No, that’s not the story.

[Yes?]

‘The ones that appear on the status window of someone other than me.’

The limiting stats, indicated in parentheses next to the stats.

An indicator that tells the person’s limit.

Let me give you an example.

[Dance: C- (B)]

Here, ‘B’ in parentheses is the limit.

It was also the biggest reason why I became only a person who would make a living through arts and sports. talent teeth.

And what I’m curious about is this.

‘No matter what I do, it’s impossible to overcome that.’

Is it impossible for a person to grow beyond the lower limit stat?

“… … .”

After a moment of silence, a timid pop-up appeared.

[Maybe… ?]

After that, ‘actually, I only changed the judgment of the system so that my brother could see it… … .’ continued.

After all, it means that the value is calculated by the system.

‘hmm.’

I frowned.

That was the moment.

[Poll available!]

“… !”

Next to the big moon chat pop-up.

Suddenly, a status window popped up.

‘what.’

[Help: You can customize the functions of the with feedback through surveys.]

“… … .”

therefore… Did you come out to do business with your story? can you tell me if it’s possible?

I looked at the status window popup.

It shines like an ad banner, begging me to click on it.

But that’s it.

‘Would you like to?’

Would you like to fish?

I got rid of the popup without hesitation.

‘You’re a waste as soon as you collect system fragments from that guy.’

this is the correct answer

And when you nod your head inwardly.

“Have you had enough rest? wake up.”

“… … .”

For reference, I only lay down for 5 minutes.

‘after.’

I held back my double desire and got up.

Yes, it’s a limiting stat, and it’s Nabal… Right now, my dance stat is still B+.

what good You can’t whine that you can’t do it this time.

‘Should I change it as far as I can go?’

Let’s do it.

* * *

That night.

The door to Testa’s new dorm opened weakly.

Piririk- click.

And a silent voice was heard.

“… I’m home.”

It was Park Moon-dae wearing a hood.

“Oh Moondae… … ??”

“… … .”

Why is he like this?

Lee Se-jin, who took the pack out of the refrigerator and was about to welcome him, was taken aback.

But Park Moon-dae only answered like this.

“I practiced.”

What kind of bastard’s practice did that Bakmundae become like that?

He is a friend who followed me even during all-night practice and stayed up all night and monitored me.

The sight of Bak Mun-dae drooping like wet laundry was unfamiliar and even a bit solemn… … .

‘wait for a sec.’

Lee Se-jin instantly realized what Park Moon-dae was doing.

“It’s Cheongryeo featuring practice, right?”

“uh.”

No, who is asking for a feature and treating people like trainees at their own company?

‘Don’t you know the lines?’

Although the evaluation of Cheong-rye was slightly relaxed due to past incidents, it was a different group and was a target of caution. That’s why Lee Se-jin didn’t like it any more.

‘Shouldn’t I have been a bit more actively opposed.’

So he shouted cheerfully on purpose with Park Mun-dae on his shoulder.

“Moondaemundae~ Aren’t you doing great things for others? Why do you decide to live or die like that!”

It was then.

“… I agree.”

“… !”

Bae Se-jin, who was enjoying her life in solitary confinement, quietly came out into the living room and spoke up for herself.

Isejin was a little embarrassed.

What’s up with that brother?

“You don’t have to do it, but you do it.”

Bae Se-jin steadfastly continued.

Yes.

He was uncomfortable with VTIC Cheongnyeol.

The fact that the flagship suddenly attacked Bakmundae at the beginning of their debut was a decisive factor, but it was not the only one.

‘… It was strange.’

That was the unique atmosphere of Cheongryeo.

In fact, it is rare that we have ever had a direct conversation. But I felt it even just by observing.

There were moments when I felt like a person with no emotional context, meaning no empathy.

It is as if the psychopaths that Bae Se-jin himself played came to mind.

I felt it better because he was originally sensitive and astute to the attitudes of others.

It was an impression that was not easily erased by the objective fact of being helped in the system's virtual world or in a building collapse.

It was inevitable unless you knew that it was a gap created by repeated restarts for an extremely long time.

'hmm.'

Anyway, Lee Se-jin changed his mood again after watching Bae Se-jin, who had become serious.

'Oh my gosh, Mundae won't listen to me anymore even if I try to be serious here.'

lighter.

"that's right. Save up your energy for our album, Moondae~"

"That's how it should be."

yes!

Lee Se-jin was delighted to see Moon-dae Park nodding his head.

However, Moondae Park's words did not end there.

"Do what you have to do right."

"… … ."

'Hey then you… Is there anything different from Kim Rae-bin, who works all night?'

Before saying anything to his roommate, Kim Rae-bin, the words to look back at himself came up to his throat.

Fortunately, next to Lee Se-jin was Bae Se-jin, who would be angry instead.

“So do it without overdoing it!”

“yes. what… I practiced in a way that did not harm my health.”

Park Moon-dae answered calmly.

And mumbled a little.

“That’s even worse.”

“… … ?”

Park Moon-dae was silent as he looked back at his exquisitely overworked body.

But he soon shrugged.

“And it helps. It’s my first time doing this kind of choreography. and… When it’s over, I have something to take.”

“receive?”

“yes. I have something to gain.”

Park Moon-dae nodded and smiled.

It was an unexpectedly rewarding smile.

“I think our own content was chosen in a fun way this time, but I think it will be less popular than before.”

“hmm?”

Park Moon-dae also came to the conclusion that although Ryu Seo-rin will be chosen with a balance to make her exciting and stimulating, this is for maniacs.

‘It’s hard to take it lightly because you have to use your brain to reason.’

However, in order to connect with the next album, it has to be symbolic and even meaningful to some extent, and then it will be further away from the light taste.

‘I managed to balance the popularity by utilizing the horror element.’

It was possible because it was late summer and early fall.

So that’s it.

“We need to properly take care of the popularity in the next album.”

I will take care of all the gukppong and popularity!

Park Moon-dae smiled.

“I’ll get something to help with that.”

A big picture was being drawn in his head.

Soon, the ending was met with crawling into the bedroom by the same name who wrathfully said, ‘Okay, just rest’… I mean.

A few days passed like that.

And finally, after the splendid disclosure of Testa’s own content.

The first day of filming for the stage contest of Cheongryeo featuring Moondae Park has arrived.

* * *

VTIC Among them, Cheongryeo's fan community was very energetic during the solo album promotion period.

In particular, since Cheongryeo caught quite a few broadcast appearances for this album promotion, rice cakes were more abundant.

-Jaehyun-ah, the schedule is crazy.

Thank you.

– Shin Jae-hyun's fansign response went around (video), and in this atmosphere, the news of Chung Ryeo's appearance on the < Nice to meet you > program was just one of the album promotion activities at first.

It was to the point where there was even a somewhat cold-hearted evaluation, saying, 'It's okay if I don't come out because it's falling so fast'.

Still, most of them were happy with the schedule itself and liked the fact that they had more time to watch Cheongryeo's stage.

I was also amused by an article saying that the number of audience requests for < Nice to Meet You > had reached an all-time high.

And, of course, there were also winners among community users.

-I never thought I would attend Cheombom… I'm going to take my mom and I'll bring a review hahahaha ㄴchkkkkkk

ㄴI'm jealous

ㄴHow did you come along,

but that afternoon.

-Hul

-Hey Shin Jae

-hyeon -LOL

– and the people who were supposed to post reviews of the audience started leaving only their impressions in real time.

All the fans who were running around the community at that time to see the audience reviews were embarrassed.

‘Jaehyun??’

-????

-What is it

? -What is the reaction? Now in a few minutes.

Finally, a review of the audition with proper sentences was uploaded.

and.

-crazy!!

It didn’t take long for Cheongryeo’s fan site to be filled with screams and confusion.

Chapter 498

Episode 498

< Nice to meet you > stage contest scene.

[Weekend Afternoon Fun! The stage of < Nice to meet you >, the collaboration of the century with stars, is about to begin!]

The MC read the standardized script based on many years of experience like flowing water. And from the audience, the audience-like response and applause poured out.

[The theme of this contest is ‘Millennial 2000’! The stage was decorated with the theme of the 2000s.]

[The cast members chose an artist of the genre they wanted to work with, and the collaboration was concluded. Please look forward to what kind of stage it will be.]

And the MC quickly explained the voting rules as well . .

Simple. If you liked the show, please press the button!

It was a clichéd story that is told every recording, but this time there were quite a few audience members who were hearing it for the first time.

‘I come to a place like this.’

‘Thank you, Jaehyun. I try to be filial by taking a backward step.’

They are all people who applied after hearing the news of Cheongryeo’s appearance. In other words, there were many fans of VTIC who were not existing viewers.

And that was also a double-edged sword in this contest.

If Chungryeo couldn't show a stage worthy of winning first place, but if the audience voted for first place, that alone would cause controversy.

But the fans sitting there had little to worry about.

'It's Jaehyun, but what?'

It was a belief that became stronger the longer I spent as a fan.

VTIC, especially Cheong-ryo, never did anything disappointing.

[The special stage now begins.]

Finally, the 3rd theme contest of season 7 has begun.

Waaaah-

With polite cheers, singers and masters came out and performed.

Here, singers are mostly established singers who are highly preferred by middle-aged people.

It means that there was no male idol like VTIC.

'oh.'

Since the field is so different, Cheongryeo's fans also viewed it quite favorably without a check mentality.

'Okay.'

'Everyone is doing well.'

A pure evaluation is done honestly.

There were also quite a few unconventional stages.

The representative songs of popular musicals of the 2000s sung by vocalists and rappers of yesteryear had a taste that made you feel old and hip.

‘and!’

In particular, it was more relatable to VITC fans who were younger in age.

It was because I didn’t watch this program that much, so I didn’t know the standardized ‘eaten by the audience’ stage composition unique to the program, so it was fresh.

And it is to imagine the stage of Cheongryeo in its own way.

‘Who did Jaehyun do with?’

‘It would have been really cool if I had just done it with an opera singer.’

Occasionally, there were performances with singers due to insufficient casting of masters or because the pair did not match, but no one thought that Cheongryeo was like that.

‘Well, to do better than these people… … .’

There were once or twice a stage where Jaehyun secretly worried that he shouldn’t make a mistake.

And after some time, the 6th stage.

order right before the end.

The MC finally opened the door he had been waiting for.

[The performers of this stage are… He is a global KPOP artist representing Korea. This is Cheongryeo from VTIC!]

Aaaaa!!

wow!

As soon as the word ‘global’ came out, the fans who noticed it were already cheering fervently.

And middle-aged people who are not necessarily fans also responded well. This is because everyone has heard the name of VTIC, whether in the news or on YouTube.

Expectations of famous celebrities!

Those gazes that measure how well you will do.

In the midst of that overflowing adrenaline, the MC continued the process by controlling the tempo.

[And the collaboration partner that Mr. Cheongryeo pointed out… .]

Brief steaming.

And when the curiosity of the audience reached its maximum.

A sound like thunder fell.

[National Idol! This is Testa’s main vocalist Park Moon-dae.]

“… ??”

“… ?!”

yes?

Contrary to the reaction of the middle-aged and middle-aged audience, who were like ‘Young idols do it~’, the young fans in the audience doubted their ears and screamed internally.

Why is Testa here… ?

‘Is it Cheongryeo?’

‘Hey Jaehyun Shin!’

There were fans who screamed that it would be better to be a recorder gifted kindergartener.

[Then let’s meet now! Collaboration start!]

The stage started with the MC shouting without even trying to catch up!

Lights come on on a dark stage.

“… … !”

Fans reflexively held their breath and focused their eyes on the stage.

but… There were no singers.

In the outskirts, there is only one standing mic standing alone in the spotlight.

Woo-woo-woo

-woo, the sound of the wind rang briefly.

In the void, a familiar riff melody played on the piano filled the air.

A familiar accompaniment.

And the chorus in a minor key cuts through the quiet background sound.

-It snows in my winter, and the cold and cozy warmth that wraps around my cheeks

and you

It was a popular song by an emotional hip-hop group that was popular in the mid-2000s. A song that follows the formula of featuring a famous female soloist in an addictive chorus.

That featuring part is reproduced with a cool male voice.

-Um umm- Um umm-

Um umm-

A lonely hum.

A sensibility that is infinitely close to the original singing while reminiscing about the bittersweet love of love after a breakup.

"… … ."

Singing was not an invitation.

'Park Moon-dae… is it?'

However, even though it was in a minor key, the audience immediately listened to his clear and refreshing voice.

The soft piano accompaniment and humming softly echoed through the audience.

-Yes

And the moment when the accompaniment turns in a major key and a fast rap should be entered in a brighter atmosphere with the original band sound.

-No

"… !"

The sound fell more heavily.

thud.

The elegant and gloomy piano accompaniment was heavy.

The tempo of the accompaniment falls on top of that heavy monotonous note… it gets slower

It’s laid back and dark enough to feel a bit dangerous.

And In-young who appears.

Our burning hearts on a night when the lights are off

“… !!”

Cheongryeo!

A singer wearing a head microphone walked out from the perimeter. The movement seemed to fill the stage with just that.

An ultramarine blue stage shirt went well with black slacks.

‘OMG!’

However, even as suppressed cheers erupted here and there from the audience, some people were puzzled.

‘uh?’

A song sung by Cheongryeo.

The familiar melody was right.

but… It wasn’t the song ‘Winter Love’ that was developed earlier.

– I hear the voice of love

< Summer Night Fever >.

Like the previous song, the song from the 2000s was right.

However, it is a song by a female solo singer famous for its sexy concept.

In addition, unlike the original song, which was a fast-tempo techno dance song, the choreography and song are developed with a heavy accompaniment in a slow tempo.

-A

hot and ecstatic moment on a summer night was followed by a solid physique with movements that slightly evoked the feeling of modern dance or waacking.

A dancer came out and filled the stage with the same movements, but that only added to the splendor.

Live vocals without shaking in the movement of the lights, each detail is clear, and the strengths and weaknesses are perfect, so you can feel the catharsis of the dance.

With that alone, the stage was completed as if it was tight.

The naturalness unique to a person who has been on stage for a long time draws attention.

-You know, I've been waiting for you.

While condensing the splendor and sexiness of the original song, the wild beauty of the much slower, static and heavy tempo added artistic value.

The unique rusticity of old popular songs that might sound frivolous has disappeared without a trace.

'Crazy.'

'I could have done it alone!'

‘Park Moon-dae in front of you… ?’

Fans immersed themselves in the stage, thinking in their stream of consciousness.

-The moment

burns the flame of love into eternity

Summer night

In the meantime, the relaxed yet weighty performance gracefully dragged the stage and ended the first verse in the blink of an eye.

And the music stopped for a moment.

Cheong-rye made a shoe noise and walked to the standing microphone outside.

“… … .”

It was the moment when the audience watched with bated breath and waited for the next catharsis.

Suddenly, on the other side, someone else appears under the spotlight.

“… !”

Moondae Park.

The singer, with her soft blonde hair neatly trimmed, grabbed a standing microphone on the other side of the outskirts.

And again the accompaniment flows.

-My love is in winter

Even when spring comes, in my heart

“… ?”

The previous accompaniment used in < Summer Night's Fever > sung by Cheongryeo continued without any sense of incongruity.

And Moondae Park’s melody blended wonderfully and naturally.

‘what… ?’

It was because it connected two songs that used similar compositional grammar from the same era.

However, the atmosphere and lyrics are completely opposite.

Thanks to this, a very strange atmosphere was formed.

A narrative point was created.

The short love of a summer night and the eternal farewell of winter.

-The snowdrifts do not melt,

the warmth of an eternal winter

Woo-

The lonely voice gained clear and firm strength and rose with the accompaniment.

The vocal ad-lib reached a pleasant climax without any technique. –

The cold and cozy warmth that enveloped my cheeks

because of the snow

in my winter .

-Yes you

And there, the note and the lyrics continue.

-You and me

in summer night,

Cheongryeo’s song that came in.

The two continued to sing the songs they sang alternately, as if they were singing parts of the same song.

-Don’t miss the opportunity

And at the end of the rising note, two huge spotlights come in the center of the stage.

And two people on the stage moved.

“… !”

The two who came to the center moved to the accompaniment of the build-up.

mirror choreography.

-Summer night

hot and ecstatic

(voices are heard)

Movements mix, lyrics mix with each other.

-My love is in winter

(in summer night)

Before we knew it, the two of us changed the song and sang it again naturally.

– Moments into eternity

(Eternal warmth of winter)

and the last verse.

-and you.

The performer looked at them and stopped the choreography.

And it brings the song up in harmony.

-Yes you!

You you u- uu umm umumm

The strings rang out loud.

And the choreography also reached the climax.

-Um umumm Um umumm um Umm…

The humming of the melodies of the two songs creates an exquisite harmony and falls.

And the two movements match like a mirror, creating a complex pair choreography.

A performance in which the legs are crossed, the upper bodies are bent, and each other's shoulders are held together, like an acrobatics without an inch of error.

All those movements that seemed soft at first glance could only look elegant if you had the power to perfectly control your limbs.

In other words, it was an almost unrealistic sight to digest ‘humming’ live with a perfect pitch, not even making a high note while doing this movement.

‘and.’

“… … .”

The gaze is fixed as if being sucked in.

A composition that can only be performed by a performer with an extremely high level of understanding and proficiency in the dance stage, that is, the KPOP stage.

‘ah… … .’

So a few fans understood why Chung Ryeo chose Park Moon Dae.

‘I see.’

‘If I wanted to do something like this, I would have chosen an idol.’

However, there were misunderstandings.

In fact, it was impossible for Park Moon-dae to implement the choreography of this climax part alone with his current abilities.

However, with the amount of practice, I covered the short choreography of about 30 seconds so that I could copy and dance ‘just like the other person’.

Even more so, if the person who has been developing a method for effectively imprinting choreography on the members for several decades has put in one movement at a time.

For a moment, it is possible to reproduce nonsense.

And at the end of that ‘nonsense’ synchro rate, a short and sure high-pitched chord rises above the splendidly built-up accompaniment. -I waited for a hot and ecstatic moment, you know catharsis!

-Wh-whewhewhe!

The stage that started in winter, with back to back facing the audience seats to the brass accompaniment, ends with a summer night.

thud!

“… … .”

So the stage was over.

A composition that poured artistry suitable for this program into an idol-like stage frame.

that atmosphere!

And choreography like exquisite arrangements and live stunts.

It was the essence of the performance.

‘It was torn.’

‘crazy.’

Wow!!

Shouting cheers filled the audience.

It wasn’t a cheer from fans, it was a reaction to the stage.

[It was a really great stage!]

Even the MC’s comment was heard with sincerity.

Soon, the two people on the stage smiled and politely greeted the audience a few times before returning to their seats.

It was for voting, but in fact, the result was as if it had come out.

Fans already knew.

‘I can film this unconditionally.’

Even if it is aired, I will never criticize Cheongryeo for winning first place.

That confidence made the fans in the seat feel overwhelmed.

However, confusion and question marks remained in the minds of most of the fans who attended.

‘How did you do it with Moondae Park??’

‘What is that crazy selection?’

And those questions were soon to be satisfied.

This is because the process of forming a team between the two received a portion in the main broadcast on the weekend.

Chapter 499

Episode 499

of the broadcast program < Nice to meet you >, in which I featured the stage of Cheongryeo, was organized quickly without delay.

And on the day of the broadcast.

Of course, the part that introduces the singers who will prepare for it, rather than the stage, appeared on TV.

[Rom J: I've been interested in (pansori) from before… .]

[MC: Oh, this is the first time a rapper is interested in pansori in this program. Let's see the results to see if a pansori master would have appeared!]

A collaboration team is formed while introducing yourself and talking about what genre you are interested in.

Even in that part, it's almost the last part.

Finally, the guy who shared the stage appears.

[This person getting out of the car… ?]

[Cheong-ryeo: Hello.]

Here, artificial cheers go into the background, and light stick effects are added everywhere.

And even huge subtitles.

[This man… Handsome!]

"… … ."

'Is it true?'

I would believe it even if the person who made the subtitles came in a time machine from 10 years ago.

'If the stage wasn't fun, this program would have been ruined long ago.'

I got up from my seat with a confused face.

"uh? Where is Mundae?"

"Go get something to drink."

For reference, I wasn't monitoring alone.

This season, we are on tour preparing for a new album, and today is the day for the group camp once a week.

That's why we rented a suite and gathered everyone together.

And I was watching this program on my smartphone… .

-What are you doing at Mundaemun University? Hey, is this the main broadcast today?

-… yes.

-ah! The hotel's TV is said to be able to watch Korean airwaves through the Internet! How about using the TV so you can watch it on the big screen? If the other hyungs are okay… .

-Ah, of course it's okay~

-Ah, is the Mundae broadcasting today? Then let's have a look.

-OK!

… After going through this process, everyone is sitting together and watching this old program.

[King of KPOP VTIC!]

[Leader Chung Ryeo]

"… You openly float it."

"I know."

If you're going to watch it with such a dissatisfied expression, why did you turn on the TV?

'Well, I had similar thoughts.'

In any case, the content of the program unfolds without anyone refuting it.

Cheong Ryeo's brilliant career was introduced, and soon after, a scene appeared in which Cheong Ryeo talked about 'a collaboration genre she hoped for'.

Of course, usually these are all scripts. It is common to select and match masters whom the artist has already recruited according to time and popularity.

However, this time Cheongryo really did collaborate with a person in the 'genre she chose'.

To be precise, he himself plugged it into this broadcast.

[Chungryeo: I… I want to work with the idol group.]

[!!!!]

[MC: Mr. Chungryeo, remember that I am an idol myself… ?]

[Chungryeo: Of course. (Laughter) But rather, I had quite a few opportunities to perform with artists from other fields, but I've rarely done it with the same idol.] The MC, pretending to be embarrassed, asks.

[MC: Then maybe… Female idol department?]

[Cheong-ryeo: That can't be the case. As a male idol in the same position as me.]

Cheong-Ryeo smiled and casually skipped over the MC's question, and saved another point.

[Cheong-ryeo: And there are no members right now, so… It's a bit lonely to perform on stage alone. That's why.]

I can hear the VTIC fans being thrilled.

'It kills image making.'

it seems time

I took my eyes off the caption and walked back to the refrigerator near the hotel room foyer.

And I took out the bottled water from there and listened to it… saw.

dark beer.

"… … ."

Come to think of it, it seems like it's been several years since I didn't drink alcohol.

"… … ."

Come to think of it, there is no concert tomorrow.

‘At least one can isn’t okay… .’

“Park Moondae.”

“yes.”

I knew it would be like this.

It was Bae Se-jin who had followed me to the front door before I knew it. Is there some kind of alcoholic sensor.

I took my eyes off the beer and picked up an unlabeled water bottle.

I have to monitor anyway, so let’s drink cold water.

The moment I thought so, Bae Se-jin suddenly asked.

“Are you in a bad mood or stuffy inside right now?”

“… ? no.”

Park Moon-dae’s physical condition was ruined because he stopped drinking alcohol.

“okay. … … Otherwise, at least a can from time to time… I thought it would be okay to drink comfortably.”

“… ?!”

for a moment.

‘Are you serious?’

The one who disposed of all the alcohol called alcohol from the previous dorm until now?

When I raised my head, Bae Se-jin continued talking with a slightly embarrassed face.

“I know it was strange for me to say so much in the first place. But just… It seemed like a bad habit of becoming addicted to alcohol, so I was trying to stop it.”

I guess so.

“But now, if I don’t have that habit, I’ll be meddling.”

“… … .”

“of course! It’s about when you’re sure you don’t want to drink because of stress.”

I took my hand off the water bottle for a moment and reminisced.

‘Come to think of it… .’

At some point, the habit of drinking to relieve irritation disappeared.

‘I think he’s seen it a few times whenever I go near the refrigerator or convenience store.’

And right now I definitely don’t want to drink it to relieve stress.

I smiled and nodded.

“yes.”

“okay. okay.”

Bae Se-jin nodded neatly. like admitting it.

‘I am.’

I feel like I got some kind of addiction treatment certification.

‘Yes, thanks to that guy, I gave up the cost-effectiveness of relieving my mood with alcohol.’

I admitted it too.

“Hyung didn’t interfere for nothing, he got help.”

“… … A lot.”

You can’t hide your pride. what good

‘How long.’

I reached out.

And finally, I grabbed a can of dark beer from a familiar brand that I had been drinking years ago from the refrigerator.

‘I changed the design.’

And I took it right away and drank it.

gulp.

Carbonation was thrilling.

The cold barley beer that I drank after a long time went down my throat.

It was cool.

‘oh.’

I returned to my seat with a can of beer.

“If you think it’s weird, I’ll dry it again.”

“Ah yes.”

I robbed the beer can again.

Bae Se-jin looked at me drinking and looked like he had something to say, but he didn’t say anything and turned his head away.

‘I thought well.’

I sat down refreshed.

On the TV screen, a skinny guy was opening his mouth.

[Rom J: But the real collaboration artist did the same genre… I really respect idols alone.]

[Chungryeo: Haha… yes. thank you Because I risked my life to become an idol.]

[VTIC Cheong-ryeo sincere about being an idol! Which artist will collaborate with him?]

“… … .”

The reactions of the cast members laughing were spread over the air.

There’s no way you know that that’s not a metaphor, but a literal fact.

‘Your cheating skills are superb.’

I accepted it generously and quietly drank my beer.

“Popcorn?”

OK.

I ate some of the popcorn that Yujin Cha served as a snack… .

“… … .”

“Eat more! are you okay.”

not okay

‘Sweet.’

I don’t know how this guy can eat something like this and not die. Is this what Geunsujeon does?

But rather, Cha Yoo-jin looked carefully at my arm holding the popcorn and said with her eyes shining.

“Oh! You have muscles.”

“… ? Is that so?”

“what are you eating?”

“no.”

I didn’t eat anything else

No matter how you think about it, there is only one variable.

I chin toward the screen.

“I think it stuck while practicing.”

“Oh.”

Well, I finally showed up.

[Vtic Chungryeo’s collaboration artist!]

[??? : Hello.]

Before long, I could see myself scratching up the lack of motivation on the screen.

[Park Moon-dae: This is Testa’s main vocalist Park Moon-dae.]

[TeSTAR!]

Testa’s career is introduced with all kinds of dazzling effects re-entered.

Then, Chungryeo and I pretend to be surprised and start preparing for the stage in a friendly way by shaking hands.

[Chungryeo: It looks like this. It's really nice to see you.]

[Park Moon-dae: Yes, senior. Thank you very much.]

[Chungryeo: Haha. Oh, do you think it's okay to just relax? The atmosphere.]

[Park Moon-dae: Then feel free to talk.]

[Two people who were originally close… ?]

Looking at it like this, it's a bit disgusting, but it looks quite warm on the screen.

Internet comments are screaming, of course.

The screams in the comments window that are being plastered with 'destruction', 'crazy', and 'I'm crazy'… Think of it as something you have to bear.

'I end up benefiting.'

I grinded popcorn between my teeth and stared at the TV.

[Chungryeo: Around the time Moondae debuted, I got to know him a bit. Looking at it like this, I'm looking forward to the stage.]

And the image of me being warmly choreographed and the image of Chung-ryeo being satisfied after matching the choreography passed through editing.

'The image of a good senior is being scratched away.'

In reality, while punching the choreography in someone else's head.

No matter how much you think about it, it is clear that there is muscle there. The power to control the body was important for the choreography that he put in.

It means that the force was applied by compressing it tightly.

Even though it comes out in a friendly way on the screen.

[Chungryeo: Moondae is also progressing smoothly because of his ability to learn dance.]

“Is that really the reason?”

“Don’t be fooled. 7 hours a day.”

“oh.”

[Park Moondae: In Moondae… ? No, please look forward to the stage.]

[Natural idol aegyo??]

“Uh ha ha!”

“… … .”

‘Did you save this one too?’

And after an interview video that made use of my mistakes that occurred when I ran out of stamina, the stage finally got on the air.

[Starting now!]

“Hey, Moondae right now… Are you coming out?”

“okay.”

“Oh, let’s see.”

The testers also focused more on the TV with a comfortable posture that seemed like they would post comments every 3 seconds.

But after the stage.

“… … .”

“… … .”

-It turned around

-How well

you do it -Is this the taste of K-Pop’s 1st group

? A stage like this..ㅠㅠㅠ

-ㅠㅠㅠㅠ

Both around and on the Internet, everyone was serious about it.

“Park Moon-dae, that’s why you practice like that… .”

“yes.”

And I also realized what effect Cheongryeo was aiming for.

‘The sophistication stands out unbelievably.’

As this program is old, it had a good stage scheme to appeal emotionally to the classic middle-aged to suit the taste of the main audience.

That’s not a bad thing, but the fact that everyone is using that method is the point to dig into.

‘This stage pops out alone.’

That’s why the impression of Cheongryeo and Park Moondae’s stage, which made the songs of the early 2000s like the essence of the latest KPOP, doubled.

Wouldn’t it stand out if you put a completely different color in a similar color system?

‘Of course, if I can’t do it, it will only create a sense of incongruity.’

That part was pressed with tremendous stage composition and time.

And the one who chose me… First of all, he must have needed someone other than the guys who had already gone to the army to pick up quality with a clenched fist according to his instructions.

‘He must have been trying to get the public opinion to grow the company.’

Just like he admitted last time.

I saw signs of viral luck from LeTi, which has already begun. -Ah, since Testa became independent this time, LeTi invested a lot

It’s the same line, so it seems like they’re getting involved without cutting it out from the company line now it’s amazing.

┗Ah, but

In this way, Testa gradually increases its influence on its own platform by lowering the doubtful resistance to appearing on LeTi’s platform in the future.

The mid- to long-term plan to raise the weight of the agency is being successfully carried out.

‘If I had nothing to eat, honestly, it wouldn’t be a very pleasant situation… … .’

“It was fun over there… ?”

“… … .”

I shrugged my shoulders at Seon Ah-hyun’s question.

Even if it seemed like the opponent had gained a lot.

“It was rewarding.”

That’s right.

“It would be nice to learn this choreography style once.”

Seon Ah-hyun smiled at my answer.

“Yes. thank god. ah! The stage was really cool… .”

“That’s right! The arrangement and composition are interesting, but above all, the stability in harmony and the proficiency in choreography left a deep impression on me.”

“thanks.”

I nodded my head in a rather warm atmosphere.

“If you want to do more choreography like this… I can teach you… !”

that’s kinda

“thanks. Let’s do it sometime when we have time.”

Just don’t take heart now.

To be honest, I have expectations that the dance stats will go up if I do more, but the cost performance is not good… .

The struggle to raise the dance stat now at the point where you can't record the stats is not efficient compared to the time.

Not one or two other guys who dance well are on the team, but from the point of view of group activities, the other side looks more attractive.

Raising the ability that is already my core to the peak.

therefore… .

'I'd rather not know if it's a singer.'

I'm a little curious about what will happen if I take 'EX' for my singing ability.

… Like Steer Cha Yoo-jin's talent stats.

I saw Cha Yu-jin sitting next to me, pouring the whole popcorn into her mouth, remembering the flying guy at the time of Waterbomb.

"Hmm? Is there something wrong?"

"no."

"OK. Oh hyung, the stage is great."

OK.

I turned my head and remembered.

… In fact, Cha Yoo-jin's talent stat has returned to S+.

'Maybe it's because my memory of the time of steer is very blurred.'

Or, if certain conditions are met when he goes on stage, he might reappear as an EX… It bothers me a bit.

'There are scenes I witnessed.'

-… after.

That guy watching Steer's Cha Yoo-jin's Waterbomb stage on his smartphone in the living room at night.

Cha Yoo-jin frowned, and she didn't know if she was analyzing or resentful.

'Although he's a good guy on his own.'

As long as I'm wondering what it would be like to have a hint… .

[Survey available!]

[Tip: You can customize the features of with feedback through the survey.]

Not you.

don't do it

'This bastard is persistent.'

Are you screaming at me for adding a stat-raising feature? I removed the status window without even waving my hand.

"But it's Mundaemundae."

why.

"Do you have a beer in your hand?"

"Oh, they say you can drink now."

"who?"

"Sejin hyung."

"oh."

Naturally, I quickly emptied the beer can and put it down, thinking again.

‘Anyway, I got something to gain and the preparation is going well.’

When I think of what I gained by walking on this featuring stage as a deal, I actually feel like I want to drink another beer to commemorate it.

I want to put it into action, but… .

‘Before that, there’s something to put on the board.’

ether.

That rookie group that ‘benchmarked’ Testa.

It would be better to take care of that rookie group so that they can no longer rub against Testa.

‘It’s good to make the company’s finances a little stronger.’

I smiled while changing the smartphone screen.

I saw a text message that arrived this morning.

[Spacer Kwon Hee-seung: Hyung, our practice is over haha]

Spacer’s comeback preparations are over.

Chapter 500

If you don’t debut, you’ll die. Episode 500

Spacer’s comeback led by Park Moon-dae.

At first, it just seemed like the group was exquisitely aiming for the hiatus of male idols whose weight class was heavenly.

The season when Cheongryeo’s comeback activities are just about to end, while Testa’s comeback activities are still only planned.

That’s why when the story of ‘Spacer’s comeback preview’ came out in an article a few months ago, there was no big reaction.

Because it’s natural.

[Spacer preparing for an intense comeback this fall…]

-Finally ㅠㅠ

-I’m looking forward to it, fighting~

-Who are these guys ?

Since there was no accurate announcement, it means that there was little expectation from the general public.

At that time, that was the end.

And as time passed, Spacer's comeback plan became something only fans remembered.

A group started promoting their comeback extensively.

[Announcement of ĭter's October comeback! Attack of the monster rookie]

It's Eter.

They left a splendid impression with their debut activities, so in order to continue their momentum, they will be promoting once more within this year.

This was also natural.

'Let's solidify the rookie award.'

It also meant that I was confident in the song and concept. Park Moon-dae guessed that maybe he had already prepared it like the debut song in the past.

'I knew it would come out in the fall because it would take some time until the end of the year to reflect the results.'

In a sense, it was a good thing that Summer Pool, featuring Ether, was completely buried in Testa's Water Bomb.

This is because Ether's fans took notice and passed it on quietly without commenting on it.

So, while retaining the status of a big rookie, Eater's agency, Wonder Hall, pointed out the date of their comeback and even announced the pre-sale notice to the media.

It's the third week of October!

'good.'

Park Moon-dae satisfactorily checked it out.

and after some time

As if I had been waiting, articles appeared one after another.

[Orbit Stars Entertainment “Spacer comeback in early October”]

[October male idol showdown coming… “From Spacer to Ether”]

[‘World Tour KPOP’ Spacer comeback in October Is a match for male idols in the music industry going well?]

Spacer’s specific comeback schedule was announced.

And the fact that Ether was making a comeback around the same time was subtly emphasized.

The timing is only 2 weeks apart!

Spacers came first.

In other words, the image strategy of hitting and winning the second half of Ether, which peaks and then declines, did not work.

On the contrary, it is a perfect situation for Ether to easily press the spacer.

-2nd army confrontation?

– It looks like Ether is going to break the seal properly

– Hahaha Orbit, what kind of guts is it because it is small and medium ㄴTesta seems to have lost its sense.

Of course, the majority of netizens interested in idols were much more interested in Ether.

Spacer was already an annual, not a rookie.

In addition, the existence of Testa, who was perfectly compatible in terms of origin and ability, had an adverse effect on their buzz and image from the moment Spacer was formed.

It was unavoidable.

-I'm already looking forward to what kind of concept he'll bring, I've been waiting for a newcomer like this K-Pop soloist

-Oh, I'terre If I choose a good song this time, I think I'll be in the 1st group hahaha

-Haha Spacer is also really funny when he's rushed to take a concept-oriented route and gets pushed by Ethere. I'm sure it's after the testa, but the low-level aggro level of interest only kept the buzz.

In addition, communities and social media that are interested in idols have already been hot with other topics.

The collaboration stage between Chungryeo and Park Moondae!

Fans' reaction to the unexpected collaboration between the two male idols in the first team!

For reference, it was like this.

-It's like a dog

… ."

It was very hot… … .

Still, the public reaction itself was good.

They praised both Cheongnyeo and Parkmundae, saying that it was an unexpected friendship, and enjoying it, the well-chosen stage attracted great interest and was a huge hit.

In particular, the fact that two people from different groups harmoniously sang two songs with completely different concepts made it more impressive and interesting in a meta sense.

To the extent that it even climbed the rankings of popular videos on YouTube overseas.

-The moment my wish came true that I didn't even know I wanted

-Maaaapsosa They are so cool! (Snow heart emoticon)

-My God, when the hell did you do a stage like this? That's right I don't need to know why. I just want to see more stages like this! (Burning emoticon)

-Vitistar. That's my dream group

They have been hostile to each other for several years because of all sorts of incidents. A member of my group hahahahaha with a rival group with deep emotions!

-Please, let's just stop here. Well, if you plan a joint trip or something like that, you'll be killed

. -I haven't seen Orbit like that.

Of course, I couldn't talk about this openly on the water. Anyway, it was an undeniable fact that the stage reaction was good.

So, it was a trend to try to somehow rationalize this situation by circulating only cropped versions of GIFs and videos on social media by only one person on each other's stage, and pass it over in a good way.

In a word, a time of stimulation and blues!

The comeback of Ether and Spacer in that yard?

It was kind of annoying to the Testa fandom, but not that big of a deal to the public.

-If you think copycats will give you a stomach ache, let’s take care of yourself by watching

Waterbomb. I wasn’t too anxious.

I only knew that Spacer and Ether would make a comeback in such a plain atmosphere.

That is, until Spacer’s teaser surfaced.

[Spacer ‘Hello’ Teaser]

The teaser itself didn’t cause a lot of uproar.

It was just a short cut of the spacer members living their daily lives happily over a good song.

-You’re handsome ㅠㅠ

-Their voise… OMG

-THIS SONG WILL BE AMAZING

The song was addictive even after just passing by.

Spacer’s composing member made the top notes, Kim Rae-bin participated in the arrangement, and Park Moon-dae was verified with his characteristic ‘grabbing ears’, so it fell well.

Ambitious planning!

However, there was no public listening to the song because even the teaser of a male idol who was not interested came in, and as always, a normal scene unfolded with domestic and foreign fans commenting.

However, Spacer's title this time wasn't something that could only be seen in the teaser.

A few days later.

-Is this our children's song?;; (Link)

A link was uploaded on fans' SNS.

'what?'

People who click on the link without thinking are soon astonished.

"… !"

I heard the melody I had already heard in the teaser and the familiar voices of the spacer members.

But that wasn't a video uploaded by Orbit Stars, their agency.

[My own honey-flavored sports drink to replenish moisture!]

[Honey Shake Water]

A scene where several people take turns drinking a specific drink after a hard day.

Edited to 15 seconds, that's… It was a WeTube advertisement video advertising a new beverage.

The title of Spacer is used as the background music.

-??

-What is this?

It is a CM song.

Spacer provided a song with only slightly modified lyrics from their title song to be used in a CM for a product of a parent company that is marketing very aggressively.

for free!

Of course, it was a non-disclosure agreement.

Moondae Park almost used the system again while trying to find a company that had an advertisement scheduled for the same time as Spacer's scheduled comeback and was doing aggressive marketing.

'Damn intelligence.'

In any case, the efforts of the working-level staff at the expense of the allowance paid off, and the contract was successfully signed in the end.

In fact, in the form of a unilateral donation from Orbit Stars Entertainment!

Still, if there were no expectations for the song, it might not have been signed, but the value of Kim Rae-bin's name written on the arranger was great.

'Because he's already composed a successful OST song.'

The other company eventually stamped the words that the composer of 'Black hole', which resonated even at the water night performance, participated in the main arrangement.

so now

[Hi Hi Hello, can you hear this voice

? If you can hear it, answer me now]

Spacer's song is being exposed to smartphone users across the country.

Park Moon-dae deliberately logged out of his WeTube account and even checked the frequency of exposure of the advertisement.

'It's worth it.'

It was very satisfying to be sent out like this for almost a week.

'It's not a situation where our company can aggressively increase TV exposure anyway.'

This agency has been pretending to be with T1, and many broadcasts have been cut off.

Last year's Daesang idol, Testa, and popular female idol Mirinae, there were really few programs that Spacer could appear on right away.

'Then expose it to the public on the other side.'

In this way, the company's beverage advertisements were sent in all kinds of versions to WeTube.

In other words, the chorus part that is the most popular and catchy in Spacer's title this time has been floating in users' heads.

-What song is this?

I found this

It is because handing over one's own title as advertisement music at the same time as the release was a problem that could be related to the album image or the value of the name.

But the effect was certain.

As long as the song is good, there is no promotion as sure as increasing exposure.

Moreover, it is an unbiased exposure.

‘Even those who filter male idol songs are a bit different once they stick to the image of a CM song.’

As soon as the spacer members heard the story, they agreed to try it unconditionally.

In particular, this album is said to be the album in which the members participated the most.

So, to put it bluntly, the spacer members were also in this state.

– Spacer Kwon Hee-seung: I wish at least one person could listen to it more ㅠㅠ

So there was nothing rough.

popularity.

Everything is set up according to it unconditionally!

Besides, there is a crucial task here.

-It’s comfortable to look at haha

-The song is good

Neat story without excessive concept worldview and fictional elements.

There was no pressure in the MV, which neatly omits the sporty choreography scene taken on an outdoor basketball court on a sunny day and the story of the boys posting the video on their social media.

It maximizes only the visual beauty and pleasant feeling.

Because the barrier to entry was minimized, fewer people were thrown out of the music video.

That's how Spacer's new song started to go viral.

[Advertisement CM of the year selected by me (subjective, I may be wrong, you are correct)]

[Did you know that this is a spacer song?]

[Honey Shack? If you search for this advertisement song, what comes up]

* * *

And five days later.

Spacer's song quietly climbed the music charts and entered the top 40.

The highest rank if you exclude the debut album right after finishing < Azusa >!

-Spacer Kwon Hee-seung: Ahhhhh

-Spacer Kwon Hee-seung: Shall we go up? No, I'm satisfied even if I can't go higher, but should I still be greedy? what do you think?

-Calm down. Park Moon

-dae laughed at the screaming KakaoTalk sent by Hee-seung Kwon, but in fact, he was thinking about the limits of this strategy.

'If it continues like this, it will be difficult for the sound source to rise further.'

This is because there is one more downside to making it into a CM song.

Fatigue builds up.

If you continue to watch ads that are forced to be exposed, you will also develop antipathy.

‘Besides, from the moment you realize that it’s an idol song, it’s less effective.’

Now, going backwards on the music charts was half luck.

And the other agency knows it too.

‘Wonder Hall.’

Ether’s agency.

Even during the last Cha Yu-jin incident, they were the ones who figured out the news of the runaway in real time and plotted it.

Park Moon-dae also knew that there were people in this company who were talking in that direction.

But I deliberately didn’t catch it now.

‘Let’s use it only once in reverse.’

He painstakingly made a trap.

Spacer’s comeback was deliberately set for two weeks before Ether. to make it look appetizing.

And I didn’t deliberately hide the downside of this promotion. It was deliberately left unattended so that Wonder Hall could obtain related information. Make your weaknesses seem obvious.

“yes.”

[Ether teaser release imminent… A monster rookie’s takeover of the music industry]

So, as a result, Ether doesn't have to adjust the comeback schedule.

'This is what Spacer seems to win.'

The flaws seemed clear, and they calculated that if they made a comeback anyway, they would be able to push themselves to the topic.

'Anyway, male idols prioritize building a fandom rather than popularity.'

Rather, he might have thought that the spacer was suitable for consuming enough attention.

However, there was something that the Ether side overlooked.

"good."

The point is that Park Moon-dae had been thinking about this scenario several months ago.

and that night.

This kind of article came up secretly in the internet community.

____==

[Spacer's music goes well]

But the title concept is the same, am I the only one who thinks of T-Holic lol

_____ _____==

– Huh, I thought I was the only one! Songs for fixed variety shows hahaha
┗That

's right ,

it's a bit refreshing and uncomplicated

. It wasn’t like this, but it meant that the feeling was similar. It wasn’t burdensome, and this was the story that the Spacer music video subtly overlapped with T-Holic’s heyday.

This opinion was not met with great rejection or sarcasm.

It’s because T-Holic has passed the group’s heyday for a while, and Spacer didn’t have a very strong image to check.

It was just a tone to show off the eyes of a maniac.

-But it’s kind of fun. Ether is a concept-oriented testa line, and this spacer is like a T-Holic line lol ㄴㅋㅋㅋ

K-pop is interesting, getting attention from the community in such a small way, and a few die-hard idol fans talk about it. at the time.

Articles started popping up.

[Spacer resembling T-Holic, Eter resembling Testa… Views of different agencies]

[Will Spacer become the second T-Holic]

But this time, it wasn’t Ether.

‘Only you guys know how to unfollow me.’

It was produced by Park Moon-dae Orbit Stars Entertainment.

A knight who interweaves Spacer with T-Holic, Ether, and Testa.

It’s just framing.

Matching composition and narrative!

That’s how Park Moon-dae started to use the group positioning that Eter had at his debut in reverse.

Chapter 501

If you don’t debut, you’ll die from an illness Episode 501

A spacer with a comfortable concept like T-Holic.

Ether with a strong concept like Testa.

Articles about similar-looking junior groups with different agencies were posted and used as firewood in social media and communities.

It was a stimulating article even though the point of refutation was visible.

That’s why there were so many people who wanted to add a word, so aggro was attracted.

[You’re over the reporter line… (Link)]

[What do you think Spacer looks like T-Holic this time?]

[I’m the only one who thinks he’s like a concept-loving in-heart-church Jagangducheon] At first glance, the two juniors seem to be two juniors. All groups may appear to be on the same line, but in fact there are crucial differences.

It is a matter of whether or not there exists a layer with intense antipathy.

For reference, the latter is a spacer.

– You say these guys resemble your old brothers? I’ll see you

– I miss you a little bit

What resembles the spacer's position this time is the concept of T-Holic's early-mid debut.

In other words, it is an old story that has already exceeded 10 years.

In addition, T-Holic had already passed its heyday and changed its positioning, so there was no direct comparison as contemporaries.

Rather, the quality is good enough to evoke strange nostalgia and enjoy the publicity effect.

But what about Ether?

– ㅋㅋㅋ Start again

– ㅅㅅ Isn't it boring

Last year's Daesang Idol Idols in their heyday who reached a career high in album sales just a month or two ago.

It was absurd to inherit a living, breathing, present-day strongman with a topicality that is not even cut in half.

Moondae Park smiled and passed the smartphone.

'Besides, there has already been a story among the fans that Ether is similar to Testa.'

Now, when a normal comparison group called 'Spacer' appears, even the public knows it.

-So, it seems that this rookie idol is conscious of Testa~

Of course, the content of the article did not openly proceed with the tone that Ether benchmarked and copied Testa's concept.

It was just plainly said that each of the two groups was following the line of their senior idol group.

‘It can’t be too explicit.’

It was a natural choice to avoid giving the nuance of ‘the Testa spacer is driving public opinion’.

However, even if you do this, you can not calm down the ridicule and controversy that will happen in the first place.

-Is Spacer’s performance comparable to the all-time legend

? -There’s no

gag .

No ㅠㅠ Please, understand the context.

ㄴAt this point, it seems like you just want to curse and don’t look at the context.

I couldn’t dare to compare sexually with the senior idols who are mentioned either way.

And here the trend of public opinion changes slightly.

People who compare spacers and ethers, who have become similar positions, appear.

‘Still, I’m trying to line up which one is better.’

The psychology of wanting to set a ranking by giving a comparative advantage to which one is the rising that has a more promising future!

VS play.

It was an eternally fun imagination.

And, of course, it was Eter’s win by decision based on the average grade so far.

-Spacer seems to have gotten caught on this one, and since the rookie of Wonder Hall came out with his teeth sharpened, honestly, is it ether?

-At least Ether has potential. Look at the grades of the kids who debuted right now haha

The problem is that as each person’s opinion comes and goes, the story becomes more and more easy to change radically to attract attention to the extreme.

Like this!

-To be honest, isn’t it a bit Eva to bring publicity to Spacer? Haha Isn’t it embarrassing to do this with a CF song

The moment when logic leaps to the next level.

Rather, they become prey.

└? Hahahahaha └What are you saying, honestly, now Ether is Testa’s lower compatible capital and skills

└ A group that imitated the incumbent target idol already said that hahahahahaha

Even though I’m not a fan, it’s funny └Are you living in a different Korea than me

? I couldn’t figure out the real subject, so mockery poured out.

It was different from positioning as Rising, a dark horse as a rival, being referred to as Testa like in the debut.

This isn’t about ‘Have you had a fight with Testa?’

It was ‘Have you inherited Testa?’

If so, the evaluation scale becomes very strict.

Because what you have to do as well as Testa becomes the reference point!

A group of crazy people who sell millions of albums, rank at the top of music charts, and win first place in the Idol of the Year vote!

-This is a failure if it is unplayed by Wonderhole

. -Eter

fans don’t think

so.

He came to claim that ‘Testa and Ether are different’.

There is no choice but to draw the line unconditionally.

Of course, it was like this under the water.

-Retired shacks are really irritating

Moreover, as another controversy broke out and several days passed, this topic seemed to slowly subside.

But next week.

With the release of Eter's new song MV, the firewood ran out of gasoline once again.

-???

-ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ

Now this is because people's eyes have seen blatant reference.

Testa!

* * *

The night I returned to Korea after the 1st tour ended.

I sat down at the dining table in the dorm and connected to Witube.

Ether's new song < Shut out >'s MV is playing through a promotional advertisement.

[Shoot it roughly, yes BAMM,

you can't catch me]

The cool oriental style, the choreography is cool, and the visuals are good.

This time, it was chosen reasonably well.

But that's it.

Hahahah

_

_

_

_

Once the frame of similarity was caught, it was a law to find similarities on purpose.

However, since these guys really benchmarked Testa, it is inevitable to see them.

There are a lot of similarities from the concept camera work album photo costumes and choreography.

As a result, Lekkas were all out.

[Wonder Hall leaves Legend T-Holic behind and imitates idols from other agencies]

[Rookie male idol from a large agency who has all his money covered]

Didn’t you see that when a celebrity starts to criticize once, even star facts that weren’t a problem in the past get a new light and get cursed at?

This was a similar phenomenon.

Even the last album was thoroughly analyzed.

-Looking at it now, the song’s chord progression is at the level of copy-pasting

-A song that wouldn’t have come out without Kim Rae

-bin -Isn’t Byeol’s Byeol’s song a part of it ? gotta catch that

I nodded and opened the can I was holding.

Click.

It was the first beer I drank in a week.

Isn’t it worth drinking because reason is a toast?

Gulp.

The carbonic acid went down my throat. There was no cider.

‘This is it.’

I put down the can of wheat beer and grinned.

For reference, the spacer on this plate also saw a reflective benefit.

[Inherit T-Holic? Spacer: I’ve organized this song in 5 minutes to see what this song is all about.] It became a viral marketing again because it became a controversy because Lecca was attached to it.

That’s why the music rankings went up.

-Spacer Kwon Hee-seung: Hyung…

-Spacer Kwon Hee-seung: We placed 19th

. He even cried after winning first place on a music show.

Actually, I was satisfied here.

‘It’s okay since I took a shot at the Wonder Hall.’

It means that he was thinking of giving up, as he took care of the company’s finances with spacer box office success as it went smoothly as planned.

To be honest, I'm a rookie at Wonder Hall, so I just practiced hard and debuted. After a while, even those who used to curse at each other will become conscious of that.

Like this.

-Aren't people ashamed… Honestly, there's nothing wrong with just practicing diligently, it's not plagiarism, it's too much

'That's not really true. I wonder what these guys who just debuted would have known.'

If it was the line where the agency hit the head and corrected the route to make it less entangled with Testa, that was it.

– Congratulations

. Really.

however… Suddenly, an unexpected support shot came.

"… after."

Check out this YouTube video.

[These friends are our MZ version…? We are the MZ generation too! (Burning emoticon) < T-Holic's Show Business > Clip]

That's right.

T-Holic themselves mentioned Spacer in their variety show… .

And that too in a very positive nuance.

'I thought they were crazy people.'

But I soon remembered a common-sense cause and checked it out.

-Are the T-Holic sunbaenims not going to renew their contracts?

-VTIC Cheong Ryeo senior: Do you want to know?

I mean it's right.

Coincidentally, there were only 3 months left until the renewal of the T-Holic contract.

In a word, it was a little bit of a little bit of a little bit of a little bit of a little bit of a little bit of a little bit of

'It must have been quite like X… .'

Well, seeing as they invested a lot of money in Ether and even created a dedicated planning team to change the route, it seems that there must have been quite a lot of things to explode when T-Holic was on a downward trend.

It's been a while since the T-Holic members' schedules focused on individual activities. Now, each of us will sign a contract with the place we want, and then we will move on to group activities only.

'That's not a bad ending either.'

I nodded.

In fact, these guys even contacted us. [T-Holic Ha Ji-tae: Moondae-ssi, do you want to come out on our variety show one more time?

… ."

To be honest, I don't know if I can just go that far.

'Won't they try to kill you in the Wonder Hall?'

I don’t know what they’re doing if they release dating rumors or club stories for ransom killing or retaliation.

I see there is a place to believe… anyway.

“I decline.”

What kind of plate are you trying to make by appearing in a group of agencies… I mean, there’s still so much to do.

‘This is just the pre-work done.’

Suppressing the ether was just the first step.

Now, even if these guys do something like a simultaneous release with Testa, as long as they don’t beat us in any part, it will end up ‘not living up to expectations’.

Because the ‘vs Testa’ frame disappeared and the ‘Testa Succession’ frame stuck.

Iter will be compared to Spacer, not us, based on ‘how successful they are as senior idols’.

You can no longer use benchmarking that explicitly takes references from us.

‘Take care.’

I’m also curious about how the Wonderhole bastards who are good at work will get through this hell difficulty right away.

‘Even if it’s not right away, an escape route will come out naturally after time.’

I admit it, but since Wonder Hall is such a good agency, I won’t miss it.

And it could be used as a narrative for the group until the moment I was cursed at like this… There is, but

‘It will take a year to do it naturally.’

By that time, you will have risen to a level that is even harder.

Besides, since T-Holic came out like this… … It may take more time for public opinion to rebound.

I shrugged.

Anyway, so what was Testa trying to do after clearing the ether… I’ll have to start with this story.

As everyone knows, there was a nickname Testa was originally called.

-son of T1.

It was meant to be sarcastic, but it was also a simple comparison of facts.

Because I debuted as a survival program on T1, and that affiliated broadcasting received full support.

But now it’s a state of being disowned.

It means that now it is a son, it is Nabal, and there is no soup.

‘Rather, it’s in an ambiguous state, unable to stick to any broadcasting platform.’

LeTi platform? It’s still in its infancy, and it already has a direct son. That’s VTIC.

therefore.

‘It’s time for us to find a new family.’

I checked the message from the agency’s management staff.

-yes. We have a meeting at MBS tomorrow .

‘They were all trying to make connections.’

That was the deal I made with him.

-There is a PD that we would like to introduce to you.

There is nothing to hang on to now.

‘The son of the airwaves.’

Let’s try that.

Chapter 502

If you can’t debut, you’ll get a fatal disease Episode 502

Here’s an old public TV program.

A program that has already passed its peak and continued its life and ended in a shabby manner.

‘But thanks to the heyday, the name is famous.’

In a word, the majority of people know about this program, but they have no intention of watching it anymore.

An entertainment show that sucked up all the buzz and fun and ended.

If this program manages to start its renewal season by getting a patronizing opportunity… Are there any expectations?

Will it be possible to find someone worthy of the name he earned in his heyday a long time ago?

The answer is obvious.

‘It won’t work.’

Celebrities and management companies are not stupid, and successful people will appear on popular programs these days. Because the invitation will come in anyway.

‘Why would I risk choosing something like that?’

It is a dropout at the point where there is a better alternative.

‘and… It’s impossible even considering the nature of the program.’

This is because this variety show is a contest program in which rankings are given.

< Genuine match >.

I don’t know if anyone remembers this name.

This is because Kim Rae-bin, who had read all the documents on the first day of the meeting, raised his hand and shouted.

“It’s the same program that we appeared on when we debuted as Wishz!”

“that’s right.”

In the virtual world created by the system, a joint group of Testa and VTIC, which debuted at LeTi, participated in the program.

“Oh, I remember. The program was famous. But why are you ruined now?”

“Because that was a few years ago.”

“Oh… .”

There, it was a contest program that was successful until season 7 and was on the rise, but as time passed, it faced a slightly different reality here.

As more time passed and season 15 and 16 went on, the topic gradually decreased and the original PD left again and went bankrupt.

I calmly declared the truth.

“And the renewal version coming out this time is probably going to fail… is the norm in the industry.”

“… … .”

‘It can’t be helped.’

It is difficult to recruit famous cast members when rumors have spread that expectations are low.

However, since the name is worth it, if casting a famous cast member fails, it is a rebound and a failure, and it is impossible to dream.

just… It's not getting attention and it's going to hell.

In short, a doomed program destined for failure.

Even Keun Se-jin, who was lifting the documents, clicked his tongue.

"Wow~ You even included the survival rules."

"Hmm, recruiting must be difficult."

In the meantime, in order to be more stimulating in its own way, it is said that it went beyond the contest and adopted a survival format, so it is more difficult to recruit names.

'There is a higher chance of losing money by coming out, so why are people who have already risen come out?'

It is not for nothing that existing survival programs take in amateurs who have not debuted or people who have debuted but are not popular with the public.

If you have more to gain than to lose, shouldn't you risk being eliminated and ridiculed?

'The PD must be hurting too.'

So, in order to overcome this situation, there was only one realistic route.

– Even one star with a very high name value is confirmed to appear.

From there, you can start recruiting.

The moment when it is confirmed that you can raise the board based on that and even if you lose, you can be recognized by the public saying ‘I fought well’ and ‘I can’t help it’.

Depending on the situation each individual is in, there can be enough names to appear.

However, it was not possible to find such a big star cast even at the time when the program was organized… … .

“… But we are going to go out.”

“yes.”

Sejin Bae narrowed his eyes with an expression that he had a lot to say. Liu Qingyu laughed awkwardly.

“The reaction from the production team was good.”

“Of course!”

okay.

As expected, when Testa waved the bait on the program side, he immediately bit.

– I think this is the first time this has happened to other broadcasters… . You are very active.

According to the staff of the agency, it is unheard of for a public TV production team to make such a polite and earnest request for a meeting.

Yes. These guys were desperate for a popular celebrity totem.

What if Testa became that totem?

“As much as that, it seems that if the difficulty of getting a program is resolved thanks to us, he will be good at editing. and… .”

“and?”

“I think I can leave a good impression on MBS through this program.”

“… !”

It will become a contributor to the opening of the renewal version.

< Re-listing! Idol Inc. > I was able to take the same position as I did.

Although it is a public broadcaster that OTT programs are now losing popularity, there are still many corners to be missed, from year-end music festivals to music broadcasting weekend entertainment.

‘And they can’t pamper us as if they owed us for making our debut.’

It is possible to build a cooperative relationship on an equal footing.

Only the horse is the son of the airwaves, and in reality it is about an ally.

Besides, there is one more advantage.

“And PD-nim’s rank is high. I think the effect will be better.”

“Oh oh… That’s right.”

Apparently, a person who has been promoted because of his long stay and good personal connections will have more influence in the company than a newcomer who has just been appointed.

However, the big Sejin stabbed straight to the core.

“But wouldn’t influence be more important than rank? Seeing that you are in charge of this program, I thought you might be the type who works according to your personality rather than success.”

If you look at the damn program, it means that it’s a canned position that has been cut off from company politics.

I chuckled.

“There was a different reason for taking on this program.”

“okay?”

“uh. He said he started his career as a PD at a broadcasting company with Season 3 of this program.”

“ah.”

Perhaps because of that regret, he took on the role of renewal, but it means that the broadcasting station has no expectations for this program to the extent that even with that position, the budget cannot be raised much.

If you look at the programs that PD Lee has been in charge of so far, the fun batting average was considerable.

“Then, if it goes well this time… Oh, I’m very surprised even at the broadcasting station. And that PD is recognized too~”

“Yeah, that’s a good result for everyone… !”

Big Se-jin meant that all of that would create synergy and we would have a lot to eat, but anyway, Sun Ah-hyun seemed a little happy that it would be of great help not only to us but also to the production team.

‘Well, both are correct.’

However, there is one prerequisite for all of this to happen.

“For that to happen, we absolutely have to win.”

An overwhelming victory acknowledged by the vast majority of viewers.

stage.

Without it, all of this is negative.

It means that the moment Testa makes even the slightest mistake, it is a crazy act that eats away at the name value that Testa has accumulated as a first team.

But that's it.

"As long as you win, this is the best."

It was easy to negotiate with other platforms once they broke through the airwaves. Because the hurdles come down.

If it goes well, T1 might be able to come out with affiliate entertainment… .

'If that's the case.'

Now, worries about domestic promotions are over.

"hmm… We must continue to maintain popularity and topicality in Korea, so even if we target overseas, people will listen to our music."

"yes."

"wait for a sec."

Bae Se-jin intervened.

"Isn't that a bit reckless? There's no guarantee that these producers will do just that. Even if we do well, because of other factors… It is this side that can be ruined."

"… … ."

"… I didn't say it because I wanted to ruin the atmosphere. just… … I feel like I should tell you once."

know.

"yes. You are right."

“… !”

“And in fact, even if we don’t come out here, we won’t suddenly go bankrupt.”

In fact, if Testa is satisfied with this position and wants to face a gentle decline, it is okay not to do this.

I rode the Daesang and did a world tour, and for at least two years, Testa’s name value will be vivid.

but.

“But I have to hold onto the platform somehow in order to keep going up even after the year is over.”

Just like the current VTIC.

This was the most important time.

“… … .”

Bae Se-jin nodded with a slightly heavy expression. And the faces of the other guys are also slightly spleen.

“OK I’m totally ready for that! Let’s get out of there quickly!”

Except for that guy.

The other guys nodded their heads, ignoring Cha Yu-jin’s cry as if they had promised.

“A majority vote.”

“good.”

And the voting began.

Rabin Kim brought his laptop and ran an anonymous voting program.

result… .

“Unanimous.”

All votes in favor.

“Hey, there’s no meaning to anonymity, right?”

“I know.”

The members looked back at each other and laughed.

That’s how we decided to take the risk and start a leap that seems reckless at first glance.

And soon after this news, the embargo was lifted according to MBS’ active initiative.

[‘Legend Returns’ < True Match > National Idol Testa Participates]

Then, the fans’ reactions exploded.

* * *

At first, nobody believed it.

-???

– Why is Testa here

? – Why?; The probability of appearing in a survival program that is not stupid, as if it will never happen, and all of the top 1 idols suddenly fail and are renewed.

I had to assume it wasn’t. If you don’t care, you’ll only end up losing a lot, so why take that risk instead of going on tour at that time?

However, the article surfaced again and the truth was confirmed by reporters who even called Testa's company.

[Confirmation of Testa MBS < Jinsung Match > appearance… "I will show you an intense stage"]

Fan reaction at that moment… First of all, I'll give an example under the water where ruthless personal fans are lined up.

-Are you kidding

me

again

?

… After the stage featuring Cheongryeo, it seemed like it caused people stomachaches again.

'I'll pay you back by winning.'

In this state, if Testa gains splendidly with that program, the taste of mulberry will rather kill it. Because you wouldn't have expected it.

And losing on stage as a member of this group?

'I rather have no self-confidence.'

No matter how high expectations people have, I don't think I'll be pushed back if it's just to decorate the stage.

In fact, even now, if we only do information warfare, our weakness is… .

[Survey available!]

[Tip: You can customize the function of the with feedback through the survey.]

Yes, no.

Do you see that information is so urgent right now? I don't know how many times this is.

'The jingling bastard.'

You're not giving up.

It doesn't matter.

I laughed heartily at the pop-up.

'Spacer's comeback was also successful, and a drama starring Bae Se-jin will be released soon.'

Now, what if we perform well in this program and make a comeback?

It means that the rise in the company's rating is nothing short of planned.

And in the case of Kwon Hee-seung last time, if you raise the company grade, it is possible to absorb that bastard's '■■■ Fragment' additionally.

'Then it means that I can absorb what Cheongrye has.'

The internal algorithm of this 'company system' is also being looked at diligently.

If it was good, it could have been finished before Chung-ryeo went to serve in the military.

therefore.

'I don't need you.'

Without regret, I removed the pop-up without even gesticulating. And it was the moment I was about to focus on the stage design again.

"… ?"

Suddenly, a translucent blue covered his vision.

Like wearing sunglasses.

‘what?’

I didn’t know what it was for a moment, but the moment I focused my eyes on the blue color, I knew what it was.

that… .

It was a huge pop-up.

floated in front of my nose.

[Owner’s dissatisfaction detected!]

“… !”

like a protest.

and… .

Chapter 503

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 503

System automatic update?

The moment I saw the crazy sounding pop-up, my head was spinning furiously.

Considering the incident that happened during the last update, what we need to prioritize right now is… .

'stop!'

[An error may occur when automatic update is forced to stop.]

Fuck.

If this happened, I couldn't stop it because I didn't know what kind of shit would happen.

Once I checked the situation, I had to move.

'and… During the last update, Steer Cha Yu-jin woke up.'

then.

I immediately got up from my seat and started looking around the room.

"Are you dumb?"

"Why are you running around at Moondaemundae? uh?"

“Are you exercising?”

And found.

One guy fell down with his head on while working on his laptop.

One guy lost his mind while reading an E-book in bed.

and… One guy was reading a program introduction in front of his desk, leaning his head against the bookshelf and closing his eyes.

“… … .”

Kim Rae-bin, Bae Se-jin, and Ryu Cheong-woo.

three people.

I almost bit my tongue.

Let’s think common sense.

‘Can three people suddenly fall asleep at the same time?’

And only those who stated that ‘I felt dizzy for a moment’ during the last system update?

And I wasn’t alone in having similar thoughts.

As soon as I was briefed on the situation, the awake guys’ complexions changed.

“Wait, can this be… .”

“Seriously? Are you here again?”

I shook my head again over the guys who started an urgent discussion about ‘should we go to the ER’.

What is the cause of this appearance?

And I chewed the cud on the contents of the pop-up that appeared earlier.

‘Sensing owner dissatisfaction… Re-update?’

At that moment, an idea hit my head and passed by.

no way.

… Did I do this because I judged that I was in a ‘dissatisfied state’ because I kept ignoring his survey without touching the system?

‘Damn it.’

In a word, doesn’t it sound like he is going to keep adjusting the system until I use him?

‘Do you know what customer satisfaction CS is?’

It was even creepy.

Because of the lifeline of the VTIC leader who has to face a mission failure without a status window, the company system is still alive, but there are too many variables.

‘… It’s like having an ego.’

It reminded me of the human form of the system that was able to talk before being smashed. A little chill down the spine.

But even this is not unprepared for this situation.

‘Of course there have been times when I assumed that an update situation would happen again.’

with those who have experienced it.

“… … .”

I met Cha Yoo-jin’s eyes. The boy nodded slightly.

‘There is a guy who already has memories of the time of Steer.’

Even if those three roll back to that time at once… If you only air one damn air survival program, you will be able to endure it more stably than before.

‘No, rather, this might be better than being alone for those guys.’

This is because if many people have these symptoms, there is a problem that can be prevented.

A sense of isolation.

A situation where I suddenly find myself in an unfamiliar environment and question whether I am sane.

It was the same with Cha Yu-jin, but that’s how it makes people hard.

‘But the side effects… .’

“… At this rate, almost half of our members might forget what they were doing?”

“… … .”

I gritted my teeth and pulled them off.

I can’t even dream of group activities until it’s restored.

“sorry.”

“… !”

Big Sejin changed his face in an instant and smiled faintly and tapped his shoulder.

“Mundae, why are you creating responsibilities that you don’t have? I’m just sorting out the situation~”

No, it’s my responsibility.

However, if I told the guy who was trying to lighten the mood that it was my responsibility, it would only make the atmosphere X, so I decided not to do that just to be cool.

So instead, we came up with a countermeasure.

“I am against the hospital. [Losing your memory and waking up in a hospital bed? It’s too typical. They’ll misunderstand that you’re kidding.]”

“But… In case you don’t know, I think you need to contact me.”

“yes. Oh, and preparing to explain well when the members wake up is the top priority. yes?”

The conclusion came out like this.

Wait at the inn first.

However, to enable a quick explanation, we decided to organize the story while collecting evidence from the accommodation through the WeTube portal site.

“So that if there is a problem, you can go to the emergency room right away… I contacted the manager!”

“okay.”

Finally, if these guys don’t wake up within 30 minutes, we try to wake them up, and if they still don’t wake up, we end up with a dramatic agreement to go to the hospital.

Then we camped out and sat down, watching each room one by one.

Tension filled the dorm as if breaking out in a cold sweat.

How many minutes had passed?

A signal has come.

“… ! W Here… !”

“… !!”

It was Seon Ah-hyun who shouted.

We immediately ran to where he was standing guard.

The place where Seon Ah-hyun was… .

‘Bae Se-jin.’

It was the boy’s solitary confinement.

Seon Ah-hyun, who had already entered the room and was standing next to the bed, turned her head and shouted.

“I think you will wake up… !”

Certainly Bae Se-jin was wriggling his facial muscles.

‘after.’

tense moment.

“Um… .”

“… … .”

Bae Se-jin raised his body while pressing his eyes with a frown.

And I put my spirits on my head even tighter.

Steer Bae Se-jin?

That guy is a person who was framed for drugs in the beginning of his debut and was expelled from the group, and probably went to prison.

‘It’s an idol, it’s a nabal, and there’s a high possibility that it’s very tired of the entertainment industry.’

If it’s severe, the probability of distrust of humans is quite high.

After all, the uncooperative appearance during < Azusa > must have gotten worse rather than improved.

So let’s approach it more carefully… It was around the time I thought about it.

Bae Se-jin opened his mouth blankly.

for a moment … blindly?

“… What are you doing?”

“… ??”

“… ?!”

you’re fine

Bae Se-jin, on the contrary, looked frightened when he saw the distant people looking down at him while he was sleeping in his room.

“Oh!! Are you crazy?!”

“Of course you are insane! No, he told me that he fell asleep while reading a book… .”

Then, while looking around, I was taken aback when I checked the condition of the guys who had packed up their photo albums.

“What else is that?”

“… That’s it.”

i get it.

I guess… I guess it's not this guy.

After a quick summary of the situation.

Soon, Bae Se-jin also joined this trend.

The guy who came out into the hallway looked at Raebin Kim's room and Chungwoo Ryu's room with a distraught expression and murmured.

"… … So you're saying that you could end up like Cha Yu-jin last time?"

"Your brother is harsh."

"What do you mean?"

Bae Se-jin, whose attack power increased after hearing the drip "Are you insane?" growled at Cha Yu-jin. It was a very peaceful picture for thinking about the damn thing.

However, I took this opportunity to remind myself of what I had to do.

I know that Sejin Bae's memories of the time of Steer did not come back, but… I don't know what the other two guys are like.

So that's it.

'Should I tell you?'

That in your previous life you suffered quite a bit.

'Maybe I'll be able to prepare my mind if I get hit in advance.'

In the end, I called Bae Se-jin, who was making a distraught expression while holding the e-book reader.

"Brother wait… ."

"uh?"

It was then.

“Huh!”

A sound erupted from the outer room.

It was Kim Rae-bin’s room.

“Rabin!”

This guy and that guy all hurriedly ran down the hallway and ran into the room.

And this time, the situation we face is… .

“Anyway, it seems like an energy drink side effect! I tasted company P’s newly released product this month… .”

“wait for a sec.”

hey.

“Rabin. How are you now?”

Kim Rae-bin, who blinked, answered in a cool way.

“… ? I feel refreshed thanks to a nap… ?”

“… … .”

It’s fine by itself.

The members fell for two consecutive hits safely.

“after.”

“Ah, isn’t this just a coincidence that everyone fell asleep?”

“… Everyone has been overdoing it these days.”

“Yeah, everyone had a late meeting yesterday about appearing on that program… .”

“The correct answer was not to go to the hospital. I am smart.”

Now everyone is wondering if it’s just a coincidence.

‘… indeed.’

I asked the bewildered Raebin Kim once again.

“Don’t you suddenly come up with memories that weren’t there?”

“There is nothing in particular… Oh, do you have any memories that I must remember?”

“no.”

Rather, it went well.

I stroked the boy’s head and left the room. It seemed that the other guys were sticking to Kim Rae-bin and explaining the situation.

‘Then all that’s left is Ryu Cheng-wu.’

This may not be a big deal, but let’s not relax.

Even if the ego doesn’t go back at the time of steer, something weird can happen.

“Now let’s wait in front of this.”

“Mmm.”

So, all the members waited in Ryu Cheng-wu’s room.

but… .

“… … .”

With 7 adults crammed into the room, it is quite uncomfortable.

‘hmm.’

Is it a bit like standing still like this? The previous two times were fine, so now it’s time to try a little bolder.

As a test, I got up and called for Ryu Cheng-wu, who was leaning against the bookshelf.

I was wondering if I could wake up with this if I was really asleep.

“brother.”

“… … .”

There was no response.

‘As expected, wasn’t it?’

I changed the way I called, letting go of expectations.

By exactly referring to this guy.

“Cheongwoo Ryu.”

That was the moment.

“… !”

Liu Qingyu opened his eyes.

“Mom!”

“Did he wake up like this?”

“It’s like a cult movie now.”

I held back a sigh of relief in the midst of the guys who each added a word.

If you wake up when your name is called, it's obvious.

'Did this guy just fall asleep?'

Well, considering that he was leaning against the bookshelf instead of collapsing, that might be the case. If I had known it would be like this, I would have just woken up sooner rather than waited.

'I must explain that I made a fuss… .'

"… Who are you?"

"… … ."

"… … ."

for a moment.

I checked Ryu Cheng-wu's face.

Instead of mildness, the boy's face showed a faint look of doubt overlaid with alertness.

And that color became stronger the moment he looked behind me.

"Cha Yoo-jin? And Rabin Kim… … ."

"… … ."

This guy didn't know Park Moondae.

But the fact that only those two guys dared to recognize me and call me… Right.

I opened my mouth not dripping.

"Is the name of the group you belong to Steer?"

“yes? yes it was But now the situation is… .”

“… … .”

It’s X… .

* * *

Liu Cheng-wu went back to his steer days.

“thank you.”

I handed him an unopened bottle of mineral water in case he was on guard, but he didn’t drink it and smiled while holding it.

At least, the expression on his face showed the same mildness as usual.

“But first, I’d like to hear an explanation of the situation.”

“… yes.”

I’m guessing this is some kind of crap.

I quickly recalled the conversation I had with Cha Yujin.

Although he forgot a lot of details from his memories of his steer days, he didn’t forget at all.

So, I could hear the impression Cha Yu-jin remembered about Ryu Cheong-wu at the time.

-At that time, Chungwoo-hyung was a bit scared. We all be careful.

– In what sense?

-[So I mean um… Typical burnout and particularly twisted toughness?]

‘What are you talking about.’

Cha Yu-jin himself did not give a very good example.

But I understood well that I had to treat it delicately like a bomb.

‘Perhaps even more than Cha Yoo-jin.’

Don’t you remember the last time Steer Cha Yoo-jin ruined your relationship to the point of running away from home?

As a teacher on the other hand, we started explaining to Liu Cheng-wu in a very serious and almost spleen attitude.

“… So now we are a group called Testa.”

“hmm.”

Evidence explanations with visual aids and Internet access, and witnesses appeared one after another. I am confident that there is no shortage of data.

However, after hearing all the explanations, Steer Ryu Cheng-wu was silent for a while. I just checked the provided material a few more times.

“… … .”

‘Was it wrong this time too?’

It would be hard to believe right away.

Apparently, he wasn’t interested in such an unrealistic thing… .

“okay.”

“… … .”

hmm?

Suddenly, a clear affirmation came out.

Even Cha Yu-jin asked in confusion.

“Brother, do you trust us?”

“hmm… It’s hard to believe, but it’s also hard not to believe. You can’t manipulate the portal site.”

Ryu Chung-woo touched the back of his head and smiled bitterly at the screen of the portal site that several members had accessed several times with their smartphones.

Then he turned his gaze to the albums I held out and looked back at me with an expression that I couldn’t tell if he was smiling or frowning.

“You can’t manipulate all of this.”

“… … .”

“So, you have a schedule right now, right? I hope you can share that as soon as possible.”

hmm?

“yes?”

To Kim Rae-bin’s question, Ryu Cheong-woo answered casually.

“Hmm, rather than suddenly taking a break from group activities, I thought it would be better for me to digest it to some extent.”

“… !”

Ryu Chung-woo looked back at the unfamiliar members and smiled a bit shy.

“First of all, I am confident in my skills and persistence.”

wait for a sec.

‘What became X… Wasn’t it?’

And the situation began to take an unexpected turn.

Chapter 504

If you don’t debut, you’ll die from an illness Episode 504

Right after Steer Ryu Cheng-wu wakes up.

Stage practice… … It went more smoothly.

So let’s start with this song. Would it be okay?

We are grateful… .

Ryu Chung-woo quickly learned the latest and hit songs of Testa, which the members selected after much thought and effort.

It was to the point that Sejin was embarrassed by actively learning the songs and choreography rather than teaching them.

oh brother It’s no problem for us to take a break and slow down the tempo~ Anyway, since we’re in Korea right now, the tour is also taking a break!

okay.

However, Liu Cheng-wu stuck to his attitude.

He wasn’t particularly unnecessarily wary or proud. I practiced with a sense of speed while being honest while asking hard questions about what I needed.

‘hmm.’

It didn’t even stop there.

He even started monitoring the original testa Ryu Chung-woo's stage footage and various testa videos.

More details if you need… I can tell you… !

ah. it's okay.

Despite the restless Seon Ah-hyun's suggestion, he continued to monitor plainly.

The reason was simple.

It's the first song in my memory, so I have to make up for the lack of stage experience like this.

If necessary, feel free to ask questions.

oh no… ! Please feel free to tell me at any time… !

And Steer Ryu Cheong-woo started to embody the feeling that Ryu Cheong-woo originally did in the latest song of Gearco very similarly… .

… is it almost the same

okay.

It took only three days to get here. It was like watching an extreme rehabilitation exercise.

So I can't help but say this.

that evening.

[Just roll the dice-]

I checked over the door to find Ryu Chung-wu, who was watching the stage again on a large monitor in his room.

Then he turned his head and asked Yoojin Cha, who was robbing the kitchen.

Do you have any idea why you're doing that?

Isn't it nice to be cooperative?

Of course it's good to work. I thought it would be X, but you might be relieved of what kind of rice cake this is.

But whether this is normal is another question.

'I woke up and the world has changed, but I accept it so quickly?'

When I woke up with Park Moon-dae's body, I rolled down from the bed. I accepted the reality because I thought I would look for it if I lost my senses until the status window popped up.

But how can people be so calm just because people around them talk a little?

Even the members who were originally steer members and Bae Se-jin, who must have been former members, are treated well without much agitation.

can a human do that?

'No matter how gold medalist in archery it is.'

Isn't this a bit odd? If I had been in this situation, I might have held someone hostage in order to uncover the plain truth.

'It's to the point where I feel that Cha Yu-jin, who ran away from home, is a general reaction.'

That's why I asked the person who had experienced it.

And this answer came back.

Umm… yeah. Weird. But I'm not sure.

Even Cha Yu-jin herself remembers big events and feelings rather than details at the time of Steer, so it was impossible to analyze in detail, such as the principle of action.

However, he shrugged his shoulders and said with a rather serious face.

[What's certain is that I don't feel like that mysterious older brother is 'pretending' to cooperate with this team.]

Hmm.

'that… I agree with you, though.'

If you only pretend to cooperate while thinking about going to the back of the head, you will be able to see through the implicitly while practicing to exhaust your stamina.

Originally, isn't a person's leisure come from physical strength?

'If the priority is different, it will be read.'

However, that steer Ryu Cheong-wu was consistent. He was really 'sincerely' preparing his stage part.

I don't doubt that either.

'then.'

Maybe I can ask myself.

Steer was not in a state where he couldn't talk as much as Cha Yu-jin. Besides, it seemed like I was observing my surroundings, so the other person would also be able to sense that I had no ill intentions.

give me one

Boo.

So I took the popcorn Cha Yoo-jin bought and fried it, then headed to his room together.

Coincidentally, my roommate is my target, so it’s convenient.

brother.

ah.

Steer Ryu Cheong-wu took his eyes off the monitor, turned his head, and smiled softly as if he had a habit.

Do you have any deliverables?

no. It’s not like that.

I sat down next to him and handed out the popcorn. He seemed a bit surprised, but took the popcorn without saying anything.

And I also threw popcorn into my mouth and chose my words.

Don’t go too serious.

I wonder if we put too much pressure on it. Even if you take a break from group activities, there won’t be any sudden problems, so it’s okay to stay comfortable until you get used to it.

If you are in a hurry, you can hang on to it.

hmm.

Liu Cheng-wu smiled as if cheating. yeah that was meant to be funny

‘I’m serious.’

open your mouth

Fortunately, the guy kneaded the back of his neck as if loosening it, and soon opened his mouth with a faint smile.

Yes, it's not a burden. It seemed like a group that was doing well, so I thought that each and every member had to do well.

First of all, I am a member.

I felt something like a strange sentiment in that tone.

'… Are you overlapping with your group?'

The steer that this guy originally belonged to was disintegrated in the air.

However, as of now, Testa has even renewed his contract and is doing well.

In the case of Cha Yoo-jin, I felt a sense of distance from this difference, but even in this situation, this guy is kind of… I feel a sense of responsibility.

About the status quo.

'hmm.'

Well, it's all speculation, but I know for sure that I'm not doing it with malice to this team anyway.

I nodded inwardly.

'But there may be other ulterior motives.'

Besides, I still don't know what this guy is thinking, so I'm going to lead the conversation in the direction of relieving tension from now on.

thank you And let go You are older.

hmm… haha is that so?

Steer Ryu Cheong-wu seemed to be briefly thinking about it, but he soon calmed down. This part hasn't changed.

'yes.'

The moment I tried to check this guy's remaining vigilance while slowly bringing up other stories as well… .

Moondae hyung is actually older.

I almost threw the popcorn.

'When did you come?'

When I turned around, Cha Yoo-jin was staring at my popcorn with a blank face.

'Fry it yourself and eat it.'

Why does a guy with boxes full of things have regrets about what he already took away?

However, once I gave it out, I can't help but say something when I see it being eaten up with pleasure.

And while I turned my gaze to Cha Yoo-jin for a moment, I heard Ryu Cheong-wu ask in a questionable voice.

Are you old?

Moondae hyung was originally an adult.

you are also an adult

You know what I mean! Moondae Hyung Mental? He is older than Chungwoo hyung. yep!

OK.

Liu Cheng-wu was not astonished, as he had also recounted a summary of my tumultuous supernatural experiences.

But that doesn't mean that he laughed hahahoho and agreed. That's downright embarrassing.

'No, Yujin Cha, why did he bring up this story… I know what.'

I'd rather think of it as an opportunity and talk about it.

Strictly speaking, you're right.

A chance to kill the vigilance naturally. I rubbed the back of my neck and opened my mouth.

What are you talking about, but… Originally, I think it's more important that I'm a relative of my older brother.

huh?

Originally, isn't the world a school-related, delayed blood-related relationship?

Let's go to the kinship meta.

Well, my old name was Gunwoo Ryu. As you may have heard, it is a movement like the Pungsan Ryu clan.

Steer Ryu Cheong-wu made a dazed expression as if he had been hit in the head.

It's all because we went on family trips together a few times when we were young. You probably don't remember. Didn't remember before, family trip… There was only a video.

No answer. was it a joke?

‘If I think it’s a lie, I’ll stop eating it.’

That was the moment.

Liu Qingyu slowly opened his mouth.

If you’re older than me… Do you wear glasses and read a lot?

no way.

remember?

Steer Ryu Cheng-wu furrowed his eyebrows slightly.

hmm… Actually, I don’t know how he came to be, and I don’t even know his name. When I tried to think of it, I only vaguely remembered that there was a relative like that.

The boy’s face brightened slightly.

Judging by the reaction, my description seems correct.

Oh!

Cha Yoo-jin admired instead, and I… I’m a little lost.

Because I wasn’t expecting this.

‘You remember me?’

Come to think of it, Testa Ryu Cheong-woo had never heard of such a specific situation and tried to remember who ‘Ryu Gun-woo’ was in his head.

Before that, it was because I started playing the family trip video.

Anyway, let’s calm down and answer.

yes. I guess that’s right.

You are right.

Oh!

You can stop admiring it.

Anyway, a faint smile appeared on Liu Qingyu’s face.

amazing. I didn’t expect to meet my relatives like this.

me too.

haha.

And I realized anew that steer Ryu Chung-woo had been quite nervous up until now.

‘Your attitude has changed.’

The gentleness is the same, but the gestures seemed more comfortable.

I guess I was also setting boundaries.

‘I can’t do it.’

Now this guy looks a bit more human.

And in this situation where strangers or people I knew became unfamiliar, just meeting a relative seemed to relax a little.

Because it is a simple and uncomplicated relationship.

Then, should I raise my words from now on? How did you originally do it?

I just mixed and matched it the way I was comfortable with it.

Ahaha! ok i will do that

That’s how I think the kinship meta was successfully eaten.

Let’s start from here.

yes!

After that, Ryu Chung-woo treated the members in a more relaxed state and seemed to have stopped talking to all the members shortly after.

and.

I don’t think there’s any need to postpone the schedule for this program either. I can do enough.

According to his firm intention, participation in the survival program was not delayed and proceeded as scheduled.

That’s how the first stage shooting began.

Fortunately, it is not a survival show from the first stage.

Pre-disclosure for promotion of the program.

It is a self-introduction stage.

* * *

Renewal of < Jinseong Match >.

< Jinseong Match Final > has created quite a good topic on the Internet for a name that is childishly trumpeted.

It was because of the lineup.

[Reborn < Jingeom Match >‘s splendid cast… from idols to legendary vocalists.] There were so many named appearances that it's hard to believe that it was a renewal version of a program that had already declined.

The production team's public relations power exploded after catching Testa and earnestly selling their name.

– The lineup of singers is good, just like a popular TV show, I'm looking forward to talented people

. A live shooter is required!

-Mudy Goddess of Honey Vocals~ I want to see the stage soon^^♡

-It's surprising that MBS risked life and death!

Even though the reaction of the comment part-time job poured in at the beginning of the article and the promotional video, it was to the extent that I was pushed back by the really surprised comment reactions without much ridicule about him.

Of course, there was one name in this lineup that got the most attention.

'Testa!'

-I wonder if Testa was appearing? This is Jin.

It is only when groups that are large enough to receive the Grand Prize appear in survival shows that their heyday has passed a long time.

Even that was to the extent that he barely appeared after much thought.

For a group that has already risen to the top, no matter how promising the program is, it is no different from a poisoned holy grail as long as there is a higher chance of devaluing their name.

This is because it is easy to become a victim for the new name value of a topical firewood or 'a newcomer who defeated that famous group'.

The same goes for program producers.

It is less surprising and less fun when an already famous group wins.

Besides, Testa is a group that debuted from a survival show on another broadcasting station!

If there is a cast member who chooses a stage comparable to Testa rather than Testa, I will give preferential treatment to that person!

-If Testa wins here, Tnet > The airwaves official will come out, but I don't think they'll ever win lol

-It's so sad to see Testa fans preparing for ruin in case they already go bankrupt. On the Internet, expectations were rising.

Even if half of it is the expectation that you might see Testa go bankrupt.

But after a few days.

The moment when the opening stage of < Jinseong Match > was released on WeTube.

[Dream as blue as daytime]

People felt a sense of awakening.

-Ahhhh

-It's on stage, but it's okay

-I'm going to chew on it again ㅇㅋㅇㅋ I'm confident.

Each cast member touches the baton while performing for one minute.

There, Testa's self-introduction stage, which exquisitely remixed the debut song and the latest song that appeared right before the end, was as intense as it was short.

[Yeah!]

As if the time given was only 1 minute, the introduction was cut out and only the main body was summarized and edited, leaving only the core of the stage!

As if watching a movie with a synopsis summary video makes any movie interesting, the fast-paced development and the stage with only wow points were perfect for modern people's taste.

-This is it

-It's like a big survival group

-Testa is really looking forward to it; Crazy, of course, there were not only good things.

Originally, Testa was a group with extremely good recognition and popularity, at the level of 'making money at best' in this program.

In addition, the opening stage was impressively presented, so expectations were raised even higher.

Twin Homma, who shoots Park Moon-dae and Lee Se-jin, also calmly gave this evaluation.

'It would have been better for me to be moderately ambiguous.'

However, the die had already been cast and Testa had to start the first survival contest under these conditions.

And it wasn't without a runway.

'If I do well enough to meet the sky-high expectations by the time of the next contest… .'

An image that no one can refute is completed.

The most important first impression in survival.

Testa can start with a good sense of prejudice.

And Testa himself knew that too.

* * *

Right after the opening stage.

Whoa.

Thank you for your hard work.

Backstage at the filming set of < Jinseong Match >, I felt it.

‘Good job.’

This was clear even without seeing the reaction.

Actually, I wasn’t even worried. Speaking of variables, it’s about Steer Ryu Chung-woo, but after a few days of practice and just looking at the rehearsal stage, my angle came out.

‘He’s a guy who never makes mistakes.’

And he really did a stage where the sum was perfect. To the point of being mistaken for a moment that he was originally Ryu Cheng-wu.

but… .

‘I think I’m out of my mind.’

The problem is that right after he got off the stage, he was in a weird state.

Steer Ryu Cheng-wu stood there silently, gasping for breath.

As if he was shocked enough to even stare at the staff.

‘It’s been too long.’

It must have been the first stage since the disbandment of Steer. It seems that Yujin Cha had similar symptoms.

Are you okay?

I approached him and held out the water I was holding.

Liu Cheng-wu took it blankly, then raised his head as if he had come to his senses.

And I opened a bottle of cool water and drank it.

Gulp.

after.

After almost emptying one water bottle like that.

thank you.… It’s been a while.

Ryu Chung-woo smiled brightly and focused on monitoring himself behind the monitoring members.

‘It looks fine.’

I chuckled.

Everything seemed to be going well.

Until then.

Chapter 505

On the day of the first group recording of Episode 505 < Jungkun Match >.

There were no rookies, and greetings were exchanged among the cast members full of names and established names.

Testa was no exception.

It’s been such a long time, guys!

Senior Mudy!

First of all, Mudy.

When we went to the waiting room for this singer who was a vocal trainer and judge in < Azusa >, he greeted us very warmly.

Wow, how many years ago was that? Everyone is doing so well now I need to get your autographs Really!

Ay~ What are you talking about! We’re here to get an album signed by our seniors~ We earnestly ask for your autograph, senior!

Ahaha! what really!

Lee Se-jin That guy really picks out what people want to hear and says it.

-First of all, I’ll catch up on the story as much as possible, so let’s all go calmly~

By the way, that guy is holding a talk show almost every day to fill the vacancy of leader Ryu Cheong-woo, whose memory of testa has completely disappeared.

Thanks to that, the atmosphere became more friendly.

Ahyeon is still a sika deer~ Mundae is now okay to stop sending red ginseng on holidays! I got it every time and I even talked about it on the radio!

ha ha ha!

Mudy happily joked around with each member, and finally turned his attention to Testa's leader.

To be precise, to the person who considers himself a leader.

It's been a while since Cheongwoo. Are you struggling as a leader?

Haha, it's me. The members are so good to me, so I'm doing well.

However, it was the same with Steer Chung-woo, who met vocal trainer Mudi while participating in < Azusa >, so there was no problem with the response.

I checked that he was smiling and chatting with Mudi.

'It's okay.'

In any case, it would not be a coincidence that Mudi was invited.

'In the beginning, there must have been a lot of recruiting requests from names who had something to do with Testa.'

Friendship that everyone knows is important for the calculation that the other person can 'benefit from editing'.

'As soon as Testa signed the contract, he must have emphasized that in the first place and turned the casting around.'

After that, when the cast line is completed about three or four times, from there, the horizon of contact with the public relations is further expanded.

Maybe that's why the cast members we're related to didn't end with Mudi.

Mr. Moondae! Oh my gosh!

As soon as I went to the next waiting room, waving my hand enthusiastically… They are soft and sweet members.

Yes.

A female idol group that left the legendary Byeongmat concept song 'POP☆CON' under the same label as VTIC.

Malrang Sweet is also a cast member here.

Even one member who has already succeeded as an actor was included.

Hello, senior Sohyeon.

No, we meet again like this!

It was a very unique case where the original members completely reunited and appeared in survival.

But it's never a stupid choice.

'That's clever.'

It's a group past its prime anyway, so there's nothing to lose if you don't get good grades here, where there are many names in the cast.

And even one person who is popular now has succeeded as an actor, so there will be no adverse effect on the image because the field is different.

All you have to do is avoid the personality controversy, but that's not an idol who only broadcasts for a day or two. Aren't they the ones who survived the Byeongmat concept?

That was when I was nodding my head.

In fact, you know that some of us came out just because Mr. Moondae came out, right? I wish you well!

Ahaha look at Moondae's expression!

What are you talking about?

At that time, Sohyeon patted the shoulder of the soft and sweet member who smiled heartily and said heartily.

Moondae is our fan! If there is at least one person who will take a serious look at it, it gives me courage.

hmm.

It's been a few years since I sang popcorn in < Azusa > to explain that I'm not a fan now. In the end, I shamelessly nodded.

Let's talk about it in an interview.

It is an honour.

Hey, we're honored!

And again, it was a moment when a friendly closing conversation continued.

The question jumped playfully.

How do you see yourself as a leader? Moondae, is it true that you are still our fan?

'… !'

to Liu Cheng-wu.

Perhaps it seemed that the nature of the question naturally went back to the leader… .

‘no.’

This steer Ryu Cheong-woo has no way of knowing whether I sang popcorn or poppin in Azusa.

Naturally, you wouldn’t even know there was a meme about me being a fan of these people.

I clenched my fist.

‘Cover goes.’

Keun Se-jin, who was acting as an acting leader today, was about to intervene after slightly blinking.

sure.

Steer Ryu Chung-woo gave a clear answer before him.

Moondae also plays seniors’ songs on our live broadcasts.

… !!

omg! Really? Amazing, Great… .

Thank you Mr. Mundae!

And the conversation flowed naturally.

Steer Ryu Chung-woo finished his greetings by mentioning Testa’s activities in the past without any problems.

Lee Se-jin looked at the atmosphere and laughed without interfering further.

I and the other guys jumped on the flow and ended the conversation well, but my head was confused.

no way.

See you later~

Yep seniors!

widely.

Leaving the soft and sweet waiting room, I looked back at Ryu Cheng-wu.

just that… .

how did you answer

He scratched his face as if he was a bit embarrassed and smiled.

Well, as I watched the stage, videos appeared on the algorithm… Fans have organized Testa's activities well.

Did you see it all… thank you. You're amazing, really… !

haha it's not like that… thank you.

no.

It doesn't end with 'great'.

'It didn't end with the stage video, did you see all of Testa's activities?'

From the tone of voice, it sounds like you saw it on an algorithm, but looking at the answers you gave earlier, it was almost at the level of memorizing the entire fan wiki.

Moreover, Ryu Chung-woo was not the type to search for things like that.

Steer Ryu Chung-woo does not seem to be particularly different. Obviously, it was deliberately identified.

‘When is it?’

Is this guy sleeping?

It’s shocking that I didn’t ask for it in the first place, but I voluntarily studied all of it.

In the meantime, a carefree question came back.

Could it be that I’ve made a mistake earlier?

no. It was tidy.

haha thank you

No, I’m not asking questions right now, I want to ask. What kind of mentality is it that I fell into an unfamiliar world without a status window, but the output came out like this?

‘I’m not even the main character of the novel.’

However, Steer Ryu Cheng-wu just calmly continued his words.

Please tell me if I’m misunderstanding anything though. Maybe it’s because I talk softly to the fans rather than what actually happened.

… yes.

OK. Now I don’t even know X-foot.

‘Did he say that he was afraid of Cha Yu-jin because of this mentality?’

It was quite convincing.

* * *

The shooting that followed went smoothly.

The announcer from MBS came out and grandly introduced each member of the cast, and we got to the main point within an hour.

‘It’s almost the last order, so it’s okay since we were honey.’

However, the MC’s voice has already cracked a bit. Too bad.

I will announce the theme of the first contest.

The theme finally appeared on the display board in a huge font.

[Song changeover]

A theme in which the performers rotate and sing each other’s songs.

Traditional, brutal and interesting. It’s okay.

And since it is a contest, unlike the opening stage, the audience will rank the performances of the cast members.

One obvious word as a basis.

And equally obvious, but provocative words are next.

And unfortunately, the lowest ranked person will be eliminated.

Even though everyone knows, he makes a surprised expression once in a while and is very good at broadcasting.

In the midst of the tension created on purpose, the cast members chose the song of the opponent to cover by drawing a ball… .

haha thank you

Testa pulled Mudy’s ball.

‘good.’

A participant with no overlapping elements. If this is the case, the reference point for comparison is ambiguous and it is easy to choose a stage with a different taste.

‘Since we know each other, the editing angle would be good.’

Still, in the interview, I guess I’ll have to pay lip service for wanting a soft and sweet song.

huh?

Just in time, soft and sweet pulled out a testa ball and was screaming.

‘Congratulations.’

clap clap clap

I finished the first shoot with polite reactions, thinking of words that would not get as strange as possible in the interview.

And the practice of immediately rushing in as soon as you return to work.

Umm I think it would be nice to add a completely different accompaniment to the arrangement… !

That’s why it must be attractive to change the atmosphere~ Then leave only the melody?

As much as the addictive melodic top note is an advantage, that element is taken away! You are a great judge.

Then the concept… Yes, I already knew that Moondaemundae would have something to say~ Hurry up and say it. … Oh oh? Eugene too?

Hi-Hi!

Choose a song and draw a concept.

Excluding unnecessary editorials, discussions were held quickly and results were drawn.

– Complete testa version of Mudi's hit song from 10 years ago!

And Kim Rae-bin, who was aware of the results of the discussion, put out a tentatively edited demo of the arrangement within an hour, and tossed it with a focus on guys with good choreography skills, and drew a picture.

This was possible because a thorough division of roles and progress structure had been established through several years of experience.

And Steer Ryu Chung-woo eagerly observed and absorbed all of this process.

It's like being a newcomer to some kind of career.

You have to contact the company for an interim report here.

yes. Apparently, the production crew will come for practice and filming, so we have to coordinate that.

I guess so. okay.

At this speed, it's not long before you think you'll be able to take on the role of a leader.

'After the update, the memories will come back anyway.'

He did such a good job that it made me feel sorry for him to go this far for something he just had to endure.

Besides, this happened.

… Ryu Chung-woo.

Immediately after the meeting, Bae Se-jin was thirsty and tried to fetch water, but he jumped ahead and offered a drink to steer Ryu Cheong-wu.

Drink if you like.

In fact, when I was a steer, I no longer had to worry about how to deal with the gap with Bae Se-jin.

Because the conversation ended a few days ago.

-I have something to say about Sejin hyung.

-I heard the story from Yujin. Are you saying things are different now?

With that in mind, Ryu Cheong-woo has never expressed his dislike for Bae Se-jin.

‘Is it true that they communicate so well?’

However, from Bae Se-jin’s point of view, it seemed that he noticed a strange expression. So, what are you handing over as if you were testing it like this?

I feel thirsty… It’s okay if you don’t want to drink.

I’ve definitely seen

There, steer Ryu Cheng-wu hesitated for a moment.

However, in the end, he did not refuse and accepted the bottle, coolly opening the lid.

And he replied with a smile.

thank you. I’ll drink well.

… ! what!

Ryu Cheng-wu even took a drink on the spot without showing any sign.

Bae Se-jin seemed relieved and the atmosphere got better.

‘hmm.’

It seems like Steer Cha Yoo-jin’s relative toughness score is dropping in real time and watching the scene… .

And as the practice continued into the evening in this atmosphere, Lee Se-jin even said something like this, wondering if he was serious or not.

Thank you bro~ You are so good to us! Our Eugene ran away from home because she had no memory.

Yeah.

haha did you

Liu Qingyu said the following in a gentle voice.

it’s still

I’m glad you seem to be doing well now.

… Yep.

Suddenly, a strange tension seemed to flow slightly and then disappear.

‘hmm.’

I immediately focused on the conversation.

The atmosphere was still good. Cha Yoo-jin silently drank from her water bottle and threw the words away.

And congratulations. If Chungwoo hyung stays like this, memories will come back soon.

hmm?

The memory came back when I admitted that I liked that stage. Maybe that's the Trigger? I feel that way.

Cha Yoo-jin said that calmly, as if passing on a tip.

How to get back the memories of Testa!

'I did say something like that.'

I remembered the conversation with Testa Yujin Cha after he returned to his body.

-[It might not be a coincidence that the update ended so quickly. I mean, the timing is so amazing, right?]

-[I want to bet that my realization or our honest conversation influenced the timing.]

System I don't know why this bastard is doing this, but he wanted to update the company system anyway, and in the process, the members It is a yard that rolls back memories.

So, the mental growth of that member affected the completion of the update… la.

'I adopted it because it was a fairly convincing hypothesis.'

I already shared it with big moon.

Also, since Ryu Chung-woo was premised on the premise of 'you are in a state of losing your memory', 'tips to recover your memory' were more correct than 'how to quickly get out of your body'.

Maybe that's why Cheng-wu Ryu asked back as if he was quite interested.

Automatically?

Um, I asked Moondae hyung. This is the story I was describing. Moondae-hyung has a strange ghost. status window?

hey.

Before he could say anything back, Cha Yu-jin finished his words naturally.

I pressed my forehead. yes, do as you like… .

With that, we got our memories back. Hyung will do the same.

ah.

That was the moment.

Liu Qingyu replied in a gentle voice.

Do I need to?

what?

brother?

Liu Qingyu looked at me.

And he said it in a calm, non-excited voice.

I mean, do you really need to get my memories back?

I interpreted the meaning a step late.

‘That’s… .’

-Is it necessary to bring Testa Ryu Chung-woo back?

It means don’t call the original testa Ryu Cheng-wu.

I got goosebumps all the time.

Chapter 506

If I can’t debut, I’ll get sick to death Episode 506

After the remarks of Steer Ryu Chung-woo, there was a short, heavy silence in the practice room.

‘Do I need to retrieve my memory?’

It must be because the members gradually realized what this meant.

So, instead of Ryu Cheong-woo, who was originally a tester, he said that he would continue to be here.

In the meantime, Steer Ryu Cheong-wu was quietly waiting for our reply without any other response.

As if waiting for a verdict.

and after a while

Brother, what are you talking about? You should be able to find your memory. ah don’t worry!

Big Sejin responded with a smile first. Talking as if nothing had happened seemed to give her a chance to gently pass or cancel her words even now.

However, Liu Cheng-wu did not cancel.

Well, I didn’t mean to worry about that. Could it be that Sejin is worried about you? Are you anxious because I have no memory?

okay.

‘If I had to cancel it because I was shaken by that sound, I wouldn’t have done it at all.’

But I didn’t expect to ask such a straightforward question.

When asked if he was insecure because he was less confident than the original testa Ryu Cheong-woo, he said that calmly.

Let me know if you have any concerns. I’ll make up for it soon.

Oh no, I’m still very grateful! But at this rate, it’s too unfamiliar and uncomfortable for him.

Not too uncomfortable.

Steer Ryu Cheng-wu smiled faintly.

it’s fun The stage is good and there are many new things to learn. It’s good that it’s unfamiliar.

I’m afraid that if I get my memories back, I won’t feel like this.

yea, that would be better.

Big Sejin spoke softly in a fairly warm voice.

however.

How sure are you?

yes?

Liu Qingyu said unfazed.

It’s not an ordinary situation that you can easily be sure of what just happened. And I think you know best how I feel.

… … Um,

until the big Sejin, the expression became speechless for a moment.

He had to say something to refute, but he hesitated for a moment, fearing that the bomb would explode by offending the other person in the process.

You think so, but doesn’t this mean that you are wrong the moment you refute it head-on?

‘X feet.’

twisted I’m going to start with the atmosphere right now.

It was the moment I quickly decided on what to say and was about to intervene.

practice!

Suddenly, someone shouted loudly.

Surprisingly, it was Bae Se-jin who was sitting in a corner reading an e-book.

We only have a week left! break is over Whatever it is, practice first and tell me!

ah.

The way he shouted until the veins stood on his neck looked very desperate.

And at that moment, as if struck by some kind of lightning, the atmosphere suddenly changed. It reminded me of the immediate priorities again.

It wasn’t the way I was going to do it, but it worked very well.

Bae Se-jin continued to shout.

If it’s too late, Kim Rae-bin won’t have time to arrange!

yes.

Even if he stays up all night just because he keeps the deadline, his roommate will stop him. My roommate is Moondae Park!

oh.

hey that’s a bit

… ! no! Even if I don’t have to do such night work, I’ll finish it within the period. Believe me!

I believe… !

With Ravin, of course you can!

The tension was relieved for a moment in everyday conversation.

okay. let’s work hard.

yes, fighting… !

So the topic changed smoothly.

Liu Cheng-wu also actively participated in the practice as usual with a mild and cooperative attitude, as if his earlier remarks were a lie.

After some time passed, the tension from earlier began to feel like it could come out naturally in a special situation like this.

‘Because you’re going to be confused, maybe! Cha Yoo-jin even ran away from home.’

In this way.

However, I did not forget the attitude of steer Ryu Cheng-wu earlier.

‘I’m not confused.’

that was sure

He had already made up his mind in his head.

What remains here as Steer Ryu Cheng-wu.

Then all the efforts he has made so far fit together like a puzzle.

As I was told, no more than that, I learned all of Testa’s representative songs and performances of the latest songs, and learned the history of the group called Testa and the individual story of ‘Cheongwoo Ryu’ here.

Just like training.

So that I can remain as Steer Ryu Cheng-wu without recovering my memories as Testa.

‘I wonder if that was the purpose.’

and break time.

I saw Bae Se-jin, standing in the corner of the practice room, letting out a small sigh.

brother.

… Moondae Park.

Bae Se-jin glanced at me and then looked away.

It was Ryu Cheong-woo, who was listening to Kim Rae-bin and Seon Ah-hyun’s explanation of the song.

… I thought about it before.

Bae Se-jin murmured softly.

He also made me uncomfortable. Just like when Cha Yoo-jin did it before.

however… I'm trying hard not to look like that. I don't know why.

I was noticing

Apparently, it wasn't just because the favor was accepted that he was pleased with the steer, Ryu Cheng-wu, who was accepting a water bottle a few days ago.

'I understood that as a sign of 'I will try to get along well'.'

As he said, I don't know the reason, but it seems that I saw hope in itself.

Besides, Bae Se-jin's words were not over.

… And I don't know why they both make me uncomfortable.

Damn.

That's

it.

Bae Se-jin sighed.

It's obvious. Maybe he was a nuisance to the group and was eventually dragged back to his former agency.

It will be okay if I show that I have changed a lot since then.

And he put on a pretty stern expression, but soon his complexion darkened.

Rather than that, what should I do now… i don't know that

Side by side, we looked at steer Ryu Cheng-wu.

The way he talked to the members was friendly enough to be confused with Ryu Cheong-woo, the original testa.

but.

If he doesn't get his memory back, the original Cheongwoo we knew… How is it going?

I couldn't answer

* * *

One week later.

The day of the first contest of < Jinseong Match > has arrived.

[Let's meet Testa's stage now.]

I fixed the in-ear as I entered the MC's introductory phrase and the 6th stage.

No matter how confident you are, this is survival. If I made a mistake and slipped, I might ruin my career and reputation.

But I wasn't worried.

Normally, of course, it would have been thanks to proper preparation, but now it's not because of that.

'I don't care that far.'

Because other anxiety factors were greater.

… … .

Wow!

cheers and applause.

Within that, Testa started to move.

-The sound of raindrops hitting the window and pouring into my head.

The hit song we chose was a ballad titled < I Don't Know You >.

It was a song that became famous as ‘Insane Pick’ on SNS, which was popular at the time, for its mournful dawn sensibility. Thanks to the composition of repeating the chorus, once you hear it, it is addictive and popular enough to stick in your ears… .

Kim Rae-bin arranged it to be much more depressing and heavy. -Still waiting for the boring Love and Sick notification to ring

A slow, low bass rang through the speakers.

-You don’t know,

but a performance with a sense of weight will continue in earnest.

The concept is inner melancholy.

The song puts in a classic piece to make it more and more elegant and grand as it develops, and a rather artistic performance is put on top of it.

And even the solo dance of Seon Ah-hyun in the interlude.

In the opening performance, we broke the line once again from the symbolism of KPOP, and this time we tried to come up with a stage that best suits the cultured taste.

and last.

-I can’t sleep,

so I’m going to say

Goodbye goodbye

. Kim Rae-bin evaluated and selected the right person only with his tone without self-interest.

Ryu Chung-woo.

-You don’t know, but

I digested it neatly.

And the accompaniment came back with the sound of the bass.

-Umm… umm.

Even the ending in the sound of the performance that seems to be stagnant.

The stage chose a concept that was dark and atmospheric enough to be damned with halfway control.

Catharsis and charm increase even more when the correct impact is entered at the correct timing.

And that strategy worked.

Wow!!

Let the lights go out.

Enormous cheers and applause filled the seats, in stark contrast to the dark stage atmosphere.

Keying-

The bright lights came back on the stage, and before exiting, the members greeted brightly with the excitement of the stage while breathing heavily in sweat.

Thank you~

Thank you.

And it was the same for steer Ryu Chung-woo.

thank you!

Ryu Cheng-wu did well.

And he looked happy.

‘Damn it.’

I held back a sigh because that made people’s heads more complicated.

But it couldn’t be delayed any longer.

‘It’s an escape from reality.’

We had to talk before the update was over.

After a while.

Waiting time to clean up the stage before taking the final cut for the < True Match > contest.

I have something to tell you.

I called Steer Ryu Cheng-wu to the small sleeping room inside the waiting room.

The boy followed without resistance. and asked

Is it because of what I said a few days ago?

I nodded, not surprised.

If I go back to the dorm, I'll be in the middle of the day again, so I'd rather be better now.

'And this… It would be better to approach him as a relative rather than a team brother.'

That would be more comfortable with each other. So I sat down next to him and talked.

can i ask the reason

I don't mean to say anything. I was asking because I didn't hear the reason why you thought 'It won't be very good if you get your memories back' during practice at that time.

Steer Ryu Chung-woo did not come out uncooperatively this time either.

Rather, as if thinking for a moment or choosing words, there were no words.

And answer slowly.

Because I don’t think that person is me.

Cha Yujin Um, I saw Yujin and thought.

The boy spoke calmly.

I mean, he’s very different from the Cha Yujin I used to know.

It seemed like I had memories of living as Cha Yoo-jin, whom I knew, but I did.

‘Was that it?’

Yes.

Now, even if Cha Yu-jin has regained his memories of his days as a steer, he is putting more emphasis on his memories of living as a testa.

Of course. Steer is a thing of the past.

There is no way this fellow, who was in the same group as Steer Cha Yu-jin, could not have felt that sense of incongruity.

I mean, this guy… It’s natural to think that when you get your memories back, you won’t be where you are today.

‘shit.’

Even if I find my memories, I think I will become like everyone else. I don’t want to.

Steer Ryu Cheong-woo said so openly. I gritted my teeth.

His words didn’t even end there.

know. But, he must be thinking that it is the same person.

If that's the case, I'm the same member as I am now, who has no memories. yes?

for a moment.

'This… It sounds like something prepared.'

oddly smooth

'Same member?'

no it wasn't

'We didn't treat him like that.'

At that moment, I realized the contradiction in our attitude towards steer Ryu Chung-woo.

No matter how much you lose your memory, people around you usually unconsciously treat you as before. It's a habit.

As it happened a few times inadvertently when Steer Cha Yu-jin was in the past.

'But we've got this guy… Are you treating Testa Ryu Chung-woo as the same person?'

Steer Cha Yoo-jin was treated the same as Testa Cha Yoo-jin we knew, and instead fought and escaped.

While insisting that 'I am different from the person you know'.

As a result, we now implicitly treat the 'original Liu Cheng-wu' and this 'Steer Liu Cheng-wu' as if they were different people.

Saying that you only lost your memory.

‘Damn it.’

it was cooked

There was no way this guy wouldn’t notice that sense of incongruity.

But instead of pointing it out, he talks calmly, as if persuading me according to my logic.

As long as either party is persuaded, it doesn’t matter.

And in the next month or two, maybe even a few weeks, I’ll be able to do my part without help.

But at the end, the calm voice trembled low.

So just… I want you to stay like this.

that day.

Testa’s stage received tremendous acclaim and ranked first in the on-site audience vote.

On the Internet, early audience reviews overflowed, raising expectations for the program and giving fans relief and excitement.

It was as planned.

But there was only one thing that went according to plan.

… I got an update complete popup.

Chapter 507

If you can’t debut, you’ll get sick to death Episode 507

[Update complete!] -Similar pop-up to the one we saw before the 1st adjustment .

And then another pop-up follows.

[Applying ‘■■■ (ver.2.1 Beta)’]

[Done!]]

System update complete pop-up.

What comes to mind is… Doubtful.

‘why?’

Last time, Steer Cha Yu-jin’s condition was restored, so wasn’t it completed early?

Nothing is resolved now. Ryu Cheng-wu never changed his position saying he did not want to regain his memory.

Could it be that it was completed by performing on stage together in a cooperative state? But this isn’t even the first stage, so based on what standard, it was completed early… .

‘for a moment.’

I took a deep breath.

I’ve been thinking too long

‘It shouldn’t be crowded.’

And I managed to regain my composure and came to a rational conclusion with a cold head.

Finished ahead of the deadline?

‘There was no such thing.’

There was no deadline in the first place.

This time, unlike before, there was no explanation like ‘D-30 until completion’.

In the first place, I didn’t absorb the debris and update it to a higher version, but since I don’t use it, isn’t it a situation where this bastard is readjusting itself on its own.

‘It’s ver.2.1, not ver.3.’

So this is just done when it’s time to do it.

The system finished by itself.

belt ring.

And as if responding to my conclusion, another pop-up appeared.

[Would you like to ‘Preview’ ‘For Business’?]

‘… Preview.’

Again, questions filled my mind.

Isn’t it a system restart if you preview it?

Come to think of it, there was a phrase called ‘1st adjustment’ in the previous pop-up. If so, does this mean that you will measure my satisfaction through this ‘preview’ and update the system if necessary?

What will happen to Ryu Cheng-wu’s memories? Is it being returned as a test, or is it not being returned because it is only a preview, not that the system will come to life.

What is the penalty if you don’t press this at all and hold on? And the risk of the system going its own way?

Which one is more likely? What criteria should I use to judge… .

oh shit

I put my head on the head of the bed.

thud.

‘X-X-X-X… !’

I couldn’t be like a dog because I couldn’t come to a conclusion.

How many times do you do this shit?

Why do you need something like this in the process of updating?

Are you okay bro?

If you feel dizzy or have a headache, even an ice pack… .

… Okay.

I slowly raised my head.

My roommate, Kim Rae-bin, is looking at me with a worried face, as if she is about to break out in a cold sweat. He seemed to think I had accidentally banged my head into the head of the bed.

He couldn't have rested properly while preparing for the last stage.

Are you resting well?

yes! I am keeping the word to be Jeong Yang until the next filming.

okay.

Is your hair really okay? ?

uh. It seems to break.

It's not like I'm stuck in bed.

that's fine

I looked at the pop-up again and finally opened my mouth.

I have something to say. Let's ask all the other members, including you, to gather in the living room.

It was meaningless even if I delayed and hid it.

* * *

Testa accommodation an hour after Park Moon-dae's call.

In the room of Seon Ah-hyun and Se-jin Lee, two people of the same age, the owners of the ark were talking quietly.

The topic of conversation between the two was the same.

This is the story Mundae Park, who saw the pop-up, called them into the living room and told them.

-… update is complete

He did not hide it and shared almost verbatim what he had received.

It was unexpectedly friendly and friendly to convey the parts that people who have not experienced the system directly, including examples and analogies, that would not understand well.

But at the same time… He looked extremely tired.

-What will happen if you press this… I honestly don't know either. But don't worry too much, I'll think about it and find out more.

That's why Seon Ah-hyun is sharing her concerns with a friend who is the same age and has built trust over the years.

Seon Ah-hyun sat on the bed with her long legs together and muttered a little nervously.

I'm worried about Moondae.

I think I'm overdoing it… .

And Lee Se-jin had no intention of refuting that statement.

It was because he had similar thoughts as soon as he heard Moondae Park's briefing earlier.

'That's going to be a real big deal.'

Of course, the first thing I cared about was how Ryu Cheng-wu, who seemed to have lost his memory and became a different person, would react. Everyone, even Park Moon-dae, must have been like that.

However, it is absurd to say that Park Moon-dae is not noticed.

Eye light almost died.

‘It’s not even a day or two that he’s overdoing it.’

Sejin Lee frowned for a moment. taste was bitter.

Still, as usual, Lee Se-jin would have brought up a flirtatious story here to reassure the other person.

To be honest, I thought that talking about anxiety would only make the situation worse.

But this time it was different.

… um right It seems like overkill to anyone.

Because I needed a solution. And Sun Ah-hyun was a serious and meticulous type, even though she might be a bit clumsy in interpersonal relationships.

‘It’s worth discussing.’

Of course, Seon Ah-hyun was not the kind of person who could be relieved by self-reasoning, saying that she didn’t mean it.

So he spoke the truth quite outspokenly.

It didn’t seem like Chungwoo hyung wanted to remember it. So how much will it cost now? Of all of us, Moon University is the only one who can see the status window or what.

… literary master.

Seon Ah-hyun pressed her lips with her teeth.

Well then, if Chungwoo-hyung refuses to the end… . Wouldn’t Moondae press it?

Lee Se-jin already knew the answer.

no. will do

If the judgment is reasonable, then Park Mun-dae was heartbreaking, nabal, and a guy who would do it for now.

Maybe that's why Testa has been able to come out without a hitch despite so many controversies and incidents from the debut until now.

However, Sejin knew the aftermath that followed.

But after doing it, it will be very difficult.

A bit of a doormat… You're trying to take responsibility for everything.

He was the one who thought it was his fault that this situation happened right now.

'If I do it wrong, something could happen because of the real stress.'

Lee Se-jin still remembers the uproar that happened during the summer package shoot at the beginning of her debut.

Park Moon-dae almost had a traumatic attack, but he continued filming far and wide.

He clasped and opened his hand.

'… Ah, how did this happen?'

Being successful as an idol seems like a dream, but it was embarrassing for a realist like Lee Se-jin because things that literally only happen in dreams keep happening.

I didn't even know that I would meet a friend who would care so much, but this nonsense was focused on that friend.

So it was time for Lee Se-jin to be silent to think of a solution.

more over there… Let's talk.

huh?

Seon Ah-hyun opened her mouth first with a determined face.

I'll tell the other members too… … Let's talk to Chungwoo hyung again. Until now, there is no time to practice for the stage, and everyone is busy with Eugene… I think we barely talked because we were cautious… .

Sejin Lee seemed to have been beaten.

'I know.'

I was trying not to offend Liu Cheng-wu, but I didn't think of having a deep conversation or persuading him.

I was unconsciously excluded because I saw a bad scene during Cha Yu-jin's time.

Seon Ah-hyun was silent as if thinking deeply, then continued.

The present Chungwoo hyung is also good to us, but he must be anxious. Maybe that's why you don't want to search for memories… … . I think it's right to have a deeper conversation.

Lee Se-jin listened, and Seon Ah-hyun spoke a little faster.

I don't think it's going to be more difficult now. Because no one can help you if you don't come to a conclusion… .

You're right.

Lee Se-jin immediately agreed.

and got up from his seat. Because I knew that the person I was talking to was a friend who would not be offended if the conversation suddenly ended.

let’s talk now

Seon Ah-hyun also nodded and stood up.

Lee Se-jin and Seon Ah-hyun left the room together.

And again an hour later.

Moondae Park.

The two called for Park Moon-dae, who was sitting on his bed as if he was dead and had his eyes closed.

As soon as Moondae Park opened his eyes, he realized that his roommate was not in the room.

And this time I found the roommate outside the room.

To be precise, all members except himself.

what… … .

We’ve been chatting, but I have something to tell you.

Lee Se-jin spoke like a notice. And I thought.

‘It’s okay to do whatever you want comfortably’ is not okay.

Aren’t you supposed to be responsible for the outcome? It’s no different than just leaving the decision and responsibility to your heart’s content.

therefore.

Click to preview now.

The decision also had to be made by this side.

* * *

What?

I doubted my ears.

do you know what i’m talking about

of course.

Despite suddenly dragging all the members into someone else’s room, Lee Se-jin was calm.

It was the same for the members who came along.

It was a result of discussion among the members and a majority vote.

No, you said that the company’s system would be shared by all of us. It was like that when we made the last album.

Sejin Lee shrugged.

Then surrender to the majority vote and press it.

It was absurd.

What’s even funnier is that several people around him are nodding their heads in sympathy.

Besides, the story did not end there.

I also talked to Chungwoo hyung here.

I reflexively turned my head.

Steer Ryu Cheong-wu, who was standing in the back, had a pretty calm face. There seemed to be no repulsion suppressed by public opinion.

I heard that if you keep procrastinating, something dangerous might happen. And there's a high probability that this memory won't come back.

I will believe I know you didn't have to lie to me. It's just that I can return my memories without explanation. But it didn't.

And the boy smiled faintly.

… I felt it while preparing for the stage, but I think you guys are reliable team members.

brother… … .

Even the members around me responded.

Quite enough… It was a remark that was even touching. It was because I heard firsthand that I trusted him in a few weeks from someone who had lost his memory and became someone else. I was even shaken for a moment.

But at the same time, I felt a strange feeling.

slight discomfort.

'what?'

But that unpleasant thing passed through my mind before it materialized.

And now the situation was even clearer than that.

Everyone agreed and notified me.

Press 'Preview'.

The funny thing is that my mind suddenly becomes calm. As if it was something reassuring.

‘Are you crazy?’

It is good to have a choice unconditionally, but when you are notified that it was decided by majority vote, do you mean to fuck with peace of mind?

But the fact that my head has become lighter… I absolutely cannot deny it.

‘… okay. It’s less burdensome.’

I ended up calling a popup.

So let’s press it.

okay.

[Are you sure you want to ‘Preview’ ‘For Business’?]

I pressed ‘Yes’.

And immediately the pop-up started to become busy.

A hologram that flashes with its color returning.

[Executing ‘Preview’]

I thought of a few possibilities.

Ryu Cheong-wu’s memory has not returned, only the system is restarted, the survey function is activated, and even though it is rare, Ryu Cheng-wu’s memory returns.

But none of them were right.

… … Ugh

Rabin?

I saw those guys staring at the falling Kim Rae-bin with a stunned face.

And realized at the same time.

By preview, I meant the next hitter.

Ryu Chung-woo, the hitter this time, is on hold.

Chapter 508

If I can’t debut, I’ll get sick to death Episode 508

[during ‘Preview’]

The status window where the color returned after the ‘Preview’ was implemented was somewhat strange.

There are no fonts and almost no interfaces are implemented.

It looks like a computer operating system that has been run in an emergency so that only a few functions are possible. It was a unique aspect I had never seen before.

But right now I don’t have the energy to pay attention to it.

Rabin Kim! are you okay?

ugh… .

This is because Kim Rae-bin is staggering right now, accidentally hitting the back of his head against the hallway wall.

lay down once

I immediately came out of the door and helped Kim Rae-bin. Without saying a word, Cha Yoo-jin helps Kim Rae-bin and lays her down on the floor, while Seon Ah-hyun runs to get a pillow.

ugh… … .

headache?

Ravin, are you sick?

Rabin Kim did not answer. However, my breathing gradually became calmer and my consciousness became calmer… .

Huh!

As if waking from a nightmare, he jumped up.

And the moment he opened his mouth wide with his eyes wide.

Who are you?

Words I've already heard came out.

'X foot… … .'

I pressed my forehead with one hand. In the meantime, Kim Rae-bin seemed to be looking around with his mind still in a daze, and he made a happy expression as if he finally found a familiar face.

Cha Yoo-jin?

But soon I was shocked again.

Yoojin Cha! how did you enlist I can't imagine giving up one's nationality and enlisting voluntarily… .

what is this again

Cha Yoo-jin, who seemed to have had similar thoughts, opened her mouth with an absurd face.

… ?? Has Kim Rae-bin lost his mind?!

… ! Could it be that you came to visit me and I fell and lost consciousness and don't remember?

no.

Sejin Sejin from the side opened his mouth in a trembling voice.

Enlist? I hope Rabin is you… .

And everyone said something that they vaguely recalled but couldn't bear to say.

did you go to the army?

… ? yes. You have just completed training camp!

A deathly silence fell between us.

I closed my eyes tightly.

'… world.'

Steer Kim Rae-bin No… Former steer Kim Rae-bin was in the army.

* * *

Oh so… A warrant is out… say

yes! The postponement period for enlistment has ended as all undergraduate courses using the current academic credit bank system have been completed.

(Probably) Steeril Kim Rae-bin… I was braver than I thought.

It is said that he probably completed his music-related bachelor's degree online, and immediately after that, a warrant came out and he enlisted.

‘… Since Steer was disbanded, there must have been no reason to come up with other reasons for delaying.’

And in the military… It looks like you’ve been doing well.

Kim Rae-bin summarized his private life as follows.

Although there are some things I don’t understand, I don’t bother asking questions, remembering the advice I received from my older sister.

I am also very fortunate… .

‘I was lucky.’

There must be some bullies with that personality, but it seems that there was no one with a twisted mind among the seniors. Then, in fact, Kim Rae-bin had a military constitution that did not require correction.

‘It’s because he’s the kind of guy who’s a high-ranking person.’

But the mouth was dirty.

‘To be in the army at that age.’

Of course, 24 years old is too late if you think of me as just a college student, but too early if you think of me as an idol.

Idol groups that have been successful to some extent are dominated by the meta of not enlisting as much as possible in their 20s.

‘To put it the other way around, this guy is no longer a ‘moderately successful idol group’.’

… Steer Kim Rae-bin said.

therefore… Are you saying that time went back to the past and that I, who debuted as a different group, am still active as an idol…? ?

yes.

that… … .

Steer Kim Rae-bin, who immediately heard the explanation of the situation, was speechless as to whether his eyes were spinning in this supernatural environment.

Then, I was surprised to see In-young standing behind me, as if my vision had finally cleared.

Steer Ryu Chung-woo.

Chungwoo hyung… ?

you are here too

And Ryu Cheng-wu kept his mouth shut. His expression didn't change, but strangely, I got the feeling that he didn't look that good.

'Why?'

Wouldn't it be rather nice to see someone who has been with you for years in the same situation as you?

Kim Rae-bin would not have been the one to have an accident.

At that time, somehow, an awkward silence was about to flow.

Sejin Keun, perhaps noticing the sign, consciously continues the explanation softly and cheerfully.

The fact that Ryu Cheng-wu now is the Ryu Cheng-wu of the steer you knew. And the fact that Cha Yu-jin has memories.

finally… .

Ummm So, if I continue to explain, we, Testa, a group with Rabin, are currently preparing for the stage on a contest program~ Is that so

oh yeah this one too… It was arranged by Rabin!

Before she could say anything, Seon Ah-hyun hurriedly played music on her smartphone.

The finished version of the arrangement of Mudy's < I Don't Know You >, which Raebin Kim made for the contest a few days ago.

-Umm umm… .

The music flowed slowly along with my hum as I recorded the demo.

Steer Kim Rae-bin listened to the low-pitched sound coming from his smartphone with a blank face.

Exquisite and delicate composition and melody.

And Cha Yoo-jin, who was looking at her smartphone, seemed uncharacteristically nervous.

'Because I know.'

It means that Kim Rae-bin didn't participate much in songwriting during his days as a steer.

It's just speculation, but even if they participated, it would never have been in the direction of full power like now.

If the superiors of the agency pushed for a poor direction without sense, they must have tried to accommodate it somehow.

Just like the shit that happened when I first arranged 'Burning Like the Sun' during the second team battle of < Azusa >.

'and… I must have skipped copyright fees by inserting relatives.'

In a word, it is tantamount to exploitation.

So, it might be a bit bitter for the person involved, no matter how necessary, for that guy to hear the results of testa Kim Rae-bin's full display of his talents.

Just like Steer Cha Yoo-jin did before… .

amazing! Did I really arrange it?

… ??

I will cancel all speculation.

Kim Rae-bin's eyes were shining brightly. It was a bit bloody, but it was a face that anyone could see. He even seemed excited.

At the same time, Seon Ah-hyun's face was also reminded.

Yes! Do you like it… ?

yes. indeed… … . yes.

Kim Rae-bin seemed to be unable to do even his specialty, 'excitedly pouring out words in the field of interest', because he was overwhelmed.

Seriously, he seemed to feel something like joy or thrill rather than great embarrassment in this situation.

'ah.'

And I realized why that would be possible.

'He believed that he debuted again as a testa.'

He did not separate himself from 'Testa Kim Rae-bin'.

He grasped the present situation as his future self on a continuous timeline.

And that was possible because Kim Rae-bin could not simply be explained as naive.

‘It’s because of our attitude.’

This is because we are now treating this Kim Rae-bin the same as before. That’s why Kim Rae-bin also accepted us as ‘unremembered acquaintances’ without hesitation.

Moreover, there are two people who already have memories of Steer, and one of them is a friend he has been with since his trainee days.

The vigilance has no choice but to be relaxed.

‘All the conditions were right.’

It was a good fortune because Kim Rae-bin was very similar to before and because it happened so suddenly that he had no time to prepare his mind.

‘after.’

I slowly grew calmer and realized that I was quite nervous.

It was the moment when the atmosphere became warmer and Seon Ah-hyun was also excited to play another song with Kim Rae-bin, who was impressed.

Cha Yoo-jin asked.

So, do you want to arrange the stage after Kim Rae-bin?

I?

oh yeah If you’re greedy, tell me anytime, Rabin!

Kim Rae-bin opened his eyes wide, but soon his face became quite serious.

I wonder if this is too much, but if you try and come up with results… Can you consider me as a candidate?

In an instant, relief and joy passed across the faces of the members.

It was clear that he was thinking, ‘Kim Rae-bin is still the same’.

of course!

thank you!

While the members smiled warmly, Sejin opened his mouth lively.

Then, shall we start preparing for our stage?

That was the moment.

I am… You have to do a stage!

Kim Rae-bin said that, but his tone was closer to surprise or embarrassment than enlightenment. It was like being hit by hail all of a sudden.

that is, negative.

don’t you want to do it?

Rather than not wanting to do it, I think it’s better if I don’t do it.

And Kim Rae-bin replied as if nothing happened.

I learned through experience. I’m not good enough for broadcasting or stage activities.

what what

The members were solid.

And I also hardened my expression.

‘What do you mean?’

Even during Steer, there was no problem with his stage ability.

‘Inside information.’

I looked back at Cha Yoo-jin, who may have been a member of the same group. The boy had a slightly bitter expression.

I’m not feeling well.

Fortunately, there was someone who would rush ahead here, but… no, this guy can’t

However, Bae Se-jin had already opened his mouth.

What are you talking about! you are good on stage!

yes?

Kim Rae-bin, embarrassed by Bae Se-jin’s cry, was startled, but soon after seeing Bae Se-jin’s face, he became more confused.

‘… Did you notice it now?’

That this is the face of ‘Lee Se-jin (A)’, who was blown away by a drug incident in the early days of Steer.

As expected, Kim Rae-bin had a determined face… asked politely.

‘… ?’

I’m sorry, but what’s your name?

ship… It’s Bae Se-jin.

… ! Are you familiar with Lee Se-jin, who was a child actor?

it’s me. Bae Se-jin’s face filled with absurdity as he wanted to answer that.

And he responded according to his expression.

it’s me!

… ?!

Kim Rae-bin was astonished. I touched my forehead.

But at the same time, I also had this thought.

drugs or whatever.

‘I might be able to stamp the misunderstanding and end it by cursing Bae Se-jin’s biological father.’

Under the circumstances, the drug transport problem must be because of that bastard.

However, Kim Rae-bin stopped opening his mouth and glanced around to check on someone.

‘… ?’

Steer Ryu Chung-woo.

ha but

Rabin. You must be very confused and tired right now, but get some rest.

Liu Qingyu answered at once.

Then he turned to us and smiled bitterly.

Will it be okay though?

ah… That's right!

Kim Rae-bin's room is here!

thank you… .

Hearing Ryu Cheong-woo's words, everyone hurriedly helped Rae-bin Kim and led him to the bed.

And I was conscious of steer Ryu Cheng-wu.

The discomfort I felt earlier.

'I think I just blocked Kim Rae-bin.'

I decided to remember.

Of course, now we have to dig a little deeper, starting with Kim Rae-bin's remarks about avoiding the stage.

* * *

Amazing… .

This is the reaction of steer Kim Rae-bin after seeing millions of views and enthusiastic comments from fans on his fancam.

And the members who came and showed me the bari-bari video had a little hope.

yes too is it?

It also seems impossible to get on stage.

uh… ?

It seems impossible for me to speak at this level of stage.

Members were perplexed.

Even in the midst of that, Seon Ah-hyun said this with a determined face.

ha but In our group, you… You did a really good job on the stage!

… ? It seems that there was some kind of opportunity or effort.

Rabin Kim replied calmly.

Sorry but not me.

It was a bit of a creepy conclusion.

And all of the testers were momentarily at a loss for words.

‘X feet.’

I resisted the urge to close my eyes.

‘This guy also had a problem.’

this is unconditional… It is the rejection of idol activities.

It wasn’t normal.

However, this was not the end of the absurd incident of the day.

It was because Kim Rae-bin inadvertently turned his head while watching the stage video, and finally something caught his eye.

It was the contents that appeared in the pop-up of the status window where the ‘preview’ was executed.

[New Feature Preview (extra)]

-View Fragment Log

‘Fragment Log?’

As soon as the word that was the cause of this damn thing came out, my concentration was activated.

I reflexively speed-readed and read the next line.

[Help: ‘View Fragment Log’ allows you to recreate the mission failure scenario at the time the System owner absorbed the Fragments.]

What?

Wait, if it’s a mission failure scenario I’ve been through… .

‘no way.’

I reflexively checked the function.

[Read fragment record]

-Mission failure: Building collapse

-Mission failure: Return to original state

The first is a disaster where the building literally collapsed.

But that’s it.

‘… second is.’

-Mission failed:

returning to the original state Ryu Gun-woo’s body.

At this moment, the ability to switch bodies with the big moon was opened.

Chapter 509

If you can’t debut, you’ll get a fatal disease Episode 509

‘Swapped bodies with Keundal again?’

From collapsing buildings to changing bodies.

Ability to reproduce the situation at the time of the last ‘mission failed’.

I shut my mouth while looking at the option that the status window said ‘re-update’.

It was dumbfounded.

‘Who the hell would welcome a function like this?’

I went through so much hardship back then, but there’s no way I’d want to voluntarily experience it again. Who the hell would want to feel the thrill of being trapped in a collapsing building or ruining a schedule?

Are you saying that I’ve been thinking about absorbing ‘Fragments of ■■■’ lately? So far, every time I’ve solved ‘Mission Failed’, I’ve acquired a fragment, so I’ve found a connection there.

‘Even at a corner store in the neighborhood, if you predict demand this way, you’ll get fired, you bastard.’

Moreover, the system was applied to the company, but why is it providing additional functions that have nothing to do with the company?

It’s not like borrowing an IP shell from a famous webtoon and making a mobile lottery game out of context.

And as if in response, a pop-up popped up.

[Mission failed: Return to original state]

Maximum viewing time: 48 hours

-Are you sure you want to read?

Even this kid doesn't notice.

'Please turn off.'

I erased the popup and closed my eyes. My temples were itching.

… Let's clear things up first.

'The members who lost their memories right now are Chungwoo Ryu and Raebin Kim.'

Looking at the status quo, both were cooperative with the group and did not act unexpectedly.

However, Ryu Cheong-woo is reluctant to retrieve his memory, and Kim Rae-bin is reluctant to perform.

Besides, it didn't end there. I remembered Kim Rae-bin's expression just before.

-Ha But… .

'A while ago, Steer Kim Rae-bin noticed Ryu Chung-woo.'

It's like it's a bit scary.

It's a rare sight to see while living as a testa, but it's almost like a habit.

"… … ."

I was lost in thought, recalling the strange feeling of incongruity I felt with Steer Ryu Chung-woo over the past few days.

and concluded

‘I can’t help anymore.’

Until now, I refrained from scratching myself, fearing that it would turn into a boil, but now that it has come this far, it is a stupid thing to escape from reality.

If the method of not blushing doesn’t work, it’s the correct method.

‘I ask.’

And I knew who was the most suitable opponent.

A whole that has both memories.

* * *

“Tell me everything you can remember.”

I called Yujin Cha, who was responsible for the last incident and who had successfully regained her memory, into the kitchen and had a conversation like this.

“What?”

“Internal Conflict When Steering.”

Cha Yu-jin looked at me with a confused face.

“Hyung said he would cook something delicious! I tricked you!”

okay. To do this, I even recruited Lee Se-jin and Sun Ah-hyun and even dispersed the two Steers to the choreography practice room and studio.

But it’s not a scam.

“I will do that too.”

“Oh.”

“What do you want to eat?”

“Kimchi fried rice, please.”

receipt.

I opened the refrigerator and took out the ingredients.

“Cheese, please!”

OK.

I asked while slicing kimchi with the guy who had calmed down at once next to me.

“The reason I’m asking is because I think I’ll be able to deal with it by collecting information somehow.”

“… … .”

“It means you can no longer go without knowing.”

Silence, tacit agreement.

I brought up the story from the part that bothered me the most.

“First of all, it seems that Rabin is paying attention to Chungwoo.”

“Umm… Yep.”

Positive.

“What is the reason?”

Cha Yu-jin was sullen for a moment, but soon calmed down.

“Do you really want to hear it?”

“uh.”

“OK.”

Cha Yu-jin was silent for a moment. I didn’t rush and quietly continued preparing the material.

Soon, a calm voice rang the sink.

“Once upon a time, Steer’s older brother Chung Woo was a scarer.”

“… !”

It was an unusual choice of words.

scare you?

“How was it specifically?”

[You know, half of the early members of a KPOP group called Steer were a mess. So he led the team like a high-ranking boss. Like a very tough American football captain.]

Cha Yu-jin shrugged slightly.

[So what I mean is that he didn’t treat his teammates with the gentle, tolerant way he is now.]

“… for example?”

He frowned as if recalling a vague memory.

[I once banned a member from entering the dorm and had to stay up all night in the practice room.]

What?

I grabbed the handle of the frying pan in an instant. Cha Yoo-jin continued with a snort.

[That stupid guy had to learn the choreography all morning to the point of crying.]

"… … ."

[And that kind of punishment continued for several years.]

'It's hard to believe.'

Due to Ryu Cheng-wu's personality, it's impossible, and it's not something like that.

It was a question of whether it was realistically possible.

'This isn't even an army.'

No matter how old he was, he was the same age as him.

Also, an individual who is only a nominal leader in the same situation is trying to 'punish' like an instructor?

As long as the other members had thick heads, there was a limit to what they could eat.

Besides, aren't they all just debuting after being ranked in the top ranks on an exciting survival program? At such a time when self-consciousness is enlarged for such a long time… .

"Did that work?"

However, Cha Yu-jin answered immediately.

[It worked.]

"… … ."

i get it.

‘It means that Ryu Cheng-wu was surprisingly familiar with the politics of terror to the extent that common sense did not work.’

In order to control the atmosphere of the group, which is a mess on both sides of the inside and outside… In the end, I mean, I wrote a hard line.

I silently flipped the bacon. Then, he confirmed by frying the sliced kimchi in the oil as if frying it.

“As a leader, he was properly coercive.”

Hearing Cha Yoo-jin’s affirmation, I mechanically put the cooled rice into the frying pan and loosened it up.

Repeated labor is easy to think of other things, and I completed my rebuttal in a flash.

“But Lavin would have listened even if he didn’t have to.”

“Me? I hear you too!”

“Do you have a conscience?”

“Boo.”

He put on a sullen expression, as if he was a bit unfair, but soon gave a proper answer.

“Discrimination creates problems. I think that’s why Chungwoo-hyung treated all the members equally strongly.”

“… … .”

They said they couldn’t take care of each situation because they had to suppress the steam and let them not even make a sound.

‘So even Kim Rae-bin noticed… la.’

Come to think of it, steer Cha Yoo-jin was also surprisingly compliant with Ryu Chung-woo in the beginning.

It was an indicator of how bloody the team atmosphere that Ryu Cheong-woo, who was a former national athlete, had ‘not looked at’ and took control of.

‘It should have been that much for the horror politics meta to work in the long run.’

To the extent that after suppressing the backlash for years, half the members would rather quit and go on the run rather than cause trouble within the group.

It’s just that the agency grabbed the group that had lost its way and managed it somehow.

However, even after saying that, Cha Yu-jin showed a slight regret.

[As a fan of ours, you have the right to protect your fantasy. So I didn’t mention it specifically… Yes, that is the truth.]

“… … .”

And I knew

“There is no reason for you to lie.”

“that’s right. I am an honest person.”

I finished the kimchi fried rice with cheese.

And he said calmly to Cha Yu-jin, who was feeling depressed with his appetite.

“There is no such thing as broken illusions in particular.”

“… Are you serious?”

“OK.”

As a result, Ryu Cheong-woo made the best choice within the given environment.

I can’t criticize it for not being the best choice.

‘It’s a miracle that I did that with kids who don’t listen.’

than that

“Then, steer Ryu Cheng-wu is trying to be gentle on purpose.”

Cha Yoo-jin seemed briefly lost in thought, but eventually nodded.

“I think so. Because people hate showing their weaknesses. Chungwoo hyung is no exception.”

That is to say, Steer Ryu Cheong-woo himself regarded his ‘oppressive leader’ image as a weakness that did not help him settle down here.

‘… There’s a high probability that he wasn’t too reluctant to act so forcefully in the first place.’

I expected, cutting a loaf of butter in half and putting it in a new pan for frying eggs.

And now I asked Cha Yoo-jin, who couldn’t take her eyes off the kimchi fried rice with all the cheese melted.

“I get it. Then what about Lavin?”

“… … .”

“I don’t know why you don’t like being on stage.”

Then, Cha Yu-jin slightly stretched her shoulders.

“I don’t know either.”

“… ??”

[The steer I remember, Raebin Kim… Yes, I was less active than I am now. But I didn’t hate the stage.]

“… … .”

Even now, I just don’t admit myself as a ‘performer’, but I didn’t bother to say that I didn’t seem to hate the stage.

As a result, there is not much difference.

‘Anyway, even this guy doesn’t know exactly.’

If so, it could be that there was a decisive incident with steer Kim Rae-bin after he went to the United States.

– After the group disbanded. After breaking up with all the members.

I decided to keep this timing in mind.

and.

“Let me ask you one last question.”

“… OK.”

I brought up a question I had been putting off.

“… What happened to Bae Se-jin hyung?”

Clap.

The sound of eggs cooking filled the quiet kitchen.

and.

[I think the news broke a few years ago, and I remember he kept appealing the trial.]

You appealed?

Appeal means dissatisfaction with the outcome of the trial.

And that… It also meant that the charge of drug distribution was acknowledged and that a prison sentence or a fine was definitely sentenced.

'X feet.'

Distribution is more likely to result in imprisonment. I held back a sigh.

"result?"

"I don't remember. [Perhaps the members of STEER didn't deliberately look for the final conclusion.]"

Cha Yoo-jin's voice sounded slightly bitter.

"But now I know. Sejin hyung is a completely moral person. So… [Now I think it must be a misunderstanding or a coincidence with bad timing.]" "

… okay."

That was all.

'Then, the steer guys all know that Bae Se-jin was convicted at trial anyway.'

It was even more surprising that steer Ryu Cheong-woo was quite gentle and kind to Bae Se-jin here.

'hmm.'

I lowered the heat of the induction with some hypotheses.

Then, two soft-boiled fried eggs were placed on top of the kimchi fried rice covered with cheese.

“It is done.”

“Wow!!”

In an instant, all of Cha Yu-jin’s worries flew away. what nice to see

And after a while, the guys who went out to the porch came back.

“Hey, kimchi fried rice with us?”

“Hyung uses delivery!”

“Wow~ You’re really mean, Eugene.”

I made some kind of decision while watching the steer guys who were silently and a little awkwardly mixed in the gap.

Basic first.

‘The current situation is too twisted.’

Listening to Cha Yoo-jin’s explanation, the causal relationship during Steer’s time is more complicated than I thought.

But to lead both guys to get their memories back satisfactorily at the same time without stepping on either bomb?

‘The difficulty level is crazy.’

And even if all of this miraculously ends well, the problem remains.

‘Aside from getting my memories back, it’s all up to this system update in the end.’

You can’t predict that.

I am not clear on how this system works.

That's why the reasoning of that part is ambiguous, and even if you have a conversation, it will linger.

In the end, if I don't grasp this fundamental part, it comes to the conclusion that there is no clear answer.

-Why did the memory of the time of steer come back because of the update?

-When will you get your original memories back?

principle of the system.

And now, under the given conditions… I've been thinking of a way to figure this out.

'Then I have to find out.'

If I hesitate, I drag on again, and the bomb may explode when it is out of my hands.

'I'll never see that again.'

Here comes the second step of the 'Jeonggongbeop' following the direct conversation with the person concerned.

– System direct analysis.

And to catch a tiger, you have to go into the tiger's den.

I decided.

'Throws the adventure number.'

And if you want to take the risk, you have to do it yourself to be relieved.

so that morning.

‘Status window.’

It’s been a while since I voluntarily brought up a game system.

And since it was in ‘preview’, I checked again the system pop-up that was not complete somewhere.

[Mission failed: Return to original state]

Maximum viewing time: 48 hours

-Are you sure you want to read?

48 hours is probably the maximum penalty period received when Park Moon-dae and Ryu Kun-woo changed owners last time.

‘Seeing that it is attached to the maximum, there is a high probability that I can end it arbitrarily.’

Even in the worst case, it is said that the conclusion is unconditionally within 48 hours.

By the way, tomorrow is the weekend.

My contest stage is yet to be prepared, and the big month’s work is a day off.

Doesn’t it fit just right?

[Hyung, are you really going to do it?]

Yes.

[All right… .]

Daedal, who had already been persuaded for several hours, obediently agreed with my opinion.

and after a while

“after.”

I woke up from the bed with tired eyes.

The ceiling of Ryu Gun-woo’s bedroom was outlined in the dim light.

But I don’t have time to check in detail.

‘From the connection.’

I immediately connected to the field of view of ‘Park Moondae’ where the big moon entered.

[Viewing the fragment log]

An image is projected in my head as if my field of vision were split in two.

‘good.’

This is what I did last time.

And there is one fact that this tells us.

‘If the body is in a changed state, I can access Park Moon-dae’s field of view as a status window, just like Keun-dal did.’

Then maybe we can go one step further.

So I went to the next step.

-Like getting sucked into that little typhoon or black hole… .

‘It’s difficult.’

As I recalled the vague description of the big moon, I gradually focused on the surface of the status window as far as I could see… .

And how much time has passed

‘… !’

My consciousness was sucked in as if I was really asleep.

into the status window.

‘done!’

Check and change system structure.

Just as Big Moon had done before by accessing the system through the status window several times, from the daydream incident to the collapse of the building.

[■■■■■■■■■]

‘Just… I’ll make you incapacitated like a coma.’

I started analyzing the system.

Chapter 510

If I can’t debut, I’ll die of illness.

Going into the 510th episode system felt like a kind of sleepy state.

It is the dirty feeling of waking up in a state of being held down with scissors, but eventually succumbing to the pouring sleep and falling asleep with sober mind.

‘Really ‘sucked in’ is the right expression.’

Just like Big Moon explained.

-brother! You quit too… … .

-brother? my… .

-… … .

It seemed like the big moon was still sending messages, but that was all.

It hummed dullly, as if hearing a sound from outside in the water, and soon even that was not audible.

like falling into a deep sleep.

Like falling down a cliff.

The feeling of sinking into the deep sea far away.

‘… … after.’

For a moment, it seemed like a dizzying feeling of overwhelm, but it was soon shaken off.

‘It was already expected.’

No need to panic about what you know. I paused again and tried to figure out the structure of this system.

After a while.

‘… !’

As if slowly opening my eyes, I began to be aware of where I was.

And I was horrified

‘oh my god.’

Lump.

Luminous masses of different sizes were packed randomly all around, endlessly. And they were intricately connected to each other and flashed irregularly.

The inside of the system was messy like a patched circuit.

‘What is this?’

It felt like a system coded by a beginner. To the extent that I think that naming it a system was a pretty good choice.

At the same time, it felt like an architectural blueprint with bizarre and confusingly cut and pasted connections like spider webs or synapses.

In a word, the size of the colossal… it’s shit

Is this the first time you’ve implemented this as a status window? It was clear that Big Moon had replaced his head.

‘Should I take a look at each one.’

I first approached the nearby mass and focused my consciousness.

As if I could connect to the database.

This… .

[Measuring company rating]

That’s right.

‘Is this how each function is divided and connected?’

I briefly guessed that it might have become this messy structure because the necessary things were added at the time.

And from then on, the search began in earnest.

‘There is still plenty of time until morning.’

I thought I’d be stuck here for at least a few hours.

And after a good amount of time has passed.

I checked the names of all kinds of lumps.

Is it because it’s out of town? There were a lot of company-related functions that seemed to have been created recently.

‘It’s too much.’

It wasn’t weird that I was annoyed, but I wasn’t mad either because I was satisfied that I was digging into the insides of this damn system.

Anyway, it wasn’t long before I found what I was looking for while patiently checking my surroundings.

[☆Search☆]

Unlike the other lumps, this guy has a distinctive expression.

It wasn't made by the system. It is the trace left by the big moon that was implemented last time.

'I implemented it when the building collapse mission failed.'

It looked like a kind of terminal rather than a lump that was intricately connected with various lumps.

'good.'

This gave me direct access to the features I wanted.

And if you want, you can make an application function by connecting them well.

-Actually, it's not even applied, it's just a change in the way it's displayed…

No search is a really great feature.

I remembered Keundal's words and connected to the 'search' terminal.

'Can I make it this way?'

After thoroughly checking the implementation, I concluded that I could create an application in a similar way.

And I used the search function as I was originally going to do.

The purpose is to understand how the update works in this system.

-search.

-… All update-related information.

give it all away

At that moment, consciousness began to rapidly pull towards its destination in all directions.

I gritted my teeth and began to take in the information pouring in.

And I realized

'… !!'

The purpose of this damn cub is… .

* * *

'Brother! Are you okay?'

Entering the body of Park Moon-dae now in the big month, he couldn't bear to make a loud sound out of his mouth, but he was almost screaming internally.

'I should have gone as expected!'

Testa Park Moon-dae, who was originally Ryu Gun-woo, was very good at subtle logic distortion and persuasion, and in the end, Keun-dal gave in to the cold… .

The thesis, 'Doing it myself is more refreshing' was a matter of subjective appreciation. Daedal, who still had a soft side, could not reasonably deny that.

In addition, Keundal had already failed once.

-Hyung pressure was so strong that it was impossible to find out specific information. Maybe if my brother goes in there… .

-… ? If someone has failed once, it seems reasonable to change people and try again.

-yes? Yes, but… .

So in the end, the moment he spit out an ambiguous affirmation, he was possessed, and when he came to his senses, it was a crazy situation that his body had changed.

‘Ugh… .’

That big moon couldn’t bear to fall asleep in bed, so he came out to the sofa in the living room and waited for news from Ryu Kun-woo with open eyes… .

But I knew.

Manipulating the system is easy to say, but in fact it was incredibly demanding and difficult.

‘Maybe you won’t be able to come out for a while… .’

[Keundal.]

Kung.

“Huup.”

Keundal rolled off the sofa in an instant and had to cover his mouth.

There was a message from Testa Park Mundae, crackling and shaking in the air.

‘Did I come out?’

[It’s not like that.]

The message was answered casually.

[I found your search function. I tried to use the message function similarly. a little… It seems unstable.]

“… ??”

So now in the system… Are you sending a message?

Why did you come up with that idea? no more than that!

‘brother! Come out soon! I think I got it wrong!’

[No, it’s going smoothly here. I don’t think that’s necessary.]

The big moon cried out, “Why are you so calm in that monster sticker?” But the messages continued to arrive.

[There is a message.]

[I found the reason why the system updates in this way.]

“… !!”

The big moon forgot to even cry.

“What is it?”

The answer came back like a knife to the question that he unknowingly muttered with his mouth.

[To make me use the system often.]

“… ??”

yes?

[Think about it.]

[Last update when Cha Yu-jin’s memory was blown away. I tried a lot to use the system somehow to get information.]

That’s right.

Testa Park Moondae was trying to see if it was possible to activate at least some of the functions while holding on to the system that had been suspended and updated in that absurd state of emergency.

It was impossible, of course.

‘brother… .’

The moment when my heart was about to frown for a moment.

[I think I learned that.]

“… ??”

And a long message arrived at terrifying speed.

[This bastard decided that blowing my member’s memory was the most effective way to lure me.]

[That’s why he’s doing this shit. I expected that I would use the system often.]

Heo Eok.

[Last time, I saw you hurriedly knocking on the system to use it.]

“… … .”

The choice of words was unusual.

‘Tongue brother.’

And Keundal realized why Lee had to use the inefficient message function with himself.

He was so pissed off that he had to tell anyone about this… … .

[Do you remember? The last time we updated, we put in all the extra features.]

[Like asking you to try some.]

‘Yeah… .’

I also knew the big moon.

After completing the update, I saw all the flashing pop-ups such as surveys and new features as view sharing.

but.

‘But it didn’t work… .’

That older brother ignored everything like a knife.

[Yes.]

[He tried to make me desperate because it didn’t work for him to look useful.]

“… … .”

[That’s the current situation.]

‘My God.’

So the system decided that it was much more efficient to drive the opponent into a corner than to be useful.

It was a terrifying conclusion.

‘It’s safe because my brother is not subordinate to the system, but he became the owner… It wasn’t.’

If a rattlesnake bites its tongue, it will poison itself and die. Just because you have poison doesn’t mean you won’t be harmed by that poison.

After thinking for a while, the big moon realized it and quickly shouted.

‘Hyung, now that you know, you’re coming out, right? Come out quickly!’

I was thinking of begging him to throw away this system as soon as my brother comes out.

but.

[Wait.]

“… ?”

In the meantime, a surprisingly calm message came back as an answer.

However, the content made Daedal unable to calm down.

[I found another one now.]

‘What the hell?’

What else did you find in that moment?

Big moon wanted to cry a little now.

What the hell is your brother doing right now in that system?

* * *

The genus of the system.

‘Crazy bastard.’

I’m barely killing my anger.

As a result of the search, an astonishing result was drawn that it was a beta version and it was a nabal, and this system bastard was no different from before it was destroyed.

‘But once the result is obtained, it is a harvest in itself.’

The road to get here wasn’t easy. I won’t pretend it’s not for nothing.

First of all, the use of search, an ‘application function’ created by Keundal, consumed a great deal of mental strength. I thought my head would explode from the tremendous pressure.

‘Damn it.’

I’ve been thinking about it for a while, but how the hell did the big moon guy endure this while working?

It wasn’t surprising that he hadn’t been able to find out the specifics of the update until now.

I figured it was stupid to come all the way here and go back empty-handed, so I managed to hold on somehow.

-I still do it, X-foot!

… while doing this

Besides, since the big moon already knows everything, if I can’t do it, he will definitely try to connect here and try this again.

‘Then it’s inefficient.’

A waste of time and pain

so i did it once. And I didn’t like the conclusion I found.

‘This bastard is real.’

I suppressed my annoyance and looked at some of the update information that floated in front of me.

[Frequency of use: 0]

– Re-update

: Apply the best situation based on ‘frequency of use’ (Period: 365)

The goal is to increase the frequency of use.

‘That’s why this shit became.’

However, it was slightly different in the case of the first update that became the standard for this revision, namely Steer Cha Yu-jin.

: Applying command to improve the ability of entities belonging to ‘company’

In the case of Eugene Cha, it seems that it was an attempt to return the experience of Eugene Cha’s forgotten steer activities in order to promote ‘improvement of the ability of artists belonging to the company’.

However, during the update, the process of losing the original memory was included.

‘But since the frequency of use suddenly increased during the update, it means that the purpose was achieved by taking a backward step.’

It was astounding.

-go away.

My will echoed through the air, information scattered. I cleared my mind and calmed down again.

But there was also a strange feeling of untangling the knot.

Anyway, just knowing this bastard’s purpose showed me the way.

‘It’s not difficult to deal with once you know it.’

Perhaps the system didn’t just give me the ‘Mission Failed View’ function that I’m using now to enter Ryu Gun-woo’s body.

I think you analyzed that the system dependence would be high in the desperate situation of mission failure. Did you want to remind you of that experience?

sorry but it’s a failure

‘I’ll make you regret giving me this function.’

I laughed wildly and cleared the damn information from my eyes.

My head was spinning and I had a plan. It seemed that the business was over.

‘Then let’s go out… for a moment.’

But then.

I noticed that one of the last, most recently added entries in the scattered information dangling underneath.

Exactly this.

[Ver.2.2 update (scheduled)]

-Data implementation in progress

‘This… Is it next turn?’

In terms of the concept of modern civilization, it felt like content with a ‘reservation’.

‘Let’s check.’

I’m sure you’ll find out what this bastard was originally preparing for. I was told to analyze the information one more time.

If you focus your consciousness and try to grasp the specifics… .

A message rings in my head.

-who is this?

“… !!”

I lost my focus.

‘just now.’

Something got into the application function called ‘message’ that I implemented.

‘what?’

I tried to implement the ‘message’ function in more detail to make it more visible.

‘Damn it.’

For a moment, it seemed that no one was biting at the strange pressure that the system rejected.

The message is prefixed with a name.

-Lee Se-jin A: Who are you?

“… !”

I realized.

Sejin Lee A. The name tag Bae Se-jin received during < Azusa >.
therefore… Bae Se-jin, who has not changed his name.

and to be updated.

‘The number of cases is only one.’

-Lee Se-jin A: Where is this place?

Now I have access to the memories of ‘Steer Bae Se-jin’.

Chapter 511

If You Can’t Debut, You’ll Get a Deathly Disease Episode 511

Steer Lee Se-jin.

Bae Se-jin, who has not changed his name.

The memory of the person who had been tried and appealed for drug distribution in the past was in the system I was now digging into.

‘… Let’s stay calm.’

It was not surprising.

From my experience so far, it seems like the system stores memories of past lives as a kind of backup.

‘I’ve already seen my memories come back several times, so I can’t be surprised now.’

I also regained memories of the days when I was at the company while hitting the system before.

The problem is this.

‘Is it okay for me to talk?’

It was not just a memory, but a conversation was possible. It was unclear what effect this would have.

If it was normal, there is a high probability that I would have escaped without touching it… This is a special situation.

In other words, it is a situation in which the body is changed and forced to access the system.

‘If I skip it like this, it’s an X scene.’

It’s worth trying everything you can.

-Lee Se-jin: I asked who you are.

Just then, he sent another message. In some way, it seemed that they were aware that I was around them.

‘… … .’

okay.

As if accessing the terminal, I touched the mass of information. And, like the big moon sending a message to ‘Park Moon-dae’, he sent a letter slowly.

From expressions that can be easily understood over there.

[I am a member of the same group as you now.]

At that moment, the reply came as if lightning struck.

-Lee Se-jin A: Steer?

And for a while, the data was unresponsive.

As if a person was taking a break, the answer finally came back after a fairly significant blank was filled.

carefully.

-Lee Se-jin A: Ryu Cheong-woo?

‘… … .’

Strictly speaking, two of them should be roughly correct.

[Cheongwoo hyung is not. He probably isn't the person you think he is.]

And just as he was about to continue his explanation from here.

The knife-like reply arrived one step ahead.

-Lee Se-jin A: I am no longer a steer. And Steer has never recruited a new member.

-Lee Se-jin A: If we were in the same group, there's no way I wouldn't know. reveal your identity in detail.

'… !'

He knows more about the situation than you think.

'It means that I have enough background knowledge to logically argue.'

It was strange. News from the previous group in the yard where they left and even went to court? It's usually hard to care.

However, knowing these details means that the person himself searched for them separately.

I poked that part on purpose.

[Did you constantly search for steer?]

-Lee Se-jin A: Answer yourself first.

solid.

On the contrary, it felt less sensitive than in < Azusa >. His vigilance is more than that, but basically he doesn't seem to be shaken.

'hmm.'

Then it will be fine.

I decided to be honest about the situation.

[I am not a steer.]

-Lee Se-jin A: What?

[Now hyung debuted in a group called Testa, not Steer. I belong to that group.]

And I tried something new.

‘It doesn’t have to be in the form of a message.’

Instead of refining it in language, I transmit the entire information I want to pass on.

Information about the situation I’ve been through so far.

Concentrate your consciousness while still in contact with the terminal.

-Lee Se-jin A: ‘Hyung’? what is that… .

and that moment.

The things I’ve been through so far flowed into the terminal as they were, without any need to sort them out.

-Lee Se-jin A: !!

‘Because it’s a story that’s hard to believe, this is rather efficient.’

The pressure was intense, but not unbearable. After passing the information to the edge, I took my consciousness off the terminal.

And ‘Lee Se-jin A’ seemed to be just accepting the information I sent without replying.

As if digesting, after enough time has passed.

-Lee Se-jin A: So.

-Lee Se-jin A: I went to another group… debuted.

The answer came back.

‘It worked well.’

Although I almost bit my tongue.

I answered with concentration.

[Yes.]

-Lee Se-jin A: Then… How am I doing now?

[You are doing well as a group. And you changed your name to your mother’s last name. With Bae Se-jin.]

It meant that there were no problems enough for him to leave the group, and that the blood relationship issue was cleared up.

Rather than silence, the answer came only after a blank space that was more like a blank space.

-Lee Se-jin A: You are living well.

It was a fairly calm response.

[You live hard.]

-Lee Se-jin A: I have never been lazy either. But living hard and living well are two different things.

‘… … .’

I was a bit conflicted, but decided to ask openly.

It would be funny to come all the way here and pretend not to know.

[Your brother thinks he didn’t live well.] A former child actor and former idol who was involved in drug allegations that ruined his career, appealed, and endured.

-Lee Se-jin A: It’s not necessarily like that. It’s not like there wasn’t anyone who believed in me.

-Lee Se-jin A: But I won’t deny that the majority of people didn’t believe it.

‘It’s calm.’

To be honest, it wouldn’t be strange if it turned out to be more psychologically painful or attacked me for asking. Isn’t that a good enough situation?

However, Steer Bae Se-jin, who is marked as ‘Lee Se-jin A’, spoke a firm tone without agitation.

‘Is it because it’s data and can’t be shaken in the first place?’

no no

If that’s the case, there’s no way the feeling of such a detailed conversation could be conveyed.

My doubts were soon resolved.

-Lee Se-jin A: Anyway, okay.

-Lee Se-jin A: This conversation is then… Is it like a dream that I have already escaped from this situation?

[A dream?]

-Lee Se-jin A: Yes. If I was just a memory, there’s no way I could have a conversation with you like this.

It was an interesting assumption.

‘surely… Bae Se-jin must be sleeping right now.’

Based on the consciousness of Bae Se-jin, this steer Bae Se-jin’s memory can come out of the information mass and have a conversation… la.

So, the basic principle is the same as the previous steer cases.

‘Anyway, it’s unusual to not be embarrassed by saying that it’s just a memory.’

To be honest, I predicted that Steer Bae Se-jin would be a pretty twisted person. Since I was a child actor, nothing has worked out properly, and the very environment has driven me into hell.

‘People go through shit like that and of course their personality breaks down.’

But the guy I’m talking to right now… Rather, he had the aspect of a veteran who had gone through all the battles.

[Aren’t you unhappy?]

-Lee Se-jin A: It was unfair.

-Lee Se-jin A: But I also learned that things can’t be solved just by feeling unfair.

It’s these aspects.

It was very tight.

Besides, the guy even made a reverse proposal.

-Lee Se-jin A: It seems that the situation is not good right now. If you have any questions, ask. I will answer you.

It was more cooperative than I could have imagined.

‘Don’t miss it.’

So, the moment I tried to quickly pull out the question… .

‘hmm.’

A better idea came to mind.

If you are this calm and mentally strong, this method would be better.

[How about this, by any chance?]

I explained my proposal, and Lee Se-jin A seemed to be pondering for a moment, but soon answered willingly.

-Lee Se-jin A: Yes. that would be nice

okay.

I immediately grabbed the guy’s terminal.

And I started tearing it out of the system.

The pressure swept through my body.

* * *

Night Testa’s accommodation.

Big Moon, who was sitting on the sofa in the living room with anxiety enough to bite his nails, finally received the pop-up he had been waiting for.

[Now out of the system]

“… !!”

It was Testa Park Moon-dae’s contact from the system.

at las!

‘thank god!’

Keundal let out a sigh of relief and wiped away the cold sweat, then lowered his voice as much as possible and shouted.

“Now take your body back. No, don’t ever go back into the system!”

[wait for a sec. I want my body to stay like this until tomorrow morning, is it okay?]

“… ?”

[I have work to do.]

[Go that way. Get some sleep.]

“… ??”

And Keundal accidentally met Ryu Gun-woo, who silently entered the password and infiltrated the testa accommodation a few minutes later.

‘brother!?’

[They told me to stay asleep.]

Testa Park Moon-dae, who had been silent.

His brother, who had reentered Ryu Gun-woo’s body, answered quietly without opening his mouth, as if to avoid waking the other members.

Then he strode into the living room and said.

[I’ll be getting ready, so take a rest.]

‘What are you preparing for?’

Ryu Kun-woo’s face opened a pop-up while looking at the big moon calmly without expression.

[Conversation.]

Recalling the conversation I had with Steer Bae Se-jin in the system.

– Have you ever thought about having a conversation with someone else?

-Lee Se-jin A: Okay.

and about an hour later.

That conversation actually happens.

* * *

Liu Qingyu woke up to the hand shaking him.

My mind was not clear and the room was dark.

‘Is it still dawn?’

He didn’t feel much displeasure at being forced to wake up earlier than scheduled.

Because I lived like that for years. It was something you had to get used to working in the entertainment industry.

However, I couldn’t help but panic the moment I saw someone I didn’t know in front of me.

“… !”

A man with a cold expression wearing glasses.

Its appearance resembled itself somehow.

“who… .”

“Ryu Gun-woo.”

“ah.”

It’s a name to remember.

He quickly got up from his bed, feeling sleepy.

The person who Ryu Gun-woo Testa Park Moon-dae revealed was his previous life.

‘And my relatives.’

He silently beckoned to himself.

“… ?”

“Follow me.”

Liu Cheng-wu quietly followed him without protesting.

The destination is the room opposite.

It was Park Moon-dae and Kim Rae-bin’s room.

“Tongue brother.”

“Oh.”

As if they had already woken up, Kim Rae-bin and Cha Yu-jin could be seen in the light of the stand.

And the moment he saw In-seon, Ryu’s blood ran from head to toe.

‘It’s just us.’

All of them have memories of Steer.

He raised the level of tension, but didn’t show it, and asked a little puzzled.

“I… What kind of situation is this?”

“I changed my body for a while.”

Without even asking whether such a thing was possible, Ryu Cheng-wu instinctively realized that he was Testa Park Mun-dae.

It was because things like tone of voice, eye gestures, and stride were completely consistent.

‘Come to think of it, I heard that someone who used to be Bak Mundae is using his body now.’

When he recalled the brief explanation of the situation, Ryu Cheng-wu acknowledged the situation. Because there was nothing that would help you if you didn’t admit it anyway.

It was a little suspicious and awkward, but I didn’t have to express it out of my mouth.

So instead, he responded like Testa’s leader, Ryu Cheng-wu.

“Isn’t there a problem? It’s strange to see you again, but… . Safety is more important than that.”

“There is no problem. Thank you for your concern.”

Ryu Gun-woo replied as if he had chosen the correct answer.

but.

“But I won’t see you again.”

Calmly breaks the horse.

“Because you don’t remember Ryu Gun-woo.”

“… … .”

Liu Chengyu responded unfazed.

“Hmm, I guess I didn’t recognize you for a while because time passed. sorry.”

“okay. Things like that happen, too.”

Ryu Gun-woo nodded easily.

“But you said you were sorry when I answered ‘Ryu Gun-woo’.”

“… !”

As if you made a mistake.

In a word, he was conscious of not recognizing Ryu Gun-woo.

Because it’s a caring lie.

“Is it true that Ryu Gun-woo said he remembered it?”

“… … .”

After silence.

Liu Qingyu immediately smiled bitterly.

“no.”

“… … .”

“When I looked at the photo album on my smartphone, there was a video. I wondered why I had saved a previous family trip with a recent date, centered on a relative I couldn’t even remember.”

The days when Testa Ryu Cheong-woo was looking for Ryu Gun-woo at the request of Park Moon-dae.

He saved the scene of ‘Ryu Gun-woo’ in his family travel video that Park Moon-dae recognized on his smartphone in case it was useful.

“So I remembered… When I asked, I just thought of it and said it.”

Calm explanation that it was not intentional.

It was persuasive enough, but Ryu Gun-woo did not go over.

‘You’ve looked through Testa Ryu Chung-woo’s phone gallery one by one.’

And I even came up with the fact that I answered that I remembered on purpose to make it easier to settle down here.

I didn’t bother to point it out.

“I’m sorry if I felt deceptive.”

Ryu Cheng-wu meekly apologized like a testa Ryu Cheng-wu.

But at the same time, he also saw Kim Rae-bin flinch at his soft tone.

It’s a bit unfortunate, and it’s an ambivalent feeling that I’m afraid to say useless words.

‘I can’t help it.’

It wasn’t a very pleasant thing. Ryu Cheng-wu clenched and opened his fists, thinking somewhat self-deprecatingly.

And after hearing the apology, Ryu Kun-wu calmly nodded.

“I don’t think it’s deceptive. But I didn’t mean to talk about that.”

Ryu Cheng-wu was briefly relieved, but soon heard Ryu Kun-wu’s bomb declaration.

“Actually, what I have to say here doesn’t really matter.”

“… ?”

“Because I came as an agent.”

And he started looking into space.

“From now on, I will pass on his words.”

Invisible to anyone else, there was a new message pop-up that he ‘riped out’ from the system and implemented into the status window.

-Lee Se-jin A: It’s been a while.

“I am Sejin Lee. Lee Se-jin, who was the steer.”

He started reading the contents of the message pop-up.

And a chilly silence fell in the room.

“Now what?”

“Yeah… ?”

Through the words of the steer members who asked back, Ryu Gun-woo’s voice rang out.

“I came to this place. Because I have something to say.”

-Lee Se-jin A: I don’t think you guys will be curious about my thoughts, and there’s no need to, so I don’t want to say anything else.

-Lee Se-jin A: But I have to say one thing. There’s something I definitely remember.

Gunwoo Ryu looked at Sejin Lee’s message pop-up and conveyed the contents clearly.

“I won the case.”

In an instant, everyone in the room raised their heads.

Among the people with shocked and dazed faces, steer Bae Se-jin spoke as if declaring through the mouth of Ryu Gun-woo.

“I appealed because I was dissatisfied in the second trial, and in the final third trial, which went all the way to the Supreme Court… I won.”

The message declared again and again.

-Lee Se-jin A: So Steer is not a drug group.

Chapter 512

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 512

"… … ."

Park Moon-dae and Kim Rae-bin's room where silence fell.

A former member of Steer said so through the mouth of Ryu Gun-woo, who stood tall.

-I won the case.

So Steer is not a drug group.

"… … ."

A wordless shock rang through the air.

Steer Ryu Cheng-wu muttered to himself.

"Win."

"okay."

It seemed that the image of a member who had already withdrawn came to mind beyond the answering Ryu Kun-woo.

Actor Lee Se-jin A.

Ryu Cheng-wu opened his mouth involuntarily.

"how?"

He knew how the trial unfolded.

It is because I checked and remembered the reaction of Steer Bae Se-jin when he was arrested for drug distribution.

What I said with a face that was pale with resentment, resentment, and fear.

-no!

He believed the words to be true.

It wasn't that I was embarrassed because I was caught, but that it was sharpness that came out of resentment.

'It's a misunderstanding or false accusation.'

So, the hours of thinking every morning about how this group can survive until the charges are lifted.

Looking back now, it was better then.

Contrary to the plan, Lee Se-jin A's charges were not released.

Thanks to the burning public opinion, the verdict came out frighteningly quickly. and.

[< Azusa > debut group steer Lee Se-jin sentenced to prison in the first trial… "The crime is bad"]

Prison sentenced.

However, Lee Se-jin A did not give up.

And the more he appealed, the worse the public opinion on the Internet got. It's amazing that there's still room for it to get worse.

-Boring drug lords

-Anyway, drug dealers seem to have sold their brains and consciences

-Pasoon must have been pretty good at sucking money

as if even close people should investigate .

When an article was published, excited people flocked to it and then disappeared like the ebb tide.

after so long

After being sentenced to prison in the second trial of Gearko, this topic has not even become a hot potato in public opinion.

It’s because there’s no room for controversy, and it’s cold.

– Haha it’s ugly

“… … .”

And Liu Cheng-wu couldn’t be unaware that there was almost no chance that the result would suddenly change to acquittal in the final 3rd trial Supreme Court.

Because the article already said so.

In fact, it was common sense that could be explained with just one comment without considering the complicated trial procedural issues such as the legal and factual trial discussed in the article.

-Evidence has already come out, but why did the money come and go like that?

“… … .”

Only then did Liu Cheng-wu give up looking for the outcome of the trial.

He was already tired enough.

‘I can’t do it.’

In the midst of bullying and freezing the collapsing group and somehow sustaining it, there was no energy to spend on this torture of hope.

He decided to be realistic.

But here it all turns upside down like a lie… At the end of the end, the explanation that he was eventually acquitted.

It is borrowing from another person’s mouth with a consciousness that you do not even know where the person concerned is.

‘Lee Se-jin A, who was a steer, did not distribute drugs.’

The overwhelming meaning of that one sentence.

“… … .”

Ryu Gun-woo opened his mouth again.

Lee Se-jin A’s words came out.

“I can understand your disbelief.”

There are very few cases where you are suddenly acquitted only in the third trial.

-Lee Se-jin A: However, it is not that there is no way if a legitimate reason for appeal can be found.

-Lee Se-jin A: In my case, it was a false statement by a witness.

Lee Se-jin A found a contradiction in the statement of his biological father who bet him to get a reduced sentence and overturned it.

It was the result of tenacity, tenacity, meticulousness, and a bit of bad luck.

“It took a long time, but in the end I was able to overturn the original judgment and go to trial again.”

Ryu Gun-woo calmly read the message.

A lot of agony, a trial that went through several years, and the end of another trial.

“I won.”

“… … .”

innocence.

“Don’t lie about this. There is no need for that.”

Ryu Gun-woo was still calm.

And that calmness really seemed to guarantee Lee Se-jin A to speak the truth without hesitation.

Everyone in the room felt it.

“… … .”

And as if to break the silence, one person jumped out.

“You fXXking did it!”

It was Cha Yoo-jin.

The room is suddenly filled with noise and heat.

He hugged Ryu Gun-woo roughly and reacted hotly like a manager who ran into a boxer who had just won.

Of course, Ryu Gun-woo refused.

“Not me.”

“i know. please forward!”

Cha Yoo-jin said in a slightly trembling voice.

[I’m sorry I didn’t look all the way.]

“… … .”

Ryu Gun-woo nodded with a slight smile.

“Thank you.”

“Oh… .”

The stiff atmosphere melted in an instant.

However, the remaining two people were still sitting motionless in their seats, like mangbuseok.

It was a shocking difference.

Unlike Cha Yu-jin, who has already completed the internal conflict as a steer, for these two, all of these events are currently in progress.

‘Right.’

So, after roughly separating Cha Yoo-jin, Ryu Gun-woo opened his mouth again.

to convey the following words.

-Lee Se-jin A: But I know.

-Lee Se-jin A: My victory means a lot only to me.

“For you guys, even if you come now and hear these things, it won’t change what you’ve already been through.”

Steer took a big hit from a member's drug charges at the beginning of their debut, and with that as the starting point, they collapsed and disbanded.

It was a command that would never change.

Even if it turns out now that it wasn't true, the public won't be interested. Frustratingly.

"… And I have no intention of denying that the injustice I went through has also caused great damage to you guys. It can't be."

but.

-Lee Se-jin A: But you can change the way you feel when you recall the memories of that time.

Steer didn't fail just because he was damn good.

That way you can come up with reasons to refute yourself.

"… So I just wanted to let you know that I was legally proven and recognized."

-Lee Se-jin A: That's all.

"… … ."

After that, Ryu Gun-woo closed his mouth.

No more message pop-ups. As if I had finished everything I really wanted to say and had no regrets.

It was then.

"I."

A hand came up from one side of the bed.

It was Kim Rae-bin, whose eyes were slightly red.

“that… It must have been a lot of trouble, but can I say I’m sorry I couldn’t be of any help… .”

Ryu Gun-woo nodded happily.

Steer Kim Rae-bin seemed a bit confused, but as if clearing his mind, he continued to speak slowly and earnestly, thinking about each letter.

“and… It’s late, but congratulations. However, what does the phrase ‘you can change the way you think when you think about the past’ mean specifically?”

Lee Se-jin A thought about it, but eventually answered like this.

-Lee Se-jin A: I think it’s right to feel it yourself. If someone else tells you, it’s someone else’s idea, and it becomes an obligation or compulsion.

“okay.”

Kim Rae-bin thought again and only one steer remained. I knew that myself.

Steer Ryu Chung-woo.

‘… … .’

He too knew the right answer.

‘That’s a lot of trouble’ ‘I’m glad your innocence was proved’ ‘I’m sorry I couldn’t find out the news in advance’… … .

But these words did not come out of my mouth.

It was because of exhaustion.

The original inclination to be a person who always said such things with sincerity revived in his mind that had been blown away by shock.

However, it was not that I wanted to resent Lee Se-jin A now. just… It felt like my head was somehow swept away by the overwhelming fact.

"… I see."

All I could do was a few simple words. He raised his head, trying not to return to his dry, tired expression.

It was then.

"Cheongwoo Ryu."

-Lee Se-jin A: You… I thought we'd continue the group here.

"… … ."

Ryu Gun-woo delivered without taking his eyes off the air.

"If you want to do well here, I will cheer you on. … You've been through a lot in the past. Thank you for trusting me and I'm sorry."

Ryu Gun-woo delivered those words without censorship.

Even though it must have been an embarrassing statement from the point of view of Testa Park Moon-dae.

"… … ."

"Although it took a long time… ."

-Lee Se-jin A: I won without compromise.

-Lee Se-jin A: Your virtue will also be there.

Liu Qingyu did not answer.

But he didn't deny it, he didn't change his words, he didn't even moderately affirm it.

He just raised his head without saying a word, then lowered it slightly.

like nodding your head.

-Lee Se-jin A: Thank you for listening.

That's how the conversation with Lee Se-jin A ended.

Cha Yoo-jin seemed to want to say a few more words with him, but the big moon rushed in and the situation had to end.

"brother! I fall down… !"

"No I… ."

And it was briefed indirectly that Ryu Gun-woo was overdoing it, and the seat was finished.

Thanks to this, the former steer members scattered and went back to their beds, immersed in different thoughts.

"… … ."

In fact, during the Steer days, Lee Se-jin A was implicitly prohibited from mentioning within the group.

It happened naturally. There was no backlash.

This is because most of the members have only had public conversations for about half a year. At the time, steer Lee Se-jin A was very defensive and reacted sensitively to his peers.

Still, no one thought that what had just happened was meaningless.

For example, Rabin Kim here.

"Good night."

"yes… ."

Following the recommendation of another member, he quietly lay down on the bed, but did not fall asleep right away.

Steer Kim Rae-bin continued to worry.

He continued to think honestly as advised by Lee Se-jin A, befitting his sincere personality built on the basis of his natural temperament and childhood.

‘When I think of the past, I have a different mindset… la.’

He recalled the steer activity and changed the fact that became the base. Just like correcting the beat while arranging.

-Steer has a member arrested on drug charges.

– Steer’s drug charges were not justified.

It was just an unfair false accusation.

‘then… My shortcomings too.’

Could there have been other reasons other than talent and effort?

Former idol Kim Rae-bin, who gave up on the stage, thought involuntarily.

However, his consciousness was soon scattered in the pouring sleep.

It was a quiet sleep.

* * *

And the same time.

Bae Se-jin, who had fallen asleep in his comfortable solitary cell, realized that he had regained consciousness.

But it didn’t wake up.

-hi.

‘… … ?’

A dark-haired man with a calm expression was standing in front of him.

It was a familiar face.

-I came because I had time to talk to you.

It was because Bae Se-jin was himself.

Of course, Bae Se-jin, who was sleeping, had no way to know that ‘Lee Se-jin A’, who was returning after an agreement with Ryu Gun-woo, had come all the way through the system, and reacted like this.

“… ??”

what kind of dream is this?

– How do you feel about life now?

“what? Who are you?”

-… They seem to be living well, but their personalities are still the same. i’m right

It was an alumni answer. However, Bae Se-jin also frowned and replied similarly, so it would not be unfair.

It’s because the realization came like lightning in an instant.

“Are you the old me? Was it that steer? that group.”

-… … .

Bae Se-jin saw the other person’s reaction and realized that he had got the answer right.

‘oh my god.’

He swallowed his saliva at a body that did not exist.

However, to see him as a person who caused a lot of trouble to the team… The person in front of me looked very firm and mature.

‘what?’

Anyway, he had something to ask immediately.

“if… Am I going to become you like the other kids now? You lose your memory.”

Fortunately, Lee Se-jin A shook his head.

-That won’t happen. But you can have this memory.

“… okay.”

Bae Se-jin hardened his expression for a moment, but soon finished his thoughts and nodded.

“okay. that’s fine.”

I didn’t even know it was necessary.

From Cha Yoo-jin to Ryu Cheong-woo and Kim Rae-bin.

I wanted to find out why the members who had a memory of debuting as a group called ‘Steer’ in the past had a strange attitude towards them.

He clenched his fists and spoke calmly.

“I am ready to be remembered.”

Lee Se-jin A immediately refused.

-I won’t.

“… what?”

Bae Se-jin was at a loss for words.

-I’m sorry, but I only came because I wanted to check my condition myself.

‘Former steer Lee Se-jin A’ was the consciousness of Bae Se-jin who was sleeping anyway, and his memory was changed there.

In other words, he planned to return his memories without regret after seeing himself objectively.

-You don’t have to remember and know all the past. Growth can go in different directions.

Pain alone does not make a person grow.

And now, Testa Bae Se-jin seems to be growing well.

Lee Se-jin A nodded as if to admit it.

However, Bae Se-jin was serious.

“Why are you judging that by yourself?”

-… !

“I know my condition better.”

remember me

… In the middle of the night, not being the same person with the same name, who had only become conscious, he started an intense self-answer.

Chapter 513

If you can’t debut, you’ll get sick to death Episode 513

After gathering all the guys from Steer in the early morning and making a fuss.

after.

I got out of bed a few hours later while the window light was still dim.

It was earlier than the original wake-up time.

Yeah, to be honest, I wasn’t sleeping, I was just closing my eyes. I couldn’t sleep.

My head was a little itchy. I don’t know if this is the aftereffects of getting my head stuck in the system or the aftereffects of staying up all night with a body in my 30s.

Since he seems to be exercising steadily in his own way, it seems that the former is much more likely.

‘It’s not my body anymore, I have to use it properly.’

I’m glad today is a day off.

After checking Ryu Gun-woo’s condition, I checked Keun-dal, who was sleeping on the floor this time.

By the way, there was a lot of conversation before the sleeping place was allocated like this.

First of all, I heard him worrying about my mental health for a few minutes, and then I heard the big moon screaming like this.

– As expected, hyung sleeps in the bed! Because it's my brother's bed in the first place… .

-okay.

-… ? Are you real?

-uh.

After all, when you change your body, you will be sleeping in bed. I nodded my head inwardly as I looked at the guy who was fully stretched out on the floor of the futon.

'… Maybe now is the time.'

I closed my eyes for a moment and then immediately brought up the status window. To really make sure 'this thing is over'.

And I called.

'… Lee Se-jin?'

Steer Bae Se-jin.

Lee Se-jin A, who had a conversation through a pop-up.

But there was no response.

There was only one last pop-up left in the air.

[Lee Se-jin A: Thank you.]

The guy was no longer here.

That means… Either way, it means the job is done.

The guy who said ‘I want to check it myself’ and said he would visit Bae Se-jin’s consciousness… Anyway, there are no more left.

‘okay.’

I thought for a moment, then laid my head on the bed again.

There was no point in staying still. With everything done, it was time to head back.

‘Don’t wake the useless sleeper, let’s clean up quickly.’

In addition to the pop-up with Lee Se-jin A, a translucent status window was visible in the air.

[Viewing the fragment record]

-Mission failed:

The elapsed time was written at the bottom of the restoration.

(04:11:21 / 48:00:00)

4 hours.

It feels like a day or two have passed.

[Are you sure you want to quit viewing the fragment record?]

Anyway, as expected, viewing could be stopped at any time within the time frame.

‘… okay.’

I nodded.

and.

[End]

The sight blinked briefly and seemed dizzy, but it soon became normal.

And I realized I was lying on the floor with my eyes closed.

It was Park Moon-dae's body again.

There was no new pain.

'Ugh'

But the headache, like being stabbed in the temple with a needle, never ends. It's the aftereffects of the system's kneading.

'Is this fucking pressure still there?'

However, when I went back to Ryu Gun-woo, I looked at the big moon who was still sleeping well.

'Then this is better.'

It is better to belong to the spirit of the perpetrator. If you suddenly change your body in the middle of the night and get a headache as a bonus, wouldn't it be quite X-rated?

If it were me, I wouldn't leave it alone. In that sense, the current state of taking care of the situation you committed is not bad.

'At most it will last for a few days.'

In the case of the big moon, it seems to have recovered after sleeping, but I'm just wheezing because I can't sleep right now.

I woke up pressing my temples. I was thinking of waiting in the kitchen to drink some water before the other guys wake up.

And the moment you open the door and step outside.

saw.

In the early morning, close to dawn, the kitchen is still dark and quiet.

There were already passengers at the Irish table there.

A dark silhouette… It was Bae Se-jin.

… brother?

No answer came back. He was just standing there with a glass of water in his hand.

I didn't rush and waited for him to respond.

and after a while

He nodded and drank the water he was holding in his hand. and asked me

Are you thinking of drinking water?

… It's true.

In response, Bae Se-jin quietly went to the water purifier and got another glass of water. It's no different from the usual early morning… .

'No.'

… Is Bae Se-jin right?

I suddenly thought of such a possibility while watching the behavior of a particularly calm guy.

'… … Lee Se-jin A?'

In the meantime, the guy finished using the water purifier. Then, holding a glass of water, he started walking.

Soon after, the pale sunlight passed near the window and illuminated the dark human figure.

The guy… It was a confused expression.

that… is it you

yes?

that he sent that… !

Bae Sejin is right.

He was like a guy enough to make my heart go numb. And check one more.

I nodded.

I see you.

It means that 'Lee Se-jin A' successfully communicated with this guy.

that's right.

Bae Se-jin was silent for a moment, as if he didn't know what to say, then slowly opened his mouth again.

and… got the memory

Was it like that

I nodded and then the guy added calmly.

I haven’t received all of them.

hmm?

* * *

A few minutes ago.

Two people with the same face were in a confrontation. Among them, the one with the thicker eyes and the tousled hair said firmly.

-You can’t claim ownership of time you haven’t experienced. stop.

What are you talking about from before? If that’s my past, what I’ve experienced is right! Is it something that never happened just because I forgot?

‘Did you leave it to me?’ The story that can be summarized as ‘It’s my heart’ came and went endlessly.

A tense argument without any concessions was taking place in Bae Se-jin’s unconscious mind. It was an inner conflict in the true sense.

-I am the embodiment of your consciousness receiving the memories of the past. So, it’s no different from deciding that you won’t be able to recover your memories after trying to retrieve them.

What are you talking about. You don’t even know how I’ve been

The more explicit expression of emotion frowned. This is Testa Bae Se-jin.

But how can you be sure you made the same judgment as me? that’s selfish!

– It’s sophistry.

You are a sophistry!

And both were mentally gasping, reaching an implicit truce.

-… … .

The two looked at each other as if they were tired of each other, but their faces were firm.

I couldn’t help it. Even though the experience was different, it was because the way of thinking was similar as much as it was the same person.

And the first to speak was Lee Se-jin A.

-I understand your argument.

Years of court battles and imprisonment gave him the wisdom to acknowledge the inevitable and quickly devise another route.

However, the destination has not changed.

-But the decision is mine.

Just give up persuasion and act right away.

for a moment… ! Then let’s do this.

However, Sejin Bae was a little more irregular.

It’s because I’ve learned over the years that good results can come out even if I act as I want without worrying about it.

‘If it’s like this… !’

He boldly opened his mouth.

give me some

-… … .

Anyway, when I wake up, I can hear the other members' circumstances. But if you listen directly, you can understand it yourself without being distorted.

Facts are distorted when they pass through someone else's mouth, whether it's because they're worried, because they're uncomfortable talking about it, or whether they're arbitrary.

It was a part that Lee Se-jin A was well aware of.

It's okay if you don't give me the parts that you don't feel comfortable giving.

-… … .

But I need to get what I need to judge properly.

so as not to misunderstand.

Lee Se-jin A looked at the same person with the same face as himself without saying a word. Bae Se-jin felt nervous as if he had swallowed saliva.

and after a while

Lee Se-jin A, with a calm face, stretched out his hand.

-okay.

It was a handshake.

Bae Se-jin carefully reached out and grabbed it.

and.

[———]

Memories flooded into my consciousness.

sight is gone

‘Huck’

Bae Se-jin stopped breathing for a moment at the feeling of intimidation he experienced for the first time.

Still, the feeling of overwhelm was short-lived. Soon, as if submerged in water, my consciousness in the wet sensation became clearer.

The first thing I felt was… message.

-who is this?

It was a message he sent to someone.

A strange person in a black space.

Gunwoo Ryu. therefore… … .

‘… Park Moondae??’

[I am a member of the same group as you now.]

Bae Se-jin realized.

What he received was not Lee Se-jin A’s life.

As the memory of Lee Se-jin A just before this, I received the memory of the end of the short time I had a conversation with Park Moon-dae in the system!

‘… ! Only this??’

Bae Se-jin was also taken aback at first. And right after that, I almost became enraged at the thought that I had been scammed, but I soon figured out the situation.

‘ah.’

It is because Lee Se-jin A’s experience and background knowledge that led to this point came to mind naturally.

They acquire emotions and knowledge naturally, as if they had experienced it themselves.

‘oh my god.’

It didn’t seem like a lie that this steer’s Bae Se-jin was embodied based on his consciousness.

And since it was quite shocking, he understood why his past self was trying so hard not to return his memories.

It was pure good will.

‘… Charged with transporting drugs.’

The knowledge alone was astonishing.

However, the memories received now are only background knowledge to recall.

The terrible arrest, trial and painful time have already been overcome, and once refined as if through a filter, it is understandable.

So Bae Se-jin digested them slowly.

He was able to accept it calmly, as if vaguely recalling the past.

But there were also things that couldn’t be.

-A long time.

The situation where he had a direct conversation with the Steer members through the mouth of Ryu Gun-woo.

The real-time emotions felt by ‘Lee Se-jin A’ revealing the truth to them were as vivid as if they were experiencing them now.

-I won the case.

A light sadness, calmness, a refreshing feeling, and a clean lingering aftertaste.

and… … assurance.

‘I see.’

Bae Se-jin understood then.

Lee Se-jin A So, the hardness you showed in yourself in the past… It was the unique confidence of a person who struggled alone and achieved what he wanted in the end.

It was tough.

And at the same time, it was shocking.

‘I… Could it be like this?’

Lee Se-jin A is her past self.

So, he was a person who could overcome this extreme situation without collapsing.

‘… … .’

In fact, Bae Se-jin thought that it was miraculous that he had grown to this extent as a testa.

I thought it was only possible because I was able to become a team with good people by chance and get encouragement and resolve.

Because he knew his own sensitivity, he implicitly thought that if the environment was a little worse, he would not have been able to handle it.

But maybe that wasn't true.

'I am… I could have endured the worst.'

and could win

It was a thrilling realization.

So, when the replay of that memory was over, he called out with excitement without realizing it.

To Sejin Lee A.

excuse me… .

-… … .

But no answer was heard.

it's already gone Or absorbed into oneself.

'… ah.'

He was a bit forlorn. Even though you know it's you.

So, even though I knew it was unconscious, I tried to say it out loud once.

great job.

It was strangely comforting.

Bae Se-jin felt that the opaque vision was getting brighter.

'You're waking up.'

So he awoke from his dream.

I didn’t intend to tell all of this in detail, but I thought I should at least explain the progress of the work.

* * *

… That’s how it happened.

Bae Se-jin drank the water again and I nodded my head inwardly.

He seemed to have had a better experience than I thought. and… .

‘In the end, the two identical guys got into an argument and agreed to deliver only enough memories to grasp the situation.’

He was really a consistent guy, no guy. I drank the water and laughed.

You are great.

Are you being sarcastic? … no it won’t be

yes.

Bae Se-jin meekly accepted my answer and sat down on the chair.

And he said it quite forcefully.

anyway… So that’s the point.

yes?

What are they going to do? Especially Ryu Chung-woo.

I felt it while searching for memories… He seemed so tired.

The guy added seriously.

It was a very active attitude.

I think he was dealing with too much during that steer. But there was no place to turn to and no compensation.

okay.

The problem is knowing why they want to stay here… . Yes I can see why you were so worried.

Bae Se-jin frowned as if he was worried, but soon raised his head.

It was a pretty reassuring expression.

So I've been thinking a bit too.

oh.

yes.

listen. therefore… … .

Bae Se-jin started to seriously express his opinion and I was quite surprised.

'It's fine.'

The guy's opinion was pretty good.

Plus, as a side effect, I noticed that my head had cooled quite a bit as I listened to the story.

'Is it burden sharing?'

As an outsider, being able to work out a solution with someone who knew everything was honestly pretty cool.

Two heads were better than one.

'Not bad.'

So I forgot my headache and had a short conversation with Bae Se-jin.

Until the other members wake up, wake up until the big moon, and the morning hours become a mess.

uh huh Gunwoo… Oh, Mr. Moon!

yes! you're right. There I am… .

Eyy, eat and go! How did you get here at this early hour?

huh ah so uh huh… .

… For your information, Keundal gets rid of the incident so far while going back and forth like a ping-pong ball in the ping-pong of Keun Se-jin and Seon Ah-hyun throughout the meal.

And that means… Those who heard the story and realized the exact outline of the incident began to stare at me while widening their eyes.

It means that the system has been rushed.

therefore… Did you change your body and come back?

Okay. I was determined.

It's dumb… .

Park Moondae Are you really going to do this?

no.

won't be anymore

‘Now I know how to handle the system.’

Calculation is over.

ah… . hey can’t do it! Or write a memorandum… .

I will.

… ?!

I gladly signed a non-consultational non-recurrence of ‘system sudden use without consultation’. The members responded with expressions that seemed like they would applaud.

let’s get stuck

ugh right… !

so far?

Of course, even in the midst of this, the two guys who were not original members were an exception.

Steer guys.

‘hmm.’

Kim Rae-bin eagerly listened to Cha Yoo-jin explain what the situation was, but Ryu Chung-woo showed a slight reaction as if he hadn’t decided how to react.

His expression was still mild, but that was all.

Originally, I would have actively rushed in, grasped the situation, and tried to melt into it naturally.

‘hmm.’

After the conversation at dawn, this guy seemed to have some complicated thoughts.

After making eye contact with Bae Se-jin, I nodded once. And he opened his mouth.

Come to think of it, it's a new shoot tonight.

Yes… ! That < true match >.

Filming this contest.

I was thinking of making a bet there.

However, when I went to the filming set, one more variable appeared.

Adopting a survival contest method, a new contestant entered < Jinsung Match >, where one last contestant was eliminated from the previous stage.

Hey, newcomers.

Let's do it well~

Those guys were the first to come to the set and were greeting each other with nervous faces.

But that participant.

Thank you very much! I am Eter, a rookie from Wonder Hall!

it was ether

Chapter 514

If you can’t debut, you’ll get sick to death Episode 514

These guys were invited to the renewal version of < Jinseong Match > that we preoccupied.

As soon as I arrived at the filming set, I saw the guys running around the waiting room in the hallway and greeting other cast members. My first thought was this.

‘Why didn’t I hear?’

Why didn’t we know they were appearing?

I questioned myself for a moment, then clicked my tongue.

It’s obvious.

The production team deliberately didn’t spill it.

‘You must have thought we were going to suck.’

That Testa would dislike Ether was something I could tell just by talking to a few people at our company.

Coincidentally, among the current cast members, there was no company like LeTi that meticulously checked and checked additional cast members in advance.

That’s why he cut off the time by saying, ‘The casting has not been decided yet’.

I twitched my eyebrows.

‘I saw it with water.’

Actually, I didn’t expect this to happen. No, there was no need to predict.

It was because there was a calculation that Wonder Hall, the agency of Ether, would not dare to push it here.

Haven’t you already experienced it with the water bomb?

‘If a rookie with no experience is compared in a head-to-head match, it would be perfect for X to break.’

So, I was thinking of intentionally leaving the other side that was planted in this company and gently shaking the bait so that it bites in reverse… .

Are you stepping into the wrong place?

‘Is this the last outburst?’

The fact that a company like Wonderhole is unlikely to use such a shallow move makes my head spin even more.

Let’s go in first~

Yep.

First of all, Testa entered the designated waiting room without saying anything. However, just looking at the facial expressions of our staff, they seemed to have a lot to say.

‘Steer Ryu Cheng-wu must have seen this too.’

Up until now, he had been the one who was quick to notice the situation, but somehow he just followed me without saying anything.

‘hmm.’

After entering the waiting room, I talked to him.

It’s a group called Ether, and they debuted by benchmarking Testa.

I see

The inertial answer came back.

Anyone who had investigated Testa like digging would have known about it, but he was overly serene and calm.

Like reacting to a topic you don’t care about.

‘… … .’

After checking the guy’s reaction, I averted my gaze.

Angry company employees were talking like they were breathing fire.

No, this is really ignoring us… .

Can’t you speak?

I was really pissed off.

Of course, there might be some who deliberately pretended to be more aggressive in preparation for Testa pecking at them saying, “Didn’t you know this?”

In any case, some of the higher-ranking employees even ran out of the waiting room to argue with the production team.

Anyway, since the broadcasting station is the best, it was just a kind of face-saving action, but it was better to protest by controlling the level than not doing it.

I noticed that some members who noticed this smiled bitterly or shrugged their shoulders.

How could this be? It’s no different than cheating!

hmm… Yes, it is, brother.

… Of course, there are people who are just pissed off like that.

There are also guys who come to me and ask me with a nervous face.

He said, ‘I will not go on stage’, but first of all, it is Kim Rae-bin, the steer who wholeheartedly accompanied me during the filming.

What should I do… … .

Not a big deal. You should be resting. sit down.

yes… .

He sat down next to the sofa with a mysterious face.

I nodded.

And soon you will see the face of the party.

I waited.

And after a while, a customer came to our waiting room.

Hello senior!

ether.

The guys who were walking around the waiting room saying hello came to us as expected.

And I realized what the goal of Wonder Hall was.

i look forward to!

Guys saying hello.

Eter met in real life… They were shy, introverted guys with no yellow corners.

That means that there is not a single character with a strong personality, such as a guy with a corner like a nerd or a weakling.

I swallowed my saliva.

‘Damn it.’

The Wonderhole bastards are aiming for this.

These ethers were impeccably socially docile.

‘I wanted to show this to the public.’

If you are going to burst the build-up that you have accumulated while riding the mystical route, here.

This… It was a ulterior motive to soften the conflict with Testa.

If you can’t kill the ‘successor’ image, you’ve turned the line to take advantage of it as much as possible.

by strengthening relationships.

‘It’s obvious.’

It’s a contest program, but iter is learning a lot from Testa because of the warm senior-junior relationship in the entertainment industry!

If you add a little bit of a human side to it, the public will be generous to the young rookie who seems naive and uncalculated.

And the ridicule or controversy surrounding these guys, saying that they copied Testa, doesn’t fit this image, so they will naturally fade away.

The moment you feel intimacy with the other person, you also choose to choose the feeling of rejection.

that’s how it goes -I think about it when

I just entered the company

The stage just doesn’t have to be ruined.

‘Consolidating the image of a promising player.’

Minimization of risk.

I refrained from holding my hand against my forehead.

‘Well thought of it.’

The bigger problem is that you can’t say that it’s unconditionally false.

I scanned the ether where they had gathered together.

‘These guys are really just kids.’

It’s the agency’s ploy, it’s a ruse, it’s a teenager who didn’t know anything and just practiced hard and debuted.

Model students who don’t know how the situation is going and know it, even if they know it, just scratching the surface.

With a high probability, you are probably banned from using your smartphone.

‘I deliberately weeded out only these guys and made them debut.’

Wonderhole's calculations were visible.

In the future, we will be able to use the situation where the agency eats up all the swearing and the guys get out of the way a few more times.

It's because the fans know that they are really obedient and innocent kids.

… And I am Noir, the leader. I'm watching the stage really hard. I respect you, senior!

As they introduced themselves and continued their greetings, the faces of the guys were full of nervousness and shyness.

The silver-haired, who seemed to be the leader, shouted vigorously with both hands clenched tightly.

We will work really hard!

Isn't it actually a fight to talk about that to a competitor on a contest program?

However, it was obvious that the people who were talking had no such intention, so the members just returned a moderately good response.

Yep~ Thank you very much.

I hope you do your best in filming today… !

… ! thank you!

It was just a friendly look when talking to a junior who usually doesn't have much emotion.

Perhaps Wonder Hall was aiming for this as well.

'You know that our agency is actually run by our breath.'

That's why I'd rather temper Testa's antipathy towards Ether and stop being harsh with these guys.

Even if you try to use your hand, you hesitate once.

Besides, it will do more when the camera is rolling.

‘If I react incorrectly during filming, Testa will look narrow inside.’

After nodding my head, I smiled casually and shook hands with the Eter leader.

Looking forward to seeing you cool.

thanks yep!

And they carefully asked for us and left the waiting room with a flushed face after delivering an album with a long letter attached to it.

I closed the album with a long letter that started with ‘I’ve been a fan since senior Park Moon-dae sang’.

Most of the other members looked at the album once, probably feeling the same way.

‘This album was the benchmark.’

The point is that you can put it out with sincere respect.

It is probably because of the sense of gap that comes from the difference between that company and the group.

‘It’s not to the extent of being shaken.’

I shrugged and put the album aside.

Well, it’s not even a day or two that amazing things happen in this industry.

Besides, we’ve been through some ridiculously supernatural oddities.

The guy who was sitting next to me right now is proof that he bought it.

I gently turned my head.

Steer Ryu Cheong-wu had already stored the album on the table in front of the sofa and was immersed in thought with his pockets on.

Anyway, ‘Cheongwoo Ryu’ was Testa’s leader, so he moved to greet the juniors who came to the waiting room and was sitting here.

However, there was almost no leader-like initiative.

Noona~ Are we going to start filming within 30 minutes?

sure. Oh, and our real representative said this story went up. Don’t worry, I’ll protest properly!

oh my… is it so?

Why are you protesting? we are strong So no need to protest… What? Sejin hyung?

Be quiet, Cha Yoo-jin.

Ryu Cheong-wu, who kept his mouth shut regardless of the noisy preparations around him, even felt like he lived in another world.

Well, it’s the same thing that I don’t open my mouth.

‘I’ll have to prepare soon.’

I shrugged and tried to get myself up.

It was then.

I have something to say.

Steer Ryu Cheng-wu quietly opened his mouth.

‘hmm.’

I stopped moving and looked back at him as he was sitting.

you tell me

thank you.

Liu Qingyu gave a short answer and continued slowly.

A topic that was completely unexpected.

my… I mean ‘remember’.

Wouldn’t it matter if I returned it?

30 minutes before shooting.

Suddenly, steer Ryu Cheng-wu withdrew his stance of refusing to have his memories returned.

I’ve been thinking… It seems to have caused a lot of trouble. I was a little overextended.

Saying that, Steer Liu Cheng-wu smiled faintly. It’s as if you’ve regained mental stability and become calm.

But I knew

The guy couldn’t do that.

‘There is no reason.’

There was no reason for that.

This guy isn't doing it because he's attaining enlightenment or because he's comfortable accepting the situation.

'No, rather… .'

I remembered the guy's face last morning.

The face of steer Ryu Chung-woo after receiving all of 'Lee Se-jin A's words.

-If you want to do well here, I will cheer you on. … You've been through a lot in the past. Thank you for trusting me and I'm sorry.

Right after he said that, he must have… It was a tired expression.

Burnout.

'That's… … It's exhausting.'

The sign of hiding the terrible exhaustion with inertia appeared on the guy's face now and then disappeared.

And again, in a gentle voice, a sound favorable to Testa's circumstances continued.

It's okay to proceed right after this shoot is over. Um, you were going to do a unit stage this time, right? First of all, I'll drop out.

unit stage.

I remembered a conversation we had this morning.

It was a condition created to break away from the mannerisms of contest programs.

-If there are a large number of people, the performances can overlap, so we divide the people up once or twice. I also have a personal schedule.

… After recovering your memories, you might want to do it.

It could be.

Steer Ryu Cheong-woo positively agreed. And he answered casually.

That ‘Ryu Cheong-woo’ should handle it.

It was a calmness that even chilled.

I closed my eyes for a moment and thought.

and.

ah yes

agreed immediately.

Then he looked around and opened his mouth.

First of all, I am saying that I will not be on stage this time. I’ve been trying to listen to other guys’ opinions, so let’s put it together now.

I immediately called the members who were chatting around and sat them around the table. The staff seemed a little flustered, but that was okay.

I have no intention of wasting time.

Speaking of the unit, should I accept applicants now and tie them up quickly? to research before filming.

oh good

It was a topic that I had already talked about, so there was no agitation with the other guys.

Then let’s take a look at it. hand.

An immediate response came back.

It was Cha Yu-jin and Keun Se-jin who raised their hands without hesitation.

Guys who don’t miss stage opportunities.

Next, Seon Ah-hyun naturally raised her hand. A prudent and sincere guy.

And lastly, Bae Se-jin with a hard face.

In other words, except for the two guys who only had memories of steer, they all seemed to have raised their hands.

A faint bitter smile seemed to have passed by Liu Chengyu’s mouth.

I nodded and declared.

Total 4 people. It will be fine if you do it like this. The number of people is adequate.

Then, steer Kim Rae-bin carefully raised his hand from the side. The boy opened his mouth only after being allowed to speak.

I… isn’t it five?

It fits 4 people.

… Ah, except for yourself, you said. sorry.

hmm?

I nodded.

I don’t.

… ??

You didn’t raise your hand.

I declared

Cha Yu-jin, Lee Se-jin, Seon Ah-hyun, and Bae Se-jin hyung.

Let’s not get along well.

Chapter 515

Episode 515 Liu Cheng

-wu was immersed in his unconscious.

Sudden changes in environment and conditions. The days when I did my best to adapt to it.

And the tenacity that burns like a flame when you meet the last chance.

-Mr. Chungwoo?

But that was the end too.

Mr. Chung!

‘ah.’

Liu Qingyu raised his head.

Calling himself is an unfamiliar manager.

Not long after he memorized his name, he said that he was the manager recently hired by the group Testa.

‘And the first manager said that he caused a car accident… … .’

Now, that information is meaningless. For some reason, just thinking about it made Liu Qingyu feel better.

However, he does not express himself and responds calmly.

yes.

I'd like to buy you a drink. What would you like?

He also knew that the manager would buy another drink on a regular basis in the morning when Testa's schedule started and between 2 and 3 after lunch.

However, now it was a special situation where neither of the two cases were applicable.

Because the practice room was filming.

Oh, thank you. Then latte… .

The sound of small answers from the production crew who were asked about drinks by other employees of the company could be heard here and there.

He dryly checked the staff of < Jinsung Match > that filled the outside of the practice room before opening his mouth.

Please make it easy for you to order.

That was enough.

Steer Ryu Chung-woo's final period began like that.

* * *

The original steer, Ryu Chung-woo, on the day he said 'I will recover my memory', disappeared as soon as the schedule was over… No, I was thinking of 'getting back my memory'.

But it didn't work out as planned.

-That's tough.

Moondae Park. The unfamiliar member, who had previously been his relative, expressed disapproval.

The reason given is ‘variable risk’.

-If you get your memories back, you might be confused for a while. I have a lot of things to do with the camera.

It was logical.

That is why Liu Cheng-wu is currently sitting here meaninglessly.

In fact, I could have replied that it was my business, but I didn’t.

‘Because I’m not even doing a stage.’

If it was just filling empty seats for a few days, it was just waiting time. Although tired.

Liu Cheng-wu drank the allotted drink. It was a hot americano.

It’s called decaf.

Sejin’s older brother

The one who approached with a blank expression and spoke to him was someone who, like himself, was away from the camera’s spotlight.

It was also a person who came to my mind.

‘Park Moon-dae.’

This member, like herself and Kim Rae-bin, was eliminated from this contest.

I don’t know the exact reason why it was missing, but I wanted to know what it was.

If it had been before, I don't know if I would have paid attention to this side and tried to check whether I was missing or not, in some way that didn't seem excessive. But now there was no impetus for that.

Ryu Cheng-wu just nodded slightly and drank the Americano.

Moondae Park, without saying anything, held his drink and looked at the practice scene of the members of the 'Testa Unit' that the camera was filming.

Silence passed.

Thank you~ Oh coffee!

is it my cake? Wow.

And the practice room started to become noisy. The 'Testa Unit' stopped choreography to see if the shooting of the practice scene had been sufficiently completed and was accepting drinks and snacks with a smile.

At that moment, Park Mun-dae, who was sitting next to him, rose from his seat as if the time had come.

Then we move too. Because the preparations are over.

… preparation?

ready to shoot

I said I wouldn't do this contest.

What do you mean by shooting?

However, Park Moon-dae looked back at himself as if he was rather strange.

It's an almost absurd look.

Just because we don’t perform on stage doesn’t mean we won’t appear on the program.

You have to participate in making the stage. In order to complete the stage, besides performing, there are not one or two things that need to be changed.

It was at this time that Liu Cheng-wu began to feel something strange.

And when he came to his senses, he was even conducting an interview with Park Moon-dae and Kim Rae-bin.

Voila. These are the three contract producers for this contest.

‘… … ?’

I will try hard.

clap clap clap

Park Moon-dae, who clapped, was the center, and Kim Rae-bin, on the other side, was clapping coldly.

Should we play together?

However, even before the question was over, Moondae Park’s words swayed.

Arranged by Kim Rae-bin, Park Moon-dae’s theme selection.

Since we are a group that self-produces albums, we wanted to show that kind of image once, and it seems to have worked out. As everyone knows, we are the best 3 members of this group when it comes to producing.

Seriously?

sure. It’s the perfect truth.

Even the cameraman suppressed laughter at the words of Park Moon-dae, who answered the PD’s humorous question in a bold manner.

and.

His gaze returned to himself.

Here, Chung Woo-hyung will be in charge of general drawing and review. feedback.

Wow.

Led by Park Moon-dae, the production team responded positively.

… … thank you

So Ryu Cheng-wu was finally given the role.

-Executive Producer.

I realized right away that it is a title that does nothing but just look at the stage and do nothing.

It was because there were no other requests from Liu Cheng-wu for several days after that.

The word producer is also a nominal word. Thinking so, Liu Cheng-wu spent his time not getting involved in anything.

Time passed quickly as I did nothing.

I wondered if I had ever been like this in my life. Because it was a busy life of repeating achievements through extreme training and slipping and falling.

‘Is it the same when I quit archery?’

But at that time, I didn’t feel so exhausted and floating. Because it was painful.

Pain slows down time.

However, there was no pain to worry about right now, so the next shooting day came in an instant.

Surprisingly, it is said that the form of the performance came out in three days.

They said that we need our reaction while watching the performance, so I think we will take a picture together.

And they moved to a corporate space in the form of a large lecture hall.

How’s it going?

So~

The members of Testa with a smile stood on a simple stage made by removing the podium in the center, and Moondae Park sat at the front of the podium exchanging small talk.

There Ravin… ! The song was really good!

… ! Are you sure?! thank you!

Even Kim Rae-bin had conversations with other unfamiliar members other than Cha Yu-jin, probably because he often communicated with ‘Testa’ while arranging.

‘Is that really a natural adaptation?’

Liu Qingyu laughed to himself and sat down. It wasn’t even particularly embarrassing.

The stage started right away after some maintenance.

Oh, but since we're standing like this… Hmm, I think this is a bit out of balance.

Of course, the four units were a combination of three with a dance position and one with a vocal position.

Even the height of the three dance positions created a strange sense of separation.

… … me?

Nod.

And in the end, the position was readjusted at the gloomy question of Bae Se-jin, the 'other one'.

Center~!

Oh! Center!

In line with the member's response, Bae Se-jin creaked and moved to the middle.

And when Bae Se-jin stands in the center… The balance was right.

hahaha!

Smile?

The writers desperately covered their mouths. Seon Ah-hyun's face turned red as if she was holding back a laugh.

Yes. Bae Se-jin reacted like he was pissed, but it wasn't a serious atmosphere.

The honesty that comes from a casual relationship that a good team would have.

‘… … .’

I could have belonged to this atmosphere.

He felt the urge flash again, but it soon faded.

so! Please take into consideration that our movement line is temporary, just adjusted~

And the starting stage.

A retro theme with a somewhat musical composition unfolds with a bright and cheerful band accompaniment.

Taking into account the difference in individual capabilities, the refined distribution of parts caught my eye immediately.

Did he even develop an occupational disease? Liu Qingyu smiled bitterly.

But that was all. [

As if there is a special gap between us]

The music rings.

Performance continues.

Fierce and exhausting thought about what level of performance should be secured in that gap.

The stage you see without it is… It was comfortable.

[I don’t know what this interval will be like yet

]

It’s been a while since Ryu Chung-woo watched a competitor’s stage without thinking.

[Yes!]

The 1-minute demo version performance ended in an instant.

That’s it! Thank you!

Around the time when I was briefly enveloped in the afterglow.

As if he had waited, Moondae Park’s nonchalant words struck and entered.

Brother feedback.

Liu Cheng-wu felt a little rejected and embarrassed.

I never thought I would really ask for feedback.

‘Didn’t I just give you a title?’

However, Park Moon-dae’s face was a bit plain. Just like asking because you need something to say on a broadcast.

‘is it.’

Realizing that there was no need to give such fierce and accurate feedback, Ryu Cheng-wu nodded slightly. Park Moon-dae immediately asked.

First of all, please start with the good part.

Liu Cheng-wu answered without thinking for a long time.

The movement was light.

It was. I thought it would be better to use a live band to suit that, but… .

For a moment, the thought of feeling similar feelings flashed through Liu Cheng-wu's head. with a faint delight.

However, Park Moon-dae did not ask for consent and continued the conversation like flowing water.

well anyway How do you feel about choreography?

It was fine.

yes. It's a good choice, but… What do you miss?

I didn't even care about that.

Ryu Cheng-wu instantly found a connection point in the part he answered earlier.

Were the movements more flashy than the music?

Yes. Because it's not a finished song yet.

Park Moon-dae nodded and looked at the performers who were drinking water, then took out his smartphone.

This is the version Lavin is working on right now. Oh Rabin. Is it okay if I turn it off?

yes… !

Kim Rae-bin, who was applauding the members, was surprised and affirmed. And Park Mun-dae carelessly played his smartphone and passed the wireless earphones out of his pocket.

Ryu Cheng-wu was caught up in the natural movement and started to listen to the music before he knew it.

‘… … ?’

However, it was not unusual enough to refuse, so he naturally listened to music without being aware of it.

It got a little flashy.

That’s right.

I wish there were more strings in this part.

ah.

Would a gold crown be better?

strings and brass.

‘hmm.’

Ryu Chung-woo focused on music for a moment.

And Park Moon-dae observed it carefully.

while affirming his judgment once more.

This is the judgment I made a few days ago when I heard Steer Ryu Chung-woo’s declaration, ‘I will recover my memory’.

– Not like this.

I didn’t think it would be a very good look if the memory came back in a state of burnout like that.

It was all the more so because he was originally a member who had a strong mentality and was so deep that it was hard to know what was inside.

Then why did former steer Ryu Chung-woo burn out so much?

A clear answer was ready for him.

‘I did a job that didn’t come back for too long.’

Even continuing to do things that don’t suit you or that you don’t enjoy is, of course, boring.

Especially if it ended without any results.

It was more problematic that Liu Cheng-wu’s mental strength was so strong that he lasted for a very long time.

Bae Se-jin also agreed.

-Besides, I… So, hearing the news of winning the case from me in the past also bothers me.

To see the ending of the opportunity that made you do that.

It’s not cool, it’s empty.

‘There is a high probability that that was the reason Ryu’s driving force disappeared.’

So, after discussing with Bae Se-jin, Park Moon-dae confirmed the plan for the future direction.

aka ‘pattern change’.

first.

-As an idol member, it breaks the typical role pattern of a group leader.

And this was important.

-However, the sense of efficacy that comes from work makes it possible to feel it.

‘And this guy has already set foot on that route.’

Park Moon-dae recalled it once again and looked at Ryu Cheong-wu.

Just then, the boy opened his mouth.

and.

A gold crown would be better.

started to comment.

‘yes.’

Park Mun-dae laughed inwardly, but continued without showing it.

Is that so… . yes. Rabin says he will continue tomorrow morning, so I’ll check it out.

um yeah

In this way, Ryu Chung-woo began to participate in the completion of the stage step by step, like water getting wet in a drizzle.

Yes.

Park Moon-dae was thinking of making the real Ryu Chung-woo the executive producer.

Chapter 516

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 516,

a collaboration between me and Bae Se-jin.

Planning to make Ryu Chung-woo producer.

Ryu Cheong-wu, who had passed the first stage, accompanied me to the next morning to see Kim Rae-bin's work.

I agreed with my own mouth, so there's nothing wrong with it.

gotta go check it out

ah.

And I spent the morning with Kim Rae-bin, who quickly adapted to the unfamiliar studio. All I asked him to do was chat and react to the song.

However, in the process, Chungwoo Ryu gradually and naturally focused on the song.

As you advised, I implemented three versions with brass brass samples!

It sure suits you well… I'm 2 or 3 times. brother?

well… … . No.2?

While participating in the selection of arrangements, his intention was reflected in the song without even realizing it.

And next step.

Then, I’m going to play it according to the choreography draft.

yes!

I put the tentatively completed sound source number 2 into the choreography draft video I filmed this time and played it.

In this way, the topic of conversation naturally moved from the song to the stage.

It looks like a good fit.

okay.

I think it would be nice to have a part exchanged between two people in one group while organizing the large-scale. Then that part… .

If you look at Liu Cheng-wu like this, you are inadvertently thinking of yourself.

If it’s a part… I don’t think there would be any discomfort with being a bridge.

And, as befits a guy with a lot of experience in various stages, steer Ryu Chung-woo’s opinion was very good even without me deliberately inducing it.

It looks fine to me. What about Lavin?

Oh me too… yes. It seems to go well with the arrangement!

Steer Kim Rae-bin lost a lot of attention from Ryu Chung-woo.

He refused to perform on stage, but emotionally he seemed quite excited watching ‘My Own Studio’.

‘… It could be because I just escaped from the army.’

No, normal people do, but Kim Rae-bin might not.

Anyway, the atmosphere was quite good and the work progressed smoothly.

And Ryu Chung-woo has been able to accomplish several producing tasks that are woven like a spider's web, all at once, like riding a slide.

Large parts distribution costume point theme.

Even feedback on choreography details.

… I'm going to wear gloves, so it's better not to use frictional gestures.

Oops. OK.

I went to the practice room and said this.

And before he was properly conscious of it, time passed by busily and finally reached the end.

Hyung, this is the rehearsal photo shoot. let's go

It means the stage is complete.

And this time, the moment the performance started at the official shooting site for the contest.

Start now.

Unlike last time, Ryu Chung-woo began to focus on the stage.

* * *

Dress rehearsal with everything from costumes to lighting effects.

With all the elements of the actual stage included, it will stand out as a performance.

And now.

Lee Se-jin, dressed in a magician’s suit, greets the stage in a theatrical way with a grin on the illuminated stage.

[Ladies- and gentlemen!]

An ensemble of brilliant brass instruments.

And while taking turns, Bae Se-jin takes his place between Ah-hyun Sun and Yoo-jin Cha, who appear in the light, and sings the introduction. [

As if there is a special space

between us]

A stage background of velvet curtains and spotlights.

Finger snaps and light steps.

A 20th century black-and-white movie-style stage was unfolding, but the flowing song is the latest popular song.

It was a recent comeback song by Mirinae, a junior of Testa.

It is not a modern remake of an old song, as is often done on the stage of a contest, but a unique way of turning the latest song into a retro style.

[

That’s true-] Live sound suitable for stage effects and rhythmically arranged songs.

In line with the song where the brass explodes and soars, Cha Yu-jin pushes her vocals up.

[Take one step, one step towards you who doesn’t come]

And the chorus sounds as if everything is refreshingly resolved.

In the middle of the choreography as if the four of them were completing one big move together, Sejin Bae touched his hat and smiled and nodded.

[Fill in the blanks

fill in the blanks and go beyond the gaps]

In the outskirts, Sun Ah-hyun rode a gorgeous wooden standing microphone that looks like a classic cane and changed the performance formation to a diagonal line.

[Something special,

even if you stumble into it,

it’s a sweet dream]

Even though the main and lead vocals were all missing, the live performance was solid.

In addition, the members whose strength is dance take on the verse, each digesting a solo performance part with strong character.

And when the sub-vocal, whose strong point is not dancing, came to the center, the other three members decorated and supported the performance, helping the member to display his good talent.

The part where the tap dance was mixed to match the costume and theme was also sensible.

and.

The officials who were watching the rehearsal together burst into laughter with small exclamations or focused on the stage without even having time to do that.

And at the front of the audience.

Ryu Chung-woo also focused deeply on the stage, but it was not an impression from the perspective of a complete audience like the filming staff.

because he participated.

The steps I went through to complete that thing popped up in my head without being conscious of it.

– Easy to break up the rhythm with a tempo that is not too fast.

-The concerto is only for the decisive part.

-Practice focusing on steps.

It had to be.

‘I reflected it well.’

This is because the feedback was thoroughly reflected and not distorted.

Not all opinions expressed were reflected. However, the elements that were not reflected went through a convincing agreement as to why.

So it’s more comfortable.

To convince you that your participation only contributed to raising the quality.

[Ye-eeees!]

The light of the lights sparkled like fireworks on the stage. It is dazzling and the stage is enjoyable.

And that was all.

There are no obstacles to overcome the reluctance that comes from learned frustration.

Not as a performance idol who was mentally abused to the limit, but because he permeated into this work step by step without being conscious of it in other ways.

And what remains is the pleasure of seeing the perfect result completed as intended.

[Fill- in the blanks!]

Oh oh oh!

As soon as the song ended with clean and solid mid-high notes, the people involved cheered and applauded.

Admiration poured out to the unit members who breathed with flushed faces.

And even to the members in charge of producing who were sitting in the audience.

You made it so well… . I really liked it!

Steer Ryu Cheng-wu smiled faintly.

thank you

He felt a small spark.

It was a fever in the name of a sense of achievement.

* * *

After rehearsal cleanup.

Testa members who stood on the stage moved for an interview, and Park Moon-dae left for a while, saying he would have a conversation with the production team.

So, all that was left was a waiting room with only two steers.

It was a very enjoyable and meaningful work!

okay.

Kim Rae-bin, dressed in plain clothes with her hair tied back and wearing glasses, looked very happy.

He seemed so happy that he didn't flinch even when he was arguing.

So Liu Cheng-wu opened his mouth.

Rabin.

In the meantime, there must have been many times when I felt harsh towards you.

He calmly put out what he wanted to say a long time ago.

Sorry.

… ?!

You've been through a lot in the past.

He was about to stroke her hair, but in case he seemed overbearing, he stopped with a light tap on the shoulder.

However, one way or another, Kim Rae-bin was frozen in shock.

If you have something you want to say, feel free to… It would be difficult to say

Liu Qingyu did not show a bitter smile.

He also knew that there would probably be no other way to go back.

Smash equally with rank and fear. Other than that, it was impossible for him to attract the members and maintain the group in a disorganized team atmosphere.

However, I knew that there was no need to justify it to others by saying it out loud.

So I just ended it like this.

It's okay if I tell you after I get my memories back. take it easy

Kim Rae-bin did not answer, but that was not a refusal.

Because I was wondering if I could say this. It was thanks to the resurgence of his suppressed inclination to explore.

that brother

huh?

In the end, Kim Rae-bin asked cautiously.

question yourself.

So are you still planning to get your memories back… ?

I’m curious about that too.

Another voice interrupted.

chin.

It was the sound thrown by Park Moon-dae after opening the door and coming in after talking with the production team.

Of course, the truth was that he had made an excuse to let the two of them talk, but he didn’t like that anymore.

‘Could it be that none of this worked?’

Are you saying there is really no change of heart?

Park Moon-dae almost looked back at his own abilities, but before that, he checked Ryu Chung-woo’s expression.

that’s right.

Steer Ryu Cheong-wu had a rather relaxed expression.

It wasn’t resignation.

There was definitely a change.

‘then.’

Park Moon-dae decided to dig into one more.

But the reason you want to get it back seems to be a little different.

… um it’s the opposite

Liu Qingyu rubbed his chin.

It made me realize a little more why I hated getting my memories back.

In response to the unexpected answer, Park Mun-dae instantly repeated his words.

‘Why don’t you like it?’

Steer Ryu Cheong-woo replied as if he had heard Moon-dae Park’s inner thoughts.

I feel like losing

… … ?!

Even Kim Rae-bin opened his mouth at the bomb-like words. However, Liu Qingyu calmly continued.

did i tell you before? Looking at Cha Yoo-jin, he said that he regained his memory and seems to have changed a lot.

right.

‘That’s why I said I didn’t like it because I felt like I was becoming a different person.’

Park Moon-dae recalled the conversation at the time.

okay. It looked very comfortable. You look happy and relaxed. It was good.

Ryu Cheng-wu smiled faintly, describing Cha Yu-jin’s healthy condition in an extremely positive way.

But I didn’t want to be like that.

yes?

It feels like giving up everything and easily becoming comfortable while rationalizing that someone else who succeeded in a way I didn't even know was originally me.

It was a fairly harsh rejection.

It might have been some sort of degenerate ego or pride.

However, steer Ryu Cheong-wu had forgotten his pride for quite a long time before he realized that.

So I wanted to show that I could do just as well as he did and take that position.

This is actually a rationalization, but it's true.

because it imitates

Ryu Cheng-wu calmly added,

Park Moon-dae asked.

from scratch?

from scratch.

From the moment he came to his senses with his body and grasped the situation, Ryu Cheng-wu had come to such an extreme conclusion.

The fact that it was possible was because Steer had repeated similar kinds of concerns for several years.

own use.

-What can I do?

But in fact, Ryu Cheng-wu was not the kind of person who longed for a way out after such gloomy self-reflection and agony.

He is the type to give clear answers even to complex problems and act immediately.

However, during Steer, there was no clear answer to anything, so I did not get a chance to escape from that worry.

I don't know if that's why it was more painful.

A long, slow fall.

however.

I don't even think about that now.

Steer Ryu Cheong-wu answered Park Moon-dae with the characteristic eyes of a person who has already realized the situation.

Today's stage is probably the way you prepared it to ease my mood. thank you.

At the same time, Park Moon-dae realized.

'Your tone has changed.'

Now, instead of similarly reproducing 'Testa Ryu Cheong-wu', Ryu Cheong-wu was using a slightly assertive and unflattering tone.

Perhaps that was the tone used during Steer, Moondae Park guessed.

And the conversation develops.

Oh, I have a question too.

something

I guess that’s what I was trying to say when I first tried to convince you to get your memory back.

can you hear

Park Moon-dae smiled faintly.

sure.

He brought out the words he had prepared.

It is said that Yujin Cha has regained her memories and has changed a lot, but that is just a rediscovery of herself. Same goes for my brother.

hmm.

… I have had many good experiences with this group.

okay.

It’s my brother’s achievement.

Could it be?

yes.

If it had been Ryu Cheng-wu a few days ago, it would not have touched her at all.

Since he had almost forgotten whether the achievement was a feeling, he would never have thought it was his own achievement.

It must have still felt like someone else’s.

But the stage I saw now.

This little experience opened up the possibility for him to guess what it might feel like.

So he smiled and replied:

OK, I’m curious.

That night, steer Ryu Chung-wu decided to reinstate himself as a testa.

Chapter 517

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 517

We're starting now… ?

okay.

At my answer, Seon Ah-hyun nodded vigorously. The guy settled down with an expression of tension and anticipation.

And Sun Ah-hyun wasn't the only one with that expression.

The guys who joined after the filming had gathered in the living room after hearing that Ryu Cheng-wu's memories were returning.

In the midst of everyone being nervous, Sejin Keun threw his words lightly as if trying to lighten the atmosphere.

Brother, in a matter of seconds, you will have several younger siblings, how do you feel? I think it will be fun~

Yes. Although that is not the purpose.

Steer Ryu Cheng-wu's answer sounded almost cold.

However, it didn't seem like it was because I was dissatisfied, and it seemed like I just naturally responded according to my personality.

It was more natural than before, when I had been forcibly trying to look gentle.

The guy laughed a little, and the big Sejin just laughed.

I'm glad you look comfortable!

thank you.

Liu Qingyu turned his head to me.

Then I'll find you now.

I nodded. And check the status window.

[Would you like to restart 'For Company'?]

The moment you restart this, the memories of Ryu Cheng-wu will come back, just like Steer Cha Yu-jin did.

For your information, if you close the 'preview' you are using now, Kim Rae-bin will automatically regain his memory, so I worked hard on the system to make the preview and restart coexist.

It was because I was afraid that I would be shocked and rejected by the situation where I had to suddenly recover my memories… .

I am Rabin Kim. you… Symptoms appeared later than Chung-woo, so it's okay to think about it more slowly. Don't be pressured.

… ?? I never said I didn't want to get my memories back in the first place… .

oh.

I'm really looking forward to recovering my memories and having a new experience in the way I compose!

… It does.

'Did you mess up the system for nothing?'

It feels a bit unfair that I put so much energy into it that my head burst.

Anyway, let's stick with the plan for now.

I removed my hand from holding my forehead and said calmly.

I'm going to press it now, so you can just lie down.

Considering the cases so far, I thought that the probability of him falling asleep was high, so I made this recommendation.

And Steer Ryu Cheong-woo lay down on the sofa in the living room without retorting.

Can I do this?

yes.

And I made sure he was stable.

After confirming that he had finished preparing his mind, he moved the status window.

'Restart.'

Dig.

A light went off in the pop-up.

However, regardless of whether the hologram in the air was dazzling or not, Ryu Cheng-wu, lying on the sofa, exhaled quietly without moving.

like falling asleep peacefully.

brother?

No answer came back.

Steer Ryu Cheng-wu is just lying on the sofa with a relaxed face.

To the extent that I almost inadvertently covered my pop-up light, which would not be visible anyway.

let’s wait

huh.

We moved carefully so as not to disturb the one who seemed to be in a deep unconscious state.

The living room during the day on holidays was quiet like that for hours.

and that evening.

Chi profit.

I was baking eggs in the kitchen.

Then a scream was heard from behind.

Oh my brother!

It was the voice of Cha Yoo-jin, who was in charge of monitoring Ryu Chung-woo from 5 to 6 pm.

That means… .

‘You’re awake.’

I turned off the frying pan and immediately turned back.

In the living room, Ryu Cheng-wu, who raised his upper body in a disheveled state, was sitting on the sofa.

His head was lowered, so his expression could not be seen, but he was covering his forehead with one hand.

But Cha Yoo-jin is unstoppable.

Moondae-hyung, make something delicious! go fast!

… Does that come first before asking if you're okay?

'Isn't it just what you wanted to eat?'

But when Cha Yoo-jin pulled his arm, Ryu Cheng-wu smiled cheerfully with a slightly swollen face.

… okay? thank you… … .

… !!

It was a soft and comfortable response even in the midst of a hectic situation.

It's the kind of reaction that someone who is used to this kind of situation would do.

Bae Se-jin, who came running, asked with trembling pupils.

… … Ryu Chung-woo?

huh.

Tidying up his crumpled clothes and tossing his hair, Liu Chengyu stood up completely.

A slightly embarrassed smile floats on his lips.

as we originally knew.

Everyone has been through a lot.

That was enough.

… brother!

Aigoo, our leader hyung is back~!

In an instant, the living room became noisy as if it were about to leave.

As if it was a family reunion, several of them hugged Ryu Cheng-wu, and Liu Cheng-wu patted each of them on the back one by one even though he was a little embarrassed.

Sejin in particular suffered a lot. You said everything necessary in the schedule.

And it will end like this.

Besides me, there were many other members who were confused because of their memories, but I'm sorry that I only helped them instead of taking care of them.

Ayy, there have to be days like this so hyung can repay you for what he usually does~

No, but thank you.

The boy answered quite firmly. And he turned his head as if he was looking for someone.

'Well, there's only one thing that isn't there, so I should know who they're looking for.'

I mean.

What are you doing?

And Moondae… .

I was holding a crab.

… ??

Not ripe ones, but fish marinated in soy sauce.

fast.

When the carapace was removed, the inside of the yellow egg was revealed with an exciting sound.

It was soy sauce crab sauce made with meaty crabs.

come and eat

I didn’t choose This is the menu chosen by his parents.

To be honest, I didn’t have time to do anything more, but it went well. It’s a restaurant, so I’ll just eat it.

Hyung, did you say that Moondae just bought it while taking a call taxi?

It is cheap compared to the cost of cooking.

If Mundae had told me, I would have played rock, paper, scissors… .

It’s most definitely what I do.

You should have taken a break too.

I just need to know.

I didn’t do anything anyway It’s just like fried eggs and ripped crabs.

I made it up soon. eat it

I wouldn’t have eaten anything today.

I nodded and waited for him to sit down.

okay.

Ryu Cheng-wu eventually came to the table with a slightly shy smile, and the others also found their own seats and sat down.

And excitedly talking to Ryu Cheng-wu.

Hey, even though hyung doesn't have memories, the work ends smoothly without incidents like this.

That's right!

I know. Cha Yoo-jin had escaped.

I went to that sea. No damage!

Hey, we couldn't even sleep that day… .

The table quickly became noisy. Liu Qingyu put on an embarrassed expression for a moment, but soon smiled coolly.

Eugene was the first. This can be happen. I'm sorry that I didn't show a mature side of myself.

brother… … .

He proceeded with the meal while honestly answering the other members who asked about his condition.

And I haven't forgotten that word.

I will contact the company from today.

… … um yes

I nodded.

Then he turned and looked at the table.

A table with crab sauce and buttered eggs.

Liu Cheng-wu barely touched it and ate only raw rice.

‘hmm.’

I watched it carefully.

* * *

Ryu Cheng-wu finally got time to organize his thoughts after going to the shower.

after.

I couldn’t afford to do this because I had been spending time reassuring the other members ever since I woke up.

It was natural.

When he thought of what he had done to his younger siblings, who had only memories of the past, he felt a little embarrassed and was ready to renew his resolve.

You can’t fall into a slump and fall into self-pity.

‘It was like a child.’

But now it seems like I did the right thing.

-It’s like this… .

Even Kim Rae-bin, whose memories hadn’t returned yet, seemed a bit relieved.

‘… It was good.’

Testa Ryu Cheong-woo recovered his strong mentality, as he usually did, without any major worries or passions.

I belong to a good team.

He is doing his job well.

After debuting as Testa, he calmed down by reflecting on what had happened until now.

And when I came out of the shower clearing my head so that my thoughts would not flow to the dark side.

Oh did you come

There was no roommate Cha Yoo-jin.

Instead, in front of the table placed between the two beds… Park Moon-dae was sitting.

No, rather than calling it Park Moondae.

sit down.

It would be correct to assume that Ryu Kun-woo, his older cousin, was sitting there.

He casually threw short words without hesitation and reached out to the table to organize the things that had gone up.

A few flavorful ingredients. and… drunkards.

Ryu Gun-woo had a drinking party on the table.

Liu Qingyu was speechless for a moment, then finally opened his mouth again.

My brother's alcohol… … .

Now we all agreed that we could drink sometimes.

But what was on the table was not a can of beer… a bunch of wine

Is this okay?

Liu Cheng-wu looked at his cousin, half anxious and half worried, but anyway, he carefully sat across from the table.

'What did I do wrong?'

He pondered briefly, but soon intuitively found something close to the correct answer.

'ah.'

I guess I didn't pay much attention when I ate.

That was embarrassing enough.

He probably would have bothered to call to find out where his favorite restaurant was, but it was because he hadn't eaten properly because he was so concerned about what he had done until now.

'I'm sorry.'

He immediately tried to talk about it.

However, the opponent opened his mouth first.

I have something to say.

huh.

Ryu Cheng-wu straightened his posture. Like having a drink with a superior after doing something wrong.

However, Ryu Gun-woo did not talk about his fault.

That's what a brother I know told me.

Ryu Gun-woo spoke slowly.

something I heard somewhere.

When a person faces fear and pain… Originally, I was a bit angry and blamed others, but I heard that it's okay.

Ryu Cheng-wu opened his eyes wide.

Gunwoo Ryu smiled and reached out and picked up the glass from the table.

If I was okay, you would be even more okay.

Because the person who said it.

-How can a person live rationally every time?

Liu Cheng-wu finally realized the cause of his déjà vu, looking at the table full of alcohol.

Summer package.

The other party recreated the scenery of the day when he gave Park Moon-dae a chance to confide in him.

'ah.'

Ryu Cheng-wu slowly closed and opened his eyes, repeating. Ryu Gun-woo held out his glass in front of him.

Good job.

Alcohol spilled inside. Liu Chengyu looked at it blankly.

Then he reached out, grabbed the glass, and brought it to his mouth.

In fact, he was too strong for alcohol to be drunk with something like this.

But I realized that I wanted to drink.

‘I guess I wanted to run away.’

That he had deliberately tried not to recall the memories of Steer in detail as much as possible.

Because the thought itself was quite repulsive.

Steer Ryu Cheong-woo could be dismissed as ‘like a child’ only for what he did here.

When I was in charge, I was buried and did not realize it, but after regaining a solid spirit, I could see it when I looked back.

Previously he… .

Actually I… … .

Ryu Gun-woo asked himself inwardly.

‘you?’

But Liu Cheng-wu did not answer.

I just quietly drank the remaining alcohol in my glass.

Ryu Kun-woo also did not urge his younger brother.

The two of them slowly emptied the bottle of wine and opened another bottle.

Would you like more?

huh.

and one more bottle.

That was all.

The older cousin was a person who did not ask Liu Cheng-wu for any role.

Sometimes that was enough.

* * *

Testa rested well until the next day.

All they did was go back and forth between rooms and chat. Even Keun Se-jin did not exercise, and Ryu Cheng-wu was no different.

Bae Se-jin looked at the amount of alcohol the two drank and made an expression that he had a lot to say, but held back.

Time passed so slowly.

After dinner, everyone sat together in the living room and watched the final stage of the final contest.

Wow, Testaya is really good at the stage.

that’s right. I’m especially good at it.

A tense conversation flowed.

Do you want to see our unit stage soon?

Yes. me too… !

How’s Lavin? Rabin arranged it~

… ! Of course I… I would love to see you again!

oh oh

They had a gentle and comfortable break while talking about when Lavin would find his memories and if there was anything he wanted to do.

Still, the testa on the screen was cool.

Testa giggled excitedly even while watching the subtitles that made her hands and feet shriveled up.

[The stage of the king of KPOP that captivates the audience]

Are you our king?

Ha ha ha!

A small round of applause is heard and Big Sejin takes a group selfie saying he will reveal it to the fans, and Park Mundae chooses the photo.

Liu Qingyu looked at the comfortable scene with a relaxed mind.

And it was the moment when the contest video of < Jinsung Seungbu >, in which they appeared, ended.

ridge.

[Realized.]

An advertisement played on the TV screen with an eerie monotone echo.

uh? that… .

But it was a voice I had heard.

[There are strange shadows in this building]

After the narration, the eerie images of dilapidated hallways and emergency stairs passed by.

A thriller with a fantasy feel.

[They come after me.]

Kung thump thump.

Close-up shots of the actors standing under the dark red and blue lights passed by in sync with the sound.

And among them is Bae Se-jin, who makes eye contact with the camera!

Oooooh! Sejin hyung!

wow wow… !

[Doll Hunter]

[Netplus, Thursday, October 31st]

Yes.

This was the drama Bae Se-jin filmed!

I think it will turn out great… !

I heard! hero friend!

That’s right, was it that kind of station? Congratulations Sejin!

The members excitedly patted Bae Se-jin’s shoulders and back. Even Park Moon-dae spoke with a smile.

Looks like it will be released soon.

… … . uh huh

Bae Se-jin nodded.

However, in the inside that I couldn’t bear to say, I was breaking out in a cold sweat.

‘I haven’t told you yet…’ !’ Until the public announcement of

Bae

Se-jin’s psychopath role D-3.

Chapter 518

Episode 518 Bae Se

-jin did not intentionally not tell the members what role he was cast in.

just… The timing just didn't come.

'I can't suddenly bring up the story of my drama when I'm talking about having memories!'

He even finished filming without any problems. When he thought about it, no matter how much he thought about it, he was at the bottom of the conversation priority list.

So he made up his mind even now.

'I have to tell you before I go to bed tonight.'

But that night.

Happy birthday bro!

Ryu Cheng-wu's surprise birthday party was held!

Yes.

All in all, October 28th. That day was Ryu Cheng-wu's birthday.

Why didn't he know… .

Ai hyung was busy too.

This was because it was a surprise party secretly prepared by three members of Testa's middle line, aka 'same age'.

The members, who had a hard time with memory and identity issues, said let's just have fun, and the three of them willingly put their heads together and shared their roles to airlift the party materials.

Just enjoy~

Bae Se-jin screamed inwardly at the remarks of Se-jin Lee, who has been talking quite a bit.

'I don't need this care… !'

However, he was not lacking in social skills to the extent that he would make a meaningless rash here.

'… Still, the consideration is right.'

Anyway, the atmosphere was warm and good.

It seemed that Ryu Cheng-wu was unexpectedly moved beyond joy to the point of feeling a little dazed, and the faces of the people who had prepared accordingly brightened.

Seon Ah-hyun blushed and held out the cake. On the huge chocolate cake, phrases such as 'Testa's eldest brother is handsome' were written with excitement.

You can blow out the candle… !

… haha ok Would you like to make a wish?

Oh oh

Of course, there's no way I can suddenly bring out a psychopathic sound in this atmosphere… .

'Ande had a hard time!'

Shouldn't he at least be able to comfortably receive his birthday celebration as the main character?

So, Bae Se-jin made the same choice as an insider who had never done it in his life, 'shut up and get in the mood'… … .

The result was the warmth that only he suffered.

'Keugh.'

What did you wish for?

hmm… Will our team be active for a long time in good health?

What a nice wish… !

… … I know.

Bae Se-jin agreed and accepted the cake Moon-dae Park was cutting neatly like a knife.

'phew.'

Still, the cake was delicious.

And after drinking a glass of champagne (which was non-alcoholic), Bae Se-jin tried to talk about the drama again… .

I didn't expect this atmosphere… I think it's a very fun and harmonious team.

I can’t wait to get my memory back so I can contribute more to this team…

What makes this such a meaningful day?

Bae Se-jin almost closed his eyes at Steer Kim Rae-bin’s cautious words.

… okay.

let’s give up

Bae Se-jin decided to aim for the next day.

And the very next day was a new filming day for < Jinseong Match >.

Filming right before the break to announce the winner of this contest, film the content during the break, and adjust the tempo once in the middle of the season.

Testa made a save by finishing second.

thank you!

Everyone was able to finish filming in a good mood with the highly anticipated report card.

For your reference, the new member of Wonder Hall’s Ether received a low-ranking grade of 5th.

Their stage was full of energy like a rookie, and the effect was splendid.

The 5th place must have been a disappointing place because it was a stage with excellent planning ability, meticulously organized by experts.

but.

Bae Se-jin managed his facial expressions with his years of experience, but he thought bluntly on the inside.

‘Honestly, I don’t feel bad.’

I thought it was a cause and effect retribution.

Of course, on the sidelines, Park Moon-dae was thinking, ‘It would have been better for us to have them win first place and face the opposite wind’.

In any case, Iter’s naive and ignorant attitude gave Testa a strange impression and awkwardness, but the filming itself was well finished.

Then see you in 2 weeks. Seniors!

Your testers are welcome too!

It was time to say goodbye to Soft Sweet, who won first place in tears, and then go into the waiting room and pack their belongings.

The atmosphere was loose. At this rate, the atmosphere seemed like it would be possible to bring up small talk and have a good laugh together.

‘at las… Is it time to speak?’

sejina.

uh uh

However, Liu Qingyu spoke first.

Is it too late to say this? … thank you. I heard Sejin cared about you a lot so I could come to my senses.

… … Not much.

no that’s great

Liu Qingyu’s eyes were warm.

You must have been very embarrassed by my attitude. It would have been more difficult for you to take care of others in a difficult situation.

but you took care of me

Bae Se-jin was a little worried, but soon threw a word.

… As a friend, it’s natural

As Bae Se-jin, Ryu Cheong-woo was almost the same age as his first acquaintance.

Moreover, since I received a lot of one-sided help, it was actually strange to be thanked this much.

Liu Qingyu smiled.

Thank you though.

… okay.

The sincere words came and went softly to the point where they seemed clumsy and ended warmly.

There was a nice silence.

And Bae Se-jin thought.

In this atmosphere, the story of the psychopath cast suddenly… .

‘Can I… … .’

In the end, Sejin Bae gave up his remarks, wanting to shed tears.

… That’s how the day of the broadcast came.

October 31 Halloween midnight.

Thanks to the unconventional choice of not scheduling the next morning, Testa gathered on the sofa in high spirits.

brother! let's start! Sit down now! Hurry!

Bae Se-jin sat down on the sofa.

And in order to hide his nervousness, he grabbed Cha Yoo-jin's popcorn at random and put it in his mouth and chewed it combatively.

… ?? What the… .

Start.

Cha Yoo-jin was taken aback for a moment, but soon he heard Moon-dae Park's voice and fixed his eyes on the TV.

[Dream.]

[This must be a dream.]

[It had to be.]

The first episode of the new Netflix series < Doll Hunter >, which was released a few seconds ago, started airing.

* * *

The contents of < Doll Hunter > were close to modern mystery survival stories.

One day, the main character wakes up to the sound of an alarm and realizes that even though it is morning, there is not a single light coming through the window.

And as you get closer to the window, you notice something creepy.

Outside the window was full of damp dirt.

As if the whole building had been buried alive.

[Ah!]

The plot of this mystery drama is to keep going upstairs to escape from such a bizarrely twisted dark building and encounter neighbors who have turned into monsters.

Of course, not all neighbors turned into monsters. Most of the residents were buried with the building.

The main character continued to go up and met various human groups and friendly enemies. Among them, he became a colleague and accompanied the people he had a relationship with.

A firefighter who retired due to an injury, a junior high school baseball member, a company motive, and… .

[…] Hello.]

Oh Sejin hyung!

Bae Se-jin's role was medical student 'Jeong Yi-sol', who also joined in the early and mid-mid years.

A man in his mid-20s with black hair and wearing rimless glasses.

He is intelligent, has good judgment, and even has first aid skills. If it was a game, he would have been the number one recruiter.

[Pause.]

[…] !!]

In particular, the scene of chasing a monster with a fire hose holding a fire hose in front of the group of main characters who were in danger at the time of their first appearance even provided catharsis in conjunction with the engine BGM.

Even Ryu Cheng-wu, who was not interested in surrealistic images, was lightly impressed.

Sejin-ah, you're really cool

… uh uh thank you.

A capable helper who blocks the development of so-called carcinogenesis while also taking care of the morality of the team!

The role that anyone would covet was shining even more when meeting Bae Se-jin, who was excellent in both mask and acting skills.

[This way.]

[Ah… !]

Even the parts where he didn't talk were attractive.

In addition, this medical student invited the main character's party to his hideout and even treated the injured.

Where was the hiding place?

[Convenience store!]

[Shh.]

It was a convenience store full of supplies!

Seeing the greasy and salty canned ham and hot instant rice, the main character and his friends hurriedly ate it, knowing that it was PPL, but made the ham and rice pull.

Hey~ hyung takes care of the PPL too? It's really an important role in many ways~

It’s really cool. cool!

… … uh.

An important role in many ways… Right.

Bae Se-jin couldn’t stop the members from watching the second episode non-stop with excitement.

The drama progressed at an incredible speed, as is usually the case with works with a long and solid original work, and thanks to this, the members continued to immerse themselves in the story with sweat in their hands.

There was no time to be bored.

I even analyzed the strategies of the main characters and gave them lessons.

Ah, now I’m going to move to that convenience store as my base.

Iknow, right.

Hmm~ I think it would be better to go a little higher. Ayy, but it would be hard to think like this in that situation again, right?

The structure of the 31-story residential-commercial complex was twisted upside down, so the officetels on the top floor where people stayed became the bottom floor.

And on the 28th floor, there was a convenience store targeting residents.

If you leave this officetel floor and go up a little further, you will find a shopping area, so that is better. Opinions were divided even among the members.

Even Seon Ah-hyun asked Park Moon-dae.

What do you think of that doormat?

And Park Moon-dae answered calmly.

well… Either way, I think it will come out at a convenience store.

Because it’s good to be attacked.

the moment the words end.

Just then, the image of a convenience store appeared on the screen again.

With the lights off and a dark appearance.

… … !!

[…] uh? Huh?]

The main character went downstairs to check the rescue signal sent by middle school students trapped in a small room in the officetel, and the party split into two.

Those who were not injured moved.

Injured people were left at the convenience store.

And now, I returned to the convenience store where only the injured people were left… All the LED lights are off, creating a gloomy atmosphere.

Ooooh

that’s right It’s natural for convenience stores to have something to eat, so anyone can target them.

Hmmm~ After all, going to the floor with the shops would be a bit of a distraction… .

Even as he said that, both Ryu Cheng-wu and Lee Se-jin could not take their eyes off the screen.

And in their words, they realized themselves.

-Convenience stores are prone to raids.

Then, how did the medical student use it as a hiding place without being attacked until now… ?

The moment that question crossed the heads of some members.

[…] … .]

On the screen, the main character and several others finally entered the convenience store.

Inside a dark convenience store where the shadow of the main character is cast.

[Hey there?]

Fortunately, the shelves and counters that were illuminated by the dim light still looked fine.

But no reply came. Only suffocating white noise filled the screen.

‘Have you evacuated beforehand?’

By the time that hopeful speculation passed by. The main character’s flashlight was directed at the convenience store warehouse door.

and.

[…] !!]

Shoes and legs began to be seen through the crack in the open door.

A heterogeneous figure lying horizontally instead of standing vertically.

thud. thud.

A beating heart-like sound effect dominates the screen.

And the camera from the protagonist's point of view slowly raises its head and catches In-young, the only one standing inside the warehouse door.

[Are you here?]

And everyone realizes.

The medical student was not attacked at the convenience store, but he was the one who was attacked.

Behind the medical student, who was calmly wiping the blood off his hands with a wet tissue, the corpses with their eyes wide open were caught by the shaking camera.

And the things stacked on top were close-up.

These are the co-workers of the main character who stayed at the convenience store because of an injury.

Especially the first members the main character met in episode 1.

Among them, there was a heroine, or a woman who was forming a love line with the main character.

There was also a supporting actor, Licorice, who was a co-worker at the same company as the main character and seemed to be going with him until the end.

however… Yes.

In 2 episodes… The starting members are all dead.

by the hands of medical students.

Bae Se-jin desperately started avoiding the members' eyes!

Chapter 519

of episode 519,

‘Jeong Yi-sol’, who has the appearance of Bae Se-jin, an intelligent medical student, is wiping blood from her fingertips with a calm complexion.

The protagonist asked, staring at the dead bodies of his comrades, stiff and pale, still alive.

[why… .]

The viewers who saw this scene had exactly the same feeling.

There was a confused silence in the living room, and instead of Bae Se-jin, who was sweating profusely, a medical student on the screen answered.

[What?]

[Dead… why? Why did you kill him!!]

Convenience store as quiet as a dead mouse.

And the living room of the accommodation outside the work.

A graceful classical accompaniment began to flow between the screens the two crossed.

A smooth and calm sound.

And then the calm remark of a medical student rang out.

[There’s no reason not to kill him.]

What bullshit… .

Seriously bro?

Astonishment and sighs rang through the living room, and Bae Se-jin covered his eyes.

However, the medical student whose upper body is close-up on the screen has the same appearance and a plain expression.

And explained.

‘He’s injured.’

The protagonist screamed as if he had gone mad.

[what… what are you talking about Then why did you save us, why did you help… … !]

[I have to check.]

They said they checked to see if they had the ability to offset the penalty of injury.

The medical student who answered concisely was calm and rational.

No, he used a tone that seemed rational, but it further created a sense of incongruity with the eerie bloody background.

After removing all the blood with a wet tissue, he pointed to the corner of the warehouse with his hand.

A backpack containing supplies.

[Take a baggage.]

[Ah!]

The protagonist was completely crazy and rushed.

The medical student slightly frowned and lowered his head slightly to avoid the main character's fist and, conversely, made him fall.

The hero fell over the corpse.

[Uh uh uh uh!!!]

[Think about it.]

He gave advice like a medical student teaching the main character who is out of anger and fear how to take a deep breath.

And the moment when the main character raises his head, panting reflexively.

[Let's go together.]

The medical student held out his hand.

It was an offer to accompany.

The main character, who could not understand the thought circuit of this crazy bastard, forgot his anger for a moment and stared at the hand with his face down.

The moment when the main character's vision shakes like a slow motion and the world seems to stop.

[Juseong-ah!!]

Silence was broken with a loud cry.

The remaining party, who had been slowly chasing after the rescued middle school students, entered the convenience store.

The protagonist is barely rescued by them and dragged out of the convenience store.

And after being stuck in the officetel crying and struggling, I finally go to the convenience store after a few hours.

[…] … .]

The convenience store was already empty.

All that was left was a neatly arranged corpse.

[Huhhhh… .]

The main character collapsed in front of him.

After the slow and painful music plays, he finds an object still lying in the corner of the warehouse, unable to bear the pain alone.

A full backpack.

A medical student had left a backpack with supplies in it.

I don’t know if it was a decision based on mobility or if there were other reasons.

[…] Inhale.]

However, the main character gropes for the backpack.

Then, gritting my teeth, I walked out of the convenience store with dragging steps.

The steps became more and more powerful.

Leaving behind the corpses stretched out like dolls. The rough title logo of < Doll Hunter >

floated on the tear-stained face of the main character, and the second episode ended in a shocking way.

Cha Yoo-jin, who had forgotten the popcorn and opened her mouth, muttered.

Bae Se-jin hyung fooled me.

… … no.

He said he was the main character’s friend.

That moment… It was a thoughtless remark for a friend .

Are you serious?!

Not a friend, but an enemy.

That person is too much… !

Bae Se-jin, who even heard a word from Seon Ah-hyun, sank.

A sly response such as ‘it was fun though’ or ‘I cheated everything’ was impossible for him… .

In the end, Bae Se-jin opened his mouth with a red face.

Let’s talk in detail now!

You guys were considerate of me when I was a psychopath three times in a row, and I told you not to do it if you’re a psychopath, but it was a bit like getting this role right away!

that’s right. It’s a bit of a strange character, but it’s true… .

That was the moment.

for a moment.

Lee Se-jin chewed on Cha Yu-jin's popcorn with a solemn expression and interrupted his words.

don't tell bro

why?

And an unexpected answer came back.

It's more fun not to listen.

… ?!

Hey, Sejin hyung is really good at acting. yes?

Yeah that's right!

I can't wait to see what you'll do… !

Crazy was crazy and fun was fun!

ah it starts

[Doll Hunter]

[3. The person who climbs hell]

Spoiler refrain!

Testa began to focus on the auto-playing episode 3 with a solemn attitude and excited eyes.

Bae Se-jin just opened his mouth with a bewildered expression.

therefore… .

Shh hyung, focus!

Bae Se-jin is at a loss for words!

However, only one member was out of the whirlwind of exchange and confusion.

‘I never thought it would be a medical student role.’

Moondae Park.

Having already finished reading the original webtoon Jeongju-ju a few months ago, he was nodding his head at his foresight, having installed a reaction cam.

‘I’ll kill the content.’

It was truly the embodiment of cost-effectiveness.

And as Park Moon-dae predicted, real-time SNS was already full of screams.

* * *

< Doll Hunter > did not disclose the roles played by the actors in detail, so light fans who were not true fans of Bae Se-jin did not go straight to the original webtoon.

There was just an interesting drama coming out on Netplus, and there were many people who enjoyed it when Bae Se-jin appeared in it.

They admired Bae Se-jin’s first appearance.

A wonderful helper appears!

-Medical student ㅠㅠ It’s been a long time since I’ve been in the middle of a

-Wow, Bae Se-jin seems to have chosen the role well -It

-Ah, it’s true that I chose the role X well, but now the meaning is the opposite

-Spae Advent

And people who saw this reaction were like, ‘What is it? What?’ I started watching < Doll Hunter > while doing it, and after an hour or two, screaming together happened as a chain reaction.

-Well

, there are all these dramas

And Bae Se-jin’s true fans looked at this with excitement even as they themselves screamed.

It was the composure of those who had already realized the truth from the first appearance of Bae Se-jin as a medical student by pouring several days into watching the original work the moment they heard the news of Bae Se-jin's appearance.

But even they couldn't hold back their admiration.

– Sejin has been absent from starring for several years. Isn't he a real human? I thought I was really possessed

– The scene of washing my hands was so intimidating

– Every single character setting was too much, so if I did it wrong, I could really fuck it up, but I held the balance really delicately, and when I fired it, it popped off

. am.

The strong role of a psychopath is not exaggerated, it is restrained like a real thing, and at the same time, the impact and delivery power are clear by capturing the details.

Of course, in fact, Bae Se-jin's acting hiatus was not as long as they thought.

Not only did he frequently play the role of a psychopath in the virtual world of the system, he even played a medical student in his previous work.

Thanks to this, even in a short preparation period, things such as habits peculiar to medical students were well implemented so that even the smallest details could be realized.

It was the effect of a newcomer to a career position.

Here, Bae Se-jin was cast in a hurry, and even the story of the interim input spread secretly, creating a synergistic effect.

-Since the casting that was replaced in the middle of Bae Se, the source of Witube (Link)

If you recall that the production team boasted that this secret story would not leak out, Bae Se-jin could have been angry, but the result itself was very good.

People who read the original also received favorable reviews.

-You said you finished this character in a week? Aren't you crazy?

-Jeong Yi-sol pops out exactly as I imagined while watching the webtoon. The production team seems to have shed tears of emotion after filming the first

take

Besides, pre-shooting for this work has already been completed.

I was influenced by popularity or impact for no reason and forcibly increased the weight, so I didn't eat up the workability like the character of Mary-Soo.

On the contrary, since the reversal of 'Medical Student', the novelty of the work has been revived.

In fact, until now, < Doll Hunter > was progressing like a standard survival mystery story.

A protagonist who is slightly adventurous, affectionate, and has a clear sense of humanity is acting like a protagonist.

However, from episode 3, the main character tries to escape from this bizarre building alone, carefully guarding everyone.

[There are too many monsters in this building.]

[But I will not become a monster.]

It was a complete awakening.

The main character's weakness, which was necessary in order to immerse himself in the world view at the beginning, has been sublimated into a strong and cool judgment that suits the taste of modern people in the 21st century.

[Run!]

Break through the situation hotly and desperately, risking a crisis to break through the monster.

The main character goes through the floors of the officetel without being swayed by people who are not sure whether they are asking for help or trying to trap them, and finally enters the floor where the shopping malls are gathered.

And from there, 'Jeong I-sol', a medical student, appears again in the story.

[…] !]

He didn't appear often, but whenever he appeared, he promoted a symbolic thrill like a kind of horror event.

At the butcher's shop, in the hiding place you barely found from the cult.

The BGM of a medical student made viewers freeze every time they heard it, but the main character survived each time.

It was a possible tension adjuster because of the impact of the first reversal.

For reference, Testa showed this reaction.

comes out again

oh my gosh

The warm reaction from the first appearance has already gone to the other world.

-Testa is like parents watching morning

dramas

no… no that's it

-Baehamjji was taken aback
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha

-how well he kept it a secret.

Testa's reaction was so real that even fans who didn't know the exact situation would burst into laughter.

However, the true climax comes in episode 5, the last episode of the series that was released all at once on October 31, half of the season.

near the end of episode 5.

The moment when the main character who escaped from being killed by the monster worshiped by a pseudo-group meets a medical student.

[not… .] hooked.

Jeong Yi-sol stabbed the main character without talking.

[why… .]

[Lack of supplies.]

And collect the supplies the main character was carrying.

The backpack you left behind.

[Ah.]

Yes.

The medical student also killed the main character.

Of course, it comes back to life.

-It’s a loop, guys hahaha

The main character woke up in the room like the first episode.

[Huh!]

Aaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaa!

Uhhh

-doesn’t

look like anyone else -Reactions the same as when I saw blood relatives

Testa was also a person

Under the full support, it is even uploaded to WeTube as official content.

It was a real hit.

A few days later, some people found meta fun by comparing it with Testa Bae Se-jin’s previous performance.

It was because < Doll Hunter > and the character of the medical student were so strong.

-Sejin also wore glasses in Section 127, so here it is hahaha

-Is the starting annihilation a symbol of Testa?

-127 section doctor and ‘he’ medical student (image)

There were many jokes connecting the company’s previous collaboration game, which was mainly an abandoned factory and now an abandoned industrial complex, and there were also fans who drew fan art by weaving the two together.

The funny thing is that it wasn’t just the fans who were interested in this.

The parties were the same.

[hello! The days have become very chilly, so I tried to contact you to see if you are doing well. Haha, have you seen this?]

Text with a link.

Park Moon-dae received a call from the game company Ruins Corporation after a long time.

Along with the proposal I was prepared for.

Chapter 520

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 520

Game… do you want to make it again?

I re-read the long text sent by the presidents of the game company Ruins Industrial Complex.

Apparently, he was quite impressed after seeing 'Doll Hunter' starring Bae Se-jin.

'I expected it to some extent.'

I wrote a reply wholeheartedly, remembering the game in the last album that received a very good response.

An ambitious follow-up to the successful first game.

[sorry. We don't have enough time.]

Yes. Of course not.

The reason is the same as last time.

'It's okay for once, but if you go further, there will be people who want to create controversy.'

First of all, let's define the contents we tried anew for the last album.

– Put the game in the album.

This is a new event-oriented attempt until the first time, but if it goes beyond the second time, it becomes a business.

A pattern will arise.

Then there is a controversy that naturally follows.

– If you buy an album for a game, it’s not a song album, it’s just a game

This is because there will definitely be a regular consumer base who buys albums to play unique interactive games.

‘This problem is occurring because I made it well last time.’

Already, Testa had many enemies. It is said that there are countless reasons not to give pods, from the former agency, T1, to the new wonderhole bastards.

I tried to kindly explain this, but I thought that no matter how much I thought about it, these people wouldn’t understand.

‘In the first place, they wouldn’t have noticed that the existing users of the game wouldn’t like it too much.’

From the point of view of the ruins complex, they would have thought that it was a dog profit because they just made the game fun, got good reviews, and promoted their new games to come in the future.

‘Actually, I heard that there were quite a few responses from abroad.’

However, gamers in this country, who knew who Testa was, were more likely to think it would be brain-destroying or to feel resentment if they continued to do so even once.

Making a game with a popular idol would make it look like riding on the popularity of an idol.

‘To do so, I’ll have to approach it with a more careful plan.’

It’s that you shouldn’t go with the feeling of an ambitious follow-up like this.

I sent a reply by adjusting the level of rejection well so that the people of the ruins industrial complex felt the ambiguous nuance of ‘we can cooperate whenever the situation arises’.

That’s it.

Everything was well under control.

I nodded.

However, there are variables in the world that individuals cannot control.

For example, something like a hit at the level of a social phenomenon.

Yes.

< Doll Hunter > is a hit that breaks platform records.

* * *

The beginning was the overseas performance of < Doll Hunter >.

-Crazy Netflix global share 1st place

-Real-time distorted doll hunter viewership

< Doll Hunter > became a hot topic with statistics that there are almost no runners in the middle due to its suction power that makes you see all the anger that has been released once you start watching.

And the rankings continued to rise due to new viewers brought by word of mouth and entry into the rankings… .

-1st place in the viewing time rankings .

‘It’s a mess.’

The production studio and Netplus, which were excited for the first time in a long time, sprinkled articles as if they were almost risking their lives for media play.

Even so, it was more surprising that the drama’s ratings were good enough to not be criticized.

-Awesome haha

The latest comment was literally awesome.

It was reported in all kinds of foreign media and media, and attention was also paid to the main actors who appeared.

Especially for an actor who plays a crazy psychopath who presents the protagonist with his first awakening and first death.

-Oh my God,

right away, a collection of foreign YouTubers’ reactions to Bae Se-jin’s psychopath reversal scene was included in the domestic WeTube popular video rankings.

-I never expected something like this, but I enjoyed it (Capitals)

-He made this show 10x more exciting

-Viewers who screamed like the main character

It was an intense comeback of a child actor with 10 million.

At the dorm, when Cha Yoo-jin gave an enthusiastic response, Bae Se-jin, who deliberately avoided monitoring the Internet, was also seen sneakily checking.

brother! He said he fell in love with his brother!

… What about a psychopath?

He looked a bit shaky, but he didn't look bad.

'of course.'

Isn't success always a good taste? Even if it's from the 4th straight psychopath role.

Now, from time to time, I could hear him talking proudly with subtle expectations.

This time, the cast and crew were promoted to appear on WeTube. If the timing is right, I'm going to promote the next album a bit, but I don't know if it will work… .

Of course there will be… !

well there's nothing bad about that It's good if you enjoy your own activities.

However, the puppies, not the parties, were the problem.

This is because Bae Se-jin's character, medical student 'Jeong Yi-sol', has a growing public opinion on the Internet as the value of the name increases.

———————-

[Why does Bae Se-jin continue to be an idol?]

To be honest, Testa treated me as an incompetent member. I think I caught on to the extreme .

———————

This is idol Bae Se-jin's theory of futility.

It is argued that there is no need for Bae Se-jin as a testa because of actor Bae Se-jin's overwhelming performance in the work.

'It's like asking me to take another film at that time.'

Of course, because Bae Se-jin has shown steady growth on stage and built a solid fan base as an idol, the conflict was enormous.

-What is this crazy guy again?

ㄴThe writer didn't even use swear words, but he swears all over the place..

ㄴAll the fans of Maw are the seizure button hahaha

ㄴAren't you ashamed to point out that someone used a word like Maw, swearing?

-Honestly, Saejin Bae has few parts, and he doesn't leave much of an impression on stage .

ㄴAzusa looked like he was on stage even when he was out of grade .

ㄴ??? Why are you suddenly a Testa fan?

ㅠㅠ

ㄴ Why are there so many people who use the word gaslighting carelessly

? What a bitch.

Extreme remarks up to this point have similarly divided pros and cons.

'They're doing this on purpose.'

After attracting aggro with a heated argument here, a softer opinion emerges.

That was the problem.

-Bae Se I want to see you in dramas or movies more often.

Of course, it is speculation that Bae Se-jin will place more importance on acting activities in the future and will naturally miss out on testa activities more often.

There were quite a few people who wrote this casually.

-If the contract was renewed, honestly, the members should be considerate of this too.

Don’t be really selfish

. I saw a good testa member Saejin Bae to lower the value of Testa’s name.

I looked at the Internet community and nodded.

All indicators were pointing to one.

‘Let’s comeback.’

This is what happens when the drug for testa activity is off. < Doll Hunter > The impact was so great that Testa was instantly pushed back.

As soon as possible, Testa should make a comeback and hit the head sexually to turn the topic around.

‘Just in case Bae Se-jin wants to promote his next album, I can do it to my heart’s content.’

Besides, this was also a good way for Bae Se-jin to carry out his schedule as an actor.

Given the current development of < Doll Hunter >, Bae Se-jin is highly likely to appear in season 2 as well. Then, in a few months, we will start a new shoot, so it was good to put in the team activities before that.

‘Because I was thinking of doing one more comeback before the year ends… It fits perfectly into the annual plan that was set up when the company was founded.’

Of course, if Bae Se-jin really wants to focus on his acting activities rather than team activities, it wasn’t bad timing for him to start showing off from now on.

‘It’s like taking part in important schedules, skipping a few events and going to actors’ schedules.’

To be honest, if you do it until you renew your contract, there will be no moral problems if you gradually fall out of it.

So, I even asked him outright.

-… Why?

The reaction came back, asking why we canceled the schedule we could go to. um yeah

-I understand your ambition to hold on to both idol and actor activities.

-uh? Not to that extent… .

– Oh oh oh!

Surely this guy has guts too. Compared to when they first debuted, it was a remarkable growth.

I nodded as I watched the back of his head disappear as if he was running away to his room while receiving applause from my younger siblings.

Besides, when Bae Se-jin entered this work, he joked about it, but his success in the drama actually opened a new route for a group called Testa.

For example, instant rice and canned ham PPL from < Doll Hunter >.

do you know that Netplus does not accept PPL for money. In many cases, it is treated as a two-way promotion between companies.

-ㅋㅋㅋ I came to the mart because I was craving hot rice and ham after watching Doll Hunter, but they were even on the ham wrapper. (Photo) Something like this.

In the past few days, canned ham wrappers with the image of < Doll Hunter > have begun to be seen in supermarkets.

The instant rice and ham companies promoted their programs with PPL on their side as well.

And what's interesting is that this company is also a competitor with T1 frozen food.

-It seems like it was just yesterday that I was a slave to Testa T-One, but now they advertise for me as a rival

Yes. Unintentionally, while feeding T1, he made a connection with a rival company.

Oh~ Look at this, Moondaemun University. This company said it would like Mundae to eat some of their chicken feet?

It's good.

It's not an ordinary skill for that company's social media person to see you. By the way, if you put an advertisement in it, they are really willing to eat it.

Anyway, in this way, there is a way to gradually escape from T1's 'I won't use Testa' influence.

Breaking away from Testa's connection, which had been biased by T1, other companies came to bite.

'It's going well.'

Bae Se-jin, who was worried that his acting activities would interfere with the team, brightened when he explained this to Bae Se-jin, perhaps because it was good news in his own way.

'It seems a bit too energetic, but… A guy who did well is okay.'

To be honest. It was more of a problem to have done well and not even know about it.

chamberlain… The next album that wants to make a comeback soon. The guy who participated in producing more than half of the songs here.

I am… You mean you wrote this song?!

Even when checking the detailed information, the working time is only 21 hours, but did you really finish the work in 21 hours without moving the program separately?

… I guess so.

oh my god!

Rabin Kim.

Steer Kim Rae-bin… .

'Let's return it quickly.'

After I finished the 'Listen to My Song' hearing that I opened to Kim Rae-bin, I decided to return this guy's memories as soon as possible and proceed with stage rehabilitation.

I don’t have any objection, and I was just waiting for the timing, so I didn’t mind it.

– I look forward to seeing how I overcome my lack of talent and inclination and get on stage through realization!

Steer Kim Rae-bin originally came to the complete conclusion that he had no ability as a performer idol.

Still, he seemed to have a strange belief that he, who had Testa’s memories, would have secured his stage abilities through a great chance.

Perhaps, as he listened to the members say, ‘You were originally good at the stage’, the logic in his head went strangely, and that’s how it came to be.

It’s a bit of a distorted idea, but let’s talk about this carefully and correct it.

Is stage rehabilitation important?

‘Let’s go lightly right after I get my memories back.’

I have established some principles.

Be brief and not overly formal.

There is an audience, but even if a variable occurs, the probability of it spreading into controversy is low.

Everyone in the audience should look at the stage with a friendly and generous attitude.

finally… .

– The format should be freer than the existing stage.

When I put this in, the answer came out pretty quickly.

‘There’s also a candidate right away.’

This is a more natural way to do it because I contacted the Ruins Industrial Complex a few days ago.

After checking the KakaoTalk profile that popped up as the contact information for the ruins, I smiled and texted.

[Congratulations. You said you were getting married.]

Their profiles were their wedding photos.

It seemed that the couple who ran the ruined industrial complex were getting married soon.

[Aren’t you in need of a congratulatory song?]

Testa’s congratulatory song service.

Chapter 521

Episode 521

The day when the congratulatory song for Testa was confirmed after an enthusiastic welcome from the husband and wife of the president of the ruined industrial complex.

Oh congratulatory song It's been a while~

Sejin gave a congratulatory song… have you called

I didn't do it alone, but when I was in high school, my teacher got married, so I did it with all the kids!

For reference, that video was already discovered on WeTube at the beginning of their debut. With the title 'Testa Lee Se-jin's congratulatory song'.

-Aspiring idol from anyone's point of view -You have a different

angle on yourself haha

Anyway, befitting guys who became idols in their early 20s, that was the end of this team's celebration song experience.

me?

'It can't be.'

What kind of bastard would have sang a congratulatory song when all contact with him was cut off while preparing for the public announcement.

At least, I received a call asking me to take a picture, but they didn't reply and blocked me because they wanted unpaid labor.

Thanks to this, the preparation for this congratulatory song started with a preliminary investigation.

As always, the guys gathered in the living room diligently presented the songs that come to mind when thinking of congratulatory songs.

A bright and happy song!

How about a picnic… !

There are quite a few ballads in our album, right?

Various love songs from the title track appeared as candidates and were listed.

However, there was no song that just made me want to say 'this is it'.

Um, something is bothering me.

I know.

Even songs we sang but weren't ours were nominated.

Park Moondae, you… You know the song I sang in < The Singer I Made >. famous as a congratulatory song.

That's fine too. However, the distribution of parts seems to be a bit difficult.

… is it?

OK.

Of course, there are other reasons too.

‘It’s a song that I sang by myself and it’s overly popular.’

I don’t think there’s one or two idiots trying to compare the time I sang the song by myself and the time Testa sang it as a group.

‘There’s no need to give it something to scratch.’

Recently, people who are using Bae Se-jin to scratch Testa are appearing one after another.

I won’t miss this honey-like opportunity to hit either the individual or the testa.

In the end, Bae Se-jin gave in to the majority decision defeat with a slightly dissatisfied expression.

okay.

Every time an opinion came out in this way, a decision to hold or dismiss was made for various reasons.

As a result, later, even songs that had nothing to do with us came out randomly.

i want to do this!

Eugene, let’s use this only when we propose to our fans.

Eventually, a 30-second marriage proposal challenge song, which is trending on TikTacTok, became a version.

better song!

I’ll think hard… !

The discussion got more and more serious. To be honest, I want to go this far for a congratulatory song.

‘I was thinking of doing something cute.’

In the meantime, steer Kim Rae-bin, who tried to extract some opinions by subtly instigating them, seems to think that he has no authority, so he is going crazy because he is listening with a straight attitude.

‘Should I just call Medrina?’

Fortunately, after about an hour, the leader sorted things out like a leader.

Um, wouldn’t it be okay for the wedding party to sing the song they want?

ah.

It was a very valid opinion.

It sounds like a surprise and it’s not a party for other people to have adventurers. Better go safe.

We will contact you right away.

good.

And the congratulatory song that the husband and wife of the president of the ruins industrial complex wanted… … .

[and! Then there’s the song we collaborated on for the first time, right? The 127 section trailer song! I really want to hear that!]

that’s kinda

‘Wasn’t that lyrics like ‘I won’t die and survive’?’

Wouldn’t it sound like a discord if sung at a wedding?

[Or, this title is good too! ‘Roll the Dice’!]

Let’s start a melee at the wedding?

It seems that these people's ideas are weddings and nabal, and they are distorted by requesting songs they want to hear.

haha yes wait a minute.

I stopped the call for a moment, turned off the sound, and looked around.

The members desperately began to express their opinions.

Some of our songs might be like celebrating a couple! How about recommending something like that?

I know. There is no such thing.

why! Like a high five… It sounds like we're proposing.

that's right. My recommended song, so it was rejected.

It means saying no to yourself and putting aside the thought of choosing a song like marriage proposal.

… … So what song do you sing?

A dizzying silence passed.

Then Ahyeon Seon raised her hand.

I just… Can I call you what you want?

Ahhh?

Even if it's a bit awkward, I think these are the most meaningful songs for the two of you… ! The company you work with… Because I can remember that I got good results. I think you'll be happy.

Oh… .

Some of the guys seemed to be impressed by that sincere expression.

But I quickly got my head rolling.

It sounds like you tapped on a calculator.

Excluding everything that suits and doesn't suit a wedding… .

'There must be a topic.'

Isn't there a story

When game company presidents get married, they are congratulated by a group 1 idol with the game song?

I can already hear the sound of clicking on WeTube.

But there is no need to state this conclusion. I nodded and agreed, like one of those impressed guys.

That's right. because you want to hear

There was no particular reaction this time.

Yes!

Sun Ah-hyun nodded with a bright face.

So, is it decided?

Yep~

That's how we politely resumed the phone call with the president and his wife of the ruined industrial complex.

I will prepare one of the two songs you mentioned.

It is a song of their own choosing. Let's take responsibility for the sense of incongruity that doesn't suit the wedding.

[really? wait a minute … come quickly You've become!]

[Awesome.]

[Wow, I'm already looking forward to it! Thank you so much!]

They were people full of will to live while doing what they really wanted to do.

After listening to the president and his wife talk live, the call ended amicably.

[Then see you that day!]

After hanging up the phone.

We looked at each other and nodded.

… … Shall we practice?

okay.

A fierce and intense title song by a concentrating male idol.

Wedding congratulations confirmed.

I… By the way, what kind of song is the bonus book?

Let's start by educating this guy.

* * *

After the call, I went back to my room and played a song that Steer Kim Rae-bin hadn't heard of yet.

This is the background song 'Bonus book' of the trailer video that came out in collaboration with < 127 Section >.

This is also a song I composed… .

that’s right.

Steer Kim Rae-bin, who sat between the beds, watched the trailer frantically.

I naturally played the title ‘Better Me’ at the time, which shared some of the melody with the collaboration song, and even showed the stage.

It is Kim Rae-bin’s one-person direct cam.

[Find BETTER ME]

Every time the rhythmic choreography followed the riff melody, cheers broke through the music.

Raebin Kim, who was wearing a mask with a zipper on his mouth, ripped off the mask and threw it and started rapping.

Wow-!

I opened my mouth.

aren’t you doing well

Kim Rae-bin did not answer for a long time and looked at himself in the vertical video.

The answer came back at the end of the song.

I do not know. Was my evaluation good for this stage?

uh. I lived listening to the rumor that it came out of a cyberpunk cartoon.

However, Kim Rae-bin had an ambiguous expression.

don’t like it?

I know that the audience's reaction is very favorable, but I'm not sure if I'm doing well… .

hmm.

Ah, but I'm indirectly recognizing it by looking at the reaction!

okay.

I crossed my arms.

As far as I remember, there was basically no difference in the way the stage was operated between Steer Kim Rae-bin and Testa Kim Rae-bin.

'If I had to argue, are the stage songs performed by Testa Kim Rae-bin better?'

And more actively, without being aware of it, he put in ad-libs using his own movements and facial expressions.

However, there is no difference that makes you want to be a completely different person. because they are the same person

'But Steer Kim Rae-bin came to the conclusion that he couldn't perform on stage, and I'm not sure if Testa Kim Rae-bin is good at it?'

This is the curious point.

Originally, this guy has a very good eye for stage abilities.

'As much as he has a talent for producing, he makes judgments like a knife.'

It was almost brutal.

This was the attitude and ability that this guy had even before his debut in < Azusa >.

chamberlain… Do you know the reason why this guy chose Bae Se-jin out of so many people in the 2nd team match that he and I first teamed up with?

Even though Bae Se-jin at the time was a beginner who participated in idol survival by crying and eating mustard under the pressure of the agency.

-It is unlikely that you will conflict with the team to take more parts, and you are very expressive in given parts!

In a word, it was judged that since his skills were different, he would take fewer parts and still digest the parts he received properly.

‘I figured out the only ki stat and tenacity trait that Sejin Bae had.’

The performance evaluation was clear to be sober.

However, if this kind of guy’s self-judgment is going to have problems, that obsessive story about ‘not being able to perform’ may have been related to a trauma that was deeper than I expected.

‘As expected, I’d like to have a little more conversation.’

I want to be gently coaxed into having a deep conversation over a period of a few days.

The problem is that Kim Rae-bin’s intention was firm.

After all, I would like to ask you to recover your memory as quickly as possible!

hmm.

Even if I didn’t return it and asked to continue the conversation, there was a chance that it would make me nervous… .

‘It must be higher.’

I quickly made up my mind and nodded my head moderately without a change in expression.

okay. So what should we do today?

yes!

I called the other guys before midnight that night.

want to give it back now?

uh. He said he wanted to receive it before singing the congratulatory song.

Umm… okay.

Soon, Kim Rae-bin took his place in the middle of the living room as if he were celebrating a birthday.

Raebin Kim Did you eat a lot? You're going to sleep now, so eat well!

I've had enough! And I have already prepared myself by watching Chungwoo hyung's case!

Steer Kim Rae-bin, who answered quite courageously, lay down on the futon.

please!

OK.

After I brought up the status window, I went through two types of pop-ups to bring up what I wanted.

Preview guide popup.

I cried while watching it.

'Exit preview.'

The hologram flashed without any major effect.

Ugh.

And at some point, the unfinished interface design unique to preview disappeared.

[Complete!]

Then everything went quiet.

‘after.’

I took my eyes off the status window and turned my head.

Perhaps Kim Rae-bin is now asleep for several hours like the others… .

‘for a moment.’

Kim Rae-bin, who was lying on the bed, had his eyes open.

I… Did Moondaemun University deal with it now?

uh.

We saw Kim Rae-bin again.

‘what.’

Kim Rae-bin opened his mouth.

sorry! I think I was a bit dizzy… So, did Chung Woo-hyung’s memory come back?

Eh?

uh uh uh

Looking at the members who all looked stupid at the moment, Kim Rae-bin nodded as if he understood, and then jumped up from the futon.

… ! It’s a situation that Moondae hyung hasn’t started yet. Have you been waiting for me because I fell asleep?

Rabin.

yes?

what were we just doing?

The boy replied in a slightly puzzled manner.

… ? Dae Hyung Moon tried to implement something called ‘preview’.

And everyone realized

Testa memory came back to Kim Rae-bin… It seems that the steer memory has evaporated.

Steer Kim Rae-bin experienced everything up to the last few days!

sorry. I will keep my mind clear so that nothing further hinders my progress!

… that is.

I pressed my eyelids.

‘Preview such an X foot… !’

* * *

A few days later.

congratulations.

Hey, long time no see!

A wedding venue located in Seoul.

A passenger who attended the wedding of a relative's brother was deeply impressed by the front of the ceremony hall full of strangers and various garlands.

'He has succeeded.'

It was a hot topic in the family when a relative, the son of that uncle, said that he bought a building in Seoul after making a fortune with a game company.

Even the seniors, who used to study computer games, liked money and business.

'Capitalism is really… .'

She, a sociology major, shook her head and stood in the line for the congratulatory money.

Of course, she had no interest in games at all, so there was only a faint impression that her brother had made a famous mobile game.

Anyway, it was said that he made a lot of money, but the wedding that started was clearly like that.

'He makes it so big and unique.'

People of various young ages and company employees who seemed to have met through business filled the venue.

And the slightly erratic progression and unique events that seem to have been taken from the game gave it a fresh feel.

'I think the rice will be delicious too.'

When the guests made such a judgment, the wedding ceremony was concluded with a very short and concise sermon.

Just the congratulatory part.

[As an anthem… This is also like the wedding of the presidents of the ruined industrial complex.]

‘What are you talking about?’

She glared at the host. Others had similar expressions.

The presenter laughed nervously and shouted.

[As an anthem… Idol group testers are here!]

Huh!?

At that moment, most of the guests, including her, almost jumped from their seats.

‘What what?’

That moment when I doubted whether I had heard it wrong.

[Then the celebratory song begins.] As

I hurriedly turned my head to follow the lights, someone jumped in from the other side of the darkened ceremony hall.

… … ?!

It was Testa in a suit!

Chapter 522

Episode 522

Wedding halls are usually quite large halls.

However, the interior was filled with guest seats and all sorts of decorative equipment, so there was little practical space.

Of course, this meant that the congratulatory song was held in a place not far from the guest seats.

Thanks to this, guests in the front seats could see the congratulatory singer right in front of them.

And because of the narrowness of this seat, some people can see the anthem singer right in front of them even if they are not in the front seat.

For example, a sociology woman who came to see a relative's wedding.

swish

She saw tall figures turning around and running right next to the outermost guest seat on the groom's side where she was sitting.

7 males.

Dressed in well-tailored suits of ultramarine blue, they passed by in an instant, but their faces could not be recognized.

The face I only saw on the screen.

'Testa.'

The male idol who will be the most famous in this country this year.

Having escaped from the flat surface and becoming three-dimensional, they were moving with a greater sense of presence and reality than they had in their conception.

Even the wind they raised as they ran touched their cheeks.

'… ??'

uh?

A bewildered sound echoed around.

So was she herself.

When she, unable to properly judge the situation at the moment, doubts whether this is reality.

Piing-

The 7 men who arrived at the place of the congratulatory song in an instant grabbed the microphone and shouted without hesitation.

[Congratulations on your marriage to the two presidents of the ruins!]

Ambiguous reactions erupted, still mixed with surprise and cheers.

However, those who grabbed the microphone immediately laughed and commented with clear voices without the hesitation of an amateur.

[It's the first time we've sung a congratulatory song, so I've been studying hard, but I heard that congratulatory songs are often done heartily by both the married couple and their close acquaintances.] [Yes

. May the two of you continue to live happily and happily with each other… Hoping.]

[Is it just us? So we prepared a congratulatory song with that kind of heart~]

And at that point, the guests finally came to their senses.

It's a testa!

'her… … !'

Sociology and women swallowed saliva.

She, too, had imagined what it would be like to see a celebrity in real life.

It may or may not be better than the screen.

In conclusion, the facial features are equally handsome. It was a group famous for being so handsome, so it wasn't awkward.

However, the screen could not fully capture the unique atmosphere that a person has.

Physique appearance facial expression.

It is in a sharp and neat condition that has been polished and polished with the ball every day.

The destructive power when all of that comes into existence!

'oh my god.'

What I saw right in front of me was a great benefit.

When a guest realizes too late that his seat selection was insanely good.

Ryu Cheng-wu, who had a solid physique, smiled and changed the flow of his comment.

After mentioning how great makers and partners the two of them are getting married.

[We had a chance to participate in the wonderful work the two of you made together, but I don’t know if you would know.] As soon as those words were over, a few moans and screams erupted from the guest seats as if they had a premonition of something.

‘what? What are you doing?’

So far, Testa has spoken in a tone that seems to be personal with the couple. It means that I did not ask for a favor from across the street or come through my agency.

And

‘Come to think of it, it seems that Testa advertised some game… .’

And before the thought is over.

[Let’s start!]

The accompaniment started.

The electric guitar MR began to reverberate through the ceremony hall like a lightning strike.

… ??

Wow!

Excited screams and questions crossed the guest seats. There were people who knew something and people who didn’t know.

And at that moment, the song cut through all the noise in the dining room.

[I’m gonna survive-

Like you did before!]

Thrilling high pitch.

‘crazy!’

A clear, high-pitched voice that I never thought I would hear at a ceremony.

At Park Moon-dae’s voice, all the sounds of doubt disappeared and cheers erupted.

And the intro part that sticks to the ears follows.

[Ash to ashes dust to dust!

But NOT for me,

I’m alive, like-

Legends never die!]

Cha Yu-jin stretched out her hand toward the couple with a wink in her eyes.

The boss couple couldn’t control their excitement and raised their hands!

‘Huh?’

It was then.

The huge white screen in front of the guest seat lit up and a video started playing.

From the time of the ruined factory to the current ruined industrial complex through T1 Place.

The image cuts pass the process of passionately and happily making games while the bosses are sleeping.

At the words of the president and his wife, ‘Tell me anything you need,’ it was a request Moondae Park requested after much thought.

-It would be nice to play a video during dinner together.

A video that tells the story of two would-be couples, often played at weddings.

It is composed of unique contents by meeting the characteristics of the presidents. However, the warmth and relationship were transmitted just like normal.

and.

As soon as the trailer video taken by Testa in the < 127 Section > video passed by, all the guests who were unaware of the situation realized it.

< 'Bonus book' by TeSTAR >

This was a game song that the president and his wife put so much effort together.

So, it was the theme song of the boss couple.

[That’s what keeps me alive! Steps that I will follow vigorously and complete my life]

The appearance of the Testa screen president and his wife warmed up the atmosphere as if creating a synergistic effect.

What are the side effects of singing a song to a very famous celebrity?

That is, the main character of the wedding can change.

A side effect is that the guests focus more on the congratulatory person than on the wedding couple, shouting out loud, and only talking about the congratulatory song while eating after the ceremony.

That is why, contrary to expectations, the satisfaction of singing a famous singer as a congratulatory song may not be very high, not simply because the song is famous.

The wedding itself is buried.

[If I reach out I can hold it.]

However, there were no side effects at this ceremony.

What Testa sang was a song related to the chronology of the work the couple had been working on together.

It was no different from singing the couple's symbolic song.

Since it is even Testa's own song, the sticky narrative and connection points were conveyed to the audience without any sense of incongruity.

At this wedding, there was definitely a reason to call Testa as the congratulatory singer.

[I will never die]

Like I did before!]

Testa sang the rap part together and demanded a chorus from the bride and groom and even the guests to preserve the cuteness so as not to get too serious.

It was a composition that went well with the festive atmosphere of the wedding.

The gap between the lyrics rather brought joy. There is a story in between, so it has a unique charm and depth.

[Choose your way…

Choose your side.]

[Yes choose your side!]

Moreover, Testa moved from the middle of the game song to their latest song through the naturally connected lyrics.

‘Roll the Dice.’

This year’s song gained popularity through Waterbomb.

The fact that a couple getting married today made a game in the album with the song as the title made the relatives and acquaintances in attendance a little excited.

[Just roll the dice

Trust take my side]

That’s how Testa succeeded in perfectly celebrating their marriage with a song that doesn’t even fit the lyrics.

Not as Testa’s performance, but as a stage for a wedding celebration.

[Be happy!]

The 3 minute and 30 second stage was finished like a knife according to the video.

Applause and cheers poured into Testa and the couple.

When the accompaniment stopped, the warm sense of solidarity created by the video and song disappeared, and interest in Testa itself was about to explode, but at that time, Testa was already quickly leaving.

Ohhh!

However, people who were already holding smartphone cameras took pictures of Testa even as they cheered with their mouths.

The guests, who had been idly clapping and watching the congratulatory song, finally came to their senses.

‘Oh me too!’

Can’t you take a picture of this up close!

She hurriedly picked up her smartphone and succeeded in taking a picture of the testa passing right next to her.

At the same time, the eyes went directly to the tester, not through the smartphone screen.

‘… and.’

They were the people I saw on TV.

Cha Yoo-jin smiles with her fangs slightly exposed Sun Ah-hyun with long eyelashes and red cheeks Lee Se-jin who is cool and handsome.

Kim Rae-bin with a glamorous and decadent impression Ryu Cheong-woo with a strong skeleton and handsome appearance Park Mun-dae with a nonchalant white face.

Even the well-groomed face of Bae Se-jin, who recently became popular with < Doll Hunter >.

One-sidedly, those handsome celebrities that only I knew sucked their eyes.

‘and.’

Choked with wonder and excitement, she forgot to end the video shoot and held her smartphone for a while.

And she wasn’t the only one in this state.

The song, which was filmed by dozens of guests, was naturally uploaded and released on the Internet.

-I came to an acquaintance’s wedding, but Testa came out haha;;

* * *

[Everybody screams the moment they know who the congratulatory song is]

[Testa suddenly broke into the wedding ceremony]

[Testa congratulatory song went crazy today]

Internet users were taken aback by the short videos and news that suddenly poured in without notice, but they were too interested in not knowing. These were the go-to titles.

‘What?’

And if you click it, you will suddenly catch the back of the head of Testa who sings a game song passionately with electric accompaniment during the celebration song and the bride and groom waving excitedly.

The [I’m gonna survive-] video, as always, gave it objectivity so that it could be seen from a third person’s point of view, a bit farther away than the on-site participants.

It means that there are many people who burst into bread as soon as this anthem starts.

-What is this ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ

ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ ㅋㅋㅋ

ㅋㅋㅋ But

it was fun

. The parties couldn’t have been so much fun!

The situation became more exciting as it became known that the couple were the presidents of the ruined industrial complex and the relationship between them and Testa. -Wow,

that couple is amazing too

. How did they hold back without talking about it haha

People who didn’t know it praised the couple’s patience.

And by the time the aggro of the humorous and unique incident itself peaks and regains a little composure, other things come out.

it’s a skill

-She

‘s so shameless

The shaky video of an amateur filmed with a smartphone saved a sense of realism.

It was even more so because of all kinds of gossip among the guests, but there were some regrets about it.

The point is that there are few videos where you can clearly see Testa’s stage like a music broadcast.

It was obvious, but if you think about it, you could find comments like this.

-Are you without conscience if you ask for a high-definition fancam

-Sell your conscience, give me a high-quality video finished, though.

And among these ‘excessive reactions’, there were rather good things.

For example something like this.

-Is Sejin Bae also here? Um… -People who are busy with filming can even get lost in it

. It’s hard to see people even ordering congratulatory songs for acquaintances. It was said that there was, but the aggro who tried to use Bae Se-jin somehow made an unreasonable number, and the intention was rather obvious.

Opinions that are once embarrassing or ridiculous lose their charm. Therefore, the speculation about Bae Se-jin’s activities has temporarily subsided.

-Hul Bonus Book music chart

-Seeing our kids’ old songs being re-examined like this, I think that this is a group that will last a long time without riding on the real era.. 7 of us let’s go for a long long timeㅠㅠ

Everything looked good.

Fans liked the natural, happy, stress-free rice cake and enjoyed it for several days.

It was a good content to have a small illness while waiting for a comeback!

-Guys, comeback… Seeing this, I missed it even more! Haha

But none of them knew.

The fact that the reason why Testa planned this congratulatory song itself was frustrated.

[…] Ah]

[Yeah Fate is a fake!]

Raebin Kim, who heard the microphone, almost fell silent without a sound coming out of his mouth.

The moment I saw that solid appearance, thanks to Cha Yoo-jin and Lee Se-jin, who quickly came in, the rap part was handled happily like singing together.

They were the only ones who noticed more than that.

* * *

No voice.

yes.

Rabin Kim nodded with a pale face.

suddenly… Tension rose for no reason, and no voice came out.

In the car on the way back after the congratulatory song, I pressed my temples.

Chapter 523

, you'll get

a fatal disease Episode 523 Kim Rae-bin can't perform on stage.

But (probably) the cause of it is that the steer days have already blown out of my head.

'I'll be thrilled.'

What the hell can you say when you hold a guy who has no memory? It could be because of fatigue, so don't worry too much and send me back to my room to rest.

But everyone knew that this was bullshit.

'Fatigue is what freezes to death.'

Then you should have exploded when you debuted when you slept three hours a day. No matter how you look at it, this is the trace of steer Kim Rae-bin.

Fortunately, the member of the same age who would have spent the most time with the person concerned was here.

And coincidentally, he was at the dorm because he had no evening schedule.

Tell me anything you doubt about what happened to Lavin during Steer.

Let's get rid of it.

Cha Yoo-jin, who was called to the kitchen, hardened her expression seriously instead of pouting at my question.

This guy seems to have been a bit worried about this situation too.

what a lot happened But Kim Raebin was fine. [Of course, he wasn't as happy as he is now. However, there was no extreme despair or mental issues.]

Hmm.

It was a rather unexpected answer.

-Kim Rae-bin was fine during his days as a steer. (Cha Yoo-jin's testimony)

So, at least as long as you remember, steer Kim Rae-bin also had no objection to the stage, right?

that's right.

Cha Yujin nodded and frowned.

A few days ago, I asked Raebin Kim a lot of questions. But Kim Rae-bin only said that he couldn't perform. [Sometimes, it seemed like he didn't even know the cause.]

Before Steer Kim Rae-bin's memory disappeared, he tried to investigate, but failed.

I nodded.

That's a good testimony.

So simple.

What?

Now look.

I marked with my finger on the table.

The last time you saw Raebin Kim during your time as Steer was when you went to America right after the group disbanded.

that's right.

Cha Yoo-jin's trip to America.

Even after putting a dot on it, I kept my fingers crossed.

However, Kim Rae-bin, whose memories came back from Stier, was a guy who even experienced military enlistment. You remember what happened after you went to America.

… Yep.

Just as Cha Yoo-jin worked at a garage in the United States, and Lee Se-jin A finally won the case, Kim Rae-bin also experienced something more during that period.

The only difference from the steer Kim Rae-bin you remember is this period.

– The period after the breakup of the group.

I said, shaking my hands.

So the problem arose after you went to America.

Oh.

In other words, the short period from the dissolution of Steer to the completion of the training center rises on the line of suspicion.

'Of course, it's under the assumption that Cha Yu-jin was well aware of Kim Rae-bin's condition during Steer.'

This assumption is highly likely to be correct.

Cha Yoo-jin is a quick-witted guy. It's a problem because I didn't pay attention to it.

'But it must have been a situation where I had no choice but to use it during Steer.'

In an extreme situation, humans can make things that didn't exist in the first place, but those who did have them will add more.

However, if this guy says 'there was no mental problem' about a member of the same group and a close friend of the same age, it means that there really was no such thing.

Cha Yoo-jin, who had been listening to it, also readily acknowledged it.

OK. So what are we doing?

It's a look that doesn't doubt that there will be an answer for me. Thank you.

I nodded and, as always, opened my mouth at once.

You should think about that from now on.

… What?

Let's think about it based on this information.

I want you to notice too.

I returned to the room after assigning the task to Cha Yoo-jin, who was flustered.

For reference, the roommate Kim Rae-bin, who was unable to perform on stage, was banging her head on the desk.

'I told him to rest.'

It's not resting, but it looks like it's stretched out.

The guy wearing the headphones with the rabbit and energy drink engraved on it that he received from a fan at the beginning of his debut did not move.

It looks like he's scared, or he looks like he's dead.

'That's great.'

I'll have to work this out soon. I sat down on my bed what… In fact, Cha Yoo-jin said as if there was no way to come to mind right away, but in fact there was.

It was a method that even took a hit by saying 'I will do it after the agreement', so it was just aiming for a good timing rather than saying it right away.

Forced dig into the system right away.

I rubbed my chin.

'If I dig in, I think something will come out.'

If you access the system once more like when you found Lee Se-jin A… .

[Wow, don't even dream hyung!]

no… when did you hear It pops up before you even say anything.

I saw the big moon pop-up and shut my mouth.

what. I had nothing to say even if I felt reluctance to take Ryu Gun-woo's body instead of him and access it.

'Still, I think I'll be able to do it more safely this time since I finished the first attempt safely.'

I responded as calmly as possible.

The pop-up went unanswered for a while, then popped up.

[Well then, I'll try it, so please wait!]

What?

what is this again

'The big moon.'

But there was no answer. Apparently, this guy had access to my system.

'No, I can do it, so what's the point of making you do it?'

It's the cleanest thing to do by someone who has done this.

I called him a few more times, but as expected no answer.

'Damn it.'

I stopped calling once again with a bitter mouth. If you're connected anyway, you can interfere and become X, so let's leave it for now.

As much as he lived through the status window, he had a high level of understanding of the system, so he might get an unexpected income.

'Should I do something else first?'

I immediately turned my head and opened my mouth.

Rabin.

yes yes!

Kim Rae-bin, who was banging his head on the desk, raised his head.

As roommates, this is convenient.

I thought, ‘Do you really have no memory? Do you remember anything? Let’s think back to the situation at the time of the performance.’ Instead of saying things like let’s see some work

yes?

I asked him to open the hard disk as if ripping off money.

Rabin Kim nodded with a puzzled expression.

These are the 7 songs I recently worked on.

On the screen of the heavy laptop he held out, several files were opened through a composition program.

I put on extra headphones from him and started listening to the tunes.

thanks.

no! But for what reason do you want to listen to the song… … .

I glanced at the guy’s complexion.

tension nervous confusion.

‘I’m conscious that there will be a story related to the stage.’

In this state, the only thing that really brings up the story is a handshake.

So I responded casually.

I was curious. Lately, it seems like I haven’t paid much attention to producing.

And smiled lightly.

It’s nice to be able to listen comfortably since we’re roommates.

brother… … .

The guy who said ‘No, he cared enough’ seemed to be quite impressed.

It means that you have succeeded in diverting attention.

‘good.’

I listened to the 7 songs repeatedly and grasped the structure, and after listening to his explanation, I pressed the play button several times.

It was to pass the time.

Oh~ Did you listen to Rabin’s song at Moondaemundae?

What are the members doing? do it with me!

After listening to it repeatedly like that, before I knew it, the guys who came out of their rooms and the guys who had finished their schedules joined in and enjoyed it together.

Seeing that there were also guys who wouldn’t come, it was clear that he had come because he was worried about Kim Rae-bin, and then sat down to look at the atmosphere and try to encourage him.

Now, let’s play number 3~

Eh!

clap clap clap

And in the atmosphere of this sudden hearing, Kim Rae-bin finally started to get nervous in a different way.

Soon, a soft ballad song with a relaxed and rhythmic feel smoothly filled the room.

After listening, Liu Chengyu smiled and said to the guy.

This song is so good, Rabin. I especially like the melody.

thank you! This is a demo version in which the top line is composed first and then the beat that matches the melody is composed… .

Finally, there is an immediate reaction without consciousness.

After a few songs had passed and I confirmed that the nervousness of his preparation had disappeared, I sneakily took action.

Oh Rabin~ How long have you been using those headphones? Why don't you take a picture of yourself and post it on your account?

Sejin Sejin took advantage of the opportunity to talk to Raebin Kim, grabbed the laptop mouse again, and opened the screen explorer.

What Kim Raebin showed me earlier was the latest song collection folder. I picked 7 songs here.

'But if I sort all the files in the folder by newest order… There was one more song between the seven songs.'

-62_06.wav

This is it.

I asked Raebin Kim as if I remembered it while looking at the file.

Did you make this song number 6 this time as well? The save date is recent.

oh that… It seems to be a song I made at a time when I can't remember.

iced coffee.

It means that it was made when there was only the memory of Steer Kim Rae-bin.

In fact, I already knew.

‘I checked the file creation date.’

It was just that period.

But I naturally nodded.

I don’t remember making it, so it must have been awkward to introduce it. I guess I’ve heard of it though.

Yes, it is stored on my PC, so of course I went through the verification process!

I asked the guy who quickly nodded.

Was there a part in this song where you said, ‘If I had made it, I wouldn’t have made it like this’. Regardless of whether the song is good or bad, in terms of the composition method.

At that moment, the other guys who were talking quietly quietly shut their mouths. It seems that the guys who were usually not very aware of the situation have squeezed out the unnoticed as much as the situation. Good job.

Kim Rae-bin’s face became more bloody for a moment as if he was lost in thought, but he soon opened his eyes and answered.

ah! In fact, I felt a sense of discomfort.

okay?

The song seemed to be made with the members of our group in mind, but it didn’t have my part!

uh?

At that moment, Bae Se-jin could not stand it and intervened.

What does that mean?

therefore… I tend to be conscious of the characteristics of each performer when composing with the owner of the song decided.

Kim Rae-bin eagerly explained.

This song seems to have been made in a similar way, but… There is no part that seems to be assigned to me!

Bae Se-jin hardened his expression.

therefore… It seems like this song was written for Testa, but you're the only one who doesn't have a part?

As far as I'm concerned, yes.

Rabin Kim nodded.

So, the person who made it in the first place… I guessed that maybe he didn't intend to perform on stage… .

Kim Rae-bin seems to have guessed this when he was banging his head on the desk earlier.

'hmm.'

I looked at the file on the screen again.

Steer Kim Rae-bin was clearly trying to find memories of his testa days in order to 'play the stage again and contribute to this team'.

In this situation, of course, wouldn't they have tried to make a group song assuming that they would perform on stage after regaining their memories?

'At least I wouldn't have tried.'

If so, this means that Kim Rae-bin tried to put his part in the song, but failed.

That is to say, his resistance to the stage was strong and determined to the extent that he did not put his part in ‘not’, but ‘can’t’.

‘… … .’

I held back a sigh. I was complacent.

Everyone was relatively less worried because Steer Kim Rae-bin tried to compose music and seemed to adapt well to the team, but in fact, he might be the one who worried the most.

‘I’ll have to take a more delicate approach.’

I deliberately talked to Kim Rae-bin calmly and leisurely.

Anyway, you want to be on stage right now.

of course!

Kim Rae-bin answered at once. I smiled faintly.

That’s it. There are seven people, but if you try, there will be one that works.

I tapped Sejin on the shoulder. A backup came soon.

Ah, then~ The most important thing is to think that you want to do these mental things! Ravin has already met the conditions, right?

ugh right… ! If you don’t worry too much… I wish.

… ! Yes, thank you!

Kim Rae-bin’s complexion brightened as if he felt a little relieved.

And I thought I need to find this guy’s memory soon.

But that night

[I don’t have memory data, hyung!]

I almost hit my head on the head of the bed.

‘No?’

[yes… . I went to the terminal that hyung said, but it wasn’t there.]

Such a fucking thing.

As I cursed at the system, a small pop-up appeared that seemed to have died.

[sorry. Maybe it’s because I don’t have enough skills to find it… … .]

No, that would not be the case.

‘He’s not someone I would have found roughly.’

If the big moon doesn’t come this far, there’s a high probability that it won’t exist.

then… .

If the memory did not go back to the system,

the memory of steer Kim Rae-bin would still be with you.

At that moment, realization came.

I was mistaken.

Because it is a ‘preview’, I thought that the moment the function ended, Kim Rae-bin’s memories of his steer days were also recovered by the system.

‘But it wasn’t like that.’

It was said that Kim Rae-bin in his days as Steer was not coming out as absorbed by himself.

After sitting on the bed and examining the flow of reasoning and thought several times, I finally came to a conclusion.

‘I have to make a knocking sound for a guy who’s locked up in a room.’

I needed stimulation.

* * *

After not being able to properly stand on the stage of the congratulatory song.

While resting in his room at the dorm, Kim Rae-bin continued to worry.

‘What is the cause?’

Regarding the rational reason why he suffered extreme spasticity on stage.

In fact, he had tried several solutions during these two days.

He received gentle advice from Bae Se-jin and Seon Ah-hyun about expert counseling, and Ryu Cheong-wu recommended that he accompany him on physical leisure activities such as shooting and mountain climbing.

But none of that could alleviate his anxiety. It’s because you’re fine during practice, so you won’t know until you really start ‘acting’.

So, Kim Rae-bin, who became more obsessed with the cause, guessed like this in a slightly depressed state.

‘Maybe the problem is that I don’t remember.’

I even remember Cha Yoo-jin!

Park Mun-dae dismissed him as ‘it’s just a matter of method’, but when this situation came to Kim Rae-bin, he had to worry and reflect.

However, he also tried not to obsess over the stage itself because he knew that the more he thought about it too deeply, the more he would be swallowed up by it.

Because you already had experience.

‘It’s a similar situation to when I had a slump about composing before.’

Kim Rae-bin, who was touching the composition program, nodded resolutely.

Then I suddenly remembered.

‘Wait composing?’

At that moment, like a fireworks display, a flash of light exploded in Kim Rae-bin’s head!

If this situation resembles a songwriting slump, how about a similar response?

To enjoy the stage only as a hobby in a state of anonymity.

‘At that time, with the help of the hyungs, I even created an account called Byeolbyeolgok!’

When I thought of the situation at the time, a warm feeling settled in my heart.

It was hope and happiness.

In a slightly refreshed state, he got up to convey his reasoning and found his roommate Park Moon-dae right next to him… .

I was going to say it anyway, but it went well. A teaser for this album.

yes?

How about making an intro song and putting it in? As short as possible within the current period.

Testa sometimes put a lot of effort into teasers to create a detailed world view, but there were times when he didn't.

This time, I thought of the latter and gave strength to the album itself.

However, adding an intro only now may mean that the work is becoming overloaded in a way, but Kim Rae-bin nodded happily.

The plan Dae-hyung Moon said always went well!

I'm good! Since this is an introduction video for the album, we will organize it well so that each element and member can appear harmoniously.

And this time, I was thinking of bringing up my business, but… .

No. You will do it alone.

… ??

The intro of this album is four solo songs.

Kim Rae-bin doubted his ears, but Park Moon-dae was still smiling faintly.

Chapter 524

Episode 524

Kim Rae-bin, who started composing for the first time in the spring of 14, has been making songs of various genres until now.

This is because he had nothing to hide and found something attractive in every genre.

-Rabinah, the classical music major I talked to the teacher yesterday… … You've been composing disco?!

-… I'm sorry, student Ravin, but you really composed all of your portfolios, right?

A level of comprehensiveness that baffled everyone who taught or scouted him!

Even in those days when the level of perfection was insufficient due to a lack of theory, he had a strong personality without being sloppy.

And after a transitional period in which he only cared about the perfection of the song itself, he finally came to care about external factors that he could not directly control.

– Who will call?

I compose with the singer in mind.

It became commercially viable.

And Kim Rae-bin happily went through that process as well.

As if putting together a puzzle of masterpieces to complete an exquisite picture, a song for the ‘singer’ came out through a delicate process and adjustment process.

It felt very attractive to Kim Rae-bin.

I’ve never hated it.

But the problem is… It is that there has never been a time when the singer was only himself!

A song that only considered yourself!

‘What should I do?’

Kim Rae-bin was taken aback.

Of course, it wasn’t the first time he recorded his own solo songs.

In Testa’s regular album, which included the title song ‘Arrow’, the majority of the songs were composed of solo songs by each member.

However, it was only part of the organic connection of each song in the album, with five or six producers participating, not just Kim Raebin.

So it was like composing a long symphony and assigning one movement to yourself.

It meant that he had never been in charge of an entire intro that represented an album so openly.

The only clue is the word of a trusted member!

– How about writing down your impressions while making this album?

It was the advice of Park Moon-dae hyung, who had always been an indicator until now.

‘… good!’

If so, I will make a song that will live up to the expectations of the group!

Kim Rae-bin made a firm commitment.

The fact that his own older brother had entrusted him with the teaser was completely ignored.

In the meantime, his goal of not focusing on stage fright was being achieved without realizing it.

– First step: Preliminary research.

Kim Rae-bin first focused on the fact that this intro song will be a song to introduce the group's album.

Collecting the members' diverse opinions felt like a necessity.

So, I started visiting the members with the least amount of time in the dorm because of their busy schedules.

… impressions I felt? why is that

It is Bae Se-jin.

After finishing a schedule related to < Doll Hunter >, he was surveyed while drinking orange juice.

He reflexively responded with a little bit of a bit of

No, it's not that I don't want to answer, I'm just asking a question! purely!

… ? Yes, I understand!

Kim Rae-bin, who had never been offended in the first place, just continued to ask the questions he wanted to ask.

-Collecting members' impressions of this album!

However, Bae Se-jin, who tried to make a friendly face as much as possible, returned to his words with a calm expression and replied like this.

Park Moon-dae told you to express your feelings. I agree too. don't be influenced by me

Sejin Bae took a shot of juice and left for the bathroom.

… ??

Kim Rae-bin was embarrassed!

'failure… is it?'

However, he was able to find the next target without giving up.

What is Lavin looking for? Why are you standing here

He immediately burst into laughter after hearing Rabin Kim explain what had just happened.

hahaha! oh my… Rabin must be surprised!

He laughed inwardly at the lack of tact of a member with the same name, but soon he smoothly comforted Kim Rae-bin.

Rabin Kim unknowingly began to express his suffering.

As the song introduces the group's album, I thought that the perspective of the entire group should be reflected. If I were alone in my thoughts, I wouldn't change too peripherally… .

A~ I think it will be okay because Ravin has a good sense?

It wasn't empty talk.

This is because Kim Rae-bin boasted an outstanding sense in relation to art as a whole.

Lee Se-jin glanced at Kim Rae-bin's current outfit and even remembered the younger brother's usual plain clothes.

It was a unique sense to be able to match and wear outfits with an atmosphere that could be excessive or embarrassing if they were just one inch off.

'This isn't something that can be learned.'

It was called hip in the public.

Although he was a bit ignorant in interpersonal relationships, he was a very talented younger brother who made up for it.

'Cheerfully count your prayers.'

He's a stubborn guy, so he won't run away.

After completing the evaluation, Lee Se-jin smiled.

And since we're all going to give feedback together when it's all over, let's do what Rabin wants to do comfortably for now!

… All right.

And as expected by Lee Se-jin, Kim Rae-bin seriously decided to focus only on himself.

'As expected from the last 'Byeolbyeolgok', I only need to think of fun songs!'

… So I came to the conclusion that I could just make it as a hobby.

Oh.

That night.

Kim Rae-bin sat at the kitchen table and worked while chatting with Cha Yu-jin about his situation so far.

Cha Yu-jin, who had received grilled bulgogi rice balls for a late-night snack from Moon-dae Park, was in the middle of eating them.

The fluffy rice was soaked in sesame oil and bulgogi broth and grilled to a savory taste like browned rice.

However, when he heard Kim Rae-bin's conclusion, he snorted while licking the rice on his fingers.

Kim Rabin I was mistaken.

what?

Am I mistaken?

okay! This is different from hobbies.

Cha Yoo-jin grinned.

Raebin Kim I'm not just making songs right now. We have to make a performance to introduce our album.

That's why it's important that our fans like it.

From the video concept to composition.

Kim Rae-bin said that he had to come up with extremely commercial results while considering numerous things.

'I want the fans to like it… .'

He thought deeply, and Cha Yu-jin thoughtfully asked instead of picking up the last rice ball.

Rabin Kim: How did you originally make the album for us?

Rabin Kim answered without hesitation.

I made it so that each of you can make the most of your own characteristics and strengths through this song.

Cha Yoo-jin grinned.

Do it again! The fans loved it!

‘ah.’

Yes.

‘I have to make a song that I can properly express.’

Kim Rae-bin found a clear goal as if his mind was clearing up.

It was an essential question that finally arrived.

-What are my characteristics and strengths as a singer?

And if we go a little further here.

Finally, a fundamental question arises.

-Who am I as a performer?

Kim Rae-bin realized that he would make an intro from here.

That’s how it went to the next step.

* * *

-Second step: Conception of the work.

A work full of what Rabin Kim is good at.

First of all, Kim Rae-bin thought he knew what he was good at on stage.

He had good communication skills, and was good at interpreting and expressing songs and creating irregular wow points.

‘Nevertheless, I suddenly couldn’t perform well on stage… .’

If so, there are other factors that we haven’t figured out yet.

‘It’s also a memory.’

He had a strong premonition that he would be able to properly assemble this work only if he took into account his lost memories, including steer Kim Rae-bin.

However, the way to bring back missing memories in a short period of time seemed far off.

‘Even Moondae-hyung looked embarrassed… .’

So he decided to take an indirect approach.

A member who had memories of Steer until the most recent.

And to the extremely trustworthy leader of this group.

… How was you on stage during your Steer days?

That’s right.

living room. Ryu Cheong-wu, who was reading a book borrowed from Bae Se-jin, continued to smile instead of answering.

And he answered slowly.

well done It wasn’t that different from now.

Still, if you have time right now, would it be okay if I could ask for a more specific explanation?

If it were another member, I wouldn't have bothered to ask this question to Ryu Chung-woo.

Ryu Cheng-wu didn't want to mention much about his days at Steer, so he said, 'It's embarrassing. Sorry.' Because the situation has already been sorted out.

It was an implicit expression to ask not to speak of it in the future.

However, Kim Rae-bin had lost his memory of Ryu Cheong-woo at the time, and was not a great person to notice the other person's subtle discomfort.

So, in the end, he got a specific answer from Ryu Cheng-wu.

Specifically… … . At that time, the company wanted to give each member a clear character even on stage.

What immediately came to mind when Rabin Kim heard the word character was a picture engraved on one of his main headphones.

rabbit.

You mean the animal characters that fans call you?

Similar, but not that specific.

Ryu Cheng-wu added briefly.

Someone always takes the bridge, and someone always stands in the center in the chorus… That's it. Dyeing and glasses were mainly done only for certain members.

If Moondae Park had heard of it, they would have dismissed it as 'a clumsy effort to classify the types of children according to the level of demand', but the two, who did not know such specific vocabulary, simply nodded their heads in understanding.

I heard a similar story from my former agency. It's a different abstract image from a position like dance vocal rap.

okay.

Ryu Chung-woo, who responded briefly, saw that Kim Rae-bin was waiting for a more specific answer, and eventually continued until the next word.

and you… Ravin played a lot of slightly darker and more colorful roles on stage than he does now.

Is that so?

okay. I received a lot of impactful parts.

To be honest, just hearing that story, I didn't think 'I lack the ability to digest it'.

However, logically, Kim Rae-bin nodded.

Then there's a chance that I avoided the stage because I couldn't digest the part I was in charge of!

Liu Qingyu was silent for a moment, but then shook his head.

no you did good

yes?

Don't be suspicious and think so. Understand?

The strange tone may have sounded a bit forced, but it soon ended in a mild manner.

ah… . All right.

Kim Rae-bin nodded and got up from his seat.

It was because Ryu Cheong-woo seemed uncomfortable enough to understand even Kim Rae-bin, who was not well aware of ‘talking around’.

‘You seem tired, but let’s get up.’

Besides, he already had in his mind the next person to ask about this matter more specifically after Liu Cheng-wu.

As my brother was a fan of Steer, I thought there must have been some impressions of my performance. Was it really dark and colorful?

brother?

‘Because I wasn’t a fan.’

Park Moon-dae wanted to close his eyes tightly.

However, it was useless to say that now anyway, so I did not reveal it outwardly because it was a superficial topic.

Instead, he spoke insincerely.

Oh, it was like that. But it fit.

Kim Rae-bin was rather confused by Park Moon-dae’s comment, who swallowed the first words, ‘even in that X-like environment’.

‘You didn’t avoid the stage because you couldn’t do it?’

but why is that

Even in the midst of confusion, Kim Rae-bin answered honestly.

For some reason, I had a hunch that I would have to consider even the memories of that time.

This can be happen.

Park Moon-dae nodded his head politely instead of bruising.

And he spoke in a soft tone that was not reprehensible.

But what you're making now is the intro of the testa album. I think it's more important to focus on you, who has lived as a testa.

Think about what you want to do right now and what you are good at.

that… That was right.

Could it be that he became obsessed with details because he got used to the inspiration triggered by small clues?

I'm not saying what you're doing is wrong, so don't misunderstand.

yes… … .

In the end, Kim Rae-bin could not ask more and had no choice but to end the progress of the day.

He went back to his bedroom and thought to himself.

'What I would like to do… .'

And fell asleep soundly.

It was probably past midnight when he came to his senses again.

'uh… .'

Kim Rae-bin, who closed and opened his eyes with a hazy vision, suddenly realized that the bed next to him was empty.

'… Mundae hyung?'

He reflexively got out of bed and tried to quietly walk out of the door.

It was then.

that’s what you answered

A voice was heard outside the door.

It was Park Moon-dae’s voice that had disappeared from the bed.

Kim Rae-bin reflexively stopped his steps and peeked his head out of the door to see the voice.

That’s not all.

dark living room.

The indirect light cast a faint shadow on the faces of the two sitting.

Moondae Park.

and Ryu Chung-woo.

After Steer disbanded, you were the only one who knew Kim Rae-bin’s whereabouts. Because Cha Yu-jin was in the United States and Bae Se-jin was in the courtroom.

and… You must have been overly responsible at the time, so I think you would have checked the status.

Park Moon-dae spoke calmly.

What happened to Ravin at that time?

Kim Rae-bin held his breath.

An unfathomable silence lingered in the living room.

And

right.

Liu Cheng-wu answered in a low voice.

You saw what I told you not to see.

At that moment, something flooded Kim Rae-bin’s head.

Images began to flow in, as if a dam broke and water burst through the cracks.

It was a memory.

* * *

It started with a sentence floating on the screen.

-It’s like a moneyed bastard X.

Chapter 525

If I Can’t Debut, I’ll Get a Deathly Disease Episode 525

Steer Kim Rae-bin’s life wasn’t bad.

Of course, the group he belonged to suffered from bad news, and he was unable to create or produce his own songs in the direction he wanted.

It weighed heavily on my heart and sometimes caused insomnia.

However, Kim Rae-bin had a family to confide in, and on nights when his schedule wasn’t full, he would usually talk on the phone from the veranda.

– You don’t have to worry too much, Lavin. Originally, all social life was like that. Social freshmen can’t do what they want to do.

His older sister often comforted him like that, citing examples of herself in a similar situation, and added words of encouragement at the end.

– As time passes, you will have another opportunity to do what you want.

And Rabin Kim believed that.

He ended the call by saying thanks and regards and carefully returned to his room from the veranda.

Then, sometimes, I got criticized.

“Don’t stay out too long.”

“sorry.”

Ryu Cheong-wu just nodded and passed by, and it was common for Kim Rae-bin, who was nervous, to let out a sigh of relief.

‘It’s not bad though.’

Kim Rae-bin was good at finding the good points in any situation.

“Kim Raebin, go to sleep!”

“You go to sleep too.”

In this group, there was a friend of the same age who had been a trainee since they were in their teens. For some reason, it was a pleasure for him, who had difficulty getting close to his peers.

And once you debuted, you experienced various stages and gained the experience of releasing a song.

‘Overall, my situation is a thankless one.’

He thought so, and did his best to continue his activities without sinking into depression or despair like some other members.

The years passed as if it would never end, and soon came to a clean end like a lie.

group breakup.

-Goodbye Cha Yujin.

Burnout of exhaustion came to Kim Rae-bin inevitably. It was only natural that I poured out my best effort for 5 years.

However, Kim Rae-bin was not buried.

‘Let’s rest for a bit and carry out as planned!’

Because he has already made up his mind about a new career path.

Singer songwriter!

Even though Steer came to an end after a not-so-great promotion, he still had enough energy to go on tour and sell hundreds of thousands of albums, albeit in a small way.

With the money saved there, apart from sending it home, he could invest in equipment and set up a decent studio.

‘And if I get a chance, I want to challenge myself to work with a song that I made the way I want.’

There were so many things I hadn’t tried yet. You will be able to do more!

Kim Rae-bin thought so and went back to Gangwon-do and melted into a peaceful daily life.

Until then, he was slowly recovering.

-Cheongwoo Ryu: How are you?

It was the same when I received a text message from the elder who was the leader of the group about 15 days later.

‘ah.’

Raebin Kim reflexively straightened his spine and tried to maintain a state of rapid tension, but when he realized that he didn’t need to do that, he forcibly relaxed.

‘yes. I am doing well. Thanks for asking… .’ While writing such texts, he suddenly realized that he could now freely use his smartphone.

Specifically, the Internet.

-Rule 3 Do not access SNS without permission.

During group activities, Ryu Chung-woo watched his team members with tight discipline like a boarding school, so naturally, Kim Rae-bin lived a life away from the Internet for several years.

And it continued until now.

At first, I didn't have much interest in it, and I only used it to upload songs anonymously on the platform from time to time, so I didn't feel much discomfort.

But that was the group's rule.

'Doesn't that apply now?'

This is because Steer has already been dismantled.

Logically, there were no loopholes. Your objection to this situation is simply your own fears and learned prohibitions.

He almost got a little depressed, but soon regained a sense of purpose.

'good!'

Kim Rae-bin first sent a polite reply to Ryu Cheong-woo.

And after a bit of hesitation, he started searching for his name on social media to get feedback.

-You look handsome today (photo) #Kim Raebin

-King Rabin.. Black Rabbit Emperor (video)

-I want to see Rabin ㅠㅠ

The texts written during the last active period and the affectionate texts looking for the unknown self recently poured out.

He was almost thrilled, but he read through the writings with a strange and grateful heart.

'There are still many fans on SNS.'

The ability to search to the extent of knowing that an account has already died or has ceased to be active has disappeared over the years.

He looked around SNS a few times, focusing on popular posts, using only his real name as a search term, and soon remembered another method and changed tabs.

‘Let’s see various places.’

And the moment you search for your name on a search engine.

‘… ?’

He saw an unusual text on the first page.

-… Kim Rae-bin, Cha Yoo-jin, Min Jeong-hoon, Steer T-one V-tic Mirinae T-holic… … .

It was as if all kinds of group names and personal names were randomly added.

‘Why is this structure like this?’

Rabin Kim inadvertently clicked on the article. Then the page changes and you are redirected to the new search engine.

“… !”

It was a gossip board.

In < Azusa >, which was also a hotbed of all sorts of rumors, the article that had been posted a few weeks ago and took the rankings unfolded before Kim Rae-bin’s eyes.

_____

[Steer disbanded]

(Capture article)

I thought there would be really great male idols during Azusa, but somehow it’s a bit futile

——- ——————

And I realized why the strange structure of the writing was like that.

The article, with hundreds of comments, was covered with keywords to be caught in a search.

He inadvertently lowered his gaze to the best comment.

and.

Long sentences of pros and cons like crazy covered his vision.

-Steer’s problem is that he pushed a production member for a concept, not X. There was even a personality controversy from Azusa, but I still don’t know why he pushed him

. I hope everyone will live well ㅇㅇ – Planning power = producing and there is only one member who participated in producing

. … .”

Kim Rae-bin was not good at guessing the inner thoughts of the person talking around him.

However, language rules and described features could be sufficiently analyzed and distinguished.

So I noticed.

-It looks like the accumulated money x.

That was a story about yourself.

Kim Rae-bin forgot to even breathe and continued to check the related content.

-I really sighed when I saw him making songs like X and taking care of the G part every time

. It seems like everyone must have gone crazy when they saw you pretending not to be a no-jam personality and being greedy

. Comments with a similar tone, as if they were throwing up because there was no one, were up to date until a few hours ago.

-Ah, it's really cool ㅠㅠ Finally, I realized that muggles are like this X -It was annoying that they were treated badly, but it feels like justice has won haha.

would not have received

He could have realized that he just wanted to leave the cause of Steer's failure to someone comfortably, and that there was only one member there who did not want to look like him out of personal feelings.

However, each sentence Rabin Kim saw had a logical structure. It's also very analytical.

Why is there a problem with Steer's production and marketing? Why is the distribution of parts unfair and problematic? Why is this all happening because of Kim Rae-bin?

One-sided claims based on factual analysis sounded like the truth. Especially from the point of view of a person who has fallen into a panic over writings expressing intense criticism and contempt for himself.

He didn’t come up with a calm rebuttal that he wasn’t involved in the overall production and that more than half of it was just speculation.

I couldn’t see the opposing opinions saying, ‘Aren’t these guys crazy?’

It’s just that all these accusations seemed convincing.

Besides, these ‘fans’ weren’t just criticizing.

-I don’t think Eugene will return after going back to his country.. What should I do

? -I really want to die. Seriously , why did my child get beaten up?

“… … .”

That’s why Kim Rae-bin was contemplating as he rubbed his cold hands as if his blood had cooled.

‘How wrong I was.’

Have you made a big mistake?

“… … .”

He was speechless.

Originally, he was not the type who was good at social chatter, but his propensity to speak kindly and talk nonstop about the things he liked had disappeared.

Even before three days passed, the family came to ask him at the end of their worries.

“Rabin, what are you doing?”

“… … .”

“Kim Raebin!”

“… So”

In the end, Kim Rae-bin confessed to his sister that he had seen an article on a gossip bulletin board he had seen and an anonymous site he had found through a link.

“Why did you see that!”

My sister freaked out and started patting him. Kim Rae-bin felt his heart grow hot, but in the end he could not stand it and asked.

He needed an answer.

How much was his fault for the group called Steer not doing well.

However, the family was stern and cut off his words.

“Rabin. They’re all crazy kids. Live your own life. Why do you hate celebrities so much? None of you have done that, so don’t look at that in the future. Understand?”

I couldn’t understand it because it seemed like he was just defending himself, but I couldn’t continue to ask questions.

The more I talked about it, the more my family seemed to suffer.

On the day he saw his grandmother wiping away tears in his room alone, Kim Rae-bin decided to think for himself and find the answer.

He lay down on the bed before going to bed, and he decided not to be afraid, but to ponder and judge.

So I thought about it as hard as possible.

‘first of all… .’

After summarizing numerous criticisms, it can be divided into two main causes.

Topic 1.

-The quality of the album has declined because of Kim Rae-bin's producing.

Kim Rae-bin could not take the lead in producing. I was just assigned. And the company wasn't being selfish because it tweaked the output to its liking.

But goodness and competence were not the same thing.

'So I think it's my fault that I didn't act more wisely and express my opinion.'

Kim Rae-bin concluded that he should reflect.

Next is Topic 2.

Kim Rae-bin tossed and turned on the bed feeling his throat choke. And I barely remembered the sentence.

-Kim Rae-bin monopolized good parts and could not digest them properly, which had a great negative effect on the team.

Kim Rae-bin… I tried my best to digest the given part.

It really was.

'But maybe that wasn't enough.'

Looking at the analysis articles, it was strongly written why the part had to go to someone better suited than Kim Rae-bin, who 'eats the part'.

Besides, there was empirical evidence.

'Our group didn't do well.'

He himself could not digest the important part attractively enough.

So, on the contrary, the possibility that it would have been more beneficial if someone else had digested the impressive parts, rather than himself, is fully open.

And if the fans think so… that would be correct

"… … ."

So maybe the answer is simple.

-Conclusion: Kim Rae-bin has no ability as an idol.

It was right to produce as I had decided when I was young.

He inhaled and exhaled, trying to think correctly.

in a good way.

'The elements of our active songs that these fans criticize, I also felt a problem.'

His eyesight was still fine. So it was okay to continue doing it.

'okay. Let's do it.'

Kim Rae-bin came to a conclusion and finally felt his head clear.

he will make a song

'I can do that far.'

Lying on the bed, he looked up at the ceiling and made a revised plan for the future.

"… … ."

I didn't cry, but somehow my heart felt empty and sad.

* * *

Testa’s quarters.

Kim Rae-bin was hit as if she was soaked in a waterfall through her memories.

It was as if I had endured it and finally heard the words spilled out.

Just like when you hear someone close to you sadly share their concerns, you deeply sympathize with them and feel sorry for them.

Now, to Kim Rae-bin, that someone was himself.

“… … .”

The two older brothers were still talking in the living room.

But he stumbled back to the dimly lit living room and quietly returned to the dark room.

Then he sat down at his desk and opened his laptop.

My head was tingling and pale, as if it had been bathed in cold water.

However, the final question that emerged at the end of the data collection was resurfacing.

clearly.

-Who am I as a performer?

this had to be corrected shorter.

-Who am I.

And specifically.

– Who am I at this moment.

And he quietly put his hand on the laptop and tried to accept what he was feeling right now without distorting it.

It was a feeling that I was able to avoid without tasting deeply because I debuted as a testa.

It was an essential element that was most clearly revealed when one was at his weakest.

irreversible failure.

pain.

“… … .”

Rabin Kim decided to talk about suffering.

Chapter 526

Episode 526

News of Testa's new album has already spread on the Internet, but the pre-timetable for promotion has not been released.

So people greeted the day the intro trailer was released without any notice.

midnight. Fans lying in bed and flipping through their smartphone screens received a sudden alarm from Testa's official WeTube channel.

'… !?'

'what?'

It was the first video that came out with the name 'Trailer' like this since the collaboration with Section 127!

Fans who fell asleep clicked the pop-up and a thumbnail immediately appeared in front of their eyes.

Image of a small glowing old, broken yellow light bulb in a dark space.

Fans clicked on it right away, not holding their breath and nervous to the top of their heads.

[…] … .]

The beginning was a desolate street in a gloomy modern city.

thuduk thuduk thump thuduk… .

The rain fell in torrent, making a melancholy, low noise. I catch the same almost gray sky over the back alleys of a dull and dark city.

Back alleys are empty and dirty, littered with weeds and manhole wires.

Then, a distinct shadow appeared through the back alley.

slap.

It was Inyoung who did not use an umbrella.

Kim Rae-bin, wearing an old aviation jumper, was looking into the camera through a back alley in the backlight.

'… !!'

Kim Rae-bin, who looks tired and exhausted and has a decadent eye shape, seemed to be looking at the viewer through the lens of the camera.

The moment the feeling became clear, the focus of the screen changed.

thud… .

Suddenly, something popped up right in front of the camera.

It was a white hand.

The camera, spookily lowered, caught the source of the hand.

manhole.

A white hand protruded from the half-open manhole, frozen like a mannequin.

[…] … .]

Tension flowed from the video.

Kim Rae-bin came forward with heavy steps.

And took the white hand.

widely.

In that moment everything changes.

[Calling]

A splendid signature sound of trumpets and trombones exploded, and an extremely modern refitted swing house exploded rhythmically.

Pleasant and addictive sound.

According to the sound, Kim Rae-bin was caught by a white hand and fell down the manhole.

sewer.

[Oooo-!]

Surprisingly, it was a different world.

Colorful lights, shining water and emergency lights, contrasting with the faded city above the manhole, flashed in time to the beat.

It burst out overflowing with tones and colors. CG like a cartoon effect and real color firecrackers mixed and overflowed as if they were about to explode.

But the structure is still down the drain.

Kim Rae-bin, who was looking around, confirmed that he was caught in a protruding concrete water pipe structure.

black rabbit mask.

It was a fur doll mask that completely covered the head and looked realistic as if the head had been removed from a real rabbit.

Kim Rae-bin’s hand picked it up without hesitation.

He donned a black rabbit mask and began to dance happily through the sewers.

Hip-hop beats filled the place where brass disappeared. [

I lost my way because of the brilliant starlight,

the dark deep sea

, the hopeful esoteric sea]

Light flashed all around him, and the silhouettes of people who looked like they were having a party were visible beyond the iron cage in the distance and then disappeared.

Sometimes wearing animal masks, they wore a variety of clothes, from summer school uniforms to harness uniforms and hanbok-style coats.

These were the stage outfits that Testa wore in music videos from < Azusa > until now.

Cheers and pollen flew.

[There is no right answer

, just keep running.

New track is rough

Your trigger is born]

Despite the lyrics implying that the new path will be rough and traumatic, Kim Rae-bin, wearing a rabbit mask, looked happy.

The moment he took a big step forward excitedly and took a step forward energetically, the cut changed and illuminated the narrow alcove.

[Pang!]

Kim Rae-bin, dressed in a fitted black stage costume, sits on a chair in the middle of a small room and raps.

It was a very cool look, but perhaps because of the background, it felt somehow gloomy.

Old lights flickered in the dark room, where the faded city could be seen through the bars.

In the blink of an eye, the cut crossed into the sewer again.

[I

pull the trigger and a hole that looks like a shot exploded

beyond your slender caliber

]

The music rang lightly as if it were pleasant.

However, the color of the sewer where Kim Rae-bin, wearing a rabbit mask, runs becomes bizarre and distorted.

Every time the lights were turned off, the sewer’s true appearance was revealed shady and disappeared in an instant.

On the other hand, Kim Rae-bin performing in a small room became more and more exquisite and intense.

[

The future seen through the narrow gap of the carved gunshot wound

]

As the accompaniment faded, the trumpet's skillful solo sounded.

Grabbing the camera, he exclaimed expressionlessly.

["The exit has collapsed."

Run]

Bang.

The music returned ran amok.

Lights exploded around the sewers. The colors of the primary colors trembled as if knocking on the mind.

The doll in the rabbit mask, which looked happy as if dancing, was running forward as if it were burdensome.

[The starlight is brilliant

, I'm lost at the end of the cliff in the dark deep sea]

As in a thriller movie, tense editing techniques crossed several times to tighten the video and music.

[The place to step is gradually minimized and the focus is on the clock (minutes 55).

It arrives soon, but it is not on time because the stride is narrow.

]

Kim Rae-bin, wearing a rabbit mask and running hurriedly, as if about to fall, and Kim Rae-bin, performing vigorously in a small room, quickly crossed.

[I can’t get there,

I don’t know which way to go]

And

finally the rabbit mask reached the end of the sewer.

[Whoa!]

The green crackling and flickering emergency lights.

Underneath it is written in bold letters.

-GET OUT

static.

There is no color, no cheer, no pollen.

Amid the quiet white noise, the rabbit breathed heavily and reached out to grab the handle of the emergency exit and open the door.

[This is the end.]

A full crimson light floods in through the door.

It was a circus tent.

The vermilion tent and the round light bulbs filled the camera with an eerie, ecstatic atmosphere.

the music is back

[

Dead end of the path]

Kim Rae-bin, wearing a rabbit mask, lowered his trembling hands and stepped over the emergency exit.

The emergency exit turns off.

[There is no way out]

At that moment, the screen that reflected Kim Rae-bin had turned into a cartoon.

In-young, wearing a rabbit mask in a cartoon style that could be seen by children, cautiously approached the circus tent.

There was an ornate signboard there.

-MAN only

And the eyes that seemed to stare at me from all directions began to appear suffocating.

[Jump into the hole and into the manhole to Wonderland

]

Kim Rae-bin, who looked around in fear, hesitantly removed his rabbit mask as if tearing it off.

There was no head beneath it.

[There’s no rabbit.

MAN only

[So I call it a man-hole.]

The headless In-young, holding the rabbit mask in both hands as if anxious, began to stumble into the red tent slowly burning.

The light bulb flickered.

[Manhole]

Kim Rae-bin, who was performing in the cut of the small room crossed again, disappeared before he knew it.

Only the chair and the old light bulb above it remain.

And the scene of the circus returned.

Rabin Kim swallowed the circus tent and came down the road as if nothing had happened.

Like a curtain call on the stage.

Only the subtitles remained there.

[Overture – Rabbit hole]

[TeSTAR]

* * *

Late autumn morning.

Park Moon-dae took up his smartphone and naturally scanned the screen all the way.

Kim Rae-bin’s solo trailer, which was released last midnight, was already at the top of the WeTube popular video rankings.

‘I expected it, but it’s surprising.’

Neither collaborating with a game nor ambitiously planning a masterpiece after preparing a concept for several months.

It was an unbelievable reaction that it was made by a short 2 minute and 30 second trailer with a single member appearing.

It was so intense and somehow evoked emotion.

-Have you seen the trailer for Testa’s comeback?

-When will this sound source come out

? -I felt so creepy and sad while watching the trailer.

-Shambyeol seemed to have sharpened his teeth this time, and the topics that did not end with simply compliments such as ‘good song’, ‘good video’ and ‘handsome’ continued to be reproduced.

That there is something to talk about.

– The rabbit hole. Clearly inspired by Alice in Wonderland, the trailer shows a lot of symbolism. Wonderland represented by the sewer The stage represented by the alcove… … (More)

-Referring to the last cut of the trailer (spoiler included)

-I think Raebin Kim made the slump theme for Testa’s latest album -I wonder if the term “Wonderland” refers to a stone plate?

-Is it national rule for producing members to be bluffed

? -To be honest, we are a group that has been on a winning streak since our debut as Serba, so far, but we are at a dead end saying what’s difficult ㅇㅋ

ㅋㅋ I don’t know, so I guess you’re going through the pain of creation~

But a detour that says ‘Only I think this way’ The opinion, which came to the surface through the , did not receive much attention.

Because people instinctively felt it.

This is an opinion that I don’t even need to come up with a logic to answer.

‘hmm… .’

‘Antinga?’

It is said that everyone listened to the intuition that there would not be many people who could sympathize with such a statement anyway.

‘That’s why it became public opinion that this trailer was well made.’

Park Moon-dae analyzed quickly.

Kim Rae-bin seemed to be pouring out all his very personal stories, but exquisitely adjusted the video and lyrics to end the new album as a metaphor.

And it hit the public with visual beauty and melody.

‘Actually, no matter what the lyrics are, as long as the song is good, you’re bound to listen to it.’

The popularity was in the melody.

So Rabin Kim’s lyrics were not difficult enough to affect popularity. Rather, it gave a suitable story.

To sum up, it was good to talk about.

It was charming.

-Testa overture lyrics interpretation

-Rabbit hole lyrics analysis

The related search terms that have already popped up supported that fact. Park Moon-dae laughed.

‘Interpretation.’

However, among the testers, only Kim Rae-bin, who wrote the song, is the only one who properly knows the meaning of these lyrics.

‘We’ve only guessed until now.’

He recalled the memory of seeing Kim Rae-bin sitting at the desk out of nowhere while quietly returning to his room one morning after talking with Ryu Cheong-woo.

-Rabin.

– My brother’s memory has returned.

The guy, who was staring at his laptop with bloodshot eyes, said that and fell into the composition program again.

At that time, the world’s Bakmundae was also a little embarrassed.

He watched the scene, somewhat puzzled, but did not disturb.

[Maestro (S)]

All you need is a small trigger.

Creation speed +150% when receiving inspiration

‘He must have heard our story.’

Park Mun-dae was worried that this might have been the trigger and that he was not able to recover his memory, but he didn't ask about that either.

'Wait until it stabilizes.'

Just a few days later, when Kim Rae-bin brought a tentatively completed song, he and the other members sincerely gave proper feedback.

-thank you.

Kim Rae-bin calmly acquired all the feedback as if sucking it in without making a fuss.

After that, he focused all his time on requesting songs and trailer videos as if pouring his soul, and he finished the trailer faster than the time expected by Park Moon-dae.

And today the trailer was finally released.

"Ravina, the reaction is really good… !"

"Rabin, you worked so hard~ Congratulations!"

"I have something to tell you."

"… ?? Oh, okay."

Kim Rae-bin stood in front of the members with wide eyes as if he had finally made up his mind.

Chapter 527

for episode 527

was released.

Kim Rae-bin, who summoned the members to the living room, solemnly stood in front of them as if preparing for the holiday season.

Somehow, Park Moon-dae looked at him, feeling like a parent receiving school report cards or a family member.

‘That’s great.’

Kim Rae-bin was exhausted from not sleeping properly for the past few weeks.

Park Moon-dae indifferently opened his mouth.

“… Shall we go to sleep and talk?”

“It’s okay if you suggested it out of consideration for me. Let’s start by talking about what I have to say.”

Kim Rae-bin answered very firmly, then closed his eyes and shouted.

“First of all, I’m sorry.”

“… ??”

‘Are you saying you’re sorry for making the trailer so well and appearing alone?’

‘… I’ve been able to make it like this for a while, but I’m sorry I hid my skills?’

An absurd interpretation passed through the members’ heads, but at the same time, everyone discarded that interpretation.

And Kim Rae-bin slowly explained to the members who decided to smile kindly.

“The teaser reflected a lot of my personal impressions.”

know.

“However, this teaser is a representative work introducing Testa’s new album. It was not my personal work.”

The members realized what Kim Rae-bin wanted to say.

-It’s our album, but I’m sorry for containing my own story!

“I made a connection point with the album. However, I could not systematically report what symbols and metaphors I used in the process of making my work.”

Kim Rae-bin swallowed and said firmly.

“I felt compelled to apologize for that… .”

And he slightly bowed his head.

Without even a moment of silence, the words came crashing in.

“Are you an idiot Kim Raebin? Sit quickly!”

“… ?!”

When he came to his senses, he was sitting on the living room rug with his back on the sofa.

“Rabin has been thinking too much~”

“Sure. Well made.”

A warm bruise followed without criticism. Kim Rae-bin reflexively accepted the honey tea offered by Bae Se-jin with a blunt face.

The person sitting on the sofa patted his back slowly.

It was Park Moon-dae.

“Even if you don’t explain in detail, I can tell that the teaser and the album are well connected. Because it’s an album we made together.”

he spoke boldly.

“From the beginning, we monitored and gave feedback on all the continuations and progress you made. you know?”

“… yes.”

“okay. Then, don’t be fooled by the confirmation and proceeding.”

He seemed a bit conflicted, then added:

“… The number of views came out well, so enjoy it.”

Park Moon-dae was smiling faintly as he said that.

Kim Rae-bin nodded his head, holding back his eyes from blushing.

“yes.”

But there was a secret.

In fact, he vaguely expected and expected the members to react like this.

It is a fact that I have learned through crying and laughing together over the past few years that I am not a team member to criticize or criticize.

‘I said it even though I knew it.’

Because I wanted to get this reaction.

Steer’s flood of memories left an almost shockingly deep mark, and he was extremely hypersensitive to situations that might bring them back.

to criticism and condemnation.

No matter what he did, Kim Rae-bin needed a counterexample in order to break the chain of finding the justification for criticism and coming up with logic.

I wanted to make sure that that doesn’t happen in reality.

“great job. Well done Rabin.”

And the attempt turned out to be very successful, and Kim Rae-bin was finally able to escape the premonition that had been holding him for the past few weeks.

My eyes were hot and my heart was light.

He squeezed the honey tea.

“Ravina, I like the teaser… ?”

“Honestly, I think the person who made it would have been cool to see it in person~ How do you feel!”

“that… … .”

Now, without worrying anymore, Kim Rae-bin was able to accept the question innocently and come up with an answer after pondering it.

“… I was relieved. It is because I was able to organize the images while embodying the images I felt.”

Rather than the teaser itself, it was the feeling I felt while making that teaser.

He had already made his debut as a testa and experienced numerous successes. So rationally, he was able to refute his self-abuse during his steer days with counterexamples.

However, he could understand why he accepted such vicious and sophistical logic during his days at Steer.

let your mind go numb.

because they were both the same person.

“It’s embarrassing… Actually, this teaser is a song I made to comfort myself.”

The surroundings became slightly quiet.

Rabin Kim slightly lowered his head.

“Since this is not a story that has been disclosed to the public, I thought it might cause a problem with its popularity in that it is somewhat ambiguous and can be interpreted in various ways… .”

“Nope!”

The closing phrase ‘I tried to complement it as much as possible’ was cut off.

“You idiot, it’s funny because all the interpretations are different! So cool. [That teaser was literally cool!]”

Kim Rae-bin looked at Cha Yu-jin with a bewildered face.

Hearing that Cha Yoo-jin is an idiot, I can’t feel bad!

and… .

‘Are you serious?’

What am I trying to say? It’s funnier because there’s no definitive answer?

As if answering that thought, Park Moon-dae continued as if to supplement Cha Yu-jin’s words.

“okay. People would have interpreted and understood what they experienced as they knew.”

Moondae Park nodded, swallowing in good conscience the rumors that that would have gone viral.

“… And millions of people like that have seen the teaser. Among them, there must be people who understood the teaser the way you thought.”

Those words echoed somewhere.

Kim Rae-bin naturally imagined the scene briefly.

Someone who suffers from accusations and criticism.

The scene where that person accidentally sees a teaser he made and finds a hidden story and feels sympathy and comfort.

The scene that I think is my story.

He immediately nodded, slightly choking.

“yes… … .”

It was a feeling he would not have felt if he had reassembled his terrifying work in such a way that the public could fully understand it.

Kim Rae-bin made a new commitment.

– Take note, but don’t be swayed.

It felt like my mind was clear!

He answered with a clear mind.

“thank you!”

“what.”

Lee Se-jin smiled and sorted out the situation.

“Now that we have such a great trailer for our album, how about a toast?”

“Uh ok… !”

The members nodded and poured the drinks they wanted, from cold water to barnacles, creating an atmosphere.

Bae Se-jin started talking about the references to ‘Alice in Wonderland’ and ‘Alice in the Looking Glass’ that he found in the teaser, and Lee Se-jin introduced a WeTube video interpreted by a fan.

Kim Rae-bin took all of this seriously but happily.

It was the same routine as any other I’ve been through for years.

‘good night.’

In the gap, Kim Rae-bin regained a deep sense of stability.

In the past few weeks, he has succeeded in sublimating overflowing pain into stimulating inspiration.

Although the stimulation gave an opportunity for creation, it was not possible to extract creative work without resting in the constant stimulation. You will be exhausted and exhausted before then.

Periods of stability and recovery are also necessary for:

Kim Rae-bin has just had such a mental break.

‘Thank… .’

He let go of his emotions and finally smiled at ease.

And fainted.

"… ?! Lavin??"

"Oooooh Raebin Kim!"

The tension was relaxed and the aftereffects of the all-nighter had arrived.

I can say it was a blissful sleepover.

"Oh… ."

"Cha Yoo-jin. The bridge is yours. I will raise my head."

"Moondaemundae, you should take a break too."

Kim Rae-bin, who immediately fell asleep, was carried to bed by the members who got up in a hurry.

It was the point where only 10 days were left until the release of the new album.

"… … ."

And at this point, Park Moon-dae raised one of Kim Rae-bin's arms and made a decision.

* * *

Kim Rae-bin was submerged in a peaceful subconscious.

I dream vague dreams in a warm and good mood. It would be great if I fell asleep like this and woke up after a while I hope that those thoughts do not even become verbalized and resonate softly and pleasantly in my head… .

A low voice sounded like pouring cold water.

“Are you awake?”

grandma!

Kim Rae-bin, who opened his eyes while crying out for his guardian, met Park Moon-dae, who was making a sad expression.

The older brother, whose expression seemed to fit the nickname of Tibetan fox, nodded at him and stood up.

‘uh… ?’

Looking back, he was dressed in street clothes with a wool fleece.

“Where are you going… ?”

“uh. to the shop. The publicity WiTube channel was caught.”

Come to think of it, a comeback is just around the corner!

Kim Rae-bin came to his senses this time and hurriedly followed him to see him off.

‘What the hell am I… When did you fall asleep??’

It felt like my eyes were spinning!

However, in an instant, the three older brothers, standing in the front door, got ready, smiled, waved, and left.

They are Park Moon-dae, Seon Ah-hyun, and Lee Se-jin.

They were three people of the same age who were good to talk about relationships on the air.

“I’ll go… !”

“I will promote the album properly and come back~”

Tak.

The front door closed lightly.

And Kim Rae-bin remained at the entrance in a daze.

“… … .”

who… Are you saying you should ask about this situation?

It was then.

Tuk-tuk.

Someone tapped his shoulder. Kim Rae-bin quickly turned his head.

Bae Se-jin had a serious face.

“Hmm, let’s eat.”

“yes… … .”

Kim Rae-bin, who responded coldly, unconsciously followed him and headed to the table.

Surprisingly, the food was already served there.

‘Chicken soup… … .’

A white soup dish was served on a plate.

And there was only one person on this team making it.

‘Cha Yoo-jin!’

Yes.

However, this time, Cha Yoo-jin made a traditional soup using her mother’s recipe instead of making it like chicken stir-fried soup by adding red pepper paste.

“Bon appétit.”

Cha Yoo-jin shrugged and spat out an idiom equivalent to ‘I’ll eat well’ and sat down at the table. Kim Rae-bin took a spoonful of soup and took it to his mouth, forgetting to ask questions because of his naturalness.

Something more familiar than before… .

‘ah.’

Kim Rae-bin realized.

It was a taste I ate occasionally when I was steer.

‘Come to think of it, Cha Yoo-jin often cooked… .’

Unlike now, when we have a company that takes care of people and even members who are good at cooking, back then, we had to order delivery or take turns cooking.

Raebin Kim looked around without realizing it because of the hazy memories that suddenly came to mind.

Only the members who were together during the steer were sitting at this table.

Coincidentally.

“it is delicious? Do you remember what you ate before?”

Even Cha Yu-jin openly asked that.

A brief moment of silence passed.

And Sejin Bae carefully opened his mouth first.

“… I don’t remember ever eating it. no that… Although I tried what you made for me last time you lost your memory.”

“Sure. Because Eugene started cooking a year after his debut.”

after you quit

Liu Cheng-wu did not bother to add the word, but everyone understood the meaning behind it.

Cha Yujin shrugged and opened her mouth.

“Oh… I have a lot of memories of my brother. Then do you remember not eating my food and throwing it away?”

I don’t think that’s something to be said lightly!

Even Kim Rae-bin thought about it, but couldn’t bring it up in this atmosphere that reminded me of the time of Steer somewhere.

Back then, I could never answer a question at the dinner table!

“Don’t you remember? Christmas Eve.”

“… … .”

Liu Qingyu did not answer for a moment.

He hesitated, as if he was conflicted within, but soon replied calmly.

“It wasn’t me who threw it away.”

“What?!”

“It must have been Min Jung-hoon.”

Ryu Cheng-wu gave a specific name. It was a member of Mo Steer who was rumored to be dating.

Cha Yoo-jin almost hit the table with a spoon.

“Holy sh… Then why didn’t you say it was a misunderstanding?”

“Because I don’t have to.”

Liu Chengwu seemed to be in conflict as to whether or not to speak up again, but soon replied in a rather insensitive tone.

“I thought you guys would fight, so I sorted it out with what I did. I thought it would be easier to control that way. Because you heard me.”

“… … .”

Soon, Cha Yu-jin sighed lowly.

“OK. [This is typical “steer leader” behavior. It’s my fault for asking.]”

Cha Yu-jin responded quite cynically, but even a person who didn’t speak English could tell from the tone that there was no malice in that.

So, no tension was created. Instead, the conversation ended with Liu Cheng-wu smiling faintly.

A slightly embarrassing yet gentle atmosphere that could be reconciled between people whose misunderstanding had been resolved passed by.

And again, wordless spooning continued.

‘hmm.’

Kim Rae-bin had an unexpected feeling.

They are already sitting around talking about the old past and uncomfortable times.

In fact, it wouldn’t be strange even if it was uncomfortable, but I even felt a little nostalgic about this atmosphere.

‘Why?’

The reason was simple.

Even in very difficult and difficult times, when a good ending was reached, there was always something to look back on and remember.

Especially if there are people who have endured that period together.

“How much pepper did you sprinkle?”

“If you are not sick, you can eat it. is this right!”

They silently emptied the soup.

I sorted out the past that I forgot and then remembered.

Ready to go again.

* * *

Same time.

Moondae Park, who successfully finished filming the publicity mukbang entertainment WeTube, received a text message.

It was very unexpected news.

-VTIC Cheong Ryeo Senior: Junior, let’s meet once within three days.

While thinking things like ‘Crazy man, I’m making a comeback’, Park Moon-dae was still conscious of the filming location and the people around him, so he thought of sending a polite, non-trivial text message.

-VTIC Senior Shin Cheong-ryeo: Because I enlisted in four days ^^

“… ?? … … !!”

VTIC. Four days until the last leader, Chung-ryeol, enlists.

Chapter 528

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 528

"… … ."

I grabbed my phone and read it again.

-VTIC Chungrye enlistment D-4 (Breaking News)

The news that I was not curious about at all is floating up to the breaking news.

No matter how much I think about it, it's clear that this bastard sent me a text saying he's going to the army on purpose in time for the public release.

I pressed my brows together, barely holding back from furrowing my brows.

It's still a filming location. Let's not bother to give the officials a funny card like 'Testa Park Moon-dae saw the news of the VTIC army and made him come to check it once'.

It's just that the guy I've been with for years seemed to read something on my face.

Big Sejin deliberately made a fuss and hit me on the shoulder. stop… .

"What is it?"

"VTIC Chungrye… Even seniors are going to the army."

"Oh~"

Sejin gave a meaningless exclamation and smiled softly.

“I hope you have a good trip~”

There is a sociability in the way you speak, but “I hope it goes away soon” is written on your face.

And I realized that this isn’t particularly surprising news.

‘yes. Because it’s November.’

I heard that VTIC would all be discharged together, but it was also funny to be surprised by the obvious date of enlistment.

I had calculated it a long time ago since last year, but there were so many incidents that I forgot about it for a while.

“Then, VTIC seniors… Since there are no activities at all, I think the fans will be very disappointed… … .”

“Maybe.”

Seon Ah-hyun must have said this because she was really worried, not conscious of her surroundings.

But you don’t have to worry about that either.

‘He must have already laid the grass for his own life.’

Chung Ryeo is someone who has already decided on a comeback song for the full lineup. Perhaps a guy like Jin Chae-yul may have even received a choreography video while in the army.

Before that, let’s think about attracting fans by using all of them during their hiatus. Only Testa can do well.

And the reaction wasn’t that brutal, as if VTIC fans had guessed it in the first place.

It came out to this extent.

-Jaehyun, what did you say about going to the army four days ago

-Is it possible to see all of our kids perform in the army

? … .”

Lastly, I want to be sincere, but anyway.

“Still, I think being discharged at the same time would be really cool, right?”

“I know. I hope you had a good trip.”

“Yes… !”

We ended the conversation on a warm note.

That is on set.

“Moondaemundae! I was talking about it earlier.”

As soon as I got into the car and closed the door, Sejin Sejin brought up the topic again.

“After being discharged six months later, I made a comeback right away… No, because there is a hair problem, it will be about 7 months. So, a comeback in June next year?”

“maybe.”

The boy’s expression hardened slightly.

“We should avoid it then and plan next year too.”

I agree. First of all, we have to get the Order of Cultural Merit so that we can postpone enlistment, but a proper plan will come out.

“Phew, it’s not easy for us to put together something like this ourselves, is it?”

“Yeah, but it’s better than not being able to weave.”

He grinned as if he were saying something obvious.

It is because there is no such luxury compared to the days of T1, when the crazy idea of releasing a rookie debut album overlapped with the VTIC comeback was pushed forward.

It was around that time that Seon Ah-hyun cautiously intervened.

“I… Are you talking about that VTIC senior?”

“huh? Ah yes yes! I’m thinking about the timing because I want to make a comeback next year. It’s the end of the year now, and we have to make plans for next year.”

Seon Ah-hyun nodded vigorously with a serious face.

“I think spring will be fine too. I wondered what it would be like to make an album that could bring out the sense of the season… .”

“Oh, is that good?”

Then, excitedly, we started discussing ideas for the next album. Well, it was good to have a lot of ideas and be proactive. More heads means more candidates.

It seemed that peaceful time passed for a while, and then Sejin Keun naturally came up with a question while talking.

“Wait a minute, did that senior contact you directly?”

It seems to be very absurd for what I encountered in the article.

“uh.”

“No, why?”

“I don’t know.”

Keun Se-jin made an absurd expression, but I really don’t know.

I would rather have called it a week or two ago, but why bother calling someone who is busy four days before admission?

‘Are they trying to sabotage the comeback?’

To be honest, I don’t think I’ll be able to make time in three days. I have a schedule that goes on even past midnight.

‘Besides, it hurts the moment the sighting is caught.’

-Gommo, right before the comeback, friendship haha hahahahahaha really

-Gunmeo should go have a drink with Haengnim hahahaha Fans are such a great bastard that friendship is more important even with a competing group that made them suffer like dogs hahaha Once I looked back at the expected answer sheet, the answer came out

. I guess currency will suffice.

The moment I was contemplating how to deliver ‘Are you insane? Do it over the phone’ in a short and gentle way.

[brother! I had a good idea!]

“… ?”

The big moon intervened.

He said he wanted to see the variety show he was filming this time in real time, so he shared his view, so it seemed he had seen the text message earlier.

however… .

‘Good idea?’

What kind of idea is this?

[Ah, promise me you’ll never access the system!]

And I found out what the big moon’s ‘good idea’ was.

* * *

“… Is that why you came in that form?”

A Korean restaurant in Yeouido.

I lifted the glass. I saw a hand with more calluses than Park Moon-dae’s hand.

It is Ryu Gun-woo’s hand.

Yes. Keundal’s proposal was ‘change body for 1 hour’.

The guy who realized that there was no risk in changing his body from the previous example was willing to change.

-I don’t have any plans for dinner this week, so you can talk comfortably!

-uh. thanks. But then you would have to shoot a testa pictorial at that time.

-Huh fishery.

Of course it’s a joke.

In the evening, two days after receiving the call from Cheongryeo. I used this time because I could subtract about an hour by adding the transfer and massage time.

Well, massage is not a bad experience. However, it cannot be denied that the big moon was considerate of this side.

‘I’m in debt.’

Let’s get it right this time. I set the cup down on the road table, calculating the approximate amount.

This is not an outdoor cafe that I met with Cheongryeo a few times last time, but a room-style Korean course restaurant.

But there is a peculiarity.

“month!”

It is a dog-friendly house.

‘Gearko brought another dog… .’

I looked at the guy holding the leash after confirming that the large dog lying on the floor with a happy expression was being held by a harness.

Cheongrye.

The guy who came in achromatic plain clothes did not burst into laughter even after hearing a rough explanation of why I looked like Ryu Gun-woo.

Instead, I reacted like this.

“If you keep changing your body, you’ll take it for granted.”

“… … .”

“That doesn’t sound like a very good idea, considering the work so far, doesn’t it?”

I shrugged.

“I don’t just write randomly.”

“hmm?”

What if I get dragged into the system shit again? Of course I’ve been thinking about it.

Would I have done that unless I was a very stupid idiot?

“I use the frequency according to the pattern.”

This is not just a ‘special’ system picked up and used today for this purpose.

I’m using the system regularly, with a frequency of once every three days in the first place.

“This system seems to be trying to create a situation where I use it often, but I use it at the same interval every time so that I can’t rank ‘how often I use it’.”

There is no possibility that I will be affected by this performance because I purposely used useless features.

‘Then when you really need it like this…’ It’s like changing once in a while.’

In this case, since it is really necessary, it cannot identify which one was used, so only a regular pattern that is used once every three days remains in the system’s record.

In a word, it is a data trick.

The man sitting across from him raised an eyebrow.

“indeed. It’s the way juniors would think.”

Are you cursing?

I felt my eyebrows twitch as I opened my mouth.

“How did you think?”

“You have to throw it away. don’t write it.”

“… … .”

what… That’s right.

To be honest, it’s such a benign choice that I can’t believe it came out of his mouth.

But if I get rid of the company system now, you would be the biggest loser.

‘If you don’t absorb the system debris you have, you know what will happen if the mission fails.’

When you think about it that way, it seems that this is a bit out of balance. After processing the fragments, I’ll use that as an excuse to extract information from this guy.

‘Once I’ve made a profit, I’ll have no choice but to vomit something.’

Of course, it’s funny to explain every word now, so I just said this.

“I have some circumstances. anyway… Why did you invite me to meet you?”

Let’s quickly get to the point.

It’s a very busy board right now. There won’t be bullshit like ‘I want to see your face at least once before entering the black training camp’.

Cheongryeo opened his mouth as if he was a little disappointed.

“Before enlistment, at least once… .”

“Stop bullshit.”

“haha!”

yeah i knew it

“Well, I wasn’t lying. Of course, there are other reasons as well.”

Cheong-rye smiled and said:

“Beans.”

“… … .”

I looked down and saw the furry still lying on its stomach on the floor.

hey please… .

“Are you asking me to watch you while you’re inside?”

“yes.”

Are you insane?

Now that I can’t take care of Munge at our dorm, Bae Se-jin’s mother adopted me, so why raise someone else’s dog?

‘for a moment.’

I immediately tried to refute it, but I realized that this pattern is quite familiar.

‘This is the pattern he uses to piss people off.’

“Of course, I plan to entrust it to a professional company. You didn’t understand that you meant to take care of your junior at the dorm, right?”

also.

‘If only the tongue was as long as that.’

I sighed and took a spoonful of porridge.

“My parents.”

“Mother… Well let’s just say it’s not a good situation for a puppy. You are such a busy person I don’t even like dogs.”

I’m busy too, you bastard.

But I shut my mouth once I realized that this guy’s mother was a man of national merit. Cheong-rye laughed.

Did you aim for it on purpose?

“And this kind of thing is good when the person you like originally takes it.”

I?

“Your dog?”

“yes.”

And Chung-rye untied the harness line she was holding.

king!

Furiously, the yellow furry runs towards it.

‘what.’

I think this one likes humans too much. I roughly stroked my hair and replied.

“I guess your dog likes people.”

“It’s okay to think that way.”

funny guy

Chung-rye kept her mouth shut for a moment. And he turned his attention to his dog.

There was no change in expression, but it seemed like he was struggling a little.

It was a pretty serious face.

“I don’t have anyone to entrust me with this kind of work. I don’t trust the character of the people I hire.”

“… … .”

Come to think of it, this guy was hospitalized because the hostel housekeeper didn’t remove the grape skins.

‘Well, if several people cross-check, the probability of problems is reduced.’

And since all of the people he knows about his personal connections have already enlisted, I can understand why he even made an offer to me.

“I only need to visit once or twice a week to check the condition. Simple, right?”

hmm.

“If time permits… It’s better if you stay with Kongi.”

“… … .”

oh shit

I sighed.

“I can’t promise.”

“… !”

“If that’s okay… .”

“great.”

no.

“Because I can’t promise.”

“Haha, junior’s personality?”

“… … .”

“It means that you are a person who takes responsibility for a task once assigned. hmm… thank you.”

Surprisingly, the request seemed quite sincere.

‘… after.’

Anyway, if you want to retrieve the system fragments, you will have to visit him at least once while on duty. For this reason, it would be more natural.

In the end, I decided to check on this dog once in a while.

Of course, you can’t do it bare-mouthed.

Let’s go listen to this.

“When exactly is your comeback next year?”

“Well, I’m sure you can guess without having to say it.”

Well, I thought I wouldn’t tell you the exact date considering the risk. But even if you listen to this much, the angle comes out roughly.

‘It’s a meaningful date for VTIC in June.’

I quickly specified a few dates and nodded.

“If you want to make a comeback at the same time, I won’t stop you.”

Are you crazy

“uh. you also.”

“haha.”

I returned the dog to him and tried to pick up the chopsticks again.

Just then, a defiant compliment was heard from across the table.

“Have a good comeback this time.”

“okay.”

It will happen even if you don’t say it.

I shook hands with Cheongryeo who reached out.

“But are you in a military band?”

“no. It’s a language problem.”

“… … .”

“Consistency is the most important thing in learning a foreign language, but it was an environment where I could do it consistently.”

It’s really strong.

A few days later.

-ㅠㅠㅠJaehyun went quietly.. I’ll stay with him for 6 months half a year.

‘I have to change the plate to receive the cultural medal in it.’

In that sense, the goal of this comeback was clear. I turned off my smartphone and got up.

And Testa started an aggressive comeback promotion.

Chapter 529

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 529

Park Moon-dae's body returns.

"Testa, of course it will work out this time too! I will support you too~"

"Thank you."

I'm sitting in the shop I've been to since Testa was in T1. As I was getting my hair color checked for the last time by the head of staff whom I had seen for a long time, congratulations for my comeback came as a bonus.

And even a subtle floating look disguised as a good word.

"Where are you coming from this time? Does the WeTube that eats that meal come out?"

"If the company catches you, please."

"Oh, right, is it important that the company schedules?"

I don't think I can dig it out, so I'm sneaking around.

I laughed inwardly.

"Promotion has become so important again, right?"

"Yes."

So, we also paid close attention.

– I hope the publicity for this comeback will be a bit aggressive.

I recalled a conversation a few weeks ago and checked my plans.

What kind of method comes to your mind when you say ‘aggressive publicity for an idol’s comeback’?

A huge promotion that invests a lot of capital and proceeds with hundreds of millions of billions of dollars?

Or, by appearing in all kinds of variety shows, impressing the public with the news of Testa’s comeback?

‘I’m not saying either is wrong.’

However, for the current testa, neither of these matters is applicable.

Promotions in which capital is poured into are already a daily routine that is not new, so there is nothing unusual, and there is no need to do it because it accelerates image consumption.

This was also a common characteristic of first-team idols who were well established in Korea.

Then, what is the ‘aggressive comeback publicity’ that Testa is pushing for?

-Don’t be safe, let’s go dangerously.

It means willing to accept controversy and risk.

It means to be more blatant towards the goal.

‘And now the goal is a cultural medal.’

okay. I’ll be honest.

Who should I aim to impress in order to receive the Order of Cultural Merit?

‘They are high-ranking people.’

politics.

However, Testa’s global status, especially in the Western world, which is favored by superiors, is not special.

It’s to the point where you can’t even rub against VTIC, the last recipient of the Order of Cultural Merit.

‘Thanks to those guys, the baseline has risen so much.’

All Testa has is, at best, fragmentary recognition gained through Limestone’s movie cameo appearance, game collaboration, and Netflix drama.

‘It’s all other content, not our albums or music sources.’

This sparkly topicality means that it has hardly been linked to the popularity of the group.

Probably the overwhelming majority of people who did not know Testa among those who enjoyed that content.

However, conversely, it also meant that Testa had not yet formed a representative global image.

‘It means I can make a plan and aim for it.’

Just as latecomers in the game look at the strategy book and formulate the most efficient route, Testa can aim for the desired image.

And Testa is a group that has already successfully completed such a strategy targeting the domestic market.

Since there are strands that have already been done, it means that there is a base instead of starting from the bottom.

‘If only I could pull together these fragmented maps and connect them into one piece.’

Then, from then on, you can make them consume Testa’s content that has been steadily accumulated over the past few years.

Things that have already been proven to be fun.

“That’s what sets it right.”

That was the goal Testa had to achieve with this activity.

‘First of all.’

[Testa’s ‘American Music Awards’ first nomination]

After finishing her hair.

I laughed while reading an article that was already out of season.

So let’s put this to good use.

* * *

American Music Awards. aka AMA.

It was one of the three most authentic music awards ceremonies in the United States.

-Testa AMA nominee ㅋ ㅋ ㅋ -Oh

good

However, the article Moondae Park saw did not cause a big wave at the time of publication.

– This year, there are three Nomi teams, right? Let’s have more fun with K-Pop~

– Hahaha It’s a prize given to separate K-Pop and eat it before leaving. Do you like this? What are you going to do with Sadaeju

? ㄴWhere did he get beaten up?

This is because there was a new KPOP category in the ‘American Music Awards’ in the first place. Some people sarcastically called this ‘their own league’.

Moreover, it is not uncommon now for a KPOP singer to be nominated for an award at the Global Awards.

-If it’s not a Grammy

, I won’t give it lol -Is there one or two awards ceremonies? Top social part Stop making a fuss with things like this.

Since they are KPOP singers who have a lot of album sales and social media mentions, three or four teams always put their names on various famous awards ceremonies every year.

This is because there is no way to miss the money-making stocks in the United States, the headquarters of capitalism.

Even if it’s not an important award, he made good use of the KPOP fandom’s buzz by mentioning it once.

So KPOP bone marrow listeners were in awe of this situation.

– ㄹㅇ It’s not just one or two teams that have been nominated, it’s meaningless unless it’s the best group or something like

this

. Are you still maintaining your class in Japan?

ㄴI thought it would be reversed by Ether too haha ㄴIt turned aggro

-Isn’t it possible to come out as a performer?

ㄴShumbyeol, who came out after kicking T1, what kind of AMA is this? Most of them had never even considered it.

It was because there was no reason to choose Testa as a performer in all aspects, including local recognition, company, weight, and personal connections.

Moreover, few KPOP idol groups have succeeded in making a name for themselves locally as performers.

Except for the first one.

-Excluding Vtic, there are no viral groups with AMA performances.

– ㅋ V-tic I wonder if the state defended against the military white flag risk for nothing

In the years since, there have been few KPOP groups that have seen noticeable gains as performers at overseas awards ceremonies.

-Even if you do, if the reaction is not good, it’s an X-network tech moment

ㄴThe testa stage is good

right? K-pop is still in the minority in America.

However, it also means that it is a market with the potential to grow the profits of Entersa dozens of times in the future.

└Are you a stockworm?

And in order to get viral, you have to not just be good at the stage, but also have a good local response, but it was a very difficult job as the emotions were different.

On that day, even the song, costume, and choreography had to match the sentiment somewhere.

Even so, he maintained an exquisite balance so that existing KPOP fans would not be disappointed.

-Look forward to what kind of game Testa will release this time

It was the same with this idol who obtained inside information from the manager thanks to being in the same agency as Testa.

“Mi Minha! Senior Testa is appearing in an AMA?”

Mirinae’s main dancer Seong Ha-rin was shocked and ran to the actual leader of the group and got this answer.

“Uh that… maybe.”

“… ?!”

Positive!

Seong Ha-rin, shocked, said that Testa was aiming for the United States, and before grinding her teeth, the question came to mind.

‘By what means?’

You didn’t sign a contract with a major American record label, and the company wasn’t insanely rich?

At least, wasn’t Testa’s last album a huge hit in the US?

I wanted to throw that question out loud, but Seong Ha-rin held back.

It was because the face of leader Park Min-ha, standing in front of him, seemed almost liberated.

“Heh heh heh… . Well actually me too… I do not know. And because it is confidential.”

“Ahhh! Of course I will be careful!”

“huh.”

Of course, Park Min-ha nodded as if believing.

and added

“And let’s not even mention it to Yulgi unnie… .”

“… huh.”

Silence passed between the two for a moment.

Jung Yul-gi, who is the face madam of Mi-nae in the final ranking of < Azusa >.

People… It was so bright. I was worried that I would be misunderstood.

Thanks to the unique character, I haven’t been criticized so much yet, but I was also nervous because I was afraid it might happen.

‘… Come to think of it, Testa also has a similar senior.’

Seong Ha-rin thought of an idol whose signature was red hair.

Yoojin Cha!

It was to the point where I wanted to ask for advice on how that senior had appealed to the character while avoiding controversy for several years.

Didn't you handle the rumors and problems that arose several times at the right timing?

After all, what is different about idols who won the prize… .

'… no. It's because Yulgi is a purer and better person!'

Mirinae Seong Ha-rin quickly got out of idolizing Testa!

Shaking her head, she calmly analyzed the current situation again.

"Then, are those Testa seniors also aiming to enter the US in earnest?"

"It felt like that at company meetings."

Hmmm.

Sung Ha-rin rubbed her chin.

At the beginning of her debut, Mirinae also strongly aimed to advance to the United States due to the head of the headquarters who was ill in the United States.

At that time, I studied foreign languages diligently, so I was able to speak, but my grades in the group were not so good… .

She thought a little sullenly.

'… After all, localization strategy is not good.'

Desperation can sometimes seem servile.

On the contrary, Seong Ha-rin seemed to have lost quite a bit of domestic fans at that time, so even thinking about the early days of her debut made Seong Ha-rin a little bit bitter.

‘Since they are popular singers in Korea, it’s good to advance while maintaining that position… .’

Seong Ha-rin was in a complicated state of mind, but soon sighed deeply.

Even though… I had a lot of hope that Senior Testa’s attempt would go well.

It’s because I’m in the same situation.

If the company has enough spare money, won’t the investment come back to Mirinae as well?

‘But please don’t blow strange winds into the company… .’

Seong Ha-rin didn’t want to let her precious Mi-nae go back to America!

“… I wish you well.”

“yes.”

Thus, the conversation between the two of them ended in Mirinae.

Even though she sometimes suffers from anxiety, she diligently handled her schedule and looked at the contents of Testa’s comeback notice with a hawk’s eye.

In the meantime.

[This AMA cast]

‘Finally!’

Seong Ha-rin finally found the news she had been waiting for and clicked on it while swallowing.

And I was bewildered.

“Huh?”

Among the announced performers, Testa's name could not be found!

No, there were no KPOP singers in the first place.

'What's coming out?'

However, at least there is not a single related article floating around.

'Was it just a rumor? Or maybe they reviewed it and canceled it too.'

Sung Ha-rin thought so and turned off the screen.

But after some time.

Here Moondae Park attended the awards ceremony for a performance at the American Music Awards.

"… … ."

He checked his outfit.

In a white cotton T-shirt and jeans, accessories around the face were also minimized.

It means that it is not a stage outfit that an idol who has just made a comeback would choose.

But Park Moon-dae was satisfied.

'good.'

In the first place, he was not here to perform Testa's comeback stage.

This was the result of selection and concentration.

'All I want is impact!'

We will pull aggro as much as possible under realistic conditions.

It was the stage I chose based on that.

-Standardly, the method of promoting our album as a classic doesn't work.

So he decided to cover someone else's song at this awards ceremony.

Stage dedicated to the famous old singer.

It wasn't even a solo performance. It was a structure where several people divided parts and sang one song after another.

Poor treatment at the level of 'inviting' someone who is virtually unknown.

Park Moon-dae's attitude toward him.

'Rather good.'

It was a pleasure.

'It's a perfect condition.'

If there is no local recognition, you can borrow that recognition with a famous song by someone else.

and.

'The stats don't betray.'

[Singing: S+]

It's nice to have a group of candidates to compare if a lot of people sing in parts.

Moondae Park smiled and raised the microphone.

The performance was starting.

Chapter 530

If you can’t debut, you’ll die. Episode 530

Backstage after the American Music Awards started.

“Whoa.”

The frontman of a certain band took a deep breath.

As a member of a local band, who is scheduled to take part in a group performance that will soon take place, it was almost like the first time he performed on such a large and major broadcast.

However, he had firm faith in his own abilities.

‘I need to calm down. This can be happen.’

He repeated himself, trying to keep his eyes as relaxed as possible.

Then, he recognized the boy who was waiting right next to him.

‘oh.’

The black-haired Asian boy with a nonchalant expression remained in his memory for his outstanding performance in rehearsal.

His calm and powerful voice seemed to indicate what kind of singer the boy was.

So he tapped him on the shoulder to shake off the tension and started talking.

“Hey, how are you feeling?”

“good.”

The other person who answered briefly was a calm tone.

However, I could infer the tension he felt from the lack of a smile on his face and his unsocial attitude.

‘Of course.’

The frontman was considerate of the opponent.

“You should know that there is absolutely nothing to be ashamed of being nervous before a big stage like this.”

“Of course it is.”

The opponent nodded his head politely. and added

“You don’t look nervous.”

“of course.”

The frontman felt better.

“This is a matter of experience. I’ve been in front of quite a few crowds… .”

“I see.”

The boy nodded calmly and the frontman felt that the chatter was really relaxing him.

As if giving advice, he shared some of the stages he had experienced, and the boy seemed to be listening with a slight nod of his head throughout.

‘He’s a nice guy.’

And to show that he is a non-prejudiced person, this frontman was happy to ask:

“so… Where in the country do you tend to work from? I’m from the South.”

“Callie, if you have to ask.”

“Oh, is that your hometown?”

“The members of my band are from San Diego.”

To be honest, I was surprised.

‘Doesn’t the people of that state know the word serious?’

It was a thought full of prejudice against stereotypes, but the suspicion itself was quite pointed.

‘Anyway, that guy wasn’t born on the Pacific coast.’

Anyway, it was rude to talk about the place of origin, so the frontman ended the conversation there.

“Hey, how about taking a picture?”

“okay.”

The boy responded surprisingly coolly and took a few selfies like that.

“You must have had a lot of experience taking pictures with your fans, right?”

“Not a lot.”

“haha!”

The guy seemed pretty sincere.

‘He’s a guy with guts.’

The frontman concluded so.

In fact, the person he called a boy just thought, ‘There’s no reason to talk to this bastard for a long time’, but good was good.

However, no matter what the boy thought, the frontman continued a pleasant conversation alone and eventually came to this topic.

“By the way, do you like tacos? I mean, I’m half Latino.”

It was a polite way to indirectly ask the other person’s lineage.

The opponent reacted favorably.

“I am a korean.”

Frontman conditioned reflexively reminded me of a Netplus drama, but fortunately, musical topics suitable for the current situation came to mind one after another.

“Oh, have you heard of KPOP?”

The boy did not answer for a moment.

“Quite a lot.”

And I laughed for the first time

Misunderstood that frontman Park Moon-dae was a boy because of his styling, he answered and moved along with the staff.

It was time to prepare for the stage.

* * *

Ceremony Hall.

The host’s clear voice filled the colorful venue.

[…] So we will remember forever!]

It was an introduction to the dedication stage.

This stage was for an American rock band that had a strong taste in the 70’s.

The band’s vocalist, who had been rumored until the end of this year, passed away and suddenly donated all his property to society, becoming a hot topic.

At the same time, at this ceremony, a dedication stage for the deceased was planned.

Among the band’s hit songs, an extremely emotional and slow tempo song was selected.

And, based on the interview of the deceased during his lifetime, vocalists of various rising bands, especially rookies with a strong local color, continued to sing parts.

Maximize storytelling!

The purpose of the stage was to maximize emotion and sympathy, so these rookies were really talented except for a few who came in through connections.

And everyone thought so.

‘This is the opportunity I’ve been waiting for.’

It is a rare opportunity that has almost never returned at American awards ceremonies, where famous singers of the present day perform tributes.

This song, which has been heard by people all over the world, is not just a cover stage, but is sung on a large-scale broadcast as an official event!

The vocals were all burning with passion and tenacity.

‘I have to prove my talent.’

All the vocalists who thought so went on stage with strong hearts.

Woo-woo-!

Wow!

On the stage where the lift equipment rattled and arrived, more than enough stimulation overflowed.

Applause, light, MR, and sound effects shake the visual and auditory senses.

However, the song started flowing right away, without any consideration to give them time to adapt to this big stage.

ridge.

A hot accompaniment that starts with a drum beat.

The vocalist, who was standing on the stage equipment, skillfully cut off the first batter even in that situation.

[Not everyone wants

the memory of love]

The cool voice sprints by making use of the offbeat so much that it’s hard to believe that it’s the first time on a big stage.

When I put the ad-lib in the interlude, the audience burst into cheers.

‘Oh damn it.’

The frontman, who was talking to Moondae Park, almost chewed his teeth while waiting.

Because his turn was right next.

‘now!’

He grabbed the microphone and sang while checking that the camera in front of him was lit up.

[Wake up at dawn and look at the damp bed.

It looks like raindrops and salty like sea water]

A pleasant voice fills the verse.

[It’s like a wave crashing in.

I can barely stand it]

‘I did it!’

The frontman, who made use of the high notes with his own vibe, finished his part in joy.

And the camera lights went off and the next person appeared on the billboard.

[I spent the past days crying, thinking of the good old days.

I don’t want to do that anymore]

Another cheer erupted at the rough rocker’s voice.

All the following parts are full of personality and good vocals shined with their own colors.

In addition, since the parts were arranged in consideration of harmony, it was cool to listen to them continuously.

‘How good have I been?’

I couldn’t guess.

The frontman, who quickly came to the conclusion that it would be better to expect the stage itself to become famous, decided to just enjoy the moment.

After his tension eased, he also recognized In-young, who was standing by on the side stage next to him.

It was the boy I was talking to earlier.

The frontman remembered that his part was in the second half.

‘Did it come out around 2 minutes and 40 seconds?’

However, I remembered that it was not the climax part, but the ambiguous refrain that preceded it.

‘Cheer up, friend!’

Having already completed his part well, he induced the audience to respond and enjoyed this time, and when the time came, he slightly turned his gaze to check on the boy.

And finally, the singing voice is heard.

[Not everyone wants

the memory of love]

Strong and clear voice.

And the splendid connection sound and the pleasant singing method that seems to drip and purr.

sharp treble.

‘uh?’

It was a completely different singing method from the calm voice during rehearsal.

However, the surprising reason is simply that the boy sings in a completely different way from rehearsal.

It wasn’t just the technique and technique.

[The world says that love is the best.

I’m not saying it’s wrong, but

oh

I don’t want to remember]

on stage.

He came up from the side stage and was singing the same song as the original singer.

* * *

I’ll be honest.

In the first place, I did not consider anything that harmoniously melted into this dedication stage and increased the overall quality.

‘Isn’t that the job of the guy who planned the stage?’

From arrangement to part distribution, there was no authority given to me, so what did you expect?

And I’m sorry, but I didn’t have the heart to keep the planning intention of ‘a stage where the voices of various local bands full of personality’ were harmonized.

There’s no way I’d leave such an effective method behind.

[Oh!]

I checked the image of myself singing on the screen and also checked the number of comments below it.

[12721 comments]

Just one hour.

It means that there are so many people whose mouths exploded in a short time, less than an hour after the video was uploaded.

‘Of course, it’s even worse when you consider that the unofficial video was floating around on social media as soon as the stage ended.’

Overall, there was no aggro prey like this.

Recreate the singer of the original song by myself on the dedication stage.

-(2:46) Seriously, what the fuck is this guy doing?

‘I know.’

I laughed and tapped my phone.

But let me be clear.

‘Simply copying it doesn’t give me the effect I want.’

As time passed, the singing method also changed according to the trend.

Have you ever listened to a song you liked in the past about 10 years ago after a very long time?

Then, at least once in a while, everyone would be surprised if the singer sang this song so awkwardly or because it was unfamiliar.

It’s because the vocals I’ve already heard in the past have been refined in a modern way in my head.

‘I can’t make you feel that gap just by looking at my stage.’

It’s rather less impactful.

I don’t want to be criticized for imitating you, but I want to hear from you that the singer of the original song immediately came to mind the moment I heard your song.

‘The image people have of the original singer’s stage.’

impressions of the past.

It was my goal to make it come to mind.

Therefore, it was important to find a modern, appropriately adjusted ‘how to sing’ in people’s heads.

‘It took a very long time.’

-Nope.

– Noooope.

– Sing a little harder! More!

Let’s take this opportunity to thank the American teacher Yujin Cha.

It was very helpful that he responded honestly from the perspective of a local. When I was rejected about 10 times, I did get hit.

‘Thanks to that, I raised the level of perfection as much as I could.’

It was a satisfactory result as my singing grade is a grade.

-Once again, Park Moon-dae is good at singing and has good brains

-Wow, I never imagined that he would come out here and tear it up haha

-Can we not sing like this in the future? It's more clear to call it this way, but the domestic reaction was also good from the public. Because I also received the Gukppong buff.

Of course, the risk exploded as expected.

-????Park Moon-dae, why are you out

there?

-Am I the only one who doesn't like it? I didn't know that during the comeback period, I would ignore all the colors of my group and come out in that way. ㄴI'm also a bit like…

I'm like a person who wants to stand out alone.

It's coming out

ㄴYes, it's going to come out Pretending to know something without knowing anything, pretending to be a fan, stop meddling with this kind of aggro-type reaction.

But it wasn't to the point where I couldn't handle it. Well, there are not one or two bastards who pull aggro with Testa.

'It was eaten cheaply.'

It was something that would be buried if the comeback activities progressed anyway.

In addition, since the direct cam will be released soon by the company, it was able to soothe the fans' disappointment.

As for why it was called this way, there were enough legitimate reasons for fans to think about it right away without stress.

‘Since it’s a dedication stage, I heard that I sang it while thinking of the original singer.’

Isn’t this a simple cover stage?

Of course, I can’t stop the likes and dislikes in the US.

First of all, point out about my qualifications for application.

-KPOP is not a real band. He was selected improperly.

-It’s fake.

┗Oh please, his band writes their own songs! The “factory-made” K-pop bands you think are ignorant stereotypes!

Next is a point about my stage itself.

that there is no individuality.

-What is his personality and what makes him KPOP?

┗ By the way, his song was fucking perfect! I don’t want that “K-pop look”. He was the only vocalist who could properly respect the original song!

-It’s like Rosie came back to life… He’s such a great singer ┗This is just an imitation ┗He

‘s just polite and humble- A legend recreated like a legend Idiot

What are my thoughts on all this chaos?

‘Rather welcome.’

It’s not that my skills or personality are being disparaged, and I’m just grateful that the stage itself has raised the number of views.

I wish that this discussion of pros and cons would continue for a little longer.

‘good.’

I rubbed my chin.

And I didn’t mean to, but… .

‘I’m sure other vocalists on this stage will benefit from this.’

It’s because it’s certain that it became a hot topic more than when it went as planned thanks to the aggro.

Besides, there is a comparison group in Nara, so there were quite a few videos comparing how different people tasted from the original song.

-I think that Asian boy’s part has become the standard for this stage. Interesting.

-Rosie was a great vocalist, but I like the 3rd rocker better (smiley emoji)

Not bad.

I shrugged my shoulders, remembering the guy who grabbed me before the stage and made a lot of noise.

‘I posted a review on Inheart while making all kinds of fuss.’

K-pop stars blah blah blah.

It would be nice if you could post some more pictures. Increase the amount of buzz a little more.

Thinking so, I began to look more closely at the reaction on the Internet in the US.

Slowly, the expected reactions were also seen one by one.

-Wait a minute, are you that crazy alien band from the movie < Cosmic Gunner >?

at las.

‘You’re here.’

Testa’s meme, which has previously become a hot topic on the American Internet in fragments.

┗ Oh my God, that’s right

┗ This is really funny lol

┗ In a sense, it’s a really local group (smiley emoticon)

That’s how they started to connect.

Of course, if I left it here, there was a high probability that it would fizzle out again instead of absorbing attention with the testa.

Just like the past few times I was content to get some influx into the music video.

But this time I won’t be satisfied with that.

I smiled and changed the smartphone page.

‘Let’s encourage it a little more.’

slightly more fun.

I slowly began to write down drafts in English.

And at this point, comeback publicity entertainment programs filmed in Korea began to pour in.

Chapter 531

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 531

"Huh."

This fan, who has been supporting Park Moon-dae's first home horse ever since he was a college student, has had an eventful year with a job change.

And now, they are being rewarded with overflowing testa comeback content.

-Wow, the preview for the group entertainment of the kids is still lacking ㅠㅠ

Just watching the news on social media warmed my heart.

'As expected, the active period is the best… .'

Traditionally, when it comes to idols, they have always thought that stage rice cakes are the best, but there was something new about the entertainment previews that were pouring out this time.

Wasn't Testa also eventful with the T1 escape this year?

'T1 son of a bitch mobilizes all of their subsidiaries to retaliate!'

In addition, because of the industry atmosphere that notices the big hand T1, even if it is not an affiliate, Testa was silently ignored as if it was not in the recruitment line.

'But I guess that's gone too far now.'

After suffering so much when the entertainment program for the last album, T1, was blocked, it seems that the stiff atmosphere has finally eased.

‘We had a lot of trouble in college, really… .’

Somehow, it felt like my eyes would go cold.

‘The retaliation of large corporations is also gritted and enduring, and becoming independent and winning more… my idol… … . King God K-pop Emperor… .’

It was a side effect of being deeply and over-immersed in the group narrative.

And today, she visited a graduate student friend’s studio to catch up and watch the variety shows of Testa’s same age!

“Play beer! I got it out!”

“okay!”

The two sat in front of the TV looking like they were going to watch a blockbuster movie!

The moment the premiere countdown ends.

[Just have a drink and go]

[(Please)]

“Ohhhh.”

When the spleen logo appeared, the two applauded enthusiastically.

The public’s demand for a celebrity’s sincere appearance gradually developed, and eventually met the king of the end in the Great Witube era.

Right in the bar!

A special program in which people drank, sang, ate, and had interviews was a hit.

And if you're talking about this program… It was a program to cheat with alcohol.

[Ahyeon Seon: Wow, hello… !]

[Pro Host: Aaa Ah Ah Ah!]

[Sun Ah -hyun:]

First of all.

[Pro host: Today's drink.]

[Park Moon-dae: … … .]

[Ahyeon Sun: … … ?!]

[Lee Se-jin: Hahaha.]

Magic is performed with the number of alcohol and the size of the glass.

[Park Moon-dae: You said it was a drink… .]

[Professor: Isn't that a glass?]

Park Moon-dae was silent as he raised the glass.

It was pottery the size of an elephant's bowl.

[Ha ha ha

[Professor: It’s the cup that my mother made herself. I brought it because the testers were coming… Do you not like it? Are you dissatisfied with the author’s mother… .]

[Park Moon-dae: Absolutely not.]

Skillful progress as if he had heard from another instructor how to make an idol Tallulah!

[Pro presenter: I’ll pour you a drink.]

[Park Moon-dae: (quiet)]

[Quick-quick-coral-quick-collar]

[Park Mun-dae:]

-I’m playing with it.

Real-time chatting It was as you said.

‘Oh, it’s Mundae!’

Homma laughed and nearly spilled her beer glass.

On the screen, the same age stared at the Andong soju pouring down in front of him as if in awe.

The first person to come to his senses was still Lee Se-jin.

[Lee Se-jin: Host! You know what? This friend’s nickname is apple cake~]

[Professor: Of course… I know!]

[Lee Se-jin: As expected, the host’s pros! Oh, in that sense, how about a drink with a picture of this apple? It looks good!]

[Professor: Oh, what’s in the glass right now? It’s not my taste?]

[Lee Se-jin: I wish I could drink this apple first~ That's it!]

Lee Se-jin didn't get caught.

however.

[Professor: So, you are rejecting traditional Korean soju made by a Korean master and choosing American apple cider… .]

[Lee Se-jin: I'm sorry.]

[Hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha]

Tallulah is endless!

Even after that, the same age is teased mercilessly in this bridle.

[Pro presenter: Are you having fun?]

The great snacks and the presenter's skill to offer drinks are splendidly harmonized, so you can drink without any time to be nervous.

-I'm losing my soul

. -Tana Bom soju in Park Moondae really drinks it like canned soju

┗Hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahah

[Pro host: us! The chicken feet of the company that collaborated with < Doll Hunter >! I brought it to PPL.]

[Ooh oh oh]

[Pro presenter: Yes. You have to eat Moondae.]

[Park Moon-dae: Me?]

- ㅇ ㅇ -Yeah yes,

Se-jin

Lee burst into laughter when he saw Park Moon-dae conduct the chicken feet PPL with the attitude of a skilled assistant.

I shouldn't have done that.

[Professor: Sejin said you could hang upside down on that Pilates equipment.]

[Lee Sejin: Ah~ yes. That's a move that requires more strength than you think.]

[Pro host: I know how to do it.]

[Lee Se-jin: Yes?]

[Pro host: I'll show you.]

The host clung to the pole!

[Lee Se-jin:]

A drinking broadcast that makes even the world's Lee Se-jin speechless.

"Ha ha ha ha!"

"Uhhhhhhh!"

Park Moon-dae eventually caught chicken feet after a long time, and Lee Se-jin suddenly corrected the Pilates posture of the professional presenter.

And the last one is Seon Ah-hyun.

[this person… Drink without talking… .]

He was diligently emptying his glass.

Whenever the members got drunk on Tallulah, he himself drank it diligently without objection!

-He's an angel

. -Since Ahyeon was a left-handed student, she lived without being scammed, and that even moved the heart of a professional host.

[Professor: Ahyeon?]

[Ahyeon Seon: Yes… !]

[Professor: That… Aren't you tired? Without snacks?]

[Ahyeon Sun: It's okay, it's okay… !]

-I'm drunk

-She's already gone !]

[Pro host:]

[Pro host: It's okay! I'm trash!]

[Ahyeon Sun: … ??]

The host made up his mind!

And the questions that had been agreed upon beforehand followed.

Comments on this comeback: Do you like the part you played?

Introducing Seon Ah-hyun's wonderful handicraft work Lee Se-jin's famous entertainment scene and why Park Moon-dae's drawing skills are like that. -Isn't the last one to

And Park Moon-dae was also not easy.

[Pro host: If you have a dark history of living as an idol for many years and saying that aegyo was a bit difficult even for me, a professional idol?] [

Park Moon-dae: I'm a puppy, so it's okay.]

Shamelessness that doesn't change one color!

[Pro host: (lost for words)]

[Pro host: ha ha… You are very shameless.]

[Park Moon-dae: Thank you.]

"Mun-dae came to his senses."

"I know."

It was finally time for Park Mun-dae to start showing his strong side without being pushed back by the host.

The professional host skillfully broke down the conversation with each other to make the atmosphere more comfortable, and then started a drinking game.

As for what kind it was… .

[Pro Host: I brought a horror game, guys.]

[Park Moon-dae: I'll go.]

[Hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha]

Park Moon-dae, who admitted that he was not very strong against ghosts through several public broadcasts, left the set. I took the angle to escape.

[Pro host: I'm a pro host, your… Your Pro Idol! We have to broadcast like a pro!]

[Park Moon-dae: Yes.]

[Seon Ah-hyun: If I just play another game… .]

[Professor: Nope.]

[No]

"They don't."

"Oh, so good."

Two fans of Park Moon-dae watched with joy as Moon-dae Park played a ghost story drinking game with the three strong hearts.

[Professor: If this is what it is, take turns talking about ghost stories. Then, for whatever reason, I flinch in surprise! If you do, you'll drink it.]

[Seon Ah-hyun: Yeah… !]

[Professor: Oh, drink it even if no one flinches at your story. I'm drinking it.]

[Seon Ah-hyun: (nervous)]

'Oh.'

Homma saw the future at that moment.

And, as expected, chaos ensued.

-Kwaklada

-This is Kwakla Gak

The ghost story that a drunk person tells is a mess.

However, Lee Se-jin deliberately tried not to be surprised and reacted appropriately and loudly, and Park Mun-dae shook his shoulders every time he did so, and drank the punishment.

After a few incredibly funny scenes.

[Pro host: Did you finish drinking this?!]

[Surprised]

In the end, Park Moon-dae emptied the elephant's drink!

[Park Moon-dae: One more drink… .]

[Pro host: Hey.]

[Pro host: We decided to just drink one drink.]

But I knew the extent of this broadcast.

[Professor: If you really really want to drink it, you can sign the contract for the next appearance, and I can bring you alcohol for that day… .]

No, in fact, it may just be that I just wanted to bully the cast… .

[Lee Se-jin: How about replacing that with our Mundae snacks? Moondae is really good at cooking again!]

[Professor: Really? Please cook quickly!]

[Park Moon-dae: Yes… … .]

And Park Moon-dae, who got up without saying anything, began to cook hard in the kitchen.

The intoxication seemed to relieve the poison.

Lee Se-jin finally collapsed while suppressing laughter. The MC who was pretending to be calm next to him collapsed as well.

And Seon Ah-hyun… .

[Seon Ah-hyun: (Ah… I think I flinched!)

[Sun Ah-hyun: (self-punishment)]

I drank.

-He’s the most madman

-Ahyeon Sun

Why isn’t it baby

Bambi who drinks so well?

-It

hums

It means that there is a strong contrast with the insignificance on the screen.

– Hahahahahaha

– Not unusual

– 1st place in survival is definitely different!

Still, when Park Moon-dae finished cooking the food and sat around the table in the living room, we had a fairly honest conversation.

The atmosphere was like sitting at an outdoor table at a convenience store drunk and letting out all the sounds of your heart.

[Park Moon-dae: Testa is… …

_

_

_

_

_ ?]

-What are you talking about

The downside was that he was a drunkard.

Still, if you match the context, it flows into an emotional atmosphere in its own way.

[Lee Se-jin: Ah, we're trying not to drink alone. If you drink alcohol especially when you are having a hard time, you may end up becoming dependent… Isn’t that right, Ah Hyun-ah?]

[Sun Ah-hyun: Yeah. yes that’s right! Because our goal is to stay healthy and promote together for a long time… !]

[Pro host: That! You really have to respect it.]

It would have been nice if it ended here.

[Park Moon-dae: I can’t even eat late-night snacks.]

[Professor: … ?]

[Park Moon-dae: I can’t eat with them.]

[Pro host: (interpreting)]

[Pro host: So… Are you saying those two don’t eat late-night snacks?]

[Park Moon-dae: … … .]

[Park Moon-dae: Yes.]

The host nodded as if he understood.

Even idols feel sad if they don’t eat late-night snacks!

[Professor: Oh, that’s a bit… .]

[Park Moon-dae: Well done.]

[Professional host:]

[Park Moon-dae: It’s a professional job.]

Yes?

[Ahyeon Seon: Thank you Moondae… !]

[Professor: No, they’re just warming up to each other… .]

[Edit]

– Ha ha ha

On top of the table at the filming set, which has already become a party atmosphere.

[Park Moon-dae: Then we're done… Let's go in.]

[Seon Ah-hyun: Thank you, thank you… !]

Testa's same age stumbled up from his seat and greeted them politely.

The shooting was quite heartwarming after the atmosphere was relaxed enough not to frown in a pleasant way.

[Lee Se-jin: Thank you!]

But.

[Pro host: Mr. Sejin.]

[Sejin Lee: Neng?]

[Pro host: Are you drunk?]

Sejin Lee grinned.

[Lee Se-jin: What would you like to drink if you only have one drink~]

[!!!!]

Lee Se-jin took the two of them and left the filming set in a relaxed atmosphere. While leaving a greeting to the staff in all directions on time.

[Professor: … ??]

And the staff told the truth to the embarrassing host.

[Sejin, you drank two or three times as much water every time you drank!]

The edited copy passed by on the screen.

It was a cut where Lee Se-jin kept drinking water invisibly.

Movement and timing so natural that even the presenter did not notice!

Lee Se-jin succeeded in controlling the tempo of drinking!

I escaped without being so upset… .

[Professor: … … .]

[Professor: Lost!]

-Hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha

[I will prepare Korean whiskey for Sejin Lee. by Pro Host]

The drinking room ended with a promise to make Lee Se-jin a Kwak-la next time .

“Aaaaaaa!”

“It was really fun!”

The two people who were watching while drinking beer sincerely shouted coolly.

The graduate student even asked Homma.

“Do other people like it too?”

“wait for a sec.”

And it was when Homma accessed the Internet community to see the reaction of this appearance.

There was already a testa post in the top popular posts.

However, the response to this variety show was not about the title song.

[Real-time Honorary American Netizen Testa]

It was a combination of words I had never wanted.

“… ?”

why… Not just an honorary American, but a netizen, right?

Stupidly, she clicked on the text.

_____

As

all memes made in Testa USA were discovered, the American community became confused

. jpg

_____

‘… ah!’

Hotteok entertainment Netflix drama Limestone movie’s alien band and games.

In the capture in the article, Testa’s content was a comprehensive summary of the memes created in the English-speaking world so far.

‘omg.’

Thanks to Park Moon-dae’s viral ride on stage, it seemed that this situation had come about as his band received some attention.

This meme and that meme belonged to a band that hadn’t even officially entered the US yet, so netizens couldn’t help but be interested!

‘And if this happens… .’

Homma had a throbbing hunch that if it grew just a little bit, Testa's reputation on that side could lead to a cake.

It was an intuition peculiar to someone who knows the physiology of the Internet well.

A source of overseas inflow!

but… .

'… They're foreign fans.'

Homma's eyes almost became blurry when she briefly recalled the quarrel that often occurs when large groups with different emotions collide, but she soon overcame it.

Right now, it was much more important to increase the testa's weight class.

'I need it to endure the military flag!'

Since the goal was clear, I was prepared for side effects.

As the group became independent from the company, the malignant individual fandom that was famous from < Azusa > softened a lot, and the overall atmosphere was very good.

'Let's go.'

So she gallantly turned the page back. It was to look at the comments on the topic as well as entertainment in the domestic community.

But what has been updated… It wasn't just comments.

'… uh?'

The latest new post.

The title came into her eyes.

[Transcript from an Eter official explodes]

This alone was enough to draw the attention of the testa member's hometown.

It's 'that' eater who has been holding on to Testa since their debut.

The problem was the wording that followed.

[(Testa mentioned)]

"… !!"

Chapter 532

If you can’t debut, you’ll die.

Testa’s lodging after watching episode 532 of < Let's Have a Drink > featuring “Same Ages”.

“I drink alcohol as much as an elephant… .”

“… … .”

“… … .”

Bae Se-jin, who had never seen this program before, seemed dumbfounded for a moment at the revealed reality (?), but soon mumbled as if he was determined to stay calm.

“Yeah, because it’s filming… .”

However, it seems that it will suddenly accelerate again.

“But you’re still asking for something else over there!”

uh. like this.

I responded calmly without a change in expression.

“It’s a broadcast. I said this because I thought he wouldn’t really give it to me.”

“… Was it possible for you to think like that in your state at that time?”

“of course.”

“… Ahhyeonah!”

“yes yes… !?”

“Is what he said true?”

“that… … .”

It’s like a messy living room, where Seon Ah-hyeon breaks into a cold sweat and conflicts between friendship and remorse, and Cha Yu-jin indirectly reflects her confidence in her drinking, saying that she should have left.

At that time, Ryu Cheong-woo, who had been quietly opening his smartphone by himself, opened his mouth.

“Guys. I got a call from the company.”

“yes?”

Everyone immediately shut their mouths about the ‘company’ and turned their eyes to Ryu Cheng-wu.

It was because we had just entered the stage of activity, so quick handling was our lifeline when something happened.

“Is it urgent?”

“hmm… well.”

Ryu Cheng-wu had a mysterious expression.

“It’s hard to judge. Would you like to see it yourself?”

Seeing that they openly disclosed it, it seems that we are not being criticized.

I first lowered the alarm level and focused on the smartphone screen he turned.

On the screen was an article from an Internet newspaper scam that was famous for reporting rumors in the entertainment industry.

At first, I thought it was our rumor.

[Wonder Hall monster rookie Eter official transcript released… “Down with Testa”]

“… ??”

What is written is ether.

‘what.’

Is it a dog benefit?

however… ‘Down Testa Transcript’?

“What’s the ride? Burn?”

“Let it perish and disappear.”

“Oh~”

To sum it up after reading the article against the background of Bae Se-jin’s voice, who gives a fairly aggressive interpretation… .

– Official A: Maybe Testa is there… ? yes yes. thank you (hangs up) I can’t come out, I can’t come out.

-Responsible person B: It seems that he is really trying to come out.

-Participant C: No matter how much you think about it, we seem to be conscious (I think). It’s the same with unplay every time. If it were me, I’d be embarrassed to be honest. As if they were great artists that couldn’t even be compared… .

– Official A: Honestly, it’s kind of funny. That person is from a broadcasting station, the king of commercial success. The starting line is (different).

– Official C: If they think they won this, they really have no conscience or sense. (Laughter)

-Representative D: To be honest, I don’t even want to use costumes as references. (laugh). That person’s true self-consciousness is the perfect expression.

It was so blatantly stated that I couldn’t even nail down an excuse. You have to hit your head or something.

‘oh my.’

It seemed that the voice of three or four members of Eter’s planning team and management team leaked somewhere privately.

isn’t it obvious A group of competitors from other companies who are kept in check and don’t want to look good is a good snack.

_____==

… In response, netizens commented, “It seems that rookies who just debuted will be easily swept away,” “I heard that Wonder Hall is conscious of Testa, but it was true”… .

_____==

And netizens’ reactions are almost sentenced to hell.

I quickly started checking the current public opinion situation on my smartphone.

In the meantime, Seon Ah-hyun carefully came up with a gentle reasoning.

“I, but… Wouldn’t there be no proof that the recording was from them… ?”

“Um~ that’s right.”

Perhaps the sentence that came after those words of Keun Se-jin was ‘Honestly, I’m not surprised even if it’s true’.

If you look at what Wonder Hall has done with Testa so far, you can vividly picture what the atmosphere in the company will be like.

‘found.’

And I finally found the source of this incident.

That’s it.

“It’s not a recording.”

“uh??”

“This is a staff conversation from Ether’s own content.”

Kim Rae-bin was also shocked.

“Are you saying you publicly posted these malicious remarks on WeTube?”

“no. I think he was trying to get rid of it… .”

“Looks like it?”

“It was bad workmanship.”

It was a risk of cheap outsourcing.

Now, here’s a fun shot that I can’t help but write about.

But what if a sound that shouldn’t be released in the background is accidentally included?

‘I’m just listening to that sound.’

When I removed the sound through the program and installed the BGM, it usually worked.

This time, the ‘mistake during work’ and ‘relentless digging’ matched perfectly and exploded. From Wonder Hall’s point of view, it was struck by a lightning bolt that fell from the dry sky.

“ah… .”

An indescribable expression passed over the faces of the guys who roughly guessed the situation.

‘That’s how it works.’ A similar description seems appropriate.

“But why did rumors spread that it was a transcript? The source is different.”

It was a valid question.

This was from the content that Wonder Hall itself released.

In a sense, it’s more credible than the transcript, but to bother attaching the transcript… .

“That’s how it was posted by the person who posted it.”

It means that the person who spread it deliberately chose a more provocative vocabulary and was full of desire to raise this controversy.

thing… you work hard

‘Looks like someone went viral on Ether.’

Are you competing with Ether for the rookie award this time? I briefly reasoned and lowered the screen of my smartphone.

“Mundae, how is the Internet atmosphere right now?”

hmm… .

-Is this steamed?

-Wow, I roughly expected it,

but it did n’t

work

. Seeing him crying out for references like that hahaha

Yes. it’s hell

“It is controversial.”

“okay… .”

Liu Cheng-wu was speechless, and the other guys also looked a bit dazed.

It is the first time such a rare situation in which a competitor without a conscience falls on its own, so everyone does not know how to react.

Big Sejin swept the back of his neck and summarized the situation in a bewildered tone.

“first… Do we ever get to meet the people of Ether? There’s only one episode left of < Jinsung Match >.”

“yes.”

< Genuine match >. It is a survival program for airwave singers who finished the first season and now has the second half left.

Here, thanks to Testa, we were able to get a job interview, and the production team was very friendly to us because the program was popular.

‘Though we also gained a lot from breaking through public broadcasting stations.’

For example, this time, I comfortably appeared on several popular programs run by the WeTube channel under the public TV network.

However, since Testa is currently active, he is busy, so in the second half of the season, he was only going to come out with one episode and beautifully voluntarily get off… .

“There, the ether… I will meet you.”

yes.

Ether is also appearing there.

A meeting between the parties to the controversy and the victims.

No matter how friendly he is to Testa, he will not miss this editorial prey in entertainment.

“… … .”

“… … .”

“… Well, let’s all be careful during the interview!”

“Yes… !”

Let’s not get involved as much as possible.

Ryu Cheng-wu confirmed to us out of courtesy.

“What is the probability that Ether will not come out and fall out?”

“Absolutely not.”

If you get off the train for no reason, there will be more controversy, such as being stabbed. Besides, I don’t think the PD will let one more team fall in the yard where Testa has already escaped.

Ah, is there any chance that Testa will say something and send them off completely?

Aren't you doing justice?

'uh. I will not.'

You're an idiot if you do that outright.

A strong person who claims to have avoided it will inevitably incur antipathy. Let's not talk when we win.

At times like this, the correct answer is to keep your mouth shut and be cool inside that these bastards have finally been slaughtered.

"good. Then, let's finish carefully until the end."

"yes!"

It's neatly organized.

"Now, then, shall we go in today?"

"okay… ."

We entered our respective rooms in perfect order, remembering our schedules that would start at dawn tomorrow as well.

'oh.'

Thanks to that, the fact that I drank about 1 liter of Andong Soju on the show was just passable. It was an unexpected help.

'thanks.'

It's self-destructive. If only those guys who exploded on their own like this were here, my job would be ten times easier.

Of course, Wonder Hall isn't like that, so it won't continue to self-destruct like this. I'll try to fix it

I made a light guess after monitoring once again while lying on the bed.

'If it subsides in a few days, I'll try to calmly deal with it.'

It was a prediction considering the strengths of Wonder Hall guys who are so good at unplaying.

and after some time

-Wow, all the staff who came out of Wonder Hall got rid of it

This time, a statement from Wonder Hall that all the controversial staff members were removed from the Ether team came up.

Of course, as for why the staff did that, I roughly dismissed it as a personal matter, but isn't that the bottom line? -I heard that short

-term contract workers kicked each other and turned their mouths hahaha

┗In the first place, the atmosphere of the agency is so, aren't they also affected

? ㅋ

However, seeing reactions such as 'I think my feet are numb' and 'I don't believe it', it was clear that the image of an elite rookie that Wonder Hall wanted to promote was shattered.

The agency has lost trust.

'Is it two consecutive hits?'

Before, I shook the image once while intertwining the spacer with the ether, so this seems to have been the decisive blow.

Perhaps Eter, after the second half of < Jinseong Match >, won't make a comeback for a while and save himself.

'If this is the case, next year might be a bit more comfortable, right?'

Wouldn't you be more anxious and avoid getting involved with us now?

However, the story about < Jinseong Match >, which we had considered in advance, naturally came out among netizens.

-Hey, come to think of it, I'll meet Eter and Testa, right?

└Awesome

└Wow, it looks like it will sell out hahaha └If I'm late,

I'll get off.

'It's very exciting.'

Well, it's not even a day or two that they change their attitude to curse Testa. 'The public is on our side!' It is not the same excitement.

'Let's do something well.'

The idol version's clumsy tricks, which are rampant with Kwon Mo-soo, cannot survive. If you only carve that on your head, half of it will go away.

I had already decided from the start that I would just enjoy these dog benefits.

"Mr. Moondae's costume!"

"yes."

I continued my schedule with the agency staff. Maybe because of his mood, he looks lively.

‘Come to think of it, as much as we think it’s dog profit, the atmosphere over there is pretty bad.’

And this guess is right, of course.

“Whoa… .”

The waiting room of < Jinseong Match >, filled with tension and depression.

Ether’s leader squeezed and released his hand, trying to remain oblivious to his surroundings.

My hands were cold.

‘I care… … .’

It could have been taken for granted that he would soon meet the president, but the situation was a bit different now.

It’s because we meet in an awkward situation after being beaten up by public opinion for a long time for saying that the big senior badmouthed the grand prize singer last year.

‘How did this happen?’

testa.

Exchanging signed CDs with those great seniors seemed like a very old thing.

Ether’s leader stood up with a smile on his face, trying to appear as relaxed as possible.

The manager hyung read it with a worried voice.

“Don’t you worry about anything. All you have to do is say hello, and the manager will take care of everything, so you just have to do it.”

“yes. All right!”

Even though I replied bravely, I was somewhat moved.

It’s because I felt that he cared about the members and that the vacuum of some people who originally supported those words was felt at the same time.

They were people who could no longer be seen because of the ‘Down Testa Controversy’ this time.

Most of them have resigned. It happened like a lie in just a few days.

The leader of Ether bit his lip and thought.

‘Those older brothers and sisters weren’t that wrong… ?’

The staff seemed to be struggling with the direction of the group lately.

So it seemed like he said that out of anger, but usually he just said to target Testa.

Even after the words of the controversy, they remembered that they had heard it and told them not to worry about it, saying, ‘I said it because I’m worried these days.’

When that conversation was first released to the public, it was just scary, but now, if you listen to it slowly, it’s not even abusive.

‘It wasn’t a personal attack of any kind.’

Honestly, isn’t it possible for the staff to comment on the competitor in private? It is not that the documents were circulated publicly.

It was abnormal to somehow restore the conversations that had been completely erased by the program and reduce them.

Besides, don't the public usually say more blatant things to celebrities than that?

'But it's all cut like this… … .'

It came as a big shock to the members of Ether to see the staff who took care of them the best they could, crying and quitting their jobs.

At that time, I thought that the public was scary.

And now… .

"… … ."

The Ether leader recalled the 'accidents and controversy' tab of their wiki, which they had secretly looked for on their laptop.

More than half of the problems were related to Testa.

And even this conversation I heard after the incident happened.

-The testa company intentionally blew it up.

-This is too obvious.

Employees would gossip about it as if they were blaming each other, saying that, given the circumstances, they must have moved from Testa's company.

It's called 'checking on newcomers'.

They also seemed to restrain themselves when the Ether members were around, but when the people around them were divided, there was bound to be a gap.

So, the Ether leader came to think like this.

‘What did we do so wrong.’

Employees often said, ‘There are no seniors and juniors in this industry,’ but isn’t it too harsh?

Testa is such a well-known idol in his prime, so why did he do this to people who just debuted?

Somehow, right before my first meeting with Testa, I remembered what the staff had asked me to do.

-There, I will do my best to discourage you, so don’t get involved.

The leader of Ether seemed to be finally starting to understand why he said that.

So, after a while, I went to Testa’s waiting room to say hello. This is what I thought when I saw the relaxed appearance of those people.

“Hello, senior!”

– I wish it would just disappear.

If it wasn’t for that group, all the problems and stifling controversies that arose after the debut would not have existed.

No, it seemed that all this pressure would disappear even now.

The leader of Ether looked at Testa while thinking that for a moment. However, he gritted his teeth and tried to keep his expression as polite as ever.

To never give you a chance to be criticized.

And Park Moon-dae thought.

‘Look at this bastard’s eyes.’

Again, an idol version full of trickery. The clumsy don’t survive. It’s because they’ve all been caught.

Chapter 533

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 533

Eter has a bad feeling towards us.

"… Shouldn't it be the opposite?"

"I think they misunderstood that we caused a controversy."

"… … ."

Testa's waiting room where Ether greeted and left.

Bae Se-jin, who was silent for a moment, opened his mouth with a shy face.

"Has their company done anything to us?"

"I don't know what."

They are the ones who haven't even issued their resident registration cards yet. How could you have figured out all the boards that are running so well? You are just siding with our company.

'We still have the kinks that Wonder Hall planted in us… .'

Anyway, too many things have happened so far for a snoring person who doesn't even know what's going on in the game to be agitated that he has a crush on Testa.

Wasn't there a guy who laughed and poured controversy over our rookie award?

‘I fought with the station, but now I’ve come too far to scare the kids.’

So this conclusion was drawn.

“Well, you know what to do. Let’s do our job well and go back!”

“Yep!”

After changing our clothes, we headed to the set.

“Thank you and welcome to all returning artists!”

“Ohhh!”

The opening concept for episode 1 of the second half of < Jinsung Match > was a party.

It must be a strategy to contrast the suffering of survival immediately after opening the curtain with splendor like a party… .

‘It’s typical.’

Still, the tailcoats are likely to be in demand with their respective fans.

I had a non-alcoholic drink and greeted the other cast members with the camera on. Of course, these are the people who have already said hello in the waiting room.

It’s a bit funny for us to voluntarily get off the stage and attend the opening event, but that’s why we have to work harder so that no other sound comes out.

On the contrary, the singers appearing were less restrained than before, perhaps because they knew that they would fall out soon.

Besides, don’t we have a good recent situation to mention?

“Congratulations on Testa’s comeback! The music video was really cool!”

That’s it.

“thank you.”

I said hello to the soft and sweet member wearing a light green dress and turned around.

it’s ether

“Congratulations on your comeback, senior.”

It was clear that he was nervous as if he would be more careful in front of the camera.

But this time, he couldn’t hide his eyes.

‘That’s great.’

Besides, the fact that the leader’s eye color seems to have spread to the other guys seems to be the reason why they talk among themselves.

“Oh, thank you. Eter, the last stage was good, and I am looking forward to this time too.”

“yes! i look forward to.”

Seeing the look in his eyes as he looked at Ryu Cheong-wu, who handed out a few words of thanks on stage… .

‘I’m sure I’ll win, what’s that?’

I had poison that wasn’t there before.

‘Wonder Hall guys benefit from this again.’

Perhaps those guys came to regard the company’s pain as their own. Unconsciously, the basic logic must have been laid that the company’s position was their position.

‘Once this way of thinking is established, it won’t change much.’

Why did a freelance idol have to have the sense of ownership that the company and employees demanded for 28 years?

“Yes, thank you!”

In any case, Testa passed the situation smoothly and smoothly.

The sound of hand clapping only occurs when the palms of the hands are touching, but since we are like this, there would be no tension enough to be caught on camera.

“Now then, the theme of the spectacular first act of the second half of < Jinseong Match > is… .”

That’s how I listened to the MC’s raucous introduction to the theme of this stage and finished the opening filming safely.

And this time, Testa quickly rushed into the stage meeting as usual.

“Then shall we go like this?”

“great!”

And it was over in an instant.

This team has so much experience in the creative stage, and they have already figured out each other’s capabilities.

In addition, since they are close to each other, they can quickly get the results out of the meeting without any elements that would be intrusive.

Up to 1st place may vary depending on the style of the audience on the day. This will definitely put you in the top ranks.

‘I can afford it.’

Soon after, the interview went on, and the filming ended smoothly.

“Then we’ll be on our way in 10 minutes.”

“Yeah~”

It was a smooth process.

And most of the short breaks were also used casually.

“Raebin Kim Smile!”

“… ?!”

Even the guy who picks out photos to post on social media, packs clothes and electronic gadgets, and solves Sudoku. It was an everyday scene.

There was not a single member who looked anxious.

“Well, aren’t you all curious about what kind of stage Eter will perform?”

Including Lee Se-jin, who asked me this while handing me a drink.

I nodded briefly.

“maybe.”

It was a comeback period, so it was an empty time. Everyone subconsciously concluded that there was no need to break this down again and invest in elaborate information warfare.

One of the staff even said that even if the testa stage was leaked and Ether copied it and did it first, it didn’t seem like they would lose.

It means that the difference in capacity is visible to that extent.

I’m sure this guy knows what he’s telling me, but to dare to ask like this… .

“You don’t like it.”

“uh? no way… It’s not even like that!”

He said that, but the smile slightly disappeared from his face.

“I just have to say I’m a little alarmed.”

alert?

I put my drink down to show my intention to listen.

“Do you remember < Azusa >? At that time, I was really impatient because I wanted to do something well. I want to debut.”

I remember.

And that wasn’t the only thing that happened then.

“You were like that even after you debuted.”

“Hehe, isn’t it?”

Yes, even at the first concert it was like that.

-I need to do better than Cha Yujin on the unit stage this time.

That’s why I think of this guy who succeeded in receiving favorable reviews through a duet stage with Cha Yoo-jin.

Besides, even in the virtual world where he debuted as a gyrop, he’s been clenching his teeth, so there’s nothing more to explain.

“But at that time, the team atmosphere was a bit like that. what to say… There are things that try to run at full speed without adjusting the tempo.”

“okay.”

once i did I couldn’t help it because if I didn’t get good grades, I would die.

Big Sejin narrowed his eyes slightly.

“But now, maybe it’s because we’ve come up so well, it feels like that sense of urgency has disappeared. … Of course, me too.”

“… !”

Big Sejin muttered in a slightly subdued voice.

“What a desperate desire to improve? Should I call it a sense of crisis? .”

“… … .”

“The team works well even without that now.”

Certainly this team is less desperate than before. much calmer

The group is stable and there is no conflict regarding direction or part distribution position.

The affiliated company has also settled well.

‘There’s no such thing as walking on thin ice while working like crazy on each and every schedule because I’m afraid I won’t be able to jump.’

It’s because the group doesn’t shake unless it’s a supernatural phenomenon like losing memory.

‘Right now, if I don’t get good grades, I’m out of the situation where I’m going to die.’

Compared to the past few years, when I ran for survival in crazy situations every moment, it was no different from soaking in lukewarm water.

‘But that also means living like a human being.’

Human beings can’t live with their brains rolling like crazy every day in Death Survival.

Seeing as if he had similar thoughts, Sejin squinted his eyes and added like a joke.

“Hmm, after talking about it, it sounds like you’re really full, right?”

“I didn’t say that.”

“Moondaemundae is getting serious again!”

The boy grinned. But I didn’t laugh along.

“Of course, it’s not that bad… It’s just a little weird.”

Perhaps he also thought that the situation was stable in his head, but somehow he felt uncomfortable.

It seems that it stands out more as the season where there was a fuss over the memory problems of the members has passed and it has become quiet.

‘… hmm.’

I called up the guy’s status window.

[Name: Sejin Lee]

Singing: B (B+)

Dance: S- (S)

Appearance: A (A+)

Talent: A+ (A+)

Trait: Be modest (B)

Only the stats this guy has raised over the years have already been When converted to system points, it is 7p.

It was proof that he had been developing himself to the point of being ridiculous.

‘Singing and dancing have changed alphabet units.’

In the stats raised to get closer to the limit, you can see the desperate attitude that he never let his guard down and trained even after his debut.

“Moondaemundae This is just what I did, so don’t worry too much… .”

“Is that so? I kind of agree.”

“… ! okay?”

“uh.”

I nodded to the slightly surprised guy.

It was only natural that he would be anxious if he wasn’t fierce.

I am also like that to some extent.

“But how long do you think this stabilizer will last? There are so many incidents and accidents every year, and even if you don’t want to, you will have to do it again soon.”

“… … .”

“Be at ease until an unexpected accident occurs.”

It’s a law that people have to recover too.

“And you are still full of improvement. I can be sure of that.”

“… okay?”

“okay.”

“okay. … thanks.”

“what.”

The guy reopened his drink and drank it, slightly relieved, without much resistance.

And I was a little lost in thought.

‘Are you wary of mannerism?’

This… It might have been a worry that came to me spontaneously around this year’s vacation after I had succeeded in rising to fame.

And then, when I debuted, I also remembered the guy who was this year.

VTIC Cheongnyeol.

‘I wonder if he had similar thoughts.’

I don’t think my attitude toward him has changed even now.

I could understand more tangibly why he acted the way he did.

‘Oh, I see… .’

I just have a little free time tomorrow morning.

As I remembered, I decided to deal with the request he made when I had time.

* * *

“King!”

I ran across the artificial grass on the roof and roughly hugged the furry yellow furry dog.

The dog of Cheongryeo is Kong.

“wait for a sec.”

Let’s take some pictures.

Avoiding the guy who spoke up, I entrusted him to a person called ‘Dog Teacher’.

And before he gets sad, he quickly took a picture and handed it over again.

“Ki-ing… .”

“I’m a very nice kid, but I look for hyung a lot to see if he misses me~”

Considering that hyung’s job is an idol, his professionalism in not calling him dad stands out.

I got up only after making sure the dog was in good health, eating well and playing well.

I was so busy I didn’t have time to spend more time with you.

And it was time to go out through the reservation-only aisle.

A man walking with a cage in front of the private parking lot suddenly flinched and started waving wildly.

“Oh, Mr. Mundae?”

What.

‘Is this someone who recognized Testa?’

It wasn’t until he got closer that I checked his face and knew he was an acquaintance.

“Hello, senior.”

It was a member of T-Holic.

That guy, whose name must have been Ha Ha-tae, looked at me curiously.

“Does Moondae raise a puppy too?”

“no. Acquaintance please.”

“oh… Oh, are you Shin Jae-hyun’s friend?”

how did you know

“… … yes.”

“It looks like you two are really close.”

It’s just that the kid has no acquaintances.

However, I tried to retrace my steps, holding back my twitching eyebrows.

let’s not talk too long there is no time at all

But at the next word, my steps almost got twisted.

“I was recommended by Udan here.”

I doubted my ears.

“Are you senior VTIC Ju Dan?”

“uh. He likes this kind of information.”

I couldn’t believe that this sad older brother had a relationship with that sociable guy, but there must be various human relationships in the world.

I’m not interested.

“ah… okay. I’d like to ask you next time too. Then, I hope you take good care of the puppy, senior.”

“Oh thank you. thank you!”

However, T-Holic bastard stopped talking and started following me as I walked to the parking lot.

“… … ?”

“No, I have something to ask you.”

“yes?”

“This is our agency. Speaking of the Eter kids who debuted at Wonder Hall, how about meeting them?”

Are you asking this outright?

‘What is the intention?’

I responded calmly, not showing any agitation.

“They are juniors who work hard.”

“hmm… yes.”

The T-Holic member nodded.

“You probably haven’t heard the feeling of just playing with the stage yet. These days, the agency is stuck on the stage for tic-tac-tok, and they only make the kids do that.”

i get it. I don’t think he really intends to renew his contract with Wonder Hall.

“is that so.”

“yes.”

In spite of my soulless reply, the T-Holic members responded generously again.

But this time the tone was a little different.

“But don’t underestimate it too much. Kids who have been trainees for a long time in large companies usually have the ability.”

The T-Holic members laughed bitterly.

“patience.”

* * *

When Park Moon-dae unexpectedly met a T-Holic member at a dog facility.

“… … .”

At the same time, in Ether’s quarters, their leader was monitoring them with a serious expression.

A music video that I watched several times.

Chapter 534

If you can’t debut, you’ll get a fatal disease Episode 534

Testa’s music video for this comeback.

The first thing that appeared in the video was a picture cartoon type cartoon with cuts between cuts.

A scarlet circus tent with flashing lights in the middle of the night. In the teaser video, the grotesque place where Kim Rae-bin took off his rabbit mask and got sucked into it.

As if in someone’s memory, an echo effect was added, and the faint sound of the performance rang out.

[♬♪♪-♩ ♬♩-♬♪♪] From

colorful lights accordion and harmonica to the unique melodies of circus performances, cheerful drumming.

However, circus performers wearing animal masks looked exhausted and filthy and performed dangerously while wearing prisoner chains, while the black silhouetted audience laughed and bumped their palms.

The image of a joyous festival full of disparities passed all the way, dizzyingly and fragmentarily, as if changing a film.

But, as if a flame had been extinguished, it fizzled

everything disappears in a hook

Silence flowed across the screen, calm and dark. And what appears is a dark backstage.

Real video, not cartoon.

[—-]

Slowly close-up as if the camera slowly holding the black screen was being sucked in.

ridge. ridge.

Amidst the slow and meaningful beat of a drum resounding, a figure standing in the center comes into view in the dim beam of light.

It was the silhouette of a circus performer.

The silhouette of the performer who was standing still was tearing off the old mats and chains that were on the outside.

And what emerges… .

A man wearing a long coat with a scarf over a black suit that closes up to his neck.

Ryu Chung-woo.

Click.

The moment the close-up stops.

A lightbulb came on like a flash above Ryu Cheng-wu, who was standing there.

Boo-!

Along with the low howl-like sound of boat horns, the sound of drums like an opening ceremony spread, and the sharp and powerful synthesizer sounded dangerously.

In line with the sound, Liu Chengwu slowly raised his collar, covered his face, and pulled his hat on tightly.

And the moment he suddenly rushes to the screen, the transition to the performance cut.

[It’s now.]

The choreography as if the shadows were spreading exquisitely robbed the view as if swallowing the camera.

After that, music and videos rushed without a break.

Every time the part came and went, the camera moved back and forth between the inside and outside of the complex circus tent to reflect the audience being attacked.

The development method, as if running through a mysterious space from a cameraman’s first-person perspective, increased the degree of immersion.

Even Kim Rae-bin kicked the rabbit mask and threw it in front of the camera at the moment he encountered the shaking camera in the dark.

[The tables have turned today, you’re the sheep,

jump farther, go ahead,

it’s fun. Somersault]

The modern and heavy syllables, contrasting with the slightly humorous retro circus music I heard for the first time, fell into my ears in line with the performer’s movements.

Even the use of sound effects that quench your appetite.

It felt like an invasion of an advanced civilization.

“… … Phew.”

The leader of Ether, Noir, replayed the scenes he had watched over and over again.

choreography of stamping one’s feet.

The composition and expressiveness of the choreography seems to have honed the image of ‘hunting’ to the limit in the most attractive way.

No matter what timing you stop, you have a neat sense of intimidation that fits all of the limbs and joints.

[Reversal night

hunting time

(Yea-h)

Call up it’s hunting season]

Halloween night where circus animals reversely hunt the spectators.

The fun and splendid but brutal atmosphere of the circus seemed to be torn apart by the weight class difference in the overwhelming sound and performance.

That catharsis!

The performers brought out the unique atmosphere of the anti-hero without any awkwardness.

The members who learned all about when to apply strength and when to take away wow points most effectively were blown away.

final chorus.

Cha Yoo-jin, who stood at the center, bounced her whole body and moved wildly as if leading the team.

Even then, the moment the music stops as if sucked in, the posing is done at the exact timing.

His eyes flashed like those of an animal.

[Get close to me]

That overwhelming command.

Testa's music video did not miss the tension until the moment when Seon Ah-hyun threw a circus light bulb on the floor with an expressionless white face.

It was overwhelming no matter how many times I watched it.

"… … ."

The leader of Ether put down the notes he was taking with slightly trembling hands.

I felt that my eyes were getting farther away.

'I can't… .'

I tried to be patient, but I was overwhelmed.

It was a feeling that a high school student would feel when trying to write a thesis.

It is certain that this is the goal he will meet at the end of his studies, but it is far too far away to implement it in a standard way with what he has now.

The performance of a tremendously talented opponent who was several years ahead of him put a tremendous amount of pressure on him, who had just become a professional.

"ah… … ."

Originally, when they saw Testa as just a ‘respectful senior’, they could use it as motivation that they would one day become like that too.

But when you think you have to be as good as these people right now, it takes your breath away.

It seemed impossible.

“… … .”

However, Ether’s leader tried to get out of that mind.

Then, flipping through the notes he had written down, he looked at the keywords he wrote down in terms of ‘want to be imitated’ or ‘want to express like this’.

‘It’s slow, but there’s nothing to be gained… !’

Obviously, every time I look back, there is something new to write. Every time I analyze it, I wonder why Testa’s performance is good. It can be specifically caught.

So he gritted his teeth.

I will not give up.

‘Even similarly!’

“brother! We want to practice a little more… . yes. Teacher Choi. If you have time today… .”

He asked his manager to schedule extra practice.

Those who didn’t have much had to do it somehow, even if it took time.

‘you can do it!’

We will do it as always.

He promised to hide the notebook he had secretly brought back under the bed.

In the last screen of the laptop, there was a figure of Park Moon-dae performing and singing the bridge of loose beat alone.

* * *

“Mr. Moondae, please close your eyes~ Oh, I won’t touch the earphones as much as possible.”

“yes. thank you.”

I went through today’s schedule and recalled what had just happened.

‘therefore… .’

I was trying to take a few pictures of someone else’s dog, but I came back suffering from pretending to know from a great senior who didn’t even know what to do.

By the way, the big senior, Ha Ji-tae from T-Holic, was very talkative until the end.

-Mr. Moondae, Udan and all three of you, let’s have a drink sometime!

I don’t know how he came up with this idea, but I just want to say that I really wanted to decline.

I also want to say that I never wanted this phone call.

[I heard that you met Jin-tae.]

Ah yes.

I continued to put on makeup while answering VTIC’s phone call with Bluetooth earphones.

“yes. By the way, I’m sorry, but it’s a shop now, so the answer may be a little late.”

[it’s okay. I’m not one of those people who can’t be considerate of the other person’s situation. Besides, the situation I’m in right now is also special.]

I can also give a simple explanation that I’m in the military like that.

Anyway, since there was no reason to refute, I affirmed it openly.

“You are suffering a lot.”

[yes. It is not.]

“… … .”

And I listened to him talk about things like, ‘The military isn’t rational, but if you adapt, you’ll be able to survive’.

‘Is it the corporal’s national rules that change words in between?’

Anyway, I didn’t have anything to say with this guy, so I thought I’d hang up after accepting his words in moderation.

In the meantime, though, some interesting topics came up.

[According to Jin-tae’s argument, he seems to have given quite useful advice. Is it okay to treat it as the truth?]

Hmm… .

I frowned slightly as I recalled the conversation with the T-Holic guy.

‘It was advice.’

T-Holic’s Ha Jin-tae said not to underestimate Leeter too much and said, “Those who have been trainees at large agencies for a long time have perseverance.”

But when I first heard it, honestly, it didn't sound like very meaningful advice.

'Are there any idols who succeeded without persistence?'

First of all, it seems like a virtue that all successful people have.

So I inadvertently asked.

– What does perseverance mean?

-hmm. Are you a bit vague? … Do you know how kids who debuted at large agencies usually debut?

-yes?

– You work hard to audition, work hard to get into the debut group, and work hard to release your debut album. But again, there's no word on when that will happen.

And through the explanation that followed, I understood what this guy meant by 'perseverance'.

-The period of when the debut group will come out is undecided, so you have to work tirelessly for several years.

It meant that the wannabe kids knew that debuting at a large agency was an unconditional advantage, so they were determined to stick together.

And if you break through and win, you will debut.

-So, the kids who debuted after breaking through that had the idea that they could do anything if they worked hard. He thinks that he achieved it through his hard work.

It is said that the guys who climbed up without drinking even once at each stage, whether it was luck or skill, are the debut group of a large entertainment company.

In a word, I don’t know the taste of failure.

-Unconsciously, he never admits that he can fail even if he tries hard.

‘therefore… It’s tenacious, but it’s close to obstinacy.’

Did you glorify the fact that you couldn’t lose money because you couldn’t learn the timing with ‘perseverance’?

I came to that conclusion, but the conclusion the T-Holic member made was strange.

-That means you can do your best. Not getting tired for a very long time. Ugh.

The words made me feel a bit tired of myself. like you’ve experienced.

‘… no way.’

At that time, I thought of a different group than the Eter that T-Holic guy had given as an example.

They are idols who would have been the most annoying to T-Holic in their heyday, and a group that fits perfectly with the description of ‘from a large entertainment company’.

[hmm. You’re not wrong.]

It’s VTIC.

From T-Holic’s point of view, VTIC looked like that, so it seemed that Ether was analyzed with the same perspective.

‘It’s not like that.’

VTIC was like that because a madman held on to the leader, which was outside of the standard, and Ether was not outside of that standard.

‘I think it would work only if there were quite a few good guys on the team.’

… The VTIC party seemed to sympathize with me.

[This is a compelling analysis. That’s kind of surprising. I don’t know failures, but I’m on the side of debuting. In fact, it is no different from a flower in a greenhouse.]

“… You see.”

[yes. I don’t want to leave the greenhouse in the future.]

Saying that with your own mouth?

Anyway, I thought I’d keep T-Holic’s advice in my head, but not try to adapt too much to Testa’s situation.

‘Because each situation is different.’

… And I really see with my own eyes that ‘everyone’s situation is different’ after a while.

A few days later.

The day of recording the mid-stage evaluation of < Jinseong Match >.
[Leaving the silence and filling the space with the sound of gear up applause again]

Ether took the stage before Testa.

[Set up]

I did my best until the stage was over.

“… … .”

The amount of practice was shown during the dance break.

Of course, there was perfection before, but this does not mean that.

‘The quality has changed.’

In the past, it felt like I practiced diligently as someone else gave me and taught me, but that feels like I’ve been practicing to squeeze out the ‘maximum’.

‘I can feel that he tried to make an impact as natural as possible for each part.’

There was a desperate mindset to show everything without regret.

It is the expression of a desperate person.

The feeling conveyed to the viewer by a person who, despite knowing the reality that he can’t win, still tries to overcome it no matter what.

“… … .”

I clenched my fist.

There is a narrative that moves people’s hearts universally in the world.

A situation with a cliff behind.

In the midst of a tightrope walking in a dilemma, he has a bad temper to try to do something with his teeth clenched.

Unique come and effort.

Willingness to keep pushing forward despite being under heavy fire in the midst of checks and controversies.

It was a unique attribute of Rising.

… whatever the cause of the controversy.

Whether you're a real bastard or not.

The psychology that makes you want to support this team that is going up a lot as an underdog.

– Underdog.

It was a position that Testa almost monopolized until he received the grand prize.

Even in Testa, these 'naughty guys' were hereditary, and it was an attribute that was able to capture the public for a very long time by maximizing the narrative through survival.

However, when a challenger becomes a champion, the challenger's attributes naturally disappear.

Images that can only be had for a limited period of time.

'But not all well-known teams can have this.'

Because there are minimal lines.

– You look good too.

this was worthy

– If you work hard and do well like that, you should be treated better.

Arousing this sensibility on the stage where the public pays attention.

At least this threshold had to be passed to take effect.

And until now, since Testa, no team has passed that… .

[Jump over!]

The guys who were performing for midterm evaluation on that stage were barely crossing that limit.

“… … .”

these X feet.

Chapter 535

If you can't debut, you'll die of a disease. After the midterm evaluation of episode 535, the testa's waiting room.

"It was good."

These are short impressions from the members who watched Ether's mid-term evaluation stage.

Half of them had faces that said, 'We have to work harder too!'

And instinctively knowing how things were going to turn out, the rest of the guys' faces… It's close to 'got it'.

"Is this being aired before the final stage recording? Would that be the case by date?"

"uh. At least the pre-release video will be released before the final stage."

"… after."

In a word, it is difficult to overturn the editing direction of the production team by reorganizing the film for the final stage.

Before that, there is a video released in advance considering only this intermediate stage.

'If I'm on the production team, I'll never miss this phrase.'

A rising group that showed up in the midst of controversy and desperately prepared to try to pierce the needle, finally bursting with potential on stage.

And even the opponents of the controversy, the senior group.

Our role here will be like this.

-How did Testa react?

If you don't come out like a big crowd here, it's only a matter of time for people to become nasty. In a situation where the target of empathy in the program has already been captured by Ether.

Testa was pushed out of the narrative, damn it.

'Anyway, viewers will be excited.'

Unless the production team is an idiot, at the point when the midterm evaluation was selected like this, the composition of the narrative that 'Iter overcomes adversity and produces good results' was already confirmed.

It was natural that the picture was chosen like this.

Instead of refuting, Sejin let out a long sigh. Unlike usual, there was no bitter smile.

I was similar.

'I feel like X more than expected.'

And Kim Rae-bin carefully raised his hand, as if the atmosphere was strange.

"… ? Do you think that our stage prepared this time will be lacking compared to that of the people of Eter?"

Looking at the guy who seemed like he would pour out the words 'We did better' at any moment, Ryu Cheong-woo smiled bitterly.

“No, I don’t think so.”

Objectively, of course, Testa did better in the middle evaluation.

Kim Rae-bin also nodded.

“As expected! I wondered if I might have missed something.”

But you must have wanted to ask why the atmosphere was so strange.

I have given an answer in advance.

“yes… ?”

“Now we mean that when we do well, people don’t get agitated or startled. There are expectations built up over the years.”

“… … .”

This is not simply a matter of Testa being pushed onto the stage by a rookie.

It’s a matter of freshness.

and… .

‘It’s a problem because those bastards’ agency shows how far they can suck this honeydew.’

Wouldn’t it be fun to hit the viral while shouting bullshit about turning a crisis into an opportunity?

-Participating teams with good reactions in today’s match (spoilers included)

-Heart’s current situation that I thought would go to hell.

It’s already good for the eyes.

In the midst of this, the Eter themselves are just working hard, so it looks like our side is looking for a gap and sending it to public opinion.

On the contrary, it may face a headwind.

‘People say it’s like a ghost again.’

As soon as the ridiculing atmosphere created by Wonder Hall’s self-destruction disappeared, it seemed clear that the ‘unexpected discovery’ that the members of Ether were just grouchy and snobbish guys would catch on.

In order to go against the flow, something bigger was needed.

‘My bone hurts.’

“No problem, in case you have a headache… ?”

“… are you okay.”

I let go of the hand that was pressing down on my temple.

… I had a feeling that it was complicated in many ways.

And things started to go as expected.

A few days later.

[< Jinseong match > What is this? Interim evaluation with reversal after reversal | Pre-release]

When the pre-release video comes out – Is Ether finally ruined? But if it’s the reverse, surely it’s going to float? – I knew it would be like this because it’s a broadcasting company

close to Wonder Hall

-you are good?

-It’s better than I thought

-It’s frustrating to strain your eyes so you don’t cry

That’s why iter’s desperate attitude felt too real to be made through editing.

‘And because the results actually came out.’

It was felt that public opinion was swaying.

It seemed that the production crew were happy that it was a success, even from far away.

‘after.’

There were some people who expressed interest in our stage, but we were pushed from buzz to numbers.

Of course, I thought I would do well, so there was nothing to criticize, and that’s why I was pushed out of interest.

I looked at the smartphone screen.

‘Can you reverse it?’

Realistically, I didn’t know if I’d have to give up this edition and write the next one if I wanted to go safely.

There is a newcomer who came up with good timing, and I was prepared to share a pie with them in the future.

‘… I would have thought this was a different rookie.’

I don’t like it.

These bastards have accumulated too much karma from their agency.

In addition, right after this video was released, Kim Rae-bin found one final blow to the karma.

Even that was not made by the agency, but by Ether himself.

“It could be my misunderstanding, but the more I watch part of this stage, which was released in advance, by junior Lee Ter, the more I feel a sense of déjà vu in the composition and expression.”

“Feeling of déjà vu?”

“yes.”

Kim Rae-bin, who had been thinking for a while while looking at his laptop, opened his eyes round as if he knew right away and shouted.

“All right. You can see the gestures the members usually use on the stage of the Eteru people!”

“… !”

“For example, in this scene where you are raising your hand… .”

We listened to Kim Rae-bin’s explanation as he flashed back and forth between the videos using the shortcut keys.

And I was immediately convinced.

“I think it’s similar… .”

“OK. Literally I see.”

The facial expressions and gestures that the Testa members habitually showed were right in time.

Of course, the number of people was different, the song was different, and it was quite natural to enter the right place, so it wasn’t to the extent that I noticed where it came from as soon as I saw it.

‘… I must have worked hard on the analysis.’

I felt that I didn’t follow it roughly, but properly thought about ‘why it’s good’.

But that’s the position of the guys who followed, and what do you think of the position that suffered… .

“Isn’t this too harsh?!”

this is it

However, I calmly shook my head at Bae Se-jin’s embarrassed words.

“I can’t say that the gestures or facial expressions are similar. It’s not even copyrighted.”

If you can’t digest it awkwardly, it will stand out in a bad way and will be discovered soon. And they’ll get scolded saying ‘I know you’re a testa’.

However, if done well, it will go beyond ‘Did you pay for the gesture’.

“And in the first place, everyone practices with cover stages before debuting. You start by copying your favorite idols in gestures and facial expressions. I can’t do it without references in practice.”

In a word, it means ‘it is ambiguous to criticize for not having any morals’.

“… … So this is also a reference?”

Bae Se-jin gritted it.

“Are we the only ones following?”

“… … .”

Perhaps he didn’t necessarily think that he would only follow Testa.

I just didn’t have time.

‘I wouldn’t have been able to study while looking at multiple teams.’

So, it must have been trying to win the advantage by going around the stage of the senior he is most conscious of now, focusing on several times.

From the perspective of Ether themselves, they would think that they just worked hard, but from the point of view of a group that has been through similar things several times now, it was only natural that members who were angry would come out.

“It’s not the first time or two that we’ve been unilaterally used as references like this. Aren’t we supposed to protest something?”

“Brother, thinking like that is useless.”

Big Sejin cut it off and said. Then he pressed his forehead and spoke lowly.

“It is a stage. If you digest this well, it’s yours.”

“… ! Where is that sophistry… … .”

“no! The atmosphere doesn’t suddenly change just because hyung doesn’t acknowledge it.”

“… !”

“Look at the situation now. People will think that Testa is being nasty against a rookie, but what’s the point… … . I’m sorry later.”

“… … .”

Keun Se-jin barely calmed down and Bae Se-jin answered with a stiff face.

“… no. You must be frustrated too.”

“… … .”

The atmosphere is awesome.

I pressed my eyes with both hands.

What is even more fascinating is that the butterfly effect of this work does not end here.

Do you know what a bigger problem is?

‘Testa is telling me to get off this program after this stage.’

If Wonder Hall puts the air into the air well, there will be voices like ‘Aren’t you getting off because you’re avoiding iter?’

Timing is bound to stick with anything!

-Something’s gone, Testa

is also losing his mind

It becomes an image problem.

And it means that the Eter side that took the underdog narrative enjoys the effect of killing two birds with one stone.

‘I guess they think they’ve succeeded in revenge.’

I don’t like it even more because it’s obvious what the people at the agency will think.

I held back a sigh.

And there was silence in the car too.

“… … .”

“For now, let’s stay while preparing for the final stage. There will be a group photoshoot soon, so look at the atmosphere at that time. how is it?”

“… okay.”

“Yes… .”

Big Sejin calmly rebuked the others.

However, the complexion itself was not so good.

* * *

The day of recording < Jinseong Seungbu > came back.

“You did a great job guys!”

“thank you!”

Voices of congratulations and encouragement echoed in the waiting room of Ether.

The atmosphere, which had been stagnant for days due to controversy and reorganization, was finally reviving.

To Ether, the fact that they made that opportunity through hard work and hard work gave them a heart-rending sense of pride.

‘Is this a real sense of accomplishment?’

The leader nodded, saying that it was an experience of realizing again as an artist that the results of my stage are related to the joys and sorrows of many people involved.

And I felt a greater sense of responsibility.

“All of our leaders have grown up. The company really believes only in you and works.”

“thank you!”

Ether’s leader left the waiting room with such encouragement and a great sense of responsibility.

‘I should say hello to the staff and cast in advance.’

I had to shake hands, so I thought I’d wash my hands before going.

So when he naturally entered the toilet for officials.

‘uh.’

There was already a passenger at the sink.

“Hello~”

“… Hello senior.”

The leader of Ether bowed his head.

Testa Lee Se-jin, who was washing her hands in the sink, smiled a little, nodded slightly, and wiped off the water.

Even when he met himself, he was not shaken at all.

‘… You still have plenty of room.’

For some reason, I felt a little bloated.

Do you not feel a sense of crisis when a junior competitor did a good job on a stage in an entertainment program?

Is that a good position?

‘Then why did you explode something like a transcript?’

When the leader was slightly drunk with resentment, a calm and soft voice came from above.

“Ah, the midterm evaluation stage was really good~ The reaction was good, so congratulations.”

“Oh, thank you.”

And the leader couldn’t stand it and handed over the greeting he had thought of before.

“That Testa senior’s stage was also good. As always!”

There was a bit of a double meaning here.

It could mean always doing well, or it could also mean that there is no progress.

If the listener listens sarcastically because he has a sly inside, it will sound bad, and if Testa is a really nice person, he will be praised.

‘I think I said it well!’

The leader of Ether thought proudly. and… .

Sejin Lee smiled sadly.

“is it so? Aigo thank you~”

“… … yes!”

“Then let’s fight for today’s shoot too!”

Lee Se-jin left the bathroom after saying a good word, and the leader of Ether finally admitted it.

‘He must be a good person.’

But I didn’t know why I felt sad when I thought about it.

And at the same time, Testa’s waiting room.

“Moondaemun University. wait for a sec.”

Lee Se-jin tapped Park Mun-dae on the shoulder to get his attention.

“why.”

Even with his plaintive reply, Lee Se-jin knew that he was listening.

“Do you remember what I said? This time we… Let’s just watch the situation.”

“I remember.”

And I know why he said that.

‘Because Testa already has so many things, I can’t raise all of them as stakes.’

An embarrassing situation was right.

However, it was safer and the expected value was higher not to act hastily even if I gave a little here.

It feels a bit worse, though.

This is because Testa is no longer an annual year that the public sees as a spirit of ambition even if they rush to take off their rank insignia to receive the rookie award.

There was also a great risk of being seen as too strong.

‘It’s a wise thing to do here.’

Park Mun-dae guessed that Lee Se-jin probably gave the same answer with a cold head.

but… .

“I’m sorry, but I want to cancel. that word.”

“… !”

“I don’t know. Originally, I was the one who said things like ‘Let’s take a long look and move on’ in this team… .”

Big Sejin smiled with his eyes shining.

“I don’t want to. I.”

It was D-3 days left until the final stage.

Chapter 536

If you can't debut, you'll die. Episode 536,

< True Match > started the first stage of the second half with a large audience as if it were an opening ceremony.

I hope that there will be a stage with a great narrative that the audience will want to talk about because it is okay to sprinkle spoilers.

'There are a lot of Testa fans.'

Park Moon-dae and Lee Se-jin's twin homie office worker, himself a Testa fan, sat down with such thoughts in mind.

As Ryu Seo-rin's younger sister and Ryu Gun-woo's club senior, of course she didn't even guess that Ryu Gun-woo became a Bak Mun-dae, but she sometimes kept in touch with Ryu Gun-woo, a big moon.

Actually, I asked if you were thinking of coming today… .

-it's okay. I think it's hard because I'm busy with work because it's the end of the year.

got a reply saying

'I wanted to take a picture from a different angle… Tsk.'

The office worker clicked his tongue, saying he is still a blunt guy.

Keundal was frightened and restless, and said, 'I… The fact that he replied by shouting 'It's Geonwoo hyung!' was never going to be revealed.

Anyway, after carefully setting the camera so as not to get caught, she sat down and explored her surroundings with a sharp eye.

‘It seems that almost half of Testa fans are.’

If this was the case, it would have been a matter of winning the 2nd place unless Testa ruined the stage.

But that didn’t mean it was good.

‘I thought it was too blatant to want to push Eter.’

At this rate, when Ether gets 3rd place or lower – It wasn’t a stage to be ranked that high honestly – half of the audience there were Testa fans.

could also give

The thought of hearing such a thing against Ether made even this twin hommage uncomfortable.

‘How much money will they earn in the future to think about what the kids will know… .’

It was her idea that there should be professionalism and responsibility as long as money is earned.

Anyway, isn’t it the same as Aether who benefited from what Wonder Hall did?

[…] Welcome to the audience now~] The MC’s opening remarks ended just as Homma, an office worker, was fixing the camera so that she could not see it with her hands while thinking about that in her head.

‘It’s starting.’

She straightened up and sat down. While thinking of taking a few pictures of the other groups besides Testa for test shots.

[The first stage… Oh, and he is also the winner of the first half stage. Soft and sweet!]

And as soon as she heard the name of the first order, she predicted it.

‘The next one or the next one will be the next one.’

The production team must have deliberately given iter the first order. Because it fits the image of a challenger.

‘And there must have been something trying to separate the order of the contest with Testa.’

Testa is unconditionally the last or just before the end for viewer ratings. It was obvious without looking.

And the analysis that if they performed consecutively in front of them, they would be directly compared to Testa, so at least two or three teams would have been sandwiched between them.

[This order is… It’s Ether!]

‘That’s right.’

She narrowed her eyes as Ether appeared after the soft and sweet performance.

Wow!

In the background of cheers from the audience following the guidance of the staff, Ether took their place on the stage and formed a formation.

And after a short silence, the stage starts with an intense accompaniment that is about to explode.

[Feel the sunrise!]

The song I saw in the pre-release started to unfold with strong sound effects.

Angled like a knife, it is the title track of T-Holic's 3rd album.

It is an intense and harsh social criticism song that T-Holic released as the title song only once, and it was a song to appeal to teenagers performing in classic black school uniforms. [Escape the pain and fill this space with the sound of gear up again]

The lyrics fit perfectly with the current situation of Eter.

Even considering the theme of the stage, 'Who am I', it was a stage that left many interesting things to think about… .

'also.'

It was immediately visible to someone who had been watching Testa consistently and found pleasure in the details on their stage.

Gesture expression similar to Testa.

"… … ."

It was evident that it was referenced. Twin Hommies crossed their arms.

'That agency doesn't know how much.'

Originally, when a person reached his limit, he lost his reason.

Wasn't this once or twice?

Up until now, everyone was holding back because they thought Testa could have a headwind. After this aired properly, they didn't know what the Testa fans would do.

'… for a moment. Do you rather want that?'

Twin Homma questioned for a moment and soon realized that it was the truth.

Wonder Hall intentionally allowed Ether to refer to Testa.

-If Testa fans argue, it becomes noise marketing.

If Ether does well on stage, the public will empathize with him and fight for him.

– Do you want to see the newcomer having such a hard time?

ㄴI wonder if the staff was cursing because Testa fans were so nasty ㅠㅠ

ㄴKingly God-heart hahahaha

– Testa seems to hate you more, not

Eter.

A performance that seems to have been unfolded by pouring all desperate energy into it.

He filled up the lack of technique and talent with the amount of practice and the momentum that seemed to risk his life.

With red and yellow lighting effects as if the sun was rising in the background, Eter caught the ending cut with full energy.

[Feel the sun rise!]

Wow!

The stage ended with cheers.

The reactions of some of the audience with subtle faces between the cheering people who seem to have been impressed are hard to see.

“under.”

The office worker looked at Ether on stage with a complicated mind.

They nodded to the audience, gasping for breath, with tears in their eyes, and then went down.

‘Those who like rookies will have their eyes closed.’

At that time, there were quite a few types of people who were only impressed by Rising, who was full of vigor and earnestness.

‘The unit price… I’m going up.’

And the twin homma realized that she hadn’t taken a single picture of Ether despite this.

If it was originally the same, the unit price would rise, and the team would have filmed it because it was left to film first.

‘Is it my own loyalty?’

She watched the rest of the stage holding back a laugh.

My heart, which had been a little uneasy, had calmed down in the meantime.

and.

[This stage is a testa!]

Finally, the reason for this visit came.

Wow!!

It was filled with screaming cheers. In the meantime, Homma calmly developed her thoughts.

‘At the time of the midterm evaluation… .’

Intermediate evaluation Testa arranged a famous song from a band in the 2000s like a KPOP idol, and presented a stage that looked good and felt good.

It is a stage that has changed the national song to fit their identity as idols.

Relaxed and skillful charm.

However, seeing that almost no amount was given in the pre-release, I don’t think the production team did a good job editing it… .

‘No, it’s fine.’

It is a stage that is the opposite of the desperate performance that Eter did.

If this is the case, there is a high probability that public opinion will go over smoothly to the point of ‘both were good’ without needless comparisons.

Then, even if Testa fans are pissed off at Eter, they will be able to endure it once more after seeing the situation.

This is the smart way to do it.

‘Since there are kids on the team who can use their brains in politics, I wouldn’t have rushed to change them conscious of the midterm evaluation.’

She trusted the quick brain rotation and cool judgment of the two members she filmed.

[…] … .]

In the meantime, thick darkness spread over the stage.

And the twinkling light came alive.

Not one, but numerous lights filled the stage with star-like sparkles.

A voice rising above it.

[Wait, because you stand up, even if the floor is cold,

your life is so br-ight!]

“… !!”

There was none of the slick dance-pop that was seen in midterms.

A powerful rock sound that is colorful and sexual, yet brings out the popular taste to the fullest.

[Yeeees

Ride the clouds and

Shoot out into the skyyyy-!]

Glam metal rang everywhere.

‘ah.’

Riding on the thumping sound, the terrifyingly controlled group dance forms and rushes in.

Blond-dyed hair, a black rider jacket and a white printed T-shirt stood out exquisitely.

The performers come out to the front of the stage like light in an aggressive and splendid way.

[Pouring as a comet,

last night’s pain

shines on the asphalt

City of lights]

Perhaps the theme consciousness of ‘Who am I’ was easier to understand in the version at the time of the midterm evaluation.

It was because they showed their identity as ‘Daesang-level KPOP idols’.

‘Testa is a group that always challenges conceptually, so I thought this was like us’ was less direct.

however.

[

Your tears, shining like stars and running,

Shining like the nightscape]

The stage came more directly.

The moment I saw Park Moon-dae, who lifted his hand at the end of a high note and brushed his hair, turning over his jacket.

‘driving me crazy.’

The worker knew.

This was a stage that I changed after seeing the midterm evaluation to win with energy.

The moment the brief thought of what the hell was doing this passed by.

‘for a moment.’

[Now come to me,

cross the sky,

cross the sea]

Testa's gestures are flashy, as is common in metal bands.

And those gestures… .

'He's doing exactly what Eter did!'

Yes.

Almost every gesture Ether did came out as the part moved.

From raising your hands, resting your chin, closing your eyes lightly, then opening them as if you knew them and nodding your head.

Even though it was an attitude that fit perfectly with this glam metal.

'These crazy guys!'

[Come to me now,

forget the tears

and leave the pain behind]

Testa came out openly like when he faced Onyx during the Rookie of the Year award someday.

And this was a mistake that Homma thought Testa would never make.

'If I make a mistake, I'll be ruined.'

For the strong to be conscious of the weak and try to win, it could arouse resentment.

It's easy to ruin your image when you hear that you're trying to fight with your juniors or that you're just greedy.

So I thought that Testa, who had never made a stupid choice until now, would never make this choice here… .

[The world is yours,

I want to give it all,

this must be love]

They made a choice.

A thrill like a pleasant goosebump rising from his chest warmed his head.

‘Oh X-foot… … .’

Homma sighed.

There was something strange about the momentum of going all-in like crazy without calculating, making the viewer cry.

Cha Yoo-jin, frowning with her piercings sparkling on stage, holds a handheld microphone and performs, while Moon-dae Park strikes a chord in the back.

[Wait, because you stand up, so your life is so br-ight

even without streetlights

!]

The performance and vocals stormed to the level of two-much like a bombardment.

Homma, an office worker, managed to catch a realistic reason in the gap.

‘reality… If you look at it as an enemy.’

I had to be really overwhelmingly good at expressing myself to give a sense of being compared to my juniors for a long time.

To the point where anyone can feel the originality from Testa.

[Yeeees

Ride the clouds and

Shoot out into the skyyyy-!]

And Lee Se-jin knew that too.

-I'm really sorry, but can I?

He insisted on doing it in three days, choreographed it, and did it by distributing gestures, and he barely slept.

In the meantime, I didn't miss a thing to do to manage myself.

He knew too.

I'm not a rookie who just debuted, and it's not a very wise human being to do this.

Give what to give and think of what you already have.

'People should live while controlling the tempo.'

Isn't it said that otherwise the balance collapses?

It's a good job to be swayed by the public. It means that you can't live with your ego as an individual person, not as an idol.

So, it means that people should have time to rest.

'it's okay.'

He didn't want to live like that.

Be successful and live like a human being.

If that means you can no longer grow through the pain.

He desperately wanted to live while remaining anxious and nervous.

So, I wanted to push the limits.

As far as you can.

Chapter 537

Episode 537

Lee Se-jin was out of breath.

There was nothing left of complicated calculations.

[Come to me now,

forget the tears and leave the pain behind]

Split the beat, then suddenly slow down and give strength. The move, which uses the whole body to the end, rides on the voice and comes out three-dimensionally.

It feels more fitting than ever before.

The repetition, training, and learning to become ingrained in the body are expressed as if they would explode from the whole body and limbs as desired.

Experience goes beyond imagination.

[The world is yours,

I want to give it all]

Even the hair and jacket swayed along the body as if it were part of the choreography. The movement glowed brightly with lights.

climax.

The body is as hot as if it were on fire and light at the same time.

‘ah.’

How wonderful is the view on stage. How thrilling is the feeling of finally reaching the desired state after exerting all efforts

Lee Se-jin’s grinning face with beads of sweat appeared on the screen.

[This must be love]

That was enough.

“Aaaaaaaa!!”

An ear-piercing shout.

Twin Homma suddenly realized that she had unconsciously held the camera in front of her face.

In a state of extreme excitement, you would cling to anything in your hand.

‘… ah.’

On the stage where I looked up with bated breath, the idol performance was boiling at its climax.

smile.

Heat.

How wonderful is the view on stage.

How thrilling it is to see a stage burning as if a soul has been blown into it.

[Oh love!]

Testa’s performance ended at the peak of the heat.

* * *

That night.

-I tore it

-Crazy

-Hahahaha Testa Wow -How did you beat

this?

The real-time impressions from the audience of the just-ended contest passed before my eyes.

‘There’s no explanation or anything.’

There is only expression of emotion. There was nothing else to fly.

After a while, it will become a mess with the aggro who roughly grasped the situation, but now it is a real audience reaction.

-If you can’t get first place in this, it’s a masterpiece hahaha

Pure admiration.

As the reaction of adrenaline exploded to the level of madness, even those who were attached to see the reviews began to get excited.

-What is it

? -What did Testa do?

-Is it very different from the middle?

And finally, the people who listened to the show began to sparsely spread spoilers, focusing on keywords.

‘Blonde’ ‘Arrangement’ ‘Danve’ etc… .

‘The gesture story hasn’t come out yet.’

But it seemed like it would only be a matter of time before it came out. Of course, it will be mixed with aggro and it will be a mess.

‘I’ve already made up my mind to that point.’

… That’s when the guy started talking.

– Let’s change.

I turned my head.

Lying on the sofa in the waiting room of the person who brought up the idea of changing the stage three days ago, Lee Se-jin seemed almost bewildered.

It was worth it.

‘Looks like they spilled it all out.’

The ability that guy showed when he was the center of the mid-to-late dance break on stage was definitely more than what I saw during practice.

A frighteningly desperate immersion.

-… … !

Not from the front, but from the side, performing together on stage together, I felt it intuition.

To be honest, it was still being mentioned even in the reviews of excited audience members.

-I don’t know what Kisejin did, but he really turned around in the second half

-I

was coming to the center

and he suddenly saw something like a halo

It was to confirm that there was.

Do not feel the limit stat during activation.

I almost rubbed my eyes.

‘I thought I saw it wrong.’

It’s the first time I’ve seen a crazy situation where the trait jumped from B to EX.

And the added effect attached to it… It was a shock almost like being hit in the head.

‘I don’t feel the limit stat’.

“… … .”

This was also one of the questions I had about the system’s notation so far.

-Is the limit stat really impossible to break through?

And I felt like I got a vague answer to that.

Even if it is only during the limited feature activation on stage.

‘It means you can do it.’

The limit is broken.

The analysis of the system was not flawless. Obviously there were exceptions and gaps.

okay. Sun Ah-hyun’s characteristic ‘guts’, who ignored ‘status abnormalities’, was also an example.

‘Perhaps the system is making up for its own errors with individual ‘characteristics’.’

I guessed with a clear head.

Taking that into account, it wasn’t unusual.

Sejin Lee.

His traits were probably suppressed.

For Testa, in the past few years, there have been too many controversies and incidents that should be judged rationally rather than exerting momentum.

‘That’s why I couldn’t do what I wanted and endured it.’

That’s what happened properly in the wake of the ‘Eter Provocation’ incident this time.

The same was true of the characteristic of ignoring the limiting stat.

If there was only one guy on this team with that trait… that that is a big deal.

It wasn’t awkward at all.

‘… anyway.’

Well, let’s analyze the reasoning about the rest of the system a little later.

For now, it seemed like it wouldn’t hurt to enjoy the results of this contest.

I chuckled and turned off the phone screen.

Although the Internet judgment has not yet been released, the results in the field atmosphere were already clear.

that shout.

-Waaaaaaagh!!

Testa’s all-in gamble… succeded.

‘This is it.’

I tossed my smartphone aside and put my head on the head of the sofa.

I feel good and my strength has gone.

“and… Are you all awake?”

Lee Se-jin opened his mouth in a hazy voice as if he was feeling refreshed and exhausted.

Even though the energy was lost here and there, a clear response was heard that the mood was good.

‘I am.’

It was fun.

Those who decided to overturn everything they were planning to do three days ago and take a crazy gamble are all stretched out after the stage and are in a peaceful state.

Even Ryu Cheng-wu burst into a small laugh.

“hmm. I don’t know what to say, but I think people should live doing what they want to do.”

“… uh.”

Bae Se-jin, who was more pleased with Se-jin’s attitude change than anyone else and endured the crazy forced march for three days, answered with a mumble.

“Yep, I liked it too.”

“It was informative and satisfying… .”

The guy who greeted me excitedly and the guy who rather liked it when the second arrangement was adopted.

And finally, until the end of Seon Ah-hyun.

“Because I was told to do this… thank you sejin nice… .”

It was sincere thanks.

I jumped on it and nodded slightly.

“… … . Aye”

Keun Se-jin seemed to be trying to answer in a low voice, but he was silent for a moment as if his throat was choking.

Then he suddenly shouted in a lively voice.

“Um, shall we have a fight?”

“Uh… .”

“great… .”

Fighting that didn’t fit the timing came out with significance here and there. The staff passed by from all sides laughing.

‘It’s a good atmosphere… .’

I closed my eyes.

Then the guy on the other side called someone.

“Moondaemundae.”

why.

“I think I did a really good job with this.”

Big Sejin muttered as he lay down.

It was a voice full of satisfaction, as if drunk from a dream.

“just… Are you happy?”

“… … .”

OK.

I kicked him with my foot.

“Do it for the rest of your life.”

“… ! Of course~ Ah, don’t you know Testa Forever?”

He grinned as he lay down and raised his fist.

“Ah~ Testa showed me something today too!”

“Ohhhh!”

The waiting room of Ether.

It was the filming site where they finally gathered to announce the rankings after the main broadcast of the contest stage.

The structure was almost the same as Testa's waiting room, but the atmosphere was completely different.

A strange feeling of nervousness and bewilderment oppressed the air.

And even a little hum.

"Is this your intention again?"

"Really what… ."

I couldn't openly talk about it because of the previous leak, but I knew who the staff were talking about.

Testa!

The team, which overturned the stage after seeing the midterm evaluation, heard whispers from the officials at the time of the contest that it was clear that they had kept Ether in check.

“I didn’t know you could do that,” he said.

But the problem is… .

-Wow, this is a contest, so you did well.

And I could see how desperately he ran to do something better.

To a certain extent, at the time of the airing, there were hardly any discussions on the Internet about comparing it to Ether.

Even though there was already a controversy that ‘I changed it consciously’ because of spoilers from the audience.

When only the voice that Testa did well exploded in real time, the topic of ‘changed the stage by checking iter’ came out.

-There is a stage quality difference to say that it is checked …

-If Eter is a mid -term evaluation, who is the testa bamboo bread and the massacre

. Don’t be robbed

-Are you a Wonder Hall employee who was fired?

Because it happened like this.

no one was offended If the result is overwhelming, the middle process is bound to be glorified, and this story even contributes to the nature of the result.

-It’s been a few years since debut, but I’m exhausted -Ah, I’m really cool, so I have to be like this to be in the 1st group -ㅠㅠㅠㅠ Compared to Ajusa, not a single bit of poison has changed

. You won Ah, I have to admit that I won hahaha

The desperate attitude of being alive even after selling over a million albums!

Obsession with stage quality and desperate efforts!

Rather, it became a selling point as the stage preparation process was revealed.

-It seems like it will be difficult to change the generation of male idols.

First of all, it was clear that Eter was shot under the circumstances, so they eagerly encouraged the words of the aggro accounts to grind their teeth at Testa.

– Speaking of Testa, he copied all the gestures Ether showed during the midterm evaluation

-Honestly, it would have been controversial if it was like this during Azusa, but you pushed public opinion with your fans…

Phew, of course, there will be an explanation saying, 'It was written by Testa in the first place', but once the instigation was done, it was usually fortunate that the explanation was half effective.

First of all, it was more important to stir up controversy and put Ether on the topical board.

however.

-It doesn’t look like the same movement

. -Isn’t it just to suit the stage? I used too many gestures according to the concept haha

– I used all 50 thousand movements and expressions, but it was not possible to fit them together

– Oh, Testa’s poison came out~

– Even the gestures ;; Diss fun, the public immediately became forgiving when they fell in love with it on first impression.

I had a lot of fun watching the stage, but the comparison writing was ignored, saying not to wait, or rather, there were people who liked it saying that this kind of story was more fun.

It had the opposite effect by driving public opinion too hastily.

-These days, Jinsung matches are so much fun haha

It was a complete defeat.

So, the expression of the staff who heard all about this in the company was not bright.

Of course, the Ether parties, who were almost banned under the name of ‘voluntary self-restraint’ from internet monitoring, did not know about this news.

However, the atmosphere of the staff was already felt by everyone.

that you lost

“No, you did well. That’s the way it is and who would have thought? really… .”

“They would have done it later on purpose… .”

Shh.

One of the managers, who was trying to spread speculative curse words under the notice of other staff, shut his mouth.

But Ether’s leader had already listened to all these words.

‘… … .’

He sat quietly on the sofa, but his clenched fists trembled.

‘what’s this.’

It was unfair.

This was the time to hit and climb.

This time, it was an opportunity for the group members and staff to show their strength by overcoming adversity and finally producing results, encouraging each other.

“under… .”

“Hey, it’s okay, it’s okay.”

The members flirting with each other had resignation on their faces as if they had already seen the results.

‘… This isn’t it.’

My stomach was boiling. I felt like crying.

-Thank you for your hard work~

It was even more so when I remembered Testa leaving the filming set after saying hello casually as if he was cool.

How can they make a stage and not change their complexion as if they were holding themselves in check?

From then on, it seemed like he was suffering from psychological aftereffects.

"… wait a minute."

The leader rose from his seat.

I couldn't splash water on my face, so I wanted to cool my feelings on the cool emergency exit stairs.

And it was when I went out in front of the waiting room door.

I saw a tall figure pulling out a drink from the vending machine right next to me.

A man in slacks who raises himself upright.

"… ah."

It was Testa Sun Ah-hyun.

And the Ether Leader realized after a few seconds that he had been staring at the opponent's face without saying hello.

"Oh me."

"… I'm really sorry! I'm thinking of something else… . Senior, I'll pass by."

After speaking so loudly, the Ether leader gnashed his teeth, turned around and tried to walk again.

He had made a firm promise that he would not show a downcast appearance.

But soon a gentle hand hit my back.

“Wait a minute.”

“… … .”

However, since he was a senior, the leader of Ether finally turned his head to keep his manners.

And saw.

“… !!”

What Seon Ah-hyun held in one hand was a drink from a vending machine.

But on the other hand… It was a small note.

I saw the words written on the blue cover.

< Exercise >

… It was his own handwriting.

It’s you… Appreciation, analysis, and ideas for application that I wrote down while watching Testa’s music video and notes.

It was his own note.

“… … .”

when did you drop it?

“this… The one Ether member left at the filming set last time… Right?”

The Ether leader suddenly froze, as if his heart had fallen.

Chapter 538

If you can’t debut, you’ll die of illness Episode 538

The practice notes of Noah, the leader of Eter.

It was made by analyzing his senior’s music video several times while he split his sleeping time.

-I’ve been distributing them so that they match as much as possible according to the positions of our members.

-As expected, brother!

The memories of being proud among the members who admired him for being great were clear.

And sincere praise from the staff at the mid-term evaluation, and even the expression of the people at the company who became brighter after the pre-release video.

Thanks to the good feedback, up to the few days I spent practicing without worrying.

However, a few days later, the main broadcaster contest stage.

[Waah Aak!]

[Did you just see?]

Testa turned over all the choreography and arrangements shown during the intermediate evaluation and brought a strong stage.

As if he had sniped Ether.

And the leader of Ether was as shocked as the satisfaction and confidence he felt while performing on stage right before.

For the next few days, only afterimages of that stage, regret, resentment, and sadness were swirling in my head.

I managed to manage my schedule, but when the camera wasn't rolling, I forgot all the trivial things that I usually take care of.

Among them… There were also those practice notes.

It had already served its purpose and was no longer needed.

"… … ."

And now it was in the hands of a senior Testa member who was the party to the analysis.

While asking himself, 'Isn't this the Ether member's?

A situation I never imagined.

It felt like my blood was running cold.

'What should I do?'

Did you look inside the note? No, there was nothing to ask. You will definitely see it. After confirming the contents, they concluded that it belonged to Ether.

My hair went white.

Noir desperately tried to think of something, but before that, the words came out of her mouth reflexively.

"I am… I don't know."

I was scared.

I couldn't come up with a way to deal with it, so I started denying it out of nervousness.

"I don't think it's our member notes."

"… … ."

Opponent Seon Ah-hyun did not answer. I just calmly held my notebook and stared at it.

And Noir realized that she had said something out of the ordinary.

It's not ether!

Didn't that senior give me a reason to casually show that notebook to others and ask, "Is it yours?"

And if someone else sees… therefore.

'ah… … .'

A cold sweat ran down my back.

Unbelievable that this had suddenly happened, he stood there frozen.

There was no sense of reality.

'Is it a nightmare?'

It was time to think so.

"is it so… . Then could you possibly find the owner? On our side… It seems like there is no owner."

Noah stopped breathing for a moment.

At the sound that could doubt his ears, he wondered if he had heard it wrong.

“Here you go.”

However, Seon Ah-hyun stretched out a hand and held out a note to herself.

“… … .”

There was no need to present the item to a junior who said, ‘I don’t know’ or ‘It’s not ours’ to find the owner.

Noah knew it instinctively.

‘I know.’

The fact that this note is yours.

that you are lying.

It was an action that could not have been done if Seon Ah-hyun was not convinced.

However, he couldn’t miss this opportunity like a rope that came down from the sky, so he hurriedly nodded his head and stretched out his hands.

“yes… !”

It was only at the moment when I grabbed the note and accepted it that the dizzying fear faded and a sense of relief permeated.

‘ah.’

He gripped the notebook tightly. My heart slowed as if it had been ten years.

Testa Seon Ah-hyun didn’t say anything even while watching it.

He just nodded slightly with a calm expression, and soon turned around and walked down the hallway with a drink in hand.

“… … .”

Only then did the leader of Ether begin to feel emotions and thoughts other than relief.

It was just shame.

About how you would appear to others… … .

‘Oh no.’

He abruptly stopped thinking.

This was all due to the peculiarities of the situation.

Isn’t it natural for idols to work hard to analyze the performance of competitors and seniors?

‘That’s right, of course… The situation is strange.’

It was because the staff of Ether were in trouble with gossip and controversies about keeping Testa in check.

At this time, if Testa suddenly sees Ether’s notes in which they studied their gestures, they are embarrassed that they might misunderstand them.

‘I didn’t deliberately only study Testa’s gestures.’

I didn’t have time, so I quickly analyzed the idols who were my current competitors. They were just trying to work hard, Ether thought.

It wasn’t that I was trying to embarrass myself.

However, in the situation, it could look that way to the other person, so I was embarrassed like this.

because… … .

-Because Testa senior doesn’t know my situation.

“… … .”

However, at that moment, the leader of Ether realized a sense of incongruity in the completed sentence.

Senior Testa wasn’t the only one who didn’t know about his situation.

‘… It must have looked that way to anyone.’

If you show the note to anyone who isn’t affiliated with Ether, you’ll get a similar reaction.

‘Iter persistently followed Testa’s gesture’… Called.

Because that is the result.

‘The exception is me.’

He was only looking at himself generously.

Because I know all my regrets and circumstances.

‘Because it’s my job… .’

The moment I realized that, it felt like a cold air rushed through my head, as if a protective barrier had been broken.

“… … .”

With trembling hands, Noah put her notebook into her bosom as if to cover it.

It felt like waking up from a dream.

‘I see.’

Everyone has circumstances.

However, since I know all about my situation, I only show a particularly warm attitude towards myself.

And it's usually called self-justification.

If you remove this self-justification and think that everything is someone else's business… .

'… It was a shame.'

Also, I would have thought that a senior who did not express himself and treated him politely to a junior who copied him without permission was a much better person.

"… … ."

He thought of Seon Ah-hyun, who silently handed over the notebook to him, and Se-jin Lee, who gently responded to his ulterior motives.

In fact, in all of that, he realized that he wanted to find evidence that his predecessors were bad people.

'Because it makes me feel better… .'

It's comfortable for me that I and the people who take care of me are good people and the people who get in my way are bad people.

It's still hard, but it's so hard to blame my company for not being able to do anything about it.

It was unconsciously ignored.

"… … ."

The leader of Ether slowly left the corridor and started to return to the waiting room.

My head was cold enough.

and that day.

3.1. Testa Reference Controversy (7)

_____==

After the filming was over, he used a laptop secretly brought into the dorm to evaluate the case of Eter for the first time by the public. I started looking for accidents.

I tried not to look for indiscreet profanity.

However, just looking at the articles that people have organized has already given me a big psychological shock.

-… A variety of materials came out, including composition, props, and choreography, and the opinion that ‘cases only come from Testa as a reference’ (9) spread around the entertainment community… … .

“… … .”

From the debut album, if you are going through the photo data that you have already imitated Testa, you will have tears in your nose.

I kind of wanted to run away.

‘Maybe these people got it wrong?’

However, he tried to dispel that thought and tried to view the data as objectively as possible.

However, the more this happened, the more it seemed that Ether was the wrong group from the beginning of the planning stage.

‘Is that so?’

As an idol, he felt like everything was wrong, so he even felt the urge to retire.

Then I found it.

It was data captured from a fan's SNS post.

– It seems that Ether rarely participates in producing, but this problem needs to be fixed at the level of the company's planning team

.

'ah.'

Fans also did not think of the company and themselves on the same line.

There was a title there.

-Companies and idols are not the same.

"… … ."

He wiped away his tears and concluded.

First of all, let's reflect on our mistakes and correct them.

And the company's faults didn't require me to defend or get overly obsessed with them.

It was okay to have opposing opinions.

'Because I'm not the company.'

My heart felt colder.

widely.

He closed the laptop after finishing the egosearch filled with growing pains.

And I remembered the announcement of the contest results that I filmed today.

-1st place… This is Testa!

-and!

Applause and happiness had made Testa's seat an uproar.

And Ether finished third.

It didn't buy sympathy because it didn't fail, and it wasn't a ranking that was great enough to attract attention.

The company failed to meet expectations and the group failed to achieve its goals.

Nothing turned out the way we wanted… .

However, Noah was no longer unfair.

* * *

-Senior, thank you for kind words until the end even though I have caused a lot of trouble. If I can see you next time, I want to meet you as a more mature person… .

"Is this from Ether?"

"Yes."

Sun Ah-hyun nodded. For reference, what this guy gave me was not a KakaoTalk message or a message, but a handwritten note.

They probably chose this method because they weren't close enough to exchange numbers. Even though I asked the manager to let me know, the relationship between the staff is so bad.

'hmm.'

I skimmed through the text he sent again.

To sum it up, it would be an apology and an oath to prevent a recurrence.

“It was given to me, but in fact… I think I gave it to our group.”

“okay?”

I couldn’t agree much, but Seon Ah-hyun nodded with a slight smile.

“Yes. In the first place… It’s because I found the note.”

um that’s right

Actually, I was the one who found the note on the set a few days ago.

-… ? that.

‘I observed the staff’s movements and saw them leave it on a chair.’

And the moment I checked the contents of the note… .

-Are you leaving this?

I thought it was a crazy jackpot.

A number of appropriate disclosure methods that could shake the game immediately came to mind… .

‘I didn’t use it.’

uh. Abandoned. The reason is simple.

It was because Testa was persuaded by Big Sejin and went all-in to gamble on stage.

It was a bit like me to increase the number of variables here.

‘Because if I step on the Wonder Hall like a dog, I don’t know what will pop out with the balloon effect.’

As he was so big, he didn’t know what kind of sudden thing would happen as the sparks flew.

Unlike Wonder Hall, which has been in the industry for decades and has hundreds of employees, we’re still a small startup, so we don’t have staff to take care of everything. so i bought some

It can be seen that he chose a detour politically.

I smiled as I put the letter from the leader of Ether on the table.

‘what… In fact, when it explodes, it’s not as efficient because it’s an Eter member rather than Wonder Hall.’

The company had to be destroyed, and even if I tried to destroy that irregular worker who was one with the company, it only left a dirty aftertaste.

And the note assigned to him according to Seon Ah-hyun’s insistence… It seems to have had a pretty good effect.

‘A conscience attack works.’

Also, a child is a child. I won’t be bothered for a while now.

“Good job.”

“Oh no.”

Seon Ah-hyun looked back at the letter with a pretty happy face, perhaps not feeling too bad.

‘It ended so neatly.’

I thought cool.

However, the person in charge of Wonder Hall contacted me a few days later… .

[Oh, I heard you won first place. Congratulations, Testa!]

It was Ha Ji-tae from T-Holic.

However, this attribute of being a ‘Wonder Hall official’ was now limited.

“… T-Holic seniors also congratulate you on your independence.”

[haha! No, how could the conditions be right so that we only became bosses together? What?]

That’s right.

These guys were planning to become independent soon after putting a sign on their own as the president.

But do you know why he was able to feed so much candy to the large wonder hall while barely independent?

Of course, because there was a corner to believe.

[So I think we’ll have a lot to do with our faces?]

“… … Yes.”

That statement is not polite… It’s a very plain truth.

‘Damn it.’

Surprisingly, T-Holic guys also ate shares from LeTi just like us.

They didn’t even bother to hide it. He hit the article.

‘Anyway, right now, the position doesn’t overlap with VTIC.’

T-Holic is a popular entertainment idol whose heyday as a performer has already passed.

In this case, T-Holic fans would prefer to know that a large agency's organizational power and capital have been invested rather than worrying about being scattered due to individual activities.

Yes, but… look at this shit

'Suddenly, the genealogy of male idols who received the Daesang is all on the same line.'

Seniors and juniors tied up with capital.

That's how this crazy board was made… .

[I'm sure a lot of the juniors at Testa's Orbit are going to see it~ Ah, this time, we really can all get together like this and do something like a sports day? How is it?]

The offer is terrible, so stop it.

"Wouldn't it be difficult to fit the schedule?"

[Ah, of course, we old people have to match the young and busy testa's schedule!]

Fortunately, the guy who was giggling as if he had a sense of humor soon turned back to saying good things.

[Ah, he said he was very busy this time too. It's proof that everything is going well, so enjoy it. This album is also a hit!]

"… thank you."

This was a plain truth.

Aggro and Testa, which appeared at awards shows in the U.S., attracted overseas inflows through synergy with internet memes planted in the English-speaking world.

Thanks to this album activity and Bae Se-jin's acting activities in the past, System's company rating has been smoothly rising.

'I just need to pull a little more to prove my weight class.'

What is it?

[Let's go on tour now?]

"Yes."

Yes. It's a concert tour.

From ancient times, there is nothing better than the number of seats to bet on an article with overseas status.

'It's a standard way.'

And, of course, we have placed our own content one by one for each hiatus caused by the tour so far.

There was no exception this time either. [Testa's great battle to travel by selling hotteok…

Do

you remember?

However, there was a slight difference.

[But now it's the opposite]

Chapter 539

If you can't debut, you'll get sick to death Episode 539

As I said last time, there's a reason why I couldn't use the production team recently, who did variety shows with Testa, from selling hotteok to carrot coins.

That PD was a T1 affiliate line.

In the first place, that's why I met often with Testa, who had been listening to T1's son since his debut.

It is a story that contact was difficult after Testa became independent.

'What would an office worker do?'

So, Testa's occult entertainment last time saved someone else.

It was Ryu Seo-rin, who was a writer of < Azusa > but was expelled from T1. I collaborated with the author… Interestingly, there was a butterfly effect caused by the incident.

It is the fact that writer Ryu Seo-rin has been building a career by launching a very successful variety show since then.

The writer, who moved to a studio close to Netplus with Testa's own content as an opportunity, was on a winning streak as the main writer of entertainment for promoting drama films.

I also made good use of my personal network with Bae Se-jin, so the cast of < Doll Hunter > appeared on that variety show.

-… I don’t think I’m a very nice person, but I can’t be in debt.

That was right.

And Bae Se-jin certified ‘I can’t trust personality’ Ryu Seo-rin exerts a good influence that she could not have expected at all.

The affiliated PDs who were dissatisfied with T1 gained courage after seeing this case, and a few people even escaped to independent studios.

-everyone! I resigned hahaha!

… There was quite a bit of this PD… That’s it.

At the same time, he put in a fastball to do entertainment with the madness unique to an office worker who left the company.

Of course, we wondered what kind of rice cake it was.

“let’s do it. please do it.”

“Do you want to take a picture of Munge too?”

It’s already been half a year since we lost each other with T1. The passion of the testers for fun entertainment that they hadn’t been able to film and skipped over was burning… .

“ha ha ha! i look forward to!”

So, once again, collaboration was established.

“We really appreciate you. I believe that PD-nim will make it well as always.”

“That’s right. Ai, shouldn’t people originally do what they are good at!”

It was to the point that this extraordinary PD was overwhelmed by the momentum of Ryu Cheng-wu shaking hands.

“The emotion at that time is the same! I’ll do my best.”

Seeing her smiling though, she seemed to be full of confidence… .

“Is it okay if I make a suggestion?”

“yes? oh yes do!”

“Of course, the sensibility of the entertainment we filmed before was good, but I was afraid that if we continued to do the same, there would be many people who would predict the content.”

It would be embarrassing if, when leaving the company, he chose the no-jam option saying that he would use up his spirit and go safely this time.

PD simply replied.

“Ah, only the emotions are the same.”

“… … ??”

“The content is the opposite!”

Cheer up.

And Testa came across the production team’s unexpectedly flashy PPT.

[Testa’s Lonely Gourmet Journey]

Doo-dung!

Together with the working title, a dazzling rainbow color dominated the meeting room. It’s a composition that I’ve seen a lot where it’s full of good words and emoticons.

‘… KakaoTalk pictures of the elderly.’

The members were thrown into confusion.

The atmosphere where only Raebin Kim earnestly shines his eyes and looks at the PPT with excitement.

[You don’t have to bake hotteok anymore!]

[Let’s earn money to buy delicious food!]

“Money… Do you earn?”

“Everyone has a job~”

[Testa’s activities~ I support you ^^]

[Idols, let’s work as idols!]

“… … .”

wait for a sec.

I can’t believe I bought something delicious with the money I earned from the tour… I’m not saying that only idols should do a variety show that heals them.

In fact, you’re going to get scolded for calling it a special feature on the deceiver, not healing.

“Oh, of course, except for the money you earn when the camera isn’t running!”

yes.

“Only the money you make is counted while our cameraman is watching!”

Fortunately, PD persevered.

But if so… How the hell did you make money doing ‘idol work’?

“omg! Are you coming to our concert?”

“Oh, that can’t be~”

From there, the PPT started again.

A composition in which idols make money while being idols and spend all of their money on food.

Here, what is the way for idols to do their main job like a short-term part-time job while traveling?

[Let’s perform!]

[Where? At the destination!]

[☆Testa’s street performance☆]

That’s busking.

“… … .”

In a foreign country while on tour, ‘Is the busking singer with crazy skills who suddenly appeared is actually a KPOP superstar?’ Meta hiding the same power!

Aiming for Gukppong MAX!

The ambition to properly pull aggro in PPT was roaring.

“Because everyone loves their work, anywhere! under any condition! Can you use your 100% skills?”

[Good job Testa, fighting!]

“… … .”

“… … .”

There was an indescribable silence for a moment in the conference room.

But there was no retreat.

“Couldn’t it be that you can’t perform unless it’s on a big stage? I don’t have the confidence to make money with my skills alone?”

“I absolutely do not!”

At Rabin Kim’s voluntary tax payment, PD laughed. Are you good?

“great!”

Beside him, Bae Se-jin covered his face. seems to have given up

… And all of this was filmed, and it was uploaded as a pre-release video with titles such as ‘Testa’s shocking reaction that I have never seen anywhere else’.

‘Somehow, there were only PDs in the conference room.’

should have expected… .

Time passes like that.

The day we left for the Gearco tour, and the production team followed us carrying things around and took us to the streets.

-But from the perspective of the fans, I bought a ticket and went to the concert, but with a difference of a day or two, someone would be sad to see it on the street for free.

-Then you don’t have to show it!

-… ??

I wasn’t all right now.

I’m wearing a penalty costume that I (forced) chose through a mini game… .

‘It’s awesome.’

Just Rudolph.

It wasn’t even a doll mask, it was made up.

“… … .”

I looked at my hoof-gloved hand, feeling the red nose dripping from my nose.

‘Even if I look at it, I gave money.’

I would have given the money even if I sympathized with the guy who did this.

The luminous light came from the stupidly attached nose, and it shimmered. I picked up the mic.

And carols singing passionately.

[Oh~! baby You and me~ on a Snowy Christmas!]

Santa performed a breaking dance next to me. Cha Yoo-jin is a barefoot Australian-style Santa.

warm end of the year.

I never imagined that the day would come when I would be able to do this on the streets of a foreign country.

* * *

< Testa's Lonely Gourmet Journey > was launched with its extraordinary tentative title.

And from the pre-release video, explosive reactions were drawn.

-The production crew

, these crazy people -I waited for this taste.

-It would be hard to concentrate on the kids tour stage, so do you have a street performance again?;;

– I don’t know if it should be like this

– What’s the difference between an angler bee?

Doesn’t it hurt the pride of a singer who is the target singer in Korea to earn some change by being recognized somehow while performing on the street in another country?

However, in the official trailer released one after another, all these worries were blown away.

[♬Call me Santa Claus~]

In the snowy plaza on the screen, a snowman harmonized with Rudolph and gift boxes happily running around.

In line with Carol.

-Crazy

_

_

Testa’s makeup show, which presents a splendid street performance with the soul blown away, is already an amusement park parade rather than a busking… .

In addition, the seasoned appearance of raising the atmosphere with a Christmas carol, which is the easiest way to cheer up at the end of the year, somehow reminded me of part-timers at an opening event.

-Somehow, there was no

eyewitness

story

. There was even a scene in which people were misunderstood as “Bread” and received bread. At this point, even skeptics couldn’t hold back their laughter any longer.

-I lost.

-Hey, you look happy?

-This isn’t an idol stage, it’s a new job experience.

Besides, it doesn’t just end here, it’s supplemented.

Testa did not make money by busking in this variety show, but received a busking mission from the production team and received pocket money if he succeeded.

And to the neat finish of donating all the money I received.

[Testa who worked hard]

[Healing as well… .]

Of course, the mukbang was not missed.

The scenes of them visiting various restaurants in the city where they went on tour and even taking on the challenge menu were reflected on the screen as cuts changed quickly.

In addition, it was quite a fruitful composition to work, eat, and listen to various stories about the destination from the people in the middle of the trip.

Of course, I also encountered a singularity.

[Pedestrian: Thank you for joining our protest! It was a great strength!]

[Lee Se-jin: … … ?!]

[Social activity started without my knowledge]

There was no other sitcom where the members, who had almost been authenticated, screamed at the production team and hurriedly ran away with instruments.

[Bae Se-jin: You can hear what kind of protest it is!]

[Lee Se-jin: Hyung, we're foreigners on our trip!]

-ㅅㄴㅋㅋㅋㅋㅋㅋㅋㅋ

-That's what

you said in the soolbang variety show

. Are you crazy?
Hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha
hahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahahaha

also passed by the image of Testa just looking at the menu in front of a restaurant without money, as if the mission had failed;

[Cha Yu-jin: I want to eat this!]

[Bae Se-jin: (Looking at the wallet, dizzying his pupils)]

[Seon Ah-hyun: (a person who is not familiar with this situation)]

And even a clear answer.

[Lee Se-jin: Let’s ask Moon-dae to do it~]

[Park Moon-dae: (Me?)]

[Ryu Cheong-woo: Yes, let’s give Mun-dae money.]

Park Moon-dae’s stunned expression slowly closes up.

[Park Moon-dae: … … .]

[Park Moon-dae: ($$ hired as a cook$$)]

-Ahhhhhhhhhh -I

gave up

-Please take care of the minimum

Still, even that seemed romantic in its own way.

[Cha Yoo-jin: Oh oh oh!]

A foreign beach after the sun has set.

It was friendly to see the members laughing and chatting while holding a Cuban sandwich made by Park Moon-dae in their mouths and drinking cheap soda.

Even Park Mun-dae laughed and lay down on the sandy beach.

On top of that, all kinds of famous restaurants and makeup cuts of Testa passed by.

[Full of laughter, adversity, and healing.]

[Not lonely at all]

[Let’s go with you now~]

The trailer ended with Testa waving at the self-camera.

-I like it

-It must be fun

-I want to see it soon ㅠㅠ

-Yes, this is travel entertainment.. They say it’s fun when there is an unexpected situation ㄴBut what if there is a production team that creates that unexpected situation?

ㄴHa ha ha ha ha ha

It seemed like a dynamic variety show would come after a long time!

People posted friendly comments and created a good atmosphere.

-I was a bit of a maniac last time,

but I

this one.

A good business video was always welcome.

In addition, Testa in the video also looked happy even though she suffered a little, so she didn’t feel uncomfortable!

-Are you still filming? Today is just a rainy day between concerts

Fans happily speculated and chatted about what interesting things Testa was up to now.

and the same time.

“Ki way… I feel lost.”

Park Moon-dae and Seon Ah-hyun were isolated in the middle of Spain.

Chapter 540

If you can't debut, you'll die from an illness Episode 540

This is an alley in Barcelona, Spain.

Kyahaha!

It is a foreign landscape full of the sound of children running around and adults walking around busily.

And we got lost

"… … ."

"… … ."

embarrassing? me too.

why… Why did Seon Ah-hyun and I suddenly stand in the middle of Spain?

To tell you this story, I have to tell you about when I just arrived in Spain.

– Ohhh! Barcelona is a really nice city… .

– We have to eat churros!

-… … .

So, under Cha Yoo-jin's strong insistence, I tried to go to some kind of churros restaurant… .

-… … where did he go

-Cha Yujin!!

Cha Yoo-jin suddenly evaporated from the alley, and we parted ways with the production crew as panicked people ran around.

‘What is all this happening?’

To think that we were also vaporized while trying to find Cha Yu-jin. I ended up messing with my hair.

It was the first missing child situation in decades after growing hair.

Of course, they are two grown adults, so there is no reason not to be calm. I calmly opened my mouth.

“first… take a taxi.”

And I realized

‘I can’t ride.’

I do not have money.

Right now, the budget for the entertainment concept is being held by the production team, and we spend pocket money on busking missions.

And even that allowance was divided into operating funds, Ryu Cheong-woo’s emergency fund, and Bae Se-jin.

That means for us… .

“… You can ride the bus once.”

“… … That’s right.”

There was only so much cash left.

‘I can’t use the smartphone pay service because it’s overseas.’

wait for a sec.

I put my hand in my pocket and realized the fatal fact that I didn't even have a smartphone in the first place.

This is because I entrusted it to the manager so that I wouldn't be caught wearing it during filming.

And Seon Ah-hyun didn't use her smartphone much in the first place and kept it in her bag.

"… … ."

So now… Two foreigners landed without money in a foreign country where they couldn't communicate.

'driving me crazy.'

The moment you change buses, you have to contact the embassy because you don't have a single penny.

Seon Ah-hyun must have realized the situation, and her face turned white, and she jumped up.

"I tell others… Let me tell you… !"

"for a moment."

What kind of confidence does this guy have when he can only speak English and French?

Of course, if you use English words and make gestures, it will work to some extent, but then it will attract attention… .

'It's difficult if there is a communication misunderstanding.'

We must not forget that we are celebrities. I don't know what kind of controversy will arise after being guided to the wrong place… .

So let’s think of a simpler way than that.

A simple missing child rule.

“Let’s sit down and talk.”

Just waiting for the couple. so as not to be confused.

“Yes… .”

I just sat down on a nearby bench in an alley next to the plaza here. Seon Ah-hyun followed suit and quickly sat down next to him.

So, I felt a little calmer.

‘It’s been a while.’

It seemed like it had been years since I had sat leisurely watching people in a bright daylight in an open space outside.

Even though I’m doing this because I’m lost.

‘Not bad.’

I kept my mouth shut and looked at the plaza.

“I don’t think it’s been a while since I’ve been walking around outdoors like this… .”

Sun Ah-hyun’s face also softened.

However, as if he realized something soon, he quickly added to it in a panic.

“Of course, I am grateful and happy to be able to work hard, but… !”

“yes.”

just… Well, sometimes it’s not a bad thing to enjoy something like this.

When I nodded, Seon Ah-hyun seemed a little relieved, and the atmosphere went back to people-watching.

‘hmm.’

Come to think of it, there were things that came to mind when the story of the activity came out.

“Seon Ah-hyun.”

“Yes.”

“Do you have any desire to do it solo?”

I thought Sun Ah-hyun was jumping off the bench.

“My me… ?!”

“uh.”

Even if he delayed his enlistment as much as possible with the Order of Cultural Merit to manage his heyday, he could not stop enlisting in the military itself.

‘The one who goes must go.’

It is a choice with no other option if you want to maintain public opinion in Korea.

Then, naturally, around that time, it would be efficient to do a solo or unit back and forth.

It was a reality that would come in a few years.

However, looking at Seon Ah-hyun’s reaction, it seemed that this guy had never thought of going solo until now.

The boy seemed to be deep in thought, but then shook his head seriously.

“I still work with the members… better.”

“I see.”

“huh.”

I don’t know if I’m fainting when I know that Kim Rae-bin has already picked out the demo version of Sun Ah-hyun’s solo song.

‘To lower the entry barrier, this guy should start with a unit.’

I smiled and nodded.

“I am also more willing to work in a team.”

“… huh!”

Seon Ah-hyun nodded her head happily.

Even though the last team activity was dressing up as a Christmas tree on the street and selling stamps… .

It was even B-class makeup.

The jingling light bulbs sang a cappella carols, far from sacred, like a gimmick to sell stamps.

It was miserable.

‘… All of a sudden, we all lose in the mini-game.’

7 people… No, 7 sparkling moving trees were so amazing that there were more people watching than ever before.

For reference, the mission given by the production team was ‘to be cheered by more than 3 children’, and after a desperate argument that all minors were children, Testa was treated as a success.

-If you are not an adult, you are all children! for a moment. No way, PD-nim, you say that minors are adults… ?

– No, you drive it like this.

The idea to buy churros was passed without difficulty because of the food money earned.

‘Cha Yoo-jin… .’

I twitched my eyebrows.

I don’t know why he ran out, but anyway, if he gets caught, he’ll live on a healthy, low-salt diet throughout the tour, from the moment the camera turns off.

‘Eat late night snacks only in your dreams.’

And even after we evaporated, I was a bit worried about what the members and production crew would be doing, but when I looked at the list of remaining members, they looked okay.

‘Only the calm ones remain.’

They were the ones to find us.

I straightened my legs and leaned back on the bench.

In fact, the weather in December is cold and lost.

It was a gourmet trip, and at least I didn’t have any snacks in my hand, but I really didn’t feel too bad.

‘Is it because I put on a lot of strange makeup?’

In comparison, this was a fairy.

How long have you been sitting like that?

“Guys!”

“… !!”

I heard a familiar Korean.

As I turned my head, In-young came running from far away and waved at me.

“brother… !”

It was Ryu Cheng-wu.

The rare breathless guy jumped this way in one step.

“Are you both okay?”

“yes.”

“yes!”

Staying where you are is the correct answer. It was the end of the situation.

I was willing to get up from the bench and greet him.

however… .

“But what about other people?”

“ah.”

… ‘ah’?

When I looked into his face at the ominous sound, Liu Cheng-wu looked around and smiled shyly.

“I was looking for you… It seems to have fallen.”

“… !!”

“Well then… .”

It was just before the sound of Mia +1 came out of Seon Ah-hyun’s mouth.

I held back a sigh.

‘Still, three would be better than two.’

Even this guy has the most important thing.

money.

“… But thanks to you, I can take a taxi or whatever. If the crew can’t find us.”

“Yeah, that will do. Previously… .”

Liu Qingyu smiled.

“After you eat something. You’ve been in the cold for a long time.”

“ah… .”

Seon Ah-hyun was moved, but at that moment, an idea struck me in my head.

‘Anything to eat?’

wait for a sec.

I wonder if Cha Yujin’s destination is… .

* * *

Next to the square.

“Gracias!”

Churros restaurant.

Standing in front of a store that smelled like cinnamon, I nodded.

“I think he will come here.”

Unlike us, Yoojin Cha, who is a native of Spanish, will find her way.

So, even if you don’t know what it is, there is a high probability that you will naturally go to your original destination after achieving the purpose that jumped out.

“Good guess. It’s just right for you to eat.”

“hmm.”

It’s better to be on the street so that people who will be looking for us can witness us. This is better than the food that goes inside.

I nodded slightly, and Liu Cheng-wu smiled as he approached the store.

Come to think of it, I don’t wear that guy’s coat in this weather.

“Aren’t you cold?”

“are you okay. I also ran a little bit.”

The guy, who responded lightly, took out a bill from a lucky bag that had the word “allowance” written on it that the production team had given him.

and placing an order.

“Esto por favor.”

“… !!”

Surprisingly, Liu Cheng-wu spoke Spanish.

‘What.’

He seemed embarrassed to say that he felt his gaze.

“I’m not good at it, but I remember learning a little bit before.”

“… … .”

It must mean the steer days.

“It helps a lot like this.”

The guy who said that smiled bitterly as if it was new.

It seemed that the strange rejection of ‘Steer’s self’ that he felt before had subsided quite a bit from the guy who seemed to be reminiscing about that time.

He even opened his mouth again while waiting to receive the churros.

“… Come to think of it, there were times when Yujinie would leave without saying a word.”

It seemed to have suddenly come to mind, overlapping with the situation now that the guy had evaporated.

“… … It must have been because it was difficult.”

At that moment, Seon Ah-hyun answered.

“But now Eugene… If it’s difficult, I think I’ll tell you directly.”

“… !”

Liu Qingyu was surprised for a moment, but then smiled.

“that’s right. Right now, I don’t think I will suddenly leave.”

It was a pleasantly stable response.

Sun Ah-hyun also quickly smiled and nodded.

The trust in the group and its members, which have been running well for several years, was felt in the conversation.

I feel embarrassed for giving Cha Yu-jin a low-salt meal.

“Mundae also thinks so… ?”

“okay.”

I leaned against the wall lightly.

what… If you look at it with a slightly generous attitude, you could think that Cha Yu-jin must have had a reason for doing so.

And you can go a little further and think about his future.

“In that sense, I mean. It happened during filming, so the production crew must be filming… .”

Let’s see, if this is filmed and goes out… .

-Cha Yoo-jin is the type I really don’t want to see in a group life.

-Ah, I’m already pissed off

-Yeah Cha Yujin If you’re going to keep doing unexpected things, cancel the contract renewal (Hands together emoticon)

It’s hell.

“Let’s do something that never happened.”

“okay.”

Both Ryu Cheng-wu and Seon Ah-hyeon quickly nodded their heads without objection.

So, on the premise that the filming was discarded, we enjoyed snacking time in the alley, each holding a hot churros.

And around the time I ate half of the churros.

“Ohhhh!!”

“hey!”

Surprisingly, at the corner of the alley, Cha Yoo-jin appeared as if he had smelled it.

My predicted shot was correct.

‘at las.’

First of all, I have to tell you to stop thinking about eating churros.

However, the moment I focused my gaze, I realized that Cha Yoo-jin’s appearance was different from when we broke up.

The guy, whose head and face were all dirty, was holding even a bunch of reddish-black hair.

‘what.’

Cha Yoo-jin fixed what was in her arms and hugged her.

that… it was a cat

“There’s a fire over there! I rescued that cat.”

“… ?!”

and behind the alley.

Among the production crew and members who were panting and chasing after Cha Yu-jin, Bae Se-jin pointed a finger at him.

“… … He saw the building on fire and ran… … .”

“… … .”

[My baby! Thank you so much!]

… So Yoo-jin Cha received the cat’s owner’s thanks and ate the free churros.

The guy achieved a flagship performance that was published in the local newspaper with titles such as ‘Christmas Tree that Saved Cats’, and all these events were successfully organized into entertainment programs as episodes.

[Testa Tiger rescues a cat on the way to a restaurant… | < Testa's Lonely Gourmet Journey > EP. 4]

Less than an hour after the video was uploaded, the funny part was captured and the summary was circulated on social media and communities.

It is obvious, but it is a dramatic episode that is difficult to construct on purpose, so the degree of attention jumped out.

Taking advantage of that attention, the article about the sneak tour sold out is also the right timing.

[Company Grade (B+) → Company Grade (A-)]

Successful promotion!

Finally, the company’s rating went up.

And what this meant was simple.

Chapter 541

Episode 541

Shin Jae-hyun raised his head.

The scenery of the snowy DMZ was very beautiful whether or not there were unexploded bombs hidden underneath.

However, it was rarer than expected for him to serve outdoors against the backdrop of the scenery. Because he was assigned to the command and control room.

Originally, it seems that he intended to entrust the Panmunjom guidance work as a special job, but Cheong-rye speculated that it seems to have been excluded for the same reason ‘because of possible incidents and accidents’.

And, perhaps in a few decades, a calm and regular day passed.

It was unusual.

In fact, people think show business is very dynamic and fresh every day, but humans are creatures of habit.

Especially for those who do the same thing over and over again and have everything manualized.

In that sense, the docile Haru, who had nothing to control and squeeze, did not fit well with Cheongryeo’s thinking structure.

Still, this daily life was quite interesting. Except for the downside of not being able to be with your dog.

And it wasn’t long before that need was satisfied to some extent.

“Hello, senior.”

A guest has arrived.

With the news of my dog Kongi.

He smiled as he faced Moondae Park walking towards him with a shy face.

* * *

“Long time no see.”

I looked at the person who came to meet me and was silent for a moment.

I expected it, but it was the first time I had received permission to enter and exit so loudly.

‘In the first place, it’s almost the first time I’ve come to visit someone.’

Even this neighborhood only received visits on Sundays, so I almost grinded my teeth trying to keep up with the schedule.

“You must have had a hard time coming.”

“no.”

I’m like a private in the way I speak. Even the guy invited me kindly.

“Even sightseeing?”

“it’s okay.”

I’m not interested in the tour of the JSA museum that this guy guides me through. I didn’t recommend it again because I just said it.

We just walked slowly through a quiet space and entered an equally quiet room.

“sit down please.”

It was a space that was often used for meeting. However, there were no other visitors at the table other than me.

“It’s a place with few people.”

“yes.”

If there are a lot of civilians on the armistice line, that’s strange too.

I sat down and took out what I had prepared.

“Take it.”

It was a paw stamp with dog footprints engraved on it.

What is that guy’s pet dog… Anyway, it seems that it was made while doing outdoor activities with clay, but it was not a prohibited item anyway.

The guy’s expression softened slightly.

“thank you.”

Picking up a small ornament in the shape of a disk with hardened dog tracks, the guy swept across the surface quite gently.

“… … .”

I don’t think I did anything bad.

However, I did not come simply to show the condition of Cheongryeo dog’s paws. It doesn’t matter if you just text it.

But before we get into the main topic, let’s talk about something that needs to be dealt with quickly… .

It’s about work.

“Come to think of it, I met T-Holic senior.”

“yes.”

“T-holic seniors said that they built a company in cooperation with LeTi.”

“Yes.”

Cheong-rye naturally nodded as if nothing had happened, then smiled and said.

“Now, when we really make a comeback, we don’t have to worry about overlapping schedules. haha.”

“… … .”

okay. It’s led by this bastard.

I did, but he was a terrible guy. If a rival from the past is helpful, will it be swallowed up and seen?

‘He’s done a lot before enlisting.’

Besides, Cheong Ryeo’s words were not over.

“Well, I also made a small event in the process. You already know this well, don’t you?”

“… event?”

“yes. You saw it as an article.”

I realized like lightning.

‘Knight event.’

The case that T-Holic Testa is involved in and deserves to be published as an article… .

-I heard that Eter officials cursed at Testa?

This is the ‘Testa Transcript’ incident by the Ether staff.

“… T-Holic senior made that event.”

Cheong-rye did not answer and only laughed, but in reality it was no different from an affirmation.

I swallowed my saliva.

‘I thought a competitive rookie did it.’

Was it T-Holic?

“Yes. It would have been fun for you, too.”

“… … .”

In terms of whether or not Testa benefited from that incident, it did.

I was wondering what kind of dog benefit this is. It was as if someone had suddenly stuck an iced cider down his throat.

But maybe what Testa saw was a reflective gain, and from T-Holic’s point of view… He was deliberately trying to overturn the man in Wonderhole.

‘They diverted their attention so that they couldn’t do useless tricks on their independence.’

In other words, by chance, they turned around and took advantage of each other.

want this

‘I feel like I’ve become an evildoer’,

but Wonder Hall did such a bad thing like a real evildoer.

And this guy also seemed to be trying to rip off something while reminding me of ‘the gains Testa made’ on purpose.

So I made a reasonable response.

It means to take off the pretense.

“I don’t know what you mean.”

“Oh, I bet.”

Can’t you not split the thread as if you’re giving it over?

Surprisingly, Chung-rye quickly changed her tone.

“But I’m sure you didn’t come here to tell me this.”

“… … .”

“I think I came because I wanted to ask you something. tell me.”

okay. have a purpose

And there are many things to ask.

First of all, I wonder how this guy can still use the way he speaks naturally that makes him angry after completing the training center… .

No, I’ve been using that tone for at least a few decades, so it’s only natural that it won’t change in just a month or two.

Realizing that I didn’t need these set-up questions, I decided to throw a fastball right away.

let’s go clean

“I think I talked about system fragmentation last time.”

“hmm.”

I wasn’t too hesitant to bring this up. It’s such a ridiculous story anyway, so even if someone overheard it, it would be a game story.

Still, as a courtesy, I lowered my voice, and feedback came in right away.

“Say it comfortably. There is CCTV, but there is no recording device, and no one is listening.”

Or it would be X together, but it wouldn’t be a lie.

If so.

“okay.”

I immediately stopped talking and went on to talk about this system fragment.

The building collapse mission failed for me because I had the debris. I made the company system with the remaining debris.

It’s a story I’ve already explained, but I’ll summarize it one more time to fit the flow.

And the conclusion is this.

-You must have fragments like that time bomb.

When I let go of my words, the expression on the guy’s expression became insensitive as the story progressed.

Until you end up doing something like this.

“so?”

“I will try to collect the fragments from you now.”

“… … .”

“Because conditions are met and it is possible now.”

If I didn’t do it now, I didn’t know when the fragments on this guy would explode due to mission failure.

‘And this guy without a status window has a pretty high probability that that day will be the last day of his life.’

Wouldn’t this guy want to be hit by an absurd sudden death without being able to make a comeback? Honestly, it’s a proposition I’m underestimating.

However, Chung-rye frowned.

“I think it was induced.”

what?

“Raise the grade, give missions… It doesn’t look any different from what we’ve been doing.”

“… … .”

“Think carefully. I must have said it several times.”

don’t use the system

well i agree

“But if you don’t, you will die.”

“It is the same.”

“yes.”

I sighed.

“So shouldn’t the one who doesn’t do it first have to avoid it more?”

“… … .”

Haven’t you already witnessed and experienced how much a person can be X? No, I’m trying to write a workaround.

It won’t be necessary to say more between people who know what happens when the system’s status is abnormal or the mission is not handled.

And I did come up with some countermeasures.

‘If you look at the logic… Whether it’s steer memory or whatever, that singularity won’t happen anymore.’

As long as the operating principle of the system is ‘I will make me use more’, I directly control that part through regular use, so there is nothing to bother me with ‘system update’.

And best of all, I’ll turn off the system as soon as I receive it.

“So you’re willing to take the risk unilaterally?”

“It’s not like that.”

I put on my handcuffs.

“I need to make a few promises.”

“Tell me.”

“first.”

I said seriously.

“I don’t refer to Orbits with words like ‘LeTi family.’”

“… … .”

“Of course, all similar words like family cooking together are prohibited.”

The following was also important.

“The second T-Holic entertainment will not appear as a group.”

“I don’t know what that means.”

“There is such a thing.”

No matter how much I think about it, I think I will really push for those people’s personalities.

I continued talking while looking at the guy who looked a little bewildered.

“The last… Retrieve this and fully cooperate with me in solving what should happen to me.”

“… … .”

This was the natural thing to do as a human being.

And from my experience so far, I knew how this guy would react.

“is it so.”

yes.

I immediately nodded.

“Under the condition that you stop using the system the moment you retrieve this fragment.”

“of course.”

Even if you don’t say anything, I’m ready to return it to my belongings right away.

I nodded and called the status window.

“Then do it.”

“is it so.”

Is it because of a similar situation?

It reminded me of the time when I heard about deleting the system on this guy's private plane.

However, the difference was also clear.

At that time, he was interested in it, so he even provided a private plane to watch it.

But right now, neither of these guys here have any interest, but I'm going to press this to prevent the worst.

'after.'

"What is your wish?"

"hmm?"

"It is a necessary procedure."

"hmm."

The guy seemed to think briefly, then said:

"I hope you take good care of Kongi."

"… … ."

what… It's better than a wish like 'Testa perish'.

And as expected, a pop-up popped up in front of my eyes.

[Check the owner of the '■■■ Fragment'!]

[Register < Wish >]

As expected.

Cheongryeo had fragments.

‘Should I say that I’m glad I responded to this wish?’

And since all company rating criteria have already been satisfied, the result pop-up immediately followed without a complicated base process.

[Reconfirm the owner of ‘■■■ Fragment’]

Do you want to absorb ‘■■■ Fragment (1 / 4)’ into ‘Company Use’?

※It takes a certain amount of time.

So far it’s as expected.

“Can you see?”

“I can see it.”

After confirming that there is nothing wrong, I immediately responded to the status window.

‘Absorb.’

Immediately, the light from the pop-up lightly circled Cheongnyeol and went back.

Cheong-rye watched the phenomenon with cool eyes.

[‘■■■ Fragments (1 / 4)’ recovered!]

Even here, as expected.

‘after.’

I was briefly relieved.

But what came next was something that hadn’t been seen before.

[‘■■■ Fragments’ (4 / 4) Full Check]

[■■■ Completion]

Then, the black paint on ‘■■■’ peels off as if it were being ripped off… The correct name is revealed.

[Complete the system] and the explanation at the bottom.

[Reboot begins]

* * *

Cha Yoo-jin raised his head.

He was the kind of guy who had saved a strange cat from a fire in Spain just a few weeks ago, and didn’t think much of it.

Park Moon-dae, who gave a contradictory review of ‘It was good, but it was dangerous’, was only used for the purpose of protesting when giving a low-salt diet.

‘Actually, it wasn’t to the extent that I couldn’t eat it.’

How nice it is to be in an environment where you can be a little pushy.

He opened the refrigerator while humming and found Kim Rae-bin drinking apple juice at the table in front of him.

“Did Moondae hyung do it for you?”

“that’s right!”

Cha Yu-jin felt a bit sad, but soon brushed it off.

Let’s say it directly!

“Where did you go?”

“You went out to meet a friend. You looked busy, so I shouldn’t ask you a troublesome favor… .”

“OK!”

Cha Yoo-jin went into her room and lay down on the bed giggling before Kim Rae-bin, who had stopped talking, chased after him in anger.

Then, all of a sudden, I felt a strange sensation.

‘What is this?’

The unknown was annoying.

He was quite optimistic and even slightly optimistic, but he was not devoid of a sense of reality.

I shouldn’t have had anything to worry about now.

‘Everything is satisfactory.’

But why are you so anxious?

If only he could have observed the spirit of Park Moon-dae at one of the JSA’s 50 km away.

-Such a fucking foot!

would have known the answer.

[—-]

Park Moon-dae was having another experience of the current world breaking apart.

The system was bursting.

… … no no!

‘it’s me.’

It was Park Moon-dae himself who exploded!

I tried to hold on to it, but in a mental sense, as if it was ‘pulled out’, the perception began to crush.

Something out of specification has occurred.

Park Mun-dae did not delay and called the helper who was waiting just in case.

– Big moon!

But there was no response.

Park Mun-dae tried to keep his spirits up by repeating all the swear words he could use.

However, the situation was already out of control.

It seemed that the number of people was increasing like crazy.

[Start of reboot]

Even the status window gradually faded and distorted.

For a moment, it felt like the person sitting across from me grabbed my arm, but soon that sensation disappeared like a grain of sand.

And the area around the status window was also distorted, and the color began to change rapidly as if being sucked in.

Like looking out the window on a ridiculously fast high-speed train.

‘X feet.’

Mundae Park cursed again and tried to regain control.

‘stop!’

I had the absurd feeling of pulling a running train with my bare hands to stop it.

but moment.

[-]

Like a lie, he barely held on to the situation.

I was finally looking at the static world from a fixed perspective.

– Heo Eok.

It was seen in the midst of tension, as if the consciousness of the road would be sucked in if you were a little vigilant.

‘Where is it?’

It was night around.

outdoor.

rooftop.

… person.

On a cool winter night, he saw In-young standing on the rooftop, leaning on the railing and looking down at the building.

“… … .”

A familiar man in a coat.

Cheongrye.

-… !!

Park Moon-dae reflexively recalled the scene he had seen several years ago.

The memory of the first restart of Cheongryeol, who received it as a reward after clearing the ‘status abnormality’.

‘It’s the same place.’

It was as if his consciousness was barely hanging on to that memory. But…

With an almost animal sense, he also realized the difference with memory.

‘There are no cigarettes.’

The cigarette Cheongryeo was smoking at the time was invisible in Inyeong’s hand right in front of her.

And the electric signboard that Cheongryeo recalled in her memory and said, ‘Originally, there was an advertisement for VTIC, but it doesn’t appear anymore.’

there.

[with VTIC]

VTIC ads are still hanging.

Brilliant colors shimmered on the screen.

At some point his group still isn’t doomed.

To be precise, a point in a certain ‘repetition of restart’.

-… … .

Park Moon-dae asked himself.

Is this ‘what number’ is this?

and.

‘Why am I here?’

Chapter 542

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 542

Let's be honest.

It is not the first time that my body changes and the world changes when I close my eyes and open them. It's not strange even if you get used to it.

'one… Is this the fifth?'

I will turn… No, you get used to this absurd situation over and over again. It took only a few seconds to regain the ability to think rationally.

So let's calmly and rationally summarize what has happened so far.

– I retrieved system fragments.

He successfully brought the fragments that belonged to Chung-ryeo while serving in the military.

Up to this point everything went according to plan, but what happened next was a problem.

-Suddenly, the vision was distorted.

In fact, not only the field of vision, but the surroundings suddenly twisted and whirled like crazy, as if the video was fast-forwarded.

And now, barely stopping, what I see in front of my eyes… .

-VTIC Chung-rye is standing on the roof.

Yes.

However, this didn't seem like the request I had just been talking to for serving in the JSA.

I looked at the guy in front of me again.

Here, Cheong-Ri, looking down from the rooftop, was wearing a black coat.

A well-groomed face, hair, and body shape. Roughly… Appears to be in early to mid 20's.

So at least the past.

< Re-listing! Idol Inc. > was one winter night before it even aired.

and… The rooftop of a building on the outskirts of Seoul, where you can see the night view of Seoul.

"… … ."

This was the first restart location of Cheongryeol I saw through the system.

'But there are differences in a few details.'

Combining all of this leads to a fairly convincing hypothesis.

-Cheongryeo from the past who is repeating 'restart'.

That means he has nothing to do with me and I don't know him.

'Damn it.'

I want to put some soju in my mouth right now. I sighed.

'Things are getting complicated.'

If I had to point out the good thing objectively, this wasn't the worst situation compared to what I expected.

It's not even a day or two that the system sucks. Of course, I had considered the tolerable side effects that would occur when collecting fragments. While doing it, the big moon was almost about to bite the bubble.

But what about meeting the old Cheongryeo guy?

This is not something to panic all over again. Well, what in the yard that even the steer guys met once?

Let's decide the direction of action right now.

About this guy… Let's call it a restart call.

– Check if communication with this restart is possible.

from understanding the situation.

Besides, look at this guy who dared to visit the place where he first 'restarted'. I see you give meaning to this… Doesn't each come out?

This is the guy who didn't restart a few times.

'I'll be able to stir it up with words.'

There will be a difference in information value from the guy who tried everything he could. Don't you think it would be easier to bake than a guy in the army?

Still, the feeling of going through all the crazy things is still there… what would be better

I calmly opened my mouth.

'you… .'

And I realized

I have no voice.

I'm not talking nonsense because I'm nervous. Really, my voice itself is 'not there'.

I tried to raise my hand and raise it into my field of vision, but I couldn't see it.

'… … .'

Come to think of it… .

'Even this guy can't see me.'

If there is someone this close, even the guy who tried to jump off the roof would recognize the other person at least once.

However, Chung-rye continues to look under the roof. it won't notice me

I glanced at him with the feeling of crossing my arms (albeit without arms).

'Am I just watching one-sidedly?'

Like the flashbacks I saw every time I cleared a status ailment. I wondered if I was going to see this guy's memories again.

That was the moment.

"there."

The upper body in a coat leaning against the railing turned around.

Come this way.

'… … .'

Do you see it?

But nothing more.

It looked all over the air around me, as if recognizing invisible dust, but didn't seem to find anything.

Then he turned his gaze down the roof of the road.

"… … ."

Why the fuck are you fucking biting at me like you're hiding?

I wanted to hit my missing head with a blow. I sighed in embarrassment.

Also there was no sound.

But there was a problem.

As if that action had been the trigger, the pressure that shook her body returned.

It was like being sucked into another typhoon.

If I continued like this, I felt like I would be swept away and experience another whirlwind around me like crazy.

'If I do it wrong, I'll be X.'

Hopefully, it can go back to normal after that, but… .

'Somehow… I don't have a good feeling!'

I gritted my teeth and tried to grab something around me. Outdoor unit wire wall railing… .

'no.'

all failed The moment I had an intuition that I would be violently sucked into somewhere.

I tried to hold onto the end of the railing, but I brushed Restart Cheongryeo's clothes.

[———-]

Suddenly, the force began to act in both directions.

'for a moment.'

one is still outside.

The one is… It is on the green side.

'… … .'

I don't know what kind of situation this is, but… .

'I have a choice!'

And usually the new option is better.

Under pressure, I began to struggle to hold on to the power of Cheongryeo while swearing in pairs.

And when things are over.

'Hook.'

I realized I was looking under the roof.

And this wasn't my vision.

… This is the place where Restart Chungrye stood.

"… … ."

It sounds really crazy, but I'm the spirit of this young man… Or it seemed to stick to the field of view.

There was only one possible reason.

I just realized in this state… .

‘There is a system.’

Now this kid has a system.

It was because I came in contact with it that my mind was able to stick to it like a magnet.

‘what?’

Why am I attached to the system?

But contemplating the cause is an afterthought. What I need right now is… .

‘Are you grasping the situation again?’

It is to check why I have fallen into this situation.

talk and dig

The problem is that in order to dig something out, I must be able to express myself first… .

‘… … .’

It came to mind.

A way to communicate without a body.

Do you remember how I found Steer Lee Se-jin A in the system and let him open a chat?

‘… okay.’

I had direct access to the system.

Very direct and brutal.

‘And you can still try that.’

After taking a short deep breath.

I jumped into the Cheongrye system.

* * *

The cool night air moved to the rooftop.

Cheong-rye felt a sharp pain in her head accompanied by dizziness for a moment.

‘hmm.’

However, there is no trembling in the hand holding the railing. The eyes that look are also silent.

Migraines were an occasional problem.

Physical pain should go away with a restart, but that wasn’t always the case. Chronic pain with an ambiguous cause of ‘mental fatigue’ appeared occasionally and was annoying like a penalty.

Of course, you get used to it and gradually treat it as a condition rather than a penalty.

Besides, this headache was instant.

There was no need to put a hand on your forehead. He passed the symptoms without inspiration.

Because I’m going to restart anyway.

‘I’ll have to check it again with a new body.’

whether the symptoms remain.

He moved his gaze back to the road beneath the building he had been staring at.

A quiet back alley, without crowds or fuss.

It was just the right height to crush your head.

I've tried a few different places, but none have been as neat a restart spot as this one.

'The first attempt was the most appropriate.'

If you're lucky, that was a good thing.

And originally, I was going to put that 'proper way' into practice right now… He twisted his hand on the railing.

"… … ."

Somehow I didn't like it.

Rarely in a very long time.

'Is it because of the headache?'

In fact, it didn't matter what the cause was.

I didn't restart for a few hours and stayed there to check the new plan without any problems.

Like cooking or exercising, you can practice as much as you want until you start the real competition.

It's time to throw it away anyway.

'If used well, it will be efficient.'

He took a feeble interest in the idea. It was a thin, crude feeling that was hard to even call a pleasure.

Because this was an idea that I was already tired of.

It was just one of many ways he tried to squeeze efficiencies.

“… … .”

Cheong-rye took her body off the railing and turned around casually and walked down the building.

There was no cigarette, but the white breath remained.

Accommodation was not far.

“Are you okay bro?”

“of course.”

He returned to his room after giving a casual answer to the member who asked with worried eyes.

Of course, when that member asked if he was worried about Cheongryeo’s late return, he wasn’t.

That attitude is due to an incident that happened to this group just four days ago.

[“Billboard male idol’s pink hangout in Seocho-dong” witnessing wave]

[VTIC Heewoon apology… “Sorry for worrying the fans”]

Dating rumor.

A VTIC member’s loud devotion was discovered and covered the Internet.

Since the accommodation is strictly managed, the sasaeng broke into renting a space and setting up a house as if building a nest in a place that was not an accommodation at all.

Even in the first week of their comeback.

-Crazy bastard, you've made a living lol

-Leave it

-I want to kill you when I think of you smirking at the grand prize.Thanks to this, VTIC has been able to quietly stop this activity itself, which started with an ambitious awards ceremony, after three days.

And Cheong-rye thought.

It would have been easier to deal with the crime.

'If it's a crime, I could delete it from the group.'

I mean resignation.

But dating rumors are ambiguous.

The blow is more tremendous than any other incident, but it is morally difficult to dislodge. Because it's just love.

And the dating rumor that even managed to live on this year's vacation was a death sentence for the individual idol and a fatal wound for the group.

It was like a flare-up of a fall.

'Even if it rebounds… No activity, no fame, at least for a few months.'

Right now, VTIC's topicality was being sucked into the dating rumors of that member.

And now it's December 27th.

What this meant was clear.

Even if they receive the grand prize at VTIC's current awards ceremony, they will not be recognized as 'popular idols' by the public.

with a very high probability.

‘therefore… .’

This year’s target is the end.

-failure.

It’s time for a clean restart.

And this time, a new opportunity will be given again.

maybe forever

“… … .”

Cheong-rye felt her head cool and clear.

The reluctance I felt earlier on the roof had disappeared before I knew it.

‘Then tomorrow at 5 am.’

He made plans in a stupor.

There was nothing to lose.

At one point, I did something rather destructive to relieve stress, but I don’t need that anymore.

relaxed and calm

Everything becomes more and more numb as attempts accumulate.

Even if it is repeating an endless challenge without any hints or help.

New variable Unexpected help Stop expecting unexpected miracles.

Everything is leveled, smoothed, flat, and just becomes a pattern.

He just sat quietly and reviewed the idea of a new VTIC member once again.

It was such a calm moment.

[Can you see it?]

"… … ."

Cheong-rye stopped her eyes.

And as if I had seen it, the translucent text in front of my eyes was renewed.

[Wait a minute.]

The color stabilizes. It becomes increasingly clear.

The empty text said.

[Do not restart.]

Cheong-ryo stopped breathing.

There was a time when he reasoned like a human being.

what situation you are in.

Alien spiritual experience, at least a kind of computer simulation. There were many hypotheses.

But it has never been proven. No matter what I tried, no response came back.

But now.

[Still left.]

[Period! There is still time left.]

A pop-up appeared in front of me.

[‘Grand prize or death’]

: Death remaining period

: D-359

“… … .”

Objectives clearly expressed as dates in text.

and… .

[The dates overlap. Because it’s December 28th… You have time until December 28 next year. Then I think you can aim for a few from ToneA.]

Someone’s advice.

Chung-rye blinked her eyes.

Then he took a slow breath and turned his head.

Another window was floating beside it.

[!Unauthorized error occurred]

Are you sure you want to remove the status window (■■■)?

And there was only one option.

[Yes]

After a moment of giddy silence.

Cheong-ryeo took her eyes off the window.

He didn’t clear this error.

‘after.’

Park Mun-dae, who was accessing the system through the system, had no choice but to breathe a sigh of relief.

Anyone can see that it was an option to get rid of yourself.

And if it's that guy, wouldn't it be plausible to delete it right away if it bothers you?

'Of course, it's easy to induce him not to do that.'

It was too obvious that Cheong Ryeo at this time cared about it.

Efficiency only!

Park Moon-dae's reasoning was that he would keep any element that would help him reach his goal.

'Proof of value.'

And that was also his specialty.

[I'm being asked first.]

Park Moon-dae randomly created a terminal and forcibly connected it to pop up a pop-up in front of Cheong-ryeo's eyes, smiling grinningly.

However, after a while, he gets a double bath.

This is because I realized what kind of person this 'Restart Cheongryo' was.

[! Abnormal Status: Correction]

: Let's try again

– If it fails, go back to the beginning.

This was a familiar description of the status ailment of Cheongryeo.

However, there was no indication of inactivation.

‘It means it’s in an active state.’

And as if to supplement it, one more line of explanation was attached.

[Number of returns: 100]

‘… … .’

Not the 10th, the 11th, or the 20th.

Round 101.

‘X feet!’

Park Moon-dae became the status window of Cheongnyeo, who restarted 100 times.

Chapter 543

If you can't debut, you'll die. After episode 543, the status window appears.

Chung-ryo did not respond for several tens of seconds, as if she had been struck by some kind of lightning.

and spit it out like this

"Help."

The way these words came about is simple.

This is because this guy's first thought about my pop-up called 'Ask a question' was this.

-What is this.

It was kind of like asking a question.

So my answer to that was:

-Help.

It was a brief description of my function.

It's because there's no way they'll believe me even if I tell this bastard that I'm your junior idol from the future… .

'I'll just be wary.'

That's why I approached it with a familiar computer concept.

I was going to say nonsense that it appeared as an algorithm thanks to your 100th restart, but I quit because I thought I crossed the line. Instead just… I said it happened spontaneously without my knowledge.

And even now, I'm going to answer this guy's question in a very kind way, "Are you really helpful?"

Like this.

[Of course.]

[This is help to help you resolve your status abnormality.]

It was bullshit.

Shall I speak frankly? Let's say I help him and succeed in getting VTIC to win the grand prize this time.

But in reality, that didn't happen… Right now, in VTIC, there is no member who has created something like my own little devotional hangout.

And the reality Cheong-rye, who was serving in the military, whom I had just met, said that she had never seen her own status window.

Originally, it means that Cheongryeo has no memory of meeting me, who is currently in the status window. and… .

'… No matter what I do here, it won't change the experience of Cheongryeo in reality.'

Isn't this what Keun-dal already confirmed when he became Ryu Gun-woo and suffered from a condition that would kill him if he couldn't serve as a public servant?

What I did there as the status window of the big moon in reverse did not change my future. Bae Se-jin's father's drug report. It's like sending an email to an alumnus of Park Moon-dae.

On the contrary, I only knew that I had solved these incidents that I thought were coincidences.

In other words, there is no time paradox.

It was impossible to change the past and affect the future.

So, maybe this is the virtual memory of the system or something like that. Just like the steer guys.

‘hmm.’

I got a bit bitter and licked my lips.

But why am I trying to stop it from restarting right now… .

‘It’s because of the variables.’

I’m stuck on this guy’s mind right now, who knows what will happen when I restart?

I needed to preserve the status quo as much as possible. To assess the situation and gather information.

‘So overall, my help is just… It’s a scam.’

I never thought I would do something like voice phishing.

Still, it was true that he would help, so it was to the benefit of both parties.

[As a help, I will answer all your questions sincerely.]

What follows is a plain truth.

[If you use my skills, at least you won’t suffer any loss.]

Isn’t it true that the work is much easier if there is an instruction manual?

And, as far as I know, Cheong-Ryeo was not the kind of person who would refuse to benefit.

Like a suspicious person, I will be subjected to tremendous questions and experiments.

‘How is it?’

I was fully prepared and waited for his reply.

“… … .”

Cheong-Ryeo stood still, staring at the pop-up I opened.

Then he smiled.

“okay.”

I touched my forehead.

Pretend to believe this bastard.

* * *

The pop-up poured out text messages.

[You can show the status of the members.]

[You can check it now.]

Request did not respond.

In the living room of the dorm, only one person with a gloomy expression fell asleep while fiddling with a game console, and the other two went to the practice room in coats.

Then another pop-up appeared.

[You can also check the characteristics and potential values.]

Cheong-rye didn’t react and walked out of the accommodation casually.

[Not just the current members, but anyone I meet]

“That’s too much.”

The text in the popup has stopped.

“If you need help, come only when I call.”

The hologram did not answer briefly, as if calculating.

And an obedient answer came.

[Yes.]

Chung-rye started her car.

After arriving at the desired place, he continued to walk and reached his destination.

It was the roof of the building I climbed yesterday.

And, exactly as planned, he straddled the railing… .

[Wait.]

[Ya.]

[This baby]

[This crazy guy doesn’t have to restart

.]

[You have enough time]

“Are you trying to convince me?”

The []

character stopped.

Cheong-ryo leaned against the railing and put on the pod.

“He said it was for help.”

The pop-up froze as if in shock.

Cheong-Ryeo watched the scene slowly as if exploring.

Then, he looked down at the rooftop while adjusting the gloves he was wearing.

“I don’t think so.”

He calculated with a cold head.

Something systematic, kind, verbalized and helpful, like a computer operating system that pops up out of nowhere.

It also appeared at a time when he had experienced enough of a restart and found it very tempting.

It’s like looking for prey.

It was an intelligent being with a will.

And through the process so far, there was one thing that was clearly proven.

Cheong-rye smiled.

“If I restart, it’s in trouble.”

Still, the pop-up popped up the text as if it had been prepared.

[Because using me increases the chance of success this time. And even if it doesn’t work, if you restart it, it wo n’t happen.] [There’s nothing to lose.]

The request didn’t respond for a moment.

The cold morning air circulated the rooftops.

and.

“haha.”

Laughter rang out.

“The chances are high.”

Cheong-rye smiled and turned her upper body to leave the railing behind her.

And he opened his mouth as if talking to himself.

“What is the most fatal point of the dating rumor controversy?”

[…] … .]

“That means it’s not a crime.”

An advisory response followed.

“It’s a moral shame… . The problem is that non-fans cannot relate to it.”

-I have a collection of nice men and women, but of course they will fall in love. Are there any respectable people at that age who don’t date lol

“Then what about the fans?”

There were no pop-ups.

Cheong-ryeo spoke comfortably into the air.

“I’ll find another controversial topic for that member.”

From skill controversies to bullying within school bullying groups.

I will devote my time passionately to discovering flaws that can be sympathized with by the public and making persuasive writings.

I liked idols a lot, and as much as I knew them well, I was able to create an effective and appropriate sense of controversy.

A reason to take revenge to match the feeling of betrayal. For a just cause.

– Fans turned to anti.

“You could say that in common sense.”

Cheong-rye smiled and continued.

“But even if you make a member voluntarily leave, the risk doesn’t go away.”

Among the individual fans of the member whose dating rumors have erupted, there must be a small number of fans who still support them, but they have an antipathy towards the group itself.

-Forcing them to leave because the dating rumors broke out means real fucking idols don’t have human rights

It was especially dangerous in the current position of VTIC, which has a large proportion of overseas fans. Among overseas fans, it’s common for people to dislike idols’ devotion to being controversial.

Of course, Cheongryeo had the ability to plan well and minimize the risk.

But it definitely takes time.

“Well, it will take half a year until public opinion is sorted out. Even if you minimize your losses by touring at that time… .”

His gloved fingers tapped the railing as if counting.

tuk tuk.

And it stopped.

“The chance for a comeback is June at the earliest.”

only once.

There was only one comeback that was meaningfully reflected in the performance of that year.

“The probability of receiving the grand prize with only one activity after a long hiatus due to fatal controversy.”

Cheong-Ri demanded at the pop-up.

“Answer me.”

‘… … .’

“There is an option to just restart without that member.”

Cheong-rye laughed and fixed her gloves.

Then he asked with a pod.

“Why should I invest 359 days worth of time on these slim odds?”

‘… … .’

“Explain.”

Park Moon-dae thought.

it’s X

* * *

Park Moon-dae stopped being a helper concept.

It’s because I don’t believe this kid anyway.

Instead, he answered Cheong-rye moderately honestly.

[Actually, the mission was successful thanks to the person who helped me, but this time I became the help myself.]

“Yes.”

Of course, Chung-rye still didn’t seem to believe it. It was because he didn’t seem to have any intention of asking how the hell that was possible.

‘X feet.’

So Park Moon-dae decided to just go the easiest way.

It was a future knowledge spoiler.

[I know what songs will become popular after this and what concepts will work.]

[If I knew that, it would be worth investing 359 days.]

He was clear about that.

“Keep talking.”

[If you promise not to press that button.]

“… … .”

Of course, what Moondae Park meant was the ‘Delete status window’ button right next to it.

Cheong-rye was silent for a moment, but then answered calmly.

“good.”

Park Moon-dae did not pass.

[Seriously, not even teeth.]

From his point of view, it seemed that Chung-rye had bitten her eyebrows for a moment.

But the answer was still calm.

“okay.”

On the condition that you keep giving useful answers.

After that, Park Mun-dae, who could hear the omitted thoughts, spit out, but no one could see it.

Cheongryeo was the same.

Instead, he quickly organized a few genres, singers, and songwriters from his self-proclaimed ‘helper’ in his head.

It was a pretty decent portfolio.

but.

“The grounds?”

[I don’t think you’ll believe it.]

“Hmm.”

Cheongryeo’s gaze averted.

[!An unauthorized error has occurred]

Do you want to remove the status window (■■■)?]

‘This son of a bitch.’

Park Moon-dae, who received the intention to delete the post if he did not answer properly, eventually answered neatly.

[Did you come from the future?]

“Hmm?”

[I’m your next hitter.]

It was an unrealistic story, but there was a possibility. Because I already have the confidence to go back to the past and restart.

And that explanation of the self-proclaimed ‘help’ also had a meaning.

“I have succeeded.”

It means that one day you will be successful.

Because the next hitter means you’re ending the restart.

‘hmm.’

However, Cheongryeo was not very impressed by the fact itself. Basically, it’s because he didn’t trust the text of that help.

Besides, if you try something repeatedly, one day you will succeed.

In fact, he had patterned the ‘success of VTIC’ itself very stably even before dozens of restarts.

The only problem was the timing of several status ailments and the composition of the members.

Of course, this was a problem that could be solved by trying a few cases.

[…] … .]

And the pop-up did not directly answer yes, but indirectly admitted it.

[I can tell you the members you formed at that time.]

Cheong-rye replied with a smile.

“You didn’t ask.”

The unproven self-proclaimed ‘help’ flattery tried to cross the line.

The popup stopped immediately.

[Yes.]

But Cheong-rye guessed that she seemed to be quite pissed off.

Of course, the pop-up was just text, and since the face was not visible, there was little that could be read.

‘It’s a bit annoying.’

As if he had read his thoughts, a pop-up appeared shyly.

[Should I put emoticons on it?]

“No.”

He wanted to scratch out information the other person didn’t intend to express, not to see useless expressions of emotion.

After the conversation, Cheong-rye stood up.

My mind was in a tidy state.

About this self-proclaimed help.

1. Personality exists.

2. Read thoughts.

3. They lie.

All three confirmed.

And the most important confirmation distance remains.

4. It has utility value.

[Where are you going?]

“I want to use you.”

Now was the beginning to see the ‘provable’ utility.

* * *

To be precise, Cheong-rye, whom I am attached to as a status window, is currently at my company.

To be precise, on the floor where the trainees gathered.

“Are you a bit weak? again!”

“yes!”

A few of the popular songs of this era and VTIC songs with slightly different arrangements than I knew leaked out every time the door to the vocal practice room was opened.

“hello!”

“Hello, senior!”

And he is greeted with respect and awe by those he sees… .

‘next.’

… They are asking me for their status.

Mainly only guys over the age of 20.

And I guessed his intentions.

This bastard was just gathering information for the next restart… .

If you're over 20 years old, you'll be in your late teens when you go back, and of course you can use it.

And if there is one more purpose.

'You're trying to check my capabilities.'

Looking at the status window now, this guy already has the 'emotion' trait.

[Emotion (S)]

: Valuable things are rare and trash is everywhere.

-Human Resources Judgment +180%

So, by comparing his own judgment with the stats I show, this 'helper' may have an ulterior motive to check if there is any distorted information.

I don't know exactly which guy this guy chose to debut in the past… .

'for a moment.'

I looked at his emotional traits again.

what I knew… There was a difference.

[Emotion (S)]

: Valuable things are rare and trash is everywhere.

-Human resource judgment +180%

The grade was S.

'This makes no sense.'

This is because the characteristic of Cheongryeo in reality was A.

But why is the characteristic grade of S here, which is supposed to be his past?

‘Isn’t that a characteristic that is likely to degenerate by repeating restarts?’

I looked at the status window with doubt for a moment, but there was something else happening outside that caught my eye.

Sigh.

“after.”

excuse me. The guy who comes out of the vocal practice room while brushing his hair… Because he was a guy I knew.

‘It’s a cast iron.’

It was a familiar VTIC member.

Apparently, Lee Cheong-ryo did not include Ju-dan in the team, but because he was young, it seemed like he was still a trainee at this company.

‘hmm.’

I asked Cheong Ryeo.

[Let’s go with that guy next time.]

It’s a bit interesting to see what kind of evaluation this guy will make… .

“no.”

‘… … .’

[Why.]

“Because I won’t use that.”

Cheongryeo lightly touched her chin.

‘There is a lack of consistency in behavior and there are frequent unexpected actions depending on the composition of the team. It’s not a good resource if the result is not constant.’

[…] … .]

“next.”

yeah what… thoughts are free

I gladly opened the other guy’s status window over the window.

However, Cheong Ryeo’s words did not end there.

“And before I asked, I would have told you not to ask for it.”

The guy naturally looked away again.

Chapter 544

If I can’t debut, I’ll get sick to death Episode 544

VTIC Cheong-Ryeo’s daily routine was very neat.

“Should I put on just 2kg more?”

“yes.”

Now that his activities ended in a week due to dating rumors, he was carrying out a Tetris-type routine of meeting with the company in between practicing and exercising at the same time.

Of course, it was easy to say. Divide time into minutes.

However, there was a simplicity that seemed easy, unique to a person who is accustomed to continuous repetitive work.

‘And it’s legendary that I’ve been watching this all day… … .’

I closed my eyes and let out a long sigh.

I can’t coax you because I can’t communicate.

Of course, it wasn’t just that he went crazy because he lived his life as a perfect idol 100 times.

‘He’s doing this on purpose.’

When I realized that the status window had a personality, I chose the easiest way to handle it.

– I would have told you not to come out when I wasn’t called.

to solidify the sequence.

‘They’re trying to tame the discipline.’

It is to show in a very impactful way that you have the right to make decisions and that you have the right to control your own life and death, thereby smothering your spirits.

It was the fastest and most effective control method.

maybe years… No, I’ve been using it in various human relationships for decades, so it’s only natural that I can use it like breathing.

I broke my neck.

‘what… I’m a little pissed off.’

There is something wrong with this young woman.

It’s not that I’ve seen him do things like this once or twice.

‘It’s obvious what you’re going to do next.’

Once (in his opinion) he has killed his spirits, so next time give him a little reward.

aka sticks and carrots.

That’s how you lead them in the direction you want them to go.

punishment and reward. Control of anything works like that.

So this bastard will show the tip of the carrot at the right moment… .

‘Then I have to eat my hands.’

And the watch should be negotiated for a good price.

I crossed my arms and laughed.

As expected, the guy spoke to the status window shortly after.

* * *

“This much.”

Cheong-Ryeo looked at the profiles of each candidate that filled her eyes and said as if passing by.

This is the status window I made by manipulating the terminal.

[Name: Moonhyun Lee]

[Name: Seonwoo Won]

[Name: Kwangje Park]

Well, let me guess.

The fact that there are no ‘good to use’ items such as sincerity, impulsiveness, and perseverance may be thinking behind the scenes that they are emotional factors.

“What about other items?”

OK. yes.

I answered as I felt while producing terminals in the system.

[It seems that information that is difficult to quantify cannot be made into status.]

Cheong-ryeo smiled.

“I’ll have to try harder.”

But this time, instead of seeing the error deletion window as if threatening, it finishes a little softly.

Carrots come out

“Anyway, it’s quite usable.”

oh i guess

The moment I make a fuss about what I like here, the conflict is over.

can’t see that I want to do what I have to say.

[I have something to say in that sense.]

First of all, stop talking about ‘Aren’t you preparing for the next album?’

To a guy who seemed like he was going to dive from the roof while saying ‘I’m done collecting information’ at any moment, this was a warning.

stimulating in a different direction.

I got a popup.

[There is also a limit to the help function.]

Cheongnyeo stopped her eyes.

In the middle of the cold silence, I opened the pop-up all the way.

[Note.]

You can only check the opponent’s stats if you face them face-to-face, from the fact that you should pay attention to your gaze, to the fact that you can delay clearing abnormal conditions.

Of course, these were just minor tips.

The important thing is the last one.

[The most important thing is… It means that the future information I gave you can change.]

[It seems that the butterfly effect according to your actions could make it useless, so you better be careful.]

“… … .”

After a brief silence.

“okay.”

Cheong-rye answered calmly.

Then he tapped his fingers slowly.

“But why are you thinking?”

OK. I thought it would come out like that.

“All you have to do is answer my questions.”

You say don’t be presumptuous and you’re deliberately trying to create tension.

I rated it harshly.

And after a little bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of a bit of I opened a pop-up.

[It’s contradictory.]

[I’m trying to talk to you and negotiate in a way that helps you because I judge like a human being.] [

Or I just let it go whether you restart or not. Because I have no idea.]

He slightly raised his eyebrows.

I shook the pop-up lightly like a sigh and then continued.

[Honestly, how long do you think I'll be here? I'm in a situation where I don't know how much I can help you.]

[But since I'm like this… It's frustrating.]

Cheongnyeo knocked on the table.

"So your actions are pure goodwill?"

[At least good intentions are mixed. Because I think like a human being.]

And as if I was angry, I hit the batter more passionately and excitedly.

[And it won't hurt you if I block your restart here. 359 days lost? Thinking that if I restart it, everything I wasted will be gone anyway.]

"… … ."

Alright, and the final blow.

I adjusted my pace and slowed down my next words as if I was a little tired.

[At this rate, honestly, I don't even know what it means for me to be here.]

[Delete it or not, do whatever you want. I won't die.]

In the end, this is what I want to say.

– Boycott possible.

If I'm wrong, I'm not going to spit anything out whether I die or not.

When I wrote it down, it became something like a labor union, but what?

'What should I do?'

You've already seen what I can do. Then you should be guessing how much more you can pull out.

give up gains?

I crossed my arms and waited for his reaction.

Of course, if I really want to delete it, I will have to change my approach again, but I expected that it would not go that far.

There is a reason.

It's just that this guy doesn't know me very well.

I don't know how far I can bet, and I can only guess how far my bluffing is with very limited information.

In addition, the limit of the utility value I will provide is still unknown.

So the option of dropping it before the correct calculations are available would obviously be less attractive.

'Then they'll try to make the safest choice possible.'

He's already threatened me with deletion.

It coincided with the timing of the carrot he was trying to unleash, and he also has the right to decide, so rather than trying very hard to seize the rank again… .

"so?"

yes!

Take a step back and take a 'listen and see' attitude.

'After'

I quickly rolled my brain and organized my thoughts as if I were sitting down.

'I shouldn't push too hard here.'

At the end of negotiations, you may end up with a stop loss, so do it in moderation.

Find an acceptable line.

[Now you know that this help doesn't have the ability to directly harm you.]

[I'll cooperate as much as possible. Let's talk and live. Like a human being.]

Just respect that I have personality.

"… … ."

Cheong-rye stared blankly at the pop-up without answering.

It was like quietly tapping on a calculator. I clenched my fist and waited for his answer.

And the answer that came out was… .

"Is it so?"

'… !'

yes.

First step is a success.

I grinned and examined his face.

Chung-rye stared at the pop-up without expression.

"On the line out of the way."

uh. Say whatever you want.

[If I get in the way, delete it then. That won't sound different.]

[Thank you.]

“Yes.”

I showed a waving emoticon without saying anything to the guy who gave a positive answer without thinking.

[(ㅁ_ㅁ)ﾉ]

Straighten your eyebrows.

* * *

After that, Cheong-rye changed his attitude slightly.

It means that the helper has become more socially polite.

[Time to exercise?]

“Yes.”

We are exchanging these simple conversations.

Of course, in reality, there are very few cases where Cheongnyeo makes a sound out of her mouth, and in most cases, I read her thoughts and treat them as words appropriately.

And this seems meaningless at first glance, but if you do it, you will definitely spill something.

i am experienced

‘Even when I participated in < Azusa >, I had no intention of talking to children.’

Be a testa and see what I’ve done. Now all the members know that I was Gunwoo Ryu.

This is an inevitable flow.

When you have a secret, you end up giving out even the smallest details of your thoughts to the person you are talking to who doesn't have to keep it.

It's the same even if you've been with others for a long time.

On the contrary, Cheongryeo has had no one to openly talk about the restart experience so far, so it will be difficult to properly guard against such a gap.

Especially when you factor in the fact that I can read his thoughts… .

'Clearly there is a gap.'

I grinned and put my hand on the terminal. I feel like I want to bring Cha Yoo-jin's popcorn from the kitchen… .

'… … .'

Well, let's pick one up later when we go back to reality.

First of all, let's do our best to get out of this situation.

I stayed (mentally) relaxed and alert.

And the timing came a few days later.

"I'll check the route again."

VTIC, whose active period was fading, finally practiced remix choreography for the tour.

So, looking at the number of VTIC guys who have been practicing as a group for the first time in a while… .

'Seven people.'

indeed. I wonder what calculations he went through until he narrowed this number down to five. It's a very effective number to have 7 people separately, but… .

Anyway, I took a close look at the faces of the guys.

First of all, I saw Chae-yul and Shin-oh.

A few others were also quite interesting, as they were the faces I saw when I participated in the LeTi survival in the system's virtual world.

I slipped the bait.

[They all have good skills.]

"Yes."

[But it's not like they lined up with their skills and cut down to the best 6 people.]

"Um."

Cheong-ryo paused for a moment, but eventually gave an answer that was not a short answer.

"The combination is important."

oh.

"People are a kind of resource… it's reactive The quality of the result changes depending on the stimulus received from the environment."

[That's right.]

That's getting too long. That was a good sign.

Even still talking… .

"No conflict is not necessarily a good thing. Proper stimulation and tension must be maintained to increase productivity."

Then, Chung-rye looked at her members.

“The important thing is… That’s the right amount of stress.”

It was an eye to measure the quantity of meat.

[…] That’s right.]

Let’s put significance on the fact that we only had conversations that we weren’t used to.

I sighed and looked around with his eyes again. And just at that moment, Cheong-ryeo caught a guy who gave her eyes.

It was a strange face.

That means… .

[That’s the guy who broke the dating rumor.]

Cheong-ryeo’s eyes narrowed a bit, then returned to normal.

Was it good luck?

The lover who hadn’t even come into the dorm for the past few days had a typical LeTi-born vibe and judging from his stats, it seemed like he was probably a lead vocalist.

By the way.

[Why are you confident?]

“I don’t go for long. Don’t worry, everything will be fine! Uh, of course I’m not worried.”

Surprisingly, the person who bought it said it himself.

Seeing that he was actively talking to the other members, it seemed that he had no shame at all.

I nodded.

You must have broken quite a bit at work, but your mentality is amazing.

The funny thing is that the person who almost restarted it thanks to him is calm.

Cheong-rye simply evaluated the lover.

“There is consistency in being resistant to external stress.”

okay. I know that bastard’s mentality is strong in many ways.

Still, it wasn’t a very good look to outsiders.

I clicked my tongue when I saw Chung-rye, who still looked calm.

[I don’t think there’s been one or two guys like that so far, but did you leave them all alone?]

Come to think of it, even if they were beaten, shouldn’t they be beaten?

It makes me feel unfair that I was hit in the head by this bastard from the future and forced to commit suicide… .

“I tried a few things.”

[…] A few things.]

“Um… If you have an accident that causes you to retire, you naturally leave.”

[…] … .]

“But traffic accidents are hard to control. If you are accidentally crippled or killed, sympathy is created and it becomes a topic.”

‘… … .’

“Other criminal accidents often harm the group image.”

And Chung-rye smiled faintly.

“Oh, sometimes it gets difficult.”

[Difficulty.]

“Yes.”

Cheong-ryeo stretched lightly and then raised her head.

His eyes flashed at the red light in the corner of the ceiling of the practice room.

“There are more CCTVs in this country than I thought.”

[…] … .]

Who said this bastard was a mountain god? It’s not about looking at it, it’s just omitting it because it’s a waste of money and risk.

“Come on, let’s cheer up and go~ This year’s award-winning singers!”

Fantastically, the atmosphere in the practice room was still good. There was also a choreography trainer who deliberately gave good news.

“Did you know that you ranked first in the male idol category in the popularity poll?”

“really?”

Well, it’s not that awkward for VTIC to rank first in such a survey, but… .

wait for a sec.

That’s a real VTIC.

If it was a long time ago now, VTIC would not be able to rank first in domestic recognition.

I said it without even realizing it.

[What is T-Holic?]

“Hmm?”

As if hearing something unexpected, Cheong-ryeo raised her eyebrows and lowered them slightly.

And soon a faint smile passed by.

“You don’t need to be wary of groups that have already disbanded.”

‘… … .’

‘I sent it.’

this guy is the culprit

This bastard tried something and it seemed that this T-Holic was already X.

That’s awesome.

I pressed my forehead and spit out.

Keep in mind. This guy I knew… It is not a real Cheong-ryung of raising a dog.

This bastard’s current thought circuit was no different from a psychopath. It was in that damn state where everyone around me seemed to be an NPC.

‘after.’

That moment. Suddenly, a thought crossed my mind.

It’s been a concern for the past few days.

I mean, I was retracing a conversation I had before I came here to see if there were any hints of how I escaped this damn place.

And there was this among the candidates that were organized.

A wish received from me by Cheongryeo.

– I hope you take good care of Kongi.

And given that I ended up like this right after that… .

'… no way.'

This is not to say that I have to stick around until this pup is born and raised well.

It was a speculation that sent chills down the spine.

Even in the midst of that, Cheongryeo was calmly looking at the member of the lover and thinking about it like this.

"Sorry. It would be nice if I could just cut it clean."

"As if it never existed in the first place."

* * *

[Bae Se-jin: It's not cold… … .]

[Cha Yujin: It's cold! brother! Buy me chocolate!]

[Bae Se-jin: (Help me)]

On the screen, Bae Se-jin and Cha Yu-jin were arguing.

Seon Ah-hyun smiled and looked back at it.

The group's own content made me feel warm like watching home videos or travel videos.

It was then.

drooling.

My phone rang and I got a call from an unknown number.

“… ?”

Since it was a smartphone for privacy that only family members registered, Seon Ah-hyun pressed receive, guessing that someone among them must have called someone else’s cell phone.

However, the voices heard were none of them.

[Testa Seon Ah-hyun.]

Seon Ah-hyun immediately inferred the condition from her characteristic tone.

“yes yes… . … … Seniors?”

It was VTIC Cheongnyeol.

At the moment, Sun Ah-hyun is a bit taken aback by the fact that someone she is not very close with, even enlisted, called her on a holiday.

A dry voice quickly rang through the speakers.

[Come to JSA. Right away.]

[My junior has disappeared.]

“… !!”

no way.

The fact that he was contacted did not mean that something had happened to someone among the testers.

Seon Ah-hyun was so nervous that her heart skipped a beat. Then he asked in a trembling voice.

“I… Which junior disappeared?”

[…] … .]

There was a brief silence over the phone.

[Park Moon-dae.]

“… ?”

Sun Ah-hyun blinked briefly.

It was the name of an unknown person.

Chapter 545

Episode 545

JSA's common space where cold air flows.

A cautious voice came from over the receiver.

[I… Who is that?]

Took.

Jaehyun Shin hung up the phone.

The name 'Seon Ah-hyun' floating on the screen soon disappeared.

A trembling voice asked from the side.

"memory… Can't you?"

Cheong-ryeo did not answer.

However, the big moon who asked the question also knew that there was no need to answer.

Seon Ah-hyun does not know Park Moon-dae.

Despite Cheongryeo calling Park Moondae's smartphone.

"… … ."

When an unexpected situation occurred, Cheong-ryeo's judgment, which immediately selected and called Seon Ah-hyun, was not wrong.

Because I've already seen Sun Ah-hyun cause an error in the system's virtual world.

"He has the ability to nullify status ailments… ."

However, even Seon Ah-hyun does not remember Park Moon-dae.

"Whoa."

Thanks to that, he called and brought in the person before Seon Ah-hyun. The big moon was on the verge of falling into a complete panic.

It had to be.

"This is now… It makes no sense."

The big moon jumped up and stretched out his hand.

"Moondae hyung is here right now… !"

At the end of that hand, I saw In-yeong lying on the sofa, unconscious.

It was Park Moon-dae.

He even looked peaceful without any trauma, but that was a sentiment that could only be felt when he was unaware of what was happening.

A few minutes ago, when the big moon arrived at JSA in a hurry.

– There he is.

-yes?

-Hey… .

Keundal grabbed the employee with a pale face and stretched out his hand to point to the sofa on which Moondae Park was lying.

– How does he look?

And the cleaning lady replied:

-Who are you talking about?

He did not recognize Park Moon-dae, who was clearly there.

“… … .”

It was an almost terrifying situation.

Only then did Keundal realize why Cheongryeo hadn’t called 911.

If I call you, you won’t recognize it.

It was when the big moon swallowed saliva as he recalled it.

Tiririk.

“… !!”

Park Moon-dae’s smartphone in Cheong-ryeo’s hand vibrated vigorously.

It was a phone call.

Cheong-rye checked the screen once without expression and accepted it. A soft, urgent voice rang through the speakers.

[Sorry! The phone suddenly cut off.]

It was Seon Ah-hyun’s voice.

When the call ended without context, the polite man tried to contact him again.

And kindly asked again.

[Maybe I… Is the person you mentioned earlier related to me?]

Keundal let out an indescribable moan and slammed his head on the table.

Cheong-ryeo looked at him indifferently, then spoke in a dry voice.

“now. Try accessing the portal site through the Internet.”

[…] ? yes yes… … .]

As if Seon Ah-hyun was manipulating a smartphone, the sound of her fingers hitting the screen echoed softly.

“Search Park Moondae.”

[ah… .]

At that moment, Keundal, who raised his head, hurriedly searched for Park Moondae on the Internet.

‘… there is!’

Park Moon-dae’s profile came out in good health.

All kinds of photos and histories of his career activities fill the page.

‘thank god… .’

Park Moon-dae still remained here.

Keundal turned his head to Cheongnyeo, feeling at least a ray of relief.

[that… … .]

Sun Ah-hyun over the phone seemed to have checked the search results just in time.

[Who is this?]

“… … .”

A cool sensation passed through the large moon’s spine.

That cool voice instructed the smartphone.

“Tell me the first profile you see on the screen.”

[I especially… I can’t see the profile.]

“… … .”

The big moon stopped breathing.

And with trembling hands, this time, I hurriedly went to SNS and put in a search.

The results of Park Moon-dae were pouring out.

Just before Park Moon-dae retrieves the debris.

There was no mention of it after that.

“… Wait a minute.”

Keundal put in a search with Testa this time.

-It’s amazing how Testa can tie two of the same age together haha

-Ryu Cheong-woo Bae Se-jin Sun Ah-hyun Lee Se-jin Cha Yu-jin Kim Rae-bin I love youㅠㅠㅠ Let’s testa forever

Articles, SNS, communities, and video sites.

Everyone ignored the existence of Park Moon-dae as if it were salty.

Keundal’s face was pale and he put down his smartphone.

I felt like I was crazy

“This is so strange… . It remains in the video and has all the official records! As if everyone was hypnotized… .”

If you still search, information about Park Moon-dae’s activities pops up, but everyone acts as if they can’t see it.

The big moon went into a complete panic.

However, instead of giving her eyes there, Cheong-rye looked at Moondae Park on the sofa.

“… … .”

other way.

I had to remember.

[…] … .]

[If I look at something now… .]

“It’s okay.”

Cheong-Ri hung up the phone again.

And he opened his mouth in a dry voice.

“Why didn’t you stop?”

“… yes?”

Big Moon realized that he had spoken to him.

“I didn’t stop you.”

“You were obviously wary of your junior using the system. Very… .”

Cheongryeo looked at the big moon without expression.

“You seem cooperative and passive.”

“… !”

The big moon was hot in an instant.

“If you think about it that way, my older brother was trying to help you in the first place! My older brother prepared it from a long time ago. So regularly… … .”

The big moon’s words gradually faded away. Cheongryeo asked coldly.

“The system?”

And the big moon realized.

“I changed my body after using the system… .”

The more I thought about it, the more strange it was.

Park Moon-dae, who loves control so much, is so easily able to use the method of changing his body into an unreliable system.

Is that a conclusion that can be drawn immediately after thinking about it briefly?

“tongue… Hyung was originally very wary of the system, but at some point he started using it. Slowly and less vigilantly… .”

“… … .”

And so was he.

himself… I didn’t stop him from that moment on!

-all right. brother! Instead, if it’s strange, I have to come out right away… .

A flashback echoed in my head.

“… … .”

The big moon’s complexion turned blue.

‘Where did the influence come from?’

It almost felt like a horror movie.

And when I turned my head, I saw Moondae Park, who was still standing on the sofa.

“Moondae hyung… What the hell are you going through?”

* * *

I declared.

[I want to drink beer.]

“So.”

[Don’t you want to drink?]

The invitation to restart didn’t even respond. I mean don’t be silly.

‘I knew that.’

I stretched out my empty body and spread out as if lying on a bed.

This was a hotel in LA. VTIC is here for a tour rehearsal, so how can you suddenly pour alcohol into your mouth right now?

It was pretty good that I could have a comfortable conversation because it was a private room.

[It’s a joke. I had a hard time practicing.]

“My practice has nothing to do with you.”

I love you baby

Since I have nothing to do, shouldn't I have a small talk with a guy like you?

Of course, there was nothing that could be done while parasitic to the system, except to create a terminal for communication under tremendous pressure.

'It feels like working overtime endlessly.'

It's new, but I want the big moon to survive through my status window. I typed with a sigh.

[Why are you not related? The better you practice, the higher the chance of not restarting.]

After hesitating for a while, he just smiled and added the following words.

[And even if it has nothing to do with you, people are the ones who want to say something when they see someone doing well.]

[So your fans can support you too.]

"… … ."

[Have a good concert.]

"Yes."

Cheong-Ryeo answered surprisingly meekly.

'hmm.'

It seems I've gotten quite used to it.

I (ideally) crossed my arms.

It's been weeks since I've been talking to this guy.

As if chatting for a while was worthwhile, this guy is now less inclined to create tension all the time.

In addition, thanks to the newly collected information through the status window, the restart was temporarily suspended.

Of course, the conversation without sociality often made people angry, but it still means that it becomes a tug-of-war to some extent.

It's because this guy realized my usefulness.

Like this.

"To my profile."

OK.

I opened the guy's status window.

[Name: Cheongryeo (Shin Jaehyun)]

Singing: B+ (B+)

Dance: S+ (S+)

Appearance: A+ (S-)

Talent: A (A+)

Trait : Emotion (S)

It was so similar to the real Cheongryeo that it gave goosebumps.

It seems that this is the line that he completes by creating a perfect routine for a set period of time for the 'final content'.

[Are you going to fill up the remaining stats with practice?]

“That’s not urgent.”

Cheong-rye answered clearly.

“For individuals in a group, positioning comes first. I just need my skills to be good enough for the role.”

It means that you already have the capacity to overflow as a main dancer. Got it.

I’m the one who put all the stats into vocals only to get positioning as soon as a status abnormality got stuck in my head in the first place.

However, Cheong Ryeo’s words did not end there.

“The characteristics are more important than that.”

The guy shifted his gaze to see his own characteristics.

emotion.

Surprisingly, this guy seemed very happy with his personality.

It is an S-class characteristic that can judge the value of an individual like a knife.

The boy smiled faintly and spoke.

“Like I said. Because the combination is important.”

OK.

Creating an idol group congratulations on having the most advantageous characteristics.

Still, out of courtesy, I decided to try my prepared suggestion.

[Don’t you want to have a different characteristic?]

Recently, I created another terminal in this system and built up a new function for the status window.

A special reward given to me by the Big Moon before.

It is a roulette machine that draws characteristics.

But as expected… .

“I should have said this enough. Except when I ask questions myself… .”

[I do not recommend it. Do whatever you want.]

I thought you wouldn’t listen.

“yes.”

Cheong-Ryeo looked at my pop-up and replied with a gleeful smile.

It was a little bit different than before. I felt like I felt a slight jolt of joy in my reaction.

Are you having fun?

‘Are the results that I spent talking nonsense so far appearing?’

Of course, there is no sense of accomplishment. I held back a sigh.

‘I want to know why I have to do this in this state.’

It was frustrating to be stuck here without any hints.

I’d rather have noticed if it was a condition that happened to me.

‘… I’ll have to dig into the system more.’

I thought of going deeper into the system where I hadn’t yet created a terminal. In the meantime, I refrained from fearing that I would be thrown back because the backlash was so severe, but I couldn’t do it anymore.

It was then.

“I have a question.”

hmm?

While hesitating, Cheongryeo asked.

“Who were you?”

oh.

Finally, this question comes up.

With a bit of familiarity at the bottom, I guess I was finally in the mood to interrogate.

I went back to the terminal and hit the batter.

[What does it mean?]

“It means what missions have you solved.”

Cheong-ryo put on her pods as she was sitting at the table.

“First of all, since you brought up a story like beer, it must not be the same job.”

[…] … .]

I stopped drinking, bastard.

I stopped after imagining the sight of them confessing in detail that I was also an idol. I’m sorry.

[I didn’t drink often.]

[It wasn’t a very good job to drink and talk nonsense.]

“Haha.”

Cheong-Ryeo laughed a little comfortably and muttered as she leaned back in her chair.

“Talk.”

The conversation stopped for a moment as if lost in thought.

And Cheong-ryeo recited with thoughts, not with sounds.

“Well, I’ve done that before.”

‘… … .’

I didn’t bother to ask.

It was because he had already heard the results of the attempt from the real Cheongryeo.

It wasn’t that specific, though.

“one… Was it a member you wrote about ten times? I kept my composure well in the event of an accident, so I said it as a test.”

The boy grinned.

“It wasn’t a happy ending. Of course, since I said it right before the restart, there was no loss.”

[…] … .]

“Is this an example of not being nice to talk about? haha.”

hmm.

this… okay.

After thinking for a moment, I slowly completed my answer.

[I don’t know.]

[You must have recruited at least dozens of people in the group so far, besides him?]

Cheong-rye didn’t deny it.

I continued to finish my words.

[What you said is just one case out of dozens. Isn’t the probability that different results will come out in other trials is quite high?]

“… … .”

Cheong-rye was not surprised or impressed.

“I guess so.”

It seems that such calculations have already been made.

“However, sharing secrets in itself has little benefit versus risk.”

The boy grinned.

“And having a secret or not has nothing to do with using people.”

[No, it’s not that there’s no effect at all. It will be convenient to have a collaborator.]

Cheong-Ryeo replied indifferently.

“Amazing. I would have thought that stereotypes created by the mass media would exist in Help.”

I sighed.

[No, your mind will be at ease.]

But the opponent didn’t blink an eye.

“well. I am still not uncomfortable.”

It’s like talking to a wall.

But instead of grinding the keyboard, I calmly typed again.

[Yes.]

[I know that it’s dangerous and I’m not very reluctant to do it. it’s your heart It’s also true.]

[But it’s not bad to think about it again after work is over.]

[There’s nothing to lose then, right?]

Actually, the guy in real life has already told the members of the same group about his experience to some extent. was

The two guys who are here now were also included.

Now this guy doesn’t even know.

“… … .”

The guy seemed to have thought of something like ‘I’m saying that it’s not nutritious’, but in the end he answered like this.

“Remember.”

OK.

Still, a few weeks ago I would have said bullshit like, ‘I never said you had a say’, but now we’ve had quite a conversation. I laughed and removed my hand from the terminal.

[Then, have a good trip.]

After a while, Cheongryeo successfully finished rehearsal for the concert tour with the other members of VTIC.

But still, not a single system window popped up for me, and no hints such as missions or status abnormalities popped up.

I'd be lying if I said I wasn't worried about whether I'd be stuck here forever… In any case, time itself passed without a hitch.

And VTIC's tour began.

"From now on, 'conversation' will only be possible after the concert."

[…] … .]

"Remember."

I can't… Do you really have to stay here like this?

Until that dog is born?

* * *

"Haam."

Lee Se-jin passed Cha Yoo-jin, who was yawning profusely, at a pleasant pace and headed to the kitchen.

The mild holiday afternoon was a bit drowsy.

Even Lee Se-jin leisurely thought that today it would be better to study Spanish rather than exercise.

By inviting a friend!

'Then together… .'

"… … ."

Come to think of it, isn't there really no one in this team to study Spanish with?

Most of them had a special language or were more interested in other things than languages.

‘Mmm.’

Strangely, he felt a slight drop in his mood.

But he had been in the industry too long to be swayed by that feeling, so he soon regained his jolly demeanor and walked back to the kitchen.

Then he found a friend of the same age sitting at the table with a strangely hard face.

“Ahyeonahyeon~ What are you doing!”

“… ah.”

Seon Ah-hyun suddenly raised her head.

Big Sejin caught again that the complexion was not very good.

“… hmm. What can I help you with? Did something bad happen?”

“Oh no.”

It was only then that Seon Ah-hyun lowered the search bar on the portal site that was still floating.

– Park Moon-dae

Chapter 546

If you can’t debut, you’ll get a fatal disease Episode 546

VTIC’s tour was a great success.

-Thanks LA!

-Waaaaa!!

Even when rumors of a romantic relationship broke out, few overseas fans canceled the scheduled concert.

It wasn’t a media activity, so I didn’t catch a special pod in Korea.

So, it was natural for LeTi to focus on the tour.

Thanks to that, it’s funny that the guy who got into the accident has a more pale complexion, but the VTIC members seem to be a little relieved.

“Today was good~”

“I will.”

Maybe it’s because they don’t feel that it’s the end if they can’t make up for it in their next domestic comeback.

And the one who has experienced it dozens of times… .

[Wasn’t today a day off?]

He’s practicing like a dog.

They said there was a problem with the concert production.

– My feet don’t fit.

Leaving that word behind, he is picking and eating people to prevent them from leaving work.

‘They said it would restart.’

In the meantime, there is another greed for the stage.

It was spectacular to see the VTIC guys following without a sound. Even the guy who started dating rumors didn’t even dare to lose weight while paying attention.

In the meantime, it was a bit funny that the two VTICs in real life were having fun.

“oh! Our feet fit perfectly!”

“Doesn’t this make you feel a little better?”

Those guys are full-timers. I nodded inwardly.

And Cheong-rye, who was looking at the two with the eyes of grading new employees interviewing, answered my question like this.

“It’s because the concert is off, not us.”

It was an established theory.

Come to think of it, I also rarely take a break in the middle of a tour.

‘Because I usually spend my time filming my own content.’

I wanted to leave work at times, but overall it was a good experience. No, I was a bit tired, though.

It’s quite fun to hang out with comfortable guys you’ve been with for years as if you’re traveling… .

[…] … .]

“Your attitude is strange.”

[No.]

Let’s not fall into sentimentality needlessly for things that don’t have a solution right away.

[Seeing others work reminds me of what I was doing.]

[Never mind.]

“… … .”

Cheong-rye nodded slightly, almost invisible, and continued practicing casually.

However, during the break between choreography practice, the guy stopped drinking water and asked:

“When I restart.”

hmm?

“How are you?”

Let’s see.

It seemed that I was wondering if I was not disappearing but returning to my original body.

[I don’t know.]

I answered honestly.

[I was worried because I wasn’t sure. Because you don’t know what will happen.]

“Um.”

Cheong-Ryeo cleaned up the water bottle she was drinking.

After living with this guy for about three months, the frequency of power-hungry attempts to suppress him when he is wrong has decreased considerably.

… Well, that’s not to say there aren’t any.

I recalled a conversation a few days ago.

-Did you go to T-Holic prison by any chance?

– I don’t think the help that tells you the future is a question to ask.

-… … .

-What do you think?

-uh. In the future I knew, T-Holic eats rice with you.

To be honest, it was more comfortable.

In that sense, I expected the next conversation.

Let’s see, I said something like ‘Your restart is dangerous to me’, so maybe this guy is saying bullshit to me like ‘Then do a better job’… .

“A risk that cannot be counted with certainty is cumbersome to deal with… .”

hmm?

I stopped predicting.

Chung-ryo murmured as she put the water bottle back in its original place.

“That’s right.”

oh.

This seems to have some room to pull off.

[That’s right.]

[Besides, if the help pops up, you’re also a handicapper

“I’m still trying to convince you not to restart.”

It’s ruined.

If I had my hands and could only hit one of his heads, I think I could give him the quarterly settlement.

“but… .”

Cheongryeo returned to her seat and continued.

“It would be okay to spend about 359 days searching for information.”

[…] !]

“As you said.”

I realized that I had succeeded in plucking.

In the end, Cheongryeo Nom himself admitted that he didn’t have to restart until he saw the results of the next album.

The guy who uses his energy to defeat this person!

[thanks. Help me.]

[□_□b]

He smiled faintly. The atmosphere is very good… .

“How about looking back on the value of your own existence to say that help is helpful?”

[I know you haven’t lost anything. Bastard.]

After that, a few words of conversation were exchanged, but Cheong-ryo did not cancel her words.

hmm. I (mentally) rubbed my chin.

‘This really works.’

It means being a comfortable conversation partner.

Didn’t I come to the point where I would consider my condition if there was no loss to me no matter which way I chose?

Like a rattle for three months, you’re harvesting your efforts like this.

‘If you keep going like this, you might say why don’t you get a dog… .’

no that seems impossible I scrapped the hope torture.

‘I’ll have to find clues before that.’

“Let’s go in!”

“okay.”

VTIC’s practice ended later that afternoon, and Cheong-rye returned to her hotel.

[What are you going to do now?]

“Rest.”

And he sat down on a chair attached to the table and closed his eyes briefly.

“… … .”

Why leave the bed?

Anyway, it had nothing to do with me. Now I can’t sleep at all

It wasn’t a very pleasant feeling, but considering that it was quite dangerous for me to lose my mind in this situation, this side was rather safe.

Let’s just use our free time well.

‘Let’s dig deeper into the system.’

In case there are any clues, I decided to take this opportunity to dig deeper into the system.

Tung.

If you could hear it, it probably sounded like that.

I moved forward smoothly through the pressure.

‘Mmm.’

Come to think of it, from a certain point on, the pressure peculiar to this system was not so unpleasant.

It’s like when you sit in a massage chair, your body is pressed, but you feel cool and stable.

‘It’s rare.’

I fell into the system much more comfortably than before, as if I were surrendering to the flow.

more inside.

more inside.

deeper.

[…] … .]

It was the first time I had ever come this deep.

When I am enduring my mind getting foggy as if I am being weighed down by a thick blanket.

‘ah.’

Something was visible.

A deep interior never reached before.

Surprisingly, there was something glowing in it.

‘hmm?’

that… It was a terminal for the status window.

i never made

‘… … .’

It’s strange.

Didn’t Keundal start making such a terminal to implement a status window?

‘This is a system before the big moon was formed, so there must be no terminal itself.’

Why does this remain?

I reached out and made contact with the terminal as carefully as possible.

Then, like other terminals, the status window is implemented… .

The problem is that the content is familiar.

[Start reboot]

– Learning in progress.

‘… !!’

reboot.

It was the pop-up message I saw before I fell here after recovering all the system fragments.

However, the description below… it hadn’t been there before.

‘learning?’

It was then.

-Help.

A voice was heard as if calling from above.

oh shit I held back my sleep.

‘Wait a little.’

It’s a clue I barely found.

I want to think deeply about why this is here and what role it plays… .

-Help.

You are tenacious.

Holding my breath, I wiped my hands off the terminal and stood up.

‘Because if I don’t give an answer, the other side might think in vain.’

Now that you've memorized this terminal location, it's easy to get back to it.

I quickly escaped the pressure and headed to the chat terminal on the surface of the system.

And once the answer was given.

[Why.]

"… … ."

No, why did you call me and not say anything?

Oddly enough, Chung-ryeo was already wearing street clothes, as if she had already woken up and was ready to go out.

[Does anyone have to take out a profile?]

"It's not like that."

But instead of going out, he headed to the refrigerator installed in his hotel room.

Then he took out a can of drink from it.

beer right away.

'… ??'

"You said you wanted to drink."

Then he returns to the table and takes a slow sip.

He doesn't like beer very much, so his expression doesn't look good. Besides, I don't see you even mentioning my preference… I think it's an act of being considerate in its own way.

'That's great.'

I chuckled.

I’m sorry, but I didn’t share the taste.

So, seeing other people drinking, there is a degree of satisfaction that is roughly equivalent to playing a VR game.

Although it’s funny to say this at a watermelon surface.

[Thank you.]

The attempt is imaginary. I decided to think of it as a non-alcoholic beer.

[But what kind of beer is that all of a sudden?]

He answered briefly.

“compensation.”

‘… ?’

[What reward.]

“… … .”

Cheong-rye looked away instead of answering.

[!Unauthorized error occurred]

[Are you sure you want to remove the status window (■■■)?]

With that popup.

‘for a moment.’

[What are you thinking right now]

“I was thinking about it during the break.”

Before I could finish the sentence, he started muttering.

“If it is difficult to predict what will happen, getting rid of it is the most reliable option.”

‘… … .’

“Knowing that, it wouldn’t make sense for me to choose the option of suspending the restart instead of removing you.”

[…] !!]

Chung-Ryeo tapped the beer with her finger.

“Actually, this behavior itself is strange. I can just delete it, but I’m going to proceed after talking and making compensation.”

The guy tilted his head to the side.

‘… … .’

Cheong-ryeo removed the beer from the table.

And said it with numb eyes.

“I can’t be affected like this in 90 days.”

[Wait a minute.]

X done.

This bastard also realized that he was starting to be generous with me.

And I don’t rate it very well… It seems not.

‘X feet.’

If it had a backbone, it would have been chilly. I gritted my teeth.

‘I have to go out rationally.’

from usability.

[In addition to adding new attributes, you can also prepare a way to quickly raise your stats.] [

In addition, the real-time display of abnormal conditions is not necessary for you] “It’s unnecessary. My idea is already complete.”

Cheongryeo put on a pod and smiled quietly.

“I have all the information I need. All that remains is to restart and find the perfect combination.”

It’s crazy.

“You just have to try a few more times. There is nothing difficult. The ability to start all over again… .”

Cheongryeo stared at the pop-up without moving.

“I already have it.”

strong conviction.

I stopped the terminal for a moment.

‘… … .’

At that moment, Chung-ryeo took her hand off the beer and raised her hand to the pop-up.

“then.”

no.

[I’ll just keep my mouth shut, so don’t press it.]

[You’re excited. It’s an emotional choice] and solicitation.

“Enough.”

Took.

I pressed the remove button as if touching it lightly.

That moment.

[Status window (■■■) removal completed]

I was torn as if being ripped apart.

* * *

Next to the sofa where Moondae Park collapsed.

“Maybe good… .”

The big moon was desperately trying to squeeze out his thoughts. But my mind was completely white.

I tried to explore the system, but the system that was originally inside the park was not connected without a trace.

No, I didn’t feel anything in Park Moon-dae’s body at all.

‘Oh, no.’

That was the scariest thing.

The sense of being always connected is gone.

It was like entering a family room and feeling empty. A sense of emptiness and fear left the big moon devastated.

But the disappointment did not last long.

“listen.”

“… ?”

Cheong-Ryeo was already trying something new.

While looking down at the big moon with his smartphone in his hand, he put the incoming call on the speaker phone.

Then a lively voice was heard.

[Uh, Moondae hyung?]

“… !!”

[Why are you calling me? Is this a broadcast?]

Kwon Hee-seung.

Moondae Park was the last system user to refer to as Gold 2.

‘oh my god.’

He is the Testa Park Moondae… I remembered!

[Ummm.]

Kwon Hee-seung poked his head with an excited face, but when he saw Daedal’s bewildered face, he realized that it was not a broadcast.

He asked cautiously with a bewildered expression.

[The atmosphere isn’t unusual for some reason… ?]

Keun-dal, dressed in Ryu Gun-woo’s body, looked at the situation in the video call with a feeling that he was about to cry.

After a while.

[No ah no… .]

Kwon Hee-seung, who had heard everything that had happened, opened his mouth and sighed.

What does this mean?

[How does that older brother get caught up in the incident every time? Wow!]

I mean.

The big moon wanted to cry a little. However, the person sitting next to him did not blink an eye.

It was because the purpose of the call was different.

“I have a question for you.”

[Yes??]

“How similar is the current situation to your experience as a server?”

“… !!”

Keundal almost jumped out of his seat.

And it was the same for Kwon Hee-seung, who was on the phone.

[Hey, that’s right! Are they the same? You’re forgetting me! When I became a servant!]

Although he had purposely erased most of his memories, he felt a sense of déjà vu right away because a few large pieces of information or feelings remained.

Isn’t it the same that only Park Moon-dae and Cheong-ryeo, who were involved in the system, remember themselves?

Kwon Hee-seung shouted in astonishment.

[Moondae hyung, maybe you got sucked into this system and became a part of it? Like parts!]

* * *

“Huh.”

I let out a breath and got up.

My nerves were twisted like I was about to vomit, and the pressure was all over the place.

It was as if he was suffering from a suffocating hangover, or as if his intestines were twisted or his semicircular canals were shattered.

‘Damn it… .’

I pressed my hand to the temple area… for a moment.

“… !!”

I removed my hand from my temple.

There was a touch.

When I raised my hand and brought it in front of my eyes, I saw my hand.

“… … .”

What is this?

‘Did he come back?’

Damn Cheongryeo said that the correct answer was to click ‘yes’ on the status window delete window?

I stumbled and got up. I was thinking of checking how much time had passed and where I was here.

But as soon as I lifted my head, I realized.

This wasn’t the JSA.

“… … !”

It was midnight around.

even… It wasn’t even Korea.

This was LA.

It was very familiar, so I recognized it right away. Because it was the place I had just seen in the status window of Cheongryeo!

This venue was the place where VTIC had their tour concert.

‘Damn it.’

Originally a sports stadium, the neighborhood had been refurbished with VTIC-related promotional tents and decorations, but the crowds who would have enjoyed it had almost disappeared.

‘What is this again?’

I’m full of spirits.

I limped and tried to lean against the wall, but almost fell.

It was then.

Someone tapped me on the shoulder.

“… … .”

Am I in a situation where I can be seen by others?

I immediately turned my head.

A man with both hands raised was seen under a dark streetlight.

“It looks like you need help from the public authorities.”

“… … .”

I looked at Inyoung standing across from me with a puzzled face.

“I know the embassy number.”

On this side, the person who is still a trainee.

It was a cast iron.

Chapter 547

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 547

Cheongryeo's 100th restart.

It was here that I learned that Judan hadn't debuted with VTIC.

But I didn't expect to meet in such an absurd situation.

It was Cheongryeo's status window, but it was deleted, so when I woke up, I was outside the VTIC concert hall at night.

furthermore… .

I pressed my temples and asked again.

"Embassy?"

What are you talking about knowing the number of the embassy?

"yes."

However, Zhu Dan nodded casually.

"It's midnight in this weather and you're not even wearing a coat, so it looks like you got caught up in theft by drinking too much."

"… … ."

"If you think you have a passport, why don't you check it first."

In a word, I am now like a tourist who got hit by a drunk while in a foreign country.

… It looks pretty miserable. I asked with my temple pressed.

"… Do you have a mirror?"

"You can use the smartphone selfie mode… ."

Zhu Dan stopped talking and looked at me with mysterious eyes.

It's the expression that I knew it would be like that.

"It seems that your smartphone is also gone."

"… … ."

create a reason

Rather good. No need to make excuses.

"I want to move to a warm place first."

"Ah, a place where you can come in and out at a short distance… Hmm, this way."

I quickly moved my feet following the guy who started giving directions.

As I walked along like that, apart from the pain, my mind slowly began to regain my composure.

'Current status… .'

I still had the feeling that if I missed it, I would get caught up in it and lose my mind again, but I was able to endure it no matter what.

Instead, the condition of the body was like garbage.

'The whole body seemed to be smashed.'

It was like the aftereffects of being ripped off from the status window.

Well, I thought the worst would go away, but it's unfortunate that this is enough, but the average ride… .

"… … ."

And slowly I realized

'Are you insane?'

What the hell are you accepting naturally?

It became a status window and I got out of the crazy experience of living in the system for 3 months. You should rather like it. What kind of idea is this crap?

Even when living in the system. Flirting and sending emoticons? I?

Instead of trembling to find a way back and rolling his head hard.

'It's strange.'

And the same goes for this deletion case.

It was a problem that I should have expected and prepared for when I thought of his thought circuit. No, shouldn't I have prepared something with my teeth to grind the back of the head first.

'… No.'

I recalled coldly.

I definitely thought so at the beginning of the status window.

'But at some point I forgot.'

And he was beaten without preparation.

I couldn’t draw the big picture and just appealed for my usefulness to not delete it… no.

Not ‘me’, but the usefulness of the status window… it appealed

“… … .”

these X feet.

Didn’t I try to naturally equate myself with the status window?

driving me crazy. I wiped my face with both hands.

‘Am I affected by this if I’m in the system?’

So in conclusion… .

I had assimilated to the point where I felt comfortable with the resistance and pressure I had felt when accessing the system before.

to a dangerous level.

Wiping a cold sweat, I calmly thought.

‘I’m glad I bounced off.’

I’m in the worst shape right now, but I’m glad I got out of this damn mindset. Aren’t you at least feeling weird and giving me goosebumps?

The more I looked back on the three months I spent in the status window, the more absurd I felt.

… And there were things that were finally understood.

‘The big moon also went through this process.’

Personality traits disappear and the self gradually becomes assimilated as part of the system.

mouth was written Especially since I don’t know how reality works now.

‘I hope reality doesn’t have the same time flow as here.’

Park Moon-dae disappeared for 3 months? If so, there would already be an uproar on the internet, and even if I go back, I won’t be able to work like before because I’m trying to explain it.

‘after.’

how do you handle this

It was a time when I was clutching my head and getting confused about a messy family.

In the meantime, the guy next to me started talking to me.

“In case I suddenly spoke to you at the perfect timing, you might suspect another crime, such as human trafficking… .”

When is the main story coming out?

“I am a trainee at LeTi. There was something I left behind, so I came to look for it for a while.”

“Ah yes.”

“If you are wondering why I came to VTIC senior’s concert as a trainee… .”

oh it’s obvious

“Are you going to debut?”

“… … yes.”

“The company must have requested it for the purpose of gaining experience.”

The company usually brings ‘a passionate rookie who came to see the senior’s stage’ for media play and snow painting.

Since it is a company with a lot of money, they must have brought it to the LA concert to show the symbolism of America.

“… … yes.”

Ju Dan finally shut his mouth and started to move only his feet. I guess it was correct.

The place he guided us to was a cafe/bar-like place.

Well, it was an appropriate choice because most cafes abroad would be closed at this time.

The heated air was warm, but I couldn’t feel much of a difference, perhaps because my body was in so much pain.

I responded rationally.

“Thanks for the guidance. But the cafe… I have no money.”

“I will buy you a cup of coffee.”

uh i was waiting for that answer. I resisted the urge to grind whiskey and ordered something like a roughly hot latte.

“I’m sorry, but it seems difficult to accompany you after calling the embassy. It’s already close to midnight, but I can’t move after that.”

“yes. LeTi is like that. curfew.”

“… … .”

“We need to release official publicity materials, but there is also a problem with eyewitness accounts. All right.”

“… … .”

why.

Ju-dan seemed to be in serious agony about something, so he asked.

“Are you involved?”

Did you know now

I didn’t answer, but he scanned my face and nodded.

“You look decent, but as you know, the industry values age, so you probably aren’t an idol trainee. then… .”

“… … .”

Is it true that I’m sitting here at night listening to these sounds?

In fact, I figured out my appearance from the reflection in the window here.

I was Ryu Gun-woo.

That’s the look of the office worker right before the end of the day.

The good news is that it’s thin, but it’s a street wear. It would have been awesome if it was a nightgown style. I silently drank the latte served.

“Ah, have you already debuted?”

I didn’t answer.

Isn’t it ambiguous to say that we debuted or not?

In order to return to the state I debuted in the first place, I have to return to reality… There was only one clue that I was able to figure out now.

-[Rebooting]

That terminal.

The pop-up I saw in the system and contacted before being brought here in real life.

That was the only clue.

But to see it again, it means you have to access the system again, and you have to be able to endure sober while going through the symptoms of the human brain becoming flaccid again.

I frowned.

‘Then, should I contact Cheongryeo again?’

This time, I’m going to make good use of the bastard trying to restart to kill me… .

“… … .”

wait for a sec.

I recalled the situation where I was removed by him through the status window.

Cheongryeo’s attire at that time.

‘I was wearing street clothes.’

The reason why I suddenly changed my mind even though I didn’t have an outing schedule.

no way… .

“… … .”

have you already restarted

Come to think of it, it’s a natural circuit. I removed the status window saying it would delay the restart, but of course I tried to restart immediately without wasting any more time.

Then I… I mean, where are you now?

In the life he restarted for the 101st time? Or is this world going to be different again regardless of whether Chungryeo restarted it or not?

‘That wouldn’t make sense.’

In other words, the big moon had already figured out that going back to the past meant that the real world itself was rewinding backwards.

I looked down at the coffee cup I finished drinking and rolled my head.

‘It’s decided either way.’

First of all, finding out the whereabouts of Cheongryeo is the first step.

… … I mean in that sense.

I looked up.

good to use… No, I saw a very good helper.

“hmm. If you’ve calmed down, it might be a good idea to contact the embassy soon.”

While sipping the Einstephener he had ordered, Judan was shaking his lips like this.

I answered him seriously.

“There is no need for that.”

“… ! The reason is?”

His eyes flashed as if he had come up with some extraordinary idea.

Rather good.

I opened my mouth leisurely.

Something that might interest him… .

good. I can't help it.

"I am from the future."

"Puheap."

Zhou Dan exhaled the Einsteppener he had been drinking.

* * *

"… therefore."

As if he had fallen into a trance, he was talking quickly.

"The current leader of VTIC has the ability to go back to the past, and he inherited it and wrote it as a future person… ."

"yes."

I hung up, but it didn't matter if I let them talk freely. because it is foreign

Besides, even if you understand it, you'll know what kind of fans are making settings and playing. Because it sounds like dog shit.

However, as expected, this nonsense worked well for Ju Dan.

With a mischievous face, he asked me a few questions about whether there was something strange in the context of my words, and he is still seriously verifying… .

"This is really interesting. Have you ever heard of Chaos Theory? It's like the butterfly effect… ."

"yes. I looked up a lot of theories."

I hastily cut him off.

no time It would be better for me to verify it sooner rather than later.

“If you research my personal information, you will know, but right now I’m probably still in college. It will come out that you are in Korea.”

And when he even logged in to my university account, the guy who checked the information carefully nodded his head.

It seems like the medicine is working… .

“Wouldn’t you like to meet yourself in this timeline? um no I don’t really want to recommend it. It’s a bit risky.”

“… … .”

be patient

“So do you believe me?”

“Assuming you believe, let’s act. To be honest, you seem to know me well.”

“… … .”

“I guess there was a connection in the future?”

I weakly nodded.

“great.”

The boy said it quite confidently.

Zhou Dan adjusted his outfit and said while putting on a pod.

“first… You seem older than me, but you speak comfortably.”

“okay.”

“… … .”

He nodded his head at once, and was silent as if embarrassed. what.

“… … Can I speak comfortably?”

“Yes.”

“It’s actually fine. I feel comfortable with respectful words.”

why did you ask

Anyway, I’m back to the point.

“… I get it. Anyway, so there is one thing I want to check here.”

I looked at him seriously.

“Did Cheongnyeo go back to the past?”

“… !”

Ju Dan’s complexion changed.

A little thrill added.

“If that’s the case, senior Cheongryeo could have already… .”

I nodded.

“I’ll have to check that out.”

Zhu Dan swallowed his saliva.

“All right.”

thank you for fishing

* * *

I stayed at Ju Dan’s inn for one night.

It was a suitable business hotel, but the company supported me until this point.

“Does anyone share a dorm?”

“It was originally a two-person room, but I went out to stay somewhere else with my family. Thanks to that, I was able to write comfortably.”

There is a golden spoon in the debut group. Anyway, thanks to that, I was able to avoid clumsy excuses and sleeping on the floor.

But in fact, I couldn’t fall asleep even after lying in bed that day. I’m not sure if it’s okay to sleep, and the pain is so bad.

Thanks to that, I had enough time to reflect on my judgment.

ruler.

First of all, short-term measures such as ‘how to deal with Cheongryeo depending on the situation’.

These things can be planned while checking the situation at that time. I’m not feeling well right now, but I can use my brain.

The problem is this.

fundamental threat.

-You must re-enter the system to check the clues.

When I go back, what effect will I have?

“… … .”

Damn.

Even if the clue itself was bait, I had to see it.

‘Because I have to go back.’

I stayed up all night in such fierce calculations.

and the next day.

Ju Dan led me to the VTIC concert venue again.

Actually, the concert is tomorrow, but most of the officials are here.

“If you’re my cousin, you won’t be interrogated.”

I even made some background information at will, but I just left it. We have to keep that level of fun so we can continue to cooperate.

“For reference, there are no special rumors about Cheongryeo.”

… okay.

So, since morning, I have been secretly following him to the aisle of the VTIC concert.

However, my head was cold with a problem that had not yet been answered.

‘How I can come to my senses in the system.’

I needed that.

In the meantime, I inevitably passed the place where I came to my senses yesterday.

It was enough to know that the atmosphere had changed 180 degrees even in the middle of the hectic situation.

– Ohhh!

bright and noisy

The chatter and laughter of excited people echoed here and there. And VTIC’s hit songs came in between them.

It was a spectacle like a concert audience.

What's interesting is that you can hear things that aren't VTIC songs at all.

[Come on baby you know it's real!]

[It's like sweet cotton candy!]

"Hmm, it's like a Kpop random dance challenge. What you see on the west side looks like a professional dance team performing."

Zhu Dan nodded while looking at the plaza-like place.

There were overflowing small stages here and there in the large space for WeTube videos or to enjoy the eve of the concert.

"VTIC is a group that represents the genre. So, there are many cases where concert commemoration becomes a festival about KPOP itself. As you already know, let me explain."

okay. I already know.

I've seen it a few times at our concerts.

"… … ."

hmm.

I checked my form.

A stranger in a hat.

and asked

"Can anyone participate in something like that?"

"yes. It will be, but usually only local fans participate due to manners… … ."

I didn’t listen to the end and moved on.

“hey?”

* * *

After a while.

In the middle of a noisy and exciting festival.

A man in a black hat stood at the top of the stairs holding a simple microphone.

“… … .”

Joo Dan wondered if this was an unexpected action or if he was guiding a mentally ill person, but for now, he stood on the other side and watched his actions.

The man checked the microphone with surprising skill, but as if something was awkward.

And while trying to choose an accompaniment on Witube… .

I hesitated.

“… … .”

There are few songs sung by Testa Park Moon-dae.

All of them are songs that will come out in the future, and those are songs that will come out in a future that will develop in a different direction than now. For now, it was just an imaginary song in his head.

And of course.

‘… okay. There is none.’

There are no songs by Testa.

Not even one song.

“… … .”

But that didn’t mean it couldn’t be called.

The man finally chose a song.

Soon, with a faint accompaniment, a man picked up the microphone.

Tutuk.

at the very beginning.

A song I practiced to become an idol when I just crash landed on a new life.

That song that I practiced so often back then that still flows with the feeling of that time.

It comes out through Ryu Gun-woo’s mouth.

[I remember the me I knew.]

First review song for Park Moon-dae’s < Re-listed! Idol Inc. >.

This is a solo song that the youngest member of T-Holic, which disbanded, released just a few weeks ago.

Here, the song that has not even been reversed yet is now riding on Ryu Gun-woo’s voice.

“Shining and dazzling – beyond the seasons to the tired and weak days.”

Overlapped with the poor microphone quality, the live voice rang together.

“Containing my broken self oh… .”

[Only me.]

[Yes, It’s me.]

The voice spread.

Chapter 548

Episode 548

Kim Rae-bin raised his head.

At first glance, the complex and closely spaced dots and lines in the PC, which has been working for a while, looked dizzy.

But he knew that if he turned it all into notes, it would sound amazingly harmonious and beautiful… .

But it was strange.

‘Who’s going to sing it?’

Of course, I also made a song that I imagined as a singer as a hobby. After the members created an account for ‘Star Song’ together, he would sometimes create songs full of imagination without a narrator.

However, the fact that the song is completed so quickly and concretely means that he has a very clear singing voice in his head.

“that… .”

Looking at the recorded notes, he reflexively began to translate them into sound sources in his head.

Even a voice that fits this sound source like a puzzle.

It’s a clear, solid voice.

It’s not overly heavy, and there’s a little bit of soft air mixed into the note as it goes up and down the octave.

And, as if drawing out emotions at the exquisitely precise moment, the appealing sound does not overdo the vibrato… .

“Kim Raebin composing again?”

“… !”

At that moment, Raebin Kim turned his head in surprise.

Cha Yoo-jin was lying on one of the beds in his room and waving.

“I want to listen too!”

“… okay.”

A strange regret remained in my head, as if I had escaped an inch of realization during a deep awakening.

For some reason, Rabin Kim let out a small sigh and connected the speaker to the PC instead of headphones.

The music colored the room as three-dimensional layers shimmered and bounced in all directions.

“Wow.”

Cha Yoo-jin, who was rolling around on the bed, also stopped moving for a moment.

He fell in love with the music as he whistled softly. And Kim Rae-bin was also immersed in the music again.

After that beautiful music and silence dominated the space for several tens of seconds.

Cha Yoo-jin suddenly opened her mouth.

“By the way, Rabin Kim. Why is there another bed here?”

“… … .”

Kim Rae-bin looked at the extra bed Cha Yu-jin pointed at with a blank expression.

“… I would have bought it just in case.”

“when?”

“therefore… Quite a while ago.”

“For whom?”

Kim Rae-bin stopped talking.

Like a fog, a blank space that I had inadvertently passed floats in my head.

The sound source he created rode through the speakers and shook his mind like a background sound.

who owns the bed

And who did he assume and make this song with a range from 1 octave degree (C3) to 3 octave re# (D#5)?

* * *

Square next to the concert hall.

The wind blowing outdoors hit the hat.

However, Ryu Gun-woo was immersed in singing to the extent that he could hardly feel it, let alone bothered by it.

The tune that goes up like an escalator leads the song, stepping lightly on the stepping-stone-like beat.

-So I,

I, I have to commemorate myself,

I have to never forget,

I’m focused to immerse myself, but I’m not anxious.

A clever way to catch your ears.

The way he sang in front of an audience did not change.

However, this song did not come from the vocal chords of an idol’s main vocalist, honed through years of practice and management activities.

It was the sound coming from the vocal chords of Ryu Gun-woo, who did not even take singing as a hobby.

therefore.

-Okay, remember.

Until now, it’s slightly husky.

There are parts where the pitch doesn’t come out the way you want, and there are parts where the voice doesn’t seem to be what you want.

However, it was the same when Moondae Park first sang this song in < Azusa >. -Always don’t forget the amazing miracle that made you live today.

Don’t erase

it. The essence doesn’t change.

-So congratulations,

commemorate the present

That’s the party in me

As if every day is a party Ooh-

He was Testa’s Park Moon-dae.

Wherever you are, whatever you look like.

The identity formed in the densest and most intense time of his life over the past few years was so solid that it kept him in place.

i was me

-Let’s PARTY

The clear voice that does not shake even at high notes fills the range of the microphone.

Only one song was filled to the end and ended happily.

The man bowed his head as usual.

mate.

A few applause from the audience, who stopped and listened, filled the seats at the end of the accompaniment.

At the VTIC concert hall, however, there was a mysterious expression mixed in, perhaps because of the song of T-Holic, who was a former rival.

Still, a reaction is a reaction.

Applause was applause.

“… … .”

He came down the stairs with a deep breath.

Ju Dan, who finally recovered from his blank expression, made a confident comment.

“You are a singer.”

Testa Park Mun-dae did not answer and smiled.

* * *

The cast iron man talked a lot.

Seeing that I picked a song with a thick face in a plaza where people pass by, it seemed that he was sure that he was making a living with this.

Thanks to that, I was listening to this guy’s mystery parade with great admiration… Wasn’t he originally a bit grotesquely secularist?

‘Why are you so excited?’

The problem is that the batting average is very high.

“Are you working as a singer in LeTi in the future?”

“… … .”

“From the knowledge that only LeTi officials should know, to the appearance that this agency prefers… .”

And it has finally come to this point.

“No wait… okay. Are you debuting as the last member of our debut group soon? Considering that about 10 years have passed, it seems that my age is about right… … .”

“no.”

I’m going crazy because it’s plausible.

However, Zhu Dan nodded slightly meaningfully.

It is the face that even the members I meet in the future see.

“All right. I know that.”

“… … ..”

… Let’s not say that we’ve been through something similar.

I silently moved on.

Well, it seems like a problem with the selection of the song that the eyes follow slightly from the surroundings.

‘Anyway, did T-Holic’s solo song cross the line?’

It wasn’t intentional though.

Actually, I was walking down the street and suddenly grabbed the microphone and sang… Because I wanted to feel it.

‘The fact that I was Park Moon-dae.’

I felt like I needed it to stay sane within the system.

To vividly experience the life I have lived in the past few years.

That is to ensure identity.

Furthermore, I have no evidence or connection with Testa Park Moondae.

In the end, what I felt was important.

And I’m sure… It worked. It is self-convincing.

that idol is me

I smiled and clasped my hand, then opened it.

‘good.’

I’m sure.

As long as I don’t lose this sense, I can come to my senses anywhere. Even if it is inside the system.

Let’s go ahead and define it now.

– Just because I open the status window doesn’t mean I’m a system.

Isn’t the cause of the status window very human in the first place?

the big moon

The status window came out because he wanted to help me live as an idol.

He’s been doing that for years.

‘I can’t say that my identity collapsed after a few fucking months.’

Somehow sane, look at the terminal in the system.

I blinked and moved my feet. Zhu Dan, who finally calmed down, pointed to a nearby building.

okay.

“There it is. Arriving soon… .”

It was then.

“Isn’t that the one who sang in the plaza earlier?”

“… ??”

A human interrupted in a bright and loud voice.

‘This is the voice of the sales person.’

Besides, I'm a bit familiar with it, so when I check my face… .

"Chief."

"Uh oh oh dan!"

"… … ."

He is the head of LeTi's rookie development team.

'Hey, no way.'

This person, who deliberately made a fuss with Zhu Dan and pretended to know him, glared at me pretending to ask a question to Zhu Dan.

"Do you know someone? Oh, is this the relative you said you were coming to? Wow, you can't cheat on your bloodline, so how could your cousin be so handsome? I was surprised. You sing so well… ."

"… … ."

"Ah, it's still early… Are you before that meal? I was going to buy a meal from U Dan, but there is a restaurant here."

"… that."

"How are you? Right next door! Actually, you sang a song so beautifully earlier… You weren't even nervous. I was too immersed from the audience's point of view! So I want to buy a meal… ."

"… … ."

It seems that the selection of T-Holic songs had an aggro effect more than expected.

hmm.

'Wouldn't it be more natural this way?'

It means digging up information.

After a quick calculation, I opened my mouth.

“yes. hmm… thank you.”

“What are you talking about! I am grateful.”

The head of the rookie development team was delighted and quickly pointed to a place called a restaurant, and naturally our destination changed.

The cast iron was sukdeok.

“Could you count this far and sing that song?”

can it be

But I just grinned.

“We move.”

Ju Dan looked at me with eyes that said he had reevaluated me.

It’s not a scam. fraud.

“Are you okay here?”

“yes. thank you.”

As expected at the ‘restaurant’, the manager investigated my identity while slowly relaxing the atmosphere with small talk during the meal.

“I see!”

And, as if I thought it was right, I started to unwind at all when my stomach was full and dessert was served.

It is the basis for persuasion for the contract.

It was mainly to compliment LeTi in an open-minded manner about how attractive the agency was in reality… Of course, it is impossible not to talk about a signboard artist.

VTIC.

“This LA concert sold out really quickly.”

And I looked at the face of the talking chief.

‘I’m fine.’

Besides, he dragged himself into the story without any hesitation. Seeing that he wasn’t careful at all, it means that this person was not informed of any member-related emergency.

“Udan has a long training period, but if you do well, you get rewarded… .”

And all sorts of information from this person’s mouth, from the trainee cast to the disbandment of T-Holic.

Looking at the various realities of the present that match the information I have gathered as a status window, a clear conclusion emerges.

– Cheongrye hasn’t restarted yet.

This is still in his 100th restart life.

It’s possible that Gnome is still preparing to restart, or that it ran into other problems trying to restart and put it on hold.

I came to a quick conclusion.

‘Then now only contact remains.’

Now, if I just aim for the timing to reject the scout of the person named Chief Lee and send him back, naturally collide with Cheongryeol and pass by… .

“So, Mr. Geon-woo. If anything other than singing… Are you interested?”

“… … .”

Hmm.

* * *

Cheong-rye was quietly lying in the first class of the plane.

The LA concert is over.

But he still hadn’t restarted.

If I wanted to, it was easy to break open the plane window and jump down.

But he didn’t.

Because the risk factor was removed, there was no burden no matter when I started.

… or for no reason.

“… … .”

He thought as he lay in the first-class, almost private room.

‘I’m glad you deleted it.’

It was sincere and weak relief.

Until the restart, this useless influence had to be erased.

but.

“… … .”

The habits of the past few months have been more than necessary.

An interlocutor who has nothing to hide and who can always talk is what inevitably creates dependence.

It wasn’t good.

‘… Help.’

Cheong-ryeo recited insensibly.

That moment.

[Why.]

“… !”

The hand gripped the armrest tightly.

He immediately raised his upper body and looked into the air.

A blue pop-up.

[You said you restarted, but why are you still there?]

“… … .”

Help.

Cheong-rye looked at it without saying a word, then slowly muttered to herself.

“Whenever I restart, it will be on my mind.”

[It must be your heart that tried to kill me because you wanted to restart quickly.] [I’m not the kind of person who died or never existed if you restarted.]

“Is it an illusion that you’re talking about now?”

[It’s not an illusion, it’s real.]

[Anyway, if you’re sarcastic about not dying in the end, you’re an asshole.]

Cheong-rye blankly looked at the pop-up.

And I read the emotions between the lines.

it was anger

[You must have known. I pressed it knowing that I could die.]

[Isn’t that why you drank beer too?]

“… … .”

Cheong-rye let out a long sigh.

For some reason he looked very tired.

However, pop-ups poured out their remarks without hesitation.

[If you want to press it again, press it. Let’s see what happens this time.]

“How did you come back?”

[I don’t know either. somehow… .]

The popup flickered with a little effort.

It looked like there was some kind of blow, but the sentence is still unstoppable.

[Anyway, I recovered and sent a message. Pissed off.]

“… … .”

Cheong-rye looked at the pop-up without expression.

However, the suspicions and enormous questions expected by the sender of the pop-up were not expressed with the shameless calm.

[That's all.]

Cheong-rye moved her head slightly up and down at the last message.

"… okay."

Park Mun-dae removed the pop-up while enduring grumblings such as "Is it a natural tendency to be calm after stabbing people in the back of the head?"

The blue pop-up that floated in front of Cheongryeo's eyes disappeared.

"… … ."

Help is back.

Cheongryeo silently erased the red delete invitation window that reappeared.

Then he leaned back on his seat.

had to delete

The problem is that it didn't.

* * *

And the same time.

"Geon-woo?"

"… ah."

"Oh, you fell asleep while waiting~"

Park Moon-dae woke up with Ryu Gun-woo's body.

Yes.

He succeeded in accessing the system in Cheongryeo while maintaining his body!

‘This is how it works.’

-hello!

It was enough for the trainees and officials to pass by at the timing of greeting and shaking hands.

The balance was better than expected.

Even though I’m sick right now and the burden is doubled when accessing the system… .

‘I feel like there’s a little bit of a corner.’

including this one.

He smiled and shook hands with the manager in front of him.

“Congratulations on the contract.”

“thank you.”

Even with his real body, he signed a contract with LeTi as an aspiring artist.

Of course, the early 30s was a difficult age to debut as an idol according to social norms.

So he wrote two tricks.

The one is… Occupational change.

“You really won’t regret it. Our actor line this time is also really good.”

He signed a contract as an aspiring new actor.

In the first place, this was the purpose of the scouting of Chief Lee.

Rather than Ryu's singing ability, he was invited because of his calmness and good looks when he sang in front of people without any fear.

'I have no intention of making a real debut here anyway.'

So this was enough.

and second.

"If you're in your mid-twenties, you're the perfect age!"

"… yes."

Do you need your resident registration number to sign a contract?

so… Well, he really just wrote his number.

"Then, thank you, Mr. Ryu Gun-woo!"

It's Ryu Gun-woo here.

He sent a sincere apology to himself, a college student living in this reality.

'sorry.'

Let's steal some gods.

Chapter 549

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 549

That's right.

I did the crazy thing of signing an actor contract with LeTi in the past.

In order to collect the information of Cheongryeom from various angles and to obtain an identity that can step out in case of emergency.

After specifying personal information and signing, the manager smiled and told me.

"Then, come to Korea two months after the end of the trip?"

"yes. thank you."

Of course, I couldn't go back to Korea right away. Not only do you not have a passport, but your identity is also fake.

'I don't even have a record of entering the United States.'

It was good to be arrested.

So I delayed my entry into the country, saying bullshit like 'I'm going to live in the US for two months before the start of next semester, so it's hard to cancel'.

LeTi also said it was okay, as if he had no intention of compensating for the cost of canceling the trip.

"Well sir!"

However, when parting, the manager was polite as if he was conveying some kind of secret.

“But before coming to Korea… You can go straight from your screen debut. There is a perfect location.”

“yes?”

“When we judged it internally, Geon-wu’s mask and attitude were very good… You know?”

I don’t know.

“You can do it right after your debut.”

I have no intention of debuting.

Instead of saying that, I deliberately hesitated a bit.

“I think it’s too fast for me, but I think I should do it after practicing something so that the company doesn’t feel ashamed.”

“Ah~ What are you talking about!”

I’m not listening.

It doesn’t matter. Anyway, I’ll be flying as soon as I’m done analyzing the system clues.

I got up from my seat at the cafe and saw the head of the department leave.

“Anyway, thank you, Mr. Geon-woo!”

“yes. thank you.”

Then, as if touching a baton, a guy got up from the table behind me and sat down in front of me.

“The contract seems to have reached an agreement.”

“… … .”

It is cast iron.

I don’t know why you don’t just sit next to me and do weird things like this. Instead of asking, I just nodded.

“Then are you staying in America?”

“okay.”

“It may be better than Korea, but the United States is not an easy place for stateless people to live.”

“There are not one or two illegal immigrants in the United States. Just do it in moderation.”

I can speak English and can cook and make coffee, so I will be able to get a job at any fast food restaurant or cafe.

Ju Dan shook his head.

“At least I’ll unlock your first smartphone. With a prepaid phone.”

I smiled.

“What kind of money do you have?”

“You would think of it as an investment for the future.”

It seems that I still firmly believe that I was in my own group.

His eyes lit up and he asked seriously.

“Let me ask you one question. Can I afford to buy a building in the future?”

“… uh.”

that… not sure

The boy nodded his head in satisfaction.

“Then thank you. I keep in touch with senior Cheongryeo while monitoring her movements.”

And he held out his hand as if to shake hands.

I held out my hand with a smile.

“thanks.”

And I realized

That the other person’s hand feels hot as if it’s burning.

My hands were unbelievably cold.

“… !”

He opened his eyes wide to see if the other party felt it too, then nodded as if he understood the situation.

“This is what happens when you order a cold drink in this weather.”

“… okay.”

no.

In fact, I didn’t even touch the drink I ordered.

In other words, this is not a symptom of a temporary decrease in body temperature due to cold.

“… … .”

After confirming that the judan stood up to order another drink, I raised my hand to examine it.

As I held the glass table, even the glass that should have been cold felt lukewarm.

Dull pain is a bonus.

‘after.’

yeah this was a problem too.

It’s just that my condition is rapidly becoming trashy.

It is difficult to go to the hospital because he has stolen his identity and has no money.

‘It wouldn’t be a problem to go to the hospital to get better in the first place.’

I opened and closed my fist.

* * *

“Mo body… It got colder.”

“… … .”

“What?”

Keundal was holding the arm of Moondae Park, who was sprawled on the sofa.

It’s because the body temperature has started to cool down as if frozen.

Her breath is very thin and her pulse is very light.

Feeling almost dead.

Even once, it faded as if it would disappear, and when it came back, it made three people pass out of breath.

Kwon Hee-seung, who was on a video call, pulled his hair.

[and. driving me crazy. On the Internet, no one really thinks it's weird. furthermore… wait for a sec! Is lunchtime over already? Senior Cheongryeo, don't you have to come back now? Wow then what should I do?]

"It doesn't matter today. It's a holiday."

[ah… Then it's fortunate.]

Cheong-rye wasn't relieved at all.

He looked back at the big moon and asked.

"I'm sure you haven't found any traces of the system yet."

"… yes."

Keundal sniffed and kept trying, but no clues came out of Moondae Park's body.

It was so strange. Obviously, it was my older brother who gathered all the systems, and it was the system that put him in this state.

however… .

'How can there be no trace?'

when your head is spinning.

mate!

[Now, why don't we just focus on that and think about it again!]

Kwon Hee-seung reminded us of the situation.

[First of all, seeing how hyung gets colder and then fades every moment, then fluctuates… .]

Cheongnyeo muttered.

“change.”

[Yes?]

“Park Moon-dae is not dead.”

[Everyone should be like that!]

I didn’t mean to be relieved.

‘If the condition continues to change abnormally while the body is still alive.’

It is clear that there is some mechanism, Cheong-Ri concluded.

So, this kind of reaction appears because Park Moon-dae is experiencing something.

but somewhere other than here.

And it’s just a situation where there is no clue where it is.

Kwon Hee-seung began to groan.

[hmm… location. Oh then there… When I became a server. Do you know what state our bodies were in at that time? on that plane that… big moon brother? Hyung wasn’t there.]

Keundal groaned together.

“I don’t know because everyone was dragged in together… Ah, but even then, I logged into my brother’s status window and found him!”

But now there are no traces.

[Oh really!]

Took. Took.

Cheongryeo knocked on the table slowly.

[What the hell is different? What are the conditions different from that time?]

Cheong-Ryeo stopped tapping her fingers on the table.

condition.

-Does Park Moon-dae have a system?

: YES

– Did Park Moon-dae have any abnormal symptoms?

: YES

In summary, it is the same.

Other than that, it's the details.

And if there is one difference in the process… .

medium.

"is it."

[Yes?]

Park Moon-dae was collecting system fragments.

And the last one who had that shard.

Besides, when he gets caught up in a strange phenomenon, the only person he comes in contact with is… .

"it's me."

“yes??”

was himself

Cheong-ryo grabbed the big moon’s arm.

“Check me out.”

“ah… … .”

Keundal was pushed by the momentum and unconsciously tried to ‘connect’ to Cheongryeo reflexively.

and… .

flinch.

“… !!”

The big moon trembled.

Then he slowly raised his head and swallowed.

“there is.”

Hope shone in his eyes.

“There is something about Cheongryeo! So, I should say it’s a trace that leads to some system, but something like a passage… .”

[Wow, I was right!!] No matter what Kwon Hee-seung shouted, Chung-ryo did not respond.

“Can I contact you?”

“I’m trying to do it now!”

The big moon worked hard.

and.

Tung.

Cheong-Ryeo felt a faint, unpleasant dull ache-like throbbing pass through her mind.

But that was it.

"… … ."

The big moon was breaking out in a cold sweat.

"too… too far… … It's fast."

[Is it fast?? What does that feel like?]

"I don't know! It just feels like that… … ."

It was as if he was trying to convey a message to a person in a moving train by running naked.

feeling of inadequacy.

It felt like a completely different method was needed.

'Ugh!!'

Still, as much as he managed to get a clue, Keundal tried hard to think more calmly.

how to contact

"Seon Ah-hyun."

"yes?"

The big moon looked back at Cheongnyeo.

“That was what caused the system to fail. Is it unavailable?”

In the first place, Cheong-Ryeo gave priority to calling Seon Ah-Hyun as soon as the incident happened.

‘ah!’

Keundal understood the words, but at the same time fell into deep trouble again.

It was because Seon Ah-hyeon didn’t get through Cheong-ryeo’s phone call at all.

“Ha, but I don’t even remember Moondae hyung, and I don’t even know him at all… How”

How do you persuade?

That was the moment.

smart.

“Hey there.”

“… !!”

When I turned my head, I saw a tall figure entering through the front door of the building.

That person with a nervous expression… It was Seon Ah-hyun in a coat!

“… ?!”

For a moment, Daedal suspected that he had some strange ability.

“hi… do.”

However, Sun Ah-hyun was not the end.

After Seon Ah-hyun, who cautiously entered the room, five more people came in with different steps.

“excuse me.”

The big moon is frozen.

Testa Power.

Everyone suddenly appeared in the JSA.

“… !?”

“I came because I wanted to ask you something.”

Ryu Chung-woo, who came in last, confirmed that all the members had entered the door.

and asked

to Cheongryeo.

“Who is Moondae Park?”

* * *

Two hours ago.

“Thank you for lending me the book. sejina. It was fun.”

“… what.”

Bae Se-jin was a little embarrassed and snatched the book Ryu Cheong-wu held out.

“haha.”

Ryu Cheng-wu smiled coolly.

It’s because I’ve noticed that this friend is sometimes brusque, but actually takes the time to make a list to recommend books to herself.

The book I read this time also showed that I had carefully chosen it. It was an autobiographical essay about a retired athlete succeeding in the IT industry. Liu Cheng-wu smiled pleasantly at the slightly explicit contents of the book.

‘I have to read it carefully’

But when I read the contents completely, I thought that this would be more interesting even if someone who is more interested in the Internet than myself reads it.

So, among the members… … .

“… … .”

Liu Qingyu crossed his arms and leaned against the wall.

“Sejin-ah.”

“… why.”

“Did you do the most monitoring among us?”

“… ! I just watch some WeiTube, but not that much!”

“huh. yes.”

“Rather than me… !”

However, Bae Se-jin, who tried to give an example without hesitation, was stuck there.

‘… therefore.’

It must have happened, but when I tried to give an example, no one remembered it.

who was there

“… … .”

“… … .”

A stiff silence settled somewhere in the living room.

In the meantime, Lee Se-jin, who was about to pass by holding a toothbrush, hesitated for a moment.

“… ?”

At that moment, Bae Se-jin broke the silence and barely shouted.

“okay! You see more of that Lee Se-jin! Internet!”

“Me?”

“okay!”

“… I don’t know what it is, but it seems to be bad for some reason? Isn’t it?”

“… … Oh no.”

With the addition of a playful tone, the stiff atmosphere was finally resolved, and a sense of relief dominated the living room.

However, Liu Chengwu was deep in thought with a calm face.

Lee Se-jin lightly tapped the leader on the shoulder.

“Oh, Sejin.”

“yes. brother!”

Sejin Lee rubbed the back of his neck even while laughing cheerfully.

“hmm. For some reason, the atmosphere in the dorm today is very stale~ Is it because everyone works so hard?”

“Maybe.”

Liu Cheng-wu nodded and then suggested this.

“Would you like to see some old videos?”

“Oh good. I also want to find a beginner’s mind!”

That’s how they gathered in the living room and started watching Testa’s previous stages and contents.

Randomly from debut activity to recent activity.

[Think of you whom I met tomorrow all day long.]

[Dream blue dreams like daytime-]

“Oh, what are you watching?”

“I just finished my work.”

And like a holiday, the members joined one by one and started watching the videos.

Debut Stage Extreme Travel A special stage for a concert in the countryside with Munggae, an uninhabited island in distress… .

Even the first concert commemorative W live.

[Park Moon-dae (Today’s Crybaby King): … Thank you.]

But I felt strangely awkward.

“… … ah.”

“hmm.”

But the more I looked at it, the more the awkwardness disappeared.

Bae Se-jin thought.

‘Strange.’

Normally, gathering together and monitoring should be fun. Why do you feel like you’re holding back so much?

And Liu Cheng-wu, who was sitting next to him, opened his mouth as if talking to himself.

“It’s just a thought.”

“yes.”

“You just had a good high pitch on stage.”

“That’s right.”

“Our members are good at it~”

Ryu Cheong-wu calmly asked at the feminine virtues.

“Who exactly?”

“… … .”

-Whose treble is it?

“Oh, of course you are my brother. Oh, except for our rapper line, everyone is good at middle and high notes~”

“I don’t think I can raise it that high.”

“… yes?”

“I know my vocal range well.”

Liu Qingyu said calmly.

Absorbing his experience as a knowledge, he knew his own strengths and weaknesses more clearly than before.

“I am not.”

“… … .”

“I heard that one of our members called.”

“that is… That’s right.”

“who?”

Again a giddy silence reigned in the living room.

Only the sound of Testa’s stage came out dull from the TV and resounded.

“Shit… Is there a 7th member that no one knows about? Like a haunted house story?”

Cha Yoo-jin covered her mouth and shouted.

“Huh??”

Everyone was startled and started shaking their heads or hitting the person who said it.

“Don’t talk nonsense, Cha Yoo-jin!”

“You every time, every time!”

“Ouch! sick! I am sick!”

Lee Se-jin did not hit Cha Yu-jin, but shook his head and said.

“Ah, there’s no such thing as a ghost~ Oh, since I’m a ghosted idol, that reminds me of that. why is that Yes~ Previously, VTIC Cheongryeo sunbaenim and our members came out together… .”

“ah. the mountain hut.”

When Bae Se-jin, who remembered < Be close for now >, said, the members nodded vigorously.

Yes, there was that too!

Ryu Cheng-wu asked.

“… Who is that member?”

“… … .”

“… … .”

chilly silence.

The hand that was hitting Cha Yu-jin also stopped.

[OK. Now I literally get goosebumps.]

And he realized that he had casually trusted someone to translate this English, and that no one had come forward to do it now.

As for the sense of incongruity that I had felt until now.

He frowned.

“Weird.”

Liu Qingyu pressed his forehead.

“good. If everyone has had a strange experience, let’s be specific. Wasn’t there some kind of trigger?”

“that is… therefore.”

But everything felt vague and stable, like in a fog.

The goosebumps I felt at the moment disappeared and became like something that never happened. The moment they are about to move on to the stage where they become slightly ashamed, as if they overreacted unrealistically.

It was then.

“ah.”

Seon Ah-hyun spat out an exclamation with a pale face.

“What is it?”

“brother… ?”

Pushed by the pressure, Seon Ah-hyun slowly opened her mouth.

“I mean, that’s… a moment ago. I made a call on Sat. Suddenly the phone rang… .”

“with who?”

“VTIC senior Cheongryeo with this smartphone.”

Lee Se-jin frowned slightly.

“Isn’t that Ahyeon’s private phone? Why does that senior know that number?”

“Oh, that was strange… and.”

Sun Ah-hyun muttered as she put down her smartphone.

“Suddenly, he asked me if I knew any stranger.”

“… … .”

“who.”

“A person named Bar Park Moon-dae.”

It was a name I had never heard of.

So the members got goosebumps up their spines.

“… What did you answer?”

“He said he didn’t know, so he told me to search in the search bar… .”

“… … .”

Usually, asking a portal site to search means that if you search, it will come out… .

The occupation is usually a celebrity.

idols like them.

“And I just checked.”

Seon Ah-hyun lifted another smartphone off the table with her face still without a complexion.

It was Seon Ah-hyun’s work smartphone.

He had been checking this since the call. There was something that kept bothering me.

“The number I called from my private phone was different.”

“what?”

“Cheongryeo sunbaenim’s number that I saved here… It wasn’t.”

“… … .”

That’s it.

Everyone intuitively felt it.

That was the strangest and most suspicious!

“Why don’t you try inserting the character radish?”

“okay!”

And Seon Ah-hyun, under the supervision of Ryu Cheong-woo, put this text in Cheong-ryeo.

-Is it possible to visit the JSA on the same day? We would like to go see you now.

a few hours later.

“No matter how you think about it, it’s strange.”

That’s what they asked here.

Ask stupid questions that you would never normally have asked.

“You mean the person named Park Moon-dae who I spoke to Ah Hyun over the phone earlier.”

“… … .”

Chapter 550

If I can't debut, I'll get a fatal disease Episode 550

After I decided to stay in America.

'hmm.'

After getting a job at a shop that barely pays the minimum wage, I went back into the system to search for clues.

Of course, Ryu Kun-woo's body is left in a small rented studio with the help of a casting man.

I took a deep breath.

'It's fine.'

I had to endure it.

Judging by how unpleasant the pressure was, it was still safe and not engulfed in the system.

Plus when I see the reality before I was dragged into this fucking system keeps coming back to me.

'… The other guys will be fine.'

It was fortunate that I hadn't dragged this guy along like last time.

I continued to dive, concentrating on keeping the thought in my head as much as possible.

where the terminal is.

* * *

Shortly after Testa entered the JSA.

“… … .”

“… … .”

“No way. But maybe… ?”

“Cha Yoo-jin writes Korean.”

The Testa members were momentarily dazed when they heard about everything that had happened due to Keundal and Kwon Hee-seung’s cooperation – you really had a 7th member, but they evaporated!

They were too suspicious, and because it was a holiday, they did crazy things by coming to the JSA without hesitation.

However, he did not expect to get such an openly unrealistic answer.

“… So the 7th member… … .”

“Lie down over there… … .”

Bae Se-jin turned his head at the gesture of the big moon.

On that sofa… .

there was nothing.

“… … .”

Bae Se-jin felt cold sweat running down his back.

‘for a moment. It seems like this group of people is a strange cult, but joining… … .’

However, the combination of VTIC Cheongnyeo spacer Kwon Hee-seung and a suddenly handsome 7th grade civil servant was too strange.

No, in the first place, if it was a pseudo, wouldn't it have used a more plausible and realistic way?

And as if to back up that idea, the big moon hurriedly opened its mouth.

"Think of a bird. How do you know me, Sejin?"

"… yes?"

Bae Se-jin was just stiff.

Come to think of it, I knew this person's identity 'as if it were obvious'… .

"That's it… Oh, because you said you were my fan"

"No."

The big moon muttered with a slightly sad face as if enduring something.

"That's also Testa Park Moon-dae hyung."

"… … ."

"I'm a Testa fan myself, but… We got to know each other thanks to him."

Bae Se-jin finally shut his mouth.

The big moon asked eagerly.

"You all have certain knowledge or memories, but the process of creating them is not ambiguous… ?"

"… … ."

Testa recalled several feelings of incongruity and doubts each of them had.

Sometimes hobbies, sometimes abilities, sometimes surreal experiences.

Or, it was knowledge that only those who persistently continued their idol life without success would have it.

A reality that subtly contradicts one's current perception.

everyone realized

"… … ."

No one denied the big moon's words and there was a deep silence.

and.

"There."

"yes?"

Seon Ah-hyun raised her hand slightly and asked with a pale face.

"He is on the sofa… Did you say you were there?"

"… yes."

"for a moment… May I come closer?"

"sure… ."

Seon Ah-hyun carefully and gently approached the sofa after hearing Keun-dal's prompt reply.

"for a moment."

"… ?"

After moving right next to Moondae Park's sofa, Cheong-ryeo put her hand on Moondae Park's carotid artery.

And he spoke quite softly.

“Here.”

“Ah thank you… .”

Seon Ah-hyun slowly stretched her hand out onto the sofa.

Trying not to forget that there is someone above him that he doesn’t recognize.

Seon Ah-hyun thoughtfully stretched out her hand.

‘I want to know.’

A trembling hand slowly reached the invisible person.

without a sense of touch.

* * *

The heart of the system finally arrived.

Park Moon-dae put his hand on the terminal.

* * *

That moment.

Seon Ah-hyun felt something like static electricity exploding from her fingertips.

to the top of the head.

and to others.

[■■■■■■■■■■]

A flashback passes.

– The tone of voice that gave ideas in the first team match Calm 1st place impressions PPT presentation with guts The hand stroking In-young's puppy who was crying at the first concert Crude consolation… .

and.

– The person in front of you.

Sun Ah-hyun waved her hand.

Something flashed from under the hand and the silhouette brushed… … .

Fighting.

[■■■■■■■■■■]

Keundal saw Moondae Park's body flickering like countless holograms.

From under Seon Ah-hyun's hand.

"… !!"

As he kicked off his seat, someone pushed his chest to stop him.

It was clean.

Still in contact with Park Moon-dae, he stared at the big moon in silence.

"… … ."

[what? What happened?]

The phenomenon, which could not be conveyed through the camera, flashed sharply as if piercing the eyes of Keundal and Cheongryeo, but soon faded away.

The stabbing pain stopped and Testa staggered to his feet.

"Huh."

The hand that was blocking the big moon finally disappeared.

After glaring at Cheongnyeo once, he ran out and asked hastily.

“Are you okay?”

“That’s it… .”

“Oh my fxxking… Look! Look at that!”

The big moon hurriedly turned its head. Cha Yoo-jin, who had already run to the sofa, was frightened next to Park Moon-dae.

Keundal’s head sparkled with hope.

“Everybody… … Can you see it?”

“Of course YES!! wake up!”

Cha Yoo-jin grabbed Park Moon-dae and shook it. people were freaking out

“Watch your head, watch your head!!”

“Oh, I’m going to break my neck at Moondaemundae… .”

Sejin Lee stopped talking.

Compared to the natural words, the face was a little rigid.

“You remembered… yo. this?”

Keundal said with less confidence than before.

“… … hmm.”

Lee Se-jin took Park Moon-dae’s body instead of Cha Yu-jin and carefully laid him down on the sofa with a slightly unfamiliar gesture.

He seemed to be putting up with his confusion.

Instead, Kim Rae-bin opened his mouth with an expression that he did not know what to do.

“I remember! It just seems like I’ll forget it any minute!”

“… … !”

Yes.

I’m not sure what kind of mechanism it was, but Testa recognized the existence of Park Moon-dae anyway.

Just like a temporary measure.

It was as if the former Bakmundae flickered like a hologram.

“… … .”

The expressions on the faces of the people in the seat were different for different reasons.

It was because Testa gradually figured out how dangerous this situation was, and Keundal and Kwon Hee-seung knew that Testa realized it.

Only one spoke without a change in expression.

“It worked. I think we should try something similar.”

It was clean.

Bae Se-jin frowned.

“… Isn’t the explanation first? We have to talk in detail about why Moondae Park became like that so we can come up with ideas… … .”

“Should I reiterate the importance of saving time?”

“… … .”

The moment when the tension was about to flow.

[Wait a minute! Brothers, you must still be embarrassed, but don't regret later saying, 'Oh, we shouldn't argue,' and let's do something right now!]

Kwon Hee-seung, who was able to see everything objectively even a little bit because he participated through the camera, shouted.

"… … ."

After confirming all of that, Ryu Cheng-wu slowly opened his mouth with a bitter smile.

"Heeseung's words are persuasive."

"… !"

"Of course, we will do something."

Big Moon clenched his fists. Liu Qingyu asked calmly.

"Is there any way to reawaken Mundae? Or should I start thinking from there?"

"That's it… … ."

I didn't set a specific method from here!

Keun-dal, who was sweating and trying to explain the method, suddenly realized that Cheong-ryeo was staring at him without saying a word.

And come to think of it, the reason these people came in like this… Isn't this person allowed!

It was clear that Cheong-rye knew in advance.

"hey."

Cheongryeo slightly averted her eyes.

The big moon asked with a sigh.

“Were you in contact with the testers?”

“… … .”

The person who passed the snatch interview at the level of a controversial celebrity preferential treatment with the network he made while working in the command and control room did not answer.

“Why did you contact the testers and not even tell me?”

Knowing you have a backup makes you lazy.

Thinking that there is no other way but to try and desperately cling to it, you will get the best efficiency.

… Cheongryeo simply replied, omitting the explanation without batting an eye.

“I don’t have time.”

“… … .”

“I’m not saying you need to hear an explanation either. You probably don’t know that action comes first.”

“… … .”

[evil! yes yes yes! Actions, not explanations! Act quickly!]

“I see!”

At the urging of Kwon Hee-seung, who seemed frustrated as if he had eaten about 10,000 sweet potatoes, Keun-dal eventually quickly contacted Cheong-ryeo again.

It means grabbing your arm.

“and… Well then”

“Among Testa’s juniors, there is someone with a unique personality.”

Cheongryeo cut off her words like a knife and entered clearly.

“I’ve probably used it in the virtual world, so I don’t have to explain how. I’ll do it the same way this time… Seon Ah-hyun.”

“… yes?”

“No matter what I was thinking when I contacted Park Moon-dae earlier.”

He stared at Seon Ah-hyun.

“Do as it is.”

“… … .”

Sun Ah-hyun bit her lip and nodded.

‘Please, please!’

Keundal felt like screaming, but he persevered.

Instead, I got enlightenment.

‘Come to think of it, Seon Ah-hyun isn’t the only one like that.’

He recalled that Lee Se-jin had developed characteristics and surpassed the potential stats indicated by the system.

Thanks to their characteristics, both of them showed a move that deviated from the notation of the system.

‘perhaps… … .’

At that moment, his mind flashed!

-If the power of a person called this ‘characteristic’ is large enough, wouldn’t the system be unable to grasp it?

And unfortunately, most of Testa had high-grade characteristics.

‘This is it!’

Keundal opened his mouth thinking that he had to lose money to make money.

If you make direct contact and “connect”, you might be able to use that attribute as well!

“Wouldn’t it be better if we all put our hands together?”

“God… It’s like Astrology. Do you guys believe in Voodoo?”

“… … .”

Although he said that, Cha Yu-jin cooperated quickly with surprisingly sincere eyes.

He asked awkwardly, placing his hand on the big moon’s arm.

“is this right?”

“yes yes!”

The big moon nodded vigorously.

And looked at the other members with eager eyes.

“hmm.”

Most of the members shrugged their shoulders or contacted him with a desperate face, just as he said.

and last.

“… … .”

Big moon looked at Testa’s best realist with slightly fearful eyes.

It was Lee Se-jin, who was watching this scene with his arms crossed.

Lee Se-jin laughed when his eyes met the big moon.

“Ah, I don’t know. Normally, it’s normal to be angry here. You know?”

He first wanted to hear a proper explanation of what the hell this was all about.

I felt like shouting that if I got involved with these people, Park Mun-dae would get caught up in such a ridiculous incident.

I wanted to ask for clarification and come up with a plan myself.

but.

‘I’m not an expert.’

“Let’s try this first and then we’ll talk.”

He acknowledged it and held out his hand.

Even after cooperating, you can still interrogate.

“Thank you!”

After swallowing saliva, the big moon spoke as loudly as possible.

“Well then… do.”

After he took a big deep breath.

-Tung.

Through Cheongnyeol, I connected through the ‘passage’ through which the system passed.

* * *

“… Whoop!”

Testa Park Moon-dae took a deep breath in the old one-room with Ryu Gun-woo’s body.

When the terminal felt a strange sensation and there were no other changes, it immediately exited the system after waiting for a while.

‘What was it?’

He closed and closed his fist, recalling the subtle throbbing pain.

… Somehow, I felt like I was less sick.

“… … .”

However, after a few days, he got used to his body again, so Park Mun-dae almost attributed it to his mood.

* * *

The big moon blinked.

Beyond the aisle was still too fast. The far, overwhelming acceleration that seemed impossible to catch up with made him shudder.

* * *

Park Moon-dae struggled with Ryu Gun-woo's body, but somehow managed to not miss a part-time job and spent several weeks gritting his teeth.

However, something unexpected happened.

– Mr. Geon-woo! Filmed!

-… … and.

Gearco LeTi asked him for his first 'actor' job.

'Now is not the time to stop loss.'

In the end, he accepted the job by crying and eating mustard… .

“… hello.”

“… … .”

I met a familiar person at the first photo shoot meeting.

It is Bae Se-jin with a haggard impression.

‘What is this again?’

The work people from LeTi’s agency introduced him to was a supporting role in a music video for a solo female singer from their label.

– Don’t say anything, just walk, laugh and do exactly as instructed!

that was easy

But I didn’t know that this guy would join me as a coach.

‘Are you preparing for a return?’

Since it was still before < Azusa >, I didn’t even know that I was rehabilitating like this.

Park Moon-dae guessed that and held out his hand.

… It was both happy and a bit sad.

“i look forward to.”

“… … yes.”

That’s how I shook hands with the person who was still using the name ‘Lee Se-jin’.

That was the moment.

Gun-Woo Ryu suddenly saw a phrase that floated above Se-Jin Bae.

< 'Concentrating Genius Actor (★★★★☆)' has entered the channel. >

[The Concentrating Genius Actor is shocked to see you!]

[Screams what's going on.]

"… … ??"

what's this.

* * *

"What is this!!"

"Calm down! Communicate!"

Bae Se-jin looked at the pop-up that appeared in front of him while freaking out.

[Park Moon-dae (□△□): Doubting his own eyes!]

That's… It was a Tamagotchi screen!

Chapter 551

Episode 551 Bae Se

-jin shivered and looked at the front.

A strange dot picture screen was still floating there.

[Park Moon-dae (□_□+): Deducing your identity!]

“… … .”

“All right!”

I mean, what happened?

Bae Se-jin looked at the big moon in dismay. Keundal was wearing a suit and had a bright expression.

The body returned on its own.

“I… what to do… … .”

“Uh uh uh, take it off slowly as it is in contact! I’m still connecting!”

‘Ugh.’

Bae Se-jin let go of the hand that was holding Keun-dal’s shoulder.

The people who were randomly grabbing the limbs of the Lunar Moon slowly followed the order and separated from the Moon.

However, everyone's eyes were fixed on the strange window that opened in front of Bae Se-jin.

This… … .

"that… Isn't there a game about raising a daughter? Do you feel that way?"

"No, but why is Park Moon-dae over there!"

"Hyung-nim, isn't there anyone here who doesn't know about that?"

After a sudden and intense reasoning, they came to the conclusion that Bakmundae is like the last time, in a strange virtual world and away.

"By the way… thank god."

"… … ."

… But why is it called Tamagotchi?

"I tried my best… ."

Big Moon recalled the situation when he caught up across the aisle.

'Suddenly, the information value of 'learning' came in.'

In that situation, I was trying to exert my influence on Park Moon-dae as comfortably as possible, so this format was formed.

[Anyway, I'm glad I found it. phew… .]

Next to Kwon Hee-seung, who was breathing a sigh of relief, on the video call screen, Cha Yoo-jin pointed his finger at him.

"Moondae hyung's face has changed!"

"… … ."

The big moon observed the screen. And he pointed at himself with a puzzled expression.

“… Iknow, right. Is this your face?”

“that’s right!”

Although the atmosphere was vastly different.

Unlike Keun-dal, who is a tall and good-natured young man, Park Moon-dae has a low quality on the screen… His personality seemed dirty.

No, he looked exhausted.

Instructions come out of the dot.

“… wait for a sec. Why is the kid so snarky?!”

“Is there anything else I can check?”

“Wait a minute.”

Keundal did his best and eventually people were able to see the summary of Moondae’s status organized like a dot game.

Bae Se-jin, who was at the forefront, easily read the information quickly.

‘Park Moon-dae… .’

I have no money, my body hurts, and my mental level is great, but… .

“Your stamina is garbage.”

“… … .”

“No luck at all.”

At Cha Yu-jin’s fact, Keun-dal pressed his eyes with both hands.

Still, people's atmosphere softened a lot when they indirectly confirmed that Park Mun-dae was alive everywhere.

"Now I just need to know how to get him, right?"

"first… Let's let them know we're here and we're trying to get you."

But communication that was so complex was almost impossible.

Moreover, it was dangerous for Keundal to judge that it was dangerous to communicate with Park Moon-dae with more information than this.

"For now… I think this is the limit! I think hyung is in a very tired and difficult state… ."

"… … ."

Even 'connecting' like this is a situation where one person with a characteristic has to do it in turn.

And for some reason, Bae Se-jin, who was chosen as the first batter, continued to look at the screen with a confused expression.

Seon Ah-hyun raised her hand slightly.

"Then, first of all, let Mundae be healthy… Is there any way to help?"

"I agree! Restoring your health comes first."

The big moon nodded widely.

"yes! I think I can try something more once I recover! ugh… ."

Bae Se-jin listened intently and saw the speech bubble changing again in front of his eyes.

And I doubted my eyes.

[Park Moon-dae (□_□): Trying to act.]

“… … performance?”

why do you do that… ?

“… Judging from his job status and things like that, it seems like he’s become something of an aspiring actor.”

“… … .”

“… … .”

I wondered what the hell was going on.

Cheong-rye, who watched the situation without a word, put her hand on her chin.

‘The flow of time is different.’

Just like the difference between the game and the real time.

Park Moon-dae, who now appears as a pop-up, had already finished reading the bundle of papers that looked like scripts in a few tens of seconds.

‘About 12 minutes a day.’

Cheong-Ryeo quickly finished the calculation.

In the meantime, Park Mun-dae’s expression on the screen had changed to an astringent expression.

[Park Moon-dae (□=□): Suffering from acting… … .]

Liu Chengyu muttered.

“Moondae… You must be the one who can’t act.”

“… … .”

Park Moon-dae did it like a ghost to shamelessly imitate someone.

However, if you are asked to immerse yourself in a character and express emotions or express complex conflicts… Disastrous results came out.

“Mmm.”

And, reflexively, attention turned to the best performer here.

“hmm.”

Bae Se-jin frowned and pressed Park Moon-dae, who was coming out of the Tamagotchi.

“I… Is there anything I can do for you?”

That was the moment.

[Talents linked to attributes!]

[Would you like to grant blessings?]

“… !?”

* * *

I stared blankly at the pop-up-like hologram in the chat window I was exchanging with Keundal.

It was the first message I saw when I came here.

someone’s signal.

[The concentrating genius actor feels sorry for you.]

‘… actor?’

Keywords such as ‘concentration’ and ‘genius’ are attached to the description.

Besides, considering that the person standing right in front of me was Bae Se-jin from a few years ago… .

Is this… Is it Bae Se-jin in reality?

'… Sejin hyung?'

But there was no response. It doesn't seem like a direct conversation.

I waited for the new text to appear in the popup, but after that nothing came up for a few seconds.

"hey."

"Oh sorry."

I changed my focus and looked at Bae Se-jin from 'this side'.

Bae Se-jin, who probably came here to rehabilitate at the end of his break before participating in < Azusa >.

It seemed that he was literally invited to coach rather than appear in person.

'That guy's company and affiliates are different, so how… Ah, it seems the director knows each other.'

I said,

"If you try it… I will check and tell you."

"… hmm."

I opened the music video script given to me by the staff.

In fact, I didn't even have an ambassador.

All I had to do was look at the beach and walk with a lonely, sorrowful feeling and throw a bouquet.

And there were only a few lines of instructions to kick the seawater with your feet.

but… That last one.

[C: (Looking back with eyes wanting to talk a lot)

The sea with strong backlighting and contrast shines.]

"… … ."

What the hell does this 'eyes that want to talk about a lot' mean?

It was terrifying in many ways.

But since I'm not in a situation where I can say no, I held back a sigh and cleared my brain.

'Let's recall the experience of filming a music video.'

I walked as naturally as possible and looked back.

"… … ."

"… … ."

I'm embarrassed, so please say something.

Bae Se-jin, who had dark circles, lowered his eyes.

"… You never studied acting."

"yes."

"That's it."

what?

"Do the same thing you did before filming."

And Bae Se-jin, now Lee Se-jin, looked down at the script he was reading.

"… … ."

Hmm.

* * *

[Do you have any acting experience?]

Inside VTIC's moving van.

Cheong-Ryeo closed her eyes at the unexpected help.

This self-proclaimed 'self-involved' tip no longer tries to prove its usefulness at every turn.

However, she wanted to hear about Cheongryeo's daily life.

– Didn't you get upset?

On days when the conversation was getting longer, he would throw up consolation or advice.

And sometimes I would ask questions like this.

Now, instead of saying, 'Why are you asking such a question?', Cheong-Ryeo responded calmly.

"It has no effect on the group's success."

I tried, but it means I lost my hand. Park Moon-dae interpreted it at once.

[…] okay. There are usually one or two members who act in an idol group. Somehow, there was no VTIC.]

Cheong-ryo almost laughed at the moment.

“Usually… From the time a group is formed, there is a position that assigns specific allocations to members.”

he spoke softly.

“We were no exception.”

It meant that VTIC also had members who took acting lessons.

[Who was that?]

“Shin-oh.”

[!!]

Is this surprising?

Cheong-rye slightly averted her gaze and was conscious of Shin-oh, who was sitting diagonally behind her.

A slightly bewildered pop-up appeared.

[It doesn’t look like an acting major.]

“Well. It’s because appearance is more important than current acting skills.”

This is because when an idol agency selects members for actors, they prefer to choose the right appearance and develop their abilities through training.

It wasn’t just about looking good.

The impression is neat. nice skeleton Does the camera capture the atmosphere well?

That was the usual selection criteria.

The peculiar thing is that unlike the idol evaluation, the evaluation was better for the plain type rather than the overly intense type.

“The baseline is different from the stage.”

The help pop-up disappeared for a moment, as if lost in thought.

[okay. Because it has to look more natural and everyday than when performing. It’s normal that the standards are different.]

Hearing the help he repeated as if organizing things, he looked at him with interest.

What idea do you have?

However, instead of continuing the next word, the help was aroused as if to change the topic.

[Still, isn’t acting ability as important as appearance? You could be cursed with smoke.]

“That’s not going to happen.”

[…] ?]

Cheong-ryo put her arm on the window sill.

“Because there won’t be any actor schedules until the contract is renewed anyway.”

[…] … .]

This is because topicality is dispersed.

[If you’re human, be nice to him.]

Cheong-Ryeo smiled a little.

It wasn’t such a bad feeling to exchange sounds like this.

‘hmm.’

Now that the conversation wasn't regular, Cheong-rye was able to keep a strange distance from the advice.

If you don't want to delete it right away, this is better.

"Im here."

"Yes!"

The car stopped and VTIC started to stand up.

Asked for help.

[Recording.]

"Yes."

But there was no greeting to say good-bye.

Cheong-rye was conscious of that, but moved her steps straight without hesitation.

* * *

'Naturally'.

After work, I sat in an old one-room and checked the script one more time.

Even so, I checked the pop-up from time to time.

[The concentrating genius actor is concerned about your health.]

However, nothing has changed.

Sometimes 'a genius actor who concentrates suffers.' The words were exchanged together, but there was still no feeling of real-time communication.

'As expected, my thoughts and words are conveyed.'

… Mouth was a bit bitter.

What's surprising, though, is that the pop-up, though blurry, remained when I accessed the system. It was good to try it with a little adventurous spirit.

therefore… … to sum it up.

Maybe.

'Isn't this a fairly high probability that the message from reality is correct?'

And if so, you might find a way to communicate somehow.

… Just the thought of it made me feel pretty good.

"hmm."

I got up and walked around the narrow room.

'Actually, you don't have to be that good at acting.'

This is just something I do to collect real-life information, so if I do well like a real actor, I might be taken to Korea right away.

… However, if what I was doing was not at the proper level, that was a problem.

Even in this case, you can be taken to Korea. What if I told you to return home soon and take acting lessons?

'no.'

Besides that.

'… … When I started acting, the pop-up came out.'

It might be because I met Bae Se-jin, but as long as I didn't know what the cause was, I had to hold on to acting.

‘So the bottom line is practice.’

And I thought I had properly chosen the route in which direction I should practice.

– It should be a natural and everyday movement, but it should look atmospheric.

In a word, it means to be natural enough to be everyday, but at the same time, move in a cool way.

‘It’s like a designer’s request to be simple but splendid.’

But Nogada does not betray. If you focus on your body movements and practice repeatedly, you will probably do something similar someday.

The stumbling block… .

The point is that the body condition is garbage.

‘Ah damn it.’

I sighed as I walked.

Being natural and concentrating at the same time for a long period of time was physically impossible with this body condition.

Especially without the stage adrenaline.

‘I’ll hold on to this for three minutes.’

Unlike the stage, the tempo was long and the high-density impact wasn’t banging, but it was more of a desire.

‘It’s hard to concentrate.’

Would you bite your tongue?

“Whew.”

I hit the empty sea with my feet.

A few days went by in an instant, and the shooting day finally arrived.

And I met Bae Se-jin here again.

“hello.”

“… yes. hello.”

I still have a bad expression.

I asked him directly.

“I practiced, but there was something bothering me. The coach said before, ‘Do it.’”

“… … .”

“Did you say that because you tried to practice more, but there was no answer?”

“… I beg your pardon? I don’t mean that.”

Bae Se-jin frowned.

“I heard you never studied acting.”

“yes.”

“Then it’s better not to be conscious of it and just do it like back then. Because there are no lines.”

“… … .”

“Then do it.”

It was similar to the advice I gave to Sejin the Great when I was making a game for an album before.

I realized his intentions.

‘I was trying to give you accurate advice.’

However, it was Bae Se-jin’s way that it sounded like they were fighting against their intentions.

“yes. thank you.”

“… … . no. It’s for money.”

It’s really consistent.

Instead of being angry, I shrugged my shoulders and moved my feet, feeling a little nostalgic.

what good Then let’s do it really moderately.

“I’m going in there now~”

“Yes.”

I stepped onto the sandy beach.

‘I need to get an ok quickly.’

distrusting my stamina.

however.

[A genius actor who concentrates blesses you!]

[Attribute: Concentration]

“… ??”

That moment.

Suddenly, my whole body started to feel light.

* * *

Walk on the beach.

My body moved naturally without being conscious of anything.

He has a bouquet of flowers in his hand.

Bouquets are rather non-daily objects, so it is more natural to not be too conscious of them. Let it just sway in your hand.

“after.”

The sea was visible beyond the sighing breath.

It was – the sun was setting.

“… … .”

I stopped.

I don’t know why this person came to the beach for some reason.

‘doesn’t care.’

So you just have to act clearly as instructed.

naturally.

I threw the bouquet lightly into the sea water.

Took.

As you concentrate, the bouquet falls on the beach while drawing a beautiful parabola.

I hugged myself gently.

Then take a break and go back.

Took… .

Kick the waves lightly with your feet.

There is no indication that you are angry.

So like touch. a little cautious.

“… … .”

And after taking my feet off, I turn around, conscious of the fact that I am standing facing the sun.

Steady toward the memorized camera position.

swish

Just once.

The only time your eyes meet the camera. It gives a sense of vitality.

Just like it did on stage.

“… … .”

I realized that I had completed the whole process as planned and without a hitch.

It wasn’t like throwing everything out, but the decision was focused.

‘Was it like this?’

I looked at the camera silently without blinking.

A world of conscious concentration.

It may be a superficial glance at what Bae Se-jin fell for in acting, but he seemed to know.

and.

“Cut! It goes like this.”

The outside of the camera started to move again.

The cut ended with a buzz and buzz.

“thank you.”

I bowed my head and got off in front of the camera.

“Are you okay?”

“The take is more than I thought… .”

Over the sound of the staff talking, coach Bae Se-jin was looking this way with her eyes wide open.

And maybe another Bae Se-jin too.

[The concentrating genius actor declares that this is enough!]

[The concentrating genius actor sponsored you!: Energy +]

Your body fills up with energy and the headache gradually subsides.

‘ah.’

No matter how much I think about it, it seems that the real people are sending this message.

Coach Bezezin opened his mouth.

“… how.”

I smiled faintly.

“Thank you for being a good coach.”

It was the truth without a single lie.

* * *

Meanwhile, the JSA.

“Whoa!”

“Let’s go like this!”

“Who should do it next? ?”

Celebrating the successful outcome, a formal plan was quickly established.

‘I have to recover quickly and bring him back!’

It is also known as raising Park Moon-dae.

Chapter 552

Episode 552

“Energy Recovery! Is this what we did?”

Sejin Bae pointed his finger at the hologram screen.

[Park Moon-dae (□v□): Chatting with the acting coach.]

On the screen, the old and tired-looking dot Park Moon-dae was still moving, but it looked better than before.

The actual energy displayed was no longer a thin, inconsequential scale with barely a single dot. It was a bit thick!

Even so, it was a crimson color that seemed to signal danger, but results were still results. The big moon also shouted excitedly.

“yes! Transferring energy using properties is definitely a success!”

“Good!”

People ruminated on the formula.

When the relevant timing for Park Moon-dae to use their own characteristics comes, they just need to give a blessing at that time!

Then the energy could be given as a reward.

[Additional energy unlocked!]

In addition, thanks to Moondae Park's increased energy bar, additional connections are possible!

"Now two are the garden!"

"okay."

"Good good."

"If you go around like this and use the trait once in a while… hmm?"

However, the environment of Moondae Park, who thought he became an actor, has changed again.

[Park Moon-dae (ㅁㅅㅠ): Making donuts.]

Park Moon-dae was working hard at making dough in a shabby shop.

"… donut?"

"Hmm, it looks like a part-time job."

Lee Se-jin frowned and looked at the screen.

In the fast screen as if he was assigned, Park Mun-dae was struggling while frying donuts hard.

"… Can you help me with this?"

"I know."

Liu Chengyu murmured.

"I think my efficiency has dropped too much because of my stamina… ."

efficiency.

At that moment, all eyes were focused on one place.

Towards a man who can make golden ratio hotteok with just his fingers without measuring.

“… ??”

Kim Rae-bin looked around in embarrassment!

“Rabin.”

“okay. That’s it.”

After talking with each other, the people gathered changed places.

and.

[< 'Late Night Maestro (★★★★★)' has entered the channel. >]

[Late Night Maestro bestows blessings on you!]

[Attribute: Increased creation speed]

And Bakmundae on the screen is much faster Started stamping out donuts at speed!

“Oh oh!”

Kim Rae-bin looked down at the screen with a recalled expression.

I couldn’t find a single point of regret that I barely used the extreme artistic ability to come up with a beautiful musical image in an instant to make donuts.

‘That’s another charm!’

Keundal finally lowered his level of tension and adjusted the pop-up with eager eyes.

[The Late Night Maestro is satisfied.]

[The Late Night Maestro sponsored you! : Energy +]

Kim Rae-bin raised his head with a bright face.

“Looks good!”

“Yes!”

Seon Ah-hyun smiled as she looked at the slightly longer Park Moon-dae energy bar, which had now turned to scarlet.

For a while.

“But why is Mundae working in a place like this?”

“yes?”

Liu Qingyu muttered as if he was puzzled.

“All I know is if it’s hyungwoo… I could have tutored.”

Or you can sell data.

Either way would be more comfortable than this, so why are you doing that?

“wait a minute.”

After twists and turns, Keundal succeeded in receiving even backstory information.

[Park Moon-dae crash landed in the United States! As an illegal alien without a passport or status, he is making a living by working part-time jobs… … .

What is his fate?]

“… … .”

“… … .”

“Can I win a lottery or something like that?”

“please.”

[hey! You can’t see me, but if it’s a game to raise that daughter, isn’t copying money a national rule?]

“No… .”

[Ahhh.]

It was spectacle.

Cheong-ryeo twisted the corner of her mouth.

* * *

[A genius actor who concentrates recommends a casino!]

Why are these guys like this?

I just kept frying the donuts.

Yes. I’m working part time now And this kind of labor was more tolerable than before.

Surprisingly, it’s because my physical condition has improved a little.

In the past, I felt like I was going to die after running a marathon all night, but now it means that my body is sore and I have tasted it.

In my experience, it is said that you can survive with only mental strength.

‘And maybe that’s because of this.’

[The concentrating genius actor is in agony… .]

[A focused genius actor wants sponsorship.]

I stared at the chat pop-up with a puzzled face.

From the moment I received energy through this sponsorship, my stamina increased.

‘What the hell did you do?’

Thanks, but I’d like to ask where you got it from. Although I have a hunch that the source of all this communication must be the big moon.

‘I hope I’m not doing anything dangerous.’

After overdoing it, you end up like me.

I told them to be careful several times, but seeing that the pop-up keeps doing that alone, it doesn’t seem to be of much use.

[Two cherry donuts!]

[Yup.]

I immediately answered the owner’s request and packed the donuts.

Please note that the working environment here is not very good. To the extent that they hire people without checking whether they are illegal residents… What do you sense?

If the money is taken away, I will have to report it to the immigration office and threaten to stop the store.

“after.”

Packing complete.

I went back to the donut production line and coated the fried donuts with chocolate coating.

Compared to the tired body, the speed was surprisingly good, and this was also received from this chat pop-up… What kind of blessing was it?

‘Was the creation speed increased?’

If so, it was obvious.

Perhaps the ‘Late Night Maestro’ who gave me this… It must be Kim Raebin.

‘To waste that crazy cheating trait that speeds up composing on some kind of donut fry… … .’

… It was too comfortable to say.

‘shit.’

I started stamping donuts as if possessed.

It fits perfectly one by one, so it feels like it’s sticking together like a puzzle!

[The late-night maestro feels rewarding.]

Thank you. Damn.

I held my breath as I regained my physical strength.

I don’t know if you’re listening to me, and I’m laughing at the health protection and all, but… .

‘… Being there is important, isn’t it?’

It’s embarrassing to admit it, but it also cheered me up mentally.

Because I see a possibility that I can escape this damn situation.

I kept moving my hand.

And after finishing the work by arranging donuts in the display case, I went into self-rest for a while.

If I reported it sooner, it would only reduce the work.

“Whew.”

It was the moment when I stood across the counter like that.

My pocket smartphone vibrated.

Geeying!

it was a text

from LeTi.

[Geonwoo~ How have you been?^^ The music video teaser has been released!]

“… … .”

already?

* * *

Cheong-rye looked at the link without inspiration.

Connecting is a common breakup song.

-I now know that small whispers and careful touches were love.

A song sung as if muttering lonely and heartbreaking about the things we didn’t know when we parted.

How nice it would have been if I looked back then. The lyrics about regret stimulated people's common emotions.

That's why it was a good song to assign to a female soloist who aims for popularity rather than fandom.

'Every time.'

Cheong-ryo looked down at the smartphone screen at an angle.

This is a single album that is almost always released around this time.

And this request was received with a half-and-half chance.

"Are you an affiliate? I just want to share it on social media once."

"yes."

There was nothing risky about uploading a solo ballad singer in her 40s and a married person on social media.

It was the same even when one of the members had a major accident due to dating rumors.

It's been a month since I've already restored my SNS upload cycle. Anyone can see that this is a request from the agency.

Besides, this song doesn't even have a topic enough to cause a variable.

'It's a bit of a shame.'

It disappears after playing in the top 30.

After a cold evaluation, Chung-rye entered the music site for a short time to capture the streaming.

And he raised his eyebrows slightly.

-29. Bad Night (New!)

The ranking of the sound source rose very slightly.

‘hmm.’

Cheong-rye put her hand on her chin.

There was an overwhelmingly high probability that this level of increase was just a fleeting coincidence.

Insignificant fluctuations that completely unrelated factors are only entwined like a spider’s web only in this restart, exchanging waves.

It’s a trace that will probably disappear when you start over.

however… .

‘There’s nothing to lose by finding out the cause.’

Because the sound source is always something he cares about.

He flipped the pages lightly and began to climb the web in reverse.

It was then.

[What are you doing?]

Help popped up in one day. Cheong-Ryeo replied in a slightly pleasant mood.

“analyze.”

Help didn’t answer for a while, but soon replied in a slightly docile tone.

[I think it’s okay. The atmosphere has calmed down a lot.]

“… … .”

Cheong-rye thought.

Apparently, Help misunderstood his own answer of ‘analysis’ and was talking about VTIC’s current reputation.

It was because VTIC-related SNS posts were passing by on his smartphone screen.

[Still, I wish he made a comeback without making an excuse for his health problems. That guy who broke the dating rumor.]

That’s right.

Cheong-rye took a quick glance at the ‘dating rumor’ and answered casually.

“I’ll have to leave it out next time.”

after restart.

There was no reply for a while to help, as if he understood the back story. But it didn’t stop me from restarting.

I just asked like this.

[Then, which of the current members do you want to keep?]

“Well.”

Despite the ambiguous answer, the help was nonchalant.

[Jinchae rate must be perfect.]

Quite a guess.

Cheong-rye smiled faintly.

“Because it is appropriate.”

[She has good abilities, a good personality, and a decent personality, but she has a strong mentality, so she can do it for one person in any situation.]

Cheong-rye smiled brightly without denying it.

“okay. That there is no need to create a special environment to do my part. That is the most useful thing.”

It sounded like he was explaining something like ‘easy to grow and strong flowers’.

Park Mun-dae thought about it, but realized that Lee Cheong-ryeo was lowering the hurdles slightly than before and dealing with help.

Unlike the first time, isn’t he explaining something to himself?

‘Anyway, there’s nothing good about being encroached on by a bastard.’

Isn’t the conversation going rather well because you’re sober?

Park Mun-dae even asked him openly.

[I’m sure it’ll restart anyway, so are you thinking of taking a riskier attempt now?]

Cheong-rye answered simply with her eyes closed on the screen.

“No.”

The time to get ‘unexpected’ information like that was already past the early restart.

Now, it was necessary to maintain the control variable of ‘Cheong-Ryeo acts like Cheong-Ryeo’ to obtain reliable information values.

It was rather good for Park Moon-dae.

‘I will release the next album properly.’

It seemed that he had no intention of making a fuss about the game being completely thrown.

Park Moon-dae was satisfied with having had time to access the terminal, and tried to go deep into the system to search for road terminals.

Then I suddenly realized.

'… Right.'

Even here, Cheong-ryeo intended to maintain the stance of 'doing my best to receive the grand prize'.

To put it another way, VTIC's junior male idols won't be able to come out here either.

As always.

[…] … Yes.]

Park Moon-dae thought for a moment.

The guy who became almost certain about his debut after meeting himself.

– We will contact you regularly.

This is the Judan of this place, which has now returned to Korea.

You don't know that LeTi's next boy group is already over.

'… … .'

Park Moon-dae was a bit bitter.

In the meantime, Chung-Ryeo had found the reason for the rise in the ranking of Gearco's digital music charts.

"This is it."

Random comments passed across the screen.

-I came to see my future husband

again

. ??’

Moondae Park almost rubbed his empty eyes.

What Cheong Ryeo was looking at… It was the teaser for the music video.

himself appeared.

‘crazy.’

-… … .

I saw a man standing on the beach turning his head with a sorrowful expression.

The strange atmosphere and the exquisite camera angle and the backlighting made it strangely attractive.

-This person belongs to Letty!

It’s nothing like a viral song, but it seemed like it had a slight positive effect on the music chart rankings as a small word came out from the community.

‘This is the cause.’

It was a singularity that was new only in this restart. Nothing special.

Cheong-rye opened her mouth as an extension of small talk.

“It’s the first person I see.”

[…] … .]

“Well, it belongs to our company.”

Chung-rye analyzed quickly.

Judging from the fact that they have not fallen into the idol line, they are in their mid-to-late 20s or older.

Irregularly scouted talent Almost no practice period.

‘then… .’

If it is assumed that it was a few years ago, is it useful as a resource?

The more options available, the safer it was. Although the probability is slim, it was a moment when I was thinking about collecting information this time.

Help popped out.

[I look too old to be in your group.]

[Anyway, I’m going now.]

The pop-up stopped.

“Help?”

Like the warning that he would do whatever he wanted, he didn’t answer.

However, Chung-Ri knew that he hadn’t disappeared. Because the bright red error deletion window remained well.

“under.”

He smiled and removed his hand from his smartphone.

It didn’t matter even if I didn’t control this behavior of Help.

Unless you are looking at the profile of a new person, there is no loss or gain regardless of whether or not there is help, which is only text anyway.

Besides, if you see that it came back even after deleting it, it probably won’t be stuck on the next restart.

‘Then it becomes a constant rather than a variable.’

Something that is always there without change.

‘hmm.’

Cheong-rye faintly thought that that wouldn’t be too bad.

* * *

I thought.

Are these the characteristics of ten million child actors?

-Music video teaser reaction is very good Mr. Geonwoo!

Contacts from LeTi keep coming.

At this stage, once there is even the slightest reaction from the public, officials exaggerate that it is ‘very good’, but that’s all.

The attitude has also become very active.

– You have two weeks left in your US trip, right? I’m going to pick you up at our airport. What’s the flight like?

‘It’s X.’

I pressed my eyes.

I tried to put it off with a plausible excuse.

‘Should I say that his leg was broken?’

No, I think I will come out to meet you very personally.

These are all side effects of overly well-chosen videos.

In the end, when I remembered the ending where I was arrested for illegal entry because I didn't have a passport, I felt like my eyes would cramp.

D-14 until entry.

And how… does not exist!

* * *

[Park Moon-dae (ㅁ_ㅁ;): Looking for a way to enter… .]

[Park Moon-dae (ㅁ_ㅠ;): Frustrated!]

In the hologram pop-up, Park Mun-dae sat down.

"oh my god."

"… … How to come to Korea without a passport?"

And surprisingly after a while.

"all right!"

Chapter 553

If you can't debut, you'll die of an illness Episode 553

Park Moon-dae was a little stunned and stretched out in the studio.

I was going to come to my senses and come up with a countermeasure right away because my identity for information search that I had created – aspiring actor – was going to be dismantled due to being unable to enter the country.

'Damn it.'

It was when he let out a light curse.

Popup changed.

[The concentrating genius actor has left the channel.]

"… ??"

Park Moon-dae raised his body in an instant.

'… … Exit?'

A feeble ominous emptiness passed through my mind.

But right before he rolls his head tight.

Soft sentences took their place.

[A dancer with a noble mindset has entered the channel.]

A dancer with a noble mindset.

There was only one member indicated by the modifier and noun.

“… … Seon Ah-hyun?”

As if answering a question, the pop-up flashed and came up with another sentence.

[The noble-minded dancer wants to shift your position.]

“… !”

* * *

JSA a few minutes before Sun Ah-hyun’s pop-up to Park Moon-dae.

“First of all, no crime.”

Ryu Cheng-wu calmly opened his mouth.

“Even if this looks like a game to us, what we go through in college is reality.”

“sure.”

“of course.”

Everyone nodded. They talked about virtual worlds and money copying, but no matter how much they did, they didn’t want Moondae Park to suffer being arrested.

Kwon Hee-seung also actively participated.

[I did a search now, police report? How about this. I guess they enter the country saying their passport was stolen in the US!]

But.

“It is impossible. Your juniors won’t even have a record of entering the US in the first place.”

A cold voice cut off the conversation.

Cheongryeo looked at the people with cool eyes.

“You should know that any idea that this number of people can think of logically can also be thought of by juniors.”

“Are you saying that there is no realistic way?”

In response to Ryu Cheong-woo’s calm question, Cheong-ryeo answered with an expressionless expression.

“I never had the time to do this in the first place.”

“… … !”

In 12 minutes, Park Moon-dae’s day passes.

And it’s an unprecedented situation where you don’t know how much time you have left and other people don’t recognize Moondae Park.

Cheongryeo’s conclusion is as follows.

It is foolish to react to each and every doctor of Park Moon-dae.

like these

“In this situation, is it that important whether or not your junior wants to do something over there?”

[…] … .]

“I think it’s only right to think about restoring physical strength instead of doing useless things.”

Haha, you have a knack for making the right words so cruel, senior!

Kwon Hee-seung swallowed those words and felt like shedding tears. Are you fighting again?

However, the situation did not get dire.

Sejin Lee opened his mouth.

Instead of getting angry, he shrugged.

“Of course, time is urgent, so of course we have to move efficiently.”

The situation passed a dangerous juncture, and his nervousness subsided, and he took the same position as before.

coordination of the team.

“But in fact, even seniors don’t know exactly what Mundae is going through, right? We don’t know, but entering the country may be an urgent problem for Mundae right now.”

Sejin Lee smiled bitterly.

“therefore… Let’s not act like we know everything on the outside.”

“… … .”

The atmosphere calmed down a bit.

“OK. We don’t have time for this. Now everyone stop fighting with words and use their brains. Right?”

Everyone silently nodded at Cha Yu-jin’s words.

And the big moon quietly raised his hand.

“In that sense… I just remembered a method that applies to both of you.”

“… !”

“Uh, how is it… ?”

The big moon swallowed saliva.

“I’m ‘pulling’ you to Korea.”

“… ??”

In the first place, trying to restore Bak Mun-dae’s physical strength was to make Bak Mun-dae able to withstand when Keun-dal tried to bring him into reality.

Shouldn’t at least be able to move the limbs in order to jump off a running train naked!

So, to put it another way, Keundal was able to move Bakmundae.

‘Within the limit of my older brother’s physical strength!’

very slightly

Only to the extent that it is spatially close to reality.

“There is also the meaning of doing it like a practice trial before hyung fully recovers his physical strength.”

“You mean before bringing it into real life?”

“Yes.”

The big moon nodded seriously. Each listener also slowly began to understand this abstract concept in a positive sense.

like that ‘… But then, isn’t that why you fall for the Bakmun University JSA?’ ‘I don’t think I can pull that accurately in this situation… . Big.’ through the same discussion.

A conclusion has been drawn.

Let's pull Park Moondae!

"It was an attempt to check."

"Yes."

People nodded and came to a quick, almost unanimous conclusion.

"Then I have to deliver this to Moondae Park now."

"Yes. You have to prepare your mind so you won't feel anxious or misunderstood!"

However, the text on the channel where you can do something similar to Park Moon-dae was a blessing in disguise.

Sometimes it was the person's true feelings, but other times people were chatting with each other promiscuously, and asking back questions appeared on the channel.

"You have to break through all of that and properly communicate your intentions."

If you are the most calm, clear-minded, and worthy of Park Moon-dae's trust… … .

"… It must be Ahyeon, right?"

"okay."

With everyone agreeing, they connected Seon Ah-hyun to the channel.

[Park Moon-dae (* □ ◇ □ *): Recognizing your identity!]

"I like it."

"I knew it."

And Seon Ah-hyun calmly organized her thoughts and tried to convey a clear intention.

I want to help.

‘We want to move you.’

To Korea so you don’t get in trouble.

Going further… back to reality.

“… … .”

and the attempt.

[Park Moon-dae (ㅁㅅㅁ): Waiting for your idea… … .]

Worked!

“Okay. Do it now!”

“Yes, yes.”

Big Moon took a deep breath and closed his eyes.

And again, I felt the outstretched hand beyond the aisle made of cheongryeo as a medium.

What reached the end was Park Moon-dae.

‘carefully… .’

The big moon focused his mind. So take it very lightly.

moved

[—]

At that moment, the screen of Dot Park Moon-dae turned off.

“… … !!”

“Let’s wait a minute.”

Ryu Cheng-wu calmed the members down.

Keun-dal struggled to maintain contact with Park Moon-dae while breaking out in a cold sweat… .

tens of seconds later.

when the screen is reconnected.

[Park Moon-dae (□ ○ □): Surprised by the changed environment!]

“It’s done!”

Moondae Park was in Korea!

[Ohhh! Was it successful?]

“Yes!!”

The space was filled with a sense of relief, as if the rocket had been successfully test-launched.

Liu Qingyu smiled slightly and looked around.

A little longer for Cheongryeo.

“We will continue to talk like this in the future. There must be a variety of perspectives for things to proceed safely.”

“… … .”

“and… I could have been unaware of all this, but thank you for contacting me.”

Cheong-rye didn’t seem to feel any inspiration, but he didn’t refute anyway.

Liu Chengwu realized that he had at least succeeded in creating a cooperative foundation.

‘Whoa.’

He pressed his hand.

Ryu Chung-woo was the leader of STEER who had to carry out all kinds of tasks.

It also meant that I was used to working with people of unusual temperament somehow.

‘This is helpful.’

Ryu Cheng-wu couldn’t help but feel a strange sense of efficacy.

“Let’s recover Mundae’s physical strength as quickly as possible.”

“yep!”

* * *

I closed and opened my eyes.

The squeezing pain was short-lived.

Rather, I briefly felt the pleasure of ‘returning to the place where everything fits’ when rewinding the tape to its original state.

Although it was cut off as if to taste it.

‘I’m doing something.’

Perhaps this is what Seon Ah-hyun was trying to say.

I calmly nodded my head at the end of the bizarre dizziness.

And when I regain my sight… .

“… oh my god.”

I came to my senses on the side of a road somewhere in Gangbuk, Seoul.

‘This is what happened.’

[The noble-minded dancer rejoices.]

I gasped.

“… thanks.”

I muttered something meaningless towards the pop-up and then moved my feet.

my head was busy

‘Let’s start with public Wi-Fi.’

To contact the only person here who knew my circumstances.

After a while.

“oh my god.”

Judan also exclaimed as soon as he saw me at the franchise cafe.

And after hearing the explanation, I muttered:

“Spatial movement… Even in science fiction, scientific proof is a part that is roughly crushed. I never thought I would actually witness it.”

is it? I never dreamed that there would be a person who actually said something like this.

In any case, it was quite beneficial that the caster’s trust deepened in my ‘supernatural side’, which was proved thanks to him.

I could get more active cooperation.

“So, are you planning to gather information while continuing to work as an actor here?”

I looked up and glanced at the pop-up.

[A dancer with a noble mindset wants to sponsor.]

[A dancer with a noble mindset wants to grant blessings.]

“… … okay.”

Let’s think about it.

These guys keep wanting to give me something called support.

‘And it seems that I can successfully use the protection they give them to give me that support.’

Also, it seemed that divine protection could only be given in situations where it would be useful.

For example, receiving Bae Se-jin’s protection when filming as an actor… It’s like receiving Kim Rae-bin’s protection when making donuts.

‘In other words, I have to create the right situation.’

The more I work, the more opportunities I have to receive this energy support, and the more I can recover.

And it’s getting closer to the reason why those guys keep trying to give me energy.

‘good.’

I immediately contacted LeTi.

He said, “I arrived quickly because my schedule changed.”

And got a knife answer.

-It went better ㅠㅠ I was worried because the schedule was tight, but I can proceed more leisurely!

what schedule?

"… … ."

-I immediately found out if there was a cancellation of the studio tomorrow, but how is it right?

– Where are you now? We're going to send you tea~

"You can stay with me in my studio for about a month. It was a place I got because I was uncomfortable with accommodation."

"thanks."

When I return to reality, I decided to visit Ju-dan.

and the next morning at dawn.

"hmm. I'm running out of time, so I'll move on right away."

I stood in front of the camera after being guided and coordinated by the rather brusque studio staff.

"yes. Look here."

What is caught on camera. It was an almost routine task for the Testa Academy of Sciences.

But there are some differences.

"A little more tidy~ But with an atmosphere!"

It means that my face and body performing it while being bombarded with ambiguous spells are not familiar.

Almost all of my photo shoot experiences were conducted with the body of Park Moon-dae.

‘It turns out like this.’

At least in the system virtual world, Park Mun-dae’s appearance remained at least a little, and he was at least young, but now even his skeleton is different.

I’m not sure how to make it look good.

So I muttered to myself.

‘It’s very difficult.’

Isn’t it really mentally difficult to have trouble even though it’s a familiar job by nature?

I’m in so much trouble, I wish someone could help me.

‘Anyway, it’s really like that.’

The moment you chant like that.

[Supermassive Black Hole (★★★★★) entered the channel.]

Without even recognizing anything.

[Supermassive Black Hole whistles.]

[Supermassive Black Hole blesses you!]

[Attribute: Immersion]

Everything happened in an instant.

* * *

Do you know the saying that there is a gap between imagination and reality?

Everyone has a plausible idea, but when you do it yourself, it is completed differently than you think.

Well, it's also something I experienced very painfully when I first learned to dance while participating in < Azusa >.

'Even when I thought about it, my body moved on its own.'

It's normal.

Ordinary people have to spend time and effort controlling their movements and expressions and making them as close to their imagination as possible… .

"Just one more cut!"

Some people don't need that.

I slowly adjusted my head to the camera, keeping every muscle in my face in the correct shape.

Just as you want.

'i get it.'

There was nothing in my head.

No calculations, no exploration, no practice.

Naturally, imagination becomes reality.

Like breathing, walking and talking.

"Now, make stronger eye contact with the camera!"

The meaning of an abstract instruction bursts out of my head and is expressed through my body.

All impacts can be realized and already known.

how to make people like it

how to look attractive

and.

“Oh good! one more time!”

How can I catch their immersion.

This was the realm of instinct.

‘Is there anyone who lives like this?’

It’s hard to believe that someone could live a life like this.

And in the end, the person who was holding the camera said this with his eyes shining.

“It came out really, really well.”

“… … .”

“I like it so much.”

That was Cha Yoo-jin.

[Supermassive Black Hole is having fun!]

[Supermassive Black Hole has sponsored you! : Energy +]

As if the blood was flowing in my head, my vitality returned.

It gives strength and control to every limb.

‘oh my god.’

I caught my breath.

“You worked hard.”

A black hole was really a black hole.

… … but. At this rate, by the time the procession of blessings of these guys was over, I was worried that Ryu Gun-woo would become like a new actor who appeared like a comet.

However, after the profile shoot was over.

I put more pressing worries first.

I immediately regretted not jumping out of this set.

first of all… Do you know who the guys who were waiting for a profile shoot in this studio after me?

It was the idol debut group of a famous agency. Even though the agency was soon sued by the singer and went bankrupt.

But, who was involved here?

“Oh! [You are really talented!]”

“Cha Yoo-jin!”

They were teenagers Cha Yoo-jin and Kim Rae-bin.

Around this time, I heard that they were in the debut group of that agency, so it seems that they came to shoot a profile cut.

… Let me tell you something even more amazing here.

At the same time, there is a celebrity who appeared and said, ‘It just happened to be nearby, so I stopped by to make coffee with our company employees'.

"What the hell is going on!"

"hello."

it's clean

"Ah, is this person also a company employee?"

I felt it when I saw the guy smiling and extending his hand to me.

'This bastard came to check on purpose.'

He had come to appraise Ryu Gun-woo's face and ability.

In other words, the front is clean.

Behind are Kim Rae-bin and Cha Yoo-jin.

… And to the main stage that will arrive here soon.

-Help.

-Open Ryu Gun-woo's profile.

Cheong-Ryeo is even calling me as a helper in her head.

'The head will explode.'

[Late night Maestro is shocked!]

I agree.

Chapter 554

If I can't debut, I'll get a fatal disease Episode 554

A cold voice rained down on my head.

It is the sound of Cheongryeo calling for help.

-profile.

-Don't miss the timing.

At the same time, the real Cheongryeo in front of me smiled shyly as if holding out coffee. I got goosebumps.

"Well, I guess you don't like coffee. Did I get it wrong?"

"no."

This bastard is going to bury someone who never debuted anywhere.

I didn't even have a blue dream of debuting as an actor in the first place, but I almost lost my teeth when I saw this bastard's intention.

I politely reached out and accepted the coffee.

"I was nervous to see such a famous person so unexpectedly. Thank you so much for the coffee."

"It's just a drink. I'm really thankful that you praised me too much… It's embarrassing. haha."

Cheongryeo added a little bit of wit and spoke softly.

“You seem older than me, but please speak comfortably.”

-Help.

There is no such thing as a double personality.

Giying-

In the midst of this, the smartphone on my chair also vibrated. Ju Dan also seemed to be in touch because he was wondering if the filming was over.

Besides, Kim Rae-bin is still looking at me from a distance of 2m in front of the corridor.

He is trying to stop Cha Yoo-jin, who rushed at him, but since VTIC has appeared, he seems to be in agony about whether or not to talk to him.

Come to think of it, at the beginning of his debut, he didn’t sing because he wanted to know VTIC’s composition method… ?

“Geon-woo?”

-profile.

‘for a moment.’

The eyeballs seem to come back. I’ll be thrilled

I resisted the urge to press my forehead.

And although he recovered somewhat, he still tried to roll his brain with maximum output in his body like water-soaked cotton. It means that I tried to come up with an optimized answer by calculating hard as usual.

But there was no need.

The moment I open my eyes to the updated pop-up.

Someone new has appeared in writing.

[A shooter from the silent list (★★★★★) has entered the channel.]

Quickly, concisely and kindly.

[The Silent List's shooter wants to teach you his way.]

[The Silent List's shooter blesses you!]

[Attribute: Composure]

And everything started to feel comfortable.

* * *

– Pounds.

Heart rate gently slackens.

-Thumping… .

now the world is silent

i get it. The more information there is, the more variables there are, and the variables create confusion.

And confusion is noise.

I realized I was living in noise.

-Thumping… … .

But if you know the order.

If you can put everything in the right place, it can be quiet without a single jump.

And I am now experiencing a world of stillness.

'Everything has its place.'

The priorities of work are already arranged in my head.

first.

-There is no reason to talk with Cha Yoo-jin and Kim Rae-bin.

let go

I was just curious about how these guys from the past were doing.

… I was happy too.

So I wanted to have a conversation, so I thought we should talk.

But it’s not really necessary.

like this.

“ah.”

“Cooool.”

It doesn’t matter if I just smile moderately and say hello.

If you really want to talk, the opportunity will come again.

I confirmed that young Kim Rae-bin nodded at me and chased after their staff, dragging Cha Yu-jin.

Cha Yoo-jin waved her hand to the end.

“Seeya!”

and then sort.

Casting.

-The cast is not present.

Messages are not something to consider as you can reply with time. Let's get back to you in a moment.

After the sorting is over in an instant like that.

Soon, only simple elements remain in the world.

-Cheongrye and help.

Let's send this to the right place too.

Again, the fundamental sentence establishes a baseline in your head.

-The reason why I don't reveal that I am Cheongryeol's help.

Preoccupying information he doesn't know is because it becomes my hand.

I'm already accustomed to knowing and using more than my opponent. I survived because I used it well.

But if you put aside the familiar… You can see that the correct location has changed.

-You don't have to leave room for Cheongryeo to be hostile to me.

Later, my identity as an actor was revealed due to an unexpected situation and I deleted the tips again, so it would be better to reveal it when the timing came at a good time rather than having a variable while manipulating it.

okay. This was the right place.

– Pound.

The heart sound that used to ring like white noise is still stable.

So I make an accurate judgment.

"You do not need to see my profile."

“… yes? What are you talking about?”

“Because I can tell you directly.”

I observed the guy.

Cheongryeo’s expression did not change. However, I noticed that the guy calling for help had disappeared.

The staff are watching this way, but due to the noisy environment, the sound will not be heard.

therefore… .

[It’s me.]

I smiled and opened my mouth calmly.

“You can help me.”

The expression on her face disappeared.

It was a hit.

* * *

Cheong-Ryeo didn’t immediately leave the place with a serious face or delete the help.

Instead, he gently made plausible excuses to the people around him and moved into the car.

And the conversation started.

“I need an explanation.”

It wasn’t surprising.

‘This guy is also unexpected, so he’ll try to figure it out.’

I didn’t bother hiding it from him either, and calmly explained what had happened after he deleted me as a helper.

A sudden body, confusion, and getting an actor job from LeTi.

[The shooter of the silent list looks at you happily.]

At that moment, the composure that seemed to put people on a completely different level slipped away like the tide. Hmmm a bit sorry.

But strength took its place.

[The shooter of the silent roster has sponsored you! : Energy +]

‘This is it.’

There is no more pain from swearing.

The heavy fatigue is still there, but even so, the brain is tight as if it had been hit with sap.

‘This is me.’

I focused on the conversation pleasantly with a bloody head.

“Actually, it’s true that I didn’t tell you at first because I was pissed off, but I thought it would be better to tell you since it’s been a long time since we met like this.”

“… … .”

“what. I also wondered what kind of suspicion I would get if I said that I suddenly got a body after you deleted it.”

Cheong-rye sat on a chair without saying a word and cupped her chin with one hand.

and after a while

An unexpected question arose.

“Why do you want to become an actor?”

I shrugged.

“It wasn’t specifically aimed at. It was just that someone from your company gave me a business card.”

“… … .”

“Since I have no money and no status, I have to find a way to live like a human being.”

“Even when you signed a contract with an agency, you would have needed your identity.”

“I’m borrowing my identity from the past. Although a bit young.”

I frowned.

“There will be no problem. Anyway, this state is temporary, so I don’t know when it will end.”

Since you even filmed your profile, you will have to convince your agency to make a stage name for you.

in the first place

“Because this is probably a side effect of deleting the Help. It won’t last long.”

“… … .”

And finally, I ended my explanation by showing the profile of Gunwoo Ryu, who is currently attending college.

It would be obvious to anyone looking at it that that guy is my younger self.

‘It’s rather easy to prove.’

It is better to have physical evidence than help.

Besides, if Cheongryeo found out about Ryu Kun-woo, what would a mere data arm do to him?

I declared it neatly.

“This explains everything I know.”

End of betting.

Cheong-ryeo was silent for a moment with her arms crossed.

I watched him quietly.

This is because if this guy suddenly tries to press ‘yes’ again in the pop-up to delete the help, you will have to punch his stomach right away.

‘And peacefully resume the conversation.’

Of course that didn’t happen.

Although he said something completely different from what I expected.

“I should use a stage name.”

“… ?”

What is this guy talking about now?

“If you want to continue as an actor, you will have to steal your identity all the time. To avoid being discovered, try to hide your real name as much as possible… Well, my agency at this time would prefer that image, so it should be fine.”

“what are you talking about.”

“hmm? Mr. Gunwoo I have to succeed as an actor.”

Cheongryeo smiled brightly.

“Good job. I will cheer you on.”

As if doing a favor.

‘Look at this bastard.’

Do you think I went through this pattern once or twice since my debut?

As if I had been struck by lightning in the head, I realized the thinking mechanism of this thing.

benefit!

This guy tried to scrape up useful information for the next life as much as possible before restarting.

then… … .

“… While I’m active as an actor, do you want me to find out information about that industry?”

“You understand quickly.”

The old man tilted his head slightly.

“Find out as much detail as possible on the information I ask for on site. Since I don’t have any acquaintances, I won’t get caught up in gossip during my activities.”

“… … .”

“hmm. That might be more useful than the help.”

Watch this bastard go ahead by himself.

“why me.”

Cheong-Ryeo answered my question politely.

“It’s a simple barter. I enrich your life and you give me information.”

hmm.

“And one more.”

“I need to get information, so I won’t restart while you do that.”

“… !”

bet this

I answered coldly.

“I said it clearly. It doesn’t matter if you restart or not.”

Cheongryeo smiled softly.

“It really shouldn’t matter.”

“… … .”

“At least it could be dangerous… You thought so? I guess he just wanted to express that he was angry enough to ignore it and that it was a negligible risk.”

Cheongryeo tilted her head to the side.

“But why take that risk? I can secure time to evade.”

“… … .”

“Until November of this year. unconditionally.”

I opened my mouth.

“Are you sure you won’t change your mind again?”

Cheongryeo laughed.

“I won’t, but it won’t hurt you if that happens. Isn’t that what you were trying to learn from the beginning? Information will come to you automatically along the way… Sharing it with me won’t run you.”

“The only thing that changes is that you support my activities?”

“Exactly. And that would definitely benefit you.”

“… … .”

I calculated quickly.

And finally admitted.

That I logically came to the same conclusion as this bastard.

‘It’s a collaboration where no one loses.’

Even though I was spoiled for this bastard’s tone.

‘If only my tongue was long while threatening to squeeze people as an informant.’

It is the same as saying that a multi-level pyramid guarantees high returns. I’m sure I’m going to go to the middle of the day, and I’m going to ask for information over the line.

‘Let’s keep in mind that there will be a fight at that time.’

However, it is rather advantageous to me in that I clearly know this process.

plus one more.

‘It’s easier in many ways to maintain a friendly relationship with this guy than to have a needless conflict with him.’

Didn’t you think about it from the moment I honestly talked about my identity? Let’s not stimulate reset syndrome.

As an extension of this stance, the weight leans overwhelmingly.

I looked up.

“Are you going to work as an actor, Mr. Geon-woo?”

It’s something I couldn’t have imagined.

OK.

“I took a profile picture, so let’s see.”

I nodded coolly.

Cheong-ryeo twisted the corner of her mouth in satisfaction.

what good

“Then I also want to tell Mr. Cheong-ryeo one story without harm.”

“hmm?”

“You guarantee food, clothing and shelter.”

Welfare of the informant.

Now, let’s tear off what has become like this.

Dill.

I shook hands with the guy in the driver’s seat.

After a while.

Drurruk-

“Company?”

“House owner.”

While packing my things in the waiting room, I finally found my smartphone on the sofa and checked the message from Judan.

-emergency! Approaching target.

-Evasion is safe, but even if you dare to make contact, unexpected results may occur.

-brother?

-Hmm, the situation must have ended already…

It seems that Cheongryeo was excited to hear the news that she was here and kept trying to contact her.

I didn’t see it, but I tried.

‘He’s a peculiar guy, but he also has a unique side when he’s doing it.’

I typed a reply to send to Judan.

-Target contact completed.

– During the exchange of information.

It happened.

And after thinking a little, I smiled and added a message.

-Received officetel as information value.

i know you will like this

As expected, the smartphone soon started to catch fire.

* * *

Same time JSA.

“Whoa.”

“You worked hard… .”

A group of sturdy adults who were looking at the Dot Bakmundae let out a long sigh of relief.

[Park Moon-dae (□v□): Rejoicing at his recovered stamina!]

Now, Park Moon-dae’s stamina bar is noticeably longer and yellow.

“Half is here.”

“That means… ?”

“yes.”

The big moon nodded with her eyes shining.

“I think I can bring my brother back with just two or three more!”

The destination was right in front of me. Everyone nodded their heads, each with a raised face.

That moment.

[Park Moon-dae (□ㅅ//): Being designed as an actor… … .]

“… … ??”

“What else?”

“Do you have a new dream, Moondae hyung? Bae Sejin hyung gave it to you?”

In the midst of speculation, Cheong-rye carefully looked at the screen.

Transportation briefly passed by in the background of Park Moon-dae, who seemed to be moving away from the filming site.

The inside of a tinted vehicle.

‘… … .’

He recognized the inside at once.

It was inside the car under the name of the company he used frequently in the past.

What that meant was clear.

Park Moon-dae met his past self.

It is also a state that is related to the extent of boarding the opponent’s vehicle.

Cheong-ryeo narrowed her eyes.

Chapter 555

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 555

"As expected. That's how it went."

I looked at Ju Dan, who nodded seriously.

This is this guy's studio, and as soon as I got home, I explained to him what had happened so far.

"I never thought I would build such a strange collaboration system with senior Cheongryo… ."

And while this guy pretends to be quite calm, he's actually very immersed. He forgot to drink the drink he had brought with him and listened with excitement.

"But I can understand Senior Cheongryeo's position. An informant who can send and receive information without leaving any records. Theoretically, security is perfect, right?"

"… … ."

"Of course, the willingness to offer an officetel must also mean to test it. It's cooperative for a while, but I think it's important to keep a good line without being servile."

Why do you think you analyze harder than me?

I stared blankly at the guy who was relaying my situation almost like a football match, then laughed.

“okay. No stupid choices.”

And he held out his hand.

“Thank you for providing me with a place to sleep. I’m going to pack it up and go out today.”

“You are really fast. All right.”

As expected of a guy who likes to be alone, he nodded his head coldly.

Yes, I’ve been robbing some of my child’s property without conscience.

But just as I thought so, he shook my hand and added a little awkwardly.

“Even if you don’t have a place to stay, we can help. If there is no reason to contact me, there is nothing I can do.”

That’s great. He is a consistent guy to the end.

“What are you talking about.”

I deliberately replied as if I was puzzled.

“You are involved. Isn’t it natural for officials to come to the hideout?”

“… !”

“Come when the time is right when I call.”

“I see.”

Pretend not to be excited.

Even if I don’t have a job, I have money, so I’ll call him from time to time and feed him.

‘Well, it won’t be long.’

I was still well connected to the center of the system attached to Cheongryeo here and was analyzing the strange terminal.

The reason I don't do it violently and quickly like before is because I'm trying to proceed as stably as possible.

'There is no answer if I get encroached into the system again.'

It is more stable because I have gained time thanks to the information transaction with Cheongryeo. furthermore… .

[The late-night maestro wishes you peace of mind.]

I don't know what you're doing. Thanks to these guys, my physical condition has improved quite a bit.

'Let's not fret.'

Instead of needlessly installing it like a character in a disaster movie, you just have to solve it step by step.

Added to this, it's roughly… I know how to communicate in a weird chat style.

'It's real-time, but it's a bit out of sync, and the expression is subtle, so it needs some interpretation.'

In that sense… .

[The silent list shooter asks you to be patient.]

This obviously means to wait a bit.

Considering that these guys did crazy things to fly me from the US to Seoul… Maybe he found a way to call me real.

'It's gotten pretty good.'

Compared to the days when you were penniless, dragging your body like dog trash, and frying donuts illegally, isn't it quite worth living?

'There is no law telling me to die.'

I finished preparing to move by packing a few sets of clothes that were nothing to do with a smile.

Even after seeing off, Joo Dan hit another bombardment of questions.

"It's important to know what kind of performance you show in which film, but how do you evaluate your own acting skills? I understand if you have been active as an actor in the future as well."

"… … ."

Well, most of the members who are actors are acting instead of me.

[A genius actor who concentrates is watching you.]

Thank you.

"I don't think there is anything to worry about about acting, and the film has already been decided."

"Hoo."

I've already heard this from Cheong Ryeo.

– A good movie is coming out, so I do it.

"A minor supporting role in a holiday movie LeTi has invested in."

Originally, since the person who was supposed to play this role later broke out in a sexual scandal, it seemed that he was going to stab it to the agency early and put me in his place as an additional filming.

It definitely seems to be doing a 'push'.

“It is appropriate. indeed.”

Judan nodded, saying, “This is a popular course.”

“Come to think of it, you said that you use a stage name when you debut. How are you going to build it?”

“… … .”

“How about an anagram method?”

“hmm.”

I’m sorry, but it’s already been decided.

I looked up.

[A dancer with a noble mind misses you.]

“I will do as Park Moon does.”

That’s right.

* * *

[The dissatisfied idol bestows blessings on you.]

[Attribute: Propulsion]

A set surrounded by cameras.

I slowly turned my head. breath leaks out of mouth

Do you know such a life?

A life in which I am so desperate that I can never be satisfied, and so all my thoughts and actions revolve around that goal.

Big and intense ambition that is more than the universal human desire dominates the body.

It’s okay to feel disconnected from sleeping on the side, being treated unfairly, or practicing unfamiliar things over and over again.

You don’t have to rationalize yourself. Somehow I don’t calculate to understand this pain. My head doesn’t burn with stress.

That’s for those who can afford it.

It doesn’t matter what the crumbs are. If only the goal shines brightly.

And we call it a dream.

“… … .”

This would be the life Lee Se-jin experiences.

“Cut!”

With the sound of the director, I came out of the water.

The feeling of wanting to kill this bastard who made the script to drown in the freezing winter weather is easily controlled

“great job. Is today the last shoot?”

“yes.”

I wrapped myself in a towel and walked out of the set in a modest atmosphere.

When I openly shouted that I wanted to focus on the life of this unexpected rookie actor without going crazy as much as possible for three weeks, God’s grace came down… .

The effect was excellent.

Big Sejin's protection was persistently attached to me for the longest period of time.

[The dissatisfied idol smiles bitterly and is relieved.]

[The dissatisfied idol sponsored you! : Energy +]

And the stamina that comes back like a reward.

'Whoa.'

I took a deep breath.

Now my physical condition has stabilized to the level right after intense practice.

It means that there is no pain and the lack of stamina can be easily concealed.

'He's in good shape.'

I shook my head and nodded my head here and there.

"thank you. thanked."

Because I don't have anything to say to an ignorant bastard.

If you want to pull out the information agreed upon with Cheongryeo, you have to pretend to be smart enough to lay the groundwork for it.

'And so far it's worked roughly.'

I've already pulled out a few.

-Director's preferred method of publicity.

– Screenwriter's on-the-spot reputation.

– The habit of the lead actor.

Just looking at the lineup, you could understand it, but these are all microscopic questions. From the point of view of Cheongryeo, there is a high probability that it is useless or already known.

In other words, all of these things are asked as a test, and it is an established theory that the big things he is really aiming for will come separately.

‘There’s no way that Cheongryeo doesn’t have an informant only on the acting board.’

Idols have a strong personality as general entertainers, so they had to appear in variety shows by nature, but the same goes for actors who have to appear in variety shows for publicity.

No matter how VTIC doesn’t act, there are intersections with each other.

At least there is no way that Cheong-ryeo, who had her people spread all over LeTi, would not know the news from this side.

‘There must be something else inside.’

I roughly guessed and brushed my hair on a towel.

The atmosphere on set was not very good. It’s because the original actor flew away due to a sexual scandal and was filming additionally.

The schedule to be released in time for the Lunar New Year holidays was also blown away, so it was visible that the on-site fraud was not good because people were talking about when it would be released.

‘Thanks to that, it was convenient that there were many people who couldn’t cover their words and spilled.’

Added to obscurity, I was almost neglected.

But now, a person who appeared outside the set gave me coffee.

“Oh, it’s going to be cold. Have some.”

“thank you.”

Of course, they are not field staff. How could you treat me so kindly as I don’t even have a name worth it?

“Are you going home?”

“yes.”

This guy is a LeTi guy.

I don’t have an exclusive manager yet, but the rookie management team gave me a person to shoot like this.

And the first thing this employee who came out today did was to pop up a search engine page that came up after searching for my stage name.

The profile cut I took last time was right in the space for the face picture.

“Geonwoo’s profile has been released~”

“… yes.”

“Oh, I should call you by my stage name! It doesn’t stick well to my mouth.”

And seeing the staff laughing haha, I was briefly silent. Then, I turned my gaze back to the search page.

[Ryumun.]

This is my stage name.

… … okay. Park Moon-dae is black, X-legged.

-… Park Moon-dae? Are you serious?

It was dismissed with a short and cold response. They said they couldn't even put it on the persuasion table because they didn't have time.

'I was good at idol activities under that name.'

Still, since I was able to convince myself well, it was okay until the words went up to the top of the line saying, 'I'll talk to the boss'… The result is this.

-The boss thought a lot about putting in at least one word… .

… … That's how my stage name was decided to be Ryumun.

'No matter how you look at it, he looks like a Vlog Wetuber with secondary illness.'

Is it real?

But I can't help it. Originally, isn't it the fate of those who enter the agency to accept it no matter how similar their stage name is to X?

Fortunately, it is Mr. Ryu. Perhaps Ryu Gun-woo, who was selling data here, would think he was a relative of the Poongsan Ryu family.

'How did he get caught by walking backwards?'

However, as I faithfully continued my acting activities, such phrases began to appear in the pop-up.

[The silent roster shooter is puzzled.]

[Supermassive Black Hole wonders about your dreams!]

Hmm. It seemed that he was curious about my route.

[A genius actor who concentrates gets angry!]

Sometimes it seems like they are fighting among themselves.

‘Calm down.’

Because I have thoughts.

I guess everything I go through is relayed to these guys. Because I didn’t seem to know exactly what kind of situation I was accessing Cheongryeol’s system.

If you know all the specifics… . um no It might have been more upsetting.

‘Anyway, don’t worry.’

I finished filming like that, hoping that they would know that I was working as safely as possible.

and that evening.

I received a call from Cheong-rye in the style of ‘help’.

-Request for information.

-One of the actors who appeared together in the movie you filmed.

I had a conscience up until this point.

And the next word was gone.

– Everything about that person’s weaknesses.

“… … .”

The difficulty suddenly jumped up.

-I’ll give it a little longer, so you’d better bring the right information.

If it became easy just because they appeared in the same movie, all the actors went to the goal.

In the first place, I rarely filmed with him. At least one cut.

‘Besides, usually, if a movie fails, there is no need to watch it again.’

And the atmosphere at the scene was that this movie was almost ruined.

“… Hmm.”

But in fact I know.

That’s why it comes out so boldly.

I rubbed my chin.

this movie.

This film faithfully follows the story of ‘named criminals gathering to steal treasure’, also called the heist movie caper movie.

that it is a huge hit.

And the moment signs of a hit appear, the movie rushes into additional publicity.

– Let’s try.

again in a few weeks.

The film was eventually put into the off-season and released quickly.

* * *

[Park Moon-dae (□_□+) : Drawing a big picture.]

“Nope.”

“Don’t draw.”

“Ah, Park Moondae please.”

People watching Dot Bakmundae spat.

The reason was simple.

‘Has Moondae Park’s well-being been properly considered by drawing a big picture? !’

I have thoroughly experienced all of his moves, starting with his solo stage with broken ribs and ending with being slapped with a steel frame instead of a member.

I couldn’t figure out why this guy who hated losing, losing money, and doing stupid things and was quick at calculating was so extreme.

I thought there must be circumstances before I started working as an actor, but that’s why everyone quickly agreed.

“You have to hit the player.”

It is to bring Park Moon-dae before he does anything unreasonable to return to reality.

“I wonder if your physical condition is right now… What about?”

“wait a minute.”

Keundal bit his mouth and looked at Moondae Park’s stamina gauge.

‘It’s almost green.’

His stamina was more than half full, and there was hardly any sign of suffering from fatigue.

‘Lee Se-jin’s support was great.’

Keundal guessed that the amount of energy recovered must have been considerable as the blessing was used for a long time.

So now it was really in sight.

“I think I can try it right away if I give it to Ahyeon!”

“… yes.”

Sun Ah-hyun nodded firmly.

When the timing came, he was ready to move.

And the timing came not too late.

Chapter 556

If I can’t debut, I’ll get a fatal disease Episode 556

The movie < Steal the Star > started with gossip.

One of the supporting actors got off right before the release due to a sexual scandal, and the movie release itself was delayed.

It was even secretly circulated that the person filling the position was a rookie from LeTi’s agency, which is famous for being an idol.

-I heard it’s a joke, nope

-They deleted all of the actors and took additional shots. What will it be like ㄴI think there will be an issue with the overall completeness

. ..It’s a masterpiece. What is this?

In the end, it was also known through an article that the release date was rescheduled.

However, even if it took a while, it was not released at the right time, but a quick time was caught.

april.

The off-season for movie theaters after vacation and holidays!

-Ah

, gone

Everyone dropped their expectations.

In addition, when it was said that LeTi was the producer of the film, the booing intensified.

It was judged that it was a split-and-eat, ‘let’s fill in the filmography by inserting our people anyway’.

-This is the harm of the Korean movie version is why it can’t be made in Korea.

-This

All that was left was people who wanted to have fun talking about ‘how bad’ it was.

-I will come back with a gun on my arm..

ㄴ

Thank you for your sacrifice..

But on the opening day.

-My

God

-What

is

this ?

(Spoiler included^^)

Everything changed the moment I opened the lid.

* * *

< Steal the Stars > was a scenario that added Korean cinematic sensibility to a typical thief story.

First, a naive couple in the countryside discovers a meteorite that has fallen on the property of a certain company.

Although they are caught up in an explosive accident caused by the meteorite falling, they are taken to the intensive care unit, but once they recover, they can live without envy with a lot of money.

This is because meteorites are the property of the first discoverers.

And this meteorite received a huge estimated appraised value.

[This is a large and rare meteorite that has never been found on the Korean Peninsula. … .]

However, they were deliberately killed in a medical accident by a large corporation that coveted the meteorite.

The first discoverer is replaced by a conglomerate conglomerate who has inspected the site instead of them.

And the only thing left of the dead couple is a brilliant son.

[This is nonsense… .]

However, no one believed the high school student’s claim, and after dropping out of a special purpose high school, he grew up in an unfortunate environment and became a famous swindler.

The composition is that he retrieves the meteorite that his parents should have had.

To that end, it is to gather crime specialists in each field.

[They haven’t sold the meteorite yet. I knew it would be worth calling because it contains substances that don’t exist on Earth.]

[What does that mean?]

[Yes. If you just steal it, you’ll get a corner somehow.]

It was a composition that properly mixed emotion, comedy, and the thrill of giving cider.

What is surprising is that the additional filming even contributed in its own way.

The production company also proceeded with filming to replace some parts that were bothering them while they were filming additionally.

In this way, a lot of feedback from the internal closed preview was accepted, and the authenticity of the story became more solid.

Thanks to that, people focused on the movie from the beginning to the middle all the way without getting stuck more smoothly.

The story of the members who gathered to steal the meteorite was introduced appropriately.

[Hacker scammer counterfeiter gambler police mercenary… Who else needs it?]

[A quick-witted guy.]

And a taciturn supporting cast who joins this party with a strong personality and talkativeness for the last time.

A dark-looking young man who appears to be in his mid-to-late 20s.

[You can say that he is the only expert in Seoul without a criminal record.]

[…] … .]

It is a pickpocket.

Although he is extremely quiet and calm, he can rob anyone's belongings in an instant, infusing a sense of probability between scenes.

And even the licorice role of gag!

[Baby huh? Listen carefully. We don't have transportation right now, we don't have tools to camouflage, we don't even know the way here, right? But what kind of operation is the continuation? Don't bullshit and withdraw… … .]

Patter. The pickpocket spilled his car keys and disguise kits from his sleeves.

[…] … .]

[… … .]

[Hey, kidnapping is also pickpocketing in a broad sense, right? Just one employee who knows the way… … .]

[Stop.]

Besides, he gets a great cut in the second half.

death right away.

[A.]

The pickpocket, like the main character, had an unfortunate childhood.

So, when I made a lot of money, I decided what I wanted to do.

[So you're going to take 45 billion won and donate it all to an orphanage?]

[…] … .]

[Hey you idiot. I'd rather you build a foundation. uh? Something like the International Relief Foundation.]

[Yeah.]

Through the middle and late stages, that fact is revealed and he forms a strange bond with the main character.

That was the cause.

[Such an asshole!]

The party steals a meteorite and runs away, only to be discovered and chased because of one member's betrayal.

Big corporations with bad backs try to kill them all in order to cover up information.

This is where pickpocketing comes in.

He handcuffed the enemy on the helicopter so that the main character could escape without dying, and they fell off the helicopter together.

[Hey!!]

[It's water down here! I can buy him! Drive the helicopter first!]

And as he said, the pickpocket fell into the water.

bubbling… .

But the unexpected happens.

As it fell, it stuck to the enemy, so the hand was caught between the enemy's handcuffs, and the pickpocket could not escape.

The pickpocket, who tried to get out of hand several times, gradually slowed down and eventually… .

Power is released from the neck.

[…] … .]

Close-up shot.

While submerged in the water, the pickpocket blinks while receiving the light from above.

The expression gradually disappears.

It fades out with the blue light of search pouring over his head, as if he is being forgiven for the sins he has committed so far.

[Uh uh uh-]

That's how the pickpocket exits the play.

"… … ."

Let's summarize.

Due to the nature of the character, there is little weight and there are few lines. So, the role of the actor is less burdensome.

But the impactful scenes are thrifty and the end is intense?

'It's a role that a newcomer wants to risk his life for.'

There was nothing like this if I could take it well.

And thanks to Bae Se-jin and Keun Se-jin's blessings, I sucked in the honey.

like this.

-The new actor who was put in is good, but he seems to have better skills than the sexual harassment he did.

There were many favorable reviews saying that it was helpful for immersion as there were no overlapping characters because it was a new face without previous works.

This is the rational reaction of movie enthusiasts and cinephiles to popular movies.

and the public.

_
Aaaa

you’re doing this right now

“Actor, go up now!”

I nodded at the staff and climbed the stairs to the podium.

Wow-!

It’s just a stage greeting.

Originally, the three main actors were simple, but an additional schedule was set up four days after the release, and the promotion schedule was attached all the way.

‘As expected.’

I looked at the audience anew.

Originally, I would have to start the stage in formation, but now I calmly accept the microphone and sit in a chair.

“< Steal the Star >! All 7 thieves who came together to steal the meteorite came up to greet the stage!”

Flashes go off, cheers are heard, and cameras are seen on all sides. Even so, it proceeds a little more modestly than the ones I originally knew.

Requests and questions are more polite.

“Then, please say thank you to our cast members~”

I looked at the camera that was spinning in front of me.

And I laughed heartily.

‘It’s a PR appearance.’

If you can’t do this, you’re not an idol.

* * *

LeTi's new actor who made his name known at once by appearing in a blockbuster movie with an impactful supporting role as a pickpocket!

It is 'Ryumun'.

It was the stage name Park Moon-dae was eventually given.

-It's like Leti..

There were a lot of people who said that the name was too mysterious like LeTi idol.

So, moviegoers eventually accepted the name with a little hesitation.

-Give an idol a stage name like this

-I think

he was aiming for the Korean Wave in his own way haha -Isn't the actor himself embarrassed when he says it?

And everyone unconsciously thought of the character of the pickpocket in the movie as an actor's personality, and was vaguely convinced in their heads.

For some reason, it must be a stiff, quiet, and old-fashioned kind of actor.

But the moment the stage greetings started.

[< Steal the Star > stage greeting Ryu Moon "A genius pickpocket came to steal the hearts of the audience♡" (Photo HD)] -What the heck is it? The rookie

actor boasted a perfect heart and camera contact.

I’m not even shy

-What is this guy?

He has a quiet and calm personality.

However, it was the kind of composure and brazenness that seemed to have ate and slept in front of the camera for about 10 years.

[< Steal the Star > 5 million pledge “Let’s all dance popcorn!”]

Even the other actors made a 5 million pledge, joining the MC’s encouragement on the spot and brazenly doing well.

It means that he danced the popcorn amazingly well with his outstretched limbs.

– Why

are you so good at it

ㄴEven if you look at it while rolling backwards, it’s like Letty’s idol, but why

ㄴthe song is so bad…?

People were confused!

However, as time passed, they began to enjoy the fact that they were confused.

What a pleasant confusion!

-Oh, I laughed well for the first time in a while haha

-But it’s nice that he seems to be working hard like a rookie

Ryu Moon, who played the role of a pickpocket, started to go viral on social media and communities that were popular at the time.

[Anyone who wants to see pickpockets hahaha]

[A new actor exclaiming that he came from an idol agency]

[I’m watching an interview with Steal the Stars hahahaha It’s a pickpocket thing…] It was a time when viral wasn’t fully established as a business yet.

However, Park Moon-dae knew how to match the level to an amazing level with many years of experience.

“Geonwoo… No, Mr. Ryumun! The reaction is so good these days, you know?”

And it worked.

‘This is it.’

Park Moon-dae waited slowly.

If you get a good response while laying down the groundwork during media exposure like this… .

“hello. Seniors.”

“Oh, our door~ Come on!”

I knew it would be like this.

PR schedule 5 days car. Park Moon-dae laughed inwardly as he was greeted by the lead actor, who was now openly friendly.

‘Yeah. I’ll have to go face-to-face with a guy who benefits.’

As expected, the place where people live was the same whether it was the idol version or the actor version.

This is where it starts.

“Senior, are you interested in whiskey?”

Moondae Park proceeded with the plan quickly.

And it took him only two weeks to figure out the actor’s weakness.

Chapter 557

If you can’t debut, you’ll get a fatal disease Episode 557

[I found it. That actor weakness.]

I declared.

Cheong-ryeo, who was sitting alone in the agency’s recording studio and looking at the lyrics, looked up at the pop-up I opened.

I think it’s a bit odd.

“It’s faster than expected.”

I grinned.

It is now end of May.

It was only 20 days after the start of the movie promotion schedule.

It’s a very small amount of time to find out the weakness of someone who is usually a stranger.

‘But I brought it.’

Watching Cheongryeo wait with his arms crossed, I continued to write down tips.

[I lied about my age. Originally, he’s 2 years older.]

[And he’s on an illegal expedition abroad. I am contacting the broker through a separate smartphone device without the agency’s knowledge.]

This is a criminal, so you can spit out information without hesitation.

Chung-rye nodded her head slightly without saying a word.

“The grounds?”

[Confirmed at a drinking party. My mouth gets too light when I’m drunk.]

It’s because I’m not a weak drinker.

-Are you okay, senior?

-Ah oh… … .

After drinking a little bit, I saw the atmosphere, so I sneaked a sneak peek at the timing when I left after receiving a call from the manager of the actor.

‘Thanks to that, I’ve been drinking for several days.’

Of course, this wasn’t an effective way to find weaknesses in bare ground.

How can you suddenly say that you are two years older while drinking? Evidence of illegal gambling will not come out of nowhere.

Even if the actor did it by mistake, the odds of me noticing it were slim.

If so, how was it possible?

I grinned.

‘I was trying to prove what I knew in the first place.’

It is the controversy that will explode in the future of this actor.

So it was easy. Because I already know what this actor is doing after a few years.

[< Entertainment industry talk] Hallyu star A... Why did he lie about his age?] As an actor with a name value, whenever a controversy arose, he went through a joke and appeared in the media as the main story. 'Because I monitor public opinion from time to time, I came to see it naturally.' So, I just need to verify that the scandal that will happen to this actor in the future is true. And this... . “Did you verify the information you already knew? For an actor that famous, his current situation would have been consistently reported even years later.” […] … .] Yes. Even this kid knows. Wouldn't he have tried to restart 100 times and use a similar pattern like a bone marrow? I replaced the affirmation with silence. The boy slightly twisted the corner of his mouth. “Even considering that, the verification is faster than I thought.” [uh. Thank you.] I kept my mouth shut. Of course, the actor is not an idiot. It wasn't so much that it was easy to notice that they had been together for a few drinks. 'I only saw the seasoning indirectly by gently scratching it at the right timing.' Like this. When the actor inadvertently put the bag down because of accidentally spilled alcohol, I pretended to be looking for paper and checked the existence of the smartphone's air system in the bag. And as you should have heard, you need to have the ability to match the timing that is almost instinctive to do this quickly and quietly without any sense of incongruity. … It means that I used some of Liu Chengwu's protection. The character of that guy was awesome. 'You used your gold medalist abilities to spy on others... .' I was just grateful that Liu Cheng-wu didn't break my head for using his divine protection like this. I drool as I remembered the steady stream of pop-ups that said, "The shooter of the silent roster smiles." Misuse, but well written. [Anyway, since I've been informed of the smartphone's mechanical system, now you can use it yourself.] I've completed the information delivery. You don't have to ask where else you need it. Anyway, if you share this guy's view, you'll know it yourself. End with this. "good." Cheong-rye leaned back on the backrest and picked up her smartphone. I don't like to see it split. “The fact that there is no physical evidence is a deductible factor, but due to the period… … .” at that time. The guy who seemed to be talking about something to upset people suddenly shut his mouth. “… … .” [Why.] I shared the view of the smartphone screen he was looking at. that… It was an urgent message. - Chaeyul: Hyung, please come to the dorm quickly. I think Heewoon hyung went out without a trace . … .” oh shit The current lover of VTIC has escaped. * * * VTIC Hee-woon. A bastard who even made a cozy house with his lover. Perhaps for this reason, in the reality I lived in, the guy who couldn't become a VTIC member and lost money suddenly disappeared without contact. “Did you contact his brother’s family?” “He didn’t come. There are no eyewitness reports on social media.” Immediately after leaving the recording studio and meeting the manager, Chung-rye started moving quickly. By the way, you went to meet your lover? [He said he broke up with his lover.] “You can say anything with words.” A bastard who only shakes his mouth and commits behind the scenes... Well, it's an easy-to-see humanoid. I nodded. The manager asked Cheong-ryeo with a clear expression of nervousness on her face. “He left a message for Chae-yul. Jaehyun, did you get any notice from you?” “None. I will look for it from now on. Hyung, please adjust the group afternoon schedule first.” “That’s right. okay." The manager nodded and hurriedly made a call on his smartphone. All LeTi employees, including this person, seemed embarrassed, but no one made a fuss by contacting all kinds of places. 'okay. Finding the silently escaped members should be done with the minimum number of people.' Leaking words is the most fatal. I am well aware of that. It was because we were like that when Steer was in a state of car maintenance. Even here, the photo shoot was scheduled at 5:00 PM. '… hmm.' This doesn't sound like a lot of work. I asked implicitly. [Should I think about it, too?] Cheong-rye did not decline. I'll take it as a positive. Let's see. 'First of all, the time zone is low.' At this time, the fact that there are no eyewitness accounts by members means that they either did not use public transportation or used it extremely briefly. At the same time, it also means that I didn't walk on the street for a long time. 'Then I can't ignore the probability that it's near the accommodation... .' Before that, let's consider the case where it is dark under the lamp. [Probability of being at your lover's house?] “None.” Cheong-Ryeo said firmly and checked the newly arrived smartphone message. In it, the agency employee reported that the member's 'lover' was not at home and was out of the house. 'It's fast.' I then confirmed it by watching the staff who checked the CCTV near the accommodation send a reply to Chung-rye saying, 'There is no sign of taking a taxi'. After all, the lover was near the dorm. [How about robbing the room cafes and restaurants with private rooms around the accommodation?] “That has already been done.” Cheongryeo climbed into the car with cold eyes. “I’m not the type that doesn’t have a shallow calculation speed enough to use the method that took me once. We need to find another place.” I'm stuck here. 'It's a different place.' The current VTIC was living in a luxury villa very close to the company. And suddenly, there is no way I know the geography of this area in detail. After a brief thought, I suddenly remembered something. [Wait a minute.] Simple logic. If I don't know, shouldn't I use someone I know well? [I know a guy with a heavy mouth and unusual ideas. He should be familiar with the geography around your company.] “… … .” Cheongryeo only shifted her gaze and looked at the pop-up. [Belongs to LeTi.] Also solved the security problem. "say it." I put my hand on the batter. After such a quick and concise conversation. I stopped connecting with Cheongnye for a moment and got up from the officetel. The guy who had come in advance for the 'regular strategy meeting' and was on standby spoke quickly from the other side. “Has the communication ended?” "no." I asked, bending my neck. “Are you interested in reasoning?” Judan's eyes lit up. yes. * * * “So you're looking for a place where a small number of people can stay unnoticed for half a day or more. Except for commercial places.” After hearing the explanation of the situation, Ju Dan clapped his hands. It looks very exciting. "okay." Actually, I didn't expect much cooperation from this guy, but it's true that sometimes he comes up with good ideas... . “Then it is simple.” hmm? “Look here.” Judan immediately held out a place he had searched for on his smartphone. -Biz Lounge (unmanned space rental 24/7) “There is a seminar room rental company near the company, and you can easily make a reservation on weekdays. It is reasonably priced and operates unmanned, leaving no trace.” Ju Dan opened his mouth with a confident expression. “There is no CCTV inside the seminar room except for the entrance and rest room.” “… … .” “It is not usually a place to rest or play, but it is difficult to predict easily at work, and it is pleasant because it is not crowded. It is the perfect escape.” I looked at the companies marked on the map and matched all the current conditions. No eyewitnesses near the company, even real-time reservation availability… . matched amazingly. “It’s a bit disappointing to reveal it like this. It is one of my favorite companies.” “… … .” “It’s a way of life that you should naturally master in a situation where you live with dozens of your peers.” Finding a place to stay comfortably alone? But now is not the time to talk like that. when it comes to compliments “Impressive.” “… ! It was nothing." Zhu Dan seemed to be impressed. 'A funny guy.' No need to worry. I won't reveal only the companies you visit. 'I have to see everything that meets the conditions.' I found several similar candidates in the vicinity of the company in addition to the specific company selected by the caster by rubbing the screen of my smartphone. Then, he contacted Chung-rye again and sent a message. [I hear there are seminar rooms near the company... … .] … … . and after a while "brother! They found it!” Surprisingly, the lover was really discovered in the seminar room and quietly taken away. Although it wasn't the 'perfect' company Judan recommended, it was true that I was dating my lover in a nearby seminar room. Casting's idea was a success. After confirming the news through Cheongryeo's eyes, I returned to my body in the officetel. “… … .” sight returned. After checking my expression, Zhu Dan became slightly elated. And he shrugged his shoulders as he held out a cup of coffee he didn't know when. "Looks like you're right." OK. “Please give my regards to senior Cheongryeo.” OK. I drank the coffee he offered me. * * * After a cup of coffee, Chung-ryeo's vision was hell. It literally means. A bastard with hellish ideas was sticking his head into the mouth of hell. The lover was crying loudly as if he was drunk with blood in his neck, his eyes red. “I fucking know that you all blame me. Did you know I didn't know? Your attitude has changed? Hey, do you know how suffocating it is to be around people who resent you all day?” The guy who should have had his head broken is still attached to it, so he's talking like this. “I was supposed to be back before the pictorial, but I didn’t trust X and told the company everything again, right? and i really... .” "brother… … .” "Guys. Go to your room for a minute.” However, Chung-rye was calm. He naturally sent the other members to their rooms. "What are you doing? Hey, what the hell is that?” The lover's shoulders stiffened as if nervous at the sight. And to hide it, it started to come out stronger. Cheong-Ryeo looked at him blankly and smiled instead. And nodded. “I know what you mean. okay. Rest as much as you want, hyung.” “… uh huh?” “Doesn’t that mean you need some time off?” Cheongryeo murmured as she checked her watch. “Because this album is a small test anyway… hmm. It's okay for you to have some alone time." The lover swallowed. “You want me to leave?” "What are you talking about." Cheng Li said softly. “Your brother has to keep working. hmm… How about something like a drama?” “… … drama?" "okay. If you say you’re going to miss album activities for a while because you’re so busy with acting, it’s convincing. There are many such cases among seniors.” The man in love looked up at Cheongnyeo as if he were tempted. It seemed that he was not the type who was accustomed to being angry by nature, and his head cooled down quickly. At that time, Chung-rye slightly changed her words. like taking bait. “Of course, it’s not something I would recommend… Did you ever think that way? It was expected. Brother, do whatever you feel comfortable with. I won't be angry at the company either." The lover hastily grabbed the bait. "… … okay. I hope so. I'll think about it. Sorry. This is because the environment is so stressful... I think I showed you something you couldn't see." "We should take care of each other." Cheong-rye responded softly, and the lover quietly staggered into her room with an almost impressed face. hmm. I saw a request sent to the company on my smartphone saying, 'We had a good talk'. and asked [If he gets out of group activities just because he's acting, it's over.] It's a vertical blow to the reputation of the worst lover in the VTIC fandom. Is this the angle to send the truck to the agency? "yes." Chung-rye smiled softly and closed her smartphone. "That's why you do it." […] … .] understood. 'You're pushing yourself step by step with such a natural resignation... … .' They said they would not restart on their own and live as usual, but they are really living like that. [I got it.] However, I have a question about coming this far. [Why didn't you put Jung Woo-dan on the team? It looks fine to me.] If you want to use such a bastard as a full-time job, wouldn't it be better to use it even if it has some ups and downs? [He also came up with the idea for the seminar room.] "… … ." Cheong-rye headed to the front door to head back to the recording studio. And he answered lightly. "Yes, Jung Woo-dan. Occasionally I come up with ingenious ideas. He seems to keep his composure well, even in irregular situations." Cheongryeo muttered quietly. "But it's not always like that." [What do you mean?] The simple answer came back. "I didn't believe it." '… … ?' "I told you. I've talked about it before as a test." no way. I saw the blue "About my situation." The guy had a calm expression. And briefly, it seemed to recall the situation at the time. "Hmm, did you ask?" - Can you prove it? "So I proved it." Cheongryeo smiled brightly. "They left a note the next morning and ran away." "… … ." "I didn't return to my lodgings until I restarted the next night." thud. He rode the elevator without looking back at the front door. "If the elements evaluated as strengths are selectively manifested, it is inefficient to use more." underground parking lot. Cheong-Ryeo went towards the car without hesitation and ended the conversation gently. "I trust statistics." […] … .] I pressed my eyes. 'Is it so?' The bastard who confessed that this bastard was the first to return. '… … .' yea by the way 'He didn't believe in restarting?' I'd rather not believe this.

Chapter 558

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 558

In the past, Cheong-ryeo confessed that she was restarting, but there was a guy who didn't believe it.

'It's possible.'

But that's the main stage.

"… … ."

The front and back sentences are not correct.

'This guy?'

I looked up. The cast iron guy was hitting dishes in the dishwasher. Stir-fried pork is good, so it's easy to move on your own.

"Will artificial intelligence be applied to dishwashers in a few years?"

"… … To some extent."

"indeed."

I mean, this is a guy.

I looked at him with suspicious eyes.

This guy has a track record of believing in a homeless man he met on the road in a foreign country when he said that he came from the future.

That’s me.

However, a member who had been active in the same group for years suddenly took a stand and said ‘I came from the future’, but I didn’t believe it?

Did you even run away?

‘I’m sure he didn’t forget to contact me because he rushed out to investigate the data.’

This… It’s funny how convincing it sounds.

“… … .”

Well, that has nothing to do with me.

I just decided to stop thinking.

what do you know

Let’s take care of our dog-like situation while taking the time to care about other people’s business.

“Are you going to work as an actor tomorrow too?”

okay. This is what I care about.

I received the mixed coffee that Judan brought after running the dishwasher.

“okay. Because there is only one entertainment left.”

I’ve been working hard on acting for a few weeks now.

It means promoting a movie that has already been filmed on TV or on the Internet.

I did waste some time digging up information while drinking with that actor, but… Now that’s over, so I won’t end it suspiciously enough.

Ju Dan rubbed his chin.

“hmm. It seems like it’s about time for commercial films, which are the main focus in movie theaters, to change. Publicity is a bit ineffective.”

I answered calmly.

“I’m not trying to promote the movie.”

“… ?”

“They’re trying to promote me.”

Yes.

This was not a schedule set by the filmmakers. It’s a schedule set by actor Ryu Moon’s agency.

“… ! You’re trying to expand the awareness you gained through this film.”

That’s the answer.

– It’s an observational entertainment show at MBS, but it’s really good for hot actors at this time to do an interview. Go out unconditionally and take a good snow stamp!

The agency was also very strong.

2010’s. It is still a time when airwaves are strong. And, as the observational variety shows hit one after another, it is the beginning of the trend.

‘It’s appropriate in many ways.’

Even from the point of view of adhering to mysticism, it is better than being robbed of American algojuals on talk shows or professional interviews.

At this time, though, there is a problem that if you are a rookie, you will strain your shoulders and go in, making it more unnatural.

Especially if you’re an actor who only sells acting… .

“hmm. It must be familiar to him, who was an idol who debuted at a large future agency.”

I just laughed

Don’t pretend you’re just right

* * *

“The weather is nice… .”

< Travel for one person >.

It is one of the various observational entertainment programs that send celebrities who appear in the rain at this time on a trip to heal them.

However, in this program, only the cast members are sent alone.

‘He asked me to do a lot of monologues because he had no one to talk to.’

So, there were reviews that it was close to the essence of observational entertainment, but Park Moon-dae had a hunch.

This was an interesting composition that the editor had to work magic on.

If you can’t catch it in the editing, it’s just a story of others who are silent.

In other words, a program where the production team is more important than the cast.

‘It went bankrupt after the production team was changed.’

However, the production team has not changed yet.

Believing that he would create the story on his own, he was really enjoying the two-day, one-night trip.

It was honey.

‘I’m sure it’ll just become unnatural after trying too hard.’

They just come to the remote countryside to cook and see the scenery.

Park Mun-dae lay down on the veranda and closed his eyes watching the clouds float by.

Whiik –

The wind from the mountain passed over my forehead.

Late spring with strong sunlight. Lying in the shade, being blown by the wind and quietly listening to the sound of the grass is something that softens people’s hearts.

Especially if you are familiar enough not to be uncomfortable with the camera.

“… … .”

Park Moon-dae’s first feeling of relaxation after being in this bizarre situation.

But before… In this situation, the audio was empty.

Because the seven members moved together.

‘There was even a dog.’

A slight bitterness crept into his mouth.

Still, the dog Bae Se-jin’s mother took must be doing well.

And the other guys too.

He lay down and blinked his eyes.

about an hour… it'll be fine like this

[The dissatisfied idol relaxes in your rest.]

It was Lee Se-jin's pop-up.

'Have you not relaxed?'

Park Moon-dae was taken aback, but in the end he laughed. It wasn't a bad thing to have a companion like this.

"Should I eat some herbs?"

Park Mun-dae made stone-cooked bibimbap with wild vegetables that evening.

It was a composition that borrowed sesame oil salted directly from next door and packed it with fried eggs from chickens raised here.

"It's natural and nice to look at."

"I know."

"I am good at cooking."

The production crew who watched the whole process were sober.

It seems like he really doesn't care about the camera, but he doesn't say a single inappropriate expression like a ghost, and the timing to accept and eat it is amazing.

No matter how magical the editing was, it was impossible without materials.

But this… Materials were more abundant than ever.

It's like a celebrity who has only been on observational entertainment for about 10 years!

But a rookie with no image consumption!

‘why… Is it comfortable to shoot?’

The crew was confused, but soon satisfied. Isn’t good good?

‘Interview… I’ll have to pay more attention to it.’

Only a few of the writers have made such a commitment.

interview.

Just as it is impossible not to talk about the song that won first place when an idol appears, you cannot help but talk about the work of that person in a variety show that promotes an actor.

Especially if it’s a recent blockbuster movie.

“I was given this watch as a souvenir. A toy wristwatch for children that the pickpocket always wears in the film.”

In this program:

During the break, the cast enters the story in a retrospective way while looking at objects related to their latest hit, such as photos, posters, and videos.

And it is to pick an interview to be inserted separately there.

like this.

“also! It is said that the filming process was very harmonious.”

“Oh, thank you.”

That night.

Moondae Park filmed the scene where he fell asleep on the floor under the ondol (floor heating system), and then got up and conducted an interview in the warehouse behind the country house.

The writer meticulously asked him various things in order to somehow scratch the back story related to the movie.

‘Doing well means being nice, and choosing something slightly controversial is fine as it is!’

I even peeked at the actor who originally played his role, who was cut due to sexual scandal.

“Before the pickpocket was modified, you must have studied the character while watching the film. How was it?”

“Character research… Since I am still a rookie, I focused on the script so as not to miss the details of the script. A bit embarrassing… It’s tattered, can I show you?”

“Oh yes!”

However, Park Moon-dae did not show his face and answered the question casually.

‘… passed!’

The writer who was interviewing realized it only after receiving the script of Park Moon-dae.

Maybe LeTi… It seems that the actors are gritting their teeth and giving them comprehensive training… .

‘There are no gaps.’

The writers laughed hysterically.

Still, the interview continues.

“Still, I think there must have been a lot of difficulties when I was suddenly additionally cast in such a big movie at such a young age.”

“hmm… but. Thankfully, everyone was kind and I was able to focus quickly.”

“iced coffee! I heard you were the youngest.”

“yes.”

Park Moon-dae slightly wiggled his eyebrows.

This is because the director, who used to treat people rudely to the point of pissing people off during additional filming, changed his stance and said in an interview that he was a sincere and conscientious maknae.

‘There is no need to say that I treated you like X here.’

Judging by the similar attitude even after the camera was turned off, it must have been beautified in my head.

Park Moon-dae gave an estimate while conducting the interview faithfully.

‘If I do well, I’ll be able to get an offer for my next film from that director.’

Of course, I was going to dive before that, but that was it.

[The concentrating genius actor stamps his feet.]

‘Yes.’

I will also find a way to return before borrowing Bae Se-jin’s ability.

Park Moon-dae looked at the pop-up and nodded slightly.

Come to think of it, it seemed that this kind of expression appeared frequently in pop-ups these days.

A gesture or expression that the members would use when they were nervous ahead of a big project.

[The late-night maestro opens his eyes.]

[The noble-minded dancer puts his hands together.]

These things.

Park Moon-dae felt it.

‘It looks like the preparations are nearing the end.’

Perhaps you are ready to bring yourself.

In order not to take on the risk, he had to move ahead of the members’ ‘preparation’.

‘Proceed as planned.’

The situation has already proven several transactions as an actor’s version of information to Cheongryeo.

I had earned time, so now was the right time to use it.

‘Pour into properly analyzing the bizarre terminal inside the system of Cheongryeo.’

Park Moon-dae judged so.

As a result of digging step by step over the past hour, it seemed that I would be able to stably access the core of the terminal soon.

And as soon as the confirmation was over, I had to focus only on finding a corner to eat by using it as a hint to return to reality.

okay.

‘This is right… .’

“Ah, Mr. Ryumun.”

The writer called him again.

“yes.”

“This is a personal question… … .”

An expression used when trying to wittily gloss over an out of context or personal question came out.

Park Moon-dae leisurely focused on the interview again.

the artist asked with a smile.

“What do you think about the end of the pickpocket?”

“… The last one.”

Also, the context is out of context.

Park Moon-dae thought that he should tell the agency to remove this before the program gets beaten up for being a movie spoiler.

But the writer was serious.

“yes. It was such a sad ending because of a really small discrepancy. Didn’t you want a different ending as a pickpocket?”

Being handcuffed and dying in the climax part? It was symbolic, so it was honey.

Of course, it was kind of like that.

“hmm. Yes.”

‘I’m sad as an actor, but I wouldn’t have felt sorry for the pickpocket myself… Should I do that?’

However, Park Moon-dae, who was preparing an answer that seemed safe, hesitated for a moment.

Something came to mind from the artist’s expression.

hmm.

‘… It’s a one inch difference.’

This is the case of Cheongryeo and Judan that I heard yesterday.

When Cheong-ryeo talked about her surreal experience, Ju-dan panicked and ran away from home.

Perhaps because of that, Ju Dan, who is a VTIC in reality, is unable to debut here and is stuck as a trainee.

Because Cheongryeo has already underestimated and appraised cast iron as ‘below standard’.

This is it.

‘… I think it will work properly if I adjust it just a bit.’

Of course, I know that in reality, everything is solved anyway.

But what is happening right in front of his eyes… Aren’t your hands itchy?

If you touch it lightly, I think you need to control it a little bit.

“… …”

Oh damn.

Park Mun-dae refrained from sleeping.

I really only do it once.

‘There’s no more, bastards.’

And the next morning after filming was finished.

Park Moon-dae called Ju Dan.

-Geonwoo hyung?

“Jung Woo-dan.”

A weekend without school. He just finished morning practice and got a call right away.

– Are you in an emergency?

“No, not like that.”

Park Moon-dae said at once.

“From now on, I am going to explain a certain situation to you, and I want to know what choice you will make. therefore… .”

appropriate words.

“It’s a kind of human psychological test.”

“Please give me a prudent answer.”

* * *

Ju Dan listened to the other person over the phone.

Blunt, wise, a bit mysterious, and sometimes bold. The person from this future has completely taken out the soul of the main cast.

And so it was even now.

“I debuted as an idol and was active. One day, a group member suddenly says, ‘I went back to the past and lived again to succeed’… Is that it?”

-hmm. okay.

Joo Dan was instantly inspired by that calm answer.

‘Have you been through a similar situation?’

Maybe it’s like talking about something the other person has experienced firsthand.

– Repeat until successful.

However, the main stage did not express itself. Being swayed by such predictions was good for mediocre and illogical answers.

‘An objective answer comes first.’

So he added after a minute of meticulous consideration.

“Then now… It’s a situation where you confess after the group succeeds.”

-no.

The other person spoke in a low voice.

-The situation just before pressing new game.

In other words, it doesn’t succeed, and it has already failed and is on the verge of restarting.

“… … .”

Ju Dan closed his eyes and opened them.

virtual situation. But the answer is already in my head.

that… It was simple.

“You will have to run away.”

-what?

“Isn’t it dangerous?”

Judan drew a cool conclusion.

“Right now, the opponent is in a situation where they see no loss or gain no matter what they do. In such a situation, the reason why he bothered to inform me of the situation was one of two things.”

-… … two.

“yes.”

Ju Dan swallowed his saliva.

first.

“It’s a test of trust built up in me over the years.”

It’s just a colleague recruitment.

If so, a situation could have been created in which he was willing to lend his abilities as a colleague to this fateful protagonist.

Just like he does to his older brother.

however.

“But there are other possibilities. as soon as… .”

Zhu Dan swallowed his saliva.

This was the problem. another case.

second.

“Because he was curious. How will I react?”

-… … ?

“If you continue doing repetitive tasks for a long time, surely boredom and boredom will follow you like a companion?”

The situation just before starting a new game.

If you were trying to tell yourself out of frustration or anger.

then.

“In the worst case, I could be killed because my reaction was not funny.”

-… … .

– Not a serial killer, but a member of the same group.

“There is no law saying that idol members cannot become serial killers. I always assume the worst and act.”

Idols and serial killers. Intersections were possible at any time.

‘Especially if you’re a person who has repeated the past time and time again to succeed!’

Wouldn’t it be nice to belittle people’s lives? Because if you go back to the past, you will come back to life anyway.

Judan responded based on the perfect Venn diagram.

“But running away right away… hmm ok You might even be resentful.”

then.

“First of all, I should send a sign like ‘Thank you for your words, but I’ll think about it more deeply’. And then sneak away.”

-… … .

“It sounds like the perfect way to survive.”

Park Moon-dae hit the head.

-Look at you waiting.

“yes?”

– to wait.

He immediately went to Cheongryeo for help.

Chapter 559

Episode 559

LeTi's recording studio.

"I will go as you say. Mr. Jaehyun."

"yes."

Cheong-Ryeo was in the process of resuming the recording of a new song that had been stopped due to the sudden escape of the last member.

As much as it was pushed back, the density of the schedule increased to the point where it was tight. However, if there is no problem with quality, it doesn't matter anyway.

It was a life to be abandoned anyway, but he caught the flaws and refined the best path like a habit.

'hmm.'

As always, in my calm head, the layers built up by calculation were solid.

Cheong-rye gently tapped the lyrics.

It was then.

[Let's ask one thing.]

A sentence that broke the silence.

Cheong-ryo narrowed her eyes at the help that jumped out as if in a hurry.

The sound source was being mixed, so we were able to talk… … .

‘It’s out of habit.’

In a situation like this, you have to ask for understanding.

He thought about it briefly, but decided to let it go.

“what question.”

As soon as the tacit consent falls, the sentences pour out.

question.

[That you confided right before restarting the Jung Woo-dan story you talked about last time.]

[Do you remember exactly what the situation was like then.]

I remember.

He wrote down in his head the manpower he used as a member of VTIC, as if it were neatly organized in a table. As for why you used it and why you don’t use it anymore.

And the ‘Story of Jung Woo-dan’ that the help said was the latter. In other words, it was one of the memories he intentionally recorded.

but.

‘I have no reason to tell you.’

Cheong-rye briefly and insensibly looked at the help.

However, he soon opened his mouth about what he was thinking.

“I should have already told you. It was right before the restart.”

Then he began to explain the situation in a monotonous manner.

21st VTIC.

Due to the butterfly effect in the process of making a new album, the company's financial manager changed, and they suffered a great deal of tax problems.

That's how VTIC's second half tour was canceled. Cheong-rye realized.

'Is it the end?'

The time has come to restart again.

Maybe I was a little unfair or annoyed. The group is in good health, but it was in the early days when there were a few cases where the timing failed due to absurd things.

So, it was decided on a somewhat chilly impulse.

'Shall I tell you?'

about your own circumstances.

Because now there is nothing to lose.

So, I chose a member who has the ability to cope with crises, has a unique idea, and has no ethical problems.

Casting.

After hearing the explanation for the first time and even asking for proof, the guy who looked at it carefully nodded his head surprisingly.

-okay. indeed… . I got it.

and asked

-Then you need my help… … .

-Your help? hmm. I don't need your help right now.

-… yes?

– This group is a failure at the point where the number of audiences that should have been filled was not filled to the standard level. It's over. No matter who helps, I have to restart. haha… .

-… … But for me this… Why are you telling us the hidden truth?

– To see if you believe.

Because Ju Dan is included in the members to be reappointed even after the restart.

This was a test run of sorts. To make sure this process works well after restarting.

And Cheong-rye judged that this attempt was successful so far.

– Thank God. because you believe

-… … yes.

The conversation of the day ended like that.

Chung-rye finished her recollection.

And smiled.

"But Jung Woo-dan disappeared from the dorm the next day. I left a note with the company saying 'I want to take a break from activities because I am sick'."

And after his head cooled down, he realized that he had acted out of balance.

"It's a runaway. If the leader had reported to the company that he had psychosis, the rating would have been lowered."

[…] … .]

No, I think I was afraid of the dog because I believed it.

‘I also jumped out of the fucking way.’

Park Moon-dae instinctively understood.

Cheongryeo must have tasted heirloom to anyone’s eyes, and Judan must have been scared like a dog meeting a tiger.

Cheong-rye continued her monotonous explanation.

“I used up my free time and restarted the next day. Until then, Jung Woo-dan had not returned to his dorm from his refuge.”

‘… … .’

Park Moon-dae rubbed the back of his neck.

And I recognized the meaning implied in the sentence.

You mentioned the refuge exactly.

[Did you know where he was?]

Cheong-rye replied plainly.

“Near the company.”

Come to think of it… .

“It was a rental meeting room.”

And Chung-rye realized.

The VTIC member who escaped this time was also in the seminar room.

in other words.

“I didn’t come up with a unique idea, but it was just a coincidence that it was similar to my own situation.”

[…] … .]

“Hmm. also.”

Chung Ryeo concluded that Jung Woo Dan’s assessment was not worth reconsidering.

And back to the recording… .

[Wait a minute.]

Help pressed the air.

“… … .”

Park Moon-dae felt a sense of incongruity somewhere.

seminar room.

– It’s not usually a place to rest or play, but it’s difficult to predict easily at work, and it’s not crowded, so it’s even pleasant. It’s the perfect getaway.

Obviously, Judan explained it that way.

‘It means a space for escapism used in everyday life.’

So, if you get tired of running into people during practice, a place for introverted people to stay alone for mental stability.

The main thing is that he went there.

It is not a place to dive like a dead rat to avoid a serial killer.

‘… perhaps.’

Moondae Park was silent for a moment, then typed.

[I think he believed you.]

“Hmm?”

[Even though Jung Woo-dan said I came from the future, he immediately believed me. It’s him who helped me.]

Thanks to that, I didn’t starve to death.

“… … .”

Park Mun-dae ignored the absurd expression that passed by Cheong-ryeo’s eyes.

Instead, he kindly completed the sentence.

[In reality, if you believed someone else, wouldn’t it be more likely that you would have believed the member’s words? They said they showed evidence.]

“I don’t know if they want to discuss an obvious phenomenon… . Did you forget the story of the disappearance?”

[Yeah, that’s what I mean. After hearing what you said, I asked Jung Woo-dan himself.]

And Park Moon-dae moderately refined Ju-dan’s idea obtained through a psychological test and delivered it.

No matter what the other member did now, if they restarted, it would be nothing, so he must have jumped at the thought that he could do anything in a ruined game anyway.

[Rather, it means that he went to sleep because he believed it.]

“Um.”

Chung-rye nodded her head politely.

“that… It’s definitely a good idea.”

[…] … .]

“Although it is a somewhat individualistic mindset to work as a group. Not good with cons… .”

Just like that, Cheongryeo was on the verge of making a deferred decision on Judan’s evaluation.

[By the way.]

In fact, the main point of the help was from here.

[I think that’s odd too.]

“… … .”

Cheong-ryeo narrowed her eyes. Park Moon-dae felt that it was a waste of time.

From now on, I had to choose my words well.

“What point?”

[Location.]

[If he really felt the danger to his life and tried to run away, he would have gone abroad already. At least he’s the one who ran away to the provinces.]

It wasn’t that he was messing around in the seminar room, but he must have bounced with all his might.

This is the guy who screamed to get off as soon as he found out that things were going strangely in the virtual world of the system. It’s a crisis of survival, but there’s no way I’ve only stayed at a facility near the company for two days.

‘A supernatural person who goes back to the past will find out this much location. I would have thought that way.’

[If you look at it that way, the seminar room near the company is too complacent.]

Besides.

[The answer I brought was just what the trainee did as a psychological test. I’m not a member of yours when I was in VTIC for several years.]

[It’s not that I’m a different person, but the conditions and environment are different.]

The cast iron here.

The trainee Jung Woo-dan, who talked with him, doesn’t know Cheong-rye well.

He was a young guy who debuted as an idol and had never lived with the members.

So, the answer he gave must be far from the actual feelings of Judan, who was actually a member of VTIC.

‘And considering that this guy is also a kind of affectionate person… .’

What I noticed at close range.

-Joo Dan believed Cheong Ryeo’s words and ran away.

In addition to these words.

[If you think you are not in danger, you will probably come back.]

Ju-dan means that he had the intention of returning soon.

* * *

I saw Cheongryeo's calm face.

On the surface, he was a KPOP artist himself concentrating on recording in the recording studio, but I noticed that cracks were occurring in his outward thinking.

Probably because of the new interpretation.

-Judan believed Cheongryeo's words and wanted to interpret Cheongryeo's intentions in a good way.

[This is also a sign that you thought there was a high probability that you wouldn't harm yourself.]

Cheong-rye didn't even move her eyelids.

[That means you were okay as a leader at the time.]

From Jung Woo-dan's point of view, it was because he decided that he wanted to organize his thoughts nearby so that he could return at any time, even at the risk of his own.

"… … ."

I didn't mean to make him feel good.

[When connected with common sense, this is the most likely answer.]

And.

[Aren't you certain that the thought that you escaped because I didn't trust you is rather the least likely?]

Cheong-ryeo's finger moved slightly.

I completed the sentence without hesitation.

[The four attempts to choose Jung Woo-dan are much more likely to have been successful.]

[Don’t treat that one case as a failure at all.]

“… … .”

Cheong-ryeo took her eyes off the lyrics page.

And slowly expressed his will.

“… I don’t think I ever said that the only time I told a group member about my situation was once.”

‘… … .’

what.

“After that, I tried several times with different targets, but the expected value was terribly low, so I discarded it.”

However, Chung Ryeo’s expression was not cold.

Instead of a picturesque smile, his face had a natural expressionless expression.

“But failing the first attempt has a big impact on the stats.”

‘… … !’

“Because it starts as a complete failure.”

And that is now reversed.

[So how does it feel to know that you may have been right?]

Cheong-rye did not answer for a moment.

But soon he opened his mouth.

“Not bad.”

OK.

I grinned.

Cheong-Ryeo put down the lyrics slightly softer than before.

I realized that a slightly comfortable emotion had been activated in his thoughts on the outside.

which wasn't bad

I lightly tapped the batter.

[Then, are you going to use Jung Woo-dan as a member now?]

"Should I list him as a candidate?"

'… !'

yes.

… … no. Why do I say proud and damn? Anyway, in real life, he is a guy who is good at VTIC while buying a building.

'What kind of overindulgence?'

Rather, the rival group should feel better about going bankrupt, but seeing the development of T-Holic here, it seems that they empathized in a bizarre direction.

It was when I was shutting my mouth.

"In that sense."

hmm?

"I think he's in touch with Jung Woo-dan."

Cheong-Ryeo laughed and said.

“Should I go for an interview?”

[…] ??]

It was an unexpected sound.

* * *

Officetel after 3 hours.

“I didn’t expect to see you in this position. It’s called Jeong Woo-dan. Seniors.”

“yes. nice to meet you.”

The guy who gave me the officetel and the guy who helped me move are sitting around the table.

It feels warm when only the facts are listed, but in fact, it was not a very realistic scene.

After the recording, Cheongnyeo takes time to come here?

‘I didn’t know that a bastard who would dismiss it as a waste of time even if I suggested it would voluntarily ask for it.’

In addition, Cheongryeo and Judan are having a conversation in a very good atmosphere.

First of all, it would be great that Cheongryeo is responding to all kinds of nonsense and questions from Judan with a smile without wavering.

“okay! thank you.”

“What.”

Moreover, to my surprise, he was answering Ju Dan’s questions fairly truthfully, rather than casually spilling them.

There were parts that were roughly crushed, but at least the part that he went back to the past and restarted was confided without hiding much.

‘hmm.’

I saw Joo Dan a little taken aback when he said, ‘Next time you might debut as a VTIC’.

“indeed… . It’s an honor from my point of view, but didn’t you put the restart on hold? I heard that Geon-woo hyung worked as a helper.”

Why are you asking this so boldly?

“well. Well, you don’t have to restart after receiving the target. haha.”

Are you answering this honestly?

‘Is the album recording going very well?’

I turned around with a slightly puzzled face.

“I’ll restart anyway.”

“… … .”

what?

“Once you succeed, it’s over. Because this reality is fixed.”

“… yes?”

“But I don’t really like the current members.”

And Cheong-rye kindly explained to Ju-dan.

“Because if we continue like this, even if we receive the target, within a few years this group will end its lifespan.”

“that… … .”

“Good. U Dan will use it.”

Cheongryeo turned her head.

“And you too.”

towards me

“… … .”

“I have a good feeling about being active in the entertainment industry. The vocal pool was lacking, but it worked.”

What are you talking about?

“I want you to restart… .”

“okay. He said that if he restarted, he might not be able to use his body.”

Cheongryeo calmly responded.

“doesn’t care. You just need help.”

because.

“There is one more of you here.”

“… … .”

I realized what he was talking about.

Gunwoo Ryu!

The past me who is currently attending college.

“Grades are good. sincere and… hmm. It would be easy to persuade them if they said that they would support food, clothing, and shelter because their financial situation was not good.”

“… … .”

“If you aim for the time when you have just entered college, it will be possible.”

There was certainty in the tone of the guy who spoke calmly.

“When did you investigate?”

My own view would know that I could be shared at any time as long as I logged in as a help.

“Whenever.”

Cheongryeo laughed softly.

“… !”

“I had a hard time searching for information. So it would have been more difficult to access the help.”

Chapter 560

If I can't debut, I'll get a fatal disease.

It's been a question I've had from the beginning of episode 560.

'Why is Chung-Ri trying to get information about the actor's version from me?'

To a guy who just became a rookie actor.

There's no way that the guy who restarted 100 times wouldn't have opened a better window than that.

So I guessed that he was only aiming for one specific piece of information that he could find out at this time.

But that wasn't it.

'In the first place, information was not the purpose.'

"I could have neglected my schedule in order to find information, but I took time to properly prepare and answer each interview and each publicity medium. It means you didn't waste a moment in the spotlight."

"… … ."

"It means you are born with quality talent and attitude. Mr. Geon-woo."

Cheongryeo looked at me without blinking an eye.

"It seems to be the same for those who are in college."

to see my attitude.

I supported my acting activities to see how well I fit into this industry and whether I could be active while paying for my meal.

And crucially… .

‘To check the information of college student Ryu Gun-woo without being obstructed unnecessarily.’

Rolling the head still makes people angry.

I answered in a low voice.

“… Why do you think a guy who does well in college would become an idol? At this time, I have no interest in idols.”

“You worked hard for something like that.”

“… … .”

“Some of my photos in the dorm were taken by Mr. Geon-woo.”

Did you even find out that it was a data arm?

“I do it because it makes money.”

“Isn’t that the only way to earn money with that degree? Why did I have to go around the event and take pictures of idols, which is not worthwhile?”

“You earn better than you think.”

“It’s an honor to be able to introduce you to a more ‘good paying’ job.”

Cheongryeo replied casually.

I wasn’t surprised

If he had been persuaded by such words, I wouldn't have had to hit this bastard head with handcuffs.

"… … ."

I closed my mouth.

That was the moment.

"for a moment. I would also like to say something."

Zhou Dan raised his hand and intervened.

"Why are you telling us this plan?"

I looked up.

"The moment you go back to the past, everyone's experiences and memories will disappear except for you."

It was true.

"We won't be able to remember it with a high probability, but why are you saying… Is it the emotional factor?"

"… … ."

The cast iron guy looked calm, but in fact his hands were shaking slightly.

'You're trying.'

I answered while holding back my sleep.

"I want to see the reaction."

"yes?"

"They're trying to figure out how to use it in the future by checking our reaction in such an absurd situation."

In a word, it is an attraction potential meter.

You don’t have to worry about side effects either. ‘Cause I’ll forget it anyway

Ju Dan’s expression became unknown whether it was admiration or fear.

“indeed… .”

“You’re not guessing, are you sure?”

“… !”

Cheongryeo smiled brightly.

“As expected, I must have known you from the time you lived. A little deeper.”

“… … .”

“At first, I think you’re both too embarrassed. You better calm down a bit.”

Cheongryeo said calmly.

“My conditions haven’t changed. There is nothing to lose to anyone. It only gets better. and… .”

And he looked back at me kindly.

“Don’t worry if you lose your body after I restart. Even if it remains as a help, I won’t delete it.”

Thank you very much.

I wanted to be sarcastic, but Cheong-ryo still maintained a friendly look.

“As promised, I will also release an album, so don’t worry about that either. There are still things to check and do.”

But that’s all.

I predicted what this guy would say next.

“But as you heard… Even if the album succeeds, staying here is a bad decision for the group. A restart is a certain thing.”

Cheongryeo tilted her head to the side.

“You can start over on better terms, but you shouldn’t be satisfied.”

reset syndrome.

A habit of willingly restarting when better conditions arise.

The youngster who is frighteningly stuck in this stage, which has already passed the blueprint of reality… Dirty, dirty, the words didn’t work.

‘X feet.’

I closed my eyes at the aching back of my head.

How to convince… is there

“… … .”

does not exist.

It’s different from the reality in which he misunderstood that I had a restart button when the system was transferred from Cheongryeo to me.

Unlike the reality where I had to convince myself to restart, I was able to restart at will in this past.

Fuck you, I don’t have a negotiating hand.

“… … .”

furthermore… Now, a fundamental question arises.

in the first place

‘Why do I have to stop this guy?’

Why should I negotiate?

Isn’t it enough to buy enough time?

‘This isn’t even the reality I live in.’

All I have to do is return to reality.

After that, it doesn’t matter if it restarts or not. I was just taken aback when my story came out during this time period when I was in college.

‘Whether you bake or boil him, who knows what I used to make VTIC?’

Does not matter.

‘okay.’

The bone was aching.

and… It was boring.

‘Why am I fucking… Do I have to do this with this bastard every time?’

How many times do you have to repeat a story you know? How many times must I do to get out of this damn system?

A fever surged in his brain.

I’m stupidly stuck again in a situation where I don’t know what it is, and I’m trying to get out of it with my clenched teeth.

I was trying to clear up the misunderstanding between the VTIC guys by saying that I have some spare time while my nose is flat.

‘It was stupid.’

I wanted to go back.

… There were too many things I couldn't give up. There were too many reasons.

That's why I tried to look at the situation positively so as not to keep answering.

I believe that there is a clue to go back in the system, I believe that I can use it somehow, I believe that the pop-up is the real Keedal and the members… .

But if you look at it really, really realistically… .

'Nothing can be certain.'

Nothing has been proven.

What I've done so far to go back may have been all useless nonsense.

I felt a cold sweat run down my spine.

I felt like I was going to be swallowed up.

'X feet.'

This guy who can't go back to Testa Park Mundae and seems like he's going to be dragged around like a dog… That is the fear of ruin.

'no.'

I squeezed my thighs with my hands until the veins stood out.

A cold sweat fell.

[A dancer with a noble mind… .]

"… … ."

at that time. A little light shines overhead.

I raised my gaze.

Right next to it, the text in the pop-up shines like a star.

[A dancer with a noble mindset does his best.]

[A dancer with a noble mindset bestows blessings on you.]

[Attribute: Abnormal status nullity]

At that moment.

I started falling with a soggy mess.

first of all. Let’s take a big deep breath.

‘Whoa… … .’

Be aware of your body in sync with your breath, and then your thoughts in your head.

‘I was scared.’

I objectively diagnosed my condition.

I didn’t realize the reality, I just panicked.

I tried to ignore it as much as possible, but it seems that the extreme stress continued to build up in my unconscious and crossed the threshold.

let’s not condemn

I gave myself a little objective recognition score.

I tried without even knowing X.

‘Didn’t you somehow drag it all the way here?’

It’s not that the horrible thoughts and dirty feelings that were making my head go muddy magically disappeared.

Confusion persisted. The fear was still there.

Just got the strength to deal with it.

As if stamina suddenly surged during a marathon, the will to run while estimating the goal line over there filled his heart.

grit.

resilience.

Perhaps Seon Ah-hyun learned from experience, but there must also be a qualitative difference that is innate.

[A dancer with a noble mind is struggling for you.]

And looking at that high perspective, I can see the path I’ve walked and my heart hardens.

‘If I try again, I won’t be able to do better.’

As an actor debuting as an illegal worker in the United States with the help of Cheong-ryeol.

Every moment, the conviction that I did my best anyway is solidified by my belief in myself.

Then I think there is no need to be hypersensitive to the situation I am in right now.

It wasn’t about giving up, it was just about admitting it.

‘It’s only natural that Cheongryeo here has Reset Syndrome.’

because it is in the past.

Compared to reality, there is no need to be too surprised, embarrassed, or frustrated.

Rather, because of Reset Syndrome, why did he pass as a member by heading straight to the ground with nothing to a guy who distrusts humans?

‘I’ve never wished for it.’

Well, that means I’m a very useful guy. Let’s think that we recognized the first group idols as if we were a group 1 for 10 years.

‘okay.’

If the stress hadn’t crossed the critical point, I would have thought so shamelessly.

‘And I’m trying to figure out the best way again.’

Isn’t that what I’ve been doing every day since I started living at Bakmundae?

Finding answers in seemingly unanswerable situations.

It seems that courage and energy ooze from somewhere and permeate the head and spinal cord.

Like a ball with elasticity, the mind and spirit bounce.

[The noble-minded dancer breathes out.]

‘I can do it.’

I thought as I looked up at the pop-up.

Now, with a firm mind, if I had to choose what I would do now… .

I put my hand on the table.

“thing… Thank you for your high evaluation.”

“hmm?”

“Think slowly about using me as a member. I have some work to do right now… Leave your seat for a while.”

And I jumped into the Cheongrye system again.

To finish analyzing the terminal.

* * *

But the same time JSA.

Park Moon-dae’s acquaintances were watching the screen in a cold sweat.

In fact, until just before that, the atmosphere was very hopeful.

[Park Moon-dae (ㅁㅅ@): Sinking in confusion… .]

[Park Moon-dae (@ㅅ@): confused and frustrated]

“What the fuck… .”

“… … .”

Sweat dripped down Seon Ah-hyun’s temples and dripped from his chin.

He tried his best to help Park Moon-dae’s feelings, but he wasn’t sure if he had the right timing to bestow his protection.

Besides, I was worried.

‘I’m more than the other members… I don’t think I can be of any help to Mundae.’

Unlike the members who have prominent talent characters, it was because he felt that he was somehow flat.

It was also because of the situation that only he could not find the timing to bestow blessings, and it was the last turn.

‘still… .’

Gritting his teeth, he continued to try to bestow blessings.

‘Ahyeon-nim… .’

Keundal blinked his eyes and held back his cold emotions.

Of course, contrary to his own worries, Seon Ah-hyun’s family protection helped Park Moon-dae properly.

[Park Moon-dae (ㅁㅅㅁ*): Getting out of the confusion!]

“All right… !”

“I’m so glad!”

In an instant, the atmosphere came alive.

However, the moment Moon-dae Park received the protection of Ah-hyun Sun, he also received the unique power of Ah-hyun Sun’s characteristics.

– Status abnormality invalid.

A derivative effect of that power that ignores status ailments. It was an error.

Seeing the essence and rawness beyond the form and influence of the system.

So right after that, the moment Moondae Park connected to Cheongryeo’s system.

The screen turned black.

[Bakmundae (■■■): ■■■■■■■■■■■■■■■■■■■■■■■■]

The dot Bakmundae, which was in the shape of a person, was crushed and eventually turned into a whitish, twisted rectangle.

Originally, the unusual situation of Bakmundae, which would not be marked because it is outside the prediction range of this dot screen implemented by Big Moon.

It was the state of the door that became the status window.

[Park Moon-dae (■■■): !!!!!!!]

Broken letters burst out of the square box-like dots that used to look like humans.

"… what's this."

A grotesque situation that makes the spine chilly and anxiety rises.

The atmosphere, which had been chilly for a moment, boiled over in bewilderment.

"What is going on?"

"Have you had any kind of error now because you filled up your stamina?"

Keundal checked the connection again with his face turned white.

'Strange.'

but… It was even more strange because it didn't seem that Moon Dae-hyung was in a bad condition.

"Wait a minute. Check the situation a little more… ."

However, the big moon's words did not end.

Because someone grabbed his arm.

"… !"

arm in military uniform.

It was clean.

In an instant, he pushed Testa's shoulder to create space and grabbed the large moon.

'Wait a minute.'

Cheongryeo is a medium that can reach the place where Bakmundae is located. So, it played a role in creating a passageway.

'But you're trying to give blessings too?'

Even if Cheong-ryeo tries to access the channel like this, even Dae-dal is not sure if she can grant blessings like other people… .

"ah… … ."

At that moment, the big moon realized.

In the past, Chung-Ri had been given authority in the virtual world of the system.

And that still remained with Cheongryeo.

He was a GM.

Game Master. Operator.

"Connect."

The big moon swallowed and moved.

* * *

At the same time, actor Ryu Moon's officetel.

"I think it would be better to lie down on the sofa… … yes. Let it be."

Suddenly, thanks to Park Moon-dae, who put his head on the table and closed his eyes, the tension that had been in the air had been relieved.

Although Jung Woo-dan was wary of VTIC Cheong-ryeo and took a subtle attitude as if he was being held up, the person concerned did not care much.

Because verification is over.

Cheong-Ryeo looked at the interviewer on the other side, who still had an unknown corner.

Gunwoo Ryu.

'Was it helpful?'

Why did you suddenly log in?

Maybe he'll develop something to prove his usefulness and try to persuade him not to restart.

'It's about time I learned that it doesn't work.'

He tried calling between faint curiosity and perplexity.

-Help.

There was no answer, so he called several times this time.

-Help.

-Help.

-Help.

It was a time when I was doing the repetition work in a slightly pleasant mood.

Finally, a response comes wriggling in the air.

‘hmm.’

It was the moment when Cheongryeo turned her attention.

Chapter 561

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 561

Water droplets hit the back of the hand.

'… ?'

Cheongryeo didn't even move, just looked down and looked at the back of her hand. Small droplets of truly transparent water burst and shattered.

'Where did it come from?'

He tried to look up to check the route or raise his hand to see the result closer.

But nothing went the way I wanted.

'… … .'

Because the body didn't move.

'Why?'

he wasn't embarrassed I just tried to think deeply in order to calmly infer the cause.

at that time. Drops of water fell on the back of my hand again.

pop.

Chung-Ryeo realized it only when she directly observed the process.

It

was the cold sweat she shed.

[The avatar of an idol looks at you.]

[The avatar of an idol looks at you.]

[The avatar of an idol looks at you.]

[The avatar of an idol looks at you.] Falling down from the air

as if pressing down. The feast of gaze hardens the whole body from all sides and gives a terrible pressure.

My body refuses to try to raise my head and face it.

‘ah.’

The mind is an appendage of the body.

In that sense, unlike his mind, which has been deep and distant for a long time, his body, which is only in his early 20s, felt an instinctive threat.

Someone was looking down at him from a high place.

Examine it as if something higher was probing it all over.

yourself.

[——-]

Above all the windows, a huge sentence rises like a moon rising above the surface of the water.

[The incarnation of the idol is satisfied.]

And like a lie, everything disappeared.

Hoo-wook.

Air fills the place where the tension that used to tighten the breath has been released.

The sound of breathing finally started to reach my ears.

And the voice too.

“Seniors. There’s no way you need to take medicine, but you missed the timing… … .”

“no.”

Cheong-rye gently lifted her hand from the table. The water dripped in a trajectory.

“… … .”

Then I turned my head to check the time.

’67 minutes.’

For over an hour, he was caught in that grotesque gaze. Under pressure so terrifyingly strong that you can’t feel the passage of time.

He slowly wiped the byproducts from the back of his hand.

think.

What is it and why did it appear?

The principle was unknown, but a clear connection came to mind.

‘Help.’

That’s because when he called for help, it appeared in the void where help originally appeared.

However, it did not feel friendly or personable like Help. A cold gaze too insensitive to call hostility.

overwhelming.

Cheong-ryo slowly closed her eyes and opened them.

what is its purpose

‘quest.’

I was looking into myself. as if to confirm. and… .

‘A declaration of intent that covers the air.’

It was a warning.

“… … .”

Cheong-ryeo made her judgment calmly.

‘Am I saying don’t call for help?’

It was a reasonable reasoning because the moment he called for help, he appeared as if he was responding instead.

He turned his head to see his helper, still unconscious, leaning against the table.

What does it have to do with it?

Should I find out?

Cheong-rye knocked on the table slowly.

My fingertips were still a bit dull, probably from the pressure of the last 67 minutes.

Such a shock… .

“yes?”

Cheong-ryeo did not answer.

I felt that there seemed to be a lot of new variables appearing in this restart.

It was annoying that new elements would appear even after such a long time, but Cheong-Ryeo was used to even that.

Even the fact that anything can be solved by learning it over and over again.

“hmm.”

So it was the moment when he raised his head and tried to call for help once again.

Cheongryeo’s gaze stopped in midair.

“… … .”

has disappeared.

Pop-up asking if you want to delete help.

[! Unauthorized error occurred]

Are you sure you want to remove the status window (■■■)?]

Even the red error removal window that always popped up when he called for help disappeared as if it had melted from his sight.

As if there is no more help.

In the system.

– Pooh.

Park Moon-dae took a deep breath and approached the terminal.

Inside the system, there was still nothing and silence. In the center, only that terminal drifted alone like an uninhabited island.

Some of the terminals he made were invisible because they were on the surface of the system.

In fact, it sometimes gave me a creepy feeling, but I remembered that I tried my best not to be conscious of it.

‘You’ve worked hard.’

Now I can calmly admit that fact. Still, I had enough strength in my heart to be okay.

Park Moon-dae thought it would be thanks to the blessing given by Seon Ah-hyun.

Although I didn’t see their pop-up when I logged in here, the effect seemed to linger nonetheless.

‘It could be a placebo, but… .’

It was fine though. He grinned and reached out to navigate the terminal.

Completion of the analysis was just around the corner.

If Daedal, not himself, had worked here, he might not have had this much trouble. But as an outsider myself, I did my best.

He clung back to the terminal and began trying to figure out what was inside.

Sincerely, calmly.

‘… … .’

However, what was surprising was that even after a considerable amount of time had passed, the expected disturbance did not come.

‘I thought I might call soon.’

When I was working on the terminal like this, I got a call in the middle once every two or three times.

Cheongryeo used to call for help.

So this time, as much as I openly logged in, I thought that he might call me and interrupt me… Oddly enough, it was very quiet.

‘Of course, this time I tried to ignore whatever it was called.’

Rather, it was good.

Park Moon-dae made up his mind to stop thinking about things and focus on the terminal again.

He made contact with the terminal.

The status window sentence that Moondae Park first found on this terminal is still floating.

[Start reboot]

– Learning in progress.

It was the phrase he had seen before he was dragged into this place.

And until now, Moondae Park has tried to find the source of ‘why’ this sentence was printed.

‘I thought knowing the reason would be a clue.’

It was a journey to find some kind of database.

And now the end was in sight.

‘Let’s do it.’

He ideologically closes his eyes and digs into the terminal to find the origin as if climbing up his nerves.

information… information… … .

If you dig up delicately again after reaching the point you explored last time… !

Took.

get caught

‘Okay… all!’

Park Mun-dae gritted his teeth and finally took the database he was holding onto out of the terminal.

The unresisting grip felt like it would tear, but I ignored it. Then, a new terminal displaying the database was formed.

It wasn’t that difficult anymore.

‘good.’

He sighed in relief, almost euphoric.

The database status window finally revealed… .

[Learning details]

-Will to survive

-Negotiation

-Confirmation of the owner's wishes

-Quick adaptation

"… … ."

It was as if the characteristics were listed in a row.

It was a format familiar to Park Moon-dae.

'It's similar to a roulette to draw attributes.'

It looked like the roulette window where the randomly drawn attributes that he had seen when he was using the system were open all the time.

He reflexively clicked on one.

-Survival Will

: The biological instinct to do whatever it takes to survive as a being.

/ Obtained by rebooting.

It was similar this time. The same description follows as if you clicked on the characteristics and took a closer look.

And considering the 'How I Acquired' explanation at the bottom of this, and the fact that the title of this entire list is 'Learning History'… .

'Did the system learn this all along?'

In the meantime, it means that the system has learned these things while doing 'reboot'.

Moondae Park skimmed through the list with a feeling of hesitation.

Survival Negotiation Wish Adaptation… .

'Aren't all these attributes already possessed by this bastard?'

Aren’t cockroaches like system specifics?

The things I’ve been through so far have been written very literally.

Usually, a reboot is done when a new product is created by making up for a lacking point, but somehow it seemed like I was listening to the same roundabout song.

‘hmm.’

It was a rather disappointing sight. Because it didn’t look very clueless.

Of course, I had no intention of giving up.

‘Should I analyze the terminal more here?’

It was the moment when he fell asleep because he felt like he was running out of time.

Suddenly, one last line was added to the ‘learning history’ window.

belt ring.

-A longing for the source,

Moondae Park reflexively clicked on it.

– Yearning for the source

: The desire to somehow reach the essence through persistent analysis and development.

‘what… … .’

It was not strange to think that this was also an attribute of the original system.

‘They say all sorts of nonsense about being an idol.’

Moondae Park lowered his gaze with a disillusioned expression.

Below that, as before, explains how I learned this… .

/Obtained by analyzing the terminal.

'… ?'

that… … It was what Moondae Park was doing now.

Even the expression terminal was coined by himself.

"… … ."

chills down the spine

It felt like my head was spinning.

somewhere… As you know, itchy, yet ominous, a strange feeling… … .

'… … !'

no way.

Park Moon-dae hurriedly clicked on other learning details.

And I gathered only the description at the bottom and started reading… .

/Obtained by talking to the bearer.

/acquisition under threat of deletion.

/Acquired while adapting to a new environment.

The subject was hidden in this word.

And the subject… .

'it's me.'

It was Park Moon-dae.

The situations he has experienced while crash-landing in this strange place are listed in systemic words.

Doing my best to survive in this bizarre situation, trying to negotiate with the systemic Cheongryeol, being deleted and trying to adapt to a new body… … .

Park Moon-dae looked into the terminal in shock as if he had been hit on the head.

[Learning History]

The system was learning through Park Moon University.

He was learning his actions, which became the status window, as his own.

So reboot… .

‘no.’

Park Moon-dae realized that the logic was strange.

‘The system is already like that, so what are you learning?’

So learning is learning… .

‘… … .’

You just need to change the subject.

‘What I’ve learned… Is it me?’

Park Moon-dae realized.

It is not that the system has learned how to behave in Park Moon-dae.

Park Moon-dae learned how the system behaves.

That was the moment when he finally completed the sentence with no gaps in probability.

-The learning completion terminal has changed.

The moment Moondae Park confirms it with a trembling sight.

[System Reboot]

My vision turned black.

* * *

Dark.

what was i doing

‘maybe… … .’

It didn’t seem like a big deal. There probably won’t be any big problems. I had such a feeling.

‘hmm.’

Somehow, it wasn’t even more scary. I was comfortably immersed in the space as if I was stretching.

This moment was all the more comfortable thanks to the faint feeling that I had been very uncomfortable until just before.

‘what?’

I didn’t really want to use my brain. Still, if you have a rough idea… … .

‘It seems like someone told me to do something.’

okay.

Perhaps I was waiting for something. I nodded and swam again in the empty space.

‘… … .’

For some reason, it seemed that the accident was getting slower and slower.

That was fine too. I will wait for the reboot as it is in this crazy space with no light or sound, without any objection.

‘Reboot?’

Anyway, there was something like that. That’s good.

I felt it was time to stop thinking… .

[]

Then.

A small line appeared in the air.

[-]

It didn’t shine like a hologram. It is just a translucent line floating in the air.

However, the lines gradually get longer. Then, the edges are butted together to form small figures.

rectangular frame.

‘… … pop-up.’

I watched it as if possessed.

White letters float above it.

[Junior.]

The inside of the system where the pop-up of friends who used to give blessings couldn’t come in.

No, in a place I thought it was, a pop-up was quietly emerging.

[Junior.]

It was a familiar title.

Having a non-restart dog you know.

‘… Cheongryeo.’

It was the title Shin Jae-hyun called.

Chapter 562

If you can't debut, you'll get sick to death Episode 562

Pop-up creates words again.

[Junior.]

That was the trigger.

Accidents poured out of my head as if the tape that was blocking the bottom of the box had been ripped off. Another word connects.

Jaehyun Shin.

Leader of VTIC.

And the reason why this person calls me junior is… It's because I'm a competitor in the same job that debuted later than this person.

That job is an idol.

The name of the group… … .

'Testa.'

okay. I was at Testa's Park Moondae.

I remembered. I nodded coolly.

And he hesitated. for a moment. did you remember? that… … .

'… … I mean I forgot.'

The moment I realized that, I woke up with goose bumps all over my body.

– Heo Eok.

All sides became clear.

I took a deep breath and looked around. My awake head was cold and sharp.

‘What the fuck is this.’

It was still in the system.

Only one thing has changed. The terminal I was analyzing until now is not visible at all.

Instead, a very simple pop-up floated in the air.

The guy who made me come to my senses.

I opened my mouth right away.

“Chungryeo.”

[Finally.]

“… That’s great.”

Seeing him cut off his words and answer on his own, it seemed like he was right.

But it’s funny how even that feels a little welcome.

‘How the hell did he appear here?’

Besides, I want to know how he is able to speak normally by himself, unlike the other guys who show bizarre descriptions when they appear in pop-ups… That’s not what’s urgent right now.

I tried to straighten myself out, but then realized I had no body and frowned again.

In the meantime, the pop-up changed the text.

[How is your junior now?]

Let’s see.

Let me recall what I saw just before.

A terminal that informs you that you have learned the textbook ‘How does the system behave’ step by step.

And as soon as the notification of ‘Restarting with the new system version’ pops up, my stupid self disappears.

hmm.

“It’s gone.”

I erased my smile.

“It looks like this bastard is trying to make me the next system.”

* * *

[Park Moon-dae (□v□): Retrieving Park Moon-dae.]

“Ah!”

“under… … .”

In front of raising Dot Park Moon-dae.

People let out a sigh of relief or groaned as they watched the barely readable screen.

However, the shape of Park Moon-dae was still a dark, lumpy circle.

The only thing that takes shape and shines in the dot screen where the background is all crushed and turned black is Park Moon-dae's will.

Lee Se-jin immediately grabbed the big moon by the shoulder.

"Is there a situation where I can bring you to Mundae?"

"I'll check the bar right away."

However, someone was already using the aisle first.

right away.

The person who had robbed the connection almost out of spite was using the aisle without moving.

It was an incredible concentration.

Daedal guessed that it would be possible because he is a GM and has a greater influence than himself.

'Still, I'm sure the experience time will be different… .'

Beyond that, time passed incredibly quickly.

Thanks to that, it seemed almost certain that the sign of Park Moon-dae had returned, so Keun-dal opened his mouth with sincerity.

"You worked hard… … !"

But he stopped talking.

Cheongryeo was watching the pop-up with her eyes wide open.

as if in shock.

* * *

[You… … .]

I was the one who looked like a dead person, but somehow the pop-up seemed to have gone crazy. I held back a sigh.

“Calm down. I’ll try anything before that.”

If I was a guy who would become a system here, I’d already done it. I spent all my time trying to find a way to go back with this clenched jaw, but I’m going to die?

‘No way.’

I will find a corner to escape somehow.

I took a deep breath.

verify the guesses.

“first… It seemed like you guys were preparing something to bring me back to reality. Is that right?”

The pop-up spat out an answer after a while.

[is it so. I planned to bring my junior after recovering his physical strength.]

He became more calm.

And I understood the answer. So, he tried to spread his energy by constantly giving me blessings and whatnot.

I still don’t know what the principle is, but it wasn’t the right time to ask.

I spat out the questions I had prepared.

“This is inside the system. When I’m here, the other guys don’t pop up, so you guys can’t even try to bring me to reality here, right?”

[Yes.]

[So let’s get out of here.]

Reasonable advice.

Besides, there was a record of being encroached on by the system last time and getting better after escaping, so I want to escape right away.

The problem is that you can't do it your way.

"I feel trapped. I can't see a way out."

Besides, I realized now that I was speaking freely in the system.

As if it could be done, of course.

'It's a big deal.'

Got used to it.

Now, in this place, let alone pressure and resistance, I started to feel as comfortable as my limbs.

The 'waiting time' was coming to an end.

Good things are coming soon… … .

[Junior.]

Whoa.

I came to my senses on the road.

If you mess with this, you're really attracted to it and it's perfect to become an X.

I inadvertently tried to wipe off the cold sweat, but realized that I was not there and fell asleep.

It's even more terrifying because I still feel fine.

[It means you can't get out of here right now.]

“… okay.”

I wanted to close my eyes, but I couldn’t. I was rather fortunate. It was better not to let me know that I was agitated.

I asked calmly.

“How are you talking to me in the system right now?”

[The title of GM was still there.]

[I used it.]

That was it.

In the system virtual world, it was the right to stop time. It seemed natural that pop-ups could be done within the system.

‘But isn’t that bastard being sucked into the system by overdoing it?’

It’s good to see the great transformation situation where everyone becomes X together.

I added just in case.

“Don’t do anything stupid, just stay. for a moment… I will think about it.”

Fortunately, the pop-up didn’t go away. I caught my breath and was lost in thought.

How to escape… escape method.

‘X feet.’

No matter how I thought about it, everything was conceptual and abstract. As for the specific thing, I can think of a way to wake me up by beating me up outside, but can that work?

Let’s think a little logically.

‘Logically certain… … .’

And then a crazy idea came to mind.

“If I become a system, won’t I naturally return to reality?”

[Junior.]

No, listen.

This is the past where there is already a system. If the purpose is to reboot, there is no need to have one more system during this time.

‘No, if you think about it, it’s impossible to have two systems at the same time. Because the system’s ability is to go back to the past.’

Wouldn’t the two of them be able to go back in time to the past?

So, I wonder if they sent me to the era of reset syndrome, the Leeds of the system, as if they were sending new employees to help them gain experience in the field.

“Then, when I become a system, I will naturally bring it back to reality and make it find a host.”

If it was a reboot, that was the answer.

Of course, if this happens, it will be the system, not Park Moon-dae, that will return to reality… .

‘Can’t you try using this?’

[I don’t think I’m saying it sanely.]

“Wait.”

This bastard thought I was completely immersed in the system and hurriedly stopped me before going solo.

And after talking to him and going through some verification… .

“good. A plan came out.”

I broke out in a cold sweat and grinned.

first of all.

“Leave me here and get out.”

* * *

Empty space.

The new system was completed there.

‘good.’

The wait is over.

Now you just have to go back to where you left off and continue what you have to do.

Grant wishes and survive.

‘It’s fine.’

The system thought so and nodded. Then I realized that he had no head.

‘hmm.’

It was a bit strange, but the system immediately obeyed its instincts.

everything was comfortable

The way back was clear. The pressure you felt when you were sucked into this place will act in the opposite direction the moment you are completed and drag yourself into reality.

He naturally went with the flow and surrendered himself.

Soon, the inside of the existing system he belonged to began to distort.

And the environment all over the place quickly began to stir.

‘ah.’

Time and space flowed rapidly forward.

Unknowingly outside the existing system, he crouched down to avoid being crushed by the pressure of escaping the flow of time, watching his surroundings flash by.

‘Let’s go back.’

to reality.

When I remembered those words, I felt my strangely absent heart pounding.

The pressure grew stronger and the surroundings raged faster… … .

at that time.

belt ring.

[The big moon calls you.]

Static.

The system looked at the popup.

Amidst the entire environment, which squeezes tightly and quickly distorts beyond recognition.

Only that one stopped.

affectionately

[The big moon recognizes you.]

Recognizes me?

The system stopped giving in to the pressure that was engulfing it for a moment.

Then, like that pop-up, I stopped and gave it another look.

‘I got it… … .’

that fleeting moment.

[The big moon moves you.]

[Target: Moondae Park]

Light came out of the pop-up.

‘… !!’

Between them, he saw a white hand and seemed to have seen an illusion holding him.

But he didn’t catch everything on his own. Only a few reached its grasp.

Only you who reacted to the protruding pop-up.

Chii profit!

Park Moon-dae went into the hand that grabbed him.

and.

“brother!”

Park Moon-dae raised his head.

It was a familiar officetel.

The living room where the sunset of the fantastic < Magical Boy > is setting outside the window.

“brother!”

It was the space of his own image.

In front of his eyes, he saw an artificial figure that was neither Park Moon-dae nor Ryu Gun-woo, with glitches and cracks.

How many times have you seen

It was the appearance of a large moon in the world of images.

“ah.”

succeded.

Park Mun-dae was finally able to press his face with both hands.

“… … .”

The predictions were great.

‘Because I have to come out of the Cheongryeonom system to return to reality.’

Then, it was a strategy to bring himself right before returning to reality according to the timing.

Of course it was dangerous.

Recalling that the system and the self were almost on the verge of merging, Park Mun-dae swallowed.

But soon his face softened.

‘Still, I succeeded.’

See yourself sitting here.

Just across from him, the big moon, the creator of this world of images, was looking at him with a face about to cry.

Park Moon-dae looked at him and smiled.

He finally called himself Park Moon-dae to a nice person… … .

“Are you crazy?! no no! How is this!”

Caught by the collar

“They told me to just call when the timing is right without giving detailed explanations because there is no time, but if the timing is off, hyung will die! The dots keep getting crushed! My older brother is upset about losing Park Moondae! And he did such a dangerous thing… … .”

“All right.”

Anyway, succeeded.

“Ugh!”

The big moon was furious as if it were about to burst into flames and tried to shake Park Mun-dae’s collar, but ended up crying.

Unbearable joy and relief.

And it was because of fear.

“I only caught the tongue type, but the system was trying to return to reality anyway… … At this rate, as soon as we get to reality, the system and the older brother will fuse again!”

But Park Moon-dae looked out the living room window instead of being nervous.

As if I missed the subtle colors of red, yellow, pink and purple mixed together.

And with a calm face, he opened his mouth.

“are you okay.”

“yes?”

“The system will be pulled in the opposite direction.”

Park Moon-dae smiled.

“The guy with the system is calling!”

* * *

“Help.”

Moving her mouth and calling for help, Cheong-ryeo looked ahead.

who asked for this.

“… … .”

There, a human figure who looked just like him was standing there without a smile.

[The incarnation of an idol is looking at you.]

Chapter 563

If you can't debut, you'll die from an illness Episode 563

A few minutes ago.

The owner of the system, Cheong-Ri, confirmed the disappearing help deletion status window.

clean void.

He had an unpleasant feeling of foreboding.

'hmm.'

It was the discomfort of an event that was out of control.

Now that it wasn't interesting anymore, he mechanically immediately called help to try to detail the case.

It was then.

At first, it started again with the feeling of the back of the hand.

bite.

Took.

It felt similar to when a cold sweat dripped down the back of my hand just before. Cheong-Ryeo only lowered her eyes and checked below.

But this time it wasn't really a cold sweat.

Water passes through the back of the hand and falls to the floor.

Patter.

Before he knew it, the floor he was standing on was not the hard living room floor of an officetel.

The rocking black water gently swallows the water droplets and leaves no trace.

"… … ."

When you realize that it is a deep sea with no end in sight.

The incarnation of the idol was standing on the opposite side of the dark officetel.

A wet black shirt and black pants.

The man with the face of Cheongryeo looked at Cheongryeo, who was the same as himself, but with a more youthful face.

And he opened his mouth.

[Wait.]

Eventually, Cheong-ryeo realized that Jung Woo-dan, who was wandering around in the living room of the officetel, had disappeared.

And even the strange pop-up that came back.

[The incarnation of an idol is looking at you.]

Cheong-Ryung… .

[Let's not do unnecessary things to each other.]

The incarnation of the idol declared.

And he looked at the past he had already passed.

The self who believed that given enough time, everything could capture the perfect moment forever.

hmm.

[Is it like this?]

The idol incarnate finished speaking with a hand on his chin.

Cheong-Ryeo on the other side reviewed all the clues she had obtained at once.

The same look, old face, help that came from the future… … .

And if you put those words together, there is one hypothesis that is very likely.

that one.

“Is this the future me?”

The idol incarnate just laughed. And Cheongryeo also twisted the corner of her mouth.

[I don’t think I’m surprised.]

“Because I know it will succeed.”

Cheong-ryeo said casually, as if it were natural. The incarnation of the idol muttered indifferently.

[When the restart is just entering the triple digits… yes. Not at times like this.]

“… … .”

[There are times when Hoseung-shim is ahead of calculations… … . It's not a bad thing, but you'll learn how to pick and choose.]

The incarnation of the idol put on his hand clasps.

[However, it would be better to give up the habit of overly trusting one's own calculations.]

"As an example?"

The incarnation of the idol immediately brought out the history of this life he had seen.

[Why did you make T-Holic retire due to an accident?]

"… … ."

Yes.

During the recent several restarts, Chung Ryeo kicked T-Holic out of the entertainment world in a very unnatural way.

There is also a limit to fostering an original scandal. Even if the song changed, even if the relationship with the company deteriorated, T-Holic survived with public awareness.

That's why I just touched the factor outside the stage and kicked it out.

Injuries, family problems, cruel rumors.

Killed without a fight.

-Because it's not as efficient as I thought.

He explained that to his helper, but in fact, the 'extreme method' was not excluded at all even now… … .

Write if useful.

Cheong-rye looked at the same face as hers without an expression.

“If you were me, you wouldn’t know that T-Holic is the biggest hindrance to missions.”

[Yes.]

The incarnation of the idol readily agreed.

But the smile deepened.

[So you should use it.]

“… !”

[People easily get lazy if there is no proper stimulation and enemies.]

[You have to hold your breath as if the competitor right in front of you is about to reach you, so you do your best and use your last strength to cling to your work. Giving up on that.]

The incarnation of the idol made an evaluation.

[Since the obstacle disappeared without any sense of accomplishment or reward, the members of your group couldn’t learn the pleasure of overcoming it.] At this time, I was so fed up with teaholic that I chose a comfortable and inefficient way.

in the unconscious.

“… … .”

The expression on her face disappeared.

And I knew the incarnation of the idol.

This is my face when I got to the point and logically understood it.

It was also something that rarely happened.

[…] … .]

that moment.

‘oh my god.’

Shin Jae-hyeon, the incarnation of an idol, burst out laughing.

Suddenly, I came to understand the situation.

Aren’t you teaching yourself right now?

‘I’m sure my junior would have done something similar.’

He laughed and murmured.

[At some point, I decided to put Jade Dan in the group. Was it something like this?]

The incarnation of the idol kindly explained, as it seemed that he wanted to know what his past self meant.

[It’s about how I succeed.]

Then, as if he was about to say something more important, he tilted his head slightly… … .

[ah. Isn’t there something you originally wanted to do?]

“… … .”

[Let’s do that first. I won’t interfere this time.]

That’s right.

The reason Shin Jae-hyun had such a long conversation with his past self, who was not very interested in it.

He was dragging his time so that he could call help at the right time, neither too fast nor too slow.

Shin Jae-hyun recalled the hurried and absurd conversation he had with Park Moon-dae just before.

-The guy with the system at this time… So can you talk to Cheongryeo yourself?

-… If possible?

-Then, I want Cheongryeo here to call ‘Help’ after Bigdal calls me. Whether begging or threatening, unconditionally.

Shin Jae-hyun accepted the offer.

But he knew himself.

‘It can’t be.’

He chose to manipulate the situation because he would not listen to me, whether asked or threatened.

And that was the correct answer.

‘I will try not to be swayed by the opponent’s tricks… … .’

No matter what he says, the more dubious and worthless it is, the more Cheong-Ri will do what he originally intended to do.

In fact, the past self now has an expressionless face and eventually opens its mouth.

“Help.”

So the system owner called the system.

* * *

The image world of Park Moon-dae.

Sitting in the living room, the two alike In-young looked away as the outside of the window sparkled.

Then, beyond the veranda, a white line disappears across the fantastic sunset sky of < Magical Boy >.

Visualized parting.

“A shooting star… … ?”

“It is a system.”

I said calmly.

As a Park Moon-dae, I was being instinctively dragged along after hearing the call of the owner of the system parts that remained after being separated by the big moon.

‘Shin Jae-hyun succeeded.’

I could feel it because I was still connected.

And the big moon guy, who was once part of my status window in the system, nodded in understanding.

But at the same time I was anxious.

“So you still feel connected even though the system is as far away as I am?”

“… … .”

I nodded slightly.

‘You’re more persistent than I thought.’

I thought that if I did this wrong, even if I returned to reality, I would still be connected and then stick to me again like a bouncy ball.

It means that you only thought and spoke with trust.

“Still, if we go back to reality, the remaining systems will have no choice but to fall apart.”

“I guess… .”

Big Moon looked out of the living room with a slightly relieved face.

It seems that the nervousness is bigger than the fury that grabbed me by the collar.

“… … .”

“… … .”

Above the slightly dark living room, the meteor’s light flashes past us and goes far away.

I don’t know why that disgusting bastard was embodied as a meteor. But thanks to that, it was much more peaceful.

Inside a quiet officetel.

I slowly opened my mouth while sitting in the living room.

“… Am I going to reality soon?”

“Even now, hyung is on his way back to reality. I called.”

is that so I didn’t know it was so comfortable.

Instead of the pressure of a dog-like brutal system, going to reality comfortably in an officetel where the scenery we saw when we debuted unfolded… … It was definitely a good thing.

It must be thanks to this guy who called me to the world of imagination.

After looking at the big moon once, I saw a meteor and scenery receding.

I felt the connection with the system slowly disappearing like an airplane taking off.

And the moment you cross the critical point.

pop.

I felt a cool sensation as the meteor hit the ground from afar.

‘okay.’

The system fell apart.

However, something unexpected happened.

“uh?”

Instead of hitting the ground and stopping, the meteor bounced off and went in the opposite direction.

further.

“… … ?”

The big moon, who had been watching blankly, opened his mouth.

“The system goes further… … going now. I broke up with my brother.”

“… … .”

“If you pull the rubber band and break it, the remaining piece bounces off the other side. It feels like that.”

Let’s see.

I am going to the future from this point. Then that system debris going to the other side… .

“Are you going further into the past?”

“Perhaps.”

The meteor disappears past the horizon after the rounds experienced by Cheong-ryeol.

More into the past, more into the past.

“how… How will that go?”

got smaller

But it will stop somewhere and do some systemic crazy things again.

Even if only fragments remain, it is as if it is persistently attached to me.

By granting the host’s wish and extracting energy… I will try to regain my strength.

‘ah.’

I suddenly realized

Was it that way in the first place?

“Is that going to be a complete system?”

“yes?”

The guy who fell out of Bakmundae, who was in charge of personality and intelligence, probably has very uncivilized intelligence and primitive power.

Then slowly change hosts to recover… It will be the system of the higher intelligence I met.

‘And as I fall off, I become primordial dregs again and fall into the distant past… … .’

It was a cycle.

“In time, that will be the system we met.”

“ah… … .”

The big moon seemed to understand the words slowly, and then jumped up with a shocked face.

“Then, are we making the system now?”

what are you talking about.

“I can’t say I made it. You’re going to the past with the original guy becoming a piece of trash.”

“uh… That’s right.”

Just like you can’t tell whether the chicken or the egg came first, you’re just looking at the intermediate process.

But one thing was certain.

“That’s why he can’t come further into the future.”

When it gets to this point, it returns to the starting point.

In other words, the system was something complete, confined to this time period.

I smiled faintly.

“I don’t really have anything to see anymore.”

It was refreshing.

“then… ! It really is over.”

okay.

Nodding his head, the big moon let out a long sigh of relief.

The boy’s eyes brightened with hope.

Ironically, however, the artificial glitches that popped up here and there on the guy’s body were still there.

‘This is what this guy perceives as himself… .’

Just as a scar remains even when a wound heals, it means that the influence he received from the system remains the same.

“… … .”

I straightened my feet and sat down.

There is something I felt after becoming a system.

‘When I was there, I felt like I was losing my self-identity.’

It means to become very ambiguous, like drinking alcohol and being in a state where you don’t know where you are or who you are here.

It’s not about being emotional either.

‘A human will not be agitated by stimuli that would be unpleasant.’

extremely stable condition.

In a word, it means that it is closer to an AI without self than a normal human being.

And for the first time, I had a direct understanding of the mind of a person who had been in that condition for years.

“Big moon.”

“yes?”

okay.

Even in the pop-up I saw earlier, the modifier of the big moon was the big moon.

So the nickname, not Ryu Gun-woo or Park Moon-dae, was his identity and modifier.

The other guys had all sorts of descriptions attached to them, but this guy had none of those things.

I finally asked

“you… What do you think your name is?”

“yes?”

“Don’t use nicknames like Big Moon.”

“uh… … .”

The guy scratched his head as if it was sudden and answered.

“that… … I like the big moon. I never really thought about having a name. Oh Ryu Gun-woo! Ryu Gun-woo is writing.”

“… … .”

“Tongue brother. Why are you sighing? It’s scary to be in this situation… … .”

“You did that before.”

I muttered slowly.

“Park Moon-dae doesn’t sound like your name. and… When you call me, sometimes you call me Geonwoo hyung. I don’t think Ryu Gun-woo is your name.”

Keundal still had a face that didn’t know why I was bringing this up.

“Hyung, you’re Gunwoo, right?”

“For you… This can be happen. But actually, Ryu Gun-woo is you now.”

“… … .”

“And if you put it that way, you were Park Moon-dae to me.”

It’s a face that doesn’t touch any of that, and it’s dirty and confused.

“hmm… I’m not sure why this story is coming out. To be honest, there are more urgent things right now… … .”

The big moon groaned.

I finally smiled bitterly and said:

“To you too. I wish Ryu Gun-woo and Park Moon-dae were your names.”

“yes… … ?”

“I mean I want you to be a little greedy about your identity as a person.”

I remembered sharing my view of the overwhelming audience from the stage with this guy.

That was the meaning I found while living as Testa Park Mun-dae.

I wish this guy could live his own life and share such a scene.

Be it photos or stories.

“therefore… Because there is no system anymore. I want you, as Ryu Gun-woo, to focus more on your life as a person. What’s good and what’s not… Think about it.”

“… … yes.”

The big moon nodded.

But still, my words didn’t seem to reach his ears very much.

‘still.’

If you do, you will recover.

It was a law to invest time and money into something that shouldn’t have been done.

And isn’t there enough time and money to invest in this guy now?

‘Now, let’s not push too hard and talk about this much.’

“after.”

I got up.

And it was also about time.

“brother?”

“Now, shall we meet or go out?”

Shin Jae-hyun, who played the role well.

Chapter 564

If I can't debut, I get a fatal disease.

After calling for help in episode 564.

Cheong-Ryeo faced the incarnation of the idol and waited for a response in deep silence.

And the 'response' finally appeared in his field of vision.

Just in an unexpected way.

[■■■■■■■■■■■]

The hologram window, which could be mistaken for a help chat pop-up at first glance, blinked a few times, but soon the glitch bounced countless times and then disappeared.

As if I had just passed him by.

"… … ."

Cheong-rye calls for help again… … .

[Wait.]

declared the idol incarnate.

There is no reason for Chungrye to listen to it. So the moment I tried to ignore it and call again.

Tung.

The two people standing facing each other turned their heads together at the unfamiliar sound.

It was the sound of the front door opening.

The floor of the officetel where the floor has turned to black water opens the middle door beyond the hallway and a person comes out.

"… … !"

A black-haired person.

He was a tall, but skinny man with a handsome appearance.

It was a familiar face.

Because he was the person who lived in this officetel and was the same person who had fallen on the table in front of Cheong-ryeo just before.

Ryu Kun-woo, who debuted as an actor.

The party he just called.

"Help."

The man turned his head and looked at Cheongryeo.

And Chung-rye realized. Somehow, the impression was different.

The eyes were soft.

There is no impression of a cool-headed rationality, even though it seems as if he will suffocate from fatigue at any moment.

Instead, a man with a gentle and wholesome appearance crossed the front door and walked down the hallway with brisk steps.

like someone else

“… … .”

at that time.

-It’s not that way, it’s this way.

A hard voice came crashing in.

Behind the dark-haired man, another person opened the door and came in. Brightly dyed hair swayed across the threshold.

A blond male with a boyish look.

Park Moon-dae laughed.

-Did you call?

It was a cool smile over the familiar dry expression.

movement and speech.

Chung-rye realized reflexively.

here is the help

[The figure has returned.]

-Uh.

Park Moon-dae omitted the words, ‘This is an image world that you created with your GM abilities, so isn’t it just a familiar look to you?’

Instead, he waved his hand at the incarnation of the idol.

– It’s over.

[…] … .]

before the system goes further into the past and your GM abilities disappear too.

… … Above all, because Park Mun-dae desperately clenched his teeth and endured for this moment to come.

I couldn’t delay any longer.

-Let’s go back.

Shin Jae-hyeon, the incarnation of an idol, smiled.

[What I have to say.]

He moved on without regret. Wherever the footsteps landed, a parabola spread over the surface of the water.

Until it touches the tip of the toe of Cheongryeo standing on the other side.

“… … .”

Cheong-rye watched the scene silently, then opened her mouth.

And he threw a fundamental question toward the help that appeared in an unfamiliar look.

“Who are you?”

Park Moon-dae looked at Cheong-ryeo.

-brother. our time… .

-know.

In fact, there was no time or space to explain the situation.

But I can leave these words alone.

he grinned.

-Four rival group members.

We will meet soon.

Then I turned around and walked towards the front door.

Seeing that movement, Cheong-rye was conscious of the other person's attire for the first time.

Shiny accessories and long walkers that are too comfortable for everyday use. Well-set blonde hair.

And the outfit, wearing a white shirt and shiny black leather pants, was familiar to Cheongryeo.

stage costumes.

'ah.'

Cheongryeo suddenly realized.

It was an idol's outfit.

– See you again.

So the three In-young opened the front door side by side and left the past.

"after."

Park Moon-dae exhaled.

Beyond the black front door, I returned to the officetel in the world of imagination where the fantastic sunset of < Magical Boy > unfolded.

He heard Shin Jae-hyeon's murmur.

"I'm sorry, but I can't remember your junior's declaration of rivalry. Because I erased the information."

“… from where to where.”

“Brother, so… Anything related to ‘Help’.”

It meant that he was the last to exercise GM’s authority over erasing his past.

Shin Jae-hyun’s choice was reasonable because there were too many crazy situations to leave it as it is.

‘Well, anyway, this is the virtual world or the data inside the system.’

Park Moon-dae inadvertently said it with upbringing.

And surprisingly, this answer came back.

“hmm? no. The past is right.”

“… ??”

“That’s why it’s better for me to have erased my memory myself than to have useless variables.”

Moondae Park stopped in shock.

‘It was the real past?’

Meeting Cheong Ryeo, meeting Ju Dan, and even debuting as an actor under an unreasonable stage name, all of these things really happened?

‘oh my god.’

My head was dizzy.

But he soon calmly moved on again.

No matter what he did, he erased everything from Cheongryeo’s memory anyway.

‘Besides, if I restart, everything I did will become nothing.’

It was a bit futile, but I also felt fortunate.

However, Shin Jae-hyun’s words did not end.

“but… Even if you don’t remember it, it will remain in your unconscious. It must have been a very special episode.”

“… !”

So if you repeat restarting again and again, that unconsciousness will naturally become a hint for new development.

Also about T-Holic.

Also about cast iron.

“Hmm, wouldn’t it have a slight effect?”

Just as the slightest tap on the direction control lever of a speeding airplane changes the route it extends.

“… … .”

‘Is it like that?’

Park Moon-dae seems to have realized the reason why Cheongryeo’s characteristic ’emotion’ fell from S in the past to A now.

Cheong-Ri… Over time, you will come to accept that sometimes it is necessary to reconsider your judgment.

It’s like the casting of a member of the cast iron.

“You will be wiser.”

“Yes.”

Shin Jae-hyun smiled.

“In the end, you get into the habit of restarting even if you think you will succeed to create a perfect group without a single blemish.”

“… … .”

“You met your junior and quit, right?”

will it be hard

Park Moon-dae shrugged.

“so… How do you feel when you see yourself in the past?”

“I can tell because I can see it with my own eyes.”

“You mean it’s better now that you quit than when you can hit again and again?”

Shin Jae-hyun stared at Park Moon-dae without expression.

But he soon laughed.

“that’s right.”

“… … .”

Park Moon-dae also smiled.

I didn’t feel bad.

The big moon, who was watching the scenery outside the living room with a much more comfortable face, heard the sound of shouting from behind.

“I will be there soon!”

“okay.”

Park Moon-dae inhaled.

Familiar faces seemed to be visible on the other side.

* * *

The first thing I grabbed was a firm hand.

“brother.”

I blinked.

And I realized who the owner of the hand was.

“Cheongwoo hyung.”

I grabbed his hand and pulled him up.

A little bit of relief and joy passed over the guy’s face.

And then a sound like screams and cheers groaned. I didn’t expect to receive such an enthusiastic welcome… … .

“ah.”

“Are you insane? Are you insane!”

“I was afraid that I wouldn’t be able to come back… !”

puck. Puck puck.

Fists and knives pour out without mercy on the back.

‘help me.’

I’m going to fall down the road

Of course it won’t. I know it’s like this because these guys are all so worried.

“I’m really glad… … .”

“… … .”

I was happy to endure it.

“Is there anything wrong with Park Moon-dae’s body? Check it out now.”

“Hmm, I’m fine.”

It hurts only where you hit. Instead of replying like that, I gave a serious reply.

Bae Se-jin sighed with a flushed face.

“I was going to pour ice water on it if it was a little later.”

“… … .”

I’m glad I woke up before then.

“No water! Moondae. drink water… !”

“ah!”

To be honest, I wasn’t very thirsty, but I calmly checked the time while drinking the water Seon Ah-hyun offered me.

5:30 p.m.

It was around the time the sun was setting.

And looking at the condition of my body, it was clear that not even a day had passed since I collapsed.

‘thank god.’

It’s because the flow of time is different.

Personally, I was curious about how these guys gave the divine protection… … .

“You’d better go to the hospital right away.”

“OK.”

“… … .”

It seems like I have a lot of work to do, so I decided not to ask.

I accepted the candy that Cha Yu-jin, who had a calm face, offered me while speaking in high-level Korean, “Replenish sugar.”

Pretending not to be so quick-witted and calm… … .

“Hyung, I completely respect your personal privacy. But my older brother’s science fiction stuff is an exception. We have to share.”

“… … .”

“This is for emergencies.”

OK.

I gladly shared the truth with the guys who all stopped talking and turned around.

truth.

“I don’t have SF stuff anymore. It’s over.”

“… … !”

It was thrilling to speak.

Of course, the reaction was like this.

“Really??”

“… … If something strange like this happens again, are you going to say something different then?”

“It’s Moondae. Can you swear on a testa?”

I can’t believe it.

“Oh really.”

I popped the candy into my mouth.

The apple sweetness spread in my mouth.

“that… I left everything behind.”

Now I don’t have a system.

Debris, status ailments, control.

And the compulsion to use useless systems disappeared.

The system that used to eat by heating and chilling hosts was no longer clean.

I grinned and savored the taste of the candy.

“Now I just have to work hard.”

“… !!”

It wasn’t until after Keundal confirmed that my words were true several times that they acknowledged this fact amid exasperation and joy.

… sorry and thank you

and that evening.

Finally back at the hostel, I found my bed.

‘I missed you X feet.’

I rubbed my doll with my hands and lifted up the tablet PC.

“It was really creepy to think that my older brother’s bed was my extra bed and then feel logically strange!”

“… … sorry.”

Seriously.

After apologizing to my roommate, I lay in bed and monitored the internet for a while.

-Mundangdang… Anyway, it seems like I’m not a collection (video)

-Open for business Park Moon-dae Legendary roller Watch the 50-second fancam and go Testa Park Moon-dae was well there.

I heard that people all over the world forgot about me, but when I returned, the symptoms disappeared.

‘Everyone has stopped recognizing that it happened in the first place.’

Of course, I honestly got goosebumps when I saw the records that treated me as a natural absence.

-Please let the 6 testers stay like this forever.

At the same time, I felt relieved.

It’s because I came back well so that it doesn’t end like this.

to my place

“Come to think of it, I noticed hyung’s absence while listening to the demo of the song I was working on. Thanks to the extremely wide range and expressive tone, it was easy to imagine the characteristics of someone who could digest the song… … .”

“Rabin.”

“yes?”

“thanks.”

“… ??”

I patted Kim Raebin’s hair.

And after monitoring, I spent time watching Testa’s group entertainment.

For reference, the other members didn’t get as excited or angry as when the building collapsed. Even the big-headed guy with a disapproving face acted as usual.

‘Are you considering the stability of my mind and body?’

Instead, I brought snacks and sat down next to me, then lay down and watch TV together.

The most recent testa content.

[Lee Se-jin: Oh please, God of archery.]

[Ryu Cheong-wu: Hahaha.]

On the screen, Testa is throwing a dart. It was to choose a song to perform while wearing funny makeup on the streets overseas.

Of course, I am also in it.

[Lee Se-jin: Aaaaaa!!]

[Cha Yu-jin: Archery god! Archery God! ohhhhhh!]

[Park Moon-dae: Hyung, are you good at ranged attacks?]

Ryu Chung-woo hit the dart right in the middle and won the keyword for the song, ‘Last year’s Billboard No. 1 song’, then I threw the dart to set the date. .

And I chose a masterpiece.

It is famous for its addictive chorus that whispers as if possessed by a ghost.

But this should be called Carol’s version.

[Lee Se-jin: … … .]

[Cheongwoo Ryu: … … .]

[Cha Yoo-jin: Moon-dae hyung really has no luck.]

[Park Moon-dae: I guess so.]

“Euhahaha!”

[Park Moon-dae: (Singing sweetly, I’m going to kill you)]

[Bae Se-jin: I never thought I’d succeed in making this song into a carol… … .]

[Raebin Kim: Thank you!]

[Sejin Bae: (A person who couldn’t bear to say that it wasn’t a compliment)]

[Sejin Bae: … I am grateful.]

“Keuheop.”

It was funny and comfortable as always.

What happened was that each and every one of the members was overflowing with personality, so everyone could see who was who.

[Seon Ah-hyun: Then I'll be Rudolph… !]

[PD: Because you are a deer?]

[Seon Ah-hyun: ! (Realization)]

"It's the truth."

"okay. Nothing to be ashamed of. Ah Hyun-ah."

"Thank you… … ."

it was good with that

I looked back on Testa's activities up to that night.

… It was fun. Really.

After a few days of coordination among the members, Testa stopped incidental external activities for a while and practiced and rested.

It was to help me regain a choreography or feeling that I might have forgotten while I was stuck in the past.

'Recover within a week.'

I grinded my teeth and recovered, and in the meantime, the end of the year was approaching.

And there was a day to greet before that.

December 15th.

It's Park Moon-dae's birthday.

Chapter 565

If you can't debut, you'll die of an illness. Episode 565

choreography rehabilitation went smoothly.

After all, my body itself was barely stretched for half a day. So just… It was only necessary to revive the forgotten part of the brain that had been stuck in the past for half a year.

'It took just one day to coordinate the choreography for the event.'

… Of course, it was a little dizzy when I realized that the half-day stretched out was the JSA army's meeting room.

'They said that Cheongryeo's life has gone to hell.'

However, I was calm.

– Nothing to worry about, but hmm… … If you're so sorry, should you do one favor of mine to lighten your heart?

-What.

-I want you to listen to it before the release of this testa album.

dismissed.

'Where to eat raw.'

I almost died trying to retrieve your fragments. Did you leave your conscience in the past?

Anyway, as the person himself is calm, Cheongryeo's 'celebrity preference' controversy is not on the cutting board and is quiet.

It means that it is blocked like an iron barrel.

'What a cub he is.'

My teeth grind when I think of meeting VTIC, who will be discharged next year. Before that, I put it in my brain once again that I should draw out the annual plan properly.

My head was spinning at the thought of the competing group.

Come to think of it, it reminded me that there was one more guy from a different competing group than Testa.

Even though it was a video call.

– Brother, I'm really glad… … . Wow, it sucks really… … . I'm going to have a beer with the kids today.

– But I thought I was watching a movie. You know that space movie. Was it Inter X Tela? … That's it.

Gold 2 Kwon Hee-seung.

In the meantime, it seems that he remembered me and stuck with me, even making a video call to say he wanted to help me somehow.

– Come to think of it, our group name is the most space-like. spacer… … .

-… ??

Even though the tension was released, I was talking nonsense in the stream of consciousness.

Anyway, he was relieved of my condition and left to do his schedule.

Since we are in the same agency, I really intend to do something for this guy.

Then, what do you plan to do for Testa, who is in the same group and saved me while going down to God's Protection?

… … Of course I had a plan.

"Once more!"

"okay."

There is no time. This is because these guys are fully cooperating with my choreography rehabilitation right now.

'It's a bit excessive.'

Recently, it seems that everyone is practicing together, almost on the same level as during the training camp for the same team as < Azusa >.

It's true that this is the best way to match the group's dance, but honestly, I also think that I'm spending too much of these guys' time.

"Okay, now it fits."

"uh. I think I can do it alone now."

"Oh~ Are you getting into the habit of trying to do everything by yourself again?"

"… … ."

I quietly shut my mouth.

It seems like this guy who is big is craving people every hour, but I can't refute what. Isn't it true that I almost died?

'Let's think about the value of life and say thank you.'

When I think of those who persistently peered at me and bestowed blessings on me, my anger subsided.

Besides, this guy is so talkative, but since he is cooperative enough to be a bit dedicated to choreography practice, I wonder if that's the case.

I'll stop when I feel better about it. I drank water leisurely.

Of course, this peace of mind must come from the disappearance of the system.

I remembered what Ryu Gun-woo declared with a trembling voice after checking me before parting ways.

– Not at all. brother. cleanly… Gone!

-… okay.

It was refreshing.

If there's a slight regret, it's that you can't chat with him like telepathy, but that's what modern civilization can do for you.

'It's not like I'm going to have a barbecue with my smartphone.'

Since then, we have been exchanging regards through phone calls and messages.

-Hyung, I paid my annual leave and came to Sokcho to play! The winter sea is pretty, so take a picture and send it to me.

Ryu Gun-woo seems to be doing well.

"You worked hard~"

"Thank you."

After about three days like that, I was able to keep up with the practice of the special arrangement version of the new song for the year-end stage.

There were photo shoots in between, but there was nothing to rehabilitate. It's something I did while working as an actor.

However, when I explained this fact, some members were taken aback.

"Wait, then you… … Did it all feel real time?"

"Yes."

"Did you really debut as an actor?"

"yes."

Still, Bae Se-jin seemed a little excited. After that, every break, he secretly talked to me about this topic.

Other than that, the schedule was being organized smoothly without any protrusions.

The life of Testa Park Moon-dae has returned to daily life step by step.

… … It might be faster because it doesn't take a day or two to get back to normal after being bullied by the system.

anyway.

'It's peaceful.'

Break time. I lay down on the floor of the choreography practice room and blinked.

Except for the sense of stability that made people drowsy, it was comfortable without any doubt.

Since Ryu Chung-woo and Cha Yu-jin volunteered to get some fresh air, they went to buy drinks, so after sticking an iced coffee into their mouths, they could drink cold water and practice like a sober guy.

Click.

“I’m back.”

Oh, and just as the door opens, two guys come in.

A carrier with a drink in hand… no.

‘That looks like a box.’

He was holding a cuboid wrapped in wrapping paper.

Just as I was wondering about it, the box was suddenly pushed in front of my eyes.

“… ??”

It was not the size of an Americano to anyone’s eyes.

‘What.’

As I reflexively stood up, Ryu Cheng-wu held out the box and opened his mouth.

“… … .”

ah.

Right. today… It was the day before Park Moon-dae’s birthday.

‘Did you pretend to go out on purpose to bring a present?’

As expected, there was no drink in the hand of Cha Yu-jin, who followed. Instead, something wrapped in a colossal size was held in both hands.

Besides, the other guys sneaked in behind them and took out something. It seemed that the two bulky guys had gone out to get it without being noticed.

“… … thank you.”

I accepted the gift box presented by Liu Cheng-wu.

When I opened it, what was inside was a dart.

It is a customized product of the same dart that we used while choosing a performance song in the last variety show.

On the tip of the yellow and wooden dart, my autograph shimmered in the reflected light.

“Actually, I thought about giving it to him on the 8th, which is his birthday, but… I think it would be better for the fans to give it to everyone during the celebration period.”

And it seems like it was good to wait, said Ryu Cheng-wu with a grin.

“… … .”

It was the correct answer.

“Let’s use this dart well until we win.”

“of course.”

The guy who is good at ranged attacks readily answered. I chuckled.

“OK. Now accept my present!”

And from that moment on, the gifts prepared by the guys started pouring in.

“doll?”

“Yeees.”

The gift Cha Yu-jin gave me was just like me.

It was an oversized tiger wearing sunglasses.

I can already see the future. this is public It will be used as a cushion substitute under the sofa in the living room.

"… You said you like apples. It also has that apple scent in it."

"Oh, I also bought one with an apple~"

Bae Se-jin gave me a diffuser of a brand that he often uses, and Keun Se-jin gave me a sweater from a certain brand. It was a comfortable texture with a large apple picture printed on it.

It was kind of fun to see these guys pick a similar theme every time and go through the exact opposite process.

"… … dress well Moondaemun University."

"thanks."

I chose Man to Man as my practice suit.

And the next guy… .

"If you would allow me a little time… !"

"It's not your birthday yet, Lavin."

For reference, Kim Rae-bin, who was standing hesitantly in the back, said, "I'm still preparing," and stopped him because he thought he was almost going to bow.

"Here."

Finally, Seon Ah-hyun gave me a set of icing cookies along with a muffler.

Surprisingly… The latter was also homemade.

"Seon Ah-hyun made it?"

"… ! Is it Ahyeon?"

“I only did the decorations… … !”

“phew.”

Why do you look visibly relieved?

‘Funny guys.’

So, the gift presentation ceremony was over.

“I’ll say it again, happy birthday, Moondae.”

I looked at the bundles of gifts that were difficult to lift with both hands, and even saw wrapping papers scattered on the floor.

‘Did you bother to give it to me in the choreography practice room just because I was told when to clean it up again?’

Of course I know why.

Because it’s a birthday celebration.

It must have been to create a special feeling.

I would have tried to give it fun, considering my mentality and stability as much as possible.

“Let’s make the cake tomorrow.”

“… … yes.”

“Flavor is a secret. Even if Moondae hyung asks me, he won’t answer me.”

“okay.”

So I returned home with a bag full of unexpected gifts.

Is it because it’s only been half a year since all these things happened, or is it because I thought I might really die?

Oddly enough, the elation didn’t go away.

‘What is this?’

It’s not even a concert.

Even the happy birthday posts that were already posted on the SNS timeline I saw after arriving at the dorm boosted that uplifting feeling.

-Born in winter, a star as beautiful as snow (photo)

-It is fortunate that Park Moon-dae is in the world. The end of the year is not cold

All those various expressions meant, in the end, happy birthday to me.

“… … .”

Eventually I sat down at my desk and started typing on the keyboard.

For an early birthday letter.

-Hello Lover. If

I

put a puppy emoticon behind here, the sentence I always write is complete.

It felt awkward and not bad that there were many people who shared the sentiment that this formula was familiar.

-Now, even if you read the first line, you feel like me. You’ve been writing like this ever since you debuted. I would be proud if Park Moondae came to mind right away.

I hesitantly added the following line.

– And this is a letter from Moondae to Lubuer to celebrate his birthday.

A letter written by Park Moon-dae.

What sticks after that is the tone and writing befitting the image of Testa Park Moon-dae, which I have been making since my debut.

It means that I tried with all my might to look naturally gentle.

– How was the time you spent with me this year?

I really liked it, but I hope Love Viewer will do the same.

First of all, I'll leave proof that I was good.

Now, the idol's tone, which comes out comfortably, even ends naturally.

'Now if I attach a picture behind this… .'

"… … ."

I stopped for a moment.

Fans actually know they'll love the photos more.

Still, this time.

-Perhaps, normally, I would attach photos taken with the members here and visit Loveuer via live broadcast, but today I'm going to try something a little different.

as soon as.

– I'm going to keep writing.

I wrote down what came to my mind more honestly and longer than before.

-Lover.

I’m happy because I’m at Testa’s Bakmundae.

When I’m on stage, when I’m practicing, when I’m doing a concert, it’s very fun and enjoyable every time I show something to Lovers after going through a difficult and difficult process.

I want to stay as a testa for a long time.

I like the members and I like the albums we make.

No, I didn’t mean to write this to be honest.

I almost stopped typing because I was a little taken aback by the self-indulgent writing, but I overcame that embarrassment and continued writing.

Even if I fix it later, I wanted to write it down as it is now.

-Occasionally, when everyone leaves Testa’s dorm on vacation, it’s no wonder… You may even feel empty or regretful.

(Please keep this a secret.)

After finally talking about this absurdly embarrassing thing, the main point that I really wanted to write finally comes out.

-And the most important thing.

Above all, I am happy that there is a lover who reads this long article to this point.

if you are

– You.

The one who will read this article.

– There is someone today congratulating me because I am happy that I am in this world. That is unbelievably good.

In fact, it was a good thing now that I wasn't born on this day.

just… I just realized that seeing me celebrate and celebrate my birth is an uplifting experience.

To the point where this embarrassing sound keeps pouring out.

– It's a bit embarrassing, but I really wanted to tell you.

I pressed the keyboard hard like that to complete the writing.

And endured the grotesque.

"… … Are you crazy?"

After my debut, or since I was born, I had never written something like this early morning feeling.

'I'm not even a teenager.'

I covered my eyes and sobbed.

but… But that's it.

"… … ."

'I don't want to reduce it.'

I completely took my hands off the gearco keyboard.

And hit save.

After all, a few hours later, midnight.

The article was uploaded without editing.

-so… For this reason, I want to continue to live as your idol.

Thank you always. And I love you.

with the last phrase.

-Testa Park Moon-dae to Loveuer

* * *

“Moondaemundae.”

“what.”

“To post such a confession on the internet while claiming it’s a secret from the members is truly a skill worthy of a target idol~”

“… … .”

“Lovers go crazy over how cute they are… evil! Ahh! no praise! It’s a compliment, Moondaemundae!”

noisy.

I quickly run to my room before the others join the ranks… There was no strategic retreat.

‘after.’

Fortunately, Raebin Kim was working on the song with the momentum of being sucked into the PC, and I was able to successfully lock the door and sit on the bed.

‘Shouldn’t I have removed the member’s voice?’

… Well, it wasn’t bad to see the big guy chugging away like before.

I decided to enjoy the silence for a while, remembering that the guys who came to see it in a little while would start talking with a smirk.

In fact, the text I sent at midnight wasn’t even one of them.

widely.

I turned on my smartphone and checked the message I sent earlier.

-Happy Birthday.

– May Park Moon-dae and Ryu Gun-woo always be happy and have fun.

It was a text message sent to the big moon.

The Park Moondae I know. To the guy who has now become Ryu Gun-woo.

‘Maybe he was congratulated by his acquaintances on December 8th, Kunwoo Ryu’s birthday… .’

Still, wouldn’t it be a different taste to receive a congratulations on the same day from someone who knows the original birthday?

Just like I did before.

“… … .”

And there was a reply to that text.

-thank you.

It’s short, but it’s okay to start there.

I smiled and closed the text.

Around the time when I was immersed in emotion for such a short time.

“Moondae hyung!”

It’s a surprise.

Before I knew it, I threw off my headset and made eye contact with Kim Rae-bin, who was looking at me.

for a moment.

‘I bet this guy doesn’t intend to make fun of me either.’

But I’m sorry for doubting, this is what he called me for.

“here… I just finished it with my last task!”

“… This.”

“This is a song made with the theme of hyung.”

I accepted the headset that the guy with wide eyes was reminded of.

The delicate ringing in my ears from the laptop bursts through the sheet music.

“… … .”

wait for a sec.

I’m really grateful and it’s a gift that’s almost touching even for a guy like me, but I can’t believe this… Is this my solo song?

“Ah, I didn’t compose with a specific limitation… There are several parts that I want Moondae-hyung to sing. For example here… .”

“for a moment.”

“… ?”

“therefore… This is a song you just made with no restrictions whatsoever.”

“That’s right!”

“… … .”

I rubbed my chin.

“Rabin.”

“yes?”

“This is it.”

“… ?”

The next comeback theme was chosen.

Chapter 566

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 566

I made a declaration.

"… So I quickly summoned testers."

mate mate mate… .

Kim Rae-bin was clapping alone, but noticed and stopped.

All the other members are sitting at the kitchen table with expressions like '??' written on their faces.

"suddenly… ?"

"hmm. Would you like to go on a trip?"

no.

"It's about the album."

At that moment, the expression of 'Okay so' passed across everyone's faces.

Still, in that they don't get angry, it's like a group of workaholics. I nodded my head in satisfaction.

For reference, the members reacted after using their heads following this spinal cord reflex.

"… wait for a sec. We already have plans for the album."

“I know. The schedule should be early next year.”

Yes. In fact, Testa’s next album was already in progress.

It’s because the previous title ‘Hunting’ was not a regular album, but a mini album, so it’s time to pick a regular one.

I dropped it in the early and mid-next year.

‘Of course, it’s normal not to go this far.’

There are many cases where I wonder whether or not to make a comeback once a year in order to minimize image consumption when this year comes around.

what… … In fact, image consumption is not the only problem.

‘The company doesn’t invest.’

You no longer have to be as aggressive as you need to grow your group. This is because a successful group can spend their time leisurely eating away at the reputation and fan base they have already built up.

That’s why the producing staff with proven planning skills are all taken out for the development of newcomers, and so on.

In fact, didn’t we almost get beaten when we were in T1?

‘Of course, there’s no such thing as we’re sharing the shares in this company right now.’

Also, money is the best. It’s hearty like soup.

Anyway, I nodded and opened my mouth.

The album comes out next year. but.

“But before that, there is something I want to do.”

Suddenly, some of the members swallowed saliva.

‘… ?’

What.

“… Do you think there will be some kind of controversy!?”

“Gosh… … Can’t we get the grand prize?”

“… … .”

Even Seon Ah-hyun nodded at me with a serious face.

“It’s nothing. If you run into a problem… I want you to talk about it together first before responding.”

“… … .”

Is this karma or something?

So far, if I’ve given any opinion, it’s connected to the politics of escaping from the crisis. understood.

But this time it’s different.

I rubbed my cheeks.

“Actually, this… It is not an opinion based on grades or target numbers like before.”

“… … ?”

“I’ve been doing it every time, so I want to try something different this time.”

Sejin, who had been listening quietly, opened his mouth.

“What if something else?”

“I just thought it would be nice if we did what we wanted to do.”

“… !”

“Without any other calculation.”

It’s because there is something I realized after going through a recent incident.

‘It’s true that the members of this group got together incredibly well.’

It would be rare to find a team where everyone is passionate about group activities and people with unique personalities stick together every day and still get along well.

But to be honest, isn’t it common for even guys like that to burn out at least once when they’re active and say, ‘I’m not going to do that’.

‘No matter how nice a guy is, if he continues to do the same thing, he can’t help but feel skeptical.’

I went to the same job for 7 years, but my passion for work always burns and I always feel like it? It should be suspected that the drug was taken.

‘But Testa is doing that now.’

… … And I think that there is no guy who shows his skepticism about work to the outside even for a moment… … There are other stimuli.

Simple.

‘It’s because I kept almost dying.’

From car accidents to being trapped in time-shifted virtual worlds and even collapsing buildings.

At this point, wouldn’t activities in the entertainment industry be like a sweet drink? Now that I’m dead and alive, I’m on the verge of such an illusion.

It’s funny how there’s something good about such a bizarre experience, but… … .

‘But that’s over now.’

Now that the system is gone, the most upsetting and sweaty situations we will ever encounter will come out of activity.

Before that, I thought it would be good to have time to organize my mind.

“I hope you don’t go too analytically and only try activities that are ‘to your liking’.”

“… … .”

“That’s it. Of course, if you object, I will surrender.”

Perhaps he hadn’t expected such words to come out, and both of them were silent for a while.

okay. I knew it wasn’t a very fitting word for me to say. I have to bring out all the words I have prepared and really persuade them… … .

“okay. Sounds like a fun job!”

no i will cancel One guy immediately jumped out with a hand. It was Rabin Kim.

As expected, he’s like a ignorant guy… … .

‘for a moment.’

I looked at the guy’s expression again.

Kim Rae-bin had a slightly blushing expression on his face.

It was a common gesture when I risked some embarrassment.

“… … .”

okay. Everyone keeps their mouths shut, but there's no way I'm not noticing it.

I just quickly replied that I would support my opinion.

'… A naive guy.'

However, the unexpected did not end there.

"Oh Kim Raebin is fast! I like it too. We don't have weird tastes. are you okay."

"… It's not like that. There won't be anything you can't use."

Following Cha Yu-jin, Bae Se-jin also reacted in an attractive way after thinking about it, and the atmosphere naturally rose.

Even the guys who say strange things.

"For once, I only followed my heart… I want to try it together… ! I don't know how to talk about this so my reply is a little late. It's Moondae."

"I know. It's a bit strange, but… I think it's rather good that you said you'd try this."

"… … thank you."

Once the answer started coming out, opinions gathered in an instant.

I was a bit perplexed.

'… … I thought I'd have to convince them.'

It was just a while ago that I almost became X alone.

If he suddenly behaved unexpectedly like this, he naturally knew that he would have to persuade the more suspicious guys through various logics.

And the big Sejin also smiled and opened his mouth.

“So am I~ Honestly, I didn’t expect the world’s top Mundae Park to say such a thing.”

hey.

‘You have a different nuance.’

However, Sejin also shrugged his shoulders and opened his mouth with a smile.

“Well, I still believe that Mundae won’t do anything to harm the group.”

“… !”

“Yes?”

Suddenly I looked around.

All of them seemed to have no objection to Sejin’s words.

Seeing Cha Yoo-jin shouting ‘Yes’ with a sad face, I can be sure.

‘ah.’

Right.

And I realized

I don’t know anything else, but one belief is that I won’t make a choice that will adversely affect this group… It seems to have built up well so far.

“Isn’t that right, Mundaemundae?”

“… … of course.”

… Thank you very much.

When I was a little bit inspired like that, Keun Se-jin smiled and continued.

“I’m going to try it once without regret.”

“okay.”

“what. If you don’t receive the Order of Cultural Merit anyway, everyone knows that Sejin-hyung will be enlisting in the army next year, right?”

“… … .”

“… … .”

“So let’s do it without regret before then.”

Bae Se-jin nodded with a blank expression. I touched my forehead.

‘Looks like he wanted to oppose it.’

Keun Se-jin smiled sadly when he said very well, ‘First of all, everyone reacts well and you do a good job, so I try it, but at this point, you know that activities that don’t produce grades are meaningless.

What’s surprising, though, is that he didn’t actually oppose it until the end.

That made me think a lot.

“good. Then, if the company says it can afford it, let’s do it.”

“yes!”

Liu Qingyu’s words concluded.

I looked around.

The friendly gazes I had grown accustomed to by now were looking at me.

These guys… There is a corner that unnecessarily excites people.

So I declared more cheerfully than I expected.

“Let’s hit everything we want to do.”

* * *

Everyone is busy at the beginning of the year.

Of course, Testa was also busy attending music programs and award ceremonies while running around.

-Rabbin Kim intro ripped (Rabbit Hall performance video)

-Lemon Music Award Park Moon-dae (1) (photo)

-Look at how T1 guys don’t sing Testa far and wide

. Content poured out every week as if watching and grinding .

New remix stage, fresh solo intro and performance! People were amused.

As usual, Testa seemed to have prepared special stages with gnashing of teeth, and that alone made her full.

– Happy New Year~ My favorite month of January~

– Oh, isn’t AAB Testa coming out this time? Okay bye…

Anyone can see that it was unreasonable to create new content in parallel with this situation. And no one is thirsty for content.

‘It hasn’t been long since I made a comeback, what!’

There was no demand or expectation from the fans.

that was the situation.

One day while watching the testa at the awards ceremony and making a lot of noise, a music video suddenly popped out without warning.

-Eh, what happened!!

In response to a contact from a graduate student friend, Park Moon-dae's first home horse, who hurriedly looked at his smartphone after leaving the photo he was editing, blinked his eyes.

Something really popped up in the notifications.

[TeSTAR 'Epic' Official MV]

"… Epic?"

It was a term that seemed to be attached to a hip-hop survival or mobile game item.

Considering that the former is usually used to express a strong and unique self, and the latter is used to reinforce the concept of a 'precious item'… … .

'hmm. It's like a testa.'

It seemed that something strong and conceptual like Testa had come out again.

'Come to think of it, suddenly appearing is like a testa.'

It has become very traditional now.

Homma thought so, but closed her eyes for a moment.

'Mundae, if there's a lot of content, it's good for me… You can save good things.'

It's for the rice cake off-season.

'If the distribution is wrong, only topicality may decrease… … .'

However, she couldn't hold back her curiosity about what was already out, so of course she had already pressed play.

‘It’s not a regular album, it’s like a pre-release or something like a collaboration.’

It was supposed to be revealed right now, as expected.

Tok.

The screen started with the clear sound of water.

The emotional video with a retro 4:3 aspect ratio started with a cut of Ryu Chung-wu’s upper body, as if he was asleep, leaning back on a chair.

The thin sunlight in the background is shining… It is a brown tent.

‘hmm?’

Yes. Rather than modern camping, Ryu Cheong-wu was lying on a chair in a huge leather tent that might have been used in modern times.

“uh… … .”

Homema admitted. The conceptual seems correct.

‘Now, when it comes to strong songs… .’

However, the accompaniment that started to spread was a bright and cheerful sound that was pleasant to listen to.

Classic guitar sound.

“… !!”

Rather than being soft, the throbbing country-style sound looks like it’s beating.

In the middle, the drums come in with a bang.

With Liu Cheng-wu’s talking vocals.

[The heavy yesterday

seemed like it would never end, and the perfect today

never came.]

And on the screen, I get up from my chair and look at my desk.

A single piece of paper is fixed to the board above which maps and telescopes inkwells books and lamps are scattered.

-Certificate of citizenship and flashback cuts that pass quickly to the rhythm.

A book recording the shooting arrow monster A wanted newspaper with a red-haired figure hanging from a running steam locomotive train… … .

It was just a flow that seemed to indicate that he was ‘reminiscing’, but he noticed the first homma.

that they are already familiar images.

“… … !”

These are the retro-edited MV cuts of < Arrival > and .

With the last reminiscence of Cha Yu-jin’s outstretched hand, the screen again reflects Ryu Cheng-wu, who is smiling quietly.

[Yes,

even if there is no perfection,

the end of yesterday and the beginning of today]

“… !!”

At that moment, Homma realized.

‘this… < Coming > Liu Cheng-wu!’

Yes.

Ryu Chung-wu on the screen was a man on a high-want notice in < Arena > who realized that he was a monster through the storyline of < Arrival >.

-I’m in charge… A monster friend.

-I’d like to know a little bit about what this friend would have done since then.

Options reflecting Ryu Chung-woo’s ‘what he wants to do’ were unfolding on the screen.

[Stepping onto a new land,

no excuses or hesitation]

Tent telescope map.

Liu Chengwu walks out of the tent.

At the end of “The Yo-kai”, who was converted by Cha Yu-jin and became a citizen, he was leaving for a new unknown land.

Chapter 567

. The music video for episode 567 unfolded as if it were being sucked in without interruption like a one-take.

It is a simple storyline that shows Ryu Cheong-wu in < Arrival > leaving the tent, looking around the base camp in the frontier area, and introducing the camp members here and there as the camera chases after it excitedly.

A camp for adventurers exploring the new world!

‘Indiana X’s… ?’

Costumes and props that remind one of a classic adventure movie set the mood.

– My grandfather often showed it to me when I was young! In a situation where commerciality is not important, there is an element that I would like to try at least once.

It was Kim Rae-bin’s wish.

He cataloged all kinds of classic adventure genre fodder: gas lanterns, old maps, pocket watches, and fountain pens.

Thanks to this, elements of classic adventure are added to the outfit at an exquisite level that is not excessive.

Members wearing long leather walker linen shirts bomber jackets and metal badges were caught on camera one after another.

Ryu Chung-woo, who sits idle with a telescope, smiles slightly at the camera, draws a map with a fountain pen, then crumples Kim Rae-bin and checks the gun… … .

And even Seon Ah-hyun, who takes care of Jeon Seo-gu, who puts a white bird on his hand.

-How about a cheerful and bright atmosphere… ?

As Seon Ah-hyun wished, the video was drawn against a bright and beautiful day.

On the screen, he was lively, full of hope, ambition and adventurous spirit.

And as the song progressed, the members became more dynamic.

Like the chorus part.

Bae Se-jin, who was perched on a stump and looking at her journal while wearing antique glasses, slowly walks out and naturally dances to the song along with the dancers.

[I turn the page

the guidance shines, and the pain becomes a guide]

But the elements he put in were conveyed through the ears, not the eyes.

it’s this lyrics.

-It would be nice if the lyrics had a sense of moving forward into the future, but not overly optimistic, so it had a realistic feel… … .

-So, I’m not saying that life is wonderful, I’m just saying what it would be like to feel like going there even though it’s difficult. … I’ll write it down like that.

Thanks to this, the song talks about hope while looking deeply into the past.

But I also admit the pain.

[Let me tempt fate,

struggle

beyond the milestones and crossroads

and go one step further]

So, the overall feeling was slightly tinged with solid emotions.

[Towards the Limit] As the pages of the diary that Bae Se-jin throws into the sky flutter and fall, the camera races again and passes between the outstretched hands as if giving a high five.

And as the field of vision widened, wilderness, mountains, fields, forests, and nature with blue skies and floating clouds began to appear in the background.

The members perform their parts as if overflowing in a narrow aspect ratio.

Sitting on a huge rock, sometimes breaking through colorful hammocks hanging between trees… .

“uh?”

Homma frowned at the strange feeling of deja vu. And I soon found out why.

This is because each member appeared in a composition that pays homage to their famous stage or close-up cut.

“… … .”

Come to think of it, the lyrics were about looking back on the past.

‘It must have been aimed at.’

For some reason, Homma was slightly frowning.

And the chorus came back.

This time, the camera captured an open tent full of colorful objects.

A tall figure sitting loosely between them.

[I turn the page

the goal shines,

the pain becomes evidence]

He casually put down the golden artifact he was holding and came out of the tent gently.

It was Sejin Lee.

– Well, there are so many good opinions. Rather than having something I really want to include… Don’t be moderately satisfied with the result, aim for a really cool pick!

As the words say, the most spectacular and eye-catching action unfolds so far with a large number of people mobilized.

[Let me tempt fate,

struggling

beyond the milestones and fork in the road, moving one step further]

After the climax of the choreography passed, Lee Se-jin greeted politely in a playful way among the pollen.

And according to that gesture, the camera naturally moved again as if to show the next member's part… .

no one is caught

"… ?"

Being close-up is someone's citizenship.

The moment you check that the smile mark and the phrase 'MAKE IT HAPPEN!' are scrawled vigorously.

Suddenly the video cuts off for the first time.

And as the accompaniment faded, the voice resounded clearly.

[Let me tempt fate,

beyond

the milestones and crossroads, to the end of the day]

The video that came back.

At the end of the vast field, Cha Yu-jin herself was standing in the wind.

with horses.

he looses the reins

[Beyond the limit]

At the same time, the screen opens.

The moment the field of view widens from the retro ratio of 4:3 to the wide screen of 21:9, there is a sense of openness as if breathing is relieved.

“ah… … .”

And while the color and resolution are all clearer.

[I can’t stop, to tomorrow]

Cha Yoo-jin on a horse gallops across the screen as if jumping out across the meadow.

His request was simple.

– I want to ride a horse!

Thanks to this, he was shot out with a sound of breathing in the stillness as intense as in the old west.

And the drums come back like a storm.

[Yeaaaaaaahhhhhhh!]

With the accompaniment of foot stamping in the background, the viewpoint briefly heads toward the sky.

A bird’s eye view looking down at galloping horses.

Then, close up of the nose as if it were being sucked in again.

It is Cha Yoo-jin who is smiling with his teeth exposed.

[Running out of breath

, stretching my hands toward the sky more under my feet

in the city center]

Park Moon-dae's high-pitched voice resonates coolly as if it were speeding along the classic band accompaniment.

[(Over and over)

Even if the stars don't reach me,

I want to live today]

[Woo-]

The chorus sounded and the horse kicked off the ground and ran vigorously, raising dust.

Then, the moment Cha Yu-jin pulls the reins, she stops.

The sun was setting in his vision.

A vast sunset sky.

[Don't sleep

Just- dream]

Cha Yoo-jin got off the horse with the exhilarating final note of long breathing and threw his hat aside.

The moment the hat disappears over the screen, Cha Yoo-jin looks back at the camera and smiles.

The ending credits appear behind Cha Yoo-jin, who turns her head and walks away.

… … .]

White sentences covered with Testa's name.

The sight of it rising above the setting sun somehow shook people's hearts.

'ah… … .'

Cha Yoo-jin, who had run far away, was caught meeting the black silhouettes of six people who were backlit by the setting sun.

The images of them giving high fives or putting their arms around each other flowed across the screen without interruption.

Until the ending credits roll up and only this phrase remains.

-Loviewer

"… … ."

The phrase occupied the entire screen by itself until the end of the video until everything disappeared… … .

So Homma intuitively realized.

'It was a fan song.'

This wasn't a collaboration, an advertisement, or a worldview connection video.

It was definitely a new fan song!

* * *

“Everyone thinks it’s a fan song.”

“Iknow, right. It has become completely orthodox.”

“… … .”

“… … .”

“Should I say it was a fan song?”

“yep.”

The bill was passed without any opposition.

And again monitoring continues.

-Guys, an Epic article has appeared

‘The story of looking back on the footprints after debut with various impressions and resolving to move forward again’… └sg

ganji came out

-I think these crazy guys filmed their own music video, shooting and editing (Ending credits capture)

– The director who said he acted as an advisor for the music video went on the mound on SNS. came out unnoticed -I heard it right at the start of the new year, so

I recommended it to my muggle friend, but he already knows (?) What is it

└Muggles know all good things too hahaha you’re not doing it right? The response is so good

“… … .”

Bae Se-jin opened his mouth with an expression as if he was going to break out in a cold sweat.

“this… Why is it going so well?”

Yes.

From the beginning of the release, the reaction from the fans was quite good.

The reaction, ‘It’s a pity that I won’t be active’ because the song is so good, was unusual, so I drew a picture of it right at the climax of the concert.

‘It’s actually not wrong to say that it’s a fan song.’

Until then, everyone was just happy.

-You said you’d run hard in the new year while cherishing the time we’ve spent together, our testa!

-(Pass by, I’m an over-immersed otaku)

-It was like an epilogue to the finale…

However, this story, distorted in a good way, went viral towards in-heart SNS… … .

[How many of these scenes do you know? (Comparison of Testa legend cut and music video cut)]

So far… come.

“It’s said to be #1 in predictions for the next time slot on music sites.”

“… … ??”

-Wow, 1st place in Testa’s prediction chkchke was just around the corner to win 1st place on the daily music charts, which is hard to do even if you clenched your teeth and released an album.

“really?”

“really.”

[A male idol song that seems to have been chosen for New Year’s resolutions]

‘Is it true?’

Strangely, luck and timing were exquisitely matched even though there was no number of goals, and the jackpot for the number one music source exploded.

What’s funny is that this is a digital single without a physical album.

Even a low-budget video, self-produced and released in two weeks… Is it supposed to be like this?

“… … Shouldn’t you have prepared more and made it the title of a regular album?”

“A title that already exists.”

“You can do double titles.”

I see

But it’s already past. This song has already been released.

What you need to do is to be satisfied and enjoy the unexpected but accidental jackpot… … .

“Oh, I don’t think it’s a coincidence, is it? All of our group members have good senses, so I think people recognized it. yes?”

“Yes… !”

“… … .”

“Of course, the timing was good too! But since we don’t know when this timing will come again, let’s work harder in the future!”

“Yes, I will engrave it on my heart!”

“… … .”

I use this for doping.

Looking at Sejin, who is trying to make good use of his achievements to raise the morale of the team, he nodded, saying that he is still the same.

For reference, Ryu Chung-woo is looking at his smartphone next to him.

“I got a call from the company, but it seems like there are a lot of requests for appearances from the broadcasting side. They say how about going out to a good place.”

“and… … .”

In fact, I did just that.

‘I released a fan song without publicity, but it became a spontaneous viral and won first place’? First of all, isn’t the story going well?

Being an unknown singer must have had more impact, but being a first-team idol, there must have been a part where aggro was more attractive.

‘Call me too.’

I fidgeted with the back of my neck.

It’s been quite a while since the song itself became popular, not because of the name value of the singer and the popularity that fans support.

It’s a situation where you should be excited and happy enough, but… … .

“But this is our end.”

“that… It is.”

That’s it.

other content… No.

‘I made it by cramming for two weeks, what do you want?’

I didn’t even choreograph. In other words, it was a freestyle that I learned on the spot.

But in this situation, of course, everyone expects that there will be additional content.

Even those who firmly believe that there will be a big picture.

-I’m sure this is a build-up look

But on this team… There is no guy who can ignore the opportunity that rolls in.

“… … .”

“… … .”

“Anything we do… Should I?”

overtime confirmed.

It was the moment Rabin Kim’s energy drink turned into a group ration.

Chapter 568

If I can’t debut, I’ll get sick to death Episode 568

With the feeling of ‘Let’s do everything we want to do’, after two weeks, the self-produced song suddenly hits the current trend and goes bad.

The testas did their best.

It means that we really prepared for this performance with a clenched fist within the limited time.

-Forward… … Let’s not suddenly create new things at the beginning of the year… … .

-yes… … .

-… … .

-Ohhhh!! Sejin hyung is dead!

‘I thought it would end.’

And today, he finally appeared on the air and succeeded in showing a proper stage.

[I turn the page,

go to the next chapter]

Bae Se-jin’s simple and beautiful freestyle becomes an official choreography and unfolds in perfect harmony with the formation.

In the intro or build-up section, each of them does a solo part and entrusts the dance to a dancer, then gathers together only the chorus and shows a coordinated group dance.

‘It was a method that would not work without skill stats… … .’

Still, after monitoring, when combined with the one-take camera move, the movement came to life, and a stage worth seeing came out.

-Since the music video was also a one-take, there are points of connection in terms of the story. um that’s fine

It was as Big Sejin said.

It was different from the rigorous way we usually do, but this style, which emphasized the balance with the vocals, didn’t seem to have any problems with quality.

That’s how Time Attack was successful.

“Oh no, I have nothing to comment on. It was Testa’s self-produced idol!”

The fuss of the MC who hosts the program was also excellent.

Originally, he was an MC who was known for being gentle, but he became more gentle in line with the program’s characteristics of ‘Introduction to this week’s topical musician’, which is close to culture.

Deep questions related to music creep in.

“I often use the word ‘Epic’ with a strong and unique feeling, but it originally means ‘epic’. It’s like writing an old adventure story or something like that.”

“Yes that’s right!”

Rabin Kim nodded with a happy expression.

“It sounds like the testers used the word ‘Epic’ with a more emotional meaning closer to its original meaning, is that correct?”

“That is correct. Just as there are always twists and turns in a story, so are our lives, and I wanted to emphasize that everything is not just a process, it has meaning in itself!”

“We affirm the reality of the present progressive tense. It is very beautiful.”

A meticulous question-and-answer that proceeds step by step.

A plain and sincere conversation without aggro comes and goes. It was a luxury I had never experienced since debuting.

Truly hypoallergenic healing!

“There were many responses saying the lyrics were really pretty! He spoke very little English and spoke Korean very well. I’ve seen a lot of comments like this. As far as I know, that member Bae Se-jin took the lead in writing it… ?”

“Oh hmm. yes… . That’s right.”

“This older brother reads a lot!”

“Ah, you’ve been through reading!”

Normally, people who hate the idol concept would say that they stick together and cringe, but grades are the law of publicity.

Because it was the beginning of the year, people who were full of emotions rated the lyrics highly because they were full of mulberry.

Thanks to this, Bae Se-jin, who greatly participated in writing the lyrics, looks embarrassed but proud.

Even when an MC from a famous singer-songwriter praised him, saying that the singing method, the way the song was developed, and the pronunciation of the lyrics matched, he couldn’t control his mouth.

“Mr. Sejin.”

“yes?”

“It’s okay to laugh as much as you like.”

Ahaha!

The audience is comfortable and laughing happily. Bae Se-jin, whose face was a bit red, also laughed at the end.

Stress-free shooting!

There are no controversies, no competitions, no flirtatious questions.

“Then, please say goodbye!”

“yep! I didn’t expect to receive so much love at the start of the year, but it’s such an honor. In the future, our testa will… … .”

After a truly ‘healing’ music talk show in a very calm atmosphere, the members left the set with warm faces.

“It was very helpful.”

“Yes. He was a good person.”

Because it was a program like this in the first place, ‘Hey, it’s boring, it’s no fun.’ Not having the same impression was one of the advantages.

Besides, the fun doesn’t end here.

“Hmm, this stage clip has a good response on social media.”

“okay?”

Even a short clip of this stage titled ‘Testa Live’ went viral on social media once again.

Since it was a special appearance in a liberal arts program without a broadcast stage, it was rare, so it seems that expectations and demand were concentrated in one point.

-This is a singer

It was witnessed that people who were not very interested showed interest in order to jump on the bandwagon and show off ‘I know the trend well’.

There was no album at all, and there was no pre-promotion, so there was nothing to catch the pod with other grades.

Truly blocking the source of aggro!

And this demand was reflected in reality as well.

“I heard that there was a request for an invitation from a concert held by Five Star Card.”

“Ah, that’s where VTIC seniors came from last year, right?”

Now it was almost like a formal activity period.

Occasionally, there were many requests for this song to be included in the setlist even when attending an advertising event or a KPOP concert.

Then, in fact, the song that consumes the lowest stamina ever becomes a highlight stage.

“Whoa… .”

“Hmm.”

Even after the stage, there were guys who touched the ribs as if their lungs were about to pop out, feeling out of breath.

“It’s less of a burden.”

“Yes.”

It was almost the first time I wrote a song for an event that had no choreography.

It was different from before when I made a choreography that somehow didn’t exist with ad-libs and emphasized it far and wide.

– Epic! Epic!

[Yes, the song you’ve been waiting for is now out.]

-Ohhh!

It is enough to sing the song properly.

At the concert, he said he wanted to write a more colorful and strong choreography, and when he saw Sejin Kim arranging the song, the company secretly tipped it off to the leader.

“It’s an activity that I hadn’t planned before, so I came up with an opinion that it would be better not to overdo it… … . You are preparing for the next comeback at the same time.”

“hmm… yes. We will adjust well considering the members’ physical condition.”

The song itself is so good that the response is good.

My body is much more comfortable, but when I perform, I can even hear a huge group of people.

The big Sejin muttered as if he was in a good mood but a little nervous.

“Oh~ This must be Youngrin sunbae-nim’s impression, right?”

“I think it is a very grateful and meaningful experience to meet diversity from the point of view of a composer!”

Like I said, it was fresh.

Every day continued with everyone digesting their schedules with faces like, “This can happen.”

Of course, everyone thought that this would end someday.

‘The timing was good.’

So, just as if I was enjoying a pleasant event, I spent my days working and sleeping while being hectic.

Then, a few weeks later, one day.

“hmm.”

Dawn after finishing the schedule. I found an article on a portal site while lying on my bed and using my smartphone.

[The monster rookie who pushed Testa off the charts…]

I got a feeling before I even finished reading it.

‘A knight for press play.’

Are you a monster rookie again?

Still, if you look at the expression ‘pushed off the chart’, it meant that it was pushed out of the top spot on this music chart.

‘It means that there is a team that came up while I wasn’t monitoring deeply.’

I clicked to see the article content properly.

Of course, I have no intention of saying bullshit like ‘How can a rookie beat our group?’.

‘I’m grateful that I’ve been working with this sound source for a few weeks.’

In addition, if it was a female idol or a solo artist, it happened quite often that the newcomer’s sound source jumped up. I mean, there’s nothing surprising about it.

Annual leave is a meaningless industry.

‘Among the new female idols from the big leagues, the team that made a comeback or debuted… . Mmm, maybe a rapper.’

So I skimmed through the article while predicting a few teams and names.

And I was faced with an unexpected explanation.

-The mixed-gender idol group HaloHe-im drew attention with the #Look_up challenge on video platforms and the MZ generation… … .

“… … .”

Rereading it didn’t change the description.

‘concoction?’

A mixed-gender idol group makes their debut with each other… After hitting the jackpot on social media… did you get first place?

It was an explanation that I didn’t know where to start and what to refute.

‘I thought the mixed group was extinct.’

Of course, there are exceptions to every formula and trend.

Instead of snoring, I immediately put the group in and ran a search.

– Haloheim.

It’s only been a week since they debuted.

‘also.’

I thought it wouldn’t be long.

The image teaser was released on January 1st, and it seems that the promotion and virality continued, mainly on video platforms such as TikTacTok.

And the company… .

‘Hmm, this is the first label I’ve heard of.’

Of course, there is little chance of being a real zero-base small business.

‘also.’

With a little further exploration, I even found out that this label is affiliated with a young company.

The main judge of < Azusa > and… The idol who first taught me that idol data can make money.

It is even said that Youngrin was in charge of producing.

– St. U’s Youngrin works as a producer, completing the construction of Haloheim’s musical worldview… … .

The explanation continued that he made it hand in hand with the image director who created his heyday.

‘Is that where the topic came from?’

Even so, being a mixed-gender idol group was a risky endeavor.

This is because they are vulnerable to dating rumors, and their fandom doesn't unite well in the first place, or it's easy to become too light.

'It is several times more difficult to maintain the value of the name in the long run.'

Making such an experimental attempt at a company worthy of that name, risking enough trainees to debut?

Bet on the front that the company's signboard idol produced it?

I pressed my forehead.

'… … Youngrin's personality to play with children's lives… … .'

no i don't know

I am… I just sold my data. There's no way I know what kind of personality Youngrin is.

Still, it was time to restart the search, frowning in embarrassment.

'I need to find out how it floated… .'

At that moment, my eyes went to Haloheim's profile.

'… ?'

Apparently, because of my job, I reflexively checked my direct competitors first, so I looked at the men's faces first.

female members.

Those faces… Something familiar.

"… … ."

I immediately moved my hand and put the names of the members in question and turned the search again.

This time via YouTube.

And among the pouring videos, I found the Lekka account.

– What made them debut after eating together with Testa?

“… … .”

X feet.

* * *

“Hey.”

“Why Moondaemundae?”

“Do you remember this group?”

I handed the smartphone screen over to Sejin the big one. The guy who was getting ready to sleep in bed had a ‘suddenly something’ expression on his face, but he accepted the smartphone without saying anything.

And check the screen.

“Ah~”

Of course, Sejin nodded his head.

And, conscious of Seon Ah-hyun, who was already asleep, he said softly in a low voice.

“Um, those who almost debuted with < Be My Girls >… Right? It was originally our agency.”

Yes.

< Be My Girls >.

It is another idol survival program that T1 has been running since the hit of < Idol Inc. >.

The winners of this program also belonged to T1 Stars as a matter of course, and were scheduled to be the next female idol group beforehand.

the problem is… That it was all manipulation.

–< Be My Girls > ranking was manipulated…

It was a bomb that exploded on the surface when T1, arrested by the production team, got beaten up by being involved with the political world.

Thanks to that, we eventually escaped from T1… .

This side didn't even debut, but because of the contract, they were tied up for several years.

So Orbit, the company Testa made after escaping, did this.

"The contract was released when we acquired T1 Stars before our company started."

It was a natural choice.

This is what happens when you keep tying this group to the company without even letting them debut.

-Are you carrying a manipulative stone?

Controversy over support of manipulation.

-They didn't even let them debut and they didn't let them go. Wow, the lives of the kids are pitiful. What should I do? It's a mean way, even kids use it… It's really heartbreaking .

‘It’s normal to let them go if they’re not going to debut in the first place.’

The risk and conscience-smashing voices were too loud to have in the Nolbu meta, where if I can’t use it, others can’t use it.

I thought it was over without harming each other like that.

I didn’t know it would turn out this well.

“… 1 on the music chart right now?”

“okay.”

“hmm.”

Big Sejin rubbed his chin… shrugged.

“Wow~ We only have 2 weeks? At most, I didn’t monitor for 3 weeks, so look at how the situation has changed. It’s a really dynamic industry.”

The boy immediately woke up from bed.

“Let’s check.”

I thought so.

We immediately and quietly moved into the living room and started monitoring the industry properly… .

“What are you guys doing?”

“… … !”

When I turned my head, Cha Yoo-jin, who had come out to drink water, was staring blankly at me.

I thought my liver was falling.

“Sit down.”

“What… .”

That’s how the three early morning overtime shifts began.

Chapter 569

Episode 569

“I want to get that popcorn.”

“Be patient.”

At dawn when the other members were all asleep, the three testers started searching for information by connecting to the Internet through TV in the dark living room.

A rookie ‘mixed’ idol group that pushed us and claimed first place on the music charts.

HaloHe-im.

[I don’t even wonder who came up with this strange name anymore.]

“… … .”

The mixed group’s debut song flowed on the screen along with the evaluation of native speaker Cha Yoo-jin. [I’m curious now

, to whom is your heartbeat beating

in the seat next to me]

An up-tempo, natural and pleasant song that sticks well to the ears.

A refreshing and atmospheric melody that would be good for a place like a cafe flows with the accompaniment.

“The song is good.”

“I agree.”

However, no matter how good a song is, there will be singers who disappear without seeing the light of day.

Even if a mixed group doesn’t run backwards and takes first place in a week after the release of the sound source… .

“I think there are other selling points.”

“Yap.”

I continued the search with the tacit agreement of Sejin Cha and Yoojin Cha.

There was nothing to do for long.

It was because a 40-minute related video with over 5 million views was released in that music video.

It is the content of the thumbnail, in which several Haloheim members in school uniform are smiling while facing each other.

[Is it good that you’re a transfer student? < Heartheim > Ep.2 / HaloHeim]

“… … .”

For an idol’s own content, it was a title arrangement that felt out of place somewhere.

However, it is a somewhat familiar form, as seen on Witube.

“for a moment.”

I found episode 1 of the content and played it.

The narration came out against the background of a bench with a green school scene.

[Haven’t you ever wanted to meet someone who’s perfect for you?]

[Who clicked on ‘the type that suits you most’ whenever you did all sorts of MBTI sentence making psychological tests?] [This is our story of finding that kind of person.]

“ ah.”

The moment I saw it, I realized what it was. I crossed my arms and sobbed.

‘crazy.’

The offspring of this agency openly benchmarked the reality mating program.

Mixed-gender groups are known for dating rumors?

Using that in reverse, we created the world view of the group.

I want the viewer to create and analyze the drama at will.

[Jihyun: Hello. I am Jihyun Kang, born in Busan.]

[Jihyun: My personality… … I think it’s kind of quiet. Even at school… (Edit) Yes. I didn’t even go on a school trip on purpose.]

The video first introduces four female students with different personalities against the backdrop of a fictional school.

And one after another, the male members appeared at the school under the concept of ‘transferring’ as male students.

[Male Student 1: Nice to meet you. I am Hyunwoo Ko.]

In this way, students learn more about each other's personalities and behavioral patterns while doing various team missions based on the school concept.

From laboratory assignments to culinary practice performance evaluations to courage tests.

And at the end of the day's work, each of them picks one person of the opposite sex and one person of the same sex who they matched best and sends a text message anonymously.

[Jihyun: Um… Hyeonu's fear without pretentiousness seemed a little honest and nice. I'll send it to Hyunwoo.]

[Hyunwoo: Wasn't Jihyun really trustworthy today?]

It shows who gets along well and who doesn't get along well, who has a crush on whom.

The poles of love and the poles of friendship were rife with each other, and they even raised the mark.

"… … ."

"… … ."

Looking at the mess, the three testers couldn't bear to react.

It was because of culture shock.

'… It's an openly dating reality.'

It's like closing your eyes and screaming.

Still, when I took a closer look at it while enduring the shock, it wasn't just a fucking aggro. The meticulous work was evident.

For example, this ‘school’ setting was handled with a moderately immersive feeling, even though everyone knew that it was fake, just like the background setting of a reality program.

[Jaebin: This is a school concept.]

[Hugo: That’s why it’s fun. I hardly ever went to a Korean school.]

Comfortable so you don’t feel like you’re acting. To make each person feel much more natural and authentic.

And at the decisive moment of every flower, their debut title song plays like an OST.

[This trembling is still only in my heart,

I can stay calm] The highlight melody of the song that comes out right before moving on to the trailer fits perfectly.

The sound source is exposed once very naturally.

-Jaebin-ah, please let Hugo team up with Jin Gook-im Hugo. -Honestly, Hyunwoo and Jihyun get along the best.

Do you think this Hugo is cute

there was.

It’s because the program was fun and scary.

even say

“… They say that if you vote as the ‘two people who fit best’ here, you will receive the center for the next album.”

“… … Wow~”

Big Sejin couldn’t follow his words. I understand.

Still, the guy managed to complete another sentence.

“this… No, it would be impossible to manage public opinion.”

“I guess so.”

It was a way that existing idol fans would be flagship.

So, it seemed that this video was mainly viewed by people who originally liked love reality.

Besides, these people were overinvolved, which was more of a problem.

Going straight to episode 2, one of the members was filthy swearing. It was the reason why he suddenly and unexpectedly chose another member of the opposite sex in home practice.

-It’s not polite

, it’s really too

much .

Crossed the line hard.

In addition, they secretly touch each other’s nerves and then show them fighting in anger.

‘It’s spectacle.’

It’s bullshit for kids who are only 20 years old or older. It’s bullshit from all kinds of broadcasting companies, but even though this is the agency’s own entertainment show, it’s like fucking awesome.

‘Isn’t it an atmosphere where being a fan of a group can’t happen?’

It was to the extent that we still had the atmosphere of individual fans from the days of < Azusa >.

The pre-debut survival program has such a strong influence, but if you do something like this with guys who debuted… … .

“It usually self-destructs on its own.”

Originally it should have been.

but.

“But it worked.”

“… … .”

Its own content, which seemed to be a clever mix of web dramas and reality programs, seemed to garner great immersion and repercussions, mainly among teenagers.

The next thing to do is the viewers of dating programs.

It was a huge number of people who now make up the majority of viewers.

What are the benefits of attracting them?

“It went viral.”

Posts are being posted on the Internet by people who are overinvolved.

-Heartheim is surprisingly fun

-I’m going to a test of courage, but my partner says

he’ll leave me.

└Jihyun debuted?

Then, hardcore KPOP listeners who watched the minor survival show < Be My Girls > lightly join in.

One after another, if global KPOP fans who originally like this kind of thing stick together… … .

‘The number of views is exploding.’

Of course, there were clear traces of the swearing and backlash controversy.

First of all, what was the fandom of the debutants created through < Be My Girls >?

‘It must have been like death.’

I thought I was barely debuting, but the agency would have come out and said something stupid and frowned.

But it wouldn’t have come out too strong.

‘The manipulation controversy is already attached.’

Even if it was worth claiming that the members were not at fault, they would have been cautious about raising gossip because it was such a big bite.

I was trying to respond to the company quietly, but eventually gave up when the reaction got hotter and better.

‘So even all those negative chemical reactions are digested with buzz.’

Bad comments are better than no comments. because I’m interested

If you are confident in the quality of the things you sell.

‘Public opinion can be overturned.’

And the agency laid the plate up to that point.

-What is it… Ah, I thought it was because I received the letter from Hyeonu. ㅠㅠ

The more the member gets angry, the more the misunderstanding is resolved and the three-dimensional aspect of the member gradually recovers.

As the main point of view members kept changing, sympathy was drawn from similar types of people in each episode.

In the end, I was able to appeal all the members' charms as members of the opposite sex and their character charms.

And just the right timing when the feeling is ripe.

Haloheim's first music broadcast broke.

Here's the winner.

-Wow, you're good at it

. -You're an idol…

You did a good job on stage.

Viewers reacted as if they were watching the performances of the main characters of their favorite dramas.

The excitement and freshness of imagining being realized in reality created an unexpected synergy.

-Something too daunting. Haloheim is a real drama.

If you made the wrong step, the discomfort would have overcome the interest, but whether it was luck or calculation, it pierced through all of that.

In this way, the mixed group successfully launched.

“… … .”

Dark dawn in front of the TV in Testa’s living room.

Seeing the stage of a rookie group that succeeded in an unexpected way, the three people were lost in thought.

“OK. all right.”

First, Cha Yu-jin shrugged.

“This team is doing well. But it’s okay because we do better.”

It was a bold statement.

“How was the mixing of the sexes?”

“Why?”

“In Korea, there have been very few successful mixed-gender groups since the 2000s.”

Cha Yoo-jin replied with a natural face.

“Hey, there is no eternal fad.”

“… … !”

“KPOP groups are not traditional either. Trends can change at any time.”

that… … Yes.

There is no guarantee that mixed-gender groups that were popular in the 2000s will not work in the market forever.

Even if it was eaten in a completely unexpected form.

“Our group needs to do well as we always do. Got it?”

“Of course~ Got it.”

When Sejin Keun replied with a smile, Yoojin Cha waved and quickly walked back and forth to the kitchen to return the water cup.

However, Keun Se-jin frowned and sat still on the sofa until Cha Yu-jin returned.

as if lost in thought.

“why.”

“no… No matter how you think about it, it’s strange.”

Sejin muttered while watching the TV, which was turned off.

“This is not going to work in the long run.”

“… … .”

“why?”

“Eugene said you said that there is no eternal fad, right? There are no eternal couples.”

“… !”

“I don’t know what to do with the next album, but it feels like I consumed images too quickly. Um, it’s very experimental~ You want to?”

It was true.

It was almost impossible to use such a promotion method again to achieve the same effect.

As for Testa, it seemed that if she just waited, the sweet water over there would soon run out and she would not be able to endure it.

Of course, I’m not making any promises in this industry.

“Let’s think about it while being vigilant.”

“okay.”

The dawn monitoring of that day was finished like that. The three quietly tidied up the living room and went back to their respective rooms.

I too lay down on the bed and thought briefly.

‘It’s a new method.’

It was a short-lived, radical promotion method that changed people’s personal lives and personalities.

But that’s what I think.

– Aren’t the idol groups we’re doing now also models with a long lifespan?

Even popular idol groups have an average life expectancy of around 7 years. With the exception of a few people, everyone found their own way of life and focused on individual activities.

It is because of the burden of group camp, the burden of high-intensity choreography, and the problem of the appropriate age.

‘We and VTIC who want to eat more are the eccentrics.’

Let’s consider that.

‘This way is just a flow of consuming idols faster… … ?’

“… … .”

I don’t know. I felt dirty somehow.

‘It feels different.’

I don’t know if it’s because I’m of a different age in the first place, but what can I say about this… It even made me feel a little uncomfortable.

How does the company promote mixed-gender groups?

‘It encourages consumption in a fucking weird way.’

Especially when I think of those rookies who did the stage properly.

“… … .”

I just decided to go to sleep or sleep.

When it’s time to worry about our competitors, let’s worry about our group, which has members who will be enlisting in the military next year.

Don’t forget the crazy fact that I went to the army twice.

‘… after.’

But strangely, even thinking about it, my mind immediately cleared up and I couldn’t fall asleep.

Like an ominous foreboding.

I feel like I’m missing something… .

“… … .”

just said

What did I hear as the reason for the short lifespan of idol groups?

Appropriate age for camp and… … .

‘High intensity choreography… … .’

“… … .”

for a moment.

“… !”

I immediately got up from bed and picked up my smartphone.

And immediately connected.

Under the water, which has not been monitored because there has been no controversy.

There are expressions that catch your eye the moment you become conscious and look at them.

-Epic doesn't have choreography either bhhhhhhhh -Hm

… I feel a little bit bitter because I want to end up like this for all of them

-Ah, this is why I think it's not okay if the sound source does well, but I think it works even now like this b-

George is a selfish idol with group dance like this again One goes.

Even cold water feels like getting hit.

'A group's heyday as an idol does not last long.'

When that time comes, the lodgings will be eliminated, individual activities will increase, and the proportion of group work will decrease.

Many groups have been

'This is already official.'

It was a fact that all idol fans now know.

So, Testa's album this time was accepted as a kind of signal to these people.

It was an attempt to see if Testa would abandon the existing concept and switch to a comfortable way.

As a sign that they no longer intend to grit their teeth and live fiercely as an idol group in their prime.

As a sign that the reason they originally liked Testa will disappear and be replaced.

-Actually, it’s not a bad thing. To be honest, it’s time for the kids to think about cartilage

There are people who dare to find the bottom of the water and talk like this, but usually they don’t bother to express their dissatisfaction.

I think it’s a natural process.

‘just… Gradually, you will start to recognize other idols.’

The activity will decrease and the mind will open.

“… … .”

Cha Yoo-jin would say this.

-Let’s release a new album soon. Then no problem.

It is to appeal that we will still work hard.

‘That’s the correct answer.’

But the bigger problem is… Now that’s not the case.

‘I’ve already been active as Epic!’

It worked so well that it became a problem!

The image that the public expects of us right away has been formed towards it.

A popular, slightly comfortable, yet easy-to-listen sound source.

But if a new album suddenly comes out in this atmosphere?

‘But we prepared this regular album very intensely and conceptually.’

This is because they adhered to the route of targeting the global fandom with the aim of receiving a cultural medal.

Then how is it?

-Oh, I

like the song

I banged my head.

Chapter 570

If you can’t debut, you’ll get a fatal disease Episode 570

The next morning.

Inside Testa’s car, which is moving on schedule.

“It’s Moondae… ! Over there, the manager asks how we will eat our breakfast… … .”

“… … .”

“It’s dumb… ?”

“… uh. Anything is fine.”

“… … Yes.”

I put my head on the window. Calculations were running tight in my brain.

Regarding the further activities of this group.

‘It’s a crossroads.’

The problem is that both roads are at the edge of a cliff.

If you release an intense regular album now, the public who expects comfortable music will turn away from you.

However, if you continue to take a comfortable route, you will not be able to stop the fandom from leaving.

‘And the cultural decoration is over.’

It tasted like death.

At least, if I can get rid of the flaws and try to pull them out… There was a hybrid called Easy Listening where the choreography was intense.

Just like the debut song < Magical Boy >.

‘But that won’t get a response from overseas.’

What is eaten by global KPOP fans is always a strong concept.

Group dance A powerful melody with a strong beat.

Of course, if you want to go beyond that and gain support from the English-speaking world, there is also a step to target easy listening that is popular there.

But that’s how higher classes do it.

First of all, it is possible to secure a global fan scale of VTIC level… If you don’t care, you could lose your group color and start struggling from the next album.

like now.

‘X feet.’

In addition, since the fandom has already started to break away, there is a high probability that even this ‘easy listening and high-level choreography’ method will be accepted as an attempt to ‘look at the liver’.

-This time, it’s time to do something hard, but I couldn’t give up on Easy Listening and when I looked at what I brought, I got angry.

I pressed my forehead.

‘It’s okay to be criticized.’

The problem is that there will be quite a lot of fans who leave without swearing and quietly saying, “I’m having fun.”

Perhaps it’s after seeing the rookie of the mixed group succeed with an absurd strategy, but the foreboding doesn’t go away.

difficult times to maintain.

‘The way we knit is changing.’

As the generational change approaches… It was felt.

“… … .”

In fact, Testa’s years of age might not be a problem.

Even so, it’s only New Year’s, so it’s been 7 years. It has only been about 5 and a half years since their debut.

‘Right now, there are many groups that are senior to Testa but are active in their prime.’

the problem is… It is that Testa has been successful since its debut.

Large-scale concert tour Breaks the record for album sales by a rookie group in the annual music charts.

All of this happened in the first year of debut.

And until now, except for special situations such as traffic accidents, it has been self-updating its grades by drawing an upward-sloping graph.

‘So I managed it well, alternately using variety shows and albums so that people wouldn’t get tired of Testa… I thought.’

In fact, the problem may have been in the opposite direction.

-It’s not strange even if Testa thinks they’ve done enough

-Wouldn’t they have no regrets about group activities?

these perceptions.

Even if people are not tired of Testa, they predict that Testa will get tired of Testa’s activities.

And just as expectations are reflected in stock prices in advance, the trend of finding other idols to replace Testa in advance… … .

I turned my head.

“this.”

Seon Ah-hyun was holding out a piping hot sandwich toast.

The manager seemed to have prepared breakfast.

“thanks.”

I casually opened the package and took the toast sandwich to my mouth.

I didn’t have time to evaluate the taste.

Meanwhile, he asked in a quiet voice.

“I… if. If you’re sick or… … Are you worried?”

“… … .”

“Because you look a little tired.”

Shall I tell you?

Seon Ah-hyun was a good listener, and if I brought up a problem like this, he would listen and worry with me.

No, most of the guys in this group are like that. therefore… .

I opened my mouth.

“It’s because I worked overtime yesterday morning.”

“… ?”

“I looked for some rookies who beat us and reached #1 on digital music charts.”

I took two with my fingers.

“With them.”

“Whoa?”

The guys, who were each shoving their own toast into their mouths, blinked their eyes. They are Keun Se-jin and Cha Yu-jin.

Of course, both are fine. They don’t have the stamina to feel tired just because they didn’t sleep, and they don’t have the styles to show off just because they’re a bit tired.

In that sense, this situation where I say I’m tired alone… … .

‘Is it strange?’

Cha Yu-jin opened her mouth with a pitiful face.

“Whoo… Moondae hyung, is it because you’re older now?”

“… … .”

I’m two years older than you, kid.

It’s been like that ever since the new year.

“Is the toast delicious?”

Cha Yu-jin flinched when she realized that she had to chew on toast for dinner, and quickly corrected her words. Is it really quick-witted?

“I made a mistake! There are hyungs who are older than Moondae hyung! Sejin Bae is the oldest!”

“… … ??”

Bae Se-jin, who was suddenly beaten, makes a futile expression, and Keun Se-jin, who almost burst out laughing, turns around.

“What are you talking about! In Korea, age is official! We are still in our 20s~”

“That is reasonable!”

The chattering guys over a hot breakfast stopped asking me about my condition.

I also chewed my toast again.

“… … .”

It was just right up to here.

‘There is no need to talk about my prediction.’

Whatever we do now, be prepared to face a downtrend?

Since the Cultural Merit is over, let’s prepare for enlistment together next year?

‘Even if I say it, it’s like scaring me.’

Even if it didn’t raise morale any more, it couldn’t be destroyed like that.

I'm satisfied with the fact that I moderately raised the team atmosphere… … .

"Wow, at the beginning of the new year, Park Moon-dae looked at the camera and pretended to be cute, and his stamina is at a cute level… … ."

That's it.

I sneaked a can of sejin's carbonated water that hadn't been opened, shook it mercilessly, and sent it back to its original position.

Cha Yoo-jin giggled and recorded the scene as a video.

"Wow! What is this!"

"ha ha ha!"

It seemed that my doubtful attitude passed away, buried in a loud and warm atmosphere.

However, even in this mess, there were people who were silent and lost their thoughts.

Because there was one guy there who was good at dealing with teammates who predicted a pessimistic future.

"It's Moondae. Shall we talk for a minute?"

"… … ."

that afternoon.

The moment I entered the waiting room, I realized that Liu Chengyu was waiting for me to talk.

* * *

I went into the room behind the waiting room where there was a cot with him.

And instead of taking a nap, they both sat on the mattress.

“Ahyeon kept worrying about me. Maybe it was too much at dawn, but Mundae is not in a good condition today.”

Right.

Even though I tried not to show off, it seems that my head is complicated. I sighed and nodded.

“I told you, but it’s because I’m tired.”

“really?”

“… … .”

“It’s Moondae. Right now I’m not asking my cousin, but the group leader is asking the members.”

oh shit

I pressed my eyelids and opened my mouth.

“Leave your brother alone.”

And I started to tell Ryu Cheng-wu about Testa’s current situation that I had analyzed so far.

A time of dilemma.

What kind of butterfly effect did the song I made when I said, ‘Let’s do what I want to do’, ended with it.

“… So, no matter how and when the next album is released, it seems inevitable that the image will be on the decline.”

Liu Qingyu was not surprised.

He didn’t laugh at it, saying it was nonsense, but quietly nodded his head and listened to my words.

So I was able to finish talking quietly.

“… … I couldn’t come up with a solution yet, so I kept my mouth shut for the first time.”

“I see.”

“… … .”

“I heard you. Thanks for telling me.”

Liu Qingyu smiled.

“but… It doesn’t seem like a big deal to me.”

“… … .”

what?

“It’s Moondae.”

Liu Cheng-wu put on a pod and spoke softly.

What kind of crazy is this all of a sudden?

“That doesn’t mean that our group will suddenly disappear or all of our fans will disappear.”

Did you not understand

“It means that there is a high probability that fans will fall for it because of that image, and there will be a real decline.”

“But if we release another good album, you will listen to it. If you put on a great performance, you will see it.”

“yes. Maybe only some.”

People basically pay less attention to things that are out of fashion. Testa would be in the same situation.

“okay. It’s past its heyday… . But it’s Mundae.”

Liu Cheng-wu smiled bitterly.

“It’s prime time because it passes.”

“… … !”

It was something familiar.

that… This was what I said to Cheong-ryeo, who suffered from reset syndrome.

-The prime time passes, so it’s the prime time.

Yes.

Every group goes well, but there comes a moment when it stagnates.

Whether it’s T-Holic, VTIC, or Testa.

Whether it’s years from now or now.

“Even if you receive the Order of Cultural Merit, it’s just a delay, and everyone will go to the army except me and Yujin.”

“… … .”

“You must be worried that the prime time is over again when the blank period comes, right?”

‘I didn’t bother to say it until now because it’s because I’m not going to mention it,’ Ryu Cheng-wu continued.

“But we’re going to plan our activities accordingly.”

Calm and logical speech.

“Of course, it would be nice to always get good grades. but. Even if the grades drop, this group does not end.”

-Testa can continue to release as many albums as he wants and promote well, and there will always be people who will listen to him.

I quietly listened to those words.

And send it to the head and digest it slowly.

‘Right.’

It wasn’t even a status ailment like ‘target or death’, but I thought it was like that.

‘As if Testa would die if he wasn’t in the first team.’

But that’s not true.

This group will continue to exist, and there will be no disintegration due to sudden poor grades. Isn’t it the company we founded in the first place?

Testa does not disband suddenly.

‘okay.’

I succinctly admitted that I had been buried in an overzealous way of thinking.

And after taking a deep breath, he responded with a much more determined brain.

“understand. … Thank you bro.”

“Thank you.”

As if my complexion had improved, Liu Chengwu grinned as if he were relieved.

But that’s it.

“Still, I feel dirty.”

“… ?!”

“I don’t think I will be able to sleep if I face a downward trend due to misunderstandings like this.”

Isn’t it just as unfair as a dog?

‘It’s not like there’s been any controversy, and it’s not like the quality of the album has changed.’

No, who knew that a sound source released just for fan service would suddenly go well and then be misunderstood like this.

In order to go up, even this year’s plan was pulled out… .

“Honestly, I don’t see an answer right now, but I want to somehow find a solution.”

OK.

“okay. I knew it!”

Liu Qingyu smiled.

“… … ?”

“Oh sorry. hmm… … Actually, I did say that. Still, I thought I would do my best to challenge myself in the future.”

Liu Qingyu's smile faded slightly.

"Because not being able to do my best is not a pleasant thing… … ."

"… … ."

Apparently, it reminded me of the days of Steer. However, Liu Cheng-wu quickly erased that expression.

"But let's remember this."

The guy held out his hand.

"first of all… … It's not your fault that the fans misunderstood you."

"… !"

"Let's admit that sometimes the unexpected happens," said Ryu Cheng-wu.

"… … thank you."

"haha. It's true, but it's nothing to be thankful for. Well, and the next one is the most important one."

Liu Chengwu smiled and grabbed my shoulder.

"I'm not trying to do anything because I'm afraid of the end of my prime, I'm doing it because I want to keep trying."

If I don't do it, it's not because I'm dying.

Because there is a goal.

"We are not being chased, we are chasing. Let's not forget."

That was enough.

"yes."

I shook his hand and acknowledged his words.

So then… … .

“Please hold a meeting.”

“okay.”

Let’s make it whether or not all 7 of us squeeze our brains like squeezing lemon juice.

Chapter 571

If you can't debut, you'll die from an illness Episode 571

It's no different from everyday life that Testa holds a meeting every time something happens and tries to solve it.

Now, it means that all the members are skilled enough not to be surprised when something happens.

"yes? Oh meeting. yes."

So, as soon as the schedule was over, we calmly gathered in the living room without anyone panicking about the meeting or asking questions.

Although there were times when Keun Se-jin looked at people as if they were a little admirable.

"Is that why Moondaemundae's face was so bad? But I'll tell you right now."

If you know, let's move on quickly.

… Being calm doesn't mean that you can't accept the seriousness.

After hearing the full story of the incident, their faces soon became serious.

"… hmm. so… … The downtrend image is the problem."

"okay."

No matter what you choose from your next album, your fandom and popularity will suffer.

It could be a signal flare of an out of control downward flow.

Kim Rae-bin's face darkened.

"Because I lack skills… ."

"No, absolutely not."

When I heard about the album, I knew this guy would do this.

Kim Rae-bin's dark expression disappeared only after he heard the explanation in detail, "It was rather twisted because it worked well."

Instead, he thought deeply and finally said:

"There is a saying that extremely well-made things are beyond taste! If so, I will work harder and write a new song that can satisfy both the public and lovers!"

"Oh, he's like this again."

"Kim Raebin is an idiot."

"… ?!"

I put both hands on Kim Rae-bin's shoulders.

"Listen, Rabin."

"yes!"

"You are a genius."

"… !?"

"And your songs were always so good that it was nonsensical."

Except for a few slumps, he was a crazy talent with no weaknesses in terms of quality and speed.

‘Honestly, without this guy, the work would have been several times more difficult.’

It means that the songs made by Raebin Kim so far have not been of a lower level.

“However, a good song does not necessarily become a mega hit. It’s a matter of timing or luck.”

“that… … .”

“Well, what you said is 100% right! Even if this isn’t necessarily a song, it’s a word that goes universally in many places~ right bro?”

“uh?”

Bae Se-jin seemed a little taken aback by Se-jin’s words, but soon nodded calmly.

“… that’s right. There is a movie that I enjoyed the most among the ones I appeared in when I was young, but it didn’t do well at the box office.”

“ah… … .”

“So it wouldn’t be possible to make something like that artificially.”

Rabin Kim nodded slightly.

Yes.

No matter how well you make it and how hard you put in the promotion, a trend that satisfies everyone cannot be deliberately produced.

‘It’s best to set a target group and catch them.’

Then, sometimes luck and timing are right and everyone likes it.

Cha Yoo-jin, who was listening to the story, shrugged.

“I don’t know. Why do you only make one song? Why can’t we make both?”

“huh?”

“We can do both difficult and easy things Double title!”

“ah.”

double title.

It’s not about making one perfect song that satisfies everyone, it’s about diversifying investments and targeting both the public and the fandom.

The reason this doesn’t happen is simple.

“There is no time.”

To make it a double title, just think of it as doubling what we’re doing now.

‘No, it’s added unilaterally, so if you think about adjusting the schedule, it will cost more than twice as much.’

The choreography, costume and concept music video should be filmed one more time to achieve perfection that does not create a sense of incongruity with other double titles.

Then what will happen?

“With a double title, you might have to release your next album later than scheduled, let alone release it sooner.”

In the end, the leak of the fandom is left unattended for a longer period of time.

The premise itself of ‘acting quickly to prevent the fandom from escaping’ is inconsistent.

Of course, I could have tried to meet the deadline somehow.

“You work a lot fast! We’re all hard-working people.”

It’s changing our bodies.

To be honest, I am a person who is attracted to this word.

but… .

“Then, if you go to the goal due to overwork, who will be responsible?”

It will be more work intensity than anything you’ve ever experienced.

The schedule isn’t easy right now, but if I put in double the work here, I didn’t know if a guy who really collapsed would come out.

‘I can’t do that.’

… In the long run, the health of this group will also need to be taken care of.

From the other side of the hill, Liu Qingyu could be seen smiling slightly.

Are you proud? okay. what… It’s good.

Cha Yoo-jin also nodded softly, as if he had accepted… … .

“OK. Consider your age.”

“… … .”

Sejin Bae opened his mouth.

“you… I won’t bring candy from now on.”

“What?!”

While ignoring Cha Yoo-jin, who was shocked by the fact that she could no longer suck on the handmade candy sent by Bae Se-jin’s mother, the members fell into their own troubles.

“then… Should I leave it to chance?”

The guy’s face didn’t like it, probably because it was an overly defeatist idea for Sejin to accept.

And the faces of the other members were also a little shaken. It’s because I’ve never heard a comfortable sound like ‘let’s leave it to luck’ until now.

Meanwhile, Seon Ah-hyun raised her hand slightly.

“I’d rather… How about explaining this activity directly to the fans?”

“hmm?”

“W app or… You can also post a letter on social media.”

Sun Ah-hyun’s proposal was, in the end, this.

-It wasn’t made by each of us! I also caught the activity in a hurry!

-If you thought that we would go less vigorously because our passion has cooled, you are all wrong!

Let’s break this down and be honest.

What process did we go through to get this done in two weeks, and how did we rush to prepare for promotions after this song suddenly went well?

It is to carefully explain and convince the fans.

“If you tell me what process we went through and how we worked like this… I thought you would be relieved.”

“And are we preparing for the album step by step according to schedule?”

“yes… !”

Seon Ah-hyun’s words were straight forward.

There were problems, though.

I rubbed my chin.

‘I don’t think you can believe it.’

If I did it right now, it seemed desperate, so it was counterproductive. If you think that these guys are trying to explain because they are scared, your credibility will fall and your image will suffer.

-Stop it… It’s too late to make excuses, so the empathy level is coming

. It’s a little embarrassing. I just had to bring the next album, but

It was difficult.

Now is the time to choose everything carefully and restore the image well.

And there was no need to cruelly explain this.

“Hmm, to be honest, I want to follow Ahyeon’s opinion, but… . If you want to speak naturally, you have to do it in passing, right? Then I don’t think it will get much attention.”

“ah… !”

“Of course, those who listen will be able to convince them, but we are perfect for more people now! I have to make an impression.”

The big Sejin passed the words skillfully. Sun Ah-hyun nodded her head firmly with an understanding face.

“Yes. Then, after all, it’s better to show it with clear actions… !”

“yes.”

however… I still don't know how to release this guy's album.

"… I can't even postpone the album at all. hmm. I have to reassure the fans."

"Hmm."

Whether the album was released or delayed, no matter which concept was chosen, risks and losses were unavoidable.

There was a brief silence between the men clutching their heads.

And Bae Se-jin clenched his fist.

"How about just ignoring everything and preparing hard? This… It's not about taking chances, it's about just trusting the way we used to."

"brother… … ."

At Bae Se-jin's words, Kim Rae-bin blinked as if he was slightly moved.

And the big Sejin also looked at the guy with melancholy eyes.

"That sounds great, but… Isn't this the way we've been doing so far? Strategize hard."

"… … uh?"

that… yes.

"Hyung, this attitude of trying to analyze the situation fiercely and respond! Wouldn't this be my best testa?"

"that… Hmm, it seems like that."

Bae Se-jin looked a bit dazed, but eventually nodded.

Persuasion was successful among people with the same name who were not compatible. It was a rare scene.

“And more and more, the industry stimulates people’s interest in more stimulating ways. Same with Haloheim this time.”

“Halo Heim?”

“It’s a group that writes love reality as its own content, and it’s number one on the music chart right now.”

“what?”

Big Sejin explained what bizarre marketing methods the mixed group used.

And he said in a firm voice to the astonished Bae Se-jin, “Why are entertainment agencies becoming more and more immoral like this?”

“Our competitor is risking his life on marketing like that.”

“… … .”

“Well, it could be that we were walking alone on a well-made single road, and then one day people recognized us and we ran in the opposite direction… It’s too precious for that. This is our environment now.”

At those serious words, some guys nodded their heads.

“I see what you mean.”

Bae Se-jin also became serious.

It was to shake my head.

“But I don’t want to promote our album that way.”

I thought we agreed, but we don’t.

Even Seon Ah-hyun opened her mouth with a somewhat firm face.

“I… me too.”

“… … .”

“I can’t help it if I have to, but… … It seems a bit strange. It feels like cheating the fans.”

“… okay.”

Sejin Keun did not insist further and skillfully took out his opinion.

“In the first place, we didn’t mean to use it that way either. Let’s consider using a somewhat bizarre and stimulating method.”

“Yes.”

“… … okay. know.”

Bae Se-jin also nodded.

Now, it might be hard to see those two fighting like dogs while shouting ‘why do you have that way of thinking?’.

That was a good thing.

‘Yeah but… .’

The purpose of the meeting remains unfulfilled.

No matter how much I proceeded, no sharp numbers came out.

I rubbed my chin.

No matter what you do, it’s either one or the other, and no matter how you release an album, you lose… … .

“… … .”

wait for a sec.

‘album?’

I felt sparks flickering in my head.

“Why did you only think of it as an album?”

“uh?”

“It doesn’t have to be an album.”

Yes.

From activities to the next regular album.

Since the cause and process of all these things are related to the active period, I naturally thought of only the album that made the active period as a countermeasure.

But in fact, it’s not just activities that Testa can show something with an album and make a comeback.

“How many large-scale contents have we made other than albums so far?”

In-house content, concert tour, and even a collaboration game.

Big Sejin snapped his fingers.

“Oh yes! We can show a new and intense stage in the content that fans watch a lot!”

“… !”

The atmosphere of the meeting changed in response.

“That’s right! If you make it well, all the fans will see it… … .”

“Ohhhhhh!”

“But isn’t it a bit more informal than an album?”

“That’s the best part.”

I grinned.

“It has nothing to do with sexuality.”

“… !!”

An indicator that attracts attention well is that you can do as strong a concept as you want without considering the music rankings or album sales.

“In the first place, it is the content that fans mainly watch. The general public doesn’t care as much.”

Maybe Testa passed by without even knowing it came out like that.

There is no reason to be disappointed that it is not an easy-listening song that the public is currently expecting, and there is nothing to compare it to Epic’s digital music rankings!

“… And, by any chance, it was good enough to become a hot topic even if it received attention from the public?”

“Yes.”

this is the correct answer

When I was able to answer all the questions, my head was spinning.

I turned my gaze to the group leader with an adrenaline rush.

Ryu Cheng-wu opened his mouth.

“What is the content closest to our schedule?”

***

After some time.

At the end of the broadcasting of the programs Testa filmed as activities, a video was uploaded to their official WeTube.

But this time no one was surprised.

[202X TeSTAR ‘HUNT or BE HUNTED’ WORLD TOUR TRAILER]

This was because the fans already knew all about it.

Testa’s tour resumes.

-The kids’ tour is starting again

. Since it’s a FMO video

– Eng Tour has a new sub too Hunt All Be Hunted?

Fans clicked on the video, puzzled by the details.

I guessed that it was released now because the schedule was pushed back.

[Hello.]

The video, as always, was gorgeous.

The previous title song < Hunt > was arranged somewhat elegantly and more intensely, and while passing by, a few props from a classic hotel passed by.

Golden doorbell ornate lobby metal key vintage telephone.

‘Is old travel a concept?’

And a close-up of the black and white upper body of the members wearing suits interspersed!

However, because the face was shaded, the face could not be seen properly.

‘… … .’

There wasn’t enough stimulation.

‘There’s nothing really new.’

The 32-second video was just a formal introduction to the tour trailer concept.

But the last 5 seconds.

It was the moment when the beautiful exterior of the hotel was illuminated and the title ‘HUNT or BE HUNTED’ popped up in line with the final melody of the arranged < Hunting >.

Suddenly, a soft color appeared in the building, and BGM arranged in a classical style began to flow.

‘… … ?’

and.

[- > Enters the hotel.]

[- > Leaves.]

‘… … !’

options popped up.

Chapter 572

If You Can't Debut, You'll Die Episode 572

– Click Now Execution (Link)

That morning, the graduate student checks the phone call sent the night before by his friend from Moondae Park's first hometown.

No, in fact, I was no longer a graduate student.

"oh!"

Because last December, she finally graduated from graduate school!

slave… No, after getting out of her graduate student status, enjoying the effect of making the world look three times more beautiful, she willingly clicked the link and realized that it was a promotional video for Testa's new tour.

'This year, I made all the reservations to go on a trip even for a few days along with the tour!'

I wondered if a friend who knew about this grand plan sent me to make my heart flutter.

However, at the end of the video, with a classic hotel building in the background, the moment a video related to both sides came to mind as an option, I was impressed with the voice.

"and!"

This is content too!

‘A game that was on the album before this? It’s the same!’

It reminded me of the interactive game that was the concept of the last album. She was pleased for a while as she recalled the image of Park Moon-dae in a phantom thief uniform.

I wondered if it was possible to move the format to Witube so that it could be enjoyed more lightly!

“hmm.”

And she confirmed the two clearly diverging options.

[- > Enters the hotel.]

[- > Leaves.]

Um… Originally, of course, you have to go inside, but the story will proceed.

The graduate student came up with an interesting idea with a clear head.

‘Shall we go see the other side?’

Enough time to check both.

Yes, I graduated from graduate school, so I had plenty of time for that now!

This is because she, who got a job at a research institute of a parent company, is enjoying a honey-like break right before being officially appointed.

Thank you, I clicked below with a generous heart.

[- > Leaving.]

And my heart was pounding.

‘Last time in that album game… Didn’t he just get caught by the jailer and get the game over?’

Because it made me imagine what would happen if I chose the wrong option.

Even the title song this time is ‘hunting’, so I was looking forward to how unconventional it would be.

And the video plays.

In the black screen, the hotel I saw earlier came to mind again, and

[Goodbye, Loveuer~]

subtitles in pastel tone came to mind.

“… ?”

I saw Testa’s heartwarming smile waving excitedly in the sky.

The half-transparent, roughly copied and synthesized thing passed like the ending of a drama at the end.

[We hope you visit again. :)]

[-Happy End-]

“… … ?”

It was a happy ending.

Anyway, it was.

The graduate student rubbed his eyes, but the video did not change.

“no.”

After staring blankly at the screen for a while, she finally burst into laughter.

What is kidnapping!

‘I guess I was overthinking it!’

I’ve never played a game like this before, so I’m reflecting that I’ve generalized it too much.

‘Hmm, this is fun too.’

She took a quick glance at the comments with a lot of ‘hahahaha’, then clicked back to check the options again.

‘Let’s go properly this time!’

[- > Go inside the hotel.]

The related video started with the effect of being sucked into the hotel according to the choices.

‘oh.’

and in silence.

Along with the sound of footsteps, a vision appeared in the video as if walking while looking at the feet.

Tumble.

midday. The view, like watching men’s shoes neatly climbing up the granite stairs from the seat next to them, climbs up and shines on the owner.

[Are you okay with motion sickness?]

It was Ryu Chung-woo.

There was a slightly worried look on his handsome face, dressed in a classic suit and with his hair down.

“Whoa.”

And the graduate students realized.

It wasn’t like the game in the last album, from the member’s point of view.

The camera view progresses from the perspective of the first-person protagonist of the person who clicked on this video!

[Let’s go in.]

It seemed that he was even married to Liu Cheng-wu.

‘Honeymoon!’

Oh no, it’s not a marriage, of course, it could be just a couple, but the clean impression and friendly attitude automatically reminded me of that kind of relationship.

“Wow crazy.”

Even former graduate students who had only moderately good feelings for Ryu Cheong-wu looked so good on the screen that they drool.

‘Is this unrehearsed? Is that it?’

Could it be that hunting meant that!

Recalling the realities of love, she nodded her head inwardly. It seemed like fun.

Some might have been worried that Testa would make a dark history in that year by blowing a comment that seemed to be overly aimed, but the graduate student, an outsider, just watched the video happily.

Upon entering the gorgeous hotel, the counter is visible beyond a very traditional lobby with chandeliers.

And even the tall employee with a cool impression behind him.

[…] Thank you for visiting Red Wonder Hotel. How can I help you?]

[Ah yes. We made a reservation.]

Kim Rae-bin checked in at the desk wearing a hotelier's uniform with red stripes.

There was a strange boyish beauty in the neatly arranged hairstyle with bangs.

'He's handsome!'

However, from this point on, it feels a little strange.

pounding.

I started hearing the sound of the clock ticking.

While the somewhat meaningful BGM flows quietly, the staff taps on the list with a pen… Close your eyes and look up.

[…] … .]

'Huh?'

It seems that the front desk staff slightly looked sideways at the 'protagonist'… ?

However, the employee who opened his mouth again was still polite.

[yes. Confirmed.]

[Do you have any other requests?]

Then, a selection of related videos will appear on both sides of Kim Rae-bin, who politely puts both hands together.

[- > A comfortable high floor, please.]

[- > A quiet outer room, please.]

Ohh. It was unusual.

After all, it must have been a thriller, not a romance. She, of course, reached out.

‘This is a high-rise!’

If you go to a quiet room, aren’t you being hunted?

Having come up with a pretty thriller movie-like guess, she clicked on the related video without hesitation… … .

[It’s already been a day.]

“… ?”

[Did you get tired well? Let’s go back now.]

You see a video of Ryu Cheng-wu smiling and looking back at himself.

As we leave the hotel door together, the sun pours in from outside.

“… ??”

[We hope you visit again. :)]

[-Happy End-]

The main character seems to have enjoyed a happy vacation in a comfortable high-rise room!

It was a happy ending.

“… ??”

And graduate students will see this scene over and over again.

Yes.

If you choose well… ‘It was a happy vacation!’ and the happy ending pops up and the video selection ends!

“… … .”

Let’s see the comments ‘Are you serious?’ A field of criticism was being held in the languages of all kinds of countries, such as ‘Force of an endless happy ending’ and ‘Cheong-Woo Ryu endured because he was handsome’.

It was the same after that.

[-Happy End-]

This structure ends by jumping over all the intermediate contents and linking to a happy ending!

Happy ending if you’re not careful!

“… … .”

The graduate student suddenly chose ‘Leave’ and went back to the absurd happy ending video he had watched.

And I read more closely the comments on the video that were full of ‘ㅋㅋㅋㅋㅋ’ that I had overlooked at first.

Ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha happy endings no matter what you do

-Only put in the ending with Chung-woo,

so you can even see Ryu Cheong-woo's face

'We have to choose dubious options… !'

And a fierce brain fight to avoid a happy ending began.

It became overinvolved.

In addition, since events where the members talked or appeared cool popped up, I had to click on the option to continue the story to see it.

"Oh really!"

If you step on the wrong choice and choose the right one, the catharsis of unpredictable rewards!

[Hello!]

Cha Yoo-jin suddenly breaks into a hotel room while climbing on a rope from the ceiling and smiles. … .

[Shall I listen?]

And the blunt but kind bellboy Park Moon-dae we meet in the elevator!

"Aaaaa!!"

[Ah.]

The former graduate student clenched his fists as he looked at Moondae Park, who glanced at him and instead reached out to press the floor and awkwardly waved his hand.

'This is a bit exciting!'

It was definitely fun to find out which video the members were in and build friendships.

At the same time, the story progressed with a long video of about 10 minutes that came out occasionally.

[Have you heard any rumors about this hotel?]

[The missing person.]

Bae Se-jin revealed that she was a reporter and talked about rumors about this old boutique hotel.

[This hotel was the last place some of the missing people stayed… That's right.]

[Not very credible.]

However, through Cha Yoo-jin, who secretly broke into the ventilation shaft in search of a missing friend, the rumor gradually takes shape.

[This is the person!]

It's because the picture of the friend Cha Yoo-jin showed was Kim Rae-bin who was standing at the front!

'Huh uh uh uh.'

For reference, the former graduate student pondered over whether or not to inform Cha Yoo-jin of that fact.

After choosing 'tell me', I watched the related video in a nervous state, and fortunately the content continued.

Cha Yoo-jin expressed her gratitude and went back through the ventilation shaft.

'after.'

But the sigh of relief did not last long.

This is because the moment I met Bae Se-jin again, I received an unexpected criticism.

[Are the staff friendly? Oh that bellboy.]

[…] … You pressed the floor you were going to instead?]

[How does the bellboy know where you are staying?]

“Hey, hey, hey!”

In the midst of such a twisted story reaching its climax.

The former graduate student runs into the ‘bell boy’ again in the elevator.

[…] Hello.]

“Whoa.”

And on both sides of Mundae Park, a bellboy wearing a white hat, options appear again.

[- > (I picked up the item from the bellboy.)]

[- > (I didn’t pick it up from the bellboy.)]

The answer to this was obvious.

‘I’ll have to do this unconditionally with kindness!’

The choice of not picking it up was a land mine for anyone to see! Doesn’t it come out a lot in dramas too!

However, there was a tee in the jade.

‘A choice like whether or not to pick up things for the bellboy… Did I choose?’

It seemed that it was not.

In fact, there might have been a video containing such an event, but none of the related videos that came as an option she had chosen.

That's why even in the psychological test, if you move the cell with an arrow along the choice, it's like the algorithm is twisted like this.

'no… Still, if something like that came out, I would have listened to it unconditionally!'

The graduate student could not overcome the desire to see the next content right away and eventually rationalized it himself.

And clicked.

[- > (I picked up something from the bellboy.)]

At that moment.

In the dark elevator, where the bellboy should have been, another person turned his head.

It was Seon Ah-hyun who was smiling.

"… ?"

The beautiful face slowly closed up.

[You never picked it up.]

Kung.

The screen crackles and he falls to the floor of the elevator.

and fade out.

"… … !"

It was the first game over.

The former graduate student closed his mouth and stared at the screen for a while.

It was more shocking because I was used to light happy endings that are repeated to piss people off.

She admired in the taste of meta fear, and barely pressed to go back.

And this time, I honestly clicked ‘I didn’t pick it up’.

‘Wow Mr.’

I was so engrossed in it that it made me sweat cold down my spine.

Chirik.

The associated video that was clicked on immediately played.

That moment… … .

[It’s already been a day.]

[Did you recover from fatigue? Let’s go back now.]

The happy ending Ryu Chung-woo came out again.

“evil!”

The graduate student hit his head.

‘Where did I pick the wrong one!’

She was about to think that she would have to accept that both options were bad and ask her friend for a strategy.

And it was when I was looking at the handsome Ryu Cheng-wu face.

[Ah.]

Liu Cheng-wu stopped walking.

“… … ?”

Originally, this repeated ‘happy ending’ should end with him leaving the hotel… The lobby door did not open.

Instead, Ryu Cheng-wu took something out of his arms and held it.

[Come to think of it… There is something the staff asked me to deliver to you.]

[This.]

Ryu Cheng-wu held out a thin rectangular piece of paper engraved with fancy gold leaf.

that… It was a ticket.

[‘Thank you for your honest answer’… Radha.]

Kung.

thud.

A close-up of the ticket accompanied by the sound of the accompaniment.

And the graduate students noticed.

The shape of the ticket was somehow familiar.

What you have already seen in real life.

‘Crazy.’

It was Testa’s ticket for this tour.

Chapter 573

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 573.

Concert tickets.

As if being sucked in, the former graduate student saw the ticket Liu Cheng-wu held out to him on the screen.

A gilded invitation card with punching holes.

From the first time I saw the ticket, I thought it was a somewhat vintage concept design.

It was, but it was natural because it was in a video that was just right for the era. At the same time, the impact of the objects of reality suddenly protruding is mixed, leaving a profound impression.

As the ticket came closer and closer on the screen, the meaningful atmosphere grew even more… .

The video is over.

'uh?'

The former graduate student blinked and looked at the blackened screen with only one replay mark floating on it.

Is this the end?

somewhere… … It was an empty feeling.

'Sure, it was fun… … .'

Unexplained and unexplained things that seem to have been cut off in the middle remain uncomfortable.

‘Eh, maybe it’s just me.’

She clicked on the comment.

And saw.

-Wow, if you turn this around… … .

Ahh.

Without reading further, she immediately closed the comment window.

That was definitely a hint.

‘Look what else!’

My heart thumped.

She started watching the video carefully from the beginning by clicking the ‘Replay’ mark on the video.

The scene where Liu Cheng-wu talks to himself and goes to the lobby door.

‘It’s the same up to this point.’

In the beginning, there was nothing unusual about it.

She began to look at the screen more closely when Liu Cheng-yu stopped walking and started talking to her.

[Come to think of it… There is an item that the staff asked you to deliver.]

And I found it.

‘uh… ?’

[Z9nIgQhLdw]

Clearly visible letters were printed in the serial number column of the close-up ticket.

widely.

She reflexively paused the screen and looked at the letter.

And while trying to write it down… An idea that suddenly crossed my mind clicked ‘View More’ in the video.

“… !”

The code was also attached to the video description. for easy copying.

‘also!’

This is it.

Convinced, she wondered where she could use the code.

It wasn’t like computer language or error codes.

then… If the code is related to the video.

The former graduate student looked at the screen and realized the moment he saw the top.

‘It’s the address!’

Isn’t it also attached to the address bar of this video you’re watching now? Random characters similar to code behind the slash bar!

She thumped and erased the letters, pasting the code she found into the address bar instead.

[https://wetu.be/Z9nIgQhLdw]

I pressed enter in the address bar I entered.

widely.

page is linked.

“and!”

found!

The thrill of winning a prize after solving a difficult quiz made me clench my fists.

And a new video is moving.

[HUNTING CIRCUS]

The tour tickets seen in the previous video appeared on the screen.

However, it soon disappeared from sight, as if the object he was holding in his hand was lowered. And the scenery that the ticket had covered was revealed.

Just a rollercoaster.

It was a sight as if the ‘protagonist’ was riding in the first car.

“oh?”

The screen that had been illuminating the nose of the red roller coaster moved as if it raised its head, and a dark tent with swirling scarlet stripes was seen in front of it.

‘Circus tent!’

At that moment, the roller coaster starts!

“oh!”

When the tent in front of you opens and the roller coaster seems to be sucked into it… .

It is a different world.

-Welcome.

Inside a giant circus tent.

Greeting on the dark stage is Kim Rae-bin dressed in a classic suit. Spotlights shining around it staggered.

In the background, light bulbs twinkled above the simple structure made of colored cloth and steel frames.

And Rabin Kim, who was in the spotlight against the backdrop of a bursting flower spray, seemed to greet him politely… .

Hands reached out from the darkness behind him with a chin grabbing motion.

The tickling accordion sound.

And the hands move like a spider-like graceful gesture.

-The tables have turned

Today, you are a sheep.

Gestures of fingers pointing at others as a group over the camera.

Guns popped out from the sides of the roller coaster and shot the screen.

"… !"

As if teasing, instead of bullets, confetti firecrackers exploded and sparkled in the light.

-Jump farther, go ahead.

It’s fun. Do somersaults. As the slightly creepy forged brass sounds, it moves like a roller coaster running away and goes halfway around the stage.

Then, in line with that, Testa’s formation changed direction as if chasing a roller coaster.

“omg.”

In front of Testa, who stood diagonally, Ryu Cheng-wu turned and sat down with a chin gesture.

-(Run Run!)

Go around the circle under the stage and go back to the place Come on.

It was a completely different composition from the previous < Hunt > song.

‘omg.’

Not only the arrangement but also the choreography has changed.

Originally, < Hunt > was a wild song with a more weighty, somewhat bloody group dance.

But now it feels more playful and mischievous.

-Show must go on

You can’t go out like me You did just enjoy it

More rhythmic full body movements.

The choreography that unfolded as if bouncing from the tips of center Yoojin Cha's limbs, which came out with a grin, reached right in front of the roller coaster and moved the sight with her fingertips.

< Hunt >, which was more colorful and classically arranged, rang in the ears.

And the splendid choreography, which was just as tedious as the arrangement, fit right in and caught the eye.

-Enjoy just

"Ha… … ."

It was clear that it was made by boldly but delicately controlling all the elements of the original song.

It was so intense and good.

So the viewer will naturally realize it.

'This is a real tour promotion video!'

However, Testa did not openly display this stage, which seemed to have poured money and time into it. rather hidden.

– Night of reversal,

hunting time (Yea-h)

If you leave the hotel satisfied with the happy ending, you won't be able to see it.

Only those who stayed with Testa until the end, worried and experienced it, could reach it on their own.

The thrilling stage video given like a reward at the end.

Maximize your sense of accomplishment.

-Call up it’s hunting season

“Uh… .”

refrain. With Seon Ah-hyun as the center, the colorful and technically circus-like choreography unfolded as if following the movement of the camera.

pop.

Firecrackers and lights explode and the roller coaster stops again in front of the stage.

The lights turned on brighter.

-Wooo!

The finale drives as if to match it.

The final dance break filled the screen with full shots in line with the arrangement that became faster like an acrobatics.

The movement of the hand wrapped in a white glove and the black shoes strongly fills the outside of the camera.

The performance, which ran towards its climax in line with such an explosive drum and brass instrument solo, ended with an intense close-up.

Following the heart-pumping drum rolls of the final accompaniment, Testa greeted each other politely with a time difference.

And finally, the spotlight went out the moment center Lee Se-jin said hello.

BAMMM!

It was an ending.

“Whoa!”

The former graduate student hurriedly corrected his posture after realizing that he was obsessively looking at the screen in the perfect position to become a turtle neck.

‘It was so good… … .’

But the video isn’t over yet.

[…] … .]

The first-person point of view of the video is to look down at the front of the roller coaster again on a stage where the lights are off.

It was as quiet as a dead mouse.

But soon the engine turned on with a vibration-like vibration.

‘oh.’

And when the camera confirms that the engine is returning to the roller coaster, it turns its attention back to the stage.

[It will be more fun this time.]

Seon Ah-hyun, whom I met in the elevator, was looking at me with a smile.

“… !”

On the silent screen with small subtitles and mouths, Sun Ah-hyun stretches out her hand and pulls out the camera.

‘uh?’

And the moment I suddenly let go of the camera.

Wheein-!

The roller coaster runs in reverse and goes out of the tent with a thump.

And again, the lights come on from the closed circus tent, and finally a huge caption floats above it.

[Prologue : Welcome to the hunt house]

“… … .”

< Hunting >, arranged like BGM on an accordion, flows and the letters rise. It was the ending credits.

The former graduate student realized.

This was not a hidden hidden ending.

This is the final destination of that complicated choice.

and one more.

‘It must have been a prologue.’

That all of this is a background explanation in the introduction to the preface.

And perhaps this chapter begins right where you go with that invitation.

A concert hall!

* * *

[Is Testa crazy?]

I clicked on the article without any anger.

————————==

They already sold all the tickets for the concert

. ————————==

Even the ‘I agree’ comments that run under it.

I nodded.

oh.

‘I must have enjoyed it so much.’

Yes.

Testa’s promo video for the tour served its purpose.

It’s just fans’ interest and… It is an introductory certification.

-Who says Testa goes easily?

-The choreography is crazy, it’s a waste to only use this for a concert

. I watched it with draft beer.

‘I thought it was neat.’

The intense performance that can be seen with the eyes came out, and the number of comments increased like a fire.

Ah, the desperate attempt to change the atmosphere did not work as expected.

-Isn’t this just planned last year? It’ll be clear when you see the next album… Hmm

ㄴTo a madman idol who revises all the titles to match the concert concept and even puts on a new choreography, this is what you say

‘You’ve worked hard.’

And in fact, these reactions under the water are just for flow reference… I was satisfied with the fans' reaction that I could see with my own eyes.

There was an exhilarating sense of accomplishment to meet expectations.

'good.'

But the funny thing is that it didn't end here.

-Has anyone tried this? Hahahaha

Non-fans started to try it.

Even though this was content that was thoroughly targeted at the existing fan base.

In fact, it was not for the purpose of selling more tickets, but as an excuse to pour out the contents, so we did not sell additional concert tickets.

To be honest, I didn't expect it to have such an impact.

'I hid the performance video so far.'

This is because only those who have the will to actively dig out content can enjoy it properly.

It's not an official music video, so I didn't have to worry about the number of views, so I was able to choose it.

however… It seems to have subtly stimulated people's appetite.

'This… Should I say it's the emotion of standing in line at a restaurant that's hard to get to?'

I mean the challenge.

-Ah, you shouldn't click on the promo video in advance…

-If you don’t look at Testa FMO, it will come out when you click it, so please just do it the first time -Please tell me the option to get close to this room service fox, Sejin Lee

There were also factors.

‘It’s not paid.’

As accessibility has improved, unlike the days of ‘Roll the Dice’ where you had to buy an album to play legally, it seemed that really bored people clicked on it easily.

The fact that it is a short YouTube video link seems to have played a part in lowering the psychological barrier.

so… … I mean.

– When is the ticketing for the Testa concert?

-You can only see the behind the scenes at concerts? ㅠㅠ

… Surprisingly, there is a real demand for additional!

“Here we… How about scheduling more concerts?”

Even Seon Ah-hyun could feel it and say this.

Of course, it is not possible to increase the number of times unconditionally, as the schedule may get messed up while excitedly scheduling additional performances. … .

‘I think I can meet the demand in other ways.’

I quickly came up with some plans.

However, there was still work to be done before realizing this plan.

Because Testa had an existing schedule.

“Moondae, you know we have a joint concert in Singapore next week.”

“Ah yes.”

“Would you like to do < Hunting > in a newly arranged version?”

A KPOP overseas group concert on airwaves was right in front of me. Since I’ve already taken that route, I thought I should appear at least once, so I said okay.

They said it was to commemorate the 50th anniversary of exchanges with that station, but actually, that’s not important.

Well, as long as we do well… .

“I think it will be fine though.”

The new mixed group appeared in this joint concert.

halo heim.

A new group made from members of < Be My Girls >, who originally belonged to this agency.

and… Younglindo, who produced the group.

So, a few days later, Testa met the group and the person concerned for the first time.

Chapter 574

Episode 574 Testa

‘s next schedule is a joint concert in Singapore.

This was a typical Hantang event hosted by a broadcasting station attracting various singers.

And in such a joint concert, the singer’s current position is exposed in the open, depending on how the performer is treated.

From the size of the waiting room to the order of the stages, it is no different from a melee where you can watch the agencies fighting for rank with ‘how convenient they are’.

Especially the ending!

A place to go further and certify who the best and most powerful singer is and who the agency that owns that singer is!

‘… There are a lot of people in the industry who think that.’

Thanks to this, when more than one first team appears, the story comes out from the recruitment stage to who will do the ending.

And it’s funny, but it’s still like that.

– Is it Testa or Youngrin?

Both of them were last year’s target singers. They are even sharing awards at awards ceremonies in the present progressive form.

It seems like there should be an exciting dogfight to see who will stand the ending… .

“Yeah, it’s okay if we don’t have an ending~ Ey, don’t worry about it!”

I’m sorry for Cyber Rekka, but we and Youngrin aren’t very interested in things like that.

‘When I was a member of T1, I got a few endings at their concerts, and that’s it.’

Usually, when VTIC is added here, VTIC, which is the golden balance of both annual leave and popularity, has always taken it.

‘now… I think the ending will go to Youngrin rather than Testa in order of seniority.’

A young ending? Rather good. Even if Testa had an ending here, there could be a useless fight online, but what?

The number of episodes rather than the ending was the true indicator of popularity.

And that indicator has already been taken care of.

“Testa goes on air for all 3 stages.”

“Oh~ Yep!”

And it is a lineup of 3 songs leading to < Hunt >. You are strong.

For reference, the hunt was carried out in the original version, and only the last climax part was changed to a circus version for concerts, and it was agreed to use the stage equipment.

“It’s also a great way to get both a concert promotion and a strong impression at once!”

“that’s right! I like this choreography!”

“Yeah, but Yujin and Ahyeon, let’s be careful when backflips at the end.”

“yes… !”

It was the timing that had just finished rehearsal so smoothly and intensely.

An urgent message was delivered.

“They say we are the ending.”

“… ??”

[Perf.#18 / Testa (7)]

At the very bottom of the hot new cue sheet. The name of the singer who was even circled… It was Testa, not Youngrin.

“… … .”

A fundamental question arose.

“why?”

Of course, rather than Youngrin, the mass powerhouse who eats up the music charts, we, who are the center of the fandom, will be eaten overseas, but we can’t ignore the yearly difference.

‘Why are you scooping and feeding us when we didn’t say a word?’

In case you didn’t know, even the fake news that Testa was a hit abroad to the extent that the airwaves moved their heavy hips spread on WeTube.

Of course, nothing crazy happened.

It was the result of all calculations.

After receiving the cue sheet from Ryu Cheng-wu and carefully examining it, Se-jin shrugged.

“Ah~ The people of Halo Heim are doing three songs.”

“hmm… ?”

Yes.

A total of three songs, including two stages with their own songs and one stage covering the song of Youngrin’s group ‘Saint U’.

‘I received almost the same as Testa.’

The rookie mixed group had won an enormous amount of airwaves broadcasting more than their name value.

Of course, they didn’t pick it up themselves.

‘The management company gnawed at me and gave it to the rookie.’

Of course, it was also a place that quickly rose thanks to Youngrin’s group, so it wasn’t traditionally a friendly agency with a broadcasting station.

So, I think I noticed a little bit here and there while doing it… As a result.

“… Did you give this an ending just in case we protested?”

Bae Se-jin’s words are probably the correct answer.

The situation where Youngrin gave up her benefits for a rookie from the same agency and gave way to Testa.

“Mmm.”

There was a brief moment of silence.

“Should I decline? ?”

“It’s not like that.”

It was strange that he dared to kick the semi-ending.

Rather, it could lead to a bigger misunderstanding than if the ending was just done, so it was right to go as it is.

‘I can’t even fucking say why the amount of Halo Heim is the same as ours.’

I finished my calculations quickly and coolly.

“I think it would be nice to just work hard on what you’ve been given. How are you all?”

Everyone agreed, and the specifics were sorted out in an instant.

However, even after the members split up, Sejin stayed in his seat looking at the cue sheet for a while.

“What are you doing?”

“… Ah, Moondaemundae~”

The guy looked at the cue sheet with a strange expression and crossed his arms.

“It’s nothing… Well, that’s what I think.”

“What are you thinking?”

“I was wondering if Youngrin sunbae-nim had completely lost his mind as a producer.”

hmm?

“No, the circumstances… Sounds like a judgment you made as a producer of that rookie group rather than as a singer, right?”

that… That was right.

Besides, Youngrin was a director of the agency.

After the group they belonged to went backwards through direct cams, they almost fed the company, so not only their names are directors, but also their right to speak in the company will be firm.

So this… .

‘Does this mean that you willingly gave up the opportunity to a rookie group?’

I also look at the cue sheet with a mysterious feeling. That’s why the guy standing next to me wants to be appalled.

I caught a glimpse of Big Sejin.

He’s a guy who only looked at idols and changed himself, so it’s hard to see a senior who’s already successful ‘give in’ on his own.

“You don’t like it.”

“well… Hey, everyone lives differently!”

Big Sejin passed it gently as always.

‘I don’t deny it.’

Well, there was no need to say more.

“I know what. Oh, I just had something to give you feedback on the last movement on the < Hunting > stage.”

“Oh~ what is it?”

Let’s pay attention to our stage, our concert, and the fuck.

The short speculation ended like that.

However, I soon get an opportunity to prove Kisejin’s ‘guess’ unintentionally.

“… Hello, Senior Youngrin.”

Right behind this concert hall building.

* * *

Actually, my destination was not here.

It was just a break, so I was passing by thinking of using the vending machine outside the first floor.

However, they met eyes with Youngrin, who was standing in the backyard outside the building, and said hello.

‘It’s strange that I don’t say hello.’

But I didn’t know Youngrin would be standing here.

Among the cast members who smoked, there were cases of smoking e-cigarettes indoors, saying that they would get caught with drone shots if they smoked outside.

There was no reason for anyone to stand in this unremarkable backyard.

‘If I had to choose… .’

Looking at Youngrin’s expression, it seems that ‘I want to get some fresh air’ is the right expression.

However, Youngrin quickly erased the slightly disturbed expression.

“Ah, Mr. Mundae. long time no see. Nice to meet you.”

“yes. thank you.”

The moment I nodded my head, convincing candidates came to mind as to why this person should be disturbed… .

“… … .”

done.

I decided to stop thinking about meaningless things and just say good things quickly and tear up.

Let’s see, something worth taking out as a compliment recently… … .

“The song that the senior gave to the juniors at the agency was very good. I’m waiting with more anticipation for your new album.”

it will be fine

Youngrin immediately returned an acceptable answer.

“thank you.”

But the next words had some impact.

“hmm… However, there are no plans to release a new album this year yet, so please wait patiently.”

“… … .”

You’re not releasing an album?

It was a nuance that didn’t even have a plan at all.

‘Are you really going all-in as a producer?’

I guess this is a big guess, but let’s quickly pass it on so that it doesn’t get awkward.

“Sorry. There are so many people waiting for your stage… So do I.”

“is that so.”

“… yes.”

However, it was inevitable that this person's stage would come to mind the moment he answered.

On that rainy day when I was filming the stage fancam of the unknown 'Saint U' Youngrin.

And even the same gesture that Youngrin showed through the viewfinder when he briefly returned to Gunwoo Ryu's body.

An idol who remembers himself in his early days.

A stage shown by a person who does not give up and does not change.

"… … ."

… Somehow, my mouth is a bit bitter.

But it was soon erased. It's not the time for me to fuck like this.

"Then, until then, I will support the juniors who are being produced by the seniors."

This was enough for the role of a friendly junior. I was going to wake up here with a rough 'goodbye'.

Even if it wasn't for Youngrin's next answer.

"thank you. Oh, come to think of it, among the Halo Heim members, there were children who were originally in the same agency as the testers."

"… … ."

hmm.

"yes. I remember it being like that."

I wanted to get some information about this, so when I responded, Youngrin muttered.

“I needed a stronger impression to complement my existing image, so I debuted in a unique way… I am fortunate to be on stage more now. It’s because they are so good at performing.”

I read two nuances in those words.

First of all, it seemed right that Youngrin arbitrarily gave up the ending and gave the stage to her juniors.

but.

“That reality program wasn’t produced by you.”

“… … .”

Younglin smiled faintly.

“I have a responsibility.”

It means to condone it. because.

“All practice is meaningless if there is no one watching the stage.”

Still, I thought it was an effective promotion.

To make even one person watch the stage of ‘Halo Heim’ with more interest.

“… … .”

To me who kept my mouth shut, Youngrin added as if it were a bit of a joke.

“And there are already seniors who went through a similar process but eventually succeeded on stage.”

“yes?”

And I realized who those ‘seniors’ were by Youngrin’s expression.

“Is it us?”

That’s Testa.

And I also noticed what Youngrin was saying.

Idol Inc.

“yes. At the time, there were few programs as stimulating as < Azusa >.”

However, there are aspiring idols who made their name known through the program and gained the power and opportunity to succeed.

Youngrin, who even participated in the program as the main MC, declared calmly.

“Of course, this is more radical and more provocative than that. I also feel that promotions are gradually flowing in a direction unrelated to the stage.”

“… … .”

“But there are still people who need that opportunity.”

I calmly recalculated.

A survival group that ended in a manipulation controversy.

Even if we had released them from the agency contract, most places probably wouldn’t have properly invested in those trainees who had already been labeled and made them debut.

After 12 years of depriving the remaining fans of their honeydew as much as possible, they must have quietly disappeared.

However, Youngrin’s agency did the right investment, even in a crazy way called a love reality within the group.

So you have an escape route to a more successful future… It can be seen as

“… … .”

No matter how hard it is, destroying the mentality and image of the kids who want to perform with a non-X love program… .

“You must be in a bad mood.”

“no.”

It could have been X. I quickly checked my facial muscles.

It was fine. It’s probably because the answer didn’t come out quickly.

But Youngrin was calm.

“no. It’s understandable to feel bad. That’s a good thing. There should be more of them.”

I’m glad you know.

“Still, I want to support the stage in any way. I know what it feels like to be desperate for that opportunity.”

An idol who went through a fairly long period of unknown and came up by holding on to the slim opportunity of direct camming said.

“I think that’s why I started producing.”

“… … .”

“That’s why this year, I took on producing before my album.”

I asked casually.

“Are you more satisfied than singer activities?”

“Not really. But you won’t know for sure until you try more.”

“… … .”

“I am happy because I am an idol singer. but… .”

Young-rin smiled faintly and finished his speech.

“The moment when I can give a choice even to me who is not an idol will come to Moondae.”

* * *

“Are you dumb?”

“uh.”

I got up.

‘It’s a dog dream.’

It seems that the conversation I had with Youngrin at the last joint concert has passed.

It wasn’t much of a conversation, but it left an afterimage in my head like this.

‘Why was it so meaningful to hear that I was doing well as a full-time producer instead of being an idol?’

It wasn’t a very good dream to have before an idol concert. I shrugged and got up from my seat.

“Did Moondae hyung sleep?”

“for a moment.”

I checked my neck. No problem.

Looking at the clock, I realized that I had been dozing for about 3 minutes.

‘good.’

Condition was great. Of course it had to be.

“Let’s even tidy up our hair and go right in.”

“yep!”

Because today is the first day of the renewed concert.

‘The rehearsal was also neat.’

In particular, this concert will show a proper performance as much effort has been put into the promotion.

‘Unconditionally.’

I swallowed with an adrenaline rush in my head.

And when I tried to move my feet… .

“Wait.”

I picked up the smartphone that caught my eye, thought for a while, and left a message.

– The concert starts soon.

It was for the big moon.

After completely getting out of the system, I contacted him occasionally, but not to the level of popping up when I was bored like before.

Still, on such an important day, we exchanged text messages or phone calls. Even when the promotional video came out, I got a call saying that I watched it well.

but.

‘… There was no word about coming to this concert.’

The guy who was taking care of all the testa schedules seemed a bit dull.

It was a good thing.

I thought it would be better for this guy to spend some time on his own, so I decided to send the ticket later.

I put down my smartphone. Thinking that I won’t be able to look into it until the show is over.

That was the moment.

Jiying-

“… ?”

A phone call came from the big moon.

‘Is it cheering?’

I picked up the phone with a smile as I recalled the guy’s behavior.

But what I heard was a gasping voice.

… unfamiliar.

-teacher teacher! This is Incheon Ganghwa Fire Station.

“… … .”

-Excuse me, do you know the owner of this phone? Mr. Ryu Gun-woo!

“yes.”

-How are you related?

I thought it was highly likely to be voice phishing.

However, the number stamped on the phone was a regular cell phone number.

“… … .”

A strange premonition rolled my brain.

“Brother. But why… ?”

I deliberately spilled words so that they could be mistaken for family. Then came an urgent reply.

– Sir, listen calmly. Now my brother is missing here in the mountains.

“… … .”

what?

I looked at my watch.

“now… … He must be on duty.”

-no. You’ve been absent from work, so we’ve been reported to you and we’re currently searching.

“… … .”

– Or some other destination… … . … teacher teacher?

It was an hour before the concert started.

Chapter 575

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 575

The big moon has disappeared.

Ryu Gun-woo is missing… The phone calls

– Sir! Stay calm. You need to be calm so we can talk.

A voice over the smartphone rang in my head. tell me to stay calm

As always with bad news.

"yes."

– You didn't know about the fact that you were absent.

"yes."

– When was the last time you contacted your brother?

I reflexively recalled.

The last contact with the big moon.

After the joint concert in Singapore where Testa appeared was aired, I got a call from him saying that I had a good time.

– The ending was really cool.

It was a greeting saying that he had seen me appearing in the ending and that he was doing well.

that… … .

“Three days ago.”

There is a bit of urgency in the voice over the smartphone.

-Your younger brother wants to go to a specific place differently than usual, he wants to see the sun… Didn’t you mention something like this?

“… … .”

There was no

just… When asked about the current situation of Testa Park Moon-dae, he only replied that he was doing well.

– Of course I’m doing well.

That was it.

The guy didn’t say anything about himself. not even one.

Same as X.

“… no.”

A short silence settled deep.

The voice that seemed to soothe the other person but suppressed the nervous irritation came from the other side of the phone again.

-… The teacher’s younger brother has been absent from work for five days already.

five days.

-We found the smartphone by tracking the cell phone location today. And I heard a sighting that he went to the mountain yesterday, so I’m looking for him.

-It’s a little past the stage where you think there’s anything special about a grown man.

“… … .”

-Teacher, you said that you contacted your younger brother three days ago, right? That’s what I contacted during absenteeism.

He said he was already absent from work then.

this winter… He said he went into the mountain alone.

why.

-Sir, you are the only person who has a contact record from that time.

“… … .”

– You have to think calmly now. As the night progresses, the temperature drops, making it difficult to search. The last sighting is also a day later, so finding it quickly is the best way now.

I had to figure out what the hell he was going to and where he was headed.

‘… … now.’

I looked up.

I saw a huge electronic wall clock marked with red LED lights on a black background.

[17:04]

5:04 PM.

It is the time right before the winter sun sets in early February when the cold wave hits.

and… … .

56 minutes before the start of the Testa concert.

Tick.

It gets smaller.

-Now, the only family member stored in this phone is the teacher.

-The mountain was not specified. The search is faster when you narrow down the scope of where Mr. Ryu Gun-woo was trying to go at the time.

Tick.

therefore… 56 minutes left until the concert, no, now I have to say something within 55 minutes.

– Or is there anyone else who gets along like family? Who did you meet recently?

Tick.

“As far as I know, no.”

Keundal has no direct biological family. As Park Moon-dae and Ryu Gun-woo, he was not very interested in building friendships with other people because he had been in the system for a long time.

So, I am the closest.

Yeah, if I had to find a hint from what he said, or someone to guess his mindset, I’d be the only one.

I had to look for hints.

-then… Teacher, first of all, just say anything that comes to mind during the conversation that day.

but.

Tick.

“You seem calmer than before.”

-And what?

does not exist.

this… It was over.

I haven’t heard a word about the mountain from him.

“… … .”

‘Why don’t you know anything?’

why?

It’s not too late this time

I didn’t check for missed calls that were over after a few hours. If you seem to have answered the phone on time, but answering it doesn’t change anything… … .

‘no.’

The smartphone hit the chin.

I realized that my hands were shaking.

‘X feet.’

My brain just couldn’t turn.

I’m trying to roll my head to find clues about what Keundal thought and where he was heading, but he doesn’t listen at the moment when it should roll the best than ever.

You’re good at fucking things like this.

‘hey.’

There’s no time.

Still didn’t move.

The sound of my heart beating hits my head.

Brain efficiency has hit rock bottom. Didn’t move.

Tick.

But time doesn’t wait.

therefore… What if I’m late again?

What if my brain starts thinking after the concert has already started?

Tick.

Can you make time to contact me during the show? no, there is no room for that During the 5 minutes of changing clothes, replenishing water, and putting on an oxygen mask, there is no way a phone call can be made normally. There is not even a moment to hold onto the phone during such a tight time.

then… I

tick

I

– teacher? calm down.

“Hueup.”

I took a short breath.

– Now, breathe out. Listen. We can still search at night, so don’t be too pessimistic… .

-This is the 119th Mountain Rescue Team of the Incheon Ganghwa Fire Station. If you search for the address, it will appear right away, so you can continue the conversation as you come. Calmly, calmly.

“… … .”

The rescuers explain the way to come as if it were natural.

The premise was that I was so distracted that I forgot to ask for the address.

The moment I heard it, I would immediately jump out, grab a taxi, and go to the place where the search operation was conducted… reasonable expectation.

but.

‘I am… .’

I have to do a concert.

Testa poured ideas and investment into this tour like a regular album. Maybe it’s a risky time that might separate the team’s downtrend and uptrend.

And this was the first performance that would determine the impression of the entire tour.

When I went out of this waiting room right away, there were people sitting in the audience seats. People looking forward to the show are packed out there ready for today.

In addition, this concert adopted a story that organically connects each member’s stage by emphasizing the character of each member.

But if I fall

What is the stage for my solo song? what about large? How the hell do I handle my part? Who will fill that void? I wasn't even prepared for anything.

The perfection of the performance will be smashed.

The rating of the tour is ruined.

And the fans' reputation for Testa.

-Wow, I'm still going to have a concert even if my bones go out .

So, if I had at least three days, or at least one day… .

I looked down and looked at my hand.

The tightly clenched knuckles were white.

There was no cold sweat.

I opened my mouth.

"I am… I am at work."

-yes?

The response was that it was absurd.

Two who are convinced that they heard it wrong.

I guess so. My family is missing, but who is saying that it is hard to talk because I am at work?

who… I couldn't get that phone call, so every year on that day, I would feel like X and come to my dreams every day.

I.

I… just like that

“… … .”

Suddenly, the sense of reality returned.

I am now… Am I worrying about how much I reached my goal while receiving a phone call saying that a family member might have died?

this now… what?

“It’s Moondae… !”

I am… But if you think rationally.

“Park Moondae!”

“… !”

He lifted his head into the hand holding his shoulders.

It was Seon Ah-hyun.

Strangely, I reflexively felt that the place he was holding was hot, but then I realized that I was bluish-blue as if I had lost blood.

In this state, I could not have turned my head.

“… … .”

Seon Ah-hyun seemed to be thoroughly examining my complexion, but soon let go of her hand.

But a firm voice was heard.

“I think I am sick.”

“what?”

The surroundings were noisy.

Only then did I manage to turn my attention away from my smartphone.

Now was the time to go out to wait. However, when I was stuck here and on the phone, it seemed that the people who were watching came pouring in.

And my eyes are focused on the smartphone in my hand.

“Who is calling?”

I had no answer to Seon Ah-hyun’s question.

It was because a trembling voice was already coming out of the smartphone.

-… yes. Then, I know that the family is busy, and we will continue the search.

“… search?”

The atmosphere changed once more at the unusual word.

“I’m sorry, but who are you looking for?”

-yes?

I took my smartphone and looked at the guys who started chatting among themselves.

members of this group.

Looking at those faces ahead of the concert, my breath and head finally started to sink.

“… … .”

After breaking through the panic, an obvious answer emerged in my head.

It was obvious.

‘There’s nothing I can do anyway.’

My brain didn’t even work properly because of the trauma. Even if I helped the search in this state, there was no way I would be of any help in finding Ryu Kun-woo.

But if I don’t do a concert, it’s definitely X.

So, isn’t the answer already out there?

“… yes. thank you.”

The members who had just finished talking on their own took their faces away from my smartphone. Judging by the hardened face, it seemed that he had heard all the explanations.

“… … .”

I looked up.

Concert 38 minutes… No, it was 37 minutes ago.

Now it’s time to really hang up and get ready or the opening will be disrupted.

‘Hang up the phone and get ready.’

I had to say that.

But, damn it, my mouth didn’t come off.

‘do it.’

If I don’t do it, shouldn’t these guys have to say that? You can’t pass it on to your kids.

I bit my tongue and barely opened my mouth again.

“… therefore.”

It was before he even finished his words.

Ryu Cheng-wu spoke first.

“Go to Mundae.”

“… !”

“If you take a call taxi, you will be there in two hours. Talk quietly and uninterrupted as you go.”

The talk of spending half of the time for the concert on the move came out of my mouth casually.

I tried to refute whether

“that” made sense.

“No, I won’t listen to your judgment, so do as I say.”

“… … .”

“Understand? Go and do all you can.”

I asked like an idiot.

“A concert.”

“We will.”

“no… .”

Liu Chengyu looked at me and stood me up.

And he held out his smartphone, which was still connected.

“Don’t ask. I have no intention of persuading you.”

“… … .”

“Don’t waste time, go now.”

I held the smartphone he held out in my hand.

No response came out.

‘no.’

I turned my gaze to the faces of the other members.

It was because I thought that a guy like Keun Se-jin or Cha Yu-jin would definitely give a rational refutation.

Even if I couldn’t do it, I thought it would show on my face. Then I thought it would help me open my mouth.

“… … .”

But no one stopped.

In quiet cooperation, I moved.

“Quickly, please.”

In an instant, I boarded the inside of the call taxi.

“Don’t worry about anything else.”

The door closed at the end of Sun Ah-hyun’s words.

widely.

So I sat in the back seat of an unfamiliar car and started moving.

“… … .”

The singer left the venue 30 minutes before the concert.

It was so crazy that it didn't even feel real.

So I should have been more anxious. with my own hands… Because it is certain that the first day of the concert, where the future of the group depends, has been set up.

The audience… Because it is clear that you will be disappointed.

"… … ."

My hands trembled.

But you know what's funny? It's that I'm no longer in a dog-like panic.

Blood began to circulate in my brain like a lie.

'X feet.'

Because it's already too late to go back to the concert.

There was no more room for worry. I was able to pour all my nerves into the comfort of the big moon.

I might not be late this time.

When I thought so, it was funny that even in this extreme nervousness, my head began to spin.

"under."

Even though the situation was like this, my brain, which accepted the return of a little peace with sweetness, was absurd. I laughed at my brain and closed my eyes.

Then, I called the rescuer who had called earlier and asked for a detailed explanation of the situation again.

Think again.

A place for the big moon to go.

About the whereabouts of the last few days.

He had been absent from work for five days without notice.

After all, it seems that the report came in at work this morning. The disappearance of an adult male is not well accepted, but since he is a civil servant, it would have been easier.

And the result of tracking the guy's smartphone. It was found at a supermarket in Ganghwa Island.

It is said that Ryu Gun-woo left the story of 'I'm on my way to the mountain' at a supermarket in Ganghwa Island yesterday and the trace was cut off.

'The search is slow because we don't know which mountain it is… That's it.'

There were many mountains worth climbing in Ganghwa Island.

If you were in the mountains for two days in winter, you had to find it quickly. A verb could also have appeared.

… However, I know that the rescuers also worried about other nuances.

If you went up a winter mountain in this weather and suddenly left your smartphone without notice… .

Kind of like that he might not have thought of descending in the first place.

'no.'

I grabbed my smartphone with both hands.

… wouldn't have been

He had no reason to do that. This guy went on a trip to Sokcho to find out what he wanted to do… .

But at that moment, his recent contacts suddenly popped into my head.

-thank you.

– Sure, you'll be fine.

"… … ."

Could it be that his calmness stemmed from depression?

I couldn't tell. I haven't been able to have that deep conversation lately.

but.

'If you start to be swayed by this logic, it's over.'

It's an idea that doesn't help anything in the reasoning that wants him to survive.

I gritted my teeth and cut out the thought.

And back to keywords.

guy's purpose.

'Why is it a mountain in Ganghwa Island?'

If it is such a mountain, there are many similar places in Seoul. Why go to Incheon? … .

"… … ."

this body.

Moondae Park is from Incheon.

Feeling like I found a connection somewhere, I used my brain more closely.

Are there any other links? Reinforcement and reinforcement… .

And suddenly I remembered.

– Oh well. It's reinforced, but… .

"… … !"

I had been to Ganghwa Island with him.

I remembered the reason clearly. that.

– Stay at sea. You said you wanted to do that before… … .

"… … ."

I immediately opened the map app and checked the geography of Ganghwa Island.

And called the rescuers.

"I found a place worth searching first."

-yes?

"Manisan."

I climbed a mountain

"To the south of that mountain… It has a good view of the sea and is close."

If you look at the sea from this mountain, you will see the sea in front of Ganghwa Island where he scattered his parents' ashes.

Chapter 576

If you can't debut, you'll die of a disease.

The search for episode 576 proceeded quickly.

-Has confirmed! Let's move down 2 pitches from where we are.

– Possibility of falling along the movement line of the castaway on the southeast slab side… … .

However, no matter how narrow the search range was, it was a mountain at night. There is a limit to the search speed.

… Especially if the current state of the castaway cannot be predicted.

-1 Team 1 Team Move to the traverse section.

Sounds going through the radio. The sounds of running, breathless voices and notifications pounded my ears dully through the phone.

It was after 2 hours in a hellish taxi.

"… … ."

Now I am getting out of the taxi and boarding the rescue vehicle in front of the mountain.

It was natural to go directly into the mountains, but it was not allowed. Is there anything to increase the number of survivors to two this night?

As much as possible, while answering the occasional question… it's waiting continue.

It’s just waiting endlessly.

… If I say that I’m glad I can wait for you to come back, I won’t be able to refute it.

“Isn’t your family cold?”

“it’s okay.”

I could feel the eyes glancing at me.

Of course, it’s not because it looks cold.

‘I must have recognized it.’

I did not underestimate the popularity of Testa Park Moondae.

Moreover, it is the same even if you do not recognize Park Moon-dae.

It was because I was running with a piece of padding on my stage costume.

Looking at my appearance now, this person would wonder what the hell he was doing.

Sailors.

Sometimes, the sign of attention from those around you stings your skin.

I thought about it.

‘It’s worth it.’

For these people, seeing the family of a person in distress is a daily routine, and isn’t it an event for a celebrity to appear there?

‘Just not pretending to know is professionalism.’

So,

“I’m… Are you Ryu Kun-woo’s older brother?”

“… … .”

… It was only natural to hear such a question.

“We joke around and call each other hyung… It was. He is a close brother like family.”

“iced coffee… .”

Despite this poor explanation, I nod my head at first. You probably think that a famous idol didn’t intentionally impersonate a family member.

“… … .”

I could never have imagined that I would benefit from having my face known.

‘You’re not really family anyway, are you? Why are you here?’

‘Anyway, it’s good.’

but… My brain can’t stand it if I don’t even think about it from time to time.

Because

‘there is no news yet!’

two hours. It’s already been two hours since not even the slightest trace of the big moon appeared!

I clasped my hand.

My head was terribly tight.

‘Did I narrow the scope of the search for no reason?’

What if the big moon was injured and stuck somewhere else, and I missed the rescue opportunity because I was talking about bullshit for no reason?

Where the hell is the guarantee that I won’t be wrong, and the guarantee that I’ll be helpful… .

‘shut up.’

At times, he tries to fall into a panic. It’s useless.

I took a deep breath. A cold sweat broke out, but I didn’t bother to wipe it off with my hands.

And calmly asked the rescuers waiting to be contacted from the vehicle.

“Perhaps, how far has the search progressed within the range I mentioned earlier?”

“Now, as long as… You can think of it as about half.”

It wasn’t an exact figure.

But looking at his attitude, he’s not lying.

‘And of course, I’ll start looking for the missing person first… .’

It is a story that there was no big moon in the movement of ‘the missing Ryu Gun-woo would have moved like this’ predicted by rescue experts.

that it did not move in general.

It also meant that the line of movement deviated from the predictions of these people, who saw a high possibility that Ryu Kun-woo was a suicide attempter.

that… Rather, it’s not a bad sign.

‘good.’

I pressed my knuckles.

The place searched for 2 hours was half or less.

Even if we set the minimum number of places to search in the future, after two more hours passed, it was well past 9:00 p.m.

The temperature has long since fallen below minus 5 degrees, and if you’ve been in the mountains since yesterday, you’ll be hit twice by freezing.

So, it would be fortunate if he was within my narrowed search range, but if not… It’s the worst.

Then even now, since I made a mistake, I had to either beg for another place to be searched or hit my head.

“… … .”

I chewed the inside of my mouth.

If only he had a smartphone.

‘Please, I want to ask what you’re thinking.’

No, this would never have happened in the first place. If only there was a system and we could only chat through pop-ups… … .

‘no.’

Talking about missing situations like X doesn’t make it any better.

You can do it now.

There will be clues in what he has said and done so far.

Let’s think.

Of all the conversations I had with him, or the facts I knew about him.

The most vivid and the best way to know the guy's true intentions… .

"… … ."

'there is.'

I looked up.

I have personally experienced the idea of a big moon.

When Keundal was originally Bakmundae.

The guy who was watching the video on my fancam account showed me how he came to want to die, the situation and emotions leading up to entering that old motel… thing.

'Compensation for the first abnormal state.'

I still remember vividly.

– Tired of living.

the guy's thoughts.

"… … ."

I opened my mouth slowly.

"Can I ask you a question?"

"yes?"

"You're looking for a place where you can see the beach from Manisan right now, right?"

As if saying so, the rescuer nodded slightly.

“Is there a place you looked at first among them?”

The agent seemed a bit conflicted, but soon opened his mouth.

“… It’s below the rock topline. Usually, there are parts where a lot of people in distress are found.”

and.

“Originally, access is prohibited, but there are people who recklessly go upstairs to go to a place with a good view of the beach. If you stumble and fall there, there are points where it is difficult to get out of because you get injured.”

“… … yes.”

“I’ve been skimming all the way, focusing on that.” A place where you ca n’t step out and become isolated or voluntarily escape.

It was a reasonable reasoning and search.

But that’s it.

“Could you take a look at a location where you can come down alone?”

I knew how depressed he was.

– Isn’t it enough to stop living?

– But I didn’t really want to die.

It’s not that I don’t want to die, but that kind of depression that I don’t even want to move.

If he really wanted to die, he would have chosen another way.

because.

-It was so cold that I couldn’t bear to fall into the water or climb the mountain. Because I felt like giving up halfway through.

Climbing the mountain was the way he himself excluded it.

That’s why he chose the motel.

‘So I wouldn’t have wanted to die.’

don’t die on purpose

But he is tired and lethargic, so he doesn’t move.

if that’s the case.

“It is a location where you can move around alone with a good view of the beach. … Please just once.”

“… … .”

He could go somewhere else, but he just stays still.

‘It’s a position where I can see my parents alone without being disturbed.’

If this didn’t work, I’d have to admit I didn’t know X about the big moon and withdraw all my comments.

And I had to ask for a quick look at the other mountains.

But before that… These people should have listened to me.

‘please.’

If you ask why, it was a proposal that is difficult to put together reasonable words. I was gritting my teeth and concocting excuses in anticipation of being rejected.

at that time.

The rescuers seemed to be thinking about it, but eventually heard the radio.

“wait a minute.”

“… … !”

okay… all.

I was about to clench my hands, but I held it in.

… … I was lucky because I was a celebrity. really.

And the painful time flows again.

‘X foot… please.’

My arms and legs trembled with nervousness, anxiety, anticipation, and fear.

I sat still in my seat, restraining the thoughts that led me to arbitrarily negative logic.

How long has it been such a long wait?

suddenly.

I only noticed that the walkie-talkies here were ringing fast.

-here… .

-support! wish to support.

– Check location… … .

Alarm sound Footsteps Amid the mingling of various voices, I found a different word than before.

the words you've been waiting for

– I found it!

After a while.

I saw a helicopter descending from the bottom of the mountain.

"be careful!"

The elongated vehicle caught under the helicopter gently touches the floor and the strap is detached stably.

And there was a person who staggered and was supported and raised up in it.

Gunwoo Ryu.

It was a big month.

The guy was moving.

– Prepare for transfer to the hospital… .

"… … ."

In the middle of the radio conversation, the guy looked at the floor with a blank face in white, then raised his head.

And our eyes met.

"… … brother."

Without saying a word, I ran over and hugged him tightly.

I realized that.

I'm not late.

* * *

“Eat.”

Park Moon-dae, or Keun-dal, looked at the food in front of him.

Haejangguk is a soup dish that produces hot steam.

like sometime

A 20-year-old who tried to take sleeping pills to die in a motel but failed and woke up again and sat in a daze in front of the building.

The person who bought me food without saying anything.

At that time, the person sat across from the table of the soup restaurant that I entered on a whim, with a tired expression, and silently cooked a spoonful of rice.

just like now

“… … .”

Even if this is a hospital and their appearances are reversed… It felt like nothing had changed.

Everything from warm indifference to hot food that doesn’t ask anything.

“The basic examination is over… It is said that there is nothing wrong except for light frostbite. There were hardly any signs of dehydration. Did you bring water?”

“… … yes.”

“Good job.”

There was nothing else to say.

The big moon, who had been quietly putting a spoon into the hangover soup, lowered his head.

Crying rose up to his throat even from his dry heart, but he swallowed it.

‘no.’

It was because he knew that he had caused too much trouble to his brother.

He opened his dry mouth to explain the situation even a little to the opponent who must have been embarrassed and absurd.

“on purpose… I didn’t mean to get in trouble.”

“… … .”

“… I was going to go see my parents, but I found a place where I could see myself quietly… … Seeing as there is, too much time has passed.”

“okay.”

Park Mun-dae did not point out that Ryu Kun-woo had been absent from work for five days without notice and how he could ‘just’ sit on the mountain for a day in that cold winter.

He didn’t even ask me what the hell he was thinking to do such a crazy thing.

I just nodded.

Maybe that’s why Keundal made a noise that he didn’t even think of.

“The fact that I went to Sokcho… In fact, I was sitting on the beach all the time.”

“huh.”

“Then, since it’s the same beach, I wanted to see my parents… Somehow I’m out of energy.”

Did I think of this?

Stories that made me question myself came pouring out.

The emptiness that I didn't say because I didn't want to worry or bother me unnecessarily came out with a tuk-tuk sentence.

"… So I tried to make a hobby, but I couldn't think of anything… … there was just Then I thought about going to the mountain."

His older brother quietly listened to the words and only confirmed that the big moon was eating.

And he answered by pouring warm water.

"Good job."

The big moon grabbed the spoon tightly against something that suddenly jumped up.

"You told me to live as Ryu Gun-woo."

"… … ."

My brother nodded slightly.

so i finally said

"But can't I just live with a big moon… … ."

"… … ."

"I don't know what to do, and I don't really know… I don't even know what I want to do. Just cheer for Testa and the status window… I don't have it, but there are other things that are helpful for hyung's activities."

"Yes."

"… !"

The big moon raised its eyes.

The older brother swallowed a spoonful of rice and answered calmly.

“But let’s do the opposite this time.”

“yes?”

“This time, let’s focus on you instead of me.”

“… … .”

“I don’t know what to do or want to do… If you don’t know, we can look for it together. You also found a way to debut with me.”

“But”

“But?”

“My brother is busy… .”

“We agreed to take a day or two off a week to improve Testa’s work-life balance.”

“Is that so?”

“uh. Oh, you stopped.”

“ah!”

Big moon hurriedly moved the spoon again.

The conversation was smooth and nonchalant, and somehow, strength returned to my body.

The broth was still hot and spicy.

“Of course, it’s okay to talk about Testa. ask anytime I also have a few questions to ask you about Testa.”

“yes!”

I have work to do.

Those words somehow gave me more energy. Big moon moved his hand more militantly.

And as my stomach filled up, I couldn’t help but talk about something more common sense.

“Brother really… You were confused this time. really sorry. For worrying and bothering me… .”

“Because it’s okay. Oh, I paid a separate reward to the members, so don’t worry about that.”

“… … .”

The big moon almost opened its mouth.

I hadn’t even thought about it until now.

“I’m sorry. It caused a lot of trouble!”

“You weren’t that angry. Because the rescue was successful for now.”

“ah… .”

From the way he spoke, he could tell that the other person was very concerned about his own safety.

How many hours did you wait until you were rescued?

‘… … .’

Keundal looked at the other person’s complexion with the feeling of guilt and apology that pierced his chest, and the rising gratitude.

She looks haggard and tired because of the disheveled look, but maybe it's because of the makeup, it doesn't stand out that much. It was really like an idol.

Then I realized.

'… … uh?'

Fully set head and face.

and… A uniform with colorful accessories visible under the padding.

It was a stage costume.

"… … ."

Testa's stage.

The big moon opened his mouth as he felt a chill run down his spine.

"Brother today… … What day is it?"

There was no answer, but he had already finished his calculations.

He had been missing for five days, starting with himself sitting on the porch in a daze on his way to work on Tuesday.

Then, today, after adding the date… … It's Saturday.

And this Saturday.

"The Testa Concert… … It is."

He hurriedly raised his head.

The current time came into my clear vision as if I had been hit by cold water.

10 o'clock at night.

It’s time for the concert to end.

“… … .”

“brother?”

The older brother on the other side said nothing.

Chapter 577

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 577

Around 11pm.

"… He was safely rescued and will be hospitalized for about a day."

-ah… … thank god.

In the quiet, dark hallway in front of the single-person hospital room, I lowered my voice to make a phone call.

-Are you okay?

The other party of the call is Big Sejin.

Normally, this kind of report should go to the leader, Ryu Cheng-wu, but I also knew why the missed call came to this guy.

'… He must be in the middle of the process.'

Ryu Chung-woo is still talking with the company.

It was almost certain that the company still hadn't contacted me.

It was worth it. … Because a member suddenly ran away from the concert.

Power went into the hand holding the smartphone.

– Hyung's concert… … .

Keundal, who asked me about the concert, didn't get an answer, so he's undergoing a doctor's examination with a devastated face.

Originally, he would have given a moderately plausible reason and told him not to care. But now I couldn't.

It's not that I didn't answer on purpose.

I had nothing to answer.

… Because I haven't checked either.

The smartphone was in hand, but it could not connect to the Internet page.

Until now.

"… … okay."

okay. deliberately avoided In order for me to think and reason properly without shock.

However, the time has come to open up to the unmanageable results.

I asked Big Sejin.

"… the concert."

– Of course it ended well. Mundaemundae First of all, don't worry, I'm resting until tomorrow morning.

The answer comes out of nowhere. However, Keun Se-jin was a guy who could come up with a calm answer no matter what the fuck.

… … Still, since tomorrow is also a concert, I expected a more realistic answer.

'Crushing it without telling the specific situation… … .'

It was difficult. I swallowed.

It was about time to properly ask what had happened.

-Are you on the phone?

“… !”

A small voice flows through the smartphone.

-Park Moondae?

-hey!

And here and there, exclamations and the sound of running footsteps began to be heard.

-Oh, they said you were rescued well!

– What a relief!

– You worked hard, Park Moon-dae really… … .

Relief and joy overflow over the phone after hearing the news.

Since the concert ended in a X-like situation because of me, it was expected that he would look more tired, but he only showed a happy expression.

I’ll be doing more on purpose.

They were weird guys.

“… … .”

I swallowed and then again.

“… Thank you. And sorry.”

-uh??

“You made a choice that hurt the team.”

Embarrassed onomatopoeia rained down, and soon they refuted my words.

– I'm sorry for what! You did your job!

-Call Taxi was called together by the Me members… !

-Hey listen! That's not your brother's choice. we talked together That's what Chungwoo hyung said. do you remember

Am I the only one benefiting?

Society decided to call it 'consideration' rather than 'together'.

But it was well-mentioned.

"okay. so… Where is Chungwoo-hyung now?"

-ah.

At that moment, the answer was cut short with a mysterious atmosphere.

-Ah~ He's talking to the company for a second. Why? What do you have to deliver?

Big Sejin quickly answered brightly, but I already realized. that my prediction was correct.

Also, the company turned upside down.

To be honest, it's natural to feel sued. I pressed my forehead and said.

"Tell Chungwoo hyung that I'll talk to the company directly, so just call me."

-what?

"Even if the company is angry, of course I understand, but that hyung doesn't have to accept it. Because that's what I did."

– Hey wait… .

-I! I have a word for you!

It was Kim Rae-bin who interrupted Se-jin's words and entered.

I gave him a say. Immediately after that, the lines that seemed to have been prepared came out.

-Hyung, do you remember what your brother said a few years ago when I was thinking about the situation where I had to miss my schedule due to my grandmother's health problem?

"… … ."

remember

– There is no problem even if you go to work halfway through.

It's okay. I said that.

– I also want to return the same words to my brother.

Raebin Kim said in a confident voice.

– There is nothing wrong with going to rescue a family in crisis!

– And since it can happen to any member, I think it's natural and natural for us to rely on each other.

"… … ."

I covered my face with my hands.

thank you but… .

'no.'

That's different.

Rabin Kim is a situation where people can generally sympathize that his grandmother is legally his custodian. Bastards who curse are psychopaths.

But that's it.

'I am… They're not family.'

Park Moon-dae has no family.

It's been an acknowledged fact since I debuted. Anyone who has searched me knows that.

therefore… Officially, I just took a taxi and left right before the concert because of an acquaintance.

There is no room for extenuating circumstances in this.

People who took a vacation while waiting for this performance People who canceled their appointments People who booked accommodations and came up near the venue People who received tickets as a special gift from their parents… … .

In a situation where those people's time and money were spent on toilet paper, 'My friend was in distress. Do you think they'll listen to excuses like 'I'm so scared and sad that the concert ended?'.

'Even I can't.'

My fingertips were cold.

However, the culmination of ignorance would be to refute Kim Rae-bin while lined up with such nonsense.

Having already left the first day of the X-Bal Tour, I couldn't do that to Aman. I chewed my tongue with my teeth.

"… … okay. thanks."

-no!

Rabin Kim's voice brightened. As if relieved, the atmosphere on the other side of the phone was slightly relaxed.

That's it.

– Moondae, we… The concert went really well. I'm not lying to make you feel safe. I don't think it was that hard.

"… know."

So it made me even more upset.

That the concert I was aiming for to do insanely well had to be content with using my energy not to be ruined because of my breakout.

Of course, this is not something to talk about.

"believe."

-… Yes.

At that moment, a voice came out from the other side of the phone.

-that's right. And Moondae-hyung is completely misunderstood.

"what."

Cha Yu-jin replied in a serious voice.

– More people come to see me than hyung.

"… … ."

-There are not many audiences who only watch Moondae hyung. Are you worried that people will be disappointed? It's useless. Everyone liked me… .

-Cha Yujin!!

-Kim Rae-bin used violence! Scold Kim Raebin!

It was a very familiar gag.

In an instant, the density drained all the way from the conversation.

“under… … .”

-Did you laugh? Are you feeling better?

“okay.”

I heard why you did well without me.

It was even more strange that these guys didn’t laugh out loud when they said they would make the escaped bastard feel better.

“Calm down and I’ll be back tomorrow.”

-Yes!

After that, the conversation took place in a more relaxed atmosphere.

There was also this proposal.

-I wonder if it would be okay for us to go to the hospital together… … .

“No, thanks. It’s a concert tomorrow too.”

-Kuhm, yes, but.

Tomorrow is also a concert, so it was right to take a break. And now, when the members come to visit, the big moon will turn yellow with guilt.

I cut off the stories that went too far considering the stamina and mentality of both sides. The atmosphere was good though.

After a few specifications and adjustments, the call also hung up.

“Then I’ll see you tomorrow morning.”

-okay!

-Sleep soundly… !

pop.

Good words lingered in my ears.

However, until the end, there was no specific story about the collapse of public opinion because of my breakout.

How did you explain it to the audience and how did you react?

It was natural that those guys couldn’t get it out first. So I should have kept actively talking about it.

no before… I should have checked it earlier and started a conversation.

couldn’t

“… … .”

I pressed my face with my hand.

If anything, after finishing this tour, I… I will have to stop my activity.

in the sense of self-sufficiency.

First of all, it seemed that the group image would be restored only if the person involved in the controversy had to withdraw from Testa activities.

‘… You can’t put a bad pod on a regular album.’

During that period, if I didn’t do anything useless and just practiced, then public opinion would subside a bit around the time of my next album.

… no it isn’t If you stop your activities, will public opinion worsen?

I don’t know.

“under.”

I laughed. Until yesterday, no, until this morning, I didn’t even know that I would have such wild troubles.

‘If it’s original… … .’

You should have finished your first concert right now and be in a state of excitement from top to bottom.

Whether it’s regret or satisfaction, it’s a state where everything is poured out to the limit.

Although my body was damp, I had to quickly prepare my body and mentality for the next concert, exchanging congratulations and feedback with adrenaline pumping.

yes tomorrow

‘… It’s a concert tomorrow too.’

Now, I… … .

“… … .”

Of course, Liu Cheng-wu’s judgment was correct.

Thank you.

I know. If I was at a concert and the big moon really froze, it would have been hell.

therefore.

‘I have no regrets about this choice.’

I came to that conclusion and sat down in the hallway.

Smartphone screen turned off.

All the noisy and warm things are gone, and what remains is the hallway of the hospital room on a dark winter night.

"… … ."

It was somehow bitterly cold.

* * *

"… … brother."

When I went back to the hospital room, the big moon, who had been quietly sitting on the bed alone after the checkup, suddenly raised his head.

"Here I was thinking. What if I write? on the internet… Since he couldn't attend the concert because of me, if I explain well that it's not my fault… … ."

"no."

Then who do you think the arrow goes to?

-Aren't you a crazy bastard? It's a waste of tax money – Bear in mind, is your X-woody connection a regular bottle connection?

-How much did you get from Orbit? Hahahaha

The big moon will literally be bitten like a dog.

No matter how well this guy trims and uploads, people who are angry will curse and steal personal information.

Co-workers and people who had only heard rumors would come out and say all sorts of things. I mean, why did you do that?

Only the public opinion of this common man becomes X, and there is no guarantee that my public opinion will improve.

“do not do that.”

“but… … .”

“I’m thinking of another way, so I can’t do it. Don’t even think about posting it yourself.”

“… … yes.”

The big moon nodded cautiously.

And, as if watching, he spoke.

“… that brother Now go back and rest. The doctor just said that I’m fine.”

If I return to this atmosphere, I know that this guy will fall into some kind of depression again.

“I’m tired and it’s hard to go back to the dorm. Are you kicking me out?”

“Oh no!? You can stay comfortably!?”

Easy.

“Then use the bathroom.”

“yep!”

After finally washing my face, I lay down on the caregiver’s cot next to the single room.

I had to get up at 6:00 in the morning to not be late for my schedule tomorrow.

No matter what happened, even if there was a boycott sign attached to the venue, they had to perform unconditionally.

‘You have to manage your condition properly.’

so i closed my eyes

And woke up exactly at 6 in the morning.

Beep.

The vibration quickly turned off before waking the big moon.

But he didn’t wake up right away.

Instead, I took out my smartphone. And I took a deep breath silently.

“… … .”

It was time for confirmation.

I couldn’t postpone it any longer.

In fact, I thought about checking it before going to bed, but I put it off because I was afraid I would not be able to sleep.

I can’t ruin today’s concert.

‘… 6 to 6:30 in the morning.’

A time when there are few Internet users and will not be caught in the endlessly updated public opinion.

‘Check now and go.’

I clicked SNS for monitoring.

“… … .”

As soon as I clicked on it, popular articles appeared at the top.

-Mundae What

should I do ?

‘read.’

I gritted my teeth and kept moving my eyes.

writing is complete.

-Mundae What should I do ㅠㅠ Is there a concert today? I’m so worried about whether I’ll be able to come out..

“… … .”

backhanded… … is it

I involuntarily scrolled down.

New popular articles kept appearing in front of my eyes.

The posts I wrote at dawn and the ones that popped up right around the time the concert was about to start were all mixed together… continue.

-Is this the true story of the notice of absence from Park Moon University?

-Ah crazyㅠㅠㅠ -Since a month ago, when DubApp talked about a concert, I couldn’t control my excitement, but I really can’t even guess how Park Moon-dae is feeling right now

-I just.. I’m a bum

. won’t come out?;; It’s embarrassing and annoying, but I’m worried about my stone, and

I stayed up all night.

There aren’t many articles that curse me to death.

“… … .”

I hurriedly scrolled up with trembling hands.

And I read the popular article I read earlier.

-Mundae What should I do ㅠㅠ Will there be a concert today? I’m so worried about whether it’s going to be in a state where it can come out.. Oh, I’m going crazy.

This wasn’t sarcastic.

It was an article that really worried about whether I was in the right condition to go to a concert.

“… … ah.”

I moved my hand

New posts keep appearing.

Chapter 578

If I can’t debut, I’ll get sick to death Episode 578

The emotions people felt while watching a concert without me.

It pours.

-It’s so empty… I cried because I was worried about the solo song’s VCR -I endured an X-like January just watching the concert, but why did Park Moon-dae become X instead of me -I gave up on Hawaii for the first concert, Crybaby Moon Daeng-Dang, but I didn’t attend the concert… This It’s real

– I can’t properly announce it, but I can only sigh.

The disappointment of the audience at the sudden absence of a member from the long-awaited concert was as expected.

But one was different.

-Ah, Moondae Park, what are you doing?

There was no sense of betrayal that Park Mun-dae deceptively ruined this important moment.

And the reason is premised as if it were natural in all writings.

-I know what a concert means to him… but there's no way this could happen. Oh please

, because Testa Park Moon-dae did not live like that.

Every time you scroll down, all kinds of examples are randomly shared and quoted.

Park Moon-dae, who cries the most at concerts Park Moon-dae, who naturally finished the solo song stage even with an injured rib, Park Moon-dae, who is excitedly talking about how this setlist came out every time after the concert is over, doing a live broadcast after party… … .

– Even if you break your leg, you are a person who will go on stage.

Everything you have experienced is the basis.

I thought that my escape would be criticized more in contrast to Park Mun-dae's past, but it was the opposite.

The track has become my guarantee.

It's not that I didn't do the concert, so take it for granted that I didn't.

Park Moon-dae was on their side.

"… … ."

I read in a trance of worry and confusion and anger and anxiety.

The stories that I subconsciously take for granted that I couldn't come out because I had a fatal reason.

after.

Heat rose from under his breath and shook his limbs.

I don't know if it's a thrill or goosebumps, so I looked at them in a daze.

But I soon realized the reality.

‘no.’

This public opinion exists because we do not know the exact circumstances.

I don’t know what Liu Cheng-wu said, but if ‘Wen-Dae had an emergency, he couldn’t join us today.’ If you said the right thing… .

‘… You don’t know why I fell for it.’

Then the moment you know the truth, the betrayal will be greater.

more.

“… … .”

I squeezed my smartphone hard enough to break it.

My head was spinning tight.

excuse. excuse.

‘Is it best to be sick?’

Saying you collapsed is the least side-effect and the safest way. Because I just couldn’t get up. So if that’s it… I didn’t know if they would continue to understand me like they do now.

However, I soon realized that it was practically impossible.

‘There are definitely eyewitness accounts.’

It was over from the moment I boarded the rescue vehicle wearing a stage costume and not wearing a mask.

It will come out unconditionally.

It was a fact I already knew.

Besides, to use the word “sick”, I had to skip today’s concert or pretend to be sick.

That was deception.

“… … .”

The sweltering heat cooled down.

I closed my eyes as I read those incredibly advocative articles.

It was a waste.

‘A bastard without conscience.’

It was funny that he was saying this shit because he didn’t want to be criticized when he couldn’t figure out how to compensate for the waste of ticket price and time.

‘Calm down.’

I opened my eyes again and searched.

First of all, I had to confirm what reason I was officially told about my concert breakout.

If you look at the posts posted around the beginning of the concert, they come out blatantly.

-Mundae couldn’t come on stage today, it’s crazy…

-The story of not attending the Bakmundae concert (video)

-The kids can’t speak… Oh, in the video, Ryu Cheong-woo explained the situation with a gentle expression and a calm tone.

As I predicted, instead of lying, he said, ‘It’s not a situation where Moondae can go on stage right now. sorry.’ That’s how I ended the story.

It’s like trying not to talk too deeply about something bad in the middle of a concert that should be enjoyable.

It was a wise decision.

I also confirmed that he did not specifically tell me about my circumstances.

“… … .”

I watched the concert video without me in a daze, but soon came to my senses and moved the screen again.

‘Let’s check the refund policy as well.’

So it was the moment I was about to move to the official social media account of the company.

A new related article appeared on the page that was inadvertently updated.

‘hmm?’

It was a popular post that I hadn’t seen before because I didn’t get caught in the keyword ‘concert’.

The time is before and after I fall asleep.

The content that was posted around midnight yesterday and was highly shared was… … .

-I was in trouble with an acquaintance of Park Moon-dae, but Park Moon-dae was the last person to contact.

“… … !”

rattle.

The cot made a loud noise with my movements.

And that seems to have been heard by the owner of this hospital room as well.

The big moon tossed and turned.

“brother… awake… … .”

He poked his head out as if he had woken up by the sound of me waking him up, then looked at the smartphone screen in my hand and shut up.

“… … .”

Of course, when I looked up, I couldn’t stand it for long and the toro flowed out.

“I didn’t post!”

then?

“but… My brother’s company agreed to post.”

“… !”

“Because I got a call.”

“To whom?”

A bright answer came back.

“It’s Sejin Lee!”

* * *

“Thank you so much Nene. Then I will go as I said. … oh no Take care of yourself~”

Lee Se-jin carefully finished the call with Keun-dal and hung up.

‘It’s not that I don’t care.’

It was fortunate that he came out very cooperatively even though he was not in a hurry since he had just been rescued.

He stretched out and pictured one more time in his head what he was going to do before going to bed.

ruler… then.

“Are you done talking about your brother?”

“okay.”

Ryu Cheng-wu, still on the phone with the company, nodded slightly.

Park Moon-dae’s concerns were only half correct.

Right after the concert, it was correct that Ryu Cheng-wu explained the situation to the flagship company and mediated the conflict.

However, the situation changed after Lee Se-jin received a reply from Park Moon-dae, who rescued the big moon.

-If you wait a little bit, I think there will be other news. yes. please.

Ryu Cheng-wu had been holding back the company from trying to deal with the situation by issuing an official statement.

because.

“Then I’ll send you an email like this.”

It was because Lee Se-jin prepared something else.

The days when he wasn’t familiar with the physiology of the internet before his debut were already a long time ago.

It was a field that I had no choice but to become familiar with as long as I continued to monitor feedback after debuting.

He now understands the ecosystem enough to capture in detail how skillfully Bak Moon-dae dealt with his school violence controversy at the time of < Azusa >.

In addition, learning was faster in fields where there was talent from the beginning.

before public opinion.

‘Atmosphere and justification are important here too, isn’t it?’

Even when the board changed from the classroom to the practice room and from the practice room to the filming set, Lee Se-jin’s talents never faded.

He shook his head from the moment he received a long text message from Park Moon-dae about the situation.

It is also part of this that the company kept silent on the sightings of the rescuers and stopped the company from claiming that Park Moon-dae collapsed and went to the hospital.

Of course, Lee Se-jin also understood why the opinion itself came out.

‘I think the audience should sympathize and sympathize with the reason why Park Moon-dae couldn’t come to the concert… .’

But isn’t empathy a very ambiguous feeling?

Even in a space where only dozens of teenagers stay together, opinions are easily divided.

But how many people are all willing to explain it in an emotionally viable way? In Lee Se-jin’s opinion, that was a bit reckless attempt.

‘It can’t be maintained in the long run.’

So Lee Se-jin did not agree with the company's words.

There is a surefire way, because you don't have to.

What is needed is not empathy… .

'It's a sequence.'

up and down.

I had to make it so that people could not bear to complain after hearing the reason for not attending Park Moon-dae.

My difficulties are not a big deal. Park Moon-dae's absence was really necessary. I had to make it worthwhile to be willing to admit that.

And he already knew one reason to win everything.

'People's lives are the best.'

Saving people was able to win in almost all value judgments.

And Park Moon-dae was in exactly that situation.

-structure… succeded.

I didn't just run out because I was worried about the death of a relative.

'Mundae was helpful.'

It should be emphasized that he was actually needed to keep people alive.

So, as soon as the phone connection with Park Moon-dae was successful, Lee Se-jin asked several times about the current situation and grasped a clear picture.

-So you narrowed the scope of the search and what you said at the end was exactly right, so Ryu Gun-woo was rescued right now, right? hey good luck

-… uh.

Then, it is enough to reconstruct the incident around the facts you want to inform.

[Testa Park Moon-dae did not attend the concert due to the rescue of the missing person… “Cooperating faithfully as the last witness”]

If the reporters called the rescuers and confirmed the details… .

-Huh

-Oh, it’s Mundae ㅠㅠㅠ

-I would have been so surprised, but I’m glad you were rescued safely. I had a really hard time…

The choice Moondae Park was forced to make becomes ‘concert vs saving people’.

If this is the case, choosing a concert is a waste that only matters for oneself, and Park Moon-dae made a natural choice.

It is flowing in a very difficult atmosphere to criticize Park Moon-dae.

‘Hmm~ That’s nice.’

Sejin Lee smiled.

Well, that was the plain truth.

‘I heard that he himself said that he lived thanks to Park Moon-dae.’

In addition, if it is officially reported with a layer covered like this, it has the effect of drawing a line.

There is no need to publicize how close acquaintances or sworn brothers are by appealing to emotions.

Even if it's just a co-worker, it becomes a problem that you have to help unconditionally. How close you are is beside the point.

The focus is on Park Moon-dae, who was unable to attend the concert, and Ryu Gun-woo's personal information is slightly out of focus.

– I hope you are resting well. I want to see you in a healthy and bright appearance at the concert tomorrow

So the situation ended.

Lee Se-jin smiled wryly and finally went to bed for tomorrow's concert.

… … With a strange, nostalgic feeling like reciprocating a very old help.

* * *

-Being honest is the best, isn't it?

"… … ."

I pressed my forehead.

Around 6:40 in the morning. Lee Se-jin, who called first, answered my question, "What is this?"

'This nerd-like guy.'

Look at what you've put together. It's obvious to anyone looking at it that everything was taken into consideration, but what?

As soon as the concert was over, you must have thought your head exploded.

Thinking about that… … It was.

I closed my eyes while watching the articles where everything I was concerned about was clearly excluded.

-… … thanks.

-no way. It was announced as truth, so why do you keep saying thank you to me?

The guy trembled a few more times. Then I asked comfortably if he had noticed that my voice had become lighter.

-Are you joining the practice room now?

without anything bothering you. It seemed that there was an afterword.

"… … ."

After reminiscing, I picked up my phone again.

It's not that there aren't people who curse despite the consideration the members have done.

It's an undeniable fact that I skipped the concert live. -Give me

your money, you bastard bastard

-Real-time breakout from the first concert

. Yes

-The missing person should have died, so he would have regretted going to the concert.

It's annoying.

I suddenly realized

‘okay.’

It was.

At some point, after looking under the water too many times, I came to think that this was people’s sincerity.

If you remove courtesy and morality, you will have this feeling. Did you judge it so carelessly?

However, just because an expression is provocative and shocking does not mean it is true.

I tapped my smartphone screen.

‘just… There are bastards like this.’

Sometimes you can use it as a reference to make a plan, but it was funny to be influenced by it.

Because this is just a flow, it’s just a reaction.

‘It doesn’t matter if I just know that it exists.’

I threw away the page without regret and went back to the SNS I was originally watching.

New stories created by people who have my picture as their profile are pouring in.

-Mundae seems to work harder today…

I’m glad I caught both days. -I know Testa

“… … .”

do you know that

I thought that accumulating annual leave was a burden.

As much as that, the things that could be done were reduced, and people were not easily surprised by predicting the range of behavior of this group.

It’s getting harder and harder to get fresh attention.

So I thought the cons far outweighed the pros… .

In fact, there was an advantage that I just couldn’t feel and couldn’t change.

‘Was it this?’

It was trust.

If you’ve been doing well so far, that’s within the range of people’s predictions. That anticipation suppresses anxiety and sustains faith.

‘okay.’

therefore… I’ll have to give it back

I turned the page again.

What came up this time is my wiki.

A separate page was added to the profile with the label ‘Cannot edit users within 15 days of joining’.

-Incident accident and controversy

, but it was okay.

‘It might stick.’

You’re the fourth member of this team to have that page attached separately.

And like the guys did at that time, it was time for me to make up for it.

Let the controversy be pushed off the table.

“Big moon.”

“yes?”

“About today’s concert. I also stream.”

“… … .”

“If there is nothing to do at the hospital… Look.”

“… !yes!”

I got up from my seat.

for today’s concert.

Chapter 579

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 579

"Whoa."

Kun-Woo Ryu and Keun-Dal pressed his pounding heart and opened his laptop in the hospital room.

This was possible thanks to his older brother stopping at an officetel on the way and even sending delivery via express service.

Even though he was busy going to the concert, he was sorry and thankful for considering his circumstances of being hospitalized.

… … Even if it only caused a nuisance.

-Hyung, I'm really sorry that I caused too much damage yesterday… .

-You didn't even ask me to skip the concert. What are you talking about? You'll do better at today's concert than that, so look at that.

If it ended here, Keun-dal's guilt might have deepened, but behind that, Moon-dae Park said lightly.

-Still, it would be nice if you could look at the contents and give some feedback.

-… ! yes

it gave me a job to do

So now, Daedal was diligently logging into his account on his laptop.

‘It’s been a while.’

… … To be honest, he hasn’t consciously looked at Testa’s content lately.

Ever since his older brother told him to look into his own life, Ryu Gun-woo’s life, he had stopped telling himself about Testa’s problems.

-Because there is no pop-up anymore… Be careful and do it.

But even though I knew that was not the intention, it was as if I had been told not to do anything with each other… .

He tried hard to do something by himself, spending money and time as advised.

But still it wasn’t fun. Life just got more numb… … .

“… … .”

Can not be done. If you think like this any more, you will cause trouble for your brother again.

‘you can do it!’

After consciously inhaling and exhaling, he logged in and accessed the concert streaming site.

Now I need to move naturally to the streaming payment page… Suddenly, I saw a pop-up blocking the screen.

The newly added features were flashing loudly.

– Supports 4K VR streaming.

: Experience a more realistic concert than the heat in the first row of the concert hall!

“uh?”

VR.

It literally means virtual reality, but now it is also used to mean watching a video that can be seen in all directions 360 degrees.

And this was the latter, as anyone can see.

‘Still, I don’t have such a machine… .’

It was the moment I inadvertently thought that and tried to close the pop-up.

‘iced coffee!’

I remembered!

The device that his older brother sent him as a birthday present a while ago was a VR headset!

At the time, I felt sorry for not being able to use it properly because of my strange lethargy.

‘I want to try it right now.’

But if it wasn’t here, it was of no use… Surprisingly, the box sent by my brother even contained the item!

“and!”

He carefully opened the item. The new product in the shape of white goggles was shiny.

perhaps… .

‘Does my brother recommend watching it in VR?’

My brain flashed.

‘Laptop performance… ah! Do you think it’s possible?’

After checking his laptop specifications and VR streaming conditions, he connected with relief that the ultra-high definition standards were barely met.

He was happy to see the message of completion safely and finished the trial wearing.

“and.”

For some reason, my heart was beating in a different way.

It was the excitement of enjoying something new.

I was suddenly energized.

He busily moved his hands, quickly paid for the streaming, and even began to look at Testa’s contents delayed until the start of the concert.

‘Ah, I think there’s something I need to look at first… Huh-up what is this?! A choice?’

Even in such a big month, several hours passed in an instant while fully enjoying the tour promotion videos suffering from the endless happy ending.

And finally the time has come.

[PM 05:45]

He twitched his hand while wearing the VR device in a tense state, and finally hit the activated start button.

Then the internet search window disappeared and the loading screen appeared… .

hook.

perspective has changed.

To the venue 15 minutes before the performance.

“and… !”

In the dark concert hall at sunset, light sources of all colors rippled like waves.

It was the light of the cheering rod.

The fact that they did not filter out the buzzing sounds and the noise of the scene rather saved the sense of realism. The big moon willingly endured the dizziness and turned its head around vigorously.

‘amazing… .’

It was only hearing and sight. However, the two overwhelming senses fooled the rest of the senses, making them feel as if they were there.

“ah… … .”

For a moment he felt a full pounding in it.

A sense of kinship buried in people waiting for the same thing.

It was excitement and excitement.

Something I had forgotten because of helplessness suddenly lifted my head and grew in my heart as if it had never happened.

from the scenery of this concert hall.

Tring!

[Hello Lover! Did you connect the light rod well? … … still? Then let’s do it step by step with us!]

On the huge electronic display board in front, the lightstick Bluetooth connection method and the concert introduction PPL were alternately appearing.

Whenever the faces of the members appeared, cheers full of anticipation broke the air.

… And Keundal had already realized that there was also a Testa light stick in the box that hyung brought and had connected it!

Status streaming.

Then a funny thing happened.

“Oh oh!”

The light of the cheering stick that he is waving shines like augmented reality even in the VR field of view.

Something like this… … Possible!

‘It’s not like they released a renewed version of the lightstick for no reason!’

He excitedly waved the cheering stick. In the options, it was said that you could also see other streamers shaking it, but it was too dizzy, so I turned it off.

And, listening to the medley of the accompaniment of various testa songs resound in the venue, I endured for 10 minutes with my heart pounding.

and.

Finally, without warning, the lights went out.

‘… … !’

Huge text in the style of a black and white movie emerged from the billboard split into two sides.

It was a countdown.

1.

With the audience’s voices echoing everywhere.

The numbers are over.

[Piiiiiiooooooo-!]

Along with cheers, the horn of the train sounded loudly and smooth announcements began to appear.

It was Cha Yu-jin’s voice.

[This stop is Red Wonder Red Wonder… … .]

Low and clear finish.

[…] Hotel.]

Took.

Without warning, a light flashed on the stage.

‘ah.’

It was a hotel lobby.

Familiar. It was the very place where Testa’s selection video for the tour promotion was seen just before the big moon.

And the moment the gaze is a little wider, the audience realizes.

It’s not just a lobby.

Utilizing even the ceiling of the stage… It was a huge set that attached all the structures of the hotel, including the stairs, elevator, and cafe suite.

All the places in the promotional video are memorable.

“ah… … .”

All the elements of the hotel in the video were embodied intact, and were placed on the stage in reality.

Aaaaaaaaaaa!!

And just as the cheers start to subside, human figures appear exquisitely from all over the set.

Chairs in the cafe next to the pillars in the lobby behind the check-in counter Bathtub in the suite Elevator… … .

They deftly read newspapers or look at ledgers on the counter.

It was Testa.

In the midst of the intro with the sound of the train and the circus accordion, they skilfully jumped out of the set and came out to the front of the stage.

And the moment you form a formation.

[It’s now.]

All colors exploded.

Arranged as a tour promotion version, < Hunting > opened the concert splendidly.

[The tables have turned today, you’re a sheep]

Keundal was so excited that he almost tried to find his smartphone, but realized that he was watching VR.

My body was agitated.

[(Run Run!) Go around the circle under the stage and come back to the original place]

Close-ups of the members are caught on the electronic signboard amidst the force and heat.

Even one member who couldn’t go to the concert yesterday.

‘brother!’

A well-set body.

Park Moon-dae was the same as it was yesterday.

But the eye light is different.

His condition was so good that his eyes were shining like they were burning in the midst of vitality bursting out as if he couldn’t control himself.

[Call up it’s hunting season]

Kung.

The sound of the speakers ringing in the ears and the cheers of the audience mix together, exhilarating the atmosphere. Complete excitement filled the venue with no distractions.

Among them, instead of forming a formation at the ending, the members scattered.

Then, each of them returned to their place on the set where they originally started, and disappeared just as they appeared.

But the cheers don’t end there.

Because only one person naturally stood in his place.

belt ring.

Kim Rae-bin, who rang the bell indifferently at the counter, nodded his head without expression.

[Welcome again.]

The stage rotated.

“… !!”

The counter comes forward, and Kim Rae-bin, who was standing behind it, rides over the counter and comes out with his sight in front of him.

And his solo song, which received a huge response, flows with the band music bursting live.

[Jump into the manhole

to Wonderland

In the opening and the performance that continued like one song, Kim Rae-bin dragged dancers wearing rabbit masks and ran through the entire stage set, continuing the performance.

As befits the subtitle of the overture, he exploded all the impressive elements of the set as if introducing them.

The rushing rap and performance rushed towards the ending without a moment to breathe.

thump thump.

The center of the stage where all the dancers in rabbit masks have disappeared.

The spotlight was turned off above Kim Rae-bin, who walked backwards with the sound of his shoes.

Aaaaaaaaa!!!

A scream that seemed like the concert hall would explode echoed in his ears as well.

“Huh… … .”

The big moon blinked.

Ten minutes had passed without even being conscious of breathing.

‘What’s next??’

Before he knew it, he forgot all the complicated feelings, and the concert rushed into his eyes again.

While the cheers were still ringing, the lights on the electronic display board came on instead of the stage that had been turned off.

It was a VCR.

And here, the big moon has a different experience from the field.

‘Uh uh… ?!’

The perspective of the four sides changed.

He was no longer sitting in the theater.

An elegantly colored hallway covered in classic, ornate wooden forms and wallpaper.

he is… It was inside the VCR!

‘Uh oh oh oh!?’

When I turn my head around, I see a hallway of a hotel that is completely divided into two sides.

left and right.

The hallway, where the rooms appeared to be lined up, had a completely different atmosphere on both sides.

Beyond the softly glowing lights on the right, I could see the friendly-looking figures of the hoteliers.

and… left. Dark silhouettes stand beneath flickering red lights that look ominous somewhere.

‘omg.’

It was a time when I was checking both sides, turning my head around.

Liu Chengyu’s low, soft voice recited the narration.

[A rabbit hole. Where should I go?]

Then, like augmented reality, text appeared on both sides.

[RED / WODER]

[Notify me with the lights.]

Uh uh uh?

The letters ‘RED’ shine red and ‘WODER’ glow yellow.

[Try operating the lightstick!]

“Huh uh uh uh uh.”

He held up the cheering stick with trembling hands… soon realized

‘I can’t do that.’

For those of you who stream… had no right to vote.

No human rights… .

“… … .”

I will be ticketing.

He looked back to the side, swallowing the tears, but still pounding.

red and yellow.

Which one would you have chosen?

Results were soon published.

[Loviewer’s choice]

And the current audience seat is reflected in front of you.

‘and… .’

As for the ratio of seats overflowing with red and yellow, at first glance, red was dominant.

it is decided

[RED]

[HUNT]

The image collapsed with a scratchy mark.

And shouts rang out on stage.

[That’s ma sa—vior!!]

A protruding stage dyed red.

An intense metal rock version slammed into the venue around Park Moon-dae with a head microphone.

* * *

“Aaaaaaaaa!!”

Park Mun-dae’s first runner shouted hoarsely from the standing.

The concert rushed without a break.

This concert, which was structured as if exploring a hotel, was filled with all sorts of attractions, just like a circus.

From huge sets to all kinds of stage equipment.

Of course, the best option is to choose a light stick.

‘It’s really fun!’

No matter which one I chose, the song itself didn’t change. However, the atmosphere changed drastically just by slightly different costumes and arrangements.

It was so much fun to watch it!

‘under… … !!’

I took out the VCR to make it participatory and secured some time between stages.

Homma, who came to today’s concert with a half-expected and half-worried mind, felt a deep joy spread in his heart.

There was no need to worry.

‘They flew around the door, what!’

I was happier because I watched the concert yesterday in an almost insane state.

‘It definitely feels different from yesterday.’

Of course, the other members performed well yesterday as well. However, the consciousness of the sudden void seems to have prevented people from fully immersing themselves in it.

‘This is a concert made for complete immersion.’

Options are there for immersion.

Fully immersed in the concert without the feeling of returning to reality halfway through.

I felt the fact that it was made for that purpose in the first place.

‘I heard they gave all the concert streaming tickets to the audience on the first day.’

Please don’t just get a refund and don’t wait for additional concert schedules. Homma muttered to herself and looked at the stage again.

[Wish you call me like this-]

On the stage, Lee Se-jin’s solo stage was passing the climax.

Using a large golden trolley with one hand, they present a splendid stage using turns and movements.

It was the stage of the selection ‘WODER’.

‘I think this is better than ‘RED’ I saw yesterday!?’

It seemed that each member chose their own solo song as they wished without restrictions.

Cha Yoo-jin even remade old pop songs, arranging them as hip as he wanted and putting them in as samples.

‘I thought you were crazy.’

Choosing a different option from yesterday, she took note of the situation where the dance break was different, and she watched the stage with her fists clenched.

It wasn’t far.

now… … My turn was coming.

Aaaaaaaaaaaa!!

The previous stage ended with all kinds of cheers from hoarse people. She cheered together, but swallowed at the tension that tightened her heart.

The lights on the stage go off and the VCR starts playing again… .

Inside an empty elevator.

[RED / WONDER]

The choices of RED running out of the elevator and WONDER staying in the elevator are divided in conflicting colors.

And Homma already knew what stage this option would lead to.

‘Moondae… !’

It is Park Moon-dae’s solo stage.

I was given this VCR yesterday as well, but it was an option that probably meant nothing.

It was just a video of a demonstration filming the rehearsal stage.

“… … .”

She felt the strangely calm surroundings and realized that others were experiencing similar tensions.

In fact, Moondae Park’s absence did not face huge criticism thanks to the intertwined story, but thanks to the story, it became a subtly unpleasant subject of interest.

-Wow ㅠㅠ How is Park Moon-dae performing today… I don’t think he’s crazy.

-I’m curious about his feelings .

I was curious about how he might have been affected by this absence and how he would feel.

‘Then let’s buy streaming!’

Homma shouted that, but in fact, I thought that there must be people sitting here with similar questions… … .

People who focus on Park Moon-dae’s state of mind, not Park Moon-dae’s stage.

It’s to the extent that you care about yourself.

“… … .”

However, Homma was worried and at the same time believed in Park Moon-dae.

of his actions so far.

‘let’s do it.’

In the meantime, one word dominates the screen on the selected VCR.

[WONDER]

[BE HUNTED]

Then it completely rips out and turns off.

My heart was pounding.

widely.

In a quiet concert hall.

A ray of light fell on the black stage.

A cuboid stage set hanging in the air almost to the ceiling caught the spotlight.

elevator.

It seemed to come down slowly… Eventually, it stopped in the middle of the lobby.

Ding.

The door opens and a languid voice comes out.

[With me]

Moondae Park’s solo song has begun.

Chapter 580

If you can't debut, you'll die of an illness Episode 580.

A concert is a comprehensive art.

Testa knew this all too well and did not stop discussing it with various people involved, unsparingly spending time on stage composition and directing.

just one thing.

After distributing only keywords for each solo song, the performer decided on the stage himself.

Because there should be such sudden fun.

-Then, Chungwoo-hyung, let's use a lift device for the stairs… What about the door?

-hmm.

Park Moon-dae struggled for quite some time on how to implement his solo stage.

Will you show an unexpected side?

Will you show what you do best?

'Both have their pros and cons.'

So he adopted both.

‘I guess I can assign them to the options one by one.’

What if the two options are slightly different from each other? The burden was enough for him to bear.

But at the same time, I was giving more electrons to my heart.

‘An unexpected appearance would be more fun.’

A kind of obsession to show a new side of himself because many things about him will be familiar to the fans unconsciously influenced him.

‘… There is a limit to the impact even if you keep doing well.’

I already know that Park Moon-dae is good at it. you’ll get used to it

Even though he divided and allocated the practice time like a knife, the impression was left on him unconsciously.

So, in his heart, he thought that he would have to consider the options for the first concert so that people would choose ‘unexpected appearance’ as much as possible… … .

And time has passed now.

The audience’s choice is over.

[Stays in the elevator.]

[WONDER]

“… … .”

on a dark stage.

The big moon held its breath and raised its gaze.

A clear and thrilling sound of string instruments echoed around the elevator floating alone in the air under the spotlight.

A tickling accompaniment with a lot of soft flats.

melody you know.

Before I could specifically recognize what it was, a voice poured out of the slowly opening elevator.

[Turn the wheel

to fly away]

“… !!”

[The melody resonates, it’s beautiful, it touches your heart, let it pop]

You know the lyrics.

The big moon realized like a thunderbolt.

This was not a song from the latest album, a personal OST of Moondae Park, a solo song that was officially released, or a cover song of another singer that was shown on a variety show.

One day in the past, Testa’s title song.

[Give me the wheel

so I can go to your dream]

In a more lyrical and calm arrangement, Park Moon-dae’s voice floated.

‘ah… … .’

It was a euphemism I hadn’t heard in a while.

This is because this song did not remain as a regular setlist for Testa concerts.

Because it lost its place to a new song that combined this song with the double title Dawn.

so it’s nicer

Even more so, if it is Park Moon-dae.

so… If you sing well.

[Stay today,

it won’t end like this, let me in]

Clear, breathy high notes filled the speaker clearly.

Rather than being hard, it is released somewhere transparently, and the resonant sound makes you listen.

‘ah.’

With just one chorus with nothing in it, people just stared at the stage without any distractions.

at that time.

Tok. Tok. Tok.

The door opens completely with a knock in the elevator.

“… !!”

The moment it was opened, a blue scent poured out.

And the inside of the elevator is fully exposed.

[Wooo- wo wooo-]

The inside filled with the warm electric light was full of flowers and plants.

It was full of spring and summer that bloomed profusely.

“ah… !”

In the middle, Park Moon-dae stood in front of a clunky standing microphone.

He did not bring flashy and overwhelming choreography or unconventional arrangements.

They are just standing in a stage setting floating in the air.

singing a song

[

I want to meet

you, the thoughts I always have before I go to sleep, I want to meet you forever]

In the elevator, a barefoot man wearing a white knitwear, Gently raised the head of a standing microphone with rusty vines attached to it with both hands.

[Small wind rises

drop by drop and sparkles dazzlingly on the ferris wheel]

The only accompaniment is a thin stringed instrument.

A voice that sounds like talking echoes all the way to the end of the silent concert hall.

[Imagine

me leaning against the window

, like I was a child]

An elevator is a space for movement.

However, he wanted to provide the most fantastic stay for those who chose to stay.

Just a beautiful flashback.

A dream from the past.

[Your eternal childhood

That’s me,

I forgot my sleeplessness and went to sleep-]

The sound that reached the low pitch hit and rose again.

Let the exhilarating good feeling suddenly pass by.

[Ohh- oh-]

I drag it up with one breath without a breath.

With the last voice, all the instruments that have endured rush in and cover the end of the audience like a wave.

From the bottom bass to the top riff melody.

from low to high notes.

And a voice that shines brightly in the center.

[Turn the wheel]

Soap bubbles pour around the elevator.

[Let it fly far away]

The dimly twinkling reflections flickered on the stage and illuminated the audience.

[The melody resonates so beautifully that it touches you too, let it pop]

The colors of the light stick rippled like an aurora.

[Spin the wheel

so it flies away]

The chorus rippled along.

[The melody does not disappear, stay with you, let it be]

Park Moon-dae desperately raised his voice.

[Breathe hard

so that the heat can penetrate you too-]

For the people who chose this option he didn’t expect.

In fact, the choice he tried to induce in his first concert was… It wasn’t this.

It was ‘RED’.

– Of course I would choose to get out of here.

An elevator is a place for movement.

And people like stimulating things.

Park Moon-dae easily drew conclusions from the two facts.

If the VCR gives you a choice, you will of course choose the option to leave the elevator.

If you're immersed in the story, the option to step outside and run into the flickering darkness will be exciting.

Something more stimulating and new.

So, without hesitation, he put 'unexpected appearance' on the selected option.

However, the concert did not go as planned and Park Moon-dae was unable to attend the first concert due to an unexpected accident.

In this situation, people who were worried about Park Moon-dae in the end chose a more moderate and friendly option unconsciously.

What remains in the elevator.

-WONDER.

And 'WONDER' was an option to show them what Mundae Park does best.

the whole song.

… … Moondae Park's singing.

[Turn the wheel

so that it stays in your dreams]

The song got deeper.

In the shaking elevator, Mundae Park looked at the lights that filled his eyes… I knew it by chance.

‘Is it so?’

I was less confident in this choice, but I think that’s why I want to show it more clearly.

no i want to show

I wanted to fulfill all expectations.

To those who chose Bakmundae, which they know instead of something new.

To those who choose to stay together.

To do so… .

‘I just need to do better than expected.’

Park Moon-dae grabbed the microphone head.

[So that our never-ending story sinks in your ears]

More earnestly.

[Umm-]

I grabbed the ensemble of the splendidly blooming string instruments and my voice stretched out.

It doesn’t show off or get buried.

The singing voice with a clear presence becomes a harmonious and intense focal point by winding all the melodies of the accompaniment like a core.

No more hotel lobbies or wires. I don’t care about lighting, equipment, or directing.

Only Park Moon-dae and his voice in the elevator caught the attention.

[Wooo—!]

I want to satisfy.

I didn’t want to give them the time to evaluate them saying that the live performance was really good.

Park Moon-dae tuned each syllable with all his might.

intensely.

[The end won’t come,

I’ll remain like the film

in the shining lens]

A voice that stretches out alone without accompaniment.

Inside the elevator, he slightly closed his eyes and lowered his hand.

It is filled with breath and voice without any other melodies.

[Because it is here]

One image is again imprinted on the surface of the water as if it covers all the incidents and overflows.

What everyone is already familiar with.

What a great singer he was.

[Continuously draw me

inside of you]

Park Moon-dae smiled and took his mouth off the microphone.

[Still fully forever]

Breathless stillness.

A single string instrument started a soft accompaniment.

In the meantime, the elevator containing Park Moon-dae started to go up slowly as it was open.

Park Moon-dae leaned loosely on the standing microphone and looked at the high-rise audience.

And the moment it hit the ceiling, the light went out.

pop.

the song is over

Homma was barely breathing and clapping when she realized that she had almost broken the cheering stick.

I didn’t have any thoughts in my head.

* * *

Backstage.

“It was really, really great… Just on stage… !!”

“… … .”

“Mundae… ?”

“thanks.”

Park Moon-dae blinked his eyes.

My head was dizzy.

‘What did you do?’

It was the first time I had ever been so engrossed.

I thought that I would not fall out anywhere thanks to my usual concentration and even S-grade characteristics that help me immerse myself on stage.

but… … .

‘It was different.’

It’s the first time I’ve ever performed while thinking only of singing.

He had a brain that calculated the various effects that would be derived from the stage.

It was unavoidable because I started my stage experience in a survival program from the beginning.

Grades, schedules, public opinion, all sorts of external factors… … The stage was to put all of that into one’s head and organize it so as not to touch the mines before going on stage.

‘But this one… no.’

There was no need for anything else.

A strange sense of mission and primal desire to somehow satisfy the person I was watching right now filled my head.

And that satisfaction and catharsis.

this… Was there even a stage like this?

“… … .”

Park Mun-dae leaned his head against the wall, licked the salt on his lips, and suddenly came to his senses.

‘This isn’t the time.’

The concert isn’t over yet. I had to move right away. He got up and put his hand on Sun Ah-hyun’s shoulder, who was waiting for the VCR to end.

“I’m waiting for the solo stage.”

“Yes. Because I don’t change clothes.”

Seon Ah-hyun, who was in charge of the last solo song among the members, smiled brightly.

If you choose the ‘RED’ route, the fact that the paint is scattered over that face and clothes and goes out was an unbelievably innocent impression.

But because of that, it will be an incredibly intense stage.

‘I have to do the next thing properly too.’

Park Moon-dae was so emotional. Because there were still stages left.

“… I know you will do well, so I just cheer for you.”

“Yes!”

Seon Ah-hyun wanted to say more about Park Moon-dae’s stage just before, but decided to talk about it after the concert, and moved forward like a professional.

My heart was pounding.

‘It was great.’

I felt it even though I only indirectly listened to it backstage.

Although, like the aesthetics of the original moment, I couldn't accurately describe it.

But here's someone who knows how to describe it.

"… … brother."

Keundal barely came to his senses until the next stage started, and he finally got his thoughts back.

The hand holding the light stick was slippery with the heat.

The audience seats were melted and mixed with complete enthusiasm and immersion, as if they had never been agitated with worries and interests.

It was worth it.

'that… … .'

Even though I was wearing a VR device, I almost mistook myself for being there. completely immersed in the song.

But at the same time, it was such a pity that I wasn't on set, and I felt like I was going crazy. I think it would have been even more amazing if the song was at the scene.

My heart is pounding at the thought of it.

I had such conflicting feelings.

'It was great. really… really.'

He wiped away the cold sweat and caught his breath.

Neither he nor Testa Park Moon-dae have a status window anymore.

However, it was visible to the eyes of the person who was the status window.

How the singer on the stage will be expressed and what result will be expressed.

sharpen.

Chapter 581

If you can't debut, you'll die of an illness Episode 581

A few minutes later.

"Ahyeon was cool today too~!"

"go… thank you… !"

Backstage, Sun Ah-hyun, who had just finished her solo stage, hurriedly changed her costume and joined. A staff member quickly cleaned up the red paint stains on her neck with a wet tissue.

Seeing Sejin thumb up, I nodded my head inwardly.

'Seon Ah-hyun's stage was impressive.'

The last part before the climax of the bizarre hotel story.

Either go down into the dark basement or out of the hotel.

'And the audience chose the former for the first performance… .'

Again, I chose the former. It was because the stage at the time of the first performance was shockingly impressive.

Sun Ah-hyun's 'RED' option covered in paint.

-It's all talking to yourself, so don't listen

. Kung.

Between the stage equipment that embodies the complex basement plumbing like a spider's web. An intense performance was unfolded, skillfully moving up and down as if hanging on.

It is a b-side song with a slow tempo about a predestined love that cannot be escaped. Kim Rae-bin heightened the sense of heterogeneity by arranging the song more experimentally using Theremin.

Correspondingly, Sun Ah-hyun's performance became more destructive and aggressive as the song progressed.

And if the elegant choreography, which is closer to ballet than modern dance, creates a thrilling sense of incongruity between them.

Aaaaaaaaa!

I smiled at the thought of the audience cheering just before.

'It must be fun.'

It wasn't for nothing that we unanimously left out Seon Ah-hyun as the last solo song.

Ryu Cheng-wu, who was watching their conversation with a happy face, opened his mouth.

"Now that the order in which the stage changes according to the choices is over, it will be easier. Let's go while fully immersed."

"yes!"

Yes. Now the choice is over. In the first place, there were no options attached to all stages before.

'If that's the case, quality control won't work.'

Because the set list is doubling.

Only half of the stages were given options, and the solo songs accounted for a large portion of them, so the burden was minimized.

I did too.

… It's my solo stage.

"… … ."

I recalled my previous stage again.

The moment when I poured all my strength and energy into the song and thought of nothing else.

'… after.'

I feel overwhelmed just by reminiscing.

It was strange that it was just a few minutes ago.

really.

"… … ."

"… Moondae Park."

"yes?"

When I raised my head, Bae Se-jin was making a mysterious expression.

I wondered if I was out of my mind.

"you… He sang really well. I mean the solo stage."

Fortunately it wasn't.

"… thank you?"

“Hmm. Well, this may sound new to you, but… … .”

Bae Se-jin seemed to be trying to say something more, but was blocked by another guy whispering so that everyone around him could hear it.

“You don’t have to tell me bro. The camera already did it!”

“… ? what… .”

“Bae Se-jin closed his eyes like this while listening to Moondae-hyung’s song. The camera took it. He is a person who is impressed. Right?”

“… … !”

Following the behind-the-scenes camera director’s movements, Cha Yoo-jin exquisitely portrayed Se-jin Bae’s serious expression as if he were appreciating it with emotion, and then winked his eyes.

“Everyone will know soon.”

Bae Se-jin’s face turned red like a yakcha.

“Hahahaha!”

Starting with Sejin, the members laughed and the backstage became noisy for a while.

Bae Se-jin also let go of his expression and sighed as if he knew that Cha Yu-jin had no malice and was just joking.

A few years ago, I would have kept an eye on these guys to see if they would fight, but they don’t do that anymore.

The atmosphere was good.

‘We must have gotten used to each other.’

And the fact that everyone has the energy to laugh and talk even in the midst of exhaustion is probably possible because this concert is satisfactory.

I was sure that the backstage of yesterday's concert wouldn't have been like this.

These guys don't even mention it.

… … Thank you.

I looked around at the guys and opened my mouth.

"… The VCR said it had two minutes left."

"Oh oh!"

I nodded to the staff who gave the signal, then corrected my posture with the others.

The narration of the VCR echoed overhead.

It is Ryu Cheng-wu's voice.

[Look behind you.]

Right now, in the darkness where you can't see an inch from the VCR, Ryu Cheng-wu should have appeared and handed out a ticket.

It's the same whether you go to the basement or out of the hotel in Seon Ah-hyun's stage selection earlier.

[Come on.]

And the video ends with the camera slowly looking back.

Goooooh-

that's how it now emerges from the darkness.

Stages that were completely focused on one thing without any options.

As the climax of this concert.

Chi profit.

The stage setting in front of you opens. Dry ice leaks out from the cracks, and light waves from light sticks spread in front of my eyes.

It wasn't even the first time, but my heart pounded.

'You have to show your best.'

I really wanted to.

I ran to the front of the stage in time with the clicking sound I heard in my in-ear.

The space that will be revealed when the hotel lobby, which was a stage setting, opens… It's a circus tent.

[Welcome to the HUNTHOUSE!]

And, like a circus, the splendid stage rushes without a break.

Cha Yoo-jin smiled and raised her hand in the middle of the formation.

"You have my dice!"

Wow!!

to < Haengcha >.

It was composed of recent hit songs and three or four songs from previous titles in a row.

The most exciting part!

Performers and audiences swarm without breath, heating up the scene.

"Woooo-"

I let out a hand micro climax part. I screamed as much as I wanted, and from the exact starting point, a super high-pitched sound exploded without getting caught.

The condition of the neck was strangely good. When our eyes met during the choreography, you could see Kim Rae-bin's expression slightly change.

'what?'

no need to question let's write freely

I used my voice as much as I wanted until the last < Paradise >.

There were no restrictions on the neck.

Aaaaaaaa!!

The moment the last song ended, the loudest applause and cheers poured out.

to the end of the audience.

Both my ears and eyes were filled with reactions to the stage.

"Hoo-wook."

It's not painful even though I'm gasping for breath.

I got in formation with the other guys and ran back from the ledge.

Up to the same location as the electric signboard.

[THANK YOU]

The moment we held hands and lowered our heads, the electronic signboard flashed.

The stage set came down in front of us like a tent coming down, and we disappeared behind the stage.

silence.

“… … .”

“… … Hoo-wook.”

after a moment of silence.

“You worked hard!”

“The costume is ready!”

Backstage became noisy again.

However, I stopped and recalled the scenery of the audience I just saw.

the heat and reaction.

‘Satisfied.’

Only one thing could be predicted.

At today’s concert, I showed a flawless appearance.

“… … .”

I put down the handheld mic and kept staring at it.

Exciting, but not overwhelming.

because it’s not over yet

* * *

Wow!

The big moon clenched both hands tightly.

‘That was great!’

The enormous stage density for 15 minutes, close to the previous medley, was at a level where people's souls could be taken out.

Besides, I didn't even give it a chance.

The moment the song ended, Testa disappeared from the stage.

Like a circus tent hooked down, the device closed again and the stage went completely dark. Like it's all over now.

And on the contrary, the lights came on in the audience seats. It's as if the show is over, so get up.

But no one got up from their seats and no one felt sorry for them.

The same goes for people watching in VR.

because.

'Encore!'

It was a tacit agreement. The big moon moved his hand excitedly. The light of the cheering stick flickered.

For reference, while waiting for this encore, I usually sang fan songs or songs that had a great implicit meaning between singers and fans.

Or maybe it was an event.

but.

'yesterday… I must have done it wrong.'

The event came to a halt due to Moondae Park's sudden absence.

'I heard that they originally decided to sing only the first verse of the latest fan song without accompaniment.'

And today, as if the situation was suddenly settled, it seemed that no special event was planned.

Only sporadic encores and applause chanting the names of the members remained.

'… sorry.'

It seemed to be because of himself.

"… … ."

Keundal calmed down a bit and waited quietly as he listened to the ringing in the audience.

And when minutes or hours passed.

ridge.

The VCR reminded me of an old hotel lobby.

Aaaaaaaaaaa!!

In the audience seats, the light stick is remotely controlled again and vividly filled with color.

yellow pink blue.

These were Testa's group symbol colors.

and.

[No, are you here again?]

Lee Se-jin's mischievous voice echoes from the VCR.

[What can I do? Our circus has nothing more prepared… … .]

Woo woo woo!

Playful booing and laughter covered the audience.

Then, at the right time, a bright, laughing voice came out of the VCR.

[Ah, the circus is over, but… Shall we watch something fun like us?]

Yes!

[Okay!]

[We will prepare now… Yap!]

The VCR screen returned quickly.

As if watching the history of the hotel, time passed until only the skeleton of the old hotel remained.

And the afternoon arrived.

[It took a while, but it's ready!]

It was the moment when the building that used to be a hotel was revealed under the blue sky.

[I'll go now!]

Lights returned to the stage.

"… !"

stage reappeared.

The colorful background set that embodies the hotel in its place has disappeared. Leaving only the skeleton like a steel frame for the stage.

"Uh uh!"

And before long, the members jump from the center, not from the set.

Aaaaaaa!

With the accompaniment reverberating violently, the members rushed to the protruding stage without hesitation, took their seats, and started the choreography.

A melody everyone will be familiar with.

It is an easy listening song that topped the music charts, and at the same time gave Testa a serious worry.

It is their last active song and fan song.

[The heavy yesterday

seemed like it would never end, and the perfect today

never came.]

Ryu Cheng-wu laughed and sang.

The members move in formation.

[Yes,

even if it’s not perfect,

the end of yesterday, the beginning of today]

The loud live sound echoes through the speakers.

As if it was a lie that the stage was exhausted until just now, the members laughed and ran around using the protruding stage loudly.

Thanks to the live performance, the original song, which was not edited or touched, resonated in people's ears more than the sound source.

And Homma, who was sitting right in front of the protruding stage, realized.

"ah… !!"

The choreography has changed.

No, the behavior has not changed.

However, the formation has changed.

[I turn the page

the guideline shines and the pain becomes the guide]

Sejin Bae's part Originally, Sejin Lee and Yujin Cha were standing in the part where dancers had to assist from both sides.

And when Seon Ah-hyun took a turn next time, instead of a dancer, Ryu Chung-woo took the turn and formed a formation.

'There are no dancers… … .'

Yes.

All the formations of all sections, which originally used dancers according to the assortment, changed to testa.

The stage was completely filled with only Testa.

Like I originally wanted to do this.

Previously, activities were hastily added fan service, and instead of saying that they were not formally planned, they chose to show them directly.

What does formal activity look like?

the stage.

[Let me tempt fate,

struggle

beyond the milestones and crossroads

and go one step further]

The choreography is seamlessly interlocked, and the chorus comes up cool.

"… … ."

Keundal realized that there was a group singing in all directions.

It was as if they were singing a fan song they couldn't sing before, and they felt happy and relieved of the people around them.

He clenched his fists.

And that leads to joy.

[

Beyond the limit until the end of the day!]

The moment Cha Yu-jin's last chorus ends, Park Moon-dae's high-pitched voice echoes through the ceiling.

like pouring it all out.

[Running breathlessly

, stretching out your hands toward the sky more under your feet

in the city center]

The choreography fits tightly, and the formation comes out as if it were bursting, and then angling with plenty of energy. [

I want to live today

even if the stars don’t reach]

Out of breath, Moondae Park laughed instead of crying.

[Don’t sleep

just- dream!]

Amid the exploding firecrackers and cheers.

Testa’s concert ended in great success.

No one knew what kind of repercussions this concert would have.

Chapter 582

If I can’t debut, I’ll get a fatal disease Episode 582 The dream-like concert of Testa is over.

What remains is memories, joy, and… .

data!

“Mmm.”

Ryu Seo-jin, who was a senior in the club of Lee Se-jin and Park Moon-dae’s twin homemaker Ryu Gun-woo, organized the photos he took with the eyes of a hawk.

‘It turned out well.’

Even after the encore was over, Testa continued the encore by receiving requested songs while chatting with the audience several times.

The pictures I took there were very good.

This is because after the set list was over, the members rushed out in all directions, waved hands, talked to each other, and focused on fan service.

– Aaaaaaa!

-this! this! Ah Hyun!

It was a frenzied crucible with smartphones and doll slogan light sticks flying in the air.

Even on both days, I was very lucky to have my seat.

‘The kids kept coming.’

Looking at the clear shot of Liu Chengyu’s abs, she nodded.

It seemed to be of very good quality to be exchanged for shots of Lee Se-jin or Park Mun-dae from other angles.

So, in conclusion, the harvest was good for both concerts.

… … Except for the fact that Park Moon-dae was absent on the first day and there are no pictures of him.

‘It can’t be helped.’

Aren’t people’s lives at stake? Even if I attended the concert, I would have been scolded as a psychopath, but rather I fell into it and helped to save it, so it was the best result.

‘It’s a bit of a drag, but how can it be fixed?’

Twin Hommers clicked their tongues.

It was regretful knowing it, but at the same time, it was quite admirable that on the first day the members barely showed it and led the performance like a professional.

Fans who were worried in reality but were moved by the process of feeling relieved after seeing the members also seemed unusual.

‘I knew Sejin Lee would do that.’

Besides, the post-processing method was also good.

It didn’t just end with a choice between a refund and a VR concert ticket for compensation.

Testa extended the period of the encore concert in Seoul by two days to return after the two-three-month tour, giving the affected audience a preferential ticket for one date.

Of course, the twins also chose VR and priority advance tickets instead of refunds.

‘Does your agency know how to do bad business?’

They didn’t make the fandom feel bad by showing that they were taking advantage of it in order to compensate them, but they didn’t lose money in the long run either.

It was a smart decision, she nodded.

A future-oriented supplement.

With that, the controversy over a member’s absence from the first concert of this tour quickly ended.

but… That wasn’t the end.

Click.

She clicked on the fancam she uploaded and looked down the comments.

as soon as… A video of himself filmed by Park Moon-dae’s solo stage as much as possible.

-Legend

Isn’t it synthetic?

-As

if the spirit of the mountain changed the vocal chords for doing a good deed.

Even fighting over whether or not this was corrected or not, or pointing out that there was no copyright consciousness when it was said that the sound source was extracted, there was a scuffle like a dog.

Aggro is exciting. It was proof of an exciting video.

Yes.

As soon as Park Moon-dae's solo stage was performed at the concert, it became a real-time trend and was mentioned everywhere.

However, there was no related video at the time.

This is because the official VOD video made by streaming has not yet been released.

In addition, all recordings and uploads of streaming videos have been reported for copyright!

-Please video before it volatilizes

in my head

-Thank you… Thank you…

-I don't think there are people who haven't seen it, but no one has seen it once. Even though streaming videos are copyrighted, personal direct cams, which are a gray area where the agency roughly closes their eyes and goes over, did not go down.

Fans frantically pressed and commented on it, and even listened to the popularity ranking.

Even a video that was cut off from her direct cam without permission and posted on other social media as shorts such as ‘Jiri is the main vocalist’ has already exceeded 2 million views.

‘In-heart vendors… .’

Annoyed, she admitted. Those bastards played a part in making non-fans see it.

Of course, it was Park Moon-dae’s song… … Because you did really well.

“… … .”

She likes idols as general entertainers, not because someone is a singer with crazy singing skills.

Nevertheless, Park Moon-dae’s solo stage really made people ignore his taste with overwhelming skills and quality.

‘What the hell did you do?’

the moment the song ends. It was to the point where I could feel the blood I had been holding back running through my whole body.

It was a surprise.

Twin Homma had a hunch.

It must have been more shocking because I didn’t expect it.

So, it was only natural that some fans who went to the scene or watched the stream were full of mulberries and went wild.

-The surprising thing is that this is less than 10% of what I felt when I saw it in person… After all, you have to listen to the song yourself

-No, but it was even more amazing when I saw it on set

ㄴThis is why so-called groupies are such a problem. When people praise you, you have to be grateful .

Will you marry Park Moon-dae?

ㄴEng Moondae is not an adult man, but a 17-year-old

god.

‘There’s a lot of influx of young children.’

According to her preconceived notion, it was usually high-spirited teenagers who would make such radical comments.

Although Testa’s fandom was particularly talkative and lively after 7 years, it seemed strangely that the majority of teenagers had flowed in through this concert.

She also found the inflow passage at once.

‘This is it.’

That is, the ‘video with alternative options’ that Testa turned into a concert promotion was very suitable to the taste of the younger age group.

Honestly, it was a composition that offset this composition with quality and fan spirit, which you might think if you are over your early 20s, but… It must have been a taste sniping for elementary and middle school students who are full of dreams and fantasies.

-Which one should I choose so Eugene can see it? ㅠㅠ Please let me know

└ In the next video, do it twice in the front and once in the back. Then Eugene oppa appears

└Thank you!

When I did it evenly, the kids were completely excited, immersed in it, and attached affection.

It has settled into the fandom.

In the past, twins would have judged it coldly, saying that noisy kids were influxed in without much help in grades accumulated with money.

But now, it was an important year for this group to have a steady influx, and she nodded coldly at the timing.

‘This is how the company can’t think about changing routes or anything else.’

In addition, the influence of the Internet was great for teenagers.

Thanks to them talking so much here and there, the story of Testa’s concert seems to be floating around as a story to kill time here and there, interlocking with the episode of Park Moon-dae’s absence.

[Idols who got drunk after escaping from the concert]

-Here is an idol who couldn’t attend his concert due to unlucky circumstances. This is Testa’s Moondae Park.

– Testa, which has continued to be successful by winning the first place in music charts with their latest song, will hold a concert at Jamsil Main Stadium in Seoul this year. Tens of thousands of spectators were mobilized.

-However, member Park Moon-dae did not show up at the concert without notice. What the hell is going on?

-Surprisingly, he became the last witness to the disappearance… … .

Wetube aggro videos with clumsy AI voices and patched images overflowed.

‘I knew it would be like this.’

But what is surprising is that there are many foreign comments.

‘What kind of Thai subtitles are you supporting for the Factory Rekka theme?’

It’s an automatic translation, but seeing that it supports subtitles in as many as 20 countries, I was really serious about the number of views. The office worker, Homema, also stuck out her tongue.

And as Park Moon-dae served as an entrance to the topic, other stages of the concert were naturally receiving a lot of attention.

The solo stages of other members were also featured in popular videos one after another, and their unique way of organizing the concert also attracted interest.

VR and options.

-They even gave out games and organized concerts

-How much did they spend

However, this was not the only reaction in Korea.

Twin Homma quickly checked the distribution of views.

“I put subtitles on this because the number of overseas views came out earlier.”

Apparently, Testa’s concert became famous among the KPOP fandom.

She went to an account that translates overseas fandom reactions and read a few articles to be more convinced.

-Reviews appeared in other magazines as well. Wow (Translated photo)

In fact, Park Moon-dae's incident only served as a trigger to attract attention.

It is said that the composition of the Testa concert itself was suitable for the taste of the audience and aroused interest.

A circus in a ghost story disguised as a hotel.

The ghost story about the haunted house actually worked well overseas than at home, and the barrier to entry was lower because it was familiar.

In addition, the quality of the optional concert composition and stage set that is difficult to try due to cost and practice time. Because of that, it was very attractive.

And to the praise of those who saw it.

Eventually, this tour itself gained recognition as a content.

-I booked an MD online, I can't wait at all. Please, why do they always come late to Jakarta ;(-The resale price is burdensome, but I think it's worth buying

-Be sure to watch even the streaming

. During the tour, Testa's tour itself became a hot topic.

Even a famous music review magazine in the UK and the United States even came up with a review.

The article on the translation account that Twin Homma confirmed was also about that review.

[Testa Review: Endless surprises and reverses . Same sex; calls for an independent audience]

[★★★★☆]

The

review written in English was symbolic

It was the time when you could actually see Testa in real life, and there were a lot of fans who liked the tour season because there were a lot of fancams of the concert. So, now, a unique phenomenon was happening where the sales of the last hunting album soared.

And to put all of this together , “The level has risen.”

An image attached to Testa.

Overseas.

That was global recognition.

She nodded, saying that it would be worthwhile to pour an enormous amount of capital from stage setting to composition.

…Park Moon-dae’s hard work

“…….” She recalled

the last concert.

Park Moon-dae seemed to shed tears just once at the end of the solo stage.

Even though he was originally a member who boasted a great crybaby batting average every concert. When the members run around doing fan service after the encore, when the members take turns talking one word at a time, when the fans hold an event… ‘I think

one of the three almost cried.

‘ However ,

this time, he only showed a smile from beginning to end while making a daunting expression

at times. I deduced the psychology,

‘Even if I cry at this situation, I can’t ask for sympathy. You look a little weak because it seems like you’re writing.’

It was ambiguous to even apologize. I called 911 to get someone, but I should have declined? No matter how you say it, isn’t the logic strange?

‘sorry. Whatever the reason, it’s my fault… If you do, it just sounds pretentious.’

So it wouldn’t be strange if Park Moon-dae considered that.

But that day, Moondae Park… … .

‘… I might not have even thought of that.’

He just stood at the concert and looked happy. He seemed to be very grateful to his fans.

“… … .”

Ryu Seo-jin, the twin homie, was immersed in sentimentality for a while, and then came to his senses, embarrassed that he was immersed in sentimentality.

anyway… Well, it would have been a good thing if Park Moon-dae was in the right mind!

‘Let’s make corrections or continue.’

She pressed the keyboard busily.

Because it was an important time.

By the way, what was Testa doing on tour at this important time… … .

“This… … New record! You broke the sentence record! It’s the highest note!”

“Oooh!”

“You’re amazing, Moondae!”

… I was in the middle of the best Cleopatra competition with Park Moon-dae!

Chapter 583

If you can't debut, you'll get a fatal disease Episode 583

Cleopatra What is a game?

It is a competitive confrontation by shouting out the contextless sentence "Hello Cleopatra, the world's best potato chips" in a higher and higher voice.

Yes. Not a high pitch, but a high pitch.

that there is no scale.

"However, strictly speaking, I think that you can find a nearby scale and match the accompaniment, and you have musicality because you have a sense of rhythm… ."

"Okay, you are right. Rabin."

… … It does.

If one of the people playing the game has an absolute sense of pitch, this game can also become musical.

Especially if all the guys who participate are in the music industry.

"Oh hey brother. I don't think the sound was even half a step higher right now?"

"What are you talking about! The pig-picking sound you made after Liu Cheng-wu just passed, too!"

“I was a high-pitched pig, though? My older brother is Cleopatra who can’t make high notes? Oh, is it ruined?”

“… … okay? Bring the piano! I will do it again!”

“Ohhhhh!”

So let’s see if we’re like this now… … .

I saw people with the same name attacking each other, and Yujin Cha, who was clapping and cheering, Raebin Kim and Ahyeon Sun moving the electric piano into the living room.

It’s like taking a remake while gambling in a movie.

haha. What a bitch.

“Pi piano is here… !”

“Ohhh!”

And from here, under the leadership of Kim Rae-bin, an over-immersive grand feast in which Cleopatra is shouted out to the notes of the keyboard.

‘I have to take a picture of this and upload it.’

At this point, it’s a fun content.

Take a look at those faces with all their heat and sincerity, and Kim Rae-bin’s face, which became solemn at the same time.

“yes. If you ask me for my judgment… Success!”

“Oooh!”

“Look!”

I thought Bae Se-jin was almost strangling his throat.

So, some fail, some succeed, and the joys and sorrows prevail.

“Cha Yoo-jin failed!”

“Noooooooo!”

For reference, this is a hotel suite.

During the tour, we always decided to gather in a room once a week and live together, but today was the day.

‘I’m glad you asked for a secluded place with good soundproofing…’ .’

The controversy over noise between floors in Testa almost went viral on the Internet. No, if there wasn’t soundproofing in the first place, I wouldn’t have been able to do this far, and I would have been less immersed in it.

‘In that sense, what… I’m enjoying it.’

Of course, the outcome of this game would be the same either way.

“Moondae is next! If you succeed here, Moondaemun University is the final winner… … Will < Azusa > 1st place win the Cleopatra game? The result… … .”

I opened my mouth.

And without inspiration, he recited that nonsensical phrase.

With a note corresponding to the third octave Mi (E5).

“… !”

The moment you end the phrase with the last word ‘chip’.

“… Success!”

“Oooh!”

“Congratulations, Moondae hyung!”

Enthusiasm like fever poured out.

Yes. The conclusion is this.

Even if I go to Moro, in the end, only I will be left.

‘after.’

I shrugged.

If you didn’t know that this would happen while playing with the main vocalist… … .

“huh? Who didn’t know that Moondae would win here?”

“… … .”

“By the way, is anyone curious about how far Moondae can make his voice?”

Flash!

Fists and hands come up here and there.

eyes are shining It’s really burdensome.

“Moondae-hyung’s voice remains, I know!”

“that’s right. Can you play more high notes? I swear by Moondaemundae!”

I’m doing it, but why are you betting?

“Yes… ! me too!”

Why are you accepting it?

Of course I can’t… No, but.

‘I don’t know.’

I shook my head and sat cross-legged on the carpet.

“challenge.”

“Ohhh!”

Ryu Chung-woo came out on his smartphone while Kim Rae-bin was filming.

I went almost all the way to his portable keyboard with a serious high note like a gigantic dolphin.

“Yaaaa!”

“This is a must-see for all real Lovers!! There is no such thing as a giyeoljeon!”

“Awesome!! The sound goes here… .”

I’m happy.

I shook my head and smiled.

“The winning prize is.”

“huh? Where is that?”

“… … .”

Give me at least part-time job as a clown.

I watched Ryu Cheng-wu briefly edit the video, resigned to everything.

“Include Kim Rae-bin’s failures!”

“Then, please also include Cha Yoo-jin’s failure scene!”

Now you two are fighting.

Anyway, we uploaded the video on the Gearco group social media account while chewing on the steak we ordered from room service.

-What the hell

is it

Look at how he doesn’t manage it hahahaha

ㄴHe seems to be better at managing than you who writes swearing at celebrities while working. Oh, I’m sorry if you’re unemployed. but… … .

I kept my eyes open for a while to see the reactions of the people I enjoyed, then narrowed my eyes as I watched the number of shares and likes increase.

‘As expected.’

Recently, the number of followers of the testa account has increased significantly. The range of change was steeper than during the active period.

The same goes for shares and likes.

‘I heard that the Testa Tour has become quite famous.’

It wasn’t just a simple rumor circulating among fans, but there was a real heavy reality.

This wasn’t a one-time aggro that quickly raised awareness. It is really establishing a position and being acknowledged in a meaningful way.

I rubbed my chin.

‘… … After the encore concert, do I have to schedule an additional tour in the US and UK?’

This is because the size of the audience is increased.

Even if you overdo it a little… at the stadium level.

After that, it will be a kind of signal to tall people with heavy hips when they appear on famous European or American programs for certification purposes.

That Testa was at a level where it was okay to receive a cultural medal.

‘I don’t like it very much because it’s close to flunkeyism.’

Still, it was well worth the use.

“hmm.”

I laughed and rubbed the back of my neck.

I didn’t know.

I would never have thought that the tour would go beyond resolving this sudden crisis and come back with results that exceed expectations.

perhaps… I may have been learning slowly for years.

That something unpredictable is not necessarily a bad thing.

‘But let’s not be careless.’

I woke up cool.

The other guys were also playing loosely separately, doing what they wanted to do after the upload was over.

Of course, they also care about each other.

It was like Ryu Cheong-woo talking to Kim Rae-bin, who was still playing the keyboard.

“What are you doing, Rabin?”

“I was in the process of estimating the range based on the notes that Moondae hyung had succeeded in.”

hmm.

Originally, I could make sounds up to 3 octaves, but now seeing Kim Rae-bin pressing… … .

“here.”

3 octaves d.

The tone increased by one.

“Wow, has it grown this far?”

“That’s right!”

For reference, even with the low pitch, I went down one whole note and one semitone more.

I saw Kim Rae-bin’s eyes shining as he looked at me with all kinds of anticipation and excitement.

“I see. Mundae is so great.”

“That’s right!”

“… … .”

burden.

“Your vocal range has changed! No, you’ve expanded! Fuller and more descriptive sound faithfully from low to high pitch without covering the chest voice… … .”

“I get it. thank you.”

“That’s right! Listen! If I were to write the note my brother just uttered on the staff paper… .”

“… … .”

I only heard ‘yes’ three times.

I decided to let Rabin Kim enjoy it.

‘It would be nice if I could help with the composition… .’

I was satisfied that the tour was going smoothly.

Honestly, I expected it from the time I sang at the Seoul concert.

That means the quality of the song has changed somewhere.

Originally, the growth of skills is a cascade.

It was just rare to experience it directly like this by raising my skills in the form of ‘taking’ the stats with the help of the status window.

I quietly guessed.

‘The starting point… … .’

solo stage.

The moment I sang “,” it was clear that the bizarre sense and immersion that I focused solely on singing had a direct impact on my growth.

This is also a fact that has been certified by people around you.

-Hyung's solo stage is really crazy.

It's

a typo.

That came from the big moon, Ryu Gun-woo.

'I'm glad he cheered up.'

The guy said he was very sorry for the damage and apologized sincerely several times.

But he didn't seem frustrated or scared anymore.

And a little more honest.

When I asked to go hiking together on my next vacation, I got a reply like this.

-Thank you bro… .

That was a good sign.

Since then, I have been in constant contact with Big Moon. They talk about every little detail, and sometimes they talk about problems that occurred during the tour.

And about the guy's life.

-that is… I'm contemplating whether to retire after probation is over.

The guy said that he was contemplating quitting his job after properly sorting out the problems he had caused during his absenteeism.

did not dry

It’s not the job you wanted, but the system forcibly gave you status ailments, so you know that it’s a job you got by studying hard.

‘I have a lot of money, but why do I have to suffer from civil complaints and old age?’

If you exchange all your investments in stocks, you will be able to play and eat for the rest of your life without having to get a job.

Even if it’s not that, there’s no pressure because you’ll be able to spend as much time as you want without worrying about making a living until you find something you want to do.

Still, ‘There won’t be any problem if I retire, but think about whether it’s too much of a waste to be tested mentally.’ I was very careful in replying.

I checked the text I sent once again and closed my smartphone with a smile.

Thinking of it as a pleasant day with nothing to worry about.

just that evening.

Big Sejin sneaked up between the guys lying in the living room like camping and whispered.

“Do you know about Moondaemundae?”

what.

“There are two people who filmed our variety shows. With that carrot coin and the PD who filmed the distress situation… < Azusa > writer.”

can you not know

“I know why.”

And a completely unexpected remark fell.

“They say you two are working together.”

“… !?”

The PD’s entertainment corps and < Azusa > writer Ryu Seo-rin are recently eating together and looking at the angle of making a program together.

‘He said he keeps in touch with the PD.’

Big Se-jin sends presents to the officials who got his number every holiday, checks the articles, and keeps in touch if there is something to celebrate.

So, it seems that I received this kind of news via text message from the PD naturally during contact.

“Does this feel like coming to us unconditionally? Ugh, I’m already worried about how much the two of you will eat with our members. I’m worried~”

“… … .”

Sejin Keun, of course, has connections with both the PD and the writer, and is a testament who has taken care of their careers, so he seems confident that he will contact them to work together this time.

Well, that’s why the PD must have sneaked this news out to this guy in the first place.

The problem is.

“You are not like that.”

“What is Mundaemundae?”

“Sejin hyung is filming a drama.”

“… !?”

Keun Se-jin, who had a blank expression for a moment, soon covered his face with one hand.

“Ah ah ah ah ah… .”

Bae Se-jin’s filming for the next season of < Doll Hunter > was just around the corner.

It was only two months of the schedule that was difficult to reach between tours.

– I will make sure there is no hindrance to the tour.

– No one doubts, brother.

It would be quite a murderous schedule just to have a concert right now, but a hellish entertainment created by a PD and writers’ union sooner?

‘I’ll take care of everything while on the plane.’

You’ll be lucky if you don’t fall.

However, if you refuse that variety show, you will have to wait for the next turn for about half a year, and then the synergy with the global momentum that is in full swing is over.

“… … .”

“… … What?”

It seems that the big moon has one more story to talk about.

But after a few days.

-It’s not difficult at all, right?

The PD I met through a video conference on the Gearco laptop exclaimed cheerfully as if there was nothing to be bothered about.

Yes. The producer and writer, who couldn’t bear the schedule to come to the United States by plane, were on a video call with Testa.

And the PD talked about the solution he thought of without hesitation.

-Bae Se-jin, we can also shoot around the drama set~ Then it's definitely time-saving, right?

"… … ."

I turned my head.

"Hyung, is there a filming location?"

Bae Se-jin opened his mouth with a shy face.

"… It's a snowy mountain in Gangwon-do."

"… !!"

snow mountain.

this winter… snow mountain.

'Can not be done.'

I hurriedly opened my mouth.

"If it's a mountain in Gangwon-do, the members have already been there several times… ."

-oh! What is it?

… I was about to say that our reaction would lack freshness because it was a familiar place.

In any case, it was adequately explained.

'There's nothing to talk about Kim Rae-bin's slump.'

It means that while we all camped together to write lyrics and compose, we concentrated without any other complicated schedules.

“The Byeolbyeolgok account also appeared at that time.”

-Hey~ Your enthusiasm is amazing.

Kim Rae-bin also nodded with a flushed face at the sound of admiration from the entertainment PD.

And Ryu Seo-rin raised the corner of her mouth.

– You can do that.

“… … .”

“yes?”

-Let’s camp together until Testa makes an album.

“yes?”

Something like that… Entertainment?

‘I think it’s going to be dog fun.’

Isn’t there nothing to stimulate?

I looked at this person hiding his eyes, wondering if he had run out of senses, but Ryu Cheng-wu was already calmly raising his voice as if he was perplexed.

“ah… We’ve already made all the songs for our next album.”

It means no bullshit.

No, what kind of entertainment is making the next album in the first place? Either it’s a dog-no-jam, or the quality of the album is ruined because it’s fun.

-That’s not it… Ha I misunderstood the example.

On the screen, Ryu Seo-rin taps the corner of her mouth with a pen.

-CM song.

“… … ?”

– Testa makes CM songs for company products that will pay the most money by putting an auction between program PPLs.

“… … .”

On the next screen, the PD gives a standing ovation.

– Ohhh! It must be fun, right?

crazy guys

But it wasn’t over.

-But I can’t get out of there until it’s finished.

“yes?”

-It is impossible to descend until the advertiser is satisfied.

“… … .”

– It’s going to be fun, right?

Hell has arrived.

Chapter 584

Episode 584: If you don't debut, you'll catch a disease that will kill you.

Bae Se-jin quietly looked down at the script in his hand.

Script for Season 2.

The script, which has already been read and recited dozens or hundreds of times, so that you can clearly picture it in your voice, is unfolded with all kinds of corrections and notes.

I didn't do it alone.

'…I received a lot of help.'

Until this was completed, there were members who would secretly come and interfere as long as they had the script.

He recalled Liu Chengwu's words that started it all.

-I see. So, do you think it would be easier to plan if there was a counterpart role?

Receive lines from the script's counterpart.

In the early days of his childhood, his mother did it for him occasionally, and after that he could do it on his own without anyone else….

However, instead of hanging up coldly and saying, 'You are actually stealing my time,' Bae Se-jin just let the members recite their lines.

It was a little embarrassing, but it was fun.

‘This… actually has nothing to do with group activities.’

This wasn’t a stage performance or song production, or at least it wasn’t idol Bae Se-jin’s solo activity.

Even though it was strictly actor Bae Se-jin’s personal work, the members’ interference was purely a matter of friendliness or favor.

-Well, hehe, if you say yes… thank you.

So he happily accepted the favor (even though he didn’t show it).

I thought that if I didn’t have enough time, I could just take a break later.

But it was unexpectedly helpful.

‘It wasn’t a waste of time.’

Hearing the thoughts of someone with a different way of thinking than my own allowed me to look at the script from a more diverse perspective.

It is a story that Bae Se-jin would not have known if he had read it alone, looking into and telling a story from a blind spot beyond his thoughts.

So Bae Se-jin slightly modified his interpretation of his role….

“Mr. Sejin.”

“…!”

Bae Se-jin suddenly woke up from his thoughts.

This is the filming location.

“It’s Sejin’s turn.”

“yes.”

He put down the script and stood up when the manager called him.

My eyes shined.

‘Let’s do it right.’

This is Seolsan Mountain, Gangwon-do.

Season 2. It was his first filming.

The role played by Bae Se-jin, Jeong Yi-sol.

He is a medical student with antisocial personality disorder and a psychopath who lacks empathy.

He is trapped in a strange high-rise building, and among people trying to escape, he carries out inhumane murders without hesitation, using food as an absolute value.

Even the main character was killed without any hesitation.

However, what Jeong Yi-sol failed to calculate is that the moment the protagonist dies, he returns to the past, to the beginning of the play.

So, the moment season 2 starts.

-Heo Eok,

The protagonist, who returns to the past, kills Jeong Yi-sol as soon as he meets her.

Bae Se-jin has already filmed that scene. This is thanks to the fact that during the filming of Season 1, we had already filmed up to that point in order to connect the actors’ emotions.

So, in Season 2, it is easy to think that he, who played the already dead Jeong Yi-sol, will not appear much in the drama, but…

In fact, Bae Se-jin’s role does not end there.

widely.

A signal to start filming.

The moment the short sound of the slate stops, I forget my filming equipment.

….

Jeong Yi-sol opened her mouth.

“hi.”

“…!”

He is peacefully crossing his legs on the simple chair he is sitting on.

In his hand was a medical questionnaire held by a clip, and he was wearing a white robe.

What we face is the main character of this play.

And this place where they are…

Whiuuuuu….

It is a desolate snowy mountain with endless white snow and cold winds.

The protagonist asks with a trembling voice.

“what’s this.”

Jeong Yi-sol answers casually.

“Your image.”

“….”

Yes.

This Jeong Yi-sol is not a real character in the play.

When the main character faints, falls asleep, or is pushed into an extreme situation. In other words, it was the protagonist's delusion that appeared in his head when he was unconscious.

"Why are you here!"

"Maybe I am your trauma. Other than that, I can't use any proper terminology. "Because I am a product of your imagination."

So, the two people sit facing each other on simple chairs in the bleak snowy mountain landscape of midwinter.

It's like receiving psychological counseling.

And it evaluates the protagonist's actions one by one and reveals his hidden thoughts.

-It was a hasty decision to bring in Myunghee Lee as a colleague. He died at a convenience store last time, but will he survive longer this time?

-Burns to lower abdomen, penetrating wound to right shoulder, fracture to left ankle. You need a real doctor now, not a psychologist.

-You left Myunghee Lee at the security room. There is no difference between your choice and the choice I made.

The imagined landscape is not always a snowy mountain. The main character sees hallucinations even in reality. In that case, he will sit right next to you and have a conversation.

Sometimes it causes pain, sometimes it brings calm, and sometimes… surprisingly, it brings comfort.

-…Even if I had chosen the other side, the situation wouldn't have been any better.

However, the meaning of all words changes depending on the tone.

In fact, Bae Se-jin planned to embody this imaginary character with a more aggressive and evil feel than the original Jeong Yi-sol.

‘It’s even more so because it’s my imagination.’

This is because I thought it would be natural for Jeong Yi-sol to be depicted as a more fearful and scary person, as it was in the head of the main character who was directly murdered.

However, when rehearsing the script for this part, the opinions expressed by the members who were in charge of the lines for the protagonist, who was playing the opposite role, were slightly different.

Bae Se-jin, who was interested in that, asked each person’s opinion more seriously.

To one person in particular.

-Well, well… then. Just my opinion,

Seon Ah-hyun.

Starting from the album, he was playing a somewhat mysterious and eerie figure in the group’s worldview.

Somewhere like Jeong Yi-sol.

Maybe that’s why I thought more deeply about the psychological state of the main character and Jeong Yi-sol.

-If this character is the protagonist’s imagination… wouldn’t he be more human? I think that wish, ‘If Jeong Yi-sol was a good person’, would have been reflected… More than anything…

One final word.

-Well, the main character… killed Jeong Yi-sol.

-…!

-I don’t think there was any guilt. Because the main character is a good person…

Bae Se-jin thought quite deeply.

And in response to his agony, Park Mun-dae gave simple advice.

-Either way, if your brother plays it, there will be enough probability. Because my brother is an expert.

-But if I had to ask,…

Opinions from different angles.

-I think people will like it better.

-ah…!

It’s fun to see that Jeong Yi-sol is a bit more friendly!

This is what the viewer sees from outside the play.

-…good. thank you.

That’s why Jeong Yi-sol appears like this in the protagonist’s mental world.

It tells a cold and cruel story, but makes it seem slightly shaken by the protagonist’s pain.

As time goes on, the viewer becomes slightly more curious or confused as to whether he is being kind or not.

‘For me too, this episode is more fun to act in…’

In fact, a character like Jeong Yi-sol, who only focuses on survival efficiency without any empathy, was not Bae Se-jin’s taste at all.

So, it seems like he is regaining some sympathy and sympathy for the main character… A subtle change in Jeong Yi-sol in this world of images.

‘Even though it is a fake imagined by the protagonist.’

I was kind of looking forward to acting in this.

Jeong Yi-sol, created through the heart of Bae Se-jin.

He now raised his head and looked at the protagonist who was still in a state of panic.

“My imagination? Dream… Is this a dream?”

“Think whatever you want. now….”

Jeong Yi-sol pressed the ballpoint pen.

“It’s time to wake up.”

“ah….”

The main character fell down on the snow.

Jeong Yi-sol did not pay attention.

Cut!!

In that way, Bae Se-jin’s first scene of this season was completely OK.

“Oh, I love it! Especially here, it’s best not to pay attention. Strangely, I really like it aesthetically.”

The director muttered in satisfaction, and those around him happily organized their filming equipment.

Even in the filming that took place afterward, Bae Se-jin never once received an NG sign.

However, everyone involved on set realized this.

Bae Se-jin did not pour in ad-libs that were not in the script.

However, in the tone of voice, movement, and gaze… room was being given to Jeong Yi-sol's acting.

Client.

towards the protagonist.

"…Our Lee Sol's character is changing little by little?"

"yes. …I think that's more attractive."

"Uh oh. that's right. Just do it. "Do what Mr. Sejin thought."

The director immediately confirmed.

Despite his meticulous character composition and excellence in capturing delicate moments, on set he is impressed and tongue-tied, but not shocked.

Surprise occurs when something unexpected happens. That's for people with a bad reputation.

However, when a person who was originally crazy good performs crazy good again, instead of surprise, one more layer of trust is built up.

'A true genius is a genius.'

like this.

"It was really… really good."

"…thank you."

After filming. Bae Se-jin accepted a warm decaf Americano and knew what was filmed before even watching it.

'…You must have done well.'

A soft and tight feeling of satisfaction bloomed in my heart.

After such faithful filming.

“Sejin senior!”

“…Ah yes.”

“Today, we went to a good restaurant in Gangwon-do and had a company dinner… It’s a pity you couldn’t come, really. “I heard you have a schedule.”

The actor playing the main character asked in a sociable and humorous manner.

Bae Se-jin answered a little awkwardly, but quite forcefully.

“Yes… there is a group photo shoot nearby. “I can’t help it because I will join right away.”

“Ah… Wow, then I guess the Testa people are nearby right now?”

“yes.”

If it had been Bae Se-jin before, he would have looked at me in shock and wondered why he was talking to me with a face like, ‘What are your intentions?’ But that’s not the case anymore.

On the contrary, he was a little excited at the thought that he had successfully timed it well, and didn’t he enjoy light small talk with the other actors until the manager arrived?

“Hey, can I get Ryu Cheong-woo’s autograph? “I’ve been a fan of him since he was a member of the national team…”

“…I’ll go and ask right away today.”

“Oh, thank you!”

Bae Se-jin was satisfied with her improved sociability.

And when I glanced, I saw the manager coming from over there.

‘Finally moving…’

But the manager was not alone.

He and a production company employee were having a conversation.

And when he makes eye contact with Bae Se-jin, he smiles and says,

“Sejin, wait a minute.”

“…?”

“We had this conversation…”

So, after hearing some unexpected news, Bae Se-jin quickly headed to the mountain cabin, which was 20 minutes away!

My heart was pounding.

‘Everyone is probably taking pictures in advance!’

What happened in the half a day he was gone?

Maybe he had already narrowly voted for three or four candidates, such as CM Song.

Bae Se-jin actually realized that he did not contribute much to the team’s composition….

‘…But still, if only there was a little bit of lyric writing!’

Everyone will be happy if you participate diligently from now on and tell them that your advice was a great help to the filming….

Thinking like that, he started walking excitedly as soon as he got out of the car.

however.

“…What is that you…?”

In the yard, I meet Park Mun-dae, his face covered in soot and scruffy!

* * *

“A lot has happened.”

“….”

Park Moon-dae guided Bae Se-jin into the mountain cabin. At the same time, he is moving around while looking around, as if he is on guard for fear that the production crew will jump out from somewhere.

There is so much tension and resignation in one’s body that one would think it has been about a week since the outbreak of the zombie outbreak.

‘Well, what is it?’

“What’s going on?”

“Something… happened.”

It was simple.

Here, Testa received all food, clothing, and shelter, and was not only comfortable and happy about making CM songs.

“Well, now that I know, I have to live my life on my own….”

“….”

Let’s do our own work!

“But they said that every time a CM song is passed, they will give us pocket money and let us go out into the city… Until then, they say we will be caught like a thief.”

“….”

Well, they say it was okay up to that point. Whether it was cooking, cleaning, or any hard work, everyone did it pretty well.

It wasn’t difficult to compose music while living a simple, natural life.

but….

“It wasn’t up to us to do that job.”

Through the game led by the production team, lots were drawn and roles were distributed according to each person’s rank.

And the result is….

“Seon Ah-hyun cooks…?”

“….”

“Park Moon-dae… chopping firewood?”

So it happened.

Bae Se-jin broke into a cold sweat.

In the meantime, Park Mun-dae showed off what he was carefully hiding behind his work gloves.

Foil oozing soot.

“I’m sneaking out to get some roasted sweet potatoes. “The production crew hasn’t found out yet.”

“…You’re talking to a camera right now?!”

“I bought everything.”

The camera directors gave their thumbs up. It was the power of wood-fired roasted sweet potatoes.

“….”

Bae Se-jin was speechless for a moment!

But he couldn’t lose for long.

“All of the other members.”

“…?”

“Cha Yu-jin, Lee Se-jin, and Ryu Cheong-woo. These three are a hunting team. “For now, you just need to know that.”

Park Mun-dae took another step.

Bae Se-jin is in confusion!

Buy, hunt?

No, in the first place.

“What about composition?”

“We haven’t even started yet.”

Bae Se-jin was shocked by those words for a moment, but when he heard the word composition, one of the members immediately came to mind.

One person who still hasn’t come out of Park Moon-dae’s mouth!

The man who produced each of Testa’s albums!

“So, what about Raebin Kim? Ravin composed the music….”

“…??”

Moon-Dae Park explained.

“Because I’m the youngest, it’s called kkakdugi.”

“….”

“It’s a role where you don’t have to do anything.”

Raebin Kim sealed!

“Well, then who composes the music?”

“Brother.”

“….”

Me?

“yes. My brother. “The remaining swallows were the main producers.”

Bae Se-jin froze in his sudden position.

Park Mun-dae, who was tired from chopping firewood in the furnace attached to the snowy mountain, said solemnly as he held out a roasted sweet potato.

“If you understand, let’s get started. I’m currently 3 songs behind… but he said if he starts, everyone can participate. Oh, except Ravin.”

“….”

“I have to finish one song sketch today in order to meet the labor quota… no, I think I can meet the deadline.”

Bae Se-jin hesitated, unable to accept the roasted sweet potatoes, and eventually opened his mouth, feeling like he wanted to close his eyes.

“Hey… it’s not 3 songs.”

“…?”

“Four songs.”

Bae Se-jin avoided his eyes.

Recalling what the production company employee said earlier.

“Wow, our drama production company said it would be fun and requested an additional auction from the production team… and added PPL.”

“….”

Testa labor list updated.

CM song… no, OST added.
